Ickes Drawn into Row Over 'Hopkins Letter'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(AP)—An assistant to Interior Secretary Ickes was pictured in the Congressional Record today as a go-between in publication of that widely quoted letter predicting that Wendell L. Willkie would be the Republican nominee for president again this year.

Earlier the governors had reported a very agreeable meeting with President Roosevelt and agreed in a poll that although the South may not be entirely happy under his administration, it is still decidedly within the Democratic fold.

Democrats Make Up, Laud Wallace, Rayburn

By CLAIR JOHNSON and NORMAN WALKER
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Threats of a party bolt by Southern Democrats appeared to have melted down considerably today after a series of conferences which ended up with cheers for the party leadership and specific ovations for Vice President Wallace and Speaker Rayburn of Texas.

The conference was called for the announced purpose of planning united action in a fight for freight rate equality, but political matters came to the foreground.

Hill 660 One Of Marines' Toughest Fights

By MURLIN SPENCER
WITH THE MARINES AT CAPE GLOUCESTER, Jan. 15. (Delayed AP)—Seldom have American forces been required to contend with a combination of foes as the Marines did in capturing strategic Hill 660 overlooking Borgen bay, New Britain.

It was a suggestion by Wallace that the South and West unite in the freight rate cause that prompted the cheers for him at the evening session.

Wallace was joined in his plea for a South-West coalition by Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Texas) and received an immediate pledge of such action from two Westerners present.

Third of County Buy Poll Taxes

In gradually rising tempo, residents of Gray county are marking themselves for the polls in the elections to be held this year.

Lovely interposed that the measure should not be interpreted as a slap at the governor in any sense, but merely as an effort to convince him that his position is wrong.

Arnold Predicts Shuttle Bombing

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Shuttle bombing of Germany by planes based in Russia and Italy and a last ditch stand by the Nazis are developments foreseen by Gen. Henry H. Arnold, commander of the United States army air forces.

Speaking before a poor Richard club last night he said the advance of the Russians from the east and standardization of aircraft parts and equipment would make it possible for Allied planes to take off from Italy and bomb vital German targets enroute to bases in Russia.

Bankhead Says Subsidy Agreement Impossible

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Senator Bankhead (D-Ala.) said flatly today that a compromise on the subsidy issue is impossible and that "the only thing to do is to bring the problem on to the senate floor—and let the chips fall where they may."

Bankhead is a leader of the move in the senate to ban federal payments which are aimed at holding down retail food prices. Price Administrator Bowles has said that if subsidies are outlawed, food costs will rise about 7 per cent immediately, and that this trend might lead to inflation.

Legislators Sign Petition Calling for Special Session

Solons Aver Governor's Stand Wrong

DALLAS, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson said today "I think congress may have the right to pass special legislation to enable soldiers to vote, and it may be that it can be best handled that way."

McLEAN SOLDIER WAITS FOR CHOW IN ENGLAND

The governor stressed he desired that men and women in the armed services be permitted to vote in Texas elections for national and state officers, and in the primaries. He said, however, he remained unconvinced that the legislature had the power under the constitution to waive the poll tax requirement for voting service personnel.

AUSTIN, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Thirteen members of the house and senate today signed a petition asking Gov. Coke R. Stevenson to order a special legislative session to exempt Texans in the armed forces from poll tax payments.

The group voted also to poll by telegraph other members of the house and senate on the special session question. Senator Karl W. Bricker (R-Ohio) and Rep. Ed Winfree of Houston were elected to conduct the poll.

Before the meeting Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith in a formal statement reiterated a plea that an extraordinary session be called and emphasized that he was speaking as a friend of the governor "and not with any purpose of embarrassing him, but rather to save embarrassment."

"It is up to us to show the governor the light," Winfree told the legislators.

"In a supreme spirit of friendship toward the governor, I say that he is violating the constitution himself in his stand. The constitution provides for executive, legislative and judicial branches of the government, and it is the duty of the judicial to rule upon the constitutionality of any law we might pass."

At the meeting of which Lovelady was chosen temporary chairman, the state department, published the Moscow story yesterday, although there was no censorship ban.

At Dallas, Gov. Coke Stevenson said the Southwest is "determined to go over the top in the Fourth War Loan drive," which he helped launch last night after his arrival there for a busy round of speaking engagements.

R. B. Creager of Brownsville, Republican national committee-man from Texas, asserted in introducing Gov. Bricker that he was "a little bit ashamed" of the Republican victory in Texas in 1928 "because it was based on intolerance."

Creager said that Gov. Earl Warren of California, mentioned as a possible Republican vice-presidential or presidential candidate, would be invited to visit Texas. Gov. Bricker departed for Tulsa after the dinner.

The Daily Mail, whose headline read "Britain Kills 'Separate Peace' Plan," commented that the newspaper Pravda must be remarkably ignorant of British national standards. This is the only excuse we can find for it.

Nazi 'Gustav Line' Probed, Then Troops Forced to Withdraw

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Algiers, Jan. 18.—(AP)—An American patrol crossed the Rapido river north of Cassino and probed the Nazis' strong "Gustav line" positions, headquarters announced today. French troops occupied Sant' Elia, three miles northeast of Cassino.

Ukrainians Closing In On Rovno

MOSCOW, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Troops of Gen. Nikolai Vatutin's first Ukrainian army were reported closing in today on Rovno (in old Poland), key German communications center 110 miles south of Pinsk, another main objective of Vatutin's forces on the northern edge of the frozen Pripiet marshes.

Fall of Rovno, junction of the Berdichev-Warsaw and Sarny-Lwow railroads, inevitably would imperil the German grip on a vast area of southern and southwestern Russia, already threatened by Vatutin's left wing driving toward the Rumanian frontier.

Soviet engineers were called in to provide equipment for the crossing of the Horyn river, which flows westward through Tuchin's outskirts, and which has not frozen sufficiently for transport on the ice. Beyond the river there was a formidable four-mile-wide swamp barrier extending to the village of Gorograd, stronghold of Rovno's outer defense system 10 miles to the north, which also had to be negotiated by Vatutin's forces.

The five-day-old Russian offensive on the Leningrad front, meanwhile, continued to roll forward with the occupation of five additional localities north and northwest of Novosokolniki, a rail junction on the line connecting Velikie-Luiki and Riga (the old-titan capital).

The German high command said the Russians were attacking north and northwest of Nevel, north of Lake Ilnen, south of Leningrad and south of Oranienbaum, with "growing intensity." Berlin broadcasts said the Red army was using 250,000 men on a 250-mile long front below Leningrad and acknowledged Russian breakthroughs north of Nevel, north of Lake Ilnen, and southwest of Vitebsk. White Russian forces were reported under siege by Gen. Ivan Bagration's Baltic army for weeks.

The Red army communique made no mention of the situation in lower Volhynia where Gen. Konstantin Rokossovsky's forces were last reported battling their way through the frozen Pripiet marshland toward Pinsk, 100 miles to the west. Advance columns of Vatutin's right wing, meanwhile, operating out of Sarny to the north along the Horyn river, were said to be within 47 miles of Pinsk.

In the lower Ukraine, Vatutin's left wing repulsed fierce German counter-attacks yesterday, the Soviet bulletin said.

Today, with the eyes of the world upon us, THE FOURTH WAR LOAN IS LAUNCHED!

TODAY, the 18th of January, America's Fourth War Loan starts.

It is the largest of all war loans in terms of individual participation—in the amount you must dig down for.

And—it is, perhaps, the most important of all War Loans. For it comes at a time when the eyes of all the world are upon us; the eyes of our friends, the eyes of our enemies, the eyes of our own fighting men.

We have just entered the crucial year of the war, a year of destiny, a year that promises to decide how good or bad a world we'll have to live in all the rest of our lives. And the world is wondering how deeply we mean it when we promise our men we'll back their attack, and when we promise our Allies we'll stick with them not only through the winning of the war but through the winning of the peace as well.

The Fourth War Loan is the home front's first big test of this new and vital year. It will take unity and determination of will of all the people to make the Loan succeed.

The need for this and other War Loans should be clear to every American. This war is the costliest effort ever undertaken by any country. It costs 250 million dollars each day. This is just the cost of the war, in addition to the regular, inescapable cost of running a great and huge country. Taxes can't take care of all this outgo. Neither can government borrowing from insurance companies, savings banks, corporations, and other large investors. It is necessary to turn to the people, their weekly wages, their savings accounts, the money tucked away in pantry sugar bowls, in socks, under mattresses.

This is as it should be. In a democracy, war is the business of all the people. Some must fight, some must work and put up the money.

It's the only way to raise the money. It's also the right way to raise the money. It gives you a good place to invest the extra money you have today. It's a curb on inflation, on that dangerous bulk of pocket money that leads to black markets and disastrous spending. It's a mattress for tomorrow, a sort of individually planned Social Security that will bring in welcome money in the years ahead when income might not be the Mississippi flood it is today.

These last are not the reasons for the Loans.

They are extra reasons, however, over and above the $1 interest you get on every $3 you invest. The fundamental reason for the Fourth War Loan is that your beloved America, at war and in danger, needs your help!

Every one who has a job or savings, should invest at least $100—if possible, $200, $300, or $500 extra. Some 5,000,000 Americans, volunteers, will be working to sell these Bonds. One of these volunteers will ask you to buy, where you work, at your home, or some other place. If by some chance, you're missed, find out where to buy and buy on your own.

The place where you work will have a quota. That's where you should make your major investment. That's where your personal quota really counts.

But...

The place you live also has a quota. Try to invest there, too. Other people will ask you. Salespeople, in retail stores, have volunteered to help and have an individual quota. If they ask you to buy, try to buy from them, too. Movie theaters, restaurants, schools, banks, postoffices, and many other places also will be selling bonds.

The Fourth Loan is a test of us as a nation.

The eyes of our fighting men are upon us to see if we are backing them.

... The eyes of our Allies are upon us to see if we are with them.

... The eyes of our enemies are upon us to see if we are soft enough to fall for a non-victorious, here-today-gone-tomorrow peace...

Are we? The answer is in your pocket!

Let's all BACK THE ATTACK!

New Ration Tokens Will Save Money, Time and Trouble

At the end of February, Mrs. Conner will begin receiving tokens as change for ration stamps.

partments in a purse, will be convenient for keeping track of the red and blue filter discs.

MEATS and FATS 10 Points = PROCESSED FOODS 10 Points =

BUTTER 16 Points = CANNED GOODS 8 Points = 2 Stamps = 1 Stamp 4 TOKENS = 2 TOKENS

Each of the new ration tokens will be worth 10 points. Each of the food-ration stamps then valid will be worth 10 points, regardless of the numeral printed on them. Thus a 16-point purchase would call for 2 stamps, and you would get 4 tokens in change.

By GAYNOR MADDOX NEA Food and Markets Editor Today, in Cincinnati, two billion ration tokens are being made from tough vulcanized fibre.

Remember this: Each token is worth exactly one point and is dateless. The blue tokens are for processed goods, the red, for meat and fats.

Minutes matter more in war

When Long Distance lines are crowded the operator will say "PLEASE LIMIT YOUR CALL TO 5 MINUTES"

There's a good reason for that. • It's to help everybody get better service. • And you can say a lot in five minutes. Maybe you can hold that next Long Distance call to three minutes. • That would be even better.

In lower photo, two Marines man a machine-gun amid wreckage as a third Leatherneck lays aside his rifle to assist them.

U. S. Insurance For Hospitals, Doctors Urged
WASHINGTON, Jan. 18 - (AP) - The social security board has recommended for the first time federal insurance to cover doctor and hospital bills.
In its eighth annual report to congress, the board said such insurance should allow a person to choose his own doctor or hospital, and preserve personal relationships between physicians and their patients.
It also should maintain professional leadership, the board said, guarantee the continued independence of non-governmental hospitals, and insure to doctors and hospitals an adequate financial return - "very probably more nearly adequate than that in customary circumstances."
The proposal was made as a part of a "comprehensive unified system" of social security which the board, headed by Arthur J. Altmeyer, believes ought to be adopted to get ready for the "sharp and sudden" social changes and readjustments which it says are around the corner.

Borger Boy Scouts Visit Pampa Field
A group of 30 troop No. 6 Boy Scouts from Borger under the supervision of Scoutmaster Lemore Hill were conducted on a tour of Pampa Field yesterday under the guidance of Pvt. William G. Wingfield, public relations man.
The scouts visited the hospital, flight line, sub depot area, cadet detachment, theater, post headquarters and the chapel.
Main attraction to the boys was the flight line, where they were allowed to look over one of the twin-engine training planes, an AT-9. They saw the plane's intricate instrument panel, blind flying devices and other interesting features of its interior.

Pampa Cagers Play Pirales Here Tonight

With eight wins to their credit, the Pampa Harvesters will be out to add another triumph to their impressive season start when they play the LeFors Pirates in a double-header basketball game at 7:30 tonight at the junior high school gymnasium. Coach Otis Coffey's boys are going places on the court this season and if they keep up the pace they have shown when the conference play begins, they should easily win the district. Despite the lack of interest on the part of the fans, the Harvesters have gone all out in their play, never letting down a minute. For the Harvesters, first conference game will be the battle with Amarillo's Golden Sandstorm, to be played here January 29. Borger comes here on February 8; the Harvesters will trek to Amarillo for a return game on the Sandies' court on February 11 then wind up the conference play with a return game with Borger there on February 14. In the doubleheader at Mobeetie yesterday afternoon and last night, the Harvesters made a clean sweep, winning the A contest 33 to 20 and the B 27 to 7.

Iowa, Camp Grant Basketeers Best In Midwest Area

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Camp Grant and Iowa in the Midwest and Albright in the East moved to the top of the unbeaten college basketball list today following Depaul's surprise defeat by little Valparaiso of Indiana. Valparaiso rudely ended Depaul's hopes of an unbeaten season by upsetting the Chicagoans, 65-57, ending the Demons' 13-game winning streak. Camp Grant now has won 13 in a row. Iowa and Albright each boast seven straight. Leading developments of a week which saw play restricted mostly to sectional contests included the 15-12 victory Penn State scored over Pitt; Temple's five-game winning streak shattered by St. John's of Brooklyn; the two victories of the Norfolk, Va., navy training station over the Norfolk naval air station and Duke; Idaho's upset of Washington State; the two game split between Rice and Arkansas; and Ohio State's two triumphs over Indiana. Southwest: Rice and Arkansas hooked up in a throat-cutting two-games series over the weekend, permitting Texas to slide into the place in the Southwest conference. First Arkansas beat Rice, 42-41, then Rice came roaring back on February 4, when the Longhorns smashed the Texas Aggies, 77-44, for new conference scoring record.

Byron Nelson Wins Frisco's Victory Open

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Byron Nelson, often described as the best golfer in the country, was back in the winner's circle today with $2,400 worth of war bonds in his pocket and the title of 1944 champion of the San Francisco open tournament. The Toledo O. crackshot, former national open and Professional Golfers' association kingpin, knocked out a 13-under par 275 to win the 72-hole tournament which concluded yesterday. He teed off as the favorite, led every round and polished off the long, flat Harding Park public links, par 36-36-72, with scores of 68-69-68-70. He played superior, flawless golf with the exception of a couple of three-putts and one drive out of bounds. He finished six strokes ahead of his running mate and chief rival, Harold "Jug" McSpaden of Philadelphia who racked up three successive rounds of 70 and fired a final 71 for a total of 281—seven under par for the route. McSpaden won the recent Los Angeles open with a 278, carrying with it $4,375, and his $1,600 yesterday gave him two-tournament earnings of $5,975. Nelson tied for third place with two others in the Southern event and now has a total of $5,225. Tied for third spot behind Nelson and McSpaden yesterday were Sam Byrd, the ex-New York Yankee baseball player, now representing a Detroit golf club, and Lloyd Mangrum, of Monterey Park, Calif. They carded 72-hole totals of 283, five strokes under par. Each received $1,062.50. Byrd, who has reached the top in the last year, posted rounds of 72-69-70-72, while Mangrum tabulated 68-72-71-71. The only other player to cope successfully with par was George Fazio, from Pin Valley, N. J., who finished with an even par 288—70-72-73-73—and took $675 in bonds as his share.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Navy Lieut. Roland P. Logan, who formerly trained West Point athletic teams, has just finished constructing a nine-hole golf course at fleet recreation center somewhere in the South Pacific. The center, which Logan says is probably the largest outside the United States, also has nine softball diamonds, two for handball two football fields, four basketball courts and facilities for tennis, volleyball, soccer, boxing, handball, horseshoe pitching and swimming. The most popular sport at the Bainbridge, Md., naval training station last month was pool with 22,519 participants as compared to 24,106 for bowling and 8,325 for basketball.

Marquette And De Paul Change Rule on Fouls

CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Four personal fouls will mean nothing more than a three minute rest instead of the showers when De Paul and Marquette basketball teams clash here Friday night. The rival coaches—Ray Meyer of De Paul and Bill Chandler of Marquette—have agreed to suspend the long standing rule disqualifying a player with four fouls and substitute a two minute penalty idea. It will be the first test of a plan advocated by Chandler for some time. He contends its adoption would enliven the game for spectators. "After the fourth foul has been called on a player," the Hilltop mentor explained, "he will be required to sit on the bench for a period of three minutes before becoming eligible to return to the game. On every foul thereafter, he also will have to sit out for three minutes before returning." Unlike the hockey rule which leaves the penalized player's team short-handed, Chandler's proposal permits a substitute to replace the bench-bound player. The whole idea, Chandler points out, is to give the aggressive player a better break and thereby make the game more interesting. Under the present rule, he argues, a player with three fouls is inclined to become extremely cautious and lose aggressiveness because of the eviction threat. With merely three minute penalty term facing him, the player would be encouraged to continue, full steam ahead.

Former Plane Worker Held for Kidnaping DALLAS, Jan. 18.—(AP)—Dearnl Quentin Harris, 21, was to be arraigned here today before U. S. Commissioner John Davis on a charge of kidnaping Charles Chenoweth, a Paul Turner near DeQueen, Ark., and forcing them to drive with him to Texas. Harris, whose home was given as Dierks, Ark., was captured about noon yesterday by W. M. Bourland of nearby Grand Prairie. R. B. Danner, special agent in charge of the Dallas office of the federal bureau of investigation, said Chenoweth and Turner were put out of Chenoweth's automobile near Grand Prairie yesterday morning. The car shortly afterward broke down, and that Harris then appeared at the Bourland residence seeking other transportation. Danner said Bourland disarmed Harris after a struggle over a revolver which snapped three times without firing and held him until Chief of Police Perry Nash of Grand Prairie arrived. Harris worked at an aviation plant near Grand Prairie until last December. The FBI official said a man appeared at the Chenoweth farm near DeQueen Sunday and forced Mr. and Mrs. Chenoweth, their three small children and Turner to drive off with him. Mrs. Chenoweth and the children, he said, were allowed to leave the car near Dierks.

Good Little Boys Do All Right On Basketball Court

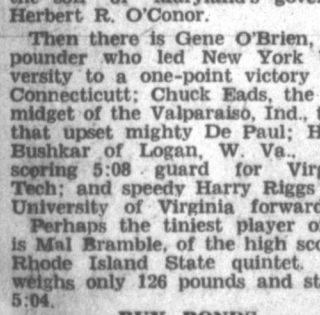

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—(AP)—What with all these big boys playing basketball these days, good little cagers are scarce, but the few who are around can play rings around the giants. Speed in cutting for the basket, accurate shooting and general all-around floor work stamp the slippery little fellows on the hardwood. Al Ingeman, 151-pound star for Josh Cody's Temple Owls, is one of the best. This little fellow (five feet seven inches) coaches and veteran cage writers are agreed, is one of the best set shots to show up in years. He played high school basketball only last season but so far this winter he has been a pain in the neck to such teams as Oklahoma Aggies, Western Kentucky, Havana, Penn State, Muhlenberg and St. John's of Brooklyn. Little Hy Gotkin, 5:08, is the star for St. John's, beaten in only one game. In Maryland, Gene O'Connor, of the Baltimore Loyola quintet, is outstanding. He stands 5:08 and tips the scales at 150 pounds. He is the son of Maryland's governor, Herbert R. O'Connor. Then there is Gene O'Brien, 150-pounder who led New York University to a one-point victory over Connecticut; Chuck Eads, the 5:08 midget of the Valparaiso, Ind., team that upset mighty De Paul; Harry Bushkar of Logan, W. Va., high scoring 5:08 guard for Virginia Tech; and speedy Harry Riggs 5:08 University of Virginia forward. Perhaps the tiniest player of all is Mal Bramble, of the high scoring Rhode Island State quintet. He weighs only 126 pounds and stands 5:04.

Kansan Fights Order to Import Canadian Wheat

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(P)—Senator Reed (R-Kan.) sharply criticized a Senate subcommittee order by War Food Administrator Marvin Jones requisitioning railroad cars to transport Canadian wheat into this country but Jones defended his action as necessary to insure adequate grain for military, civilian and livestock needs.

Reed asserted Jones' order for 200 cars daily to be supplied to Canadian railroads during the first four months of this year obligated about 25,000 cars needed to move domestic grain stocks now clogging elevators.

Demanding that the order be modified, Reed told Jones that "if you insist upon blockading the movement of American grain in order to move in wheat from Canada, I'm going to ask congress to take the power to do that away from you."

"That's all right with me," Jones retorted. "I've got to look down the road ahead, and my job is to see that we have the grain needed for our people for human needs and for livestock feed. I'm not going to take chances on not having it when the time comes."

Jones testified his directive to Joseph B. Eastman, transportation coordinator, called for a minimum of 200 cars daily to transport at least 400,000 bushels of Canadian wheat to the United States by May 1. He denied that the movement would require 25,000 cars, contending the number was nearer 6,000 and that "it would have no great effect on the ability to move stocks of grain in this country."

Reed said he agreed that the importation of Canadian grain was necessary in order to avoid a repetition of 1943 livestock feed shortages, but contended it was not necessary to complete the movement by May 1. He said railroad officials had assured him the job could be done by June 15, leaving enough cars available to meet domestic grain shipping requirements.

Jones, a witness before a Senate interstate commerce subcommittee investigating reported shortages of rail equipment, submitted a report stating that available stocks of all grains in the United States on Jan. 1 were 3,094,000 bushels, a decline of 536,000,000 bushels below the same date last year.

"Assuming the importation of 95,000,000 bushels of wheat from Canada during the first six months of 1944 (including the full amount of the requested rail movement), total United States stocks of wheat on July 1, 1944, will be down to 277,000,000 bushels," the report said.

"Failure to import this full quantity would be very serious," it added. "It appears vitally important in the interests of the military as well as other food and feed needs of this country and its allies to get started on the importation of this grain in substantial quantities at once."

ICKES

The gist of the Langer recital—al promptly denied by Ickes and other principals—was this: That Hopkins wrote to Dr. Humphrey Lee, president of Southern Methodist university, last fall predicting that the Republican public choice again this year and promising "good cooperation from that quarter." (Lee has disclaimed any knowledge of the letter and Hopkins has denied writing it.)

That Briggs made a trip to the Southwest in an attempt to obtain the letter.

That the letter subsequently was forwarded here by a man identified by Langer as Frank Phillips, president of the Phillips Petroleum Co., Bartlesville, Okla.

"I understand," Langer told the senate, "that this Mr. Frank Phillips of Oklahoma was a friend of Secretary Ickes, whom it appears Mr. Briggs was to get the letter from."

Quoting from what he called the Briggs correspondence to Sparks, Langer read:

"The Phillips letter came in just as the boss was leaving to take a course in Chicago. He asked for permission to take it with him—wanted to show it to someone he expects to see while away."

In his statement that he was not acquainted with Sparks, Langer also stated that neither Briggs nor Phillips "not anybody else had ever mentioned such a letter to me."

Dr. Lee said he did not know Phillips, Briggs or Ickes, and "of course I never had a conference with any of them."

AN AMERICAN AIR BASE IN ITALY

Jan. 7.—(Delayed)—I tell the tale only as I heard it. You can believe as much of it as you wish.

A group of correspondents fresh from the front were wandering through the streets of a town in eastern Italy when they encountered one of those dark mysterious men who dwell in every Italian doorway. He had black eyes, black hair and an "ultra-secret" manner.

"Wanna eat?" he said. "I know where you can get nice a chicken dinner buoni. Come with me."

The correspondents disregarded him for a time, but he was persistent.

Finally they decided to see what he had to offer.

They followed him and he was as good as his word. At a little black market restaurant the correspondents dined superbly on luscious tender chicken washed down with prime red wine. Afterwards they were served with a scarce and good quality liquor.

The bill when it came shook them a little, but they were feeling very mellow and they paid it without comment. They were about to call it an evening, but not their Italian guide. He had another project in store.

"What I tell you," he said, "chicken dinner buoni, si? Now come with me. I take you bella signorina. She is the smallest woman in all Italy. Who among you has met a midget?"

They accompanied the Italian to an apartment where they were introduced to a pretty little woman no bigger than an oversized doll. She was dressed in black. She was very charming, and the group had a gay time laughing and talking with her. Finally someone asked her why she was in mourning.

"Ah," she said, "for Giovanni. He was my husband. The smallest man in all Italy. I have not always been as you see me now. We were in the theatrical profession. I am two feet six inches tall, but my husband, he was only two feet five inches, an inch smaller than I."

"What happened to him," a correspondent asked.

"You must know my Giovanni, despite his small size had the heart of a lion. He was always afraid of nothing. A few months ago he was standing at a bar in Foggia having a drink when the air raid alarm sounded. Everyone ran for cover. It was a raid by your Flying Fortresses."

"My Giovanni did not run with the others. He was too brave, and besides he had not finished the drink he had paid for. He stood alone at the bar and drank his drink slowly. When it was all gone he walked over to the door and stepped out."

"He was halfway across the street—my Giovanni—when he received a direct hit from one of your blockbuster bombs. He just disappeared. There was nothing left of him—nothing."

"There wasn't much talk after that. When the war correspondents bowed themselves out of the apartment a few moments later there seemed a strange glint in the small signorina's eyes."

The group walked a couple of blocks in dead silence. Then they stopped at a street corner before disbanding.

"Look," said one, "do you think a little midget like her could be pulling all our legs?"

I tell the tale as I heard it.

Gov. Stevenson was in Dallas.

"I am astounded at the governor's statement in his contention that a soldier ballot can not be given the soldier because section 1, article 7 of the constitution allocates $1 of the poll tax to the public free school fund," Smith's statement said.

"While insisting this to be a levy of the poll tax by the constitution he seems to forget that the constitution in section 3, article 8 specifically clothes the legislature with exclusive power to levy taxes. Taxes shall be levied and collected by general law, etc." as distinguished from constitutional law.

Moreover, the governor seems to forget that the legislature has been exempting certain classes of persons from payment of a poll tax for more than 40 years. Article 269 exempts the blind, Indians, persons having lost a hand or a foot, and discharged soldiers of foreign wars whose disability is not less than 40 per cent. If the legislature has the right to grant poll tax exemptions to these persons, it can certainly grant exemption to men and women now in the service.

"The question is: Can the legislature grant exemptions from payment of the poll tax? It has exercised that right for more than 40 years and no court has ever said that it did not have that right. I insist that it has such a right.

"Ordinarily I am opposed to special sessions of the legislature because I know that sometimes more injury is done than good. But the constitution has given the governor, and I emphasize the constitution since it seems to be now very much under discussion by the governor and attorney general, the right to convene the legislature in special session when public necessity dictates such a policy. I most earnestly contend that the denial of more than 400,000 Texans now in the armed forces of the right to vote constitutes a public necessity warranting the convening of the legislature.

"In May 1919 the legislature was convened by Governor Hobby on the 8th day of the month for the specific purpose of enacting soldier vote legislation. This session of the legislature adjourned four days later after having completed its labors. In my opinion the present legislature could enact the legislation needed to give the soldier a free vote within 10 days time. I do not think any other matters

Biddle Rules Government Can Retain Mines

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—(P)—Secretary Ickes has announced that the justice department has ruled that continuing possibility of work stoppages permits the government to retain possession of seized coal mines, even though virtually normal production has been restored.

The Smith-Connelly "anti-strike" act provides that government seized mines should be restored to their owners within 60 days after their return to the productive efficiency prevailing prior to government seizure.

Attorney General Biddle has ruled, however, Ickes said, that "productive efficiency has not been restored within the meaning of section three of the war labor disputes act" since, if the government relinquishes possession, there might be "further interferences with production through strikes or stoppages or threats of strikes or stoppages."

Ickes, government administrator of the mines, has turned back to their owners 465 mines which had no contract with the United Mine Workers and at which no work stoppages were threatened. But the bulk of the nation's 3,000-odd soft coal workings still are in government hands.

In requesting the opinion, Ickes informed the attorney general that
