New Air War Rages Over North Korea; Tanks Hit Kumsong

Another jet battle raged over North Korea today as Allied tanks for the fourth straight day pounded the former Red bastion of Kumsong on the central front.

The Fifth Air Force said one MIG was shot down and another was listed as a probable.

One American F-86 Sabre jet was reported lost.

Battery Shortage

During Year Ahead

DETROIT - (P)— American motorists will need 2.000,000 replacement batteries during this year ahead.

Whether they will be able to get them depends upon materials. The battery makers have the capacity to make all the batteries the nation's motorists will need. There is no serious battery shortage in sight. But neither is there any greed excess supply in prospect.

efficiency apartment. Call me a spoiled child if you must, but when I pay a decent price for a night's lodging I don't want to be absorbed, so to speak, by a motel, and become an in-tegral part of its very foundations. This place I'm staying in is giving me a guilt complex. If I were out on the ocean fishing for snook, and a sudden rain came up, I'd insist that the captain turn back to shore so that could close the windows in my iving room and take the motel towels off the line.

To show you how this motel has grabbed me in its tentacles, slept very little last night because I was worried about there being two vacant apartments. It was all I could do to keep my self from going out to the road and flagging down passing torists. I'm not sure whether this was consideration for my host, or because misery loves

All efficiency motels have plastic furniture, too. This means that when you sit on it in a pair of shorts it sticks to you, and when you walk out the door you have a chair following you. Another week here and the circus is likely to hire me as Jo-Jo, the Plastic Boy. It's a beautiful day here today, and I should be out on the ocean fighting the big fish which abound off the Keys, but I haven't even made up my bed, or defrosted the ice-box, or emptied the garbage. There's enough to keep a body busy around here from dawn to dark. I just don't have a second to call my own.

I wish to whatever that bad word is that I'd stayed in New York. Either that or stopped at a motel with inefficient rooms. Two more days of this housekeeping and I won't be able to to try for sardines on the third shelf.

Acheson 'Worried' Over Middle East

WASHINGTON - (AP) - Sec retary of State Acheson says the United States recognizes the "awakening national spirit" of the Middle East countries and is doing what it can to help their problems "with common sense and justice to all."

At the same time, Acheson said in an NBC television pro-gram (battle report) Sunday that he is "worried" over conditions in the Middle East.

Main problems there are the quarrel over Iran's nationalization of British oil properties, and the British-Egyptian dispute over the Suez Canal.

Acheson said the U.S., through the United Nations and the North Atlantic Treaty organization, 'trying to make sure that what happens there doesn't jeopardize the rest of the world."

Cotton Bowl Set For Next Year

DALLAS - (P) - The Cotton Bowl announced yesterday it has met all provisions of the National Collegiate Athletic Association and that its plan of operation for next year has been approved. Howard Grubbs, secretary of the Bowl's athletic association, said an NCAA provision that representatives of colleges must be on the governing board has been observed and that one-third of the bowl's tickets would go to the competing schools. Grubbs said the Cotton Bowl has for years had 22 of its 28 directors from Southwest Conference schools. He said the bowl has always given 30,000 tickets to the competing schools. The Cotton Bowl has 75,000 seats, so the one-third provision

The Post also points out that the out-of-pocket cost of handling second-class matter was $34,000,-000 while income from secondclass was $41,000,000 or a surplus of $7,000,000. If that isn't typical New Deal method of figuring costs we never saw one. Such a cost calculation would be like saying that all of the expenses of the publishing of the Post be placed on the circulation department and then hold that all other departments were operated without cost. Any business; figuring its costs in such a manher would certainly be out of business in short order

The cold, unvarnished truth is that the Post, all magazines and newspapers using the mails, are in part being subsidized and we have to agree (believe it or not!) with President Truman that publishers who attack government subsidies when they 'are costing the taxpayers millions of dollars every year have a nerve to complain about the high cost of government. The Pampa Daily News and its sister newspapers have long advocated that all such subsidies be done away with - often to i the chagrin of fellow publishers.

A couple of other members are on the anxious spot because of their acceptance of entertainment in Yosemite National Park as guests of the school bus contractor. Now the president of the board, Mrs. Eleanor B. Allen, has tendered her resignation. She has been on the board of education since

This shake-up is just evidence of what this column has been claim-- that board of education members are not interested in education, but are either interested in graft or in satisfying their ego and vanity. The member of board who uses the board of education to promote his business or to satisfy his ambition or vanity is really standing in the way of education and being harmful to mankind rather than serving mankind. I have never known a board member who was really interested in education. And I use the test to determine whether a man is interested in education as to whether or not he is trying to educate himself. If a man is not enough interested in education to want what he is advocating tested by cross examination, he himself is terested in education. And if a man is not himself interested in education, it is a mockery and delusion for that man to be claiming that he is trying to help other people become educated.

Many of the members of boards of education like the power that goes with being a member of the board of education. They are usually either just plain stupid, as is the case with Mrs. Allen, president of the board of education in Los Angeles, or they are oppor-

The news report on Mrs. Allen shows that she testified that she believed implicitly in the ability of a machine to cure illness even though the patient may be miles away. According to Mrs. Allen, when a patient furnishes a blood sample, the machine can be used What sins are committed by death. It wasn't much different to treat ailments either when the patient appears in person or is in another city - even in Moscow. The literature used to promote this machine says: "Let us say here for the benefit of those who do not know, that any patient who is weak and depleted should never take shower baths and stand in the water over the drain, because the patient's magnetism is washed down with the water through the drain, leaving him depleted.'

And persons who believe in this kind of magic are presidents boards of education in large cities like Los Angeles! Yugoslav should not be criticized No wonder the American people are confused when they believe that the state or the majority can educate the youth of the land. And these board members who are either stupid themselves or ambitextbooks that are to be used in 'educating" our children. The whole public educational system is based on the fallacy that 'might makes right." It is based on the fallacy that the majority is God. That the majority determines Mr. Truman: "Magazines Enjoy ideas among his friends since he's the principles. That there are two standards of rightness — one for the majority and one for the individual. It is based on a complete repudiation of the Christian-Jew-"muzzlers" and nazi-sympathizers ish ethics and the American way of life as set down in the Declaration of Independence that says "government derive their just power from the consent of the cist and you were in power in the governed" - not from the consent the majority.

Yes, the shake-up in Los Angeles is just exactly what could be expected by boards of education. Many of the members are not enough to be caught in graft, but there is no law or penalty to punish a man for serving on the board of education to satisfy his vanity. But men of this kind are road blocks to real education.

HAUL UP THOSE SOUKS, PARTNERS

(New York Daily News)

The approximately $7.5 billion foreign aid bill was signed Wednes-day by the President. It's called the Mutual Security Act of 1951. Averell Harriman is to spend the money-which will total more Can the revenue the new and inreased taxes will bring in. Out of the colossal sum, our alcged allies in Europe are to get billions' worth of military and a billion in economic aid. That, said Mr. Truman as he signed the bill, is just fine. Or, as he put it, this latest drain on our real wealth and increased strain on our taxpayers "will enable our free-nation partners to continue to increase their contributions to the ommon defense effort" against the Soviet Russian Empire.

So the question naturally raises its impolite but important head: How are these partners doing bout increasing the contribution Mr. Truman speaks of?

The idea originally was that we were to furnish them with ample weapons and a few troops, while they would put up the bulk of the was a sort of modified "give us the tools and we'll finish the job' arrangement Well, the House Appropriations

A CITY OF MANY BEAUTIFUL CHURCHES

Gods gifts to Pampa and the Top o' Texas area have been many, and its people could not have lived here long prospering from the bounty of the land and not wanted to give thanks to their God.

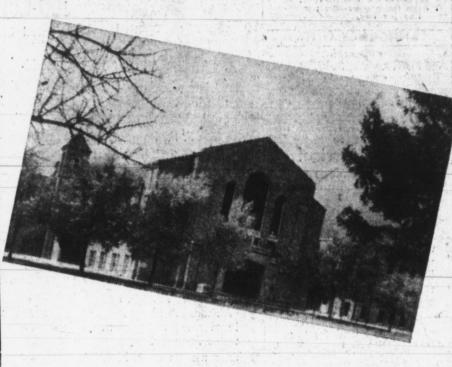

Pampa's 39 churches of all denominations lend dignity to the city, and are always impressive to visitors. Yes, Pampa is unmistakably a city of beautiful churches.

Only recently two new churches were completed and four of the larger churches have undergone expansion programs to accommodate the increasing population which is making possible Pampa's continued growth.

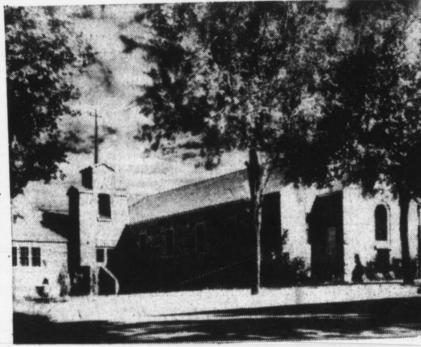

Their very fineness, size and number is expressive of the kind of people who live here and how good their God has been to them.

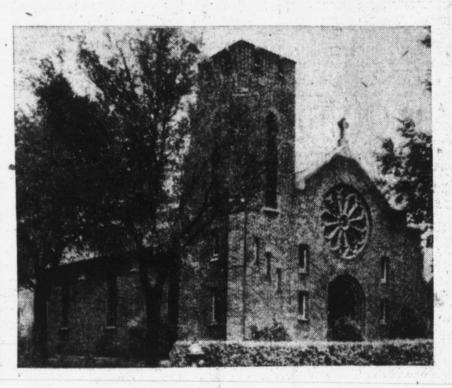

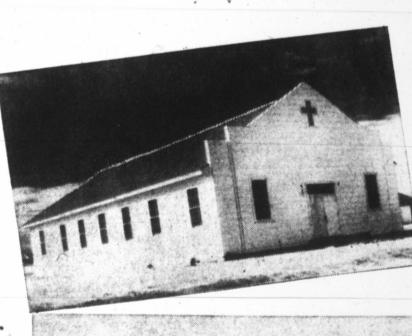

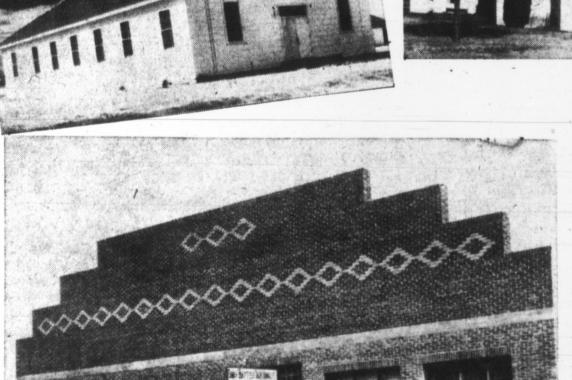

In the interest of building PAMPA, the following individuals, business, industrial and professional firms join in presenting this series of informative pages designed to show why PAMPA is a better town.
