

Problem of the Returning 'Vel' And His Job Is Coming Up Now

WASHINGTON, May 31—(AP)—Selective Service (SS) has placed its finger very firmly on one of the most tender spots in the whole problem of re-employing war veterans.

Says SS, in interpreting that section of the 1940 selective training and service act which protects the job rights of returning veterans:

"A veteran is entitled to reinstatement in his former position or one of like seniority status and pay, even though such reinstatement necessitates the discharge of a non-veteran with greater seniority."

Settlement of cases like that will be painful for workers, bosses and unions. Some examples:

A man over 38, too old for war but the father of children and for years a steady worker in the plant to which a non-married veteran returns.

A man, kept out of military service for physical reasons when he volunteered and when the draft board called him. He didn't stay out of the war because he wanted to.

Women who went into jobs with the understanding they would be permanent and built up seniority.

Hundreds of thousands of Negroes, satisfactorily employed now in factories and at jobs where Negroes never were considered before.

Under that 1940 act veterans are entitled to their old jobs back provided they ask for them within 40 days after their military discharge and provided the jobs they had were understood to be permanent. So here are some things a boss should remember if he tries to stall off a veteran who fits the provisions outlined above:

The veteran is entitled to back pay for the time lost because of the boss' delay in re-hiring him.

The U. S. district attorney, when he considers a veteran's claims just, will fight for him in the U. S. courts without charge, win or lose.

But the boss who fights a case will have to pay his own attorney and, if he loses, court costs, too.

Additionally he will be liable for that back pay for the veteran because of time lost in the court contest.

Any employer, seeking to show that a veteran before going into the service had waived re-employment rights, must be prepared to prove it.

An employer is not required to reinstate a veteran if his circumstances have so changed as to make it "unreasonable or impossible to do so." But what is "unreasonable or impossible?" SS says that must be decided by circumstances in each case.

The convenience of an employer, SS adds, must be distinguished from "impossible" or "unreasonable."

SS says: "The fact that the non-veteran to be replaced is receiving less pay than the employer would be required to pay the veteran should not be considered as a condition 'unreasonable' or 'impossible.'"

The lease document indicated payment of $15,000 for the acreage. Lessors were Richard King of Edinburg, Mary King Estill, Gentry Estill, Minerva King Patch and Dorst Patch.

Navarro already holds several hundred acres at Los Indios, where one independent and two major firms already are at work.

Leaves From A Correspondent's War Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

LONDON, May 31—(AP)—This capital's transportation shortage—it mirrors Britain's manpower lack—has turned night life topsy turvy to Americans. For example, instead of dining and then going to a movie or play, they have entertainment first and eat afterward.

This is because most plays start their evening performance at 6 to 6:30 and final showings of films begin at 7 to 7:30.

Even love won't induce an English girl to eat that early, so food comes later. If a couple should dawdle over supper after a show is over they find themselves caught in London's nightly traffic bottleneck.

Few officers object to a moonlit stroll with a pretty girl through London's darkened streets. It is not the walk to her door they mind—it's that long shin-scraping hike home alone in the blackout afterward.

Many find fun patronizing London's neighborhood pubs which serve as common people's clubs.

These are divided usually into two sections—public bars where a poor man can stand and drink his pint of ale a penny cheaper than those who patronize the adjoining saloon provided with more swank. Soldiers who behave themselves in pubs make more friends for America among Britain's common folk than any amount of lease-lend equipment or political appeals for amity.

Looking into the lighter side of war, here are two stories—one British, one American—which are providing laughs in Allied circles in London.

The first concerns an English officer who became uncertain of his bearings while walking down Whitehall, an area containing many government buildings. Spying a nearby porter, he said: "Hi say there, which side is the war office on?"

The porter looked him over and replied acidly: "Ours, I hope."

But the prize jest is the answer to the query, "What three things purple bottom" and it will be un-most?" The answer is, "they are over-dressed, over-paid, and over here."

Don Whitehead of the Associated Press' invasion staff told this joke to a barber who laughed but said quickly, "that last one isn't your own." We are glad you Americans are over here.

He didn't deny the truth of the first two at all.

You won't see it in any official list of awards, but irrepressible headquarters officers have created a new decoration.

It is known as the "order of the officially granted to 'any member of the chairborne troops who has spent at least 200 hours in the old swivel."

White Deer Student Receives $50 Prize For Essay on Cotton

Special To The NEWS. WHITE DEER, May 30.—Announcement has been received here that Glenn Tomlin, son of Mrs. Stella Tomlin of Skellytown, has won a $50 prize in a state-wide essay contest on "The Contribution Cotton Is Making to the War Effort."

Glenn has just completed his freshman year in White Deer High school. The contest is sponsored by the Cotton Trade Journal "to stimulate the interest of high school students in the production, distribution, and uses of cotton, and to promote stability in the postwar era with the objective of raising better cotton more efficiently, that can be sold at world market prices, as youth takes the helm entering the fields of agriculture, industry, and the professions."

Contests are being conducted in each of the 15 states in the Cotton Belt and prizes totaling $15,000 will be awarded. The first prize winner in each state will compete in a national contest for the grand prize of an all-expense trip to New York City as a guest of the New York Cotton exchange.

Winner of the $100 first prize in Texas, the first state to complete its selection, was DeWitt Isom of Abilene. In second place were DeLores Quill, also of Abilene, and Nancy Lee Thompson of Waco, who received $75 each; and the third place awards of $50 each went to Glenn Tomlin, White Deer, Mary Ruth McCord of Bellevue, and Jean Crady of Waco. Among the 100 prize winners were three others from the Panhandle: Barbara Hamlin of Canadian, who won $15; Betty Wingo of Plainview, $10; and Betty Lou Pringle of Vega, $5.

Flyer Interested In Recent Meteorite

Among the thousands of persons interested in the meteorite that blazed over Pampa May 29, is A/V C Delos L. Hill, Class 44-F, Pampa field, who has made a hobby of astronomy.

"From my observation," says Cadet Hill, "I come to the conclusion that the meteor was some 30 miles high at the point of disintegration."

"Residents in and around Borger in a radius of 25 miles, and especially westward are likely to find fragments of this fall."

Taking up the subject of meteorites generally, Cadet Hill explains: "Meteorites are of no general shape when found. This again would depend upon their size, the earth's condition upon impact, and the length of time they have lain exposed to the elements. The iron type is largely composed of nickel alloy. There have been rare cases where microscopic diamonds and gold were found. However, the meteorite is much more valuable in its natural state than is the mineral it contains."

"I would like to mention two falls of distinction. The first was at Laigle, France in 1803 in which 2,000 to 3,000 stones fell, thus convincing scientists that meteorites

The pent-up demand for household products has caused spectacular sprees of buying with the release of goods to the public. Club Hustling Hardest Will Win A. L. Flag, Says Cronin

JOE CRONIN

First of a series
By JOE CRONIN
Manager of Red Sox

Everybody will beat everybody else in the American league, so the club hustling the hardest and longest figures to prevail.

The Yankees still have Hank Borowy and Ernie Bonham, but they can't be beaten. Nick Etten is hot at the moment, but he'll cool off. Jimmy Dykes was correct when he said Joe McCarthy no longer can press a button ordering a cluster of runs or a key replacement. He might have added that neither can anybody else, and McCarthy no doubt would be the first to admit that the Yanks have been cut down to the size of the others.

I can't see any club jumping out in front for a substantial lead.

The Browns have a 4-F infield and lobbed up with some fine pitching, but the latter might be traced to their having an edge in spring training. They worked farther south than any other entrant.

Washington has all that trick pitching and their six-foot third baseman, Gilberto Torres, hit to both right and left fields and performed acceptably against us. Of course Torres had the advantage of having played all winter. Oddly enough, this versatile Cuban won't pitch as a pitcher in the South.

TIGERS BETTER THAN PACE

Mr. Mack and the Philadelphia club may have better pitching than a lot of people imagine. Orval Grove of the White Sox experienced his first difficulty with the Athletics when he was chased the other afternoon while Luke Hamlin was turning in a five-hit shutout.

Chicago has Hal Trosky and otherwise acquired power to go with adequate pitching.

Detroit retains Doc Cramer, Joe Hoover, Rudy York and Pinky Higgins and has pitching to go with them. The Tigers are vastly more formidable than their early foot would indicate. Losing Ken Keltner to the army won't do Cleveland any good, but, under the conditions, that hardly makes the lakefront a place for weary opposition to doctor up.

CONFIDENCE IN RED SOX

As for the Red Sox, I have implicit confidence in them. I stepped in at first base because George Metkovich made only one hit in eight games, and I didn't want him to get down. The youngster has been had three abscessed teeth removed.

Metkovich played fine ball in the field at first and is an outstanding outfielder. There is every sign that the tall youngster will hit a long ball consistently, but Leon Culberson will play center field as long as he is going well.

Another reason for my moving in at first base was that I wanted to take advantage of my power in the direction of Fenway Park's rather friendly left field fence during our two-week stand at home.

Eddie Lake went to shortstop because Skeeter Newsome wasn't hitting. He is an even better fielder than the Skeeter, and has a corking arm. We're all right around second base, with Bobby Doerr, the foremost active American League player, on the right side of the bag.

The Red Sox will keep trying, and that's as good a way as any to win these days.

Holiday Games Attended By 160,020 Fans

By JACK HANCOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Baseball passed the quarter pole today in stable condition with 160,020 holiday admissions in the cash box, and the New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals still the teams to beat.

Cincinnati and the St. Louis Browns loomed as the leading contenders after yesterday's flood of doubleheaders featured by 23 home runs. The Reds trailed Billy Southworth's Cards by two games and a half, and the Browns closed to within a half game of the world champs.

Master Melvin Ott of the New York Giants led the home run parade with three, upping his total to 10, as New York trimmed Chicago twice 6-5 and 5-4. Two in the opener did the trick for pitcher Harry Feldman, and one in the finale helped Ewald Pyle to his fourth win with the assistance of reliable Ace Adams.

Whitey Kurovski belted his seventh and eighth round trippers as the Cards rallied to whip Boston in the second game, 13-3, after bowing to Nat Andrews in the first, 1-0, on Tommy Holmes' homer.

Wes Flowers and Hal Gregg got credit for Brooklyn's double victory over Pittsburgh, 9-3 and 4-3, but Leo Durocher had to call on the bullpen for help in both games. Fred Ostermueller, now on his way to Syracuse, saved the first. Curt Davis had to put down a Pirate uprising in the ninth of the finale. Dixie Walker collected two hits in seven at bats, his average leveling off to .431.

SCOUTING REPORT

Chicago regained second place ahead of the Pirates by dumping the Phils in both games, 4-3 and 7-4. Ed Heusser whiffed Ron Northey with the bases full to save the opener for Arnold Carter. Frank McCormick unloaded four hits, including a homer and double, to drive in four runs in the second.

Paul (Dizzy) Trout added fruit to his injury by hitting a home run in the ninth inning, on top of a seven hit pitching job, for a 2-1 edge over New York's Yankees. Hal Newhouse completed Detroit's banner home day of the season before the day's largest crowd, 37,685, by matching the seven-hitter for a 4-1 nod.

Luke Sewell's Browns were outthrust in both numbers by Washington, but made them count for 6-4 and 4-2 triumphs behind Nels Potter and Tex Shirley. Both starters required help but got credit respectively for wins over Mickey Haffner and Early Wynn.

Chicago stopped Philadelphia's ambitious rise with a double-decker loss, 5-1 and 2-1, but the Sox failed to quit the cellar. Orval Grove rattled the A's to six blows in the second after Bill Dietrich left 12 stranded while scattering 11 hits in the opener.

Cleveland topped Boston 9-3 and 4-3 behind Mel Harder and Chief Reynolds, with Roy Cullenbine showing the way on four hits, including a homer and two doubles.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, May 31.—(AP)—Baseball is about to move into India, and we assume that will lend a new meaning to the "untouchables"—they'll become umpires. Ensign Al Horwitz, who used to work with Ray Dumont in the National Baseball congress, has discovered that a wealthy Indian, Mrs. Gabbay has become so interested in baseball that he wants to sponsor a national championship. Dumont is waiting for a signed agreement to name Gabbay as India's semi-pro commissioner—and what better name could you get for the job? Babe Dirrickson, whose husband, George Zaharias has just bought the San Diego franchise in Bill Freedlove's pro football league, is determined to become the world's best woman tennis player. If she succeeds, the footballers likely will take to the hills before Babe tries another game.

Terwilliger Tops Airmen's Fitness Series

Lt. Roger W. Terwilliger, 1942 decoration champion and now a flying instructor at Pampa field, is the most physically fit of all military personnel at the local air base, Lt. Keith Tolliver, director of physical training, said today in announcing the results of a physical fitness series.

A ROOKIE A DAY

Edwin Carnett White Sox outfielder: A versatile ball player and a 300 hitter, what more could you ask? Ed broke in as a pro at Ponca City, Okla., in 1934 and worked his way up to Seattle last season as a pitcher-outfielder. Settled down to outfielding and was drafted by the White Sox, who didn't give him a tumble until Mid-May. They began to show improvement when Ed went in as a regular. Now, with Hal Trosky out, Carnett is serving as first baseman. Carnett once belonged to the Cubs and Braves who probably wish they still had him.

Miss Jewel McMeans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McMeans, of San Antonio, and Lt. Ellis J. Alexander, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Alexander, of Moline, Iowa, were married at the First Methodist church Thursday evening at 8 o'clock, with the Rev. E. B. Bowen reading the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. H. A. Yoder at the organ played softly through the ceremony. Miss Barbara Johnson sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" accompanied by Mrs. Yoder at the organ.

The bride was given in marriage by her father and her only attendant was her sister, Mrs. Ira W. Finger, of San Antonio.

Lt. Gerald T. Felzien, of St. Francis, Kas., attended Lt. Alexander as best man.

Mrs. Finger was dressed in a gown of pink marquisette. The bride's dress was of white Chantilly lace, imported from Mexico and she wore a fingertip veil.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the parlor of the church with the wedding guests attending. The white wedding cake was placed on a large lace dolly and surrounded with pink rose petals and orange blossoms, and was cut by Mrs. E. B. Bowen and served with punch.

Here's How You Can Stretch Your Cosmetics

The new 20 per cent tax on cosmetics will reap around $65,000,000 for Uncle Sam by April 1, 1945, the anniversary of this tax, predict recognized authorities.

No one is squawking, because we all know what it takes to finance a war. But perhaps this figure will be a reminder of the need to extract the last drop of usefulness out of the cosmetics that you buy.

In using heat-defying colognes or rubbing lotions, for instance, use cotton as its carrier from bottle to body—not a leaky cup, made of your hand. Squeeze the cotton dry on your skin after the last round. Then, cache and pin the still fragrant waft inside your girdle top or bra.

Because powder boxes are made the way they are, you have a baby snowstorm every time you pull off the lid. That's wasteful. Put powder in a powder jar which doesn't spew when you lift the lid.

Stop blotting off all of that lipstick. Put on a thin coat with a brush, and powder over it. Touch up with your brush and fix the red coat by pressing your lips together.

The name vaudeville is derived from Vau de Vire, a French town where humorous songs were written in the 16th century.

Give Clouded Sparklers Amonia Bath To Make Them Glean Again

Powder-dulled, cream-smeard jewelry needs care, if it's going to shine for you.

Because foreign-born beauties are said to take better care of their fine jewels or tricky baubles than we do, I asked questions of motion picture star Lya Lys, who hails from Russia, via France. Here are the answers:

Jewelry must be kept in a box—preferably one that's plush lined, she says—not lying around on a boudoir table, menaced by cosmetics. It shouldn't touch your skin until your make-up is on, and it should come off your neck and ears when you re-powder.

It should get an occasional bath. Almost any kind of sparkler will shine brighter for you if you'll drop it in a glass of warm water to which a teaspoonful of ammonia is added. Brush up new gleam on gold, platinum or palladium with a soapy toothbrush. Polish sterling, just as you do your heirloom silver. You can boil a haughtier gleam in diamonds and other precious stones if you'll add a few drops of ammonia to the water. But, warns

Horace Mann Presents Program At Final Chapel Program Monday

The final chapel of Horace Mann school was held Monday afternoon in the school auditorium when the first, second and third grades were in charge of the program from 1:15 until 2 o'clock.

Group singing opened the assembly program followed by selections by the rhythm band. Individual presentations were given by pupils of Miss Pearl Spough, Mrs. Kate Zachry followed by a piano duet by Vivian and Joyce Brake.

Members of the second grade entertained with pupils of Miss Mary Reeve's room and Miss Myra Millard's pupils giving the program. Girl Dean and Phyllis Little sang and danced to "School Days."

Outstanding reading awards for the year were then given with the assembly closing with group singing. Upper grades presented the program from 2 till 3:15 o'clock. "Star Spangled Banner" opened the program when the group gave the salute to the flag.

Dale Cary gave his winning declamation, "Belgium, 1940" after which Betty Ruth Garrison played Chopin's "Minute Valse." Joel Dean and Phyllis Little also danced this number.

Class prophecies were then read with Ed Langford, Joan Stubgen, Betty Garrison and Sammy Frierson taking part.

Sammy Frierson then gave a piano selection and class wails were read with Dale Cary, Doris Walker, Harold Comer and Keith Lane taking part.

Similar awards were given to the upper grades for outstanding reading and writing.

Other awards given during the assembly went to Peggy Rose, Dale Cary.

Baseballs were given to Johnny Dunaway, baseball coach and to Tommy King, assistant coach.

Lumber Demand Is Above Production

WASHINGTON, May 31.—(AP)—The War Production board estimated yesterday that the nation's lumber requirements for the third quarter of 1944 will be more than a billion board feet, greater than the probable supply.

WPA said the lumber resources for the quarter would be approximately 9,217,000,000 board feet, while estimated requirements amount to 10,570,000,000.

What Britain and the U. S. will do with Hitler remains to be seen if there are any remains when Russia gets through.

Italian Fleas May

Take Boys to Rome WITH THE AEF ON THE ITALIAN FRONT—(Delayed)—(P)—Kenneth L. Dixon, Associated Press war correspondent, reports that the fleas in Italy are big, arrogant, brutal babies which keep the soldiers moving.

Dixon calls the insects a secret weapon, stating: "If the fleas keep biting, the boys probably will be in Rome any day now."

"Take the case of Sgt. Clarence Shafranek of Minneapolis and Lt. Mend Staples of Marshall, Texas, for instance," he wrote in a dispatch. "An artist was about to sketch their pictures for the home town papers the other day. Suddenly the sergeant interrupted the sketching by jumping up and yowling, 'Ouch; sorry, pal, but I've got to catch this flea.'"

"Then the lieutenant duplicated the performance. If the artist drew that picture it will resemble a jitterbug."

"But that same day the sergeant and the lieutenant helped clean out the snipers in Formia and capture 10 Germans, what with not being able to sit still."

"See what I mean?"

Work To Begin Soon On New Water Well

Tools for drilling Pampa's first water well are to be shipped tomorrow from Grapeland to Pampa. City Manager W. C. McCord said today following the letting of the contract to the Layne-Texas Co. Ltd., of Ft. Worth, for $18,842 at the city commission's meeting yesterday.

As soon as the tools are on the ground a work order is due to be issued and the job should be completed by July 15, he said.

When the well is finished, it will mean that the city will have five water wells and that total water production will be increased by 600 gallons a minute or 864,000 gallons a day.

The contract includes the connecting of the well with the booster pumps. Location of the well is on the 23-acre plot, near the intersection of N. Hobart and Gwendolyn, donated to the city by M. K. Brown San Antonio.

A saving of $7,000 has been effected in drilling the new well through the use of 132 feet of shafting, 132 feet of 8-inch water column, a motor, and other equipment from well 2, that was plugged and abandoned last summer due to a cavern.

Although yesterday was an official holiday, and city hall offices were closed, the city commission held its regular weekly meeting as usual.

Class Hears Year's Final Address

The Rev. E. J. Odion, addressing the graduating class of Carver High school at the Macedonia Baptist church Sunday night, on the subject, "The Intrinsic Value of Education," said that, in order to be successful in life, one must "first consider, and know the true God."

His sermon reads, in part: "Know the necessity of His being at first."

sent and the nature of that salvation which he has purchased with his own precious blood. That is wisdom. Let us acknowledge the wisdom of the facts in the face of the past, present, and future outcome, individually and as a Nation.

"Since wisdom is the principal thing sought after, let us not neglect that thing that is infallible and eternal... fervent in spirit, serving the Lord. You are only finishing to begin. Therefore, having secured wisdom, do not be content with a sound religious creed; get understanding. There is nothing so wise to the old saying 'You can have the world—give me Jesus—See that you properly comprehend all that you have learned through the years of reach for knowledge, rightly apply all that you have been taught."

that he himself would not be a candidate for any office in the primary election.

Admitting he had heard reports that he would be a candidate for governor, he said:

"I think Governor Coke (R. Stevenson) will not have trouble unless he gets mixed up with the Germany-Holbrook crowd and I think he's too good a Democrat to do that."

(E. B. Germany of Dallas and T. J. Holbrook of Austin were active in the uninstructed convention and both were named presidential electors-at-large by that convention).

The governor has reiterated that he will take no part in the party split that resulted from separate conventions and the naming by each of a group of electors delegates to the national convention in Chicago.

CHINA

Davis in an exclusive story from Blak, dated Monday, told how the enemy virtually ambushed two American battalions which suffered severe casualties. In the general fighting the Japanese suffered heavily, too.

In the southwest Pacific's first tank battle, Davis reported, the enemy attacked with 30 tanks. American Sherman's engaged and defeated them, the Japanese losing 11 machines. Of nine Nipponese planes sent into the fight, six were shot down.

The Americans evidently were holding back their full power until the Boesak village beachhead was thoroughly mopped up. Tokyo radio claimed its airforce at Blak sank a cruiser or aircraft carrier, transport, six or seven amphibian trucks and damaged three warships.

The Chinese high command said a Japanese force breached a defense line 40 miles from Changsha on the Hankow-Canton railroad. This fourth Chinese defense of the key rail city was producing heavy casualties, Chungking said.

The Japanese purpose in its many-sided offensives in Honan and Hunan provinces is to split China and seal off the eastern part against Allied bomber use, a Chungking official said.

In the central Pacific U. S. air men struck Saipan in the Mariana Islands in the second land-based raid of the war against this outpost.

In north Burma Allied Chindit forces again struck at communications to prevent Japanese reinforcement of their stubbornly-resisting garrison still holding parts of Myitkya.

Lt. Gen. Joseph Stilwell's troops have pierced the defenses of this city, a key stop on his way to re-opening the Burma-China road. The Japanese recently have made great efforts to reinforce the defenders, and the Allies have replied with increased air assaults.

Spangler wrote Attorney General Biddle asking whether anti-Roosevelt groups legally could follow the course of the CIO committee, asserting that Biddle's "reasons for permitting such a clear violation of the law which you are under oath to enforce have not been made plain."

Biddle ruled recently that the CIO political action committee's activities were legal. Biddle said Sidney Hillman, head of the political action group, and Philip Murray, head of the CIO, had said $750,000 had been set aside for the committee's activities. The GOP chairman said reports reached him that some unions had contributed $100,000.

(Aftonbladet is listed by the political handbook of the world as having "Nazi tendencies.")

Quoting a purported eyewitness, without stating how the interview was obtained, Aftonbladet's dispatch said the lynching of the flier occurred in a village in Branderburg after "enemy planes raided the neighborhood" wounding several children.

Not far from the village an American plane was shot down and the villagers could see that one of the crew parachuted. The eyewitness was quoted. "A large crowd of inhabitants rushed to the plane and found an American lieutenant."

"The crowd was ready to assault the American with different weapons when a man forced himself between the American and the crowd saying 'he is a soldier anyway.' The crowd drew back for a moment and a German who knew a little English asked the American 'Aren't you ashamed of yourself shooting on defenseless people in this manner?' The American turned away and said nonchalantly, 'That's war.'

"His nonchalant manner excited the fury of the crowd which assaulted the man and struck him with their weapons until he was lying dead in his blood. The English-speaking German could do nothing to stop them."

The story followed closely the pattern of propaganda groundwork laid by Nazi Propaganda Minister Paul Joseph Goebbels last week. The lack of details regarding circumstances of the eyewitness interview indicated the account should be treated with the greatest reserve.

The Rome line was a powerful shield of steel and stone and dispatches from headquarters said only a mighty drive would split it. Every available enemy soldier was reported committed to the defenses on either side of the Alban Hills. The savage resistance appeared to be covering the retreat of the German tenth army on the Allied right. The Germans were paying a heavy price in casualties but so were the Allies, and no large group of the enemy forces were trapped.

Near the Rome shoreline, the British captured area, 2 1/2 miles southeast of Campo Tenucci, coastal anchor of the Rome line. They worked into L'Americano, 18 miles

The eighth army closed within four miles of the Via Cassiana road center of Frosinone, 43 miles southeast of Rome. Everywhere the Germans fought with determination and skill, mounting frequent counterattacks with tanks and self-propelled guns, flame-throwers and infantry.

The Germans shattered the brooding silence on the Russian front with a strong infantry and tank attack which dented Soviet lines in Romania north of Iasi. The attack appeared aimed at upsetting Russian troop concentrations rather than at starting a real offensive.

The enemy sent planes to reconnoiter in England. Marshal Guderian reported that the invasion of the English Channel was being planned. The reported violent fighting in Western Borneo.
