Jap Resistance Increases On Saipan

Big Infantry Scrap May Be Taking Shape

By J. B. KRUEGER
Associated Press War Editor

Japanese troops defending Saipan Island sharply increased their resistance along a prepared line roughly bisecting the strategic Iwo Jima to Tokyo, reports from the scene said today.

Howard Handelman, representing the American press, reported a big-scale infantry battle was shaping up. The firm outline of enemy defenses was emerging as American Marines and infantry hammered at Garapan, the island's capital city.

The line from Garapan runs southeast of Mt. Tapochau, thence to Kagman Peninsula on the east coast.

The enemy's "brutally strong defenses" are set in the worst terrain encountered so far in the Pacific war, Handelman said.

He added there was every evidence the enemy was ready to engage in a large-scale infantry battle, something missing up to now.

Garapan, first Japanese capital city to feel the shattering weight of U. S. land artillery, is partly in American hands, on Monday.

Tokyo radio, jumping two days ahead of the latest accounting from Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, reported a 170-plane raid against Guam, southwest of the Marianas, on Monday. This fairly large fleet inflicted

Johnston Holds Conference With Joseph Stalin

MOSCOW, June 27—(AP)—Eric Johnston, president of the United States Chamber of Commerce, talked business with Premier-Marshal Joseph Stalin for two and a half hours in the Kremlin late last night and emerged with the declaration that the conversation had been "very successful."

The interview was confined largely to questions by Johnston about future trade between the United States and the Soviet Union and direct answers by Stalin.

However, Stalin also gave his guest a statement praising American business, labor and agriculture for their contribution to the war.

Johnston said he could not disclose other details of the conversation.

He said he was particularly surprised at what he termed "the deepness of the Marshall's knowledge of America, particularly its production. His knowledge is accurate and very complete."

Johnston said he asked questions which he described as "concerning what the Soviet Union expected to receive from the United States, what Russian production would be after the war, how they were going to achieve it and what would be their relations with the rest of the world as importers and exporters of goods."

He said Stalin "answered decisively and quickly."

Platform in Right Direction—Hoover

CHICAGO, June 27—(AP)—Arriving to address the Republican convention, Herbert H. Hoover said today that he would participate vigorously in the election campaign.

"I am going to stay in this fight until I die," the only living former president told newspapermen as he stepped from his train. "The fight is for everything that is precious to the American people."

Hoover would not say whether he expected to "burn storm" for the Republican ticket, but left no doubt that he would contribute all his energies to the Republican plank preliminary draft for the platform the former president commented "the platform, so far as I have seen, is in the right direction. That includes the foreign plank."

Fifth Stabs Toward Pisa And Livorno

ROME, June 27—(AP)—Eighth Army troops have again driven the enemy from the bitterly-contested ruins of Chiusi, while the Fifth Army, advancing along Italy's west coast, has reached a point ten miles beyond Piombino in a stab toward Livorno and Pisa. Allied headquarters announced today.

The Eighth Army, after retaking Chiusi, nine miles southwest of lake Trasimeno, the area where the Germans have been putting up their most vigorous delaying action, slugged on several miles to the northwest.

Seven miles to the northeast the Eighth Army drove into the outskirts of Castiglione del Lago, on the west shore of lake Trasimeno, occupying the village of Vitellino, taking 200 prisoners and inflicting heavy casualties.

Limited advances have been made in the vicinity of Perugia, east of the lake.

Fierce fighting is in progress astride highway 71, which leads to Siena, about 30 airline miles south of Florence, the communiqué said. Last reports had American and French troops battling up that road less than 15 miles from Siena.

The Mediterranean army air force announced that at least 55 enemy planes were destroyed yesterday in giant air battles over the Vienna area, when the enemy sent the largest fighter force encountered in recent weeks into the skies against up to 750 American fighters, Liberators and their escort.

The Allies lost a total of 44 planes, including 30 heavy bombers.

Last night RAF Halifaxes, Liberators and Wellingtons poured twin block busters on the Aquila Oil Refinery at Trieste, causing fires and explosions which left much of the plant in ruins.

It was disclosed officially that the First Armored Division, veterans of the Tunisian campaign, was participating in Lt. Gen. Mark W. Clark's Fifth Army thrust toward Siena.

Churchill Gives Casualty Figure

LONDON, June 27—(AP)—Prime Minister Churchill told the House of Commons today that total British casualties from the time of the landings in Italy until the fall of Rome amounted to 73,122 killed, wounded and missing.

The period covered represents a total of about 10 months of fighting ending June 4, during which time the British participated in many major engagements, including the battles of Cassino and the Anzio beachhead.

Churchill said his figures included 14,331 killed, 47,966 wounded, and 10,825 missing.

Figures on air force and naval losses during this period were not available.

Grain Workers To Get Wage Raise

DALLAS, June 27—(AP)—Temporary payment of wages of 75 cents an hour to loaders and unloaders at five grain elevators has been authorized by the Regional War Labor Board to help expedite the Texas Panhandle's record wheat crop.

The rate is temporary, said Board Chairman Wales H. Hadden. It will be in effect but 30 days and apply only to five grain elevators at Lubbock and Amarillo—the Kearns Grain and Seed Company, Burrus Panhandle Elevators, Producers Grain Company, J. C. Crouch Grain Company and Tex-O-Kan Flour Mills company.

The board took action in a special meeting after receiving telegrams from the firms that the grain movement was threatened because they were unable to hire men at the approved rate of 54-cents an hour. The board's order permitted payment of 80 cents an hour for foremen.

Question Before Convention Is Who Will Run With Dewey?

CHICAGO STADIUM, June 27—(AP)—Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, permanent chairman of the Republican convention, declared today the "day of reckoning is at hand" for the Democratic party, as delegates cheered Gov. Earl Warren of California, the keynote, and pushed toward a decision of vice presidential choice.

In Albany, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, of New York, assured the president-elect making preparations to come here on short notice—possibly by tomorrow—to accept. Many more than the votes required to nominate already were his.

In a speech released before Martin was able to break into a crowded program to deliver it, the minority leader of the house of representatives said the new deal is doomed.

"People are tired of bungling and fumbling, waste and extravagance, arrogance and bureaucratic dictatorship."

"This election, curiously, is not merely a fight to put the Republicans into office but by a strange twist of fate, it is also a fight to emancipate the Democrats."

Former President Herbert Hoover, arriving for a major address before the convention tonight, predicted agreement on a plank and praised the speech in which Warren last night predicted that the state victories won by Republicans in the last two years will extend to the nation in 1944.

A clear clearing of the vice presidential picture impended. Members of Governor Warren's own delegation were reported urging him to state he will accept second place if offered it.

The total of pledged and claimed delegates for Dewey stood at 735 of which 576 were pledged outright. Dewey, it was learned, has been indirectly in touch with Warren ever since the big Californian's arrival in 1944.

Tom Dewey May Leave Tonight For Convention

ALBANY, N. Y., June 27—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey may enroute tonight for Chicago where, if nominated for president, he will deliver his acceptance speech to the Republican national convention tomorrow night from the race.

This development cropped up today when the governor's office declined to affirm or deny that the stage was set for a train dash to the convention scene tonight should Gov. John W. Bricker withdraw from the race.

If Dewey's nomination were assured today beyond reasonable doubt, it would permit the governor to leave for Chicago several hours before the actual balloting began. The purpose would be to close the convention as soon as possible.

If he does not go by train tonight, Dewey and four members of his official family are prepared to fly to Chicago tomorrow, provided he is nominated by afternoon.

Should he be not nominated later in the day, arrangements have been made for the party to arrive in Chicago by train early Thursday, a spokesman said.

Scheduled to accompany Dewey are Paul Lockwood, his secretary; James C. Hagerly, executive assistant; Miss Lillian Rosse, personal secretary; and Elliott V. Bell, state superintendent of banks. Hickman Powell, writer and intimate friend of the governor, also is expected to make the trip.

Meanwhile, the governor conducted "business as usual," except for being photographed by newspaper and newsreel cameramen. He declined to comment on events at Chicago.

Wendell Willkie To Remain 'Flexible'

NEW YORK, June 27—(AP)—Wendell Willkie, 1940 Republican presidential nominee, says he has no plans for attending the Republican national convention in Chicago and that he will remain flexible for the time being.

In an interview Sunday, Willkie said:

"I want to remain flexible for the time being."

Tokyo Raider Is Speaker at PAAF Exercises Today

Lt. Col. Rodney R. Wilder, Taylor, Texas, member of Lt. Gen. Doolittle's mission over Tokyo, April 18, 1942, addressing the graduating class of the Pampa Army Air Field this morning, said discipline and physical training are the two most important phases of one's training aside from his flying course.

Using his experience on the Tokyo raid to emphasize his remarks, he said "Before the Doolittle raid, Gen. Doolittle told his crew, which he had six weeks to train and other crews. 'If you don't train it's your life.'"

As a result of that training the men got their B-29s off the deck of the carrier and all the men were able to get to safety after they had been shot down.

Two days off Guam, he related, the men were told that if they were attacked they were to take the planes off the deck and go to Wake Island, and four days off Japan, the final works came.

"Bomb your objective, and God help you."

As a result of a strong tail wind, the men arrived over their Japanese objectives a day early. The run was made, and the homeward trip was begun. Fifteen planes went down in China, and one in Russia.

Col. Wilder, who is now attached to the local field, said "I got back first, and the remainder of the men straggled back within the next two weeks. One man was so weak he had to be carried back, but he lived. That's why you've gotten so much physical training in your program."

In reference to the landing in China, he said he was flying by instruments, as were the other members of the force. He bailed out, and two minutes later hit the ground. The first thing he wanted was a cigarette. Here he paused and looked about the audience, saying: "I suppose that is what you are wanting now."

(He did not say why he was forced to jump from the plane.) It was dark, and he did not know where he was. But the next day he began walking and came to a village, which he later found to be

World Peace To Be Kept With 'Peace Forces'

CHICAGO, June 27—(AP)—The Republican platform committee approved today a foreign policy plank retaining the pledge, criticized by Wendell Willkie and others, to enforce future world security by an international organization employing "peace forces."

The rejected protests Willkie and 15 Republican governors made that this language was not sufficiently plain.

The platform group inserted a promise that the party would bend all efforts to bring home members of the armed forces "at the earliest possible time after the cessation of hostilities."

Committee officials, releasing only a portion of the platform immediately, said it would be laid before the convention during the afternoon. They hoped to complete the draft during the day.

A fight on the foreign plank might be carried to the floor by some of the governors who asked for more specific pledges.

Willkie, the 1940 presidential nominee, tossed a grenade at this language with the assertion that it might mean no international organization at all. But despite the implied threat of a Willkie bolt, the platform makes paid only passing attention to the New Yorker's demands.

They concentrated on pleasing the governors, who insisted they are not "insurgents" but merely want to be consulted before the platform reaches the convention floor.

Senator Arthur Vandenberg of Michigan, who headed a postwar advisory committee which drafted

Cherbourg Ours, British Near Caen In New Drive, 70,000 Nazis Are Finished

By WES GALLAGHER
SUPREME HEADQUARTERS ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, June 27—(AP)—British troops in a major attack have struck within three miles of Caen, German bastion in eastern Normandy, a field dispatch said today as Americans mopped up in conquered Cherbourg and Supreme Headquarters estimated Nazi casualties since D-Day at "not less than 70,000," including 32,000 prisoners.

Even as Allied experts were rushed in to make Cherbourg a huge invasion funnel of men and supplies, Gen. Sir Bernard L. Montgomery struck powerfully on a front six to seven miles wide east and southeast of Tilly-sur-Seulles, topping three more towns, and front reports said advanced elements reached within three miles of Caen on the west.

CAEN—120 miles from Paris—was being savagely defended.

The American seventh corps under Maj. Gen. Joseph L. Collins—comprising the 79th, fourth and ninth divisions—captured Cherbourg, it was disclosed. Thousands of prisoners were being rounded up today, and 9,000 were taken Monday, including Lt. Gen. Carl Wilhelm von Schlieben, Nazi garrison commander, and Rear Admiral Kennecke, sea defense commander of Normandy.

Huge amounts of ammunition and booty fell to the doughboys. Final nests of resistance were being cleaned out today.

New Zealand To Cut Down Army

SOUTH PACIFIC HEADQUARTERS, June 27—(AP)—New Zealand, two years ago one of the most highly war mobilized nations on earth, is tapering off its armed forces and attempting thereby to boost its production of food and other war supplies.

Already a good many thousand troops of the Third New Zealand Division—veterans of the Vella Lavella, Trearines and Green Island campaigns in the northern Solomons—have been or are being released for essential industry.

With manpower admittedly over-committed to the military, butter and cheese production have declined 10 per cent and a desired increase in military export of meat and wool has not been achieved.

United Nations leaders in this part of the world acquiesced to conversion of New Zealand from a source of fighting men to a source of supplies.

At the peak, New Zealand, with a population of only 1,600,000, had 150,000 men under arms, with more than 100,000 of them overseas. Even after she winnows essential workers from her army she will maintain—her size—one of the largest fighting forces on earth.

Currently New Zealand has two infantry divisions. One is in Italy. The other, in this area close to home, barring unexpected replacements, may be scaled down to a smaller force.

New Zealand aviators are fighting in all parts of the world—Britain, Italy, India and elsewhere in the Pacific.

TEXAS ANTELOPE HUNT CUT TO NINE COUNTIES

AUSTIN, June 27—(AP)—Texas' first antelope hunting season in many years probably will be confined to designated ranches in Culbertson, Hudspeth, Jeff Davis, Presidio, Brewster, Pecos, El Paso, Reeves and Terrell counties.

Although complete details have not been worked out, Will J. Tucker, executive secretary of the game commission, said it was now indicated that a series of hunts will be held and that no hunt on a single ranch will be for more than three days.

The open season is set for October and special licenses cost $5. Applications for licenses will be received at game department offices in Austin and a limited number will be awarded by a drawing for permits about September 1. Tucker emphasized.

Reconversion Problem

There are evidences that, belatedly, government agencies have decided upon at least some preliminaries of our industrial reconversion program.

Permission is being granted, to such firms as are not too submerged in war work, to obtain materials and go ahead with the manufacture of prototype products. It is not, however, experimental items—so that, when the time comes they can swing faster into actual production for use.

This appears to assume that one of the most difficult of all our reconversion decisions has been made. That was whether each factory, as it terminated its war work, should be permitted to shift over to civilian production, or whether plans should stand idle waiting for whole industries to become free, in order that reconversion rivals are free to establish themselves in the civilian field without effective competition.

That is unfortunate and should be avoided as much as possible. But it would be more unfortunate to have plants idle, men leading primary materials unused, while the public continues to go short on important consumer items.

There is one method by which the worst effects of the mixup can be avoided—a method used by Great Britain in connection with her reconversion to war production and used in this country in at least one instance.

When it was found necessary to have alarm clocks made, so that war workers would get to work on time, they were put out without any manufacturer's mark. The public got its clocks, but the manufacturer was permitted to benefit by having his name on the product, under his name, while his competitors were shut off.

Extension of this scheme, might be very desirable when some factories are permitted to return to civilian production in the near future, while others are kept on war work.

"The love of liberty with life is given."
"And life itself th' interior gift of heaven."—John Dryden.

"The government of England is a government of law. We betray ourselves, we contradict the spirit of our laws, and we shake the whole system of English jurisprudence, when we entrust a discretionary power over the life, liberty, or fortune of the subject, to any man, or set of men whatsoever, upon a presumption that it will not be abused."—Sir Philip Frazer.

"They that can give up essential liberty to obtain a little temporary safety deserve neither liberty nor safety."—Benjamin Franklin.

"Is life so dear, or peace so sweet, as to be purchased at the price of chains and slavery?—Forbid it, Lord!—I know not what course others may take, but, as for me, give me liberty or give me death."—Patrick Henry.

"No free government, or the blessings of liberty, can be preserved to any people but by a firm adherence to justice, moderation, temperance, frugality, and virtue, and by a frequent recurrence to fundamental principles."—Patrick Henry.

"The great and chief end of men, in putting themselves under government, is the preservation of their property."—John Locke.

"Where liberty dwells, there is my country."—John Milton.

"Give me liberty to know, to utter, and to argue freely according to conscience, above all liberties."—John Milton.

"The rights of man in England hath life as much as the greatest he, and a man is not bound to a government that he has not and a voice to put himself under."—Col. Thomas Rainbolt.

"Many of the greatest tyrants on the records of history have begun their reigns in the fairest manner. But the truth is, this unnatural power corrupts both the heart and the understanding."—Edmund Burke.

MAYBE IT'S HERE: Leaves From The Editor's Notebook

This so-called plot of the anti-New Deal forces in the southern states, seeking to defeat Franklin D. Roosevelt for re-election by forcing the election out of the electoral college and into the House of Representatives, has some intriguing long range political implications. Not the least of them is possibility that even if such an entirely legal though tricky maneuver could be put over, it might eventually lead to destruction of the south poll tax system, which is now the basis of strength of the southern Democrats in the party.

As expounded by political leaders in Washington, this situation could develop as follows:
Constitutionally the President of the United States is elected not by popular vote of the majority of the people but by the electoral college. This Roosevelt was elected in 1936 by the votes of 49 electors against 82 for Willkie. What the voters elected were the 531 electors.

But suppose that the anti-New Deal state conventions were able to force nomination of sufficient electors who would be pledged not to vote for Franklin D. Roosevelt or any other Democratic nominee not to their liking, just as Texas has done. That, under the constitution, would move the election into the House of Representatives and conceivably might lead to the election of a president other than Roosevelt—no matter how large his popular vote.

Such a maneuver would be entirely constitutional, but what would be its consequences?
First and most likely would be a great popular demand for the abolition of the electoral college, which has long been a dead duck but is still kept hanging around as a decoration because it is a traditional part of the constitutional procedure established by the all-knowing founding fathers.

Putting the electoral college in the ash can would have tremendous effects on the south, for the reason that the southern states have greater strength in the electoral college than they would have if their numbers of voters were counted in direct election of a president.

In the electoral college, the 12 southern states in 1940 cast 135 electoral votes, or a little over 25 per cent of the total of 531 electoral votes cast.

On a popular vote count basis, however, these 12 southern states cast only 5,642,000 ballots in 1940, or a little over 12 per cent of the total popular vote of 45,948,000.

Killing off the electoral college would thus cut the power of the 12 southern states almost exactly in half—from 25 to 12 per cent in any presidential election.

The reason for this difference is to be found in limitations which the southern states put on suffrage, through the poll tax, large property requirements, and other devices and electors in the electoral college, the southern states like all the others get credit for their total adult population, though only those who can pay poll tax get to vote.

Texas, for instance, with a 1940 population of 6,400,000 had 23 votes in the electoral college though its popular vote was 1,041,000, or one out of every six inhabitants. In comparison, Ohio with a population of 6,900,000, had 23 votes in the electoral college and a popular vote of 3,320, or three out of every six inhabitants.

Abraham Lincoln, three times the power of one vote in Ohio as far as the electoral college was concerned.

If the electoral college were abandoned, the regular government against this Communist labor leader's prominence in the campaign, may force him into retirement.

Here is the Pine Tree State story as it reveals itself in the southern business: More than thirty thousand shipyard workers poured into this district since the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941.

Presumably (and this may be a false presumption), most of these men and women were Democrats. Because of the war they have good jobs and are making money, whereas they were on WPA only a few years ago.

Therefore, if Mr. Hillman could persuade them to register and vote the right ticket—that was the C. I. O.'s main purpose—they would swamp the Republicans even in this down-east area.

Hillman boasted that he would show his power by carrying this district for the labor-endorsed candidate.

He lost the G. O. P. primary by about twenty-to-two, and it would surprise no one in Washington if Mr.

Bob Howe will auction off a pair of drawers, an undershirt, a pair of shoestrings, a handkerchief and a pair of socks—G. I. issues as part of the Fifth War Loan drive. It is quite a story. Other day from "somewhere in New Guinea"—Bob received a letter from five soldiers. It read:

"After reading an article in our New Guinea rag concerning the sale of a certain actor's silk panties for such an unheard-of price, we are enclosing the following items: One pair of G. I. drawers (we regret that they can't be silk), socks, a handkerchief, undershirt and a pair of shoestrings. We hope that you, a man who is doing more for the soldiers than anyone we know, will auction said articles for whatever bonds they will bring. We are really anxious to see if a fighting man's drawers rate."

Hope figures they'll rate about two million dollars.

Funny story about when Sidney Greenstreet went back, for the first time since boyhood, to visit his hometown of Kent, England. He stopped off at the bakery shop, "Don't you remember me?" he said to the old lady behind the counter. "I used to buy buns here as a kid." "Certainly," the old lady said, looking at the rotund Sidney. "I told you then you were eating too many of them."

Together with our Allies we will go on to the end and the end will be the more terrible for our foes the longer the struggle continues against the Axis syndicates.

It is travesty on history ever to say that America was forced into the war. America provoked Japan to such an extent that the Japanese were forced to attack the Americans at Pearl Harbor. Everyone knew that America's syndicates were the British Production Minister Oliver Lyttleton.

Peter Edson's Column: MR. PATTERSON'S UNPRESSED PANTS

By PETER EDSON
Pampa News Washington Cor.

Without taking away any of the armed services' rightful glory for liking the German armies, something can be told about how economic warfare is helping to do the job. Economic warfare alone or psychological warfare alone can't contribute anything it can to make the German manpower situation still tighter. Bombing Germany industrial centers for instance, has put an estimated six million workers out of their homes. The labor needed for rehousing these surviving victims of bombing raids puts a further strain on Germany's manpower.

Take production of synthetic petroleum as another example. Germany was able to begin the war without sufficient natural petroleum resources of her own solely because her chemists had licked the problem of making synthetic oil and gasoline from coal. She augmented her synthetic supplies by imports from Romania. Bombing of the Ploesti oil fields and refineries was not aimed solely at destroying this source of supply, however, for these raids had the further effect of forcing the Germans to produce more synthetic petroleum products, which require seven times as much labor per ton produced. This puts a further strain on Germany's manpower.

Then in August American Flying Fortresses bombed Schweinfurt, where 60 per cent of German production was concentrated. That has been topped by the new agreement with Sweden just concluded by Stanton Griffis for the American government, further curtailing Swedish bearing exports to Germany.

UNNECESSARY OCCUPATION CAPTURED WEAPONS TELL THE TALE

Captured German weapons have other economic uses than exhibition in public parks to stimulate war bond sales. Metallurgists analyze them like economic warfare detectives to see that synthetic Germany may be running short of this being a war of special alloy steels of extra hardness and toughness contributed by chromium from Turkey and the Balkans, nickel and molybdenum from Norway and Finland, wolfram from tungsten from Spain and Portugal.

Bombing raids by British Mosquitoes and American Fortresses have twice put out of operation Norway's molybdenum mines, source of 75 per cent of Germany's supply. Economic warfare deals with Turkey have put a complete embargo on the chrome supply. One of the chief values of Marshal Tito's guerrilla warfare in Yugoslavia is to attack chrome mines still open to the Axis. One of Germany's worst shortages is in textiles and clothing. That's why Germany textile mills are considered good targets. As long as 10 months ago the Nazis were compelled to cut out ration cards for everyone save new-born babies, victims of bombing raids who were stripped of all clothing—and mourners who wished to buy black in honor of their dead. Today the average German has only one pair of stockings or socks, as the sex may be, and that is fighting economic warfare to the point where it hurts worse.

War Today

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
(Substituting for DeWitt Mackenzie)
Captures of Chetou comes about as expected, after the Germans did everything possible to delay the massing of Allied strength for a breakthrough from the beachhead.

In Russia, too, things develop as expected, and with tremendous speed.

While development of the Baltics may be expected as part of the offensive, today's developments also point to the possibility of a favorable Soviet play. While one army heads toward Lithuania and Latvia by way of Polotsk, three others drive toward Minsk through Orsha, Mogilev and Bobruisk.

This may be a masterfully-conceived attack with two objectives: to get into position for the Baltic cleanup and yet, without going out of the way, to provide a northern anvil against "which a drive from the Gomel-Kovno area could crush all the Germans remaining in the pocket southeast of Minsk.

There are good reasons for believing the offensive will gradually be taken up by Red Armies to the south of Zhitob, as, on a great scale, it already has developed southward from Finland.

As the attack area is enveloped, the great farthest-west salient at Kovno may be pushed on to Brest-Litovsk while the great armies east of Warsaw take up the fight.

Eddy Gilmore, AP Moscow correspondent, emphasizes that Russian preparations on the parts of the front he has visited exceed anything he has ever seen. Last year he told me the same thing about the offensive which began July 12, which means last year was just a preliminary, compared with this summer's plans.

In an automotive plant producing aircraft cannon, a method has been introduced which will do the job with less machines instead of 64, save $228,800 in machine costs, cut the cost per gun by $12.85, and save 1 1/2 production hours per gun.

As the attack area is enveloped, the great farthest-west salient at Kovno may be pushed on to Brest-Litovsk while the great armies east of Warsaw take up the fight.

To Those Who Came In Late:
This is the story of what happened to Pinky Harrison after he was killed in a foxhole. The scene is Heavenly Bend Junction, half-way point between the Earth and Big Valley. Travelers stay here until they stop looking back to Earth.

"Oh, no, don't say things like that."
"Well, I just thought . . . mine is!" Jackson beamed proudly. "Wearin' black, though—doin' me that credit. Sure makes a right good-lookin' widow, too. I ain't even buried yet and already she's steppin' around. Can you beat that?"

Pinky was puzzled. "How would she know yet what happened to you?"
"It happened while I was on furlough. Car."
"Oh."
"Glad she is like that. Saves me the trouble of hangin' around here."
"How do you mean?"
"Well, see, if she was sorrowin', I'd probably be sorrowin', too, and keep lookin' back. But the way it is . . ." he shrugged contentedly. "I use to buy buns here as a kid, why don't you go?"

"Well, I'll tell you," Jackson reached into his pocket, drew out a roll of bills. "I got a tiny little bit of change in my pocket, see. And they tell me it won't do me no good out at the Picnic Grounds, so I've got everything free out there carryin'. You'd better get yourself a box like this, and come on out to the Picnic Grounds with me! No more troubles there . . . live in clover out there!"

"I'm not ready yet."
"No! How come?"
Pinky was about ready to make an irritable remark, but then he looked again at Jackson. No, you couldn't be irritable with a guy like that. Broad smile, with all that gleaming white showing.

"Pinky signed faintly, 'I guess maybe you were never married.'"
"What's that got to do with it?"
"Or had a child."
"Is that what's bluen' you up?"
"That and my wife."
"What's the matter? She cheatin' on you?"

"Well, if I win, I stick around a while . . . see?"
Pinky declined the invitation. "Besides, I don't have any money."
"What's the matter with this town? Ain't nobody got nothin'?"
"Why don't you 'The Square'?"
"Thanks, I will."

JACKSON never got to the Square. He was repocketing the dice and turning to leave as down the sidewalk came nine men.

"So long, Rose," he called.

School System Hit Hard by the War

FORT WORTH, June 27—(AP)—The Texas State Teachers' association says that the school year just closed has "been one of the most difficult in the history of the Texas public school system."

A press release says a survey shows that since the start of the war more than 20,000 of the 48,000 Texas teachers have either resigned or changed places of teaching; that several thousand teachers did not report to the school room last September.

"During the year teacher training institutions in Texas were able to supply only one applicant for each seven calls for teachers," said the association. "The prospect for next school year promises no relief."

A decline in enrollments in teacher training courses indicates that "thousands of young persons in choosing a profession reject teaching because of the low money value placed on their services," the association concludes.

Browns Face Yankee Jinx

By JACK HAND Associated Press Sports Writer It's the St. Louis Browns on the first ballot in the nation's popularity convention but Luke Sewell's men still have to prove they can whip the "Yankee Jinx" if they're going to win their first American league pennant. Four games out in front of second place Chicago and four and a half ahead of Joe McCarthy's New York Yankees, the Browns head east for the second time with the shadow of the Yankee stadium darkening their horizon. They open their eastern trip tomorrow against the world champions whom they have been able to whip but twice in seven starts. Last year it was five of 22 and way back in 1922 when the club was making its last serious bid for a flag the same "Yankee Jinx" cost them their chance to the tune of 14 defeats in 22 crucial struggles. Seventeen more games remain to be played between the Browns and Yankees and the St. Louis club must step up the pace against New York to hold the top rung. Chicago, Detroit and Boston have done much better against the champs although Detroit has been a pushover for St. Louis 11 games to 3. Boston has whipped Chicago seven out of seven and Detroit has six out of seven. It's that kind of a race in the American. Both leagues enjoyed a second straight open date today, but the original six seeded fourth, and Walter Driver, who is not competing.

Revolta May Upset Chi Golf Tourney

CHICAGO, June 27—(AP)—The veteran and reliable Johnny Revolta may slip the lead in the Fairways Mickey in the Chicago Victory National championship at Edgewater course this week. Tuning up on the scene of the 75-hole medal play test which gets underway Friday after some high calibre preliminaries, Revolta has stepped a pair of 95's, one over the course record. He bundled together a 31 and a 34 in his practice romp yesterday. Edgewater is somewhat of a backyard for Johnny, who has from Evanston, Ill., and defending champion Sammy Byrd, Byron Nelson and Craig Wood had better not pass off Revolta as a setting star, although his best year was in 1928 when he topped the P.G.A. and western open titles. However, if you bounce your bets of a cash-and-carry shrewdness, you'll pick a winner from among McSpaden, Nelson, Byrd and Wood, the season's top four money grabbers. Although the curtain doesn't raise on the Victory national proper until Friday, the 18 holes are scheduled, the festivities start today when 26 top pros, feminine stars and amateurs visit the Walter Hines hospita to assist in dedication of golfing trophies donated to hospitalized veterans. Tomorrow, the first half of a 36-hole combination pro-amateur, pro day and pro-senior tournament will be staged.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, June 27—(AP)—That $15,000 bonus the Red Sox paid to young Dick Callahan of New Orleans has stirred up fresh talk that such payments don't give independent minor league clubs a change to sign kids that develop in their own backyards. It seems that last winter the major-minor postwar committee discussed a proposal to eliminate bonus payments, giving the player a cut in the sale price when he moved up instead. Since nothing has been done yet, why not substitute the old idea of "territorial rights" in that way each minor club would have first chance to sign any prospect in a designated territory. If some other club wanted him badly enough to pay a big bonus, okay, but it would also have to pay the club whose territory was invaded—say, 50 per cent of the amount given the player. See any objections?

Segura To Battle Second Utah Neister

EVANSTON, Ill., June 27—(AP)—Francisco (Pancho) Segura, the University of Miami's glittering lendable star from Ecuador, is taking geographical picks on the field trying to enthrone him in the singles play of the N.C.A.A. tennis championships which entered the third round today at Northwestern university. Segura, who yesterday polished off Richard Warner of the University of Utah, 6-1, 6-3, today was expected to trim another contender from the same state—Dale Lewis, Utah State college's only entry— as 16 survivors, including five of the original six seeded fourth, and Walter Driver, who is not competing. A surprise victim in yesterday's starting session which included first and second round competition was second-seeded George Druliner, College of Pacific, who succumbed to Georgia Tech's Howard McCall, 6-1, 6-3. Druliner, undefeated in west coast play, earlier experienced difficulty in disposing of Felix Kelley of Texas, 6-2, 10-8.

Sports Shots

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Dallas Sports Editor DALLAS, June 27—(AP)—One hundred and fifty-five reported for football at Texas A. & M. college. This is even more than hit the gridiron for the Aggies last fall. It prompts Coach Homer Morton to make these observations: "After the war I am going to propose that here at A. & M. we not only reorganize our freshman team and have it all hopping around in a 'B' team, a 150-pound team, and possibly a six-man team, and schedule as many games for this set-up as possible." Pardon me for a wide grin in the direction of the eastern track experts and their views about Charley Parker, the pony express from San Antonio. After watching Charley in action in the National AAU the experts opined that Parker should become a quarter-mile because he lacks the "pickup" for the dashes. Now, let's see: Parker has been running four years. For three seasons he has gone undefeated. He won both junior 100 meters and senior 200 meters in the AAU. He has won 52 straight races. He has hung up times of 9.8 in the 100-yard dash and 20.6 in the 220. Your correspondent respectfully submits this question: "What were all those guys he beat using for 'pickup' in the dashes? Maybe they ought to be in the discus throw or the two-mile run."

TODAY'S GUEST STAR

Tommy Fitzgerald, Louisville Courier-Journal: "A former Northwestern football coach says gridiron mentors could be a help to the war effort by concentrating on developing frail youth instead of winning football games. This, of course, will bring up again the question of who to whip first: Germany, Japan or the alumni."

SHORTS AN SHELLS

Bob Pastor, ex-heavyweight title contender, has just won his second lieutenant's bars at Miami Beach and has been assigned to Randolph field, where they're liable to forget he was a fighter and remember he once played football for N. Y. U.

Frankie Sinkwich is out of the training at Sheepshead Bay and may return to the Detroit Lions which recalls that Coach Gus Dorais recently estimated that fullback Harry Hopp's enlistment in the navy left a bigger void in the Lions attack than Sinkwich's departure.

West Point Goal Of Flyin' Charlie

SAN ANTONIO, June 27—(AP)—West Point may get flyin' Charley Parker by way of the University of Texas. Parker, the San Antonio school boy who went to the national AAU and kept his record intact for three seasons by winning the junior 100 meters and senior 200, has returned from the East with word that he passed the eye test at the United States Military academy. Flyin' Charley, kept out of the navy because of color blindness, will enter Texas July 6, but has let it be known he'll be ready to shove off for the Point if they want him. Parker and his friends will ask Congressman Paul Kilday of San Antonio or one of the Texas senators for an appointment. Charley, who becomes 18 years old July 1, was peped up over the West Point possibility after being shown the academy and being introduced to the coaches.

56 Millions In V-Bonds Sold By Gotham Ball Game

NEW YORK, June 27—(AP)—A total of $56,500,000 in war bonds was contributed to the fifth war loan by a three-cornered baseball game between the Giants, Yankees and Dodgers at the Polo grounds last night. The crowd of some 50,000 paid $5,500,000 in admission, a clothing firm paid $1,000,000 in bonds for an autographed program and Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia purchased $50,000,000 in bonds for the city of New York. The Dodgers won the game by scoring five runs. The Yanks got one run while the Giants were blanked.

Counsel Service Is Instituted

An advisory vocational counseling service for prospective students and their parents has just been instituted at Trinity University, San Antonio, according to an announcement made recently by President Monroe G. Everett. Information, not only about Trinity, but also about other colleges and universities in the United States will be available in helping by appointment. In addition, beginning on June 28, qualified counselors will be at the University, Main Building, each Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 throughout the summer.

Candidate Withdraws In County Election

A second withdrawal in the races of the first Democratic primary of July 22 was made known yesterday by Norman C. Minter, secretary of the Gray County Democratic Executive Committee, who said that C. W. Turman had withdrawn as a candidate for election as county superintendent. Turman withdrew Saturday. This leaves Huey W. Laycock unopposed for election as county superintendent, duplicating the situation that arose when Charles E. Warren withdrew from the race for justice of the peace of precinct 2, place 2, leaving Charles I. Hughes, unopposed. Hughes is a candidate for reelection; Laycock is a first-time candidate.

VIOLETS RENEW FOOTBALL

NEW YORK, June 27—(AP)—After dropping the sport two years ago, New York university last night decided to resume football this fall on a wartime basis. John J. Weinheimer, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y., will be the varsity coach.

Dixie's Doin' It

Word comes that West Texas State, which returns to inter-collegiate athletics this fall, is making alfalfa while the sun beams.

Coach Gus Miller has been casting longing glances at a group of high school basketball stars who won't be 18 years old very soon. Other coaches have the same idea. Well, Gus has a basketball school the first week in June. The boys were furnished rooms and meals and practically all of them came. They were not bound by anything. But—Gus took pictures of them in West Texas State uniforms and told them about going to Madison Square Garden, etc. The boys got to knowing each other and naturally playing better basketball than ever before. So they expressed a desire to come back in September. It is understood Coach Gus did not discourage it at all. And here's a tip to other college coaches. Coach Miller is having a football camp the middle of July. Sports are going all right by their Uncle Sam in Texas these days. Three shows were held within three days last week and sent more than $30,000,000 into the war bond coffers. Houston's boxing show brought $2,000,000. Dallas' wrestling carnival subscribed $6,331,000, and Bestum's boxing show raised $1,600,000.

Hammerin' Hank To Keep On Boxing

WASHINGTON, June 27—(AP)—Henry Armstrong, one of the biggest little men in ring history, vowed again today to continue fighting "as long as I can win—and make money out of the game." "I like boxing, and apparently the fans like me," he said. "I'm going to stay in the game until they quit paying to see me. When the gate receipts drop, then I'll know it's time to quit." Henry decided Nick LaZarus, an almost unknown Greek-American lad from Alexandria, Va., over a 10-round bout last night. "Piggyback" training in single-seater lighter planes has cut flying accidents from an index of 65 to a new low of 15.

Veteran of 10 Battles Drowns

Cosswain Harold Jack Brace, 19, nephew of Robert H. Dellholo, Pampa News floorman, drowned at 3 p. m. yesterday in Spring lake on the Hedgecock ranch 1 1/2 miles south of Goodnight.

Cosswain Brace was on leave from the navy, and had arrived at noon Monday to visit with his parents.

With his brother Bill, 17, the two had gone swimming about 2 p. m. "Jack had eaten a big dinner," Bill said, "and when he dived into the cold water he took the cramps." Bill nearly drowned, according to those investigating the accident, when he attempted to pull his brother from the water. The drowning sailor kept pulling his brother down each time the boy seized him.

A Cleveland ambulance, staffed by W. D. Kidd, driver, Margaret Kidd, nurse, and Thelma Holcomb, answered the call. Two pulmonologists from Cleveland and one from the Amarillo fire department, and grapping hooks from Amarillo field were brought to the lake.

The body was recovered in 30 feet of water an hour and a half after the lake was dragged.

Brace, the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Brace, was born in Canada. He had been in the navy for two years, served in the South Pacific for 22 months, had been in six major and four minor battles, and as a gunner on the U. S. South Dakota, had four enemy planes to his credit.

The body is in state at an Amarillo funeral home, pending funeral arrangements.

Services will be held in Canadian, BACK THE FIFTH

Pampan Returns From VFW Training School

E. J. Kenney, service officer of Pampa Post 1057, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has returned from San Antonio where he attended the department encampment and officers school of instruction conducted by Robert H. Claypool, national service officer for the Texas department.

Officer Kenney said that service men, veterans, and their dependents wishing the aid of his office could contact him at 309 Sunset Drive, Telephone 1071.

Pampa post and auxiliary was represented by four persons at the encampment held June 20, 21, 22. They were E. J. Kenney, post adjutant and aide-de-camp to the department commander; Mrs. Violet Kenney, department auxiliary treasurer; Mrs. Bertha Chisum, president of District 9 auxiliary; and Mrs. Verna Via, Pampa auxiliary president.

Mrs. Ruth Mitchell of Berger, department auxiliary color bearer, accompanied the delegation.

Service Men Given Travel Priority

The Office of Defense Transportation today issued a release to the effect that servicemen will be given first priority on train accommodations.

The action, taken jointly by the ODT and the Interstate Commerce Commission, provides for cancellation of reservations, space assignments or tickets and permits railroads to require passengers to vacate space and accommodations when necessary to provide space for casualties.

In addition, railroads are required, when necessary to divert transportation facilities to cancel or discontinue passenger train service, and to refuse permission for civilians to board passenger trains.

This means that disabled soldiers, sailors, coast guardsmen, marines, and merchant marine soldiers, rate at the top when it comes to traveling on trains, and that everything possible shall be done to see that they do.

Service Command Chaplain Is Texan

DALLAS, June 27—A native of Mississippi who has spent most of his life in Texas and considers Austin his home, Chaplain Lieut. Col. John MacWilliams, is the new chaplain of the Eighth Service Command.

Command headquarters announced that Chaplain MacWilliams is succeeding Chaplain Col. Ira J. Ohee, enroute to an overseas assignment.

Chaplain MacWilliams, who has been with the regular army since 1918, has served at numerous Texas army posts, with the 88th, 5th and 8th cavalry and as chaplain of the 8th army corps at Brownwood in 1942.

Commercial motor vehicle operators who need to purchase new equipment after July 1 were advised today by the Office of Defense Transportation to file applications in the Pampa area through the office of N. F. Nelson, district manager, 1008 Fisk building, Amarillo. The Pampa area includes Gray, Carrizo, Roberts, and Potter counties, among others of the Panhandle; Quay and Union in New Mexico; Beaver, Cimarron, and Texas, in Oklahoma; and Fuller, Brush, 514 Cook, Ph. 2152-J.

Point values on Groups 2 and 3 cheese have been reduced to zero, the Lubbock OPA district office yesterday informed the county rationing board.

Your account in the Citizen's Bank & Trust Co. is guaranteed up to $5,000 by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

For the first time retail ceiling prices have been set on apricots, sweet cherries, plums, Italian prunes and coconuts, the Lubbock OPA district office said yesterday. Prices for the fresh fruits were effective June 22.

Delbert Hughes arrived Sunday from Arlington to visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lyles, 436 N. Warren. He is in the Navy V-12 program. Visiting Delbert is Coxswain Maurice Heflin, who is in the Coast Guard stationed in Florida. He is also visiting his parents who live in Panhandle.

New Requirements For Cadet Corps

New regulations affecting the age requirements and length of training for the U. S. Merchant Marine Cadet Corps were announced today by Lieutenant Commander H. R. McPhee, USNR, District Merchant Marine Cadet Corps Supervisor, War Shipping Administration, New Orleans.

Applicants must now be between 17 and 23 years of age, and no waivers for over or under age are to be granted.

Effective July 1 all Cadet-Midshipmen will receive a four-month period of basic training, instead of the present three months.

Lieutenant Commander McPhee pointed out that this is one step in the direction of a longer training course for Merchant Marine Cadet-Midshipmen.

Applications for appointment to the U. S. Merchant Marine Cadet Corps are still being accepted from underquota states. The District Supervisor said. Southern states from which applicants will be placed on the eligible list include Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Tennessee. Louisiana is at present overquota.

Identification Men Important

HOUSTON, Texas, June 27—(AP)—A prediction that "identification men will be more valuable to the police profession in the future than in the past" has been made by Joe S. Fletcher, Texas department of public safety.

Speaking before the convention of the Texas division, international association for identification, of which he is division president, Fletcher said yesterday his forecast was based on "the higher level of intelligence that crooks have today making it a real battle of wits between them and the crime expert who processes the evidence."

D. R. Morley, agent in charge of the Dallas Federal Bureau of Investigation office, said that despite the war, the F. B. I. is continuing to exchange fingerprints with 42 foreign countries.

Worley Strives For Help in Harvesting

The following newsletter was written by Gene Worley, member of Congress from this district:

With the Texas Panhandle facing a now engaged in harvesting one of the biggest small grain crops in its history, the following steps have already been taken in Washington to secure as much labor, farm machinery, and trucks as humanly possible to secure.

The National Selective Service Headquarters here in Washington has stated that the Texas Selective Service Board Headquarters had been urged to grant temporary deferments to agricultural workers about to be called. Washington Headquarters stated no blanket deferments could be made, but that each Board should be instructed to be as lenient as possible in deferring these individuals for the harvest season.

I have urged the War Department to grant furloughs and otherwise release as much Army personnel as possible, they indicated their strongest desire to cooperate in every way possible compatible with war demands. The War Department was also urged to make available as many Army trucks as could be spared in helping to transport the grain.

After explaining the serious shortage of truck transportation, the Treasury Procurement Division said they had ordered an additional number of surplus trucks to that area for sale and distribution to aid the farmers.

Efforts have also been made to secure more prisoner-of-war labor. However, farmers are pretty well agreed this type of labor, being foreigners, is too inexperienced in harvesting small grain to be of any great value. All of the above Departments state they recognize the severe shortage and have promised the fullest cooperation they can give in line with the demands of war.
