BERLIN BLASTED SECOND NIGHT

Hitler's Home Wrecked By RAF Bombs

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP)—The RAF hurled tons of destruction down on Berlin again tonight, seeking for the second night in succession to knock out the German capital, much of it already devastated.

The force and weight of bombs dropped last night probably approached but did not exceed the record of Monday when over 2,300 tons were delivered by approximately 1,000 bombers, nearly all of them four-engine Glanias.

"Concentrated and effective" was the air ministry's description of the second great attack on the world's most-bombed capital.

Despite more favorable weather for the defense, the RAF lost only 20 planes in the second successive Berlin attack and simultaneous Mosquito attacks on Western Germany, compared to 26 lost in comparable operations the night before.

Berlin already was chaotic from history's greatest aerial attack delivered only 24 hours before.

Berlin correspondents of Swedish newspapers said this morning "a flame" more than half a mile long swept Berlin after the second attack.

The Stockholm newspaper Aftonbladet asserted fires started by incendiary bombs last night linked up with flames still burning from Monday night's attack.

Stockholm's Allehanda estimated 25,000 persons were killed in the first attack. It added the center of Berlin again was the main target last night and railway stations, gas and water mains suffered heavily.

The German capital was isolated from the world today by telephone and telegraph. Neither telephone calls nor telegrams were being accepted in Berlin this morning, nor were Swedish correspondents able to telephone out of the city.

Telegrams from Stockholm intended for Berlin were being sent to Hamburg but it was unknown how they were being relayed to the capital.

Because Berlin is the hub of Hitler-dominated Europe, fires started by incendiary bombs last night linked up with flames still burning from Monday night's attack.

In Stockholm diplomatic representatives of legations bombed out in Berlin still were trying to contact their colleagues.

A new and unconfirmed report said the Eden hotel on Budapest Strasse was ruined.

The impact of the paralyzing attacks on the German capital made it clear that wholly aside from physical damage to either the ad-

King Declares Victory Certain

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP)—King George VI, opening a new session of parliament, confidently told the house of commons today that "in the fourth year of the war the forces of the United Nations assumed the offensive in all theaters and in the coming year we shall, with God's help, be able to bear upon the enemy a still greater weight of attack."

The new session is the ninth since the present commons was elected in November, 1935. The current parliament is the longest-lived in Britain's history.

"With the growing help of our great American ally and together with the other United Nations we shall go forward with confidence in our cause until we have delivered the peoples of the world from the fear of the aggressor," the king said.

Yugoslavs Wipe Out Bulgarians

LONDON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Yugoslav guerrilla forces of Gen. Josip Broz Tito have wiped out a Bulgarian battalion in Serbia, taking considerable booty, and have scored defensive successes at other points, a broadcast communique said today.

The announcement said the partisans had crushed the Bulgarian force in a battle near Kremna in Western Serbia, killing about 100 soldiers and taking 70 prisoners.

In Macedonia Tito's troops fought fiercely to prevent German troops breaking through from Albania toward Skopje.

BLACKOUT FASHIONS
LONDON—Feminine ingenuity has had its bit of a way to overcome the inconveniences of clothing rationing.

A London drapery shop director disclosed that many women have been buying ration-free materials intended for blackout curtains and are making them into coat lining, slips and underwear.

What's more, a board of trade officials said, it seems that nothing can be done about it.

American Forces Take Control of Gilbert Islands

New Attacks Are Planned By U. S. Navy

(By The Associated Press)

Japan faces the threat of new attacks by Allied forces moving to capitalize on swiftly-achieved American control of the Gilbert Islands and severe air blows against the enemy on other fronts of the Pacific.

Only mopping up operations remained to complete the capture of three pivotal atolls among the more than 15 coral islands in the Gilberts in a lightning coordinated thrust that shortened the "road to Tokyo" by at least 700 miles.

The latest communique from Pearl Harbor said Makin has been captured; Tarawa's fall is assured, and the situation on little Abemama "is well hand."

In the South and Southwest Pacific, Allied bombers pounded 11 enemy positions, including Casamata, New Britain, for the third straight day, and cut deeper into Jap shipping losses.

Pierce fighting flared west, south and east of the vital "rice bowl" town of Changteh in China's battle against its long-time invader. The Chinese told of repulsing Japanese attacks at close quarters battling while wiping out enemy paratroopers near Taoyuan, 16 miles southwest of Changteh.

Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet, left no doubts as to the crushing American victory in the five-day old campaign for the Gilberts, lying about half-way between Hawaii and the Solomons. He said:

"The Gilberts are now securely in our hands and the immediate future will be one of consolidation and preparing to make further attacks."

There was, of course, no discussion of the next move. But it appeared likely the powerful naval units and air cover which teamed up with the Army Marines on the coast guard in the Gilberts, would move on to the north for an assault on the Jap-held Marshall Islands.

Radio Tokyo declared the United States invading the Gilberts constituted a threat to the Japanese-mandated Marshall Islands and "presages a real decisive battle of the fleets."

American construction units stood by in the Gilberts presumably to begin work on airfields just as soon as the nearly 5,000 Japs on Tarawa, the 1,000 on Makin and the small force on Abemama are completely subdued.

Admiral Nimitz described enemy casualties as heavy. American casualties on Makin were light, those on Tarawa heavier.

For the bloody fighting, the United States obtained bases to strike at the Marshalls from where it is a bomber's hop to thousands of extra troops to Truk, Japan's Pacific naval stronghold.

Want Soldier Guest For Thanksgiving?

Tabbed for the armed forces—that's what happened to most turkey this year. They won't be plentiful for holiday dinners, but who cares! Take a tip from the Pilgrims who celebrated their first Thanksgiving not only with turkey but with good red meat as well.

Whether your platter looks festive or not there is a soldier at the Pampa Army Air field who would enjoy having a Thanksgiving meal with you. USO officials have announced that a list of names of men at the field has been left at the desk. So if you have an extra place at the table, call the USO and leave your name.

A homey atmosphere will be appreciated more by these men than all the glazed apples, jellied cranberry cubes or turkey dressing that you can have on your dinner table.

Texas Division Adds Bright Star To Flag with Salerno Victory

By RELMAN MORIN

WITH THE AMERICAN FIFTH ARMY IN ITALY, Nov. 24 (AP)—There is another star in the flag of Texas today.

It was emblazoned there the morning of Sept. 9 when the Fifth Army landed on the shores of Italy. The first troops to hit the beach that thunderous morning were "T" patches on their shoulders. The letter "T" stood for Texas and the patch for the 36th division.

The Germans have come to know well the men of the 36th.

The division was identified officially today. Now the story of the 36th can be told and nowhere in the military history of the United States is there a finer one.

It was an untold division—untold in the sense that it never had been in combat.

Throughout the army it was known as a "hot" outfit, however, it had distinguished itself time and time again in maneuvers. As a result, it had been given special training for amphibious operations. Originally it had been slated for a major role in the North African land-

Highway Head Now Okays Synthetic Tires

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 24 (AP)—Col. Lynn Black, superintendent of the state highway patrol, states that "through an error" he reported synthetic tires used by the patrol failed to stand up, when actually they "are proving satisfactory."

"Through an error," Black declared, "reports on some pre-war tires, which were seconds and were not synthetic rubber were placed on my desk when I asked for a report on synthetic tires."

"I relayed this report on seconds to newspapers without realizing at the time that it was not a report on the synthetic tires. The synthetics are proving satisfactory with respect to wear and traction.

"We are testing about fifty synthetic tires. Some have 20,000 miles on them and are in fairly good shape. We found we had to keep two pounds more air pressure in the synthetics than in the natural rubber tires."

Patton Incident Recalls Lincoln Kept Grant Despite General's Drinking Habit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—The senate military affairs committee voted unanimously today to request Secretary of War Stimson to report to it officially on the incident in which Lt. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr. struck an army private in a hospital in Sicily. Chairman Reynolds (D-N.C.) said he had been instructed to obtain a report by Stimson in connection with the committee's consideration of President Roosevelt's nomination of Patton, who now has the permanent rank of colonel, to hold the permanent rank of major general.

By HAL BOYLE

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Algiers, Nov. 24 (AP)—The case of Lt. Gen. George S. Patton, Jr. versus a shellshocked army private is now being tried before the court of American public opinion.

The case already has been tried in private chambers, so to speak, and a decision made by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower and the war department. That decision was that both men should remain on their jobs—because good generals, temperamental or not, are too scarce to spare. So are good privates.

There wasn't anything in the way of punishment to be dished out in the case to the soldier who got slapped. He had a good fighting record. He had been sent back for treatment over his own protest, and medical examination disclosed he was a victim of true battle-fatigue or "shell-shock."

He suffered no physical injury when the general struck him twice and called him "yellow belly" and "coward" before other soldiers in the hospital admission tent. He subsequently recovered from battle fatigue and rejoined his unit.

The incident created an under-the-surface sensation in the 7th Army, then, as now, commanded by Patton. It caused more conversation, spoken aloud or whispered both among officers and enlisted men, than the capture of Messina ending the Sicilian campaign.

Frankly, there was considerable bitterness, but it was not drawn out on the question of rank. Patton's action was deplored by his officers as much as by his men. I heard only one man defend the general's deed.

He was a lieutenant, and he said: "It would do this army good if a few more men were clouted over the head now and then."

There is this to be said for Patton: He was under great strain himself. The incident took place

British Fight Way Closer to Sangro

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Algiers, Nov. 24 (AP)—The British Eighth Army surged forward six miles into enemy positions in the central portion of the Italian front to capture the village of San Angelo, only half a mile from the upper Sangro river, and occupied the deserted and devastated mountain town of Alfedena. Allied headquarters announced today.

The capture of Alfedena, approximately 79 airline miles southeast of Rome on the road to the Italian capital, was the result of a gain of more than five miles beyond Rivero in recent days during which Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's troops pushed the Germans off high ground, dominating the town from the southeast, in a series of brisk clashes.

Before leaving, the Germans destroyed Alfedena with explosives and fire.

The Cairo radio, meanwhile, said Eighth Army units had crossed the Sangro. The Germans acknowledged a crossing yesterday.

San Angelo's capture represented a six-mile advance in the Castiglione region. The village is eight miles to the west of Castiglione.

Near the mouth of the Garigliano, British troops of the Fifth Army clashed with a big German patrol, inflicting heavy casualties at a cost of only one man wounded.

"Enemy artillery was active on the Fifth Army front," the bulletin said. "There was little improvement in the weather which continues to hamper operations."

The communique also referred to heavy rain on the remainder of the British front toward the Adriatic and said "there was little change."

Nazi Force Battles Way Back to Kiev

MOSCOW, Nov. 24 (AP)—Strong German forces pushing toward Kiev with violent tank and air attacks have failed to break Russian army positions in depth, Red Star reported today.

Three successive retreats which the Russians have made since the start of the major German counterattacks in the Ukraine were attributed to heavy pressure of superior enemy numbers, but the army newspaper indicated the main Russian line was intact for the decisive start of the battle this morning.

The German communique reported strong new Russian attacks along the lower Dnieper north of Nikopol and near Cherkassy repulsed after temporary breakthroughs. The Germans said strong Russian forces were encircled west of Kiev.

Kiev was captured Nov. 6 and the German line today was 46 miles from the Ukrainian capital in the environs of Brusilov, after covering nearly half the distance back from Zhitomir.

The Red army continued its own offensive in the triangle between the Pripiet and Dnieper rivers and the border between White Russia and the Ukraine.

Swamps, streams and forests kept mobile forces out of action in that sector but the Russians pressed their offensive over hastily improved terrain which permitted heavy artillery to move with the troops.

Red Star said Bragin, 65 miles southwest of Gomel, was captured by forces which penetrated deep enemy defenses through swamps.

Inside the Dnieper bend, Pravda reported that the Germans raised a strong screen of fire southwest of Dnepropetrovsk with artillery and mortars concentrated closely around their positions.

At midnight the Russians summed up a violent day of combat in which nearly 8,000 Germans and 180 tanks were destroyed on all fronts.

House Expected To Pass Small Tax Program

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Badly mauled on the food subsidy issue, the administration's controlled anti-inflation program came up for another body blow today as the house rolled toward approval of a $2,140,000,000 new revenue bill—a 20-cent drop in the $10,500,000,000 bucket held out by the treasury.

Rep. Robert Lee Doughton, 80-year-old chairman of the powerful ways and means committee, led off a bi-partisan chorus against large tax increases, declaring they could be "more crushing" than inflation.

"Too heavy a tax burden is as great a danger to the nation's economy as is too large a public debt," he said.

"Certainly we should not pass on to future taxpayers, many of whom will be our returning soldiers, debts that we ourselves should pay, but neither should we pass on to them a business structure so weakened by heavy taxes that it will be unable to carry on in the post-war period."

Loughton joined Rep. Knutson of Minnesota, ways and means Republican leader, in attacking the administration's claim that a $10,500,000,000 tax program is essential not only for war-financing but also to drain off inflationary purchasing power.

"In our opinion (speaking for Republicans) this additional burden would liquidate the great middle class, which is the bulwark of the nation," Knutson declared.

"It would threaten the future solvency of all business, imperil savings, and jeopardize the post-war continuance of private enterprise. From now on, the motto should be: 'No new taxes, no new taxes, no new taxes,' said the speaker, Harry Hopkins, tax and tax spend and spend, elect and elect: 'is out.'"

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Announced casualties in all armed forces of the United States since Pearl Harbor total 121,319, with the army bearing the greater share—89,650 as of Nov. 11.

Statistics show that of those killed in action there is a difference of only 42 between the army and the navy, with the navy having the larger loss—12,883 to date.

The army's total of 89,650 listed 12,841 killed, 20,263 wounded, 23,954 missing and 22,592 prisoners. The navy's 31,669 total gave 12,883 killed, 5,640 wounded, 8,918 missing and 4,228 prisoners. Navy figures include the coast guard and Marine corps.

TEXAS

The 36th was given a key mission in the invasion of Italy. If you asked its officers why this green division was entrusted with so important an assignment they replied unhesitatingly, "because it's a Texas division."

The division brought a Lone Star flag with it and carried it into battle in the standard there is parchment bearing a copy of Col. Travis' last message from the Alamo. Every man in the division, including those not natives of Texas, can repeat it by heart.

The 36th came ashore in the Gulf of Salerno at dawn Sept. 9. The defenses of the beaches were well constructed and German troops were manning them. The surrender of Italy had been announced the night before. But days before the 16th pazer division had moved into position on these particular beaches.

They were ready and waiting. The 36th hit hard but it hit a strong wall. The first assault wave was pinned down by machine-gun fire. The second and third waded ashore through a hail of bullets and shells. It looked for a time as though none of the three waves would be able to breach the German shore defenses.

Finally the division broke through. For sheer courage in the face of withering fire, their attack at the moment rivals the greatest actions of American troops in any of our wars.

Their first objective was a railroad line about 1,000 yards from shore and once off the beach they roared straight across fields through some marshlands until they reached it.

That is probably true but it is doubtful whether the German people ever would have learned what had happened. It is doubtful too whether in the German army a lieutenant-general would under any circumstances, have apologized publicly to a private.

Patton, reputed to be the wealthiest soldier in the army, was at the peak of his brilliant military career at the close of the Sicilian campaign. In swift, bold maneuvers his army had conquered the major part of the island in 36 working days.

To make amends for his unjust, rash and indiscreet treatment of the shell-shocked private he called in all principals in the case and apologized. All concerned accepted his apology. Patton then assembled his officers and men and apologized to them.

Patton believes in discipline and glory. He is hard on his men, but harder on his officers and himself. He has been punished. Nothing could possibly gall him more than to have to stand up and admit in public that he had broken the code he lived by—the code of an officer and gentleman.

A good general saves lives by winning wars. Losing generals lose lives as well as battles. Abraham Lincoln forgave General Grant his whiskey drinking because he thought it more important to get on with the war than to have a "teetotaler" leading his troops.

Now Gen. Eisenhower and the war department want "George" forgiven for his bad temper. They think more is to be gained by keeping him in harness than by replacing him with a general who never lost his temper—or won a battle.

message to congress, declared the fight to hold the line against inflation rested in the subsidy program through which government cash goes to food producers to keep retail prices at a level with the subsidies. Administration makers argue, uncontrolled prices—and consequent inflation—are inevitable.

Even as the house voted out subsidies for the second time, the price control setup was attacked on other fronts.

A house bloc mustered sufficient strength to force the issue on an attempt to remove oil and coal controls from the office of price administration which turned back numerous efforts to raise ceiling prices.

The house group wants the two industries placed under Interior Secretary Ickes who recently agreed to a boost in coal mine wages and long has fought for a higher crude oil price.

On the senate side dairy state members were ready to force a test on legislation which would boost the retail price of milk a cent a quart.

Identical arguments in both cases were presented that prices should be allowed to rise to their natural level at the market place.

Agitation Charged Lombardo Toledano

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 24 (AP)—Alfredo Navarrete, general secretary of the National Proletarian Confederation, charges that Vicente Lombardo Toledano, president of the Latin American Workers' Confederation, is himself agitating the public by saying that religious elements are doing so.

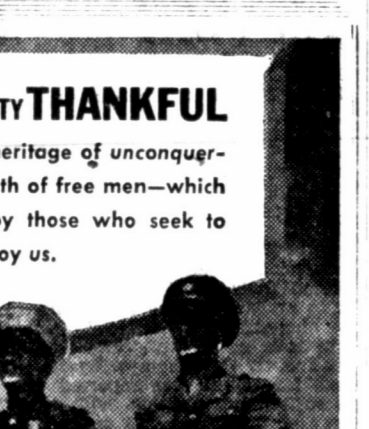

Navarrete, addressing a meeting of his organization, last night contended that Lombardo Toledano was "creating confusion and alarming public opinion by saying that a revolution against the government is planned."

Lombardo Toledano charged in a speech recently that conservative elements are setting the stage for a rebellion by provocations in the form of violating the religious laws.

BERLIN

Administrative center of the large war industries in the suburbs, the aerial drive balked as the war's greatest offensive against enemy morale.

Berlin as the nation's capital has a sentimental attachment for every German and the beating it is taking is a symbolic blow to all Germans.

While the German high command spokeswoman acknowledged "new and heavy damage by fires" caused in last night's attack, the Stockholm Aftonbladet said the repeated concentrated bombing was virtually as big as Monday's.

Explosions of high-busters rocked all sections of Berlin, the newspaper said, but fires provided the worst horror. Storm clouds of ashes swept through the streets and often there were terrific gusts of flames caused by the peculiar effect of high bomb blasts.

The explosions seemed to create a vacuum which was followed by a cyclonic wave of fire.

Fire fighters were unable to cope with their task and entire areas 10 to 12 blocks long were enveloped in flames this morning.

RAF fliers returning from last night's raid declared they "never saw such fires" as those raging in Berlin's streets.

Prospective Wacs Are Invited to Visit Base

Panhandle women who are eligible to join the Women's Army Corps were issued an invitation today by Lt. Evan K. Shelby, WAC recruiting officer at Pampa Army Air Field, to visit the air base and see for themselves what life and work is like at an army post. They will also see what kind of work "Air Wacs" will be assigned to when they arrive at air fields like the one at Pampa.

In order to arrange for a tour of the field, all interested women have to do is to telephone Lt. Emma Yukna, at the WAC recruiting office located in the Pampa post office building, telephone 2280 or telephone Lt. Shelby at PAAF Pampa 1700 (Extension 215) and give their names and the date on which they'd like to visit the post. Arrangements will then be made to provide transportation to the field and qualified personnel will be assigned to conduct them on a tour of the base.

During the current "Air WAC" recruiting campaign, women between the ages of 20 and 50, married or single, may enlist for definite service with the army air forces. They are needed for positions as control tower operators, link trainer (blind flying) instructors, mechanics, office personnel, etc., to help solve the nation's critical manpower shortage and release fighting men for duty in combat areas.

Information on opportunities currently being offered to women enlistees may be secured from Lt. Yukna at the WAC recruiting office.

Japs Not Killed Stunned by Bombs BOUGAINVILLE, Nov. 24 (AP)—American planes have bombed the Japanese lines on the northern Solomons island so effectively that when it doesn't kill the Japs, it stuns them out of the fight.

That's the observation of Marine Lt. Col. W. K. Pottinger, Hillsboro, Tex., air operations officer.

Bombs dropped by American dive bombers and torpedo bombers fall within 150 yards of our own lines, he said, yet with one exception failed to cause casualties among U. S. Marines and soldiers.

The lone exception was a Marine who fainted in the excitement. He recovered, though, and went on fighting.

Pottinger said our troops were finding after these bombings that Japs who weren't killed were too stunned to resist.

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—The country's police are in knots because of two words—"reasonable promptness"—in a U.S. supreme court opinion.

sonable promptness" after making an arrest take a suspect before a judge who will give him a hearing, hold him for trial, fix his bail, or release him outright.

However, the indirect application of the opinion is worrying state and local police and sheriffs. Here's the story:

the heart of the government's case—was obtained involuntarily.

A number of decisions have been rendered on such constitutional questions.

Therefore, the court reasoned in reversing the conviction that the confession never should have been admitted to evidence in the trial because there are federal statutes saying suspects must be arraigned with some speed.

Those federal statutes vary. One says a suspect should be taken before a judge "immediately."

So what if the state and local courts, following the supreme court's lead, take a similar stand and throw out confessions obtained by police who do not rush a suspect before a judge?

Police and sheriffs—asking "what is reasonable promptness?"—raise questions like these:

If a man were arrested on Saturday night and court was in recess until Monday morning, would it be reasonable prompt to take him there Monday? Or would police face the chance of having any confession obtained from him during the week-end thrown out of court later?

Or, if a man were arrested while court was in session, would he have to be taken there immediately? Or could the arresting officers delay awhile to build up their case against him? And if so, how long?

It has long been American police custom to complete a case against a suspect before turning him over to a judge.

Some Taxpayers Must Pay Uncle Sam by Dec. 15

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Robert E. Hannegan, internal revenue commissioner, issued a reminder to taxpayers today that several million still have another date with him before year's end.

Many will receive advance notice in the form of a bill, but the remainder must decide for themselves whether they are required to file either an original or amended "declaration of estimated income and victory tax" before the Dec. 15 deadline.

In general the latter are:

- 1—Farmers who took advantage of the additional three months granted them under the pay-as-you-go tax act.
2—Persons who discover that they underestimated their tax by more than the allowable 20 per cent in filing Sept. 15 declarations.
3—Those who did not file in September because their estimated income then was insufficient to require a declaration but who now find:

(A) Their incomes will be above levels covered by the withholding levy ($2,700 if single and $3,500 if married);

(B) They will have more than $100 gross income from a source not subject to withholding, such as dividends or wages earned as a farm laborer or domestic servant, and total income sufficient to require a tax return ($500 for a single person, $1,200 for a married couple or $624 for an individual married person), or

(C) They were required to file an income tax return for 1942 and now expect their 1943 earnings to be less than last year's.

Hannegan said taxpayers who filed Sept. 15 declarations and paid only half the estimated tax still due will receive bills for the second half, payable by Dec. 15.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Judge Landis was 77 years old the other day but it was Bill Cox who got the birthday present from the judge. That permanent cough for the National League's Phillies head coach that Ford Frick would like to see must have worked to some extent, the league didn't have to issue a new buyer this time. . . . Col. Bill Jones and his staff have been checking every application for Army-Navy tickets with postal authorities to make sure they stay inside the ten-mile limit.

SLOW WHISTLE
Hearing about that Oklahoma Aggies-Arkansas game last Friday, when 80 passes were thrown, Frank Bridges, the football Dodgers scout and assistant coach, admitted that they really pitch 'em in the Southwest. . . . Frank recalled attending that kind of a game in Oklahoma some years ago and, toward the end, when a pass came sailing down the field with no receiver in sight, the umpire became excited and jumped up to make a perfect catch. . . . "Then he really got confused," said Frank, "while making his stand there wondering what to do, I patted him on the back and asked, 'Why not give the game back to the boys?'"

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
The reason Northwestern U. recently gave Coach Lynn Waldorf a new three-year contract (as we get it) was to head off a move to give Pamp's job to Tom Stidham of Marquette. . . . The latest major league bulletin lists only 30 scouts for the 16 clubs, but when somebody asked the Yanks' Paul Kritcheff the other day how many scouts there are in the United States, Paul asked: "What is the population of the United States?"

Heavyweight Jim Bowden probably set a record of some sort recently when he fought Buddy Scott in Beaumont on Monday night and Jimmy Carroll in Jacksonville, Fla., on Tuesday. After being stiffened by Scott in four rounds, Bowden was revived in time to catch a train for New Orleans. . . . There he changed to a plane and reached Jacksonville at 10 in the afternoon. The trip must have done him good; he only lost a decision to Carroll.

Gopher Tackle Rated Nation's Best Lineman

By TED MEIER
NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—(AP)—Big Paul Mitchell, Minnesota tackle grabbed honors as the outstanding lineman of the week on the national gridiron.

Playing against Wisconsin Mitchell's sweat-soaked No. 75 jersey was in virtually every play. He was outstanding both on defense and offense. On the second play of the game he took out two Wisconsin players with one block, springing Chuck Avery loose for a 61-yard touchdown run.

In the Southwest, Clyde Flowers, big Texas Christian tackle, again turned in a grand exhibition of blocking up the line and of blocking. He ran down Rice's fleet Bill Cruggs on the TCU 10-yard line after Cruggs had raced 73 yards with an intercepted pass. Flowers was injured in the last quarter. After he left the game Rice scored the winning touchdown.

Bill Henderson, guard on the Charleston N.C. coast guard eleven, recovered a blocked kick on the 15 against the Camp Gordon Tankers and scored a touchdown a couple of plays later.

Other outstanding linemen included: Johnny Jaffurs, Penn State guard; Gaston Bourgeois, Tulane guard; Fran Mattioli, Pitt guard; Frank Gruden, Kansas guard; Al Russell, Dartmouth end; Fred Rosen, Tulane tackle; Mike Rapko, Minnesota end; and Johnny Yonakor, Notre Dame end.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—(AP)—The office of price administration is "seriously considering" a general reduction in the ration-point cost of all types of meat.

An OPA spokesman, emphasizing that a final decision has not been made, said that meat supplies for civilians have improved in recent weeks and that the situation warrants a downward revision of point cost.

Democrats To Open Campaign On January 22

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—The Democratic party will open its 1944 campaign here Jan. 22 with a meeting of its national committee to select a time and place for the presidential nominating convention and with one more "Jackson Day" dinners at which party spokesmen are expected to provide "the answers to a lot of questions," said National Chairman Frank C. Walker.

tee has called a meeting in Chicago Jan. 10-11 to pick a convention site and date. The Democrats are expected to pick a much later date than the Republicans, especially if the president runs again. Most party spokesmen believe he will.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23 (AP)—Buying timidly continued as a brake on today's stock market and while scattered issues managed to register mild improvement, many leaders failed to emerge from the losing column. Blame for speculative and investment indifference was placed mainly on Wall Street's expectations that, with the all-out bombing of Berlin and other Axis centers, important news developments were in the making abroad.

Papoose Packin' Papa Hands Out Free Plans On How to Carry Your Baby Indian Fashion

DENVER, Nov. 24 (AP)—Babies too young to toddle have a friend in a papoose packin' papa who, besieged by requests from maams unable to buy cribs, is passing out a free blueprint for infantile bliss.

And he says the baby 4-month-old John Richard Gething Van Rensselaer Howe (Arapahoe Jack), seems happier.

A news photographer snapped Mrs. Howe as she was grocery shopping, with the cradle board on her back, and the nationwide distribution of the picture resulted in a heavy volume of mail from inquiring mothers.

Letters with a form message and drawings of how to make a cradle board (which requires about $1 worth of non-critical materials), has nothing to do with Howe's federal job, but it's an unexpected and unofficial war project that keeps him hopping.

Aside from solving the problem of cradle shortages, the cradle board has many advantages," said Howe. "In southern Utah, New Mexico and Arizona I noticed that Indian babies seem more observant than happer because they can see what goes on about them, whereas a white baby spends the first year of his life staring straight up, at the sky or the ceiling.

"In an automobile, the cradle board is leaned against the back of the seat and the baby can look out of the window. There's no danger of him falling to the floor if the car stops suddenly. If the baby gets sleepy while you're driving, the cradle board—the back of which is padded—is laid horizontally on the seat and provides a bed.

"The people who have been writing me enclose self-addressed envelopes," he added. "And, so with the forms of the drawings and message, it isn't so much work. I'm glad to help out."

Howe is a former Salt Lake City and Ogden, Utah, newspaperman. He gained his knowledge of Indians while touring reservations as an archaeological research student some years ago at Utah University.

Buying a new topcoat instead of digging out the old one is fine—but there's no chance of finding a dime tucked away in a pocket.

Jap Aggression In China Told In New Report

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 (AP)—Herberto unpublished details of Japan's relentless march from one act of aggression to another during "pre-war" days are revealed in a series of diplomatic documents published by the state department.

Nearly 700 such records are contained in the first volume of "Papers Relating to the Foreign Relations of the U. S. Japan, 1931-41. Volume 1." A second volume is expected in a few weeks.

Scattered throughout the record are repeated indications by the Japanese that they had no intention of acceding to American wishes, particularly in regard to aggression in China.

The story begins with the occupation of Manchuria by the Japanese in 1931, at which time Nelson T. Johnson, American minister in Peking, cabled the state department that a week before the Mukden incident he had been warned by John C. Ferguson, an American who was then an advisor to the Chinese government, that Japan would occupy Manchuria within three months.

The Japanese got away with it, though their action brought them under sharp American criticism.

By July, 1937, the Japanese were ready for another venture and invaded North China after the incident.

American Soldiers 'Honest Millionaires'

NEW YORK, Nov. 24 (AP)—Lessons in Italian are appearing in the Naples edition of Stars and Stripes, army newspaper. Don Holtenbeck, NBC reporter, radioed that the soldiers are practicing their syntax and pronunciation with pungent observations to the local citizenry, such as:

"Yes, I have no fiancée." "In civilian life in America, I was an honest millionaire."

Indiana safe crackers got only 12 boxes of pencils. Now they can write home for money.

This step enraged the Japanese, and from then on the position of Americans and American interests in China became progressively worse until the attack on Pearl Harbor.

PAMPA vs. AMARILLO

HARVESTER FIELD

Thursday, November 25

2:30 p. m.

Seven Harvesters Will Play Last Game

Pampa Holds Only 2 Wins Over Sandies

Thursday afternoon's title game between the Amarillo Sandies and the Pampa Harvesters here will be the last high school football clash for seven of the Pampa players.

Fullback Charlie Boyles, Halfbacks Gene Robbins and Reginald Bridges, Guards John Paul McKinley, J. C. Hopkins and Bobby Curtis, and Center Jerry Kerbow will wear the Green and Gold of Pampa High school for last time.

The Sandies, touted by Look magazine as one of the best, if not THE best, high school clubs in Texas, are decidedly the favorites in Thursday's clash, boasting an undefeated record, with sizeable scores over their opponents. Amarillo has won three conference games. Pampa has won two and lost one.

Amarillo triumphed over Childress 40-0, Abilene 41-12, Vernon 21-14, Austin of El Paso 33-0, Norman 13-6, Plainview 33-6, Shawnee 21-6, Lubbock 47-0 and Brownfield 21-0.

Plainview Lubbock and Brownfield were District 1-AA opponents.

The Harvesters have a record of only five victories, against three defeats.

Wins were over Weatherford 27-7, Phillips 13-0, Brownfield 26-6, Plainview 33-0 and Mangum 34-0. Pampa lost to Hollis 9-13, Lawton 0-21 and Lubbock 0-12.

The Amarillo club holds a lopsided advantage over Pampa in the 17 meetings between the two elevens winning 13, tying two and losing two.

As far as anyone locally can remember, the first meeting between Amarillo and Pampa football teams

FACTS ON THE GAME
WHO—Pampa versus Amarillo.
WHAT—Conference football game.

WHY—District 1-AA championship game.

was back in 1922, when three contests were played. The first two were ties, 9-9 and 3-3, but the Sandies took the third, 26-6.

There is a historical gap until 1927 when the Sandies blasted the Harvesters 26-0 on a muddy field during a heavy rainstorm at Amarillo.

Relations were not resumed until 1930 when a safety gave Amarillo a 2-0 victory.

The Harvesters defeated the Golden Sandstorm for the first time in 1931, 13-6, and didn't turn the trick again until 10 years later, in 1941, when they stopped an Amarillo winning streak of 22 straight games by bowling them over 16-12.

Amarillo's victories from 1932 on were by scores of 7-0; 1933, 9-6; 1934, 13-6; 1935, 13-0; 1936, 20-6; 1937, 6-0; 1938, 14-0; 1939, 14-6; 1940, 27-0; 1942, 39-7.

Pitching Prospect Turns to Gridiron

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—Hugh Taylor Wynne, Ark., a candidate for an end position on Tulane's football team, was considered a good prospect as a baseball pitcher before entering school here in the Navy Training program.

Taylor had a 2-week tryout with the Little Rock Travelers of the Southern Association at the start of the past season.

EXPERT COACHES TRAIN PAMPA HARVESTERS

Charles O. Criswell and Otis Coffey both came to Pampa High school for the first time this season. Coach Criswell from Anadarko, Okla., where he was coach of the high school there for 13 months; Coach Coffey, from Hobstown, where he was coach of the high school in the South Texas city. Both were new to the Panhandle. Coach Criswell is a graduate of the University of Arkansas; Coach Coffey of the University of Texas. Replacing men who had been directing athletics in Pampa High school for a total of nearly two decades, Coffey and Criswell started from scratch. Taking an inexperienced group of boys, Coaches Coffey and Criswell have in one season developed a football team that rates with any in the Panhandle.

Warriors Took Pampa Scalps 20-13 In 1909

October 17, 1909, just 22 years before Pampa scored its first 1-AA win over Amarillo, was the date of the first high school football game in Pampa, according to a story in the October 18, 1931, issue of the Pampa Sunday News-Post.

Miami and Pampa teams played on the field where now stands the Gray county court house.

Pampa, with only 12 men in uniform, met the strong Miami team and was defeated 20 to 13.

Ivy Duncan was captain of the Pampa team, Bob Elikos of Miami. Ernest McCarty called signals for Pampa with Frank George on the opposite side.

The Pampa team was composed of Duncan, captain; Ernest (Runt) Fletcher, Bunk Lard, Elbert Talbot, Joe Collins, DeLea Vickers, Lloyd Bennett, Ernest McCarty, Harlan Case, Howard Broadway, C. C. Sloan and Ross Deydler.

Ration Board Helps Hunter Recover $450

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo.—(AP)—Even the gasoline board tells a hunting story.

A hunter appeared before the board and sought gasoline to return to a big game area where he had lost his purse with $450.

They inquired how he reached the hunting area in the first place and he explained he had save "A" coupons for weeks, riding a bicycle to work.

Granted the gasoline, he returned later and turned in a left-over coupon for three gallons and announced he had found his purse and the money.

Dudley Makes Good In A Big Way

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va.—(AP)—Coach Frank Murray of the University of Virginia recalls the day he first set eyes on Bill Dudley, the former Cavalier star who later was a rookie backfield sensation for the Pittsburgh Steelers of the National Professional League.

Dudley was scarcely 15 years old the day he saw Murray, and did well to tip the beam at 140 pounds.

"What makes you think you're a football player?" Murray asked. Without waiting for an answer, Murray told Dudley he was too small, that he might have been good in the high school league at Bluefield and that he would run up against some really large, rough and tough boys.

When Murray had finished, Dudley said confidently, "Nobody's hurt me, yet."

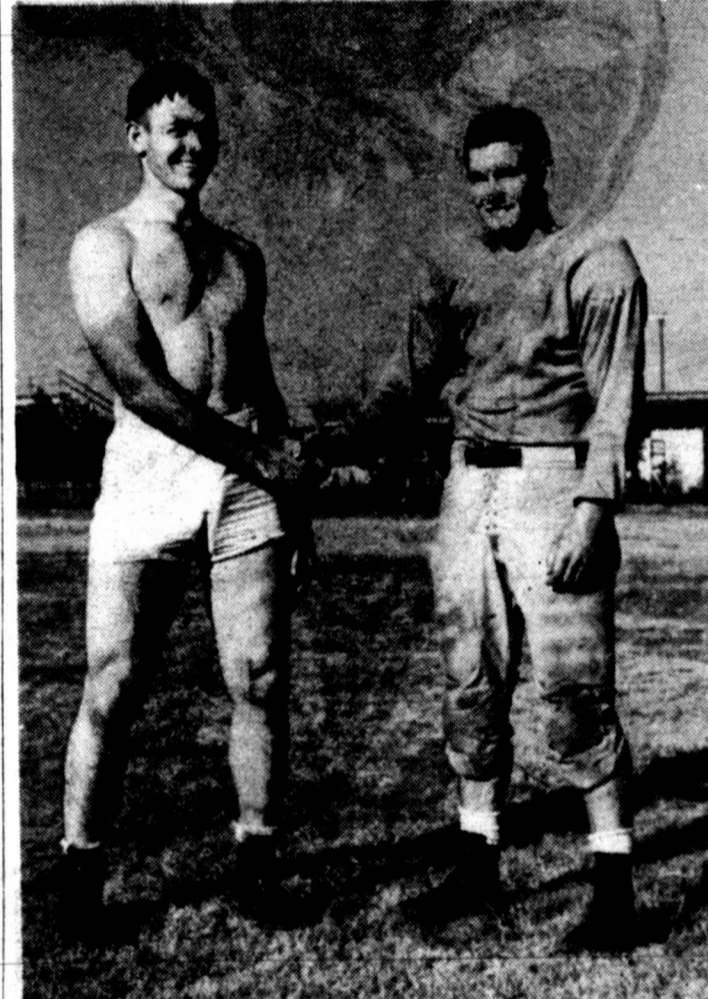

Nobody did hurt Dudley at Virginia either—he made the all-America selections in 1941.

Captains Of A Great Team . . .

Whenever you see No. 11 or No. 19, there's plenty of action. Big Charlie Boyles, No. 11, (wearing track suit) and John Paul McKinley, No. 19, co-captains, have led an inexperienced Pampa Harvester team through one of its greatest seasons. Pampa High school has won five of the eight games it has played thus far this season. Boyles is shown above wearing track shorts because he had been injured and wearing track garb kept him from taking part in scrimmage early this season. Boyles has been a thunderbolt in ramming the line, and makes consistent gains. He has accounted for 88 of Pampa's 142 points this season. McKinley, right guard, is the best high school guard in the Panhandle and a player who always "puts out" every ounce of fight, even when the game seems to be on ice. He has an uncanny faculty for spotting opposition plays and generally leads a flock of tacklers.

Move Over Buddy, Want Us to Lose?

LEXINGTON, Va.—Football coaches superstitious? Well, maybe not, but Coach Allison (Pooley) Hubert of Virginia Military Institute dislikes anyone to sit close to him on the bench. He also wants the players to sit on the bench in the second half the same way they did during the first half.

The players? Halfback Billy Collins wants the numbers on his jersey to add up to 17, and he wears 89. End MacLin Davis always looks at the scoreboard after each play. End Bill Stepleton puts his socks on first when dressing for a game. Right Tackle Bob Smith never laces his football shoes perfectly. Bryan Hicks, punter, always holds the valve on the right-hand of the seam. And the assistant coach wears the same suit to games as long as VMI is winning—when the team loses he changes.

Kicked Four Years Without A Block

TWIN FALLS, Idaho.—(AP)—County Prosecutor Everett M. Sweeley was the star punter of Fielding H. Yost's high scoring Michigan elevens of 1901-02. He says that in his four seasons of booting the pigskin for the Wolverines, he never had a kick blocked.

Sweeley never had seen a college football game until the one in which he competed as a Michigan freshman. In four seasons he missed only one game, the results of "a little row with a math professor."

Hostilities With Sandies Began in 1927

(The following is a word for word account of the Pampa-Amarillo football game in 1927, just as it appeared in the September 25, 1927, issue of The Pampa Daily News).

By STAFF CORRESPONDENT

AMARILLO, Sept. 24—A fighting Pampa eleven faced the heavy, fast Golden Sandstorm here this afternoon on a slipper field and fought the Amarilloans to two earned touchdowns. Harvester fumbles late in the game ran up the score against them, however, the final result being 26 to 0 in favor of the Sandies.

The score does not indicate the battle the Harvesters put up against the 32 Sandies who were used during the game. Hudgins, Amarillo fullback, scored the first touchdown by plunging 15 yards through right tackle in the first quarter. This came after three line plays and a long left end run, soon after play started.

The Harvesters tightened and held their own the rest of the quarter. The second period saw the Pampa boys plowing through the Sand Storm, and Roberts, fullback, was the chief offensive star. There was no scoring in this quarter.

In the third quarter, Walker, Amarillo right halfback, plunged 2 yards through the line for a touchdown after line bucks had run the ball near the goal line. These two touchdowns, with extra points by place kicks, represented Amarillo's driving power.

The fourth quarter was a loose affair, with the Harvesters opening up their offensive, only to see the breaks go against them. First, Walstad fumbled and Doebler recovered and ran 25 yards. A 20-yard run around left end took the ball across. A few minutes later Hudgins intercepted an attempted pass and dashed 40 yards for another counter. This ended the scoring. Neither try for goal in the fourth quarter was successful.

Amarillo's heavy backfield held the margin of victory. Hudgins was half of the Storm's fury, and Walker was sensational.

The Pampa line showed unusual early season form, and attracted undisguised commendation from the Amarillo fans. In the backfield, Roberts was the principal threat, although Walstad and Hardin showed flashes of form to match the occasional fumbling with the muddy ball. Stalls and Walstad were injured, but were able to stay in the game.

Each team blocked a kick. Amarillo made eight first downs, compared with Pampa's five. The Amarillo coach sent in a constant string of substitutes, some of whom showed up better than the starting lineup.

About 1,000 persons saw the game. Despite a hard rain, which almost halted traffic, more than 50 Pampa rooters drove through to boost the team. They returned last night after combatting much mud and many were loud in their praise of the impression the team made.

Gridgremlin 13 Hits Woodrow Wilson Team

That old jinx 13 figured in two of the three games played this season by Woodrow Wilson school, 800 E. Browning. They beat Sam Houston 13 to 0; lost to Horace Mann, the city champions, 13 to 6. In the other game, Woodrow Wilson was defeated by Baker, 7-0.

Football is the No. 1 sports interest of the Woodrow Wilson boys. Principal Harlan A. Yoder states there are 38 boys in the fifth grade at Woodrow Wilson, of whom 31 played football. These 31 comprised the squad, which was coached by Wayne Davidson and Jack Rose, junior high students.

AP To Select 2 All-America Football Teams

NEW YORK — The Associated Press will select two all-America football teams this season for the first time. They will be released next month.

One team—the 19th annual Associated Press team—will be a collegiate All-America. It will include both civilians and Navy and Marine trainees. Another team will be a Service All-America, comprised of players who have participated in games with Army, Navy, Marine or Coast Guard elevens.

The new arrangement differs from that of World War 1 when only one team was chosen. It was composed of service men all of whom had played collegiate football. The late Walter Camp made the selections at that time.

The 1943 collegiate All-America will be backed up by second and third team selections, along with the usual honorable mention list.

Present plans call for a second team among the service camps. A list of honorable mentions will also be announced.

Candidates for the All-America positions are now being lined up through reports from AP Sports writers in every section of the nation.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. — (AP) — Billy Carter, Central High School halfback, picks up a pretty penny for his scoring abilities.

Before each game, Carter carefully places a few pennies at the foot of the goal posts. After he scores a touchdown he picks up one of the coins for luck. So far, he's made nine trips to the money caches. And now, fellow players have started putting the pennies there for him so there'll be plenty of coins—and counters.

"Fighting Irish" Played Football 2,000 Years Ago

By PAT WIBBERLEY
(Former resident of Ireland who recently joined the Associated Press of Great Britain in New York).

(AP) Features
Two thousand or more years ago, a Gaelic warrior on Ireland's misty plains amused himself by kicking a round object with his feet. Legend says that the object was a human head. Other warriors joined in the fun and so was born the game of football.

Football is historically an Irish game, and nowhere in the world is it played with such individual gusto as in the Emerald Isle. Whether it is just straight forward soccer, or the rougher, faster and less skillful game of rugby, the Irish from the cradle to the grave are devotees of the leather covered airfilled ball.

Rugged Individuals
Sport in Ireland has a character all its own. Unlike their English neighbors who approach a contest with the attitude of "may the best team win," the Irish prefer the old battle cry of "every man for himself."

Every member of a football team in Ireland enjoys the game as an individual. This lack of teamwork has cost Ireland many a game in the international matches. The spectators, too, have this attitude. After a match, police or no police, they storm onto the field to congratulate their favorites, and argue, and fight, if necessary, with those who disagree with their views.

All this lends great color and zest to the sport in Ireland. A well known writer once said that if you could get the Irish to work as a team they would make one of the foremost nations of the world. The same holds true in sports. If Irish football players worked as a unit and not as skillful individuals, they would boast some of the world's outstanding football teams. The point is that you can't do anything about it—and many a manager's heart has been broken in the attempt.

Spence spared himself the humiliation of a 57-6 defeat at the hands of brother Jim—by reporting for induction into the armed forces. After all, it was Spence's first year as a coach and his little team boasted only 13 players.

Sonja Henie Falls Over Guard Rail

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 24 — (AP) — Sonja Henie, blond ice skating star, amazed 10,000 spectators here the other night as she tumbled over a rail into an isle in one of the numbers of her "Hollywood Ice Revue."

The motion picture star was skating backwards when she turned a somersault over the rail. The orchestra stopped playing and the big crowd was silent as Miss Henie sat for a moment with her head in her hands. Spectators helped her to her feet and she climbed back over the rail and resumed her act as the crowd gave her an ovation. She suffered minor bruises.

Baker School Wins 4 Straight Titles

Always in the running are the football teams of B. M. Baker school, 300 E. Tuke. For four years they held the city championship, turning out the city schools' best teams for 1939, 1940, 1941 and 1942.

This year they didn't win the crown but they gave Horace Mann a run for its money, being nosed out 6 to 0.

All the starters on the Baker grid team this year were fifth graders. Emulating the pessimistic Frank Leahy Notre Dame, Principal B. R. Nuckols dismisses Baker's football prospects for 1944 with one word: "average."

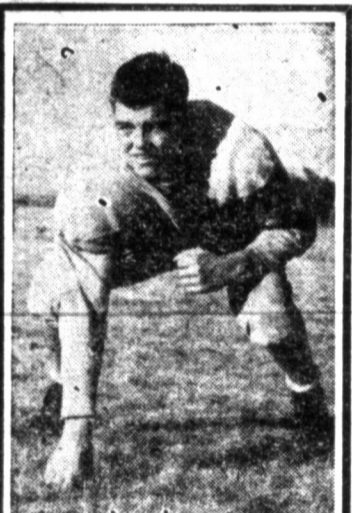

Which means that Baker will again be a hurdle that no other city school can call a push-over for Baker has consistently turned out good ward school teams.

Half of the boys in the fourth and fifth grades, from which the squad is drawn, as below that grade the boys are not allowed to play, went out for football this year. In all, there were 39 boys on the squad.

Losing the city championship still nettles the strong Baker eleven just a little. They're good sports and making no alibis, but they can't resist calling attention to the practice game they had with Horace Mann, not counting on the play-off, in which they beat the present city champs, 12 to 6.

Release of Whisky Supply Promised

NEW YORK, Nov. 24—(AP)—Early releases of some 4,000,000 cases of whisky to help relieve the shortage in monopoly states and other areas was in prospect today.

The National Distillers' Products Corp. announced the signing of an agreement between itself and 14 associates with Allied Mills calling for the purchase of assets and inventory of Century Distilling Co., Allied subsidiary, owners of about 250,000 barrels of whisky.

The government has released 100,000,000 extra pounds of lard for soap making. Between that and taxes we ought to be well cleaned.

Rafferty Won State Award On Sports Writing

MAYNARD RAFFERTY

A 1942 graduate of Pampa High school, Av/c Maynard W. (Mickey) Rafferty, 20 above, was both editor and sports editor of The Little Harvester, high school newspaper, for two years.

In his first year on the staff, Mickey won the Texas High School Press association award for the best sports story of the year. He also won the same award from the Panhandle High Schol association the same year.

Cadet Rafferty entered the army air forces in February, 1943, took the army's college course for two months at Texas Technological college, Lubbock, and was classified as a cadet. He is now stationed at Chico, Calif., and expects to begin his advanced training the first of December. Mickey has a younger brother, Scott, who doubles in brass at The Pampa News by being both advertising salesman and Good Many Friday to the sports editor. Scott knows his statistics and can get the 61point stuff on a football game better than anyone you ever saw.

Incidentally, Scott gets his pay from the counting room and does his sports statistics and helping the sports editor as a hobby, which proves that Scott is a real sportsman.

Scott, as well as his brother, is a Pampa High graduate. The school has been turning out some good sports writers. Frank Friauf, present sports editor of The Little Harvesters, knows sports, writes in a clear, concise style, and covers high school sports like a veteran.

Sturdy Young Reapers Could Play Football All Day Long

When it comes to liking to play football, the Pampa Junior High school Reapers can give any team in the Panhandle a run for their money.

Coach Haskell Folsom says his 12, 13, and 14-year-old players have the stamina and are anxious to play. "I really believe they could play a hard game of football every two hours all day long," he said.

The Reapers could play only four games this year, due to war time conditions that made it difficult to match games, but they won two out of the four, holding their opponents scoreless in two of the tilts.

Here's the way the 1943 season ran for the Reapers, in order:

Season Record

At Pampa, Canadian 14, Reapers 0; at Canadian, Canadian 18, Reapers 6; at Pampa, Phillips 0, Reapers 27; at Phillips, Phillips 0, Reapers 20.

Totals, Reapers 53, opponents 32. "Since discontinuance of the ninth grade in junior high," said Coach Folsom today, "all of our boys were coming out for football for the first time."

"It took time to perfect blocking, tackling, and synchronizing plays to be able to win games. These boys have the spirit. All they need is more age and more games to play."

"Due to their age we found it very hard to match any games at all, and were lucky to get home and home games with Canadian and Phillips."

Learned Fundamentals

"With another year's growth on these boys, and with the Pee-wees (sixth grade) that are coming on, we should have a pretty fair elementary grade team next year."

"I believe the boys were just beginning to learn the fundamentals of the game as the season closed because of lack of games."

Few Panhandle schools have junior high schools. The Pampa Junior High school this year consists of pupils of the sixth, seventh, and eighth grades; the ninth grade has been transferred to the high school.

This shift in the "most eligible" gridiron age pupils, combined with war time difficulties, made football a major problem in junior high this season, but the Reapers have too much spirit to let anything interfere with their participation, somehow, someday, in the great game.

Brother of Co-Captain

One of the Reaper players is Bobby Boyles, tackle, 13-year-old brother of Charlie Boyles, Harvester co-captain and back, who this Thanksgiving plays for the last time for the Harvesters, as he is a senior.

Putt Powell Of Amarillo Ace "Quiz Kid" Of Sports

It's unnecessary to keep record books on the Amarillo Golden Sandies—at least from 1925 to date—because there is a Sandie encyclopedia walking around Amarillo and he can answer any question on the Sandies and their performances since 1925. Also he can do the same about Amarillo baseball teams, including high school teams.

He is the one and only Putt Powell, sports writer for the Amarillo News-Globe.

Here's the Proof

If you don't believe it—just call and ask him who started the game with Pampa in 1931. He'll tell you, and not only that, he'll tell you who made each touchdown. Or go farther back. Ask him who started games in 1926 or 1928. He'll give you the entire line up and who scored the touchdowns.

Nope, it's not necessary for the News-Globe to bother keeping records or statistics—Putt knows all the answers.

The same is true in baseball. He can remember who played baseball when there was a high school league. He can tell who played every year Amarillo was in the Western League. He can do the same in the West Texas-New Mexico League.

Yep, Putt's really hot when it comes to remembering football and baseball records.

Putt for Cardinals

But he's not so hot when it comes to picking the world champions. This year he went all the way to New York and back to St. Louis to see his Cardinals win their second consecutive world championship—and look what happened.

Yea, Putt's back in town. He slipped in between sundown and sunup one night. He admits the Yankees are pretty good but he's still a Cardinal fan.

There's another thing that Putt's not so hot at—golf. He plays a wicked game, though, and some day he's going to find someone he can beat. He has his sights set on his regular partners who have been taking his money all summer—Harry E. Hoare, formerly of Pampa; Charles Whippo, formerly of Perryton, and Nard Cazzell, former Sandie football and basketball great. He also hopes to beat Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sikes some day. In fact, he played a tie round with Mrs. Sikes recently.

Putt also plays a hard game of biggest softball—with the Jaycees. His biggest headache during the past season was Eddie Sain, former Pampan, who was catcher for Pan-tex. He talked Putt out of many hits—Putt says.

Saw World Series

Since taking over the chief sports writing job with the News-Globe last year, Putt has been places. He not only saw the World Series but he accompanied the West Texas State Buff basketball team on their trips and accompanied the Sandie basketball district champions to the state tournament in Austin.

Putt started to work for the News-Globe in 1930—on the switchboard. He graduated from Amarillo High school in 1933—that was the year he was all district basketball manager. He worked at the post office and for Phillips but always managed to put some time in at the News-Globe, assisting in the sports department.

And he's a real sport, is Putt Powell. He'll be over with his Sandies for the Pampa-Amarillo game Thursday afternoon.

It's The Fighting Spirit That Counts, Says Virginian

While it is true that a good little man is not as good as a good as a good big man, you don't have to be a Goliath and Samson combined to make good in either football or war, in the opinion of the University of Virginia coach, quoted in the Associated Press story below.

By ROBERT MOORE

CHARLESTON, Va.—Frank J. Murray, head football coach at the University of Virginia, is having a good time laughing these days.

"Things like this would make even Mussolini laugh," Murray chuckles, holding up a newspaper. "Here's a coach who has to play the lightest line in history—only 188-pounds average. And a backfield that sinks to 'a mere 186'."

"Does he realize," says Murray, "that Frank Hinkey was a hellion on wheels at 155? An end that light would bring the other fellows in the line considerably above 190—which is big enough for any line, any time, anywhere—if it possesses speed and maneuverability. Those are the ingredients we look for."

"And this backfield hokum. Two years ago, we had a sweet backfield. It averaged 173 pounds. They had the moxie, that's the answer. "It's not the physical size that makes football players. A small back can be awfully good if he has a big heart."

Murray produced a clipping. "And here—an old friend of mine laments because 'one razor would take care of the entire squad.' So what?"

"I thought college football was supposed to be a boy's game. And we should be the last people on earth to criticize a sport reverting to its natural habitat. "Let's forget the old idea that a chap has to be a voter before he can grade the varsity emblem. Some of our grandest heroes on the war fronts are itty-bitty chaps who wouldn't rate a second glance when they walked across the football field. But what hearts they conceal in those physically inferior bodies.

"Too many coaches are meeting a war-time emergency with a peace-time philosophy. Still thinking of their reputations. How silly. The coaches ought to have as much fun as the boys.

"Some folks are over-ambitious. Occasionally, you meet a football coach who would not be satisfied to make the first team in Heaven. He would want to quarterback the squad. Even if it meant moving St. Peter out of the heat he has held so long. Phooey on such ginks."

Shipper Wins In Railroad Suit

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 — (AP) — The supreme court has ruled that a railroad may not sue a shipper for freight charges after expiration of the three-year period allowed by statute, when the shipper had entered into an agreement to waive this time limitation.

Railroad Labor Ruling Issued

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 — (AP) — The supreme court has ruled that a federal district court did not have the power to review the action of the national mediation board in certifying the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen as bargaining representative of all yardmen employed by the New York Central Railroad Co. The Switchmen's Union, which lost to the brotherhood, contended that the election should have been limited to yards involved in a dispute over representation and should not have included the entire railroad.

Small Business Asks for Help

WASHINGTON, Nov. 23—(AP)—Small business has asked congress for a "break" in contract terminations and the distribution of surplus government goods when the war ends.

The post-war committee headed by Senator George (D-Ga.) heard a plea by Lou Holland of Kansas City, former head of the Smaller War Plants Corp., that congress help the little fellow regain his old status in the period after the war.

Soviet Magazine Attacks Japan

MOSCOW, Nov. 24—(AP)—The Soviet labor magazine, War and the Working Class, asserts that "extremist elements" in Japan have worked against Russia in behalf of Germany.

Without elaboration, the publication said that Japan had been pushed into war despite a shortage of materials, then added:

"In their hopes of a victory of Fascist Germany over Europe, these extremist elements in Japan also inspired various anti-Soviet plans."

(The statement was one of the strongest to come through Russian censorship in recent months. Russia and Japan signed a five-year neutrality pact in Moscow in 1941 and Russia has kept her hands off in the Pacific war.)

Only 22 On Mann Squad But Team Won '43 Crown

With a third less boys out for football than at the other ward schools, Horace Mann school had the power to forge to the 1943 city school championship, upsetting B. M. Baker's four-year hold on the throne.

Football season for the Horace Mann team closed with a hard-earned V for Victory, when Horace Mann played off a scoreless tie with B. M. Baker school to win the city championship. Other games and scores were: Baker 0, Horace Mann 0; Sam Huston 7, Horace Mann 19; Woodrow Wilson 6, Horace Mann 13; Baker 0, Horace Mann 0.

Starting line-up and ages for Horace Mann included: Dale Cary, 11; Refugio Hernandez, 11; Carroll Heflin, 10; and Jerry Parsley, 11, backs; and linemen John Dunaway, 10, Keith Lane, 10; James Shelton, 10; Melvin Crowover, 10; Robert Nix, 11; Rex Brown, 10, and Marvin Bond, 9.

Don Mark Davis, 9, started the season at center, and alternated with Dunaway later in the season. Other boys out for practice regularly were Harold Comer, Jarold Comer, Alfred Smith, Dale McLaughlin, Bobby Schiffman, Bill Standish, Dan Rawls, Gerald Marlar, Bobby Porter and Jimmy Bond.

Exes Coach Team

Miss Elizabeth Ann Sewell, fourth grade teacher at Horace Mann, supervised the team. Wayne Broyles, Harvester griddier, started the season as coach, with Harbord Cox and Derral Davis of the Reaper squad finishing the season as coaches. Cox and Davis are former Horace Mann students.

The percentage of boys out for grade school football was smaller than usual due to the practice hours being after school, many boys riding buses could not come out.

Those most closely connected with the game hope not only to have started some potentially fighting Harvesters, but to have started and fostered the idea of team spirit, fair play and to have given the boys a taste of the friendly opposition they will meet, not only on the gridiron, but in the business of every day living, says Miss Josephine Thomas, Horace Mann principal.

"An 11-year-old boy (the average grade school football player) learns many things by playing a game. Besides developing his physical body by exercise and fresh air, he develops coordination of mind and body that is valuable. He learns that every player on any team can't carry the ball; somebody has to block for it.

"E. learns that one man or one fumble can cost the whole team a down or even a score. He learns that the idea expressed in the Horace Mann school song, "all for one and one for all" must prevail or nothing is gained. We hope he learns that:

RICHMOND, Va.—(AP)—Paul Jack, 160-pound tailback for Thomas Jefferson High school, has a good start on going down in football's record book as the hard-luck griddier of all time.

Here's what happened to Jack:

1. He ran 60 yards for a touchdown but the play was nullified because a guard was offside.
2. He raced 45 yards to score but the play was called back because a teammate was charged with holding.
3. Sped 50 yards to another score, but an official said he stepped out of bounds.
4. Carried the ball 70 yards on a punt return, but a guard was offside.

Sam Houston Turns Out Gridiron 'Army'

They go for football at Sam Houston school, 900 N. Frost, like Sam Houston went after Santa Anna. There are 130 boys in the third, fourth, and fifth grades at Sam Houston school and 108 tried out this year.

One coach alone could not handle 108 all-American boys, full of energy and Texas spirit, so the squad had to be cut down to 31. Ever then, there were only seven footballs for them to use. The balls were of good quality, costing $10 each.

In one fifth grade room at Sam Houston there are 12 boys, of whom 10 were out for football; in another room of the same grade, there are 16 boys, of whom eight, were among the gridiron aspirants.

Scored on Mann
Although the Sam Houston team lost all of its three games this season, it managed to score a touchdown over Horace Mann, the city championship team, and was nosed only by only one touchdown by the strong B. M. Baker eleven. Scores of the Sam Houston team this season were:

Sam Houston 0, Woodrow Wilson 13; Sam Houston 0, B. M. Baker 7; Sam Houston 7, Horace Mann, 19.

J. Aaron Meek, Sam Houston principal, praised ward school football as teaching boys of from 10 to 14. "How to coordinate muscles and mind; fair play, to win without boasting, lose without whining; necessity of obeying commands instantly; the great importance of clean body and minds; the ability to cooperate with one's fellowman and to play their part of the game well whether it is the part that gets the praise from the crowd.

"Football is the one sport that can be conducted in ward schools in which a large number of boys can participate and have wholesome fun and at the same time develop themselves physically and mentally with a minimum danger of getting hurt."

Frank Green, junior high school student, was coach of the Sam Houston team this year.

He Kicks Better Without Shoe

ODESSA, Texas—(AP)—The railbirds were watching the youngster plate-kick from 55 yards out.

The ball was splitting the up-rights but he was kicking it far and high enough. A strong wind was the handicap.

Now lots of guys can send the pigskin that far but how many can do it without shoes?

Eugene (Blue Eyes) Clark, 16-year-old guard on the Odessa High school team, does it. Moreover, if conditions are right he can score the points, too.

Not only does Clark make the conversions for Odessa but he also kicks off and the ball usually goes down to the opposing team's five-yard line.

One day in practice he kicked from one goal line and the ball rolled over the other.

"When I was a kid," says Clark, "I always played barefooted. I learned to kick that way and now I just can't kick with shoes on."

He opens a game with one shoe on and one off, kicks the ball and sometimes plays for several minutes before he finds time to get that other shoe on.

But he's not just a specialist. He's a power in that Odessa line that has been holding the opposition to less than 60 yards a game.

Pampa-Amarillo Game Thursday 14th In Series

For 13 years, not including 1943, the Pampa Harvesters and the Amarillo Golden Sandstorm having been playing against each other in District I-AA competition.

Out of the 13 games played, Pampa has won only two, winning 13 to 6 in 1931, and then in 1941, 10 years later, 16 to 12.

Worst whipping that Pampa has taken from Amarillo to date was in 1942, at Amarillo, when the Sandstorm juggernaut ran over the crippled Harvesters eleven, 39 to 7.

The lowest score in any game of the series was in the first encounter, in 1930, when the Harvesters were nosed out 2 to 0. In five other years, Pampa was also blanked, failing to register a single point. Those years, with scores:

1932, 7-0; 1935, 13-0; 1937, 6-0; 1938, 14-0; 1940, 27-0.

The complete record:

Texas Education Plan Approved

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24 — (AP) — The Texas state department of education's proposed program for war foods production training has been approved by the federal security agency.

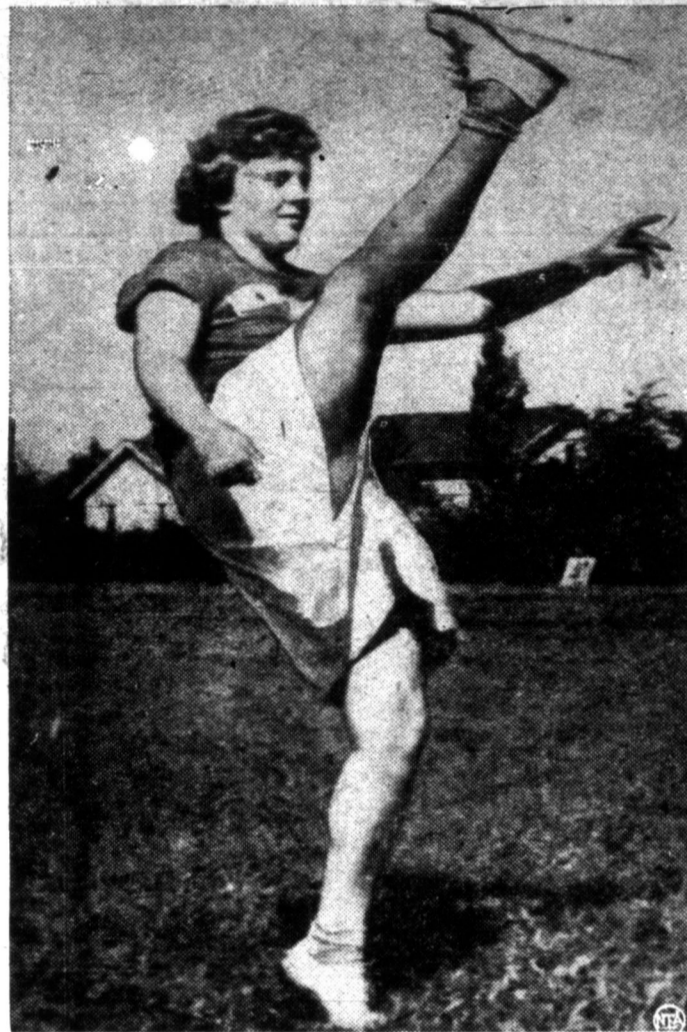

The Texas program seems to be a very good one, Dr. W. T. Spanton, head of the security agency's foods production training division, commented yesterday in announcing approval.

Under the program, Texas officials would conduct courses throughout the state to stimulate increased food production. Federal funds are used.

In Austin, Robert A. Manire, state director of vocational agriculture, said the program yet must be approved by the state board of education, which meets in Austin early next month.

The veterans will be entitled to anything a grateful nation can give them. They must come back to more opportunity than they ever had before they left for overseas. —Gov. Earl Warren of California.

CAN USE THIS NIFTY KICKER?

When women are working in munitions plants, making carbon black, repairing railway lines, it's not so surprising to find some are good football players, too. Pampa and Amarillo both have to bow to New Castle, Ind., for the claim to having a girl on the team. Shown above, buxom, Agnes Rifner, 16, and a junior, who has averaged better than four out of five points after touchdown with dropkicks for New Castle, Ind., High school, and who is the subject of the Associated Press feature story below:

(AP) Features. NEW CASTLE, Ind.—No matter how you look at it, blonde Agnes Rifner, 16, is causing quite a stir in Indiana High school football circles. She is—or was—the star dropkicker for Coach S. M. (Griz) Baker's New Castle High school eleven, and since Baker had 60 answer his call for grid aspirants, Aggie must be good. She got in one game but missed two tries for extra points. Then the Indiana High School Athletic association called Baker's attention to the rule forbidding "mixed" personnel on teams. Baker's best answer is: "Actually she won't be in the game because time is out when the 'extra point attempt is made.' Baker first noticed Aggie a year ago last spring when rain drove his spring-training candidates indoors during a girls' gym class. This was Aggie's chance. She switched from her class and promptly took her position as full-back and threw a perfect pass. Later she began to concentrate on the dropkick, virtually a lost art. "Boy, how she loves football," says Baker. "She's out there on the field every day." Aggie's brother, Sgt. John Rifner of the Army Air Corps, now overseas, played fullback for the local Trojans a few years ago. Those who know the Rifners say Aggie is a better kicker than her brother. —BUY VICTORY STAMPS—

Golden Sandstorm Wins State Schoolboy Grid Title 4 Times

Pampans can't agree entirely with Harold V. Ratliff, Associated Press sports editor, that the "synonym for football is Amarillo," but they fully recognize the gridiron prowess of the Golden Sandstorm that well rated an article in a recent issue of Look magazine.

The following story is an excellent account of Amarillo's rise to football glory, the background of its magnificent team, and a good, though brief, history of its football teams.

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

AMARILLO—In Texas the synonym for football is Amarillo. When you say Golden Sandstorm you mean championship.

Dictionaries don't carry them like that but folks in other states might as well understand right now that Texas has a language all its own when it comes to football.

In a period of nine years Amarillo has won the State schoolboy grid title four times; and in fifteen years the Golden Sandies have won their district championship ten times, losing only 18 games while winning 160.

Amarillo had football teams long before 1928 but that's the time of the renaissance as far as the people of this Panhandle city are concerned.

That was the year Hugh Butler's plan started paying off.

Butler came to Amarillo from Sherman in 1927 to coach the Golden Sandstorm. The first thing he did was to install a system of football development that meant a top-notch team each season.

He organized a junior high school league that called for full-time playground had footballs and a regular teacher to supervise a lighter variety of game. He encouraged all boys to carry footballs around with them as soon as they were big enough to hold them.

Butler died in the spring of 1928 but he had so sold himself to the city—and on the value of winning football teams—that they named the high school gridiron after him.

Up through the years the Sandstorm has gathered power. In 1930 Amarillo went to the State finals; in 1933 the Sandies were undefeated but were ruled out because of an ineligible player.

Then, in 1934, they surged to their first State championship. In next two years it was the same story. It was 1940 before they won another title but they were teams to be reckoned with in every year.

The war somewhat curtailed Amarillo's football program but this season the Sandies got off to a winning start, rolling up 135 points in the first four games.

They even whisper around town that this may be the mightiest Sandie team of them all.

There have been only three head coaches since Butler. Two of them were signed by colleges. The third—Howard Lynch—has been leading the Sandies since 1937.

If Amarillo wins the State championship this year it will mean that the Sandies will have established an all-time record for titles in Texas.

News Vital to Men, MacArthur Asserts

SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA. Nov. 24—(AP)—News is as important to soldiers in the front lines as bread and bullets, General Douglas MacArthur said today.

Occasion for his tribute to the fighting value of news was the first anniversary of the New Guinea army newspaper Guinea Gold, whose daily Australian and American editions are carried to the front by plane, ship and native couriers.
