Hurricane Strikes Havana, Florida Mainland Is Imperilled

Both Parties See Victory In Border States

By The Associated Press
Republican and democratic congressional leaders alike said today that the border states—Oklahoma, Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland and West Virginia—are going their way. These contrary estimates—by Rep. Drewry (D-Va) and Rep. Halleck (R-Ind), chairman of the two congressional campaign committees—came into the Presidential campaign calculations along with this report from Simon Michel, Washington lawyer who leads the national get-out-the-vote club.

"It can be said convincingly that—as go the five border states, so goes the Presidential election," Michel said in his report on the basis of the fact that in the last four Presidential elections all these states were in the winner's column and four of the five were in 1930 and 1924.

Republican Halleck said in a Washington interview that "things are going mighty well" in this year's campaign, but Drewry said his poll shows democrats are the ones who are happy about the border state situation. They likewise disapproved about who is going to control the house of representatives in the next four years.

Another pair who disagree—President Roosevelt and Governor Dewey—aimed their next blows at the foreign policy.

The republican Presidential nominee will speak tonight at 8:30 p. m. central war time (Blue Network) on "This Must Be the Last War." He will be on the program of the New York Herald Tribune forum.

Six Persons Are Killed, Say Reports

BULLETIN
HAVANA, Oct. 18—(AP)—A tropical hurricane lashed Havana today and the Cuban Red Cross reported at least six persons were killed and 20 injured.

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 18—(AP)—Hurricane winds up to 140 and 160 miles an hour in gusts lashed Havana today before seven tropical storm moved out into the Gulf of Mexico and sent advance gales sweeping the Florida Keys.

A 10 a. m. weather bureau advisory said that full hurricane winds probably would be felt along the entire string of exposed keys, stretching southwestward from the Florida mainland, within a short time. "Very high tides" were forecast.

All of South Florida was braced for gales expected during the late morning or early afternoon.

A radio report to Pan-American Airways here said that a number of houses were blown down in Havana and that a number of small buildings at the Cuban capital's airport were flattened.

There was no immediate word, however, of any casualties.

The Isle of Pines island south of Cuba which was raked with full force yesterday, still was without communications.

The weather bureau said the center of the Caribbean-born hurricane passed very near Havana about 9 a. m., moving slowly northward about 10 miles and hour.

"Lowest pressure at Havana 28.85 inches," the bureau continued. "Winds in gusts 140 to 160 miles per hour."

Keys north reported to 65 miles per hour and increasing.

"The severe hurricane probably will continue slow northward movement, with center reaching the lower Florida Keys late today.

"Hurricane winds will be experienced, however, within a very short time over the entire keys arch with very high tides.

"Winds will increase elsewhere over South Florida this afternoon with approach of the storm.

"Hurricane warnings are displayed from Miami to Tampa and storm warnings elsewhere from Vero Beach to Cedar Key.

Small craft on the Florida coast northward to Jacksonville and Pensacola should remain in port."

Radio broadcast requested.

HAVANA, Oct. 18—(AP)—Havana was heavily damaged by a tropical hurricane early today, but first reports showed no casualties.

Hours after the center of the disturbance passed northward, the city was lashed by high winds and rain which paralyzed island communications.

Group Fails To File Report on Contributions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—The treasurer of an anti-fourth term organization told Senate investigators today the group had kept secret the names of some contributors, had not filed a report of donations and expenditures with the clerk of the House and had accepted money from corporations.

Counsel and members of the Senate campaign expenditures investigating committee which heard the testimony said those actions violated the corrupt practices act.

William J. Goodwin of New York, treasurer of the American Democratic National committee, was the witness at a table-pounding committee session.

Discussing the organization's method of handling its finances, Goodwin said that to keep information away from "bodies and newspapers," a certificate was used under which the names of some contributors were "kept off the committee's books." Robert Murphy, counsel for the Senate committee, contended that this violated the corrupt practices law, but Goodwin said the names were to be concealed only until they were revealed to proper authorities.

Under questioning by Murphy and Senator Ball (R-Minn), Goodwin identified three separate contributions, totalling $1,422.73 as having been made by Gen. Robert E. Wood of Chicago. He identified a $2,500 contribution and another for $2,000 as coming from Harry Weiss of Houston, Texas.

Another Atoll in Carolines Is Occupied Without Resistance

Enemy Had Fled, Leaving Wounded And Sick Behind

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—Destruction of 22 Japanese vessels including seven warships, by American submarines, was reported today by Navy Secretary Forrestal.

The latest bag of the American submarines, he reported, included three destroyers, three escort vessels, and a minesweeper, in addition to 25 merchant vessels of various types.

This raises to 956 the number of Japanese ships of all types destroyed by American submarines since the war started.

The other craft destroyed in this new bag by the submarines operating in Japanese-controlled waters include eight transports, a tanker, a navy auxiliary and 16 cargo-carrying craft.

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
American pilots are clamping an aerial pincer on the invasion-threatened Philippines in continuing raids of carrier forces striking from the north, unhampered by the frightened Japanese navy, and land-based fighters making their first massed foray from the south.

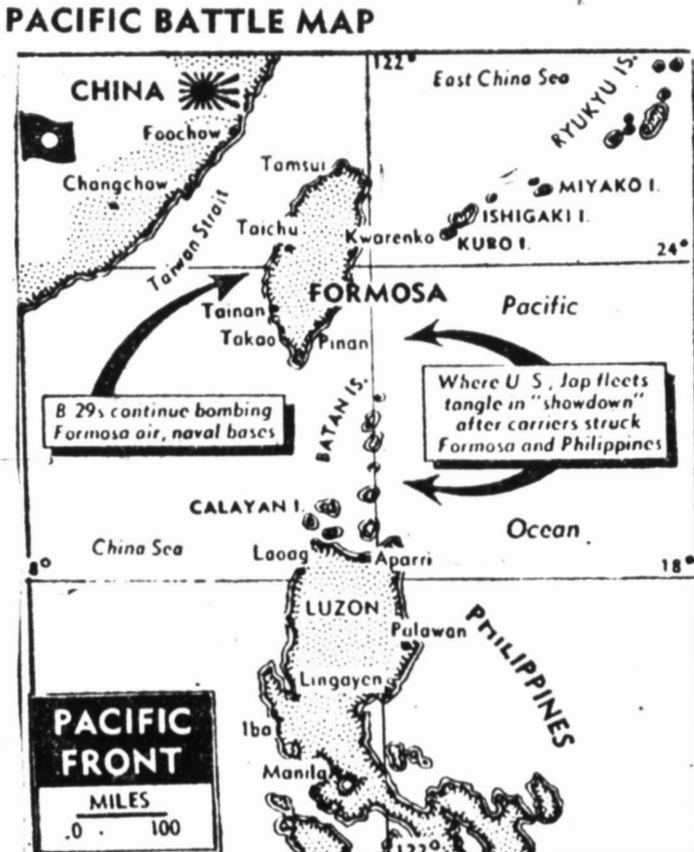

Naval forces which will support the Philippines invasion were given a new advanced staging base without a shot being fired. Adm. Chester W. Nimitz belatedly announced last night that the 81st army division occupied undefended UHNI atoll in the Western Carolines four weeks ago.

Carrier-borne planes of the mighty Task Force 58 "are continuing to attack objectives in the Philippines," Nimitz said.

The Japanese-controlled Manila radio amplified, saying three waves of planes hit Manila today (Philippine time) while other air units again raided Clark field, once the major U. S. air field in the islands, and Legaspi, vulnerable port south of Manila.

In an unprecedented, daring daylight sweep Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Southwest Pacific fighters hunted the length of Mindanao island in the Southern Philippines, blasted a big truck convoy to bits.

Faculty, Students Unite In Backing Dr. Rainey

AUSTIN, Oct. 18—(AP)—Faculty and students of the University of Texas were united today in a solid front of support for President Homer P. Rainey in his differences with the board of regents.

More than 4,000 students in a convocation last night heard their president, ex-Marine Malcolm (Mac) Wallace, of Dallas say "No longer will we humble our disappointment in what is being done to our university." A few minutes later they dropped $681 into five bushel baskets to finance printing and postage for literature to be mailed parents, legislators, ex-students and state officials.

The faculty, by a unanimous vote in a meeting closed to the press, expressed confidence in Dr. Rainey and his administration, and authorized the appointment of an 11-member committee to prepare a statement addressed to the people of Texas "of the principles essential to the existence of a university" and "to recommend subsequent action with respect to the present crisis."

Wallace asked the students to mail home to their parents reprints of the statement and to re-affirm a resolution passed by their assembly in September and commending Dr. Rainey for his "fine leadership during this crisis."

Germans Claim Use Of Electric Gun

LONDON, Oct. 18—(AP)—The Berlin radio came up with a new secret weapon story today, announcing that Nazi troops on the Russian front were using an "electric machine-gun."

The weapon, said the broadcast, is known as "the death syringe."

Civilian Goods Production Now Being Stepped Up

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18—(AP)—Civilian goods production has been authorized in more than 700 plants under the "spot authorization" plan, war production board officials estimated today, with new applications arriving at a rate of about 500 a week.

The plant-by-plant authorizations may prove to be the main bridge between war and peacetime production, some officials believe, if the European war runs into the winter and if businessmen continue to use the program as a cushion for war contract cancellations.

"This was the original concept of the 'spot' plan, which went into effect Aug. 15, but as hopes rose of an autumn victory over Germany WPB leaders began to regard it as a stopgap measure to be scrapped on V-E day along with most of WPB's controls over industry.

The spot plan permits companies to make peacetime goods if they can prove to WPB field offices that they have labor and machinery not needed for war work.

Wide-spread uses of the plan now appears likely with the slow-up of allied forces at Hitler's Westwall, and businessmen generally have begun to explore the possibilities of using the plan despite their complaints that the red tape involved in getting an application cleared.

WPB reports that 2,562 companies had filed applications by October 1, of which 441 were approved. In the first half of October, it is estimated, an additional 1,000 applications were filed and more than 300 approved.

The highest number of approvals, as of October 1, was reported by the WPB regional office at Dallas, Texas, which gave 63 clearances to manufacturers.

The WPB regional office at Dallas said that through Oct. 14 it had approved 110 applications, and that 46 were pending in district offices at Houston, Dallas, San Antonio, Oklahoma City, and New Orleans.

British Issue New White Paper

LONDON, Oct. 18—(AP)—A government white paper issued today proposed a new global air agreement to replace the Paris convention of 1919 and the Havana convention of 1928 on international air transport.

The paper stated, "The British government desires to see a radical change in this situation after the international collaboration should be:

- (1) To meet needs for plentiful, efficient and cheap air services;
- (2) To maintain broad equilibrium between the world's air transport capacities and the traffic offering;
- (3) To insure equitable participation by the various countries engaged in international air transport;
- (4) To eliminate wasteful competitive practice and, in particular, to control subsidies;
- (5) To standardize practice on technical matters important to safety of flying; and
- (6) To contribute to world security.

Fuehrer Organizes Armed Home Guard

BULLETIN
LONDON, Oct. 18—(AP)—Adolf Hitler, observing that "just as in 1939 we are facing the enemy alone," proclaimed tonight the formation of an armed German home guard and declared:

"Germany's second all-out effort must and will succeed." Describing this people's army as "not a preparation for defeat, but for victory," the Berlin station said:

"The significance of German Volksturm becomes obvious when the possibility of breakthroughs in our fighting front or airborne landings in our hinterland are taken into account."

The home guard men will be part of the German army, the broadcast said, adding that "they will wear no uniform, but will be marked by an armband in accordance with international law."

Russians Enter East Prussia

On the eastern front the German command said the Russians had swept inside the Reich to the East Prussian town of Schirwindt, capturing strategic Vivalbis in Lithuania, three miles from the border. The Nazi broadcast said a mighty Red offensive surged from the Baltics toward East Prussia.

U. S. bombers ripped Cologne for the fourth time in five days, hitting at German power to send reserves to the 85-mile front between Arnheim in Holland and Aachen in Germany, along which British and Americans moved into position for a new assault toward the Rhineland.

Venray fell after two days of bitter house-to-house battle.

Big Tank Army Reported Ready

The Germans said the Allies have massed 1,500 tanks in Holland, where British Tommies working in conjunction with Americans on their right flank, reduced the enemy salient west of the Maas river to about eight square miles. The British plunged two miles southeast of the town, and a front dispatch said Americans on the right flank bridged the canal de Doorn.

At encircled Aachen American troops mopped up slowly, and have cleared up segments of the Siegfried line northwest of the old city. Nazi counterattacks attempting to break American lines surrounding the German frontier city halted yesterday. A front dispatch estimated the Nazis lost 1,500 captured and 1,000 killed in attempts to recapture Aachen—about 25 per cent of their attacking forces.

U. S. Third army troops drove to within four miles of the fortress city of Metz on the central sector, and on the southern end of the 460-mile Allied line, French First army troops made gains on the slopes of the Vosges mountains before Bel-fort.

Berlin said the new Red army offensive, supported by heavy artillery preparation and swarms of low-flying Sturmovik bombers, had been mounted on a 25-mile front from each side of the Lithuanian town of Vilgaviskis, 11 miles from the east Prussian frontier, and that the Russians reached the frontier at one point. Berlin also suggested another heavy Russian assault was in progress from the south and southeast against east Prussia.

To the north Soviet forces which captured Riga last week cleaned up in western Latvia, and in the south heavy fighting continued in Belgrade, where Marshal Tito, Yugoslav partisan chieftain, said all but two districts were cleared.

American troops in Italy advanced nearly a mile north of captured Livorno on highway 65 in their advance on ancient Bologna. In the Adriatic sector British troops driving into the Po valley secured a few more yards of the Rimini-Bologna highway and closed in on Cesena.

Large Gathering Hears Rayburn

ABILENE, Oct. 18—(AP)—One of the largest gatherings of West Texas democratic party leaders in years heard Speaker Sam Rayburn (D-Texas) say that under the present administration "your rights and your privileges are safe."

"Not a single right, liberty or privilege has been taken away or restricted except when it became necessary in order to win the war," Rayburn stated last night at the Roosevelt-Truman rally.

President Franklin D. Roosevelt, republican Presidential nominee, the congressman asserted, "the truth is Mr. Dewey has been endorsing one by one this administration's laws, the so-called new deal laws, and in all probability by the time the campaign is over, he will endorse all of them. The only democratic aim he does not endorse now is the fourth term and the people of America are going to see to it that for him on the seventh of November."

"Republican leadership had been followed," he said "we would have had practically no army and navy when war was thrust upon us and we would have stood helpless before these international bandits."

Rayburn predicted that the vote of the Texas regulars party "will be the smallest, if they remain on the ticket, of any election in the history of Texas."

Other speakers included Wright Patman of Texasarkans; Myron Block of Marshall, chairman of the democratic state committee; Congressman George Mahon of Colorado City; Congressman Sam Rainsell of Stephenville; former Congressman C. L. South of Coleman and Tom Tyson of Corsicana.

A total of 175 democrats representing almost every county in a 100-mile radius from Abilene attended a dinner honoring Rayburn.

Party-Going Aprons

Since they have been exalted to hostess duties, aprons have become creations, and some of the fanciest are designed with an eye to wear for gay at-homes now and all through the forthcoming holiday season.

To protect the clothes of the fashion-wise hostess and to make her duties seem more like fun than work is the idea behind a series of guest-conscious aprons launched by designer Helene Pons, two of which are shown.

At the left is an apron of cotton crash, dyed cocoa brown, with carpenter-sized pockets decorated with hand-blocked designs of gray and yellow. Striking decorative print makes the cotton chintz apron at the right, the distinctive features of which are a set-in sash, flared skirt, extended shoulders and giant pockets.

Brush and Oil Treatments Put Life Into Hair

"What do you do," asks a reader, "when you meet yourself in the mirror after a summer of salt water and sun and your hair looks like something that ought to be buried?"

If that's your end-of-summer cry, grab a brush and start stroking. Bristles that polish hair will also whip up a better circulation to the scalp. If you'll brush, bring with your hand dandling over the edge of a bed, and will tackle one panel of hair at a time; will stroke it several times on one side and then the other before going on to the next.

Shampoo your hair often, and the night before soap your scalp with hot oil—olive oil or plain castor. The drippy hair up in a moisture proof cap and keep confined overnight. Next morning wash your hair with a liquid fatty soap. Use a vinegar rinse to strip the last bit of oil from your hair.

Pianist Plans Her Platform Wardrobe As Carefully as Her Musical Program

Concert-goers are clothes-conscious and the artist owes it to her public and to herself to look as well as possible, says Ethel Bartlett, the charming British virtuosa who, together with her Scotch husband, Rae Robertson, has made their two-piano concerts an international institution. Miss Bartlett and Mr. Robertson will be heard (and seen) here on Thursday evening, 8:30, at Junior High auditorium.

Ethel Bartlett has been painted repeatedly by distinguished artists and her individual yet always appropriate platform appearance has so often been commented on by hard-boiled music critics as well as by the more susceptible public that she was recently asked by a reporter to explain the psychology of her wardrobe.

"I take my clothes almost as seriously as my music," said Miss Bartlett. "Fortunately, however, when I have planned my gowns and they are finished I do not have to think of them again. Whereas my music must never be neglected."

"To be quite practical, there are four main points which I consider when I am choosing a gown for the concert platform.

"Type is the first point. The artist must study her particular type. No dress, no matter how beautiful, will look well unless it suits the personality of the wearer. A very frequent mistake is for a concert singer or instrumentalist to adopt the mode of the moment without regard to her personal adaptability. First lesson: 'Study your type.'

"The second point to consider is Line. Long, unbroken lines are most effective on the stage. Fussy ornaments and decorations are distracting to the onlooker who may be at too great a distance to distinguish details and see jewelry, bows, accessories, etc., only as lumps and bumps on the figure. Even when skirts were shorter and styles differed, I never have worn a brief skirt on the platform and have always tried to achieve simplicity in line and design.

"The third and perhaps most difficult point to decide is color. All colors designed for stage use must be chosen under brilliant artificial light which has such a devastating effect on many normally beautiful and striking colors. Under such conditions nearly all blues turn green or black. Soft pastel shades, such as pink or mauve, should be rejected as they rarely give their full effect under stage lights. It is always best to choose brilliant, primary colors. Gold, silver, red, and yellow some of the safer and more beautiful colors to use. I must confess to a weakness for a passionate, exciting cardinal red! White, if brilliant, is lovely next to the black piano.

"Fourth is the question of background. This, of course, varies with the hall. It is worse to take the trouble to visit the theatre before a concert, study the background and decoration of the stage, see what lighting is to be used, and choose your gown accordingly. As one always travels with several evening dresses it is possible to find one whose color is not killed or harmed by a chattering dissonance from behind. Also in most halls a word or two to the electrician in advance will solve a lighting problem which an hour or two later may make or mar the picture.

"Practically that is how I plan and choose my costumes for concerts. But there is a final and rather personal point. Just before coming to my final decision, I turn and ask my husband's advice. As a man and as an artist his opinion is not technical but instinctive. His reaction is often better than hours of thought on my part. A man does not usually know precisely what is wrong in so many sartorial terms but he just naturally reacts to a woman appropriately and beautifully dressed!"

Bartlett and Robertson will appear Thursday evening, 8:30, at Junior High auditorium as first in a series of Community Concert programs.

Members of the Women's Auxiliary, circle four, of the First Presbyterian church will meet this evening at 8 o'clock. This meeting will be held rather than the Thursday evening meeting.

The Rev. Robert Boshen, church minister, will be guest speaker on the subject, "Religious Art." The meeting will be held in the West room of the church and all circle members and members who are interested in membership are invited to attend.

We, the Women

By RUTH MILLETT
A few months ago a man and his wife opened up a new little neighborhood grocery in our town—and I don't believe they know there is a war on.

Why, when you ask for something they don't have they don't say triumphantly, "we haven't had any of that in months." No—Believe it or not they say, "I'm sorry but we haven't been able to get any of that. We keep trying, though." And they actually sound as though they ARE sorry to have to disappoint a customer.

And they don't hide their bananas behind the counter for pet customers. They put them out in the open and sell any customer all he wants until they are gone.

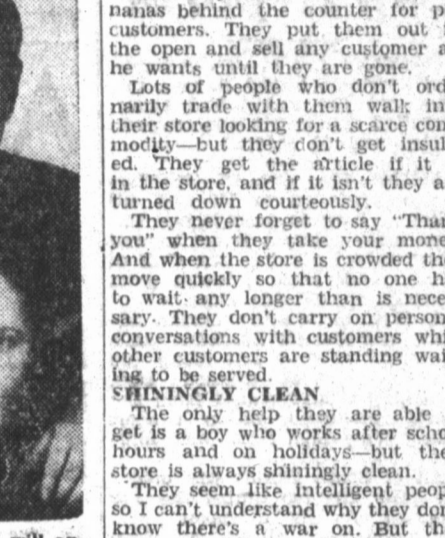

Lots of people who don't ordinarily trade with them walk into their store looking for a scarce commodity—but they don't get insulted. They get the article if it is in the store, and if it isn't they are turned down courteously.

They never forget to say "Thank you" when they take your money. And when the store is crowded they move quickly so that no one has to wait any longer than is necessary. They don't have any personal conversations with customers while other customers are standing waiting to be served.

SHININGLY CLEAN
The only help they are able to get is a boy who works after school hours and on holidays—but their store is always shiningly clean.

They seem like intelligent people so I can't understand why they don't know there's a war on. But they must not because they never remind a customer that there is.

It's surprising what good service you get when the people who serve you don't know about the war. Why, you're actually treated like a customer—instead of like a nuisance.

Women's Political Club Holds Meeting

Communism and its threat to the nation were discussed at a meeting Monday of the women's Dewey-

Bricker club here. Mrs. Carl Wright was the principal speaker on the subject at the district court room. Mrs. H. H. Hahn conducted the meeting. Mrs. Harold Weidner talked on the opportunities now open to the club here. Mrs. J. C. Mote discussed the part John Bricker, running mate with

Dewey, would play in event the office of the presidency should be vacated at any time during a possible GOP administration. Mrs. Wright, discussing the OIO political action committee in relation to communism, posed the question: Why do the communists not have a candidate this year since heretofore they have had their own? She suggested that perhaps they were depending on the reelection of the democratic candidates for the realization of their aims in this country. She charged the political action committee, posing as an educational instrument, was seeking directly the reelection of Roosevelt to the White House. It requires a temperature of 1775 degrees Centigrade to melt platinum. The longest railroad bridge in the world is the 12-mile trestle over the Great Salt Lake, Utah.

William Keys at State Capitol

By WILLIAM E. KEYS
AUSTIN, Oct. 17.—Largess of Texas citizens has put an unusual touch upon the lives of some of the state's wards.

R. H. Wheeler of Houston is the newest addition to this category of donors. He presented the state board of control $800 in cash and bonds to buy school supplies for children of the Waco state home for dependent and neglected children.

Wheeler stipulated that some of the money be used to buy ice cream and watermelons for the children. These are items that the state provides occasionally but not often and control board members were high in their praise of Wheeler.

Fifteen West Texas ranchmen recently put up prize awards of $500 for winners in a stock fair whose only competitors were boys and girls of the state.

The project began last summer and continues as time permits. Careful indexing of the aged records will be of assistance to historians and lawyers.

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz
As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II.

As the creator of the Reichswehr, and consequently of the Wehrmacht, General von Seeckt put it, "We know how to make the best of the situation." In the early 1920's ranking German officers admitted that they had evolved a perfect system of training men for two years and then sending them out to other parts of the country to drill recruits.

With open rearmament, with the German army constantly enlarging and training its personnel, and backed by the full industrial might of the nation, Hitler took three bold steps. He invaded the Rhineland, he proclaimed conscription, he announced through Göring the creation of a superlatively air force.

Secretly, by devious methods, German soldiers reached Spain, Ambassador von Stohrer, General von Faupel, the whole considerable body of Germans in Spain, reinforced by all the young men who could, under some pretext, claim Spanish or South American citizenship, prepared the big rehearsal of the German army.

The weapons were good. The men and the reinforcements which followed the first groups got battle training. The officers' tactics were found satisfactory, although some of the new ones had still to be kept secret.

Germany was ready for war. But Germany didn't want war; she was "enforced" by her enemies, who "forced" war upon her.

Nobody who has seen German officials and German businessmen work overtime, for very little money, will insult his own intelligence or their industry by assuming that they had no plan.

During the 1920's we saw huge buses on German city streets, with six and eight-wheel chassis. The authorities assured us that they had no military significance.

They were the unknown soldiers of bureaucracy, humble men, yet dangerous enough. For they have worked for the German secret general staff to bring about World War II and to win it.

Sergeant's Hobby Is Keeping Fingerprints

If you are a friend of S/Sgt. Chauncey T. James, fingerprint expert assigned to the provost marshal's office at Pampa army air field, and he takes your fingerprints to be filed away among the hundreds of prints in his collection, your loops and whorls will be associating with those of a multitude of world-famous people.

S/Sgt. James, who in civilian life was a fingerprint expert employed by the Washington (D.C.) detective agency and by the department of commerce for five years, makes a hobby of collecting fingerprints of famous people when he prints a notable personage a gleam comes into his eye and he makes an extra set for himself.

"It's safe to say," Sgt. James says, "that I have prints of at least 500 famous people in my collection of over 1,000."

Prints in James' collection include criminals, statesmen, congressmen, detectives, actors and actresses—in fact anybody with a claim to fame or notoriety.

Prints in James' collection include Roosevelt, Charles A. Lindbergh, Secretary of Commerce Roper, Mickey McGonigal (a notorious Washington gambler), Hugh Johnson, Beatrice Lillie, Guy Kibben, Lew Cozzello, Senator George of Georgia, Hiram Johnson, and Al Smith.

James originally got the idea to collect prints from an old policeman in Washington who collected prints of famous personages. He was so interested the policeman gave the youth his small collection.

From there on the sergeant leaped at every opportunity to add to his collection.

Sgt. James first began learning the intricacies of fingerprints as a boy, when he received a gift of a child's fingerprint outfit.

Now he fingerprints civilians for passes and enlisted men applying for officer candidate school.

Unexpected visitors can be expected in wartime. Sons bring home their wives. Soldiers on furlough drop in without notice. New neighbors come to call.

With wartime shortages, a simple but hearty welcome is best. It's what you share in friendliness, not what you have, that counts.

Have a "Coke" makes new and old friends feel at home with you and yours.

Clovis Wildcats Will Have Some Weight over Harvesters

New Mexico 11 Plays on Local Field Friday

Resuming their grid season after a two-week lull between games, the Harvesters will meet the tough and hard-hitting Clovis, New Mexico, Wildcats in Harvesters Park Friday night at 8.

Invading Pampa with 31 men that outweigh the Harvesters many pounds, the Wildcats will expect an easy victory, but such is not the plan of Coach Otis Coffey who is versing his men in about every conceivable play used on the gridiron.

The game Friday night will be the last of the non-conference games for Pampa. They meet the Brownfield squad in their first conference game a week from this coming Friday in Brownfield, and they are not playing marbles with their future opponents, because all games to come mean either success or defeat as far as district playoffs and the state championship are concerned.

The Wildcats have won two of their three games thus far in the 1944 season and have been playing to spectators numbering over 4,000 in all of their games. They again will play before that number for fans and scouts say the game is on the same type as the Harvester-Cardinal tilt that drew broadsides from every source including the sports scribes of Oklahoma City who contend the Cardinals were playing under cover and saving their reserves for their clash with Norman the week following. Whether or not Oklahoma City was playing under cover is something else, for they trotted out the field only to be held to a 7-0 victory over the obstinate Harvesters. They pulled the cover off the week following and Norman defeated them thereby spoiling their chances at the state championship. Pampa must match wits with hard teams from here out. Amarillo lies just around the corner and already the Harvesters are beginning to scheme themselves in the tactics employed on the Amarillo gridiron last Friday night when the Golden Sandies defeated the Norman Tigers by a 45 to 27 score. Fans who saw the clash saw a general battle royal between the two elevens with Norman's star player, Remy sustaining a broken leg.

The Harvesters have split three games thus far, losing two and winning two, but even with this record, which means little as far as the conference tilts are concerned, they have played good football with an ever increasing attendance in the stands.

The Wildcats have tactics of their own and are termed one of the best ball clubs in the state of New Mexico. They have the ability to shift from a short punt into a double wing formation, run from a punting position putting a man in motion on a shift from double wing putting a quarterback out wide and forming a single wing with a flanker attack.

These formations are especially adaptable to fine passing attacks and is the same formation employed by TCU who is coached by "Dutch" Meyer.

Officials of the game Friday night will be the same that officiated over the clash between the Quench Indians when the Harvesters rolled up a score of 47 to 0 over the Indians.

As has been the custom in the past there will be an advance sale of tickets in all Pampa drug stores prior to the game. This procedure has been inaugurated as a means of eliminating the congestion at the ticket booths on the field before game time.

Johnny Roesch Has Record for Other Men To Shoot At

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 18.—(P)—He has only two more games before the navy transfers him from the UCLA campus, but Johnny Roesch, the Bruins' 160-pound halfback sensation from nearby Beverly Hills high school, has compiled a yard-gaining and scoring mark for everybody to shoot at.

Roesch has played only one-fourth of the time in UCLA's four games, but he has registered 631 yards for an average of 10 yards a minute.

His other accomplishments include: Catching six passes for 135 yards. Scoring seven of UCLA's 10 touchdowns, two on passes, three on rushes, one on a punt return and the other on a pass interception.

Returning three punts for 122 yards.

Returning two kickoffs for 47 yards.

Running 56 yards for a touchdown after a lateral from quarterback Bob Waterfield after Waterfield had intercepted a pass.

Roesch has played altogether 59 1/2 minutes.

He performs against St. Mary's pre-flight here Saturday and closes with the Alameda coast guard game the following week.

Hank Walker Is Voted Fullback Of Week in Poll

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(P)—Virginia's Hank Walker, fullback turned end, won honors today as the outstanding football lineman of the week in the third weekly Associated Press poll of the season. He joins Roger Harding, California center, and End Jack Russell of Randolph Field ranked first in the previous polls.

Because of Walker's performance Virginia scored a major upset by holding the highly touted North Carolina pre-flighters to a 13-13 deadlock. Walker, a 180-pounder from Griffin, Ga., is a Navy trainee who played the 1943 season with South Carolina.

"Walker played one of the prettiest offensive games I have ever seen," asserted Coach Frank Murray of Virginia. "He was the major factor in our holding preflight to 92 yards rushing. He is qualified to play any position. He can pass, kick and run. I used him at fullback until I needed someone to fill a gap at end."

Two other wingmen, 18-year-old Huber Bechtel of Texas, and 19-year-old John Johnson of the Alameda (Calif.) Coast Guard, were singled out for praise by their coaches. Bechtel sneared so many Oklahoma plays the boys in the pressbox called him the fifth man in the Sooners' backfield. Johnson, a San Francisco lad playing in his first big time game, helped Alameda tie favored March Field, 20-20, by catching two forward passes for touchdowns.

Clarence Esser of Wisconsin, Tom Kane of Tulane, Vic Schiech of Iowa Seaboard, and Jim Turner, College of Pacific, impressed at tackle while H. J. Nichols of Rice, Bob Doherty of Tennessee, Bill Hatcher of California and Jack Frauer of Iowa State stood out at guard.

Tex Warrington of Auburn, Felto Prewitt of Tulsa and Joe Winkler of Purdue drew the most praise at center.

Zivic Is Just Wanting Shot At 'That Guy'

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
DALLAS, Oct. 18.—(P)—Corp. Fritz Zivic, the man from Pittsburgh with the swarthy nose, is fighting ring opponents and old age in the Southwest, waiting with the patience of a tethered terrier for more chance at "that guy" and the welterweight title.

Zivic never mentions titleholder Freddy Cochrane by name, alluding always to the navy's chief petty officer as "that guy" with an uncomplimentary emphasis on the "that."

"That guy," he says, "hidn' behind the navy's skirts."

Fritz lost his title to Cochrane in 1941 and then the latter joined the navy, a move which Zivic refers to as "dunked into the navy." The title was frozen, and although Fritz met the champion in September, 1942, and decided him, the crown was not at stake.

Now 31 and a boxing instructor at Camp Normoyle, San Antonio, the corporal is keeping in shape by taking on such ring material as he finds in this part of the country. Tonight he meets Pat Sain of Philadelphia on the main event of a fight card here.

Mere mention of "that guy's" name throws Zivic into a fighting stance. His big fists double and he cries smoke and his battered nose (which he claims got that way because he pressed it against store windows in his youth, looking at things he couldn't buy) takes on added belligerence.

"That guy," he fumes, "will get licked when I see him again. I'll fight him on the streets or in the ring. I'll fight him if I have a beard down to my belt. I'll fight him for nothing—I'll even pay my own expenses."

"Meet him one day—run into him accidental like—and I'll let 'em have it—smack, smack." Gather round, M.P.'s. I'll say, and watch this guy take a beating. I'll fight him for money, marbles, chalk or an old gooseberry. That guy—hidn' my title under the navy!"

Production on the home front has just barely reached a point where we can harbor hopes, and it certainly cannot be said that this is sufficient. — Jap Premier Kuniaki Koiso.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(P)—From Feline in the Pacific, T/Sgt. Billy Goodrich, former Brooklyn sports writer, sends these words: "The results of the World Series just came in and there were more Marines rooting for the Browns than guys swearing at the plight of the Dodgers. That seems incredible, but it is the truth. One Marine, a terrific Brownie roter, took things so hard that after the Cardinals won the second game he said: 'Why? I'm going to murder every Brownie personally.' That sounds like Dodger talk, but honestly this lad is the worst baseball roter I have ever seen. And could he be with the Japs at the back door?"

Juan Zurita Wins Lightweight Bout

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 18.—(P)—Juan Zurita, N.B.A. lightweight champion, landed his way to a 12-11 victory over Aldo Spaldt, European lightweight champion, in the fourth round of the main event of a fight card here.

Iowa Holds Straight Parly Ticket All Way

(P) Newsfeatures DES MOINES—Gov. Bourke B. Hickenlooper of Cedar Rapids and Sen. Guy M. Gillette of Cherokee are campaigning for an Iowa senatorship and the chief issue to date is strictly one of basic politics.

Hickenlooper leads the Republican ticket to complete victory. It will give Iowa a 100 per cent GOP delegation in congress, as she had for many years before the Democrats went in with Roosevelt 12 years ago.

Gillette is the only Iowa Democrat left in either house of Congress. The other Hawkeye senator Republican George A. Wilson, has four more years to serve in his first term.

Hickenlooper attained attention by his interest in farm problems. Since becoming governor two years ago, he has traveled widely, expanding his acquaintance with political leaders.

Gillette, white haired, has been a leading figure in the synthetic rubber and grain alcohol programs. The administration, which tried to purge him six years ago, called him "Dear Guy" last spring.

Gillette responded at the last minute to a draft by party leaders after having contended for six years that he would not be a candidate again.

Hickenlooper entered state politics ten years ago, serving four years as representative and four as lieutenant governor before being elected governor. Gillette was elected a representative in 1932 and served in the House until elected senator in 1936.

COFFEYVILLE, Kansas.—(P)—Marine Sgt. Clarence Muller dropped into a movie in which the news reel shows of the battle of Saipan. The picture showed a marine sergeant busily firing his gun. It was Sgt. Clarence Muller.

There it stands, much like Bloom's complaint to the chief justice of the United States about references to "federal courts." Student Bloom said there is no such thing as a federal court. If there was, he wrote, this would be a federation instead of a republic and the preamble would have started out, "We the states" instead of "We the people."

The national observatory sent a message to the presidential palace by army messenger, reporting the highest wind velocity in Havana to be 110 miles an hour. The 1,500-ton Cuban navy transport Columbia broke her mooring in Havana bay and was driven around. No one was aboard the ship. At 5 a. m. wind velocity in the city reached 60 miles an hour, ripping down telegraph and telephone wires. The two principal radio chains broadcasting from Havana left the air early in the morning due to power failures. But several stations continued operating. Communications with the western end of the island were cut last night.

Answer to Previous Puzzle

BOTH PARTIES

(Continued From Page One) next Saturday night, indicated to his Tuesday news conference that he would talk about people who he said are trying to stir up dissension over relatively minor details of the proposed world peace organization rather than keeping the grand objective in view. Other political front developments: Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, E-wey's running mate, said in a San Diego speech that the new deal "is not a people's government. The power it exercises has already proved itself shakier for the liberties of people. That is why the new deal is reactionary—not liberal." Senator Truman, running for vice president with Mr. Roosevelt, declared in San Francisco that Dewey had distorted the findings of the Truman senate war investigating committee and thereby practiced "political chicanery" unworthy of a man "running for the highest office in the land." Democratic Chairman Hannegan said in a news conference statement at New York that "Governor Dewey's brain trust apparently has no more ideas" and therefore Dewey in his St. Louis speech Monday night "repeated his fabrications on what he calls the 'Roosevelt depression' and the demobilization program of the army." Republican Chairman Brownell, commenting on yesterday's disclosure that Mr. Roosevelt will give a ball park speech in Philadelphia Oct. 27, said that "The jitter in the democratic high command seem to have reached up to the White House." In Louisiana's sixth congressional district, Rep. James H. Morrison was re-nominated by about 3,000 votes over his second primary opponent, State Senator H. Alva Brunfield of Baton Rouge, on the basis of nearly complete unofficial returns.

Regulations on House Building Is Relaxed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 18.—(AP)—Restrictions were relaxed yesterday to permit construction of houses approximating prewar standards. The action, announced jointly by the War Production board and the National Housing agency, "will permit builders to make use of materials and equipment as they become available." Restrictions on total floor area permitted in a dwelling unit were removed, but the maximum board-foot allowance of dimension lumber per square foot of floor area was retained. Another relaxation eliminates a requirement that in certain areas exterior walls be of masonry, clay, or concrete products. Houses now can be built to conform to minimum construction requirements of the Federal Housing administration. Any materials that can be obtained without a priority rating may be used. Among other relaxations was the removal of: 1. The limitation on the number of electric outlets. 2. Restrictions on the size of hot water storage tanks. 3. The requirement that bathrooms and kitchen be back-to-back. Retained are general provisions requiring conservation of lumber and other materials.

Ah a neat knack had Ivan, that hushed back-seat drivin'

Driving that's easy on passengers and cars is one far-reaching good outcome of War!

Handling the wheel and pedals like a professional became a wartime necessity. It favored the car—and quit scaring the rear-seat riders. Now it's a great point of pride. Yet an even more envied proof of fine car-sense is to own an engine that isn't showing its age. That demands sparing your engine from acids; from ferociously corrosive acids inside. You can do it by having your engine OIL-PLATED. All you need is a change to Conoco Nth motor oil...oil that OIL-PLATES.

In the extra-limited seasonal driving that's now the rule, your engine "boards" a surplus of acids. Every explosion adds to these acids. You don't drive enough for engine heat to eject them safely. But they won't go biting right through OIL-PLATING! This highly corrosion-resistant surfacing is attached all over your engine's fine inner finish as if by magnetism—an effect you must credit to costly pioneer research, responsible for the special ingredient in popular-priced Conoco Nth oil, patented.

You can't apply keener intelligence to the car that must last you, than to equip it with an OIL-PLATED engine—simply by changing to Conoco Nth oil for Winter. Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station knows your correct grade. Conoco Continental Oil Company

Postwar China Will Need Many Products

BOSTON, Oct. 18.—(AP)—As soon as the war is over, China will need to import a tremendous quantity and variety of American products, Dr. H. H. Kung, China's minister of finance, declared yesterday. "Our reason for this is the obvious fact that China has to rebuild what has been destroyed or taken away by the enemy," Dr. Kung asserted in a speech prepared for the Boston conference on distribution. In railroad equipment alone, Dr. Kung said, China will have to purchase about $100,000,000 worth. Another reason for the need of increased imports by China, the speaker declared, is her program of industrialization. "Industrialization is now one of the cardinal policies of the Chinese government," he said. "The transportation facilities become available, China will have to import an increasingly large amount of capital goods, and other facilities essential to her industrialization. "The defeat of Japan would mean the elimination of the country as an important trading nation," he asserted. "A vacuum would therefore be created in the world markets, especially in the south sea islands, which are now being supplied before the war. With her abundant labor China will be in an excellent position to fill this vacuum left by Japan's exit. It is for this reason that we should add additional means to pay for her imports," he added.

(Continued From Page One) ing the war years" and for "planning progressively for a greater university." Wallace in a speech during which he frequently asked "I right?" or "Are you back of me in this?" told the students that "restriction of academic freedom" and the "taking from us our right to have a part in the building of a great institution" were his chief complaints against the regents. Each time he put the question, he was answered with a howl of approval. "The faculty purge must stop," he said. "To weaken the faculty is to weaken the war years" and "the validity of our degrees." The students also voted to circulate a petition to be sent to the regents, asking that the president, calling for a solution of the university's problems "without loss of academic freedom and efficient administration." The 15-minute faculty meeting was called, said Chairman M. R. Gutsch, upon petition of 21 members. He explained to reporters who sought to attend the session that the faculty rules provide that no one but faculty members attend, and that several members of the body had requested in advance of the session
