Crew Believed Lost As Ships Collide In Gulf

NEW ORLEANS — (AP) — Two tankers collided in the Gulf of Mexico about 200 miles south of Morgan City, La., early today and one was believed "lost with all hands."

The other was reported afire fore and aft with her first mate dead and a number of the crew badly burned.

The lost vessel was tentatively identified by the Coast Guard as the "Gator," a type T-2 tanker that normally carries a crew of 35 men. It was not immediately known to whom she belonged.

The burning vessel was the Esso Suez, one of the new super-tankers of the Esso Standard Oil Co.

A Coast Guard plane reported at 9:15 a.m. (CST) that it was over the scene of the collision. It reported it could see the Esso Suez ablaze but there was no sign of the other vessel.

The Coast Guard said the Esso Suez radiocoded, "struck tanker and apparently all hands were lost."

The collision occurred about 5 a.m. (CST), the Coast Guard said.

The Coast Guard said the Esso Suez reported that although it was afire it was not in immediate danger of sinking.

The Coast Guard pinpointed the location of the collision at latitude 26.18 north; longitude 91.27 west.

The Coast Guard said it did not have the name of the chief mate of the Esso Suez.

A Coast Guard PBY, a flying boat, was sent from Corpus Christi, and another flying boat, a P-4M, with a doctor aboard was also sent from there.

The cutter Tampa of Mobile and Triton of Port Isabel, Tex., were also en route to the scene.

At Baton Rouge, La., the Marine Department of Esso Standard Oil Co. under which the Esso Suez operates, said it had no information except that the Esso Suez was in trouble in the Gulf.

In New York, the Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey said the Esso Suez normally carries about 48 men. The vessel was described as a "super tanker" of 26,500 tons, capable of carrying 9,000,000 gallons of oil.

She was launched Feb. 1, 1949 at the Newport News Shipbuilding and Drydock Co., is 628 feet long, over 42 feet wide and draws 31 feet of water.

Seven Percent Cut Recommended For Interior Budget

WASHINGTON — (AP) — A seven percent cut in the Interior Department's budget for the fiscal year 1952 was recommended today by the House Appropriations committee.

It was the largest percentage cut recommended in the three departmental bills for fiscal 1952 sent to the House floor so far this year.

The committee approved $520,061,500 of the $559,286,000 requested by President Truman, the recommended allotment being $54,619,325 less than funds provided the department for the present year.

The largest single cut was in funds of the department's reclamation bureau, which wanted $252,075,000 for the fiscal year beginning July, and was given $233,475,000.

All the recommendations are subject to House action when the bill financing the department comes up for debate next week.

In the two appropriations measures previously passed by the House, the budget for the Treasury and Post Office Departments reduced 13 percent for the Labor Department and Federal Security Agency 3.5 percent.

The committee recommended inclusion in the pending bill of a provision permanently setting aside 10 percent of the federal excise tax on fishing tackle for assistance to states and territories in developing better methods of fish management.

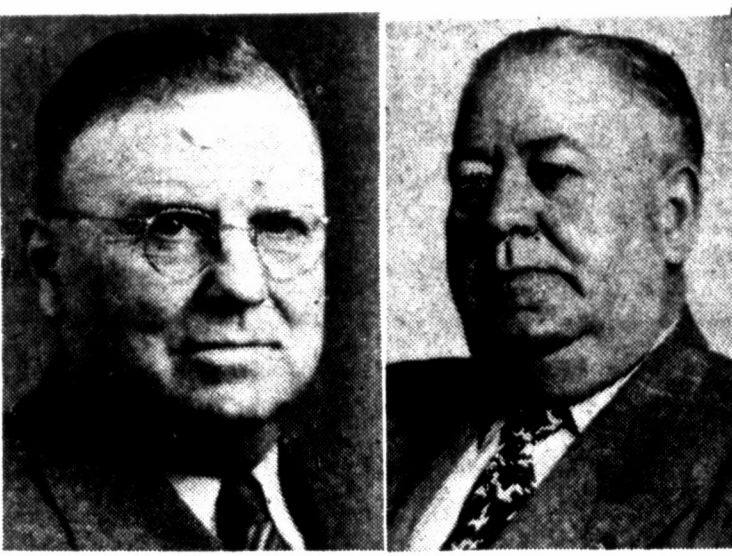

Candidate Sues College Paper

HOUSTON — (AP) — Olen T. Jones Jr., an unsuccessful candidate for the state legislature last year, has filed a libel suit against the University of Houston and its board of regents.

The suit filed yesterday with District Clerk J. W. Mills, Jones asked $75,000 actual damages and $150,000 exemplary damages.

The petition contends that an article published in the Cougar, University of Houston student weekly newspaper, on July 8, 1950, contained "wholly fictitious and untrue" statements about Jones' candidacy.

VILLAGE FIRED UPON — DAMASCUS — (AP) — A Syrian army spokesman said Israeli troops supported by two steamboats operating on Lake Tiberias (Sea of Galilee) opened fire early today on the Arab village of Nub, southeast of the lake, but were driven off.

Stubborn Reds Hurl Two Counter Blows

TOKYO — (AP) — Stubborn rearguard Communists today hurled two counterattacks against allied units closing on Chorwon, presumed Red base.

An estimated number of Reds attacked American troops eight miles southeast of Chorwon. The fight raged into late afternoon.

About 200 Reds hit allied lines in the same area Friday morning but were dispersed by artillery within 15 minutes.

Allied patrols were reported fighting strong Red units Friday night at several other points north of the front.

Doughboys wielding flame-throwers against Red outposts burned a path for tanks which moved up within gun range of Chorwon.

United Nations tank-infantry column captured a hill one mile north of Hwachon Reservoir's east tip after a four-hour fire fight with 300 Reds.

The allied column hit the stubborn pocket of Red Koreans Friday morning. Heavy air and artillery attacks softened the Communists just before the column rushed the hill.

Patrols easily dispersed a Red force northwest of Yangju. Artillery killed an estimated 50 Communist troops near the reservoir's north bank.

Youngster Confesses To Nine Thefts Following Wild Chase

The wild chase of a confessed city thief by the sheriff's department late Thursday night culminated a few hours later in the solution of five recent car thefts and four house burglaries when a 15-year-old Pampa boy signed a statement of admission for Sheriff R. H. Jordan.

Jordan reported this morning that he and Chief Deputy Shirley Nichols received word of a car stolen from Rupert Orr, 404 N. Hill, shortly after 8:30 p.m. Prowling the city for about an hour, they found the car standing in the Lewis and Comer Service Station, 924 Alcock, being filled with gasoline.

Nichols jumped from the sheriff's car and ran over to the stolen car. The youth, spotting the officers, started the stolen car as a girl companion allegedly locked the door to keep Nichols from opening it. However, Nichols hung to the door handle as the car drove away, but had to let go after being dragged about 35 feet.

That started the chase that wound up on S. Hobart near Judge Parker made of the case.

Rogers Praises Mac's Speech; Others Follow

Pampa's Rep. Walter Rogers last night issued praise for Gen. Douglas MacArthur following the general's dramatic speech before the joint session of Congress yesterday.

"I'm glad he went into the details he did," said the Panhandle representative. Previously, Rogers had intimated the deposed Far Eastern chief had created a facts on foreign policy which should be revealed to the nation.

"I hope he will enlarge upon many of the points he made when he appears before the committees," Rogers didn't reveal the specific points he had in mind.

The majority of Texas' senators and representatives followed Rogers' views on the speech, according to Associated Press reports.

Several suggested Congress would do well to consider the hero-general's advice in acting on Asiatic policy matters.

"A superb address," commented Senator Lyndon Johnson. He said all the MacArthur proposals were certain to get full congressional consideration.

"It was a comprehensive speech and quite interesting," said Senator Tom Connally. "It touched on a great many aspects of the Pacific situation."

One Texas congressman, Rep. George Mahon, of Colorado City disagreed with the general on one point.

"If the general said what I understood him to say, that the joint chiefs of staff agree with him, he is in error," said Mahon.

The wyes of the House Appropriations subcommittee for the armed forces, "They have repeatedly said before my committee that they do not agree that we should bomb Manchurian air bases and support Chiang Kai-shek in an invasion of China."

He added however that the joint chiefs "have admitted, that they'll have to consider such action if Red China's air force comes, in strength, into the fight."

Rep. John E. Lyle of Corpus Christi, a World War II veteran, said, "if MacArthur is right, and I have no reason to think otherwise, those responsible for the situation in Korea today are guilty of negligence which has resulted in the slaughter of young Americans, needlessly and shamelessly."

"Now a full investigation is mandatory," Rep. Olin Teague, World War I veteran from College Station said it was obvious from the general's speech "that we have not had the facts."

"If there was ever a time our people should be told the facts, it is now," the former Army colonel said.

"If we are to resolve this issue, it will have to be based on a complete and unbiased picture of the situation irrespective of the personalities involved," Teague concluded.

Other comments: Rep. Clark Fisher, San Angelo — "the administration would do well to ponder the advice of this man on a subject he knows something about."

Rep. J. H. Combs, Beaumont — "It deserves the thoughtful study and analysis of all Americans." (See ROGERS, Page 2)

Aluminum Ban Lifted

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government today lifted its May aluminum ban on making more than 200 civilian products. It ordered instead a 50 percent cut in use of the metal during the war.

In another order, the National Production Authority (NPA) put plastic type nylon under allocation beginning June 1.

This does not apply to textile nylon from which nylon hose and other wearing apparel are manufactured, but does apply to the nylon used in making paint brushes, ledes and various industrial parts.

General's Speech Fires Calls For Showdown

'Welcome Home' Ovation Given General In New York

NEW YORK — (AP) — A wild "welcome home" ovation was given Gen. Douglas MacArthur today as he toured New York's gaily decorated streets in a hero's ticker-tape parade.

Cheering throngs greeted him from the moment he drove out of his hotel driveway in a big open automobile at 10:06 a.m. (CST).

Police estimated that 5,000,000 persons would see him before the three-hour procession ended—the largest crowd ever in the history of New York official receptions.

The weather was perfect—sunny and cool. The general, smiling and waving, wore his familiar crushed officers cap with his "scrambled eggs" visor and a long army overcoat. Seated beside him was Mayor Vincent R. Impellitteri in a blue topcoat and a gray homburg hat.

Also in the car were Grover A. Whalen, the city's official greeter, and Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, the general's aide.

A throng gathered outside the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel burst into cheering when the general's automobile appeared from the hotel's underground garage.

Shouts of "hi, General!" could be heard.

The wyes of the general and the mayor rode in a second car. The general's 13-year-old son, Arthur, rode with his mother.

Headed by 86 motorcycle police, the 50-car motorcade turned north on Park Avenue for Central Park where thousands of school children were waiting to shake a welcome.

Tom paper showered from buildings along the normally-staid upper East Side district between the hotel and the park.

"Come on, MacArthur, save America," shouted one spectator whose strong voice echoed above the roars of the crowd.

Sidewalks along Park Avenue were packed seven and eight deep.

The general, seated in the right seat, waved a gloved hand at the noisy acclaim.

"Hey general, hey general," shouted excited youngsters.

Mrs. MacArthur wore a maroon woolen dress with a matching small-brimmed hat, a short black sealskin jacket, and black suede gloves. Her costume was set off by small pearl and diamond earrings and a corsage of two white orchids.

Mrs. Impellitteri wore a pink coat, with a purple orchid on the left shoulder.

Sitting between the two women was the MacArthur's son, Arthur, 13. He was happy with type baseball glove presented by the Impellitteris.

During a momentary halt in the procession just after the cars emerged from the hotel, reporters crowded about the lead automobiles.

Mrs. MacArthur appeared rested from her busy schedule yesterday in Washington and was smiling.

"Will you be glad when all of this is over?" a reporter asked. "Oh, no, it's over," Mrs. MacArthur said. "I'm enjoying it."

She waved a dainty white handkerchief toward the crowd. She said she planned a shopping tour when "I get my breath."

Asked if she enjoyed seeing America again, Mrs. MacArthur said: "Oh, who wouldn't if you were away 14 years. It is hard to realize."

Mac Insists Chiefs Have Shared Views

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Gen. Douglas MacArthur's claim that the joint chiefs of staff once shared his views on Korean war strategy fired demands in Congress today for a policy showdown with the military high command.

The 71-year-old general of the Army had gone on to New York, there to receive the nation's biggest welcome home, but he left behind him a capital torn with the bitter controversy of a decade.

Asked if MacArthur could provide proof of his remarks, the officer replied:

"Of course, that will be the easiest part of it." He added: "The big battle will come when he appears before the Senate Armed Services Committee to bring out the details."

Fight To Finish Is Indicated For Mac And Administration

WASHINGTON — (AP) — It is a fight to the finish to demonstrate that in developing his own policy of limited war, Gen. Douglas MacArthur and the Truman administration are in sticking to that policy.

The President has acted on the policy, including atomic war, military advisers — the joint chiefs of staff.

On both these points the opinions of military men are expected to carry great weight. The President therefore is due to rely heavily on the testimony before congressional committees of Secretary of Defense Marshall (See FIGHT, Page 2)

He is a member of the general advisory committee of the Atomic Energy Commission.

Mr. Truman wrote Dr. Buckley he wanted his committee available to provide "independent advice on scientific matters especially as regards the objectives of federal agencies engaged in research of defense significance, including relevant foreign relations and intelligence matters" as well as on:

1. Progress being made on current research problems of defense significance.

2. Plans and methods "for the implementation of scientific effort for defense."

The views of the country's scientific community on research of defense significance.

The President said the existing government setup does not provide "adequate liaison among the agencies" on scientific developments or between the agencies and Wilson's office.

U. S. Said Agreed To Briton Naming

LONDON — (AP) — British officials said today that the United States has agreed that a Briton should hold the top Mediterranean naval command post for the Atlantic treaty forces.

This was good news to the British, whose pride has been hurt by appointment of an American admiral as supreme naval commander.

U. S. Adm. Robert Carney had been promised the post as supreme allied commander of the Mediterranean, but the job will now go to a Briton, probably Adm. Sir John Edwisten, the officials said.

Last night the House of Commons voted down 291 to 280 an attempt by Winston Churchill to reverse Britain's share in the Atlantic Pact's top naval command.

The general's speech made clear what I said last week when the President dismissed him, that the cure for the situation is in the formulation and prosecution of a definite policy in Asia."

Rep. W. R. (Bob) Poage of Wash. described the general's talk as a dramatic speech. "I was gratified that some of the loud-voiced against appeasement and surrender of Formosa," Poage said.

Rep. Ken Regan, Big Spring, commented: "his speech didn't seem to agree fully with views of General Bradley regarding the joint chiefs of staff, but regard- less of who is correct, I hope peace — to build the new chapel."

Honor Guard Stands Beside Vandenberg

GRAND RAPIDS, Mich. — An honor guard stood at the head of Sen. Arthur Vandenberg today as his home city and world and nation mourned him.

U. S. leaders will be here tomorrow at funeral services for the Michigan Republican who helped establish the United Nations and championed an "unperturbed" foreign policy for this country.

The services are set for 2 p.m. in the new chapel of the Park Congregational Church that Vandenberg helped build.

In Washington, as well as Michigan, flags flew at half staff for the 67-year-old senator. He died Wednesday night after a long illness.

Vandenberg's casket was placed in a funeral home last night. Immediately long lines of mourners started filing past. The body will lie in state at the church tomorrow from 10 a.m. until the funeral hour.

The funeral service will be conducted by Dr. Edward Archibald Thompson, pastor of the Park Church. Vandenberg gave the church $10,000 — an award he won from a national magazine for his contribution to world peace — to build the new chapel.

acted to amplify — that "the question of General MacArthur's relief is primarily a political one." He added, "I am a military man."

Of MacArthur's statement he thought the joint chiefs had seen eye to eye with him. Senator Kerr (D-Ore.) said "I do not believe that statement. Appear- ing last night on a radio forum, Kerr said the general should explain why, if he believes that the joint chiefs recommended his removal."

Senators Long (D-La.) and Hunt (D-Wyo.) said the joint chiefs' position must be cleared up immediately. Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) indicated it would be investigated when a delayed inquiry begins into Far Eastern military and foreign policies.

But Long said the statement must not be left to lie unanswered until MacArthur comes back to Washington, probably late in the month, for an appearance before the group.

Rep. Mahon (D-Tex.), chairman of the House Military Appropriations subcommittee, challenged MacArthur's contention that the joint chiefs agree with the five-star general's views.

"He is in error," Mahon said. "The joint chiefs repeatedly have said before my committee that they do not agree that we should support Chiang Kai-shek in an invasion of China."

"They have admitted, however, that they'll have to consider such action if Red China air force comes in at such time the fight," Mahon said. "I am a military man."

It was an all-out attack on the Truman administration's home command blasted not only at what he called "blind" efforts to appease Red China and Russia but at "the internal subversion and corruption and detailed registration" he said are threaten- ing American life.

French Foreign Legion Not Quite What It Seems In Films

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (P) — Lately I've found that technical advisors are more interesting than actors. I hope the screen actors guild doesn't get mad at me for saying that, but I must confess it's true. You'll see what I mean when I introduce you to the latest technical advisor I've met — Lt. Louis Van den Ecker.

He is a man with a rugged face and a European accent (he's a native of Alsace). He advises on all kinds of historical pictures, from "The Life of Emile Zola" to "Anna and the King of Siam." But his specialty is the French Foreign Legion. He was a member of the legion from 1908 to 1915 and he says that it's not quite the same as it is presented in the movies.

"The films often show the legion as full of renegades and criminals," he observed. "That isn't true. If a criminal tried to gain entrance into the legion, he wouldn't be allowed in. Or if he did get in, he would soon be found out. Then he would be dismissed, and two rangers would be waiting to arrest him outside the gate.

"The foreign legion gets most of its men because of world conditions. They are mostly men seeking escape for political reasons. By studying the nationalities in the legion over the years, you can see the history of the world. For instance, after the Russian revolution, many Russians joined. After Germany was defeated in the first war, it was the Germans.

"Generally, the Germans make up 64 percent of the legion. There have been very few British or Americans, despite what you see in the movies. During my time, I knew of only one from the Americas, and he was an Argentine."

Van den Ecker often hears from would-be actors who want to get into foreign legion films. They say they are Frenchmen and have served in the legion. He dismissed them immediately.

"There are no Frenchmen in the foreign legion," he explained, "although a few might get in by claiming they are Swiss."

The technical advisor added that he always objects when film makers try to portray legion officers as sadistic.

"The legion is not run by beatings," he said. "It is more likely that a soldier would hit an officer than vice versa. The officers do not gain obedience by their fists, but by engendering a camaraderie. I try to have fight scenes in which the soldier and officer shake off their uniforms and settle their differences on an even basis."

Van den Ecker has been advisor on 70 films, from the original "Beau Geste" to the recent "Abbott and Costello in the Foreign Legion." ("About all I did on that one was show the soldiers how to line up," he admitted. "They weren't too interested in accuracy.") I asked him why the movies have dwelt so much on the legion.

"I guess because there seems to be a lot of glamor about it," he opined. "And also there is dramatic value in throwing so many nationalities together."

He often hears from legionaires who have criticisms of his movies. One sharp-eyed observer complained that a film showed troops riding two-humped camels, native to Asia.

"We tried to hide the other hump," Van Den Ecker explained. "We couldn't get enough dromedaries."

Castor Bean
Makes Debut
This Year

By OVID A. MARTIN
Associated Press Farm Writer
WASHINGTON — (P) — The castor bean will make its debut this year as an important cash crop in the United States.

The government is encouraging large-scale production of castor beans because of military need for the oil processed from them.

"Castor oil is in great demand as a lubricating oil for military planes, particularly jet planes. Quick drying, it is also used in protective containers.

The United States has depended largely upon Brazil for castor oil, but Brazilian supplies will not cover increasing needs.

Agriculture Department plans call for the planting of about 20,000 acres on irrigated land in Arizona and California, 4,000 acres of irrigated land in Oklahoma and 52,000 acres of non-irrigated land in Oklahoma and Texas.

To encourage plantings the department will enter contracts with farmers for purchase of their beans, thus assuring the grower of a ready market even before his land is plowed.

In addition the government will help supply farmers with harvesting machinery and technical guidance in planting, cultivation and general care of the crop.

The castor bean program is being undertaken at the behest of the munitions board, a government agency charged with obtaining supplies of strategic materials.

Supplies of castor oil already are inadequate to meet the country's civilian and military needs. The government has set up restrictions on its use and limits on how much any person or firm may hold.

No reduction has been made in the use of the oil for medical purposes.

Meat Prices Unchanged

(By The Associated Press)
Retail meat prices held unchanged at selling levels this week. Eggs were up one to four cents a dozen in many places, poultry and dairy products were steady and a few fresh vegetables and citrus fruits prices moved a little higher.

Several sources at both the retail and wholesale level reported that consumer buying of meat picked up after a weeks-long lag blamed mostly on price resistance.

They said cooler weather in many sections of the country apparently whetted appetites and "folks just got hungry for meat again."

Meat wholesalers said lamb was in particular short supply.

The continued rise in egg prices was blamed on a big demand from all types of users—from consumers using eggs as substitutes for meat, from hatcheries, from breakers' building up their frozen liquid egg supplies, and from the military.

The Doctor Says

Growing old is a problem, it is not looked on with favor by the man or woman who is getting elderly and for that competent judgment is needed. Again, diversification by direct selection is for the big investor, not for the average saver to whom the market now is looking for support. How many people know about our investment companies? How many know about our mutual funds?

IT'S YOUR MONEY.....JOHN BECK

et is closely governed by law, and by its own directors. STOCKS STRONGLY HELD: Today stocks are strongly held; a 75 percent margin is all the law allows. Most stocks are owned outright. It would be hard, if not impossible, to "crash" this market. To be sure, prices fluctuate, but that need not be of much concern to the long-term investor. It is of interest to short-term traders, but to play the market this way is a full time job requiring a great deal of specialized knowledge.

How, then, can the average investor take advantage of the market? Diversification is his problem, and for that competent judgment is needed. Again, diversification by direct selection is for the big investor, not for the average saver to whom the market now is looking for support. How many people know about our investment companies? How many know about our mutual funds?

These investment companies, especially the mutual funds, are the answer to the investors' dream. Through these companies you can, with a minimum of risk and a maximum of benefit, own a share in America. You can have diversification on a minimum amount of money, with expert management constantly adjusting the portfolio to changing conditions. These companies are growing by leaps and bounds.

OVERLOOKING A BET: Industrialists who are trying to "sell capital enterprise" to Americans are overlooking a big bet when they fail to put literature concerning these investing companies where it is available to employees. And they could cure the hoax about the "privileged few" by distributing information on present stock ownership.

Take a big one: U. S. Steel is owned by 256,630 people, and more than half of them are women. More than 15,000 new owners have been added in the last year. Du Pont has 125,504 owners, with 15,559 added in 1950. General Electric is shared by 249,339 people and General Motors lists 400,735 owners. Direct shareholders in all our enterprises are estimated at about 15 million. A privileged few?—no!

About another million individuals own stocks through investing companies. And institutions, such as schools, churches, insurance companies, estates, and the like, are customers of mutual funds. Indirectly, then, there are many uncounted millions on the stockholder lists.

With mutual funds there is a wide variety of packages to suit the individual need. And if there is such a thing as being able to invest your money and forget it, mutual funds are supplying the answer. Not only that, they are holding their own and paying off in these inflationary times. In America, investment is the privilege of everyone, and mutual funds furnish the opportunity.

From the elderly person's point of view the problem is to adjust comfortably and sensibly to the gradually changing physical condition. The bones become more brittle and break more easily; therefore more care must be used to avoid falls or other accidents.

The digestive system does not adjust in old age to overloading or abuse as well as before so that the food must be more carefully selected and eaten in smaller quantities.

In the later years the muscles, including the heart muscle, cannot stand as much, so that it is foolish to exercise as strenuously as earlier. The special senses—hearing and vision—become less acute and should not be abused.

Quite often older people complain that their memories are not as good as they used to be, especially for things that happened only a short time before. Certainly they often repeat stories without realizing it, but their relatives should realize that this is a trick of the memory which cannot be helped.

NORMAL CHANGES. All of these changes and many others are perfectly normal and merely reflect the accumulation of years. Moreover the average older person can adjust to most of them without much trouble and they need not interfere with the enjoyment of many things which are quite suitable to the age and physical condition. Old age need not be an unhappy time of life at all.

From the standpoint of more vigorous relatives some understanding of the particular problems of the later years of life should make the responsibilities easier. But because the number of old people is constantly increasing there is a need for more homes and institutions where they can be well cared for and can associate with others of their age who share the same interests and physical capabilities.

Maybe it's because playing in an orchestra teaches a child the very same attitudes he needs to get along in society. He learns that to "make music" everybody must play in "harmony." He learns to surrender his ego to a greater "orchestra" of which he is an important part. Even if he's playing 2nd or 3rd fiddle, he learns that his part is important and the orchestra couldn't make music without it. He gets a genuine sense of personal worth, even if his contribution isn't that of the star performer. And perhaps, most important of all, he learns to express himself creatively in harmony with others.

Oilers Open Season Here Tonight Against Gassers

Manager Grover Seitz Tabs Payte As Starting Pitcher

Baseball dominates the sport scene in Pampa tonight. The Oilers open defense of their 1950 West Texas-New Mexico League first place, when they tangle with the Borger Gassers at 8 o'clock tonight in Oiler Park.

Manager Grover Seitz starts his tenth campaign in the WT-NM loop, and the Pampa pilot has nominated right-hander George Payte to start against Manager Eddie Carnett's Gassers. The little moundsman notched a 22-10 mound record last season in the league.

The Gassers will have Hubbard on the hill to oppose Payte. He had an 8-9 mark last year. Only three of last year's Oilers will be in the starting line-up tonight. Returning are vets Payte, first baseman Virgil Richardson and second baseman Deck Woldt, who will be starting in centerfield tonight.

A new man will be behind the plate, big Bill Whitehorn. The infield has three newcomers in third baseman Luis Suarez, shortstop Gil Castillo and second baseman Nelson Davis. Woldt will be flanked in the outfield by two new players, F. A. Rice will start in leftfield and Hank Chasteller in right.

The Gassers were strengthened for tonight's loop fray by the addition of Leonard, who joined Borger Thursday from the Oklahoma City Indians. He swats a long ball and will give Carnett's crew a boost at the plate.

Rice will lead off for the Oilers tonight. He will be followed by Suarez, Woldt, Richardson, Chasteller, Davis, Whitehorn, Castillo and Payte.

Pampa had a 5-1 record in exhibition play this spring. The five wins were from loop competition.

The Oilers will start their tenth season in the West Texas-New Mexico League tonight. Harold Miller took Pampa into the WT-NM League in 1939, and Seitz was the first manager for the Class C club.

The Pampans came in first in 1940 and '50. They finished second in 1945, but came through to win the playoffs. The Oilers won 92 games and dropped 53 last season, and finished fourth in front of Manager Hersey Martin's Albuquerque Dukes.

Umpires for tonight's game will be Welch and Crain.

In the beginning the Great God created man in His own image. He gave man the Sabbath Day and said "Keep It Holy." He gave man a code to live by, known as the Ten Commandments. Although today THREE of every FOUR people in America are unchurched... He gave man the Church and hoped he would be a worshipper in it, at least, every Sabbath Day. The Cosmic Judge of all the earth will reward our deeds with fairness. Whether to sleep or not to sleep through the hour of worship at your Church each Sunday... that is the question?

Typical of many of the "unchurched group" is the scene above... "The Sunday Morning Sleeper." There is little justification for the habitual "Sunday Morning Sleeper." Man's creation was such that it is necessary for him to gain strength and courage for the battles of life from the influence of the Church and the teachings of Jesus.

Jesus said that "Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God."

A comfortable bed on Sunday morning with radio and a newspaper, wonderful as they are, cannot "tone up" and sweeten a life like an hour of worship in the Church of one's choice. Man needs something luxuries cannot give. He must be fortified for the gruesome tasks which may lie ahead; he must have Jesus on his side.

There is a certain reassurance that comes from the toll of the Church Bell and singing of the choir. Be a worshipper in the pew of your Church every Sunday. "You need the Church... The Church needs you." You'll find her doors ajar. Don't Be a Sunday Morning Sleeper.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that furnish and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial and a stranger alike can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE Two Tragedies Of Greed

That Jesus' Atonement furnished an example whereby mankind in every age can work out their salvation, is the theme of the Lesson - Sermon entitled "Doctrine of Atonement" to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, April 22.

The Golden Text is from 1 Timothy, and reads, "There is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus; who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time." Jesus said of his followers, "My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me" (John 10:27).

Mary Baker Eddy says of Jesus' mission in the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," "Jesus of Nazareth taught and demonstrated man's oneness with the Father, and for this we owe him endless homage. His mission was both individual and collective. He did life's work aright not only in justice to himself, but in mercy to mortals, — to show them how to do their, but not to do it for them nor to relieve them of a single responsibility."

I lacked space in my last article to complete the story of Abraham and Lot, from my "Rhymed Introduction to the Bible." Before going on to Moses and others, I should like to add the lines concerning Lot: "Too many people are like Lot: They're after all that can be got; And not for peace would they forego To grab things for themselves. On no! For Lot, as he looked o'er the plain, Chose what he thought the most to gain. But selfishness defeats itself, And in his selfish love of pelf, Down down in Sodom, found full soon, That he had gone the way of ruin. The way of ruin has been the end. Of some, who sought to apprehend For self, the things that rightly should Have all been for the common good. The Bible tells of such a man. His name was, as you'll see, Achan. Now war and loot are things that I Don't like at all to justify. But warlike times are crude and rough. And victors loot a lot of stuff, Which, adage says, to them belong; Though you and I may think it wrong. I do not like this tale at all, And yet it grimly points a moral. The Israelites much loot, you see, Had taken from an enemy. This Achan from the common store Tried from the others to grab more. From what belonged to all he stole. And in his tent hid in a hole, Some bars of silver, and a robe; And when within his tent a probe Revealed this hidden, stolen stuff, His punishment was dire enough. I surely would not like to see Upon a man's whole family So terrible a fate decreed. Even for such a selfish deed. And yet, like this old-time Achan Is every selfish, grabbing man, Who, in our modern years of strife, When some are risking, giving, life, Thinks just how he may for himself Make sure of gaining power, or pelf. For always in the wartime years Are patriots and profiteers. The Bible thus has spoken to say About things happening today. For now, as then, the men who steal Are enemies of the commonweal. The patriot is he, alone, Sets common good above his own."

CONGRATULATIONS — The Rev. Russell G. West is seen congratulating his son, Don, on his decision to enter the ministry, as the young man arrived in Pampa for a brief visit. Rev. West has served as pastor of the local Church of the Brethren for the past 12 years. He will close his work in Pampa on Sept. 1, and after a month in evangelistic meetings in the East, will locate as pastor of the Church of the Brethren in Wiley, Colo.

Don West Enters Christian Ministry

On March 15, the Pampa Church of the Brethren met in business session with Rev. D. J. McCann, district ministerial secretary of Cordell, Okla., presiding, and voted unanimously to call Don West to the Christian ministry. Several days later word came from Don that he had been considering the ministry is a life work for quite some time, and would accept the call. About June 1 he will be formally inducted into the ministry.

Don came to Pampa with the family in the fall of 1939, at the age of eight, and enrolled in the third grade at Sam Houston school. He was graduated from Pampa High School in the spring of 1949 and that fall enrolled in McPherson College at McPherson, Kansas. During his 19 years in the Pampa schools he took an active part in the school bands. During his first year in college he was selected to sing bass on the freshman male quartet. At the beginning of his sophomore year he decided to major in church music and was given a place on the college male quartet and in the a cappella choir.

Looking ahead to his years in college and seminary, he said he has decided to continue his study of church music, along with his training for the ministry. After finishing his four years at McPherson College, which is one of five colleges operated in America, by the Church of the Brethren, he will enter training at Bethany Biblical Seminary in Chicago.

Daughter Charged In Dalhart Murder

DALHART — (P) — A charge of murder with malice has been filed against 18-year-old Anna Lou Davenport in the fatal shooting of her father, William Frank Davenport, 53.

The girl is still in a hospital being treated for shock.

The stock farmer was killed Monday night at his farm home, 33 miles west of Dalhart. Sheriff W. L. Stout said he was told Davenport came home about 11

p. m. and began "cursing and kicking at the front door."

The daughter waived preliminary hearing on the charge yesterday and was bound over for grand jury action under $2,500 bond. The bond was furnished immediately by relatives and friends.

It requires almost twice as many man-hours per thousand board feet from a six-inch tree as it does from a 12-inch one.

Troop 16 Works To Buy Engine

Troop 16 of the local Boy Scouts, sponsored by the Lions Club, is collecting old newspapers and magazines each Saturday morning to raise money to pay for an engine for their troop bus.

The new engine is needed in the bus for the troop camping trip this summer.

Paul Brown, troop leader, said that the scouts are asking people who have papers and magazines to give to call 1115, 454-J or 3594-M.

EULAIN ELLIS

Her attendants will be Phoebe Osborne, November Sweetheart, Joanne Bennett, January Sweetheart, Ann Sidwell, February Sweetheart, Jan Sanders, March Sweetheart and Zula Margaret Brown, April Sweetheart. Miss Ellis was October Sweetheart.

The sweethearts are chosen by the Pampa High School student council to meet with the Lions for one month on the basis of their scholastic record, personality and popularity.

Miss Ellis will be in competition in the Queens contest in Hereford with about 40 other club queens. Winner in the district contest will be eligible to compete in further contests culminating with selection of the "Queen of Lions International for 1951" at Atlantic City, N.J.

Officers of District 2T-1 to attend the meeting will be Dr. Marshall Harvey, district governor of Lubbock; Wayne Edwards, Boss Lion of the Hereford club, Earl F. Wilson, cabinet secretary, Lubbock; Marlow Fisher, secretary of Texas Lions Clubs; Elmer E. Stewart, Shreveport and Earl D. Bauman, Bellevue, Pa., international directors.

Other highlights of the meeting will be a dance Monday night with Leighton Noble's band; Frank Streetman, known as the "Second Will Rogers of Oklahoma"; Gordon Suits and his KGNC Variety Show; the Hereford High School Choir, and the West Texas State College A Cappella Choir, Sid Bryan and his accordion, and several others.

Delegates from the Pampa Club planning to attend are: Charlie Thut, O. E. McDowell, Arthur Teed, John Kinard, Ham Luna, Paul Brown, Dude Balthrop, Rusty Ward, Murray Seeley, High Statton, Raymond Salmon, Ralph Dunbar, Walden Moore, Tom Tipps, Ed Cleveland and Wes Lewis.

Holmes was traveling north on Gray when his car was in collision with a car driven by Mrs. Nellie Francis Pash, an employee of Arrey - Phillips Construction company, who was going east on Third.

Commission Boosts Panhandle Gas Rate

PANHANDLE — The Panhandle city commission Wednesday afternoon granted the Texas Gas and Power Co., Pampa, a new 20 year franchise to supply the community with fuel.

The rate set by the commission was $1.50 minimum; 40 cents for the first 20,000 cubic feet; 35 cents for the next 30,000 cubic feet and 25 cents over 30,000 cubic feet.

The rate granted the power company is higher than the rate increase now being sought by the company at Pampa.

Have Second Trash Blaze In One Week

The second fire within a week caused by residents who burn garbage in garbage cans, was reported by local firemen today.

A city garbage truck was traveling on East Jordan when it caught fire from within where garbage is hauled.

The fire, reported at 3 o'clock Monday, was extinguished a few minutes later and was not serious, but Chief Ernest Winborne issued another warning about burning trash that is to be picked up by city trucks.
