Woman Of The Year Tea, Hat Show Held Sunday

Beta Sigma Phi Honors Mrs. Jordan At Tea

Highlighting week-end social activities here was the Beta Sigma Phi Woman of the Year tea honoring Mrs. Rufe Jordan Sunday afternoon. Immediately following the recognition tea in the city club room, the National Secretaries Assn. presented Mr. Ross Bell, Amarillo hat stylist, in a public showing in behalf of the 1952 Cancer Crusade. The hat show was staged in the Cabot auditorium and featured local models.

Mrs. Bell's presentation was the second in the series of events the NSA is sponsoring during the cancer drive which is dedicated to the late Mrs. Minnie Barnes. Local models included Mrs. Don Conley, Howard Vineyard, Homer Dockery, Rex Rose, Dorothy Statton, Ruth Osborne, Bob Triplehorn, Clifford Braly and Paul Schneider.

Assisting in arrangements for the show were Mrs. Eben Warner, models; Mrs. Robert Vail, decoration, and Mrs. Gene Fatheree, ticket sales. Dr. Emily T. Hicks is Gray County chairman of the cancer drive.

The presentation of the certificate of recognition was presented to Mrs. Jordan by Rev. E. Douglas Carver, Mrs. Leymond Hall, Beta Sigma Phi president welcomed guests and presented a bouquet of yellow roses to Mrs. Jordan, the seventh woman of the year elected here.

Rev. E. W. Hanshaw gave the invocation and Miss Ann Jordan presented piano selections during the tea. Other musical numbers were given by Miss Janie Brandon and Mr. Bill Hutchinson, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Johnson. The serving table was covered with a green cloth and centered with an arrangement of yellow jonquils interspersed with spring hats to carry out the Easter theme. Cake squares were decorated in the Easter motif.

Miss Joyce Warner presided at the punch bowl. Some 100 guests and sorority members were present to honor Mrs. Jordan.

That only one adult American in three votes in mayoralty elections, and only one in 10 in county elections. Do you know how many voters of the Pampa Independent School District cast a ballot in the 1951 election for members of the board of education? — Only 497 out of a potential voting strength of approximately 7500 at that time.

Great minds discuss ideas, average minds discuss events, small minds discuss people.

Believes that the party system is an integral part of our form of government and urges its members (other than its officers and board members during their term of office) to work, as individuals in the party of their choice.

What about the Communist party, you may ask. In encouraging party activity, the League excludes the Communist party because the Communist doctrine is in direct conflict with the principles of the United States government, and therefore, with the purpose and policy of the League of Women Voters.

'THIS IS MY BEST'

No. 21 in a series

Mrs. Rufe Jordan

Mrs. Rufe Jordan the outstanding woman citizen of the year finds times from her numerous civic and social activities to devote a lot of time to one of her first loves — cooking. Serving interesting meals to her family is as important to her as giving a program at club meetings, and she finds much enjoyment in both. Her abilities as a story teller are as well-known as her skill in the kitchen.

She likes to entertain and her cakes are famous in the court house circle. Also, Sheriff and Mrs. Jordan's home is a favorite with their daughter Ann's teenage friends because there they have good old-fashioned c.a.n.d.y parties — the kind where fun centers about the kitchen. Or maybe there'll be sandwiches from a spread that's most always available in the refrigerator.

SALT WATER TAFFY
one cup white syrup
3/4 cup water
two cups sugar
one tablespoon cornstarch
1/2 tablespoon butter
3/4 teaspoon salt
one teaspoon vanilla

Combine sugar, cornstarch, salt and butter. Add syrup and water. Stir until mixture boils rapidly. Boil until it forms a fairly hard ball in cold water. Cool, cut with kitchen shears and wrap in waxed paper.

SANDWICH SPREAD
two packages cream cheese
one cup mayonnaise
1/2 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce dash of mace, turmeric, thyme, celery salt dash of mustard (optional)
1/4 of a grated onion
one green pepper
1/2 package dried beef
one cup nuts
two or three celery stalks
small pineapple

Mix cream cheese and mayonnaise in mixer and add other ingredients.

"The teenagers aren't the only ones who go for this spread—adults like it, too. It's substantial enough for the young people's appetites, and yet can be made into dainty party sandwiches. It keeps indefinitely in the refrigerator."

When there's a large gathering at the Jordans there is sure to be chicken spaghetti — a delicious casserole topped with cheese that serves 20 guests. (But you better not count on the dish serving that many, because everyone will be going back for seconds.)

CHICKEN SPAGHETTI
one large chicken, boiled, boned and chopped
1 1/2 boxes spaghetti
one green pepper
two onions
one can tomatoes
one can mushrooms
one quart milk
one clove garlic
one can tomato soup
three stalks celery

Boil spaghetti in chicken broth until tender. Fry peppers, onions, mushrooms, garlic and celery in butter until tender. Combine all ingredients including milk. Grate one pound cheese on top of casserole and bake one hour in 350 degree oven.

cake is the one she considers her best.

PRUNE CAKE
3/4 cup butter
one cup sugar
three eggs
one teaspoon soda
two teaspoons cinnamon
one teaspoon allspice
one cup mashed prunes
1/2 cup sour cream
two cups flour
pinch of salt
Cream sugar and butter, add eggs and cream. Mix soda and spices with flour and add to mixture. Add prunes.

FILLING
two eggs
one cup mashed prunes
one cup sugar
1/2 cup sour cream
one cup pecans
one teaspoon vanilla
Cook filling until thick, add vanilla and pinch of salt and add nuts.

WHAT'S COOKIN' IN GRAY COUNTY HD CLUB WORK

By HELEN DUNLAP
Gray County HD Agent

It will soon be time to do some extra jobs about the home. One of these is the laundering of sheer curtains that have been at the windows during winter months. Marquisette, so widely used, is made of cotton, rayon, acetate, nylon and other fibers. Such curtains, often used throughout the house, may represent a sizable investment. The right laundering saves wear, tear, and expense, as well as time and labor.

Over-stretching of these materials, during the drying process, has been found to cause much damage. In a recent test made at the Oklahoma Experimental Station, it was found that the usual directions (measure before washing, wash by hand, then reshape or stretch to the original dimensions) are not advisable. Nylon, orlon and spun glass curtains resist shrinking, but stretching on frames. Cotton and rayon marquisettes come out well if dried on stretchers, but can not be stretched to their original size, because laundering causes shrinkage, the result of this experiment showed. High tension stretching, they found broke filling yarn in both the top and bottom hems, even in new fabrics. None of the cotton and rayon curtains could be brought back to the original dimensions. Most shrinkage takes place in the first laundering, but it continues some in successive launderings for a time. The home-maker should consider the shrinkage possibilities as she makes her curtains and allow for it.

Most marquisettes, except spun glass, can safely be machine washed, but they should not be thrown into the machine. It is best to place them in laundry size mesh bags, four to a bag and two bags for a washer load. Use plenty of lukewarm water and a good detergent. It is necessary to run the machine only a few minutes to remove the soil. Two rinses are found to be sufficient.

Another job some women may find to do this spring is to dye materials. Rugs or to retint curtains that have faded with sun and dust. Recently some have been using the washing machine for it. It helps to get an even shade throughout the material, and may do well the job of retinting, especially in cases of retinting the curtains each season. It is a questionable prospect to dye materials which are exposed Directions on the package of dye should be followed for best results. In cases where the directions call for boiling the material in the dye-bath, it proves most successful to do it, for a permanent color. It has been proven that the method of boiling the material in an old-fashioned wash boiler, is still the best method for dyeing materials with the dyes which require boiling. The washer method is easier, but may have to be done again in a short while.

Do's And Don'ts

In Society Reporting

(Publicity chairmen of various clubs are asked to clip the following and save it for reference. This information is also helpful to anyone turning in stories for the woman's page.)

Do's:

1. Be absolutely correct. Spell all names correctly using full names and proper titles. Use the husband's name or initial unless the woman is divorced or a widow.

Example: Mrs. John Smith (using husband's name)
Never use: Catherine Smith

2. Report news promptly. Timeliness is important in the display given to parties and meetings. The most recent news deservedly gets the most space and the best position.

3. Label copy with name of club and publicity chairman, giving telephone number.

4. Type copy if possible, but if you can write legibly, that will be fine. Print names — o's and a's, i's and e's can look amazingly alike when written in longhand.

5. Use plenty of names. We like them. Just don't expect a 100 or more names to appear. The editor reserves the right to prohibit its use.

6. Report news by 5 p.m. the day PRECEDING the day you wish a story to appear. Exceptions will be made in the case of night meetings, or late-afternoon meetings.

7. Report all stories for Sunday by 5 p.m. Friday except those concerning Friday evening meetings and parties which will be turned in early Saturday morning. Friday is the busiest day in the woman's department, so if news for the Sunday paper can be sent in earlier, the last-minute congestion may be relieved.

8. Turn in notices of forthcoming meetings for the social calendar by 5 p.m. Friday. No additions will be made to the calendar after it has been set for the week. If you fail to get a club notice in the calendar, a separate news story can be made prior to the meeting.

9. Study write-ups in the newspaper and try to make your report follow newspaper style, giving the four W's — who, what, when and where — in the first paragraph. If your story is not written by the editor, do not be offended, but profit the next time by the changes.

10. Feel free to call or visit the editor at any time, and express ideas for your club's publicity, for a wedding or any other special event. News tips are always appreciated.

DON'TS:
1. Don't expect special favors. Submit your stories in correct form on time, and you won't need them.

2. Don't expect stories you turn in to be held until Sunday's edition. This is a DAILY newspaper. News turned in through the week, as it happens, can help make each day's woman's page attractive and "newsy."

3. Don't expect your material to go into the paper just as it is turned in. It is the editor's privilege to cut or rewrite any article which does not seem newsworthy.

4. Don't expect the editor to take long, detailed stories over the telephone, or a long list of names. But at the same time, don't bother to write a short, two paragraph report that could be reported over the phone in a matter of minutes. If the telephone is the quickest way, the only way, for you to report a short meeting, by all means call the editor.

5. Don't ask the editor to take a wedding or engagement announcement over the telephone. For our protection, such announcements must be made in writing. Wedding blanks are available at the society desk.

6. Don't consider any news "little." We want to know what you are doing, what your children are doing in college, when your children have birthdays, when your great-aunt comes for a visit, when you entertain in short, names make news.

7. Don't overlook newsworthy activities of your club. No one is interested in your club for its own sake, but they are interested in the subject matter of your program, activities and accomplishments.

Liverty is life! Preserve yours!

If you believe that strong representative government requires that citizens get the facts, discuss problems, have a continuing interest in government (even in "off years") then you will want to know about the League of Women Voters.

The League of Women Voters is unique among organizations. Its policy on non-partisanship clearly provides that the League shall not support or oppose any political party or candidate. The League works exclusively in the field of government; its purpose is: "To promote political responsibility through informed and active participation of citizens in government."

At the same time, the League's page attractive and "newsy."

We believe that one truth is always consistent with another truth. We endeavor to be consistent with the truths expressed in such great moral guides as the Golden Rule, the Ten Commandments and the Declaration of Independence.

Should we, at any time, be inconsistent with these truths, we would appreciate anyone pointing out to us how we are inconsistent with these moral guides.

Business Batters Grow Bolder In recent years, a good number of very effective advertisements have appeared in newspapers and magazines pointing out in dramatic fashion the advantage of some fact or another of the American way of life and the free enterprise system or warning against the dangers of departures from that way and system.

We're all familiar with them; some have attempted to explain the workings of economic principles, some have compared the earnings of American workers with those of other countries, some have called attention to high taxes or wasteful government expenditures. They have been sponsored by various businesses and felt that the best way to combat "creeping socialism" is to "sell" and call attention to the basic American principles.

These ads have been widely applauded, but not by the government planned economy advocates. An amazing bill, H. R. 5888, has been introduced in Congress by Representative Ramsey of West Virginia, a leading "liquidator" of such institutions. The bill would not make the ads illegal, but provides penalties for anyone deducting the cost in their income tax returns.

It would seem unlikely that the majority of Congressional opinion would permit the passage of such a measure. Certainly public opinion wouldn't. But this bold attempt on the part of the business batters to silence their opposition by legislative action strikingly demonstrates how effective the "American way" advertising has been.

The Issue Is Clear-Cut Will socialism eventually be forced down the unwilling throats of the American people? Or will free enterprise—the force that has made us great—still prevail?

Those are all-important questions. The answers will be part of the supply and demand of two controversies which are now taking place on opposite sides of the continent.

A large amount of potential hydroelectric power is now available for development on the Niagara River, as a result of a change in the treaty between this country and Canada. Cost of the project will be about $350,000,000. The federal government can build a hydro plant the socialistic way at the expense of all the taxpayers. Or it can be done by the state of New York at the expense of the taxpayers of the commonwealth. Or it can be built the American way by a group of heavily-taxed, publicly-regulated New York state utility companies that are ready and eager to do the job, and sell the power at the lowest possible rates. Under the terms of the treaty, Congress must decide in favor of socialism or private enterprise.

In Idaho, a business-managed power company has long wanted to build a series of five hydroelectric dams on the Snake River. These would cost about $200,000,000 and would be 100 percent privately financed. They would be heavily taxed as soon as they went into operation and forever thereafter. But the Federal Power Commission has denied the company the necessary licenses because of the reason that the U. S. Bureau of Reclamation, prime force behind the socialization movement in America wants to build one huge dam on the river. The cost to the taxpayers would be at least $357,000,000 and perhaps a great deal more. It would not be taxed. It would be a tax-eater, never a tax-producer.

These cases are clear-cut. As Wildlife Management Institute said in an account of the Idaho fight, "The outcome will determine to a large extent whether electric power will be controlled by the Federal government or whether there is still life and strength in the old American giant—free enterprise." Pathfinder Magazine said, "Left for the American people to decide—presumably through national elections—were basic principles: Should taxpayers have to foot bills for projects private industry could build? Should government be allowed to thwart development of any area—uphills yours?"

Let the American people make their decision known—and in no uncertain terms.

Better Jobs

Wealth Comes From Understanding I never realized the truth of the statement "Wealth Comes From Understanding" until I ran across it in a magazine called "Christmas Club," which attempts to promote Christmas clubs.

Of course "understanding" in this sentence means understanding moral laws or understanding natural law. And when one understands natural law, he is, as Bastiat said, in a position to use the gratuities of nature—he is then in a position to harness the gratuities of nature and convert them into wealth that benefits all mankind.

The accumulation of wealth is impossible when people do not believe in respecting the human initiative of other people. People cannot survive without exchanging goods and services, and the less interference there is—whether it be in the local community by labor unions, or on the national level by government attempting to manipulate economic or labor relations by tariffs—the more wealth there will be created. If a man attempts to support himself without exchanging goods and services, he will soon perish.

Understanding of course is quite different from mere knowledge. Understanding helps a man understand relations of natural forces. It helps a man recognize a sequence and the connection between cause and effect.

Understanding of course saves wasted human energy. And the biggest waste in the world is the waste of human energy caused either by ignoring or by opposing the individual or interference by governments or groups.

One of the most important things about understanding is to understand what freedom means. Freedom is not the right to control one's self and no one else. Liberty means, as Herbert Spencer said, "The liberty of each limited only by the like liberties of all—the right of every man to do what he wills so long as he does not trench upon the similar rights of any other man." When the people understand the proper meaning of freedom and liberty, then human initiative is released that produces wealth. And wealth, of course, cannot be divided unless it is produced. Wealth that is produced will be distributed willy-nilly because it cannot be hoarded by any one person.

Understanding will produce what Confucius said are "five good principles of action": "To be just, to be frugal, to be honest, to be kind, to be obedient." These are five good principles of action to be adopted by all men. They are five principles of action to be adopted by all men. They are five principles of action to be adopted by all men.

Understanding will cause respect for freedom and liberty. Wendell Phillips recognized this when he said: "No matter whose lips that would speak, they must be free and untrammelled. The Communist and the socialist, the number and the most hated member in the free utterances of his opinions no matter how false or hateful, is only a gang of slaves. If there is anything in the Universe that can't stand discussion let it crack."

Yes, wealth comes from understanding. And with understanding, there will be more and better jobs for all.

In the latter group was the superstition that the bark of a particular tree was good for chills and fever; the bark contained quinine and the fever was usually malarial. The superstition became the basis for much scientific treatment of malaria all over the world.

One superstition that is quite far off the mark is the widespread belief which was held in the Scottish Highlands that insanity was caused by a person's heart getting out of place due to a sudden shock. It was also felt that another shock would bring the heart back to its former position, and thus restore the natural balance. Consequently sudden shock was one of the old remedies for insanity.

But it is interesting to recall this strange belief in the light of the modern developments of a different kind of shock treatment for certain varieties of mental diseases.

An interesting letter on this subject recently came from a reader who mentions several old-fashioned remedies, most of which do not stand up very well to modern tests of treatment. She says, "Recently, I had a bladder infection, and of course went to the doctor, who gave me some pills to combat it. A friend remarked that if I had only made myself some parsley tea and some flaxseed tea I should have saved myself a doctor bill."

In childhood we drank quarts of beef tea, tulpur and molasses, or brimstone and treacle as it is called in England, and wore squares of camphor sewn into our clothes in the winter-time. I can see the value of beef tea, because it is a protein. I am curious, however, as to why we used to have to eat calf's-foot jelly.

REMAINERS: As a man could go maybe 4,000 years without eating beer, I don't think it of cosmic importance that the spring of 1952 is the first in my memory in which New York brewers have not tried to hammer-lock the citizens into guzzling beer.

Hereafter, the feature writers have beat their heads out each late March inventing nostalgic and cozening phrases designed to make Joe Public thirst deeply for a quaff of beer. "I always felt, and still feel, that it was a phoney build-up because the truth is that the beer is no better or more notable than most other beers and a good deal less palatable than some I could mention but won't."

Slowly but by no means less assuredly, we are losing journalistic practices which threatened to become national ones. Like the annual "Dear Virginia" letter about the living presence of Santa Claus, and the annual spring nip-up concerning an interior beer. . . The things one that is also being lavished; to encourage labor without being harsh; to add to your resources without being covetous; to be dignified without being supercilious; and to inspire awe without being austere."

The American Way

SHADOW BOXING BY DEWITT EMERY

Congress is again putting on its great annual shadow boxing exhibition. The papers are filled with statements by this, that and other members of Congress, all of them telling in no uncertain terms how much the federal budget is going to be cut. The always resounding with impassioned speeches by still other members of Congress predicting all sorts of dire results unless the budget for fiscal '53 is slashed X number of dollars.

The American people seem to enjoy swallowing this hooey year after year. Then each year, after all of the economy speeches are out of the way and the appropriation bill has been passed, the net results is that the bureaucrats have more money to spend—throw away, that is—than they had the year before.

When you pin down one of these economy-talking, bigger-spender-voting members of Congress, his alibi almost always is that, "It's practically impossible to cut the budget very much so long as we have a President who won't let them by the advocates who don't and then still more spending." To which I say, "Nuts—just plain, everyday, ordinary nuts!"

Having a President who insisted on twenty billion without in any way doubt but nevertheless the fact remains that Congress controls the pursestrings. Not so much as one thin dime can be spent by the President or any of his bureaucrats a billion dollars appropriated by Congress. The plain and simple truth is that a majority by the members of Congress are shy on guts. They don't have the courage to withstand the pressure put on them by the administration, the bureaucrats, the armed forces and various other groups for larger and larger appropriations.

Talk with any member of Congress privately, as I have done with scores of them, and without exception they'll admit that the budget should be drastically reduced. They'll agree that the current budget could be cut ten to twenty billion without in any way impairing defense or any essential federal function or service. But then when the chips are down they pat themselves on the back if they cut fifty or seven-hundred million out of billion dollar appropriation.

I know the budget is so big, so cumbersome and so complicated that it's impossible for anyone to clearly understand it. But even so, this doesn't mean that appropriations cannot be made to gain a yardstick. As the yardstick, I suggest expenditures for fiscal 1940. In other words, cut back the Department of Commerce, the Department of Labor, the Department of Agriculture, the Department of the Interior and all of the other non-defense departments to what they spent in 1940. There just isn't any good reason at all why these departments should have from ten to fifteen times as much money to spend in '53 as they spent in '40. Would this save money? You can bet your shirt it would, many billions of dollars.

Personally, I don't believe that any appropriation for foreign economic aid or military assistance should be made for '53. I say this because there is on hand an unexpended balance of $8.8 billion from previous appropriations which is certainly more than enough to take care of our foreign aid for '53. Then after this balance has been spent, let's make a realistic appraisal of the entire situation and after this has been done, that's the time to decide what to do from there on.

Somewhat the same thing is true of the Department of Defense. According to the Bureau of the Budget, this department will carry into fiscal '53 an unexpended balance of $60 billion. This being true, it certainly is the height of folly to pile the $50 billion requested for '53 on top of this huge carry-over. Doing so would unquestionably invite a wasteful administration, inefficient procurement, excessive payroll and all of the other ills and evils to which human beings are susceptible.

I've said before and I say again with more emphasis, if that is possible, that the only way to stop this grossly excessive federal spending is for the people to tell their congressmen and their senators that it's got to stop. As long as the taxpayers will go along paying the bill, the load get heavier and heavier year after year. It's up to you, my friends. If you want economy and lower taxes, you can have both for the asking. The only way you can get it in the right place and make it emphatic. The right place, of course, is in Capitol Hill, Washington, D. C.

If everyone who reads this piece will tell the congressmen from his district and both of the senators representing his state that the budget for '53 must be drastically reduced, it will be this, however, is one time you can't afford to depend on the other fellow. He might be depending on you. So do your part and do it right away.

The Nation's Press

THE FEDERAL GOLIATH

Our Founding Fathers would never recognize the child they created, if they could see it today. The one thing they all agreed upon, and tried passionately to prevent, was Big Federal Government—and the concentration of all power therein. To them, the one hope of establishing and maintaining individual liberty was to limit Government to the barest essentials, and then to decentralize what little Government there was, so that the major part of it remained in the separate states and local communities. This—above all else—was the plan and purpose of our original Constitution and its Bill of Rights.

Just imagine their reaction, had they sat in the Halls of Congress the other day and heard President Truman's latest demand for a 1952-53 Federal budget of $55,400,000,000! Oh sure, you can argue that this nation has grown tremendously since their day, and that all figures are now astronomical in comparison. But that argument overlooks the basic change that has taken place.

Let's leave figures out of it entirely. Only 20 short years ago, three-fourths of our tax load went to support State and local programs. Today, four-fifths of the tax payments go to support the Presidents, from George Washington through Franklin Roosevelt, Federal Government! Add to that the unbelievable fact that all the Federal Government's programs have spent a total of $256,000,000,000, alone has already spent $277,000,000,000!

Again, some people like to argue that this does not mean anything, because we are now so wealthy that we can well afford such gigantic expenditures. They blithely ignore the shocking fact that we are simultaneously piling up a national debt of almost $275,000,000,000—or about the equivalent of the whole Truman spending! If we are really so wealthy, how come we're up to our necks in debt?

As the Oregon Journal of Portland, Oregon, recently asked: "What does this mean? It means that children who were born for 50 years will be holding their noses to the grindstone in their adult years to pay the debts we incurred between 1914 and 1950. What would you do if your great-grandfather left you with no patrimony but a burden of unbearable debt? Could you see any reason to pay his creditors for his waste, his prodigality? Certainly not."

Two crucial facts about this fiscal insanity seem to be almost totally ignored by the majority of our citizens. The first is our most complete abate-face from the defense mobilizer, who now wants to overrule the WSB, knows that if he is not arbitrary in holding down wage increases, then the "stabilization" program goes out the window.

The nature of the procedure makes a travesty of collective bargaining. The union and the industry are not bargaining with one another but with the Government. And the Government, which is trying to manage everything, finds it can't manage this little dispute because no matter what it plans here it upsets its other plans. A steel strike and another wage-price spiral are both inimical to the master plan.

Mr. Murray is right that it is pointless to have a WSB to rule on wages if its rules are to be overruled. The WSB is right that it is pointless for it to issue a rule that would merely stir up the dispute and result in a steel strike. Mr. Wilson is right that it is pointless to have a stabilization program if it is to be upset by the rulings of subordinate boards.

The whole thing is pointless. EXPANDING GOVERNMENT (Christian Economist) During last October, farm income was at the rate of $18.2 billion per year. During the same month, government wage and salary outlays were in excess of $31 billion. Government is by far our largest industry, and is growing larger all the while.

Government wage outlays are continuing rising and now account for about one fifth of the total national payroll. Government is swallowing business, and with it goes the freedom of the people.

Need—Can your girl keep a secret? Ted—Should say she can. We were engaged to be wed before I knew a thing about it.

Electrician—How do you like the refrigerator? Cook—Like it fine. I open the door and it cools off the whole kitchen.

Cause Of Wars And Confusion

BY RALPH COURTNEY

(Editor's Note: The following article is sponsored by an organization called Theofield, 315 W. 56th St. New York City 15. It is a movement opposing Social Centralization. It asks for names for their mailing list.)

In spite of the ideas set forth in our Founding Documents, people's concept of "government" today is not very different from the kind of government that once existed in primitive tribal society. Under an all-ruling central authority, in ancient times, the cultural life and the economic life of peoples were mere appendages of the State, serving it as instruments of policy and as excuses for expansion.

The American Republic was intended to be an advance over earlier social forms. In it the free individual emerged from the Group. He acquired rights and liberties. His government was set up to safeguard common individual rights. But recently men have again turned more and more towards an all-ruling central authority. The truth is that socialism and communism are not "progressive" movements, but they are generally represented, but reactionary movements pointing back to an old onefold social form. The wars and confusion of today stem from the fact that men have been unable, or unwilling, to throw off the onefold pattern of society inherited from their past.

Many people realize that the cultural-political-economic onefoldness of communism represents a threat to world peace. What too few see clearly is that any official ideology or any combination of business with the power of the State, whether it be a nationalistic hostility in other countries. Thus Western nations are losing the trust and friendship of Eastern peoples because of their "imperialism." And in its own Monroe Doctrine, the United States rightly forbids the operation of European politico-economic combinations, in the Western Hemisphere.

World unity and the end of wars will come not by themselves if the three sides of social life—those of culture, common rights and economics—were allowed to function separately in accordance with their own inherent natures. Business would exchange goods with other lands without political "protection." Cultural institutions would develop their own international contacts, and governments would be concerned with the common rights of the people within the boundaries of their countries.

If one great nation adopted such a policy of non-imperialistic social decentralization others would follow its example in self-defense. Onefold societies cannot compete with liberalized social orders, either in production of goods or in flexibility of trading. If they were to be "imperialistic," their power and influence would wane and decentralization would bring world peace, as well as the solution of internal social problems.

BUSINESS REVIEW AND FORECAST

Professional Training Easily Available Here

PROFESSIONAL TRAINING — The Pampa Modern School of Business, 113 1/2 S. Cuyler, offers excellent professional training. In active and interesting classes, managed by R. J. Rance, the business school features both day and night classes. (News Photo)

At Pampa Modern School Of Business Competence, Economy Are Stressed

There are few people unaware of the business opportunities available to the individual with the personal initiative and drive to make them a profitable realization to them. However, few again are the people that, once the years of high school are completed or the other schooling opened to them finished, ever consider what the advantages of a competent business school are.

The specialized training you can receive through an intensified training in a business school can make you an 'independent.' You become no longer the "worker" — instead you are the "professional."

The Pampa Modern School of Business, 113 1/2 S. Cuyler, under the direction of Dr. J. J. Rance, is your opportunity, your school for better, quicker advancement in training for various professional jobs — the job of your choice.

Many are the opportunities opened to you through a competent business school. According to a recent government report, there is now a shortage of some 3000 stenographers and secretaries all over the United States. Different ladies organizations have been asked by the government to recruit young people and urge them to attend schools and prepare themselves for professional jobs. Some people have the idea that all government jobs are centered in and around Washington, D. C., this is definitely not true. There are government jobs scattered all over the United States. In territories, it would behoove you to make this your gain by attending the Pampa Modern School of Business.

Other than the government jobs which are assuredly many there are jobs just around the corner in your community through private organizations, churches, civic clubs, and many other worthwhile and reputable businesses where you can follow the bent of your choosing if you have the proper training.

There is more to working than just making a living. An intensified training in the field of your choice will enable you to get the most out of a job and the satisfaction of doing a job that you like. There is in fact no other way to enable you to be a factor in your job and your community and everyday living. You want to make your living with a fair degree of ease and with enjoyment making that living included.

Perhaps you have had a field in mind, one in which you know you have the aptitude and ambition but lack training. What have you done about following the field of your choice? Have you made inquiries as to the training available to you or have you drifted along with a "tomorrow is another day" attitude? It is so simple and economical to lift the phone and ask for 334, our tomorrow work can be filled with more than nebulous thought of desire, it will instead be filled with active endeavor toward the goal you had in mind to make you more pleased with yourself and your accomplishments.

The Pampa Modern School of Business, 113 1/2 S. Cuyler, is affiliated with Texas State Association of Commercial Colleges and is a Government Approved School for disabled veterans. The courses offered are varied and are taught by competent instructors. Among the courses are accounting, shorthand, typing, calculator, and other allied subjects.

Nor is it difficult for you to find convenient hours to attend the Pampa Modern School of Business. Whether you work day or night you can find just the right time for you to attend. It is a day and night school, for your benefit. Dr. and Mrs. J. J. Rance are two full time teachers. And both class and individual instruction are given.

Shorthand classes have been reduced to a minimum by theory learning. The Gregg simplified manual textbook is used at the beginning of the course. And Gregg

Canadian Wins School Trophy In IL Contests

CANADIAN — (Special) — Canadian won the school trophy in the literary events in Interscholastic League district competition at Shamrock Saturday. Canadian took four firsts in declamation; Jan Waters winning first in the senior girls division; Aladelle Williams in Junior girl and Phil Waters in elementary school division.

Jeanette Raymond and Louise Zybach were first in debate; Sandra Wilkinson first in ready writing; Claudette Sparks and Clara Pettis first in high school spelling; Carol Pinson and Larry Wilson first in grade school spelling; Nona Dale Snyder, second in arithmetic; Vona Brooks third in shorthand; and Phil Love third in typewriting.

Several of these winners will go to Lubbock for the Regional contests April 18-19.

Auto Insurance Rates Go Up

AUSTIN — (P) — Like almost everything else, liability insurance rates on most Texas cars are going up.

A new schedule posted by the State Board of Insurance commissioners will bring about increases for the great bulk of Texas policyholders, said J. P. Gibbs, casualty insurance commissioner.

It will mean an eight percent boost generally on comprehensive insurance and four percent on deductible collision. There are some reductions for certain types of vehicles in fire, theft, comprehensive and collision, he said.

Baby Is Born With Two Teeth

ANNA, Ill. — (P) — Baby Nettie Jane Wieting has solved part of her teeth-cutting problem — she arrived already equipped with two teeth.

Secretaries To Hold Bake Sale For Cancer

Plenty of home-baked pies and cakes will be on sale at Suttie's Grocery Saturday by members of the National Secretaries Assn. for the benefit of the cancer fund.

The NSA plans to hold a bake sale each Saturday in April in its drive, said Mrs. Helen Warner, sale chairman. On April 12, one sale will be at Buddy's and another—sponsored by the Business and Professional Women for NSA — will be at the Combs-Worley building. April 19, the sale will be at Elmer's.

Mrs. Warner said NSA would welcome cakes and pies for these later sales. She may be contacted at 2056-J after 5 p.m.

Twenty-Eight Permits Are Issued Here

Twenty-eight building permits ranging from $75 to $28,000 were issued the last two weeks by the city engineers office. The price tags are estimates by the builders of the amount they expect to spend. They are often low.

H. O. Darby obtained a permit to build a $28,000 residence at 2001 Mary Ellen. It will be a one-story, eight-room house of brick. There will be 3 1-2 baths.

The second highest figure on a permit was $16,500 on a five-room home to be built for Mickey Ledrick at 1314 Hamilton. Ed Herlacher obtained permits for five $6750 residences at 301, 313 and 341 Miami and 316 and 340 Tignor.

Other building permits issued, addresses, purposes, and estimated costs:

O. L. Victory, 328 N. Rider, new residence, $2000; Dale P. Penson, 611 Bradley, new residence, $10,000; Walter Higginbotham, 615 Sloan, move in from out of the city limits, $3000; D. C. Houk, 1214 S. Baines, garage, $100; Joan Holt, 109 S. Faulkner, new garage, $500; C. L. Russell, Jr., 1911 N. Russell remodel residence, $9000 and Mrs. Bill Coranis, 303 W. Foster, remodel hotel, $800.

Also Joe F. Langford, 1000 E. Kingsmill, new residence, $3000; M. L. Armstrong, 725 N. Dwight, new residence, $12,000; T. J. 429 N. Russell, new house, $4000; J. D. Williams, 511 Oklahoma, move in, $75; Harold Turner, 1825 Coffee, new garage, $775; C. P. Pursley, 1705 Duncan, new residence, $12,000; T. J. Wright, 1132 Williston, new residence, $10,000; J. E. Winborne, 801 Wilks, new garage and breezeway, $1000; Leon Bullard, 229 Hughes, new garage, $1600; Lynn Boyd Lumber Co., 800 S. Russell, new warehouse, $3000; R. W. Lane, 608 Bradley, new house, $8750; Panhandle Lumber Co., 1421 N. Russell, new house, $15,000, and Odell Giddison, 612 N. Dwight new garage, $500.

Hal White has pitched for the Detroit Tigers for ten years, including his two year stint in the service, and has won only 36 games during that time.

BLUE AND YELLOW BEDROOM — Of the E. H. Gamages, 831 West Kingsmill, has an interior decorating scheme of blue and bright yellow. Furniture is light. Dresser lamps are bright yellow satin. Sliding closed doors are painted a shimmering white and match woodwork throughout the house. (News Photo)

DINING AREA — The dining area of the new small home matches colorful decoration of a bright kitchen. Flooring is deep rose, contrasting well with the bright yellow chairs, situated in the extra-space end of the large kitchen. This grouping makes a cozy dining area. (News Photo)

E.H. Gamage Home Pleasantly Livable, Attractively Designed

Newcomers to Pampa are the E. H. Gamages and their new home is located at 831 West Kingsmill. The home has a pleasantly livable atmosphere and is attractively decorated.

Members of the family include Mr. Gamage's father and his brother, Al.

Designed and built by local contractor, Ed Herlacher, the exterior has gray asbestos shingle siding combined with blue and white trim. Landscaping is not yet complete but Mrs. Gamage likes flowers and outside work and plans to do much of the yard work herself.

The living room is simply decorated. A gray, rough textured paper on the walls is combined with a neutral shade for the ceiling. Furniture pieces are gray holstered. Woodwork is white throughout the house. White curtains are matched with contrasting room and has white woodwork. An chartreuse drape is in the hall which leads to the bath, trim on white lamp shades. On the hardwood floor is a large, shaggy throw rug in a neutral shade.

A large kitchen adjoins the living room via a large double door. The dining area furniture is light with a touch of yellow added by the chair seats. A yellow congo wall wainscoting harmonizes with a gay wall paper featuring a print of many colors. Inlaid linoleum is a rich rose red and the cabinet counter tops are a deeper shade of the red. White organdy curtains are at the windows and Mrs. Gamage enjoys what every woman desires — a window over her sink. An overhead light over the sink is a convenient and useful addition. Curtains are white gained top

The hall is papered with the same gray design of the living room and has white woodwork. An extra large linen closet is in the hall which leads to the bath and two bedrooms.

The front bedroom is papered in a gray background with a blue and yellow floral pattern. A set of dresser lamps have bright yellow satin shades and the spread is gray. Yellow, organdy, criss-cross curtains pick up the other yellow in the room. Furniture is light. There is plenty of closet space afforded by a double closet with sliding doors and an extra cabinet addition at the top. All woodwork is white.

In the bath is a green background inlaid linoleum with a particular figure in it. Wain- scoting is green congo wall and the paper has a repeat touch of the green in the lily pattern. Curtains are white gained top

Texas Boasts Record Poll Tax Sales

AUSTIN — (AP) — Texas boasts a record 2,337,618 citizens armed with the right to vote in this year's political battles.

That's 357,693 more voters than the estimated previous record of 1,979,925 in the presidential election year of 1948, comptroller Robert S. Calvert reported.

The total, first in Texas history to exceed the two million mark, includes 2,081,084 paid poll taxes, and 256,534 exemptions.

Calvert said the 1948 total was an estimate because election laws then in effect made it impossible to determine the exact number of exempt voters.

More than 40 percent of the qualified voters reside in seven of the state's 254 counties. Harris county, encompassing Houston, has the greatest number, 317,256. Dallas county is second with 215,885, followed by Bexar (San Antonio), 132,576; Tarrant (Fort Worth), 123,812; Jefferson (Beaumont-Port Arthur), 64,162; Travis (Corpus Christi), 48,453.

White Warns Farmers Not To Over-Plant

AUSTIN — (AP) — State Agriculture Commissioner John C. White has advised Texas farmers not to over-produce in an effort to meet what he called "enormous crop quotas" set by the federal government.

"Use your own judgement," White said.

"The Texas farmer has always done more than his share. We have been leading the nation in dollar volume of farm product sales.

"But 1952 may be one of the most critical years the farmer has ever had to face, and the farmer can't afford to get himself in an economic hole if it should turn out that crop quotas are not in line with the realities of his own situation."

White observed that farm prices had been dropping a little and the farmer's production costs are increasing.

"This could make for a dangerous situation," he said.

White's statement coincided with announcement by the United States Department of Agriculture that the mid-March index of prices received by Texas farmers for all agricultural products dropped to the lowest level since September of last year.

Mr. Gamage recently returned from the Army after serving in the occupation of Germany. They moved in at 831 W. Kingsmill about two and a half months ago.

Dutch Anti-Inflation Plan Might Be Used Over Here

NEW YORK — (AP) — Queen Juliana if she wishes can tell President Truman today how the Dutch plan to save the guilders is blooming.

The plan is something like Prime Minister Churchill's drive to save the pound. The Dutch started their plan a year earlier than did the British.

And in recent days there is evidence that the British plan is also bearing fruit. The pound sterling is developing strength, if slowly.

American exporters, meanwhile, say that they are starting to feel sharply the recent moves by foreign countries to reduce imports from the dollar area.

Whether they're out to save the pound, the guilder, the franc or the peso, other countries usually start by tightening the curbs on their national's importing American goods and thus draining their country's reserves of United States dollars and gold.

The Netherlands was running far behind in its trade relations with its neighbors before the government started its drive a year ago to halt inflation at home and increase Dutch exports. But now it has turned this deficit of trade with its European neighbors into a surplus. The Dutch say they are now in a more favorable position in international trade than they have been for several years.

Many of these Dutch manufacturing projects are aided by American investors.

The British financial situation continued to slide until last

MEMO TO ADVERTISERS

Questions and Answers about Newspaper Advertising

Q. Do you know of any measure for the value of newspaper circulation to an advertiser such as the standards that a business man uses in buying merchandise?

A. Yes. In the well-known standards that have been approved and adopted by advertisers—namely, A.B.C. standards.

Q. What is A. B. C.?

A. A.B.C. stands for Audit Bureau of Circulations, a cooperative association of 3300 advertisers, advertising agencies and publishers in the United States and Canada.

Q. What is the Bureau's work?

A. To audit the circulation of newspapers and periodicals so that advertisers can buy space on the basis of definite standards and verified facts and figures.

Q. How does A. B. C. accomplish this?

A. The Bureau has a large staff of experienced auditors. They visit the publisher members periodically and make audits of their circulation records. This information is then published in A.B.C. reports for the use and protection of advertisers.

Q. What do these reports show?

A. A.B.C. reports tell how much circulation a newspaper has, where this circulation is, how it was obtained, how much people paid for it, and many other verified facts that advertisers should know when they buy advertising.

Q. Are all publications eligible for A. B. C. membership?

A. No. Only those with paid circulation. This is important to advertisers because it is the best proof of interest and purchasing power on the part of the readers.

Q. Is this newspaper a member of the Audit Bureau of Circulations?

A. Yes. We are proud of our circulation and we want our advertisers to know just what they get for their money when they advertise in our columns. The audited information in our A.B.C. report gives them the complete facts.

NEW YORK — (NEA) — Q. Who's the shortest player in the major leagues?

A. Phil Rizzuto of the Yankees. He's only five-foot-six.

Q. Who was it that beat out Ty Cobb for American League base-stealing honors in 1912?

A. Clyde Milan. The speedy Washington center fielder stole 88 bases that season.

Q. Where was Ralph Kiner born?

A. Contrary to popular belief, he was not born in California but in Santa Rita, New Mexico, moved to Alhambra, Calif., when he was four.

Q. What was the most home run Ty Cobb ever hit in one season in the majors?

A. Cobb's high was 12, in 1921 and again in 1923. But remember this was in the era of the dead ball.

Q. What was the first American League team that ever had three men in a row whack homers in one inning?

A. Cleveland, in 1902, put on a scoring party most unusual for that era, when Plano Legs Hickman, Larry Lajoie and Bill Bradley one after another hit for the circuit.

The Third One Makes You Wonder — Is Dead Ball Returning? Pair Of Brave Hurlers Throw No-Hitter At Brooklyn

By RALPH RODEN
Associated Press Sports Writer
Major league hitters are beginning to suspect that some one is sabotaging the official league baseballs.

4. New York
5. Boston
6. Cincinnati
7. Pittsburgh
8. Chicago
The Redbirds, who haven't won in six years, appear ready to challenge again. If there is a pennant left in the trusty old combination of Stan Musial, Enos Slaughter, Red Schoendienst and Harry Brecheen, this should be the year to bring it off.

The presence of Stanky, both as a player and manager, is certain to aid the Card cause. He has brought to the Cards the same inspiring leadership, flaming spirit and contagious hustle that has played such a vital role in bringing pennants to three clubs within a space of five years.

The Giants boast the best pitching staff in the league but the loss of Monte Irvin, who fractured his ankle last week, was a crippling blow to their chances to repeat. Also, they are certain to miss Stanky, who contributed so much to their comeback behind pennant quest last year. They also face a difficult job replacing Willie Mays, the fine young centerfielder, whose call to service is imminent.

Another point to bear in mind is that not a single National League pennant winner has been able to repeat since the Cardinals won successive flags in 1942-43-44.

The loss of ace righthander Don Newcombe was hurt the Dodgers where they were the weakest last year. In the pitching department, although there have been glowing reports on the progress of Clem Labine, Ben Wade and John Rutherford, it is most unlikely that any of the trio can make up the 20 victories Newcombe took with him to the army.

The writer picks the order of finish this way:

1. St. Louis
2. Brooklyn
3. Philadelphia

Chicago Cubs, 10-0, on March 17. Rookie righthander Steve Ridzik of the Philadelphia Phillies pitched the second gem, downing the St. Louis Cardinals, 10, last Friday. Spahn tolled the first seven innings and allowed only one Dodger, Roy Campanella, who walked in the fifth, to get on base. Dick Williams, through an error, was the only Brook to reach base during Johnson's two innings. Frasher Roe, veteran Dodger lefthander, was almost as good. He blanked the Braves on six hits until the ninth when Willard Marshall homered with two out to win the game.

The crowd booted when Spahn was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the seventh. But Manager Tommy Holmes explained later: "Spahn has gone nine before. I know he's ready, and I wanted to get a look at this other kid. He's been bothered by a sore arm and hasn't pitched much."

Heavy hitting featured the majority of the other games. Service-bound Ted Williams and Walt Dropo socked a pair of homers apiece to lead the Boston Red Sox to an 8-4 triumph over Oklahoma City of the Texas League at Oklahoma City.

The Pittsburgh Pirates pounded out 15 hits including home runs by Ted Beard and Ralph Kiner to bury the Chicago Cubs, 13-1 at New Orleans. Howie Pollet limited the Cubs to two hits over the first six innings.

Cliff Fainin, supported by the St. Louis Browns' 17-hit attack, had no trouble turning back the San Antonio Missions of the Texas League, 18-5, in the Alamo City.

Jim Busby pounded out a two run homer and Chico Carrasquel one with the bases empty to lead the Chicago White Sox to a 4-1 decision over Fort Worth of the Texas League in Fort Worth.

Outfielder Vic Wertz drove in three runs in a pair of homers to spark the Detroit Tigers to a 5-4 victory over Birmingham of the Southern Association.

Home runs highlighted the Philadelphia Phils' 9-5 triumph over the Cardinals at Columbia, S. C. Del Ennis and Forrest Burgess connected for the Phils and Solly Hemus, Enos Slaughter and Peanut Lowery for the Cards.

In other games, Cleveland trounced the Giants, 8-4; the Yankees nipped Atlanta, 8-4; the Cincinnati Reds edged Washington, 3-2, at Charlotte, N. C., and the Philadelphia Athletics and Baltimore Orioles battled to a 4-4, ten-inning tie at Baltimore.

Golfing Thrills Wood's '41 Open Victory

By CRAIG WOOD
As told to Frank Eck
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor
My biggest golf thrill was winning the U.S. Open at Colonial in Fort Worth in 1941. Everybody in golf tries to win the Open. I had been trying to win the Open since 1925. It's the big one and always a big thrill for the winner.

On the last green I sank a 35-foot putt to win the title. I could have 3-putted and won although I had one that it would have taken away a lot of the pleasure.

In 1940 I finished two shots back at Century in Cleveland when Gene Sarazen tied Lawson Little. Gene was going for his third Open but Little won the playoff, 70-73.

In 1939 I also finished second at Spring Mill in Philadelphia after tying Bryon Nelson and Denny Shute for top prize at 284. In the first playoff Nelson and I shot 68's but Shute had a 76. In the second 18-hole playoff I beat me, 70-73.

Thus, after missing two years in a row, that win in 1941 gave me much satisfaction. I beat Denny Shute by three blows and Ben Hogan by five.

My first big thrill was winning the 1941 Masters. I had finished second twice in that tournament, too. Sarazen beat me with a double eagle and in the other Horton Smith cut me up a bit.

(Craig Wood has won 23 PGA-sponsored golf tournaments. During his big year of 1941 he was the nation's fourth leading money winner.)

Mrs. Bowman Cops Trans-Miss

PHOENIX, Ariz. — (AP) — Petite Mrs. Lyle Bowman, Richmond, Calif., won the championship of the 22nd annual Women's Trans-Mississippi Golf Tournament here yesterday, 1 up, in a thrilling exhibition of golf and nerves over Miss Marjorie Lindsay, DeSatur, Ill.

Victory came on the 36th hole when Miss Lindsay three-putted from 18 feet out as Mrs. Bowman's first putt from 20 feet away came within inches of the cup and her opponent conceded the second.

SPORTS MIRROR

A year ago today—Ben Hogan won the Masters Golf championship with a score of 280.

Five years ago—Whitey Lockman, Giant centerfielder, broke his right ankle in an exhibition game.

SOME. Y'KNOW, I LAID AWAKE HALF THE NIGHT WONDERING HOW I GOT HERE AND WHO YOU ARE.
NEEDLESS TO SAY, I'M VERY GRATEFUL FOR ALL YOU'VE DONE.
I COULDN'T LET YOU DIE. FEEL LIKE GETTING UP FOR BREAKFAST? HERE'S A RAZOR AND HOT WATER, AND CLEAN CLOTHES ON THE CHAIR.

MORNING, BUZ IS AWAKENED BY THE COOL, SOFT TOUCH OF A HAND ON HIS FOREHEAD.

Jackson Twins

WHAT WILL WE SPEND YOU MEAN? WE CAN'T GO FAR ON $1 AND WE'RE ALREADY TWO WEEKS AHEAD ON OUR ALLOWANCE!
COME ON! WE'LL HAVE TO HIT UP LITTLE 'SALTY' AGAIN!
ME BUY MORE STOCK IN THAT CAD?? I'M ALREADY IN THAT THING FOR THREE BUCKS!
I GOT SO MUCH OF YOUR GOOPY STOCK ITS COMIN' OUTA MY BUREAU DRAWER!
BORROW, BORROW! BE FIRM, IT'S BEGINNIN' TO EAT INTO MY BUBBLE GUM FUND!
BE FIRM, JUNIOR? THEY'RE GOING TO TURN ON THE TEARS!

Blondie

I'M EXHAUSTED TONIGHT--I DON'T THINK I CAN GET UP THE STEPS TO BED
UGH
PUP PUP
THAT WAS FUN, DEAR-- LET'S DO IT EVERY NIGHT

Alley Oop

YMEAN THAT L'L OL ROCK IS EXTRA HEAVY LIKE LEAD?
IT'S AS HEAVY, I'D SAY, REAL LOUD 'N' BOLD!
...AS A GREAT BIG CHUNK OF SOLID GOLD!
MY GOSH, FOOZY, IF THAT'S GOLD, WE'VE STRUCK IT RICH!
OH, NO, OOP, DON'T THINK! YEH...FOR THAT SUCH A THING! A MERE TEN GRAND IS ALL THAT THIS WILL BRING! ALL THE REST OF THEM SAME KINDA ROCKS LAYIN' AROUND!

Bo

LISTEN, SHAGGY, I HELPED YOU SNITCH THAT BONE FROM TITO AND BO. OUGHTA GET A CRACK AT IT.
HERE'S A QUIET SPOT. LET'S TAKE A TURN ON IT...
COME ON HOME WITH ME, TITO, AND FROM THERE WE'LL START LOOKING FOR YOUR PLACE.
YOU HAVEN'T SEEN A TAN COCKER SPANIEL WANDERING AROUND?
NO, SIR, MR. LAKE

Ozark Ike

AFTER THREE SCORELESS INNINGS--
SOME PITCHIN' LEFTY SPADE HAS WHIFFED SIX MEN AND ALLOWED TH BUGS ONLY ONE HIT!
TH ARM FEELS GREAT, BOSS...SO LET ME STAY IN THERE!
OKAY, LEFTY...SEE IF YOU CAN GO TH DISTANCE!
A SHOUTOUT IF I CAN MOW DOWN TH TOP OF TH BUGS BATTIN' ORDER IN TH NINTH!
--AND LOOK AT HIM GO! FIVE MORE SCORE--LESS FRAMES!

Chris Welkin

MINUTES AFTER CHRIS WELKIN'S BOAT WITH A BIRGLAR...
WHAT HAPPENED? YOU WERE OUT LIKE A LIGHT-- RAD RUINE... AND A GIRL SLUGGED ME!
I GAVE THE ALARM, BUT THEY'VE PROBABLY GONE THROUGH THE GATE BY NOW. ANY IDEAS WHY THEY DID THIS?
LOOK IN MY SAFE, COLONEL--LET'S SEE WHAT'S MISSIN'--
M E A N W H I L E
THEY'RE LOOKING FOR US, RAD! YOU SHOULD HAVE FINISHED WELKIN!
NO...I HAVE USE FOR HIM.

Mutt & Jeff

HOW'D YA LIKE ME TO MAKE YOU UP AT TWO A.M.?
NUTHIN' DOIN'! CHILI ALWAYS WAKES ME UP WITH HEART-BURN AT TWO A.M.!
THIS CHILI IS GUARANTEED NOT TO WAKE YOU UP AT 2 A.M. IT GIVES YOU HEARTBURN RIGHT AWAY!
NO, GET SOME IMPORTED SARDINES! I'LL HAVE A SARDINE SANDWICH!
BUT, IMPORTED SARDINES COST 30¢ MORE A CAN THAN THE DOMESTIC SARDINES!
I DON'T CARE! I WANT THE IMPORTED SARDINES!
OK, O.K., BUT IT DON'T MAKE SENSE TO ME!
WHY SHOULD WE HAVE TO PAY THE BOAT FARE FOR SARDINES?

Bugs Bunny

HOW ABOUT A SUPER BRUSH, DOC?
ALL BUSINESS IS TRANSACTED AT THE REAR ENTRANCE!
I DON'T MIND PAYIN' A LIV' FAATHER, BUT I MAKE A SALE!
WE DON'T WANT ANY!
GOSH, POP I THINK MOM'S GENERATION HAS DONE FINE!
I'M AFRAID NOT, SON--THERE WAS WORLD WAR II...
YIPES!! DID YOU AND MOM START THAT?

Donald Duck

YES, CARLYLE, IN A FEW YEARS YOUR GENERATION WILL RUN THE WORLD!
AND I HOPE A BETTER JOB THAN MOTHER'S AND MY GENERATION HAS DONE!
GOSH, POP I THINK MOM'S GENERATION HAS DONE FINE!
I'M AFRAID NOT, SON--THERE WAS WORLD WAR II...
YIPES!! DID YOU AND MOM START THAT?

OUT OUR WAY By J. R. WILLIAMS OUR BOARDING HOUSE with MAJOR HOOPLE

IF I EVER GO UP THE GOLDEN STAIRS, I'LL BE FROM GOING DOWN THESE STAIRS!
LISTEN, LITTLE LORD FAUNTLEROY! I'M A BIRD DOG WHEN IT COMES TO MONEY! I'VE MISSED YOUR DAILY MOOCHING LATELY, AND BUYING CIGARS BY THE BOX ALSO SNIFFS OF PROSPERITY! SHALL I HELP YOU LET YOUR HAIR DOWN FOR A LITTLE TALK?
AWPE! WHY, MARTHA, I'VE HAD A SMALL WINDFALL, BUT I WAS PLANNING A LAVISH GIFT FOR YOU--LIM-HAY, I WOULD A COUPLE OF CRISP TWENTIES LIGHT UP YOUR EYES?
WHAT WOULD DIM THE TIGER GLEAM, ANYWAY?

Vic Flint

I'M POSITIVE HES THE MAN WHO KILLED MY HUSBAND'S INSPECTOR.
THANKS, MRS. WORTHMORE.
YOU'RE CRAZY--I WASN'T ANYWHERE NEAR YOUR PLACE THE NIGHT OF THE MURDER!
IF THAT'S TRUE, RAIL, HOW COME A SLEEVE BUTTON EXACTLY MATCHING YOUR MISSING ONE FROM YOUR COAT WAS FOUND AT THE SCENE OF THE CRIME?
YOU'RE UNDER ARREST, RAIL!
FOLLOWING OUT RAIL'S PLAN FOR THE MURDER OF HIS BROTHER--TORSO TAKES THE FIRST STEP BY CALLING ON TUB!
HOLD YOUR FIRE, TUB--I'VE COME TO MAKE PEACE!

Little Doc

CHILDREN, HOW MANY OF YOU WANT TO GO TO HEAVEN?
LITTLE DOC, YOU'RE THE ONLY ONE WHO HAN'T RAISED HIS HAND-- DON'T YOU WANT TO GO TO HEAVEN?
MY MOTHER TOLD ME TO COME RIGHT HOME AFTER SCHOOL!

Wash Tubbs

FORCED OFF THE ROAD BY COQUINA'S SPEEDING CAR. EASY JAMS ON HIS BRAKES, BUT...
EVERYTHING'S SILENT AS A TOMB, AL! IF THEY'RE LUCKY, THEY'RE ONLY KNOCKED COLD!
WE'D BE FAR AWAY BY NOW IF YOU HADN'T PICKED UP TH WRONG BAG! I'M TAKING NO CHANCES ON ANY SLIP UP THIS TIME!

Boots

MRS. RUGGLES: HAVE YOU HEARD HOW THEM TWO MACPHERSONS CLEANED UP?
WHO? OH--
BOOTS, HAVE YOU SEEN MY PIPE?
MISS PUG, DID YA HEAR HOW THAT GOLDWORTH-- SH-H-H!
DAVEY--
--THEN, SO HELP ME, THEY PEDDLED TH DIRT IN OUR TEA BAGS-- AN' HIT TH JACK-POT!

Mickey Finn

THE SCORE AT THE END OF THE FIFTH FRAME OF THE SECOND GAME--HULLIHAN 64, FINN 51!
THAT GIVES HULLIHAN A TOTAL OF 229 UP TO THIS POINT! HE'S LEADING NOW BY 93 PINS!
YEAH! IT'S GOING TO BE A SLAUGHTER--AND PHIL KNOWS IT! LOOK AT THE PUSS ON HIM!
N-NO SIGN OF NOCKIE, MICHAEL?
NOT YET, UNCLE PHIL! BUT TOM IS WAITING FOR HIM UP AT THE DOOR--AND WILL BRING HIM DOWN AS SOON AS HE GETS HERE!
PULL OVER!

Penny

I'D LOVE TO GO, ELSA, BUT I WOULDN'T DARE ASK FATHER AT THIS TIME.
HE QUIT SMOKING YESTERDAY--AND HE'S BEEN A TERRIBLE BEAR EVER SINCE!
REALLY, ELSA, I'M AFRAID TO ASK--JUST A SECOND...
I'LL GO WITH YOU, ELSA--I'M SURE FATHER WON'T MIND A BIT NOW.

Freckles

AT LEAST THE BOYS STILL HAVE THE MAP!
YES, THEY'RE LUCKY THAT WASN'T PRINTED TOO!
SO THESE FROOKES HAVE A MAP? VERY INTERESTING!
WELL, WHAT ARE WE WAITIN' FOR?
A LOCAL REPORTER HAS GIVEN AWAY THE BOYS' SECRET!--
SO THE STORY GOT OUT ABOUT THE TREASURE HUNT?
IT SAYS IT CAUSED A STAMPEDE TO THE SPOT-- BUT NOTHING WAS FOUND!

Donald Duck

KINDA WARM FOR A FUR COAT, TOOTS--YOU NEED MY INVENTION!
YES, IT IS WARM-- WHAT'S THE INVENTION?
SPRAY-O! THE MAGIC FUR PRESERVATIVE! NO MOTHS, NO MILDEW, NO MANGE, NO...
WHY USE A RAZOR? DONALD'S DUCKS HAIR-GROW WONDERS!
