Suit Payments May Result in Firm Closings

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The treasury ruled today that employers who have to pay back wage claims under portal-to-portal suits may charge the payments off against taxes for the years involved.

Since corporate taxes were considerably higher through 1945 because the excess profits tax was then in effect, the ruling means much higher refunds than would be the case if the deductions were taken from current tax rates.

The excess profits tax imposed a net levy of 85 1/2 percent on corporate earnings above the 1936-1939 average.

The regular income tax corporations through 1945 was 40 percent. Effective with 1936 earnings, corporations pay a regular rate of 33 percent and no excess profits tax.

The treasury ruling was announced by Secretary Snyder as a Senate subcommittee continued hearings on legislation to void or limit back pay portal suits.

Assistant Secretary of the Navy W. John Keady told the subcommittee the Navy faces a possible $720,000 liability for portal pay claims under its wartime cost-plus contracts.

In addition, he said, the possibility of a "substantial" liability arises from another type of contract which has "defied" efforts to estimate. He

March of Dimes Downtown Drive Is Set Saturday

Various organizations have worked out a plan of street corner solicitation for the March of Dimes drive now in progress in Gray County.

Such organizations' representatives met yesterday afternoon and decided on location for a drive which will be held here Saturday from 10 a. m. to 6 p. m.

They will be located as follows: Jaycees on Berry's corner; Rotary Club on First National Bank corner;

Kiwanis Club on Levine Department Store corner; Lions Club on Bentley's corner; American Legion at Courthouse Cafe.

Veterans of Foreign Wars on Penney's corner; and U. S. Army Recruiting service at the Postoffice.

Ed Weitz, operator of the Southern Club, said this morning that reservations are already being made for the formal dance which will be held there on the evening of January 30.

Music will be furnished by the Vic Diaz Orchestra, and the proceeds will go to the benefit of the March of Dimes fund, half of which will remain in this county to use combating infantile paralysis.

Drive for funds is also being waged through the schools. A benefit basketball game was held last night. (See Sports page.)

Marine Guilty of Assaulting Girl

PEIPING — (AP) — Marine Cpl. William G. Pierson was convicted by a U. S. Naval Court today of raping a 19-year-old Chinese girl but will not learn the penalty for some time.

After announcing its verdict, the seven-man court adjourned to deliberate on the sentence. It will not be announced until passed upon by Maj. Gen. Samuel L. Howard, commander of U. S. Marines in North China. Life imprisonment is the maximum.

Pierson, 23, who had sat stoically through four days of testimony and argument but did not testify, blanching at the verdict.

Shen Chung, a Peiping National University student who testified Pierson raped her twice on Christmas Eve, was not in court.

Both the conviction and sentence are subject to review. The case created great furor among Chinese university students who three weeks ago staged violent anti-American demonstrations in Shanghai, Nanking, Peiping and elsewhere.

Kidnaper Is Scared Away; Girl Unharmed

LODI, Calif. — (AP) — Kidnaped Alice Dean Devine, popular and pretty 17-year-old Lodi High School student, was back home and unharmed today after the most harrowing 26 hours of her life. Police authorities over the entire West Coast for a man who tried to collect $10,000 in ransom and gave up in frustration.

The girl athlete broke out of her bonds in a highway motel near Sacramento yesterday afternoon when the kidnaper was away and telephoned her location to relatives in Sacramento.

State police broadcast an all-points alarm for the arrest of a man they said had used the names of Everett Westcott Stiles of Portland, Ore., and William Bill Giles, identifying himself as an agent for an Eastern publishing house.

Alice Dean was held under police guard until last night when she and her father were stationed across the street from a Sacramento bar in a futile effort to capture her abductor. The kidnaper was expected but failed to appear at the bar to collect the ransom.

The father, John Edward Devine, wealthy Lodi grape grower and vice president of the American Fruit Growers Association, had been told in a note the night before to be at the bar at 8 p. m. last night with $10,000 in $20 and $100 bills if he wished to see his daughter again.

After waiting nearly an hour beyond the ransom deadline, police and FBI agents decided the kidnaper had been frightened away by newspaper stories and the girl and her father were returned home in a St. Elizabeth's patrol automobile.

Since Saturday the girl had posed here as a feature writer in a nation-wide survey of high school life looking for the "typical American girl."

U.S. Is Keeping Sharp Watch on Cattle Epidemic

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The United States is keeping a sharp watch on Mexico's foot and mouth disease epidemic, apprehensive lest it threaten this country's vast Southwestern cattle herds.

Further movement of Mexican animals across the border into the U. S. will be prohibited "indefinitely" in an effort to confine the deadly contagion to Mexico.

A commission of four U. S. veterinary experts is currently in Mexico, helping President Miguel Alemán direct the Mexican government's fight to eradicate the disease.

The Agriculture Department stepped into aid the Mexican government under urgent appeals from Aleman.

The current epidemic, reported spreading slowly north toward the U. S. border, is the first to touch the North American continent since 1929.

Herds in Texas, California and other Western states were destroyed that year in a campaign that cost the United States $100 million.

The disease is believed to have reached Mexico with an importation of 327 Zebu (Brahma) bulls, brought up by boat from Brazil.

Animal imports from Brazil into the United States are permanently prohibited because of the presence of hoof and mouth disease in Brazil.

In June last year, Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson closed the border to Mexican cattle, sheep, hogs and goats, because of the threat of foot and mouth disease.

Five months later, on Oct. 18, the border was reopened, a joint U. S.-Mexican Veterinary Commission reported that it had been unable to discover the presence of foot and mouth disease in Mexico.

However, 12 days later, Mexican ranchers in the Vera Cruz area on Mexico's Gulf coast, reported sickening of cattle. In a matter of a few weeks, the epidemic had spread west to the area near Mexico City. Early in December it was definitely determined to be the deadly foot and mouth disease.

The audit report said some of the checks drawn on commercial banks "never had been presented for payment and others had been returned as being uncollectable."

Crime School Head Sentenced To Prison

BALTIMORE — (AP) — Fred Shepard, 76-year-old father of 25 children, who was described by Judge Charles E. Moylan as the operator of a "school of crime," today began a two-year sentence in the Maryland House of Correction.

He was convicted yesterday of contributing to the delinquency of five 11 and 12-year-old boys, accused of stealing hams, turkeys, chickens, sugar and other foodstuffs from the Lexington Market under his tutelage.

Senate Would Hear Outline by Marshall

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Secretary of State George C. Marshall has been invited to give the Senate Foreign Relations Committee a comprehensive outline of his views on American foreign policy.

But Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich.) extended the invitation in such a way, it was learned today, as to emphasize the committee's desire to cooperate fully with the new cabinet officer in the conduct of his work.

Marshall was asked to appear at his own convenience and some committee members said it would be all right if he did not find it convenient to testify until after the Big Four Foreign Ministers' meeting at Moscow.

The general assumption is that Marshall will attend the Moscow meeting, even though he left the question open temporarily.

He buckled down to his first full day's work at his big mahogany desk in the State Department with praise still being heard from both Republican and Democratic members of Congress for his expressed determination to run the nation's foreign affairs on a "non-political" basis.

The statement Marshall issued shortly before he took the oath in President Truman's office yesterday was widely interpreted as not only removing the general from the list of 1948 presidential possibilities but taxing even those who might further away from partisan politics.

Senator Connally D-Tex., former chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, declared the general's statement "will strengthen his position as secretary of state and give added prestige to his wonderful character and reputation."

"It was most appropriate and I applaud it heartily," Connally asserted.

Marshall, whose name often had figured in presidential speculation, said he was not a candidate for any political office and could not be drafted for any such office.

Furthermore, he said he considered that the office of Secretary of State, "at least under present conditions, is non-political."

While Washington officials and diplomats generally appeared as invited guests at the ceremony, the Foreign Relations Committee to learn Marshall's views on a wide range of

Tie Vote Is Seen Possible Today on War Probe Issue

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Democratic senators leading the drive against a year's delay in the House of Representatives' Special War Investigating Committee called the lineup so close that a tie vote is possible today.

By an agreement reached last Friday, the unusual occurrence is believed to be something of a record in the way of family group receiving the same degree during the same session.

Their party, in the minority for the first session in 14 years, was putting everything into today's test.

Party chiefs look to it for an indication of the party's strength to break into Republican ranks on other big issues in the future.

The Democrats started with a numerical handicap of 10 members to the Republicans. But they calculated that if they could swing five or six Republicans to their side, in a favorable attendance situation, they might win.

Senator Tobey of New Hampshire, Aiken of Vermont, and Cooper of Kentucky already have announced their intention of opposing the special committee's continuation. The Democrats held high hopes on two or three more.

The investigating committee, founded six years ago by a resolution of the Senate, is due to expire at the end of this month unless the Senate acts.

Los Angeles Death Inquest Is Called

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The coroner called an inquest today in the death of a 22-year-old brunette, but there was little indication that the verdict could be anything but the formalized "death at the hands of person or persons unknown."

Police continued a methodical inspection of motor courts, hotels and vacant houses where the murder might have occurred, and Capt. Jack Donahoe of the homicide detail is convinced that "he ghostly mutilation job must have left evidences which could not be erased."

Husband Is 'Spoke In Wheel of Life'

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — He was just a spoke in the wheel of Martha O'Driscoll's Hollywood life—not her husband—Richard D. Adams, former Navy commander, says in a deposition in connection with the actress' divorce suit.

The 37-year-old officer, now a resident of San Francisco, said he and his 24-year-old wife first eloped over her decision to depart—three weeks after their marriage in 1943—on a USO tour to the Aleutians with Errol Flynn and others.

His 74-page deposition set forth that on occasion he did all their household work—"just like a woman."

Members of Texas' First Family Take Deep Breath; Inaugural Over

AUSTIN — (AP) — Beauford Halbert Jester, Jr., 8, could slide down the banisters of the Governor's mansion with no photographers around today and the Governor and Mrs. Jester sat down and took a deep breath—their first since a week ago when inaugural preparations began.

Texas' new Governor relaxed early this morning before the sun came up after a nightlong climax to the guest inaugural in years.

Last night's final round of festivities had begun with a public reception in the rotunda of the Capitol, where the state's official party had stood in a receiving line for almost two hours. Texas Highway Patrolmen, forming a human chain of joined hands, kept a crowd of thousands moving down the receiving line.

Soon after 9:30 p. m. Jester led off the grand march of the ball at Gregory gymnasium on the University of Texas campus with Mrs. Coke Stevenson Jr. Behind them were the outgoing Governor Coke Stevenson and Mrs. Jester, followed by Lt. Gov. and Mrs. Allan Shivers.

From the gymnasium Jester and his party went to two balls at Austin hotels and to the Texas Union university union building where 20 groups of square dancers in costume whirled and stomped in a jammed hall.

Disputed Oath Taken By Thompson Stands

ATLANTA — (AP) — Herman Talmadge's legislative forces sustained their first defeat in the General Assembly today when they filed to expunge from the Senate Journal the oath M. E. Thompson took as acting governor.

The Senate, by a 27-27 tie vote, thereby ordered the Journal to show that when Thompson took the oath as lieutenant governor last Monday he also swore in a surprise move to uphold the constitution in exercising executive powers of state.

The Talmadge group was beaten down today after President pro tem William P. Deane of the Board presiding over the session, ruled that he was entitled to a vote and cast it to allow the disputed oath to stand. Deane then ruled that since a tie vote existed the journal was adopted as read.

The way is now clear for Talmadge, if he so desires to put the issue of who is the real governor before the State Supreme Court within 20 days. Attorney General Eugene Cook said today.

The attorney general, who has ruled that the legislature had no right to elect Talmadge governor, said the Talmadge appointment of Andrew J. Whitehurst of Thomas County as a solicitor general offered an opportunity for a speedy court test.

All that Talmadge has to do, Cook said, is to bring quo warranto proceedings against J. B. Edwards, appointed to the job. Such an action, Cook said, can be heard in the lower courts within 10 days and appealed to the State Supreme Court within another 10 days.

While a heated controversy continued between Talmadge and Lieut. Governor M. E. Thompson over who should wield executive powers, Cook declared that his desire is and always has been to have the issue stripped of personalities and adjudicated on its legal merits.

City of Pampa Secures Surplus WAA Water Pipe

Approximately 6.4 miles of cast iron pipe, in four different sizes, will be sold to the City of Pampa at less than $1 per linear foot by the War Assets Administration. City Engineer George Thompson disclosed yesterday afternoon.

The 33,800 feet of pipe has been granted to the city at a total cost of $35,600, less 40 percent discount. This discount may possibly be increased to make the purchase still cheaper, the city engineer added.

Located in Area "B," Camp Howze, the pipe is made of cast iron and was laid in 1943 to be used as water mains in that camp. Included in the pipe are: 4,400 feet of 10-inch pipe; 4,800 feet of 8-inch; 12,940 feet of 6-inch; and 1,280 feet of 4-inch, making a total of 33,800 feet of practically brand new cast iron pipe.

Thompson added that the city will have to pay for the removal and transportation of the pipe from the camp to Pampa. Also included in the purchase are various valves, elbows, connections and other accessory items.

Pipe in Area "C" of the same camp had also been available to the city, but further inspection showed that it did not come up to the community's needs, Thompson said.

Over the past weekend City Manager Garland Franks took the initial step, in Dallas, to secure a preferential directive from the federal government for other surplus property. If granted this will give the city a priority rating higher than even federal agencies now have. Equipment the city hopes to obtain through a preferential directive consists of: one D-6 or D-7 tractor, two 1 1/2-ton flat bed trucks; two 1 1/2-ton dump trucks; one 2 1/2-ton cab over engine truck equipped with a packer type garbage unit; one tandem wheel grader; with 12-foot blades. This equipment will not be in addition, but will be used as replacements for practically worn out machinery.

Pampa Cagers 'Break Even' in March of Dimes Benefit Games

Negro Star Open To Offers From Pro Grid Teams

CHICAGO (AP)—Buddy Young was ready to go to work suspended cash—when and if he gets any pro football offers.

The 5 foot 4 inch University of Illinois athlete said he had decided to withdraw from school for financial reasons, adding that "my first responsibility is to my wife and 18-month-old son—and right now I am broke. I am open to all offers to play pro ball."

Young was scheduled to leave Chicago by plane tonight for Los Angeles to participate in a college all-star-professional game there Sunday—a step that would automatically conclude his eligibility in the Western Conference.

Young, who left the Illinois campus last Thursday and received domestic flunkies' examinations when he failed to report Monday and yesterday, also will forfeit his chances of competing for the United States in the 1948 Olympics in London should he play Sunday. The 21-year-old Negro athlete is one of the country's outstanding collegiate sprinters, having been clocked in the 100-yard dash in .09.5.

Four Baseball Greats Are Named To 'Hall of Fame'

NEW YORK (AP)—Four baseball greats, Pitchers Carl Hubbell and Robert "Lefty" Grove, Infielder Frankie Frisch and Catcher Gordon "Mickey" Cochrane today joined 49 other immortals of the diamond in the national pastime's Hall of Fame.

The quartet was elected to the Cooperstown, N. Y., shrine by the Baseball Writers of America in a poll completed Jan. 13.

It was the first time since 1942, when Rogers Hornsby, who led the National League in batting in seven different seasons was named that any player received 75 percent of the votes required for election.

The election, results of which were announced last night, was the first under the new rules which restricted the balloting privileges to writers of at least ten years' membership in the association and which also confined the field to players active in the game since 1921. No player active in organized baseball on the field in 1946 was eligible.

Hubbell, famous "Meal Ticket" of the New York Giants, who won 233 games during his 16-year career, received 146 of the 161 votes cast to head the list.

Frisch, the "Fordham Flash" of the Giants and the St. Louis Cardinals, was second with 136 votes.

Trailing Frisch with 128 votes was Cochrane, one-time catching great of the Philadelphia Athletics and the Detroit Tigers.

Grove, Cochrane's one time battery mate on the Athletics, followed with 123 votes. The former south-paw speedball ace who closed out his career with the Boston Red Sox, won 200 games during his stay in the major leagues.

Harold "Pie" Traynor, outstanding third baseman and former manager of the Pittsburgh Pirates, missed being elected by two votes, polling 119.

The man who found the pot at the end of the rainbow as the president of the links seldom goes to a golf course these days. His last appearance was a practice round at the Texas State College of Women course here Jan. 16 and it was the first time he had wrapped his fingers around a golf club in 35 days.

Both 10 points, the Heiskells scored three points before the Heiskells broke ice, but the Pampans jumped ahead to take a 11-6 lead at the end of the first period and increased it to 31-22 at the half.

Phillips began to gain in the third quarter, which ended 45-40, and pulled to a 54-49 lead with four minutes to go. The Heiskells opened up but couldn't pull ahead and Phillips was in possession of the ball when the game ended.

Bob Andis, big Heiskell center and former Texas Tech cage stand-out, dumped in 10 field goals for 20 points to take high scoring honors. Andis brought his scoring total to 67 points in the last four games.

Second honors went to Doyle Aults, Heiskell guard, who scored 13 points while Dewey and Checkfield of the Men's Club scored 10 points each.

The game started at a slow, careful pace but both teams opened up and fought hard for the lead in the final periods.

Next Monday night, the two teams will meet at the Phillips High School Gym at eight o'clock for the Hutchinson County March of Dimes benefit.

Baseball Player Moans He Can't Buy Base Blows

AP Newfeatures

RICHMOND Va. — Outfielder Willard Marshall of the New York Giants is ready to hang up his hitting shotgun and get down to another season of major league baseball.

"I bagged two deer this season," says Marshall, "and I killed an owl and a hawk the other day. But I'm a little tired of it all now, and I'll be ready when we start training at Phoenix, Ariz., in February."

And then Marshall really began to talk about baseball.

"Injuries to Johnny Mize and Walker Cooper hurt us plenty last year," says Marshall. "If they had been in the lineup regularly, I don't think we would have finished in the cellar."

"We certainly did a lot of switching around trying to find the right combination. I played all three outfield positions but finally wound up as a rightfielder."

And which National League park did Marshall find toughest to hit in?

"Brooklyn, that's my tough one," says Marshall. "All ball players have field positions that they have trouble in. Last year, I couldn't buy a base hit in Brooklyn."

Harvesters Lash Childress 45 to 35

CHILDRESS — Using reserves freely in the final periods, the Pampa Harvesters took a 45-35 verdict from the Childress Bobcats here last night in a non-conference basketball game.

The Pampa reserves made the night complete by blasting the Bobcat "B" team, 44-18.

Charlie Laffoon, stocky Pampa guard, scored 12 points for the winners, but gave up high-point honors to Roy Barte of the Bobcats. Barte accounted for 15 points.

Pampa built up a comfortable lead at the half and started substituting freely in the last half to keep the listless Bobcats in check.

Guard Frank Green dumped 14 points through the hoop to take scoring laurels in the "B" game.

The main game saw the presence in the Pampa lineup, for the first time this season, of Calvin McAdams, top-flight letterman last season. McAdams has been ineligible for competition up to this time. He alternated at a guard position.

Pampa won an early-season game from Childress at Pampa, 35-27.

The Harvesters' next game is a conference affair with Brownfield at Pampa Friday night.

'Pilfered' Cage Star Cannot Play For Arkansas U.

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark.—(AP)—The University of Arkansas Athletic Council today declared ineligible for participation in intercollegiate sports at Arkansas the six-foot, six-inch basketball player the Razorbacks were accused of having pilfered from Texas Christian University.

Robert A. Leflar, chairman of the athletic council, said the action in declaring David L. Miller, Rozonka, Va., Army veteran, could not play on Razorback teams did not result from any violation of Southwest Conference rules, but followed "consideration of the entire combination of circumstances connected with the case."

The "pilfering" charge was made by TCU Coach Hub McQuillen when Miller returned to Fayetteville with the Razorbacks after they swept a two-game basketball series from the Horned Frogs at Fort Worth last week. TCU said Miller had intended to register there and had been working out with the Horned Frogs. Arkansas claimed they saw him first. The Southwest conference took no official action on the matter.

Papa Never Deserts Old Possessions

By RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Clothing and furnishes, who have been selling loud-colored, loose-fitting sports shirts to American men during the white-shirt shortage are worried.

They fear that if they don't get Papa out of those sports shirts soon, he may develop a fondness for them and refuse to go back to wearing dress shirts even when he can get them.

It looks as if the clothing king Papa almost as well as Mama does. Years of experience have taught Mama not to let Papa get too attached to any piece of wearing apparel or furniture, or even to a set routine.

Let Papa get attached to one favorite chair, and it will be sitting in one certain spot in the living room for 20 years. Suggestions that it is falling apart and ought to be junked will bring forth howls of protest from Papa.

The same thing is true of a hat, house slippers, or shoes that have been around so long that Papa feels a kinship with them. Donate them to the church rummage sale—and they'll be missed within 24 hours, even though they may not have been worn for six months.

A CREATURE OF HABIT

Let Papa get used to having dinner at a certain hour—and then just try to serve it at 7 instead of 6. Just try it.

Yes, if the clothing don't want to run into any trouble getting Papa to abandon his sports shirts in favor of dress shirts—they had better hurry up and produce the dress shirts.

Mama will back them up on that.

"Individualism Is Having Rough Sledding," Declares Dr. Moore

"Individualism is having rough sledding, but it should be preserved and tempered with Christianity," declared Dr. L. H. Moore, professor of education at Texas State College for Women, who was guest speaker when the American Association of University Women of the Pampa branch observed its 18th anniversary Tuesday evening with the annual International Relations and Founder's Day banquet held in the Palm Room.

Mrs. C. Quentin Williams, president, presided and gave a brief history of the local AAUW chapter, which was organized Jan. 19, 1929. She stated that there are 86,000 members of this organization in the United States in addition to those in the International Federation.

Dr. Moore was introduced by Miss Mary Gordon, international relations chairman. Main points in his speech entitled, "The Future of Western Civilization," were presented in an authoritative manner. He related the seriousness of his subject, however, with humorous anecdotes and sidelights throughout his talk.

"This society of ours is based on rugged individualism of the frontier type," Dr. Moore stated. "Today," he continued, "individualism is having rough sledding, but it should be preserved and tempered with Christianity."

In a history of our civilization, he said that 150 years ago science came in competition with Christianity and developed great industry. This resulted in ruthless competition and was a large element in bringing on the depression.

"If we had put Christ into our thinking, the depression might have been avoided," Dr. Moore added.

He stated that free enterprise is having its last chance today. If it fails this time, it's good bye. He told those present that individual thinking is determined by groups today. "We have let science develop 1,500 institutions concerned only with a civilization of material value."

"These material things have become so specialized and narrow, that people are losing a general viewpoint," he added.

"We are today in a very serious condition," Dr. Moore commented. "The chief difficulties in our present civilization are moral and educational. Economically and politically we are safe. So long as the legislative branch of our government in the United States is strong, there is no danger of having a dictatorship. It is only when it is weak that the danger becomes apparent."

He discussed the teacher problem in relation to the future of our civilization. He said that "if management does not take the teacher problem seriously, immediately, within five years, four-fifths of the teachers in the U. S. will become under made arrangements for the speaker and also was in charge of the musical number on the program. Mrs. Leslie Hart was chairman of the menu committee. Others on her committee were: Mrs. F. O. Gault, Mrs. F. E. Leech, and Miss Pearl Spaulgh.

Mrs. W. S. Dixon was in charge of ticket sales and reservations and was assisted by Mrs. G. F. Friant. The telephone committee, headed by Mrs. Raymond Salmon, included Mrs. J. E. Hood, Mrs. Charles W. Lynch, Jr., and Mrs. E. Allen Thimor, Jr. Miss Helene Huff was in charge of publicity.

There were 110 present.

Citizenship, Peace Topic of Merten H D Club Meeting

Citizenship and peace were both discussed when the Merten Home Demonstration Club met yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Aileen Slay.

Mrs. E. R. Jay led the program on "Our Responsibility as a Citizen." She said that we must prepare ourselves and our young people to be eligible voters for qualified candidates. In knowing of the needs and problems of our fellow man, our homes and communities, our country and state, and voting for advancement would be good citizenship, Mrs. Jay declared.

"Peace With Other Countries" was discussed by Mrs. D. A. Caldwell who declared that practicing the "Good Neighbor" policy with friendliness toward other nations would be a great step toward world peace. Peace begins in the cradle, and the home is the base for world democracy, she continued, and each individual's interest in establishing peace would make the world's people stronger, for ignorance creates wars. She urged that we teach the good found in other countries in our own homes, schools and on the radio, and to practice tolerance, and avoid suspicion, for it is to "live in peace, or the atomic bomb". Mrs. C. H. Hammett was program leader and asked questions concerning the poll tax and led a general round table discussion on our government.

Mrs. E. E. Etheridge presided over the business meeting. It was voted to send gifts to two former members. Each chairman will have plans for this year to be given at the second meeting next month. It was announced that telephone service would soon be started in the community. Mrs. E. R. Jay was appointed assistant reporter. Roll call was answered with "what I like in a neighbor".

Coffee, cookies and sandwiches were served to those mentioned above and Mmes. John Brandon, Frank Bailey, W. A. Bell, V. Smith, and T. G. Groves.

The next meeting will be held with Mrs. E. R. Jay at 2 p. m., Feb. 4.

Watch Repair Is Accurate Due To 'Watch Master'

"Lost, yesterday, somewhere between sunrise and sunset, two golden hours, each with sixty diamond minutes. No reward was offered, for they are gone forever."

This was the fifth philosophy of the great scholar, Horace Mann. Many years prior to Mann's time, it was a favorite expression of Theophrastus, that "time was the most valuable thing that a man could spend."

Down through the centuries of WATCH MASTER.

years during which time has elapsed, it is the only thing that remains unchanged, and unmarked. It goes on its unswerving course: year after year, completely oblivious of the success or joys, terror or sorrows, of the world.

Despairing of the idea of ever being able to control time, man took the second-best way out and constructed a machine that would accurately measure this priceless commodity. With this method he could allot a recognized portion of each twenty-four hours to the problems that confronted him and his friends.

Today the world is rife with hundreds of thousands of highly specialized, delicate, time-pieces. These watches, as English has called them, regulate the compassing coils of the entire population of the globe.

Modern science has now devised an instrument so precise that it can measure the number of seconds lost or gained by a watch, in the space of one minute. One of these instruments, which are known as "Watch Masters," is in use daily at the Ricketts and Ackley Jewelry

The Fort Smith-Santa Fe Trail

By H. BAILEY CARROLL
Director of the Texas State Historical Association; Vice-President of the American Association for State and Local History

Joshua Gregg, the most celebrated of all the Santa Fe traders, opened the Fort Smith-Santa Fe Trail in the spring of 1829.

In 1845 Lieutenant James William Albert, of the United States Army Topographical Engineers, entered Mexican territory unannounced and ran the trail in reverse—from west to east.

In 1849 Captain Randolph B. Marcy escorted a large group of California-bound Forty-niners along the trail from Fort Smith to Santa Fe.

No pioneer trail was ever as fixed and definite as a modern paved highway, but this trail was a sort of guiding star in that it pointed the way for the survey in the fifties of a possible transcontinental railroad route along the thirty-fifth parallel to the Pacific.

In the twentieth century the home-seekers who followed Gregg "where the grass was green" built modern highways over many of the ruts in his trail.

It was in fact the Fort Smith-Santa Fe Trail was a worthy pioneer forerunner of present-day Highway 66.

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG
news behind the news

WASHINGTON
By RAY TUCKER
POLITICS—American labor unions extensive participation in politics on the Democratic side is chiefly responsible for the current Congressional effort to curtail their economic power.

IT'S A PRETTY SORRY MESS FOR GEORGIA AND THE SOUTH
A number of Pampanas have asked us what is all the ruckus about in Georgia, and many of them, strange as it may seem, have reserved taking "sides" until they know more about it.

There has been a rather remarkable lack of explanation by the press services as to how the complex situation involving the governor's office came about. While following what Who said to Whom when he came to his office at 9:01, or thereabouts, on a given day, the news has been devoid of particulars leading up to the deplorable fracas.

Here is an explanation, but, we submit, it is not so complete as it might be. The late Eugene Talmadge was elected governor last fall in the state's rather strange system, the county unit system, under which a man might win an office although he did not receive a majority of the popular vote. He died before he, along with other newly-elected officers, could be sworn in.

Now, there's a clause in the Georgia Constitution providing that, no person having a majority vote, the general assembly can select the governor from the two highest write-in candidates. Of course, Eugene Talmadge had the majority, but he died.

So, the Legislature took a vote on whether the write-in with the highest number of votes should be seated. The name of Eugene's son Herman, had been written in by the old Talmadge crowd—just in case. It had been evident that Eugene was a sick man.

Out-going Governor Arnall, who has been at loggerheads with the Talmadge crowd for four years, refused to accept the action of the legislature, and contended that he would stay in office until the duly-elected lieutenant governor, M. E. Thompson, had been sworn into office. He held that Thompson would then be governor of the state.

Arnall has also filed suit with the state superior court, seeking nullification of the legislature's action in forcing government while politicians squabble over the will wait out the decision of the court.

Coming at a time when the spotlight is on the South for one reason or another, this is a deplorable situation. The people of that state are deprived orderly and efficient government while politicians squabble over the letter of the law.

But it is even more than that. It is the tug-of-war between quite different philosophies of government. The Talmadge group has grown notorious for its "white supremacy" doctrine, and it is no accident that a group of Southern die-hard was seen in the Talmadge crowd wearing the label of the KKK—and apparently, proudly. It is no accident, either, that the ignominious Columbians, Inc., which saw its insidious inception at Atlanta, is also backing the Talmadge group.

Arnall, while evidently right from a moral standpoint, has, unfortunately, got the legal cards stacked against him. It all makes for a sorry mess of affairs for the South, and Georgia specifically.

MACKENZIE'S Column
By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst
(Subbing for Mackenzie)
Spitsbergen, north island of the Svalbard group toward which Moscow is making passes, had been operating as an organized community for only 17 years when the Russians first began to covet it. That was during the first World War, when the last Czar wanted to buy out the private Norwegian coal owners, who had gone in along with British and American developers after 1900. The only objective then, for a Russia which was only slightly interested in the northern shipping routes, was the nine to ten billion tons of coal which are estimated to lie beneath the frozen surface.

A friend of mine called my attention to the youth magazine Motive published eight times a year by the Division of Educational Institutions of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church.

REVEALING—Conservative Democrats discovered in 1940 and 1944 that John L. could not line up his men against P. D. R. But the most revealing discovery of the hollowing of labor leaders' claims came last November, when the CIO wagons an all-out campaign against supporters of the Case Bill and other anti-labor legislation.

DISCOVERY—This Congressional revelation of organized labor's vote potential, matches in importance Senator Joe Ball's revolutionary scheme for smashing the unions' horizontal holding companies in basic industries.

still have men and dirty tasks that must be performed. This is the fault of management. Management has failed to correct and retrain the technicians. So any hard labor, any dirty job that needs to be done is the fault of management. It isn't due to the lack of capital. The owners of capital are the ones who are to be held responsible.

Gracie Reports
By GRACIE ALLEN
I see that the male president of a college for women in Orange, Calif., says that women are losing their power over men. I guess it gives a man a false feeling of superiority when he can tell a bunch of girls what courses to take, but if he investigates I think he'll find that, after college, when matrimony sets in, the woman who sets the course and the man who takes it—and likes it.

ROOM FOR ECONOMY by Peter Edson
WASHINGTON, (NEA)—At the very end of the three-inch-thick, five-pound Federal Budget—back in Appendix Six, on pages 496-8—there is a summary of government expenses year by year for 10 years. It starts with 1939 and gives actual expenditures through 1946, and estimates for 1947 and 1948.

cannot oppose labor and survive, in the legislators' opinion. But they might not have made the discovery save for the union bosses' open challenge on 1936-1946 political battlefields.

WASHINGTON—The United States and Russia have locked in another vital struggle behind the doors of the World Bank. The controversy springs from Washington's stout insistence that financial aid be barred from Soviet satellites showing hostility toward the U. S., which is the main contributor to the international organization.

It is understood that Eugene Meyer resigned as president over the key question. He wanted to run the agency as a regular banking house instead of as an arm of the State Department. The Washington Administration, however, cannot understand why good American dollars should be shipped to Moscow tools who use it to our disadvantage in eastern Europe and the Balkans.

INTERVENTION—It has been impossible to obtain a capable figure as new head because of these difficulties and differences. Big financiers will not accept until they know whether they are expected to be Administration diplomats or international bankers. Consequently, the bank is not functioning, although it was organized at Bretton Woods more than two years ago.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—In spite of the overwhelming national endorsement of the Republican party at the last election, James Howard McGrath continued his rapid climb in public life by convincing the voters in Rhode Island that they should elect him to the U. S. Senate as the Democratic candidate.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The voters of Rhode Island are always doing something special for McGrath. They made him the youngest governor in the state's history. He has also had the post of U. S. Solicitor General. Democrats and Republicans alike are willing to hail his victory. They respect his outstanding record and operations of the lending machinery.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—The U. S. has agreed to put up $3,174,000,000 or 41.59 percent of the bank's capital. Moreover, most of the agency's private securities will be sold here. However, under the charter, Washington can withhold its capital contribution and also block access to private sources of money in this country.
