One Dead; One Hurt In Noontime Shooting

Jealousy Motive Officials Rule

One man died and another was critically wounded shortly before noon today at Sie's Old Barn, a mile south of Pampa on Lefors Hwy.

Dead is Joe Rush, driller, who officers say fired a 12-gauge shotgun three times at Sie Bowers, 42, and then took his own life with the same gun.

Sheriff R. H. Jordan said Bowers was shot by Rush, about 57, in front of Cabin No. 5, immediately south of Bowers' dance hall.

Sheriff Jordan told The News this afternoon that the argument evidently started last night. He said jealousy over a woman was the apparent motive.

Jordan said witnesses questioned after the shooting said Rush and Bowers were arguing this morning in a nearby cafe and were asked to leave by an employee when the argument waxed hot.

Shortly after, Jordan said, Rush called to Bowers and told him he wanted to pay his rent. When Bowers came out, witnesses said, Rush fired the first shot that struck Bowers in the left hip. Officers were told that Bowers was backing away from Rush with his hands in the air when the other two shots were fired.

Jordan said he did not know Bowers was shot when he arrived at the cabins and was told Rush was inside Cabin 5. The sheriff entered the south door of the cabin and found Rush leaning against a refrigerator, blood pouring from a hole in his stomach. The 12-gauge automatic shotgun, used in the shooting, was lying nearby. Jordan said Rush was still breathing when he entered the cabin.

"Just then I heard a hideous scream and some woman — I don't know her name — yelled at 2:10 Bowers was taken to the operating room at Highland General, but hospital authorities were unable to give the condition of the victim.

that Bowers was down in a cabin. I knew Rush was just about dead and went down two cabins and found Sie lying on the floor, his legs mangled."

The sheriff reported Bowers was conscious and quoted him as saying:

"Don't pick up my feet, Rufe, my legs is shot off."

By that time, Jordan continued, the ambulance had arrived and Bowers was put on a stretcher with the help of the driver and two Fort Worth and Denver railroad police, Roy Brewer and J. M. Bradshaw (who accompanied Jordan on the call and taken to Highland General hospital.

Johnnie Callaway, a tenant, told Pampa Daily newsmen that Rush told Bowers to come out and he would pay his rent. When the two men were in front of the cabins, Rush came out with the shotgun and opened up, firing three shots, all of which hit Bowers in the hip and legs.

Rush then went inside his own cabin and shot himself.

After he was shot, Bowers crawled approximately 20 feet to a cabin and worked his way inside where he was later found by the sheriff.

Jordan said Rush was dead when they went back to his cabin to take him in the ambulance to Duengel-Carmichael Funeral home.

Officers said Rush fired three times at Bowers with a 12-gauge shotgun, hitting him in the hip and legs before going to the kitchen to shoot himself with his own life with the same gun. The shooting occurred at cabins owned by Bowers a mile south of Pampa on the Lefors Hwy. (News Photo)

County Tax Office Sel's 104 Poll Taxes During First Day

The county tax office marked the first day of its operations in the newly renovated office with the sale of 104 poll taxes and issuance of 27 exemptions.

This brought the grand total sold to date well over the 1000 mark. However, with several poll tax receipt books and exemption books going it was impossible to get an accurate count this morning.

Clerks in the office said that since Jan. 4, poll tax sales have run around 100 or more per day. At this rate the sales should have reached an approximate 1400 since the 1951 poll taxes were first made available last year. A total of 821 were sold by the end of 1951.

Discord Arises On Air Field Construction

MUNSAN, Korea — (AP) — Allied truce negotiators handed the Reds a virtual ultimatum today. They demanded an explanation for an alleged contradiction in the Communists' alleged stand on construction of airfields during an armistice.

Maj. Gen. Howard M. Turner said negotiations for supervising a Korean truce could not continue until the Reds explain the apparent discrepancy.

Turner said the Reds last month announced they planned to build and repair airfields while a truce was in force but denied yesterday that this is their intention.

Chinese Maj. Gen. Hsieh Fang insisted that the Communist position never has changed and declared:

"You will never get a satisfactory answer to your unreasonable demands."

The truce subcommittee met for only 24 minutes. The subcommittee on prisoner exchange adjourned after four hours and 20 minutes. Both will meet again at 11 a. m. Saturday (8 p. m. CST Friday) in Panmunjom.

Rear Adm. R. E. Libby told newsmen that in the prisoner subcommittee "we are still trying to get them to explain their sudden shift on the doctrine of free choice — how they justify it and then repudiate it."

Thursday Libby accused the Communists of insisting on forced repatriation of war prisoners after the Reds said thousands of South Koreans had joined the Red armies of their own free will following capture.

Brig. Gen. William P. Nuckles, official UN spokesman, said "the basic question we are trying to decide is the question of freedom for the individual versus slavery for the individual."

In the truce supervision session, Turner quoted the senior Communist delegate, North Korean Lt. Gen. Nam Il, as saying Dec. 2:

"I can assure Admiral Joy that the Korean people will certainly reconstruct and reinforce their airfields during the period of a

Pre-WWII Leader Declines Post

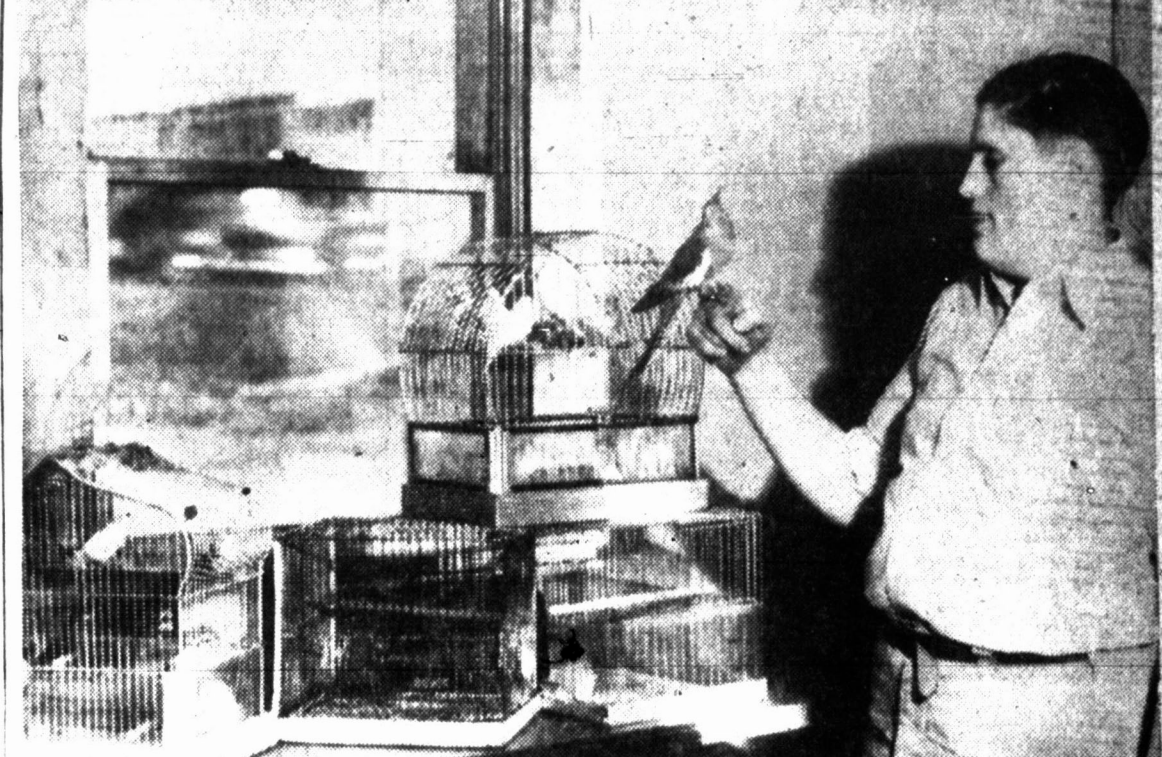

PARIS (AP) — Yvon Deibos, foreign minister before World War II, refused today to try to form a new French cabinet.

He was the fifth political leader to get a bid from President Vincent Auriol since the political crisis began Monday night. Deibos belongs to the radical Socialist party, the middle-of-the-road group which dominated most French governments of the pre-war Third Republic.

Ex-Premier Georges Bidault, leader of the Catholic MRP (Popular Republican movement) had been his immediate predecessor in the parade of political leaders asked by Auriol to try at the government-assembling task.

Bidault, after a day of fruitless talks with other politicians, last night declined the task.

Search Widens For Vanished Ship, Men

SEATTLE (AP) — A widening sea-air search for the freighter Pennsylvania and the 45 men who abandoned her wallowing hulk Wednesday was underway today over a large North Pacific area.

Three ships continued to comb the area and seven airplanes were alerted to participate in the second day of searching the windy, surging ocean spot where the men last were heard from.

Canadian and U. S. ships and planes yesterday conducted a day-long search of the region 465 miles northwest of Vancouver island where the broken and water-logged freighter last reported being in difficulty.

They found nothing. Not even a scrap of wreckage, a drifting bit of clothing or a life preserver, those waves, just wind and waves and snow flurries.

The surface search for the four lifeboats from the Pennsylvania kept up all night as ship crews maintained a ceaseless vigil, searching the wild swells and troughs with the aid of lights and flares. Airplanes were forced to return to their bases at night because of the low visibility.

Cmdr. R. M. Dudley, chief pilot of a Coast Guard flying boat, returned to Seattle and reported simply:

"We didn't see a thing. Not a trace."

Wave troughs an estimated 60 feet deep were reported by the flyers and numerous squalls sometimes reduced visibility to practically nothing.

All Clues Pursued For Identification: Korean Battlefields Give up 1800 Unknown Americans

TOKYO (AP) — Korean battlefields have given up bodies of way in the world to estimate 1800 American "unknown" soldiers, the percentage of unknowns that would be on the missing in action list.

Today they lie in Army maintenance huts on Kyushu, southern Japanese island.

Each day a few are identified from birthmarks, tattoos, fingerprints, dental work, old fractures.

Some of the unidentified dead are carried on war lists as missing. The Defense department has listed about 11,000 missing in Korean war. The Communists for burial.

The "unknowns" remain at Kokura. The identification effort embraces the work of chemists, X-ray technicians, morticians, the word of two or more witnesses as verification of death.

Even though the body may not be recovered immediately, a serviceman's "dog tag" is not accepted as conclusive proof except where the body is recovered (See KOREAN Page 10)

Congress Calls For More Economy And No More Taxes

WASHINGTON (AP)—An election year Congress has responded with demands for economy and no more taxes to President Truman's state of the union appeal for a broad program of foreign aid and domestic spending.

Lawmakers gave signs they will support a speed-up in efforts to increase American military might.

But the Republicans and Southern Democrats who can muster a majority of both houses when they stick together appeared determined to back down the amount of foreign aid and to scuttle many of the President's domestic social security proposals.

They had some backers among administration supporters for their economy-and-no-more-taxes movement.

With Britain's Prime Minister Winston Churchill listening intently from a gallery seat, Mr. Truman called on Congress this week to meet the "very real" threat of World War, III by bolstering the free nations of Europe and Asia with more economic and military aid.

The President proposed, among other things, (1) an increase in the size of the U. S. armed forces (2) an expansion of "Point Four" aid abroad to combat "atomach communism" (3) a tougher inflation control and (4) a list of domestic welfare measures including defense housing, labor law revisions, and to education, medical care, stronger farm price supports and a $5 a month boost in social security benefits.

Senator McFarland of Arizona, the Democratic leader, was pleased that Mr. Truman called for an increase in the size of the Air Force and stepped up defense production.

"It was glad that he stressed the necessity of carrying on our domestic program," McFarland said. "His advocacy of more social security is in line with what proposed and what was adopted by the senate in the last session. Republicans pointed the point that Mr. Truman made no mention of economy. Senator Ives (R-NY) said the message "showed practically no concern over the actual economic welfare of the country."

Senator Martin (R-Pa) said Mr. Truman was proposing "high taxes, big spending, deficit financing, unbalanced budgets and ever-increasing debt."

Senator Fulbright (D-Ark) said the President's message left him depressed about the state of the union.

Senator Taft of Ohio, a Republican presidential candidate who got a hand from his GOP colleagues when he walked into the House chamber to hear the President speak, had no comment except to observe that Mr. Truman seemed to have "backed down on previous demands for repeal of the Taft-Hartley act."

The President asked for revision of the law.

Churchill called the President's presentation "masterful" but Republicans sailed into it as a political campaign document which senator Driscoll (R-Ill) said laid down only "a blueprint of exhaustion."

Republicans and some Democrats looked upon his message as outlining the general issues on which his party must stand in next November's election, irrespective of whether he decides to run again.

In this connection, Mr. Truman emphasized that (1) "economic conditions in the country are good" (2) that plant construction now underway "will mean more jobs and higher standards of living for all of us in the years ahead" and (3) "taking the good and bad together, we have made real progress this last year along the road to peace."

He added his social security proposals, plus a call for action on civil rights legislation, to this informal party platform.

Republicans generally contended that Mr. Truman's promise to sweep out federal employees who are guilty of misconduct, as well as his proposal to reorganize the tax collecting service—came too late to remove the "morality in government" issue from the presidential campaign.

Democracy is an outgrowth of Christianity. Christianity is the root, democracy the fruit. And if we simply try to hang on to the principles of democracy without also maintaining the spiritual source of those principles, democracy will wither and die just as a branch will die when cut off from the trunk of the tree.

'THIS IS MY BEST' No. 9 in a series.

MRS. HENRY LANE, JR.

You can go through all the Italian recipes in a stack of cookbooks and still not find one to equal those recipes which have been brought direct to this country by people who have lived in Italy, and sampled Italian cookery at its finest.

During the war many American soldiers brought recipes home and now many of those Italian favorites are standbys in American kitchens.

That's how Mrs. Henry Lane Jr., discovered the recipe she calls her best — an Italian meat mixture served over spaghetti. A friend in Lubbock whose husband served in Italy gave Mrs. Lane the recipe and it has become their most tempting foreign dish.

There are a few tips on foreign cookery that should be observed in this recipe and others. Few times are substitutions possible. This recipe calls for olive oil and nothing else will blend the flavor of the mixture like the oil.

The mixture should cook six hours on a low flame, and requires only occasional stirring during that time. It's the kind of meal made for mothers with small children who require a lot of attention. A shallow, skillett-size utensil is best for even cooking, Mrs. Lane explains.

When the friend in Lubbock passed the Italian spaghetti recipe on to Mrs. Lane she warned her to never "give it away but to just let others borrow the recipe." Among many housewives, there's an unwritten rule about had luck descending upon the cook who gives a recipe away. And here's the delightful dish you'll be happy to borrow:

- ITALIAN SPAGHETTI
- 1 pound ground beef
  - 1 large onion
  - 5 pots of garlic
  - 3 lbs. olive oil
  - 1-2 lbs. shortening
  - 2 No. 2 cans tomatoes
  - 1-4 tsp. ginger
  - 1-4 tsp. allspice
  - 1-4 tsp. cinnamon
  - 1-4 tsp. nutmeg
  - 1-4 tsp. cloves
  - 1-2 cup vinegar
  - 1-2 stick butter
  - 1-2 pound cheddar cheese
- Saute meat, onion, garlic, add olive oil and shortening. When brown, add tomatoes, spices and vinegar. Cover and cook five to six hours on low flame. When nearly done, add butter. Add cheese just before serving.
- With the meat and spaghetti, Mrs. Lane serves a salad with an extra-special dressing. Fresh spinach, (though seldom available here) is good, but any toss salad can be used and topped with this easy-to-make dressing:

- SALAD DRESSING
- 1-4 cup Wesson oil
  - 7 lbs. sugar
  - 2-14 tpsps. salt
  - 1-4 tsp. pepper
  - 1-2 tsp. paprika
  - 3 lbs. chili sauce
  - one horse radish
  - 1 tsp. mustard
  - 1 pod of garlic
- Mix, add lemon juice and vinegar to taste.

Don Cain Is Speaker At ESA Meeting

Don Cain, local attorney, spoke to the Epsilon Alpha sorority at meeting Thursday night in the City Club room, stressing the March of Dimes and the fact that 85 percent of polio victims are under 10 years of age.

"There are 36 hospitals in Texas that are equipped to treat polio patients," he pointed out. He explained the Mothers' March of Dimes and how successful it was here last year—and in other cities. It is said to be the most effective method of collecting for the March of Dimes.

A business meeting followed the speaker. The group discussed a slogan contest sponsored by the international headquarters in Loveland, Colo. Contestants will select a slogan for the 1952 rush season according to Mrs. Bill Ragsdale, local president.

Tentative plans were discussed for a spring dance, but no definite date was set.

The next meeting will be a social January 25.

Members attending were Mrs. Bert Arney, Bud Boyle, Parks Brumley, John Gannon, Chick Hickman, Guy LeMond, Tom Lindsey, Frank Morris, John Nutting, Bill Ragsdale, Charles Robison and Margaret Dial.

Ruth Millett

Have you ever stopped to think what an important role a woman's speaking voice plays in the happiness of her own home?

Go into a house where the mother's voice is sharp when she corrects a child, petulant when she speaks to her husband, harsh when she points out another's shortcomings, triumphant when she says "I told you so," and the chances are you aren't in a happy household. That voice is too busy antagonizing all day, every day, to create a happy atmosphere.

But go into a house where the woman's voice is quietly firm when she corrects a child, amused when she points out a human frailty, softly feminine when she talks to her husband, and it's a different house entirely.

That voice encourages and soothes, laughs and teases, quietly directs, and peace is usually the result.

Women can't be all-wise and always cheerful. But they can do a lot about their voices.

Nagging isn't words. It's a tone of voice. Sharpness with a child isn't just words. It's a tone of voice. Hatred often isn't in what is said, but the voice in which the words are spoken.

Watch your voice if you want to create a happy atmosphere around you.

What you say isn't nearly as important as how you say it. And how you feel will not be nearly so apt to affect your family if you watch your voice.

You may be tired but it's when you let your voice become dispirited that the whole family reflects your tiredness.

Start really listening to other women's voices, if you don't believe how important your own really is.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

The importance of gaining right desire will be discussed in the Lesson-Sermon titled "Sacrament" to be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, January 13.

The Golden Text is from Psalms (24:34): "Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? or who shall stand in his holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart."

The spiritual meaning of the sacrament is pointed out in this citation from the Bible: "The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?" (I Corinthians 10:16).

Harvesters Open District Season Tonight On Road

Four Clubs Top Candidates For 1-AAAA Basketball Lead

On the eve of the full weekend conference play in the "little Southwest Conference" basketball district, 1-AAAA, a dark horse has loomed into the picture to put strong challenge to the pre-season favorites.

And the dark horse is the Odessa Broncho.

The crew from the Oil City uncapped the district season Tuesday night with a riotous 99-20 shellacking of the defending state champion Lubbock Westerners.

This sound pasting of the Hub City five moved Coach John McNeely's crew right up alongside the Borger Bulldogs, Pampa Harvesters and San Angelo Bobcats as district favorites.

Downstate experts, making predictions, have said that the state champion this year is going to come out of Borger, Pampa, Dallas or Sunset or Dallas Adairson.

The full nonconference standings look like this:

W L	TEAM
13 0	Borger
11 0	Pampa
8 1	Odessa
7 2	San Angelo
6 2	Amarillo
5 2	Abilene
5 6	Lubbock

Tonight there are three conference games on tap and three more tomorrow. Lubbock plays at Amarillo, Borger is at Abilene and Pampa at San Angelo tonight. Tomorrow Pampa shifts to Abilene, Borger to San Angelo and Amarillo moves to Odessa. In addition Lubbock travels to Clovis Saturday night.

Bobcats And Eagles To Provide Cagers Busy Week End

Pampa's Harvesters start their quest for a district basketball championship tonight at San Angelo against the Bobcats, figured as one of the top clubs in the district.

And as if that isn't enough, tomorrow night they shift over to Abilene to engage the high-scoring Eagles, who's 12-4 record stamps them as another of the top contenders.

Coach Clifton McNeely's cagers left yesterday morning, shortly after hearing McNeely's father of twin boys, for Big Spring where they worked out and slept last night. At 8 o'clock tonight they tackle the Bobcats and the game, as well as tomorrow night's encounter with the Eagles, will be broadcast by radio station KPND.

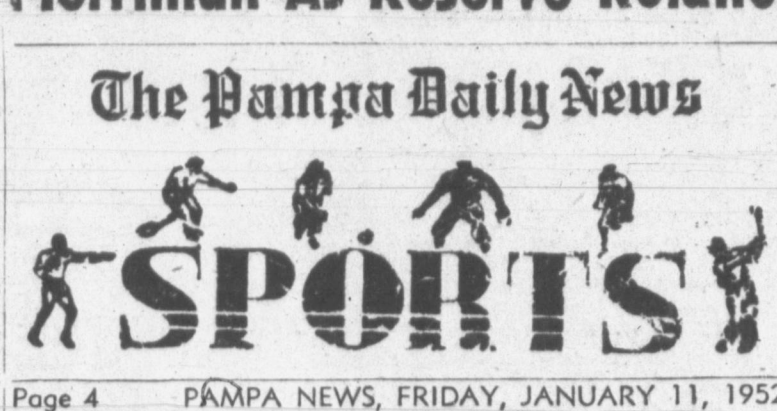

Coach McNeely is expected to start his regular quintet that has started the other eleven games. The Bond brothers will be at the forwards, Duane Jeter at center, and Tommy Smith and Jimmy Dulaney at the guards.

JIMMY TOPS SCORERS
Jimmy Bond is currently the leading scorer with a total of 148 to date. Brother Marvin is runner-up with 112 and Jeter is pushing hard in third place with 107. Thus far the Harvesters have racked up a total of 633 points to 431 for their opponents.

The starting lineup for the Bobcats will be Bill Warrick and Delnor Poss at guards, Bobby Harris at center, and Jimmy Reed and Delvis Guess at forwards.

At Abilene the Harvesters will run into a starting lineup of Tommy Esters and Joe Youngblood at guards, Bob Fry at center, and Jerry Turner and Bill Pierce at forwards.

Marines Strike Again; Grab Coleman And Merriman As Reserve Relation Plan Works

Page 4 PAMPA NEWS, FRIDAY, JANUARY 11, 1952

Southwest Conference Fives Resume Action Tonight

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff

Southwest Conference basketball hostilities open up again tonight after a two-day layoff. Two of the conference defending champs, Texas Christian and Texas A&M, will be in action against Baylor and Rice, respectively.

Texas, the other defending champion, remains idle.

Coach Buster Brannon's Christians, with three wins against no losses in conference play, are heavy favorites over the Bears who have only one win — a 54-50 victory over Colorado — in 12 starts.

TCU has defeated Rice, 42-30; Southern Methodist, 58-43; and Texas, 52-45, in conference competition and puts one of the nation's best won-and-lost records on the line Friday night, 12 wins against one defeat.

TOPS IN DEFENSE
Only Manhattan College of New York has decided the Frogs.

Figures released Thursday by the NCAA Service Bureau ranked the Aggies and TCU seventh and eighth, respectively, in team defense among the nation's major colleges.

In ten games, A&M had allowed the opposition only 482 points for a 48.2 per game average. The Frogs had allowed 635 points in 13 games for a 48.8 average.

Among the twenty offensive and defensive leaders across the country, the Brannonmen's 12-1 record shines like a beacon with only New York University's 13-1 record and Syracuse' 6-0 mark shading it.

NEW YORK — (AP) — The Marines are landing — on major league baseball players — and how many more athletes holding commissions may be called back into the armed services was a question only Washington and the Pentagon could answer today.

Twenty-four hours after the Boston Red Sox were rocked by the announcement Ted Williams had been recalled to the Marine Air Corps, infielder Gerry Coleman of the world champion New York Yankees and outfielder Lloyd Merriman of the Cincinnati Reds received similar greetings.

ROTATION PROGRAM
In Washington, a Marine Corps spokesman said this was part of a rotation program involving "several hundred" Marine reserve officers.

He denied the Marines were trying to "build up a team" by recalling athletes to active duty.

"Orders have been issued to Capt. Ted Williams recalling him to active duty along with several hundred junior captains and first lieutenants, all Naval aviators of the Marine Corps Reserve," a statement from the Corps said.

It added that the "purpose of recalling this group is to provide replacements for other reserve aviators who have completed their tours of active duty and are being released to inactive duty."

The Marine spokesman said "only three or four" of those being recalled this group to provide reserve.

Williams, who draws $100,000 a plus each year for making it tough on opposing American League pitchers, was fishing off the Florida Keys when his call came Wednesday.

SPRING TRAINING
Then, from San Francisco, came the orders yesterday for Coleman and Merriman to get ready. All are under orders to report for physical examinations April 2, and if found fit, they face at least 17 months of service.

If accepted, they will report May 2 for active duty at the Los Alamitos, Calif., Air Base.

Williams, of course, would be missed most of all by his club. The latest from the "Splendid Splinter" was a big question mark, whether to try to play any baseball before he is summoned.

"You have to do your duty when you're told," Ted declared at Rock Harbor, Fla., where he reports the fishing excellent.

"I don't know what I'm going to do now. This came so suddenly I haven't decided whether to report for spring training."

At first, Williams said he'd report for spring training with the Red Sox, Coleman and Merriman said they expected to go to training.

Grade School Program Resumes

The grade school basketball program scheduled for every Saturday morning from 9 to 12 will be resumed at all the grade schools tomorrow morning.

Coach Clifton McNeely and the Harvesters will be out of town, playing in the south part of the district, but the program will be supervised by Guerilla and Reaper cagers with Coach Pernal Scoggin of the Reapers supervising the entire program in McNeely's absence.

Last weekend the program started with nearly 200 boys below seventh grade participating. The boys bring only their own personal equipment, and must attend the same school as they attend daily.

BORGER BEST MARK
As far as "district 1-4A" is concerned, the Bulldogs have the best non-conference record, with 12 straight victories over competition from New Mexico to East Texas, state champions to college freshman quintets. While doing so they amassed a total of 755 points to 464 against their opponents, and doing so they beat two state champs, Lubbock and Clovis.

The Harvester record is next best, with 11 straight victories. Oddly enough, the defending champ Westerners lag with a mark of five wins, six losses.

Some indication should come out of this melee as to who is going to be the definite power. Whoever wins this district can't afford to drop many games.

The complete season records of each team are as follows, with the conference team's score listed first:

BORGER — 64, Gruver 46; 48, Clovis 30; 48, Tucumcari 37; 59, Capitol Hill 45; 60, Polytechnic of Fort Worth 26; 64, Childress 27.

ABILENE — 32, Snyder 24; 51, Avoca 52; 42, Birdville 36; 46, San Angelo 58; 44, Leveland 43; 57, Brownwood 51; 44, Highland Park 34; 53, Highland Park 31; 56, Snyder 45; 51, Brownwood 43; 60, Laredo 66; 72, Kingsville 54; 42, Baytown 36; 73, Breckenridge 45; 59, Lakewood 33; 44, Winters 57.

LUBBOCK — 23, Levelland 41; 25, Levelland 44; 36, Lamesa 28; 29, Norman 36; 33, Borger 49; 59, Lockney 36; 47, Lamesa 30; 44, Brownfield 45; 58, Plainview 49; 30, Lamesa 46; 52, Big Spring 58; 29, Odessa 59.

District play this year calls for a double round-robin, each team playing the other on a home-and-home basis. The season will be concluded on Feb. 16. All games are to be played on weekends.

Abilene Eagles Offer Club Just Year Away From Good

By FRED SANFNER
Abilene Reporter-News

ABILENE — The Abilene Eagle quintet which will face Borger's Bulldogs in the opening 1-AAAA basketball game at Eagle gym here Friday night is just a year away.

Four of the five starters are juniors, with the lone senior letterman, Joe Youngblood, of football fame, rounding out the lineup.

However, those four juniors, with the exception of Bill Pierce, who broke a leg in football practice just before the Borger game,

Four Dropped

ATHENS, Ga. — (AP) — The University of Georgia has dropped 18 football players from its roster because of scholastic failures. Eleven of those dropped were freshmen.

Only two varsity bulldog lettermen were on the list released last night by assistant Coach Bill Hartman.

Guerillas Lose In Wheeler Tourney

WHEELER — (Special) — The first game of the Wheeler basketball tournament saw Kelton eking out a thrilling 36-34 win over the Pampa Guerrillas. Pitcock of Kelton led the scoring with 15 points and Doug Randolph led the Pampans with 12.

Mobeetie girls trounced Allison 64-42 in the second game. They piled up a 40-19 halftime lead with Patricia Trimble scoring 29 points, Francis Totty, 17, and Ruth Morris, 17. Williams paced Allison with 20.

Allison managed to catch Reydton and finally gain a 29-25 win. Jack Isch and brother, Lonnie, led the scoring for Reydton, but couldn't outpoint Allison.

High pointer for the tournament so far is Patricia Tremble of Mobeetie, with her 29 points.

Harvester Links Team To Irish

The Pampa Harvester golf team, coached by professional Johnny Austin of the Pampa Country club, is scheduled to travel to Shamrock this afternoon and meet the Shamrock golf team.

Boys slated to make the trip are Charley Austin, Tommy Cox, Danrel Godfrey, Dib Stowell, Steve Burdette and Ronnie Mullins.

Austin said that he also hopes to take a junior high team along.

Next Friday afternoon the Harvester golfers will travel to Amarillo to battle the Sandies again.

The champion among the 1950 two-year-old fillies was Aunt Jinny. She is one of the four fillies named for the 1951 Kentucky Derby.

Miami Wins Pair

MIAMI — (Special) — The Miami teams took two games from Canadian Tuesday night, the Squaws winning 29-22. The Warriors came out on top in a close one 41-35.

The Squaws were in the lead all through the game. Eda Gill was high point with 12. Rathjen led the Canadian team with 12.

The Canadian Wildcats had a 6-7 lead at the end of the first quarter, but the Warriors led 20-11 at half-time. Canadian started hitting the third quarter to make the score 27-26 at the end of the third quarter.

Dewayne Wells of Miami and Buddy Gross of Canadian each had 14 points. Ramon Cowan and Carl Williamson had 7 for Miami. Ramirez had 11 for Canadian.

READY, SET, FIRE — Pampa's starting quintet is doing just that in this picture. In fact, their ball has already travelled nearly to the basket at the top of the page. The starting five tonight will be these same hoopsters who have rung up eleven straight wins thus far for the Green and Gold. They are, left to right, Jimmy Bond, Tommy Smith, Jimmy Dulaney, Marvin Bond and Duane Jeter. Tonight they play at San Angelo and tomorrow night at Abilene.

Two Regional Champions To Anchor Local Golden Glovers

Pampa's strongest hopes for regional Golden Gloves champions again this year will come from the two boys who captured those honors last season at Amarillo, Bobby Wilhelm and Dick Murray. Both will be back fighting in the Pampa District Golden Gloves which opens Monday night for a three-night stand at the Junior High school gymnasium. Both will be back in the high school division.

Murray, who was 160 pound champion, is expected to breeze through the district meet fairly easy. His strongest competition will come out of the regional tournament.

Wilhelm will find plenty of opposition all the way. One of the youngest regional champions, Wilhelm is also one of the toughest when the fighting moves in side.

Reserved seat tickets for the three nights of action are now on sale at Leders, Texas Motor Company, Jack Vaughn service station, and the James Feed store.

The fights will start Monday night at 8 o'clock, the starting time each night. They will be broadcast nightly by KPDM.

Pros Resume All-Star Rivalry

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — Regular season rivalries and doubtless a personal feud as well will be rekindled tomorrow when the pick of the nation's professionals clash in the second annual pro-bowl football.

The contest pits the best of the National Conference against the best of the American Conference in the National Football League.

Main feuding of a mass variety would be between all-star representatives of the Los Angeles Rams and their coach, Joe Stydahar, and the outfit they beat for the National League title last month, the Cleveland Browns and their coach, Paul Brown.

The experts say... for supreme engine protection change every 1,000 miles, especially during the cold winter months. And, for supreme engine protection... be certain you change to Skelly Supreme H-D type Motor Oil. It keeps your engine cleaner, fights acid and corrosion, and flows fast from the instant your engine starts to protect all moving parts from wear. # Walcott's Victory Over Ez Declared Top Upset Of 1951

By MURRAY ROSE
NEW YORK — (AP) — A short left hook shot through the sultry air, landed flush on the jaw of Ezzard Charles and ten seconds later, a weeping Jersey Joe Walcott was crowned heavyweight champion of the world.

The sensational victory of the 37-year old gladiator, a 5 to 1 underdog in his fifth crack at the crown, was chosen today as the upset of 1951 by sports writers and sportscasters participating in the annual Associated Press year-end poll.

It was a year of big upsets with two other ranking close to the Walcott-Charles surprise — Randy Turpin's decision victory over middleweight champion Ray Robinson in London and the New York Giants' drive past the Brooklyn Dodgers to the National pennant.

A total of 215 ballots were cast in the poll and 58 voters named Jersey Joe's victory as the No. 1 upset. There were 82 first places votes for Turpin's triumph and as many cast for the Giants. On a basis of three points for a first place nomination, two for a second, and one for a third, Walcott received 296 points to 262 for Turpin and 259 for the Giants.

Michigan State's 35-0 thumping of Notre Dame in football was rated fourth but only eight picked it as a first choice. Then came Southern Methodist's football victory over Notre Dame; Rocky Marciano's knockout of Joe Louis; Indiana's football triumph over Ohio State; Texas Tech's football win over Texas Christian; Stanford's victory in the Pacific Coast Conference football race; Vanderbilt's victory over Kentucky in the Southeastern Conference basketball tournament and young Maureen Connolly's triumph in the Women's National Tennis championship at Forest Hills.

The list of top upsets with points based on three for a first place vote, two for second and one for third (first place votes in parentheses):
Walcott over Charles (52)
Turpin over Robinson (52)
Giants winning pennant (52)
Mich. State over Notre Dame (48)
18 football players from its Southern Methodist over Notre Dame (48)
Marciano over Louis (5)
Indiana over Ohio State (3)
Texas Tech over Texas Christian (4)
Stanford winning PCC (3)
Vanderbilt over Kentucky (2)
Maureen Connolly, tennis (2)

Bomar Takes Stance With Both Feet Flat, Left One Slightly Ahead

(Second of an instructive series written and illustrated for NEA Service)
By BUDDY BOMAR
Former Match-Game Champion
In every phase of bowling, the best results can be obtained from efforts that are natural and easy. I take my stance with both feet flat on the floor, my left slightly ahead of the right.

You may prefer to keep the feet together, however, and if that is comfortable, keep them together, by all means. The knees are slightly flexed. This avoids tension and helps you acquire relaxation.

The elbows are in at the sides, the shoulders back. My hips and shoulders are squared away with the foul line and pins. This is important for any habit of pointing the hips and shoulders down the alley at an angle will probably result in your delivering the ball at the foul line at a similar angle.

I hold the ball about waist high in front of me with both hands under the ball. It is permissible, however, to hold the ball as high as your shoulders if such a position makes you feel more relaxed.

I stand erect, but bending forward slightly at the waist is a fine method for releasing tension, and you may prefer it. Experiment to find the best possible stance for yourself.

I didn't adopt any particular style of bowling merely by watching or listening to others. I tried various methods until I found the one that suited me.

AVOID TENSION — In the stance, Buddy Bomar's knees are slightly flexed. (NEA)

Eastern Cagers Meet Twin Defeat

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK — (AP) — The East's college basketball prestige dipped last night. St. Johns of Brooklyn, only a few weeks ago rated the No. 1 team in the Associated Press poll, was beaten by Chicago Loyola, 68-64, and New York University was tumbled, 71-72, by Duke of the Southern Conference.

The double upset occurred in a twin bill at Madison Square Garden where last week West Virginia, another quiet from the Southern Conference, surprised by knocking NYU out of the unbeaten ranks.

Loyola, beaten by Illinois, Notre Dame and Western Michigan, held a 43-33 halftime lead and, with Dick Klaidis and Don Hanrahan doing a terrific job under the bankboards, stayed off St. John's furious closing rally. St. John's, led by big Zawotuk, cut Loyola's margin at one stage to 62-50, but made only one field goal in the last five minutes.

NYU, ranked 13th to St. John's 12th in this week's AP poll, almost pulled the game out of the fire after once trailing Duke by 15 points. The Violets pulled up to 73-72 in the last minute, but couldn't score again.

The games topped a comparatively slim program throughout the country. Unbeaten Seton Hall, ranked 9th, made it 12 in a row by crushing Creighton, 60-44. In other games Penn State nipped North Carolina 55-53 in overtime; Hardin-Simmons beat Texas Western 62-56 and San Francisco whipped Los Angeles Loyola 51-44.

Reapers Turn In Win At Canyon

The Pampa Junior High school Reapers broke into the win column yesterday afternoon at Canyon, downing the Canyon Junior High school cagers, 57-32.

It was the first win for the Reapers in conference play against one loss. The Blue and White left little doubt as to the ultimate outcome. They held a narrow 10-lead at the end of the first quarter, but then started to roll.

Halftime score was 30-12, and it rolled up to 42-18 as the final period began. Larry E. J. McIlvain paced the Reapers scoring with a total of 17 points, while Burrow headed the losers with 10.

In other league games Phillips beat Sam Houston, 55-31; Borger battered Price College, 37-17; and Nixon edged Horace Mann, 27-26. Nixon, Borger and Phillips are tied for the league lead with two wins and no defeats each.

Aggie Gridders Feted Saturday

COLLEGE STATION — (AP) — Outstanding players on the 1951 Texas A&M football team will be honored tomorrow night during the annual winter sports banquet. Lipscomb-Colson awards will be given to the team co-captains and the most valuable player, and the Bert Pfaff award will go to the outstanding blocker. The Dallas A&M club will also present an award to the best varsity griddier from Dallas.

The banquet will honor the varsity traveling squad, the cross country team, B football team and the freshman gridders. Prospects are that 500 persons will attend. Main speaker will be the Rev. Marvin Vance, pastor of the First Methodist church in Austin.

College Presidents Take Power Away From NCAA With 10-Point De-Emphasis Program

By WILL GRIMSLEY
CINCINNATI — (AP) — The National Collegiate Athletic Association insisted it was still alive and kicking today while some of its best friends were busy burying the corpse.

The some 250 delegates moved into the general business session with only a polite nod in the few years — the presidents of the NCAA.

Hannah said in press conference afterwards his committee is going right ahead and making its recommendations to the executive council of the American Council of Education.

If adopted, he said, the rules will be enforced through the regional accrediting agencies. An institution failing to comply might face loss of accreditation.

ADJOURN TOMORROW
The agenda doesn't call for any official action on the points raised by the presidents calling for abolition of all bowl and post-season games, strict limitations on playing and practice sessions and sharp controls on the subsidization of athletes.

Some of these matters could be brought up — fresh — from the floor, however, and conceivably that might happen before tomorrow's adjournment.

Some saw in the presidents' action a death blow to the NCAA. However, neither the NCAA nor the presidents' group recognized the report to the NCAA executive council yesterday.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
CINCINNATI — (AP) — The sports section of the American College Public Relations Association (slang for the drum-beaters) is holding a meeting here this week in connection with the NCAA convention.

Your correspondent dropped in yesterday and asked: "How about a few notes, youse guys?" Here are the results.

LOOKING FOR NO. 1.
Joe Sherman of Florida, head of the outfit, gets the top spot with this year. When Florida played Clemson in basketball recently, Joe really was on the spot. He publicized Clemson athletics 13 years before he went further south and Aggie McFadden, wife of the Clemson coach, asked: "Joe, be truthful now, way down deep, do you want Clemson or Florida to win?" Sherman, reflectively considering the grocery bill, replied: "Aggie, if you're down as deep as the bread-basket, there's Florida, Florida won it and continued Joe's supply of bread."

CHARMED, I'M SURE
Another Clemson item... While the football from the Agricultural College of South Carolina was building a long winning streak, Coach Frank Howard accumulated the gosh-darndest lot of good luck charms you ever saw. Among other things, Frank had a "lucky" shirt which he wore at every game for about three years. Finally in the Gator Bowl New Year's Day, Clemson lost to Miami. Howard came into his hotel room afterward, ripped off the thread-bare shirt without bothering to loosen the buttons, heaved the luck charms into the waste basket and shouted: "To h— with this stuff. From now on we're going to rely on blocking and tackling."

ODDS AND ENDS
The Hofstra College basketball tournament during the Christmas holidays actually made a little money despite a seating capacity of about 1,200 at the Hofstra gym. The eight "small" colleges will split the dough remaining after a $2,400 "nut" was covered.

In six bowl games, Texas Tech (which must be over-emphasized to get into that many) never has managed to make more than one point-after-touchdown in any game. This year Tech had Punk Whitaker, who ranked sixth among the nation's converters, and still could get only one in a 22-14 win over College of the Pacific. Western Michigan College, whose athletic history goes back to 1906, never has fired a coach. And Hardin-Simmons U., whose four top officials, including the prexy, are former football players, has an even better record. It never has had an organized attempt by any group to fire a coach.

DOT AND DASHES
Dayton U. tub thumper Pepper Wilson, who hung the "vertical hyphen" nickname on tall Johnny Horan, adds: "The vertical hyphen now has polka dots." Horan broke out with chicken pox yesterday. And, not to be attributed to any publicity man, an embittered athletic director let loose with this comment on the college prexy's report: "a college president is a guy who is too dumb to be a professor and too lazy to be a dean."

Carver Cagers Host Paducah

The Carver High school cagers are scheduled to play Paducah's colored school cagers tonight at the Carver High school gym.

Both boys and girls games will be played, starting at 7 o'clock. Both clubs are members of the Red-River Valley basketball league.

NCAA, said the conversations with the presidents' representatives turned up some differences of opinion in regard to details but added: "The report and the comments showed harmony in both associations, programs and efforts and showed quite clearly that the ACE needs the NCAA's and conferences' help to realize its goal."

Hannah also said the two groups can live in harmony with each other — the NCAA directing athletic policies and the ACE overseeing the academic work. Under this plan we are simply making the athletic department like any other department in the institution," he added.

Who can measure the length of a thought! Especially the thought of a child! A good thought is like the acorn, which becomes the Live Oak tree, which may live for a thousand years. Some thoughts are much longer than that. Aristotle urged upon men the 'golden mean,' and many business men today are following him; he lived three hundred years before the beginning of our era. The decalogue, or Ten Commandments, are long thoughts about how women and men should live. Perhaps the thoughts stirring in this child's mind have been dropped there by a parent or by a teacher or by a neighbor. Isn't it rather wonderful that you and I can start a train of thinking and of living, in a child, that may go on forever? How long is "forever?" That is how long some thoughts are.

Can you remember a word spoken to you in the long ago? Some of us treasure what seemed a chance thought passed to us by a careful teacher many years ago. When the soil is right and a mind is eager to know, seeds are precious. Have you learned a lesson that you count of great value? Do you wish that someone had passed it to you when you were young? Then why not do for some other child what you wish had been done for you? Would you not like to live forever in the esteem of another? Perhaps the child is our opportunity for some worthwhile immortality. Help her leave for posterity some long thoughts. What a pity that a good thought or a bit of wisdom we have garnered through many years should die with us! It does not need to die. The child near you is the good soil into which you may drop the good seed thought. "A sower went forth to sow." Every woman and every man is a sower. Is the seed good that we sow? What will the harvest be, for the thoughts we are putting into the minds of retentive childhood? Your thoughts and mine may become inspiring or discouraging thoughts to these precious persons that we love. Is it important then that we think straight, clean, sweet, kind, loving thoughts? These should be long thoughts. Attend your church regularly.

YOU IN THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that youth and old alike are schooled with benefactions they derive and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial and a stranger give character. Statesmen today declare that the church in these perilous times, that we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for the good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

SUDDENLY all their years together were there with them in the familiar room: all the lovely things they had done together, all the shared precious thoughts, the small quarrels which now seemed so unimportant.

Mysteriously Tommy had become in reality the man she had mistaken him for when they first met.

The offices of Trumbull & Co. were closed on the day of Bright's funeral, which was held very quietly and in private. And on the day following Tommy received the long-expected summons to an interview with Mr. Muncie in his private office. Alma was requested to go with Tommy; but by the time they arrived at the House they had still not decided upon what course to take.

Alma carried the incriminating piece of jewelry over which she had once labored with so much love, in the inner compartment of her purse, in case it should, for any reason, be needed. She could feel the tense expectancy in her husband as they went up in the elevator, and realized that she herself was trembling slightly.

After all, she thought, they neither of them, had any idea of what lay ahead. None of the many rumors which permeated the shop grapevine ever sprang from the inner sanctum, and consequently there had been no gossip about what the Head intended to do where the Conroys were concerned. She began to wish the interview was done and over with.

At the third floor he was joined by Old Victor Bl. nehard who announced his intention of accompanying them.

"You are going up to him—but yes?" he spoke with a slightly pained shake of his head. "I too go along, for this is my concern."

It was I who advised Bright's placement, and so it was also I who, indirectly, sent the boy to his death. If there is anything bad—I will face it with you!

The private office was beautiful, severe, and carefully unpretentious, and from behind the big desk the almost legendary Mr. Muncie arose for a second as they came in and then, indicating chairs for them, resumed his own. To Alma the Head's face had the same detached familiarity as the faces in a history book—Washington, Lincoln or General Lee: it was something she knew well but only as an action for good behavior. He was, she thought, probably the only man in New York who still wore a cutaway coat and striped trousers to business every day. He looked from one to the other of them in wholly impersonal, cool graciousness.

"My friend!" said Old Victor. "I can say nothing. What has happened is the will of God. But there is left to one a splendid memory..."

He bowed his head, unable to finish. Mr. Muncie's Adam's apple moved visibly in the cleft of his wing collar and the neck muscles in his large, heavy face tightened.

"Are you sure, Victor, that it is a splendid memory?" His voice, though a stupendous effort, was low and controlled.

"Yes, mon arm, it appears certain." The old man, it appeared, actually believed this. Alma was surprised and relieved. The unpleasantness her grandfather had anticipated could not have concerned Bright's possible guilt in any connection. The Head turned to Tommy.

"And are you positive that I have been given all details?"

For a moment Alma felt panic-stricken. Now it had come, the moment of decision. But now

Dr. Roxy Grove Is Found Dead

WACO — (AP) — Dr. Roxy Grove, 62, formerly head of the Baylor school of music and internationally known piano instructor, was found dead at her home yesterday.

Miss Grove taught piano at Baylor university many years and also in foreign countries. She was absent from her classes Wednesday. Thursday one of her students, John O'Brien, went to her home to see if she was ill and found her body on the bathroom floor.

Officers said she apparently died of natural causes and had been dead 18 to 24 hours. An inquest was ordered.

She was the daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Grove of Brownwood. Her father was formerly president of Howard Payne college at Brownwood.

There was a moment of complete silence. Then Mr. Muncie cleared his throat and he assumed a business-like manner.

"Mr. Conroy," he said briskly, "your recent magnificent performance in the recovery, with my son's aid, of those stolen jewels, puts a new light on your character. We want men of your caliber, and we'd like to keep you with us. I understand that you are a good commercial photographer. We have an opening for you as head of that department. Would that be agreeable to you?"

"Would it?" said Tommy, startled out of his formal manners. "WOULD IT—OH BOY!"

"Now at last it arrives!" said Old Victor delightedly. "Now we carry on, and maybe the next born of Blanchard blood shall carry on some day, as for the 100 years past—a good workman for a good master!"

Outside the snows were melting at last under a warmer sun. At the corner of the street an angry torrent rushed along, carrying bits of refuse and the grime of many winter months down the gutter grating. As she passed Alma opened a surreptitious hand and something glowed as it fell into the hurrying waters and was rapidly sucked down out of sight.

"Did you drop something, dear?" Tommy asked absently.

"Yes," said Alma, "our last unpleasant link with the past!"

Base Laying At Half-Way Point On 70

Base laying on State Hwy 70, north of Pampa, neared the half-way mark today, state highway engineers reported.

The first layer of base material has already been spread and workmen were nearing 50 percent completion of the second layer today.

Asphalt topping of the 12-mile stretch should start sometime in April, and when completed, run from the end of present paving to a point about three miles west of Chicken Creek bridge.

With the completion of paving on N. Hobart and final topping of the present 12-mile stretch, the Pampa-Perryton road will have a hard surface road bed from Pampa to the county line and an additional 16.4 miles through Roberts county, plus a concrete and steel bridge over Chicken Creek. The remainder of the road, to the south bank of the Canadian river, will still be dirt.

On the north side of the river, 29 miles have already been paved and some dirt work started from the north bank of the river toward Perryton.

North, South Parts Of Highway May Be Finished This Year

Fred Thompson, sub-chairman of the Hwy. 70 Assn., yesterday reported to the Highway and Transportation committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce that the road north and south of the Canadian river probably will be completed during 1952.

During a meeting of the committee in the chamber offices, Thompson said he was hopeful that an appropriation by the State Hwy. Dept. would be made this year for the initial phase of construction of a bridge over the river. However, he added that no definite commitments have been made by the highway department.

Howard Buckingham, executive board member of the U. S. Hwy. 60 Assn., announced in all probability the 1952 convention of the association will be held in Pampa.

The committee decided that during Texas Highway Week, Jan 27 to Feb. 2, news stories, radio forums and special programs for civic clubs should be stressed concerning the observance.

W. E. Weatherford, chairman of the committee, said the primary objective during the week is to acquaint local people of the importance of the Texas highway system and how it operates from a local level.

SEVERAL HOURS after a two million dollar fire swept the Blackburn Brothers Clothiers store in Amarillo, firemen had the blaze under control. A former Pampa woman, Faye Smart, a saleslady on the second floor, was one of the last four persons out of the building. The origin of the fire was not definitely known today, but it is known to have started in the basement. Only a few persons received minor burns and bruises, and there were no deaths reported. The store will re-open for business as soon as possible in temporary quarters, Stanley Blackburn, one of the owners, announced this morning. Insurance covered the greater part of the loss. ### Local Woman Tells Of Costly Amarillo Blaze

A Pampa woman, who considered herself lucky to be alive today, described the two million dollar holocaust which destroyed Blackburn Brothers Clothiers store in Amarillo Thursday afternoon, driving store employees and customers from the blazing store in a matter of minutes. Cause of the fire had not been determined early today, but some believe a rack used for spray painting ignited in the basement.

Faye Smart, former employee of a dress shop here in Pampa, said she was one of the last four persons out of the store after a store official warned the second floor personnel the store was on fire.

"It was what they call a flash fire," Miss Smart explained to her sister, Mrs. Lillian McWright of Pampa, in a telephone conversation Thursday. "The fire was out of control before we even knew there was a fire. It was the sort of thing you hear about and read about, or see in the movies, but don't think ever happens."

Several other second floor clerks were brought to safety by aerial ladders as some 75 city firemen fought the raging fire which was out of control several hours. There was said to be more confusion on the second floor than on the first floor where only a few customers were shopping. The second floor was more crowded.

Wind threatened to spread the fire to other buildings and traffic was reportedly snarled in a five-block area, but no other loss was reported.

Miss Smart, a saleslady in the woman's department on the second floor, explained that the elevator man went first to the basement and took people from there. The fire began in the basement. Later the elevator was operated by Stanley Blackburn, one of the store owners. He brought the elevator to the second floor, but Miss Smart said it was filled and she was unable to get in. But after that she couldn't see the elevator for the smoke.

"The heat was intense by that time," she said, and she and a friend, Ruby Kelley, started down the stairs. As they reached the end of the stairs they looked back to see flames leap across the stairs.

Stanley Blackburn said today the store was not out of business. The loss is largely covered by insurance. "We will re-open for business as soon as possible in temporary quarters," he announced.

Irish Teachers Plan February Program

SHAMROCK (Special) Irish teachers will present "Fables of H. C. Weatherby; director of the school." early in February for the frolic.

Weatherby outlined plans to the entire Irish faculty at a special faculty meeting Wednesday afternoon. It was arranged that each member of the faculty answer roll call with something of his or her ambition, a stunt or a song.

Scene II is to consist of super-stunts and acts in which students and patrons alike will see their teachers in a new — if more interesting — role.

Mrs. Mary Bledsoe and Mrs. Robert Reeves, South Ward; Mrs. Robert Laycock and Miss Janet Caperton, North Ward; Douglas McLemore and Mrs. Ed Darr, junior high; and Mrs. Inez Montgomery and Kenneth Laycock are on committees to arrange the details for the frolics.

Canadian FHA Lays Tourney Plans

Norma Bernson was chosen as FHA favorite. Miss Bernson is a senior, active in club work, is a member of the Wildcat band and plays on the girls' basketball team. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Bernson, of Canadian.
