40 Million Christmas Packages Are Expected To Be Mailed Overseas

By JAMES MARLOW
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Are you going to send a Christmas card or package to a serviceman or woman overseas?
 Time for mailing starts Sept. 15 and ends Oct. 15.

The post office department says 20 million such packages were sent last Christmas. It expects the number to jump to 40 million this year.

Unless there is a special request from a serviceman himself, the post office will refuse any Christmas cards or gifts for overseas mailing before Sept. 15.

Here are things to remember about overseas Christmas mailing for service people:

Cards should be sent in sealed envelopes and prepaid at first class mail rates. Every gift parcel should have written on it the words: "Christmas Parcel."

Parcels must not be: More than 5 pounds in weight; more than 15 inches in length; or more than 36 inches in length and girth combined.

The war and navy departments point out that members of the armed forces are amply provided with food and clothing. So—why include such matter in parcels meant as Christmas gifts?

Perishable matter will not be accepted. It is not a good idea to send fragile articles. Soft candy, whether store-bought or homemade, does not carry well.

You can not mail: Intoxicants, inflammable materials, such as matches of any kind and lighter fluids; poisons or compositions which might kill or injure someone or damage other mail.

Letters or packages containing money or other articles of value will be refused.

If you wish to send money to a member of the armed forces overseas, do it with a postal money order. American postal money orders can be cashed at army post offices wherever they are located.

No more than one parcel or package will be accepted for mailing in any one week when sent by—or on behalf of—the same person or organization to or for the same serviceman.

Addresses must be readable. Use a typewriter or ink. The complete address also should be shown on a sheet of paper inside the parcel. This is a double check against accidents. If the outside address is destroyed, the one on the inside will show for whom the parcel was intended.

Soldier Tells of Forced Landing

McKINNEY, Texas, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Tech. Fifth Grade Closer C. Ramsey of McAllen, who served with a medical air evacuation transport squadron in the South Pacific, tells of the crash of his hospital plane near Hollandia with eighteen patients aboard, all of whom were saved.

Ramsey, who has arrived at Ashburn General hospital for treatment, said his squadron was assigned the job of evacuating the wounded "from right behind the front lines to the nearest station hospital" at Buna, Lae, Gloucester Bay, Admiralty Islands, Aitape and Hollandia.

During a routine flight from the battle area of Hollandia to a base hospital the plane in which he was serving, with eighteen patients aboard, had to make a forced landing.

"Fog was so thick when we arrived over the hospital that it was impossible to find the field. We flew around up there for three hours hoping for more favorable landing conditions. First one motor went out and the second started to miss fire. Rather than risk landing in the hospital area, the pilot took the ship off the coast to a small island and attempted to sit it down on what looked like a smooth beach. That beach was coral and our plane turned over several times.

"I was thrown clear of the wreckage and knocked unconscious. When I came to, I was in a hospital."

Ramsey said he was told the plane caught fire, but the flames were quickly extinguished by a rescue squad which the pilot had radioed before making the landing.

All the patients and crew members survived the crash he said.

Lightning Kills Man in Gulf Coast Storm

(By The Associated Press)
 One man was dead and many small streams were out of their banks today following heavy rains which spread from the Texas gulf coast to the central part of the state.

At Houston, F. O. Meggison, 57, a carpenter, was killed by lightning during a rain storm which flooded underpasses and streets yesterday. The overnight rainfall was recorded at 1.5 inches.

A 3.89 inch downpour at Austin and torrential rains to the south and east forced many small streams in that area out of banks.

The heaviest part of the rains centered in the southeastern portion of the state, Brady receiving 2.23 inches.

Other rainfall, reported by the U. S. weather bureau at Dallas, was Brownsville, 7; Del Rio, 1.26; Palestine, .34; Corpus Christi, .05; San Antonio, .14; Waco, .16; Fort Worth, .13; Dallas, .03; Big Spring, .17; and Abilene, .27.

Dallas county agent A. B. Jolley said fall crop prospects were good there as a result of recent rains and land is now ready for fall planting.

CHICAGO GRAIN
CHICAGO, Sept. 6.—(AP)—A bearish grain trade drove futures prices still lower today. At one time all deliveries of eye sold below a dollar and July wheat broke five cents, the limit allowed for one day's trading, to end at $1.36 1/2.

Spurred by sensational allied advances against Germany, traders started liquidating shortly after noon and prices dropped sharply.

Government support buying and commodity credit corporation loans gave some support to nearby wheat futures but the deferred deliveries hit new lows for the season.

To the close wheat was 9 1/2 to 5 cents lower than yesterday's close, September $1.35 1/2. Data were off 2 1/2 to 3/4, September 59 1/2-58. Eye was off 1/4 to 5 cents, September 96 1/2-95. Barley was 1 1/2 to 3/4 lower, September $1.00 1/2.

Lieutenant Governor To Help Servicemen

AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith said yesterday he had accepted an invitation by a group of service men to become honorary chairman of an organization to guarantee labor rights for soldiers and sailors in the postwar era.

He expected a petition signed by 37 members of the armed forces extending the invitation. Signers listed their home towns as Houston, Dallas, Fort Worth, Waco, Wichita Falls, Amarillo, Port Arthur, San Antonio, Beaumont and other Texas cities.

"The invitation, in the form of a petition, alleged that certain labor organizations were attempting to have the 'new deal administration' give an interpretation on the meaning of 'duration' for the purpose of keeping service men on the job at $50 per month to police Pacific islands and European countries' while certain 'labor slackers hold down big pay jobs at home.'

It further alleged that 'these same labor lobbyists are attempting to provide for labor battalions at high pay to rebuild foreign countries while service men protect them as international police at $50 per month.'

Smith requested that the names of the service men not be made public. All were enlisted men and some held technical ratings.

Gannett Says Group Is Not Political

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Frank E. Gannett, New York state publisher, told the house campaign expenses committee today that the committee for constitutional government which he organized in 1937 to "fight the court-packing bill" is "not in politics" and never advocates either a candidate or a party in an election.

Gannett said the organization, which CIO leader Sidney Hillman declared would "bear inquiry," has mailed out 80,000,000 pieces of literature in an effort to "educate the people in their form of constitutional government."

"Not a dollar ever was solicited for or contributed to any candidate or party," Gannett testified.

Committee members questioned Sumner Gerard, treasurer of the committee about a drive conducted in Texas.

Gerard, brother of the former ambassador to Germany, James W. Gerard, said the committee collected $100,000 in Texas for "essay contests" on the constitution, and distributed $35,000 in the state for scholarships and as prizes in the form of war bonds.

Chairman Anderson (D-NM) asked whether the campaign was timed to coincide with Texas' primary and Gerard said state politics had nothing to do with it.

"If we didn't have any political effect on an election," Gerard said "we might as well fold up. But that is not our project. What the people do after they read our literature is their own business."

Gerard said the committee has collected $255,310 so far this year from 3,800 contributors.

Edward R. Rummely, executive secretary of the committee for constitutional government, also was questioned further about the Texas situation.

Rummely testified that funds collected in Texas were held in six or seven cities over the state. He identified only Dallas, where he said about $15,000 in unspent funds was deposited. The collections in Texas, he said, were in small amounts from a great number of contributors.

Referring to the scholarship contests in the state, Rummely said that some of the most substantial citizens there had given them their enthusiastic support. He said that in Dallas the head of southern Methodist university and a Catholic priest had awarded prizes to winning contestants, while in Houston a federal judge had spoken at a big meeting held by the committee in connection with the contest.

Measure Asks News Freedom

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—A resolution to put congress on record in favor of world-wide freedom of news exchange "to promote better understanding among nations and thus help prevent future wars" was offered in the house today by Rep. Fulbright (D-Ark).

The Arkansas member, author of a house declaration on postwar foreign policy, told his colleagues he believes it appropriate that congress should "express itself in no uncertain terms, its devotion to and belief in the principle of freedom of speech and of the press."

The resolution: "Resolved by the house of representatives (the senate concurring) that the Congress of the United States, believing that the unhindered interchange of independent news would promote a better understanding among nations and thus help prevent future wars, expresses itself as favoring international agreement which shall guarantee worldwide the right of all accredited press and radio representatives to: 1. Write, transmit and publish the news without private or governmental interference and 2. At uniform communication rates."

WILD GAS FORMS VOLCANO

Chunks of earth, some as big as rocks, are thrown into the air by wild gas well in the Brammel Oil and Gas Field near Houston. The eruptions are continuing at frequent intervals at the site of a gasser where fire raged for eight months before being extinguished. The Texas Railroad Commission held a hearing on the problem. Some geologists estimate enough gas is being wasted daily to supply all residents of Houston.

Congolese To Ask American Assistance

DALLAS, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Joe T. Thomas of Detroit said he would present to the National Negro Baptist convention here a resolution as president of the provisional government of the Congo Free State of West Africa in exile asking the United States government to take over the territory now administered by Belgium in order to mobilize a million congolese soldiers to help with the war in Asia.

Another resolution in preparation was a non-partisan one urging the Negro Baptist of the nation to vote in the forthcoming national election as an American duty.

Shutdown Continues In Sundown Field

LUBBOCK, Texas, Sept. 7.—(AP)—A shutdown of three wells in the Sundown field continued today in a work stoppage involving less than 50 men. Crewmen walked out Monday night.

Rockey county Deputy Sheriff E. P. Barber said no violence had occurred but pickets had "threatened" men who sought to continue work. The sheriff's office and Texas rangers last night held four men in jail at Levelland for investigation.

Hugh Hess, drilling superintendent of Milohahn drilling company, said two of his rigs shut down, but one had been returned to operation and added that another of the firm's rigs, five miles north of Tatum, N. M., was shut down yesterday.

Pickets remained at some wells last night.

Some Experts Think Cartels Are on Way Out After the War

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Cartels—international trade agreements between firms of two or more countries—will continue in the news.

There is strong government pressure to break them up—particularly so far as German participation in a cartel—after the war.

Here is a composite example of a cartel put together from various cases cited by the justice department: A German firm and an American firm both made the same kind of metal. They were the world's two outstanding makers of that metal.

But they scrambled for the world markets. Both lost money by their rivalry. In order to get business away from each other they continually cut prices.

At last they decided to end their price and trade war. They formed a cartel. They divided the world up between them. By agreement the American firm would sell only in the western hemisphere. The German firm would sell to the rest of the world.

This meant that German firm would not sell to anyone in the western hemisphere even though western hemisphere buyers were dissatisfied with the American firm.

Nor would the American firm sell to anyone outside the western hemisphere.

By this neat arrangement both firms could jack up their prices and keep them at any level they choose.

When either firm, through its research work, found a cheaper way of making its metal, it passed the knowledge on to the other firm.

If either firm had been faced by stiff competition, it would have had to try to improve the quality of its metal. But this wasn't necessary any more.

Gradually, the German firm acquired financial strength. It became a big firm and thus obtained a voice in its operations.

It so happened that the metal made by the American firm was used in tanks, planes and battleships. By its financial interest in the American firm, the German firm was able to know exactly the amount and quality of American armament.

And there was another side to the picture. The German firm had such a monopoly on the metal production in Europe that if France or England wanted some of that metal for armament, it had to buy from the German firm which could sell or refuse to sell.

By refusing, it crippled French or British armament. If it sold, then German high command knew what kind of war or defense preparations its European neighbors were making.

It's possible, but don't bet on it, that cartels will be wiped out. But a different kind of cartel is in the making. It's called a trade agreement among governments.

And its purpose is different from the commercial cartel.

The government cartel is intended to stabilize international trade and protect the producers of the countries taking part in the cartel.

Here's an example: The United States, Australia, Canada and Argentina in 1942 made a wheat agreement to prevent a drop in wheat prices. This agreement goes into operation soon after the war ends. It may be followed by a world agreement.

The present agreement will work like this: Each of the four countries will sell abroad only a certain percentage of the world trade in wheat. Argentina, 25; Australia, 19; Canada, 40; and the United States, 16.

This country also has agreements on coffee and oil.

Mississippi Oil Boom Is Source Of Excitement

By NEA Service
When Mississippi oil blew in, it blew in big! Real oil excitement is gushing through this southern state, in the biggest oil craze since discovery of the lush East Texas field in 1930.

For weeks now, Wall Street has been in the thick of the oil boom, with stock speculators seeking companies with Mississippi real estate. Investors and oil geologists are talking a mumbo-jumbo of antilines, uplift humps, the Upper Cretaceous Age and Wilcox sand. Big brokerage houses have battered their southeastern offices with questions.

Mississippi has been an oil state since the siege of Vicksburg. The first oil dome was discovered in 1880; the first well was drilled in 1903. Things went slowly in the 36 years through 1939. Wildcaters drilled 260 wells in Mississippi, got only a handful of gas wells.

Now the Cranfield and Heidelberg are rated at 100,000,000 barrels each; the Eucutia field should have 50,000,000 barrels. Biggest established fields in Tinsley. By ordinary standards a 20,000,000 barrel field is a major one.

PRODUCTION JUMPS
Mississippi produced only 107,000 barrels of oil in 1939, but production jumped to 15,327,000 in 1941 and a whopping 18,897,000 in 1943. Mississippi has become the twelfth oil state in the United States. Geologists say this state may be part of an oil strip 250 miles wide along the Gulf Coast.

Naturally, the oil companies have the biggest stake in Mississippi oil. Big names include Humble, Atlantic Refining, Sun, Gulf, Standard of California, Union Producing Co. and Superior Oil—all of whom have over 300,000 acres under lease. Lesser lights are Texas, Phillips, Barnard, Sinclair and Pure Oil.

Every man and his brother is in on the Mississippi oil boom. One-third of the state is under lease. Farmers want $5000 an acre for pine

Four Die When Twin-Engine Falls

SAN ANTOLO, Sept. 7.—(AP)—When their twin-engine plane crashed at 4:30 p.m. Wednesday about three miles northeast of Austin, an officer and three enlisted men from the Hondo army airfield were killed, according to Col. George B. Andy, Hondo field commander.

The victims were: Second Lt. John D. Lawson, 20, the pilot, of Texarkana, Texas.

Cpl. Arthur J. English, Saitell, Minn.

Pvt. Jesus U. Martinez, Laredo, Texas.

Pvt. Duncan M. Sheats, Memphis, Tenn.

The accident occurred when the ship, en route to Texarkana with repair parts for another plane, flew into a thunderstorm and was forced into a crash landing, according to Dany.

YOUTH RESISTS, SHOT

BROWNWOOD, Texas, Sept. 7.—(AP)—A 15-year-old youth reportedly from San Angelo was strapped here today for treatment of gunshot wounds in the hip and ankle.

Police Chief Jack Hallmark of Brownwood said a Lampasas officer told him he fired when the youth resisted questioning.

The Common Touch

The veil of secrecy was lifted from the Dymbarton-Oaks conference long enough to disclose that, on their first week-end, the delegates went to New York. They left their wives in Washington, saw the sights and went night-clubbing. They attended the theater with tickets "on the house."

Somehow, since learning that, we've felt better about the whole thing. We still don't like the secrecy. But at least it's good to know that the future of a world full of group who, hailing out of the diplomatic stratosphere, can behave so much like a typical bunch of American convention delegates.

Here's How To Keep Color in Tomatoes

The natural red tomato color adds much to the appetizing quality of catsup and chili sauce, yet too often these products when made at home are brown or dark-colored. The U. S. department of agriculture offers the following tips for holding the red:

1. Use fully ripe red tomatoes and red pepper, whether sweet or hot, rather than green. Avoid black pepper also because it darkens the color.
2. Cook in wide shallow kettle.

that allows for rapid evaporation.

3. Avoid iron utensils because iron discolors tomatoes. Use stainless steel knives. Enamelware or agate kettles, if used, should not be broken or chipped on the bottom so that the steel underneath is exposed.

4. When cooking down tomatoes, cook rapidly but avoid scorching by stirring frequently during the first half of the cooking and then constantly for the last half as the mixture becomes thick. Avoid overcooking and slow cooking which cause a loss of color. Scorching spoils both color and flavor.

5. Instead of powdered spice which darkens the mixture on standing, use whole spices tied in a cloth bag and remove the bag before putting the mixture in jars.

6. Add vinegar, sugar and salt only after the tomatoes have cooked down to half the original volume.

7. Paprika and red pepper both add to the red color, though paprika has little flavoring value.

8. Store in a cool, dry, dark place. Light gradually fades the color.

Historians call the lower valley of the Nile river the birthplace of civilization.

How to Ruin Dresses and Lose Friends

IT'S tragic how some girls lose their friends and run their dresses because of perspiration odor and stains. And there's no excuse for it. It's easy to save dresses, it's easy to save friends.

1. Use Arid, the new cream deodorant that helps keep your ampiris dry and removes the odor from perspiration. Arid is safe and dependable for these five reasons:
2. Prevents under-arm odor. Helps stop perspiration safely.
3. A pure, white, antiseptic, stainless vanishing cream.
4. No waiting to dry. Can be used right after shaving.
5. Awarded Approval Seal of American Institute of Laundering—harmless to fabric. Use Arid regularly.

Breakfast was served from a table centered with a large basket of fruit set on the backyard lawn of the Davis home.

Leaves From A Correspondent's War Notebook

By HAL BOYLE
 WITH THE AEF IN FRANCE
 Aug. 22—(Delayed)—(P)—German army quartermasters might be short of soap but they never run out of pictures of Hitler, Goering or Himmler.

"Let me show you," said Sgt. Leon Rosenthal, Philadelphia, combat historian and lawyer, as he led me through a captured Nazi supply warehouse in the village of Ormes, outside Orleans.

He conducted me into a rear room and on one shelf were row after row of pictures of these three shining lights of Nazism, as well as a half-dozen other German big shots whom none of our party could recognize immediately.

"I guess if any German unit had trouble with mice they just turned in a requisition for one of these pictures and that scared the mice anyway," laughed Rosenthal.

Actually, the pictures were hung up in officers' clubs and other quarters by politically-minded German army officers sympathetic to the Nazi regime. Some portraits were photographic studies and others were drawings. In stock also were many caricatures of German army life, emphasizing slapstick situations. Through the warehouse moved a number of American supply officers earmarking captured equipment that could be used by their own troops. This usually is distributed on a first come, first served basis so there always is a good-natured dogfight among supply officers who try to grab all the usable enemy material they can for their own outfits. Their motto is "Git thar fustest and git away wih the mostest."

PARIS, Aug. 23—(Delayed)—(P)—Some things the troops will never forget about the first time they saw Paris:

"That little old white-haired French lady who went about the streets carrying a stepladder. Whenever she came across a park-ered jeep she set up the ladder, climbed up to the third step and kissed the boys sitting in the back seats.

The panic and fear among spectators when France's great liberation parade led by Gen. de Gaulle erupted in mass outbursts of shooting during which wild firing by patriots caused more casualties than snipers. How surprised they were to see loss evidence of suffering and hunger on the countenances of the excitable Parisians than they remembered seeing on the less mobile faces of the English across the channel. . . . the town itself, with wide avenues, jaunty colors, historic buildings and monuments, bowled them over with its beauty. . . . Paris lived up to every man's expectations as the most lovely city in the world. . . . And its daughters, too, were the most beautiful in France, especially after Normandy's muscled sisters, many of whom are patterned after their own native, bulky hedgerows.

Values seemed all cockeyed. . . . Citizens wanted $12 for a bottle of cognac, but would trade it gladly for five measly packages of cigars. . . . They asked you $10 at restaurants for a meal you could eat for 50 cents back home, but for two bucks you could get a bottle of perfume your girl back in the States couldn't duplicate for $30. How grateful Parisians were for gifts of candy, cigars or K-rations, and the heartwarming way they had of thanking you. . . . the fierceness of FFI fighters, some no older than 13, and the way they tore around town 60 miles an hour in tiny black cars, bareheaded, waving a rifle in one hand and making the "V" signal with the other. . . . That pistol-packing mama—a tall stately blonde with a walk like Mae West, who always carried two guns and a potato masher grenade in her belt.

Wrong Trend

There seems to be a movement afoot to design railroad dining cars along the lines of a fashionable restaurant after the war. This is going to be a blow to night club patrons who were quietly hoping that some postwar benefactor would build a cafe society spot like a nice, roomy well-lit diner.

Appeal to Spain

Moscow's radio appeal to the Spanish people to oust the Franco government and break with Nazi Germany is in violent contrast to Prime Minister Churchill's almost fulsome defense of the Franco regime a few weeks back. Somehow we think that most Americans will prefer the Russian attitude.

This attitude may violate the letter of the Atlantic Charter. It may be construed as interference in a country's domestic affairs. Granted that it does both, it may well turn out to be the most humanitarian attitude in the end.

We cannot build a new and better world until we have eradicated the cancer of fascism from the old. The past decade should have proved that to us beyond question. If there were reasons of expediency for playing ball with the Franco regime, they no longer exist. The Nazi threat through Spain is removed. It is time, and it should be possible by non-military means, to break the last Fascist hold on Europe.

HERE'S ONE COFFEE THE WAR HASN'T CHANGED

Has your Regular Brand recently been tasting FLAT or BITTER?

Has it suddenly become an altogether "different" coffee, flavorless, insipid, and sometimes even acid? If it has, then your experience is like thousands of other housewives. And these, we might add, are switching overnight to Admiration. Many roasters have cheapened their blends with inferior grade coffees to "save" on ceiling prices. This has brought about changes in flavor, richness, and freshness. In most cases it has changed up the whole blend. Inferior coffees produce a bitter, acid-tasting cup unlike anything you've been accustomed to drinking. No wonder you don't like it!

Admiration Is Absolutely Unchanged

The same identical expensive coffees are used today in Admiration as were used 25 years ago. It costs us more to keep Admiration quality at its customary high level. But that's our worry and expense. The loyalty of Admiration's great family of users is more important than immediate profits. No matter where you buy it or when, Admiration's rich, inviting flavor, its unique freshness and strength, its room-pervading aroma are found in every package. Buy a pound today and test this out for yourself.

Town Terrorized By 'Poison Gas'

MATTOON, Ill., Sept. 7.—(AP)—Mattoon's 10-man police force was on 24-hour duty today, providing night patrols throughout the residential district as officers intensified their search for a prowler who has terrorized this community of 15,800 recently by spraying a mysterious "poison gas" through several open bedroom windows.

Nine persons have suffered from nausea and partial paralysis for 30 to 90 minutes after inhaling the fumes, said police chief Eugene C. Cole. The latest victim, Mrs. Carl Cordes, 46, was hospitalized after she told police she had sniffed at a damp cloth she had found on her porch Tuesday night.

In all other cases, the prowler had sprayed the fumes into open bedroom windows. Cordes said that after his wife smelled of the cloth she became violently ill. Her lips and face became inflamed and she was unable to speak for almost two hours. The cloth was to be given scientific scrutiny by the state department of public safety.

All of the victims except one have been women and in each case the prowler has been frightened away.

The area covering the southeast corner of Honduras and the east coast of Nicaragua is known as the Mosquito Coast.

38-Year-Old "Doc" Took Care of Hits

By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer

Steve O'Neill popped up with another route-going pitcher in Red Gentry Wednesday night as the Detroit Tigers moved to within a game and a half of the Yankees in the American league, but the veteran Roger "Doc" Cramer took the play with his .557 nine-day batting spurge.

The Detroit club could be composed of two fellows named Hal Newhouser and Dixie Trout for all the average fan knew but the all important matter of base hits was being taken care of by the 38-year-old Cramer.

Pinky Higgins, Dick Wakefield, Jimmy Outlaw and Rudy York were helping the cause but Cramer was the most sensational in the club's recent surge. The New Jersey veteran was covering centerfield like a blanket, using his knowledge of the hitters to best advantage, cutting off reckless base runners with his rifle arm and performing that important task of getting on base at the batters' lead-off man.

Cramer continued his spree with a triple and single, scoring two runs in last night's 3-2 edge over Chicago. Gentry scattered eight White Sox singles in his second complete game since June 22. It was Rufe's eighth win and Johnny Humphries' ninth loss, winding up the season series between the two clubs with Detroit holding a 13-9 margin.

All other big league clubs were lost yesterday but the St. Louis Browns got back into action tonight against Chicago and the Tigers move home to face Cleveland in the first of an 8-game home and home set. The Yankees do not resume until Friday at Boston, the Browns can go into a tie for the lead with a victory over the Sox.

A full night game scheduled in the National includes a 14th meeting between the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago with the Cubs still looking for their first decision.

Byron Nelson, Ben Hogan Are Favorites at Dallas Pro Meet

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
DALLAS, Sept. 7.—(AP)—The National Professional Golfers Association, which since January has been instrumental in raising $100,000,000 for the war effort, will be keeping another war bond date today with the start of the $10,000 Texas victory open.

As a field of 71 professionals and 110 amateurs moved to the tee and those Texas golfers pals of yesterday—Byron Nelson, now of Toledo, and Ben Hogan, of Fort Worth army air field—were just as favorites in the 72-hole four-day affair, Fred Corcoran, tournament manager of the P.G.A., checked up and found the hundred million to have been raised in bond sales from appearances of the touring pros and from exhibitions staged from coast to coast.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—(AP)—The major and minor baseball leagues have scheduled their winter meetings for the same days—the big leagues Dec. 5-7 in New York and the minors starting Dec. 6 at Buffalo—maybe Judge Bramham figures that the best way to keep the major leaguers from interfering with his changes—the Sugar Bowl sports program next January likely will be limited to the football game unless the officials can find some place big enough for basketball. The navy is using the Tulane gym and the army the auditorium.

Corcoran also revealed that the professionals have played for $200,000 in war bond prizes and before the year is over will have contested for $300,000.

Nelson has drawn the biggest share of the winnings—$36,500. Hogan will be making his third tournament appearance in a year and a half but the way he has been taking the course a part here this week has installed him as the man for Lord Byron to beat for the top prize of $2,000.

Little Ben has played the course three times, each under par figures—with 69, 66 and 69. The 66 was one under the course record set by Johnny Revolta, who has returned to play in this tournament. Par is 71.

Nelson has won six tournaments this year and paired with Harold G. McSpaden, second high earner of the year, to cop the Minneapolis four-ball affair. McSpaden, who has won five tournaments and taken down $23,200 in prize money is playing here today.

DODGER DIDN'T DODGE
When the Newport News Dodgers were playing the Richmond Colts in a Piedmont league game the other day, the Richmond catcher Cabrera tried to pull a fast one by falling off the ground and clutching his ankle when a pitch hit the dirt near him—the ump didn't fall for it and sent him back to the plate—a couple of innings later Cabrera tried to block the plate when a Dodger slid home—when the dust cleared Cabrera was writing on the ground again—and that time it wasn't a gag. He had to leave the game.

Corcoran predicted that 278 would win the tournament but Hogan said it would take a 269, which would be 15 under par.

Bob Hamilton, national P.G.A. champion, will participate. He finished the Nashville invitational Monday despite an appendicitis attack and Corcoran said he had fully recovered.

All proceeds from the tournament will go toward installing a nine-hole golf course at Ashburn General hospital for wounded veterans at McKinney, Texas, and A. F. Simons, tournament chairman, said around $12,000 already had been raised from ticket sales. He expects the total to reach $25,000.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
When the Pirates swept four games against the Cardinals recently it was the first time the Cards had been blanked in a four-game series since July 1940, when the Bugs also did the trick—Everett McGowan, one-time speed skating champ and pro hockey player, has a new wrinkle in the ice show business (not in his face)—his revue will play the Massachusetts state fair at Brockton on a portable outdoor rink—Kentucky sports scries are calling 16-year-old Roger Yost of Kansas City, youngest member of the U. S. K. football squad, "Kansas City Kiddie."

Other top professionals entered are Ky Laffoon, Herman Barron, Denny Shute, Tony Penna, George Schnetter, Leonard Dodson, Gene Kunes, Ray Mangrum, E. J. (Dutch) Harrison and Jimmy Gaunt, the Texas P.G.A. champion.

Among the top amateurs are O'Hara Watts, David Goldman, Earl Stewart, Jimmy McGonagill and Jack Timmin, all Texans.

Second prize in the victory open is $1,400 and third is $1,000.

They will play 18 holes today and 18 tomorrow, then the low 64 scores plus ties will go into the finals—18 holes Saturday and 18 Sunday.

Calison, when employed as a military term, means an ammunition wagon or chest.

AP Card Gives Angott Decision Over Williams

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Quite a number of the 11,568 folks who saw the Williams get a 10-round decision over Sammy Angott last night at Shibe park wondered today whether the officials who gave the Trenton, N. J., Negro the nod were looking at the same fight.

Judge Lou Tress gave Williams four rounds, Angott five, and called one even. Judge Eddie Loughran gave Williams six rounds, Angott three, and called one even.

But, so divergent were their views that they agreed on only two of the 10 rounds, each giving Williams the first and Angott the seventh. Tress gave the last three sessions to Angott, and Loughran gave the same three to Williams.

Under Pennsylvania's quaint boxing laws, the referee decides everything when the judges can't get together, so Matt Aggie's 6-4 ballot in Williams' favor gave the Trenton 21-19, his 47th victory in 48 fights.

Caddy edgewood, Aggie agreed with each judge on five rounds, and disagreed with each on the other five. A full night game scheduled in the National includes a 14th meeting between the St. Louis Cardinals and Chicago with the Cubs still looking for their first decision.

Argentines Say No Refuge for Nazis

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Rodolfo Garcia Arias, charge d'affaires of the Argentine embassy, said Tuesday that "versions or suppositions" that Argentina might become a refuge for Nazi leaders after the war "are totally unfounded."

Garcia summoned correspondents to the embassy and handed them this formal statement:

"In view of the versions which have appeared in the press to the effect that Argentina might become a refuge for Nazi leaders after the war, the minister, charge d'affaires of Argentina, Senor Rodolfo Garcia

Arias, stated:

"If it were not sufficient in itself to disprove those versions, the fact that Argentina has no communication or relations with the Axis powers, I wish to add that I have express instructions from the Argentine government to state that such versions or suppositions are totally unfounded."

JACKPOT
KANSAS CITY—J. Harry Jones, the star's city hall reporter, has been eating at a lunch room in the city hall ever since it opened. It's one of those places in which the cash register occasionally rings up a star with the check—which means it's on the house.

Jones' star finally came up—when he stepped in to buy a penny box of matches.

Equipment Shortage, Now on 'Swing Shift'

LUBBOCK, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Relays are popular in track meets, but right now it's the only way the Texas Red Raiders get a chance to show Coach Dell Morgan what they can do in football.

During the summer Morgan dreamed of a squad of about 50. On Labor day, Dell had a pleasant surprise to find he had 70 boys on hand, and more still coming in. But the surprise had its other side:

A spring fire at Tech stadium wiped out equipment of the Red Raiders and left an acute shortage.

Most of the new equipment has come in shoes arriving the day before full work was scheduled—but there are no headgears. So work-outs have been put on a "swing shift" basis in order to provide everyone with something to wear and a chance to get some action.

Light Heavy Bout Slated for Sept. 21

CLEVELAND, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Pvt. Jimmy Bivins, dusky Cleveland heavyweight, and Lloyd Marshall, No. 1 active light heavy, are scheduled for a 15-round return bout at the arena Sept. 21, promoters Bob Brickman and Larry Atkins have announced.

Bivins, now stationed at Bergstrom Field, Austin, Texas, is expected to have a 15-day furlough and the match was set to take advantage of the leave.

Bivins, with an advantage, knocked Marshall out in the thirteenth round of their bout last June before 18,448 fans.

Local Station To Carry Friday Fight

The Pampa News radio station KPDN, it was announced today, will carry the Gillette cavalcade of sports welterweight bout between Jimmy McDaniel and Ralph Zaneli on Friday night.

The event is scheduled locally at 9 o'clock.

McDaniel has earned his right to another bout in Madison Square Garden by his knockout of Aron Perry in the third round of their fight on August 18.

Ralph Zaneli, sometimes known as "Ralph the Ripper," has arrived at his first Garden bout through a series of fine bouts in the last few months during which he beat Fritz Zivie and Izzi Jannozzo, and met Henry Armstrong twice.

Retreat From Global War Leaves Civil Strife Flaring in Balkans

Swing martial songs marked a happier day for Bulgarian troops. Now they face Turks lined up on frontier.

By RAY BROCK

Bombshell Balkan developments, though they paint a black picture for Adolf Hitler, do not forecast a push-over for the Allies in southeastern Europe.

Bulgaria's surrender could produce a disastrous parallel in Germany to World War Bulgarian capitulation actually broke the back of the Central Powers in the Balkans, doomed the outflanked remnants of Mackensen's desperate, hungry armies and foreshadowed quick, certain defeat for Imperial Germany.

This potential parallel cannot be lost upon Hitler and Nazi leaders. Indeed, some European experts abroad who have clung doggedly to an early 1945 date for the war's end, concede now that the kaleidoscopic developments in the southeast may force European peace this winter.

In some quarters, however, notably among Balkan specialists, healthy pessimism still prevails. Facts behind this reasoning are sharp and well-defined. Here are the important issues, and the probable Balkan developments, as the experts see them:

1. Barrier to a common alliance with the Allies is the fierce hatred existing between the Romanians and Hungarians. Unconfirmed reports describe bloody fighting already between Hungarian and Romanian forces in Transylvania.

2. Bulgaria and Turkey may be at each other's throats. Any effort on the part of the Turks to march westward will be resisted by Bulgarian troops—and the Turks almost certainly will seek to move west. Turkish divisions are reported to be massed in Turkish Thrace along the Bulgarian frontier.

3. Rival elements in Greece are battling each other as intercommunal military and political warfare rages. A resurgence of violent guerrilla warfare has been reported in Greece.

4. Without question the dominant issue in the Balkans is civil war in Yugoslavia between Croat-Communist elements among Tito's Partisans and Michaelovich's Nationalist Serb Chetniks. The Yugoslav question clearly is one of the gravest military and political problems confronting the Allied armies of liberation.

SERBS BITTER

King Peter's ill-conceived 11th hour order "abolishing" Michaelovich's command in London clearly can only serve further to inflame the situation. Reliable Serbian sources informed this winter early this week that Michaelovich's officers, loyal to Peter within Yugoslavia and abroad, will serve notice upon the King that unless he remains immediately to Serbia to participate in combat against the enemy "as fighting Karageorgevich King has always done," the Serbs will cease to recognize him as their monarch.

Amid the Balkan confusion of race hatreds, territorial disputes, religious intolerance—all barriers to swift Allied progress in Southeastern Europe—Yugoslavia protrudes like a sore thumb.

Yugoslavia, unlike Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria, is a fighting ally. Since the beginning of March 23rd, 1941, when the Serb revolt provoked German's merciless invasion of that country.

By the strange and unsatisfactory explanation Allied political abandonment of General Draja Michaelovich and his Serb armies beginning in September, 1942, by the cessation of arms and medical supply shipments to his Chetniks, by the sudden backing of Tito's predominantly Croat and Communist partisans the Allies, largely Russia and Britain, have provoked and inflamed bloody civil war through that land.

PEACE BARRIERS

The American role, until very recently, was passive, the continued recognition of a Yugoslav government-in-exile but refusal to aid that government's generalissimo, Michaelovich, by arms shipments to his forces. This contradictory policy, which alienated large sections of the Serb majority of Yugoslavia, has been worsened in recent, critical weeks by the withdrawal of American officers attached to Michaelovich and the dispatch of a new American military mission to Tito.

The old flames of hatred between Hungary and Romania, Romania and Bulgaria, Bulgaria and Greece, Greece and Italy—all of them barriers to quick peace in the Balkans—can be quenched only by complete Allied occupation and a strong hand in the settlement of their long-standing disputes. In the cases of Hungary, Romania and Bulgaria, avowed enemies of the United Nations, we can be ruthless. The rules of war certainly demand that we shall side with our ally, Greece, against a former unhonored enemy, Italy.

A Balkan campaign this winter would be no picnic. Balkan winter viciously cold with deep snows, high winds, ice and frequent thaws and rains which turn the miserable roads into veritable quagmires.

The valleys are deep, the mountains high and frequently impassable in winter. The rivers are wide and swift and treacherous. A Balkan campaign last spring or summer was military practical, but, unfortunately, for political reasons, unfeasible.

The Balkan terrain which lies ahead of the Anglo-American and Russian armies is—aside from topographical checks and barriers and interable communications lines—the with seedlines and flowerings of revolution and civil war. None of these elements make for rapid military advance, occupation, the essential elements of bases and renewed offensives.

WIFE'S BREADTH

LOS ANGELES—Mrs. Elizabeth "Lennie" thick piled-up hairdo probably saved her from serious injury, says Dr. Philip Spooner, testified at the trial of two men accused of hitting her with a bottle. As it was, he said, she escaped with a concussion.

Regular courts and judges have retired in Ireland from prehistoric times.

Marshal Tito leads Partisans against Nazis, but his guns are also trained against Serbs.

Broadcast Rights of Station Questioned

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Federal communications commissioners Paul A. Walker and C. J. Durr have expressed doubts that the Century Broadcasting Company, Corpus Christi, Texas, can operate station KWBU's programs would interfere with those of KJRA, Little Rock, Arkansas. No date for the hearing has been set.

The commission has ordered a hearing on the company's application for a license to determine if KWBU's Little Rock, Arkansas, No date for the hearing has been set.

Walker and Durr declared in a prepared statement, however, that they had not approved of confined the hearing to interference, adding: "It seems to us that the past record of the president and certain other officials and stockholders of the station in the operation of station XEAW Reynosa, Mex., and the programs which station KWBU has carried while on program tests raise a serious question as to the qualifications of Century Broadcasting Company, as now constituted, to operate in the public interest."

The equipment of station XEAW recently was moved across the border of Texas for use in station KWBU. Baylor University is listed as a stockholder in the Century company.

Walker and Durr also contended that "the circumstances under which this station was removed from Mexico to the United States, together with the program carried while it was on program tests, raise a question as to Baylor University's actual position in the arrangement under which the station was established and is to be operated."

They argued that "in view of all the past circumstances," the commission should be assured, before a license is issued, that Baylor University "will assume its full share of responsibility for the operation of the station and bring to bear upon its policies the influence to be reasonably expected of an educational institution."

The stockholders of the Century Broadcasting Company are listed in the application as Krazy Water company, Fidelity Union Life Insurance company, Pat and Mike O'Daniel, sons of Senator O'Daniel (D-Tex.); James M. Collins and Baylor University, all of Texas.

Carroll P. Collins, Dallas, president of the Krazy Water company, chairman of the board of the Fidelity Union Life Insurance company, and a trustee of Baylor University, is listed as president of the broadcasting company.

New Electric Irons To Go at Old Price

Twenty manufacturers who have received allocations to produce 1,788,968 electric irons have agreed to sell them at no change from their March, 1942, prices, the office of price administration has announced.

New electric irons are one of the first items in the consumer durable goods filed that will re-appear on the market since production was suspended in 1942. They will bear price tags stating the dollar-and-cents retail ceilings. Authorized retail prices range from $5.30 up to $11.70, but the majority of the irons are automatic models in the medium price range.

War production board has authorized production of 2,037,838 electric irons, by 32 manufacturers. Prices for the other manufacturers have not been established yet.

'Gay Paree' Is Sad at Heart, Returning Frenchwoman Finds

By ROSETTE HARGROVE
NEA Staff Correspondent

PARIS, Sept. 7.—The last time I saw Paris—the hated Boche was storming at the city's gates and fear was in everybody's heart.

Coming back four years later, I am struck by a scene of contrast. The gay, noisy crowds on the boulevards and the colorful and attractive costumes on every hand create the atmosphere of a gigantic picnic party.

We entered Paris through the Bois de Boulogne, its beautiful trees touched with the russet tones of early fall. Soldiers were bivouacking in the main alleys and here and there the eye caught sight of camouflaged guns and tanks.

Driving down the Champs Elysees in a weapons carrier, we were hailed by the cries of "Vive l'amerique!" I felt proud of my American uniform.

Paris is practically unscathed by war. Here and there in the heart of the city you see traces of street barricades and shattered windows, but the Tricolor and Allied flags which have lain hidden for four years are waving in the bright August sunshine and gave the impression the city was wrapped in a solid quilt of red, white and blue. But I soon found out that underneath the apparent color and warmth, Paris is sad and careworn.

CHEERFUL FREEDOM
It seemed incredible that only a few days ago, the Germans still were here; but this is even more incredible to the Parisians. Everyone I met said the same thing: "We cannot yet believe that at long last we are free to think and do as we please." All my friends were overwhelmed they literally couldn't find words to express their joy.

But two days in Paris taught me that underneath the gaiety and friendliness there's an undertone of sadness. The hundreds of thousands of cyclists who charge down the streets sometimes eight abreast at commuting hours may look picturesque at first. You soon learn this represents considerable hardship. People have either to cycle or walk to work. There's absolutely no transportation—no buses, no trolleys, no taxis. The Metro is shut tight. Some people have to start out in the early morning hours only to get to work around noon, often on empty stomachs. Those who have no work stay at home.

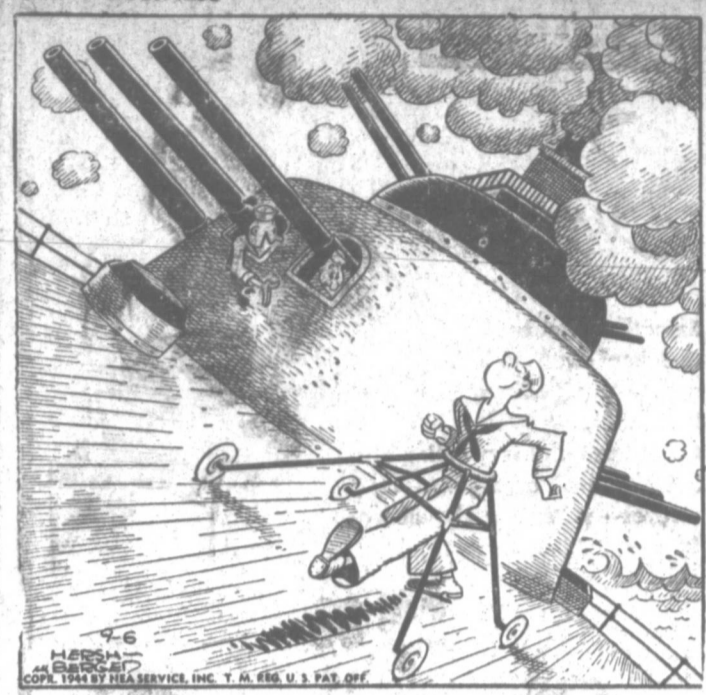

One is also struck by the overwhelming majority of women. The men of Paris are absent—many are war casualties but many more are prisoners or deported workers in Germany.

PARIS SUFFERS
I also found out the majority of Paris restaurants were closed or open only at midday—due to lack of supplies. In most sections of Paris there was no electricity, no fuel, no gas, no hot water. This has been going on for the last six months.

Most of my friends have been living on iron rations and the few vegetables they could find, and their meager stocks are now almost exhausted. But they invariably add: "We don't care how many privations we endure now that we see the end in sight. To have you here means more than food and drink." Paris—fate home of gourmets—is hungry. Food is being rushed here from Brittany and Normandy, but organizing distribution takes some time.

Parisians are definitely chic because closer inspection reveals their clothes are miracles of make and mend. Remarkable on Parisianes' colorful clothes. I was told this has been their way of defying the Germans. All wear platform shoes with fabric tops, also of gay colors. Many women who were unable to afford to buy shoes learned to make their own. I am told all but the wealthy and war profiteers have been obliged to spend their savings to buy food. Restaurant meals cost anything from five to ten dollars without satisfying even small appetites. The last four years undoubtedly have left an indelible mark on Parisians, but this will never be apparent to the casual observer. When conditions once again become normal, Paris will soon reconquer their "City of Light"—the Paris of the great American dream.

"He has trouble keeping his balance during a heavy sea!"

Today's question on old-age and survivors insurance: "What is its purpose?"

Old-age and survivors insurance is a government insurance system for wage earners in business or industry. As the name implies, it protects both the aged worker and the survivors of young as well as old workers who die. It provides benefits for workers after they reach age 65 and for the support of his dependents in case of his death. Under this plan the money paid to the retired worker or to his survivors is theirs by right, just as any other insurance money would be.

Story of Mighty Battlewagons' Swinging Into Invasion Action

By FIRST LT. WELDON JAMES
Marine Corps Public Relations Officer, Distributed by The Associated Press

ABOARD THE U. S. S. TEXAS, of Southern France—(Delayed)—The Allies, did it in broad daylight this time. Backed up by Anglo-French-American sea and air power, thousands of picked American and French units hit the beach promptly on H-hour—8 o'clock—this morning.

Thanks to an unprecedented concentration of naval gunfire and aerial bombardment preceding H-hour, many of the first units landed without opposition. Others, faced with mortar and small-arm fire and scattered blasts from mobile 88's, were aided by close-in destroyers and landing craft bearing field artillery. They took their beachheads quickly, raced inland.

A famous American division (the 45th, reinforced) spearheaded the invasion in our sector of the gulf of St. Tropez. Tough, American-equipped French divisions are following. The powerful guns of three ancient but mighty U. S. battleships were an important factor in the initial success of the invasion—the Texas, the Nevada, and the Arkansas. Their job was to knock out the big guns of German coastal batteries before the army moved in. They did it.

This flagship, wearing the flag of Rear Admiral Carleton F. Bryant of Searport, Maine, and commanded by Captain Charles A. Baker, of Lynchburg, Va., and of Washington, D. C., moved into position for its third historic H-hour of the summer (Normandy, Cherbourg, southern France) in the dark hours of early morning.

At 8:50, on schedule, the Texas opened up with a two-gun salvo for range. Unobserved by the spotter plane—too much haze and smoke. Another, unobserved. Then a deafening six-gun salvo.

Then a close-in U. S. destroyer got the spotter-bearing for us: "down one hundred."

From then on, with other destroyers corroborating the spotting, the Mighty Texas roared out with deafening salvos of 10, eight, six, four, and two guns.

German gun-flashes soon ceased, or, more certainly, were obscured. But the Texas kept up her scheduled bombardment, belching flame and death, arching over 172 armor-piercing and high explosive freight-loads of destruction until 8:15, ceasing then because the "eight o'clock troops" from a landing down the coast might be bearing target X.

At 8 o'clock the troops landed, at many points without opposition, at others with harassing small-arms, mortar and field-gun fire to tackle. Destroyers raced in to sweep such spots with the fast and deadly fire of their 50 mm and rapid-firing five-inchers.

On the bride of the Texas Captain Baker beamed at his gunnery officer.

In addition to the Texas, Arkansas, and the Nevada, the force includes those other Normandy veterans, the French cruisers Montcalm and Georges, as well as the U. S. cruiser Philadelphia.

We are now moving closer inshore. More waves of troops are moving in, too, close enough to exchange shouted greetings with the Texas crew. And for the admiral to lean from the bridge and shout to the doughboys in the little craft below:

"It's all clear for you ahead... Good luck!"

The Vecchio bridge at Florence is lined on both sides by a cluster of houses which have been the homes of goldsmiths and lapidaries for hundreds of years.

PUNCH LINES IN THE INNER RING

PUEBLO, Colo.—(AP)—A Pueblo jeweler has kept a record of the messages that he has engraved on wedding rings. Among them are these: "Handsoff—this guy belongs to me." "Stay away girls—he's taken." "Shoo, shoo, baby! He's taken." "For you I have the best love."

DALLAS, Sept. 7.—(AP)—The Baptist executive board has announced collections totaling more than $1,500,000 toward a $3,000,000 fund for the IT schools and hospitals owned by the Baptist general convention of Texas.

Senate Committee Is Still Interested In World of Cartels

By JAMES MARLOW
 WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—(AP)—You can expect to hear more and more about cartels because:

1. A senate committee—the war mobilization committee headed by Senator Kilgore (D-W Va.)—will resume hearings this week on cartels.
2. The hearings—senate committees have held cartel hearings at intervals for a couple of years—will continue through September.
3. When Germany collapses, there is apt to be strong Allied pressure to break up German cartels. They helped prepare that country for war.
4. Many administration leaders—particularly Vice President Wallace, Interior Secretary Ickes and Attorney General Biddle—want German cartels broken up.
5. They also want an end to participation in cartels of any kind by American firms.
6. The democratic party, in its 1944 campaign platform written at Chicago, said: "We reassert our faith in competitive private enterprise free from control by monopolies, cartels or any arbitrary private or public authority."
7. And in their Chicago platform, the republicans said small business must be preserved by enforcing laws against monopoly and unfair competition.

A cartel is a trade agreement between big business organizations which deal in the same or similar products—in different countries. Note the difference between a monopoly and a cartel. A monopoly is control of a trade market by a firm or small group of firms in one country. A cartel is a monopoly which extends across international frontiers.

A cartel could be an agreement between only two firms in different countries—such as a German company and an American company—or between a number of different firms, such as companies in the United States, Germany, Norway, Holland and France.

The justice department says the purpose of cartels is to do one or all of several things:

Divide trade territory between them so each can have a monopoly in its respective territory; keep prices at a higher level than would be possible if there was competitive under-selling by the cartel members against one another; exchange patents and scientific and technological knowledge between and for the benefit of cartel members which means non-cartel members would be frozen out of the benefits.

Since 1939 the justice department has filed more than 40 civil and criminal anti-trust suits—involving cartel arrangements—against American firms.

The cases ranged from charges of monopoly in chemicals and electric lamps to aluminum and magnesium (both precious war metals) to drugs, synthetic rubber, oil, optical instruments, alkali, plastics, aircraft instruments and fertilizer.

Congress may or may not pass laws about cartels. It may be con-

Rains Help Most Of State's Crops

AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Rains which continued through the week ended Sept. 4 gave crop favoring moisture to all of the state except a few spots in the High Plains.

In all other areas surface moisture, at least, was adequate said the U. S. department of agriculture.

As a result late feed crops, cotton in later maturing areas, peanuts, sweet potatoes and pastures were benefited. Moisture also aided in the preparation of seedbeds and the sowing of fall grains.

Harvesting operations were slowed somewhat, and there was some lowering of cotton grades and moderate damage to peanuts that were being harvested.

Range feeds and pastures, parched until two weeks ago, responded rapidly to general rains which covered most of the state. Parts of the high plains were not favored, however, and a few localities in the El Paso area were dry. Cattle throughout the state held up well in spite of an unusually hot, dry summer and with the new growth of grass should pick up nicely. Most of the sheep country now has especially favorable moisture to provide good range feed.

Acting Governor On Job, But He's Sleepy

AUSTIN, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Lieut. Gov. John Lee Smith who is acting governor in the absence of Governor Coke R. Stevenson was on the job hale and hearty today but somewhat sleepy.

Monday he made two addresses in Sonora, in west Texas, and drove 500 miles to the gulf coast for a fishing expedition, arriving at 3 a. m. Tuesday. When a state police radio message caught him at Matagorda he was just about to step into a boat. He hurried back to Austin yesterday.

Smith said he has no special plans as acting governor.

Smith said he had taken under consideration a request from friends of Walter Nelson of Wichita Falls that Nelson be appointed as district judge of the 89th judicial district. That judgeship is now vacant. Governor Stevenson has made no move to fill the vacancy. Smith said that he had asked for the opinion of the Wichita county bar as to the need for filling the vacancy.

PLANES FOR MEXICO
 MEXICO CITY, Sept. 7.—(AP)—Mexico has just received from the U. S. A. 100 planes for training military pilots, Gen. Gustavo Salinas, chief of the Mexican air force, said.

The new planes have been sent to the army aviation school at Guadalajara, Gen. Salinas said, and will enable this country to train a much larger number of military pilots.

Although stones had to be brought from distant quarries, the Egyptians achieved the most lasting architectural forms of any civilization.
