Reds Launch New Drive On Prussia

Two-Way Squeeze On Nazis Apparent

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press War Editor

The Germans reported a crushing Red army offensive against East Prussia today, aimed at "a grand scale breakthrough at all costs," and in the west Allies smashed the Nazis back toward Venlo on the Maas river in Holland in what may be a preliminary to a great drive designed to force a final decision.

There was some possibility that a grand Allied strategy to smash at the Germans simultaneously from the east and west was unfolding, as Berlin admitted evacuation of Eydtkuhnen, East Prussian border town 37 miles east of the rail center of Insterburg.

The Germans said most of the Russian Baltic forces were thrown into the rising battle. Yesterday Berlin admitted the East Prussian border had been reached at Schirwind.

British staff officer said the Allies in the west were building up force a decision in ten weeks. Driving to clear Antwerp, which would supply the advanced gift committee's drive to raise its portion of the $21,000 goal for five local social agencies participating in the fund.

Hughes said today that his committee will begin rolling tomorrow when R. G. Hughes and his co-workers launch the advanced gift committee's drive to raise its portion of the $21,000 goal for five local social agencies participating in the fund.

"These are busy times," Hughes said, "and we hope workers will not be forced to wait to get the contributions. Everybody knows that a worthy cause this is and it should not be necessary to sell the idea to prospective donors."

J. W. Garman and E. J. Dunigan, general co-chairman of the campaign, pointed out this forenoon all money raised in the Pampa campaign will be spent in Pampa and that of all the $21,000 to be raised only $475 is set aside for expenses of administering the fund.

The participating agencies are the HI-Y club, boy scouts, Girl scouts, Salvation Army, and the American Legion welfare and civic center for the rehabilitation of returning war veterans.

With the advanced gift getting under way tomorrow, fund officials also stated that the individual solicitation will start Monday morning.

AMONG LIFE'S VAGARIES:

Professor of Economics Finds GI's Shoot Craps!

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(P)—The size of stakes in army crap games became an economic issue today, as if it already weren't. Spang in the middle of a scholarly discussion of Allied military currency used by our army in Italy, Economists Donald L. Kemmerer and T. Eugene Beattie observed that the soldiers customarily are handed their pay in the biggest bills available "and incidentally stakes for crap games are kept high."

"To keep transportation costs to a minimum our soldiers are generally paid in the largest denominations possible," the economists stated, "and a folded distributed by the economists' national committee on monetary policy.

Dewey Says FDR Fails Utterly To Keep Peace

By The Associated Press
Campaigning in America's first wartime election in 80 years struck hard today on winning and keeping the peace, with republicans and democrats sharply at odds on which man could best run the job.

And more is yet to come—in a Saturday night speech by President Roosevelt at New York, where his policies in diplomacy were assailed last night by Governor Dewey as resulting in American soldiers "killing in blood."

"I am a x x convinced," Dewey said in a broadcast from the New York Herald Tribune forum, "that to the extent that we leave our international relations to the personal secret diplomacy of the President, our efforts to secure a lasting peace will fail."

Germans have been afflicted "into fanatical resistance" and are "fighting with the frenzy of despair," he said, because of "our failure to have ready an intelligent program for dealing with invaded Germany."

Indicating vigorously the administration's handling of foreign affairs, the republican presidential nominee said that it would be a "great disaster" if "a few individual rulers should in secret conferences try to shape the future peace of the world."

"We must make certain that our participation in (this) world organization is not subjected to reservations that would nullify the power of that organization to maintain peace and to halt future aggression. The end to halt future aggression. The end to halt future aggression."

Turkey May Not Be On Holiday Table

DALLAS, Oct. 19.—(P)—Come Thanksgiving, the piece de resistance on dinner tables of civilians probably will be something besides turkey.

All civilian purchases have been suspended until the armed services buy 66,000,000 pounds of turkey—two and one-half times as much as the poultry branch of the war food administration office of distribution said here that even though sales started July 11, only a half that amount has been obtained.

Unless the army gets the 60 million pounds within two weeks, the situation will begin to affect the civilian supply for Thanksgiving, he said.

HEARTENING NEWS

Most of the men shown above are either dead or now in Jap prison camps. They were members of the heroic Philippine army, which fought the bloody battle of northern Luzon, Bataan and Corregidor, pictured parading in Manila before the Japs came. If today's Tokyo announcement is correct, Americans and Filipinos have gone back to the islands, seeking revenge upon the invader.

Texas GOP Refuses To Join Regulars

By The Associated Press
There will be no coalition of republicans and anti-Roosevelt democrats in the presidential race in Texas.

This became clear today as republicans announced they had flatly turned down such a proposition from the regulars.

What the regulars will do next remained a mystery today, but pro-Roosevelt democrats advertised their plans—a major vote-gathering rally at Wichita Falls featuring probably the largest gathering of front-rank politicians yet to meet in the current campaign in Texas.

A prepared statement by R. B. Cramer of Brownsville, republican national committeeman from Texas, was issued by the Dewey-Bricker committee in Dallas. It said "it is now too late for a mixed ticket."

Not only did the republican party dash all anti-Roosevelt party hopes of GOP backing, but the Cramer statement said:

"The method by which the Texas regulars nominated their electors is legally questionable. We think they are treading on thin ice."

Merchants Will Observe Holiday On November 30

Thanksgiving will be observed on the last Thursday of November, November 30, it was decided at a meeting of the Pampa trade committee of the Pampa chamber of commerce yesterday afternoon at the city hall.

The meeting was presided over by Cecil Mvat, chairman of the committee, who called the session at the request of local school authorities.

At the opening of the meeting Coach Olix Coffey of the high school explained that the football schedule called for a game here at Pampa on Thursday, November 30, with Plainview, but that Plainview school authorities were eager to have the game on November 23. He stated that local authorities would like to cooperate with Plainview but they would insist on playing the city hall.

Atlantic Storm Threatens Coast Line of Florida

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 19.—(P)—The Atlantic coastline from Daytona beach to Cape Hatteras, N. C., was threatened today by a severe tropical hurricane that struck the Florida west coast before dawn and headed rapidly across the state toward Jacksonville.

The weather bureau reported at 10 a. m. that hurricane warnings had been hoisted from Daytona to Cape Hatteras in anticipation of winds of 60 to 80 miles an hour velocity.

The blow was moving across state at a rate of 18 to 20 miles an hour and will pass into the Atlantic near and C. M. Evans, chief of the dairy and poultry branch of the war food administration office of distribution said here that even though sales started July 11, only a half that amount has been obtained.

Unless the army gets the 60 million pounds within two weeks, the situation will begin to affect the civilian supply for Thanksgiving, he said.

"Spring rains retarded growth of turkeys, Evans said, and added that in addition, many turkey raisers have been slow to offer their birds for sale."

Philippines Are Invaded, Say Japs

By LEONARD MILLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

The long-promised American invasion of the Philippines is under way, Tokyo radio reported today.

"Reinvasion of the Philippines" began Tuesday, Domei news agency said, with forces of three American planes.

Tuesday was exactly two years and six months after Gen. Douglas MacArthur said, in Australia, "I came through and I shall return."

Domei said the invasion was supported by combined sea forces of MacArthur and Adm. William F. Halsey's third fleet and land-based aircraft from China, Palau and Morota.

Powerful naval Task Forces and transports "invaded" Leyte gulf on the eastern side of the central Philippines, Tuesday (Manila time) and for two days have been shelling and bombing defense establishments, said an imperial communiqué heard by the federal communications commission.

"Part of the enemy forces seem to have landed on Suluan island" at the mouth of the Gulf, an earlier Domei news agency broadcast reported.

Simultaneously Manila radio announced 270 carrierborne planes, sweeping over Luzon island in four waves, bombed Manila and Clark field's big air installations this morning.

Japanese reports that Gen. Douglas MacArthur's forces have returned to the Philippines, overshadowed allied capture of two strategic Nipponese bases and a reported three-day British air and naval bombardment of the Binarua islands in the Indian ocean on Adm. Lord Louis Mountbatten's route to Singapore.

British troops captured Tiddim, southwest Burma springboard for Japan's ill-fated invasion of India last March.

U. S. amphibious forces captured Ngulu atoll in the western Caroline Islands.

'Tis Dark, Dark Day for the Jap

By The Associated Press
Japanese radio commentators faced a task today of reconceiving today's reported invasion of the Philippines by General MacArthur's forces and a series of claims concerning a "great naval victory" near Formosa which they were preparing to celebrate October 20.

Radio Tokyo asserted Monday that scores of American ships had been knocked out by Japanese naval and air forces which had delayed the impending invasion of the Philippines by at least two months.

The invasion, the high command said today, started just one day later.

THEY FURNISH BACKING

Admiral Wm. F. Halsey, Jr., USN, left, commander of the dauntless Third Fleet, is shown welcoming Vice-Admiral Marc A. Mitscher, USN, commander of the Third Fleet's carrier force, aboard his flagship just prior to the mighty pounding begun 10 days ago which has culminated in the purported landing in the Philippines. (See story above.)

AN APPEAL TO CIVIC GENEROSITY: Pampa Community Chest Goal Is $21,000; Drive Opens Tomorrow

Pampa's Community Chest campaign for 1944 gets under way in earnest tomorrow morning when the advanced gift drive opens.

The goal is nearly one-half less than the combined community chest and war fund total was last year. This year's figure is $21,000.

It should be made clear to donors that all of the money contributed to the community chest remains in Pampa for general family welfare, character development, youth direction, child care and protection, health, hospitalization, and aid to needy returning war veterans.

It is of consequence to every Pampa resident that this year's goal of $21,000 be reached and exceeded if possible. The attainment of the goal is important not merely because upon it depends the fate of the community fund in the community. It is important not just for the reason that the money raised is vitally essential to the city's social service needs through 1945.

It is important as a civic stimulus, as a matter of civic pride.

Since nearly 25 per cent of it will be used for the aid of returning soldiers who need immediate assistance on the way to rehabilitation, the money to be raised this year becomes still more important.

Since a share of the fund is to be used to help Pampa's boys and girls get onto the right paths leading to good citizenship, need there be any further argument for it?

The question sometimes is put forth, why the need of a community chest when employment is at an all-time high and a so-called boom is on?

Some agencies now do have less work to do. But, prosperity does not feed the crippled or the sick. It does not cure old age. The need for social service exists even today as it always has existed in good times or bad.

At a time when other cities of Texas and the United States are reporting success in similar campaigns, Pampa too wants to say it is meeting its social responsibilities.

It is important that this goal be reached because a successful community fund drive is evidence of a united city.

And just a word about the campaign workers. There are from 50 to 100 of them, men and women who are contributing both finances and their time to the campaign. They give their time free and pay their own expenses. And while some of those solicited may feel they are unable to give or have their own reasons for not giving, all can give the workers a friendly reception and a courteous hearing.

There can be only one answer. Pampans must give to the community fund. Many will give more because they are better able to give than before.

But let us all give generously—not only because we should; but because we want to.

Girl Was Afraid To Be Alone in House

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 19.—(P)—A few hours before she was raped and slain, Gertrude Bauerdorf, wealthy companion Hollywood critic hostess to "come home with me as I'm afraid to be alone in the house tonight."

Sheriff's Inspector William J. Pennington said yesterday that this information had come from the other hostess, June Ziegler. He expressed belief that the 20-year-old daughter of George Bauerdorf, wealthy oil man, may have been forced by someone to make a date and that she was apprehensive at the prospect of keeping it.

Sugar Situation Is Still Tight

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Sugar is tight. Some government officials say this situation should begin improving now. Others say they don't know how long it will prevail.

There are a number of factors involved in the shortage. By shortage is meant insufficient supplies of refined sugar to meet the demands.

The shortage is felt particularly in the Middle West. Here are some of the factors as outlined by the war food administration.

The fruit crop was larger than last year. There was extra heavy demand by housewives for sugar for canning.

There was a large production of milk last summer. More condensed milk was made. This called for more sugar.

A few months ago corn was short. A lot of sugar was used to replace corn sweeteners.

There was an over supply this year. A lot of sugar went into foreign markets for confectionary use.

Last fall's beet sugar crop was smaller than usual.

As the demand piled up the stocks of beet sugar which is refined into granulated sugar just like cane sugar went down until by Sept. 1 they had reached the lowest point since 1935.

While the demand for beet sugar mounted, the refineries had manpower trouble. This helped keep the supply below the demand.

At the same time the amount of sugar cane produced here and exported into this country in the first eight months of 1944 was greater than in 1943.

Because sugar beets were in shortage supply, more cane sugar had to be turned out.

Some mid-western areas which had depended upon beet sugar this fall had to turn to the east coast refineries for cane.

Committee Will Not Investigate 'Stalder Battle'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—The Senate campaign expenditures committee decided Wednesday that it was without authority to investigate the so-called "battle of the Stalder" involving affidavits between two naval officers and members of the AFL teamsters union following a political argument.

The Senate group, headed by Chairman Green (D-R), announced it was dropping the subject as none of its business. It has been making a preliminary inquiry during the last two weeks and had obtained affidavits from those reported to have been involved.

The fight occurred shortly after President Roosevelt completed his opening campaign speech to a dinner given by the teamsters at the Stalder hotel here.

"After full consideration," a statement issued said, "the committee voted not to institute a formal investigation or to hold public hearings or to investigate the matter further."

Green said the vote was four to one. Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) said he cast the dissenting vote "as a firm believer in open hearings and this being a public matter."

Green stated the committee itself would not make public the affidavits obtained during the preliminary inquiry adding that the information in the affidavits was "conflicting."

"It depends on which side you take whether to believe there is a violation of any law," Green said. "We were not deciding on the merits."

The naval officers claimed the affidavits occurred after teamsters leaving the dinner questioned them about their voting intentions.

Editors Must Guard Ideals, Says Gaylord

CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—Robert M. Gaylord, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, yesterday declared "in this day of double talk" when "all those talking about the enterprise are not for it that the nations newspaper editors must be the guardian of our ideals."

"The only cooperation wanted from the press is adherence to the truth and to the ideals which have made it great," Gaylord told the 3th annual meeting of the Inland Daily Press association.

The NAM president, in his prepared remarks to the editors, said that "people who talk out one side of their mouth to one group and out of the other to a different group are having a field day."

Asserting there was a "growing army of press agents in both government and industry," Gaylord said "one of the most subtle of the indirect attacks on freedom of the press

Leaves From A Correspondent's War Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

WITH THE AEF IN BELGIUM, Oct. 10 (Delayed)—A civilian near the German frontier cannot understand why the American army isn't as ruthless with the German populace as the nazis were with the citizens of adjoining countries when Hitler was in his heyday.

Typical is the Lardinois family in the little Belgian village of Aubele. Madame Joseph Lardinois, told us why she and her three children—Jean 24, Marie, 21, and Marie Jose, 20—will always hate the nazis.

Joseph Lardinois was a prosperous wholesale grocer in 1940 when the German army crashed across the frontier. He bundled the family into their car and started toward Brussels.

Beyond Liege the column of refugees was attacked by 40 nazi planes.

"They came down and strafed us, setting the car ahead and the car behind us on fire. My husband halted our car then and helped me and the children to a ditch where we stretched out to escape the flying bullets.

"Four times the planes came back and strafed the long line of screaming and frightened refugees who were huddled together like sheep because there was nothing else they could do. The third time they struck my husband with three bullets."

Madame Lardinois brought out a neatly pressed vest. Holes showed the path of the bullets.

"My husband, although both his legs were punctured, got to his feet and tried to help us back into the car when the planes left," Madame Lardinois continued. "We managed to get to the next town and tried to obtain medical aid but there were scores of wounded and it was six hours before a doctor treated him. But it was hopeless anyway. He was too badly wounded to live."

She paused.

"There were many terrible sights that day. Much as I grieve for my husband I feel sorer still for one young mother who tried to run to safety with her baby in her arms. One bullet struck her child in the head and scattered its brains all over her. I will never forget the sounds that that young woman made."

"There was nothing we could say. When we turned to go a little later Marie Jose looked at us gravely and said:

"You Americans are too easy with the Germans now. You really don't know them. You will live to regret your kindness."

Along the border they hold their hates.

Clark's Ghost Haunts Race

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo.—The political ghost of Bennett Champ Clark, (D) haunts Missouri's torrid battle for the Senate seat Clark will give up next January.

The veteran Clark, who frequently opposed President Roosevelt's measures, was narrowly defeated by an ardent New Dealer, Attorney General Roy McKeltrick, in a primary fight so bitter that politicians wonder if Clark's last-ditch Democratic supporters will go along with McKeltrick in November.

McKeltrick may need all their votes against Gov. Forrest C. Donnell, the Republican nominee.

With the Missouri Republicans coming the nearest in 16 years to matching the Democrats' primary vote total, signs point to a close battle in November.

A GOP victory would give this state its first Republican senator since 1934.

Donnell, a political newcomer in 1940, was the only Republican elected to state office in Missouri. When the Democrats contested his election, a ruling by McKeltrick to delay Donnell's inauguration was overruled by the Supreme court.

The lawyer-governor swamped six opponents in his senatorial primary, establishing himself as one of the party's best vote-getters in a decade.

McKeltrick, yet to lose in four campaigns, had CIO backing in the primary, which Clark blamed for his defeat. His platform criticizes "isolationism" and demands full collaboration with other nations to outlaw war.

Writ Certifies Use of Bonds

AUSTIN, Oct. 19.—The supreme court yesterday by granting of a writ of mandamus, ordered the Jefferson county board of county and district road bond indebtedness to approve and recognize Dryden ferry bridge bonds previously issued by Jefferson county as eligible to participate in the county and road district highway fund.

Bonds issued in connection with the construction of the famous Dryden ferry bridge on state highway 87 across the Neches river near Port Arthur, between Jefferson and Orange counties, were involved. Issuance of $750,000 in bonds was authorized for the bridge.

The question involved was whether the bonds in question, to the extent that the proceeds were used in construction of the bridge were eligible for payment under the various road bond assumption acts, the court said.

After reviewing the legislative road bond assumption acts under which funds were set aside for discharge of subsequently maturing bond obligations, the opinion by Chief Justice James P. Alexander said:

"Notwithstanding the fact the legislature had stated in the act of 1934 that the Dryden ferry bridge bonds not be eligible to participate in county and road district highway funds, the legislature could, at a subsequent session, in the absence of a constitutional inhibition, alter its policy."

"The bonds in question were issued by Jefferson county x x x for the purpose of constructing a bridge on one of the state's highways. Under the act of 1941, these bonds, to the amount of $701,745.67 actually used in construction of the bridge, became eligible to participate in said fund. However, by terms of the act, only those bonds which at the time of their payment were eligible to participate in said fund, may now be taken into consideration in the apportionment of the funds in question. Consequently, only such installments of the bonds which matured and were paid subsequent to the effective date of the 1941 bond assumption act are eligible for such purpose."

Two-Piano Music Will Be Presented Tonight at Junior High Auditorium

If you want to be reassured that romance has not gone out of art, that technique, "platform appeal," and high pressure salesmanship are not the only things that make for success, take a good look at that engaging pair, Ethel Bartlett and Rae Robertson, and find out how they came to play two-piano music.

True, they are married; and romance is supposed to stop when housekeeping begins. But they seem to have solved that, too. Both of them were wedded to their art before being wedded to each other. One has often heard of an artist, who has sacrificed his—or, more likely, her—career for matrimony. Here are two people who have "sacrificed" two careers for each other; and in so doing have gained fame.

But the great thing about this joint career is that it has resulted in a definite contribution to music. Two-piano music was played, to be sure, but to a large extent only the surface of the literature had been scratched. Much of what was played, moreover, was "transcription," while most of the real music for two keyboards was ignored.

Who had suspected, for instance, that there were two concertos for two pianos by Carl Philip Emanuel Bach, and one by his wayward brother, Wilhelm Friedemann Bach? Who would have thought that long before the great John Sebastian people like Bernardo Pasquini had written sonatas for two harpsichords; that Giles Farnaby, the Tudor madrigalist, had written some charming pieces for two virginals; and that Couperin had written some of his most graceful little musical trifles for two clavichords. The three double concertos of the great Bach and the two Mozart double concertos, together with the Bach E flat sonata and the Mozart D major sonata, form the backbone of the Robertson's repertoire; and it were but Bach and Mozart are by no means all the two-piano sonatas they play. There are two by Clementi, for instance, and those of Schubert for piano duo, not to mention the Schubert Fantasia in F minor.

Nineteenth century virtuososdom was obviously hostile to two-piano music, and the Romantic School, apart from Schubert (who wrote two large volumes of piano duets) furnishes comparatively little for the Robertson to play. Nevertheless there is the Schumann Andante and Variations, the Chopin Rondo and the Liszt Concerto Pathétique. Brahms, of course, wrote his wonderful Haydn variations originally for two pianos.

The twentieth century, however, is a treasure-house of music for two pianos. Two-piano music began to be revived towards the turn of the century. In the last decade Bartlett and Robertson themselves have been the greatest propagandists for modern two-piano works. They Bartok, Casella, Castelnuovo-Tedesco, Poulenc, Milhaud, Trillifere, Martinu . . . and the audiences love it.

But they have not only cultivated the existing literature; they have inspired additions to it. Arnold Bax has written five works including a sonata for them; Benjamin Britten a Concerto for two pianos and orchestra entitled "Scottish Ballad" and other pieces; Arthur Bliss, a Concerto; and William Walton, Lennox Berkeley, Hubert Foss and other British composers have dedicated smaller numbers to them, as has the Polish composer Alexander Tansman. American composers, too, have a large place in the Robertson's permanent repertoire, among them Mary Howe, Edward Burlingame Hill, Abram Chasins, Mischa Portnoff and Anis Fullehan.

The Robertson's music library, stacked high with two-piano and four-hand music, probably the most complete collection of its kind in existence, still stands in their London home in St. John's Wood. During the blitz the ceilings fell and the windows blew in but the library remained untouched, waiting to be used again.

Meanwhile the results of the intelligence, research and taste which built the library are apparent in the fascinating programs which Bartlett and Robertson present on tour—a delightful example is the program which they will present tonight at Junior high auditorium.

Public Warning!

BEWARE OF PIN-WORMS

War-time living conditions may be the cause of increased Pin-Worm infestation. Scientific reports in many communities show an increase in the incidence of infestation children and grown-ups to be victims of Pin-Worms—often without knowing what was wrong!

Watch out for the warning signs that may mean Pin-Worms in your child or yourself; the tormenting, embarrassing rectal itch, the uneasy stomach, bed-wetting, nervous depression, flabby appetite.

New Discovery Hailed By Doctors
After centuries of distress caused by Pin-Worms, a new and highly effective way to deal with this stubborn pest has recently been discovered. This scientific discovery, hailed by medical authorities, is a remarkable drug (gentian violet). It is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worm treatment developed by the laboratories of Dr. D. Jayne & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicines. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to destroy the creature.

So don't take chances with Pin-Worms. At the first warning sign, ask your druggist for P-W and follow the directions.

P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

Anti-Trust Law Indictments Are All Dismissed

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 19.—Federal anti-trust law indictments against 11 firms and 18 individuals, charged with agreeing on a division of territory in the making of small loans, have been dismissed, U. S. District Attorney W. R. Smith, Jr., said Wednesday.

Several of the firms and individuals also were under another indictment which charged conspiracy to fix interest rates in 23 southern, southwestern, and western states. Both indictments were returned June 6 after an investigation which began in Nov. 1943.

Smith said that in his opinion the second indictment would be "sufficient to test the propriety of the conduct alleged." He gave no reason for dismissing the cases against firms and individuals not under the second indictment.

Individuals and firms whose cases were dismissed and who are under a second indictment included ACME Finance Corporation, Nashville, Tenn.; General Audit and Supervision Company, Inc., Nashville; National Audit and Supervision Company, Atlanta, Ga.; Byron J. Harris, Nashville, Tenn.; Rufus Denton, King, Miami, Fla.; Paul Howard Leake, Atlanta; Irving Miller, Nashville; John Madison Ogden, Miami, Fla.; William H. Ogden, Selma, Ala.; Robert L. Ross, Atlanta; Cecil W. Boyer, Atlanta.

The indictments were returned on June 6 and culminated a nationwide investigation by the grand jury here, it began on November, 1943, and witnesses were called in from all parts of the country.

Man Says It's Political Move

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Roland W. Bush, farm credit administration examiner of Houston, Tex., Wednesday announced his resignation and charged in a statement that an examination made of an unnamed federal bank for co-operatives was being suspended "until after the November election for political reasons."

"I am resigning a $5,200 a year job so that this situation can be brought to public attention," Bush said. "The federal forbade me to reveal the facts while I was a civil service employee."

Bush directed his resignation to E. J. Fox, chief examiner, and I. W. Duggan, governor of the farm credit administration, with headquarters here, and also made public a letter signed by A. C. Utterback, FCA supervising examiner, charging Duggan with suppressing and falsifying his report on the bank, and that subsequently his report was buried.

W. J. Snow, acting FCA governor in the absence of Duggan, today said that no politics was involved in handling of the bank report and that the FCA had decided upon a re-examination of the bank, which now was in progress.

Slight Increase In Carloadings Reported

The Santa Fe system carloadings for week ending October 14, were 25,836 compared with 24,462 for same week in 1943. Cars received from connections totaled 17,096 compared with 14,839 for same week in 1943. Total cars moved were 42,932 compared with 38,800 for same week in 1943. Santa Fe handled total of 42,291 cars in the preceding week of this year.

BUENOS AIRES.—(AP)—Argentine banks must pay regular wage increases to employees under the terms of a new decree. The printing and distilling employees' minimum starting salary is 140 pesos monthly (about $35) and must reach 450 pesos ($120) after 25 years' service. Women employees get 10 per cent less.

HOW TO BE HAPPY THO' HOSPITALIZED

"Start patient off right, not by merely snatching his studs in the usual fashion, but by giving him a neatly printed receipt..."

"Give him a paper-wrapped bar of soap and, if his hands are big enough, add a picture postcard of the hospital to send his friends."

HAPPY BIRTHDAY TO YOU!

"The smart hospital dietitian can do her part by ascertaining the patient's birthday and sending him a nice cake..."

"Don't let him dwell on unhappy realities like ether and scalpels."

"... when the honeymoon is over, send him a gentle reminder that the bill is due."

Start patient off right, not by merely snatching his studs in the usual fashion, but by giving him a neatly printed receipt...

Sketches above illustrate some of the suggestions for keeping hospital patients happy, made by Paul Fleming of New Haven, Conn., at recent meeting of the American Hospital Association conference in Cleveland. Other ideas calculated to make the patient thank his lucky stars included "if he is the difficult sort, make a deal with his wife to have a little newspaper item about his appendectomy" and a mental diet of pamphlets describing the hospital's mission (let him know what he's getting and you dissipate the anti-stick).

High Plains in Need of Moisture

AUSTIN, Texas, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Weather conditions struck a balance in the week ended Oct. 16 which generally was satisfactory for showing crops, pastures, ranges and field operations.

There were a few exceptions to this condition, said the U. S. department of agriculture in its weekly report on Texas crops, including:

More moisture was needed for wheat pastures in a few counties in the High Plains, for pastures and ranges in some western counties and for plowing and seeding of small grains and fall cover crops in a number of eastern counties. Rain and heavy dews retarded harvesting and cut about the working day in other sections.

Cotton was ready for harvest in many northwestern and western counties. All areas were in need of pickers and the situation was described as particularly difficult in north central counties.

The late crop of grain sorghums in southern counties was progressing nicely with a little being harvested and the remainder nearing maturity.

Harvesting of corn, feeds and hay continued but there was some delay caused by the manpower demands of the cotton harvest.

Commercial vegetables made satisfactory progress. Snap beans, eggplant, peppers and squash were becoming available in increasing volume. Tomatoes were progressing rapidly and nearing maturity in some fields.

Transplanting of cabbage made good progress and seeding of other hardy vegetables was active.

Livestock were in good condition and winter range feeds were assured in most areas.

Pampan Plays Part in Troop Carrier Command

"Invasions Incorporated" could well be the name tacked on to the veteran Troop Carrier Group of the 12th Air Force to which Sergeant Robert E. Ragdsdale, of Pampa, is assigned. For during its 26 months overseas the organization, commanded by Colonel John Gerny, Harrison, Idaho, has participated in the invasions of North Africa, Sicily, Italy and Southern France, in addition to rendering distinguished service in the China-Burma-India theater of operations.

While not a member of the combat crews that fly the big twin engined C-47 transport planes of his group, Sgt. Ragdsdale in the performance of his duties as an orderly room clerk plays an important part in helping the troop carrier command carry out its important missions, which include the dropping of paratroopers, towing airborne troops, evacuating wounded, carrying personnel, ammunition and equipment.

Sgt. Ragdsdale is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Ragdsdale, of Pampa. He is the husband of Mrs. Audie Lena Ragdsdale of this city.

He is the wearer of the North African-European Theater Ribbon with one campaign star and the Good Conduct Medal.

Before joining the army air forces, Sgt. Ragdsdale worked for H. C. Wilson and Wilson Drug company, Pampa. He attended Pampa high school.

College Ruckus To Be Probed

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(AP)—The controversy between the board of regents of the University of Texas and its president, Homer P. Rainey, backed by the faculty, will be investigated by Ralph E. Himstead, secretary and managing executive of the American Association of University Professors.

Himstead said "relations apparently have deteriorated" to such a point that a clarification of policy is imminent, and that he planned to meet with the regents, in Houston October 27 to discuss a series of incidents, including the discharge in 1942 of three Texas U. college members.

Himstead, who represents an organization with a membership of 1,600 including about a fourth of all junior and senior college faculty members in the country, said he was interested only in seeing that "academic freedom" is maintained at the University of Texas.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up at night. Frequent or uneasy passages with starting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging headache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

GI's From Most of States Will Vote, But There Are Many Complications

By ED CREAGH
(P) Newfeatures Writer

Somehow or other, servicemen and women from all 48 states are going to vote for the next President, but the only smooth part of the process in some of the states is the paper the ballots are printed on.

Wrong addresses, schedule mixups and improperly marked ballots are forcing the hove of election officials from Pennsylvania to New Mexico.

At least three states have reported apparent tampering with the ballots which are mailed, sent by ships and deposited in many parts of the world.

Election officials in Wayne county, Michigan, complained to the department of state that military voters had opened and inspected some ballots. Attorney General Herbert J. Rushkin ruled that the ballots would be valid anyway.

Similar reports from Oklahoma brought a suggestion from republican state chairman C. R. Nixon that Congress investigate ballot packing, but no action has been taken. At least four county clerks in Indiana said ballots had been opened.

It wasn't censured but the tropical sun that opened G. I. ballots from New Hampshire. The state met the problem by using a waterproof glue on envelopes mailed to the South Pacific.

In Wyoming, under an act of the 1943 legislature, ballots were denied to servicemen of Japanese ancestry who had been brought into the state by the war relocation authority, and in South Carolina more than 15,000 ballot applications piled up, uncounted, in state offices.

South Carolina doesn't print a ballot, leaving the printing and distribution to the political parties.

Pennsylvania, receiving hundreds of ballots deficient in one way or another, let it up to the county election boards to decide which could be counted. State law provides for "liberal construction" in such matters.

County clerks in New Mexico are advertising in newspapers to find the precincts which should receive ballots addressed with careless vagueness. Ohio received a few federal soldier ballots but ruled them illegal under a new law which recognizes only the state absentee ballots.

Mississippi Secretary of State Walker Wood said he had "thousands of letters" from servicemen asking that parties be designated on the ballot, but couldn't comply because a state law dating back to reconstruction days forbids designation of parties.

Texas' servicemen using the federal ballot found themselves unable to vote the Texas regular ticket if they wanted to. The regulars, an offshoot of the Texas democrats, didn't find their presidential electors to vote for any particular person.

The federal ballot, however, listed presidential candidates and not electors.

Delegates Disapprove Rivers, Harbors Bill

AUSTIN, Oct. 19.—(AP)—Disapproval of the present form of the Omnibus Rivers and Harbors bill and Flood Control bill, now pending before Congress, was expressed here by delegates to the Southwest section of the American Water Works association convention, and a resolution unanimously adopted favoring amendments to these bills as drawn up at the recent water conservation conference in Chicago.

Resumes of these water bills were given by A. P. Mitchell, president of the Society of Professional Engineers, Corsicana, and J. E. Sturrock, attorney for the Texas Board of Water Engineers, Austin. The resolution was then read by Frank Ealowitz, water division, Houston and unanimously accepted by delegates from Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Texas.

The resolution held that the "Omnibus Rivers and Harbors bill (H.R. 3061) and the Omnibus Flood Control bill (H.R. 4465) contain in their present form various provisions inimical to the sovereign rights and interests of the States" and that "representatives from 29 States met recently in Chicago, where with the Senators Joseph C. Mahoney of Wyoming and Eugene D. Millikin of Colorado, they unanimously approved certain amendments which preserve correct distinction between the functions of the States and the United States."

It Took Matter Of Moments For Him To Become Navy Ace

By PHILIPS S. HEISLER
Distributed by the Associated Press

WITH A CARRIER TASK FORCE attacking Formosa, Oct. 12 — (By radio-delayed)—Ensign Arthur Moltenauer never had seen an enemy plane in the air before today, when he took off for a fighter sweep over Formosa.

When he returned to this carrier some two hours later, he was the United States navy's newest fighter pilot ace, with five Jap planes to his credit.

The 21-year-old pilot from Santa Barbara, Calif., saw his first enemy plane in the air when he was cutting in over the Formosa coast. He shot it down. He saw his second enemy plane ten seconds later and shot that one down too.

From then on it was a case of seeing his fourth, fourth and fifth Japanese planes and knocking them out of the plane-filled sky.

"They just kept flying in front of me and I just kept my finger on the gun button," Moltenauer told me in the ready room after the battle.

His fellow pilots weren't as modest concerning Moltenauer's achievements, however. As was the new ace. The Japanese pilots in the dog-fight were well-seasoned and put up a cagey fight, they said. This was only too evident from the fact that four of our pilots did not return.

More Than Prayer Is Needed, Says Minister

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 18 (AP)—Prayer and faith alone cannot solve the world's ills, Dr. Albert Edward declared.

"We cannot banish war by faith or save our beloved," Dr. Edward declared. "We cannot by prayer toss our responsibility back in the lap of God."

"If we do not want our women and children burned by bombs, our boys sent out to drop death on innocent people of other lands, we must shake off the shackles of political tradition, escape the spell of economic imperialism, turn a deaf ear to seductive columnists, who still preach the fatal doctrine of power politics, and organize our world for peace," Dr. Day admonished.

The Texas mission home and training school here will be dedicated in ceremonies tomorrow, signifying that the $100,000 institution has been freed of its indebtedness. Reading of appointments of ministers will be made Friday noon.

The famous Cullinan diamond weighed 3.025 carats before being cut.

Day of Pasadena, Calif., told 2000 delegates and visitors attending the 88th annual session of the southwest Texas conference of Methodist churches here yesterday. The Christian people must exert themselves toward bringing about a better world, he declared.

The Priceless Ingredient . . .

In the City of Bagdad, lived Hakeem, the Wise One, and many people went to him for counsel, which he gave freely to all, asking nothing in return. . . . There came to him a young man, who had spent much but got little, and said: "Tell me, Wise One, what shall I do to receive the most for that which I spend?" . . . Hakeem answered, "A thing that is bought or sold has no value unless it contains that which cannot be bought or sold. Look for the Priceless Ingredient." . . . "But, what is this Priceless Ingredient?" asked the young man. . . . Spoke then the Wise One: "My son, the Priceless Ingredient of every product in the market-place is the Honor and Integrity of him who makes it. Consider his name before you buy."

VACCINES ARE VITAL TO THE MEAT SUPPLY OF AMERICA

FRANKLIN BLACKLEG BACTERIN

FRANKLIN Provides Protection from the Destruction of Disease!

To avoid death losses is both profitable and patriotic. The war program calls for a big increase in meat production. To safeguard this vital food supply, every calf should be vaccinated. There's no more safe and simple way of providing this needed protection than a shot of FRANKLIN Concentrated Culture Blackleg Bacterin. Each dose of this powerfully potent product contains the major immunizing elements of more than 10 cc of whole culture bacterin. The famous FRANKLIN method of producing concentrated culture gives the stockman a high density of the antigenic properties in a convenient small 1 cc dose. The cost is but 10¢ per dose with liberal discounts.

Harvesters Will Be Seeking Third Win On Friday Night

Clovis Will Try For Third Victory Also

Facing a team which will outweigh them by twenty pounds, Pampa Harvesters go into their last non-conference game of the season with the Clovis, New Mexico, Wildcats here at Harvester Park Friday night.

For the Harvesters it will be the fifth game of the season, of which two were wins and two losses. Clovis has taken on three foes, coming out on the long end of the score in two of these. The Wildcats took their opener 29-6 from Fortales, lost to a very good Hobbs team, 25-0, and came bounding back last Friday with a 16-14 victory over Lovington.

Clovis coaches have gathered to gather a heavy group of boys to carry the football banner for them. At ends are Walling and Estes, both weighing 175; at tackles are Peterson (200) and Burns (200); Stevens (145) and Davidson (155) hold down the guard posts; at the center slot is Lorts weighing 170 pounds. In the backfield are White, fullback, at 190 pounds; Gunnels, quarterback, at 160; and at halfbacks are Pila and Hunsinger, both weighing 155 pounds.

The same Harvesters lineup that started against the Quahua Indians will take the field in the game Friday night. Cree (141) and Bird (160) will be at ends; Allen (160) and Turner (190) will hold down the tackle posts; at guards will be Lane 146, and Dunham weighing 172; center will be Winborne tipping the scales at 160; Grantham 160, and Clay 165, play at halfback positions;

Commander Gene Tunney, USNR, who said he once believed that preparation for war should be concentrated on military training, has changed his mind. He told Connecticut sports writers and members of the New Haven Gridiron club last night that "we are better equipped than any other nation in the world to carry on a long war because of sports."

Tunney Credits Much to Sports

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 19.—(P)—Commander Gene Tunney, USNR, who said he once believed that preparation for war should be concentrated on military training, has changed his mind.

He told Connecticut sports writers and members of the New Haven Gridiron club last night that "we are better equipped than any other nation in the world to carry on a long war because of sports."

And he indicated that a talk he had with Gen. Douglas MacArthur had "done much" to change his mind.

Tunney quoted MacArthur as saying that football and boxing were the best sports for the development of the fighting man. But he said it was his belief that any sport would develop "gamesmanship and fortitude" qualities which he said were essential in a fighting man.

Concerning "the essentiality of sports for the future warrior," Tunney said that today he is advocating a postwar compulsory physical fitness program for the youth of the nation.

The former world heavyweight champion said he believed the spectator benefits as much from watching sports as does the participant because "he sees courage demonstrated."

Former Gridsters To Be Reunited Saturday

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Oct. 19.—(P)—Two winners of the Congressional Medal of Honor who once played football for the University of Arkansas will be reunited here Saturday at the Arkansas-Texas game.

Capt. Maurice L. Britt, who received the nation's highest military honor in Italy and Lt. Nathan G. Gordon, navy pilot awarded the Medal for rescuing army fliers downed off New Ireland, will sit together behind the Arkansas bench.

Britt is now a law student at the University, Gordon is home on leave.

50 Qualifying Scores Expected

LONGVIEW, Oct. 19.—(P)—More than 50 players are expected to post qualifying scores today in the East Texas golf tournament at Pine Crest Country club with $175 in war bonds and stamps to be given as prizes.

Match play starts tomorrow. Mrs. Guy Larone of Terrell, former state champion, is among the entries.

GOOD LUCK TOKEN

PORTLAND, Ore.—Mrs. Mary T. Roberts gave her 1,000th cellophane-covered four-leaf clover to Pvt. Charles J. Wilson, Los Angeles, at the Red Cross canteen here. Her hobby started in 1942 when she gave a clover good luck token to her son, Robert, after he joined the coast guard.

McCracken weighing 170 will be quarterback, and Campbell at 130 will hold down the fullback slot.

The Harvesters worked on passing offense and defense during their extended rest. Clovis' victory over Lovington was chiefly through the air, and the Green and Gold doesn't intend to be caught napping. All the boys are in good shape and team spirit is at a peak.

Port Arthur To Meet Beaumont Friday Night

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF Associated Press Sports Editor

Drawing Paul Tyson, builder of champions, makes another bid for Texas schoolboy football glory tomorrow night at the high spot of a crowded schedule in which conference games predominate.

Tyson, coaching his thirty-first team, sends his South Park Greenies of Beaumont against the Port Arthur Ironhorse and from this battle may come the title eleven of District 14.

Tyson's Greenies are unbeaten and untied. He has a great backfield to throw against the brilliant Port Arthur line and while Tom Dennis' Yellow Jackets are favored, it is agreed this will be a terrific struggle.

South Park has rolled up 126 points in three games while Port Arthur has managed for 131 in four, losing week before last to Lufkin 20-6.

Citer spotlighted battles over the state are at Waco, San Antonio and Abilene.

Waco's Tigers, now the favored outfit of the lower bracket in the interscholastic league football plan, entertain sporting Waxahachie, the first of three big games destined to decide the Central Texas champion. The others will be the Waco-Temple and Waxahachie-Temple tilts.

Down at San Antonio Brackenridge's Eagles tackle Austin's unbeaten, untied Maroons in one of the decisive games of the District 15 race. The other outfits figured as title contenders are Jefferson of San Antonio and Kerrville, which last week toppled top-rated Brackenridge.

The Abilene game is an interdistrict affair and means nothing in a conference race but it is highly important nevertheless. Lubbock, which beat San Angelo, the defending state champion, must down Abilene to be rated on par with Amarillo in the District 1 campaign.

Abilene, a surprise of the season, last week topped Odessa, which had been figured a great contender at San Angelo in the District 3 drive. Abilene gave Amarillo a great scrap before losing 7-13.

There are 52 games in the state, 26 of which are conference affairs. Here is the schedule by districts:

1—Friday: Clovis, N. M., at Pampa, Amarillo at Borger (conference), Sweetwater at Plainview, Hobbs, N. M., at Brownfield.

2—Friday: Wichita Falls at Electra (conference), Childress at Graham (conference), Vernon at Quanah (conference), Seymour at Olney.

3—Friday: Lamesa at San Angelo (conference), Big Spring at Midland (conference); Saturday: Lubbock at Abilene.

4—Friday: El Paso High at Ysleta (conference); Saturday: Pecos at Austin (El Paso), Bowie (El Paso) at Phoenix, Ariz.

5—Friday: Bonham at Sherman (conference), Greenville at Gainesville (conference), McKinney at Dalen, Gladewater at Paris.

6—No games scheduled.

7—Thursday: Masonic Home (Fort Worth) vs North Side (Fort Worth) (conference); Friday: Fort Worth Tech vs Arlington Heights (Fort Worth) (conference); Saturday: Denton at Amon Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth).

8—Friday: Woodrow Wilson (Dallas) vs Sunset (Dallas) (conference); Saturday: Crozier Tech (Dallas) vs North Dallas (conference).

9—Friday: Breckenridge at Stephenville (conference), Weatherford at Mineral Wells (conference); Saturday: Ranger at Brownwood (conference).

10—Friday: Waxahachie at Waco (conference), Temple at Bryan (conference), Hillsboro at Corsicana, Arlington at Ennis.

11—Friday: Tyler at Texarkana (conference), Longview at Kilgore (conference), Athens at Marshall (conference).

12—Friday: Palestine at Henderson (conference), Nacogdoches at Jacksonville (conference), Livingston at Hull-Daisetta.

13—Thursday: Reagan (Houston) vs Sam Houston (Houston) (conference); Friday: Jeff Davis (Houston) vs Milby (Houston) (conference), Austin Houston vs St. Thomas (Houston); Saturday: San Jacinto (Houston) vs Lamar (Houston) (conference).

14—Friday: South Park (Beaumont) at Port Arthur (conference), Orange at Beaumont (conference), Fort Neches at Calveston (conference), Goose Creek at Centre (conference).

15—Thursday: San Antonio Tech vs Lanier (San Antonio); Friday: Austin at Brackenridge (San Antonio) (conference), Texas military institute (San Antonio) at Laredo; Saturday: Corpus Christi at Jefferson (San Antonio) (conference).

16—Friday: Edinburg at Harlingen (conference), San Benito at Kingsville (conference), Robstown at McAllen (conference), Raymondville at Brownsville.

Matter of 2 Games, And They Get Bid
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 19.—(P)—The Huskies of the University of Washington can get an automatic bid to the Pasadena Rose Bowl by winning two football games in six days. They are going to meet the University of Southern California here next Monday night, then move on to Berkeley for a battle with California's Golden Bears the following Saturday.

Brownfield Will Not Play; Borger To Meet Amarillo

Amarillo's Sandies open conference warfare this week when they take on the hapless Borger Bulldogs at Borger. Borger has failed to score a touchdown in four games in this year. Plainview entertains a topflight Sweetwater team in one of the top games of the state; the undefeated Lubbock Westerners play at Abilene and the other entry, Brownfield, has the second open date in succession.

Ed Purgol, the Detroit auto mechanic who cleaned up the amateur field in the big open golf tourneys last summer, will have a fling at big-time match play in the Sonny Fraser invitation event at the Atlantic City country club this weekend.

George (no corn) Kobb is celebrating his first anniversary as fight announcer at Madison Square Garden—and it's a great tribute to say that few fans even know who he is. . . . the thoroughbred racing associations imported about two dozen out-of-town newsmen for a dinner here Tuesday night and Bolivia, with an area of 650,000 square miles, is the third largest country in South America.

California was admitted to the Union on September 9, 1850.

Sports Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR. NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—(P)—New England horse tracks are worried about the mysterious "woman in red" whose betting has caused several minus pools in the mutants. . . . but we never heard of them worrying about the numerous guys in the red every afternoon. . . . one reason why that Penn football team looks so good is that Bert Shill, regular fullback two years ago, has been working with the fourth stringers in practice. . . . Coach Ed McKeevey says that Bob Kelly has to avoid contact work. That's what all the Notre Dame backs were doing against Dartmouth. . . . the boxing managers' union has been revived on Jacobs beach and detractors say it is affiliated with the I.O.U.

NO SILVER PLATTERS
Broadcasters at Garden State park last summer cooked up the idea of presenting a recording of their descriptions of the feature races to the winning owner. . . . for special events they made a gold record and a special souvenir. . . . the idea, reports Ted Husing, caught on so well that on one occasion owner Allen T. Simmons asked him whether he should keep a horse in New York for a $15,000 stake or send it to Camden to try for a gold record.

Just a week after the date with Sweetwater the Bulldogs begin their conference schedule at Lubbock, meeting the District 1-AA aggregation whom they beat in the final game last season. With their hands full with Sweetwater, the Bulldogs are not looking that far ahead this week. They have known ever since 1943 that the Westerners are gunning for them in a big way.

The Lesson of Warsaw

Warsaw was the first European capital to fall World War II. And now the cynical may say that it was also the first capital to fall in the rising conflict of disunion which threatens to involve great sections of Europe in post-war civil strife. The Nazis are once again masters of the city, after a two-months battle against a heroic untrained army that fought and died for Poland while an outside political struggle sickened and isolated and finally doomed it.

The second battle of Warsaw might even be called the battle of the Sphere of Influence. Its importance has already been told in Yugoslavia, and threatens to be repeated in Greece. In each case an exiled pro-government, supported by London, has been pitted against well-pressed minority groups which have rallied to hitherto little-known leaders and flourished with Moscow's blessing.

Charges and counter-charges have thundered back and forth until it is impossible to know precisely what has happened. Nor can it be said who is right or wrong, or at the moment right or wrong is a matter of a person's political complexion. The only ones who can or should make the final judgment are the people of the countries involved. And that judgment should be the decision of a free election when the war is over.

In the meantime the job is to fight the Germans. Instead, we know that Greek has killed Greek, and Serb and Croat have turned their guns on one another. No one has gained but the Nazis. It is a situation they have fostered and hoped for. And they will continue to foster it as long as they can, for they base their hope of escaping complete defeat on dissension. It is their no-longer-secret weapon.

It is a tragic, disheartening thing that the men of Warsaw could die in the struggle, and that they had dealt a telling blow against the forces that tortured them and robbed them of their freedom. Instead, it was in the knowledge that they were causing between the nations of stubborn political concepts.

Mr. Churchill has told Parliament that the struggle of General Bor and his underground forces will remain a deathless memory for Poland and for friends of freedom all over the world. But it must also remain the memory of a hopeless cause, of a united effort within defeated from within by the slightest of all factions who could not compose their differences for the sake of victory and human lives. The death of Hungary, almost everywhere, Polish soldiers, the crushing of an army and the capture of its brave general, the temporary loss of Warsaw—all these must stand as a rebuke to those who did too little too late, and too gradually.

Why Not Berlin?
The people of Berlin, N. J., Berlin, Ore., (formerly Burrell's Inn) and probably some more of America's 16 or so Berlins don't want the name of their town changed, and they are keen if playwright Maxwell Anderson does think it's a good idea.

For one thing, they wouldn't know how to pronounce Dismoto. What's more, they'll make up their own minds about names changing. And there is considerable logic in their decision.

Why isn't it a better idea to rebuild Dismoto in Greece and let it be a monument of civilization's triumph over Nazi butchery, as are other Greek cities which have survived centuries of sack and massacre?

And why not, with an eye to the future, leave the American Berlins as they are? After all, the name of Waterloo in Iowa recalls to us not a Belgian village, but a field where freedom crushed insane ambition. Why not so with Berlin?

THE THIRD FLEET

(The New York Sun)

In what is described as the greatest sustained operation in naval history, the United States Third Fleet spent twenty-five days cruising in enemy waters attacking airfields and shore installations and exacting a heavy toll of Japanese shipping. Beginning with an attack on the Bonin Islands, only 511 miles south of Tokyo, the fleet under Admiral William F. Halsey moved southward delivering two punishing blows at the Manila area on successive days and then winding up with attacks on ports and airbases in the smaller islands between Luzon and Mindanao.

In a recapitulation of the operation Admiral Chester W. Nimitz said that 1,011 enemy planes were destroyed, probably destroyed or damaged, and that between 100 and 224 ships of all types had been sunk or crippled. No loss or damage was suffered by American ships, but sixty-one planes, forty-two pilots and twenty-three anti-aircraft personnel were missing. These statistics appear to bear out the assertion that in its punishing power this operation has no equal in this war. Furthermore, the diminishing Japanese aerial opposition in some places only a few enemy craft ventured into the air to give battle and most of those destroyed were burned on the ground—supports Admiral Nimitz's contention that Japanese air power in the Philippine area has been broken. Coupled with domination of the Palaus, insured by the occupation of Peleliu and Angaur, from which General MacArthur's operations are being assisted and covered, the work of the Third Fleet has appreciably advanced the day when the flag of freedom will fly once more over Manila.

The Nation's Press

MR. ROOSEVELT AS THE RED WOLF HOPPE

(The Chicago Daily Tribune)

Mr. Browder told a mass meeting of Communists and their fellow travelers in Madison Square Garden that their future and the success or failure of their plans depended on the reelection of Roosevelt to a fourth term. His defeat would be the signal that the era of cooperation between Communists and non-Communists was ended, both here and in Europe.

In France, Belgium, Italy, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria, Romania, and Poland, said Mr. Browder, the national unity created by the collaboration of formerly divergent and hostile elements would be broken down and civil war would follow. The welfare of the United States, its "orderly and peaceful progress," and the security of the world required "the complete cessation of the old war between two worlds" of anti-communism and communism.

Conciliatory communism would be a strange form of that rabid and denunciatory system. What truce can it make with private capitalism and private management? None except as a stratagem to take the other fellow in his stride. Roosevelt disallows the Communist political party merely to go under ground for the time being, "for an indefinite period in the future," as he said. In the foreground, he meets the political malcontent which is called collaboration, already has resulted in a speeding up of communist political and economic programs for the expropriation of industry and finance.

The Communists are the skilled technicians of revolution and they know how to take advantage of the emotions aroused by five years of fear, suffering, destitution, and anger. Collaboration in their lexicon means conquest, not compromise. If a Communist, as the end result of his activities, were willing to compromise with anything except unavoidable necessity he would mean disaster to his objective. It is obtainable only by the destruction of all classes with diverging ideas. There may have to be compromises, Lenin compromised. Stalin has Lenin met some economic compromise, but too much for him. The new economic policy was the result. Stalin decided that world revolution was not profitable.

Mr. Browder endeavors to de-louse communism, moderate its language, and take it to church. He had no use for Leon Trotsky, but he probably has read the old Bolshevik's description of a conscious society which was too profitable. Mr. Browder's moderate is successful revolution. He recognizes the elements of such a society in the New Deal order. He is not putting his bets on the wrong horse. Mr. Roosevelt has a liking for the methods of the all-powerful state. Conditions have allowed him to use many of them. He likes to issue executive orders and he likes to question the authority of the Supreme Court. He is not an apprentice in the collectivist shop.

The revolutionaries were convinced 10 years ago that they had made a mistake in the name of Poland and for friends of freedom all over the world. But it must also remain the memory of a hopeless cause, of a united effort within defeated from within by the slightest of all factions who could not compose their differences for the sake of victory and human lives. The death of Hungary, almost everywhere, Polish soldiers, the crushing of an army and the capture of its brave general, the temporary loss of Warsaw—all these must stand as a rebuke to those who did too little too late, and too gradually.

Movements of FDR To Be 'On Record'

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.—(AP)—

President Roosevelt's movements will be publicly "on the record" for the first time since he started when he reached New York Saturday for a foreign policy address.

Censorship forbids disclosure of the time of the President's arrival there but Presidential Secretary Stephen Early said today Mr. Roosevelt's New York visit will be public and that his plans for the day there will be announced when details have been worked out.

"There is no desire on the part of the President to use wartime censorship to conceal himself on an occasion of this kind," Early said.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS The National Whirligig

By RAY TUCKER (Now on tour, surveying political and reconversion situations.)

NEW YORK CITY—Two two-party deal involving possible domination of New York City's empire of patronage from 1940 to 1945 may prove the determining factor in the Roosevelt-Dewey contest on this key battleground. Participants in the reported arrangements deny virtuously that they would make a selfish bargain in order to win control of the White House, but the rumors flood headquarters and hotels—and it has been done before.

Mayor Fiorello H. La Guardia asserts that the GOP has agreed to return over City Hall to Tammany in return for its followers' voting republican or staying away from the polls on November 7. It is alleged that the agreement was negotiated by Thomas J. Curran, the minority's New York county chairman, secretary of state and senatorial officer of Robert F. Wagner. So far there has been no official disclosure of such a trade, despite private protestations mentioned above.

Those dealing in international finance apparently approve the existing setup. Their foreign ties naturally incline them to keep restoration in Italy and Germany on their minds. Thus it is that Frank A. Schuler, a member of the firm of Lazard Freres, a lifelong Republican, an enthusiastic Dewey backer before looking after this nation's concerns, has declared for F. D. R. and has kicked in with a sizable check to the Democratic National Committee.

THE LORD TAKES CARE OF HIS OWN, BUT THE CHURCH TRUSTEES STILL PUT LIGHTNING RODS ON THE STEEPLE.

Two Negroes were appointed to pick out a candidate for an important political office. After a while one of them came back to the other and asked for an extension of time. "Mr. Chairman," he said, very solemnly, "the committee is divided. Mr. Johnson has for his side, and I'm for myself, and we're having a hard job to get together!"

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that are now being put into effect.

MANY people try to interpret developments in Europe, and especially in Germany, through their knowledge of old-time, upright Germans. Yet the German character, both national and individual, has in the last 50 years changed to such a degree that what was a logical estimate of character in World War I is sheer foolishness in World War II.

The German army, its drillmasters, Hitler, Himmler, et al. have aroused, stimulated, and exaggerated traits and instincts which have slumbered in the German people for centuries, to the point where the friendly German in whom so many Americans still believe has ceased to be an important factor in any German group. He is the German of yesterday. It is the German of today with whom we have to deal, the arrogant, ruthless, intelligent schemer who either suavely hides his intentions or openly boasts of his brutality.

I was in Berlin in 1914 when the Kaiser called his nation to arms. In 1939, I was present in the Reichstag at that early hour of September 1 when Hitler announced the invasion of Poland. No other contrast could have underlined so well the changes in the German character.

In 1914 a young Norwegian cousin and I roamed through the Berlin streets, quite evidently foreigners, and experienced nothing but friendliness from the people. We saw the Kaiser address the crowds from the balcony of his castle. We saw the citizens bring bouquets of the chubby little red roses that bloom in August and throw them to the uniformed troops with their spiked helmets, marching to war with their hands clapping, their brasses glittering in the sunshine. The crowds always shoved us ahead to help us see what was going on.

On that September day of 1939, however, when the Fuehrer gave the order to march, Germany was a grim, a purposeful country. Troops left the Berlin railway station without cheers. In fact the only cheers heard in the streets came from a few people who had been ordered out in organized groups by the Nazi cells. The streets leading to the temporary Reichstag in the Kroll Opera House where Hitler was to speak were lined with police, and with Schutz Staffel men in field gray battle dress instead of their customary black uniforms. The cheering was not heard.

Granted that if anyone had dared to voice objections as Professor von Hartmann had done, they would have been drawn and quartered or sent to a concentration camp, which is rarely better. The fact that Hitler and Himmler had to resort to concentration camp methods to defend their rule showed that they were Germans who rejected their teachings. They were numerous enough to convince the Nazis that they must be covered by terrorizing and persecuting their potential leaders, but they were not numerous enough to form a party.

Around Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

Behind the screen: Cecil B. DeMille's favorite grand-daughter, 9-year-old Cecilia, was being difficult about saying her prayers one night. Mamma and papa finally gave up and asked grandpa what he would do.

"Don't worry" said the great C. B. "I'll say her prayers for me. But Cecilia was adamant. She refused to say them for C. B. too. "Okay," said DeMille, "I'll say them for you." He began, "Our Father, who art in heaven—" Cecilia listened for a moment and then, grinning, interrupted with, "This is Cecil B. DeMille speaking to you from Hollywood."

Jaucha Heifetz's summer home at Balboa Bay, Calif., was built for privacy. It is on an island linked to the mainland by a single bridge. The bridge is barred to the public. But when he built the home, Jaucha didn't know about an excursion boat which makes hourly trips around the bay. Stunning himself, "the great" Jaucha was the first time. Jaucha was startled to see a boatload of people staring at him from a few yards offshore. A guide was saying:

"Times the summer home of Jaucha Heifetz—and there's Mr. Heifetz now."

Jaucha fled into the house, telephoned the police and asked could they please do something for the sightseers. The police said they couldn't. So Jaucha made a deal with the excursion boat guide. He still points out the house in the home of Heifetz. But if he spots Jaucha on the beach, he ignores him.

"What are you going to do," asked Stoeckel, "give Ray Milland a pair of drinks to get him in the mood?" "Mr. Milland," deapanned Wilder, "will be conspicuous by his absence."

Buddy De Sylva is a soft-spoken man. Hollywood writers are not always so. Following a particularly stormy conference during which De Sylva was the center of a gale, he used the method of soft voicing his way through one of the writers' expressed amazement. "It's very simple," explained De Sylva, "I whisper to Hollywood a whisper is so unusual that every one listens to it with profound surprise."

When Robert Hutton, the kid who scored a hit in "Destination Tokyo," first applied for a film job at the New York offices of Warner Bros., they asked him if he had any experience on Broadway. "Sure," said Bob, "I was an usher at the Strand Theater."

Guinn (Big Boy) Williams, the husky character actor whose face looks like it once stopped flying, received a fan letter from a Marine sergeant in the South Pacific. It was addressed to "Miss Guinn Williams" and requested a picture. With elephantine humor, Big Boy looked up the still photographer of his new Columbia movie "Sing Me a Song of Texas." The cameraman took a picture of Williams draped in a couple of bur-lap sacks and it was promptly dispatched to the Marine with the inscription: "To Sarge, with love, from Guinn."

WAR TODAY

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.

Substituting for DeWitt MacKenzie Japanese reports that re-occupation of the Philippines has begun are, as usual, subject to revision for accuracy, but fit perfectly into the picture of the Pacific war which has been building up for some time.

Whether the Leyte gulf action is actually a part of a general invasion or merely a preliminary is of little moment. Either way it means that within a comparatively short time MacArthur will have kept his promise to return.

Never before in world history has there been such a battle as that for the Philippines, which actually what the entire Pacific war has amounted to so far. Japanese outposts have been pushed back gradually for thousands of miles to prepare for this action. Even Admiral Halsey's activities of the last few days, in a comparatively small corner of the great ocean, have been staged on a scale to stagger the imagination. He has thrown a great arc of protection between the Philippines and Japan, destroyed 915 enemy planes and with them the threat of a Pacific air force, sunk or damaged 312 ships, and smashed many of the bases from which both operated. Now history's greatest fleet and greatest floating air force can be placed at the disposal of MacArthur.

The battle will be bloody, but we can hope it will not be long. The Japanese have never been able to thrust themselves into the central and southern Philippines where native guerrillas and even some Americans have continued resistance.

Once recovered as a base for further operations against Japan, the Philippines will prove the key to the whole Pacific war. The resources of the Indies, Sumatra and Malaya on which the Japanese have depended will largely cut off. In three years America, fighting two ways either of which would have staggered the historians of the past, will have recovered the Pacific situation almost to its starting point. We know now that we can't "whip the Japs in ninety days," as some thought before Pearl Harbor. But we also know

Mexican Rail Men Seek Restoration of Train Service

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 19.—(AP)—

General Manager Andres Orduz of the National Railways, and E. Vanderoock, chief of the U. S.-Mexico Railway commission, have been flying from place to place by plane in their efforts to restore train service in the flooded areas of Vera Cruz and Oaxaca, officials of the railway management announced.

The flight has been an onerous and great expense of water, which entered the tracks.

Train service was renewed today between Cordoba (Veracruz) across the isthmus of Tehuantepec and to Suchiate, on the Guatemalan border.

Renewal of traffic over these lines will greatly facilitate sending supplies to the flooded devastated districts of Vera Cruz and Oaxaca.

President Avila Camacho, who spent several days travelling in a submarine chaser through the most treacherous waters, has returned to Vera Cruz and yesterday was in Jalapa with his party en route for Northern Vera Cruz, which also has suffered from heavy inundations.

The President reported that food and medicines were no longer lacking around Alvarado, Tlaxiaco, Cosamaloman and Tuxtla Chico, where thousands of people were driven from their homes.

He distributed hundreds of tons of food, medicines and clothing among those left homeless in these regions.

Dewey Aide Is Wagner Foe for Senatorial Seat

NEW YORK—The issues of the presidential campaign are reflected on a smaller scale in the reflection of Sen. Robert F. Wagner (D-NY) against the candidacy of Republican Thomas J. Curran, secretary of state.

Wagner, father of the famed "Wagner Act," as the National Labor Relations act is generally known, and sponsor of other social and labor legislation, is closely identified with the New Deal. He is 67.

Curran, 45, a close political ally of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, was given his present state post by Dewey in January, 1943.

Democratic leaders predict that Wagner's record, experience and the support of President Roosevelt will enable him to win over his younger and less widely-known opponent.

Republicans claim Curran will capture New York's traditionally Republican upstate vote and make surprising inroads on the Democratic stronghold of New York City, where he has been active politically for years.

Wagner resigned a $25,000-a-year justiceship in the State Supreme court to win his $10,000-a-year post as senator in 1926. He has served three terms. Curran is a former city alderman and former assistant U. S. attorney.

Both candidates worked their way up from the sidewalks of New York City to attain the political spotlight. Wagner, who came from Germany as a child, is a former newsboy and a graduate of the College of the City of New York and New York Law School. Curran, son of a longshoreman, worked his way through Fordham university, and law school.

HOLLYWOOD—Now I read they have invented a big mechanical brain at Harvard University. It's several times smarter than a human brain, and, if you ask me, I'm scared. Goodness, I didn't say anything when the Harvard boys went around swallowing goldfish, but this time they've gone too far.

Ladies, imagine how our husbands will take advantage. They'll get a mechanical brain to do their office work. This will give them the entire day to entertain their pretty secretaries.

If Harvard wanted to invent something why couldn't it have been a mechanical typewriter? Personally, I hope the mechanical brain gets a big headache.
