YOU'D BETTER WATCH OUT — Santa Claus is coming to town this Thursday for the City's annual Santa Day Parade. In preparation for the event, city employees have been working to get the traditional street decorations in place on Hobart and several downtown streets. The parade will begin at 3 p.m. Thursday, with Santa visiting with the children before and after the parade.

City Begins Festive Season; Santa Claus Parade Thursday

With Christmas just around the corner, the City of Pampa has begun to prepare for the festive season spirit by putting up its traditional street decorations.

Working over the weekend, the city employees placed the long green streamers with the bright red bells across sections of Hobart and several downtown streets.

All of the street decorations are expected to be in place in time for the annual Santa Day Parade on Thursday. City Manager Mack Wofford said.

The lights will not all be connected by then, he added, so it will be several days yet before all the decorations are lit up.

The city's annual parade, featuring Santa Claus, is set for 3 p.m. Thursday, with prizes being offered for the best parade entries.

Cash prizes of $100, $50 and $25 will be awarded winners in the Non-Commercial Division, with plaques presented to the top three winners in the Commercial Division.

Winners of the Pet Section and the Bike Section will receive cash prizes of $15, $10 and $5.

The parade, with bands from Coronado Center and then move south on Hobart to Ward St., south on Ward to Francis, east on Francis to Cuyler and south on Cuyler to Craven, where the parade will end.

Out-of-town judges will select the winners. Prizes will be awarded at 5 p.m. Dec. 1 at the Chamber of Commerce office.

Santa Claus, who will ride in the parade on top of the City's new fire truck, will visit with the children before the parade at Santa's House in Coronado Center and at Santa's House downtown after the parade.

The Nativity scenes in Central Park will be lighted on the evening of Tuesday, Dec. 19.

Thieu's Government Asks For Role In Secret Talks

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnam was reported today to have taken the position that North Vietnam will have to negotiate with it directly in Paris before any break-through can be made in concluding a peace agreement.

South Vietnamese sources, watching developments in Paris, also said that both sides will have to make some concessions.

The newspaper Tin Song, controlled by the Presidential Palace, said the dispatch to Paris of Hoang Duc Nha, President Nguyen Van Thieu's closest adviser, indicates that there will be significant developments in Paris in the coming days.

Sources said Nha will head a team of South Vietnamese negotiators dealing with Henry A. Kissinger when the secret talks between President Nixon's security adviser and Hanoi's Le Duc Tho resume Dec. 4. Nha also would be available to join the secret talks directly, should North Vietnam agree, the sources added.

Tin Song said it is widely known that the position of South

Vietnam is that North Vietnam must withdraw its troops from the South, the demilitarized zone must be re-established at the 17th Parallel demarcation line and the position and responsibility of the so-called National Council of Reconciliation and Concord must be clearly defined.

CAMP DAVID, Md. (AP) — President Nixon scheduled his third meeting in as many days with Henry A. Kissinger today, possibly as a prelude to a show-down with the South Vietnamese on terms of a proposed Vietnam ceasefire.

Nixon, who flew to his Maryland mountain retreat here Sunday night after spending the weekend in New York City, arranged to confer during the afternoon with Kissinger, his chief negotiator to the secret Vietnam peace talks in Paris.

The meetings came amid speculation by administration sources that an interruption in the Paris peace talks may mean the United States has decided to tell South Vietnam that no more concessions can be won from North Vietnam in a ceasefire agreement.

The talks, which adjourned Saturday, are scheduled to resume Dec. 4.

U.S. Ambassador Ellsworth Bunker met for 10 minutes today with South Vietnamese President Nguyen Van Thieu in Saigon. There was no announcement on what was discussed, but one source said Bunker may have delivered a private message to Thieu from President Nixon.

Thieu's senior foreign policy adviser, Nguyen Phu Duc, was expected to arrive in Washington from Paris today or Tuesday. The White House said over the weekend that Nixon had agreed to a request from Thieu to receive Duc for discussions of the ceasefire negotiations in Paris.

Administration officials had said as late as Friday that Nixon would not meet Duc, and the apparent change of mind was regarded by other sources as significant.

The President met with Kissinger twice while in New York—for an hour late Saturday night, after Kissinger returned from Paris, and again for an hour Sunday morning.

Some observers suspected that a decision by Le Duc Tho, Hanoi's chief negotiator, to remain in Paris while Kissinger returned here for consultations indicated the main negotiating problem is between the United States and Saigon.

Administration sources said that if the talks between Kissinger and Thieu had reached an insurmountable barrier, the negotiations would have been broken off indefinitely as in the past, rather than being rescheduled for Dec. 4.

Nixon is expected to spend most, if not all, of the week at Camp David, dealing with the Vietnam negotiations and his plans for reorganizing the federal bureaucracy.

He scheduled a morning appointment today with Atty. Gen. Richard G. Kleindienst. The last member of the Cabinet to discuss reorganization with the chief executive, Kleindienst has been rumored to be on the verge of leaving his Justice Department post.

Six Mice Will Journey To Moon With Apollo 17

SPACE CENTER, Houston (AP) — Six mice about the size of a man's thumb will go to the moon with Apollo 17, but it won't be a happy trip for the small rodents. They'll travel steerage class all the way, with no view, no service and no future when they return.

The animals, which roamed a California desert only a short while ago, are called pocket mice.

They will travel to the moon and back in individual plastic cylinders sealed in an airtight aluminum box and stored in a closed compartment aboard Apollo 17. Their trip will be made in total darkness and scientists expect they'll spend most of the time sleeping.

Although they'll never get a view of where they've been, scientists hope the mice will contribute to man's future exploration of space.

Dr. David Winter, director of Life Sciences at the Ames Research Center, said that during the trip the mice, along with the three astronauts aboard, will be bombarded by cosmic radiation from deep space.

High energy particles will penetrate the spacecraft, the mice and the men on Apollo 17 soars above the Van Allen Belt that protects earth from such radiation.

When the mice return, they will be sacrificed and scientists will spend months studying their pea-sized brains in a search for damage caused by the radiation.

"This will give us a chance to see the effects of cosmic radiation on a biological species," says Winter. "Right now, we have no data points at all."

Knowledge of how cosmic radiation can affect brain tissue will be vital when man one day begins to explore distant planets, which will require months of space travel to reach.

Astronauts traveling between the earth and moon have reported seeing bursts of light and flashes during periods when their space cabin was dark.

AMA Action Asked To Protect Public

CINCINNATI, Ohio (AP) — The American Medical Association has been urged to take strong action to protect the public against a "significant problem" of alcoholism, drug dependence and other psychiatric disorders among practicing physicians.

The Council on Mental Health of the AMA's Board of Trustees made the call on Sunday to the AMA's policy-making House of Delegates at the opening of the organization's 26th clinical convention.

The group suggested that the number of such emotionally sick doctors is relatively small, compared with the total number of doctors in the United States. But it said there is consistent evidence that such problems exist and that, occasionally, they jeopardize such doctors' accountability to the public.

And it added that one study has reported that estimates of the incidence of narcotic addiction in physicians "varies from 30 to 100 times that in the general population" — indicating that such addiction is an occupational hazard for physicians.

The council urged the AMA to approve a series of graduated guidelines, short of disciplinary action, to get such sick doctors to concede their problem, seek professional help and possibly curtail or suspend practice voluntarily.

But it also recommended that, if there is a failure from such referrals to the doctors' "peers" — including hospital staffs and medical societies — the matter "should be referred to the appropriate licensing body in the state."

Citing some other figures to illustrate the scope of the problem, the council said:

... In just a decade, 140 drug-dependent physicians have been brought before their disciplinary bodies in three of the smaller states ... Arizona, Connecticut and Oregon ... with an equal number of physicians appearing for alcoholism and a small, but significant, number of other mental illnesses.

Police Hunt Holdup Man At McLean

McLEAN — A lone holdup man driving a brown car with brown vinyl top robbed a service station in McLean Sunday night and left in the direction of Amarillo.

On the alert, Pampa officers stopped a vehicle similar in description to the getaway car but the occupants of same were not involved in the holdup. Meanwhile, the search goes on across the Panhandle for the man who asked the station attendant for change then showed him the butt of a gun in his waistband and asked for "all the green stuff."

The station employe, a high school youth, was not injured.

Three Officers Interview Calley On Clemency Appeal

FT. BENNING, Ga. (AP) — A three-officer panel visited Lt. William L. Calley Jr. today to interview him and hear his appeal for clemency in his 20-year sentence for murdering 22 Vietnamese civilians at My Lai.

Calley, 29, has been under house arrest at his small, red brick apartment on this infantry post since April 1, 1971.

The three clemency and parole officers were accompanied to the apartment by Maj. John Wiley, confinement officer at Ft. Benning.

The hearing was closed to both Calley's lawyers and to newsmen.

George W. Latimer, Calley's lawyer, said in a telephone interview from his home in Salt Lake City that the officers would "interview him, ask him questions."

"He can state anything he wants," Latimer said. "I've advised him to be prepared to make the best showing he can. Surely he will make a plea."

The rusty-haired former platoon leader received a life sentence, but that term later was reduced to 20 years.

Of 25 men once accused and six who stood trial in connection with the My Lai massacre, only the 29-year-old Calley was convicted of criminal responsibility for civilian deaths during an American infantry sweep through the South Vietnamese hamlet.

and Capt. Ray V. Smith. Not even Calley's lawyers, who requested the speed-up of the clemency process, are allowed to attend the private hearing.

The visit of the clemency board comes only a week before Calley's attorneys ask court to have his conviction thrown out. The U.S. Court of Military Review will convene at Falls Church, Va., Dec. 4 in a separate proceeding to hear a brief contending that Calley's court-martial contained at least 32 errors.

Latimer said in the clemency petition filed by Calley's lawyers that the board was asked "to take a look at requirements for parole."

"In the petition to the Court of Military Review, Calley's lawyers claimed errors in trial ranging from command influence to suppression of evidence and violation of constitutional rights.

Citizens May Protest Telephone Rate Boost

Reports today indicated there may be some citizen protests tomorrow when the Pampa City Commission meets to discuss and possibly take action on Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's request for a 16.9 per cent overall increase in basic telephone rates.

The meeting is scheduled for 8:30 a.m. in the City Commission Room on the main floor of City Hall.

According to Gary Stevens, local SWB manager, the rate hike would put Pampa on the same schedule with Borger and Plainview where the requested rate has been in force for two years.

The utility firm claimed in its request for the increase that it is not receiving a fair return on its investment in Pampa where current phone rates have been in effect since 1958.

The company is asking the following increases: Business phones, from $10.75 a month to $13.50; residential phones from $5 to $6.25; two-party lines from $4 to $4.90 and PBX from $16.50 to $20.25 a month.

The utility claims in its request that it now is receiving only a 2.9 per cent net return. The increase, it says, would move that figure to 4.1 per cent.

Southwestern Bell says its property in Pampa is valued at $5,565,000 and the increase, if granted, would bring in an additional $200,000 annual revenue.

According to City Manager Mack Wofford, there is a possibility the city commission, may come up with a counter-proposal in an effort to reach a compromise on the proposed rate hike.

The company has been asked if it would consider such a proposal. No answer has been received from Southwestern Bell company, Wofford said today.

B52s Keep Up Attack On N. Viet

SAIGON (AP) — Heavy fighting raged just below the demilitarized zone today while U.S. B52 bombers kept up the attack on North Vietnam.

North Vietnamese gunners slammed more than 2,500 shells into South Vietnamese troops trying to expand their territorial control in Quang Tri, South Vietnam's northernmost province.

Both South Vietnamese marines pushing from Quang Tri City up the coastal plain and paratroopers pressing westward into the foothills came under heavy attack over the weekend.

Eighteen South Vietnamese troops were reported killed and 77 wounded, while 32 North Vietnamese were reported killed.

The B52s struck around North Vietnam's Highway 7, the supply line that leads through the Barthelemy Pass into the Plain of Jars in northern Laos, 155 miles southwest of Hanoi. U.S. officials reported Hanoi was making a massive effort to supply North Vietnamese troops advancing through the Plain of Jars.

The B52s also struck in support of South Vietnamese forces battling along the DMZ and to the south of the buffer zone. The eight-jet bombers launched more than 20 strikes to the west, northwest, north and southwest of Quang Tri City.

The U.S. Command reported that monsoons again sharply curtailed operations by U.S. fighter-bombers in the southern panhandle of North Vietnam, limiting them to about 30 strikes Sunday.

It was the 10th straight day the smaller planes have flown less than 100 strikes; and, on most of these days, the number has been under 50.

The Command reported that a Navy F8 jet crashed at sea from mechanical failure while returning from a mission over South Vietnam Sunday. The pilot was rescued uninjured.

North Vietnam claimed its forces shot down an unmanned U.S. reconnaissance plane over Haiphong today. The U.S. Command declined comment. It is known that, while U.S. military activity has been halted above the 20th parallel, the unmanned spy planes still are being used in the Hanoi-Haiphong region, which is above the line.

Saying he was seeking reorganization of the Democratic party "from top to bottom," Wallace said he had authorized aides to open a Washington office to campaign for the replacement of National Committee Chairman Jean Westwood.

He declined to say whom he supported to replace Mrs. Westwood, who was appointed to the post by defeated Democratic presidential candidate George McGovern. But he said the new chairman must represent his views, which he said were supported by "the great mass of middle-class Americans."

The governor said he has not decided whether to seek the presidency in 1976 but said he would "not rule it out."

Gov. Wallace Seeking To Reorganize Party

MIAMI (AP) — The Democratic party faces "oblivion" if it does not heed the message of the voters and move more to the right of the political spectrum, Alabama Gov. George Wallace says.

Wallace came to Miami for a Thanksgiving holiday and appeared on NBC's Meet the Press television program Sunday.

"I'm sure the stubborn and obstinate may not have got the message, but the vast majority of the party did," Wallace told interviewers, referring to his victories in several Democratic primaries.

"If the party leaders don't get the message, the Democratic party as we know it will go into oblivion. It will be no more," said Wallace, who appeared at a Miami television studio for the show's taping. His bid for the Democratic presidential nomination was

68 Die As Violence Hits Peak In Texas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Deaths in auto accidents and from other forms of violence took a staggering toll in Texas during the Thanksgiving holiday weekend.

Reports continued to come in after the period expired at midnight Sunday, pushing the total number of fatalities at a late hour to 68 and including 35 in traffic. Gunfire killed 21 others.

The Associated Press tabulation started at 6 p.m. Wednesday. These were among the latest to die:

Witnesses reported the car of Richard F. Selcer, 63, of Fort Worth ran out of gas eight miles north of Fort Worth on Interstate 35 West and another vehicle hit him as Selcer, carrying an empty fuel can, stepped into the roadway en route for fuel.

An oil well explosion at Vealmoor, in Howard County, fatally injured Paul L. Yngst, 59, of Ackerly, in the same vicinity, and he died several hours later Sunday at a Lubbock hospital.

James Edward Sanford, 41, of San Antonio was thrown out as his car overturned. He was crushed under the auto Sunday as it ran off Farm Road 2523 about 30 miles north of Del Rio on the Mexican border.

Three El Paso residents were killed late Sunday when three cars collided on U.S. 290 about four miles west of Ozona. Those killed were James Snow, 24; Kathleen Bruce, 19, and James Mansill, 21. Officers theorized the three vehicles smashed together as one tried to pass another. Margaret Alameda Hoover, 70, of Ozona was injured in the accident.

Marie Kane, 67, of Dallas died Sunday when she was struck by an automobile as she walked into an intersection. The accident occurred in the east part of the city.

James B. Shepherd, 29, of Houston was shot to death Sunday as he stood in the front yard of a Houston home. The owner of the house was arrested.

Alfred D. Howerton, 39, of San Antonio was shot to death Sunday outside an Alamo City drive-in eating place. Police hunted for a suspect.

Manuel Zavala, 54, of Hereford was shot to death and his son critically wounded after an argument with a third man. Federico Zavala, the wounded son, may be paralyzed by a bullet wound in the back. Officers held a Hereford resident, 34, in the Deaf Smith County jail.

Robert S. Sammon of Waco was shot to death at his home late Saturday night. A relative was held on murder charges.

Bill Knight, 46, of Humble was killed Saturday night when his car veered off FM 1960 and hit a culvert. The accident occurred east of Humble.

Linda H. Dreisbach, 30, of Galveston died at a hospital early Sunday after her car left Interstate 45 and rolled over twice. A passenger was injured.

Ada Elizabeth Foote, 63, died Saturday night in her University Park home in Dallas when a fire virtually destroyed the house.

C. A. Burke, 81, of Dickinson died Saturday when fire destroyed his frame home. Firemen said Burke apparently was overcome by smoke as he tried to escape the blaze, which started in a bedroom.

Eugene Henry, 32, of Garland, a Dallas suburb, died Saturday of wounds suffered in a Wednesday night shooting. A suspect was arrested. Garland police said.

Dennette Dodson, 20, of Houston was shot to death Saturday night in an apartment. Officers charged a friend in the shooting.

Milton W. Herring, 20, of Dayton was killed and Julie Ann Martin, 13, of Houston was fatally injured in a one-car accident just outside La Marque, between Houston and Galveston. Gary Joe Herring, 17 was listed in good condition. Investigators said a gust of wind caught the light car in which a group of young people were riding and sent it out of control.

Hitler's Aide Reported Seen In Latin America

NEW YORK (AP)—Martin Bormann, Adolf Hitler's deputy, lives on a vast ranch in northern Argentina where he was traced by that South American country's central intelligence agency, the Daily Express of London reported today.

The copyrighted story, by spy expert Ladislav Farago in collaboration with former Express foreign editor Stewart Steven, was distributed by the Chicago Tribune-New York Daily News syndicate in the United States.

Pictures of a heavy-set, balding man were published with the story in the Daily News. The newspaper said that Argentine intelligence agent Jose Velasco identified the man as Bormann, although he was traveling with a passport made out to Ricardo Bauer.

The pictures were taken when Velasco questioned the man at Checkpoint Mendozar near the Chilean border last Oct. 5, the newspaper said. It quoted Velasco as saying that he was sorry he had not arrested the man on his own initiative.

Farago and Steven said in their story that, in the last few weeks, Bormann had been traced to the Rancho Grande, a huge estate owned by Arndt von Bohlen-Halbach of the West German Krupp family, in the Province of Salta.

"We have at this moment incontrovertible evidence that Bormann himself is there," they quoted Velasco as saying. But they reported that Velasco had ruled out any attempt to capture the wanted war criminal at the ranch because he would "easily escape long before we could reach his present hideout."

The authors said Argentine Secret Service documents showed Bormann had lived in various South American countries under a number of names since 1948. Through investment of smuggled Nazi wealth, they said, he had become "an important factor in the economic life of South America."

In Vienna today, Simon Wiesenthal, the head of the Jewish documentation center, said he was "very, very skeptical" the man described in the Daily Express article would turn out to be Bormann.

Thieves broke into Meaker Refrigeration Service, 2008 N. Hobart, sometime after closing Saturday and made off with five television sets valued at close to $1,000.

Entry was gained by breaking a glass in a rear door, reaching through and unlocking the door. The loot was taken out by the same door.

Investigating officers believe the burglars were the same ones who attempted a break in at Fleming Appliance Co., also on Hobart and at an address on Alcock St., the same night. Prying marks were the same at all three locations. A bar across the door at Fleming's blocked entry after the lock had been forced.

Baby Gorilla Being Taught Sign Language At Frisco Zoo

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Coco signs for her dinner, signs for her drinks and signs whenever she wants to go out.

Coco, a 26-pound baby gorilla at the San Francisco Zoo, is being taught sign language by a Stanford University graduate student in developmental psychology.

Her teacher, Penny Patterson, 25, believes her research with the gorilla is unique and hopes it will help in using sign language as a teaching aid for retarded children.

"Teaching a primate sign language is not new, but I think Coco is the first gorilla to be used in such research," said Miss Patterson in an interview Friday.

She is patterning her research after that of two University of Nevada comparative psychologists who successfully taught a baby chimpanzee 200 signs in five years.

Miss Patterson began working with the 16-month-old gorilla four months ago and now spends up to five hours a day with her.

In her daily sessions, Coco signals for a drink by placing her thumb to her mouth, asks for food by placing all of her fingers to her mouth and signs to go to one section of her glassed-in room to another by making an outward motion with her hand.

And she's working very hard on the signs for "more" and "no."

"The desire for food and drink are strongly motivational, and teaching Coco these signs was relatively easy," Miss Patterson said.

"Sign-language grammar is different from that of any other language, and I hope to learn a great deal from Coco. The order in which she uses the signs is very important, especially when she uses a series," Miss Patterson said.

It is important to determine whether the gorilla's sign word order is based on context or imitation, she said.

"I am striving to interpret the context in which she uses the signs because that is important in the analysis of a child's language."

Eventually, Miss Patterson will compare Coco's progress with a 2-year-old deaf child's acquisition of sign language and then plans to write her doctoral dissertation on her research with the gorilla.

She hopes to work with Coco two more years, but anything beyond that is highly unlikely. Someday Coco will weigh more than 300 pounds.

Woman, 60, And 4 Grandchildren Killed In Fire

TEXARKANA, Ark. (AP)—Gracy L. Hanson, 60, and her four small grandchildren who lived with her died late Saturday night in a fire that destroyed their frame home here.

Authorities identified the children as Herbert L. Easter, 5; Andy Lee Easter, 3; Gracy Mae Easter, 2; and Pretta Marcel Easter, 1.

The five bodies were in one bedroom, firemen said. According to Fire Chief Gene Davis, the blaze apparently started from an open-flame heater in another bedroom.

Davis said Mrs. Hanson apparently never awoke since she was on her back in bed with one of the children. The other three children were on the floor.

Odell Smith, a neighbor, said he saw the flames from a block away. By the time he arrived, the house was engulfed in flame and smoke.

Robbery Suspect Sought By Local Law Officers

Police officers are searching for a Pampa man who may be wounded following a shooting incident at a local lounge Saturday night.

The shooting was the culmination of a series of events beginning Friday night when a Pampa man went into the lounge to buy beer for guests at his home. A man in the lounge engaged him in conversation, then followed him out and robbed him of about $50 by choking him.

When the robber had fled, the victim went back inside and told the operator of the lounge who identified the man he was talking to at the time of his purchase.

According to what the manager of the lounge told police, the suspect came back

Saturday night threatening him because police had questioned him. The older man drew a gun and fired at his assailant who fled. Going to the door of the lounge, he fired.

Break-In Probed

About $300 worth of men's and women's clothing was taken from a residence in the 700 Block of Brunow St. while the occupants were in the hospital.

Police were told that a padlock hasp had been pried from the door to gain entry, then stuck back in the mounting board when the thief or thieves left the scene.

Police are investigating the incident which occurred at some time, not established, over the holiday weekend.

The Rev. Claude Cone, pastor of First Baptist Church, will officiate, with burial in Fairview Cemetery.

Mr. Lewis died at 10:07 p.m. Saturday in Highland General Hospital.

He was born Nov. 13, 1901 in Kansas City, Kan.

He was married to Ora Clemons, May 9, 1926 at Kaw City, Okla.

Mr. Lewis had worked for H.H. Heiskell, a water-drilling contractor for 17 years. For the past eight years, he worked on the express route for the Amarillo Globe News.

He was an Episcopalian. Survivors are his wife, Ora; a son, William H., Jr. of Amarillo; two sisters, Mrs. Maudie Gilpin of Shawnee, Okla., and Mrs. Kathleen Halley of Little Rock, Ark.; his mother, Mrs. Maude Lewis of Shawnee; a brother, Arthur E. of Tulsa and four grandchildren.

MRS. A.F. NULL
Funeral services for Mrs. A.F. Null, 78, a Wellington resident for 74 years, who died at 6 a.m. Sunday in Collingsworth General Hospital, will be held at 4 p.m. Tuesday in Fundamental Baptist Church in Wellington.

Officiating will be the Revs. Ron Davis, pastor, and Red Null, a son of the deceased from Manila, Philippine Islands; Clarence Bishop of Amarillo; and Jack Young of Elk City, Okla. Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery by Kelso Funeral Home.

She was born in Denton County, and was a Baptist. She married A.F. Null in 1910 and he preceded her in death.

Survivors include two sons, the Rev. Fred Null of Manila and Ray Null of Wellington; six daughters, Mrs. Leon Bishop of Paul Valley, Okla., Mrs. George Winegeart of Pampa, Mrs. Leo Thomas of Childress, Mrs. Ernest Lund of Port Orchard, Wash., Mrs. Bill Hughes of Plainview and Mrs. J.D. Young of Wellington; a sister, Mrs. Lawrence Brisbin of Wellington; five half-sisters, Mrs. C.E. Childress of Canadian, Mrs. Weldon Lane of Wellington, Mrs. Lela Maxwell of Quail and Mrs. George Shinn of Perryton; two half-brothers, Howard Rankin of Tulsa and Arthur Rankin of Littlefield; 22 grandchildren, 34 great-grandchildren and three great-great-grandchildren.

HELEN M. WARMINSKI
Rosary for Mrs. Helen Magdalen Warminski, 80, a White Deer resident since 1915, will be recited at 7 p.m. today in Carmichael-Whately Colonial Chapel.

Funeral services will be held at 10 a.m. Tuesday in Sacred Heart Catholic Church in White Deer, with the Rev. James Gurzynski officiating. Burial will be in Sacred Heart Cemetery.

Mrs. Warminski died at 4:35 p.m. Saturday in Worley Hospital. She was born March 28, 1892, at Minneapolis, Minn., and moved to White Deer in 1915 from McLean. She was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Her husband, Edward, died in 1954.

Survivors include three daughters, Mrs. J.R. Roney of Odessa, Mrs. R.P. May of White Deer and Sister Mildred Warminski of El Paso; three sons, Lawrence of Brenton, Wash., Albert of Hawthorne, Calif., and Donald of White Deer; three sisters, Mrs. Frances Mazurek of Amarillo, Mrs. George Tulare of Medford, Ore., and Mrs. Tom Skibinski of Panhandle; two brothers, Johnny Kalka of Hereford and Eddie Kalka of White Deer, and 16 grandchildren.

LISA DIXON
Funeral arrangements will be announced by Rabenhorst Funeral Home in Baton Rouge, La., for Lisa Dixon, 18, Baton Rouge, who died early today of injuries received in a car accident. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Dixon, 809 N. Gray.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W.S. Dixon, III, Baton Rouge; two sisters, Debi and Elizabeth of the home; two aunts, Mrs. Raymond Barrett of Pampa and Mrs. Harrold Salmon of Austin and her grandparents.

Your Horoscope

By Jeane Dixon

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 28
Your birthday today: Nothing comes easy this year, although all that you do achieve remains with you. Relationships are what you make them. Today's natives sometimes are materialistic, sometimes undertake the hazards of exploring new ideas and publishing them.
Aries [March 21-April 19]: Your concentrated attention on the most urgent problems eventually gets you over a rough spot. Delay is normal in all activities.
Taurus [April 20-May 20]: During today's lull, nothing is gained by worrying over finances. A fresh way of seeing life and your share of it occurs to you.
Gemini [May 21-June 20]: If there is a way of getting into a cross-purpose sort of situation, you will find it. The next task is remaining serene.
Cancer [June 21-July 21]: Showing concern is not the same as doing something about matters. You are susceptible to the moods of others.
Leo [July 23-Aug. 22]: You take a firmer stand than usual; be gentle along with it. Financial profit shouldn't be mixed in with friends, plans.
Virgo [Aug. 23-Sept. 22]: Helping others turns up as your main role in life today. Be willing to lay aside some of your own plans for the moment.
Libra [Sept. 23-Oct. 22]: Take care of it yourself if you can; if you can't postpone it. There is no substitute for common sense and steady work.
Scorpio [Oct. 23-Nov. 21]: Material resources occupy your main attention. There are many demands from all sides on whatever you have or stand to gain.
Sagittarius [Nov. 22-Dec. 21]: Expect schedules to fall apart in today's incidents. Give first priority to the welfare of those around you.
Capricorn [Dec. 22-Jan. 19]: For you the day seems slow, and just as well devoted to resolving problems relating to past events.
Aquarius [Jan. 20-Feb. 18]: Today's general discussion may annoy you, but also reveals the flaws in your planning in time for you to do something about them.
Pisces [Feb. 19-March 20]: Deal with small groups or individuals rather than crowds or corporate entities, where you can. Seek cooperative links.

Dear Abby

Abby, your inspiration is aid to volunteers

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I just heard you speak to a packed ballroom in St. Petersburg, Fla., for Goodwill and I want to thank you for saying, "I've been doing volunteer work all my life!"

Oh, Abby, how I pray that because YOU do it, others will be inspired to do it, too.
If everyone, young, old, rich, poor, educated or not, would give one day a month (or even an hour), it would make such a happy difference in their lives as givers and would also enrich the programs of civic, religious and "helping" organizations tremendously.
Florida is well known for its retirement advantages—yet all over St. Petersburg men and women are sitting alone in self-pity because they are just plain bored. [As they say, "waiting to die." That's pathetic, considering how much easier they could make life for someone who is "waiting to live."]

And since when is "age" an excuse for not giving time or talent? Many star volunteers are in their 60s and 70s. Today, so many of our young people are talking "LOVE." Well, kids, how about putting the "bod" where the mouth is? Nursing homes, hospitals, mental institutions, rehabilitation centers, etc., could use volunteers.

Abby, you mentioned that Goodwill needs volunteers to write letters for the handicapped, take them shopping, to doctors, or therapy, and even to an occasional movie or for a drive. Volunteers can answer the telephone, type, file, address envelopes, or teach simple English pronunciation to those with speech defects. The list is overwhelming.
I could go on and on. I only wanted to thank you from the bottom of my heart for encouraging people to do for others.

INSPIRED
DEAR INSPIRED: Your letter is far more inspirational than what I said in St. Petersburg. Thank you for writing.

DEAR ABBY: I'm having problems with my husband. I am 23 and he is 26, and we've been married for five years and have three children. He knows I don't like it when he makes a fuss over other girls, but he does it just to make me jealous.
Another problem is that he forces himself on me and if I struggle he ties me to the bed with ropes. If he wasn't my husband this would be classified as rape. Abby, things just can't go on like this. When he's nice, he's sweet as sugar, but when he's mean he frightens me half to death.
He also has a seizure disorder which he is being treated for. We are on welfare because of his sickness, but he cashes his welfare check and gives all the money to me, so I can't complain about that. Can you help me?

LOTS OF PROBLEMS
DEAR LOTS: If you haven't discussed your husband's sadistic behavior with his doctor, you should. The Welfare Information Service can put you in touch with a Family Service Agency. They offer family counseling, and the fee is nominal. If you can't persuade your husband to go with you—go alone, but DO go.

DEAR ABBY: My problem is not knowing how to introduce my boy friend. He is a doctor.
Do I say, "Mrs. Brown, I would like you to meet Dr. Smith"? Or do I just omit the "doctor" and introduce him as "Mister"?
I always feel so foolish introducing him as "Doctor." It sounds like I'm bragging.
UNSURE

DEAR UNSURE: He has earned the title, and should be introduced as "Dr."—not "Mister." But if you are self-conscious about it, simply introduce him as "John Smith." They'll soon find out he's a doctor.

'Skins Whip Packers; Assured Playoff Berth

By Associated Press
Last year we made the playoffs and had to go to San Francisco," Washington Coach George Allen said. "Our next goal is to open at home."
The Redskins officially made it into the National Football League playoffs and took a giant step toward that goal of a post-season home opener Sunday as Billy Kilmer tossed a pair of touchdown passes to guide them to a 21-16 victory over the Green Bay Packers.
It gave Washington a two-game lead over Dallas in the National Conference East with three games to go, one of them against the Cowboys, who lost to the 49ers 31-10 on Thanksgiving Day.
The Skins can finish no lower than second in their division. Even if they were to lose their remaining games, they would wind up the season with a 10-4 record and would gain the NFC's "wild card" playoff spot as the team with the best runner-up record.
The victory also made things difficult for the Packers, who dropped into a first-place tie with Detroit for the Central Division lead, each at 7-4. The Lions whipped the New York Jets 27-20, also on Thanksgiving Day. Minnesota, which had a chance to make it a three-way tie, remained a game off the pace by losing 23-10 to Pittsburgh.

In Sunday's other games, Cleveland beat Buffalo 27-10, Oakland defeated Kansas City 26-3, New Orleans upset Los Angeles 19-16, Atlanta edged Denver 23-10, the Giants stamped Philadelphia 62-10. Baltimore blanked New England 30, Cincinnati topped Chicago 133 and San Diego beat Houston 34-20. In tonight's nationally televised game from Miami, the undefeated Dolphins try to make it 11 in a row against the St. Louis Cardinals.
Kilmer's second touchdown pass, a five-yarder to Charley Taylor, iced the game for the Redskins after MacArthur Lane's six-yard scoring run had narrowed the Washington lead to 14-13 in the fourth quarter.
Rookie Franco Harris rushed for 128 yards—the sixth time in seven games he's exceeded 100 yards—to pace the Steelers past Minnesota. He scored once on a 12-yard sweep and set up quarterback Terry Bradshaw's tie-breaking one-yard plunge with a 61-yard sprint that broke open the game in the fourth quarter.
The victory kept the Steelers tied with the Browns for first in the American Conference's Central Division. Cleveland spotted the Bills a 10-0 lead, then roared back, took the lead on Ken Brown's one-yard plunge and locked it up when middle linebacker Dale Lindsey deflected Leo Hart pass to defensive end Nick Roman, who raced 36 yards for a touchdown. Buffalo's lone bright spot was O. J. Simpson's 93 yards. It enabled him to surpass the 1,000-yard mark.

The Raiders, avenging a 27-14 loss to Kansas City three weeks ago, all but locked up their fifth division title in six years as Daryle Lamonica threw touchdown passes of 14 yards to Fred Biletnikoff and 19 to Raymond Chester late in the first half, breaking open a close game. "They captured control of the game and it was hard for us to ever get it back," Chiefs Coach Hank Stram said after the Raiders opened a 2½-game lead in the AFC West.
The Rams needed a victory to stay even with the 49ers atop the NFC West. Instead, they fell into third, a game off the pace, as Happy Feller, acquired by New Orleans just three weeks ago, booted a game-winning 33-yard field goal with three seconds to play.
The Falcons, moving into second, half a game behind San Francisco, needed a steamed-up Claude Humphrey to beat the Broncos. "I was looking to get even. I was looking for somebody to hit," said the defensive end after being angered by successive 15-yard yard penalties against him that set up a Denver field goal.

First he hit Broncos quarterback Charley Johnson in the end zone for a safety and the Falcons' first points after they had fallen behind 13-0. Then he pounced on Floyd Little's fumble to set up Art Malone's second one-yard touchdown run to put Atlanta ahead.
The Giants could do no wrong against Philadelphia as they amassed the most points in their history. The 62 surpassed the previous record of 56 set back in 1933—also against the Eagles.
Marty Domres, the heir apparent to Johnny Unitas, wasn't really pleased with his performance against the Patriots despite his three touchdown passes, two to Sam Havrilak. "I didn't think I played so hot," said the Colts' young quarterback. Still, he was hot enough to hand New England its eighth straight setback.
Virgil Carter, a Chicago cast-off who wound up on the Bengals, wasn't looking to get even with his old teammates. It just worked out that way as he passed for the game's only touchdown, a 26-yarder to Essex Johnson.
It was Carter's first start in place of Ken Anderson because, as Cincinnati Coach Paul Brown said, "we needed an experienced man in there."
Cid Edwards got two of San Diego's touchdowns with runs of one and 31 yards but it was reserve running back Jesse Taylor who got the Chargers started by blocking Dan Pastorini's punt and falling on it for a touchdown as the Oilers' record tumbled to 1-10, worst in the league.

SPORTS PAGE Sports In Brief

By Associated Press
There are some unhappy bowl teams around the country today... like Louisiana State, Missouri, Iowa State and Texas Tech. But there are some happier nonbowl teams... like Oklahoma State and Southern Methodist.
The unranked Oklahoma State Cowboys, 6-4, had some unkind words for the various bowl selection committees Saturday following their 45-14 trouncing of favored Iowa State, rated 17th and bound for the Liberty Bowl.
"We're disappointed that we're not in a bowl game because we've beaten three bowl teams (Colorado, Missouri, Iowa State)," said quarterback Brent Blackman, who scored once, ran for a two-point conversion and threw two long passes that set up touchdowns. "Our goal is to beat a fourth when we play Oklahoma next week."
Unranked and uninvited SMU also has a 6-4 mark after beating Baylor 12-7 and Coach Hayden Fry points out that if the Mustangs beat Texas Christian in their win-up, "Our record will be better than some teams playing in bowl games. I'm going to recommend that the NCAA move back the date on which bowl selections can be made... at least until late November."
Actually, bowl invitations can be extended on the third Saturday in November or one week before the end of a team's regular season—whichever comes first.
Fry apparently was referring specifically to 16th-ranked Missouri, 6-5, and Iowa State, 4-1. Kansas upset Fiesta Bowl-bound Missouri 28-17 in what Coach Don Fambrough called

Weekend Causes Disappointments

"The Mud Bowl" behind David Jaynes' 250-yard passing.
Meanwhile, the last two major bowl berths were decided. No. 9 Ohio State pulled off two brilliant goal-line stands and held off previously unbeaten and third-ranked Michigan 14-11 to share the Big Ten crown and earn a trip to the Rose Bowl against top-ranked Southern California.
Arizona State, ranked 18th, reeled off 362 yards on the ground, 153 by Brent McClanahan, to turn back Arizona's 38-21 for its fourth straight Western Athletic Conference championship. The Sun Devils will host Missouri in the Fiesta Bowl. Arizona Coach Bob Weber submitted his resignation on Sunday.
With the regular season drawing to a close, seven members of The Associated Press Top Twenty were not scheduled Saturday. Southern Cal and Alabama, the 1-2 teams, finish this weekend—the Trojans against No. 11 Notre Dame and "Bama" against No. 10 Auburn. Colorado, UCLA and Washington State, rated 13th, 14th and 19th, wound up last week.
LSU, ranked eighth and headed for the Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl, was held to a 3-3 tie when Florida freshman John Williams kicked a 35-yard field goal with 2:08 left. The Tigers, on the other hand, missed seven of eight field goal attempts while star quarterback Bert Jones was held to 82 yards passing and sacked seven times.
"I'll be in shape for the Rose Bowl," he promised.
"I agree that most ties are like kissing your sister," said Ken Hatfield, a Florida assistant coach, "but this tie was more like kissing your neighbor's sister."
Texas Tech, 20th in the rank-

Much Still At Stake In Southwest Conference

By Associated Press
With the University of Texas already making plans for its New Year's Cotton Bowl date with Alabama, you'd think nothing would be at stake this Saturday when little old Rice meets Baylor and Southern plans Texas Christian.
But there's plenty on the line. Should Rice and SMU win they'll finish in a three-tie for second place with Sun Bowl-bound Texas Tech.
And you think Baylor and TCU don't have incentive? Should they lose they fall into a tie with Texas A&M for the cellar spot. Should they win, it would throw the conference in a five-way tie for third place—some SIX notches up the ladder.
"Anyone can beat anyone in this conference...except for Texas," said Mustang Coach Hayden Fry Saturday after his Mustangs sneaked past Baylor 12-7.

Texas, which was seventh-ranked before its 38-3 Thanksgiving Day mauling of Texas A&M, is 9-0 and should vault even higher in the national ratings.
The Longhorns finished the season 7-0 in SWC play. Next comes Texas Tech at 4-3 followed by SMU and Rice at 3-3, Arkansas at 3-4, Baylor and TCU at 2-4, and Texas A&M at 2-5.
In other games Saturday, Arkansas stunned Texas Tech 24-14 and Rice outlasted TCU 25-21.
Arkansas, the pre-season favorite, finished its year at 6-5 with heralded Joe Ferguson, the quarterback with potential Heisman Trophy credentials, on the bench without playing a down.
Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles started Scott Bull because three of his split receivers were injured.
"We decided to go with our running game and our best running quarterback, Bull," Broyles said. "With our running game going we had no need for our asser, Ferguson."
Fry had some things to say about those who make bowl selections and pick all-conference and All-American teams before the regular season is completed.

"If we beat Texas Christian this week our record will be better than some teams playing in bowl games," Fry said.
He added, "I'm going to recommend to Frank Broyles (NCAA rules committee head) that the NCAA move back the date in which bowl selections can be made, at least until late November. A lot of teams are playing 11 games now. The rule that a team can be invited to a bowl in early November was made when 10-game schedules were the law."
He also said, "I don't know why they can't wait until all the conference games are over before they make the (All-SWC) selections. For example, Alvin Maxson had a mid-season slump that I'm sure hurt him."

Ashe Wins

ROME (AP) — Arthur Ashe earned $25,000 by winning the third World Championship Tennis Tournament final Sunday in what he called "my biggest payday." He also said it was "too much."
The 29-year-old star from Miami, Fla., came from behind in the fifth set to beat fellow American Bob Lutz 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, 3-6, 7-6. It was a grueling, dramatic battle, but after it was over Ashe returned to his role as a militant leader of the Players' Association.
Historically, trades are the hot items at these annual affairs, not the draft picks.
Only 13 players were drafted by the majors at last year's session in Phoenix, and merely two of those struck around for any work in the big time. In contrast, the Phoenix meetings provided 35 deals involving 53 players.
At any rate, the Cleveland Indians appear ready to pick up a minor leaguer or two at the relative bargain-basement price of $25,000 apiece. In shaping their roster for these meetings, the Indians pared down to 38 men, two under the 40-player limit for winter.
Cleveland, which has already made two trades since the World Series, unloaded two left-handed hurlers—Marcelino Lopez and Bill Butler to their Oklahoma City team in the Triple-A American Association.
After the draft opens the week-long session, the minor leagues will hold a round of meetings today and Tuesday. The majors then will take over for the rest of the week with a formal agenda dealing with the post-season playoff format and reports from the player-relations committee, among other things.
The Phillies, who got the No. 1 drafting position because their 1972 record was the worst in baseball, will no doubt jump into the trading pool. The Phillies, who have already swung a seven-man deal, are in need of help at several positions.
Manager Dick Williams of the world champion Oakland A's knows Irv Noren, his third base coach, since 1947. That was the year they were with Santa Barbara in the California League.

Meetings Underway

HONOLULU (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies will get the first swing today when baseball's winter meetings open with a draft of minor league talent.
But it's more than likely that the leadoff team and the 23 other major league squads that follow will strike out looking for help among the bushes.
Historically, trades are the hot items at these annual affairs, not the draft picks.

Basketball Roundup

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
No team in professional team sports ever had won 33 in a row until the Los Angeles Lakers did it last season.
Now the champions of the National Basketball Association are on the road to breaking their own all-time record.
They won their 13th straight Sunday night with a 112-107 verdict over the Phoenix Suns. Jerry West set the pace with 26 points, 15 in the last quarter. Will Chamberlain added 20 and grabbed 25 rebounds.
Milwaukee overcame Atlanta 108-96 while in other NBA games Portland beat Cleveland 106-102 and Seattle trimmed Detroit 103-96. In the only American Basketball Association game scheduled, San Diego whacked the New York Nets 131-106.
Veteran Connie Hawkins of Phoenix left the Suns' bench in the second quarter after he played only five minutes and failed to score.
Hawkins said merely "no comment" in answers to questions about his departure.
Phoenix Coach Jerry Colangelo explained later he had told Hawkins to go back into the game, but Hawkins refused.
"I told him to take a shower," Colangelo said. "Any disciplinary action will be between Connie and myself. He has not been playing well and he appears to have personal problems off the court."
With Hawkins out of the game, Neal Walk and Charlie Scott scored 25 and 22 points to pull the Suns within two points before West put the Lakers out of danger.
Milwaukee went on a 17-0 burst in the third period in whipping the Hawks. Bob Dandridge, with 29 points, and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar with 26 led Atlanta with 23.
Spencer Haywood scored a season high 39 points for Seattle as the SuperSonics ended a four-game losing streak in turning back the Pistons. Fred Foster was high for Detroit with 23.
Led by Geoff Petrie, with 27, and Sidney Wicks with 25, Portland broke an 88-88 tie to beat Cleveland. Lenny Wilkens topped the Cavs with 29.
San Diego snapped the Nets' five-game winning streak in the ABA. The Conquistadors, led by 24 points from Stew Johnson, took a commanding 105-81 lead to win handily. George Carter was high for the Nets with 22.

San Antonio Lee, Permian Move On

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Perhaps the most evenly matched of this week's Texas schoolboy football playoffs will come when Big Sandy, ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press final poll, and No. 2 rated New Waverly collide.
The Class B powerhouse meets at 3 p.m. Saturday in Huntsville.
There's a meeting of ranked outfits in the 3A playoffs. Uvalde, the top-ranked team, plays fifth-ranked Gregory. Portland-Friday night in San Antonio.
Uvalde remained undefeated with a 28-0 thumping of West Columbia while Gregory-Portland crushed Fallurris 49-0 last week.
Childress, the top-ranked Class 2A team, bombed Panhandle 37-0 last week and meets Floydada at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Plainview. Floydada, which is 10th ranked, dropped Littlefield 7-0.
Top-rated Mason survived in Class A with a 32-0 whipping of Santa Anna.
Baseball writers were amazed when they entered the press room before Oakland's first World Series game. The blackboard—usually for messages—contained two of the Oakland Raiders' football plays.

Miller Leads

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — He looked positively embarrassed and just a little surprised as he tried to explain his four-over-par 75 that was leading the golf tournament.
Son John Miller, aged 2½, sat on his lap and yawned broadly from time to time as Johnny Miller tried to put it all together. "Almost unbelievable... just one of those days... it's hard to believe."
The phrases tumbled from his lips as Miller tried to thaw out and assess his round, mediocre by the best standards, that left him in control after three rounds of the weather-plagued $125,000 Heritage Golf Classic.
Miller, like the rest of the field, had to scramble desperately in the numbing 30-degree temperature and biting winds that blasted to 30 miles an hour in Sunday's third round.

FOOLING AROUND IS USUALLY FOOLISH

Especially when you don't feel well. That's when it makes no sense at all to fool around wasting time, trying to make excuses for not seeing—or at least phoning—your doctor. All too often, what may seem to be nothing more than just a "minor stomach upset" or "mild" fever can actually be a signal that something is seriously wrong in your system.

The penalties for neglecting such signals can include prolonged confinement at home, lost time (and wages) from work, hospitalizations, etc. But these penalties can usually be avoided if you will remember to resist "fooling around" and will instead, seek the advice of your doctor whenever you aren't feeling well.

YOU OR YOUR DOCTOR CAN PHONE US when you need a delivery. We will deliver promptly without extra charge. A great many people rely on us for their health needs. We welcome requests for delivery service and charge accounts.
