GIVE A FOOT THAT OTHERS MAY HAVE TWO — This is the apt slogan Miss Grace NeCase, 621 N. Warren, wants to put over by way of the poster she is showing Ken Meaders, March of Dimes chairman for Pampa. The three-foot rulers will hold 11 nickels, 16 pennies and 17 dimes. Miss NeCase said she wanted to do something for the drive because of the help offered by the March of Dimes to a relative who is recently recovered from polio. (News Photo)

Steel Strike Settlement Gets Long Postponement

Decision Made To Give Government Needed Time

ATLANTIC CITY—(AP)—Top strategists of the big steel union recommended a 45-day strike postponement today to give the government a chance to work out a suggested settlement. The 35-man executive board of the CIO United Steelworkers and President Philip Murray proposed to a special USW convention that the approximately 2,400 delegates vote to set a new strike deadline 45 days from the first hearing called by the Wage Stabilization Board. The WSB scheduled a preliminary, or procedural, meeting for Monday in Washington. If the first regular hearing follows promptly after that session, the new strike deadline would be around Feb. 21. The recommendation was made in the form of a resolution submitted to a special convention called to decide whether the million-man union would strike about 90 percent of the basic steel industry to back up its demands for pay increases and other contract concessions. The proposal carried the endorsement of President Murray and the 36-man policy making executive board. President Truman made two appeals to the union to forego a strike now.

Zoning Board Will Consider Nine Additions

Nine recently developed additions are slated to come up for ordaining as residential districts following yesterday afternoon by the zoning board. The recommendations will be presented to the commission, probably Tuesday, through City Manager Dick Pepin for general discussion. However, it may take six weeks to two months before the city may act on amending the present zoning ordinance. Two hearings will have to be held before the proposed amendment may be passed, one hearing by the zoning board and one by the city commission. In addition, notice of the proposed action will have to be mailed to every property owner within 200 feet of the territories to be zoned and advertisements run in newspaper for two weeks prior to the hearings. Preparations for extending the present water and sewer lines and street improvements will have to keep on going, and that means it will take several weeks until all of the necessary property owners can be run down and notified. City Manager Dick Pepin explained this morning. All of the additions to be zoned are now in the city limits; some of them for 26 acres. Additions recommended by the zoning board, to be designated as residential districts are: Five Acres, John I. Bradley, John I. Bradley Second, Houston, Van Dale, Littleton, Littleton Second, Block-1 Schulkey-Hill, and East 1-2 Block 2 Schulkey-Hill.

U. S. Concerned Over Soviet Move

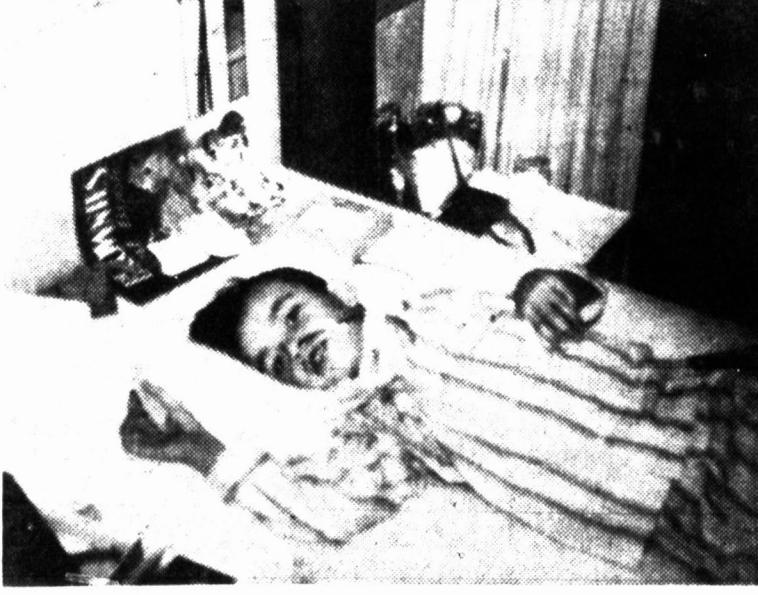

PARIS—(AP)—The United States expressed grave concern today that a new Russian move to transfer Korean armistice negotiations to the United Nations Security Council might break up the talks now going on at the front. W. S. delegate Benjamin Cohen told a news conference that the United States could not understand why the Soviet Union had made such a proposal at a time when truce talks in Korea appeared to be making slow but sure progress. Cohen said the United States was decidedly and unqualifiedly opposed to a Russian resolution calling for a special high-level discussion to aid the armistice talks. The proposal, he declared, could not fail to have a bad effect on the talks at Pusan. He said he wondered whether the Russian wanted to settle the Korean war or reopen it. The higher ceilings apply to Ford, Mercury and Lincoln automobiles. The Office of Price Stabilization said the company has not indicated whether it will put the increases into effect. OPCS approved a 4.97 percent hike in prices of Ford cars, compared with 5.39 asked by the company. The Mercury cars, a 3.45 percent hike was approved, compared with 4.37 percent asked. For Lincoln, a 3.19 percent boost was okayed, compared with 8.13 percent requested.

Higher Car Prices OK'd

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The government today approved higher ceilings for Ford Motor Co. passenger cars. It refused, however, to grant the full rise asked by the company under the Capetart amendment to the economic controls law. The higher ceilings apply to Ford, Mercury and Lincoln automobiles. The Office of Price Stabilization said the company has not indicated whether it will put the increases into effect. OPCS approved a 4.97 percent hike in prices of Ford cars, compared with 5.39 asked by the company. The Mercury cars, a 3.45 percent hike was approved, compared with 4.37 percent asked. For Lincoln, a 3.19 percent boost was okayed, compared with 8.13 percent requested.

Little Pampa Boy Can Thank 'Dimes' Aid

Because of aid from local and national chapters of the foundation for infantile paralysis, 7-year-old Johnny Hatcher is recovering from polio. Johnny, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Scott Hatcher, 425 N. Hazel, has been recovering slowly from the disease from the time it struck him last September. Polio can paralyze various parts of the body. For Johnny, it paralyzed his throat. For a time the youth was unable to talk, and for 11-12 days was kept in an iron lung. When it was discovered he had infantile paralysis, Johnny was taken to the Fairview and Foundation, Plainview, which serves polio victims in the Panhandle area. This clinic was founded through funds provided by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, and now is supplied with resources from both national and local funds. After a throat operation in the clinic, Johnny returned home to begin a slow struggle for recovery. Each day his mother massages and exercises the boy's neck, throat and body. Daily, Johnny must bend from the waist and touch the floor several times to give strength to his weakened muscles. Although he is "recovering nicely" now, Johnny still has a weakness in his throat, his voice sounding slightly nasal at times. His family continues to take him to Plainview every two or three weeks for treatment, hoping he soon will be recovered completely. Like Johnny, hundreds of other people in Gray county thousands throughout the nation have benefited from local and national polio funds. The only financial aid is provided through the annual March of Dimes drive, now in progress until the end of January. Drive chairman for Gray county, Clanton Evans, and Mayor C. A. Huff both have asked that all citizens give to the fund so victims of the disease may be aided and the disease eventually eliminated.

RECEIVING TREATMENT — Johnny Hatcher, 7-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Hatcher, 425 N. Hazel, is shown when he received treatment for infantile paralysis several weeks ago at the Polio Clinic and Foundation, Plainview. Johnny, who was struck with paralysis of the throat last September, is about well now and is able to resume near-normal play.

Alien Property Probe Asked

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) said today he will ask a complete investigation of a "mass of tips" on multi-million dollar activities of the alien property office. The senator said in a statement that he would like to touch upon reports of late fees and profits to some individuals and corporations, "grave mismanagement" and "considerable favoritism." The Alien Property office is under the Justice Dept. and has had control of more than a half billion dollars worth of German and Japanese properties seized in this country during World War II. Wiley said the agency had controlled about $200,000,000 of assets of which $200,000,000 have been disposed of and $200,000,000 remain. He said 55 active companies still are under control and that 16 of them have assets of more than one million dollars. Largest is the General Aniline and Film Corp., second largest maker of photographic film in this country. Wiley has been issuing a series of critical statements about the agency in recent months. He said these have brought him a "mass of tips" about activities that should be probed. He proposed that the inquiry be made by a Senate Judiciary subcommittee with a special staff of experts able to trace complicated affairs of the seized properties and corporations. As a former member of the Senate Special Crime Investigating committee, Wiley said: "I have long learned to detect what I regard as signs of questionable dealings, behind the scenes connivance, such as have apparently gone on in many instances inside this particular agency." Wiley said the inquiry should look into management and disposition of assets, personnel appointed to operate corporations and salaries and fees paid, and results of the agency's operations. He noted that funds raised by the office are used to pay war internees and others who suffered at the hands of the enemy during the last war. Small shipment of Browning guns at Lewis Hardware Co.

Taft To Stump Through Texas

FORT WORTH — (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft, candidate for the Republican nomination, will make four addresses in Texas in March in an attempt to muster southwestern support. Henry Swift, Fort Worth, Republican national committee man, said today the tentative schedule calls for talks at Houston March 11, Dallas March 12, and Lubbock and El Paso March 13.

Pay Raise For Armed Forces To Go Before Congress Early

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Legislation giving all members of the armed forces a 10 percent increase may get a high priority in the session of Congress convening next Tuesday. Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the House Armed Services committee told newsmen today he has asked the Rules committee to give the measure prompt clearance so it can be acted on immediately. The bill already has been approved by Vinson's committee by unanimous vote and there is no foreseeable major opposition in the House. The increase would be given to everyone in uniform, from the lowest-ranking private to the highest general. It would apply not only to pay but also to subsistence and quarters allowances. Retired service personnel also would receive the increase. Vinson's committee has estimated the annual cost of the bill at 800 million dollars. INCREASE NEEDED It said the increases are necessary to meet cost-of-living boosts that have occurred since 1949, when the last general pay raise for service personnel was granted. Since then, the committee said, employees in industry, business and agriculture have received pay increases, and Congress has raised the salaries of federal workers. "The increased cost of living," the committee said, "has been a hardship to many enlisted personnel and junior officers but it has also affected adversely all persons being paid or receiving retired or retiree pay as a result of service in the armed forces." Vinson predicted there would be little, if any opposition to the legislation either in the House or the Senate. His committee wants to get the bill out of the way so it can start consideration this month of a universal military training program recommended by a special commission and pending congressional approval before becoming effective.

New System On Licenses For Trucks

Truck license plates in Texas will have a different numbering system this year, it was learned today in the county tax office as the passenger car plate allotment rose from 10,000 last year to 11,990 for 1952. Truck license numbers, instead of being preceded by two letters will have a numeral and a letter, according to the information received by the tax office at the same time Gray county moved another notch into the alphabet on passenger car numbers. This year it will be AS and AT instead of AR and AS. The 11,990 auto plates will start at AS 5500 and run through to AT 7149. The 2,900 commercial plates will run from IC 3100 to IC 5199. The 1,000 farm truck plates from 5C 300 to 5C 1299. Truck tractor plates from 9E 1750 to 9E 1824. The color combination of the plates was not disclosed in the office but is expected to be the reverse of present plates yellow figures on a black field.

Mrs. McDonald Resigns Post With Girl Scout Association

Mrs. Virginia McDonald today submitted her resignation as Girl Scout council assistant. The resignation was read at a board meeting of the Girl Scout association in Girl Scout headquarters. The board, headed by Mrs. Glen Radcliff, took no immediate action on the move. Mr. McDonald took the post two years ago on a temporary basis to work with the association until someone could be found to fill the post permanently. "I have enjoyed these two years very much," she said. "I think it has been an education to me. I have learned more about Girl Scouting than I would have any other way." She said she will remain in the Girl Scout office until a replacement can be made. "Everyone has cooperated wonderfully with me and I do appreciate it," Mrs. McDonald said. During the meeting, Mrs. Carl J. Wright, secretary, reported the transfer of $2019.83 for operating funds for 1952. This was money collected during the Girl Scout drive in October. The association also decided the Girl Scout Little house, 716 E. Kingsmill, would not be rented to outside parties. The decision was made board members said, because they felt it would interfere with Girl Scout activities. Mrs. Harold Osborne, training chairman, reported two training sessions had been held recently, one for Brownie leaders and the other for intermediate leaders.

Mush, You Huskies

Pampa's four-inch snow fall yesterday gave the kids plenty of opportunity for fun and some pretending, too. Jay Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Baker, 710 N. Somerville, pretends here he is mashing across the Klondike with a sled team. Jay looks pleased with the game and the dogs seemed to enjoy it too. After all, a dog has to have some fun just like boys. Jay's rig isn't exactly regulation, but his cares when a boy and a dog get to play in the snow. (News Photo)

Is your home the finest meaning of the word? That is a question that should concern every housewife. For it is the woman of the house who has the ability to turn a family dwelling place into a real home.

Here is a check list that should give you a fairly good idea of how your house rates as a home.

One. Is it as comfortable as your energy and ingenuity can make it?

Two. Are friends of all members of the family always made welcome even at times that are actually inconvenient to you? Hospitality cannot always be planned in advance. The housewife who is unhappy because the house isn't in apple-pie order when unexpected guests turn up destroys the true hospitality a real home should always be ready to offer.

Three. Is the privacy of each member of the family respected? That can be established by such simple rules as always knocking on a closed door, never rummaging through another's personal things, never reading another's mail, never discussing a member's faults with outsiders or betraying the confidence of even the smallest child.

Four. Are individual hobbies encouraged, so that the home offers its members a chance to spend interesting hours in individual pursuits?

Five. Does the home offer its members good music, good books and good food, attractively served?

Six. Is there cooperation, rather than selfish indifference, among the family members?

Any woman who can score on all of those points deserves to be proud of the job of home-making she is doing. For she has managed to turn a house into a home.

Beauty After Forty

Fascination, as any smart woman knows, has nothing to do with age and any woman can be attractive if she will but make the most of her natural assets and forget her chronological age.

Grooming is the thing; size has nothing to do with it if size is well controlled. Nobody expects a woman of forty to have the waist measurement of a 16 year old but she should stand straight and walk with spirit and confidence.

One of the greatest helps to an attitude of poise and confidence is well-groomed hair—just, I think, as the first sign of slipshod aging is carelessly done hair. Carelessness may be due to one or two faults; improper care or old-fashioned styling. Too many mature women resist a change in their hairdos but there is nothing that "dates" a woman so much as an unchanging style of doing her hair.

What may be just right for you at 20 certainly is all wrong for you after 40. Hair is, you know, flexible and it is a good deal easier to modify your coiffure than to lose a double chin.

As a rule the hair of a mature woman looks best when it is waved back from her face and up off the back of the neck. The up trend seems to minimize any lines and to put the emphasis on the eyes.

Whether the hair is long or short is a matter of individual preference.

Katherine Potter, well known director of beauty and grooming, says that at any age there is no need for hair to be drab and uninteresting because we now have new type special detergent shampoos "keep hair sparkling and bright with all its true color. Gray hair especially needs washing with a detergent shampoo. Dull gray hair is a sign of age, shining gray hair is a badge of youthful thinking.

Here is the new Poodle Cut, just two inches of hair left all over the head. Very smart for Beauty After Forty.

 It's often poor policy to re-use sudsy water in which white and pastel garments have been washed for your dark things. Often a residue of lint from light-colored shades may speckle the somber-shaded garments and spoil their effect.

THIS IS MY BEST

No. 8 in a series.

MRS. BILL CARTER

Whether a man eats lunch from the dining room table, or from a sack, planning goes a long way toward pleasing him.

Packing a lunch each day is a difficult and bothersome task to most homemakers, but Mrs. Bill Carter, 912 W. Lincoln, has become accustomed to sending a lunch box to work with her husband, in recent years, and today she has a large selection of ideas from which to choose. She has employed most every trick in her cook book in making the lunch box meal attractive and nourishing as possible.

She has learned that variety is the most important feature in packing lunches. She never uses the same menu more than two days in a row because no matter how much a man likes ham sandwiches after a steady diet of them, "he'll come home pleading for a change.

Mrs. Carter prepares a big lunch for her husband. He's a hearty eater and even though the family has the main meal in the evening, he wants a substantial lunch. He's lucky to have a place to heat soup and other foods and on these cold winter days he likes hot food. Mrs. Carter doesn't send beverages in the lunch box, (coffee is made on the job) but she finds that by the time she fills the box with sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, fruit and cookies, there's no room for a thermos anyway.

In making sandwiches for the lunch, she often uses meats left from the family meal the night before. A special little concoction that's particularly tempting is chopped roast mixed with pickles, boiled eggs and salad dressing. She also likes to bake ham and keep it to slice for sandwiches. Grated dressing with pimento and salad dressing stirred in is also good and makes sandwich-making easy. Fried chicken and a salmon croquette are easy to pack, too.

Next to sandwiches, Mrs. Carter emphasizes desserts. She puts in servings of whatever is left from a pie, a cake or maybe a batch of candy. Often she packs small cans of fruit or fruit cocktail which go well with cookies.

She packs the lunch each morning, but sometimes makes preparations for it the day before. Any leftovers left over from the family dinner are made into a potato salad for the lunch box. One thing she always makes ahead of time is cookies.

"This is my best dessert for the lunch box," Mrs. Carter said while giving her recipe for "Oatmeal Crisps" which are refrigerator cookies.

She keeps the cookies in the refrigerator several days, and each morning after she starts coffee, she slices off about a dozen cookies and bakes them during breakfast.

"That way," she explained, "the cookies are always fresh."

OATMEAL CRISPS
 (Refrigerator cookies)
 1 cup shortening
 1 cup brown sugar
 1 cup granulated sugar
 2 beaten eggs
 1 tsp. vanilla

1 1/2 cups flour
 1 tsp. salt
 1 tsp. soda
 3 cups quick-cooking oats (3 min.)
 1-2 cup nuts
 Thoroughly cream shortening and sugar. Add eggs and vanilla. Beat well. Add sifted dry ingredients, oats and nuts. Mix well. Form in long rolls, chill thoroughly. Slice 1/2 inch thick and bake on ungreased cookie sheet.

Her complete plan for packing a lunch is not to fill the box with whatever happens to be in the corner cupboard but more to plan so that any food left from evening meals can be adapted to the lunch box. Many of the sandwich spreads she puts in the lunch are original, which all makes packing a lunch box sound as interesting as planning a complete meal at home.

In fact, women who have experienced the full course of treatments have been accused of having a 'face lift'—so amazing is the improvement in the appearance of their skin.

WHAT 'Le Secret' is: Space limits a full explanation of the scientific principle behind 'Le Secret' and how it was employed by the reigning Queens and Beauties of France centuries ago. All this you'll find in detail in both French and English in the booklet in each box.

At the end of the course of treatments, just see if you aren't honestly astonished—like the other women who completed the course. A box of 7 vials costs $12. A box of 26 (3 months' supply, because after last two weeks of a month's treatment you use only two a week) costs $36. This might seem expensive but certainly NOT when you experience the spectacular results in the improvement of the appearance of your skin. If ever money was well spent—THIS IS IT!

Former Head Of U. S. Steel Dies In East

NEW YORK — (AP) — William A. Irvin, president of the United States Steel Corp. from 1932 to 1937, died Tuesday after a long illness. He was 78.
Irvin became an outstanding figure during more than half a century in the steel industry. He started at the bottom in a Pennsylvania steel plant in 1894.
His direction of the nation's biggest steel corporation came during the worst depression in American history. Under his leadership, U. S. Steel loaned $9,000,000 to depression-stricken employes without security. At the time, the company was operating at a loss.
Irvin, a native of Indiana, Pa., retired as vice chairman of the U. S. Steel Board of Trustees in 1939; but he continued as a board member and finance chairman of the board.
During World War II, Irvin was chairman of President Roosevelt's War Production Fund to Conserve Manpower. He also was head of the National Safety Council.
Irvin died at Harkness Pavilion, Presbyterian hospital of New York.
He is survived by his widow and five children.

Poll Tax Sales Still Going Slow
Poll tax sales for the first few days of 1952 were still going slow today as the number rose to 65.

By the close of business Dec. 31, 1951, poll tax sales stood at $21. This, plus the 65 receipts issued this year, made a total of $87 poll tax sales so far.
Deadline for obtaining poll tax receipts or exemption certificates is midnight, Jan. 31, 1952.

Harvesters Play At Childress Meet

The Pampa Harvesters, with straight wins behind them, scheduled to play the Pampa Harvesters at 7:15 tonight in the Childress tournament. The Harvesters, who clipped the Howard Payne tournament championship last week with four straight wins at Woodward, are top-heavy favorites to successfully defend their championship at Childress.

SWC Favorites Clash Tonight

(By The Associated Press) Two of the championship favorites in the Southwest Conference basketball race get together tomorrow night. Texas Christian, the team that's rated No. 1, meets challenger Texas at Fort Worth. TCU opened the campaign Wednesday night with a 68-43 victory over Southern Methodist. Texas A&M, another well-rated outfit, goes to Fayetteville to play Arkansas tomorrow night while Southern Methodist and Rice tangle at Dallas. Baylor plays a nonconference game tonight. The Bears meet high-scoring Southwest Texas State of the Lone Star Conference at Waco. Baylor doesn't open the conference race until next week.

Women Golfers Try To Unseat The Babe

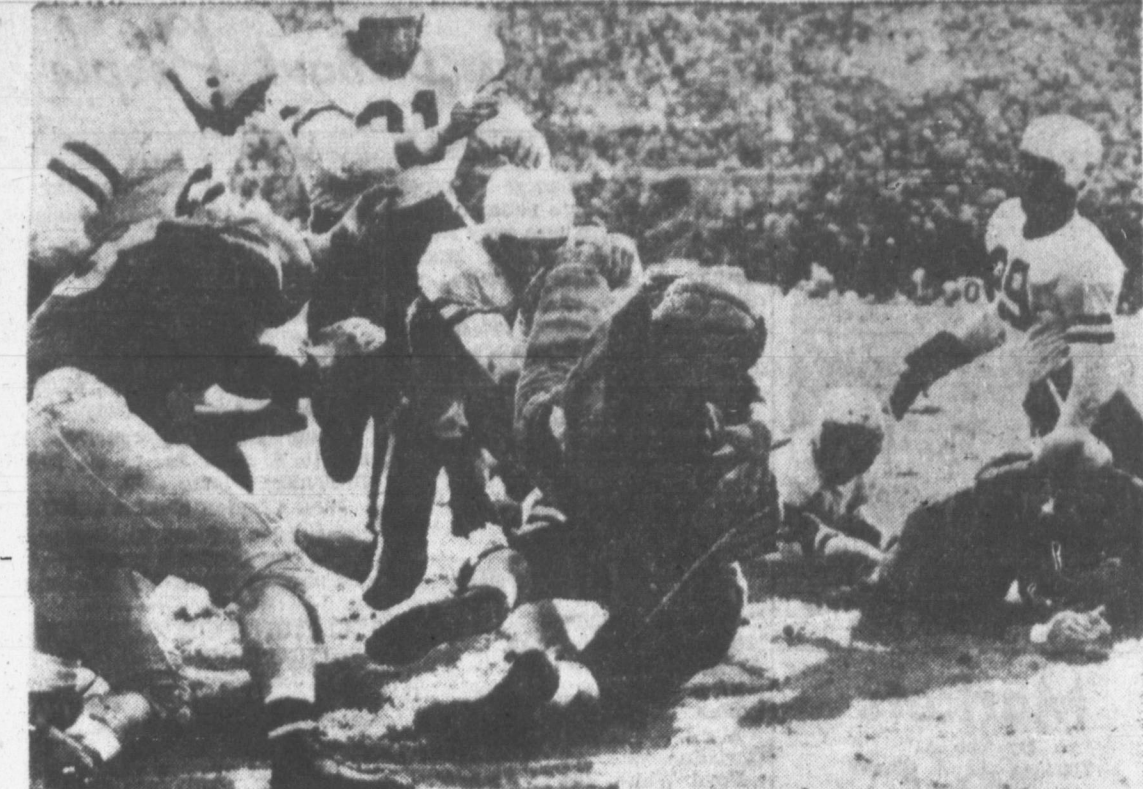

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — (AP) — A dozen women golf professionals and 22 amateurs took after Babe Zaharias today in hopes of unseating her as Jacksonville Open champion and top winner of the annual tour. The girls are playing six holes a day in the 54-hole medal play tournament continuing through Sunday. The first threesome was ready to tee off on the 6,282-yard Brentwood Municipal course at 10:30 a. m. This is the first stop on a tournament tour that will bring the women professionals a record $100,000 in prize money in 1952. Manager Fred Corcoran of the Ladies Professional Golf Association announced winter and spring tournaments Thursday night. Betty Dodd, daughter of an Army general from San Antonio, Tex., is playing in her first tournament as a professional. She became the 20th member of the LPGA when she signed a contract Thursday night. Alice and Marlene Bauer, pretty golfing sisters now playing out of Sarasota, Fla.; Betsy Rawls of Austin, National Women's Open champion, and Beverly Hanson of Fargo, N.D., National Amateur champion now turned pro, are the principal favorites to unseat Mrs. Zaharias — if anyone can do it.

Four Added To All-Cotton Bowl

DALLAS — (AP) — Four names were added to the all-time Cotton Bowl football squad today. Cecil Flowers, Texas Christian backer; Ray Correll, guard; Pat Parilli, quarterback; and Jerry Clark, halfback, of Kentucky, were those put on the final selections. The committee of sports writers which selects the Cotton Bowl squad decided to increase the squad to 22 in view of the two-tournament system and will do some search into the records before announcing the all-time squad. The Cotton Bowl was started in 1937. It's all-time team now ends — Holt Rast, Alabama, 12; and James Williams, Rice, 10; tackles — Martin Ruby, Texas A&M, 1942; and Randolph Eldred, 1944; and Kim Kekeris, 1946; guards — Charles Taylor, Texas A&M, 1941; and Dick Freeman, Texas, 1943; center — Ki Aldrich, Texas Christian, 1937; quarterback — Sam Hugh, Texas Christian, 1937; halfbacks — Bobby Layne, Texas, 16; and Glenn Dobbs, Randolph 1941; fullback — John Ambrough, Texas A&M, 1941. Most of those players were able-duty men.

Kentucky Wildcats Slow Move For Recruiting Outside Stars

LEXINGTON — (AP) — Football recruiting was restricted today at the University of Kentucky to its own back yard. There is still a hearty welcome awaiting any out-of-state player but he must voluntarily apply for a scholarship. The school will make no effort to recruit prospective gridgers who live outside the Commonwealth. The maximum scholarships to non-Kentuckians will be five a year. Coach Paul Bryant announced the change in the recruiting policy a few minutes after his squad returned from Dallas and its Cotton Bowl victory over Texas Christian.

Red-Hot Mountaineers End Winning Streak Of NYU

NEW YORK — (AP) — The nation's longest basketball winning streak — 12 straight by New York University — was at an end today because a red-hot aggregation of Mountaineers from West Virginia capitalized on the expert scouting of their coach. It happened in Madison Square Garden last night when West Virginia thumped NYU, 100-75. The Mountaineers' seventh triumph in eight outings. Their only defeat was an overtime setback by George Washington. "My boys were unusually hot," said Bob (Red) Brown, West Virginia coach. "But probably what a lot of people overlooked was our defense." Brown, who scouted the New Yorkers when they rolled up a Garden record of 103 points against Arizona and gave a fine performance in beating Holy Cross, tossed what he described as a pressing zone defense at Cann's all-winning five. The defeat of the Violets, ranked 5th in this week's Associated Press poll, left Murray (Ky) and Kansas at the top of the list of unbeaten major teams. Murray edged Kentucky Westleyan last night, 68-64, for its 11th in a row. Kansas, ranked No. 1, has a 10-0 mark. Three other members of the unbeaten class, Seton Hall, Duquesne and Florida, kept their slates clean. Seton Hall walloped Western Kentucky, 77-65. Duquesne thumped Cincinnati, 71-41; and Florida nipped Auburn, 64-43, for its 9th in a row. Kentucky, rated the nation's top team until its Sugar Bowl journey defeat, ran wild to drub Mississippi, 116-58. Bradley also had a romp against Arizona, 98-59, and Louisville thumped Villanova, 90-48. In closer frays Oklahoma beat Colorado, 61-52; North Carolina nipped Maryland, 51-47; San Jose State took Oregon, 51-49; Utah beat New Mexico, 59-47; and Siena humbled Temple, 56-48.

Bantam Ben Named "Southwesterner"

DALLAS — (AP) — Ben Hogan, the great of golfdom, today was named Southwesterner of the year by the Texas Sports Writers Assn. Alice and Marlene Bauer, pretty golfing sisters now playing out of Sarasota, Fla.; Betsy Rawls of Austin, National Women's Open champion, and Beverly Hanson of Fargo, N.D., National Amateur champion now turned pro, are the principal favorites to unseat Mrs. Zaharias — if anyone can do it.

Senior Bowl Tilt Ready Tomorrow

MOBILE, Ala. — (AP) — Tackle Pug Pearson of Tennessee looked across a football field at fullback Ed Modzelewski of Maryland and said grimly, "I hope somebody cuts the horns off that wild bull before we play him again Saturday." Horned or de-horned, Maryland's "Big Mo" runs and bulls again Saturday in the Senior Bowl. In the Sugar Bowl, Modzelewski rolled up 153 yards through Tennessee's national champions and Maryland packaged its first major bowl victory, 28-13. The coal mining kid from West Natrona, Pa., was elected the Sugar Bowl's best player. From the way he's carrying on here he might be headed for the best player job in the Senior Bowl. After three practice sessions, running from a strange spread formation, Modzelewski looks good. He's far more accustomed to running from Maryland's split T formation. Fifty of the finest college players from every section of the country turn professional in the Senior Bowl. They are divided as equally as possible into two teams — one called the North and the other the South. They are ordered by their professional coaches to go at each other for all they are worth. Players on the winning side earn $500. Players for the losing side get $400. Modzelewski said today he liked the spread formation his North team will use much of the time. While Modzelewski and Marylanders Bob Ward and Bob Sherman prepared for the South squad, the underdog Rebels are trying to sharpen their timing. Coach Steve Owen's team was late in assembling because several members played in bowls. On the Rebel team besides Pearson are Hank Lauricella, Gordon Pololsky and Ted Daffer — all Tennesseans who took the Sugar Bowl licking.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
NEW YORK — (AP) — The World Series movie was previewed (with refreshments) yesterday and it seems that Lew Fonseca did a good job of getting it ready before baseball starts for 1952. It's getting so they hardly have time for the winter knife and fork campaign, what with the Browns starting spring drills Feb. 1 and most of the other clubs trailing only by a couple of weeks — not to mention the big leaguers who work at "schools" or other rookie-training projects. That brings up again the question: what is a "season"? There was a time when college basketball teams took pre-season trips during the Christmas holidays. Now they're starting in November and already have played about half their scheduled games. Professional hockey and basketball (if you care about them) stretch things out even more and pro football runs from July training sessions to the pro-bowl Jan. 12. Looks as if "over-emphasized" college football is the conservative of the lot. Most teams start start working Feb. 1 and Day and they're through by early December except for the few that play "bowl" games.

FINANCIAL DEPT.
 Reading the "unofficial" report from Pasadena on the division of the Rose Bowl loot, this dept. (admittedly weak on mathematics) can't figure how it complies with the NCAA rules. The story says game expenses come off the top and the Tournament of Roses "rental" is on a sliding scale down from 33 1/3 percent of the first $100,000 of the take. The NCAA "extra events" by-law specifies that the sponsoring organization may not receive more than 25 percent of the gross and must pay game expenses out of that. The only "out" is where the sponsor was committed before Aug. 4, 1949 to pay for capital improvements on the stadium — a proviso put in to protect the Sugar Bowl outfit. If anyone can explain this, will he please step forward and figure out our income tax return?

SPORTS BEFORE YOUR EYES
 The Amateur Athletic Union invited more than a dozen foreign athletes to compete here during the indoor track season and was turned down by all of them. Several said they'd like to come in 1953, after the Olympics. The Indianapolis Olympians, who are doing right well in the National Basketball Association, are the league's youngest team with no player over 25. Birdie Tebbets, hailed as New Hampshire's only active big leaguer, proved it in a recent speaking visit to Somersworth, N. H. The dinner was to collect funds for scholarships for local boys. Birdie started it off with the first contribution, 75 bucks.

GETTING THE AIR
 If you see a flying horse somewhere between Miami and Los Angeles this winter, don't be surprised. Seven horses are eligible for both Hialeah's Widener Feb. 23 and the Santa Anita Handicap March 1. Seven more are in the Santa Anita derby Feb. 23 and Hialeah's Flamingo a week later. And Sickle's Image, America's most-traveled filly, is being trained for races on both coasts. Gosh, we thought it was just your money that took wings at a race track.

Three Texarkana Cagers Quit
TEXARKANA — (AP) — Three lettermen on the Texarkana High school basketball team quit the squad yesterday — two days before 5-AAA conference play opens. The players all were seniors. They were Sam Bukmeyer, Jimmy Williams and Earl Johnson. Kennedy is in his first year as basketball coach at Texarkana. He replaced Watty Meyers, who gave up basketball coaching to devote all his time to football at Texarkana. Kennedy came from Waldo, Ark., high school. Last week two squadmen, Jimmy Wright and Don Bowerman, turned in their suits.

Alumni And Friends To Put Loyola Back Into Football
LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Alumni and friends of Loyola University of Los Angeles raised $50,000 at the annual football banquet last night and it appeared today that the Lions may field a grid team this fall. Loyola abandoned football Sunday. The heavy financial expense was blamed for the abandonment, but failure to land on the schedule of either Southern California or UCLA was suggested by some as a major factor. A spontaneous movement to restore the sport was started at the banquet. Actor Frank Fay suddenly found himself as chairman of the fund raising campaign. First one, then another of the 1,000 at the dinner arose and pledged money. Pledges ran as high as $5,000, and many ranged from $100 to $1,000. The Rev. Lorenzo Malone, S. J., a member of Loyola's board of athletic control, was asked how much money was needed to restore football. He said he was not empowered to answer officially for the University. He estimated, however, that if $75,000 could be raised the chances would be excellent that the Lions would field a team in 1952.

Puerto Rico Asks Full Investigation
SAN JUAN, Puerto Rico — (AP) — Gov. Luis Munoz Marin and the mayor of San Juan Felisa Rincon called Mexican authorities today asking their cooperation in an investigation of the death of Puerto Rican baseball player Hi Bithorn, former Chicago Cubs pitcher. Bithorn was shot fatally by a policeman in El Mante, Mexico, Dec. 29. Meanwhile Puerto Rican newspapers called attention to what they called "contradictions" in accounts of Bithorn's death. "El Mundo" asked editorially for U. S. Ambassador to Mexico William O'Dwyer to intervene to "see that justice is done without harm to the good relations existing between the peoples of Mexico and Puerto Rico." The paper says "we think the Mexican authorities out of a sense of justice should clarify the death of Bithorn." The "Diario de Puerto Rico" also asks editorially that the U. S. embassy should get all information possible and complete details on the death in order to find out exactly what was its cause. Puerto Rico is a U. S. possession. A Mexican policeman reported he shot Bithorn while the latter was resisting arrest.

Newcomers May Be Players To Watch In '52 Pro Golf
LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Newcomers to golfing fame may be the players to watch as the nation's leading professional inaugurate the 1952 tournament season today in the first round of the 26th annual Los Angeles Open. Such tournament name players as the defending champion, Lloyd Mangrum; or Cary Middlecoff, Henry Ransom or Ellsworth Vines, figure as the men to beat in the battle for the $17,500 prize money. But golf observers, casting about for new names to freshen the tournament picture, look for a determined challenge by such pros as Fred Hawkins of El Paso; Joe Kirkwood, Jr., of Hollywood; Earl Stewart, Jr., Dallas; Ted Kroll, North Hartford, N. Y.; Bob Toski, North Hampton, Mass.; or Jimmy Clark, Huntington Beach, Calif.

KONSTANTLY ON GO—Jim Konstanty keeps in trim during the off-season refereeing basketball games. The Phillies' relief pitcher, the National League's most-valuable player of 1950, is in the sporting goods trade at Oneonta, N.Y. (NEA).

SPORTSMAN'S DIGEST
 "LINING OUT" AVOIDS WALKING IN CIRCLES

SPORTS AFIELD
 By TED KESTING
 What is the low-down in bears? Do they kill livestock and game? Are they dangerous to mankind? Right now Alaska offers the best study area in the world to decide such questions. As a rule Alaskan natives leave bears alone and do not molest them. Prospectors, homesteaders and trappers despise them, particularly the black bears because of their destructive pilfering. You don't need an armed guard to travel the Alaskan wilderness, but it is well to be alert when in grizzly and brownie country. All bears are not clowns of the forest. The public may have been oversold on the idea that bears don't play a big part in the destruction of big game, according to Charles Gillham. For years he lived among black bears and never saw them killing anything other than occasional sheep or cattle. His recent investigations in Alaska, however, brought out some surprising eye-witness accounts. In a magazine article he recites several harrowing tales of bears brutally slaughtering big game animals. It is most questionable, of course, that all bears are predators. At the same time, reliable records of "moose call kills by bears, including blacks, in Alaska are far too numerous to be disregarded. And the killing by bears is not confined to young moose. Jack O'Connor saw two grizzlies pursue three caribou down Mt. McKinley a few years ago. As wolves are constantly in pursuit of caribou, it is well known that our American reindeer is no slouch at running. O'Connor was astounded to see that the two bears were actually outrunning the caribou down the smooth mountain slope, until they plunged off into a flat with high grassy hummocks where the short-legged bears did not stand a chance. Now this is no effort to malign all bears, far from it. A world without them would be a sad mistake. But the debunkers who laugh at all assertions that bruin may kill big game, livestock and humans just haven't been around enough bears.

Hopes Sounded For Vinegar Bend
HOUSTON — (AP) — A veteran baseball observer says Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, a St. Louis Cardinal acquisition, may become "the greatest lefthander the game ever had." Johnny Keane, long-time member of the Cardinal organization, called Mizell a faster pitcher today than Dizzy Dean or Wild Bill Hallahan were in their prime. He said Mizell probably also is faster than Lefty Grove was. Mizell is the young hurler called up a couple of days ago by the Cards from their Houston Texas League farm. He signed his 1952 contract Monday and will report to the Cards' spring training camp in St. Petersburg, Fla. "Of course," Keane said, "I'm trying to compare a kid who is getting his first chance in the big show with three famous pitchers. I saw Grove in St. Louis when he was at the height of his career and the same goes for Dean and Hallahan when they were with St. Louis. "But if Mizell pitches in the majors as he has during his three years in minor baseball, no one will be able to hit him consistently and I foresee him becoming a star player. I do think that Mizell must learn to mix some slow stuff with the fast. Let the batters see the slow ones to confuse them, then come in there with that fast ball.

Matthews-Maxim Bout In Making
SANTA MONICA, Calif. — (AP) — Jack Dempsey said today he is negotiating for a light-heavy-weight title fight between Joey Matthews and Harry Matthews in Seattle sometime next summer. Dempsey told the Associated Press he expects to contact champion Maxim's manager, Jack Kearns, within the next two days regarding Maxim's contractual status with the International Boxing Club. Matthews, whose lethal fists have boomed him to number two in the light-heavy rankings, recently turned down an IBC offer to fight Maxim for 20-percent of the gate. Jack Hurley, Matthews' manager, branded the offer as a "coolie wage."

Betty Dodd Turns To Pro Ranks
JACKSONVILLE, Fla. — (AP) — Pretty Golfer Betty Dodd (of San Antonio, turned professional yesterday before playing the first round today in the $3,300 Jacksonville Women's Open. Miss Dodd was a quarter finalist in the National Amateur tournament last year and paired with Betty Rawlis of Austin, to cop the Hollywood, Fla., four ball event. Fred Corcoran, manager of the LPGA, said Miss Dodd is headed for golfing stardom. Miss Dodd has been coached by Mrs. Babe Zaharias, top money winner amount the women, for two weeks. "She's one of the finest young players I've seen, and surely one of the longest hitters," the Babe said.

Banquet Honors Award Winners
DALLAS — (AP) — Athletic award winners of the Texas Sports Writers Association will be honored here Jan. 30 at the sports achievement dinner of the Dallas YMCA. The association names its Southwesterner of the year, senior college coach of the year, junior college coach of the year and high school coach of the year. Ben Hogan, the golf great who won the National Open for the third time last year, already has been picked as Southwesterner of the year. The other award winners will be selected within the next five days. A total of 354 owners shared in the purse distribution the first 34 days of the Hialeah racetrack meeting this season.

Dykes Scores Win
NEW YORK — (AP) — Ranny Bobby Dykes, San Antonio, unanimous 10-round decision winner over rugged Raoul Perez, Havana, is going to be sure he's ready for welter weight champ Kid Gavilana, Feb. 4 at Miami. Not content with getting past Perez in a St. Nicholas Arena scrap last night, Dykes has scheduled a Jan. 8 date with Joe Lassiter at Tampa, Fla. The lanky 6-footer was shaken up by Perez in the sixth and ninth rounds but speared the Cuban at will with his long left jab. Referee Jack Watson and judge Leo Birnbaum scored it 8-2 and judge Bert Grant 7-2-1.

Chico Gets Big Test Tonight
NEW YORK — (AP) — Chico Vejar, the 20-year-old collegian from Stamford, Conn., faces his first "big name" fighter tonight when he takes on the veteran Enrique Bolanos of Los Angeles at Madison Square Garden. Ring time for the 10-rounder is 9 p.m. (CST). Bolanos, who fought three times for Ike Williams' lightweight crown and lost every time — has been fighting since 1943. Although he had a mediocre year in '51 his overall record for 83 fights is 66-14-3. Among his victims are Tommy Campbell, Chalky Wright, Maxie Cocusen and John L. Davis. Vejar won 32 straight until he lost a split decision to Eddie Compo, Sept. 21, in his only previous Garden main go. Although he is an exciting performer with a good punch, he has been fairly easy to hit. That makes this fight a good test.

Big State Meets
DALLAS — (AP) — The Class B Big State League will hold its annual scheduled meeting here Sunday afternoon. A schedule of 147 games starting April 15 and ending Sept. 7 is expected to be adopted. Greenville is the only new club in the league this year. That city replaced Sherman-Denison. An award will be made to one of the club presidents for his overall contribution to the success of the league. The identity of this man won't be disclosed until the meeting, league President Howard Green said. "The award is for a contribution over a period of years, not just last year," Green said.

Pullig Named Aces' Manager
DALLAS — (AP) — Owner George Schepps of the Corpus Christi baseball club of the Gulf Coast League named Tom Pullig as manager of the team in 1952. Pullig succeeds John (Red) Davis, who took over management of the Greenville club in the Big State League. The new skipper was the star hurler of Dallas' 1946 Texas League and Dixie Series winners. He pitched a no-hit, no-run game at Greenville two years ago. Pullig has been in baseball since 1937, except for a hitch with the Army during World War II.

Texas Aggies Tops In Defense
NEW YORK — (AP) — Texas A&M's basketball team ranks eighth in the nation on defense, the NCAA service bureau reported today. The Aggies have held opponents to a 48.9 average per game. Oklahoma A&M leads in this department with a 44.1 average. Texas Christian ranks tenth in defense with a 49.9 average. Leading scoring team is Syracuse with an 84.6 average. No Southwest Conference team made the offensive first 10.

We believe that one truth is always consistent with another truth. We endeavor to be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, the Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

Should we, at any time, be inconsistent with these truths, we would appreciate anyone pointing out to us how we are inconsistent with these moral guides.

Reviving Moral Value A Big Job In 1952

Entering the year 1952, the American people individually and together will resolve in unnumbered ways to better themselves. They would be seriously remiss were they not to pledge above all to seek to return their country to the high path of a morality honored in practice no less than in principle.

To the nation's lasting shame, the year just ended has unfolded a seemingly endless chronicle of corruption. Dark smudges have been revealed upon the record of the national government, the business community, the respected citadel of U.S. military training.

Men may still contend with point that so far as government wrongdoing goes, the revelations of 1951 cannot be said to match the grandly conceived sins of the Teapot Dome scandals in the early 1920's.

But in one vastly significant way the current carnival of immorality is worse. The men who committed wrong in the day of Teapot Dome appeared for the most part to realize what they had done. When the lid came off their activities, some confessed, some resorted to subterfuge, others went to criminal trial.

What has happened to America's teaching and appreciation of its moral standards that they can be so badly misunderstood by so many?

Much searching of our minds, much deep study of our present conditions of life may be needed before we find the full answers. Right and wrong have grown fuzzy in the consciences of men in every sphere of living.

We must set about now, in 1952, to see that this does not happen. To see that moral values are clarified, re-stated, and elevated again to the pedestal where they must remain for any people which profess the ordered, decent existence possible under free government.

"Ex America" Or The Influence That Caused Us To Discard Americanism

I have just been reading "Ex America" by Garret Garrett and published by the Caxton Printers, Ltd., Caldwell, Idaho. A couple of weeks ago I attended a luncheon given by Leonard Read, President of the Foundation for Economic Education, and he pointed out that if we are to reverse our present trend towards socialism it will have to come by getting the intelligentsia to see the errors of socialism - because the intelligentsia had brought on the growth of socialism and statism.

Now it is just what Garret Garrett points out in "Ex America." He points out that since Washington until this generation Europe was Old World and America was New World. Then he says "The questions we ask are new. They have arisen in our time and they have a certain history."

The Intellectual "About 1900 began the flowering of that alien graft upon our tree of sapience - (profound knowledge) called the intellectual. He was the precious product of our free academic world - a social theorist who knew more than anybody else about everything and all about nothing, except how to subvert the law."

Now here is what I propose: Let us charge that Senator McCarthy is a member of a subversive organization to overthrow government. Let us charge that he is a criminal and let us prosecute for perjury. The only way to find that out is to put him on the witness stand - under oath - and get his testimony, what he says is his proof.

There is another way to do that besides going before a Senate committee. A Federal grand jury can subpoena him as a witness, get his testimony under oath and let the facts speak for themselves. If he refuses to answer, he will have a cloud hanging over him - a doubt - until Judge LeVitt has had his day in court.

My personal feelings are that McCarthy is innocent until proven guilty and that no man should be permitted to go unchallenged in making as serious a charge as Judge LeVitt has made. Frankly, I want to see McCarthy cleared, but he will have a cloud hanging over him - a doubt - until Judge LeVitt has had his day in court.

Several other readers have said they liked it, too. The Southern Conservative, on the other hand, seemed to like our column, too. She re-printed one taken from the Santa Ana Register, along with a pleasant introductory note. Patriotic papers really should cooperate all over the country and get somewhere fast in the job of educating in political morality.

MAC ARTHUR Congressman John Phillips the other day wrote a public statement about how he admired General Mac Arthur but - for President - "no generals, please." Mac Arthur was all right as a general but not as a President.

I'd like to know why Mr. Phillips thinks a socialist would make any better President than a general. The Congressman beseeched Earl Warren, a socialist in Republican clothing, to run for President. Phillips appears to talk big for the benefit of the public and the folks back home but he certainly doesn't seem to perform the way he talks.

LOOKING SIDWAYS

By WHITNEY BOLTON

Reminders: A man named Frank Scully gets back into this space today because for the moment he has taken his eyes from the nearest clouds and fastened them on the farthest heavens. A year ago he caused some seething with a book about flying saucers.

As yet, neither Meany, William Green nor any of the politicians of the Roosevelt-Truman corruption has shown the slightest interest in this phase of their moral responsibility. The A.F. of L. will not be qualified to fight any menace anywhere else until it has first contritely deplored its own betrayal of the cause of labor and of Christian morals.

That old bore, the man who makes public show of his love for the English language, is back today. My new hero, Sir Laurence Olivier, who speaks the lovely instrument as it should be spoken. I may bore people by constant reference to this magnificent tool of communication, but until you have heard Olivier you haven't heard it at its precise best.

Some day I hope to meet a toy French poule named "Mac." Their deaf owners call these engaging little beasts everything from "You-Tou" to "Fifi," with "Marie," "Blou" and all the way-stop. I know one named "Doc," but we aren't speaking any more. I guess he'll rule him out. One of the reasons I always liked the late Lupe Valdez was that owned a stunted little dog - a stunted Chihuahua - is one you can put into a thimble instead of a coffee cup - which she called "Mack Truck."

Among the players eligible to be drafted from the Kansas City Blues were four former major league pitchers - Joe Page, Cliff Melton, Hank Wyse and Bob Mumtref. None was drafted.

National Whirligig... Probe Finds Revenue Bureau Busier With Vole Collecting

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON - The recently exhausted House Appropriations subcommittee's report of its 1947 investigation of the Bureau of Internal Revenue reveals that this executive agency was far more interested in collecting money and votes for the Democratic party than in collecting taxes. Its sixty-four regional offices were mere branches of the Democratic National committee, which was then headed by Attorney General J. Howard McGrath.

Interestingly enough, most of these outrageous violations of the Hatch Clean Politics act occurred in Mr. McGrath's own territory, New England. The report of the House Appropriations subcommittee, which was chaired by Representative Gordon Canfield of New Jersey, dealt mainly with the Boston office. But it suggested that conditions were no better in the other sixty-four Internal Revenue districts.

DEGRADATION - The Canfield report showed conclusively that employees in the Boston office were coerced into contributing large sums to the Democratic State committee, to buying $50 and $25 tickets to Jackson Day dinners and to kicking in for special receptions whenever prominent Democratic bigwigs visited the Athens of America.

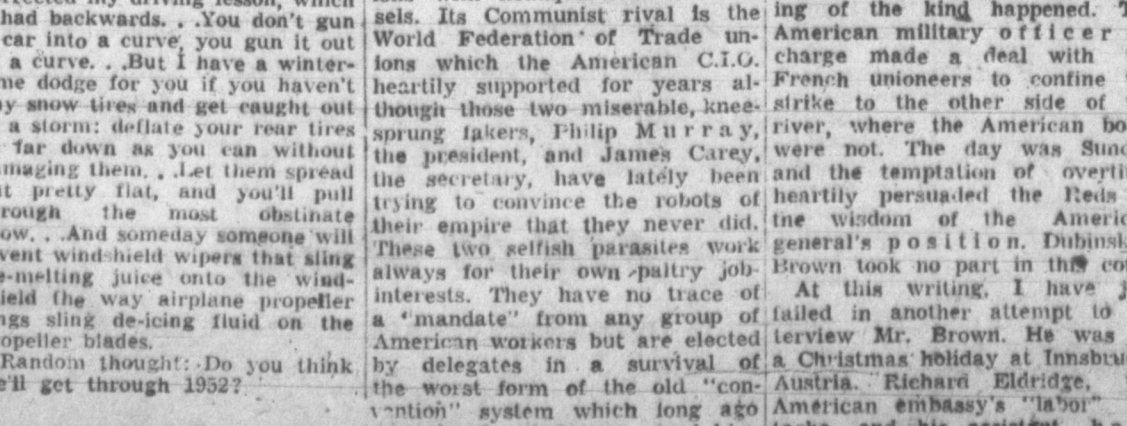

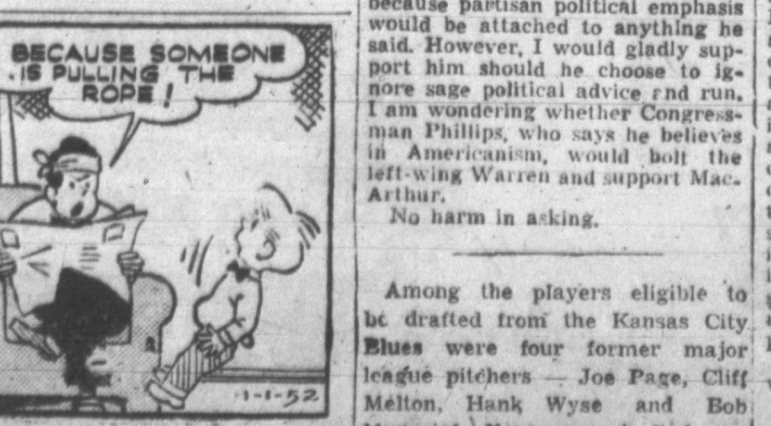

Now it is flatly understood that our state department is giving informal cooperation to the unofficial and illegal organizations of the A.F. of L. and the C.I.O. the purpose is to thwart the Communist World Federation of Trade Unions in international labor politics and the Communist General Confederation of Labor in France. But the Communists are telling the truth when they charge that the American government has not come to the aid of its own country with organized subversive activities in foreign lands.

It would be juvenile to take literally the word of the American ambassador who proudly insists that he is the only real American ambassador in the country to which he is accredited. He is one of our best men, certainly not a unioner, and loyal to the country. Nevertheless, he is a Dictator and owes his highest position in life to date in Truman's appointment. It is not hard for a clever man to rationally state the statement that neither Reuther, Lovestone nor Irving Brown, Dave Dubinsky's special plenipotentiary in Belgium and France, has any authority.

Officially they have none. But in the practical sense they are very strong, for we have eased into our diplomatic system a functionary of the union racket known as the "labor attache" in all our embassies. And the "attache" is always a union man. Moreover, the embassies have been going in for a dangerous practice of "relying on this Irving Brown, a total stranger to the American people, to out-scuffle the Communists in gang-battles, although no such incident has yet occurred. In one charge made a deal with the French unionists to confine the strike to the other side of the river, where the American boats were not. The day was Sunday and the temptation of overtime heartily persuaded the Reds to the wisdom of the American general's position. Dubinsky's Brown took no part in the coup.

At this writing, I have just learned in another attempt to interview Mr. Brown. He was on a Christmas holiday at Innsbruck, Austria. Richard Eldridge, the American embassy's "labor" attache, and his assistant both

In Daddy's Tracks

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with blessings that testify and advocate for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial are molding into you character. Deacons today declare that the church in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. For in the church and in the church in you—form a combination for READER.

There they are! We were so busy at the task of the moment that we forgot we were leaving our footprints. Every step we take leaves its mark. Eager young minds see them so clearly even when we have not noticed them ourselves. Why not let your steps lead them to church!

Ask the average boy what he expects to do to make a living. His first impulse is to do just what his father has been doing. That is somewhat modified today, when so many new opportunities are offered, to which parents are directing the attention of the growing boy. But it is surprising how many farmers' boys return to the farm, how many preachers' sons go into the ministry, and how many bankers' sons carry on in the place of their dads. Your son will follow you to church too.

Listen to the speech of your neighbor; the words he uses, his characteristic expressions, the very inflection of his voice. Then ask his son to talk about some matters in which he is interested. He is following in Daddy's track's, even to the tone of his speech.

How important then that we walk ahead of these growing children with our feet turned in the right direction, along the best paths! Do we want our girls and boys to be interested in community welfare? Then let them follow us to the meetings where community-minded women and men are giving their best thought to helping build a good society. Do we want them to be faithful worshippers of the Living God? Then let them sit with us in the place of worship. Whether we wish it or not our children are walking "in Daddy's Tracks," just as you and I walk where our fathers walked.

Mexico Was Wonderful, But Mac Says It Can't Beat Home

By HENRY McLEMORE

There's no place like home! How true, how unchangeably true.

Mexico was lovely, but how could it hope to compare with the thrill that a man gets when he closes the door of his own little castle and is embraced by the arms of his wife and children? What vista has Mexico, or any other foreign land, that can match for majesty the sight of a quart of milk standing in a bowl in the back hall? How thoughtful of the milkman to pour my forgetfulness. And how busy New York is a heart-seeker.

How heartwarming to come home and find that not even one tiny particle of dust or dirt has entered you, that the hangings on the floor when you stepped a month ago were still lying patiently there that the made beds were ready to be slipped into, and the lights in the kitchen and back hall had lovingly stayed lighted.

I am not lying to you when I say that I was so overcome by all, so tremendously moved by their fidelity, that I came within an inch of weeping.

Whisker (the one that was left in the album) calling American Airlines and flying back to Mexico.

Before I jump into my middie blouse and bloomers and start leaning up this place, please allow me to jot down a few final Mexican notes: The graciousness of Ambassador and Mrs. O'Dwyer toward a newspaperman who, on several occasions in the past, roved less than gracious to them.

The frank admission that of all the spectacles I have ever seen none comes anywhere close to equalling the bullfights I saw in Mexico City's Plaza del Toro.

In case this shocks some of you let me say that in three fights I saw less blood than I have seen in one round in many a prizefight at Madison Square Garden.

For drama, for courage, for color, for beauty, and for emotional impact, a bullfight stands alone.

These people I must thank, even if you don't know them and wish I'd keep my bread and butter notes to myself: Amos and Carmen Coleman and the Harold Circuits of Cuernavaca, Mr. and Mrs. Fidel Figueroa of Tasco; Alejandro Munoz of the Mexico Travel Advisors, who must be the best chauffeur and guide in Mexico; Pepe Romero, columnist for the Mexico City News.

There's only one Pepe. I am sure, but if you ever hear of another let me know, because I want to meet him too.

Virginia Snow, Josephine Aguinaco, Mac and Josephine McCabe, and Francis Allstock.

There are many others to whom I owe thanks, too, but if I listed all the people who were sweet to me this column would read like a census report.

The cliff-divers of Acapulco.

These boys jump from sheer cliffs 120 feet high into a split in the rocks no wider than the average living room.

The place to see them perform is from the night club (run by Hedy Lamarr's husband, by the way) at the Hotel Mirador.

The best time to see them is after midnight when a spotlight follows them down.

Note to the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture: Will the Mexican tuber known as Jicama grow in this country?

Iced, sliced, and served with lime juice, salt and a light sprinkling of chili powder, it is about the best appetizer I ever tasted.

"For heaven's sake, madam, my nerves are so sensitive. Don't just sit there! Object to something!"

War Or Collapse: Soviet Traitor Feels '52 To Be Dangerous

By DANIEL DE LUCE

HAMBURG, Germany — (P) — The stocky man with shrewd eyes was a major in the Soviet army until two years ago.

At Potsdam, in the occupation era, he served on the staff of Russia's greatest military governor, Zhukov, Sokolovsky and Chuikov.

He recalls vividly the secret briefing which General of the Army Vassily Chuikov, hero of Stalingrad, delivered at his headquarters in 1949 after the end of the Berlin blockade.

"Our present forces in Germany are strong enough to sweep to the English channel. But we do not have the order," the general said.

The former major, V. M. Denisov, shrugs at the memory: "I believe 1952 will be the most dangerous year of all," he says. "The tension is near the breaking point."

"But if war comes, it will be because of blunders. Soviet policy is not to launch a sudden attack — but to wait for the West to grow stronger, to let the West plunge into an economic catastrophe."

"Chuikov did not receive the order to attack in 1949. I am convinced he will not receive it in 1952. But war may come. The tension is high."

Denisov is in the eyes of the Soviet government, a deserter and traitor. In West Germany, he is tolerated as one of thousands of unwanted political refugees.

But it wasn't politics that drove him to forsake career and country. It was something more deeply human.

He did it for a German woman. They fell in love during the fiery conquest of Germany and were married secretly afterward in defiance of military command.

He saved her, their young daughter, and his German mother-in-law when he deserted. He smuggled them into the British sector of Berlin. Together, they were flown out to West Germany.

He is a trained administrator but he can't yet find a job in German business.

The Denisov family of four receives a dole of 96 marks ($22.84) a month from a little North German town, near Hamburg, where they have won refuge.

He pines his own future coldly: "As long as there is a Soviet government, they will shoot me if they catch me. But I am not one of those who fool themselves that the government will fall in peacetime by a palace revolution or other internal revolt. It is too strong."

"The people do not know how bad the government is. It is all they know."

"But the West should not fool itself that the people will not fight. One shot and the people will unite behind the government as they did in 1941. They will be led to believe they are deserting their fatherland against aggression."

"The West should not judge Soviet military strength by the number of shoes or suits a Soviet citizen can buy in a year."

"I listen to propaganda broadcasts to the Soviet people from the West by foreigners — and old emigrants. Their accents are odd and their words archaic."

"The Soviet government is waiting for the West to spend itself into exhaustion. But you tell me: Will the West find a way out of the dilemma of war or economic collapse?"

Camera News

By IRVING DESFOR

AP Newscasters

A recent survey indicated that roughly three out of every four households in this country owned or used a camera in 1950. Christmas this year added more and better cameras to the nation's homes as the hobby of photography continues to increase in popularity. Along with the increase of skill and greater satisfaction with picture taking results, a greater number of camera fans are ready to sell their photos. A comprehensive answer is available in a new book, "There's Money in Pictures" by Leo Soloman (Funk & Wagnalls, $3), whose authority comes as an editor and buyer of pictures of over thirty years' experience. Now chief of the Press Photo unit in the Department of State, we knew Leo better as a working neighbor when he headed Wide World Photos, the feature picture branch of The Associated Press.

In a nutshell, Leo's sage advice is that amateur's can make a lucrative side-line out of photography if they take advantage of their opportunities and capabilities but should not attempt a full time career of it. He is concerned with the marketing of pictures after they are made, not the technical end of producing photos, properly exposed, focused and processed.

Rule number one is to be prepared for spot news breaks by having your camera handy, loaded and ready to shoot at all times. You can't sell a picture unless you take it when the opportunity presents itself. In fact this is the great advantage that amateurs have—the possibility of being around when an unexpected, newsworthy event takes place and before professionals can arrive on the scene. Classic examples, now part of photo history, are the dramatic shots made by amateurs Arnold Hardy, of Atlanta, and seaman Fred Hanson aboard the ill-fated S. S. Vestris in 1928. Hanson received $1000 for his undeveloped roll of film of the ship's sinking, while Hardy to date has collected $1250 in cash alone for the last-bulb shot of a woman plunging to her death in a hotel fire in 1948.

Disasters, wrecks and accidents, however, are unpredictable and depend on immediate delivery of undeveloped negatives to the nearest newspaper or national picture service before they lose their spot-news picture value. Soloman reminds amateurs that there's a more predictable, year-round field, in good features, properly planned and executed, where the element of luck is minimized, but picture quality and idea presentation are emphasized. They need reminding, too, that full informative captions are necessary with exact identifications, names, places and dates. "A worthwhile habit in all picture taking."

Incidentally, with the phenomenal boom in 35mm color slide picture taking by amateurs, a new market has currently been announced. Starting with the January 1952 issue, Pophill's Photography magazine becomes plain "Photography" and enlarges its section and payment for "Pictures From Readers." Now color pictures when accepted—slides, transparencies or prints—will be paid $40 each. Black-and-white pictures will be paid $12 each on acceptance.

Getting back to Leo Soloman's book and the importance of getting the right picture to the right editor at the right time in order to make photography pay off, there's one accessory that manufacturers should develop, a crystal ball is needed that will reveal the exact place and time for a photographer to be to snap the outstanding news pictures of today. What a gadget to find on your Christmas tree!

OPS Deadline For Package Stores Set

The Lubbock district office of Price Stabilization has announced extension of the mandatory effective date of the ceiling price regulation for imported and domestic distilled spirits and wines sold in packages for off-premise consumption. The extension is from Jan. 1 to Feb. 1.

OPS officials pointed out that the regulation requires sellers of these items to do a certain amount of paper work in determining and recording ceiling prices. To require sellers to do this during the busy holiday season, the agency said, would work a hardship on many of them.

A seller has, however, the option until February 1, of using General Ceiling Price Regulation ceilings or putting the new ceilings into effect for any or all items sold, provided he complies with the pertinent provisions of the regulation.

The amendment granting the extension also extends the deadline to Feb. 1 for preparing and filing at the seller's place of business of forms which are required by the regulation. OPS said that since these forms are now available at regional and district OPS offices, there is no need for extending the filing time beyond the new mandatory date of the regulation.

Then there was the fellow who spent all his money to rid himself of halitosis, only to find out that his friends didn't like him anyway.
