The eighth annual stock show got underway here today with judging completed in the pig and calf divisions of the junior livestock show.

E. Jay McIlvain of Pampa showed the grand champion pig while grand champion in the calf division was shown by Paul T. Macina, Jr., of Shamrock.

McIlvain's 240-pound Louise won in the senior division of the pig judging which started at 9:30 a. m. while Macina's grand champion calf, 845-pound Wimpy, also took top honors in the senior division of calf judging.

Reserve champion pig was exhibited by Glen Harris of Kingsmill and reserve champion calf, 808-pound Pal, was shown by Joe Van Zandt of Mobeetie.

Francis Hill, manager of the Honey Grove ranch, Groves, Okla., was judge for the junior calf show. There were 48 pigs shown in two divisions.

Winners in the senior division were Paul Simmons, Pampa; Glen Harris, Kingsmill; David Miller, Pampa; and Ernest Huff, Miami. In the junior division winners second to fifth were Sam Williams, McLean; J. D. Ray, Pampa; E. J. McIlvain, Pampa; and Paul Simmons, Pampa.

Judging of the pigs was conducted by L. L. Hargrave of Texas Tech., who said "... this year's group of hogs is the best I have seen in the Top of Texas Junior Livestock show."

Both champions in the calf division were winners in the first and second place divisions respectively in the senior division judging.

Other winners in the senior division of the fat calf show were third, George Harris, Kelton; fourth, Homer Ed Alexander, Canadian; and fifth, Gilbert Forrest, Canadian.

In the junior division, second place went to Roy Lewis of McLean; third, Donald Whitley, Kelton; fourth, Kenny Abraham, Canadian; fifth, Rocky Coffey, White Deer.

Eighteen calves competed for honors in the senior division while 35 were entered in the junior class.

Awards to be presented at various banquets tonight include first-place showmanship award, to be given at the 4-H club banquet; award for grand champion pig presented by Rotary club; grand champion calf by the Lions club.

At the PFA banquet in the Palm room, awards will go to first, second and third-place groups of five fat steers.

Junior livestock judging contests were underway today by 1 p. m. Thirty-four teams were participating.

'Dimes' Still Short Of Goal

Gray county is still about $500 short in reaching its goal of $10,000 in the 1952 March of Dimes drive which ended Thursday night, latest figures show.

However, donations made through the lung banks have not been added to the total figure, and, in addition, proceeds from today's basketball game between Pampa and Amarillo sports writers and announcers will be turned over to the fund.

The amount collected from the same, which will begin at 8 p. m. in the new fieldhouse, will be added to the total of the winning city. This event may determine the winner between marillo and Pampa in the contest of raising most money during the polo drive.

By Saturday, collections in Pampa had risen to $12,274.98. McLean had contributed $1589.35 while Lefors had given $463.50. Hopkins came through with $105.18.

Student Lost Near Abilene

ABILENE -- (AP) -- A search for a plane missing since Saturday night during a dust storm in the Abilene area started today at 7:30 a. m. Aboard the plane was a Dallas-bound college flyer.

Planes from Ellington field were expected today to join the search.

Ferry Marvin Singleton, University of Colorado student, left Boulder, Colo., Saturday in his own plane. He checked by radio with Amarillo and Wichita Falls as he passed.

About 10 p. m. Saturday he contacted the Abilene airport saying he was lost in a storm and had gas for only an hour. He said dust clouds prevented him from seeing where he was and high head winds kept his small plane from staying on course.

For about 20 minutes the Abilene airport radio operator tried to direct Singleton to the field. Shortly before the youth's radio went silent, he said: "I'm getting out of here."

The radio operator thought the youth meant he was flying elsewhere rather than attempting to parachute.

Reserve champion calf was shown by Joe Van Zandt, lower right, of Mobeetie. (News Photos)

Political Interest In Texas 'Fantastic' Says AP Writer

"Political interest in Texas is fantastic," Dave Cheavens, chief of the Associated Press Austin bureau and veteran political observer, said here this morning.

Cheavens stopped in Pampa after attending a session of the Associated Press Managing Editor convention which closes today in Amarillo.

Cheavens, who has been touring the state the last few weeks analyzing the political situation, said he had never seen such interest manifest in Texas and that the old-line Texas Democrat faces a decided threat from what he termed neo-Republicans.

This group, he said, is gaining strength with most of its power centering in the Panhandle and South Plains. He cited example of Republican activity in the area and predicted huge GOP activity in precinct conventions.

About 500 Lubbock Republicans have promised to attend precinct conventions this year.

"There never has been more than 30 in the entire history of that local group attend the precinct convention," Cheavens said.

Meanwhile, the AP editors, including Daily News Publisher E. Roy Smith and News Managing Editor Bob Getteny, elected J. Q. Mahaffey, editor of the Texarkana Gazette and News, president of the association Sunday.

Election of officers came in the closing session of the annual meeting to review progress in improving the AP Texas news report.

Mahaffey succeeds Charles A. Guy, editor and publisher of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

The association voted to meet in Dallas in 1953.

Other new officers are Col. Dwight Allison, managing editor of the San Antonio Light, first vice president; Harry Blanding, managing editor of the Temple Telegram, second vice president; Ray Parr, of the Amarillo Globe-Times, secretary; and R. J. Walts, managing editor of the Houston Chronicle, treasurer.

General Manager Frank J. Starzel of the Associated Press told the group of almost 100 managing editors and staff members of Texas newspapers that accounts must be completely accurate to keep reader confidence.

"Don't assume that the average reader knows nothing about what is happening, that he can't go to the record or won't go to the record," Starzel said.

Gene Howe, chairman of the board of the Amarillo Globe-Times and News, said in a talk that newspapers that are members of the AP should tell their readers what the AP is doing and accurate a news medium as the mind of man can build."

He said many people are bewildered and confused by "weller of propaganda" and "we should tell that if you want to know what is the truth, look to see what the AP says."

Larry S. Fanning, managing editor of the San Francisco Chronicle, told the association the American press must develop a high sense of responsibility if it is to remain free.

"If we do not use restraint and police ourselves," he said, "then someone may do it for us and a free press will no longer exist."

"Publication of undocumented news stories represents a deprivation of the process," he said. "It is a trial, not by a jury of peers, in the American tradition, but trial by calumny, not very different indeed than the kind of street corner rabble rousing mob justice with which we have become familiar in Red China."

Grain Shortages Listed In Millions

House Group Names Wheat, Grain Sorghum

WASHINGTON -- (AP) -- A House subcommittee says it has found shortages of $3,820,000 in Texas elevators and warehouses handling government grain.

In a report yesterday the government said the shortages cover 626,305 bushels of wheat and 84,488,500 pounds of grain sorghum.

The report also accused Agriculture department officials of showing "official favoritism" toward certain grain dealers and accepting gifts from firms doing business with the government.

The appropriations subcommittee had its staff investigate the government's grain storage program last fall. In January it called Secretary of Agriculture Brannan and other officials to closed hearings to go over the report.

A report to the House was made public yesterday. The Senate Agriculture committee also has started a probe of the program.

Brannan has told senators private firms were to blame for the shortages and no government employees benefited.

The report asserted two agriculture officials at Kansas City showed "official favoritism" to the Lone Star Co., Houston.

The report said the Houston firm was informed of competitors' low bids for grain bags, allowed to obtain contracts by meeting competitors' low bids, awarded one contract at a bid higher than other bids, informed of CCC bag requirements before other dealers, and permitted material changes in contracts.

The report also criticized the apparent advantage to Lone Star. The report termed CCC's investigation "unsatisfactory."

Construction Of Hwy. 70 Is Near End

Construction men were coming down the home stretch in base laying work on State Hwy. 70 this week as last truckload of crushed caliche and stone was hauled from the pits.

Highway department engineers this morning said crushing equipment has been ordered to the job over the weekend, leaving only the spreading operations and oil surfacing to be completed before April 15.

Spreading the base material over the last few miles of the road will be completed by the end of the week, the engineers said, but will be finished weeks before a spall season -- April 15 -- rolls around.

Following base laying, a procedure of oil coat will be laid. On April 15 the contractors will return to the job and finish it with a double-course asphalt treatment. And, that will give State Hwy. 70 approximately 22 miles of all weather road, leaving about nine miles of dirt road between the end of paving and the south bank of the Canadian River.

Amarillo Bus Co. Almost Normal

AMARILLO -- (AP) -- Strike-bound Amarillo Bus Co. said it expected to have buses operating on a normal basis today.

Saturday 38 drivers, members of the Amalgamated Association of Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America, walked out asking an increase in wages.

Yesterday the union said its offer to settle for a five-cent hourly wage increase had been rejected by the company. The basic wage now is $1.20 an hour.

The company operated bus service Saturday and yesterday by using residential mechanics, former drivers, new trainees and bus company officials as drivers. The service was normal during daylight hours but ended soon after sundown.

Mr. Groundhog Proves To Be Able Weather Predictor

Old Mr. Groundhog proved himself an able weather predictor last week end as a howling norther blew into the Panhandle early Saturday, the day following Ground Hog day.

However, the high winds brought a trace of moisture which dissipated huge clouds of dust which covered most of the state over the week end.

Winds from the northwest blew at estimated velocity of 45-50 miles per hour. By 2 p. m. Sunday, after its force had diminished, velocity gauges at Central Airlines weather station here showed 35-mile-per-hour winds with gusts up to 40 miles per hour.

Temperatures dropped from Saturday's high reading of 70 degrees to a week end low of 26 degrees registered early this morning.

Low reading Sunday was 31 degrees according to the weather station at the KPNN transmitter.

There was not enough moisture to measure.

Meanwhile in other parts of the state, towering clouds of red sand blew out early today after giving some sections their worst dusting since the days of the dust bowl era in the 1930's.

Temperatures dropped slightly following the swift flow of air from the north.

No rainfall was reported Sunday or expected today to ease the pangs of Texas' worst drought in many years.

Last night a soil expert warned that the clouds of reddish dust which billowed as high as 9000 feet could be a forerunner of more serious dust storms.

"About two million acres south and west of Lubbock are in sufficiently critical condition that such dust storms may continue," said Louis Merrill of Fort Worth, regional director of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

Yesterday north and northwest winds of 30 to 40 miles per hour drove the dust from the El Paso - Panhandle area to Houston and the Rio Grande valley.

Visibility was cut to three or four miles in some East Texas towns. Dallas had visibility of less than a mile and a half for more than six hours.

Merrill said approximately 3 1/2 million acres of crop and range land were without sufficient cover. These include the two million acres which are in critical condition.

"In the other 1 1/2 million scattered areas there is sufficient moisture so emergency tillage operations are being used to produce cloddy or roughened surface," he said.

"This can be done until the roughened surface is worn down by continued drought and the earth becomes pulverized. It is an added expense since it produces no income, but farmers are working at it pretty hard," he said.

Some areas, including the one extending from Lubbock to Big Spring to Pecos, are too dry for tillage operations, he said.

"The drought has been 18 months duration or longer in more than 100 counties. This is longer than the drought of 1917-18 and the most severe since 1886.

Smouldering Cigarette Blamed In Death Of George L. Dauner

Fire Chief Ernest Winborn early this afternoon said he believed the early-morning fire Sunday which took the life of George L. Dauner, 46, of 445 Pitts, manager of the Jack Skelly Feed Store, was started by a smouldering cigarette and not an electric blanket.

Winborn this morning and early this afternoon tested the remains of the electric blanket over a gas burner in front of a Pampa Daily News reporter and Joe Key, manager of Southwestern Public Service Co. here.

The blanket, subjected to the intense heat of the open gas flame, only smouldered and when removed from the flame the smouldering ceased.

"If these little wires would have smoldered or have become overheated they would have burned themselves out before the blanket ignited," the chief said.

He added he had examined the hole burned in the flooring underneath the bed, and said he found an ashtray and a clock. The clock had apparently stopped at three minutes after four.

Mr. Dauner suffocated in the fire after apparently failing an attempt to call for help or get outside the house. He was found dead on the floor of the kitchen by Winborn.

Winborn said Mr. Dauner apparently awoke and found his bed and floor underneath it burning and tried to get help. The phone was off the hook, Winborn said, adding he believed the man had tried to put in a call to the fire department. A call from the house earlier brought firemen and police, but no evidence of a fire could be found.

The body was taken to the Duenkel - Carmichael Funeral home and from there sent to Oklahoma City.

Mr. Dauner, officers said, had been spending the week end with relatives in Hennessey at the time of the fire.

The fire chief surmised the blaze was started either by a smouldering cigarette or a smouldering cigarette or an electric blanket, but refused to blame the fire directly on either one.

He said the remains of an electric blanket were found with the switches still turned on. The bedroom floor, directly under the bed, was burned through. The bed fell through the burned floor.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p. m. Tuesday in Hennessey in the First Methodist church there.

Besides his wife, Mr. Dauner, a resident of Pampa for 10 years, is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Sam Fisher of Hennessey.

Damage Heavy In Sunday Fire

Flames, believed to have started from faulty wiring, caused heavy damage early Sunday morning to the City Barber Shop, N. Currier and Kingsmill, and the Glenn Sheehan Cleaners, next door to the barber shop.

Fire Chief Ernest Winborn said the flames crept up the wall to the roof of the barber shop and got into the cleaning establishment. The faulty wiring, the fire chief said, was in the barber shop.

Most of the damage to the cleaning shop was from smoke and water, but the damage to the inside of the barbershop was due mostly to fire.

There was no estimate of the damage made by the fire department this morning.

Funeral Today For Kenneth Wright, 18, Victim Of Accident

Funeral services for Kenneth Lee Wright, 18, of Amarillo, killed Friday night in Lefors when the stolen car in which he was riding overturned on an embankment, were held at 10:30 a. m. today in Amarillo.

His companion, Jesse Lee Dowd, 16, who was expected to be returned to Amarillo Saturday, was still in custody here this morning. Amarillo juvenile officers, however, told the Gray county sheriff's office they would come for him sometime today. Dowd suffered minor injuries in the wreck.

Wright and young Dowd were ther, Arthur Wright, an aunt, Mrs. C. A. Dowd, both of Amarillo; and an uncle, Monroe Dowd, Ardmore, Okla.

Wright and young Dowd, were driving a 1951 sedan owned by Ervin Brown, Amarillo, which Dowd admitted they stole, when the wreck occurred. Both boys were thrown from the car. Wright was thrown about 20 feet from the rolling car and suffered a crushed skull which killed him instantly.

'THIS IS MY BEST'

No. 12 in a series

Mrs. W. C. Wilson enjoys cooking whether she's preparing for three or 300, but if it came to a choice, she'd rather cook for the 300 any time.

Mrs. Wilson specializes in preparing banquets which often have 125 guests and go on up to 300. She has planned and prepared meals for as many as 425. And she does it just because she likes to cook.

She learned to cook for large crowds, before her marriage and prefers quantity cooking to preparing small meals. This week she's happily planning a forthcoming Boy Scout banquet (the Wilsons have a young son) and didn't hesitate a minute when she was told there would be 120 guests. She promptly sat down and outlined a menu and market list which includes such items as 75 pounds of ham and 20 pounds of beans.

Mrs. Wilson has all kinds of cook books and all kinds of recipes. She likes to bake cakes and keeps her cupboard filled with cake ingredients. She has large glass jars in which she stores her nuts and marshmallows. She prefers the old recipes to many of the new ones, even though there are short-cuts in the new recipes she doesn't find in her old favorites.

Though Mrs. Wilson always turns out the utmost in fine dishes, she is not an extravagant cook. Among her recipes is an economical ham loaf that is served hot or cold, and requires two hours in the oven. It's typical of some of her family's one-dish favorites.

HAM LOAF
 one pound cured ham
 one pound fresh ham
 two cups cracker crumbs
 three eggs unbeatn
 pepper to taste

Have meat ground, mix well with other ingredients, shape into loaf. Sprinkle flour over top. Add enough water to come to top of loaf and cook uncovered two hours in a moderate oven.

Mrs. Wilson always bakes a gold cake when she bakes an angel food cake. Or she finds another use for the egg yolks—they never remain unused in the refrigerator. Now that eggs are plentiful, she is making these two old favorites:

GOLD CAKE
 2-2 cups cake flour
 1-lbs. baking powder
 1 tsp. salt
 1/2 cup butter
 1/4 cups sugar
 10 egg yolks
 1 cup milk
 1 tsp. vanilla or lemon extract

Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Cream butter thoroughly. Add sugar gradually, keeping the mixture light and fluffy. Beat egg yolks until they are as thick as mayonnaise. (Requires seven minutes), using rotary beater) Add egg yolks to creamed mixture gradually, and beat thoroughly. An all egg-yolk cake must be beaten vigorously from beginning to end. Incorporate all the air possible throughout the mixing. Add sifted dry ingredients alternately with milk, mixing well after each addition. Add flavoring. Bake in large pans lined with waxed paper in moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes. Can also be made in 10x16 loaf pan or in cup cakes. Use never-fail four-minute icing.

NEVER-FAIL FOUR MINUTE ICING
 1 cup sugar
 1-4 tsp. salt
 1/2 tsp. cream of tartar
 3 lbs. cold water
 1 tsp. vanilla
 2 unbeatn egg whites

Put all ingredie s into top section of double boiler. When water in lower section is boiling, put top section into lower and beat four minutes, using high speed if you use an electric mixer. Cool and spread.

ANGEL FOOD CAKE
 1 cup sifted cake flour
 1 cup (8 to 10) egg whites
 1 tsp. cream of tartar
 3-4 tsp. vanilla
 1-4 tsp. salt
 1-1/4 cup granulated sugar
 1-4 tsp. almond extract

Sift flour once, measure, and sift four more times. Beat egg whites and salt. When foamy, add cream of tartar and continue beating until egg whites are stiff enough to hold up in peaks, but not dry. Fold in sugar carefully, two tablespoons at a time, until all is used. Fold in flavoring. Sift small amount of flour over Something new in the way of stage setting was used in the three-act version of 'Little Red Riding Hood.' Flats were only six feet in height and were designed in fantastic storyland style. Backdrops were made of cheesecloth with the trees imposed upon them.

The play, presented by Canyon junior high school students, is the only production of its kind scheduled this year.

Miss Tucker's mother, and Mrs. Perry Gaut, Mrs. H. M. Stokes and Miss Pearl Spough attended the last performance of the play in the Branding Iron theater.

Bobbie Tucker, WTSC Student, Directs Play

Miss Bobbie Tucker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Tucker, directed a children's play this week in Canyon which was sponsored by the Canyon AAUW. Miss Tucker is a senior in West Texas State college.

Wendell Cain, WTSC speech instructor, was technical director of the play, and Pat Dusan of Plainview was in charge of costuming.

What's RIGHT?

You are planning to take a small child on an outing in several days.

WRONG: Promise him absolutely that you will take him.

RIGHT: Don't make such a positive promise to a small child, who will not understand if something happens to prevent the trip.

True happiness renders men kind and sensible; and that happiness is always shared with others.

VERDON, Nebr. — (AP) — A field mouse immobilized a tractor belonging to Harvey Fritz.

When the tractor's engine locked, Fritz took the tractor to mechanics who removed the engine head and found a quantity of finely-pulverized corn above the piston in the firing chamber. The sabotaging mouse had climbed into the manifold through the head and had hidden kernels of corn in the cylinder.

Today is the day! Today marks the opening of the eighth annual Top o' Texas Hereford Breeders' Assn. show and sale and the Junior Livestock show and judging contests. Both will run today and tomorrow at Recreation park.

And Pampa's merchants are rolling out their brightest carpets for cattlemen and guests in what is promised to be one of the biggest shows in the history of the event.

Pampa, known throughout the Panhandle as one of the area's friendliest cities, again is ready to show its hospitality to prospective buyers and guests who attend the event, one of the outstanding performances in the Southwest.

Whatever may be desired in the way of enjoyment may be found throughout Pampa by entrants in the show from the tri-state area of Texas, Oklahoma and New Mexico and from visitors from numerous other areas in the Southwest.

During the past several months intensive plans have been formed in anticipation of the largest Top o' Texas Hereford Breeders' show, and during the events Pampa's merchants are desirous of making as comfortable as possible the stay of visitors in Pampa.

Highlight of the annual event will be the Hereford Breeders' banquet in the Legion hall at 7:30 p.m. today. Tuesday's events include junior livestock and breeding cattle sales.

A quarter teaspoon of curry powder and a few drops of onion juice adds good flavor to a cup of French dressing.

Williams Wins Tucson Open

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP)—Conservative golf paid off for Henry Williams, Jr., Kutztown, Pa., yesterday as he took the $2,000 victor's share of the $10,000 Tucson Open.

He shot for par, gambling it would win. His spectacular round for the 642, par 70, El Rio course gave him a 72-hole total of 274, two strokes better than Cary Middlecoff, Memphis, Tenn.

Middlecoff played recklessly, aiming for birds on every hole. He made four the first nine. It looked as if he would sweep by Williams and into the lead. Then a two-over-par six on the 10th proved fatal.

Middlecoff's 67 was best for the day. It put him two strokes in front of Skee Riegel, Tulsa, Okla. Riegel pocketed $1,000 with his 72 yesterday and 278 total.

A weary Lloyd Mangrum, Chicago, shot 71 to tie Joe Moore, Jr., White Plains, N. Y., and amateur Frank Stranahan, Toledo, O., with totals of 279.

Ralph Blomquist, Los Angeles, faded from second place at the start of the final round. His 75 gave him a total of 280 and $600. "I ran out of gas," he said.

Riley-McWane Win 4-Ball Meet

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP)—The women's international four-ball golf championship today went to Folly Riley, Fort Worth, and Ed McWane, Birmingham, Ala., who won the event three years ago.

The Riley-McWane team took an early lead in yesterday's finals and held off their opponents on the late holes to win by 2 and 1 over Marjorie Lindsay, Decatur, Ill., and Pat Garner, Midland, Tex.

Miss Riley stretched the lead to three by winning the 19th and 20th with par fours and they halved the next 10 holes.

Fieldhouse Game Proceeds Go To March Of Dimes

Something that may bring the baseball season off with a push will take place at the fieldhouse tonight when the Pampa radio-newspaper team tackles the Amarillo writers and casters in a March of Dimes benefit starting at 8 o'clock. No admission will be charged, admittance being by donation to the Dimes' drive. All proceeds from the game will go to the winning team.

The Pampa squad will have the honor of Pampa basketball to hold. (But who's going to hold the Pampa team up Tuesday is another problem.)

The Amarillo star-studded aggregation will include such well-known by-lines as Bill "Doing It Up" Brown, "Puttin' Around" with Puit Powell, by Hank Brown, by Monk Owens, by Dick Kranz, by Charles Whippy, and by C. J. Wright, and radio personalities, James Richardson, Webb Smith and Smokey Joe Barnes.

On the Pampa squad will be Jim Terrel, Nelson Davis and Jack McElrath of KPAT, Coy Palmer, Kay Fancher, DeWey Cudney, Joe Reynolds and Bill Hutchinson of KPDM, Spec Reynolds and Ed Dycus of The Spokesman, and Warren Hasse, Bob Dixon and Don Westen of The Pampa Daily News.

In addition, there will likely be several more stars available to rest these boys after they have run up a 30 or 40 point lead on the Amarillos.

The Amarillo squad has one game under its fat belts already this season, the scribes having played the announcers, with the scribes being 2-point winners.

For the benefit of anyone who can't stand to see such activity, the game will be broadcast by three stations, KPDM, KAMQ and KPAT. Doing the broadcast for KPDM and KAMQ will be those two men about sports, Pep Ogden and Paul Brown. (To find out the final score, stay tuned to the 10 o'clock news.)

Officials for the game will be two of the orneriest football officials in the Panhandle, Bubber Hill and Henry Sharp.

Sandies Meet Pack Tuesday

This week is likely to be "it" as far as the District 1-AAAA race is concerned. Pampa's Harvesters and Berger's Bulldogs, currently tied for the lead with 7-1 records, meet for the second time this season. The Bulldogs took an earlier decision from the Harvesters 48-42.

But before the clubs can eye each other, they have to level their sights on the Amarillo Sandies. The Bulldogs entertain the Sandstorm tomorrow night at Berger while the Harvesters host them on Thursday night at the fieldhouse. The game was originally scheduled for Friday, but moved up one night in order to get officials for the game. Then on Saturday night the Harvesters and Bulldogs clash at Berger, a floor on which the Maroon and White hasn't lost a game since the playoffs in 1950 when Vernon's Lions dumped them.

Coach T. G. Hull's Sandies have come to life the past week, blasting out victories over Lubbock and Odessa to even their district record at 4-1. In scoring their two wins, the Sandies raised their scoring total to 451 points, just two less than the leading Bulldogs.

The standings at the present time:

Team	W	L
Pampa	7	1
Berger	7	1
Ablene	5	3
Amarillo	4	4
Odessa	3	5
Salt Angelo	2	6
Lubbock	0	8

SPORTS MIRROR

By The Associated Press
A year ago today — Lloyd Mangrum of Chicago won the $10,000 Tucson Open golf tourney with a 72 hole score of 280.

Five years ago — Pitcher Hugh Mulcahy, released by the Philadelphia Phillies, was signed by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Ten years ago — Joe DiMaggio received his 1942 baseball contract, calling for about $40,000, but indicated he was dissatisfied.

Purdue and Michigan State players dominated the Notre Dame all-opponent team for 1950. The Boiler-makers placed three and the Spartans four.

Southwest Conference Cagers Turning Race into Big Muddle

By CLAYTON HICKERSON

This is the week the Southwest Conference could get in that long-predicted triple tie for the leadership. Texas Christian, Texas and Texas A&M who ended last season as tri-champions may do it again.

A loss by the Christians to the Aggies in College Station Wednesday night and a Texas loss to either Baylor at Austin Tuesday night or Southern Methodist at Dallas Saturday night would turn the trick.

Texas last week set up Texas A&M for a never-say-die stint at College Station Wednesday by kicking the Aggies, 51-40, and climbing onto the top step of the conference standings with TCU. The Aggies on their home court will be putting every effort into their attempt to wreck the already side-tracked Christian express.

ATTRACTIVE WEEK
Baylor, smarting under a 62-34 defeat by SMU last week, will try to bounce back with a win over Texas Tuesday night. And Southern Methodist after playing Arkansas Monday night at Fayetteville may be in just the right frame of mind to down the Longhorns Saturday.

It all adds up to one of the most action-packed weeks of the basketball season in a conference that rarely runs according to form.

Only Baylor and Rice seem definitely out of the championship picture. Baylor's Bears have a 1-4 conference record while the Owls have won only one game in six.

Arkansas's upset of Texas Christian, 56-54, Saturday night placed the Razorbacks as serious contenders. The Hogs used a team made up mostly of sophomores and kept the Christians with their backs to the wall the entire game. A long-shot wizard named Orval Elkins, one of the sophoms, had Ozark cage fans talking of the "old days" of Arkansas basketball dominance when the game was over.

ELKINS
Elkins came into the game about the time TCU's big George McLeod, the conference scoring leader, went out on fouls. All he did was make six game-winning points in the last two minutes, with his final tally in the last ten seconds. His first two goals were from at least 35 feet away.

Elkins had the Ozarks singing when the game ended. His was about the most sensational performance of the week, although McLeod's 25 points in the game were something to talk about.

McLeod has 306 points over the season route, a good bit ahead of Baylor's Ralph Johnson with 242 points. The giant TCU center also leads in conference scoring with 100 points with Rice's Gene Schwinger second with 82.

This week's schedule:
Monday — Arkansas vs. Southern Methodist at Fayetteville.
Tuesday — Baylor vs. Texas at Austin, Wednesday — Texas A&M vs. Texas Christian at College Station, Saturday — Texas A&M vs. Rice at Houston, Texas vs. Southern Methodist at Dallas.

Gehrmann Races Past Wilt Again

BOSTON (AP)—Don Gehrmann sped to the season's two fastest mile clockings over the weekend but the Rev. Bob Richards stole his thunder with some sky-scraping efforts in the pole vault.

The ex-Wisconsin whippet delighted his home town fans with a 4:08.4 pace in the Milwaukee Journal's games Friday night and followed up 24 hours later by copying the Boston A. A. Hunter mile in 4:08.9.

Both times Gehrmann left FBI-man Fred Wilt of New York keep the lead until the final lap and then bolted past to win by 12 yards. With this one-sided rivalry now 16-4 in Gehrmann's favor, about the only point of interest left for track followers is: "How fast can Gehrmann do the mile?"

Richards unclocked a tremendous 15 feet 4-8/8 inches winning flight at Milwaukee and then showed Bostonians their best vaulting in ten years, soaring to 15 - 2 7/8 and 15 - 1-8. (Corny Warner had done 15-1-7 here in 1942.)

He failed in the BAA competition with the bar at 15-4, 3-4 but his 15th and 16th vaults above the 15-foot mark earned him the John J. Hallahan memorial trophy as the meet's outstanding performer.

Duquesne, St. Bonaventure Return To Action Tonight

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP) — These are the days the unbeatens and conference leaders among the college basketball teams begin to worry about every shot they or their opponents take.

The most important games of the season are coming up and the next two weeks probably will tell the story in the big post-season tournaments.

Both the nation's major unbeaten teams — Duquesne (14-0) and St. Bonaventure (13-0) — go into action tonight in warmups before they clash next Monday at Pittsburgh. So a week hence, the unbeaten list is bound to be reduced.

Duquesne tackles La Salle, no setup, while St. Bonaventure entertains John Carroll. In addition, the Bonnies have dates with Murray (Ky) State Teachers Thursday and Cincinnati Saturday.

BIG TEN
There's another big one-on-one for Saturday night and it will go far toward determining the eventual winner of the Big Ten race. League-leading Illinois travels to Iowa for a contest with the second-place Hawkeyes. Both have lost just one game all season, but Iowa's was in the league.

Otherwise, around the country class has been holding up in practically all sectors. For example, who is going to beat out North Carolina State or Kentucky for the Southern and Southeastern Conference title, respectively?

North Carolina State is riding along serenely with an unblemished mark of 8-0. West Virginia is trying to put up a fight and currently sports a 7-1 mark. As for Kentucky, the No. 1 team in the weekly Associated Press poll, the Wildcats, with a mark of 9-0, last week saw their only challenger, Florida, drop virtually out of sight as a result of its second defeat of the league campaign.

BIG SEVEN
The road to the pot o' gold at the end of the Big Seven trail is strewn with stones for Kansas State. Although the K-Staters are in first place with a 5-0 mark, Kansas is breathing hot down their backs with 4-1. They play on March 7 at Kansas.

With each passing week, it begins to look more and more as though St. Louis is going to come out on top in the Missouri Valley. The Billikens have a 6-0 record to show for their efforts, while defending champion Oklahoma A&M is 2-1 in loop play.

Wyoming sat back and watched Brigham Young lose a pair during the week and now has the No. 1 spot in the Skyline Conference all to itself. But the Southwest race still is entangled.

Texas Christian, which had been trailing a mighty clip, was beaten by Arkansas and is in a deadlock with Texas for the lead, each with 4-1.

In the Ivy League, Cornell polished off Penn, the pre-season favorite, Saturday to take over first place with 4-0, against 4-1 for the Quakers.

St. John's Star Beat Dukes With Shot He Was Told Not To Use

By FRANK MCGUIRE

St. John's Coach Bob Zawoluk made what I'd regard as the greatest shot I ever saw during the 1950 National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden.

We were playing a real good Duquesne team, led by powerful Chuck Cooper and Ed Dahler, a deadly shooter. Third place in the tournament was at stake. Both clubs were particularly hot, and St. John's held a 36-35 lead at halftime.

The second half was a carbon copy of the first, growing more and more exciting as the minutes slipped by.

The game ended in a deadlock, 62-62, and neither team could shake the other in the overtime. Finally, with the score still knotted at 67-67, we grabbed the ball with 30 seconds to go.

St. John's began maneuvering the ball for a last-second shot. It looked as though the game was going to be forced into another overtime. With only five seconds left, the entire St. John's bench stood as one man to signal the amount of time remaining.

Jack McMahon had the ball in back-court. He bounced-passed it through the outer-defense to Zawoluk standing in the pivot, closely guarded by Cooper. Zawoluk turned, faced the basket, took one dribble, and let go with a two-under underhand shot. It went under Cooper's outstretched arms, bounded off the backboard and into the basket with exactly three seconds left.

St. John's won the contest and the shot Zawoluk used to win the game was one I had been discouraging him from using.

I told him it wasn't a good shot. It was that night.

Shamrock Glove Meet Next Week

SHAMROCK (Special)
Many a Shamrock fan is looking forward to the Shamrock invitational boxing tourney here February 14-15-16.

Coach H. W. Callan's ace boxers, winners of the Irish Golden Gloves last year, dropped a narrow, 47-45, margin in the Irish invitational row last year, as Wellington copped the affair in late bouts.

Coach Lee is bringing to the tourney Floyd Hood, regional Golden Gloves champ, and a crew of tough hombres. But he isn't the only one.

Pampa Boys club figures to be in there punching with a host of stars among them, the redoubtable Dick Murray, regional Golden Gloves champ, and only man to floor Irish KO king Bobby Campbell in the past two seasons. Murray is probably a cinch to win his crown at 175.

Pampa has Bobby Wilhelm, who gave the Irish a lot of trouble last year, and a host of other toughies.

Coach Bob Callan of Letors, younger brother of Shamrock's "H" Callan, will bring his usual tough group here — Redus, Hering and others calculated to give the rest a run for their money.

Callan will begin erecting the ring and equipment for the three-night affair at the local American Legion home in the next few days.

Willie Knapp, who rode Exterminator to victory in the 1918 Kentucky Derby, is now a trainer at Hialeah race track.

Kid Gavilan Puts Crown Up Tonight

MIAMI (AP) — Welterweight Champion Kid Gavilan puts his title on the line tonight in a scheduled 15-round fight with Bobby Dykes before what promoters say will be a 16,000 crowd in Miami Stadium.

Gavilan was a 4 or 5 to 1 choice to retain the title he won from Johnny Bratton May 19, 1951. The Cuban Negro successfully defended the title against Billy Graham.

Boxing enthusiasts claim that Dykes, 22, can hit harder than the 28-year-old champion, but Gavilan can take more punishment.

Gavilan has fought 94 times as a professional, scoring 78 victories including 22 knockouts. He lost 12 and fought to a draw four times.

Dykes, native of San Antonio, Texas, has ruled Miami rings for the past three and a half years. He won 73 of his 84 fights, 40 of them by knockouts. He lost six and fought to a draw five times.

Kangaroos Lead Texas Conference

By The Associated Press
When it comes to Texas Conference play, the Austin College Kangaroos are holding their own. The Kangaroos at the half-way mark are pacing the conference race with four victories. Outside of the conference the Kangaroos have had four victories with 14 losses. All of the Hoppers' triumphs have been made in conference play.

Ablene Christian is second in the conference race with two victories against one defeat — which was inflicted by Austin College. McMurry crashed the conference line column with a dazzling fourth quarter one-point decision over Howard Payne, 64-63. Howard Payne lost its lone conference start while A&I did not play conference teams last week.

COMING UP
Austin, Ablene Christian and McMurry colleges won games last week. Austin downed ACC, Ablene Christian split a series with East Texas Baptist and McMurry eked out a win over Howard Payne.

Conference action Tuesday night finds Howard Payne hosting Abilene Christian at Brownwood. A&I travels to Corpus Christi to play University of Corpus Christi.

Friday night in Sherman Austin College engages Howard Payne in a crucial battle and McMurry journeys to Kingsville for a two-game series with Texas A&I. The same teams play Saturday night. Also closing the week's schedule is Texas Wesleyan's invasion of Abilene to meet ACC.

McMurry and Abilene Christian leaders hogged the spotlight in the scoring race. Carl Jewell of McMurry registered 61 points to run his season's total to 342 to lead the scorers. Bill Johnson of ACC is second with 293, Jack Henderson of McMurry third with 270 and Floyd Cash of Austin fourth with 253.

Twenty years ago — Jack Shea and Irving Jaffe of the United States won the 800 meter and 5,000 meter speed skating events, respectively, on the opening day of the winter olympic games at Lake Placid, N.Y.

West Texas Faces Big Test This Week On Road Trip

By CURTIS P. DONNELL

Associated Press Sports Writer
West Texas State College, pace setter in the Border Conference basketball race, faces a big test this week. The Buffaloes invade Arizona for a three-game series against the University of Arizona, defending champions, and Arizona State College at Tempe and Flagstaff.

The games are the only ones scheduled for the western members of the league. Should the Buffs lose all three games and the New Mexico Aggies win the two home games on their schedule, Tempe would take over first place, the Aggies second, Arizona third and West Texas would be dumped into fourth.

As the week starts, West Texas is still in the lead, despite the surprise 49-44 defeat suffered last week at the hands of the Aggies. The loss was the first in seven conference starts for the Buffs. In another game last week they downed the Texas Western Miners, 60-52 at El Paso.

BUFFS REST DEFENSE

The Aggies, now tied with Arizona for third place, are hosts Tuesday night to Texas Tech, which was idle last week, and to Hardin-Simmons on Saturday night. Tonight the Hardin-Simmons Cowboys, who also didn't play last week, play a non-conference game at North Texas State.

Arizona, playing at Flagstaff last week, eked out a 67-65 victory and then lost on successive nights to New Mexico A&M, 59-50, and Texas Western, 49-44.

In another game the Flagstaff Lumberjacks pulled a surprise 77-71 victory over the Tempe Sun Devils.

The Sun Devils have the highest per game scoring average in

St. John's Star Beat Dukes With Shot He Was Told Not To Use

By FRANK MCGUIRE

St. John's Coach Bob Zawoluk made what I'd regard as the greatest shot I ever saw during the 1950 National Invitation Tournament at Madison Square Garden.

We were playing a real good Duquesne team, led by powerful Chuck Cooper and Ed Dahler, a deadly shooter. Third place in the tournament was at stake. Both clubs were particularly hot, and St. John's held a 36-35 lead at halftime.

The second half was a carbon copy of the first, growing more and more exciting as the minutes slipped by.

The game ended in a deadlock, 62-62, and neither team could shake the other in the overtime. Finally, with the score still knotted at 67-67, we grabbed the ball with 30 seconds to go.

St. John's began maneuvering the ball for a last-second shot. It looked as though the game was going to be forced into another overtime. With only five seconds left, the entire St. John's bench stood as one man to signal the amount of time remaining.

Jack McMahon had the ball in back-court. He bounced-passed it through the outer-defense to Zawoluk standing in the pivot, closely guarded by Cooper. Zawoluk turned, faced the basket, took one dribble, and let go with a two-under underhand shot. It went under Cooper's outstretched arms, bounded off the backboard and into the basket with exactly three seconds left.

St. John's won the contest and the shot Zawoluk used to win the game was one I had been discouraging him from using.

I told him it wasn't a good shot. It was that night.

Ike Followers Challenging Taft's GOP Support in West

WASHINGTON (AP) — Followers of Gen. Eisenhower are challenging Senator Taft's tight-knit organization of old line Republicans for support of the west in their rival bids for the GOP nomination.

A survey covering 14 states indicates to this reporter Taft has the upper hand. There is a latent sentiment for Eisenhower that might carry him forward in rapid strides in the next few weeks.

The 14 states, in the far west, Rocky mountains and the south-west, will cast 282 votes in Chicago next July. This is a little short of half of the 603 votes needed for a nomination.

I believe now that Arizona, Colorado, Idaho, Montana, Utah and Washington can be counted as predominantly favorable to Taft. They cast 92 votes, but unless conditions change, Eisenhower will get only a relative few of them.

The Eisenhower forces apparently have Kansas, 22 votes, and Oregon, 18, largely in their pockets.

The two seem to have about equal strength in Missouri, Nevada, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Wyoming, which cast a total of 80 votes. Eisenhower may lead in one state and Taft in another, but the overall average about balances.

California, with the largest single bloc of 70 votes, will cast them all for Governor Earl Warren of California on the first ballot. More would be likely to go to Eisenhower than Taft if Warren can't make the grade.

In the same 14-state area, it seems to me President Truman's stock is even lower than it was at this same stage of the campaign four years ago.

Most Democrats in the west will line up behind the President if he runs, figuring it is no use to buck the tide, but many would like to have another nominee.

Names most frequently mentioned as a possible Democratic nominee, if the President doesn't nomination before they decide on filing for state offices, in the belief there will be a GOP sweep if he runs in November.

run, include Senator Kefauver of Tennessee, Gov. Adlai Stevenson of Illinois and Senator Kerr of Oklahoma. Kerr's support is mostly among Oklahomans.

In that state something is happening which, if it develops into a general trend, could have wide effect on the Republican presidential picture.

In Oklahoma, younger members of the party threaten to upset the old line organization which had been lining the state up for Taft, and may force a split which could give Eisenhower a majority of the 16 votes involved.

The issue will be settled with the final choice of delegates at a February 11 state convention. This is the kind of thing the Eisenhower people have been hoping might happen all over the west. But if hasn't yet materialized—and may never—in other areas.

The Oklahoma surge came after Eisenhower announced he was a Republican and available.

In the west, the feeling among many Republicans who favor him still is that Eisenhower would get the nomination unless he gets out of uniform several weeks before the convention and speaks out on top issues.

"Eisenhower would carry California if the people is attested to by Democrats, as well as Republicans."

In California, a Democratic official told me: "Eisenhower would carry California over any Democrat. Taft would be the easier man to beat here, because Labor would campaign hardest against him and that's what we have to have here to win."

In Oklahoma, a Democratic lawyer said he thinks Taft would get a Conservative Democratic vote where Eisenhower would not because his views are not well enough spelled out. Richard Newberger, Oregon GOP state senator, contended Ike has that Conservative support already.

An Oklahoma Republican official said Eisenhower appeals to a wider Democratic audience now than Taft, "but things might be a lot different by next July."

Times political expert, said he believes Eisenhower is very popular with the people but added there has been no rush of party leaders toward his bandwagon since Ike announced he is a Republican and available for the nomination.

Eisenhower's people generally say they want him because they contend he is a good organizer for a White House job that needs the talent, is "right" on foreign policy and would give the Republicans a "fresh face."

Taft's backers say they admire the Ohioan because he is no "me too" candidate, knows government, would enforce economy and would realign American foreign policy.

Both sides claim their man would be highly qualified to "clean the rascals out" of Washington and are bearing down on the tax scandals and corruption in government.

The corruption charges have raised the biggest issue in the west today. In California, members of Pro-American, an organization of women, wear bronze brooms in small pins to dramatize the issue.

The Korean war issue is being pumped hard by advocates of General Douglas MacArthur and they form the bloc most eager and bitter in their criticism of Eisenhower.

Although there are MacArthur organizations in California and Oregon, and his name may be offered for the presidential primary ballot in the latter state, the general remains a military, rather than a political figure here.

Many of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey's former followers are in Taft's camp.

Harold Stassen support appears minor in the west. Governor Dan Thornton of Colorado is backing Eisenhower there and Senator Millikin (R-Colo.) is behind Taft. Democrats in the west generally are unhappy about their present prospects of electing a President next November.

James Roosevelt, retiring soon as California's Democratic national committeeman, put into words some of the party disappointment in that area when Eisenhower said he was a Republican.

"Like President Truman, I considered Eisenhower a Democrat," Roosevelt told me, "if the Republicans stole him from us between '48 and '52."

Roosevelt still thinks Mr. Truman is the best bet of the Democrats this year and apparently believes the party will "make" the President again, if Eisenhower is nominated.

See if he will get the Republican

Father Charged With Killing Boy

SEVIERVILLE, Tenn. — (P) — A Sevier county teacher has been charged with murder in connection with the death of his six-year-old son.

Sheriff Eoy Whaley said the charge was filed against Thomas Ball, 38. Whaley said Ball beat his son, Eufamosis, to death in a drunken rage Saturday night.

The boy's sister, Ruby Fay, 4, witnessed the incident, Whaley said.

The father was unable to answer questions coherently until yesterday, Whaley added.

"I sure as God didn't kill him— honest to God I didn't," Ball repeatedly told the sheriff. "I was drinking," he added.

Whaley said the child was beaten with a broom handle and then with the arm from a rocking chair after the father was awakened by the children.

Whether Filing Jointly Or Separately Most Married Couples Will Save By Joint Return

By The Associated Press

Whether filing separate or joint income tax returns, most will save by filing jointly. When a wife had no income, they can't lose with a joint return.

Its purpose is to let a couple split their income, even when the wife had none, to get a lower tax. For a return to be considered joint, both should sign it.

Exemption problems —

A wife with no income doesn't have to make a return but her husband still gets a $600 exemption for her on his return, whether or not she files jointly with him, unless she's the dependent of another taxpayer.

A wife with $600 or more income must file (a) separately, claiming her own $600 exemption on her return, or (b) jointly, in which case the couple claims $1200 in exemptions on one return, $600 for each.

Note: when a wife has any income less than $600 — no matter how much less, say $35 for baby-sitting — her husband doesn't get that $600 exemption for her unless she files jointly with him. Thus he'd lose the difference between her under-$600 income and a $600 exemption for her.

Forms for married people —

Form 1040-A and the 1040 short-forms are for under-$5000 income. The 1040 long-form is for incomes of $5000 or more. If you're under $5000 but can't use 1040-A, you can use the 1040 short-form.

(Rule for using 1040-A: full tax must have been withheld from all income except for no more than $100 in (a) untaxed wages, (b) in dividends, or (c) interest.)

Some couples' income was $5000 or more but individually less. They can file jointly on the 1040 long-form or individually on the 1040-A if they fit the rule for it, or individually on the 1040 short-form.

Examples: your total income was $4600. Full tax was withheld. Wife, no income. You can file jointly on 1040-A or 1040. Your total income was $4600. Full tax was withheld from $4500. The remaining $100 was your wife's in untaxed wages, interest or dividends. You can file jointly on 1040-A.

If that untaxed part of your income amounted to $100.01 in wages, dividends or interest, or if any part of it came from any other source, like rents or commissions — you couldn't file jointly on 1040-A. But you could file jointly on the 1040 short-form, or —

Your total income was $7500, of which $4000 was yours and $3500 was your wife's. You can file jointly on the 1040 long-form or separately, depending on your particular case, on 1040-A or the 1040 short-form.

Deductions —

Anyone using 1040-A or the 1040 short-form automatically gets a deduction of about 10 percent for personal expenses like hospital bills. You don't have to claim or itemize. It's allowed for in the table used to figure out the tax on people using those two forms.

There's no place on 1040-A or the short-form to claim or itemize. But what of those under-$5000 people whose deductible expenses were actually more than 10 percent of income? They'd use the 1040 long-form but, because their income was under $500, they'd then have to itemize but could claim their deductions in full.

Note: when a couple files separate returns, and one of them uses the 1040 long-form to itemize his expenses, both must use the long-form and itemize.

People with $5000 or more income filing jointly on the long-form can take a standard deduction, without itemizing, of 10 percent of income up to a limit of $1000. They just knock 10 percent off their income before what's left is taxable.

Examples: the Joneses' total income was $7000. They take off $700. The Smiths' total income was $10,000. They can't take off more than the limit of $1000. If they want to claim more, they'll have to itemize their deductions in full and be prepared to prove they had them.

Note: the rule about the $5000 and over people — taking off 10 percent up to a limit of $1000 without itemizing — works equally for single persons and married couples but — only when married couples file jointly on the 1040 long-form.

The rule is different for married couples when one, or both, files separately on the 1040 long-form. If both had income of $5000 or more but file separately on the long-form, each can take a standard deduction of only $500 without itemizing.

Example: a husband had $9000 income, the wife $2000. They wish to file separately. He uses the long-form (he has to, with that $900 income) taking the maximum deduction allowed him, $500. She uses 1040-A or the 1040 short-form where she's allowed that automatic deduction of about 10 percent on her $2000 (or about $200).

That gives this particular couple, whose total income was $11,000 a total deduction of around $700. If they had filed jointly on the long-form they could have taken, without itemizing, a standard deduction of Community property states: There's a special problem for couples living in the following community property states: Arizona, California, Idaho, Louisiana,

Death Comes To Harold L. Ickes

WASHINGTON — (P) — Death came quietly at dusk yesterday to Harold L. Ickes, 77, the new dealer whose sharp wit and blunt speech earned for two decades across the national scene.

Ickes, a self-styled "old curmudgeon," died at 6:25 p.m. (EST) in a coma at a hospital here. He succumbed after an 11 weeks illness following complication of an old arthritic condition.

Virtually an unknown in 1932 when President Franklin D. Roosevelt appointed him secretary of the interior, Ickes had become one of the most turbulent figures in politics by 1946; when he resigned in a huff to President Truman.

"A unique figure in American public life is lost to the nation,"

President Truman commented last night, adding:

"He was withal a true patriot and a many-sided citizen whose passing leaves a void in our national life not easily filled."

Funeral services are scheduled for 2:30 p. m. (EST) Wednesday at All Soul's (Unitarian) church in Washington.

CHRYSLER V-8 ENGINE!

HEART OF FIREPOWER!

This hemispheric combustion chamber, with large, well-cooled valves right in the dome, is the basic reason FirePower outperforms all previous engines, even on non-premium fuel!

WHETHER you plan to buy a Chrysler or not, we cordially invite you to drive this revolutionary Chrysler FirePower V-8 engine. Only FirePower performance can possibly tell you what it is like. We want you to have that experience. The FirePower engine is a basic new design so advanced it can meet rising performance needs for years to come. Today it delivers 180 horsepower, even on non-premium fuel, and when desirable with simple changes in manifold, compression, and carburetion the horsepower can be raised to 250... or over 300, as in the experimental Chrysler K-310 car. Naturally, others will imitate this Chrysler achievement, at least in part. We honestly believe that the FirePower engine will outperform any other car in America... and we invite you to learn the new standard in engine performance Chrysler has set by driving it yourself.

Texans To Enter Eisenhower Rally

FORT WORTH — (P) — Texans will have a big part in the Eisenhower-for-President rally in Madison Square Garden, New York City, this Friday.

A special train of "non-partisan" Texans is scheduled to leave here Wednesday at 5 p. m. They will be garbed in Western dress and accompanied by the Hardin-Simmons cowboy band.

Final plans for the train were made here yesterday by Eisenhower backers from throughout the state.

Delegations from different states will march into the Garden in separate groups. The Texas group will be led by the H-SU band and the four white horses used at H-SU for parades. Saddlebags on the horses will contain a silver dollar for each Texan in the delegation — the start of the state's "holier with a dollar for the" campaign.

Homer Easterwood of Taft, San Patricio county, will mount the platform to announce that "Taft is for Eisenhower."
