Buyers Crowd Floor

GAIL-After a slow start on Friday at the Livestock show, it was good to see the bleachers filled with spectators and the floor crowded with buyers Saturday as announcer Ross Westbrook introduced auctioneer Monte Paxton prior to the Livestock Sale beginning at 1:00 p.m.

Monte is a familiar face to Borden County. By his own admission he is "an Old timer". Except for being snowed out one year, Monte has led a successful sale in the county since 1965.

Borden County continues to break records in this area with their Jr. Livestock Sale and 1981 was no exception.

Eventho the market is depressed at this time of year, the floor bids held their own except for the lambs.

Asking for a floor bid for the 82 Barrows going to market, Paxton received a price of $41.00 from Plains Hog Company of Lubbock. This was up $4.00 from 1980. Thirty two hogs out of 113 shown actually went through the sale ring.

Sweetwater Livestock Auction was awarded the bid of $53. for the lambs. This was considerably lower than the $67. bid for the previous year. With 100 lambs going to market, 44 were sold through the ring out of 167 shown.

Glen Gray, Scott Jones, Sharon Brummett, Dana Gray, Ralynn Key, Cody Stone and Kristi Stone. Showmanship trophies were donated by Jack Cummins Dairy Queen, Snyder, Texas.

Jones Makes Top Hand

At the conclusion of the Steer show on Saturday tension relaxed for a short time while the crowd that had gathered enjoyed the annual Bar-b-que lunch sponsored by the Jr. Livestock Association.

At 1:00 p.m. however, anxiety mounted as exhibitors and parents returned to the Show barn to await the Awards Presentation prior to the sale of the animals.

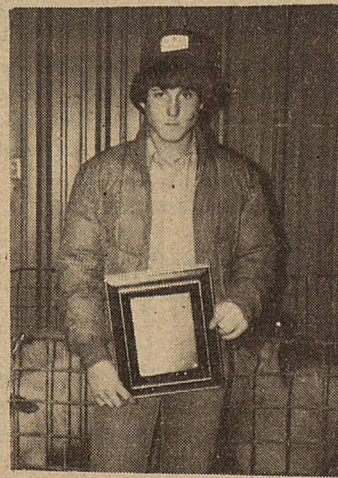

Preceding the announcement of Awards, Ross Westbrook took the deserved time to recognize officials and special guest and to introduce two newcomers.

LaRhea Pepper was the first to be introduced. LaRhea got a nice applause as she was recognized as the Borden County Home Demonstration Agent. She has done an excellent job since she accepted this position last spring.

Even newer to the county is Allen Day. There is no faster way for a County Agent to get to know a county and its people than

Show Draws Small Crowd

GAIL-The 1981 Borden County Jr. Livestock show drew one of the smallest crowds in it's history Friday February 27.

Although the spectators were scarce due to the conflict with the Girls Regional Basketball Tournament in Leveland, the barn was teeming with show animals and 4-H and FFA exhibitors. Sixty-nine showmen were grooming 280 animals and compared to 294 in 1980.

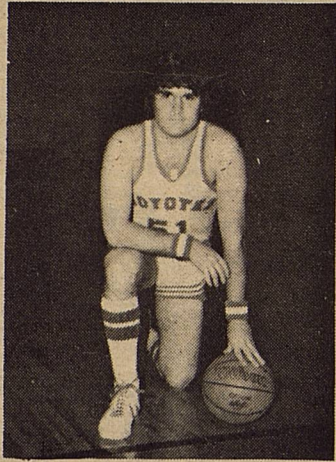

At 1:00 p.m., as the welcomed rain pelted down on the roof of the County Show Barn, announcer Ross Westbrook called for the exhibitors of the first class of Barrows to bring their animals into the show ring.

CHAMPION BARROWS Judging the record number of 113 hogs fell to veteran Paul Gross of Lubbock. Mr. Gross, Area I Supervisor of County Agents, pulled the Grand Champion Barrow from the heavy weight Hampshire class. This 237 pound animal was bred by James Earhart of Dawson County. He was owned and shown by Sharla Herring.

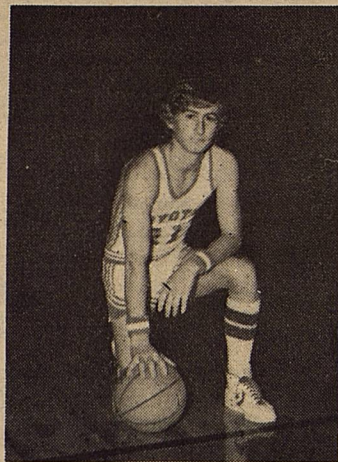

Sharla, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Herring of Vealmoor is a senior at BHS. Having moved to Borden County in 1979, this is Sharla's only

Coyotes Sweep All-Star Selections

The Borden Coyote boys captured two of their districts 3 selections for the Texas Small Schools All Star basketball game this summer. Bart McMeans was unanimous pick along with Robert Mitchell of Ira. Troy King was selected as the third member of the trio.

The selections were made by the members of the football district. Those schools voting were Hermleigh, Ira, Trent, McCaulley, Grady, Highland, and Borden County. The game will be played on July 18th in Wisdom Gym on the campus of Tarleton State University in Stephenville.

Coach Lynn Maxwell of Borden County was selected last summer by the Association to coach the West All Stars. This will be Coach Maxwell's second all star coaching stint, as his 1976 team defeated the East team 82-65.

McMeans was Borden's leading scorer and rebounder this past season.

Troy King was the playmaker on offense and the key man on Borden's full court pressure defense. He averaged 3 steals per game and was the leading free throw shooter with a 58 percent average.

Parents Club Meeting

The Borden County Parent's Club met February 5, 1981 at 2:30 in the auditorium. The fifth and sixth grade band presented a very enjoyable program to all present.

Following the band presentation, a treasury report was read and profits from the December bake sale and family directories were discussed.

The fifth grade class received candy as being best represented at this meeting.

The Parent's Club Meeting for March will be March 5th at 2:30 in the conference room at school. Please try to attend. Plans for the F.F.A. and F.H.A. banquet will be discussed at that time.

Borden boys Complete Season

The Borden Coyote Boys Basketball team finished their 1980-81 season with a record of 8 wins and 15 losses. Perhaps the bright spot was that 6 of the wins coming over district opponents. After finishing the first half of district with a 2-5 mark, the Coyotes came back to finish the second half at 4-3. Victories over Union and Dawson highlighted the second half as well as good games against Sands and Wellman.

The Borden Junior Varsity played 17 games this year ending with a record of 7-10. Comprised mostly of Freshmen and Sophomores, the J.V.'s learned alot and gained some valuable playing experience.

The following are the season totals for varsity games only.

Texas Public Schools Week

Public schools: America's first choice; democracy's only choice.

Because the public schools system has provided the United States with the highest level of literacy in the world, education has become one of the major contributing factors which has made our nation great.

For our democratic society to continue with its ability to provide an outstanding educational system, it is up to each citizen in Borden County to actively participate in the educational system, for it is the individual who makes the system work on the local, state and national levels. Each of us has the duty to learn as much as possible about local school operations and policies, including funding.

This week, March 2-6 has been designated as Texas Public Schools Week with this year's theme being "Public Schools: America's first choice; democracy's only choice." As a citizen of this community you are being invited by the Borden ISD to take the opportunity to seek answers to your questions about education and to evaluate all the programs taking place in the schools.

Visit, observe and ask-do your schools have adequate staffing? Do they have enough money available to give your child and others the educational base so vital to living and working in modern society?

Whether you are a parent or not, your comments, questions and observations will be most welcome. Won't you please take part? Observe Texas Public Schools Week, March 2-6.

The senior girls varsity team were honored with a pep rally Friday. Shown are Talley Griffin, Coach May, Kay Copeland, Gayla Newton, Joie Brummett, Talley Griffin, Lisa Smith, Teresa Wimberly, Gena McLeroy, Gena Faught, Roxie Wolf and Tina Wimberly, Mgr.

Drops Regional Tournament

Levelland- Nazareth, after only three tough games all season, struggled through its second consecutive bitter fight Saturday before pulling away in the fourth quarter to down Follett 58-47 for the Region 1 Class 1A title.

The victory puts the Swiftettes, the four-time defending state champs and 33-2 for the season, into a slot in this week's state tournament in Austin.

Nazareth, which struggled through a semifinal victory over Borden County Saturday morning, trailed for the first time in three tournament games midway through the third period before 5-11 senior post Lori Gerber took charge.

Nazareth advanced to the championship game by downing Borden County 41-38 after a determined Coyotes' fourth period rally was killed by a turnover with four seconds to play.

The Swiftettes, who managed only 13 points in the final two periods, clung desperately to a 39-38 lead when the Coyotes' 5-11 Jana Edwards rejected Lori Gerber's shot and Borden County grabbed the loose ball with 12 seconds to play.

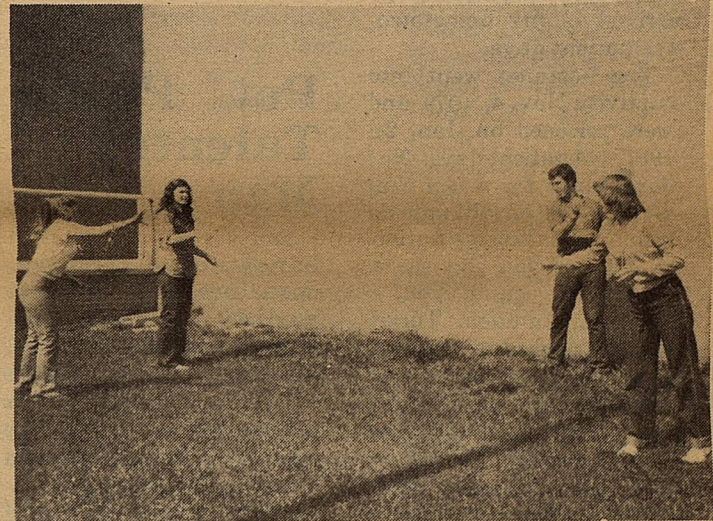

Scoring for Borden were Griffin 9, Edwards 8, Newton 10, Faught 9, McLeroy 3, Wimberly 18

Where To Ask

Several inquiries were made by parents to the Borden Star after the livestock sale asking what price an animal brought and the name of the buyer.

This information may be obtained from Bob Bagley. The sales slips are kept in his office until a permanent record can be made.

THE BOOSTER CLUB WILL MEET EVERY OTHER WEDNESDAY

Seniors Tina Wimberly, Talley Griffin, Danny Holmes and Heather McPhaul demonstrate the frisbiees that their class is selling for $2.50 each.

Most of US spent 444 frustrating days trying to figger out the reasoning behind the taking of the hostages--the reason why they remained in captivity--and why all of a sudden with no plausible overt action on the part of US, they were sent home. I may not have discovered answers to those questions. But I just may have a clue. Whether my clue is the reason for the 444 days or whether the Iranians made use of 52 laborers, I will never know.

On November 1, 1979, I placed an order for two custom woven rugs from one of those countries over there, it makes little difference in a world of international intrigue. I was told I would have my rugs in six months time. Two weeks ago my rugs arrived in my hometown, 474 patient days.

The hostages went into captivity Nov. 4, 1979 and were released on Jan. 21, 1981, 444 patient days. No I don't know for a fact that my rugs had anything to do with humiliating my nation or not but you can see a correlation, can't you? Iranians, Indians, Turks, Iraqis are used to weaving rugs, they have been at it for centuries. But maybe they ran a little short of forced labor in 1979. Or maybe once the prisoners were taken, the Iranians decided to help them pass the days that rug weaving just might be the perfect therapy. They could keep their prisoners in fairly good mental health and yet enjoy the fruits of the free labor.

Now remember, I had been told to expect a six month delivery date. There is another clue. American Marines and emissaries are generally not adept at rug weaving. It seems very logical to me that it could take 444 days to weave 2 rugs. I could be very charitable and assume that the Iranians had intentions of keeping the prisoners only as long as it took to weave those rugs, that a six month delivery date could conceivably have been yellow ribbon day. But I see no evidence of shoddy work so I am assuming the Iranians did not push for quick delivery. And I like to think that those prisoners were typical American types, pride in their work, efficient and proficient.

My only worry is that my order for 2 rugs may have precipitated this whole shameful epic in our history. But it does make as much sense as any other conjecture. If it is so, I shall always be grateful to those 52 men and women who so patiently spent their time on my rugs, they are beautiful.

Pat Porter Talented Man

Pat Porter, whose own Sunshine Unlimited, specializes in buying and selling as well as performing any kind of service, had some illustrations for salesmanship when he addressed the Downtown Lions in Big Spring.

Porter, who works out of Gail, also offers to "dig up, bury, hide, find, fold, stable, wash, dry, clean, shine, compute, delete, detach or retain," told the Lions that top salesmen sometimes "bend opportunity," and that they "think big."

"Don't get a salesman fired up with nothing to sell," he warned. With him was the president of the Gail Lions Club, Bob Dyess.

WINDOW SHADES, HELPFUL HINTS FOR MAKING

First of a series.

Before you try to make your own window shades, consider several important factors.

First, spend some time choosing the correct fabric. Be sure to choose a firmly woven fabric. This is especially important for larger shades.

Looser weaves will tend to stretch and ravel more easily.

Next, be sure to make a test sample of your shade, and in doing this, consider several things by asking yourself these questions:

1) Is the backing compatible with the fabric to produce enough, but not too much, body? If the backing is too lightweight, the edges of the shade will ripple.

Also, if you don't want to use a backing, the shade may not have enough body to maintain shape alone, and liquid stiffeners often do not work well with fabric that has been treated.

2) Do you want room-darkening shades?

Only commercial blackout backings can provide complete darkening.

Some fabrics are more translucent (light shows through them) than others. Hold samples up to light to check for color changes and light transmission.

3) Have you considered sun fading?

Some fading can be expected over a period of time, but bright colors and dark ones are the most susceptible.

On the other hand, laminated shades are the most protected from fading, and light colors will fade the least.

4) How much can you spend?

Add up your total costs. Know what you are going to spend on supplies, and then compare that plus your labor, if you want to compare the total costs to custom-shade prices.

When you start to add up total costs, remember that tools you'll need include a roller, brackets, fabric, backing or stiffener, a slat, shade pull, perhaps trim, scissors, glue, a staple gun or tape, a carpenter's square and straight edge guides, rulers, cardboard cutting board and an iron.

Finally, there are two other reminders before you start.

Arrange to work on a large work surface to avoid stretching the shade as you make it.

A shade hanging over the edge of an ironing board or table can be stretched easily, or distorted, and it is difficult to keep measurements and markings accurate.

Also, if you're making shades for short, wide ranch-style windows, consider placing fabric on a cross wise direction, if the design permits. Don't worry about the fabric stretching, since fusing, bonding or gluing it to the backing will stabilize it. This idea will allow wider shades than the usual fabric width of 45 or 54 inches, with no splices.

Canon Named To Association

Charles C. Canon of Borden County has been elected to membership in the American Angus Association, reports Dr. C. K. Allen, executive vicepresident of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The American Angus Association, with some 38,000 active life and junio members, is the largest beef cattle registry association in the world.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members.

Cowbelles Set Fourth Annual Beef Cook-Off

Texas Cooks, attention! What dish does your family like best?

More than likely, it is a beef recipe. Since Texas is the number one cattleraiser in the nation, Texans come naturally by their love of beef.

The Texas CowBelles, sponsors of the fourth annual Texas Beef Cook-off, invite you to submit your favorite beef recipe to the state chairman no later than April 1. The address is: Texas CowBelles Beef Cook-off; 5501 Interstate 40 West; Amarillo 79106.

The Tejas CowBelles, the four-county local organization, suggest that you don your apron and with pen and paper in hand, measure the ingredients and write down each step you take in the preparation of that meat special you fix so often for your family. Perhaps you no longer measure, you just automatically know how much of this and that you use. But for the contest, amounts are important, in fact a must. That meal-in-one that is "old hat" to you may be a winner. Last year's runnerup was from Tulia. This year's could be from Scurry, Borden, Howard or Mitchell Counties.

Official entries blanks for the Beef Cook-off may be picked up Everybody's Supermarket in Snyder.

to move in six weeks before a county livestock show. Allen got right in the swing of things and has already proved his worth.

Bob Bagley was recognized for his five years work with the FFA as Vocational Ag teacher and for his supervising a smoothly run Stock Show and Sale each year.

Also recognized were all of the ring superintendents, assistants, concession and Bar-b-que committees. Certainly not forgotten were the donors for the many trophies and prizes to be awarded.

The time finally came to make these announcements. Here is the story.

Scott Jones was named Top Hand of 1981 and was presented the handsome roving trophy by Association President Van York. Added to this trophy which remains in a permanent show case, was a handsome plaque for Scott to add to his own collection. This was donated by Sunshine Unlimited. He also received a $50.00 check from Mrs. Max Zant in memory of her young son Larry. The Zant family originated this coveted award in 1969. The recipient is determined by the number of points earned with animals shown.

Scott is a first year FFA showman and is in the Freshman class. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Jones.

Showmanship plays a big part in any stockshow. The way an animal is shown could determine a championship but even more important is making champions out of the exhibitors.

The 1981 "Over-All Showman" trophy was awarded to Van Lee York, a senior and nine year showman. This showman must enter in two or more animal divisions. Van Lee had twelve lambs and two barrows.

Enhancing the handsome trophy donated by Dairy Queen of Snyder was a $50.00 check given to Van by Mrs. Maxine Zant in memory of her late husband, Max Zant.

Van Lee has earned his share of trophies through the years. Among many is the Top Hand awarded him in 1979. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Van York.

Showmanship Awards were also presented to youngsters in Elementary, Jr. High and High School in each animal division. These trophies are donated by Jack Cummings Dairy Queen of Snyder.

1981 recipients of Showmanship trophies were:

SWINE: Ralynn Key, elementary; Kristi Stone, Jr. High; and Top Showman of the division, Scott Jones, High School.

LAMBS: Cody Stone, elementary; Glen Gray, High School; and Top Showman, Dana Gray, Jr. High.

STEERS: With only three exhibitors in the division, Top Showman was Sharon Brummett.

Tackling the difficult job of judging Showmanship was Vocational Ag teacher Danny Beck from Lamesa. Bob Bagley presented the trophies.

MEMBERSHIP SALESMAN

Young Gerry Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith was the deserving winner of the Salesman Trophy. This sixth grader topped the Jr. Livestock Assoc. membership sales by earning $725.00 for the Assoc.

Receiving a certificate for $100.00 or more in sales was Michael Murphy. Also recognized with certificates for selling over $50.00 but under $100.00 were; Rocky Harber, Amy Lewis, Shelly Lewis, Kate Phinizy, Will Phinizy, Jim Ridenour and James Smith. The money earned goes to the Association to help defray expenses. The trophy is donated by the Association.

BREED CHAMPIONS
Michael Murphy was the recipient this year of the Champion Finewool trophy donated each year by the Van York family in memory of J. S. York.

Nine youngsters received trophies for showing the Champion of the breed entered. This story is told through out the paper in pictures. As well as receiving a trophy for their efforts, these exhibitors also earned a very practical gift for future years in the form of a feed bucket. This gift was donated by C. W. Howell of Mooreman Feed in Snyder.

Presenting all awards this year was Bob Bagley in the absence of Gena McLeroy, FFA Sweetheart.

Concession Stand

The Concession kitchen was a good place to take a break during the Livestock show and sale this weekend.

The booth opened its windows at 8:00 p.m. Thursday and didn't close them again until after the sale on Saturday.

The concession committee included Mrs. Warren Beaver and Mrs. Bill Phinizy, co-chairmen. They were assisted by Nannette Belew, Teresa Cox, and Lisa Ludecke. There work began many weeks before the date of the Stockshow. They bought supplies, estimated the amount of food needed, and lined up workers for each hour. The "workers" included forty volunteer 4-H and FFA mothers.

Money earned by this popular convenience goes into the Borden Co. Jr. Livestock fund for projects and expenses.

Memorial Buckles

Twenty bronze belt buckles were presented to deserving youngsters this year during the Jr. Livestock Show on Friday.

Exhibitors placing first in their class in each division are awarded an embossed bronze buckle. No one is allowed more than one buckle. If a showman should place more than one animal in the first class position, then the award will go to the next in line. This could mean that 2nd, 3rd, or 4th place could win. The buckles are donated by supporters of the Borden County Jr. Livestock Association.

Recipients of this years awards and donors are the following:

Sportsmanship Award

A new award was added to the list this year of the many presented at the conclusion of the Borden County Jr. Livestock Show and Sale.

The new Sportsmanship award is given in honor of Glenn Toombs and is donated by friends of the Toombs family. Glenn is a long time resident of Borden County and has consistently supported the Stockshow.

The recipient of this meaningful award is determined by a youngsters attitude, cooperation, and helpfulness toward his fellow showmen and his directors. Watching carefully during all the activity that takes place in the work barn prior to the show as well as during the show itself, the judges make their final decision.

Todd Foster was teh luck young man receiving this award for the first time. The deserving FFA member has lived in the county only two years. He is a Freshman at BHS and lives with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Smith.

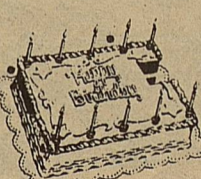

Glenn was greeted by his many friends as he attended the Awards Presentation and witnessed Todd accept the beautiful plaque given in his honor.

year to exhibit in the local show. Besides the Grand Champion, Sharla showed a second place heavy weight Cross and a fifth place heavy weight Duroc.

Scott Jones, a veteran showman in Borden County received the Reserve Grand Champion banner with his heavy weight Cross. Bred by Gary Schofner of Slaton, this animal weighed 247 pounds.

Scott, a Freshman and first year FFA exhibitor has been showing Barrows since he was nine years old and a 4-H member. He is not new to the Champion bracket either. Scott led in the Grand Champion Barrow in the 1980 show with another heavy weight Cross. In Fridays show he also had a 1st place light weight Chester White, and placed in the top five with a heavy weight Duroc, a heavy weight Hampshire, a light weight Duroc, and light weight Cross.

Scott is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Jones of the Plains Community.

Swine Superintendent was Weldon Hancock. He was assisted by Buddy Telchik, Don Wills, James Telchik and Ralph Miller.

CHAMPION LAMBS

Shortly after 4:00 p.m. on Friday, Terry Phillips began the difficult task of judging the 164 lambs entered. Phillips is the Vocational Ag teacher in Seagraves.

Reserve Gr. Champions

Reserve Champion Steer was shown by SHARON BRUMMETT. This limousine-angus cross steer was bred by C. B. Brummett of Borden County. Trophy donated by Malcolm Harp Insurance of Lamesa.

Reserve Champion Barrow shown by SCOTT JONES, This heavy weight cross barrow was bred by Gary Shoffner of Slaton. Trophy donated by Key Brothers Implement of Snyder.

Reserve Champion Lamb shown by MICHAEL MURPHY. This heavy weight cross lamb was bred by Brent Murphy of Borden County. Trophy donated by Don Cox.

SHOW

Con't from P. 6

After five hours of deliberation and naming three Breed Champions and Reserve Champions, Phillips tapped the Grand Champions.

Pretty 4-H showman Kim Wills took top honors with her Grand Champion medium weight Cross. This 113 pound champion was bred by Eugene Beatty of Tucumcari, New Mexico.

Kim exhibited five other lambs in the show. She placed with one more medium weight Cross, three light weight Medium Wool and one heavy weight mediumwool.

Kim is a Freshman in BHS and has been active in 4-H for six years. Championships are a way of life with the Wills family. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Wills of Fluvanna.

Another veteran showman winning a banner was twelve year old Michael Murphy. The Reserve Grand Champion honor was won by a 120 pound heavy weight Cross. This animal was bred and raised in Borden County by the Murphy Ranch.

This young showman also did well in the Southdown class as well as the heavy weight and medium weight finewools, light weight and medium weight cross and heavy weight Medium Wool. This sixth grader had a total of eight lambs in this years show.

Michael and his older brother come from a long line of Lamb showmen and have the trophies to prove it. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brent Murphy of the Lake area.

Ring superintendent in the Lamb division was Brent Murphy, assisted by Buster Taylor, Don Cox and Ed Rinehart.

CHAMPION STEERS

Only three animals were exhibited in the Steer division this year in Borden County. This was down from ten in 1980 and more than 20 in years past. Joie and Sharon Brummett and Jeff Martin were the three exhibitors. These three are to be commended for their support of this part of the Borden County Jr. Livestock Show, a county with a heavy cattle population. All three of these animals were bred in Borden County.

The Grand Champion Steer was a family affair. The prize animal was led into the ring Saturday morning by Sharon Brummett. Sharon was showing the champion animal for her sister Joie who was playing in the Regional Girls Basketball Tournament.

Joie's champion was a 1202 pound steer was a Limousine-Angus Cross.

A senior at BHS, Joie is no stranger to the ring here and in Howard County. This is her second consecutive win in Borden County having taken Grand Champion honors in 1980. She also had the winning steer in 1978.

Joie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Brummett of Vealmoor.

Sharon Brummett, another long time steer exhibitor, took the Reserve Grand Champion honors with her 1197 pound Cross. This animal was also Borden County bred and raised by the Brummetts. It also was a Limousine-Angus Cross. Showing this champion for Sharon was Kelly Richardson.

Sharon, a Junior, is the second daughter of the C. B. Brummetts.

The third place steer was a Limousine-Hereford cross shown by Jeff Martin. This calf was also "home bred" and raised by the Martins.

Jeff, a Junior, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Martin of Fluvanna.

Coming in as judge for the Steer show was Bo Castleman, Vocational Ag teacher in Andrews.

Steer superintendent Jeff Martin was assisted in the ring by Tana Yates and Charles Church.

This concluded the Friday and Saturday Livestock Show for the Jr. Livestock Asso. The sale was held at 1:00 p.m. on Saturday.

The FFA members participating were under the direction of Bob Bagley, Vocational Ag teacher for the Borden County High School. The 4-H members exhibiting had a new director and coach who proved his worth. Allen Day has been in Borden County only since January and really got "broke in" the hard way. He did a fine job.

SALE

With only three steers being shown, all three were sold. R. C. Lunsford of Snyder gave the floor bid of $68.50, down one dollar.

The Grand Champion Steer, shown by Joie Brummett, brought top dollar with a $1200.00 bid for this 1202 pound cross. Buyers for this animal were Malone-Hogan Hospital & Clinic, Cowper Hospital & clinic, and Medical Arts Hospital & clinic. These Big Spring hospitals have been buyers for the Grand Champion or Reserve Champion Steer for over twelve years.

The Reserve Grand Champion Steer was bought by The First National Bank of Snyder for $800.00 This Cross weighed 1197 and was shown by Sharon Brummett.

The Grand Champion Lamb jumped on up to $900.00. Another long time supporter for this sale, Dewey Everett bought this medium weight Cross. The animal was shown by Miss Kim Wills. The Reserve Grand Champion Lamb was led into the show ring by young Michael Murphy. Don Cox bought this heavy weight Cross for $700.00.

Buying the Grand Champion Barrow was also The First National Bank of Snyder. This heavy weight Hampshire was shown by Sharla Herring and brought $650.00 Scott Jones Reserve Grand Champion Barrow brought $800 form Wayland Taylor of O'Donnell. This was the highest priced Barrow in the sale.

Topping the Lamb sale was a Mediumwool shown by Richard Zant. Rafter One Ranch and John Taylor Implement of Big Spring bought the animal for $1000.00

The 80 animals that went through the sale ring Saturday afternoon totaled $43,100.00, exceeding the 1980 total by $3,765. The overall show average came to $539.00.

Breaking it down, the steers averaged $967.00, the lambs $540.00 and the barrows $497.00.

The Jr. Livestock Association, 4-H and FFA members expressed their pleasure at the success of the sale. Announcer Ross Westbrook spoke in their behalf as he voiced his appreciation to Monte Paxton, auctioneer and to Jimmy Taylor and Bruce Griffith of the 1st National Bank of Big Spring for keeping the records of the sale.

SMALL GRAIN CERTIFICATION

Even though there are no crop acreage limitations for the 1981 crop year, producers will be required to report planted acreage of crops to be eligible for program benefits. Acreages of wheat, oats, barley, rye, and other small grains should be reported by May 1, 1981. An accurate report of acreage is a must, so be sure and measure the crop acreage. Measurement service is available at the County Office.

FEDERAL CROP INSURANCE

The Borden County ASCS has very limited information concerning the Federal Crop Insurance Program (FCIC), however we have been notified that cotton and grain sorghum will be covered for the 1981 crop. Producers interested in insuring their crop for 1981 should contact the FCIC office in Big Spring.

A.C. 915-263-1866. The deadline for cotton is March 31 and the deadline for grain sorghum is April 30.

LOANS - 1980 CROPS

The final date to request a loan for 1980 crop of cotton is May 31, 1981. The interest rate is 11.5 per cent.

EMERGENCY FEED PROGRAM

Producers with current applications are reminded to report changes in animal units, grazing conditions and to bring all feed receipts into the County Office.

Bar-B-Que Kicks Off Sale

A large crowd enjoyed the barbeque lunch served in Gail Saturday. The lunch is served each year prior to the sale of the Borden County Jr. Livestock Assoc.

After the one inch rain on Friday, Saturday dawned cool and damp. Tables were provided inside the school building and most people were able to find a chair to relax and enjoy the meal with their neighbors.

Guests, exhibitors, parents and friends visited with the special guests, the buyers, while eating barbeque "with all the trimmings."

The Livestock Association furnished the meat and "trimmings" and the residents of Borden Co. furnished the salads, vegetables, and desserts. The meat was prepared and delivered by The Chuck Wagon Gang, a catering service out of Odessa.

Dorothy Browne was Chariman of the barbeque committee assisted by Mmes. Don Wills, Brent Murphy and Jim Burkett.

Mikeanna and Zachery Wilcox shown with the 1981 San Antonio Livestock Exposition Grand Champion Steer, "Tar Baby."

Wilcox Tops At San Antonio

Almost eight years of feeding steers under the supervision of County Extension agent Max Stupelton, paid off for Mikeanna Wilcox when her black simmental was named the Grand Champion Steer of of the 32nd Annual Stock Show and Rodeo in San Antonio.

The 1210 pound Simmental named "Tar Baby" was bred and raised on the ranch of W. R. Huger Jr. of Weinert, Texas.

Dr. Calvin Drake of Kansas State University was judge for the Jr. Steer

Show.

To make it to Grand Champion Competition "Tar Baby" was first chosen the Grand Champion Simmental. Then 13 youngsters with expectant looks on their faces stood holding their breed champions in the show ring waiting for the judges decision.

When one bystander told Mideanna he had won a bet because "Tar Baby" was chosen the winner, she laughed, "I'm glad you had that much faith that we would win. I wasn't all that sure."

On Friday, a crowd of about 700 filled the main floor of the Coliseum arena. With flags flying and the band playing, San Antonio, Schlitz Beer Distributor, Jim Williams paid a record 128,000 for "Tar Baby."

The Reserve Champion steer was shown by 16 year old Kevin Newman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Newman of Stanton, Texas.

His 1215 lb. Chianina, Maine Anjou Cross named "Ace" brought $23,000 from the "Beef Barons" of San Antonio.

Mikeanno is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Wilcox and the granddaughter of Mrs. Iva Reeder.
