GSPA Calls For Sales Curtailment

LUBBOCK * TEX. - A call for a curtailment of any further sales of grain by producers has been launched by the Grain Sorghum Producers Association. This action came following an announcement by the U.S. State Department on September 22 that the embargo of grain sales to Russia would be extended to other eastern European countries such as Poland.

GSPA president A.W. Anthony, Jr., of Friona, Tex., stated, "It is time for the American producers to start speaking the only language the White House apparently understands - this being a boycott."

Anthony asked that all grain producers join in this effort. It should be the decision of all farmers not to sell any more grain until the administration gives complete and unqualified assurance that the American farmer has free access to all markets including Russia for the 1975 crop or until farmers are able to sell their grain for full parity, according to the GSPA official. The current parity on grain sorghum is $5.16 cwt. Corn parity is $3.07 per bushel. Anthony stated, "Producers were given assurance at planting and also at the time of the farm bill veto that we would have free access to all world markets. The current embargo on sales to Russian is a complete reversal of these assurances and farmers should react by stopping all sales of grain until these requirements are met. It is time the administration and American consumers alike be concerned about farmers' problems."

Anthony said, "It is time that American consumers see whether the labor unions or the U.S. farmers control the food supply of this country. We have 'cooled it' long enough. At present, this is our only chance of making the farmers' views known."

WEDDING PLANS REVEALED . . . Mrs. Evelyn Moore of Muleshoe announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Monticene Renee Smith, to Richard Ray Stovall, son of Mr. and Mrs. Billy R. Stovall, also of Muleshoe. The couple plan to exchange vows October 11, 1975, at 5:00 p.m. in the Trinity Baptist Church of Muleshoe.

Miss Duarte, Yruegas Exchange Vows

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Yruegas and Miss Martha Duarte and Phillip Yruegas were married, September 20, at 3:00 p.m. in the St. Ann's Catholic Church in Morton. The Rev. Nicholas Schneiders performed the double-ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Mike Duarte, Sr. of Goodland and Mr. and Mrs. Nestor Yruegas of Needmore.

Vows were exchanged before an archway of English Ivy, blue carnations and baby's breath. Candlebras stood on each side of the archway and the candles were lit by Danette Lane and Charles Madrid.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a formal gown of Acetate and nylon lace, with a scooped neckline, trimmed with beaded pearls. The long lace sleeves came to a point over the hand. The lace train was attached to the gown with ruffles of lace. Her fingertip veil was attached to a Juliet Caplet decorated with beaded pearls. She carried a bouquet of white Carnations and baby's breath.

Sylvia Dutchover, the organist played the "Wedding March" song and "Sing of Mary". The maid of honor was Irene Duarte, sister of the bride, and George Duarte, best man, were escorted by Alex Morales and Sophia Yuentes.

Padrinos for the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. Mike Duarte, Jr., Eddie Jr., Lupy Morales, Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Lucero, Mr. and Mrs. Danny Primera, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Lucero, Mr. and Mrs. David Palmer and Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Morales.

Ring bearers were J.J. Duarte and Elea Flores. Flowergirls were Patsy Nino, escorted by Arthur Madrid, Dolores Morales, escorted by Adam Rodriguez, Vicky Marque, escorted by Antonio Yruegas, Danette Lane, escorted by Charles Madrid, Orelina Estrada, escorted by Manuel Valencia, Patty Morales, escorted by Israel Zapata, Pam Partlaw, escorted by Ronnie Richardson, Sandra Morales, escorted by Robert Duarte and Cynthia Morales, escorted by Daniel Rodriguez. The Madrias and flowergirls wore blue green and yellow dotted swiss dresses with flared sleeves trimmed in white lace. Two-hundred guests attended.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the activity building and a dance was held in the church hall. The couple will reside at Fort Worth.

Film Shown September 28

A new dramatic film, LIKE A MIGHTY ARMY* the down-to-earth true story of a man in tune with his times, will be shown at the First Baptist Church on September 28, at 7:00 p.m.

The social revolution among young people today is frightening in many of its aspects. Even the church is being seriously questioned as to its existence and activity. Instead of responding with bewilderment and fear, a handful of people in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, led by their dynamic, young minister, Rev. James Kennedy, committed themselves to the principle of providing life-changing answers for the people of their community.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Yruegas

Reception Honors Watkins

Mr. and Mrs. Claude B. Watkins was honored on their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception Sunday afternoon, September 28, from 3:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the Oklahoma Lane Baptist Church, of Farwell. Hosting the hospitality were the Watkins' four children, Kenneth Watkins of Farwell, Glen Watkins of Muleshoe, Dean Watkins of Dallas and Coretta Watkins of Lubbock.

Bob Jones and Miss Bill Ed Jones, nieces of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Watkins, assisted with the serving and Kim Watkins, a granddaughter, registered the guests.

Claude B. Watkins and Mae Irene Brown were married September 27, 1925 in the Coghill Baptist Church of Etowah, Tenn. by the Rev. F. Waugh.

Not Sure

The trouble with being a leader today is that you can't be sure whether people are following or chasing you.

-News, Savannah.

They moved to Texas in 1931, from Tennessee to the Oklahoma Lane or Farwell area. In 1934, Claude Watkins has been farming ever since they moved to Texas and he is now retired. The couple has five grandchildren and reside now at Muleshoe.

Innocence Abroad

A bride went to the butcher shop to buy a ham. "Here are some fresh smoked ones," said the butcher. "But haven't you any that have never been sick?" asked the bride.

A set of measuring spoons kept in the medicine cabinet are quite handy when measuring dosages of medicine.

Insist that your school-age children eat breakfast. The first meal of the day should contain from one-fourth to one-third of the day's calorie need.

If you find your shoes have mildewed, clean with a 50-50 solution of rubbing alcohol and water or saddle soap. Dry in sunlight.

If your grocery budget keeps increasing—remember that you pay extra for convenience foods and ready-for-table foods. Buy fresh foods in season and save by preparing them yourself.

Library Presents The Value Of Good Books

Library News

Good reading is one of life's great privileges. Books mean education to some, inspiration to others and entertainment to others. Books have changed the lives of people, and have changed the course of history.

Speaking of history, I have compiled a list of Historical books of fiction - as a beginning of the holdings of the library for the bi-centennial year. From time to time this list will have additions, as well as another list of the non-fiction books that we have on this period of history. These lists will be free, so ask for a copy.

The Declaration of Independence; the original articles of the Constitution and the first twelve amendments, known as the "Bill of Rights" were given to the library recently by Dr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis. These framed reproductions will be hung in the Reference section of the library, and we appreciate this gift very much.

the library recently by Dr. and Mrs. Charles Lewis. These framed reproductions will be hung in the Reference section of the library, and we appreciate this gift very much.

On order is a set of filmstrips which would make a very good club program-giving a colorful and intriguing look at 200 years of fashion history- vividly recreating the look of American women, as they helped to build our country; from 1776 with its "empire" design up to the 1970's, bare midriffs and bell-bottoms.

New fall books have been arriving and many of the best-sellers will soon be on our shelves. Hopefully patrons will keep in mind that any book not found in the library will be gotten on loan-if a little time is allowed before it is needed. Just ask for this service. Linda Lopez is working under the Ceta Manpower training program. She will be glad to help you. We still have Cammie Waggoner, a High School student who is working under the HECE program for training young people in having a trade or profession. We are happy to have both of these young people to help at the library.

The library is putting into effect a new ruling on magazines and periodicals. Only the current magazines will be circulated. We have had so many older magazines lost or not returned to make this necessary to maintain our back files. Many magazines and paperback books are donated and this keeps us in a good supply and is encouraged and appreciated.

Flattery can move mountains and gullible people.

A Weekly Report Of Agri Business News

John C. White, Commissioner

Animal Health Meeting Set... Cattle On Feed Up Slightly... Milk Production Declines... Next Crop Report Due Sept. 11.

A meeting to discuss proposed changes in brucellosis programs for Texas will be held Sept. 4 at 9:30 a.m. in Room 117, Sam Houston Building, Austin. Members of the Texas Animal Health Commission will listen to comments on proposed changes which would realign state regulations to conform with federal rules.

Brucellosis continues to be a major problem for the livestock industry in Texas.

CATTLE ON FEED in Texas as of Aug. 1 totaled 1,331,000 head, the Texas Crop and Livestock Reporting Service at Austin notes. This is a five per cent increase over a month ago, but is 26 per cent below a year ago and about 50 percent lower than 14 months ago.

Nationwide, there were 5,932,000 head of cattle on feed as of Aug. 1. This is down one per cent from a month ago and 15 per cent below the same period a year ago.

Recent increases in feed grains have changed the price outlook for feeders in the coming months. A shortage of fed beef could occur later this year, many feeders warn. This would be caused by a lack of profits among cattle feeders.

MILK PRODUCTION in Texas during July is down two per cent from the same period a month ago and is down one per cent below the previous month. Nationwide, milk production is down 1.4 per cent from a year ago.

WHILE THE AUGUST CROP REPORT has now become history, don't forget that the September crop report will be out shortly. Sept. 11 is the date for its release, and producers, consumers, and speculators will be watching for it eagerly.

Meanwhile, crop harvesting continues in a big way throughout the state. Cotton harvest is picking up speed and with hot, dry weather it should move along rapidly. First bales have been reported in a number of Blackland counties.

Sorghum harvest is now more than half finished throughout the state. Prospects on the High and Low Plains are considered good to excellent. Rainfall in some parts of the state has caused some slowdown of the harvest.

Corn harvest is underway in the southern half. Yields this year for the state read like a midwestern production report. The estimated per acre yield for Texas is 105 bushels per acre. This is the first Texas crop to exceed 100 bushels per acre in 54 years.

Rice harvest is at the half-way completion mark. Yields generally have been satisfactory.

Vegetable harvest is also making a lot of progress throughout the state. On the High Plains, only a few onions remain to be harvested.

In North Texas, harvesting of peas, tomatoes, okra, squash and watermelons continues. Grape and plum harvest is also active.

Spring and summer gardens are becoming victims of hot weather in the central part of the state, but fall vegetable land preparation is underway.

IT CONTINUES TO BE NECESSARY to submit suspected screwworm cases to the fly lab at Mission.

Screwworm activity continues to increase throughout the state, and officials at the fly lab also urge livestock producers to treat wounds on livestock with approved screwworm-control remedies.

And delay surgery on livestock as long as possible, too.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm tackles the busing problem this week. He may have been thrown for a loss.

Dear editor:
I have been following the controversy over school bus-ing around the country, whether it's in the cultural North or the backward South, and the problem seems to be the same, the people just as divided and the tempers just as raw, with the answer just as elusive.

This may be because the people aren't thinking, or because, some parents argue, the decisions are generally turned over to a Federal judge with a life-time appointment whose children are already grown.

Now of course it's hard if not impossible to explain to a parent why his child can't step across the street to a nice school already there, instead of having to ride a bus clear across to the other side of the city, while the kids over there ride a bus to the school across the street. You can't blame him for thinking such a plan must have been thought up by the bus manufacturers.

Now there's nothing wrong with riding a bus to school, it sure beats walking two miles to school when you and I were young. Or was it five miles?

But ride one when the school's right across the street? There's the rub. So the answer is to eliminate that school. Maybe make a library out of it. And then have just one school for everybody. The thing to do is for Boston, for example, to erect one school in the middle of the city, 20 stories high or however high it takes to hold all the school kids the town's got, with plans for adding more stories if the population keeps growing. You finish one grade, you move up a story, until finally you come out on the roof, fully educated.

Thus everybody goes to the same school, everybody rides a bus, the police can go about their regular work, the mayor can hunt for more taxes, and parents can have an extra hour of freedom mornings and afternoons while their kids are en route to and from the heart of the city.

If you argue that many buses will clog the streets, I'll remind you that the streets are already clogged, and besides, if engineers put their minds to it, they could devise pneumatic tubes extending spider-web-like out from the 20 story school, with parents encasing their kids in plastic cocoons and shooting them to school in record time. A computer could make sure they took the right tube back home. Be safer than walking across the street. On reaching the school in the mornings they could all land in one big room in the basement, integrated like never before.

Yours faithfully,

Medicare Info Available

People can get information about the quality of care furnished by hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, and other providers of Medicare services by visiting the Lubbock social security office at the Federal Bldg. 1205 Texas Avenue.

Available information includes deficiencies noted by the latest Texas State Department of Health surveys as well as the providers' plans for corrective action, according to Clyde W. James, social security district manager.

The surveys are made from time to time to see if providers are meeting Medicare health and safety standards. Providers surveyed also include home health agencies and independent laboratories.

The survey information is open for public inspection under the United States Freedom of Information Act. Copies of as many as 50 pages can be obtained free of charge. When more than 50 pages are requested, copies are available at 10 cents a page, James said.

Medicare helps pay for the health care expenses of people 65 and over, of disabled people under 65 who have been entitled to social security disability benefits for at least 24 consecutive months, and of many people with permanent kidney failure.

The Medicare program is administered by the Social Security Administration, an agency of the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Allowable Spending
It's all right to save money, but too many are trying to save it from people they owe it to.

Need More Spirit?

Football is underway and the Mules have shown that they can win some this year; band is in full swing and they are always a joy to hear while marching or in concerts; the speech and drama department is warming up for their first tournaments and plays which will be held soon; basketball games are just around the corner as the teams prepare for their heavy schedules; track, tennis, and golf are in the future but still important; and the clubs and class activities are going strong. With all of these activities, M.H.S. students should be exhausted from running around participating in this event, being a spectator at that one; but that is really not true. The point is that there is not enough participation by the studentbody in extracurricular activities.

Junior Class Holds Meet

On Monday, September 22, the Junior Class had meetings of the Halloween Carnival and Mum Sale Committees. There were only four people who attended the meeting. All of the rest of the members were at the Lubbock fair.

For the Halloween Carnival, the Committee decided to have the lot just north of the bus barn entrance for a cake walk as a money-making project.

The Junior Class announced Wednesday, September 24, that they will be selling homecoming mums until October 6. Muleshoe Floral will be arranging the mums this year at prices of $5.00, $8.00 and $10.00. If anyone is interested in purchasing a mum, he should contact one of these Juniors: Nicky Bamert, Belinda Anguiana, Patti Poyner, Tanya Burton, Patty Pena, Geneva Madrid, Nancy Ramm, Fran Dunbar, Beene, Lisa Mason, and Sheryl Stovall.

On Saturday, September 6, the FTA had a District XVII planning session. This was held in Lubbock at the Gridiron Restaurant. Representing Muleshoe

Boosting The Spirit

The Muleshoe Varsity Cheerleaders are busy at work helping boost the Spirit of M.H.S.

Each Friday at 12:45, a Spirit session is held in front of the High School. The Band plays and many Cheers and Chants are led to raise the Spirit and encourage the students to attend the game. The Cheerleaders hope each and every student will try and attend the next Spirit session and really get involved in raising the Spirit of M.H.S.

Thanks to the courtesy of Stan Black at the XIT Steak House, the Cheerleaders have received free Pizzas to give away each Friday.

A coming contest planned is a poster-drawing contest, and the winner will receive the pizza. So everyone is thinking about what you want your poster to say. This is planned for Homecoming week when we play Morton.

The Cheerleaders would like for everyone to attend all the games and help support the Mules. Our next game will be at Portales so everyone get ready.

FUNERAL COSTS

The Federal Trade Commission has accused the funeral industry of exploiting consumers through such tactics as overcharges and body-snatching.

Mr. Kerry Moore, the sponsor; Sherrell Rasco, District Vice-President; and Janet Hopper, District Recording Secretary.

Following a luncheon, there was a short business meeting to discuss the district meeting. The district meeting will be held November 8 at Lubbock Christian College in Lubbock. Also discussed was the State Convention, which will be held February 20-21 in Houston.

Next, the Leadership Conference was discussed. This will be a meeting where each district officer will present a workshop on his office. The conference will be Saturday, September 27, at Wilson High School.

The meeting was closed and there was an informal visitation session.

The Muleshoe Mules came home with a 26-14 victory over the Friona Chieftans Friday, September 19.

The Mules came out on top as they picked 17 first downs to Friona's 12. The offensive hustled and played hard making this possible. For his performance Carey Sudduth, Quarterback, was named Outstanding Player of the Week by Amarillo Globe News. First two touchdowns passed were caught by Reuben Gonzales, split end for the Mules. Keeping Muleshoe ahead, Carey Wade Sudduth scored the third touchdown during the beginning of the third quarter and Billy Tom St. Clair made the final score for Muleshoe the latter part of the third quarter.

Defensive players played well by holding the Chieftans to two touchdowns.

Friday night the Mules traveled to Littlefield to take on the Littlefield Wildcats.

Frosh Football Season Good

The Muleshoe Mules Freshman football team has started out a good season this year with two wins and one loss.

Coach Raymond Schroeder says there are 35 boys out for the team. This many young men enable us to have both offensive and defensive teams. Each week the Freshman coaches pick both an offensive and defensive player of the week. These two players get to suit out in two special lockers for the next week. These outstanding players are called "Super Mules."

The "Super Mules" for the Morton Game, which ended Muleshoe 14, Morton 0, were on defense: Armando Acosta and offense, Jeep Shanks.

Mules victory over Olton in which the score was Muleshoe 24, Olton 6, were offense, Johnny Densman and defense,

Charles Williams. In last week's game, the Mules lost in a hard battle against Dimmitt. The score was Muleshoe 0 and Dimmitt 18. The "Super Mules" for that game were David Cavazos on defense and Jeep Shanks on offense.

The next Freshman game will be against Morton on October 9. The game will be in the Benny Douglas Memorial Stadium and will start at 5:30 p.m. We urge you to attend.

Powderpuff Underway

The FTA Thirteenth Annual Powderpuff game will be held on October 6 at 8:00. This is the FTA's money making project and the whole town of Muleshoe is urged to attend.

Our Attorney General's Consumer Protection Division says those patches are part of a new idea taking hold in the grocery industry—computerization. This is the way the computerized supermarkets are expected to work.

Cash registers at grocery check-out counters will be hooked up to a store com-

The Consumer Alert
by John L. Hill
Attorney General
AUSTIN—U.P.C.—it sounds something like the U.F.O.'s we've all heard about, doesn't it? But the initials U.P.C. stand for "Universal Product Code," those patches of bars and numbers many Texans have noticed on their supermarket products lately.

Instead of ringing up your purchases, cashiers will pass the U.P.C. patch on each product across a "scanner," which will read the symbols and feed the information directly to the computer. The item's description and price will immediately be flashed back on the register or a screen and printed on register tape. The whole procedure is expected to take a few seconds.

Although the idea is only now in the testing phase, some consumer groups are already saying that the "unidentified flying object" comparison isn't so far off base. They say U.P.C. could just as well stand for "unidentified product cost" as for Universal Product Code.

Our Consumer Protection attorneys note that consumers still have a chance to voice an opinion on this new trend in food shopping, and suggest that consumers study available information before making up their minds.

People in the supermarket industry say both consumers and grocers will benefit from U.P.C. They say check-outs will be faster and more accurate, since checkers won't have to look at and ring up each item. And they point out that computers are usually more accurate and more able to handle special cases such as sales taxes, discounts, bottle returns, coupons, food stamps, and so on.

Better inventory control and faster reordering are predicted, as well as lower labor costs, since no product price will have to be marked or remarked. Possibly some portion of the reduced operating costs under U.P.C. may be passed on to consumers in lower grocery prices.

However, several consumer groups have been quick to point out possible drawbacks to the proposed system. The main problem they foresee is that lack of prices on each item could be confusing or perhaps even deceptive. That's because between the time a consumer chooses a product and notes its shelf price, and the time he or she checks out, the price could change. Also, consumers who like to compare shop might find it difficult to remember shelf prices as they move up and down aisles.

Consumer advocates also point out that computer programmers could make errors in pricing information fed into the computer. They also say there's no guarantee that prices will be lower with U.P.C.—in fact, many predict the high cost of installing the computer equipment might even be passed on to the consumer. In addition, they point out that check-outs might not be as speedy as the supermarket industry says, since the new electronic cash registers are costly and some stores may simply reduce the number of check-out lanes

This old forgotten boat is almost buried in the reeds. Can this boat in any way be compared to our talents? What of these talents that God has given us? Have they been beached, forgotten, buried?

Heaven expects us to help in this matter of creating a better world where brother helps brother by using to the fullest extent the talents He has bestowed upon us. God always provokes and prods mankind to do good works, and accomplish great things. And He says that if we dedicate ourselves to this matter He will help. TEXAS TALK
by RAY DAVIS
Although promoting the producer is customary fare for this column, seeing farmers get "good press" from one of the country's financial magazines is refreshing. In the July issue of FORTUNE, a major article compliments today's farmer as being a talented businessman. In part the article says... "a farmer must be a tolerably good chemist, mechanic, market analyst and cost accountant... must be able to judge when to sell his crops, when to hold back, and when to hedge with futures contracts, requiring not only a deep understanding of the commodities markets, but also a grasp of U. S. economic policies at home and abroad." When talking about management ability... "When it comes to managerial skill, a first-rate farmer can hold his own with businessmen in industry." In short the article states what a lot of us have realized for a long time... a successful farmer or rancher means being a true professional.

Ford's Veto Of EPA Act Could Cost Farmers

President Ford's veto of the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act could end up costing the nation's farmers an additional $1-1½ billion a year in increased production costs, Jay Naman, President of the Texas Farmers Union warned today. "We are already paying two to three times as much for petroleum products as we did a year ago," Naman said. "In addition to the increased costs experienced this past year, we now have reports that at least one of the major oil companies anticipates that it will have to increase its price of gasoline some seven to eight cents a gallon to recover increased crude oil prices." "It can be reasonably expected that increases in all other petroleum based products, including fertilizer and transportation services, will occur along with that of gasoline," Naman explained. "Of significance to farmers is the fact that they will also lose their priority in allocation of fuel and propane."

Naman said that with price controls lifted, "old" oil would be allowed to rise from the ceiling price of $5.25 a barrel to the current price of foreign and uncontrolled domestic oil, about $13 a barrel.

"What this all adds up to," Naman warned, "is an increase in the cost of production for farmers and eventually increases in the cost of food to consumers."

Naman recalled that President Ford had promised farmers in a speech to the Kansas Legislature on February 11, 1975, that a rebate program would be established "to compensate the American farmer for increased energy costs caused by our conservation program".

"However, no such program has been put forth by the President," Naman said.

"Even a forty-five day extension of the present controls will not help the situation, based on the attitudes of the President and Congress," Naman added. "Congress must get on with the business of establishing a national energy policy. This policy must assure agricultural producers of continued adequate supplies of petroleum products at stable prices. Farmers cannot cut back on their use of petroleum products at stable prices. Farmers cannot cut back on their use of petroleum products, on the one hand, and meet the challenge of the government for all out production, on the other," the farm leader said. "Any program, or lack of national policy, which will increase the cost of production for farmers will eventually show up on the supermarket shelf in the form of higher food prices," Naman warned.

Texas Ranks Fourth In Irish Potatoes

AUSTIN--According to figures recently released, Texas will rank fourth in the nation in production of summer Irish potatoes in 1975.

With summer potato harvest on the High Plains rapidly nearing completion, production is forecast at 1,785,000 pounds per hundredweight, twenty percent below 1974 production, Agriculture Commissioner John C. White said.

The 1975 production figure compares with 2,244,000 lbs. per hundredweight in 1974.

Harvested acreage is expected to be 8,500. Of that figure, 4,600 acres produced fresh market white potatoes. Potatoes and 2,600 acres produced fresh market red potatoes. Potatoes and 2,600 acres produced fresh market white potatoes and 2,600 acres produced fresh market red potatoes. Potatoes going to potato chip manufacturers were grown on 1,300 acres.

Yield per acre is estimated at 210 pounds per hundredweight, nearly the same as 1974 yields.

A few fields in the Hereford area suffered some wind and hail losses, but the majority of the crop escaped damage.

Time Now For Soils Sampling

Fertilizer supplies are increasing so that farmers should have a better selection of fertilizer materials to use this fall. But it's still all-important to have a guide for applying fertilizer, and such a guide comes only from a soil test, emphasizes Spencer Tanksley county agent for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Tanksley suggests that now is an excellent time to collect soil samples and to submit them for testing. Containers and instructions for submitting soil samples are available at the county Extension office. Based on a soil test, a sound fertilization program can be developed for the coming crop year.

Such a program will be increasingly important in the months ahead. Under present economic conditions, low yields are not profitable, and fertilization, at least with nitrogen is generally necessary for profitable yields. Yet, the need for each plant nutrient and its potential profitability should be closely evaluated.

With current high production costs, uncertainty about farm prices, and other risks in crop production costs, uncertainty about farm prices, and other risks in crop production, farmers must study their fertilizer needs more closely than ever to make sound management decisions, believes Tanksley.

More cotton industry leaders from across the 19-state Cotton Belt will be on the High Plains during the first week of September than ever before in history, notes Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

The biggest influx of cotton people on September 3, 4 and 5 will be here for the Fall board meeting of the National Cotton Council at Lubbock's Hilton Inn. This will bring to the Plains representatives of the seven major segments of the U.S. cotton industry from all across the nation. NCC board members, alternates and advisory members, representing producers, ginners, warehousemen, merchants, seed crushers, cooperatives and textile manufacturers, will be hosted during the 3-day meeting by the top people in corresponding industry segments on the High Plains.

Also meeting in Lubbock during the week will be the Board of Directors of the Texas Association of Cotton Producer Organizations (TACPO), involving representatives from each of the seven chartered cotton producer organizations in Texas. That meeting will begin on the evening of September 2 and be continued on September 3.

Then at 10:00 a.m., September 3, certified cotton interest organizations will caucus in Lubbock to consider the selection of Cotton Board nominees, Cotton Incorporated directors and producer delegates to the National Cotton Council from Texas.

The only portion of the official functions open to the public will be a session of the NCC board from 8:30 a.m. to Noon on September 4, at which Cotton Incorporated President Dukes Wooters will be the principal speaker. Johnson is urging all cotton oriented people to demonstrate their interest in industry affairs by attending this meeting.

The NCC group will get down to business at 10:00 a.m. September 3 with a series of committee meetings, including the Special Study, Finance, Executive, and Council Operations committees.

A reception, hosted by NCC itself, will kick off social activities in the Hilton Inn at 6:00 p.m., September 3, to be followed by separate dinners arranged for NCC board members and alternates representing each industry segment. TACPO will treat producer members of the NCC board.

Tours for NCC board members and their wives are slated for the afternoon of September 4. They will visit the Textile Research Center at Texas Tech, Lubbock Feed Lot, Plains Cooperative Oil Mill, the Texas A&M Research and Extension Center and Feather Fabrics, Inc. Especially for the ladies on the morning of September 4 will be a tour of the Ranching Heritage Center on the Texas Tech campus and an art tour of the First National-Pioneer Natural Gas Building, followed by a luncheon at the Lubbock Club.

A reception, hosted by the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce at 6:00 p.m. September 4, will be held at the Lubbock Country Club, after which Lubbock's four regional cotton cooperatives will host a dinner.

The morning of September 5 is set aside for a closed business session of the NCC board, scheduled to conclude at noon.

"We are glad to have this opportunity to host the NCC, TACPO and cotton interest organizations in Lubbock," said Johnson, "and it is our intent that all will leave Lubbock knowing they have really been in cotton country."

The Lieutenant Governor's Report By Bill Hobby

8.1.75

AUSTIN--Recent, dramatic increases in the cost of medical professional liability insurance are presenting a serious challenge to the health care delivery system which serves the people of this state. Steps must be taken to meet this crisis with the appropriate response in order to protect our citizens from possible shrinkage of our health care delivery system to a point where it would become so costly as to be financially unavailable to the majority.

We are aware of some of the causes of the present crisis. The Supreme Court "discovery rule", which says that an individual can file suit within two years of the "discovery" of maltreatment or injury, has led to an increase in volume of malpractice suits. Also, there is the possibility that companies those individuals in need of attention? I hate to think.

In the end, the patient will have to bear the burden of increased costs. Medical care, which has already increased dramatically in cost, will soar beyond the reach of many.

We are determined to give immediate attention to this problem.

The 64th Legislature adopted two important bills regarding professional liability insurance - Senate Bills 466 and 491.

Senate Bill 466 requires the State Board of Insurance to approve rates on both the high-risk type and conventional malpractice insurance. There is currently no state regulation.

The absence of state regulation has precluded the gathering of such information as how many cases are tried or settled out of court, what the total premiums paid by doctors and hospitals are, and what claims, settlements and jury verdicts are. Our initial efforts to meet this crisis have been, of necessity, shots in the dark. With the adoption of Senate Bill 466, the State Board of Insurance will be able to collect all necessary information and has, in fact, already begun this difficult task.

Senate Bill 491 creates a joint underwriting association, to which all liability insurance companies will contribute, which will offer insurance for doctors who cannot obtain coverage at all or who cannot obtain enough coverage to the open market. Senate Bill 491 also calls for the creation of the Medical Professional Liability Study Commission which will be discussed in next week's column.

For Rent
You're doing without a Zimmatic center pivot. Saving your hard-earned capital for other improvements. Don't want to borrow right now.
But it's costing you money every year you wait. Two ways. First, you're losing the extra crop production you get under irrigation. Second, inflation is at work. Boosting prices, dropping the value of your dollars.

Why not rent a Zimmatic center pivot lease plan? Let the system pay for itself and put some extra money in the bank for you at the same time.
Our rates are reasonable. You can include freight, installation, pump...
OTHER "above ground" items in one flexible package, tailored to your needs. Why wait to irrigate? It's just costing you money. Call us today for details on our new lease plan.
