Gen. Eisenhower Proclaims Himself Republican-To Accept Nomination

Ike Sweeps Away Air Of Uncertainty

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower proclaimed himself a Republican today and made it clear he would accept that party's presidential nomination if it is offered. But he said he won't actively seek it.

In a Paris statement, the 61-year-old general swept away much of the fog of uncertainty that has swirled for the last five years about his place in the picture of presidential possibilities.

His statement was prompted by the weekend move by Sen. Lodge (R-Mass.) who announced (A) Eisenhower's name would be entered in the March 11 New Hampshire presidential primary, and (B) there would be a "finish fight" to win the GOP nomination for the general.

Eisenhower, who has been talked as both a Democratic and a Republican presidential possibility, made these main points in his statement:

1. He said Lodge was correct in calling him a Republican.
2. He has no intention of asking that he be relieved of his present assignment as leader of the European defense forces.
3. He will not take part in pre-convention activities of those seeking the nomination for him.
4. He recognizes the right of others to engage in an attempt "to place before me next July (when the Republican convention meets) a duty that would transcend my present responsibility."

Eisenhower's statement tremendously cheered Republicans who have been working for his nomination and have felt themselves handicapped by the general's long silence.

Some of them were getting restive under the feeling of uncertainty as to Eisenhower's position was letting Sen. Taft of Ohio, first to announce as a candidate, get off to a long lead in bidding for support.

The "go ahead" which Eisenhower in effect gave his backers today will let them press their campaign for him with more assurance.

Two other candidates also are

Editors Disagree On Texas' Stand

AUSTIN—(AP)— Nine Texas editors indicated today belief that traditionally Democratic Texas would swing Republican behind an Eisenhower presidential candidacy.

Nineteen other editors didn't think so.

The question was put to the 38 editors attending a three-day seminar at the University of Texas on how to improve local news coverage.

formally in the race—Gov. Earl Warren of California and Harold Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania and former governor of Minnesota.

Another practical effect of today's statement was to pull the rug from under those Democrats who have been beating the drums for the nomination of Eisenhower by their party.

At the White House, aides said President Truman had no comment on the general's statement. There were Eisenhower-for-president booms in both major parties in 1948, despite his defeat. (See EISENHOWER Page 3)

Probe Continues In Lefors Burglary

No arrests have been made by sheriff's officials yet in the burglary of two Lefors firms early last Saturday morning but officers today stated several suspects will be questioned soon.

Investigation of the burglaries at the Foxworth-Galbreath Lumber and Southwestern Public Service companies in Lefors continued today. Nearly 5000 were taken from safes in the two buildings Saturday which were entered between 1 and 3 a.m. officers said.

This was the second time within eight months both businesses had been entered. Burglars failed to take anything the first time.

Stella N. Stedman Dies In Canadian

Stella Newman Stedman died at 12:25 a. m. in her home at Canadian. She was 78.

Mrs. Stedman was born in Greeley, Colo., and moved to Doherty in 1908. Fourteen years later the family moved to Canadian. Surviving are two sons, Holmes of Roswell, N. M., and Nick of Wheeler; one daughter, Mrs. Ruth Rupe of Canadian; a brother, Ed Newman of Greeley; and four granddaughters.

Services are pending at the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral home.

At Least 14 Said Dead In Apartment Fire

WESTFIELD, Mass.—(AP)— Fourteen persons, and possibly 16, were believed today to have perished in an apartment - business block fire amid screams for help heard more than three blocks distant.

Police and Red Cross officials said as far as they have been able to determine 14 were at home at the time of the fire and did not get out in time.

Two others were said to be in a fifth-floor bowling alley but police weren't able to verify that up to an early hour today.

All five floors collapsed into the cellar in a tangled mass of burning wreckage that firemen found impossible to probe immediately.

Fourteen other persons were injured, 12 serious enough to be kept at Noble hospital. The other two were discharged after treatment.

Fire Chief Jeremiah A. Moriarty estimated property damage at "more than $1,000,000."

WALL COLLAPSES

One of the walls collapsed at the height of the blaze and crashed through the roof of an adjoining one-story block of stores.

Fire Chief Moriarty said there would have been many more casualties had it not been for the heroism of several firemen, policemen and onlookers who disregarded personal safety to carry tenants down fire escapes and ladders.

Robert L. Greaney, a Navyman on leave; Chester Dawicki, an Air Force man also on leave, and Mingo Grunerio, were credited with saving five persons who were on the point of collapse when reached.

Greaney later reentered the building but was forced back when flames burned the coat off his back and singed his hair.

He said that as he left the building the second time he could hear a woman shouting, "help me, I'm burning."

Dr. Harold Beattie said he

Value Of Ensilage To Be Pointed Out On Tour Wednesday

Information about the value of ensilage will be given a group of farmers, ranchers and interested cattle feeders at 2 p. m. Wednesday at the Clyde Carruth farm, 12 miles northeast of Pampa.

The group will meet with Foster Whaley, Gray County agricultural agent, to view a silo and feed lot arrangement which Carruth installed last year.

Whaley said today that during the past year much interest has been manifested in trench silos and cattle feeding in the Pampa-Carruth area.

"It is profitable for Colorado cattle feeders to ship Panhandle and grain from the both cattle and grain from the Panhandle to utilize their silage," he said, "then since we produce all three—cattle, grain and roughage—why wouldn't it be profitable for Gray county to finish our cattle here?"

He said that cattle feeding in the Panhandle is on a marked increase and that during 1951 hundreds of trench silos have been dug.

"Mechanization of the process of putting ensilage in the trench silo and also removing it was eliminated expensive methods of hand labor used in the past."

During the Wednesday meeting Irvin Cole will discuss a cattle feeders tour made to the Arkansas River valley of Colorado last spring.

Well, He Found Out

NEW YORK—(AP)— Samuel Masello, 38, wondered what would happen if he touched the wires protruding from a small percussion cap he found in his basement to a dry cell battery.

Fordham hospital reported today that his condition was not serious despite the tiny metal fragments that had peppered his body.

FIELDHOUSE NEARS COMPLETION — A barefooted workman is shown above sanding the vast hardwood floor of the new field house in which the Pampa Harvesters will play out their 1952 cage season. Tickets are on sale now at the school business office but Roy McMillen, business manager, says buyers will have to take a chance that the gymnasium is completed in time for the Jan. 19 opening game. Architects still decline to place a deadline on completion. (News Photo)

Husband Of Vanished Beauty Near Collapse

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)— The mystery of the Canadian beauty who vanished while fishing on the overseas highway in the Florida Keys deepened today and her husband was reported near collapse.

"They've got to find my petite wife," said short, stocky George Lemay, holding back the tears. "They've got to."

South Florida law enforcement officers were doing everything possible to locate Mrs. Huguette Lemay, 21-year-old member of a well-known Montreal French Canadian family.

Her brother, Raymond Daoust, young Montreal criminal lawyer, and the distraught husband worked closely with Deputy Sheriff James Barker in an attempt to solve the baffling case.

This was their problem: Huguette and her husband, a 26-year-old Montreal real estate dealer, were fishing on the south side of Tom's Harbor Bridge No. 4, about 12 miles north of Marathon Friday night.

At 10:30 p. m. (EST) Huguette, who was wearing a shorts and halter, left George to go back to their convertible and change into dungarees. The distance was about 150 yards.

The bridge spans deep water on the highway which runs from Miami to Key West. A strong current flowed between the Atlantic and the Gulf of Mexico and the night was dark and overcast.

Huguette walked along the narrow, cement strip on the south side of the bridge and vanished.

Burial Of Negro Korea Vet Still Held Up After 5 Weeks

PHOENIX, Ariz.—(AP)— The case of a Negro soldier killed in Korea, whose body has laid in a Phoenix mortuary five weeks awaiting clearance on a burial site, appeared no nearer solution today.

The question of whether to abolish regulations that have prevented his interment in a Veterans plot at Greenwood Memorial park is entirely in the hands of the cemetery's board of trustees.

Franklin G. Hannah, board chairman, said it would be at least a "few days" before he could summarize the group.

"I may call a meeting sometime this week if I can get the members together," he said. "But it is very difficult as one works on the railroad."

He said he thought all six trustees should be present.

The unburied soldier is PFC Thomas C. Reed, 19, who died in front-line fighting June 3. His body was returned to a local mortuary Nov. 28 and has been held there since.

George E. Reed, the boy's father, said that his son was buried in the Veterans plot at the cemetery. But he objected to following the procedure set up by the cemetery board.

The trustees required that letters of request be filed by three local veterans organizations. Four other Negro soldiers have been buried in the formerly all-white Veterans plot under this plan.

New Gym A Question: Cage Tickets Are On Sale

Season tickets for the Pampa Harvesters' district I-AAAAA basketball schedule have been placed on sale by the school business office, Roy McMillen, school business manager, announced this morning.

But the tickets are on an "if we do" or "if we don't" basis.

The doubt lies in the fact that a definite "yes" cannot be obtained as to whether or not the new field house will be ready for the Jan. 19 home opener against the Borger Bulldogs. At the present time it appears that the playing floor and gymnasium itself will be ready for use, but it is probable that the rest of the building may not be fully completed.

McMillen has asked that anyone desiring a season basketball ticket either stop by the business office in the city hall, or phone 569, and their name will be placed on a list for the tickets.

The seats will be issued on a first come, first served basis with the better seats going first.

Price of the full season ticket book is $6 for the six conference games. But, said McMillen, if the field house is not ready for the first game, the first ticket will be torn out of each book, and $5 charged. So, until a definite "yes" comes from the architect or contractor, only a list of buyers will be taken.

J. D. Hester, Sr., Service Held Today

Services for Joe D. Hester, Sr., 77, were held at 2 p. m. today in the Church of Christ, White Deer, Milton Brewster officiating.

Mr. Hester died Sunday afternoon in the home of a son six miles south of Kingsmill. He moved to Texas from Kentucky in 1885 and was married in 1896. Since last June, when the tornado destroyed their home at White Deer, Mr. Hester and his wife had lived with a son.

Survivors are his wife; one daughter, Mrs. Nancy Kahn of Dallas, three sons, J. D. Jr., of White Deer, H. H. of Dallas, and A. V. of Cotman, Texas.

The body will be sent to Olathe for burial.

Reds, Allies Exchange Letters For Prisoners

PANMUNJONG, Korea.—(AP)— A batch of 199 letters from UN prisoners of war was turned over to United Nations postal officers today by the Communists.

At the same time, the UN turned over 1087 letters from the United States to be delivered to men in the Red prison camps, plus eight letters from UN-held Communist prisoners to their families in North Korea and China.

Sen. Kefauver Placed In Ring By Ohio Dems

WASHINGTON—(AP)— Rep. Hays (D-Ohio) announced today a complete slate of delegates will be entered in the Ohio Democratic primaries for Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.) for the presidential nomination.

Hays made his announcement at a news conference.

Ohio law requires a candidate for a party primary nomination enter his consent in writing before delegates may be placed up on the party ballot.

Asked if he had such a written approval from Sen. Kefauver, Hays replied:

"KNOW WHAT I'M DOING"

"I don't have it at the moment. But I have been in politics for 20 years and you'll just have to assume I know what I'm doing."

It was Hays who last month emerged from a White House conference with President Truman saying the President would issue a statement by Feb. 6 telling whether or not he was a candidate for reelection.

The White House said Mr. Truman had not made any commitments about the date for announcing his intentions.

Hays told newsmen "there will be no repudiation of my action."

The announcement was the first open move to get the ball rolling for the Tennessee Senator, who achieved nation-wide prominence over the television networks during hearings of the Senate Crime Investigating committee. Kefauver was chairman of the committee.

Fitch Rites Held Today

Services for Eddie M. Fitch, 54, 1020 Alcock, were held at 3 p. m. today in the First Baptist church, Rev. E. Douglas Carver officiating.

Mr. Fitch was found dead in his car Saturday east of Winters, Texas. Prior to moving to Pampa 25 years ago he lived in Kansas.

Surviving is his wife, Odessa of Pampa.

Honorary pallbearers include Bus Hoover, George Cree, Doc Schwartz, Joe Gayden, Albert Weeber, Floyd Arthur, Goldie Blevins and Harry Wheatley.

District Court Term Opens Here Today

The January term of 31st District court opened at 10 a. m. today with the dismissal of nine civil suits; setting of five others for jury hearings on the week of Feb. 11; and empanelling of the grand jury.

The grand jury went into session shortly before 10:30 a. m. Listed for trial by jury on Feb. 11 were: Orval D. Johnson vs. Texas as State Highway Dept.; H. W. Finley vs. Millard Blevins; Culberson Chevrolet Inc. vs. Earl Danmore; C. E. Cary vs. Daniel S. Rutman; and D. A. Finkelstein et al. vs. Oran J. Payne et al.

Several other civil suits were passed for reasons varying from lack of service of citations on defendants to pending settlements out of court.

Tough, New Laws Framed:

Influence Battle Gains Momentum

WASHINGTON—(AP)— A drive for tough new laws to crack down on influence peddlers and their paying clients gathered force on Capitol Hill today.

Senator Monroney (D-Okla.), saying "you can't take a bribe unless a crook pays it," announced he is broadening his anti-corruption bill to provide mandatory prison terms for both givers and takers of bribes.

"We have plenty of prisons for both," he said. "The small of scandals involving tax deals, government loans and some other operations of the government indicates it's time we used them to house both."

He announced a last minute revision of his many-toothed bill to strip courts of power to grant immunity to bribe takers and a provision for soliciting a bribe by a person turns state's evidence under grant of immunity.

The new provision calls for a minimum of one year in prison for taking or soliciting a bribe while on a government payroll or offering or paying one to a federal worker.

Monroney told a reporter he expects White House backing for at least parts of the bill, and has promises of bi-partisan support for it among Congress members.

He added that he has "no objection" to President Truman's announced plan for reorganizing the Internal Revenue bureau. But he said he still intends to offer Congress a choice between Mr. Truman's proposal and his own.

Monroney said his plan "goes one step farther than the President's." He said it would place the entire internal revenue staff without exception under a strict civil service regulations to keep them on their toes and out of politics.

The President's reorganization plan, which will become law unless Congress rejects it by a two-thirds majority vote of the members voting, would exempt the Civil Service commissioner from Civil Service control.

Mr. Truman's reorganization plan also would abolish the 64 offices of internal revenue collectors and replace them with 25 district commissioners.

A Republican member of the committee investigating tax scandals said today the President's plan might improve efficiency, but there is no assurance it would clean up the internal revenue bureau.

City To Consider Bids On Sweeper

Bids for street sweeper will be opened tomorrow morning by the city commission during its first meeting on 1952.

City Manager Dick Pepin this morning said the commission's agenda is still incomplete and that he did not know just what items will be brought up for discussion and action.

This is the first meeting of the commission in three weeks. Two previous meetings were cancelled because they fell on Christmas and New Year's.

Joy Sees Indication Reds Do Not Want A Stable Peace

MUNSAN, Korea.— The joint was the now familiar "no progress."

If the Communists "are acting in good faith and sincerely want peace, there can be no reason for them to construct military airfields during the period of armistice," said Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy. He flew to Tokyo for conferences with Gen. Matthew Ridgway, supreme allied commander.

"If, on the other hand, the Communists are acting in bad faith and are, in fact, preparing for war, the construction of military airfields becomes, and is a matter of great urgency to them," Joy added.

The Reds reiterated their insistence on the right to construct and repair airfields during a brief Monday meeting of the subcommittee on truce supervision.

The session ended abruptly after Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang accused the Allies of "intentionally delaying the negotiations" and trying to wreck the truce talks by insisting on prohibiting construction of military air bases.

Allied Jets Score Wins

SEOUL, Korea.—(AP)— Flashing U. S. jet planes destroyed seven Russian-built MIG-15 jets and damaged 12 in two days of renewed furious air fighting high over northwest Korea.

U. S. Sabres shot down two MIGs and damaged two on Monday. The day before, U. S. planes blasted five of the Red jets to earth and scored hits on 16.

U. S. losses, if any, were not reported.

Allied ground forces on the western front fought fiercely in sub-freezing weather toward a prize outpost lost to the Reds Dec. 28.

It is indeed a rare bride who knows just what to buy to furnish her new home. So far her ideas have consisted of an enchanted place, full of everlasting peace and happiness, unmarred by problems of room arrangement, storage planning and color schemes. This is the time to take advantage of all the services offered by local retailers. A sure knowledge of merchandise, and experience in the delicate job of translating a dream into reality is the invaluable contribution of the well informed retail furniture salesman.

Stores everywhere realize that such a service builds business for the future and makes every effort to get you off to a good start. It is no longer the exclusive and affluent few who are able to consult a professional decorator. The job of the typical furniture store salesman today is to assist the customer in doing the best job possible with the amount of money she has to spend. More than likely the salesman will suggest a few pieces of good quality rather than quantity at the expense of quality. Don't risk mistakes with your first furniture budget. Remember, you will live with it a long time and careful selection now will have a long lasting reward. Be sure to consult the experts and make your home the enchanted place you have planned.

WAVES GRADUATE

BAINBRIDGE, Md. — (AP) — The first group of Wave recruits to get their indoctrination at this big Navy training center had "graduation" exercises Saturday. There were 140 women in the first class to complete nine weeks of study and drill in such basic things as Navy lingo, organization, tradition, history, insignia, and duties.

Cretney's Being Changed To Semi-Self Service Store

In step with the new year is a new "face-lifting" job now in progress at Cretney's Drug store. Counters are being rearranged, more tables have been added to hold various products and more area is being filled so customers may have a greater selection of items from which to choose.

The reason? Pampa's largest drug store is being converted into a semi-self service business. With the exception of several departments, customers now will be able to select what they want at their own convenience before making a purchase.

Still serviced by salesmen or women will be the fountain, cosmetics and prescription departments, from which a continued satisfactory service will be forthcoming.

Along with the change in the store will be a redecoration of the prescription shop at the rear of the building. Adding to the appearance of this department will be a new neon sign indicating its location. One of the many advantages from having prescriptions filled at Cretney's is a cheaper rate charged for all prescriptions. At least a third of the standard price charged at other places will be subtracted from all medicines.

One of the newest practices to be put into effect will be a "half-price" table which will at all times contain various items priced at half their usual sale value. Such articles as toilet soap, toothpaste, toothbrushes, combs and many other items may be found, always for a bargain.

During the next several weeks, Cretney's will be offering "specials" in soap and cosmetics, which will be priced at a lower-than-usual rate. For instance, the annual acquaintance sale on Wrisley Bath Superbe soap will be in progress. With the purchase of four cakes of the soap at the usual price of $1.25, a fifth cake will be given free to the customer.

Another item high on the "must" list at Cretney's is the wind and weather lotion by Tussy. It's wise to be prepared for all types of weather in the Panhandle. Last week temperatures plunged over 50 degrees from warm to freezing.

That is why it is good to have on hand at all times a bottle of Tussy wind and weather lotion for protection.

Also featured are cosmetics by Dorothy Gray, a well known product to women. Included in the array are skin cleaner, cleansing cream and collagen cream.

Whether you come in to buy or just look around at the "new Cretney store," Huston DeFord, manager, extends his welcome to everyone.

Waco Citizens Fight Phone Rate Hike

WACO — (AP) — A mass meeting was scheduled in Waco today to protect a proposed city ordinance that would boost telephone rates by 28 percent.

A group of businessmen who called the meeting said the proposed increase would boost Southwestern Bell Telephone Co.'s annual income by $221,748.

Fourth and final reading of the ordinance is set for a meeting of the board of aldermen Jan. 15.

Leaders of those opposed to the rate increase said the mass meeting today was called to raise money for an anticipated federal court action.

Mayor L. M. Crow told businessmen "that if the citizens raise a fund, the city dads will make it possible for the citizens to carry the ball."

Acting City Manager S. M. Wilson said $60,000 to $100,000 would be needed to fight the

All Types Of Hobbies Can Be Found At Sportsman's

On these cold winter nights when there's not much to do but stay indoors, much enjoyment can be obtained by working at a hobby, whether as a pastime, for profit or both.

Maybe you don't have a hobby or just haven't selected one yet. If not, you are missing a lot of fun and should start right away in selecting some pastime enjoyment.

First, everyone who wishes to start a hobby or add to his or her present avocation should visit a hobby shop — and headquarters for hobbyists in Pampa is the Sportsman's store, 115 E. Kingsmill. Items appealing to the enthusiast can be found without trouble here.

For those people who may be interested in building model airplanes, all types can be supplied from the Sportsman's store from plane kits to power motors to glue and paints. A variety of models available will satisfy both the beginner and the most critical builder.

Included in the store's supply are non-flying shelf models representing famous World War II planes, rubber powered ships, novelty models out of the usual line followed, such as the ship which is jet-powered and also a helicopter, and the line of low-cost jobs, all endowed with an authentic scale of realism. These kits are designed for ease and speed of construction, yet they embody a design used successfully in the past.

Of course, if you are more interested in building models other than airplanes, such as ships, the Sportsman's store still can supply you with all the materials you need.

There still is time to hunt your quota of quail before the season ends, and all your hunting needs can be filled. If you desire only to target shoot, or your boy wants a B. B. gun, both wishes can be fulfilled from a variety of selections.

Perhaps you enjoy archery or basketball. If so, the Sportsman's store, 115 E. Kingsmill, will be an ideal place for the purchase of this equipment.

Since Garvin Elkins moved into his new office in the Duncan building, insurance business for him has tripled.

Representing an old and reliable line of insurance, Elkins specializes in fire and automobile insurance. His company, now three years old, is on a very sound basis and represents the finest of insurance.

Also featured is the basic policy required by the new drivers responsibility law, at a cost of $25 yearly. Elkins has a convenient budget pay plan for those interested in the policy. Either a small down payment and a small monthly installment can be made or nothing down with a consecutive monthly installment charged.

To solve your insurance problems see Garvin Elkins today in Room 5 of the Duncan building.

Predicts Drugstores Will Feel Dope Drive
NEW YORK — (AP) — The current crackdown on illegal narcotics suppliers may result in more drugstore hoistings.

James C. Ryan, New York district supervisor of the Federal Bureau of Narcotics, predicted yesterday a wave of holdups and forced prescriptions.

His reasoning: narcotics users, weary of desperate means to get the drugs.

He made his statement after a roundup of scores of narcotics sellers here over the week end. Similar roundups were made elsewhere over the country.

DEALER'S TRUCK FOUND
DALLAS — (AP) — A truck belonging to Howard Rowland, 37, Pauls Valley, Okla., produce dealer, who disappeared a week ago, was found by Dallas police Saturday.

Capt. P. B. Leach said the vehicle was impounded on a traffic violation charge after being parked on a city street several days.

tor, and that rotund set caller from down the ridge, Fulla Hotair.

Other guests desiring to attend the above wedding are welcome.

The ceremony and events leading to it will begin at 8 p.m. in the new Carver High auditorium, Jan. 11. Price of admission will be 75 cents for adults and 35 cents for children.

This is the second presentation of the "Shotgun Wedding" by students of the Gray county vocational class in assistant management, and members of the Doris Miller Post 898, The American Legion.

'Social' Event To Be Friday

All of Speedunk Ridge will be royally entertained on Friday night, Jan. 11, when Mr. Snodgrass Buckshot, ably assisted by his trusty shotgun and his ample wife, Mrs. Cowslip Buckshot, unite in unholy matrimony with daughter, Sarfonia, as the eager bride and Eli Snoodle as the reluctant groom.

The bride will wear a white lace wedding gown and veil and will be attended by beauteous bridesmaids dressed in appropriate costumes and accessories. They are Misses Petunia Bloomfast and Hester Toobig.

The groom having been snatched from his front yard while conversing with his best friend who is Speckled Perch from across the ridge. They, not knowing of the wedding in advance, are dressed in their every day attire.

Misses Annie Tubolard, Sunflower Growtall, Honeysuckle Around Tree and Irish Hotstew will act as flower girls. The Little Miss Morningglory On-the-Wall will act as trainbearer and Master Bluefinch Onawing will be ringbearer.

Music for the gala occasion will be furnished by Mr. Giffiddle Squaredance, the noted guitarist from Apple Hollow.

Also attending the wedding will be Coolbreeze and Speedy two old acquaintances of the Snodgrass family, and Dr. Castor-oil Q. Pillorler, the family doctor.

Texans, Congressmen Hold Question-Answer Sessions

FORT WORTH —(AP)—Texans are getting down to a town meeting level with their congressmen.

In a hotel convention room, eight of the state's 21 congressmen sat at a table on a raised platform and were questioned closely by more than 500 constituents.

For many in the room it was their first view of a congressman. They fingered portable microphones awkwardly, cleared their throats often. But their questions were to the point:

"What do you think of the Brannan Plan?" a tall voter asked Rep. Bob Poage of Waco.

Grabbed for the microphone and Poage, sitting at the table, said quickly, "Personally, I'm not for the Brannan plan."

"Does the plan smack of socialism?"

"I don't mind putting my brand on it. Yes, of course I think the Brannan Plan is socialistic in nature."

That was the tone of the meeting billed as the first Texas Congressional Forum.

Ed Gossett, an ex-congressman himself, was the first speaker. He outlined the purpose of the forum and called it "an experiment in democracy."

In two hours the audience asked about 50 questions dealing with a wide variety of governmental problems. The reaction of the crowd seemed favorable and comment on the forum experiment was that it should be repeated.

The Dallas Morning News said editorially the forum "looks like one of the happiest ideas in a long time."

The newspaper said Washington is a long way from home and the members of Congress have had little "time out" in recent years for visiting the home folks. It sees the congressional forum as a new method of correcting that situation.

Competition for the floor was keen as young Junior Chamber of Commerce members offered microphones to eager questioners. No question went unanswered.

The moderator offered to spare the legislators at several points if it wouldn't be necessary for them to answer a question like, "Do you think congressmen should get a raise in pay?" But the congressmen took over to say "yes" — emphatically.

Credit for the organization of the first Texas Congressional Forum went to the West Texas, East Texas and Fort Worth Chambers of Commerce.

heard the anguished screams for help from his home three blocks away.

An elderly couple, dressed only in nightclothes, nearly collapsed on the street while waiting for help. Onlookers took off their own shoes and overcoats to protect the couple from the freezing cold.

GREAT PUFFS

William Haltrum, proprietor of the Colonial Inn at the rear of the building, said the structure seemed to be smoking at first, and then a "great puff of flames" broke out on the third and fourth floors.

He said he saw firemen try to rescue a woman trapped at a fourth floor window but the ladder was too short. She was rescued, he said, even as flames licked at her back when firemen clambered to an adjoining roof and then extended a ladder from there.

Jerry Murphy, who recently came here from Ireland, carried two women down a fire escape—one on each shoulder.

Miss Mary Armstrong, night supervisor at the Noble hospital, was assisting the injured when word was brought her that her infant, Helen Armstrong, was one of those believed killed.

The building was made of brick and was the largest business-apartment block in this city of 24,000 population.

The first floor had stores, the second, third and fourth had professional offices and apartments and the fifth a bowling alley.

Firemen said that because of the huge mass of tangled and smoldering wreckage it may be days before any bodies can be recovered.

The thousands of cubic feet of water poured onto the flames quickly turned to ice making even more difficult the immediate search of the wreckage.

The fire broke out last night but was not brought under control until early today.

Rough And Ready 'Secedes' Again

ROUGH AND READY, Calif. —(AP)—Fifteen fraternity pledges lowered the American flag from the post office Sunday and ran up the stars and bars of the Confederacy.

About half of the town's 125 population cheered and feted the "rebels," then contributed to the March of Dimes.

It was part of initiation week of Alpha Kappa Phi, a local at College of the Pacific, Stockton, Calif. The fraternity changed traditional "hell" week to "help" week to boost the polio fund campaign.

The boys adopted the Confederate motif because the fraternity was split by the Civil war. They chose Rough and Ready because this former gold mining camp seceded from the Union 90 years ago.

Reactor Turning Out Anti-Cancer Atoms

NEW YORK — The country's biggest peace-time atomic oven — the reactor at Brookhaven, N.Y. — is turning out radioactive isotopes to fight cancer and help in medical experiments.

EISENHOWER

avowal of political ambitions.

The booms persisted until he announced with complete finality that he would not accept such a nomination even if it were given to him.

Last November, after a group of Republicans started a new boom and some of them had conferred with him, he kept the door open.

From then on the GOP group backing Eisenhower for their party's presidential nomination insisted with fresh emphasis that he would be available.

But even yesterday, a day when saying Eisenhower's name would have entered in the GOP New Hampshire primary, conceded he had no direct authorization from the general to take that step.

Apparently, however, Lodge had reason to expect some early statement from Eisenhower. But the 22-hour wait, before the statement actually was issued, seemingly was longer than the general anticipated.

Lodge, national chairman of the GOP, Eisenhower for - president movement, told a news conference that Eisenhower's aides would be ready for his announcement, and invited reporters to "check that in Paris."

Efforts to do so were fruitless.

Col. Harry Connelly, the general's chief information officer, finally said after repeated calls by newsmen that despite Lodge's suggestion, there would be no immediate statement. Aides said any possible reply must await Eisenhower's return to his desk today.

This initial silence, plus the fact that Lodge produced only verbal assurances Eisenhower is a Republican and available as a candidate, left the general's political status somewhat up in the air in the minds of many politicians.

Eisenhower already has the support of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the 1948 Republican standard bearer. The general also has the editorial support of several newspapers — among them the New York Times, the New York Herald Tribune, the Chicago Sun-Times and the Providence (R.I.) Journal. His home is in Kansas, but he left the presidency of New York's Columbia university to take command of Allied headquarters here.

General Lanham told reporters Gen. Eisenhower "hopes his statement will demonstrate his concern, as an American citizen, in problems that the American people must solve. He hopes also that it will convince our citizens and those of the other NATO countries that he views with the utmost seriousness the responsibilities of the post to which he is presently assigned."

Before issuing his statement Eisenhower conferred for an hour with his principal advisors. The general read a complete file of Coast Guard had any word of the men. It investigated and learned:

They'd just beached their converted fireboat at Stinson beach in San Pablo bay, 17 miles away from the Pacific ocean, and the opposite direction from Vallejo.

Wanger To Answer Felony Charge Today

SANTA MONICA, Calif. —(AP)—Film producer Walter Wanger goes to court today to answer felony charges arising from the shooting Dec. 13 of Jennings Lang, agent for Wanger's actress-wife, Joan Bennett.

Wanger told police at the time that he feared Lang was stealing his wife's affections. Both Lang, 39, and Miss Bennett, 41, said Wanger's suspicions were unfounded. Wanger is 57.

press dispatches from the United States. Previously Eisenhower had refused all comment on the political developments in the United States. Senator Lodge, in his Washington announcement yesterday of Eisenhower's entry in the New Hampshire primary, said he had no direct authorization to do so, but declared "he will not withdraw."

Should Eisenhower run for president — and who — he would be the ninth general to occupy the White House and the second West Pointer. Gen. Ulysses S. Grant was the only West Point graduate to become President.

Eisenhower retired from the Army in 1948 to take the post of president of Columbia university, but he continued as a military adviser.

"As long as I am above ground," he said then, "I am never going to leave the army."

Before becoming World War II supreme allied commander in the Allied forces, which in a single year snatched North Africa from the Axis, exterminated Marshal Erwin Rommel's Africa Corps, conquered Sicily and squeezed Italy out of the war.

A few months after the war, on Nov. 19, 1945, Eisenhower was elevated to the Army's top position of chief of staff.

The general was married in 1916 to Miss Mamie Geneva Doud of Denver. Their son, John Sheldon Doud Eisenhower, was graduated from West Point on D-Day and served later as a first lieutenant in Europe.

Eisenhower became interested in tanks during World War I and in 1918 won the Distinguished Service medal for "unusual zeal, foresight and marked administrative ability in the organization, training and preparation of technical troops of the tank corps." He spent most of World War I in that work and did not get overseas until World War II.

He was a lieutenant colonel in the regular army, though he held the temporary rank of brigadier-general, when the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor. In mid-December of 1944, Eisenhower was elevated to general of the army — a five-star rank just created.

Gray County Council Installs New Officers

Gray County Home Demonstration officers were installed at the annual council party held recently in the City Club room. New officers include Mrs. Charles Warminski, chairman; Mrs. Walter Noel, vice chairman; Mrs. A. M. Nash, secretary and Mrs. W. Smith, treasurer, and Mrs. J. S. Fuqua, parliamentarian.

Miss Helen Dunlap, demonstration agent, directed the impressive installation service. She used the theme, "A chain is as strong as its weakest link."

Following the installation Mrs. Ernest McKnight told the story, "The Turquoise Necklace." Various clubs gave plays, with Merten and Bell clubs winning first and second prizes.

The scrap book awards for 1951 were given to the following clubs: Bell, first; Merten, second; and Wayside, third.

The Bell club won the attendance prize.

Mrs. Nash was in charge of arrangements for the party. Mrs. A. R. Whitten presided at the guest register and Mrs. Warminski and Mrs. Noel served tea and coffee. Mrs. Elmer Melton served cake.

Other chairmen for the new year are as follows: Mrs. C. A. Jones, Mrs. T. D. Anderwald, civil defense.

Mrs. Charles Warminski

Emmett Osborne, visual aid; Mrs. Frank Palminter, recreation; Mrs. register and Mrs. Warminski and Mrs. Noel served tea and coffee; Mrs. Elmer Melton served cake.

"Churches For Our Country's Need" Is Study At First Methodist Circles

"Churches For Our Country's Need" was the study introduced at circle meetings of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist church Wednesday. The text "Mission to America" by Truman Douglas was used.

Purpose of the study is fourfold: to acquire a better understanding of the program and a mission of the church; to recognize the importance of church extension; to appreciate the contribution the church has made; and to discover how the church may meet the needs of the people today.

Circle one met in the home of Mrs. A. C. Steeley with nine members and two visitors. Mrs. F. W. Sholwell was study leader. Mrs. Orion Carter brought the devotionals using the New Year as her theme. In closing, she asked each member to give her thoughts on the way she spent last year in the way of religion or appreciate the contribution the church has made; and to discover how the church may meet the needs of the people today.

Beauty After Forty

I am always receiving letters, asking me for exercises which reduce a double chin or lift a sagging chin. Exercise will not do it. Of course, certain exercises, such as lying on a table and dropping and lifting the head over the edge will help. Posture correction is definitely a must, and work on your contour is necessary.

Try assuming good posture, take a look in your mirror; front, back and sideways. You will see the difference. You will look younger, more alive and, miracle of miracles—you will look slimmer!

When you have a double chin it is usually because you are overweight, so why should I tell you to diet? You know that you should and you will if you are vain enough and, more important, if you value your health.

You should think good posture and assume it as a part of your daily program. Never allow yourself to slump. Bad posture of the head brings on the sagging chin.

For homework on your chin you will need a little time for yourself, a good astringent lotion and a good cosmetic oil, a bowl of ice cubes with which to chill your lotion and a pad of dampened absorbent cotton, which you will use to mold back and tuck along the contour up to the earline. Around and around on the neck with the astringent. This is the procedure for tightening the loose skin and toning the flabby muscles.

The oil should be applied at night to smooth the skin and give it a glow.

Study your hairdo. A high effect aids in giving a lifted look to the face. Necklines should be carefully selected and your necklaces chosen with an eye to flattery.

And remember—when you lift your chin you lift your spirits!

DRESS UP POTATOES
 Dress up mashed potatoes with light cream, lots of butter or margarine, and a little dried crumbled rosemary. Heat the butter or margarine with the rosemary, then set in a warm place to steep for half an hour. Strain out rosemary before adding the herb-flavored fat to the potatoes.

Time past and time present, both, may pain us, but time improved is eloquent in God's praise. —Mary Baker Eddy.

A wondrous fountain yet unsealed; A casket with its gifts concealed— This is the Year that for you waits Beyond to-morrow's mystic gates. —Horatio Nelson Powers.

Sub Deb Pledges Presented During Holiday Season

Pledges of the Sigma Delta Sub-Deb club were presented recently at their annual Christmas Presentation dance held at the American Legion hall.

Carrying out a theme of a "Kandy Kingdom" the hall was decorated with huge suckers and candies. A painted candy house served as a backdrop for an arch of candy canes forming out of gumdrop trees. Pledges and their escorts were presented from this archway. The throne was covered in red satin with a blue spot light shining on it. Huge suckers were against the walls and a gingerbread man stood near the door. Colorful balls and plastic foam snow flakes hung from the ceiling. The glass blocks were dotted in snow flakes.

The pledges and their escorts were: Sue Toepfer and Jimmie Robinson; Connie Kelly and Glen Lemmons; Lou Nell Wagner and Norman Britten; Shirley Larsen and Dewaine Johnson; Nihla Morrison and Derrell Coffman; Bernice Young and John Young; Leta Faye Hamilton and Cecil Stewart; Shirley Olson and Jimmy Dunlavy; and Shirley Smith and Charles McCray.

Miss Donna Conley, president of the club, announced the girls and their escorts as they were presented. The club sponsors are Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tripplehorn, senior sponsors, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moore, Jr., junior sponsors. Music was furnished by the Mello-Aires.

Margaret Price Is Complimented With Bridal Shower Here

Among the many courtesies honoring Miss Margaret Price, was a crystal and pottery shower recently given by Miss Joanne Appleby and Miss Barbara Carlson.

Table appointments were crystal and silver, and the centerpiece was an arrangement of pink carnations with a miniature bride and ruffled parasol.

PFC. AND MRS. PATRICK JAMES SPELMAN

Miss Mary Therese Keough Becomes Bride Of Pfc. Patrick James Spelman

Miss Mary Therese Keough, daughter of Mr. L. F. Keough, became the bride of Pfc. Patrick James Spelman in an impressive double-ring ceremony solemnized in Holy Souls Catholic church Wednesday morning, Dec. 26.

Rev. Myles Moynihan, C. M., officiated at the ceremony and was celebrant of the high mass.

Miss Delores Blymiller was organist and accompanied Mrs. Lynn Boyd who sang "Ave Maria." Before the ceremony and "Panis Angelicus" during the offering of the Mass. The children's choir, directed by Sister Corbinian, sang the high Mass.

Miss Ellen Keough served her sister as maid-of-honor. Miss Nancy Ruval and Miss Mary Spelman, sister-of-the-bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were styled similar to the bride's gown. They were blue taffeta with net ruffles and insets of net ruffle, in the skirts. The fitted bodices opened in the back with small covered buttons. The waists were scalloped and taffeta ruffles trimmed the yokes and skirts.

Their half-hats were of blue net with tiny net ruffles and shoulder-length veils. They carried colonial bouquets of white carnations on a blue background with white streamers. Miss Keough's dress was light blue and the bridesmaids' gowns each in deeper tones of blue. They wore triple strand pearls and earrings, gifts from the bride.

Eldon Blass was best man. Ushers were Jim Keough, brother of the bride, and Kenneth Williams.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white bridal satin with a yoke of imported lace. The yoke was outlined in a satin ruffle trimmed in seed pearls. The long, fitted bodice opened in the back with small covered buttons and was scalloped at the waistline. The full, flowing skirt ended in a cathedral-length train edged by a wide satin ruffle. An inset of lace ruffles matching the yoke was centered at the front of the skirt. Her three-tiered veil of illusion was scalloped and fell from a half-half of illusion ruffles accented with pearls.

The bridal bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by streamers of stephanotis, pearls and white ribbon. She carried the bouquet on a bridal missal, a gift from the bridegroom. Her "something old" was her mother's wedding ring tied to one of the streamers of her bouquet. "Something blue" was a blue miraculous medal tied to another streamer. "Something borrowed" was a pearl necklace and earring set belonging to her sister. She also carried a pearl sash given her by Rev. F. J. Kunz, C. M.

Following the mass, the choir sang "On This Day Oh Beautiful Mother" as the bride went to the Blessed Virgin's altar and placed a small bouquet of blue flowers. After the ceremony, a reception was held in the bride's home. The serving table was covered with a white cut-work cloth. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was centered on a large mirror with blue candles on either side. Tiny rice bags of blue net surrounded the cake. Assisting at the reception were Mrs. Donald Dickson, Miss Colleen Chisholm and Miss Joan Francis.

When the couple left on their wedding trip, the bride wore a light gray suit with white satin blouse and red accessories. She wore the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Spelman is a Pampa High school graduate and was active in the choir and Quill and Scroll. Pfc. Spelman attended the local high school, and is now stationed at Fort Jackson, S. C.

Mrs. A. D. McNamara Is Re-Elected Holy Souls Altar Society President

Mrs. A. D. McNamara was installed as president of the Holy Souls Altar Society at a recent meeting. Mrs. M. F. Roche was in charge of installation ceremonies.

Other officers include Mrs. R. E. McKernan, vice president; Mrs. J. W. Garman III, secretary-treasurer; and Mrs. W. B. Herr, parliamentarian.

Mrs. McNamara is serving her second term as president of the Altar Society.

Following the installation, perfect appointments for the new year were named as follows: Misses S. C. Johnson, R. A. Chisholm, C. E. Williams, W. B. Herr, H. W. Waddell, V. J. Jamieson, John Taylor, C. L. Sullivan, C. M. Elymiller, Joe Gaden, W. J. Haley and McKernan.

These women will take care of the altar and church during their assigned months, Mrs. McNamara said.

The meeting was closed by Rev. Myles Moynihan.

Mrs. H. Osborne To Attend Scout Training Course

Mrs. Harold Osborne, training chairman of the local Girl Scout Assn., will attend a Girl Scout Volunteer Trainer course to be held in Fort Worth January 14-19.

Two other delegates will be sent by the local board.

The course will be held at Camp Amon Carter and is open to Scouters of two years experience in the field.

A volunteer trainer is a volunteer worker in Girl Scouting who by her experience, education, abilities and personality, is qualified to give training, thereby helping other volunteers to do their job better. The purpose of these courses is to give prospective trainers of leaders and troop committee members understanding of teaching methods.

The courses include principles of adult education, planning courses, and the place of training in the council's total work.

Opportunities are provided for demonstration of different training methods, and for practice training. The local Girl Scout Assn. has approved sending three delegates to this camp.

Mrs. Norman Walberg Is Entire Nous Leader For Coming Year

Mrs. Norman Walberg was elected president of the Entire Nous club for the coming year in a recent meeting held in the home of Mrs. Mays Skaggs. Mrs. Guy Farrington presided at the meeting in the absence of the president.

Other officers elected were as follows: Mrs. Ruth Spearman, vice-president; Mrs. C. A. Tignor, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. O. H. Ingram, reporter.

Following the election of officers, members drew names for secret pals for the new year. Secret pals for this year were revealed at a party held during the holidays in the home of Mrs. Spearman. One visitor, Mrs. Bonnie Skaggs, was present for the meeting.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Farrington with Mrs. Walberg as co-hostess. Members will quilt a quilt for Girls Town during that meeting.

Kroll Sets Pace As LA Open Heads Toward Finish

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — A test of golf's old-timers against its young upstarts was in prospect today as the $17,500 Los Angeles Open golf tournament headed into the finish.

Golf's veterans playing here include such names as Lloyd Mangrum, Cary Middlecott, Dutch Harrison, Lawson Little, Johnny Bulla, Vic Ghezzi, Ellisworth Vines.

The younger generation numbers scores, but formed the bulk of the top contenders today for the $4,000 first prize.

Setting the pace is Ted Kroll, New Hartford, N. Y. Kroll, only hoping "I can keep putting this well" topped 90 others at the 54 hole stage with 214. His last round of 68 was the best posted by any contestant in three days.

But breathing hot behind is one of the vets, the steady Harrison, who seldom does badly over a 7000-yard, 11-par Riviera. Harrison had 215 and many figured him a shoo-in for the title.

From Harrison down to Vines, Bulla and Ghezzi, who are bracketed at 223, 10 strokes over par, are names more or less unknown to many.

Austin Official Exec Of The Year

DALLAS — (AP) — E. F. Knebel, who has spent a life-time in baseball and says it's a game that will go on forever because it operates cleanly, today held the first executive-of-the-year award in the Big State League.

Knebel, owner of the Austin club where he has operated baseball since 1947, the year the Big State League was organized, received the award — a plaque — at the scheduled meeting of the league here yesterday.

League President Howard Green, in making the award, said "baseball usually is left up to people who are civic-minded and love baseball. Nobody ever has made any money out of it."

Probably the best is Jack Burke, Jr., Houston at 29; he has been playing in tournaments since before the war; but didn't do much until the last couple of years. He is tied at 217 with Tommy Bolt, Durham, N.C.

John Barnum, Grand Rapids, Mich., was alone at 218, Jim Ferrier of San Francisco at 219.

In striking distance only if the leaders collapse are Jimmy Clark, Hunting Beach, Calif.; Smiley Quick, Los Angeles; Jerry Barber, Pasadena; and Al Brosch, Garden City, N. Y., all at 220; Jackson Bradley, Chicago, 221; Eric Monti, Los Angeles, and Skeel Riegel, Tulsa, Okla., 222.

Big State Opens Conference Play

(By The Associated Press)

The Big State Conference moves into the heart of its championship schedule this week with East Texas Baptist for the lead — each with a 5-0 record — plays Texas Wesleyan at Austin Saturday in what may be the feature game.

Wesleyan has won one and lost none but plays Daniel Baker at Brownwood tomorrow night and Southwestern at Georgetown Friday night. If Wesleyan comes through those games all right, the battle with St. Eds will be a showdown.

East Texas Baptist has only one conference game this week — meeting Daniel Baker (1-4) at Marshall Friday night, but it has two of the toughest outside foes it could pick — Stephen F. Austin at Nacogdoches tomorrow night and Southwest Texas at San Marcos Wednesday night.

Last week St. Mary's beat Southwestern 6-5 and East Texas Baptist licked Texas Lutheran 69-60 in conference games.

Senior Bowl Is Declared Success

MOBILE, Ala. — (AP) — The Senior Bowl football series, after a shaky and unimpressive start, is a complete success and for the first time the novel game looks like a permanent January sports feature.

After the game, which the North team won 20-6, J. Finley McRae, Senior Bowl president, said that success was assured and then he said "The 'then some' he referred to was net profit, 20 percent of which will be divided among the 50 college players who put on the big show in Ladd Stadium Saturday.

Members of the winning North team were given $500 each and South team members received $400. The take from net profits, not yet known, will be pure pocket money.

The turnout for the third Senior Bowl was 19,500 paid admissions. This represented an increase of nearly 7,000 over last January's game and a substantial increase over the first Senior Bowl game played in Jacksonville, Fla., in 1930.

Southerners won previous games.

Eleven-Man Golf Team To Mexico

DALLAS — (AP) — An eleven-man team will go to Mexico City in February to play in the second annual Texas-Mexico golf matches.

Graham Ross of Dallas, secretary of the Texas PGA, said Byron Nelson would head the team. Others going will be Chuck Klein, San Antonio; Raymond Gafford, Dallas; Jack Harden, El Paso; Elroy Marti, Houston; Ray Hill, Houston; Gene Mitchell, Lubbock; Wally Harlan, El Paso; Johnny Whittin, Little Rock; Abe Beckman, Houston, and Lefty Stackhouse, Laredo.

Doubles matches will be played Feb. 25 and singles Feb. 26. The Mexican National Open is Feb. 28-March 2, and the Texans are due to play in that.

Accompanying the team will be Smiley Rowland, Fort Worth, Texas PGA president; George Aubach of Amarillo, who started the matches last year, and Ross.

Washington — (AP) — Ten college presidents today buckled down to the tough chore of writing a strict code for intercollegiate athletics.

They hope to complete their job by nightfall. But exactly what they have written down—which may have a far-reaching effect on college sports — won't be made public immediately.

The report first will go to the executive committee of the American Council on Education. No date has been set for an executive committee meeting, but Dr. John A. Hannah, president of Michigan State College and chairman of the special sports committee said he hopes a meeting will be called immediately.

In addition to writing the report today, the committee was to hear from Ben Carnevale of the Naval Academy, representing the nation's basketball coaches, and Everett Barnes of Colgate representing the baseball coaches.

HEARD GRID COACHES

At an earlier meeting the college presidents listened to the football coaches, and then decided football games should be confined to the fall.

Their tentative conclusion: no football games after the last Saturday in November or, possibly, the first Saturday in December. They still must decide which date they prefer. But it's likely they will go for the end of the season football bowl games if their recommendations are accepted.

Other decisions: they felt that freshmen should not play on varsity teams, that "lavish entertainment" should be prohibited as a way of attracting prize high school athletes, and that coaches should take the same courses as other students and keep up with their classes.

The presidents have reached no conclusions on the nub of the whole problem: what should—and can—be done to control recruiting and subsidizing of athletes?

Frogs Aiming At Cage Title

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Editor

Rice and Baylor this week try to stop the headlong dash of Texas Christian toward the Southwest Conference basketball championship.

The Horned Frogs weren't pressed last week in opening race, with victories over Southern Methodist and Texas, considered one of the toughest obstacles. TCU beat SMU 68-43, and Texas 62-43.

Texas A&M, Baylor and Texas figured in title speculation, won its only conference game, beating Arkansas 47-42.

Rice, which lost to Southern Methodist 67-53, tests the Texas Christian machine at Houston tomorrow night. Baylor, moving in to championship play, takes on Texas Christian at Fort Worth Friday night.

Texas and Southern Methodist get together at Austin tomorrow night, A&M and Rice clash at College Station Friday night, and Arkansas tackles Texas at Austin Saturday night.

The Horned Frogs roll on at a 63.4 points-per-game clip. They now have won 12 out of 13 for the season.

Baylor may wind up with one of the worst records of any team in the league. The Bears have won only one out of 12 and last week took a 58-56 trouncing from Southwest Texas State of the Lone Star Conference.

A&M opens this week's activity tonight in a nonconference tilt with Oklahoma City University at Oklahoma City.

George McLeod, the fowering Texas Christian center, is so far ahead in the scoring race he probably can't be caught although the season is in its final stages. McLeod scored 44 points last week to bring his season total to 242. Second is Billy Hester of Arkansas with 173. Hester won't be adding to his total; he has left Arkansas and gone back to the farm. Ralph Johnson of Baylor is third with 164 points.

NCAA Opens Big Headache Session

CINCINNATI — (AP) — A flock of potential headaches was piled up on the agenda as preliminary sessions started today for the 46th annual convention of the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

The remedies — if found at all — won't be considered until later in the week, but the pains started even before the NCAA delegates arrived.

In fact, some of them, notably that concerning the televising of football games, have been going on for months.

Some of the others concerned post-season athletic contests, principally bowl football games; aid to athletes; out-of-season football and basketball practice; and proposals to give the NCAA greater authority over its members.

In addition, it was a clinch the college basketball gambling scandals and the question of de-emphasis of sports were certain to have at least unofficial places on the program.

The actual NCAA sessions won't start until Thursday but committee gatherings and meetings of affiliated organizations started today.

The associated groups included the college football coaches, college baseball coaches and the sports division of the college public relations officials.

Longview Likely Big State Team

DALLAS — (AP) — The Big State League will settle its membership for 1952 by Jan. 15 when Longview is expected to replace Gainesville.

Meeting here yesterday, league directors recalled the Gainesville franchise when that city said it wasn't yet ready to announce it would be able to go. President Howard Green will receive applications and the city making the best bid will get the vacated spot.

Gainesville still can be in the league if it makes the most attractive bid, but indications are that Longview, which will be operated by Dick Burnett, wealthy owner of the Dallas club of the Texas League, will be the club. A majority vote of the league membership is necessary to take in the club.

Burnett owned the Gainesville club last year when it led the league but could draw only about 50,000 attendance. Burnett withdrew from the club about a month ago.

The league could not adopt a schedule because of the anticipated change in membership but will do so at a meeting in Austin Jan. 20.

Wichita Falls, Austin, Tyler, Greenville, Waco and Temple announced ready to go. Gabby Lusk, business manager at Texarkana, said his club would be ready in 500 more pledges of support in Texarkana were obtained by January 10.

Evashevski To Iowa Post

Maureen Connolly

Connolly Named Girl Athlete of '51

NEW YORK — (AP) — Energetic Maureen Connolly, the second youngest player ever to win the national tennis championship, today was chosen female athlete of the year for 1951 in the annual Associated Press poll.

The applecheeked, brown-eyed blonde from San Diego, who captured the tennis crown at Forest Hills just 12 days before her 17th birthday, beat out Florence Chadwick, the English Channel swimmer, and Mrs. Mildred Babe Didrikson Zaharias, a five-time winner in these yearly polls.

Little Mo received 81 first place votes out of the 206 cast by sports writers and sportscasters from coast to coast and a total of 366 points. Miss Chadwick, the attractive ex-steno from San Diego who now is the swimming pro at the Grossinger (N.Y.) Country Club, was second with 287 points and 67 first place nominations. Mrs. Zaharias, leading money winner among the female golf swingers and named woman golfer of the year, was third with 288 points and 47 first places.

The leaders, based on three points for first, two for second, and one for third (first place votes in parentheses):

- 1 — Maureen Connolly, tennis (81)
- 2 — Florence Chadwick, swimming (57)
- 3 — Babe Didrikson Zaharias, golf (47)
- 4 — Patty Berg, golf (1)
- 5 — Betty Rawls, golf (2)
- 6 — Pat McCormick, swimming (4)
- 7 — Marion Ladewig, bowling (4)
- 8 — Doris Hart, tennis (1)
- 9 — Nancy Chaffee, tennis (2)
- 10 — Dot Kirby, golf (1)

Others high up included Beverly Hanson, golf (3), 10; Mariens Bauer, golf, 10, and Louise Suggs, golf (2), 9.

2 Pampa Basketball Teams Start Week's Play Today

IOWA CITY, Ia. — (AP) — Forest Evashevski, a teacher of power football who calls his new job a "real challenge, last night was appointed head coach at the University of Iowa.

The Iowa board of control of athletics named the 33-year-old former Michigan Star as Leonard Raffensperger's successor within three hours after Evashevski's formal resignation was accepted by Washington State College at Pullman. He will report here Feb. 1.

President Virgil Hancher of the University and the state Board of Education formally approved the athletic board's recommendation yesterday.

Evashevski was given a five-year contract and the right to bring his own assistants. Both he and university officials declined to reveal his salary, which is presumed to top the $12,000 he received at WSC.

The Pampa Daily News

BLOCKED FOR TOM

Evashevski, who as quarterback did much of the blocking for all-America Tom Harmon in 1940, directed WSC to its best season in 26 years last fall. The Cougars won 7, lost 3 and were considered a strong Pacific Coast contender in 1951. His contract had three years to run.

Raffensperger, 48, had another year to go on a three year pact. His other year won 2, lost 5 and tied 2. His overall record at Iowa is 5-10-3.

Evashevski, a user of the Michigan single wing, said "I don't know much about the material but I understand they lost 15 lettermen at Iowa."

"All I know is the 1951 record and we'll have a rebuilding job to do. I don't think it will be any tougher than we had at WSC in 1950. The year before we came here they lost six ball games."

Evashevski said he would bring three members of his present staff to Iowa. They are Alton Kircher, 41, backfield coach; Bob Flora, 35, line coach and Dan Staveley, 38.

The athletic board said Raffensperger, who drew $10,333 as head coach last year, has been offered another position with the athletic department. The exact nature of the post was not made known and Raffensperger declined to say last night whether he would take the job.

Dr. Paul Blommer, chairman of the Athletic Board, said he would accept the position he will be paid in full for the remaining year of his contract.

Evashevski said his wife and their four children will move to Iowa City sometime next month.

Louise Suggs Captures Top Money In Jacksonville Meet

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — (AP) — A solid little girl with a solid golf game is a tournament winner outside her own back yard for the first time in over a year.

Louise Suggs, 118-pound Carrollton, Ga., professional, was a third best money winner of the finished high-up in nearly every tournament but the only one she won was the Carrolton Open.

Miss Suggs shot rounds of 73, 75 and 79 for 227 — one under par — over the 6,282-yard Brentwood Municipal course.

Miss Suggs shot rounds of 73, 75 and 79 for 227 — one under par — over the 6,282-yard Brentwood Municipal course.

Betty Jameson, San Antonio, former National Amateur and National Open champion, took second money of $500 with 234.

Babe Zaharias, Tampa, defending champion, scrambled all over the course for three days and even her great recovery shots left her nine strokes behind Miss Suggs, tied for third place with Mariens Bauer, Sarasota, Fla., at 236. Each collected $275.

National Open champion Betty Rawls, Austin, Tex.; Patty Berg, St. Andrews, Ill., and Mrs. Betty Bush, Hammond, Ind., tied for fifth with 240 each and collected $183.33 each.

Kathy McKinnon, Florida Southern College student, a runner-up in the Women's National Intercollegiate tournament last year, was low amateur. She scored 241 to beat out Mary Lena Faulk, Thomasville, Ga., low amateur here a year ago. Miss Faulk shot 243.

Professionals completing the money winning list were Alice Bauer, Sarasota, Fla., 211, $180; Beverly Hanson, Fargo, N. D., 243, $160; Betty MacKinnon, Dallas, and Betty Dodd, Tampa, 244 and $125 each; Peggy Kirk, Findlay, O., 246, $100.

Baumgardner Is JC Coach Of Year

(By The Associated Press)

Max Baumgardner, who has been heading San Angelo college's gridiron fortunes for two seasons and has won two championships and been in two bowl games, today was selected by the Sports Writers Association as Texas Junior College coach of the year.

Baumgardner won the honor in a vote-off with Floyd Wagstaff, coach of Tyler Junior College who has led his team in the Junior College Bowl in California.

Ed Kelley, coach of Del Mar of Corpus Christi, champion of the South Texas Conference and Memorial Bowl, was third, and Lee Smith, coach of Navarro College, champion of the Texas Junior College Conference, was next.

Baumgardner and Wagstaff tied at 23 votes apiece in the first selection. In the vote-off Baumgardner won.

The former University of Texas, Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions player will receive a plaque from the Sports Writers Association at the annual sports achievement dinner of the Dallas YMCA Jan. 30.

Baumgardner went to San Angelo from Denison High School, where he had been assistant coach in the fall of 1950. He won the championship of the Pioneer Conference in 1950 and 1951. His team won the Olander Bowl game at Galveston in 1951 and was voted out in the same bowl in the 1952 game. His record in the two years was 15 victories against five defeats counting the bowl games. He had a 9-2 record in 1950 and 6-3 this year.

Baumgardner, a halfback, played at Wichita Falls High School and was on the 1942 University of Texas freshman team but the next three years was in the Army. He returned to play three varsity seasons at Texas.

Border Cagers Battle Tonight

(By MURRAY SINCLAIR Associated Press Sports Writer)

Three games involving the four basketball leaders of the Border Conference are scheduled tonight. They may show if the league has a real powerhouse.

The big load will be carried by New Mexico A&M. On consecutive nights it visits Hardin-Simmons, Texas Tech and West Texas State, each of whom has a victory over Arizona State College at Flagstaff to its credit. The Aggies have beaten Texas Western.

The Aggies have shown the best defense, averaging 55.5 points in 11 games to opponents' 51. Arizona has had the best attack but a woefully weak defense, being outscored on an average of 66-71 in 13 games. Tech, with a 61.5 to 54.4 average in 10 games, was the only team to beat a top-ranking opponent. It edged North Carolina State by one point.

Arizona absorbed the two worst hoop wallopings in the history of the school when it lost to New York University 103-76 and Bradley 98-59. Its six-year monopoly of the conference title appears to be over.

West Texas State smothered impotent Arizona State College at Flagstaff 99-41 Saturday. Tech largely used reserves in trouncing Flagstaff by 37 points the night before.

The Aggies had no trouble beating West Texas by 15 points in the recent Sun Carnival tournament in El Paso, which the New Mexico school won. West Texas was also beaten by Arizona State College at Tempe in an earlier exhibition game.

Hardin-Simmons' current 10-3 record is the best in the league but the Cowboys have given no indication that they will be strong challengers. Texas Western and Flagstaff shape up as the conference doormats.

Texas Western must also make the difficult trip through the eastern part of the league this week. Flagstaff will visit Tempe and Arizona.

District I-A Grid Banquet Tonight

The first annual District I-A football banquet, honoring the boys named to the first and second all-district teams, will be held at 8 o'clock tonight in the American Legion hall at McLean.

Joe Coleman, former Odessa High school coach, and now head coach at New Mexico A&M, will be the guest speaker. W. E. Weathered, Pampa postmaster, will serve as master of ceremonies.

The banquet is being sponsored by the McLean Athletic Department. Logan Cummings is superintendent at McLean and Don Leach the head coach.

READY FOR WEEKEND

The team that is resting, at least from actual competition, are the Harvesters. But they will have plenty of work in store for them this week in preparation for a busy weekend of action against the San Angelo Bobcats on Friday night and the Abilene Eagles Saturday night, both games on the road.

It starts off the district season for the Green and Gold, and they meet one of the roughest teams in the district first. The Bobcats were sixth place winners at the state tournament last year, and this season hold the consolation crown of the Brown tournament as one honor gained. They had been established as district favorites along with the Borger Bulldogs and the Harvesters.

The Harvesters edged the Childrens Bobcats, 44-33 Saturday night at Childress, but looked very sloppy in doing so. That type of ball will never get the job done in district play, and therefore it looks like a hard week of work for the Green and Gold. They will likely leave for the weekend jaunt on Thursday, stopping in Big Spring to work out that night, and then proceed on into San Angelo Friday.

Both games will be broadcast direct from the scene of the action by radio station KPDM.

PAMPA

Building Supply Center of The Northeast Panhandle

Since the oil boom of 1926, Pampa has gained a reputation as one of the fastest growing cities in the Northeast Panhandle. This spectacular growth has made Pampa the center for construction suppliers whose alert and progressive leaders have done remarkable jobs of providing an adequate supply of materials. Amazingly, the fabulous growth of Pampa has by no means reached its peak; although, studies show that in eight years alone the total volume of Pampa's building permits has grown from $138,000 to the unbelievable amount of $4,298,933.

The plants and yards of Pampa's six building material firms are pictured below. Each of which, by its friendly and efficient service, continues to supply Pampa's building material needs.

Yes, Pampa is growing and growing, breaking record after record, as it expands in all directions to meet the needs of its people and those of the whole Top o' Texas area.

In the interest of building PAMPA, the following individuals, business, industrial and professional firms join in presenting this series of informative pages designed to show why PAMPA is a better town.

Jackson Twins

HOW DO THE TWINS FEEL ABOUT THE LETTER POSIE SENT TO THEIR SINGER FRIEND? FORM, JAN THINKS IT'S A FABULOUS IDEA AND JILL THINKS IT'S ALL QUITE MAD!

GOOD FOR JILL! SHE'S A LEVEL-HEADED LITTLE GIRL! AND A WONDERFUL STEADY INFLUENCE ON JAN!

HERE SHE COMES NOW!

HAVE A GOOD SLEEP? HONEY?

ECSTATIC, DADDY! JAN PLAYED TONY'S NEW ALBUM JUST BEFORE WE TURNED OFF THE LIGHT, AND I DREAMT ABOUT HIM ALL NIGHT!

NOW I KNOW WHAT JAN MEANS WHEN SHE SAYS SHE GETS WEAK ALL OVER JUST BY TOUCHING HIS RECORDS! THERE GOES YOUR STEADY INFLUENCER!

Blondie

I NEVER SEE YOU AT BREAKFAST--YOUR HEAD'S ALWAYS BURIED IN THE NEWSPAPER

I'M SORRY DEAR-- YOU'RE RIGHT. I'LL PUT THE PAPER DOWN

Alley Oop

KEEOW! HUMPH!

STOP! CUT TH' JUICE!! DINNY'S HURT! SUMPIN'S WRONG!

EH? WHAT'S TH' TROUBLE?

HOW SHOULD I KNOW? YOU'RE TH' EXPERT!

THE TIME-MACHINE IS WORKING PERFECTLY! I CAN'T UNDERSTAND WHY DINNY JUST STANDS THERE AND HOWLS, INSTEAD OF GOING BACK TO PREHISTORIC MOOD LIKE HE SHOULD!

Little Doc

COME ON, TRIX. THOSE PEOPLE ARE LOOKING AT US... PROBABLY GABBING ABOUT THAT GARBAGE CAN YOU TURNED OVER, TRIX.

SO IT'S THE GREEN S'OOG THAT SPILLED YOUR CAN OF GARBAGE...

AND THAT'S NOT THE FIRST TIME HE DID IT.

IF FOLKS WON'T LOOK AFTER THEIR DOGS THERE OUGHT TO BE A LAW REGULATING SUCH THINGS.

I'M FOR IT...

I'D LIKE TO TALK TO MRS. GREEN IS SHE HOME?

NO, BUT DAD IS. WILL HE DO?

WHAT'S WRONG, CINDY?

I DON'T LIKE SCHOOL

I FIGURED OUT THAT I HAVE TO STAY HERE 'TILL I'M FOURTEEN!

YOU'RE LUCKY! LOOK AT TEACHER

SHE HAS TO STAY HERE 'TILL SHE'S SIXTY-FIVE!

Ozark Ike

ANY NEW PLAYERS ON OUR BASKET-BALL TEAM THIS YEAR, BUDD?

UH--NOPE, OZARK... WE STILL GOT 'A' SAME CREW...

...BUT WAIT! YUH MEET OUR NEW COACH, MISTUH BONYARTE BROWN...

MAN, IF HE AINT SUMPIN'!

WULL, WE DONE AWRIGHT LAST SEASON WITHOUT NO COACH, SO HOW COME WE NEED ONE NOW?

UH--ASK BONYARTE... AN' THAR HE SITS, A-WAITIN' FER US 'T COMMENCE TH'IGHTS WORKOUT!

Buzz Sawyer

ALL THE WAY DOWN ZAZAROP'S SCREAMS ECHO THRU THE CAB!

Yee-oh!

2,700 FEET DOWN... THEN A FANT THUMP. FOR A FULL MINUTE BUZ CLINGS TO THE CRACK IN THE ROCK, UNABLE TO MOVE.

SO HELP ME, IF EVER I GET DOWN FROM THIS MOUNTAIN, I'LL NEVER CLIMB ANYTHING HEWER THAN THE TOP OF A KITCHEN TABLE AS LONG AS I LIVE.

Chris Welkin

CHRIS WELKIN, YOUNG ROCKY STARR AND DR. BUDD, SCIENTIST, ARE CAPTIVES IN THE SPACE SHIP OF "MR. Z" INVADER FROM A REMOTE PLANET... TRYING TO SEIZE THE SHIP, WELKIN BLINDLY WORKS THE CONTROLS AND EVERYONE GOES SPRAWLING!

HOPE I OPENED THE HANGAR LOCKS WHEN I PRESSED ALL THOSE BUTTONS.

THE HANGAR'S EMPTY! EVERYTHING AND EVERYBODY HAS BEEN SIKKED OUT INTO SPACE!

DID YOU SAY EVERYBODY, EARTHMEN?

URK!

Mutt & Jeff

SINCE WE ARE GOING INTO OUR FORTY-FIFTH YEAR MAYBE OUR READERS WOULD LIKE TO KNOW MORE ABOUT US!

NOW, TAKE ME! I WAS BORN IN CALIFORNIA!

SO WAS I!

WHAT PART?

ALL OF ME!

NO NO! WHERE IN CALIFORNIA WERE YOU BORN?

IN A HOSPITAL

I MEAN WHERE DID YOU REALLY COME FROM?

OH, I CAME OUT OF AN INKWELL, SAME AS YOU!

Bugs Bunny

HERE COMES BLAMEK I AIN'T HAD A SHOT AT HIS DERBY FOR YEARS!

I THINK I'LL GET FANCY AN' TOSS A CURVE AT 'EM!

SLAM

Priscilla's Pop

COME, NOW, PRISCILLA! A LITTLE GIRL SHOULD HANG HER CLOTHES IN THE CLOSET!

BUT WHY POP?

WHY?

BECAUSE IF YOU DONT YOU'LL GET A GOOD SPANKING, THAT'S WHY!

THAT'S WHAT I LIKE ABOUT POP.

HE EXPLAINS THINGS SO EVEN A CHILD CAN UNDERSTAND THEM!

OUT OUR WAY By J. R. WILLIAMS OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLES

IT'LL BE TOUGH PULLIN' UP ORIEP HILL--I THINK THEY OVERLOADED US A BIT!

YEH, I WAS JUST THINKIN' WE COULD DO WITH LESS!

EGAD! ANOTHER DRAW! THESE MODERN NABBY-PAMBY FIGHTS ARE A TAPFY PULL! IN MY HEYDAY I WAS CALLED "DANDY BOY" HOOPLES AND I KNOCKED OUT BULLY BENDIGO, THE SUSSEX BLACKSMITH, IN 82 ROUNDS--AND HE COULD RING AN ANVIL WITH HIS FIST!

UNCLE ANDS, I TOLD PINKY FOSTER YOU SAID YOU'D SHAKE THE TAR QUITTA HIM IF HE DIDN'T QUIT PICKING ON ME-- HE SAID IF YOU DID HIS OLD MAN WOULD SQUEEZE YOU INTO A MIDGET!

BORN THIRTY YEARS TOO SOON

THE ATMOSPHERE IS GETTING AGGRESSIVE

Vic Flint

WE'VE SCORED LIBBY! THE CENTERVILLE POLICE RECOGNIZED THE PICTURE OF SPORT FEEDER THAT WE TRANSMITTED BY TELEPHONE!

THERE'S NO DOUBT OF IT, FLINT. THE MAN YOU KNOW AS SPORT FEEDER WAS A LOCAL THUG NAMED SPIKE EATON.

DID A TERM IN THE PEN FOR ARMED ROBBERY, THEN DROPPED OUT OF SIGHT.

AND AT THAT MOMENT...

COPS AT THE BACK IF A DOOR TOO! SIDE

BEEF CAN SLIP PAST THEM, SO CAN SPORT FEEDER.

Wash Tubbs

AT THE BORDER, CUSTOMS MEN GLANCE BRIEFLY THRU BAGS' LUGGAGE AND PAPERS...

THEY SAY 'YATES IS STILL HERE! I'LL GO SEE HOW HE MADE OUT WITH THAT SMOGLER, WHILE THEY CHECK 'YOUR PAPERS', JANE.

SAY! AM I GLAD YOU'RE STILL HERE! I'M REAL CURIOUS--

IT'S UNCANNY, EASY! IT SIMPLY DOESN'T MAKE SENSE! A QUARTER MILLION DOLLARS WORTH OF DOPE CAN'T WASH IN TH' AIR!

I'M SURE COQUINA LEFT MONTERREY WITH IT. HE DROVE VERY FAST, WITHOUT A STOP. I WAS RIGHT ON HIS TAIL, BUT WE CAN'T FIND A GRAIN OF THE STUFF!

BUT SURELY YOU MUST'VE OVERLOOKED SOME HIDIN' PLACE--

THINK SO? WELL, JUST STEP THIS WAY!

Boots

GOODNIGHT, PUG!

G'NIGHT, AND THANKS FOR A SUPER TIME!

THERE, NOW, HONEY, I'D SAY THAT YOUNG FELLER--

I KNOW, DORY! I KNOW! A BIG IMPROVEMENT OVER GOLDWORTH!

...FOLKS, UH-- I GOT A FUNNY FEELIN'! PLUS GOOSE PIMPLES--

AN' I SAYS WE'RE BEIN' LOOKED AT! THIS VERY MINUTE-- WITH EYES!!

DORY, THAT'S THE QUEEREST THING! I HAVE EXACTLY THAT SAME FEELING!

TSK! TSK!

Mickey Finn

GILHOOLEY WAS JUST HERE?

THAT'S RIGHT! AND HE SURE WAS BURNIN' UP WHEN HE LEFT!

BECAUSE WE'RE NOT TAKING IMMEDIATE ACTION ON FINN?

YEAH! HE THINKS WE'RE CRAZY TO WAIT UNTIL FALL!

WELL, WE KNOW WHAT WE'RE DOING!

THAT'S WHAT I TOLD HIM!

THEY'RE GOING TO WAIT UNTIL FINN RUNS FOR RE-ELECTION, GILHOOLEY?

YEAH! NOW LEAVE ME ALONE-- I WANT TO THINK!

Penny

CAPITAL AND LABOR, LABOR AND CAPITAL! WHAT DOES IT ACTUALLY MEAN, FATHER?

IT'S SIMPLE, PRINCESS. THE MONEY I HAVE IS CAPITAL.

AND TRYING TO KEEP YOU AND YOUR MOTHER FROM GETTING IT ALL AWAY FROM ME...

IS LABOR! MOTHER, HE'S BEING CUTE, AGAIN.

Freckles

SO YOU AND HILDA ARE ON SPARKING TERMS AGAIN, HUH?

REET! I PROMISED HER I'D CONCENTRATE ON BASKET BALLS INSTEAD OF CRYSTAL BALLS!

THE TEAM ISN'T CLICKING! WE'LL NEVER BEAT KING-SION IF YOU BOYS DONT SNAP OUT OF IT!

I WONDER WHAT'S BECOME OF THE OLD TEAM SPIRIT?

I'M NOT SUPERSTITIOUS-- BUT MAYBE AN EVIL SPIRIT CHASED HIM AWAY!

Donald Duck

TELL THE COOK THERE'S A HAIR IN MY SOUP?

YES, SIR!

BEG PARDON, SIR. THE COOK SAYS THAT'S IMPOSSIBLE!

OH YEAH! TELL 'EM I'VE COME IN HERE AND TELL ME THAT!

AT YOUR SERVICE, SIR!

WHILE Tommy telephoned, Alma Conroy glanced at the clock. She had been home nearly an hour. By this time the Dentons might be on their way to Mexico. Somehow they ought to be stopped. But how could they stop them, on what pretext? After all, only Alma knew that Mrs. Denton was not a cripple. Even so, this fact, in itself, was no grounds for arrest. And as for Joe Denton, Alma's suspicions about him were based wholly upon her discovery about his stepmother. Still, something ought to be done about the Dentons, and done quickly. "Tommy!" she began. "What about Joe?" He waved her to silence and spoke into the telephone. "Hello, Myrtle!"

my's voice was hoarse with anxiety. "Positive. It was his car and besides, I got a good look at him as he drove off." "Didn't you stop them? Didn't you ask them anything?" Alma demanded wildly. "I ran after 'em and yelled, but it didn't do any good. She saw me and said something to Bright and he stepped on the gas. The light was with them and they were out of sight by the time I reached the corner." "And then?" Alma asked. "I WENT upstairs to her apartment. I couldn't believe I'd seen straight. My good sense told me I must be mistaken. But she was gone, all right. She'd left her wheelchair behind her and all her luggage except one bag. And anyone could see she'd left in a hurry. What do you folks think it means?" "I think you're already beginning to guess," Joe said. "There is only one reason why she and Bright would have left together. And Mrs. Denton wasn't being helped into that car—she was getting in. She doesn't need any help! Didn't you know that wheelchair was a blind?" The look of anger on Joe Denton's face proclaimed his innocence even before he spoke. "Do you think I'd have waited on her like a slave all these years if I knew it?" he demanded furiously. "Well, thank goodness for that!" Alma said it fervently. They began to put the puzzle together, then each contributing a scrap of odd-shaped information until the picture began to form. Alma had realized, even before Joe said the words, that Joe could not have known that his stepmother had pretended to be a helpless invalid. But Alma felt better at having heard Joe say as much. Quickly Alma told of visiting Mrs. Denton's apartment that day and of seeing the old woman packing, standing erect and unsupported, packing a suitcase. Joe's first surprise began to fade. He remembered other things now that she had helped noticed before. (To Be Continued)

Texans Took Active Part In Shaping History Of 1951

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Texans in the nation's capital too, as a prominent part in the shaping of events in troubled 1951. Because of the nature of the times, few of the problems tackled were of purely state or even regional interest. Probably of most interest to Texans aside from the tideland issue was that, too, remained unsettled. Speaker Sam Rayburn of Bonham, as presiding officer of the House, was responsible for steering national defense legislation through that side of the Capitol. Early this year, incidentally, he attained the distinction of serving as speaker longer than any man in the history of the United States Congress. He surpassed the century-old record of 8 years 4 months and 11 days set by Henry Clay. On the Senate side, Senator Tom Connally presided over the Foreign Relations Committee. The group has much to do with the determination of international policy. Much in the limelight in recent weeks have been the delving of the Senate Armed Preparedness Subcommittee headed by Texas Senator Lyndon B. Johnson. As for the tideland controversy, much discussion and a minimum of action occurred in 1951. The situation basically is as it has been for years. The prospects are not too good that anything definite will be done in 1952. Since the U. S. Supreme Court ruled that the federal government has "paramount rights and dominion" over the oil-rich lands beneath the marginal seas a real deadlock has developed. The states no longer can issue leases for development of the offshore property. But, neither can the federal government unless Congress passes specific legislation granting such authority. President Truman and his top administration leaders want federal control. Most congressmen favor state ownership. A lot of debate is expected on the issue in forthcoming months, with little or no chance of a permanent solution being reached. At best, and remote too, is the possibility of a compromise to permit development of the submerged lands on a tentative basis with money receipts being impounded for disbursement when a final agreement is effected. The tax scandal probe is not without Texas angles — though in this case the Lone Star state can take pride. The Commissioner of Internal Revenue is John Dulaplac of Dallas. He took over the position as the inquiry began and is co-operating in the drive to weed out the inefficient and dishonest. He has named Frank W. Lohn, 33, a native of Wallingford, Conn., head of the House cleaning program. Another more or less regional problem which arose during the year, and which is of special interest to Texans, is the importation of Mexican farm laborers. The existing Mexican labor agreement expires in February unless extended. Numerous Texas farm interests want it modified, with more authority given employment officials down at the state and community levels. There's some agitation here for strengthening immigration laws to provide severe penalties against farmers who hire or harbor "wetbacks," aliens who have worked the Rio Grande figuratively if not literally to enter the U. S. illegally. Some sharp differences of opinion among congressmen from the various states may precipitate heated debate. The year 1951 saw one change in the line-up of the Texan congressional delegation. Rep. Frank Beard of Wichita Falls became the freshman member of the group when he won a special election called to fill a vacancy created by resignation of Ed Gossett. The former Wichita Falls legislator now is a private utility attorney in Dallas. "It is reported that soldiers in New Guinea discovered a tribe of natives in which the bridegroom gressed himself from head to foot before the ceremony started . . . but seldom escaped.

The American delegation at the Paris meeting of the United Nations general assembly probably thought it was dealing det a re-sounding slap on the wrist when it abstained from voting on the final allotment of costs of the 1952 U. N. budget. The budget will run in excess of 48 million dollars, and the United States is assessed 36.9 per cent of the total. That is, this one country is to foot better than a third of the bill, while the remaining 58 members pay something less than two-thirds of it. The American deputation took what it doubtless regarded as a "strong" position by insisting that the share allocated to the United States should not exceed one-third of the total. Our wobble-knees are content to accept the role of patsy for America, but they feel that they should be imposed on only so far. The womanish petulance of Dean Acheson's road company of simulated statesmen was without effect upon the remaining U. N. members, who bithely ganged up to put across the division of costs by a vote of 40 to 5, with three abstentions, among them our own. The five opposing votes were cast by the United States, Australia, New Zealand, Canada and the United Kingdom. The American argument consisted of the sad recital that the United States has been hooked for almost the entire costs of the U. N. "police action" in Korea in support of the hallowed principle of "collective security" and thus ought to be given a break. Did that occasion any tears among the brother members? Not so you could notice. The U. N. members, short-handled, were, of course, profoundly undisturbed, while the rest of the crew, which has let Truman slay Good Time Charlie in Korea, acted in consonance with the time tested principle, "Never give a sucker a break." Having dumped the charges on us, they exchanged "Merry Christmas" and "Happy New Years" then went home. That's all we got out of a couple of months of palaver.

They'll Do It Every Time

A cartoon strip with multiple panels. Characters include Snoggrass, Pop, and various unnamed figures. Dialogue includes: "Snoggrass is still stuck. Maybe if I just went out and told him I'd like to help him—but on account of my operation.", "Pop had that operation four years ago—he's been using it as an excuse ever since.", "If Emory don't want to face the guy next door, hell, he'll have to go out the back way and jump the fence.", "Snoggrass burned leaves last fall when she hung the curtains out?", "Playing hide-and-seek with the neighbor in need.", "Think and a tip of the hat to Barney Logan, Sheeveysport, La."

Building Here Takes Decline

By BOB BUSH
Building took a severe drop last year showing total figures lowest since 1948.
Biggest drop was for business construction which fell from $277,190 in 1950 to $41,560 last year. Only six permits were issued for the larger type of construction in 1951.
All figures did not show a downward trend, however. For new residences, local construction set an all time record. Although the number of permits issued in 1951 remained the same as those of the previous year — 219 — total amount of construction was up nearly $300,000.
During 1951 business construction reached its peak in June with April and May vying for second top months. For new residences peak month was January with construction hitting $361,800. May totaled $279,250 and for July figures showed $227,430.
Remodeling residences also showed an all time high for the year with $75,315 more than the previous high in 1948.
Cost of moving buildings inside the city limits was higher by $15,000 than that of 1950, but failed to reach the high set in 1948.
Looking at the entire picture over a five-year period, peak in construction for Pampa was reached in 1950 with 396 permits issued valued at $4,208,998. Although 610 permits were issued during 1948, total value was only $2,408,838. Value of construction increased steadily from 1948 until 1951, when it dropped, with 555 permits being issued. Low year for the period was 1947 with 239 permits granted valued at $692,110.
Probable reason for the decline in construction last year was the restriction in amount of steel and copper allowed for building by the National Production Authority.
For most business construction special government permission must be obtained to receive items on the critical materials list. Since early last fall, when con-

Cure Given For Mildew

When a painted surface becomes mildewed, scrape off as much of the mildew as possible, then wash the surface thoroughly with a solution of a mild alkali, such as trisodium phosphate — about two ounces in one gallon of water.
After rinsing the surface carefully with clean water, let it dry for a day or two. Then apply a new coat of paint that has a special mildew-resistant compound in it. Such a compound is available at a paint dealer. Some house paints are formulated with such an ingredient already in it.
Controls were put on building, materials for homes costing from $20,000 up have been impossible to obtain, thereby eliminating construction of the higher type of structures.
During 1952 local building will increase because of the housing projects planned. One of the biggest will be the addition to be set up by Dick Hughes.

Pine And Celandine Distinguish Room

A king-size living-dining room that is rectangular in shape is distinguished by a modern and dramatic use of color. The two end walls are painted in celandine green. Through an archway in one of these walls, an area is visible which is painted a chartreuse. Fine-paneled side walls have a smooth natural finish while the window frames in these walls are enameled in the soft gray-green. The ceiling is white and, much of the furniture is coated to match. On the floor, which blends with the pine-paneled walls, are gray-green rugs. Upholstery is a grayed cerise which is not unlike a clover pink.

Shivers To Decide On Saucier's Fate

AUSTIN — (AP) — Gov. Allan Shivers said he will make a decision Monday on the recommendation that T. C. Saucier's death sentence be commuted to life imprisonment.
Saucier is scheduled to die in the electric chair Jan. 10 on conviction of murder in the March 1949, killing of Thomas Houston Gibbons at Wichita Falls State hospital where Saucier was a guard.
The state board of pardons and paroles has recommended clemency in view of the fact that one of Saucier's companions in the murder case received only a five-year sentence.

U. S. AHEAD ON WHEAT
WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States is far ahead of schedule in supplying its quota of wheat to foreign countries under cut-rate prices of an international wheat agreement, the Agriculture Dept. reported Saturday.
It said 214,480,000 bushels of wheat were sold abroad under terms of the agreement since Aug. 1. The U. S. quota for the year is 255,149,000 bushels.

TEXAS DEFENDS COTTON
AUSTIN — (AP) — The British Raw Cotton Commission charge that Texas 1951-52 cotton crop is of poor quality had no foundation in fact, a University of Texas research unit asserted.
"On the contrary, scientific analyses and government spinning tests show that mills buying Texas cotton this year according to universal standards are actually receiving a bonus in fiber strength," said the researchers in cotton merchandising.

Delegates To Hear Tale Of Sales Success

Conservative old New Orleans is still agog over the sales antics of a dynamic southern builder, Hamilton Crawford.
That's why he has been asked to tell the colorful story of his now famous "Gentilly Woods" development to attend the forthcoming National Assn. of Home Builders' convention-exposition in Chicago, Jan. 29-31.
The new and progressive home merchandising methods he employed have caused widespread comment in U. S. building circles.
Crawford sold 700 houses, worth nearly $8,000,000 in four weeks, setting a record for monthly sales. The day his projected 1423-house development first opened for public inspection, 25,000 people viewed 31 variations of his basic model houses. Seven were completely furnished.
Spectators studied contemporary styled homes situated on wide lots. The homes featured screened porches, large windows, wide overhanging roofs, ventilated roofs, more storage space, open floor plans and several other better living features, including snack bars.
Prospective buyers liked what they saw. The first day 174 sales were made. Contrary to an anticipated rush for the lowest cost units — at $8200 — the average sale was over $12,000. Highest priced house displayed was $13,000.

Builders going to the NAHB convention-exposition are looking forward to "Ham" Crawford's personal narration of "Merchandising in the South," in which he will describe design, building and sales details of his "Gentilly Woods" project.
The action-packed convention program will feature conferences of vital importance to housing. Important to the lowest cost units — at $8200 — the average sale was over $12,000. Highest priced house displayed was $13,000.

Commercial solvents are less effective on large drains, such as toilet bowls, where it is usually necessary to resort to mechanical means such as the "plumber's friend." When this fails to remove the obstruction, it is necessary to use a clean-out auger which is forced through the trap by turning the crank, always in the same direction. If the obstruction becomes entangled with the end of the auger it may be removed by withdrawing the auger.
The above measures are generally enough to open the most stubborn and finished materials on the move.

Beauty-Armour For Furniture
On furniture, the function of products known as wood fillers and sanding sealers is to smooth out the surface irregularities which are unavoidable defects. Over these go the final coats of varnish or lacquer which produce the smooth and lustrous coating that contributes beauty as well as protection to the furniture. The total thickness of the finishing coats is usually between one and three thousandths of an inch.
Paint Used To Direct Traffic
In many factories, the constant presence of oils or chemicals on the floor precludes possibility of painting the underfoot area. Even here, however, paint has its place because it can be utilized to indicate traffic lanes for those areas used for moving materials. Such markings remind workers to keep out of harm's way and make work easier for those whose job it is to keep supplies

METHODS — sketch shows two commonest methods of cleaning out plugged-up drain pipes. Be sure the pull you put under wash-basin is big enough.

Opening Stopped-Up Drain Can Be Simple

Nothing is more irritating than a stopped-up or slow drain in the home. There are a number of commercial solvents that may be used on a stubborn drain. These often clean them out satisfactorily, but they must be used with great care as most of them contain lye which will damage linoleum or paint. Follow the directions of the manufacturer as printed on the container.

Occasionally the solvent isn't quite enough and mechanical means are necessary. If the trap under the drain has a plug on it, the thing to do is to remove the plug. But first be sure to place a pan under the hole. This should be large enough to catch all the water in the trap. Now remove the plug. Insert a wire hook into the drain hole and pull out the lint, hair, sediment or whatever else is stopping up the drain.

If the trap has no drain plug it will be necessary to open the pipe with a wrench at the joint before you can clean it out with the wire hook. Flush the trap out with water and replace.
Commercial solvents are less effective on large drains, such as toilet bowls, where it is usually necessary to resort to mechanical means such as the "plumber's friend." When this fails to remove the obstruction, it is necessary to use a clean-out auger which is forced through the trap by turning the crank, always in the same direction. If the obstruction becomes entangled with the end of the auger it may be removed by withdrawing the auger.
The above measures are generally enough to open the most stubborn and finished materials on the move.

Coach Black Used On Wrought Iron

Wrought iron, used indoors, is generally coated with coach black, which is a black pigment ground in Japan varnish. One coat usually covers very well. It can be left as it dries — dull — or can be given a high gloss with an additional coating of interior varnish. Before applying the coach black, make sure that the surface is clean and free from grease and rust.
VERY IMPORTANT PAINT
In the kitchen — particularly in modernized old houses — paint maintenance is an important factor in cleanliness, sanitation and household morale.

Mac Wishes Stassen Had Not Talked Stassen Into Running

By HENRY McLEMORE
I wish to goodness Mr. Harold E. Stassen had not yielded to the inflexible demands of Harold E. Stassen and thrown his hat in the presidential ring.
Why couldn't he have been strong enough to fight off this pressure from himself and refuse to let Harold be drafted by Harold?
Since he joined Taft and Warren a man feels less than safe walking down the street. He is liable to be run over and stepped upon by the hundreds of thousands of citizens who are not aware that Mr. Stassen is in the running for the 1952 Republican presidential nomination. And it's hard to sleep at night, too, for the deafening sound of the Stassen boom. It breaks upon the eardrums like a bubble bursting in Mammoth cave, and reverberates with all the clang and clatter of a marshall's horn hurled into the depths of the Grand canyon of Colorado.
Voters' eyes are dazzled by the lack of Stassen buttons on lapels, and one can scarcely talk all day without hearing his name never mentioned once. Few sights are more breathtaking than the light parade for Mr. Stassen's favorite son.
I'll say one thing, if Mr. Stassen gets the nomination and is elected, there won't be any need for the Marine band to play at White House functions. Mr. Stassen will provide all the music needed by blowing his own horn, beating his own drums, and scraping his own violin.
The more I think about Mr. Stassen's blowing his own horn, the more I wonder why he doesn't have Toscanini for a campaign manager. The beloved maestro might, of course, object to conducting an orchestra with so much brass in it.
I want to ask you readers a question. How does a man get up enough nerve to declare suddenly that he is the one and only man good enough to be at this nation's head? That's really giving yourself a thump on the back. Most of us consider ourselves pretty redhot stuff, but it takes all gall and a yard wide to tell 150,000,000 folks that you are smarter than they, a more able administrator, see the world picture much clearer, and school-children should memorize your name along with the names of Washington, Lincoln, and a few other chaps like that.
Wonder if Mr. Stassen is as dropped by the White House lately to ask the architects in charge of the renovation of the mansion to make a few changes that he considers desirable. I have a feeling that he considers it a waste of money to have, say, the Lincoln room done in polka dots and dimity, when just as soon as he takes up occupancy, he will have it done over in plaid linoleum.
Mr. Stassen hasn't announced his cabinet yet, but that will be along soon, I'm sure. The minute he rounds up enough cars to send out for reporters to hold a press conference, we can be sure of hearing who'll be Secretary of State, Secretary of the Treasury, Attorney General, etc.
There is a chance that he might handle all these jobs himself. He's a smart man. If you don't think so, just ask Mr. Stassen. He'll set you straight.

Coatings Used Over Plastics

Recently developed coatings for plastics have unusual properties of hardness, flexibility and adhesion. Because of their toughness, plastics are widely used for consumer items. Many of the toys and items which were made for Christmas and which will receive intensive use are made of this material.
Too many girls have a one-track mind, with a troop train on the track.
