Mother in 'Kidnap' Hoax Held for Murder, Committed for Mental Test

CHelsea, Mass., Dec. 15 (AP) — Mrs. Rose Carlan, 23-year-old mother of "kidnaped" Ronald Carlan, whose body was found yesterday beneath a china closet in his parents' home, was held tonight on a charge of assaulting and beating to death her six months old baby.

Mrs. Rose Carlan

Chelsea district court was packed with spectators today as Assistant Clerk Stephen White read the charge that Mrs. Carlan "did assault and beat one Ronald Carlan with intent to murder him, and by such assault and beating did murder the said Ronald Carlan."

MOTHER'S REPLY
The baby's mother replied to the charge immediately in a strong voice: "That is not true, what you just said."
Then, she dropped into a chair, sobbing.

No formal plea was entered and Judge John W. McLeod ordered her held without bail for hearing December 24 and committed her to the psychopathic hospital for observation.

SHE COULDN'T UNDERSTAND
As she left the police station for the Boston psychopathic hospital, Mrs. Carlan told newsmen that she couldn't understand how she was able to carry out the kidnap hoax.

"I got in deeper and deeper," she said. "I am relieved that I can tell the truth now and not tell any more lies."

'NEGLECTING CHILD'
"At first I was afraid my folks would think I was neglecting my child and I would lose by husband's love as a result of it. I don't care about anything else if I can keep that (his love)."

State police had quoted her as saying that the baby died while she was attending a party at her mother-in-law's apartment, upstairs, and Mrs. Carlan said she almost

Marshall Off to China On Diplomatic Mission

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—(AP)—President Truman disclosed today that Gen. George C. Marshall's first objective in China will be an end to hostilities between the nationalists and communists.

HST CALLS CONFERENCE
Beyond that the President called for a conference of all Chinese factions to work out a permanent political settlement for unification of the country in a broadened national government.

At the same time, in a major policy statement on China, Mr. Truman linked American economic aid with his peace and unity program. He said this country would be prepared to grant credits and loans as China moves "along the lines described."

AMERICAN DIPLOMACY
The chief executive thus furnished a specific program for putting an end to factionalism in China, Marshall, special presidential representative with the rank of ambassador, left for Chungking by plane today carrying a secret letter of instructions from the President on which the White House statement, released tonight was based.

Marshall succeeds Maj. Gen. Patrick J. Hurley in China and diplomatic authorities estimated that the policy laid down by Mr. Truman brings greater pressure to bear on the government of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek than General Hurley was ever willing to use. Economic pressure took the form of a

U. S. Is Home of United Nations

LONDON, Dec. 15—(AP)—The United States was chosen today as permanent home of the United Nations organization after a long, hard-fought battle, and the preparatory commission decided to meet Monday to select the city in which the world peace agency will be located.

The selection becomes final with the stamp of approval of the general assembly, and Belgian and French delegates, who with British delegates led the fight for a European site, said the choice would not be challenged again.

The United States won out on a roll call vote of 30 to 14, with six nations, including the United States, abstaining. A two-thirds majority was needed. Previously the delegates voted down a motion favoring a European site by a tally of 25 to 23.

HOGS ON ICE

NEW ULM, Minn., Dec. 15—(AP)—Henceforth Arnold Grams' pigs are going to market instead of skating.

He put a ban on piggy jaunts along the Minnesota river after 28 of his fat porkers ventured on thin ice and broke through. All drowned, and Grams figured his loss at $1,300.

Thomas Says Britain Owns Stock in GM

(By The Associated Press)
The CIO United Auto Workers said yesterday (Saturday) the union had asked the British labor government to intercede as a General Motors Corp. stockholder in the union's dispute with GM.

President R. J. Thomas of the UAW-CIO said the union had written Prime Minister Clement Attlee asking that the British labor government "make known" to General Motors that profits "are indeed the concern of the workers and the owners of any company."

Canyon Man Is Killed as Car Wrecks Mount

One person was killed and another was seriously burned in the Pahrump Valley night as the result of several auto accidents, partly due to icy roads.

Edward P. Hill, 26, of Canyon died in an Amarrillo hospital yesterday morning as the result of injuries received when the car in which he was riding overturned near Amarrillo.

Jimmy Bowen, 23, of Wellington, suffered burns and cuts and bruises Friday evening when the car in which he was riding with Forrest Ryan, 24, of Wellington, overturned four miles west of Skellytown at about 6 p. m. Friday.

Bowen was brought to Worley hospital yesterday for treatment and was taken to Wellington yesterday afternoon.

Highway Patrolman Preston Wynne, who investigated the accident near Skellytown, said that the 1941 Pontiac in which Ryan and Bowen were riding attempted to pass a 1940 Chevrolet driven by Charles Jenkins of Pampa.

Ryan told Wynne that his car apparently struck a highway sign post and swerved into the Jenkins car, which overturned. The Ryan car caught fire and was almost a complete loss, Wynne reported. The

Lumbermen Ask Public to Limit Future Building

"Texas lumbermen had adopted a policy of self-rationing of lumber stocks even before the government placed its latest order on lumber," Lynn Boyd, Pampa, president of the Texas Lumbermen's association, said yesterday.

Boyd, who returned Tuesday from the National Lumbermen's association convention in Chicago, told a Daily News reporter that the only way the current building materials shortage could be alleviated would be for home-owners to eliminate all building or improvement that could possibly be postponed.

26-DAY-OLD STRIKE

The 26-day-old strike of General Motors employees yesterday (Saturday) was given assurance of financial support by an affiliated union, the CIO United Rubber Workers of America.

The URW voted unanimously at its annual convention in Grand Rapids, Mich., to furnish the striking CIO United Auto Workers with direct donations from the URW treasury and weekly contributions from its 190,000 members. The International CIO had asked its locals and individual members to create a special strike fund to support the GM strikers.

NEGOTIATIONS CONTINUE

Negotiations between management in the automobile industry and the UAW-CIO will resume tomorrow (Monday) after a weekend lull. The union, seeking a 30 percent wage rate increase, will continue its meetings with representatives of General

'A' Energy Control Is Prime Subject

MOSCOW, Dec. 15—(AP)—Foreign Commissar Vyacheslav Molotov met individually today with United States Secretary of State James F. Byrnes and with British Foreign Minister Ernest Bevin, and indications tonight were that the three foreign ministers would hold their first formal sessions of their momentous conference on Monday.

Moscow newspapers gave the conference an auspicious send-off. The arrival of the ministers was prominently displayed in Izvestia, Pravda and Red Star, indicating the importance the Russians attach to the forthcoming talks. But the press still refrained from editorial comment on the meeting or its prospects.

Control of atomic energy is the prime subject for discussion.

The British foreign secretary arrived in a British plane this afternoon from Berlin, bundled up against the bitter Russian weather. Three other planes in his party had turned back.

BEVIN IS GREETED
Bevin was greeted at the airport by Deputy Foreign Commissar A. J. Vishinsky and expressed thanks for the cordial welcome.

Byrnes, who arrived here late yesterday after his plane was lost for an hour in the storm, spent the night at Spasso House, the residence of the American ambassador.

Foreign observers here felt several issues already have taken definite shape. Conceding that the question of controlling atomic energy will see FOREIGN CHIEFS Page 6

China Wants Industrialization, Needs U. S. Help Says Engineer

"We want industrialization, but we need your help,"

That was the summary of a brief talk by Sun Tze-chuan, 30-year-old Chinese engineer, as he appeared at the Friday luncheon of the Kiwanis club here. Sun is in this area studying production, distribution and transportation of petroleum and gas. He is sent here by the Chinese nationalist government.

In broken, but understandable English, Sun, who had not studied the language since he was in high school 15 years ago, discussed the social and political customs of his country, touching on the 14 years of war with Japan. He studied at the Tokyo university for two years prior to the outbreak of hostilities in 1931, and subsequently graduated from the University of Chungking, with a degree in mechanical and petroleum engineering.

He is quite enthusiastic for widespread industrialization of China. He did not mention the current civil strife between the Chinese communists and the central government. (Former U. S. Chief of Staff George C. Marshall left this country Saturday for China, as ambassador, with the expressed purpose of See CHINESE Page 4

Cline Appears Briefly in Court

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 15—(AP)—Clum and mute, Alfred Leonard Cline, 56, appeared briefly in court today, then was led back to his jail cell, there to ponder for the next week whether he will resist extradition to Texas where he is charged with murdering an elderly woman.

Meanwhile police from four states will question him about the Dallas death and the mysterious deaths of three other elderly women.

Cline, one-time Denver choir singer, who has prison records in Colorado and California, was arraigned today as a fugitive from justice, based on the murder complaint on file in Texas.

The Dallas complaint said the woman who died there was known as "Mrs. Alice W. Carpenter." District Attorney Edmund Brown said he believed, however, she actually was Mrs. Eva Delora Krebs Cline, wealthy Chicago widow. Cline was arrested here on charge of suspicion of forgery after some of the woman's securities were cashed. Attorneys for her estate were suspicious of the signature.

Legionnaires Plan 'Welcome Home' Dance

The Kerley-Crossman post of the American Legion here will hold a "Welcome Home" dance at the Legion hall Saturday, Dec. 29, from nine until 1 o'clock.

Phil Phillips and his orchestra, which is made up of returning veterans, will provide music for the dance.

Admission will be $1.20 per person, including tax, and the public is invited to attend.

Victory Clothing Drive Is Planned

A Victory clothing drive for the relief of thousands of people in war-torn Europe will be conducted here and throughout the nation from Jan. 7 until Jan. 31, it was announced yesterday.

B. R. Nuckols, local drive chairman, said that 100 million articles of clothing, in addition to bedding and shoes, is the national goal.

Most important feature of the coming drive will be the request that each contributor enclose a "good will letter" with each bundle of clothing he contributes. The letters will be delivered with the clothing.

Nuckols said a meeting to organize the drive locally would be held in the chamber of commerce offices Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock and urged that each club and organization and every school principal be present.

Old Man Winter Deals Pampa Lowest Blow In State With 3 Above Zero Temperature

Old Man Winter took his cue one week early as the coldest weather to hit the state this season was felt in Pampa Friday night with the mercury sinking to three degrees above zero, accompanied by the first snow fall.

FARMERS, RANCHERS WARNED
North and West Texas farmers and ranchers were urged to protect livestock as the weather bureau warned of hard freezes in the northern part of the state last night with temperatures of four degrees above zero in the panhandle to 16 in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, according to the Associated Press.

Throughout the state the king of the elements dished out a hodgepodge of weather, most of it bad. The snowfall began early Friday night. Teen-agers at the canteen deserted the hall for snowball fights. Cars swerved and went easy on the corners over slick streets yesterday. A sled rigged up with a motor pattered along in self-inflated glory. Clanking of tire chains was heard for the first time since Pampa's last extensive rainfall.

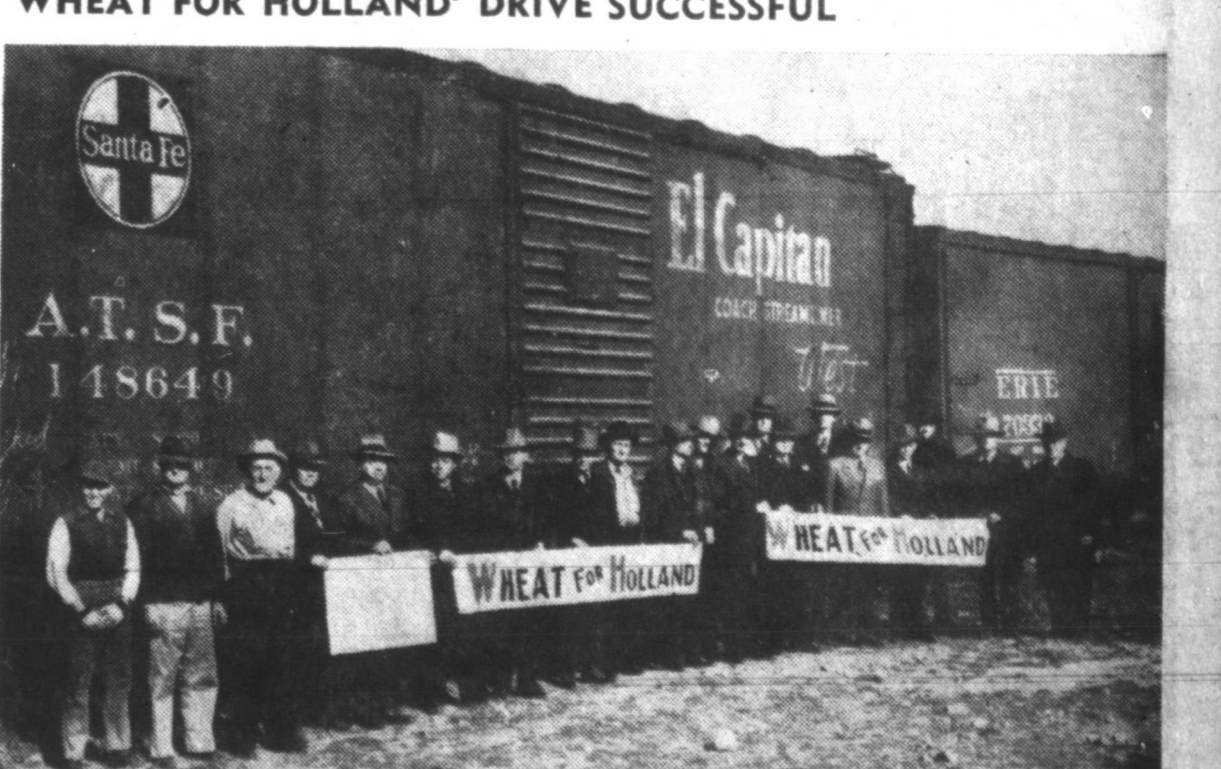

NO ACCIDENTS REPORTED

Unaccustomed to ice people skidded, some fell. No serious accidents were reported. Blankets and burlap covered radiators; men pushed cars from their parking places; wishes and curses for anti-freeze were heard at random.

Next coldest spot in Texas was Dalhart, which shivered and froze at five degrees Friday night. Only the area from Corpus Christi to Brownsville escaped freezing temperatures, reports the Associated Press. Low temperatures included

Officers, Board Members of Red Cross To Change

Board members and officers of 1946 will be elected to the Pampa chapter of the Red Cross at the annual chapter meeting to be held Tuesday night, Jan. 22, as planned at a meeting of the board held last week under the direction of President Aubrey Steele.

Irvin Cole was appointed chairman of the committee to make plans for the meeting. All persons who have donated to the Red Cross are eligible to vote. Mrs. Carl J. Wright, secretary of the board, said yesterday.

Volunteer workers who have devoted 200 hours or more to the various Red Cross activities will also be recognized at the annual meeting.

A committee to nominate board members and officers has been appointed. Members are Joe F. Key, chairman; Mrs. W. R. Campbell, and Mrs. J. B. Moss.

Plans were also made for the 1946 fund raising campaign. Letters were to be mailed yesterday to Pampa firms, in conjunction with the drive. Individuals may also give donations to the chapter at this time; gifts to the Red Cross may be applied toward income deductions.

Weather

Amarillo, 11, and Lubbock, 15.

A blanket of snow covered the northern tier of states to an average depth of from two to four inches and the sub-zero blasts from central Canada tightened their grip on the northern plains states.

From Wyoming and Montana eastward to Illinois and Indiana temperatures of below zero were reported.

Even lower readings were predicted for tomorrow morning and again on Monday morning. They will begin to moderate late Monday or Tuesday, the forecasters said.

Custer, Mont., reported the nation's low mark today, an icy 30 below.

Generally, below zero temperatures were reported throughout Minnesota, the Dakotas, Iowa, Nebraska, most of Wyoming, Colorado and Montana, and in some cities in Illinois and Indiana. Zero and below readings were expected to extend into southern Missouri and Oklahoma tonight.

The cold blasts spreading over the Mountain states and upper Mississippi valley moderated in the east although below freezing marks were common throughout the area. Pittsburgh reported 20 above; New York and Washington, D. C., 30 above.

There was rain in parts of the southeastern section of the country while mild temperatures prevailed in some parts of the Gulf states.

Chinese

this government to aid Gen. Chiang Kai-shek compose differences among the political factions.)

He surprised most of his audience when he said that many of the so-called Chinese foods offered in America were little known in his country. His countrymen, he said, never ate "chop suey."

No more than 5 percent of lend-lease from America went to China, he declared. That fact, he added, was due in part to the lack of transportation and suitable harbors.

He said in the war his country lacked "crew men"—meaning technicians, such as engineers. There was, he explained, plenty of manpower for the army. Inflation is still bad, although he said he believed it was less threatening than it was prior to the advent of peace. A shirt—such as that which he said he was wearing—costs $1,000; a meal would cost $500.

The head of a family—he said he had not seen his wife and children for 10 years—does not give money to his family in present-day China. It has been a trend, because of the national emergency, either to send one's children to school or into the military, when they are old enough.

The first gas well was drilled in China more than 2,000 years ago. There are now three fields in the country.

Other interesting observations were:

Families are big in China—sometimes numbering as many as 50. Any money made by a member of the family belongs to the family, not to the individual.

Customs in America and China are different; "but as human beings we are the same."

Sun is one of about 600 engineers now in this country, studying different phases of our industrial composition.

Urging American understanding and help for progress, he said "We very much appreciate your interest in our country."

He was introduced by Kiwanian Jimmie Massa.

There will be no regular meeting of the club next Friday, since an installation program, with banquet, will be held at the Senior high school cafeteria on Thursday night. Members and their wives will attend. Only members of the board of directors will meet at the Hillson coffee shop at noon Friday.

Kidnaping

told her sailor husband the night he came home from his west coast navy station and again almost told police "the other night."

As she entered a police car, she thanked Police Chief Charles M. Finn "for being so understanding during this ordeal" and added:

"I swear on the crucifix I have around my neck that I never harmed my baby."

The attractive young woman was arrested after police found the body stuffed in the vacant space beneath the lower drawer of a built-in China closet in a dining room which was used as a bedroom.

The denouement came 16 days after Mr. Carlan had reported the baby "kidnaped" from his carriage, which she had placed near a school yard across the street from her home.

Medical examiner, Dr. William J. Brickley, who took charge of the body, announced that he would reserve his finding as to the cause of death for at least a week.

Declaring that in this "important case" he wanted to be ready to prove anything, he said, Dr. Brickley explained that the usual post-mortem examination would be complemented by microscopic and analytical tests of the child's vital organs.

State Police Detective Michael J. Cullinane disclosed that two angles to the mother's story of the "kidnaping" led police to turn back to the Carlan home for the solution of the mystery.

One of these was the time factor, he said. Mrs. Carlan had reported the baby missing at 4 p. m., a half hour after she said she had placed the carriage out in the sun.

But police found a 17-year girl in the neighborhood, who said she had seen the carriage empty at 2:30 p. m., and who was able to buttress her statement by corroboration of her movements that afternoon.

Then, Cullinane said, there was Mrs. Carlan's report that a hexagonal nursing bottle was taken with the baby from the carriage.

Mrs. Carlan, he said, mentioned a number of times that the "mish-ing" bottle was one of the "only four we ever had."

Later police counted four hexagonal nursing bottles on a shelf in the Carlan kitchen.

top of Jenkins' car was smashed. No one was reported injured in a series of ten minor wrecks near Groom on highway 88 early yesterday morning.

Wynne said Amarillo highway patrol headquarters reported that five of the ten cars had already left the scenes when officers arrived.

Highways in some parts of the Panhandle are still reported as icy but Patrolman Wynne said the situation near Pampa was improving although motorists were still cautioned that there might be icy spots on some roads.

RIPPLING INCIDENT
LITCHFIELD, Minn., Dec. 15—(AP)—Farmer Homer Curtis walked into his home sans clothing except for a rap, shoes and overhose—not the type of dress an outdoor man wears in Minnesota winters.

His explanation: his corn picker had picked him clean.

Curtis said his clothes caught in the power shaft. After 45 minutes he freed himself, except for his clothes which were left in shreds in the machine.

WICHITA FALLS, Texas, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Wichita Falls Coyotes moved into the semifinal round of the schoolboy championship race with a 35 to 0 victory over the Odessa high eleven while 11,000 shivering fans looked on.

The Coyotes moved into the lead the second time they gained possession of the ball and rolled up a 28 to 0 lead at halftime.

Dana Bible To Quit As Head Coach in 1947

AUSTIN, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Dana X. Bible will retire as a football coach in 1947 after 32 years directing the destinies of college teams, including the Universities of Texas and Nebraska and Texas A. and M. college.

The University of Texas announced today that Bible, who has been head football coach and athletic director there for nine years, will retire from active coaching when his 10-year contract expires Jan. 1, 1947, to become athletic director.

His salary as coach and athletic director has been $15,600 annually. As athletic director, he will be employed on a year-to-year contract at $9,000 annually, said Dr. Byron E. Short, chairman of the university's athletic council.

Bible declined another 10-year contract at $9,000 annually, said Dr. Byron E. Short, chairman of the university's athletic council.

Bible declined another 10-year contract as coach and athletic director, Short said, nor would Bible accept the $10,000 a year proffered him as athletic director. He quoted Bible as saying that there had been considerable comment about the size of his salary, and that he wanted to get out of the "five-figure bracket."

Bible has recommended that Assistant Coach Blair Cherry succeed him as head football coach after next season, and this was approved by the athletic council. It must now go to the university administration and finally to the board of regents.

Bible coached the Texas Longhorns to three Southwest Conference football championships in the last four years. Before that he led Nebraska to six championships in the Missouri Valley and Big Six conferences. Previously he had coached the Texas Aggies in winning five Southwest Conference championships in 11 years. He also coached at L. S. U. and Mississippi college.

Beaumont Club Sold To Airey

DALLAS, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Outright purchase of the Beaumont franchise of the Texas league by George Airey, of San Antonio from Louis Watson and associates of Dallas for an undisclosed price was announced tonight.

Watson had purchased the club only last October from Ernest "Dutch" Lorber, who had acquired it from the Detroit Tigers in 1942. The last season the league operated.

Airey announced he would be associated with no one but would retain complete ownership of the team. He revealed he had already arranged for a three-year lease on Stuart stadium at Beaumont and intends to install lighting equipment for night play.

Nelson Assumes Command at Meet

FORT WORTH, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Goldfom's wizard shotmaker, Iean Byron Nelson, of the Denton, Texas Nelsons, took charge of the Fort Worth $10,000 open today, warming up the frozen Glen Garden country club fairways with a competitive course record of six-under-par 65 to give him the lead at the halfway mark with 72-65-137.

New Year's Day Will See 11 Grid Battles

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Jan. 1 generally is regarded as a day of benches but there is a new one for the first day of 1946 with 11 football games clamoring for attention.

Ten of the contests are of the bowl variety with the exception being the twenty-first annual Shrine charity exhibition at San Francisco in which the pick of the players west of the Mississippi river tangle with those from the eastern side.

The east team congregates in Evanston, Ill., Monday for its first workout. Every one of the 59,968 tickets for the game has been sold. Southern California is host in the Rose Bowl for the third straight year with Alabama, unbeaten champion of the Southern Conference, the guest. The Trojans romped to a 25 to 0 verdict over Tennessee a year ago as 94,000 watched, but the coming clash is expected to be closer with Alabama's Harry Gilmer tussling with Ted Tammehill for individual honors.

Oklahoma Aggies and St. Mary's each with an all-America ball carrier, are the opponents in the Sugar Bowl and a capacity throng of 72,000 will be on hand to watch the antics of the Oklahoma's Bob Pennington and the Gaels' Hawaiian-born Herman Wedemeyer.

Stan Koslowski brought Holy Cross to the Orange Bowl at Miami, virtually single handed, and at least 30,000 spectators will be on hand to see how he fares against the rugged Miami, Fla., line.

Missouri and Texas are the opponents in the Cotton Bowl at Dallas with some 47,500 fans jammed into the stadium.

Other games that day are the Oil Bowl at Houston, in which Georgia and Tulsa are the foes; the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Texas, which bills Denver university against New Mexico; the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla., which pits Wake Forest against South Carolina; the Flower Bowl in the same city with Louisiana Normal and Lane college; the Raisin Bowl at Fresno, Calif., which has Drake and Fresno State as opponents and the Vulcan Bowl at Birmingham, Ala., in which Tennessee State and Texas college are billed.

That lineup of games will be preceded by the Blue and Gray tussle at Montgomery, Ala., on Dec. 30 in which Northern Stars will play their Dixie counterparts.

Sports Round-up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
CLEVELAND, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Adam Walsh, who'll send his Cleveland Rams against the Washington Redskins in the pro football playoff tomorrow, is the first pro coach to come out of the college ranks and win a sectional title in his first season—Potsy Clark and Dutch Bergman won the titles but only after they had been around a few years—When an oversize snow removal truck—the kind that melts the snow before hauling it away, got stuck in the middle of the field yesterday, someone suggested it wouldn't be any harder to move than rattlesnake Matheson—Another proposal was just to leave it there and maybe Steve Bagarus would run right into it and disappear—as far as Cleveland is concerned, Jeff Heath is as extinct as the Heath hen.

Optimism note: Chuck Hostetler, the 40-year-old Detroit outfielder who distinguished himself by falling down in the world series, visited Jack Zeller right after the series to "talk about a contract."—The New Mexico school of mines has come up with a seven-foot, one-inch basketball center, Emmet Morgenthaler, a freshman—as a result, 6-foot-9 Bob Rayner has been shifted to forward, where a little guy has a chance.

NOTE OF FRANKNESS
Commenting on "the evils of prosperity" the other day, Brooklyn's Branch Rickey explained: "A minor league came up to me and said, 'I have $200,000 to spend on ball players.'—Naturally I tried to get some of it—but he didn't buy any players after I put prices on them."

the Marshall one-yard line and Brenner went over. In the last two minutes of play, Ralph Murphy, Waco right tackle, intercepted a desperate Marshall pass on Marshall's six-yard line and Brenner scored again.

FORT WORTH, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Highland Park's explosive Scottie, blanketed in the first quarter, struck the touchdown trail the remaining three quarters to blast North Side's Steers, 46-6 here today.

Harvester Cage Schedule Partly Filled—Coffey

At least six non-conference games have been tentatively set for the Harvester cage ball team it was announced by Coach Otis Coffey yesterday.

Coffey said that he plans to obtain many more non-conference games, so that the team will play Tuesday and Friday nights, either in Pampa or out of town.

Coffey said that he is trying to get a game out of town for Tuesday night although no opponent has been selected as yet. The locals will play the White Deer Bucks here Friday night.

Games already scheduled in addition to the White Deer contest are: Jan. 1—Spearman at Pampa. Jan. 8—Childress, there. Jan. 11—Childress at Pampa. Jan. 14—Perryton at Pampa (tentative).

Jan. 29—Borger, there. Feb. 1—Amarillo, there. Feb. 8—Borger at Pampa. Feb. 12—Amarillo at Pampa. The Amarillo and Borger games are conference games. The district is being divided into two sections as in the past, Amarillo, Pampa and Borger will play for the North section title while Lubbock, Plainview and Brownfield play for the South half title.

Pampa is the defending district champion, having defeated Plainview in the sectional playoff last spring.

Titlists Named In "A" Football

By The Associated Press
The Class A division of Texas schoolboy football hung up the polestars Friday with nine games terminating regional championships.

Taylor won the Region 8 championship a week ago with an 18-6 victory over Mexia.

The Class B division ended the season last week with bi-district titles being determined.

Region 1—Phillips 14, Wellington 0.
Region 2—Littlefield 20, Monahans 7.
Region 3—Ballinger 52, Anson 12.
Region 4—Nocona 19, Grand Prairie 6.
Region 5—Edgewood 14, Mt. Vernon 6.
Region 6—New London 22, Huntsville 7.
Region 7—Nederland 7, Pasadena 0.
Region 9—Harlandale (San Antonio) 35, Brenham 6.
Region 10—Hondo 12, Weslaco 7.

A proposed $375,000,000 federal aid program for erection of 3000 new airports in the United States is expected to do for aviation what development of good highways in this country did for automobiles.

Coffey said he hoped to match two games with Phillips and also games with Canadian and Stratford. Pampa has already won two games this year, beating Clarendon 66-8 Tuesday night and Childress 29-26 at the West Texas state basketball clinic Thursday night.

Owls Win 2nd Regional Title In Five Years

HONDO, Texas, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Hondo's Owls racked up their region 10-A title at Corpus Christi Friday night, defeating Gary Hester's crack Weslaco Purple Panthers 12-7 in the finals. This victory gave coach Tom Bridges his second regional honors in the past five years.

School Officials Will Meet Today

School officials of Highland Park and Wichita Falls will meet in Denton today at 3 p. m. to decide the site and date of the semi-final play-off game between those two schools.

Waco and Goose Creek school heads have not announced the time and date of their meeting to make a similar decision.

McMillin Is Named 'Coach of the Year'

DES MOINES, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Bo McMillin, the white-haired coach guided Indiana through an undefeated season without the help of service trainees, was named football's man of the year today by the Football Writers' association of America.

McMillin, who kept Indiana among the top wartime teams through four seasons of depleted material, polled 101 of a total of 142 votes cast by the writers, Bert McGrane, association secretary, announced.

The Latest, Most Important Automobile Safety Feature SAFETY-RIM WHEELS

EXCLUSIVE ON THE NEW PLYMOUTH, DODGE, DE SOTO AND CHRYSLER CARS

How Safety-Rim Wheels, standard equipment on the new Chrysler Corporation Cars, will give new added safety.

Impossible for a flat tire to pull off, even at higher speeds. Because tire and tube remain in place, you slow to a safe, straight stop.

A sudden puncture or blowout—and even a new tire can flatten out like a pancake. The wheel may settle . . . the car list . . . the steering wheel jump from your hand. And the deflated tire and tube may turn crosswise, or pull off the rim, rolling away altogether and throwing your car out of control.

These Safety-Rim Wheels were put to the most grueling tests—dynamite caps were attached to cars' tires, exploded at 75-miles an hour! And the cars were brought to safe stops under control.

But you will have proven blowout protection when you ride in a 1946 Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto or Chrysler! Blowouts may still occur, of course—but they will be robbed of most of their danger.

Safety has always been of utmost importance in the design of our cars. They brought you 4-Wheel Hydraulic Brakes, All-Steel Bodies, Safety-Glass—and, for 1946, the latest safety advance—SAFETY-RIM WHEELS.

Panhandle Peace Officers Meet in Pampa Tomorrow

Registration will begin at 11:30 tomorrow morning in the Palm Room of the city hall for a meeting of the Panhandle Peace Officers association, being sponsored by the Pampa police department and the Gray county sheriff's office.

Over 150 officers of the Panhandle are expected to attend the conference, where they will hear Percy Wyle, head of the Dallas FBI office; Jim Collins, Amarillo FBI agent, and also a representative of the state department of public safety.

Members of the association will be guests of the Pampa chamber of commerce at a luncheon in the Palm Room at 12:30.

The business meeting will be held in the district court rooms beginning at 1:30.

be the main issue, observers pointed to Iran and Japan—in the light of developments—as subjects which apparently likely to come up for discussion.

Byrnes, at a press conference last night, gave no indication of what subjects were on the agenda, but declared he wanted it understood "this is no peace conference."

"SPIRIT OF YALTA"

He said the "only purpose of the meeting is to carry out the spirit of the Yalta meeting—to meet every three or four months to preserve contacts between the governments."

Byrnes said he would not regard it as a "bad sign" if no formal announcement of an agreement follows the conference.

As final preparations for the conference were made, Soviet censors—already at work handling advance stories—got ready for their busiest time in two years. All stories written for transmission abroad no matter what their source or subject, must have the censor's stamp.

Anglo-Saxons measured time by burning a graduated candle in ancient times.

Lumbermen

stocks are unavoidably low in most of the state's retail yards due to strikes, shut-downs, labor shortages at the sawmills, and especially the tax reductions coming in 1946; however, indications point to freer movements of materials during the first quarter of 1946, including brick, shingles and lumber.

"Right now lumber dealers are channeling every stick of lumber possible into the building of GI homes.

"Under the government's order, details of which will be announced shortly, where less urgent needs for lumber arise, GI's will be given high priority. This policy of aiding the returning soldier will be continued by members of the lumbermen's association until the housing shortage has been overcome."

Boyd stated, however, that lumber is by no means the only building material that is scarce.

He pointed out that the threatened steel strike may seriously affect home building because steel is used in plumbing and many other building factors. Then, too, he said, the decision of CIO electrical workers to strike would have a far-reaching effect on the building of new houses.

Boyd added that many people were under the impression that West Coast loggers had been out on strike and that it was affecting the supply of lumber all over the nation.

"Sawmill workers on the Coast did strike," he said, "but during that time, loggers were not idle." They were building up a supply of logs to be sent to the mills and thousands of board feet of lumber will go into production very soon to make the picture a little brighter," he added.

Boyd said that local industrial users must necessarily have some materials to make necessary repairs and maintenance but that he was sure local plants would cooperate to the fullest extent in helping in the conservation program.

He said, at the present time, building would be slowed locally, not because of the shortage of materials, but because of adverse weather conditions.

Motors and the Ford Motor company and will hold its first conference with representatives of the Kaiser-Frazer corporation, which has taken over the Willow Run bomber plant for automobile production.

The Detroit Times said that Ford was prepared to submit what it termed a satisfactory wage increase offer to the union tomorrow (Monday). A Ford spokesman said the company declined to comment on the report.

Although President Truman's request that new labor legislation be passed before Christmas was apparently by-passed by congress, public hearings will begin in Washington next Thursday on the GM dispute by the President's fact-finding board.

The senate labor committee's hearings on a new measure to establish procedure to settle labor disputes were recessed until after the holidays, while the house labor committee met to decide if it should hold further hearings on the bill, which would prohibit strikes for 30 days pending study by a fact-finding commission.

The fact-finding board which will hear the GM case has no statutory authority, but both company and union have agreed to cooperate with the board. The GM dispute has affected more than 200,000 workers.

In Fort Worth, Texas, A. U. S. conciliator announced a strike by approximately 2,000 Southwestern Greyhound bus drivers and terminal employees, which began Nov. 4, has ended.

statement by the President that as China "moves toward peace and unity" along the lines Mr. Truman laid down the United States would be prepared to consider favorably a Chinese request for credits and loans to build up the country.

China already has asked the United States for a loan of an undisclosed amount, through the export-import bank, and has spoken of an ultimate credit of at least $2,000,000,000. The President's policy declaration presumably puts those on the shelf pending reports from General Marshall on the success of his mission.

STILL GOING STRONG

SALT LAKE CITY.—(AP)—Forty-eight years is a Methuselah-like age for an automobile, but "Lucie", an 1897 Oldsmobile which S. F. Walker has owned since 1905, still gets around. ing a break. There has been an agreement, however, among the parties nor within the cabinet of President de Gaulle, on rehabilitation of the Spanish republican government in exile, headed by Jose Giral Perera.

The official government position has been to question whether the Giral group is representative of all the anti-Franco elements within Spain. The communist and socialist parties favor Juan Negrin, prime minister of the last Spanish republican government.

Foreign office sources made it clear that France would like to break relations with Franco—but preferably in a joint action with Britain and the United States. In the meantime the French government is remaining aloof from any contact with the Giral group in Mexico.

Chiang Determined to Build United, Free and Equal China

BEIJING, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek reiterated today his determination to build a united, free, and equal China, and called on those who struggled heroically against Japanese domination to work with equal devotion for the regeneration of their country.

Chiang spoke in the hall of cherished benevolence at the former winter palace of the Manchus. His audience included many of his friends and associates of early revolutionary days as well as foreign diplomatic representatives and a group of U. S. marine officers headed by Maj. Gen. Keller E. Rockey, commander of the Third marine amphibious corps.

Madame Chiang Kai-shek also attended but did not address the gathering.

After thanking his "old friends of the early revolution" for their sturdy resistance during the Japanese occupation, the generalissimo paid tribute to the U. S. marines for the part they played in China's liberation.

The venerable Gen. Chin Yun Peng, who was premier of China in the days when this was the capital, responded to Chiang's address with the hope that China would have "six five-year plans" and that the generalissimo would lead the nation for another 30 years.

Russian, French, Swiss, British and American diplomats greeted Chiang in the brilliantly illuminated hall where the presidents of China held their receptions in the early days of the republic.

Humble To Construct 275 Mile Pipe Line

HOUSTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Humble Pipe Line company yesterday announced plans for construction of a six-inch gasoline pipe line from Humble's Baytown refinery to the Dallas-Fort Worth area, a distance of 275 miles.

Total cost was estimated at approximately $3,000,000. Construction is scheduled to begin early in January.

Four terminals, each with adequate storage and distributing facilities, will be built on the line. From each of these terminals it is expected truck deliveries will be made to serve the adjacent trade areas. The first of these will be located near Houston, 25 miles northwest of Baytown. Others will be at Hearne, Waco and in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Two pump stations, the originating station at the Baytown refinery and a booster station at Hearne, will speed the gasoline on its way to the several terminals.

Application for New Bus Route Canceled

McALLEN, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Application of a Kingsville firm for establishment of a new motor bus route from Corpus Christi to McAllen has been dismissed at the request of the applicant, trial examiner Horace Soule of the railroad commission has announced.

Soule also announced completion of hearings on seven bus applications.

Kingsville air field bus company applied for the Corpus Christi-McAllen operation certificate. It was opposed by the Missouri Pacific transportation company and the union bus lines on the grounds that J. H. Kidd of Kingsville airfield was not the only applicant.

Applications continued to later hearings were those of Kingsville airfield for a route from Raymondville to Brownsville, by Union to operate between Pharr and Mission on highway 281 via Hidalgo and the international bridge to Reynosa, by Gateway bus company for the Pharr-Hidalgo-Mission route and one by Joe Pate of Hidalgo for a Laredo-Hidalgo bridge route.

Tyrone Power Reports Back To Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Tyrone Power came back to town this week looking even handsomer than when he left, if that is at all possible.

Ty spent his first week out of the marines getting re-acquainted with his old friends and associates. They tell me he hasn't changed a bit. In fact, his oldest friends say he hasn't changed much since he first started as an actor.

He has always been sensible and level-headed about his career. In the first years of his success, he found fame an exciting, exhilarating thing, but he didn't lose his sense of proportion.

Perhaps the reason for Tyrone's balance is the fact that he was the son of a famous actor, Tyrone Sr. And after his father's death, he knew many lean days.

Power is happily married to the French actress, Annabella, and their romance reads like one of his pictures. Both were assigned to "Suez," and they literally bumped into each other one day in a hall. A wardrobe girl introduced them. On their first date, Tyrone took his future wife to a drive-in for dinner.

Because Annabella had been divorced, they were not married in the Catholic church. Later their marriage was sanctioned by the church.

Tyrone enlisted as a private in the marine corps and reported for boot training at Camp Elliot, San Diego, in August, 1942. He asked no favors and objected to publicity pictures. One legend about his marine training persists.

The story goes that one trainee kept riding the movie actor until Tyrone invited the loud-mouth out to the rifle range. There Ty whipped him in a first fight, winning the respect of the entire camp.

The actor went on to officer's training at Quantico and then transferred to flying. He went to the Pacific last February and flew for the marine transport command.

Now 31, Ty enjoys all sports, including gin rummy. He is an average cigarette smoker, but no pipes. He enjoys an occasional Scotch, Martina or wine with his meals. He reports back to work in March to play the lead in "The Razor's Edge."

Kansas is called the "Sunflower State," but sunflowers thrive in states from Minnesota to Texas, and west to the Pacific.

17th First Saw Combat at 'Bulge'

By NEA Service
The 17th airborne division was first committed to combat in the Battle of the Bulge, and the method of its entry was one of the most spectacular of the war. The troopers of the 17th were in their English billets one day, and at Reims the next, face to face with Von Rundstedt's breakthrough divisions. The initial assignment of the men who wear the grasping eagle's claw on their shoulders was an enormously important one. They had been flown into the battle area in transports, under cover of darkness and in treacherous flying weather, to relieve the 11th armored division south of Bastogne, and to attempt to checkmate the German counter attack.

The mission of the 17th was not to hold, but to attack. And attack they did, despite a fierce foe, road blocks, snow storms and thousands of land mines. The men of the 17th knifed into Cettur, into Bouillet, Steinbach and Limerle, cutting vital highways. At the end of a month of savage battle the 17th stormed into Germany near the town of Wiltz.

In March the 17th participated in one of the most brilliant airborne operations of the war—an action which helped set up the final drive toward Berlin. The men dropped across the Rhine in 3,000 gliders, none of which was lost through enemy action. This dramatic thrust signaled the final push to victory.

2 Texans Injured In Train Wreck

GALLUP, N. M., Dec. 15.—(AP)—Two Texans were among those injured when the Santa Fe's Grand Canyon Limited ploughed into the rear of a troop train near Cheto Ariz., 45 miles west of Gallup yesterday. Hospitalized were Seaman 2/C Leslie M. Stewart, 21, of Snyder, Texas, and Seaman 1/C James E. Day, 36, of Abilene, Texas.

A survey of Boston girls' handbags revealed that most of them contained 30 to 45 articles.

Marmalades Sweeten Christmas

Homemade jams and jellies, gayly wrapped, make welcome Christmas gifts.

By NEYA MADDOX

NEA Staff Writer

Florida alone estimates it will ship over 4 million boxes of tangerines this year for Xmas festivities. How about using some of them for marmalades and preserves to give friends as gifts?

Tangerine Marmalade

Four cups prepared fruit, 7 cups sugar (2 cups of light corn syrup may be substituted for 2 cups of the sugar. The corn syrup will yield an additional glass of marmalade), 1 bottle fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, remove skins in quarters from 8 to 10 tangerines and discard white fibers on inside of skins and on peeled fruit. With a very sharp knife, cut rind into fine shreds. Add 3/4 cup water and 1/8 teaspoon soda, bring to a boil and simmer, covered, 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Dice peeled tangerines, add with juice to cooked rind and simmer, covered, 20 minutes longer. Measure sugar and prepared fruit into large kettle, filling up last cup with water if necessary. Mix well. Bring to a full rolling boil over hottest fire. Stir constantly before and while boiling. Boil hard 1 minute. Remove from fire and stir in bottled fruit pectin. Then stir and skim by turns for just 5 minutes to cool slightly to prevent floating fruit.

Four quickly. Paraffin hot marmalade at once.

Orange Marmalade

Three and one-half cups prepared fruit, 1 1/4 cups sugar, 1 1/4 cups light corn syrup, 1 box powdered fruit pectin.

To prepare fruit, remove skins in quarters from 5 medium oranges and 1 medium lemon. Lay quarters flat, shave off and discard about 1/2 of white part. With a very sharp knife cut remaining rind into fine shreds. Add 1 1/2 cups water and 1/8 teaspoon soda. Bring to a boil and simmer, covered, for just 10 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Cut off tight skin of peeled fruit and slip pulp out of each section. Add pulp, juice and 1 cup sugar to cooked rind. This cup of sugar is in addition to the 1 1/4 cups specified above. Simmer, covered, 20 minutes longer. Measure sugar and syrup into dish and set aside until needed. Measure prepared fruit into a 3 to 4-quart kettle, filling up last cup of fraction of cup with water if necessary; place over hottest fire.

All powdered fruit pectin, mix well, and continue stirring until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once pour in sugar and syrup, stir-

Jennifer Jones, Joe Cotten Star in Hal Wallis' Picture, 'Love Letters'

Jennifer Jones, Joseph Cotten and Ann Richards share happiness and tragedy in Paramount's latest romantic drama, "Love Letters", with Cecil Kellaway.

By SCOTT RAFFERTY

A story so different that the whole country is talking about it is contained in Hal-Wallis' production of "Love Letters", which opens at the LaNora today.

Wallis, famed for his "Sergeant York", "Air Forces" and others, has selected a perfect cast to dramatize Chris Massie's story.

Jennifer Jones, Academy Award winner, and Joseph Cotten, erstwhile star of screen and radio, portray Singleton and Alan Quinton, respectively.

Cotten, in the story, writes letters to a girl he has never seen and signs his buddy's name to them. His companion, portrayed very effectively by Robert Sully, goes to England and marries Jennifer Jones. Sully is murdered and Miss Jones, a victim of amnesia, is accused of the murder and sent to prison. On her release she can remember nothing of the incidents and Joseph Cotten sets out to investigate the murder.

It's well-acted all the way through by such fine supporting players as Gladys Cooper, Ann Richards, Cecil Kellaway and Anita Louise. The theme music, composed by Victor Young, is rated one of the ten most popular songs of the year.

Columbia Pictures has to come up every once in a while with a cross-section of screen and radio talent, furnish them with corny songs, insert a "new star" and title it something like "Song of the Prairie", which opens at the Rex today.

If you like the kind of entertainment furnished by the Hoosier Hot-Shots and others, you'll enjoy this little vehicle, the cast of which includes Ken Curtis, June Storey, Andy Clyde, Guinn "Big Boy" Williams and Miss Jeff Donnell. Thurston Hall is surprisingly funny.

Betty Grable is showing at the Crown Sunday and Monday but don't be disappointed, girls, Dick Haymes is in it too.

The name of the picture, incidentally, is "Billy Rose's Diamond Horseshoe" and its title implies the content—a week story and a lot of songs, nicely sung.

Included in the cast are Betty Grable—oops, excuse it—Dick

FIRST 'ALL-AMERICAN UNIVERSITY' IS U. S. ARMY SCHOOL IN ENGLAND

By The Associated Press

At Shrivenham, in England, the great U. S. Army school among the beechwoods in the vale of the White Horse, is the first "All-American University," and its success has attracted the attention of British authorities and the praise of publications such as the "New Statesman and Nation," which advocates its continuance as an Anglo-American university.

Many Texas soldiers awaiting assignment to homeward bound transports are among the 4,000 students at Shrivenham and at least one well-known Texas teacher, J. Frank Dobbie, the folk-artist, is on the faculty.

More than 150 American universities and colleges sent teachers to England for the army educational experiment following the end of the fighting war. To Shrivenham went GIs born in every state in the Union, and educated at nearly 450 institutions including 132 American universities. All of the students are volunteers and the terms are of eight weeks at the All-American postwar school in England. They are young—average age 22—but about one-fourth are married.

A large majority intend either to enter or return to college upon demobilization in the United States and in the meantime, at Shrivenham, according to the "New Statesman and Nation" they find every familiar feature of their universities back home, from libraries to cheer leaders and from soda fountains to laboratories.

The English weekly reviewed these facts to illustrate the size and complexity of the unique educational project which, it says, satisfies the hopes of the American military and academic authorities who have nursed it from its conception. With its companion institution at Biarritz, it is merely the top level of an enormous educational structure designed to reach every American soldier still serving in the European theater with vocational and re-orientation courses.

Within a few weeks after the collapse of Germany, thousands of applications from servicemen had to be examined and selected; a staff of about 300 had to be recruited, some from military service, some from civilian professions; a library of 60,000 volumes had to be installed, laboratories equipped and a comprehensive curriculum drafted and put into operation by an academic team, most of whom had not met before.

The aim of the American university set down in the heart of England was to re-create an academic atmosphere, free from routine duties and discipline, in which its students could begin to pick up the threads of their civilian life, to learn how to study and think flexibly again, to acquire fresh cultural or intellectual interest or to refresh minds grown stale in campaigning.

At Shrivenham the GI studies specialist subjects such as agriculture, engineering, journalism or drama and the whole gamut of academic subjects is open, from freshman to graduate standards. He attends an average of three classes a day. The drama classes were transported to Stratford every night in the season. They have been given performances of Shaw and Shakespeare by English companies, and have had an opportunity to talk to the producers and the casts. Those interested in geology, architecture, history or sociology are taken on visits to quarries, cathedrals and locations of special interest in their work.

What of the students, asked the "New Statesman and Nation"? How far do they require special treatment? Will these veterans be problem cases for schools and colleges when they return to their home schools in the United States?

The conditions have been ideal for readjustment to normal conditions, but the experiment at Shrivenham indicates to the American authorities in charge that the veteran presents no really big

Senate Refuses to Grant Itself Big Expense Increase

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The senate by a 47 to 24 vote yesterday refused to grant itself a $2,500 increase in expense allowance.

The vote came after more than an hour of spirited debate during which Majority Leader Barkley (D-Ky.) declared "no member needs this more than I do" but "I am unwilling to come through the kitchen for a raise."

Senator White (R-Me.), the republican leader, supported the proposed increase pointing out that this already had been voted to members of the house.

The test came as the senate was acting upon an omnibus deficiency appropriations bill carrying more than $2,000,000,000, or some $600,000,000 more than previously approved by the house.

South Carolina, 2,459 from 1,111; Indiana, 1,317 from 1,253; Arkansas, 785 from 61; Colorado, 607 from 447; and Nebraska, 577 from 112.

Laboratory studies and local characteristics of the disease indicate that the virus causing the present outbreak is the "B" type of virus—the kind that usually causes localized outbreaks, as compared with the "A" type which has been recognized in nationwide outbreaks.

CIO Oil Workers Hold Closed Session

FORT WORTH, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The Oil Workers International Union (CIO) yesterday went into a closed session to decide just how much fight it would put into its slogan 52-46—its postwar idea of proper earnings, 52 hours' pay for 40 hours' work.

For the first time since the convention opened, the lobby outside the meeting room at Hotel Texas was entirely empty of delegates, except for the sergeant-at-arms, who politely saw to it that no persons were within hearing distance of the voices behind the tightly closed doors.

The union has taken a definite stand against the postwar wage program of Standard Oil of New Jersey, which the union holds could be the pattern for the industry. Standard Oil of New Jersey increased basic rates of pay 15 percent on conversion from the 48 to the 40 hour week. Despite the increase, the employee still had a 15 percent cut in the amount of his take-home earnings.

Coming political campaigns occupied the convention last night, with the delegates by resolution directing their president to appoint a liaison man to work with the CIO political action committee and to supervise BAC activity, under the president's direction, in the union.

Sharpest Weekly Rise in Number of Flu Cases Since 1943 Is Reported

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The sharpest weekly rise in influenza cases since the epidemic of 1943 was reported today by United States public health service officials, but they said 94 per cent of the cases were reported from 11 states.

They also said that reports so far indicate the flu is a "mild" type.

A total of 49,694 new cases was reported for the week ended Dec. 8, compared with 13,220 for the preceding week. In a single week during the 1943-1944 epidemic, totals rose from 23,746 to 82,951.

Officials said the figures for the week ended Dec. 8 were the highest for that period since 1928 when the health service began keeping records but that this fact was not as significant as week-to-week comparisons.

They declared the current outbreak could not be termed a nationwide epidemic, and that only in Kentucky, where the number of cases rose from 14 to 15,358 in a single week, could the outbreak be classified as "definitely epidemic."

They added that even in that state, doctors might now be reporting as influenza ailments which they previously had classified as "heavy colds."

Total number of cases reported for the nation so far this year is 160,734, compared with 358,761 for a comparable period in 1944.

But officials pointed out that many of the 1944 cases were "carry-overs" for 1943 and that more significant comparisons might be made from figures dating from July 1.

From that date this year up to the present, 94,250 cases have been reported, compared with 23,238 for the same period in 1944 and 49,062 in 1943.

The officials said flu was "above normal incidence" in the following states:

Texas, where cases rose to 7,332 from 4,436 in a single week; Kansas, 6,848 from 782; Utah, 4,241 from 363; Virginia 3,933 from 1,438; West Virginia, 2,395 from 1,276; physiological problem, as many American educationists feared.

Shrivenham teachers say their GI students are tolerant, impatient of the purely nationalistic outlook sincerely interested in study, dislike snap courses, and possess a degree of maturity beyond the average student at U. S. universities.

On the other hand they have greater difficulty in concentrating and are over-ambitious about the amount of work they can do. Accustomed to rapid training in the army, they find it irksome to be slowed down as they come face to face with basic principles.

The English writer who visited Shrivenham was impressed with the case the GI who slugged his way from Omaha beach to Leipzig was able to slip back into civilian habits of thought and behavior. He said the students are living evidence against the belief that armies and war necessarily corrupt and warp the mind.

Hal Roach, Back at Old Stand, Says Country Is in Great Need of Laughs

By BOB THOMAS
 HOLLYWOOD, Dec. 15.—(P)—The man who spent 31 years making America laugh is back at the old stand.
 Hal Roach left his massive, bear-rugged Oliver City office four years ago for the army air forces. Now he says, the country needs laughs, and he's busy planning a production program devoted exclusively to comedy.
 "What kind of funny pictures?" "I don't think there is any 'kind' of comedy," Roach answers. "If people laugh, it's funny and, that's comedy." As for slapstick, his particular forte in the past, he adds: "If two-thirds of a picture is straight humorous situations and lines, the remaining third can safely be slapstick."
 Roach intends to make his pictures 45 minutes long. "I want people to wish there were more when the picture ends," he explains.
 Movie stars are becoming more and more susceptible to the easy dough which can be found in radio. Five grand for one day's work ain't bad. Don't be surprised to see a number of new programs starring such individuals as Irene Dunne, Ronald Colman, Lucille Ball, Fred

Truman's New Labor Plan Is In Moth-Balls

By JAMES MARLOW
 WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(P)—President Truman's plan to prevent labor trouble is in the moth-balls. You can come pretty close to kissing it goodbye.
 The President suggested that congress give him authority, by law, to set up a fact-finding board when a strike is threatened in an important industry. This board could examine the books of a company having union trouble.
 That's the part of the plan which business particularly dislikes. What labor dislikes is this: While the board worked, the union could not strike for 30 days. Labor wants to feel free to strike at any time.
 The President's plan, in the form of a bill, was laid before congress. The senate labor committee was hearing witnesses for and against the bill. Labor and business were both opposed.

 Yesterday the committee suddenly postponed its hearings until congress comes back from its Christmas vacation, which will be about Jan. 14.
 Meanwhile this is the picture: The CIO auto workers, striking against General Motors, have been out of work since November, may be out of work months longer.
 The CIO steel workers are due to strike Jan. 14, just about the time the committee figures to resume hearings on the bill.
 So, by Feb. 15 when the committee hearings may end, the steel strike may be one month old and the auto workers about three months old.
 Both strikes, since they so critically affect major industries, may be ended by Feb. 15.
 Would there then be any pressing need for congress to speed through the President's plan?
 And how long after Feb. 15 does the committee think it will take to get the President's plan through as law?
 There are about 272,000 seeds in a pound of clover seed.

Officers Still Seeking Teacher

HOT SPRINGS, N. M., Dec. 15.—(P)—Officers and relatives reported they still were without clues yesterday in a search for a 43-year-old Hot Springs school teacher, Grace Wheeler, who disappeared last Saturday night.
 "We haven't been able to turn up a thing," Sheriff Houston G. Berry said. He expressed hope that newspaper stories about Miss Wheeler might bring information of her whereabouts.
 The teacher, described as quiet and retiring, was last seen at her rooming house. Friends said she appeared in good spirits.
 Two brothers and a brother-in-law, Ralph and Curtis Wheeler and Marvin Acock of Lorenzo, Texas, remained here to aid in the search.
 Sheriff Berry said he was told that relatives last saw Miss Wheeler about Sept. 1. Her last letter home, postmarked Dec. 6, indicated nothing amiss, he said.

Doolittle Men Hold Reunion

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Dec. 15.—(P)—Fifty-four men who "rocked" the Japanese empire on April 18, 1942, with the first bombs to explode on that aggressor nation assembled in peace today and swapped stories of glory and death.
 Central figure at this first rendezvous since the takeoff from "Shan-ri-La" for Tokyo was Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle. He led them from the deck of the carrier Hornet on that fateful flight.
 "We've been renewing old acquaintances," said Col. Stanford Chester. "The bunch has a great deal to talk about. There's time for fun later on."
 General "Jimmy" himself filled in the rest of the "bunch" on Capt. George Barr, one of the raiders rescued from a Jap prison camp three months ago who was being flown here from the Schick general hospital, Clinton, Iowa, to join reunion festivities.
 Doolittle stopped in to see Barr

Thursday and as Barr lay on his hospital bed, the general promoted him in rank. Not only that, but Doolittle cited him for the Distinguished Service Cross, the presentation to be made during a formal dinner here tonight.
 A lot more talking and a bit of sightseeing and swimming were on the program. Tonight there will be cocktails, the formal dinner, dignitaries in attendance—and a moment of silence.
 Sunday the "bunch" will go deep sea fishing, and then the party breaks up. But there will be a new feeling among them for, together, they will have paid homage to two comrades who died in crash landings in China immediately after the raid, three who were put to death by the Japanese, and others who succumbed from treatment in enemy prison camps.

CALIFORNIA TIDELANDS

Last month State Land Commissioner Bascom Giles spoke before a joint meeting of the Rotary and Lion clubs of Pampa, stressing the value of Texas land and the announcement made by Attorney General Tom Clark, to the effect that Texas tidelands would be handled in a like manner as those of California.

Last week pressure was reported as building up in Washington, with California Attorney General Robert W. Kenny charging government officials with the attempt to grab not only the offshore oil lands below the low-water mark but also the far more valuable lands on the tidal shores.

HARBOR'S INVOLVED
California's demand for quit-claim legislation and her opposition to the suit, Kenny said, are based, not on the 15 miles of her 1000 miles of coast line which contain oil wells, but on her six major harbors from which the state derives three times as much in rentals as tideland oil pays in royalties.

COURT DECISION
"The idea that the supreme court can render its quick decision that will quiet titles to all tide and submerged lands on all the coasts and in all the bays, harbors, lakes and rivers in the U. S.," said Kenny, "is so far from reality that it must have been advanced merely as an attempt to block the pending legislation."

LEGISLATION
California maintains that the legislation represents an attempt to protect property which the states have always held, Kenny continued. "It must be remembered too that the claims which make this action necessary are primarily the claims of one man (Kenny) who would confiscate property of untold value by changing his mind."

Phillips Ventures In Wildcat Territory

ALBANY, Texas, Dec. 15—(P)—Phillips Petroleum Co. No. 1, Hudson-Hickman is the newest Ellinger test for Shackelford county. It is located in the old Sedgwick shallow pool area 8 miles southeast of Albany in center-northeast quarter section 16, unatitic asylum lands, on a 5,000 acre block assembled by David P. Dean, Fort Worth.

This is the first wildcat for Phillips since the March, 1944, discovery of the most successful Ellinger pool in Stephens-Shackelford county area.

It is reported to be recuperating after several weeks illness. Oil Exploration To Be Resumed in Philippines

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 15—(P)—A market demand of 1,775,000 barrels of crude oil daily in January has been forecast by the United States bureau of mines.

The forecast, received yesterday by the railroad commission, compares with December's market demand estimate of 1,940,000 barrels daily.

Current average daily allowable production in Texas is 2,052,638 barrels.

The railroad commission will hold its statewide proration hearing Tuesday.

State Appeals Proration Order

AUSTIN, Texas, Dec. 15—(P)—The third court of civil appeals today heard oral arguments in the state's appeal from a district court injunction restraining enforcement of a railroad commission proration order for the rich Hawkins field.

The case was especially set today because of the large number of attorneys representing various interests and because of the big record involved.

The suit was filed by the Humble Oil and Refining company because it was dissatisfied with a revised allowable formula set up by the railroad commission Aug. 3, 1944. Humble claimed it would lose 30,000,000 barrels of oil through drainage under the order.

The trial court held for Humble, and the state alleges 58 errors in the trial court proceedings.

Mexican Firm Supports Texas-Mexico Pipeline

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15—(P)—J. P. Price, mining engineer for a Monterrey, Mexico, firm, urged the federal power commission here yesterday to act favorably on the application of the Reynosa Pipeline company of Corpus Christi, Texas, to export natural gas to Monterrey.

The Reynosa Pipeline company would deliver gas from the Rio Grande valley to Mexico. Price's concern, the Gas Industrial at Monterrey, would transport the fuel from the border at Reynosa, Mexico, to Monterrey, where it would be used principally in industries.

The witness said annual purchases of Monterrey business firms of goods manufactured in the United States amounted to $5,575,000. He added that if their fuel supply was increased by the importation of Texas natural gas these purchases would be increased by $1,000,000.

Oil Tankers Are Multi-Purpose

Besides transporting oil, the tanker was a "jack-of-all-trades" during the war just ended.

A fleet of 21 tankers operated during the war by Cities Service company transported more molasses than petroleum products, such as gasoil, kerosene, heating oil, cresote and benzol, between Dec. 8, 1941, and July 3, 1945.

Besides molasses other non-petroleum products transported by the fleet during the war included 562 army and navy planes, 65 gliders, 32 landing craft of various types, seven torpedo boats, a number of smaller vessels and more than 250 trucks, trailers and tractors. Other items included 750 cases of spare parts for the air corps, 224 crates of belly tanks, 1013 cases of USO canteen supplies and 4242 bags of mail.

The fleet did a big job performing its assigned tasks, transporting more than 55 million barrels of bulk petroleum products including crude oil, fuel oil, gasoline and diesel oil.

Similar fine records were made by other marine divisions of major oil companies.

During 1941, 10,000 tons of steel went into the metal tops of the 1-600,000 jars manufactured to hold cold cream and other cosmetics.

A MATTER OF OPINION

The government is making another effort to settle the oil refinery strike and have the way for return of more than 50 plants to their owners. A three-man board set up by Secretary of Labor Schwellenbach will act in a fact-finding capacity, with both union and companies committed to acceptance of its findings—but will they?—Oil Weekly.

Rupert, Blueblooded Bachelor Bull, Resumes Flower-Sniffing

SULPHUR, Okla., Dec. 15.—(AP)—Rupert the $38,000 blue-blooded bachelor bull sniffed flowers disconsolately yesterday, his faith in new-fangled vitamin-hormone ideas shattered.

Rupert, known far and wide to the cattle trade as T. Royal Rupert the 99th, underwent a costly experiment in fatherhood promotion which finally ended with his owner, Rancher Roy J. Turner, sadly shaking his head.

"He's a dead issue," said Turner as he announced the relegation of Rupert, a Hereford, to "grass and flowers" on his big ranch near here.

"Maybe sometime the hormone-vitamin treatment we gave him will take effect, but if it does I'll be the most surprised one of all."

Rupert's inherent inability to contribute to the quality of southwestern cattle came to light after Turner sold him for $38,000 to Charles Pettitt of Flat Top ranch, Walnut Springs, Texas, and the Gladiacre Farm of Dallas.

When no calves came to Grace the Rupert stables, Pettitt and the Gladiacre Farms invoked the unwritten law of the cattle country regarding cases like that of T. Royal the 99th.

They sent him back to Turner, who dug down for the money and gave it back.

Turner, to whom the $38,000 was not alfalfa, then summoned veterinarians to the Rupert stables. Various ideas including vitamins were tried. But still no calves.

Then in October, 1944, Turner sent Rupert to the Kansas State college, Manhattan, for further observation and treatment.

Dr. C. J. Frick, of the college staff, looked Rupert over, diagnosed "a condition of infantilism," and prescribed thyroid and pituitary extracts.

Rupert failed to respond to the treatment, possibly because of his advanced age, said Dr. Frick. The bull was 2½ years old when he started the experiment, which, the doctor added, had proved successful in children.

Turner said he did not know right now what eventually would become of Rupert.

"I have to give up on him," he sighed.

Mexico Seeking Fuel From Texas

WASHINGTON, Dec. 15.—(AP)—Mexican industrialists seeking natural gas in Texas urged the federal power commission yesterday to approve an application of the Reynosa pipeline company of Corpus Christi, Texas to export the fuel for use in Monterrey.

Roberto Sada, a director of gas industrial de Monterrey, which would purchase the gas from Reynosa, told the commission that a number of business concerns in Monterrey needed it to supplement present supplies of fuel. He said that his own business, a glass manufacturing company, was among several industries which would use the additional fuel.

James Young, Jr., Corpus Christi, attorney for Reynosa, asserted 20 companies which are potential users of the Texas gas had formed the gas industrial de Monterrey, with approval of their government. They include a steel mill, tin plate plant, cement factory and brewery. The gas would be supplied from fields in Hidalgo county, in the Rio Grande valley.

Young, in the questioning of Sada, told the attorney for gas industrial de Monterrey, I. W. Keyes, also of Corpus Christi.

Texas, Oklahoma Newsmen Finish Inspection Tour

DALLAS, Dec. 15.—(AP)—The southwest has reconvered from war to peace products with slight difficulty, Texas and Oklahoma newsmen said here today as a 2,000-mile tour of the two states ended.

The newspapermen, making the junket under the sponsorship of the National Association of Manufacturers, said they found all the plants they visited in full production of peacetime products.

Few difficulties in reconversion were reported, and most of them have been solved, the newsmen said. Labor is adequate in most areas, materials are surprisingly plentiful although some factories have run into shortages there, and business

Texas Bar Committee Will Study Federal Estate Tax Amendment

FORT WORTH, Dec. 15.—(AP)—A decision by the U. S. supreme court upholding a 1942 federal estate tax amendment will be studied Tuesday in Houston by the estate tax committee of the state bar of Texas.

Members will determine whether is "better than can be taken care of."

Major problem yet unsolved is the housing shortage. The trip, made in a special Braniff Airways plane, touched at Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Amarillo, Waco, Houston, the lower Rio Grande Valley and Dallas. Bad weather upset the schedule and Fort Worth and San Antonio, originally on the itinerary, had to be skipped.

further steps can be taken to combat the decision, Harry C. Weeks of Fort Worth, members of the committee said here yesterday.

There is a kindness in man. There is a kindness in almost all men if we but could find it. We firmly believe that. We believe it because we often feel that we are kind, and people have told us so; and we believe we are no different from other men.

Perhaps a new assessment of man could be devised if we started with that premise. Anyway, that kindness is more in evidence at Christmas-time. It is more in evidence then because it is a tradition to be more kind than that at other times. But why just then? It is deplorable that so many of us recall "good will toward men" only once a year. But we are grateful—even for that. A number of things tell us that people are thinking of Christmas. If we can for just a few moments forget the world's ills, we can ruminate over a few of those things in our own community.

First, we are glad to see so many "old faces" back in the community. They have been away on an uncertain mission... many of them were for away this time last year... others will arrive before the Yuletide is actually here. They will brighten many family circles. Christmas cheer is in the air—people are going about the town, store to store, buying this for "Bob," this for "Mary," and there's another little one at brother Jim's house. Santa, or one of his helpers, can be seen at different concerns. There are various and sundry promises "to be good."

Once again we see Christmas lights... colored lights always brighten people's lives on such occasion, and we can thank the Pampa Jaycees for their efforts and expense. Even the most "material" of us are reminded that it is time for good cheer. The Christmas letters to "old Santa," sent to him through the Pampa Daily News, show us the pain with which little children draft their notes to the Bearer of Beneficence. All of these things are reflected in men... the return of loved ones, Santa himself, the Christmas lights, the letters. If there is anything we could ask further, it would be that the spirit of good-will should be shown in such intensity every day of the year—and always.

Facts FOR THE VETERAN

INSURANCE PAYMENTS (Marguerite B. 26, is the widow of a bombardier who was lost on a mission over Germany. She had met and married her husband while he was stationed in this country. They had lived together three months. Then he was shipped overseas. Before he left he told her she was his beneficiary under his government insurance. After he was lost, the war department and the Veterans Administration sent her the necessary claims forms. The Red Cross helped her fill out the forms for death gratuity and accrued pay, but she is now confused regarding payments of the government insurance. She received from the Veterans Administration the claim form with a supplementary sheet asking her to choose Option Number 1 or 2.)

Payments under the National Service Life Insurance cannot be made in a lump sum. Payments are made on a monthly basis according to the option selected. The widow in this case, being under 30, can receive income benefits for 20 years at a higher rate of payment or at a slightly lower rate of payment for the rest of her life.

The first option provides that on a $10,000 policy the wife will receive $55.10 per month for 240 months or 20 years. A breakdown of Marguerite's case for both options shows the following: Option No. 1, age 26, amount $10,000. Two hundred forty monthly payments at $55.10 per month, total $13,224. Option No. 2, age, amount $10,000. Payments for life of beneficiary at $36.50 per month. Received by wife at age of 70.

Nation's Press A POLICY TO ENCOURAGE INVESTMENT (The New York Sun) Suppose that each of the country's 35,100,000 families this week received a bill from Washington for $7,480 so that family's share of the national debt—would not the people understand clearly the present size of that obligation? The debt has grown rapidly during the war, and now is more than 25 per cent higher than it was one year ago. Numerous current proposals for stimulating employment have reference to large programs of public works. Many of these are made up of municipal and State projects. New York City, for example, plans to spend $1,250,000,000 on construction, much of it dependent for completion on grants-in-aid from the Federal Treasury. In view of the size of the national debt, the Truman Administration would be acting with timely prudence if it imposed rigid restrictions on the use of public funds for "made work" in public projects. Business confidence, as expressed in the expansion of private enterprise, can best be strengthened by concrete evidence that further growth of the national debt is to be discouraged. Reduction of military expenditures will contribute to that end, but this beginning should be supported by a positive policy of thrift. Labor, as well as business, will gain in work created by private enterprise operating without aid from government public spending.

Chinese Puzzle

By DEWITT MACKENZIE DUBLIN, Dec. 15. — (P) — Sean O'Kelly, president of the republic of Eire, is as Irish as Shamrock. O'Kelly and I have been friends 27 years. You would hardly suspect such a quiet, scholarly man, whose face habitually wears a friendly smile, as a Jack-the-Giant-Killer record. He was one of those who fought the British in Dublin during the bloody Easter week rebellion of 1916, and was imprisoned so many times for defiance to England that he likely would have trouble remembering all the cells he occupied.

World Today

The first time I met Sean O'Kelly was during the peace conference in Paris after the last war. His business was to try to catch the attention of the powers and interest them in applying the Wilsonian ideal of self-determination to Ireland. Shortly before that Eamon de Valera's Sinn Fein colleagues in Ireland, having decided to try to rescue him and several companions, sent to Lincoln a fat and stately Irishman who leased a plot of ground beside the grim old prison and proceeded to cultivate vegetables. As he worked the sang Gaelic songs. These had tremendous fascination for de Valera, since they voiced both encouragement and instructions.

These divisions were part of the V Marine Amphibious Corps, commanded by Maj. Gen. Holland M. Smith. By 8 February all resistance had ceased. All those which had been made of any other material except concrete had been completely burned or destroyed. New '46 Nash Will Be Seen In Pampa Soon

Pampa soon may have its first glimpse of new 1946 Nash cars at the Boyles Nash company.

W. L. Boyles who attended a preview of the new automobiles in Dallas participated in a mass drive-away of "sample" cars after the dealer meeting there.

According to Boyles, Nash motors introduced two big glistening new cars as contenders for popularity in the low and medium price car classes. Both are four door sedans, he said.

One hundred and sixteen important improvements have been made in the Nash 1946 models Boyles said.

"The '600' delivers 25 to 30 miles on a gallon of gasoline, at moderate highway speeds—or 500 to 600 miles on a tankful of gas," said Boyles. "It's a new, big car with individual coil spring suspension on all four wheels, providing a comfortable level ride over the most rumpled road, on silent springs which need no lubrication."

Pointing out other features of the "600" model Boyles said that it's a big car, with ample elbow-room, leg-room and head-room for six big people to ride in comfort; that it offers the finest conditioned air system ever developed for an automobile, giving a steady change of draftless, filtered, thermostat-controlled fresh air with all windows closed; that although stronger, it has a quarter of a ton less dead weight and instead of a separate body and frame bolted together, is a single unit of welded steel free from rattles and squeaks.

The Ambassador, with its 112 horsepower engine, offers even more luxury, according to Boyles. Richly upholstered and appointed, it is the finest car ever built by Nash.

"It is a long rakish car with ample room for a big family," he said. The Ambassador hugs curves without effort and glides evenly over the roughest roads with its long responsive cushioning springs. Like the '600', it is equipped with the conditional air system. Because of its valve-in-head engine the Ambassador provides outstanding economy of performance, giving more than 20 miles per gallon.

Both Nash cars have complete new styling and feature new massive wrap-around bumpers, Boyles pointed out.

Santa Squeezes Through Bars to Visit 2 Children

PRINCESS ANNE, Md., Dec. 15. —(AP)—If a roly-poly Santa Claus can skin down the smallest of chimneys, why can't he squeeze through the bars of a cell?

And he has done just that for two little children who must stay with their mother in Princess Anne's old jail. In a cell Mrs. Harry Kelly, 24, awaits a hearing on a charge of killing her husband.

Patsy Mumford, 6, her child by a previous marriage to a soldier killed in action, and Irvin Kelly, 4, the son of the slain man, also by a previous marriage, are staying with her.

Of course, it was fairly simple for Santa to get behind bars, since in real life, he is Police Chief Emory Revelle. Upon his plea, local townspeople chipped in with $35, and he bought enough clothes to outfit the children from head to toe.

"Sure, you're just like Santa Claus, but I like you and I know you're just a cop," Patsy told Revelle.

As always, Santa had helpers. The wife of a Somerset county deputy sheriff, Mrs. Woodland Jackson, prepares breakfast for the children.

Mrs. Jackson's grand-daughter presented Patsy and Irvin with a doll last Saturday, the day they arrived in the cell, and yesterday someone left a six-pound box of candy for the children.

Choir, Glee Club, Orchestra Present Christmas Program

Miss LaNelle Schelagen and Miss Evelyn Thoma are presenting the Glee club, A Cappella choir and orchestra in a Christmas Concert, Tuesday, Dec. 18 at 8 p.m. in the Junior High auditorium.

The Glee club and choir, accompanied by the orchestra, will sing several of the old familiar carols, followed by the A Cappella choir singing "Carol of the Bells," "Today There is Ringing," "As Lately We Watched," and "Hallelujah Chorus." Soloists for the choir are Libby Sturgeon, Jack Dunham, and Bob Parkinson. The girls trio, consisting of Beverly Chandler, Sybil Peterson, and Libby Sturgeon, will sing "In a Monastery Garden."

No admission will be charged.

332 Students Fail Subjects in PHS

Out of the 965 students in PHS, 332 failed in one or more subjects last six weeks—in comparison with 124 who made the honor roll.

The freshmen had the highest number of failures—154 out of 888; 40 of the class made the honor roll. The sophomores came next with 87 out of 475 failures and 38 on the honor roll. The juniors had 49 out of 188 failing with 20 on the honor roll; and seniors ranked last with 42 out of 164 failures and 25 on the honor roll.

Seventy-five per cent of those people making failing grades in one subject can and possibly will have a passing average by the end of the semester. In order to do this, however, these students will have to turn the "midnight oil." Principal Winston Savage said last week.

The attendance record of at least 60 per cent of the people who fail is very erratic," Mr. Glenn Allison, assistant principal, added, giving one of the principle reasons for failure.

Christmas Parties Are Popular During Week

School Christmas parties were held in the building every night last week.

Home room 100 celebrated with a skating party in the gym Monday night; the girls' all-school party took its holiday observation; Room 105 held a party in the gym Tuesday night; the girls' school party took place Thursday night; and the machine shop concluded the week with its celebration Friday.

The only parties scheduled for next week are those of the library home room, which will be a skating party in the gym Thursday night and the Hi-Y party to be held in the city club room Thursday.

State Supervisor Sees PHS Machine Shop

The PHS machine shop has been visited by Mr. Reed, the district state supervisor, who was very complimentary to the shop. Mr. W. E. Adams, teacher, reports that Mr. Reed said that the PHS machine shop was the most orderly and busiest shop in his district.

The boys in the shop have just completed a new blacksmith blower.

Mr. A. L. Jones Resigns

Friday was the last day for Mr. A. L. Jones, head of the science department, to teach in PHS. He has been in the Pampa schools for three years. During this time Mr. Jones has been business manager for the football team and has taken part in student activities.

We, as students, regret to see Mr. Jones resign, but want to wish him luck in his new job of city tax assessor.

Don't Let Spirit Slump

Every year right after the close of the football season, the school spirit of most students goes into a slump. These students forget that there is now another team to back. The basketball season has just begun, and the boys playing need our support to win.

Let's get behind the team, attend the games, and work to make the 1945-46 season a very successful one. —J. H.

Cafeteria To Honor Five Teachers Faculty Has Breakfast Tuesday in

Five teachers were honored at a faculty breakfast held in the cafeteria Tuesday morning.

The special guests were Mrs. Howard L. Phillips, the former Virginia Goodie, and D. V. Biggers, newly married teachers; G. L. Allison and J. C. Pattillo, who recently became fathers; and A. L. Jones, whose resignation as head of the science department became effective Friday.

Mrs. Lula Owen read a poem on how to hold a husband, and Miss Ruth Stapleton recited a parody on "The Raven," satirizing Mr. Allison walking the floor with his baby.

In a memory contest—"On the 'welfth Day of Christmas"—12 women teachers far outdistanced 12 men and were presented Hershey bars as prizes.

As each honoree received his gift, he read a jingle. Representative is the one read by Mrs. Phillips:

"Was not so very long ago I wandered to this spot I didn't think I'd find much here But, gee, I've found a lot.

If you could see that man of mine I'm sure you would agree The minute that I saw him I said, "There's the one for me."

I started right in working On changing my career It didn't take me very long And now I've settled here.

Principal Winston Savage acted as master of ceremonies, and Wanda Gordon played breakfast music. The Rev. Russell West gave the invocation, and Miss LaNelle Schelagen led the group in singing "Jingle Bells."

Mr. Jack Nichols was chairman of the planning committee, assisted by Mrs. Mabel Torvie, Miss Anne Louise Jones, Mrs. Angela Sanford, Mr. Milton Berg and Miss Claris Glick.

Physical Education Is Still Popular in School

That physical education is still a popular class is shown by the fact that 210 boys are enrolled in the five classes.

Coach D. V. Biggers, who teaches the boys P. E., said he had much talent in both basketball and football. "Some of the boys go out and play football on the coldest days," he said.

Basketball is now in full swing in the classes with the first part of the classes being used for fundamentals and the last 15 minutes being used for scrimmage.

Mr. Biggers is now coaching a sixth period track team with about 20 boys enrolled.

P. E. will become more active next spring when some tournaments will be held.

Spanish and French Clubs Receive Pins

Members of the first and second year Spanish club and of the French club received silver pins last week.

The pin of the first year Spanish class has a tiny hat, guitar, serape and tambourine on it, with the words El Club Espanol beneath them. The pin of the second year classes is a shield with the words Spanish and PHS on it. These pins have guards formed as tiny torches, on which '46 is engraved.

The French class got pins which represent the fleur de lis, the emblem of French. There are guards attached to these pins, which are in the form of a cock.

Senior Prophecy, Atomic Age, Told In Assembly Wednesday

The atomic age—year 1965—was represented by the seniors in assembly Wednesday.

In a large outside café, the North Texas Club, James Terrell had a party. At a smaller table, Bob Parkinson and Joyce Pratt watched the people pass on the sidewalk and reminisced about old times in PHS.

Dick McCune acted as master of ceremonies, and his band furnished music. The water was Bernie Brown, cigarette girl was Erna Lee Kennedy, Harry Scott was bartender and Frank Stallings was a reporter.

Members of the senator's party were Del Bellow, sports commentator; Pat Miller, Bob Troop of Troop's Tasty Tooth Ticklers; Anna Marie Cox, editor of "Ladies Good Companion"; Lonnie Williams, juggler with Bungling Brothers circus; Lucille Smith, expert on modern manners; Bill Hutchinson, modern Frank Sinatra; Libby Sturgeon, Metropolitan opera star; Margaret and Marjorie Wilson; Carl Gilchrist of Gilchrist's handy little atom cars; Gerald Bedenbender, manufacturer of atomic cigarettes; Milton Bernhan, Acme Photograph Co.; Bertha Killian, Jack Dunham, cowboy actor; John Lee Wells, Joann Conrod and Maxine Bell.

Others taking part were Curg Clauder and Betty Schulky, Maxine Lane, Sybil Pierson, Stan Simpson, Virgil Fish, Ginger Bassett, Phyllis Parker, Barbara Norris, Jack Hood, Peggy Ecker, Charlie Beard, Randall Clay, Bill Nellis, Beverly Chandler, Don Morrison, Gorda Bell Miller, Wimpy Vaughan, Colleen Voyles, and Delores Watson.

Don Rowe, Quebell Nelson and June Cummins were stage managers.

The discussion of the international situation by Mrs. Symple, club devotee, brought laughs from her audience. Other portrayals she gave were of a young wife, Ethel Bayton, who doubted her husband's loyalty, and of a fishing party composed of Frances and Bill, who had never been fishing before.

G. L. Allison, assistant principal, introduced Miss Bogue.

Supplies To Be Sold

School supplies will be sold in the co-op daily from 8:15 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Bertha Hollis, manager, has announced.

The co-op is on the second floor where the Little Harvester office was last year.

Sullivan, Nichols Attend Meeting

Miss Lee Sullivan and Mr. Jack Nichols attended a commercial meeting at Texas Tech in Lubbock last Saturday.

J. Orvil Ellworth, head of the department of business administration at Texas Tech, was chairman of the meeting.

Gorillas End With 3 Wins; 2 Losses

The Pampa Gorillas squad, coached by D. V. Biggers, ended the 1945 football season with three wins and two losses.

The Gorillas were coached by two men during the season. John Rankin was the first coach, tutoring the squad on his turlough from the army. Coach Biggers came to Pampa after receiving his discharge from the Army.

The Lefors Pirates were the first eleven that faced the Gorillas, but the Gorillas were unable to stop their attack and came out on the short end of the 20-13 score. West Texas Demonstration high school was the next invading opponent.

The Gorillas found them a much easier eleven and trounced them 34-0. The Gorillas played two games with the Plainview Bullpups. At Plainview they got their second victory of the year 26-0. Plainview returned the game here and out fought the Gorillas 27-14. The Gorillas also scrimmaged Shamrock, winning 14-13.

There are quite a few good reserves and a lot of the squad will be ready for the Harvesters next year," stated Coach Biggers.

The usual starting lineup was as follows: Billy Grace, LE; Gary Cooper, LT; Charles Thornbrough, LG; Jack Oilphant, C; Glen Cary, RG; Jack Rose, RT; Earl Davis, RE; Wayne Davidson, LH; Jackie Williams, RH; Charles Laffoon, QB; and Lamar Levy, FB.

3 Harvesters Picked By Amarillo, Lubbock For All-District Team

Jack Dunham, end, Randall Clay, back, and Jim Terrell, tackle, were all chosen on Lubbock's and Amarillo's all-district teams by the coaches and teams of those towns.

The official all-district team has not yet been chosen but will be published soon. In voting for the team, the coaches cannot choose members of their own team.

Members of the Harvesters who made honorable mention on the above teams were Maurice Lockhart, Stan Simpson, Jack Hood, George Johnson, and Bill Washington.

The boys chosen on the all-district will attend a banquet in Amarillo.

District 1946 Football Schedule Laid Out

The 1946-47 district IAA conference football schedule was worked out Monday in Plainview. Pampa's schedule will include three home games and two away from home.

The dates and teams are:

Oct. 18	Borger	Here
Oct. 25	Non-conference
Nov. 2	Open Date
Nov. 9	Lubbock	Here
Nov. 16	Brownfield	Here
Nov. 23	Plainview	Here
Nov. 28	Amarillo	There

There are also two tentative bills scheduled with Vernon and Norman. Mr. Knox Kinard, Mr. Winston Sayre and Coach Otis Coffey represented Pampa at the meeting.

Changes in dates are possible because the home team has a choice of playing either Friday night or Saturday afternoon.

FHA Celebrates With Christmas Festival

Santa Claus, early this year, distributed gifts and popcorn balls at the FHA Christmas party Tuesday night.

Dorothy Cummings led the 50 girls present in singing "Silent Night." Mary Jane Chambers told the story of Christmas, and Lilith Martin and Chasby Wilson narrated some Christmas customs. "Song to a Christmas Tree" was read by Barbara Norris. Lucille Smith acted as mistress of ceremonies.

The party was held in the living room of the homemaking department, which was decorated with a Christmas tree and candles.

The next meeting of the club will be held Jan. 24.

Students, Teachers In Messiah Today

Six PHS students and two teachers will be in the annual Christmas Messiah to be held this afternoon at 5 p.m. at the First Baptist Church.

Of the 72 people taking part in the program, the students participating are: Gerald Bedenbender, Bill Hutchinson, Marjorie Kelley, Robert J. Brien, Eleanor Carruth, Elizabeth Sturgeon and Mr. Milton Berg, chemistry teacher, and Mr.

Election of class favorites was the highlight of last week's school activities with the following chosen: senior, Ramona Matheny and Bernice Brown; juniors, Beverly Baker and Danny Williams; sophomores, Pat O'Rourke and Charles Laffoon; freshman, Donna Ruth Beard and Jack Williams.

Brown-haired Ramona Matheny, president of Tri-Hi-Y, is business manager for the annual staff and is also on the Little Harvester staff.

Athletic Bernice Brown has played on the Harvesters football and basketball teams for the past two years. She is president of the National Honor Society and has been a member of the ready writers team. She was a nominee for all school favorite.

Beverly Baker is a member of the A Cappella choir, pledge of Tri-Hi-Y and president of the Latin Y club. She shows a journalistic trend as she is assistant editor of the Harvester, was on the annual staff in '43 and '44, and on the Little Harvester radio program last year.

Danny Williams is president of his home room and a member of the band. He has played on the Gorilla and Harvester football squads.

Trish Patsy O'Rourke is an office assistant, home room secretary, and a member of the Spanish club.

Charlie Laffoon, also an athlete, has been on the Gorilla and Harvesters football and basketball squads since entering Pampa high.

Patricia Donna Ruth Beagle has a Junior High citizenship award and is a member of the band and French club.

Jack Williams is best known for his tall tales and his superb assembly dramatization at the beginning of the year. He also played with the Gorilla football team this year.

Nomination of these favorites was held a week ago and they were elected during home room Wednesday.

Bible Classes Popular Elective Subject in PHS

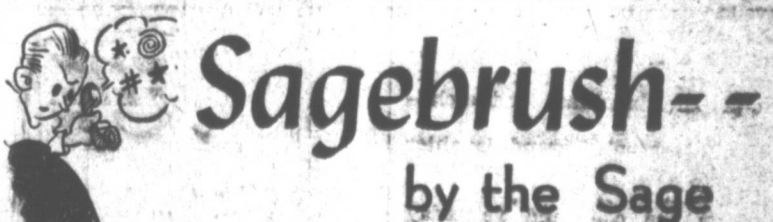

One of the most popular elective classes in PHS is Bible, taught by the Rev. Russell G. West, pastor of The Church of the Brethren.

The Bible class was begun by the Ministerial Alliance in 1933. The Rev. Newton Starnes was the first teacher, and had only one class with 12 students enrolled. When Mr. Starnes enlisted as a chaplain in the Army, Mr. West was appointed to take his place.

This comparatively new subject in the school has been built up to three classes a day with a total enrollment of approximately 75 students. The Old Testament is taught the first semester and the New Testament the second term. The student gets one credit for a year's work.

The class is nonsectarian and no controversial subjects are discussed," Mr. West said.

Lolus Allen, former PHS student now in the Navy was in PHS last week.

Everybody has been wondering if Joan Collins and Richard Widmark are going steady. It wouldn't be such a bad idea.

Charlie Lockhart has graduated from a top Yale wolf to a casanova female!

The newest couple around school last week was Ann White and Gene Shaw. We hope this is the beginning of a beautiful romance.

Marjorie Lawrence was downhearted last week because Dee Griffin had to go back to camp.

Sue Jordan is again on the loose. Now is the time for you boys to do something about that.

Ex-student Jimmy Berry and Randall Clay have been giving Ginger Bassett a rush all week. It seems that Hansel Kennedy is doing all right for himself, too.

Marjorie Lawrence is now 17 years old. Everyone had a wonderful time at her birthday dance Saturday night.

Junior Coffey has been seen with Joan Hawkins recently. Perhaps he isn't the woman hater he thinks he is.

Jake Halter, ex-student, was home last week. It seems that all isn't over with him and Jean Pruitt.

Mr. West, Bible teacher, was absent Wednesday and he told this story Thursday: "I went to the first district assembly, and second period, then gathered up my books and went home. As usual I opened my mail and started studying when a mail announced over the radio the time is now 11 o'clock. He had forgotten completely about the third

Educator Seeks Continued Help For Spanish Speaking People

AUSTIN, Dec. 15. — (AP) — Dr. Stuart Cuthbertson urges educators to use their eyes instead of surveys if they would learn the true conditions of Spanish-American residents of the southwest. He spoke yesterday at a regional conference on education of Spanish speaking people at the University of Texas.

Three miles from the heart of any city you'll find all the information you need about sub-standard housing and other problems, he said.

Dr. George L. Canchey of the University of Texas opposed Dr. Cuthbertson's views on discarding surveys, contending that more comprehensive information is needed for continued improvement in the education of Spanish speaking people.

"We need to know how many children are involved in the migratory labor movement, how many are in school and how many are not," Miss Myrtle Tanner, director of inter-American relations education in the state department of education, yesterday explained the teaching of schools. At last report, she said Spanish in Texas elementary 350,000 elementary children were taking the course.

Thomas Jefferson was a nail manufacturer. He employed 12 men on his plantation to make iron nails.

They Laughed, But Young Mexican Woman's Method Proves Successful

By JACK RUTLEDGE
DALLAS, Dec. 15—(AP)—An idea born of necessity has taught thousands of Texans how to speak Spanish.

Mario de Haro, a sultry Cindere-la from south of the border, is the teacher and it was her idea that led to so many Dallas men and women learning her native language.

Born in Mexico City, Maria de Haro is blonde, fair-skinned and blue-eyed. She was educated in convents in Mexico, New Orleans and Dallas. She is married and has two children.

During the depression she found it necessary to find a job. She was down to her last $2.50.

But she couldn't find work. One day, however, she approached an insurance company executive. He talked to her an hour and a half about Mexico, and Spanish. Why not teach Spanish in some simple, easy way?

A department store asked her how many persons she thought would turn out for a free class sponsored by the store. She said maybe about 50. So they gave her a small room, fixed up a desk and arranged the chairs comfortably. A small two-inch ad was put in the paper.

The classroom was packed long before the opening hour. Many were turned away by surprised department store officials.

The following week, she was given the store's auditorium, and has had it ever since—twice a week for seven years.

But what is her method?

It is common now, but back in the 1930's it was new and radical. Instead of teaching rhetoric, grammar, parsing of verbs and cumbersome vocabularies including words one doesn't even use in English, she decided to teach through conversation alone.

"Americans are so perfect in everything they hesitate to try to speak a foreign language until they've mastered it," she said. "They don't like to be laughed at making errors."

"As a result, few learned foreign tongues. Because the way to really learn is to stumble along.

Mike Fright

Jittery was the word for Joan as Joan Barry, one-time protegee of Charlie Chaplin, recently made her night club debut in New York.

learning pronunciation first, simple words, necessary verbs and nouns, making them into sentences, build gradually."

Maybe Mrs. de Haro didn't originate the idea, but as far as she knows, she did, since then, several major universities have started teaching in this manner, and the U. S. government taught service men foreign languages in a similar way.

Here's a typical lesson:

Mrs. de Haro comes on the stage and makes a few wisecracks. She has a talent for comedy, and a personality that wins her students quickly. She calls the audience's attention to the mimeographed lesson sheet they received when they came in. It is one page.

"Visualize your own home," she says. "Today we learn about a house. A house is la casa. Now repeat it. La Casa."

Obediently the students repeat "la casa" several times, learning the Spanish inflection—"lah cah' sah."

"Now in Mexico," she says, "the house is right on the street. It has no front yard. The front yard is in the back. A street, now is la calle. Pronounced lah-cah-yeh."

Then she takes them into the living room—la sala—and to the dining room—el comedor. She tells them to visualize, pronounce, repeat. She pits one side of the audience against the other, as in a game.

They go into the kitchen—la cocina—and she makes a wry face. The women laugh. They don't like kitchens, either. La cocina.

She escorts them through the house a room at a time. Repeating, pounding, pronouncing, making them repeat after her. As a sort of test, she'll suddenly ask one side of the audience what "the street" is.

Then she'll take a verb. She won't break it down into its various parts.

Venir means to come, but she'll start with vengo—I come. Using the house again. She teaches the words for friends—amigos.

Soon she has the audience making up their own sentences such as "Friends of mine come to my house to see my beautiful living room."

A few lessons and if one isn't too proud, he or she can get along pretty well on a vacation in Mexico. They won't be talking pure and perfect Spanish at first, but they'll be making themselves understood quite plainly.

And almost all of them have excellent pronunciations, which is too often sadly lacking after a college course.

The department store is more than satisfied with the deal, and Mrs. de Haro is no longer down to her last $2.50.
