Chest Fund Collection Now $5,472

One day's pay from each employe. That was the goal set today in Pampa's Community Chest campaign in which workers are seeking to raise $21,000 for use by five participating agencies in local welfare.

Beginning Friday morning a committee of downtown solicitors will make a canvass of the city's business district asking firms and their employes to contribute to the chest fund.

"Last year employes were asked to give two days' salary in the combined war chest and community fund drives," general co-chairman J. W. Garman said today "so we feel that this year they should contribute at least one day's pay to the Pampa fund." The two drives have been separated this year.

Garman said that up to noon today $5,472.81 had been turned in, which is about 26 per cent of the total.

Leop Langston co-chairman with Ed Weiss in the downtown solicitation, spoke at the Pampa Retail Merchants' meeting yesterday afternoon and appealed for workers.

"We all know that everybody is busy," Langston said, "but we have a job to do here and, busy as we are, it behooves us to take the time to get it done and as quickly as possible. I am just as busy as anyone but I feel it is a duty we owe to the community. If we all get together and put some effort into the job, we can have it completed within a comparatively short time."

The downtown solicitation committee for the business district will meet at 7:30 p. m. in the chamber of commerce room at city hall, Langston said, and he made a request today that all workers attend to get supplies and final instructions.

R. G. Hughes, chairman of the advanced gift committee, today urged all members of his committee.

Regents, Rainey Asked to Settle Their Difference

AUSTIN, Oct. 25—(AP)—The president and the board of regents of the University of Texas were urged today by the faculty to settle their difference, and the faculty appointed a committee to aid in a get-together possibly with the help of an ex-students committee.

Emphasizing the importance to a university of academic freedom the faculty adopted a statement of "sound principles of university administration" addressed to the regents, the president and the regents. These principles, the statement declared, include "the mutual respect of each agent for the functions of the others" and this respect to be "recognized and accepted as having the force of an unwritten law in university life and conduct."

The statement went into detail in setting forth what the faculty's idea of these inter-relationships are as between regents, president and faculty, including the administrative function of the president as "intermediary between the board and staff." President Homer P. Rainey, in his recent statement of differences with the regents, had emphasized his belief that the board had encroached upon his administrative functions.

The faculty statement "earnestly urged" the president and board to compose their differences to the end that in reality, as well as in name, we may build and maintain a university of the first class.

The committee of three will ask to be heard at Friday's meeting of the regents in Houston.

Beaumont Newspaper Backs Dewey, Bricker

BEAUMONT, Oct. 25—(AP)—The Beaumont Enterprise came out today for the election of Dewey and Bricker, breaking a democratic tradition followed since its institution 44 years ago.

"Although the Enterprise has long been loyal to the democratic party and the nominees of that party for public office," the newspaper said in an editorial, "a situation has arisen in this country which is a serious threat to democratic institutions, to the very existence of the government which the American people have preserved and fought for in the past and a government, this newspaper believes, the American people are not ready to abandon."

The interior of the parole office and records were destroyed. The fire also caused considerable damage in the assistant warden's office.

Total damage has not been determined.

NAZIS PULLING OUT OF NORWEGIAN PORT

In West, Enemy Is Falling Back On 15-Mile Line

BULLETIN
LONDON, Oct. 25—(AP)—The Russian army has crossed the frontier into Norway, Marshal Stalin announced tonight.

The order of the day broadcast by Moscow said Gen. K. I. Meretzkov's Arctic army which crossed the frontier had already captured the Norwegian seaport of Kirkenes.

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
Associated Press War Editor

Implying a Russian invasion of Norway, Berlin announced today the German evacuation of the Norwegian port of Kirkenes of the Arctic "after destruction of all military installations" at that submarine base which is astride the convoy route to Murmansk.

The Red army reached the Norwegian border on a wide front Sunday.

Berlin said this drive was coordinated with that in East Prussia, where a battle flamed along a 150-mile front from the Baltic mouth of the Niemen river to the southwestern edge of the Suwalki triangle. Soviet breakthroughs from the Narow would outflank East Prussia and Warsaw as well.

On the Western front the Germans fell back on a 15-mile front above and below St. Herogenbosch and a front disjunct said that communications hub shielding the coast.

Ambassador Recalled From Great Britain

LONDON, Oct. 25—(AP)—Argentina has recalled Col. Pablo Beretta, its military attaché in London, after an invitation to visit the allied western front was suddenly withdrawn.

While the Argentine embassy was officially silent, it was reported authoritatively here that the action occurred several days ago and presumably resulted from lack of cooperation in the country's foreign policy in the war against the Axis.

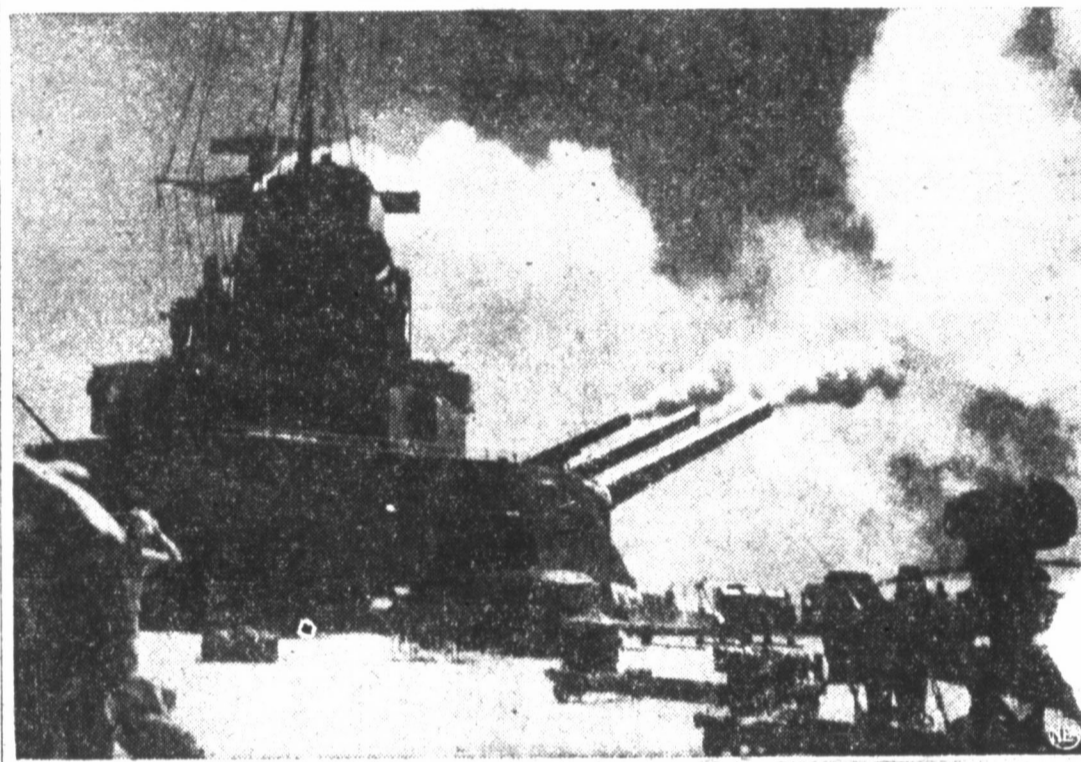

Similar invitations extended to the military attaches of other South American embassies have not been withdrawn, so far as could be learned today.

'Isolationist' Is Yelled From Both Political Camps

By J. W. DAVIS
Associated Press Staff Writer

The political campaign raged on through its busiest week yet today, with each side crying "isolationist" at the other as the presidential candidates swung into a down-to-the-wire gallop.

Time is running out, and into the next four days of a campaign that started out comparatively slowly there will be packed two more speeches by Governor Dewey and two by President Roosevelt.

The republican nominee, who said in his Minneapolis speech last night that Mr. Roosevelt scuttled the 1932 London economic conference and thereby committed "the most completely isolationist" action of any president, traveled to Chicago for a speech tonight (9:00 p. m. CWT over CBS) on "the moral issues in this election."

Dewey's farm speech, which he had planned originally for Minneapolis, will be delivered instead Saturday on radio's farm and home hour.

Mr. Roosevelt's campaign blossomed into two major speeches this week-end — at Philadelphia Friday night and Chicago Saturday night, with Delaware, New Jersey and Indiana appearances in between.

The President told his news conference yesterday that some newspapers which have recalled his remark at the start of the campaign about not campaigning in the usual sense neglected to say that he had reserved the right to correct any misrepresentations.

A noisily enthusiastic crowd at Minneapolis last night cheered Dewey's argument that Mr. Roosevelt has demonstrated that he "cannot work with a Congress of his own party," whereas "we must be able to go forward harmoniously and effectively if we are to meet the mighty problems of peace."

O'Daniel Continues Speech-Making Tour

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 25—(AP)—With addresses scheduled at Childress and Amarillo, Senator W. Lee O'Daniel, (D-Tex) continues today a speech-making tour of Texas.

The senator spoke at a rally here last night under the auspices of the Texas regulars. He attacked labor racketeers and asserted that all practices of the present administration have been designed to perpetuate it and its appointees in office.

He said he had not come to Texas "to tell the people of this state how to vote but merely to report faithfully as their hired hand just what is going on in the nation."

He will speak at Amarillo tonight.

U. S. Government Seizes Plant

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—The government today took over the Lord Manufacturing company of Erie, Pa. through an executive order which said the company boosted prices on a government contract and "willfully refused and failed" to supply war materials under a previously agreed-to price.

The executive order issued from the White House, said the conduct of the company has interfered with the "production and supply of aircraft parts and other essential war materials." It directed navy secretary Forrestal to take over and operate the plants to the extent deemed necessary to continue war production.

The order said the secretaries of war and navy issued an order fixing fair and reasonable prices for products of the Lord Manufacturing company in 1943.

"The Lord Manufacturing company," it added, "has changed the terms and conditions of sale of the (See GOVERNMENT, Page 8)

CITY IMPROVEMENT: Improvement of Sewer System Based on Future Need of City

(Editor's note: This is the second in a series of articles dealing with Consulting Engineer Joe E. Ward's study of the needs for repairs and renovations in Pampa's sewerage system. The articles were prepared by Everett Bannister, member of The News staff.)

The engineer stated that the recommended improvements on the present sewerage system of Pampa are based on a future growth and population to 22,500 inhabitants. He stated that he believed this would provide capacity to serve the city for 15 to 20 years. (This growth and capacity are usually considered the economic limit in the design of a municipal utility.)

At present the estimated population of Pampa, together with the populated areas extending immediately beyond the city limits is 21,000. The engineer pointed out the census of Pampa in 1940 showed a population of 12,855. He said that at the present time Pampa had 3,135 water connections and approximately 2,800 sewer connections. Taking into consideration the crowded living conditions, brought on by industry and war, and the limited populated areas outside the city limits, an estimate of 21,000 persons appears to be quite reasonable.

He estimated that at the present time the contributing population is approximately 60 per cent of the entire population, and that at that same ratio the design for 22,500 contributors would serve a total population of 37,500.

U. S. Carrier Princeton Is Reported as Only Casualty

By LEONARD MLLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Opposing naval forces fighting over nearly 1,000 miles of the western Pacific are battling in three interlocking air-sea engagements, now running in their third day, that have already cost the Japanese a dozen warships sunk or damaged and the Third U. S. fleet one light carrier destroyed.

Preliminary results of the continuing engagements were announced today by Adm. Chester W. Nimitz while a strong formation of Superforts lashed at Japan, Gen. Douglas MacArthur's men made their longest advance on rain-swept Leyte island in the Philippines and Tokyo radio claimed a victory in a naval-air battle east of the Philippines.

Nimitz announced Vice Adm. Marc A. Mitscher's carrier planes, sank one large Japanese carrier, and damaged two other carriers, five or six battleships, a cruiser and several smaller warships.

About 150 land-based Japanese planes were shot down, but not before they had mortally wounded the converted carrier Princeton. The Princeton's magazines exploded and the ship—the sixth U. S. carrier lost since Pearl Harbor—was sunk by accompanying American warships.

"Casualties among the personnel were light," Nimitz said. At least 1,360 were rescued. There may have been as many as 250 others aboard her.

The three Japanese carriers were caught by surprise and hit southeast of Formosa as they sped toward the Philippines.

The other damaged imperial warships were major units of two task forces, fiercely attacked in inland seas of the Philippines as they headed in the general direction of Leyte.

Tokyo conceded that at least three Japanese warships—two cruisers and a destroyer—were sunk, apparently in either the Sulu sea southwest of Leyte or Sibuyan sea northwest of Leyte.

An Imperial communique claimed 16 U. S. ships were sunk or damaged including four carriers, two cruisers, a destroyer and four transporters. It said two carriers, a battleship and two cruisers were severely damaged.

Unofficial Tokyo broadcasts asserted these were the results of a naval action east of the Philippines where Japanese reports said variously the American fleet was "surrounded" and "in flight."

The three Japanese task forces apparently were converging on Leyte, to join with land-based planes in the "smashing defeat" that Tokyo propagandists have long promised the Japanese. Some 600 allied ships, including the U. S. Seventh fleet, units of the Third fleet and the Australian fleet, are concentrated in Leyte waters.

On Leyte, MacArthur's men liberated 14 more Filipino villages and slugged through sometimes shattering deep mud to the outskirts of the interior village of Tabontaban, flanking strong enemy defenses on the central coast.

With the officially announced capture of San Pablo airdrome MacArthur now holds three airfields on Leyte-island. From airfields outside the Philippines, MacArthur's bombers still the policy of the government.

The prime minister declined to engage in a foreign affairs debate, declaring it would be unwise to go into details on delicate international matters "on the spur of the moment." There will be an opportunity for debate after his report Friday on his Moscow mission, he said.

He left unanswered questions as to how unconditional surrender was reconciled with former enemies becoming "apparent allies" and as to whether Nazis who surrendered unconditionally would be given government posts in Germany.

Earlier, Richard Law, minister of state, told the House Britain and Russia had made no decision during the recent Moscow talks on respective zones of influence in the Balkans.

Civil Clashes Reach South Part of Spain

LONDON, Oct. 25—(AP)—Clashes between Spanish republican guerrillas and forces of Generalissimo Francisco Franco have spread west into southern Spain, besides the guerrilla raids into northern Spain from France, an officer of the anti-Franco national Spanish union in Paris declared today.

Madrid meanwhile said all but a handful of the republicans striking into Spain's Navarre section from France had been wiped out.

The national Spanish union was formed to unite all anti-Franco Spaniards in France, and claims affiliation with an underground junta of Madrid.

An open call for a new civil war came from the underground newspaper, Conquest of Spain, organ of the republican junta with secret headquarters in Madrid. It urged Spanish army officers to take up arms against Generalissimo Franco.

British quarters were silent on reports of unrest. German propagandists, however, seized upon the latest reports from Spain to suggest that French troops might be withdrawn from the Western front to man the Spanish-French frontier.

Cottonseed Flour Has New Usage

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(AP)—A protein-rich flour made from cottonseed gave promise today of overcoming dietary deficiencies in millions of persons in the United States and abroad.

The flour, which has a protein content of 50 per cent, was described by D. Bresse Jones of the agriculture department's bureau of human nutrition and home economics as "partially defatted, wholesome and palatable."

Jones said large quantities already had been shipped overseas for lend-lease, and added, "use of cottonseed flour offers an effective, economical and practicable way of helping to meet a shortage of protein food for relief in foreign lands."

Jones said it was estimated that cereal grains, chiefly wheat, supply about 26 per cent of the protein used for human consumption in the United States.

A mixture containing 10 per cent more protein than wheat flour can be produced, Jones said, by adding as little as five parts of cottonseed flour to 95 parts of wheat flour.

Oil Man Once Suggested Allies Burn Oil on Water to Stop Nazis

When this war is over and secret files are opened, participating governments, some research workers may reveal that Hitler's attempt to invade England was stopped through a suggestion offered by a prominent Fort Worth citizen, according to a story in the Fort Worth Press.

The Hitler try for invasion took place on Sept. 16, 1940. On May 23, 1940, Joe Danciger of Danciger Brothers, Inc., wrote a suggestion that oil be used to spread destruction on the surface of water. Burning oil on the waters of the English Channel cut down the invading forces before they could return to the safety of the French coast, the article said.

It continued:

On May 23 Mr. Danciger wrote Congressman Frank W. Boykin of Mobile, Ala.:

"When the Germans recently crossed the Meuse river, evidently the Allies, who destroyed a lot of oil to keep it from getting into German hands, did not know or understand that this oil could have been used very effectively by pouring it into the Meuse river and setting it on fire. The Germans could not have crossed this river of fire."

Mr. Boykin immediately contacted the British ambassador, the late Lord Lothian, who in turn telephoned the suggestion to London. On May 31, 1940, Lord Lothian acknowledged the receipt of the suggestion in a note to Joe Danciger.

When Congressman Boykin the last week of September read the story of Hitler's futile attempt to reach England, he immediately telegraphed the Danciger brothers, recalling their suggestion made in 1940.

Number of Rats in Country Is Growing Rapidly

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25—(AP)—Far away and long ago a couple of rats married and raised a family. Some family now there probably are as many rats in this country as there are people.

And their number may be increasing. That's the guess of one official of the interior department. The reason he gave: The military services' severe drain on men whose occupation was annihilating rats.

Rats cause trouble, cost money and spread disease. They start fires by gnawing the insulation off electric wires. They live mostly off food produced by man as are found mostly near people. Fleas from rats, by biting humans, spread typhus fever and bubonic plague.

The interior department and the U. S. public health service both work against them with the help of state and local authorities. The interior people do most of their work in rural areas where most of the rats are.

The health service now is working against typhus fever in the south and bubonic plague in the western states. The plague is more deadly than the fever but less prevalent.

The number of typhus fever cases in this country rose from a reported 1,819 in 1940 to 4,517 in 1943 but the death rate is less than 5 percent.

Rats eat almost any kind of food: Grains, fruit, vegetables, meat, cheese. And, when they're in the mood, they kill baby chicks, piglets, full grown hens and ducks, baby pigs and lambs and destroy eggs.

They gnaw holes in things like lead pipes, grain bags, boxes, doors, furniture and books, cause floods by burrowing in embankments; and they undermine building foundations.

Here are some figures—the last estimates of the interior department—on where the rats are and what damage they do:

Half of them are on farms, about 26 percent are in non-farm country residences and in towns of less than 10,000 population, and about 24 percent in cities of 10,000 population or more.

Of a total annual loss of $189,000,000 caused by rats, $63,000,000 is on farms, an average of $10 per farm; $68,000,000 in small towns and non-farm residences; and $58,000,000 in large cities.

Spanish Forces Fight Dissidents

ZERIDA, Spain, Oct. 25—(AP)—Spanish army forces recaptured a frontier village Monday in the Aran valley and closed the main exit for Spanish republican Maquisards who infiltrated into Spain from France.

Today, the forces of Gen. Franco were moving down the valley in an effort to liquidate completely the dissidents.

The Maquisards are operating in groups of a little less than 100. Army officers said they had the choice of resisting until death or capture, or of disbanding for an attempt to escape through the heavily guarded passes which are banked with snow and which tower more than 10,000 feet. Those captured with arms face possible execution.

(Spanish republicans in Paris said the border clashes had extended deep into Catalonia and were rising in intensity. The Maquisards were veterans of excursions against German occupants of France and were said to be operating from bases in the Toulouse area of France. They reported to have held several villages, at least long enough to liberate anti-Franco political prisoners.

In some cases, Franco policemen were taken back into French territory, the Paris report said. It was reported in Paris that the French forces of the interior gave the Spanish republicans bases for operations in reward for the part they played against the Germans. The Spanish clashes have proceeded for three weeks.)

When storing things in the cellar, be sure they are not near a hot spot such as the furnace, or walls concealing hot pipes.

BIRD COMES OUT WITH THE WASH

MOUNT VERNON, Ind.—(AP)—Mrs. Karl Barro found a bird's nest in a play suit she hung on the wash line and she scolded her young son, who denied all. Next washday she found another nest, this time in a clothes pin bag. There, swinging from its pendulous perch, a wren, obviously angered by the intrusion upon its home life, scolded Mrs. Barro roundly.

INDIAN TAKERS TRUMP INDIAN GIVERS

FORT ANGELES, Wash.—(AP)—They're giving the country back to the Indians out near Neah Bay—almost.

This time it's a full-fledged defense community built at a reputed cost of $1,500,000 to house 2,000 workers with more than 100 buildings and a 750-seat theater. The town is in the wilderness of the Mlichah Indian reservation, near Cape Hattery, most northwesterly point in the continental United States.

Sudden cancellation of a big defense contract meant the town's downfall. The tribal fathers of the Mlichah Indian council powwowed and bought the whole shebang for $2,000.

Unbilit America "I got a letter from my boy in France," the man says. "He says that they've got plenty of silk stockings and perfume over there. Why should we go without gas and tires and give away rayon while the French have the stockings? The suffering French—huh."

"I see by the paper," said another man, "that as soon as they can get ships the French are going to send over a lot of expensive champagne and brandy. Probably make a whole of a profit, too. Now, where'd they get it, I'd like to know? Why, I'll bet you they've lived better than we have these last three years!"

"The third man was really bitter: 'Well now, ain't that just dandy. They've already opened up a race track in Paris so the poor French can go out and watch the horses run and throw their money—' and away. Devastated France! They bet never come around again and ask me to give something for devastated France, or devastated anywhere else."

"These things were actually said—not by the most thoughtful and sensible persons one could find, to be sure, but by some successful people who are respected and kind to their families."

"What impresses me is the fact that the French, after we have spent money and lives to help liberate them, have been so ungrateful as to resume a semblance of normal living. That we have given up and practically none of our normal comforts seems to impress them as little as the French 'patriots' brave four-year struggle against brutality and oppression and the humiliating loss of liberty."

The Nation's Press WAR-MAKERS ARE NOT PEACE-MAKERS (The Christian Century) The Democratic cry is no longer, 'Give Roosevelt a fourth term to win the war.' The cry has become, 'Give Roosevelt a fourth term to win the peace.'

How good an argument is it? From two standpoints we venture to question its impressiveness. In the first place, we question whether Mr. Roosevelt's record to date, in negotiations bearing on the post-war order has been of such a nature as to establish any claim to his further indispensability. And in the second place, we question whether there is any sound historical basis for believing that a successful war-maker is likely to prove a successful peace-maker.

Our Public Officials Are Not Overseers; They Are Servants

By ROSE WILDER LANE (Author of "Let the Hurricane Roar," "The Day After Tomorrow," "The Covert of Freedom") P. H. Smith, in a friendly spirit, sends me a leaflet, Socialism vs. Government ownership, saying that its theory of state ownership is not only a theory from mine. He compliments me too much; the theory I hold is lower than his, and it is a classic economic. Of course the socialist theory is different; the socialist theory has attacked the science of economics since its beginning.

I read this leaflet with interest, and imagine my surprise. This is its theory of the State: "The State is today essentially what it was when it first appeared—an armed force which protects property, liberty and life from lawless armed power. Let the State catch thieves, kidnapers, murderers, and all other criminals who are outside civilization, outside law—outlaws."

THE STATE IS NOT OVER THE PEOPLE. So, if you do not want yourself or anyone else to be held in subjection, the only thing to do is to hogtie the State. Restrict this armed power to its smallest necessities. Crushed and the world starts on the path toward normalcy. No matter who sits in the White House, current regulations on individual income and its expenditure may have to be continued through his four-year term.

OUR OFFICIALS ARE ONLY SERVANTS American constitutions do restrict the State. American Bills of Rights, so-called, are not lists of rights or "freedoms." Read these Bills of Rights in our State and Federal constitutions; they are restrictions upon the State.

WOULD ABOLISH THE STATE The only way to prevent a "ruling class in subjection" is to limit the duties, responsibilities, and arrangement of men in public office. Do not let them use their armed power to do anything that is not their duty and useful citizens; do not let them use police force to hinder our living, traveling, trading; do not let them interfere with our producing, owning, exchanging, using, and consuming the things, the property, that are goods; goods, not evils. Nothing good needs to be held in subjection.

How good an argument is it? From two standpoints we venture to question its impressiveness. In the first place, we question whether Mr. Roosevelt's record to date, in negotiations bearing on the post-war order has been of such a nature as to establish any claim to his further indispensability. And in the second place, we question whether there is any sound historical basis for believing that a successful war-maker is likely to prove a successful peace-maker.

As for the shape of things to come, as sketched by Mr. Roosevelt in collaboration with other heads of state at Cairo said Tehran, there is cause for as much misgiving as rejoicing. All too little is known, even yet, as to what Mr. Roosevelt "negotiated at Tehran," but such reports as have borne the marks of authenticity—including the inspired articles which appeared in 'The Saturday Evening Post, last May—strongly indicate—that the real result of Tehran was to give Stalin a free hand in eastern and southeastern Europe and to assure both Stalin and Churchill that no trouble need be anticipated from American insistence on the terms of the Atlantic Charter. As for Cairo, the failure of that conference to deal with the real problems of Pacific peace has been set forth in the Lattourette memorandum to the Federal Council's commission on a just and durable peace: Cairo, by its thunderous silence, virtually Mr. Roosevelt's personal guarantee of the restoration of European imperialism.

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS The National Whirligig

By RAY TUCKER CASH—Recent economic studies of postwar employment prospects suggests that some Federal control over prices, wages and credit must be retained even after Japan is crushed and the world starts on the path toward normalcy. No matter who sits in the White House, current regulations on individual income and its expenditure may have to be continued through his four-year term.

Never before have the American people had such a backlog of currency, Government bonds, bank deposits, insurance, and securities funds etc. While estimates vary, some statisticians here place the accumulation at between a hundred fifty and two hundred billion, or twice the prewar national income.

SCRAMBLE—But the human urge to satisfy long unfulfilled wants has begun to express itself almost imperceptibly. It is as yet a signal rather than the storm itself. Redemption of War Bonds, especially for the twenty-five dollar denomination, reached an all-time high last Summer. The new and earlier methods of cashing these holdings may aggravate this trend.

SPREE—Byrnes-Vinson aides have just concluded detailed studies of the 1919-1921 inflationary movement, seeking to chart a future course. In that period, by reason of public and political restrictions, restrictions were lifted as early as December 2, 1919.

By PETER EDSON Washington Correspondent President Roosevelt's own admission that he has never yet guessed right on the size of the vote he would receive for his own election to office adds interest to some of the trick bets that are now beginning to appear. One of the commonest is a bet that you can't name eight states that Dewey will carry. It sounds easy at first, but if you stop and figure a minute you see that Dewey might win the election and you could still lose your bet.

WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MARSHALL Associated Press Staff Analyst

While details of the sea-air battle off the Philippines between strong Japanese forces and the U. S. Navy fleet leave much to the imagination, it is clear that a major engagement is under way. The significance of this battle is that the Japanese are aiming to deal a death blow to General MacArthur's invasion of Leyte island in the heart of the Philippine Archipelago. They hoped to destroy the convoys of supplies and troops which are pouring in to him, and then to smash the American expedition which already is ashore and getting ahead well with the job of overrunning this strategic key to the whole Archipelago.

It's quite on the cards that more than one engagement is afoot. Japan's J-1 forces are aiming for victory in this battle would vastly expedite our task of reclaiming the Philippines. The corollary to that must be that it would greatly shorten the war with Japan for loss of this great Archipelago will so divide the Mikado's empire and his conquests that his war effort will be crippled.

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

A certain Hollywood hostess will never forget Jose Iturbi. As a dinner guest at one of her famous parties, she asked him to play the piano. Iturbi coolly accepted, played one brief number and then schooled the owner, tightly curled hair and olive skin, looked up over and asked, "Are you the man who is going to take our pictures?"

CHILDREN FIRST Those children are one of Iturbi's four great loves. His wife had a full career with a big daughter in a bitter court fight. GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

By Sigrid Schultz

As an American newspaper correspondent in Berlin from 1919 to 1941, Sigrid Schultz saw at first hand the events that led from World War I to World War II. And she saw the behind-the-scenes preparation for the coming "war-in-peace" that she warns may culminate in World War III. This is the story of Germany's plans to win the peace, plans that even now are being put into effect.

FOURTH TROJAN HORSE: RACIAL FRICTION

THE men of the secret general staff rely on the racial prejudice which is in all of us, whether we will admit it or not or whether we even know it. We betray it unwittingly in public and private conversations: "Oh, he is a Jew, but very nice," or "He's a good soldier for a Negro." Then there are the "arrogant" Englishman, the "lazy" Italian, the "mysterious" (meaning untrustworthy) Chinese, the "sex-mad" Frenchman. All these mistaken concepts provide a fine culture for the Nazi virus.

This debate on demobilization plans is the third in a series of ten, on controversial issues prepared for NEA and The News by the national committees of the two major political parties.

Administration Fumbles Army Demobilization, Republicans Allege

By the Republican National Committee

THE ADMINISTRATION plan for demobilization —its only declared plan—is contained in a law known as the Murray-George law, and the democratic party lays great stress on the fact that on provision of this law reads: "The war and navy departments shall not retain persons in the armed forces for the purpose of preventing unemployment or awaiting opportunities for employment."

Stressing this provision is intended to counteract General Hershey's statement as head of Selective Service that "it would be just as cheap to keep men in the army as to set up another government agency to provide jobs for them."

The question is whether the provision will be stressed only in pronouncements and speeches from Washington, or whether it will be followed in actual practice.

Every evidence points to the probability that the administration is, as usual, fumbling around with the demobilization problem, hoping that some miracle will occur, or some bright slogan be tossed off which will divert public attention from what is certain to be a major test of administrative efficiency.

That a slow, gradual demobilization was intended by the administration is indicated first by General Hershey's statement, and second by the long delay of the President in signing the Murray-George Bill. In fact it was not signed until the very last day of the constitutional 10-day period, under which bills not signed during a Congressional recess are automatically vetoed.

All this is typical of an administration which habitually permits problems to develop into crises and then tries to hide the crisis behind some new makeshift bureau.

This is all the more alarming because the record of this administration in regard to former soldiers and sailors is so markedly unsympathetic. It has followed the line laid down by President Roosevelt when he told an American Legion convention in 1933, that: "No person, because he wore a uniform must thereafter be placed in a special class of beneficiaries over and above all citizens."

The NEW DEAL policy of favoring certain groups weakens any confidence in its impartiality, or its ability to create equal opportunities for those who are discharged.

Although nearly a million men have so far been honorably separated from the service, no machinery has yet been set up for administration of the so-called GI Bill of Rights which was passed in June of this year.

Like all other measures undertaken by the administration, the rights of an individual under this law are so snarled in the red tape of conflicting bureaus, and authorities that it is impossible for them to obtain all the practical benefits and due them at the time of their greatest need.

COAL LOADER'S BIN SAVING HAZARD, Ky.—(AP)—Ben Johnson, a coal loader, lost his savings of $500. Stalling himself at the bottom of a coal chute at the tipple, he saw the coal pour into a railroad car. In the midst of the heap, out came his money.

SEVENTH TROJAN HORSE: DISTRICT OF OUR ALLIES WHEN we hear this or that supposedly well-informed person claim that the "British are ready to fight to the last," or that "the Russians are just waiting to drive the Germans out, then they'll sign a separate peace with them," how many of us insist on learning our informant's sources or evidence? Few of us bother to figure out the ultimate source of the claim, or what parallel line might be used in allied countries to discredit our own effort.

Some of us worry about being "smeared" by Lend-Lease. Can we doubt that the nations which enjoy Lend-Lease are being heavily inspired whisperers to the effect that "America is getting rich at the expense of her allies?"

It is only human for allies to mistrust each other. It has always been so. And the Germans can draw on years of experience and psychological training in that very subtle business of poisoning the minds of allies against each other.

EIGHTH TROJAN HORSE: ONLY GERMAN INDUSTRIES CAN REBUILD EUROPE WHILE American, British, and Russian planes were bombing the industrial centers of Germany, one could hear well-meaning people urge that they must quickly be rebuilt for the rehabilitation of the rest of Europe.

They were unwittingly furthering the pan-German cause. How many of us said, "We must help the French to get back from the Germans the machinery stolen from their factories?" Or "We must help them rebuild their ruined industrial plants?" Or "The Poles? And what about the Czechs?" And what about the other countries? Why must German industries supply most of the manufactures for Europe? The very core of the Nazi plan to make Europe a German continent centered around domination by German industry, relegating all other countries to raw material or agricultural supply areas.

Peter Edson's Column: THIS AND THAT FROM WASHINGTON

By PETER EDSON Washington Correspondent WHERE THERE'S A THIRST THERE'S A WAY A repatriated prisoner of war returned recently from Germany tells how an ingenious group of Americans in one of the camps was able to distill a few shots of passable liquor from supplies in a relief carton. Taking the figs and dates, they added water and made them into a mash which was allowed to ferment. When ready for distillation, they put the mash on the fire in a small-mouthed can, over the can they held the big end of a bugle. The vapors circulated the coil of the bugle, cooled, and other of the spit trap came a few drops of an acceptable fig-date brandy.

BECK SAYS HE DIDN'T Dave Beck of Seattle, vice-president of the Teamsters Union, denies the story printed in this column several days ago to the effect that he got top air travel priorities for a West Coast editor brought on to Washington to attend the President's speech before the teamsters' banquet. The story was written just as told by the editor, but Beck says, "Mr. Editor was mistaken, it isn't so and it has done him a lot of harm. All Beck did, he says, was walk into an airline office when his guest bought a ticket. Otherwise, he traveled without priority on transportation obtained a week before.

When Governor Dewey in his St. Louis speech referred to an alphabetical agency by the name of ACP-SAHWA, he wasn't just making more than 420 officials listed by the Bureau of the Budget. There is, for instance, the ICCSAPPE, The Interdepartmental Committee to Consider Cases of Suspected Activities on the Part of Federal Employees. Dewey probably wouldn't want to abolish that one.

Little Prospect For New Roads, Says Official

AUSTIN, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Construction of any type road in Texas, under highway or farm to market, presents a gloomy outlook. Brady Gentry, state highway commission chairman, said Monday at the monthly highway hearing.

The outlook for building the little county road as well as the super-highway is very cloudy. In view of the way Congress is cutting pending road appropriation bills, said Gentry, as the commission took under consideration petitions from the following counties:

Henderson: Designation, maintenance and construction of a farm to market highway from Edom to La Rue via Brownsboro, and from Chandler to Poyner. Presented by Frank J. Davis, Henderson county judge.

Hunt: A comprehensive network of farm to market roads throughout the county, and construction on highway 77 in Greenville to Dallas to make it a "super-highway." Presented by J. E. Moore, Greenville chamber of commerce; Senator G. C. Morris, Greenville; and Wm. C. Parker, county judge.

Brown and Callahan: Designation and construction of extension highway 279 to Cross Plains, presented by B. H. Freeland, Callahan county judge, and Fred Tunnel, mayor of Cross Plains.

Gentry said this petition was complicated since facts seemed to substantiate the counties presented the case correctly, but there were no records to substantiate a claim they promised by the commission (before Gentry's term) a good road from Brownwood to Cross Plains, providing the counties bought the right of way and built grading and drainage structures.

The counties sought the right of way, but the road was not built. When a state park was established near Brownwood, the highway department built a road from Brownwood to the park. The 12 1/2 miles from the park to Cross Plains is still unfinished.

Freeland contended Brownwood was satisfied with the present arrangement since it routes traffic through Brownwood. Therefore, said Freeland, his delegation asked only for the completion of a three-mile stretch to the county line, in the hope that this would impel Brownwood to join hands with Cross Plains on the original proposal.

Farmer Thinks Too Much Seed Planted

COLLEGE STATION, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Most farmers plant too much seed per acre in the opinion of J. S. Allen of Dawson county, who admits he has learned his lesson. Fewer seeds and soil conservation practices usually will spell success, he believes.

Earlier this year he threatened several times to plow up his crops because the stand seemed too thin, but now he believes he will make 1,500 pounds of combine-type grain per acre and a third of a bale of cotton. He recently told County Agricultural Agent Lee R. Pool. Water held by terraces, diversion ditches, and contour furrows in the pasture land assured his good crop.

Students 'Capture' Office, Dismissed

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Twenty students who "captured" the national preparatory school offices Monday after a battle with stores and clubs were expelled from the National University of Mexico today.

The university council also ordered investigation of seven faculty members accused of aiding the rebellious students.

The fighting faction sought resignation for Ricardo Rivera Perez, a director of the preparatory school, a unit of the university. After the battle, the group occupied the offices only long enough to prepare a bulletin setting forth its complaints.

No one was seriously injured.

Florida Suffers Big Citrus Loss

By The Associated Press

Florida, with an estimated 50 per cent of its grapefruit crop and up to 25 per cent of its orange crop on the ground, has decided it will not ship hurricane-damaged fruit to northern markets.

Nathan Mayo, Florida's commissioner of agriculture, says his state's citrus industry faces the worst calamity in its history as a result of last week's hurricane.

Citrus men met in Lakeland, Fla., yesterday with Mayo to discuss ways and means of salvaging the crop, and to obtain an increase in price ceilings to compensate partially for its loss. The growers decided at that time that in order to maintain Florida's reputation in northern markets, no storm-damaged fruit will be shipped out of the state.

Shippers at the meeting indicated they have halted operations for the present. For a week or more, no fruit is likely to move from Florida.

R. M. Evans, secretary-manager of the Florida citrus commission, said a compilation of reports indicates 50 per cent of all grapefruit over the state was on the ground and between 15 to 25 per cent of all oranges. This, he stated, does not include fruit still hanging which is bruised and which may still fall or will not be suitable for shipment.

In Washington, the war food administration established wage ceilings for emergency harvesting of fruit blown from trees by the hurricane. Meanwhile, the office of price administration said the bureau of agriculture economics is making a survey of storm damage. Results of the survey would determine whether or not a revision would be made in price ceilings for Florida fruits and vegetables, the OPA stated.

Orphan Will Grow Up as American

NEW YORK, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Six-months old Kenneth Barry Maloney, a war orphan and the youngest passenger to cross the Atlantic on an army transport plane, was in London today and had started his upbringing as an American boy.

Kenneth, a chubby, blue-eyed blond whose American father Lt. Kenneth Maloney, was killed in action before his birth and whose English mother died in childbirth, was flown from England to New York yesterday in the care of an army nurse.

He was placed in the custody of the Red Cross until his grandmother, Mrs. William Maloney of Grand Rapids, Mich., arrived in New York.

Kenneth's maternal grandmother, grandfather and aunt were killed when bombs struck their home in England. Only the infant escaped injury.

After Man Is Treated at Federal Hospital, Does One of 3 Things

(Editor's Note: This is the 12th story in a series on servicemen's benefits, ranging from demobilization to jobs and pensions.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(AP)—Army and navy hospitals care of the ill, injured or wounded serviceman.

Then, at the finish of all the treatment that can be given him, one of three things happens:

1. He is able to go back on active duty.

2. He is found unfit for active duty, is discharged for disability, can ask for a pension, and is sent back into civilian life.

3. He is found not unfit for active duty but in need of prolonged or permanent hospital treatment. In that case he is discharged from the military service, can ask for a pension and is transferred to a veterans hospital nearest his home.

These veterans hospitals are operated by the veterans administration (VA).

In-group No. 3 could be cases like these: Tuberculosis, mental derangement, blindness, heart disease, severe asthma, and badly crippled men.

But what of veterans who, because of some disability connected with their military service, need hospital treatment any time after their discharge from the service?

Any honorably discharged veteran, who has a disability connected with his military service, can get free treatment any time after his discharge at any VA hospital.

It's all free to him: Transportation to the hospital, bed, operations, medicine, nursing, food, as long as he needs hospitalization.

Suppose the same class of veteran—honorably discharged—doesn't need to stay in a hospital but does need medical service of dental care for a condition caused or aggravated by his military service.

That would be called out-patient treatment. He could get that free, too, and it includes medicine, appliances, bridge-work, and so on. He also gets this from the VA.

What about the veteran who has no service-connected disability, such as one who has been out of the service for years and is suddenly stricken with appendicitis? Can he get free hospitalization?

Yes, if he was not dishonorably discharged, and if he says he can't pay for the hospitalization. If he can't pay for transportation to the hospital, he gets that free, too. (If he says he can't pay for the hospitalization, he doesn't get it at all.)

Japanese Flee, Leaving Beer

General Mudge personally received 40 surrendering Formosan laborers after his tank battered through an upset truck which the enemy had set up as a street block. He found a guerrilla preading over the Formosans who held their hands aloft and appeared happy to be taken.

Tacloban, a city of 30,000 and the largest on Leyte Island, is the first important Philippine town to fall to the invading Americans. It is now the provisional capital of the Philippines, patrolled by the 7th Cavalry Regiment.

Harvesters Continue Preparation For Conference Game

Brownfield Will Be No Easy Pushover

LUBRICATION has been added to the Harvesters' machinery, and things are getting in shape for the first District 1-AA conference game Friday night in Brownfield. Pampa is perfecting the T and Flying Trapeze formation, and Brownfield looks across the horizon wondering what to do about it all. But Brownfield is no slouch. The Cubs are one of the 12 undefeated teams in the state of Texas, and they won their tilt with the fast and heavy hitting Hobbs, N. M., eleven. They are definitely dangerous material and the Harvesters will take a genuine trouncing if they think themselves too sure of victory.

Pampa is facing their conference games, five in number, inexperienced, with slow small men, but fans know what to expect from the Harvesters. We have faced district games with men that are almost impossible to replace. The Harvesters last year consisted of Noblett, Curtis, Kerbow, McKinley, Bridges, Washington, Robbins, and the never-to-be-forgotten Boyce. Other valuable replacements that Pampa has lost are Dick Manry, triple-threat left halfback; Larry Fuller, versatile end; James Hart, center, and J. C. Hopkins, guard.

The Harvesters are facing veteran material in their forthcoming opponents, and Coach Coffey is hard at work with his men, warning them of things that are to come. The Amarillo Golden Sandies, the just around the corner for the Harvesters. The Golden Sandies, with very fine material and an excellent coach, coached eleven, playing All-American football, are favored to win over the Harvesters, but we cannot predict how much. Still Oklahoma City was more than a favorite to give the Harvesters one of the soundest thrashings any team had received. . . and the score was 7 to 0 in favor of the Sooners.

Ducks, Geese Are Now On Lake Marvin

Ducks and geese are not only on Lake McClellan but are also winging their way to Lake Marvin, by the thousands. The hunting of the feathered quacking birds will begin Thursday, November 2, and hunters will have the pleasure of hunting this newly opened body of water for the first time. The lake was opened January 20 of the current year.

In announcing hunting dates, Lake Marvin officials said that the same ruling would apply to this body that is being observed on Lake McClellan. Hunting will be permitted on the opening date with Wednesday, Sunday and all legal holidays being listed as hunting days thereafter. Hunters are reminded that they must check into the game station before the hunt; have on their person a duck stamp, and check out at the close of the day's hunt.

Ducks and geese by the thousands are now on the lakes adjacent to Pampa, and hunters may expect easy pickings when it comes to bag limits. The Harvesters are facing veteran material in their forthcoming opponents, and Coach Coffey is hard at work with his men, warning them of things that are to come. The Amarillo Golden Sandies, the just around the corner for the Harvesters. These things called conference tilts get under way right pronto now, and the nearer draws the day the more confusing becomes the answer to the $64 question. Who will emerge victor?

Squinting at results last week-end ye sports scribes from all over had picked teams that were trampled in defeat. Lubbock took a 7 to 6 defeat from the badly crippled Abilene Eagles, throwing the conference race into one grand and glorious mess on paper.

Lubbock Westerners were placed on top of the list when the Amarillo Golden Sandstormers fell before the San Angelo Bobcats three weeks ago. To cap the climax the Sandstormers have defeated Abilene, so there is the real complication.

This leaves the Sandies and Westerners the favorites. But what about the Harvesters right here at home? The Harvesters, under the careful and most worthy guidance of Coach Otis Coffey have mastered the famous Chicago Bears "T" formation, and have the machine oiled to perfection to start their harvesting of conference games. The Harvesters are reaching for, and will set into the limelight. We have suffered two defeats this season, but the defeats were from worthwhile opponents, and the trimming the Harvesters took did them more good than injury. The Harvesters ripped the fur from the Clovis, New Mexicans last Friday night by pouring through a much heavier line than was expected. The score was 83 to 2.

Pampa has pulled these tricks before. During the 1943 grid season the Harvesters with a fair record of play invaded Amarillo's Golden Sandstorm making history. Yes, the Harvesters start slow, but after all the grain is not ready for harvest until it is fully ripened. The Harvesters' machinery clicks best in conference games, and they are within a shadow's cast.

Brownfield remains the only unbeaten team, and they must face the Harvesters this Friday night in Brownfield. Brownfield got their position by defeating the Hobbs, New Mexico squad 12 to 7 in district 1-AA, but the Cubs from Brownfield have been tied, by Lamesa. The score was 6 to 6.

The ability for passing attack with all of its thrills and fancies has placed another of the Harvesters' (Continued on Page 7) tions concerning plays which could come up but as yet have not developed," he added.

In mid-summer the eastern inter-collegiate football association voted six changes in the NCAA grid code, following an invitation from the national rules committee.

"Three of the changes permit passing from anywhere behind the line of scrimmage, allow the defensive team to run with a fumble and use of a cue-inch tee at the kickoff.

Business estimated that 90 per cent of the games in the eastern sector to date have been played with at least one of the changes in force.

"Some decisive touchdowns have been scored because of them, too," he added. "There was the touchdown North Carolina pre-flight got to spill navy on a center's scoring jump after picking up a fumble for one."

"Frankly," he continued, "there was a lot of misapprehension concerning the rules changes. Many of the spectators believed we had gone in for something radical. We merely have returned to normal, unrestrained, less complicated practices."

Pappy Is Back With All His Bandmen

PORT WORTH, Oct. 25.—(P)—They are back in Texas with pappy, all six of them—the Texas songbird, Happy, Klondike, Little Horace, Little Ezra and Little Caesar (sometimes Peewee).

As Senator W. Lee O'Daniel's famous hillbilly bandmen, they are Bill Perrin, singer and guitar player; Mike Thompson, Hawaiian guitarist; Trenton Coats, fiddle; Kelly Driver, guitar; Elvis Head, electric guitar; and Walter Hayes, base, violin and sax.

They are "about 50-50" the old band which has accompanied O'Daniel through previous campaigns, Songbird Perrin, the leader, says. He has been with O'Daniel through four campaigns, formerly as Horace. His brother, Pat Perrin, is announcer and business manager.

Auto License Plate Rules To Be Same

AUSTIN, Oct. 25.—(P)—The state highway commission announced yesterday that wartime restrictions will continue to apply to automobile license plates for 1945, but in modified form.

Between now and April 1, 1945, said DeWitt Greer, chief engineer, applicants will be issued only a "license sticker" about the size of a postal card. This may be placed on the outside of the car in any prominent place or on the inside windshield as the occupant desires.

After April 1, 1945, all registrants will be issued just one metal plate. This will be about the size of the 1942 license and carried on the rear of the car. It takes the place of the small metal wartime tabs.

Greer said the legislature authorized the highway department to depart from ordinary rules governing license plates in order to cope with wartime metal shortage.

POLITICS

American participation in a world peace organization, Dewey said the United States' representative must not be required "to return to congress for authority every time he has to make a decision." With this, he said, Congress alone can determine "what discretion it will give our representative" to use American forces to stop aggression.

Mr. Roosevelt, who has said republican victory would elevate "invertebrate isolationists" to places of power, has contended that the American representative must be endowed in advance, through Congress, "with authority to act when a threat to peace appears."

LUFKIN, Tex., Oct. 25.—(P)—Li. Gov. John Lee Smith was a speaker at 400 lumber manufacturers and forest land owners attended the dedication of the Texas tree farms system here yesterday.

The system involves several hundred thousand acres of East Texas forest land.

In his address, Smith said the State of Texas should provide for an adequate forestry program by the Texas forest service.

Calf in Question Becomes a Cow!

HILLSBORO, Tex., Oct. 25.—(P)—Calfes, like time, wait for no one—even courts.

Ten months ago a justice here was asked to determine ownership of a calf, but a transfer to another justice and a couple of continuances now has changed the status to: Who owns the cow?

lation of 37,500. Ward also pointed out that as the city's growth steadied and other utilities are developed, the contributors may increase to 75 per cent of the entire population. In this case the design for 22,500 contributors would care for a total population of at least 30,000 inhabitants.

Pampa has an estimated flow of 60 gallons of water per day, per contributor. In army camps in Texas the average flow per contributor in the summer months is about 100 gallons per day. The army camp, however, has only adult population, and there is little if any restriction on the use of water, whereas the average city residence has more children than adults and excessive use of water is avoided for the sake of economy.

Pampa's peak rate of flow for a period of from 1 to 3 hours is estimated at twice the daily rate of flow, and extreme peak rate of flow lasting only a few minutes for which carrying capacities of channels and sewers must be designed, is estimated at three times the average daily rate of flow. The design to care for the extreme peak of three times the average daily rate of flow should be adequate to take care of infiltration, which is expected to be only moderate.

Existing Systems

The present sewerage system includes approximately 11,000 feet of 15-inch sewer; 21,000 feet of 12-inch sewer; 20,000 feet of 10-inch sewer; 26,200 feet of eight inch sewer; 121,300 feet of six inch sewer; 280 manholes and 80 lampholes. The sewer pipe in the original system, and in the extensions constructed since 1928 is tile pipe, while that installed in the 1928 program in non-reinforced concrete piping. The manholes constructed in the original program and in the 1928 improvement program are of concrete, while those constructed since the 1928 program are of brick. All the manholes and lampholes have cast iron covers held in place by cast iron rings or frames.

The tile piping included approximately 8,600 feet of 10-inch pipe; 14,400 feet of eight inch pipe and about 68,300 feet of six inch pipe. The non-reinforced concrete pipe includes approximately 11,000 feet of 15-inch pipe; 21,600 feet of 12-inch pipe; 11,600 feet of 10-inch pipe. Pampa has some 210 concrete and 70 brick manholes on the entire system.

"I don't see how a newspaper which has been consistently democratic could do otherwise than support the republican ticket this year," Bricker commented after the "Texas regular democrats" held traditional democratic traditions than new dealers.

Reiterating that the nation needs a change of administration, Bricker's special train rolled into Texas after a two-day campaign in Colorado, with his managers hopeful of capitalizing on reported dissension among democrats of the Lone Star State.

The nominee's staff announced that in the auditorium selected for a night address at Dallas by Bricker, 300 seats had been set aside for the "Texas regular democrats," and that E. B. Germany of Dallas, a leader of the Texas regular party, would participate in a parade at Dallas. The Texas regular party was organized by anti-Roosevelt democrats.

Two appearances were on Bricker's schedule in Fort Worth, an address at 11 a. m. in the First Baptist church, and a luncheon.

His speech at 8:30 p. m. in Dallas will be broadcast over a hookup of Texas radio stations.

Speech Doesn't Reach the Air

WICHITA FALLS, Tex., Oct. 25.—(P)—A planned network broadcast of Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel's speech from here last night was cancelled due to a "confusion of time by rally leaders and their speaker," radio officials said.

The complete scheduled radio address was carried only by the Wichita Falls station, KWFT, the announcement said. Other stations in the network were able to broadcast only the first minute of the speech.

Supporters who planned the rally at Memorial auditorium in Wichita Falls had scheduled the broadcast to begin at 8 o'clock, the station said, adding the speaker, who apparently understood the time was set for 8:30 p. m., arrived at the auditorium only a few minutes before that time.

New Hellicat Is Put Into Action

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—(P)—The navy has thrown a new Hellicat into the Pacific which is bringing down Japanese planes on a 31 to 1 ratio, a major contribution to the sweeping advances of the past six months.

A few details of this superlighter were disclosed—but no more than the zero pilots already have discovered to their dismay.

The new ship is called the FEP-3. It supersedes the earlier Hellicat which itself was superior to Japanese fighters in speed, armor, armament and fire power.

In the new edition, the engine cowling has been further streamlined, streamlining up the speed which already was better than 400 miles an hour; painting has been changed to increase speed and provide camouflage; a new five-bladed propeller increases visibility; armor plate behind the pilot has been widened, giving him better protection.

The new ship mounts six .50 caliber machine guns, also can carry rockets and bombs. Pilots say it handles beautifully in a dive, takes off nicely from flattops and can outrun the fastest Zero ever made at any altitude.

The improved Hellicat did an impressive job helping the landings in Southern France, also.

They are being turned out on a mass production basis by the Grumman Aircraft Engineering Corp., at Bethpage, N. Y.

cape route for some 60,000 Germans in British hands. The British have cut the main road and rail lines north and south of the town, and within its limits turned flamethrowers again anti-tank gun nests in mop-up operations which followed a night of savage street fighting.

The joint British and Canadian drive in Holland threatened all German positions south of the Maas (Meuse) river.

The main Allied front south of Holland remained quiet, except for minor gains of the U. S. Seventh Army in the Vosges foothills.

Forty-five miles west of the St. Herogenbosch sector, Canadians slugged to within sight of Bergen Op Zoom and Roosendaal, important nazi strongholds blocking Allied use of Antwerp's port facilities.

On the British southern wing a powerful British drive captured the Best. These units were from eight to 13 miles from the enemy defense center of Tilburg, city of 81,000.

German defenses stiffened before the Red army's onslaught into the Reich. Four nazi tank divisions were committed to the battle in costly counter-attacks against a Russian salient 15 miles from Insterburg, rail hub, and about 70 miles from Konigsberg, East Prussian capital.

Full of 18 additional German man communities was announced by the Russians, who told of a new attack on the province from Augustow, Polish border stronghold on the southeast, which Soviet forces were said to have captured. Heaviest fighting was near Goldap, point of deepest Russian-claimed penetration, and to the northeast, south of Chmelinen, strategic junction on the westward route through the heart of the province.

The Russians also advanced in Hungary, and in Czechoslovakia took the big town of Husak (Husak). British patrols on the heels of Germans fleeing Greece have occupied Dhromokos, 123 miles northwest of Athens and 30 miles north of Lamia. Other Germans evacuated Volosow, 45 miles northeast of Lamia.

American troops in Italy captured Mount Belmonte, obstacle in the path of the advance on Bologna, after days of bitter struggle among misty Apennine peaks.

The Free Yugoslav radio announced capture by Marshal Tito's partisans of Novisad on the Danube, 45 miles northwest of Belgrade.

When the LIGHTS go on again

"When the LIGHTS go on again"—magic phrase that signifies the return of peace! The end of war will end many another dislocation in civilian life, but we somehow express ourselves most naturally in terms of light. For an abundance of light, above all else, means comfort, relaxation, modern conveniences, civilized life.

Your homes, at least, need not be "blacked out" these days. In fact, most electric dealers now stock bulbs in all common home sizes. Adequate lighting will cost little, but is worth many times its cost in terms of easier, more comfortable seeing. Make sure your light is right before the winter evenings arrive.

When you fill up those empty sockets, be careful to use the RIGHT SIZE bulb in each place. See that shades and diffusing bowls of all lamps and fixtures are clean. Replace dark shades by those having white or light linings. If necessary, rearrange lamps and furniture so that the light is closer to the point of use. These steps will help you make certain you get all the light you are paying for.

Good lighting at home for eyesight protection will help us all. It will help conserve our vision so we can carry our share of the war load, thus speeding the day of victory, when the lights go on again—all over the

JAP NAVY SUFFERS DEFEAT

Pacific Victory Might Change Entire Course of War in That Area

Japan May Be Done As Naval Power

By HAMILTON W. FARON
Associated Press Naval Writer
WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—(AP)—The crushing defeat handed the Japanese navy in Philippine waters brought to Washington and the nation today the cheering thought that the whole course of the war may now be changed and victory brought months nearer.

These great expectations were tempered in some degree by impatience to hear in final detail of what may well be the greatest sea action in history.

A Japanese defeat of the magnitude reported by first dispatches would mean that Japan is through as a naval power—that powerful American task forces which never have feared engagement with the enemy would be relieved of any trouble from sizeable naval forces.

And with such freedom of action—relieved of any necessity of guarding against operation of the Japanese fleet—the American Pacific fleet would concentrate upon wiping out remaining enemy surface units and softening up Japan's island bases.

However, some naval observers are inclined to check the fragmentary reports of damage against estimates of the size of the Japanese fleet. They point out that Japan has been credited with at least a dozen each of battleships and first-line aircraft carriers.

Admiral Ernest J. King, navy commander in chief, before announcement of the American victory, had told newsmen that "practically all" of the Japanese fleet was involved in the Philippines.

King indicated that two principal purposes might have been considered by the Japanese high command when the enemy fleets turned toward the Philippines: (1) a junction of Japanese forces in the homeland and those about to be cut off in the Singapore area by American invasion of the Philippines and (2) an effort to halt American liberation of the island group.

One illustration of the interlocking nature of all warfare is in an opinion expressed by strategists of the army air forces that the Philippine sea-air events will help relieve the "grave" Japanese offensive threat to advanced bases in China of the U. S. 14th air force.

President Roosevelt took a personal look at the Japanese fleet.

America Achieves Greatest Sea Victory in Its History

By LEONARD MILLIMAN

Pacific fleet forces crushed the Japanese fleet in the three-day air and sea battles of the Philippines, destroying or crippling more than 28 warships—mostly carriers, battleships and cruisers—in one of the world's greatest naval engagements.

Gene Worley Helps Direct '1,000 Club'

In a special dispatch from Washington Peter Edson, NEA Washington correspondent of The Pampa News, today listed the name of Rep. Eugene Worley of Shamrock, U. S. representative from the 18th congressional district as one of six executive directors of "The 1,000 Club of the U. S. A."

The One Thousand Club, according to Edson, is an organization which is raising an extra million dollars to support the re-election of President Roosevelt. It is made up of 1,000 members, each contributing $1,000 to the campaign for FDR.

A more detailed explanation of the million dollar aims of the "One Thousand Club" to raise a million dollars for FDR's re-election will be found in a special article by Peter Edson, The News' Washington correspondent, at the bottom of Page One.

Royalty Mother Succumbs at 88

LONDON, Oct. 26—(AP)—Princess Beatrice, youngest and last surviving child of Britain's famed Queen Victoria and mother of former Queen Victoria Eugenie of Spain, died today.

She was a great aunt to King George and the Duke of Windsor, and her family ties reached into many of Europe's royal families, some now deposed. She died at 5:10 p. m. (11:10 a. m. cwt).

An official bulletin said Princess Beatrice died peacefully in her sleep. She should have been 88 next April 14.

Former Queen Victoria Eugenie came from Switzerland by air to be at her mother's side. A son, the Marquis of Carisbrooke, also was in London. Two other children are dead.

Christened Beatrice Marie Victoria Feodore but known all her life simply as Princess Beatrice, she was governor and captain of the Isle of Wight since the death of her husband, Prince Henry of Battenberg, in 1896.

Princess Beatrice was a aunt of the late King George V, Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany and Queen Marie of Rumania.

Archbishop of Canterbury Dies

LONDON, Oct. 26—(AP)—The archbishop of Canterbury, the Most Rev. William Temple, died today after a heart attack. The primate of all England was 63 and had been stricken in bomb-pocked old Canterbury cathedral since April 23, 1943.

His death and that of Princess Beatrice, which occurred a few hours earlier, plunged England into mourning. (Princess, death on this page.)

Dr. Temple was the son of an archbishop of Canterbury, and they were the only father and son ever to hold the highest office in the Church of England. The father was the late Dr. Frederick Temple, who was archbishop during the reign of Edward VII.

Dr. William Temple succeeded Dr. Cosmo Gordon Lang, who resigned at 78 with the request that a younger man be placed in the office. In 1928, Dr. Temple has become archbishop of York, second highest post in the Church of England, and before that he had been bishop of Manchester.

Grand Jury Will Review Shooting

Gray county grand jury will be called into session Monday morning to review evidence in the fatal shooting Monday of Kenneth W. Conway, 34-year-old oil well rigger.

Conway succumbed to two pistol shot wounds, received as an aftermath of an argument alleged to have ensued following a boxing bout between his seven-year-old son, Larry, and Coy Ray Jackson also seven, grandson of E. G. McEntire, southside produce vendor, who is alleged to have fired the fatal shots.

McEntire was arrested by Gray county sheriff's department and later waived preliminary hearing. He was released on a $3,000 bond. Meanwhile, the body of Conway is at the Duenkel-Carmichael funeral home pending arrangements which will be made upon the arrival of relatives from California.

Workers in Fund Drive Will Meet

With the slogan, "one day's pay from each employe," solicitation among employes in downtown stores and business houses will begin tomorrow morning in an effort to boost the total in Pampa's 1944-45 community chest.

A meeting of workers who will start on the drive tomorrow morning has been called for 7:30 o'clock tonight in the chamber of commerce rooms at city hall.

Leib Langston and Ed Weiss, co-chairmen of the downtown solicitation, today urged all workers to attend tonight's meeting for instructions and supplies.

"It is the hope of our committee," Langston said, "that every employe will contribute at least one day's pay."

J. W. Garman, general chairman of the drive, stated today that the drive seemed to be picking up momentum.

"We still need more workers out on the job and if those who have cards will make their calls and report back as soon as possible we'll be able to finish the drive perhaps sooner than we thought," Garman said.

Today's total toward the $21,000 goal had reached $6,120, Garman said.

CITY IMPROVEMENT:

Pampa's Sewer Is Laid Deeper Than Most, Engineer Reports

(Editor's Note: This is the third in a series of articles dealing with the study of the needs for repairs and renovations in Pampa's sewerage system. The articles were prepared by Everette Bannister, member of The News staff.)

The inspection on the ground and a study of all available plans of sewers here showed outstanding features of the system to be extraordinarily deep line, uniform grades, deep manholes with deep manhole construction, unusual manhole spacing, plus the use of lampholes rather than cleanouts.

Ward pointed out to the commission that in most sewer systems it is unusual to find sewers laid at a depth greater than 20 feet, but that on the Pampa system the extreme depth is more than 26 feet.

The depth of the ordinary sewer is considered at from three to four feet from the starting point, or upper end of a small sewer which usually begins in the residential area where there is no significant cross slope and no extension anticipated. The Pampa sewer, constructed in the original system and also in the 1928 improvement programs have an upper starting end depth of from five to eight feet.

Pampa's sewer grades, according to the engineer, are unusually uniform, and are very near the minimum grades recommended by sanitary authorities. The minimum recommended grades are 0.60 per cent for six-inch piping; 0.40 per cent for eight-inch piping; 0.29 per cent for 10-inch piping; 0.22 per cent for 12-inch piping; and 0.15 per cent for 15-inch piping. These minimum grades are expected to develop a flow velocity of two feet per second, which means approximately 16 times the minimum grades. Higher velocities would scour out the pipe where there is considerable flow, but where

Condition of Piping

Workmen repairing the failures reported that the concrete pipe is badly decomposed and that the decomposition was most prominent at the top, little if any was observed in the bottom of the piping where it is always covered with sewerage.

The upper part of the piping where repairs were made, was invariably much thinner than the normal concrete pipe of the same size.

The engineer reported that in some instances the 15-inch pipe, which has a normal thickness of 1 1/4 inches, had left only a shell that measured less than 1/4 inch thick.

Manholes were also reported to be in bad condition. Sewerage gas has attacked the concrete walls, and some of the manhole walls are so badly disintegrated that they are in danger of falling, thus permitting the cast iron covers to fall into the manholes.

Field Inspection

The engineer's inspection covered pipe and manholes in various sections of the city. Pipes were uncovered and holes were broken in the tops of some of the pipes. Other inspections covered the pipes where they enter and leave the manhole, but the inspection extended to the extreme upper ends of laterals to places on the outfall main near the disposal plant.

Pampan Learning To Fly at Home

Add one more Pampan's name to the list of three fortunate youths who have returned to earn their silver pilot's wings and officer's bars at Pampa army air field.

Training in the lower class of aviation cadets learning to fly twin-engine B-25 Mitchell bombers at the local air base is Ralph W. Prock, 26-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Prock, 416 S. Gillespie St.

His parents have the rare privilege of seeing their son actually training at the twin-engine school and, at the same time, playing important roles in keeping him flying. They are employed in base shops. His father is a parts distributor, and his mother works in the electrical department, primarily on field lighting equipment.

Aviation Cadet Prock is married to the former Fern McCormick, daughter of Lloyd R. McCormick of Borger. She resides at 1320 Duncan St., Pampa.

A 1935 graduate of Almarred high school, Prock was assistant secretary of the Pampa National Farm Loan association and Canadian Valley PCA in field appraising and book-keeping for almost two years before he went on active duty on June 26, 1943. He was appointed an aviation cadet on May 25, 1943.

Before taking primary flight training at Brayton Field, Camp, Prock earned a private pilot's license at Pampa municipal airport in civilian life. He received basic flight training at Waco army air field. Other Pampan's who returned here to earn their wings were Hoydt West, Soren Jensen, and J. Nevin Johnston.

Women Showing More Interest in Rationing

HOUSTON, Oct. 26.—(AP)—Women are showing an increasing interest in rationing as a means of assuring them their share of scarce commodities, and in prices of postwar products, Mrs. Leone Crowlie, special assistant to the administrator of the OPA, said in a brief press conference here yesterday.

Mrs. Crowlie is touring the country in the interest of the educational program of the OPA. She reached Houston last night and left early today for Beaumont and Port Arthur where she is to address women's clubs on the OPA's program.

Postwar economy is being considered more and more by women's groups, Mrs. Crowlie said. She told of a group of women in Lubbock who raised the question, "Should war bonds be used after the war to buy commodities that are needed?"

"They decided that if quality and value are demanded their spending will not contribute to inflation," she said.

County Agent To Help Veterans

Demobilized war veterans desiring to farm in Gray county will have the advice and assistance in any incidental problems of a county advisory committee consisting of five Gray county farmers, Glenn Hackney, county farm agent, announced today.

The committee, composed of Irvin Cole, chairman, Pampa; C. W. Boyers, Miami; W. F. Taylor, Pampa; Jack Stephens, Groom; and Mrs. Lowell Osborn, Pampa, will function to advise veterans in ways to serve their best interests; to help them find places on farms, and to compare information of a general nature regarding agricultural conditions in Gray county.

The committee is a part of the selective service veterans' assistance program and was created at the request of Grover Hill, assistant war food administrator. He specified that the group should be set up by each state A. & M. college extension service, under the leadership of the various county agents.

All discharged servicemen are required to report to their local selective service boards within five days after discharge. Inquiry as to their plans are made at the time of their returning veteran reports. If discharged veterans indicate a desire to engage in farming, they are informed about the advisory assistance which the committee and the county agent are prepared to render.

In addition, material containing information about the assistance program has been made by the war department and is being distributed to servicemen in advance of discharge.

ices, that would make him eligible, or if he had given $1,000 to other party organization, or the democratic national committee, or the democratic state or county or township or city committee, he could still get in by proving his good deeds of the past.

"The board of trustees," says the constitution, "may elect to membership any eligible person who has in its opinion contributed outstanding services to the objectives of this club."

Quite a few members are expected to be admitted under this provision, getting their copper membership cards without direct payment of the $1,000 poll tax. Some of the prospects approached for membership are reported to have been able to bargain their way into membership by citing their own record party deeds and offering to get a few more members for the club if they themselves are admitted without payment of another $1,000.

Borrowing a line original with Gerald L. K. Smith, Dr. Edward A. Ramey, Payson O'Daniel and other such educational leaders, the first objective of the 1,000 club is stated as "To support and defend the constitution." In politics, you can apparently do anything you want to just so long as you say it's to support and defend the constitution.

Second and third objectives of the 1,000 club are: "To promote the general welfare of the United States" and "To support the war." The club's constitution provides members should prepare . . .

"To participate actively in political campaigns in supporting the men best qualified to hold public office."

But the payoff comes in the final precept:

"To accept contributions and make expenditures for the purpose of influencing the election of candidates for the Presidency and Vice-Presidency."

Well, it costs money to elect a President, and the democratic national committee is limited to $3,000,000. Radio time costs $90,000 an hour if you go in for a nation-wide broadcast, and had a dozen such chain broadcasts would cost over half a million. The 1,000 club expects to do considerable sponsoring and advertising in other ways relative to the national committee as a purely independent service.

Work of the 1,000 club will not, however, end when this campaign is over, for the constitution provides that members of the board of trustees shall hold office till their death or removal or inability to act.

Chief duties of the trustees, besides those in the million dollars in initiation fees, seem to be in passing on the membership, but that's wide open, as any democratic club should be.

"Any American citizen may become a member," says the constitution, "by applying for membership and by being elected by the board of trustees."

If the 1,000 club doesn't accept your application for membership, they promise to refund your money.

"Adoption of administration policies." Declaring the Roosevelt administration "lacks even rudimentary honesty," Dewey said:

"And the sponsor of this idea is frankly stated in that letter to be the President himself. The man who holds the highest office within the gift of the American people at a conference in the White House sponsors an idea to sell 'special privilege' and a voice in the formulation of the administration policies for one thousand dollars on the barrelhead. That's why it's time for a change."

They are, in addition to Representative Worley from the Texas Panhandle, Estes Kefauver of Chattanooga, Tenn.; Robert L. F. Sikes of Cratfield, Fla.; P. which he said was written on a letterhead of the national democratic headquarters, Little Rock, Ark., and signed by H. L. McAllister and Sam J. Watkins, state finance directors, inviting the recipient to join the club.

Dewey quoted the letter as saying "the idea for such a club had originated 'at a recent conference' at the White House between the President, Robert E. Hannegan, chairman of the democratic national committee, and Edwin W. Pauley, treasurer of the committee. He said the letter continued that at this meeting the President had said:

"I think it would be a good idea to have a list of one thousand persons banded together from all over the United States to act as a liaison to see that facts relating to the public interest are presented factually to the President and members of Congress."

Dewey then read what he said was the following quotation from the letter:

"Members of this organization undoubtedly will be granted special privilege and prestige by party leaders. These members will be called into conference from time to time to discuss matters of national importance and to assist in the formation of administration policies."

"To be eligible for membership in the One Thousand Club will require a contribution of $1,000 to the national democratic campaign fund."

"There in crude unblushing words," Dewey told a nationwide radio audience, "is the ultimate expression of New Deal policies by the theory of 'who gets what, when, and why'."

Relieve that Tormenting PIN-WORM ITCH Too Embarrassing To Talk About!

It is no longer necessary to put up with the trouble caused by Pin-Worms. You can get relief by using Pin-Worm relief. Medical science has now discovered a new and highly effective way to relieve this stubborn and troublesome infection. This important scientific discovery is a remarkable drug known as gentian violet. It is the vital element in P-W, the new Pin-Worm treatment developed by the laboratories of Dr. D. J. Jones & Son, America's leading specialists in worm medicines. P-W tablets are small and easy to take, and they act in a special way to destroy the ugly creature.

Watch for the warning signs: itching nose and seat, uneasy stomach, bed-wetting, nervous appetite. Remember that there is a treatment that works on Pin-Worms as an old-fashioned "worm syrup" or "worm candy" could. Stop your present Pin-Worms, get a box of P-W right away, and follow the directions carefully. P-W means Pin-Worm relief!

Ration Board Gives Gas Information

Miss Lucile Douglass, chief clerk of the Gray county war price and rationing office, today renewed her notice that neither gasoline ration tickets nor the front, back, or any other part of basic gasoline ration "A" book need be submitted in applying for supplemental gasoline.

In issuing the warning Miss Douglass pointed out that form R-531, the form that accompanied the gasoline ration book when it was received by the owner through the war was the only slip needed when the supplemental gasoline application is made.

The chief clerk further added that the practice of detaching gasoline ration coupons from the "A" book would only bring cancellation of the ration coupon, for coupons must be detached by service station operators and servicemen at the time of gasoline purchase.

Carefully designed storage space can help homemakers do their work with the least expenditure of time and energy.

Commission Bans Plumbing Bill

Pampa city commissioners, in their regular weekly session yesterday, voted to repeal City ordinance Number 234, dealing with standard plumbing for defense houses.

The ordinance, enacted on December 14, 1943, called for the adoption of emergency plumbing standards for defense housing as promulgated by the division of defense housing in coordination with the executive office of the President. It required the licensing of plumbers under standard wartime plumbing conditions for the duration of the emergency, but the city commissioners, with an eye to lowering the high cost of plumbing in Pampa, repealed the law.

Other business disposed of by the commissioners consisted of the approval and payment of a $5,440.77 general fund bill. Another bill for the Pampa library for $63.95 was approved and ordered paid.

Big Slaughter Plan For More Meat Made

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—A slaughter of about 34,000,000 head of cattle, about 1,000,000 more than the estimated killings this year, has been recommended to War Food Administrator Marvin Jones as the 1945 goal by his meat goal committee. It also suggested spring pig crop goals remain about the same as for 1944.

It was estimated that some 33,000,000 head of cattle would be slaughtered this year—slightly short of the 33,700,000 goal—resulting in cutting the record 82,000,000 head on farms Jan. 1, 1944, by 1,000,000.

Ration Board Gives Gas Information

Miss Lucile Douglass, chief clerk of the Gray county war price and rationing office, today renewed her notice that neither gasoline ration tickets nor the front, back, or any other part of basic gasoline ration "A" book need be submitted in applying for supplemental gasoline.

In issuing the warning Miss Douglass pointed out that form R-531, the form that accompanied the gasoline ration book when it was received by the owner through the war was the only slip needed when the supplemental gasoline application is made.

The chief clerk further added that the practice of detaching gasoline ration coupons from the "A" book would only bring cancellation of the ration coupon, for coupons must be detached by service station operators and servicemen at the time of gasoline purchase.

Carefully designed storage space can help homemakers do their work with the least expenditure of time and energy.

Commission Bans Plumbing Bill

Pampa city commissioners, in their regular weekly session yesterday, voted to repeal City ordinance Number 234, dealing with standard plumbing for defense houses.

The ordinance, enacted on December 14, 1943, called for the adoption of emergency plumbing standards for defense housing as promulgated by the division of defense housing in coordination with the executive office of the President. It required the licensing of plumbers under standard wartime plumbing conditions for the duration of the emergency, but the city commissioners, with an eye to lowering the high cost of plumbing in Pampa, repealed the law.

Other business disposed of by the commissioners consisted of the approval and payment of a $5,440.77 general fund bill. Another bill for the Pampa library for $63.95 was approved and ordered paid.

Exclusively American birds include the warblers, flycatchers, vireos, tanagers, humming birds and orioles.

Big Slaughter Plan For More Meat Made

WASHINGTON, Oct. 25.—A slaughter of about 34,000,000 head of cattle, about 1,000,000 more than the estimated killings this year, has been recommended to War Food Administrator Marvin Jones as the 1945 goal by his meat goal committee. It also suggested spring pig crop goals remain about the same as for 1944.

It was estimated that some 33,000,000 head of cattle would be slaughtered this year—slightly short of the 33,700,000 goal—resulting in cutting the record 82,000,000 head on farms Jan. 1, 1944, by 1,000,000.

Economy

Let's have an end to all this talk about inflated government payrolls and extravagant bureaucracy. The war production board has just dispensed with the services of five dollar-a-year men.

On British ships, officers have a wine mess, and part of the war-room is set aside as a club room where beer, sherry, whiskey or gin can be obtained tax free.

Pampa Is Among Group Cited for Solomons Action

A Pampa infantryman is today entitled to wear the Distinguished Unit Badge by virtue of the citation of his company by President Roosevelt for outstanding performance in the battle of Hill 700 on Bougainville Island in the northern Solomons.

He is Pvt. First Class Lloyd Grantham, son of Mr. Willie Bertha Grantham, of Pampa.

Private Grantham's company was credited in the Presidential citation with performing its duties in such a superior manner "as to assure and facilitate the success of a counter-attack against an enemy salient on Hill 700, which resulted in the destruction of the Japanese forces in that sector and removal of a major threat to our positions."

"This action was a double envelopment executed by elements of one infantry battalion. The Japanese penetration of our lines was so narrow as to make it imprudent for the Americans to use large reserves. The proximity of the enemy to our lines prohibited the use of support artillery and the rugged terrain precluded the use of tanks. An advance over every conceivable obstacle against the commanding positions and excellent fields of fire of the enemy was a prerequisite to success in this operation."

"The entire company supported the battalion's efforts, and the role of devotion to duty and superior teamwork of this company's personnel was instrumental in the success of this attack."

"The precipitous terrain made it necessary for the ammunition and Antitank Platoon, to hand carry ammunition and supplies to combat troops under constant fire. The Communications Platoon maintained communication with all units and contributed immeasurably to the mission. Other members of the unit were industrious and alert at all times in the procurement of information relative to hostile positions, intentions and capabilities."

"The personnel of this company demonstrated magnificent initiative, courage, tenaciousness, and desperation which resulted in a victory of major importance to the entire American defense of Bougainville Island."

Private Grantham has been over seas since September, 1943, and was stationed on Guadalcanal and New Caledonia before participating in the Bougainville campaign. In addition he wears the Distinguished Unit Badge for exemplary service in action.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 26—Four-month-old Howard Eugene Wilkinson is teacher's pet at the Stevens school in Dane county, and shamelessly the teacher babies him—because the teacher is his mother.

All summer long the township school board scoured the countryside for a teacher without success. Mrs. Wilkinson, who had done lived with her husband and baby on a farm just a half mile from the school. A week before school opened the board, in desperation, prevailed upon Mrs. Wilkinson to sign a contract to teach as her share in the war effort.

So every school day Mrs. Wilkinson rises before dawn, helps milk the cows, gets breakfast, bathes the baby, fixes the baby's bottles and dishes and dresses for school. She and her husband pack their car with school books and papers, jars with etc., sweaters and a folding baby carriage.

Her husband drives them to school then returns to his farm work from 9:30 until mid-afternoon. Mrs. Wilkinson guides her charges through the three "R's" taking a few minutes off here and there to feed or pacify the baby, in his carriage beside her desk.

Constant Contact Had Been Held With Philippine Patriots Since '42

GENERAL MacARTHUR'S HEADQUARTERS, Philippines, Oct. 26—A weak signal from a radio in the late fall of 1942 set in motion machinery to aid the guerrillas which culminated in the full-scale invasion of the Philippines. Gen. Douglas MacArthur has disclosed.

In a special communique issued from his headquarters and broadcast in English to the Philippines, the general paid tribute to the guerrillas.

"For two years, he said, the inadequately armed patriots, some of them Americans who never surrendered, others who escaped from prison camps and men sent in to carry out specific missions, have fought the Japanese."

"Through the understanding assistance of our navy I was able at first, arms, ammunition and medical supplies. The news of the first shipment spread rapidly throughout the Philippines to electrify the people into returning consciousness of their forgotten but not abandoned country."

MacArthur told how the supplies continued to grow and that eventually four submarines were committed to the exclusive task of taking them in.

He told how the guerrillas obtained the secret defensive plans and instructions of the combined American and Japanese forces which were used to counter several Japanese offensives in the American Pacific areas. In addition, complete possession of the strength and distribution of enemy forces.

"We are aided," he said, "by the fact that for many months fitted from the hazardous labors of a vast network of agents, numbering into the hundreds of thousands, providing precise, accurate and detailed information on major enemy moves and installations throughout the Philippine Archipelago."

MacArthur said that on every major island of the Philippines there are one or more completely equipped and staffed weather observatories. An air warning system of air over nearly every square foot of Philippine soil.

"We are aided," he said, "by provision on all inland waterways and coastal areas of complete observation over enemy naval movements, to give immediate target information to our submarines and patrol information in Philippine waters. This sinking of enemy shipping of enormous tonnage. And through the same facilities we flashed the warning to our naval forces of the eastern Philippines during the Marianas operation."

MacArthur disclosed that the combined Japanese fleets (unidentified) prior to his death from incident.

MANY ROASTERS HAVE CHEAPENED THEIR BLENDS

To say "cheapened" is to put it mildly. "Adulterated" is more accurate. That's why certain established brands, used perhaps for years, have recently begun tasting bitter or flat or different in other ways. They're not the same coffee blends they were. But don't misunderstand us. We're not speaking of Admiration. It's 100 per cent in all ways identically the same delightful, satisfying blend it's always been. True—it costs us more money. But that doesn't matter. We place our responsibility and the loyalty of our thousands of users above profits.

NO WONDER THEY TASTE "DIFFERENT"

A change in blending formula makes a changed blend. In many cases it means an altogether new blend of coffee. You simply can't make a superior blend of coffee with cheap coffees. It takes choice, expensive coffees—the kind used exclusively in Admiration. So if your regular brand has been tasting different, buy a pound of the coffee that never varies, war or no war. Buy a pound of Admiration and earn the applause of your hero.

America's Freedom of Press May Become Model for World

By RICHARD TOMPKINS

NEW YORK—Freedom of speech and press—guarded cornerstone of American democracy—may well become the model for postwar news gathering and dissemination.

Growing awareness of the necessity of open and untrammeled channels of news and information in an enduring peace, is focusing attention upon the principles of freedom of press and radio as practiced in the United States.

"Outstanding development has been the demand by the Congress of the United States, as well as both major political parties, that guarantee the rights to gather and transmit news throughout the world, without government or other interference, to be included in the peace settlement."

Only last September 21, Congress urged upon the world the free interchange of news as a cornerstone of approaching peace. This historic but far-reaching resolution read: "Resolved, by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring):

"That the Congress of the United States expresses its belief in the news-gathering and distributing agencies, whether individual or association, by any means without discrimination, rates or charges; and that this right should be protected by international compact."

Such action, its proponents explain, would banish not only the evils of such complete government registration of international news agencies, but would prevent the formation of international news monopolies or cartels such as were long operated by the great European proprietary news agencies until recently.

measures to assure freedom of the press in all countries. "The battle," he said, "must largely be fought by world news agencies, such as Reuters in Great Britain and the United Press in the United States."

From England also comes the voice of Lord Rothermere, publisher of the London Daily Mail, who said last May that a free press is a better safeguard for world peace than treaties. "When reconquered," he added, "I hope the ministers of the world will do their best to see that in every country of the world."

British Consulate of Tanks

The British Broadcasting Corp. and the recently managing director of Reuters, said in 1942:

"We of Great Britain are deeply conscious of the absolute necessity of there being freedom of international news exchange. We are deeply conscious of the tremendous freedom to all nations. The principles are rapidly being extended to the end we desire to attain."

opposing a new press and news development. Its old, Havas agency, which was a member of the former European cartel, is no more. Leon Rollin, director of the new Agence Francaise de la Presse, said recently that his aim is to model it after the American news agencies, completely independent of government.

In the axis countries, the United Nations will now have an opportunity to impress the principles of freedom of press and radio. This was already included for Italy in the Moscow declaration, drawn up by the Russian capital a year ago by United Nations representatives, including Secretary Hull.

Many important news agencies of the world have never known of free press, including Russia, but free for Italy. Development of the stipulation of radio freedom in much of the world may be slow, but it seems now within the grasp of hundreds of millions of leading people.

Leaders Echo Cry

The battle cry in the United States has been echoed vigorously by the newspaper and periodical governmental leaders.

Said Life magazine: "The platform of both political parties favors this goal, an old dream of governmental leaders."

Freedom of the Associated Press, in fact a sine qua non of enduring peace. It is the most logical of all American war aims, and more than territory or money."

From James L. Fry, chairman of the Federal Communications Commission, has come a recommendation of "five basic principles" of communication for international peace: uniformity of radio frequencies for all messages in messages, instantaneous radio communication to all important areas of the globe, uniform and low press rates throughout the world and freedom of ingress and egress of information in all nations.

Curb On Aggressors

Niles Trammell, president of the National Broadcasting Company, expressed his opinion in this way: "A peace treaty which will curb aggressors from manufacturing arms and armaments should deprive them also of the power to control the press and radio. There should be no boundaries in the dissemination of news. There should be no government monopoly of news services nor any limitation upon the right of one nation to freely gather news in another nation."

"Free peoples will insist that the peace treaty contain provisions making the news of the world accessible to all nations."

DRIVES WIFE BATS

ROANOKE, Va.—Bedridden R. Cecil Hall recently ran a wanted ad offering $200 in advance to someone who would give eight of his cats a good home in the county. Hall, a world war one veteran who hasn't walked for 12 years, has people who didn't want them. When the job of attending to both Hall and the cats became too much for his wife, Hall advertised. Market Briefs

NEW YORK WALL STREET

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—(AP)—Lack of leadership and low volume in today's stock market held prices within narrow bounds with most leaders showing minor losses near the close.

Some specialties gave a good account of themselves. Dealings totaled about 600,000 shares. A little on the offside towards the finish of the session were General Motors, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Santa Fe, Northern Pacific and Chesapeake & Ohio. Somewhat steadier were Goodyear, Westinghouse, Texas Co. and Childs Co.

The curb list disclosed losses or American Cyanamid, Croco Petroleum and Glen Alden Coal with Childs Preferred several points ahead and Republic Aviation and Electric Bond & Share moderately improved. Bonds were mixed.

Civil Clashes Occur in China

CHUNGKING, Oct. 26—(AP)—P. H. Chang, a cabinet spokesman, said yesterday in reply to questions that clashes had occurred during August and September between Chinese government and Chinese communist troops. He asserted that the communists took the initiative.

Chang said that toward the end of August the communists attacked the government's 61st army about 18 miles east of Linfen on the Tungpu railway in southwestern Shansi province. The communists were repulsed, he said.

The communists then concentrated more than 14 regiments and on September 8 again attacked the 61st army while mobile units attacked the 72nd government division, which being outnumbered, was forced to retreat.

On September 11 the communists attacked government troops at Chulin in eastern Shensi province and on September 21 moved against Kankangpinghsiang.

Harvesters Enroute to Brownfield Cubs Camping Ground

Amarillo's Golden Sandies Watching

Pampa Harvesters leave this afternoon to invade Brownfield in possibly one of the most interesting grid games of the 1944 season.

Amarillo, with no game on its schedule this week-end, plus numerous other future opponents of the Harvesters, will cast gleaming eyes upon the outcome of this clash, for it is the first grab into the District 1-AA conference bag for the Harvesters this year.

Coach Otis Correy has issued caution after caution to his men that they expect almost anything from the Cubs, who have tied one game and won four this season. The Cubs pack a mean wallop and the bodies are not set up for an easy knockdown.

The game, scheduled for play tomorrow night on the Cubs, stomp-in ground will see fast and furious action. The Cubs enjoy their best being listed among the twelve undefeated teams in the state. They are very definitely dangerous, but the Harvesters know they have faced tough competition before, and pretty well surmise what they are tackling.

Familiar faces will oppose the Harvesters in the Cubs line this year as Clark and Jones, who played outstanding ball against the Harvesters in 1943 will again be on hand in the starting line. Clark weighs 332 pounds and plays his position of tackle well. Jones, the center, weighs 145 pounds and is in the position of center on the squad.

Brownfield Coach John A. Bost of Brownfield has announced the probable starting lineup against the Harvesters as:

Name	Pos.	Wt.
Kimpton	LE	165
Clark	LT	232
Lewis	LG	155
Jones	RG	145
White	RC	165
Price	RT	212
Byler	BE	175
Chambless, J.	QB	152
Franks	FB	151
Chambless, L.	LHB
Hill	RHB

Radio station KFDN, going on the air from Brownfield shortly before the kickoff at 8 o'clock, will as usual carry a play-by-play description of the game. Sports Forum, local sports enthusiast will do the broadcast, with Walter Nelson adding color before the game is called and between the halves.

Sports Roundup

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, Oct. 26—(AP)—In a high school football game at Chipewawa Falls, Wis., recently the two teams lined up facing the wrong goals after a score and didn't discover it until Bloomer school carried the winning touchdown over the wrong line—then the hollering began but officials decided to allow the tally and to finish the game the wrong way—and in Ohio a Yungstown Ursuline halfback was going for a touchdown when a Seleneville sub, ready to into the game, dashed out from the sidelines and tackled him—also in Ohio Ted Himes of Mt. Blanchard insisted on kicking the extra point bare footed. "I get a better feel of things with 'em off," he explained. He made three out of four tries.

Hal Chase and George Sleser, conceded to be two of the best fielding first basemen in baseball, each made four errors in one contest while Zeke Bonura, noted for his stationary fielding, held the record for double plays by a first sacker—150—until Lou Gehrig broke it.

ONE-MINUTE SPORTS PAGE
It may be petty to mention it, but Michigan state's football team already has played the Scranton Tomcats, the Wildcats of Kentucky and Kansas state and soon will meet the Missouri Tigers—the New York Rover are "importing" two Virginia, Minn., and Tony Dorn of Thief River Falls, Minn., who tried out with the Rangers in Winnipeg—Miami, Fla., high school recently ended a 32-game football winning streak that began in 1940 and Snackover, Ark. suffered its first defeat after 22 straight wins.

Famous Pair To Do Grid Battle Again

NEW YORK, Oct. 26—(AP)—The eyes of Massillon, O., where professional football flourished back in 1904, will focus Saturday on Massillon, Wis., where two of the town's favorite sons will do gridiron battle.

The illustrious pair—Coach Harry Stuhldreher of Wisconsin, and Lt. Paul Brown, skipper of the Great Lakes Sailors—probably have spread more newspaper ink than that other Massillon notable, Gen. Jacob S. Coxey, who led "Coxey's army" on Washington a half-century ago.

Stuhldreher and Brown both came up from Massillon's Washington high school, where for the past 10 years the "Ferrite Tigers" have averaged 18,000 per game in attendance and haven't been beaten more than a couple of times.

Both were backfield men for the Tigers. Nether weighed over 135. Stuhldreher, graduating in 1920, went on to Notre Dame to become one of the famed "Four Horsemen." Brown, six years later, found himself too small for Ohio State's rugged squad for a year as a freshman, and transferred to Little Miami university at Oxford, O.

MANPOWER SHORTAGE
NEW YORK, Oct. 26—(AP)—Coach Howard G. Cann today cut his New York U. all-civilian basketball squad to 15 men, including seven veterans of last year's team and one discharged service man who played two years with the Violets. Cann is in his 22nd year of basketball at the university.

Service Golf Tournament In Quarter-Finals

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 25—(AP)—Championship quarter-finals in the Eighth service command's five-state golf tournament will be held here today with favorites leading a star-packed field.

Finals will be played tomorrow following a putting contest. Trophies will be awarded winners tomorrow afternoon.

Today's quarter-final schedule includes Pvt. Ashley Loafea of Hollywood, Calif., stationed at Brooke general hospital, San Antonio, vs. Lt. Francis G. Harvey, Camp Plauche, La.; and Arlington, Mass.: Sgt. Bernard J. Kizmik, Roswell, N. M., prisoner of war camp and Mahway, N. J., vs. Pvt. Leonard White, Dallas, of regional hospital, Camp Barkeley; Pfc. Albert W. Brosch of Huntington Station, N. Y., of the army service forces training center, Camp Barkeley, vs. Cpl. John P. Marzsa, ASPIC, Camp Barkeley, San Francisco; Officer Candidate Owen M. Panner, TIC OCS, and Shawnee, Okla., vs. Pfc. Milton B. Ripley, Camp Barkeley and Bradford, Mass.

In medalist play Pvt. Lonfa defeated 1st Lt. S. B. Sloucm, Camp Walters, 4 and 3, and 1st Lt. Gerald A. Burns, Fort Bliss, 3 and 1. Pvt. White defeated Pvt. Michael Popik of Camp Claiborne, La., and Binghamton, N. Y., 4 and 3, and Staff Sgt. Rand Carroll of Camp Plauche, La. and Raleigh, N. C.

Deadlock for the team title will be settled today. The match is between the Transportation corps officer candidate school, New Orleans, and the ASFTC, Camp Barkeley. They tied with 397 each over the scheduled 18-hole stretch.

Sky Giants To Tackle South Plains

AMARILLO ARMY AIR FIELD, Amarillo, Tex., Oct. 26—(AP)—Unhappy, but undaunted, by their loss last weekend, the Sky Giants of Amarillo army air field lost no time in preparing for their game here Saturday night with the South Plains army air field eleven.

Giant Coach Steve Sebo watched the SPAAF game last week with Lubbock army air field and reported to his charges at Amarillo that their next enemy was much stronger than the SPAAF loss to LAAF would indicate.

"They have a great passer, a good ground attack, and will give us plenty of trouble all the way through," he said. "And we will not be at our strongest after our loss last week to Norman." Norman naval air station Zoomers defeated the Sky Giants last week 19 to 13 in a thriller.

Head Coach Dan Salkeld of the Giants went to work immediately to patch up the line which did not show up too well against the Zoomers and emphasized no end went to reinforce his passing defense.

"Our first string took such a bruising against Norman," Salkeld said, "I don't know how many will be able to stand another game this week."

However, Panhandle fans attending the Sky Giant-Winged Commando engagement, will see plenty of football with players such as the Giants' Pro-End Al Coppage, Tennessee's Bill Powell at end, All-American Bobby Paffrath of Minnesota in the backfield, Giant Charles Gaudin, 247-pounder from Vanderbilt, at tackle, and Quarterback John Gill, who formerly played for Texas university and Amarillo high school in the line-up.

The game, to start at 8 o'clock Saturday night at Butler Field, Amarillo, will be the third and next to last home game for the Amarillo army air field Sky Giants.

Green Bay Packers Must Not Be Sure

CHICAGO, Oct. 26—(AP)—Those Green Bay Packers may be booming along at the head of the National Football league's western division today, but says Commissioner Elmer Layden, they can't be counted in until the Cleveland Rams are counted out.

"Remember, the Rams were just about counted out before the season opened," Layden said today in an interview. "Look what they've done. They knocked off the Cardinals, Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions in a row before losing that 30-21 thriller to Green Bay Sunday."

"That team has more spirit, more confidence than any club in the league, and an ingenuity in developing plays off the T-formation that has every defense they'll meet worried."

Waco Tigers Picked Number 1 Gridders

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Few ranking teams of Texas schoolboy football appear in danger this week with four of the top ten without games and none of the others meeting elevens reared with leading twenty.

The weekly Associated Press poll shows Waco still the No. 1 outfit with more first and more second places than any other school and San Angelo next. Waco has no game this week.

If there are members of the select circle facing upsets it would appear to be San Angelo and Highland Park (Dallas), the fourth-ranking team. San Angelo plays an arch rival, Odessa.

Wichita Falls presents probably more of a menace to Highland Park although the Scotties seem destined to win on the record.

Amarillo, the third ranking team, has no game and it is the same with fifth-ranking Austin, Lakita, in sixth place, plays St. Thomas of Houston; Vernon, the seventh placer, engages Olney; Sunset, which holds No. 8 spot, has no game; Fort Arthur and Tyler, tied for tenth, meet Orange and Henderson respectively.

The Paschal-Poly battle at Fort Worth is the only game in the state pitting unbeaten teams. Poly, however, has been tied.

Golden Sandies Prep For Tilt With Pampa

AMARILLO, Tex., Oct. 26—(Special to The News)—There's no need of announcing the date of the Pampa-Amarillo football game because the Golden Sandstorm fans have been waiting for the time to come ever since last year.

Polk street authorities on Sandie football have reviewed the Harvesters-Sandie game all year. Even a defense worker who drops into a barber shop once every 30 days for his monthly hair cut knows about the tilt on November 4.

And, brother, there isn't going to be standing room at Butler Field. After downing the Berger Bulldogs 26 to 6 last week, the Amarillo high school team is taking it easy this week with no game on their schedule.

Coach Howard "Bull" Lynch said late Tuesday night that he was going to give the Sandstorm team a chance to take a rest this week before they start work for the clash with the Harvesters.

Earlier this week Center John Bob Watts, who has been out of the Sandie line-up for the last three weeks with an injured left leg, ventured out in his black and gold uniform, but after a few minutes of throwing his weight on the injured limb he took to the bench. Watts is going to have to take care of the injury if he expects to play against Pampa.

Co-Capt. Dale Collins, who has been out of the last three games, except for the time he played against the Norman, Okla., Tigers, appeared to be in good condition. His ankle showed no sign of being weak.

Joe Frank Roberson, stellar guard, is definitely out of the Pampa tussle. He's able to be on the practice field but he won't play any more football this season. He's been in the hospital with two fractured vertebrae.

Second-string Center Don Mulky broke his ankle in the Berger game last Friday, and will be out for the remainder of the season.

Paul Miller, Amarillo's 162-pound quarterback, continued to reach play dirt for the AHS eleven last week when he scored three TD's and kicked two extra points before Lynch threw his B and C teams against the Bulldogs in the second stanza.

Here's the scores of the Sandies' previous games: Amarillo 38, Childress 13; Amarillo 12, Abilene 0;

Japs To Pick Up Relief Supplies

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—(AP)—The Japanese ship Hakusan Maru will leave Japan October 28 to pick up relief supplies at the Soviet far eastern port of Nakhodka for allied prisoners of war and interned civilians, the state department announced Tuesday.

Acting Secretary of State Stettinius said the Japanese government had informed the department through neutral channels of its decision to send the boat to Nakhodka, 60 miles east of Vladivostok. He added that some 1,500 tons of accumulated supplies have been moved from Vladivostok to the port which was made available by the Russian government.

The supplies are destined for American, British, Canadian and Dutch nationals in Japanese hands. Stettinius said an effort will be made to place on the boat any mail which can be forwarded in time.

The container for the chemicals that filled poison fumes was fashioned from a square meat tin.

Martial Law Is Lifted in Hawaii

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—(AP)—President Roosevelt Tuesday lifted martial law and restored the privilege of habeas corpus in Hawaii, ending almost three years of military law which began with the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor December 7, 1941.

The President issued a proclamation terminating martial law and at the same time the White House made public a proclamation by Ingram M. Stainback, territorial governor of Hawaii, also restoring the writ of habeas corpus and terminating martial law. The President's proclamation becomes effective immediately.

Mr. Roosevelt also issued an executive order directing Secretary of War Stimson to designate a military commander for Hawaii and

Housewife Given Hints for Serving

CHICAGO, Oct. 26—(AP)—A nationally-known food authority gave housewives a tip yesterday on how to get away with serving stew to husbands who insist they don't like it.

"Just give the stew a fancy name and they'll love it," said Miss Edith Barber, food editor of the New York Sun and a member of the American association.

"Tell them you're serving 'boeuf daube' or 'blanquette de veau' and they'll sing your praises," she advised. "That's the way they often choose their meals in a restaurant. It works on other things than stew, also. If a man insists he doesn't like beef, just call it 'beef à la mode' and he'll eat it."

Nazis Get Taste of All-Out Air War

By JAMES M. LONG
SUPREME HQS. ALLIED EXPEDITIONARY FORCE, Oct. 26—(AP)—American planes now are attacking anything that moves or smokes or lives in Germany to bring the hard facts of war home to the Reich.

Targets no longer are just big cities or factories. This new policy is a grim and cold answer to Hitler's total mobilization of manpower. It is letting the Germans in the little towns up front find out what those in the big cities already have learned of allied hitting power.

Hitler is sweating the last ounce of production out of the industrially important belt of little factories west of the Rhine, across from Duisburg and Coblenz, an area now imminently threatened by American assault. It is there that squadrons of American Thunderbolts are strafing at heights and letting go with bombs weighing 250, 500 and 1,000 pounds.

One squadron leader, Maj. Harold Sparks of Frankfort, Ky., said the whole belt west of the Rhine was "smoking like a boomtown" as the little factories worked.

American planes, though concentrating intensively on railroad busting to seal off the battlefield, have been given permission to divert their spare energies to everything they find along the way "that lives or moves."

The Germans learned a lesson in the battle of France. Where pilots once were able to toy with freight trains "like a cat with a mouse," the Germans now have lined the tracks with all available anti-aircraft guns and are throwing up terrific defenses, Sparks said.

National War Fund Is Well Received

AUSTIN, Oct. 26—Texas led all other states in the number of counties "over the top" during the first week of the National War Fund drive now under way, and was third in the nation in percentage of its goal reached, Wayland D. Towner, general manager of the United War Chest of Texas, announced today.

A National War Fund report showing progress of the campaign from its official opening on Tuesday, October 10 to the first report date of Saturday, October 14 revealed that 26 Texas counties had surpassed their goals, and that the state as a whole had marked up 41.74 per cent of its 1944 quota. The only states ranking higher than Texas in percentage of goal reached were Delaware and Utah, each with quotas of less than $10,000. Texas, with a quota of almost

$5,000,000, was first among "big quota" states the report revealed. "Our reports of Saturday, October 21 show that our outstanding progress in the drive is continuing in all regions and in most counties," Towner declared. "I am confident that the final report at the end of the national campaign will find Texas near the top of the list."

Training Casualties

A recent news item tells of one soldier being killed and nine wounded by overhead machine gun fire during a training maneuver at Camp Croft, S. C. The loss of a soldier during training, before he has had a chance to strike a blow at the enemy, always seems particularly poignant.

It is impossible to tell precisely what a gun or machine will do in battle until it has been tried in battle. But throughout the war every item of American equipment, from clothes to bombers, has been put through the most stringent possible tests before combat use.

So the men who have lost their lives in deadly serious training here at home are no less heroes than the soldiers who have fallen in battle. Their contribution is not to be discounted.

The Nation's Press

ROOSEVELT'S HEALTH

By Frank Waldrop in the Washington (D.C.) Times-Herald. Next to the fourth term itself, the most important issue of this campaign is whether Mr. Roosevelt has the physical stamina for another four years in the White House, if re-elected.

The whole excuse for the Fourth Term campaign is that he is indispensable. And not even the most enthusiastic friend of Sen. Truman, the Democratic vice-presidential candidate, suggests that he is capable of doing for Mrs. Roosevelt's policies what Mr. Roosevelt would do himself.

Mr. Truman is recognized by all of Washington as a last gasp compromise selection, "cleared with Sidney" in the Chicago struggle between the near-communist New Dealers who wanted Mr. Wallace again and the old-fashioned, four-term Democrat who tried to get a little recognition by proposing Supreme Court Justice Byrnes of South Carolina.

But critical as the issue of Mr. Roosevelt's health is, yet practically nothing is said about it on the record, though Mr. Roosevelt at 62 is now the oldest candidate for the Presidency since 1856.

The hesitation about this by those who oppose him is natural enough. Mr. Roosevelt, slightly more than 20 years ago, suffered an attack of poliomyelitis that left him crippled.

It is the custom to speak of his "recovery" from inflexible paralysis, but that is not the truth. The truth is that Mr. Roosevelt, though he has fought gallantly and with determination, still has not recovered from infantile paralysis.

Therefore, opposition politicians who would otherwise make pointed inquiries about the health of a 62-year-old candidate for the Presidency are embarrassed to speak up.

And politicians who are for Mr. Roosevelt treat even the timeliest inquiries as if they were sacrilegious.

It cannot be said that Mr. Roosevelt is the Chief Executive of the United States. A good many people's destinies are led up with his, for better or worse, if he succeeds in persuading the American Nation to re-elect him for a fourth term.

Whether he has the endurance left for a full course of 16 years is the hardest job in the world of public business if any ever was.

As long as he seeks the Presidency, he is not a private, but a public figure, and legitimately subject to inspection in the public interest.

When Mr. Roosevelt came to Washington in 1933, he had a face that shone with vigor, he had a powerful barrel chest, and strong arms. In private, because of the condition of his legs, he moved by wheel chair.

In public appearances, he wore braces and always made it a point to walk the last few feet to any platform with the aid of a son or friend. And he always spoke standing.

That practice halted here in Washington last spring at the White House correspondents' dinner.

Instead of walking from the end of the hall to his seat at the center of the head table, as of old, Mr. Roosevelt allowed himself to be wheeled directly to his chair. And when he spoke, he remained seated.

Because that dinner was off the record, the extraordinary news of his changed system of appearance also remained off the record, though numerous correspondents inquired politely.

The President, in his Brenton, Wash., broadcast from a destroyer after his summer Pacific tour, spoke standing again.

And his speech, now described as "a failure" by his political friends as well as opponents. His voice was tired, his diction poor, and his delivery hardly recognizable.

A week ago, tonight, Mr. Roosevelt officially opened his Fourth Term campaign in a radio broadcast before the meeting of the

Common Ground

By R. C. BOILES. "I speak the plain-worded truth, I sit the sign of democracy. By God I will not be deceived on the same terms."

A Natural Result of Collective Bargaining. The outrage that James Caesar Petillo, chief of the AFL Musicians Union, has fastened on the American people is a natural result of collective bargaining.

The outrage that James Caesar Petillo, chief of the AFL Musicians Union, has fastened on the American people is a natural result of collective bargaining. The President to lift his ban on these studios and makers of phonograph records who will not pay tribute to the Musicians Union for the use of records. He reports that a great many firms have already agreed to pay so much into the union fund for the privilege of making or reproducing records.

But this is a natural result of collective bargaining. The printers unions have something similar. They believe the right to make the publisher pay should thus be passed on to the consumer. If they are not able to pay, the public is deprived of the benefit of their services.

Had not the government passed laws that made it almost impossible for the employers and the customers to be the final judges of service, it never would have been possible for Petillo to put his hands in the pockets of American workers.

If this practice is countenanced, there will be more and more Petillos. We will go further and further into a dictatorial form of government and the individual will lose more and more of his natural rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Theoretical Price Ceilings Will Not Stop Inflation. Even the New Dealers and socialists are afraid of inflation. Most of them, of course, do not know what causes inflation.

But what these theorists fail to see is that arbitrarily keeping down prices will eliminate all those producers whose cost is above the price ceiling. If the ceiling price does not cover the replacement of materials and interest on the investment, when present facilities are worn out these plants will eventually cease production.

Only the most efficient plants and only the most efficient manager will survive.

Thousands of people will be thrown out of work because of price ceilings. This will add to the cost of operating those efficient businesses that remain due to take care of the unemployed.

These more businesses will put out until eventually there will be no private business to support the government and the unemployed.

But utopian dreamers cannot see that this price-ceiling method of controlling inflation will not work. There is no law of action and reaction that man cannot repudiate with impunity.

Of course, if this theory that inflation can be stopped by price ceilings is practical, then the cost of living could be greatly reduced by further raising price ceilings. In fact, if the theory is sound the cost of living could be reduced to absolutely nothing if price ceilings were reduced to nothing. This is true because any principle is true whether multiplied or divided, enlarged or reduced.

If we cannot reduce the cost of living by bringing price ceilings down to nothing, we cannot prevent inflation by the government adopting arbitrary price ceilings.

Teamster Union, here. His voice was improved and he had recovered his punching style of delivery. But again he was wheeled to his place at the table and again he spoke sitting down.

Mr. Roosevelt's photographs in 1944 have been a trouble to his campaign managers.

And photographers assigned to the White House complained bitterly at the restrictions and requirements laid upon them.

For one thing, the President is noticeably less prominent in the newsreels of 1944 than he was in those of other years.

On May 26, he went to the Bethesda (Md.) Naval Hospital for a checkup by his personal physician, Rear Adm. Ross T. McIntire, who announced afterward that "we are well within our normal limits."

Well, what does that mean? What is the physical stamina of the average man of 62? How much better is Mr. Roosevelt's stamina than the average? Has anything changed since last May?

How about a detailed report? The public has a right to some answers on all this.

RUSTLERS CHANGING THE BRAND

NEWS BEHIND THE NEWS

The National Whirligig

By ALBERT LEMAN. JOBS—The chemical industry, a comparatively new giant, offers alluring job prospects to returning veterans with proper qualifications.

We can all envisage the abundance of synthetics, plastics and other test-tube miracles when they are again generally released. As smokeless powder factories are dismantled, their loss will be offset by booms in the manufacture of paints, dyes, chemicals, etc.

The bright future of the chemical trades is indicated in a special index prepared by experts in Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering.

Dr. Cole Coolidge of the Du Ponts declares that fifteen of our major manufacturing industries have opened up fifteen million positions that never were dreamed of before.

ENGINEERS—A New York survey outfit asked a group of important executives what sphere of opportunity it would advise a young man to enter in the next few years.

The industry includes the production of basic materials such as raw sulphur and sodium, and processing firms which turn out plastics, resins, synthetics, etc.

Walter J. Murphy, Editor of Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, told the writer this week that only those who are technically trained can hope to land in the lucrative fields of research and production.

STUDENTS—Henry Batters, a New York authority, points out that the limitation need not discourage a soldier or sailor with only a high school diploma, for many of these graduates will be taken on and will have a chance to learn the ropes.

WAR TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE. It looks as though the Japanese had just about succeeded in committing hara-kiri in the great Pacific war.

White tails are lacking, it's clear that the allied force (an Australian squadron participated) has dealt a devastating blow to Japan's first-line ships. This may have crippled the Mikado's navy—a calamity for him.

This column yesterday called the developing battle of the Philippines the basis of the war in the Orient. Clearly the magnitude of the Japanese naval effort is recognition of this. But the Japs aren't the only ones to see the emergency. There are signs on every hand that this thought of crisis is in the minds of the allied high command.

There's a gathering of the United Nations clans in the Orient for the kill. It isn't by coincidence that this comes as the great MacArthur strikes to redeem his pledge to free the Philippines. The method and concerted action are recognition that this is the crucial moment.

Australia is making big preparations to accommodate British forces. The vast Indian land is seething with activity. The Royal Air Force in England already has completed plans to move a steady stream of warships to the Star East at the moment Hitler yells quite as loudly as he yells it for him. The British are moving a great naval fleet from England into the Orient.

This debate on reconversion is the fourth in a series of ten, on controversial issues prepared for NEA and The News by the national committees of the two major political parties.

Democrats Cite Specific Program for Speedy Industrial Reconversion

By THE DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL COMMITTEE. THE WISDOM and foresight of this administration, far-reaching steps have already been taken to ease the transition from war to peace jobs.

If hostilities ceased in Europe tomorrow, the measures already in the mill, both legislative and executive, would mean rapid re-employment of those laid off by war cutbacks.

Our miracle of war production did not just happen—it was planned and organized, under President Roosevelt.

Our potential marvel of peace-time production will not just happen—it will be achieved by the concerted plans and unified efforts of industry, labor and government, under President Roosevelt.

Republican vote-chasers who talk of reconversion only in terms of "release of controls" talk dangerous nonsense.

It is nonsense because they have no idea of the magnitude of the war production job that has to be done, or that will remain to be done after Germany is defeated.

It is dangerous because a sudden, hit-or-miss lifting of necessary wartime controls will cause disorganization of production, unemployment, and wholesale unemployment in the resulting confusion.

Controls will be lifted as speedily as possible, but to suit public and not any special private interest.

THE ADMINISTRATION'S program for speedy conversion and permanent jobs, though not blazoned in the press, is known to businessmen and labor all over the country, for they were closely consulted in drawing up the program.

By the tax law passed two years ago, business is assured against post-war losses—a chief incentive to resuming peacetime production at high levels.

In June this year, the administration passed the Contract Renovation Act, providing war contractors with ready cash to move into full peacetime production.

The Surplus Property Disposal Act clears the way for orderly sale of government surpluses, and gives small business an unequalled opportunity to expand.

Finally, WPB Administrator Krug and War Mobilizer Byrnes have evolved simple plans for speedily converting war plants to peace production once the facilities are no longer needed for war.

Without fanfare, the administration has thus assured peacetime jobs in private industry for all war workers. There should be little short-run unemployment.

It is unfortunate, however, that a reactionary republican minority has effectively blocked more adequate unemployment insurance as a measure of precaution.

WHAT OF the long run? The democratic administration showed its faith in the wonderful capacity and productivity of American industry and labor by setting war production goals pronounced "unthinkable" by hide-bound republicans.

It has equal faith in the future potential of American industry.

It does not look backward, content merely to fulfill pre-war demands.

It looks forward to a greatly expanded peacetime market, based on high wages and purchasing power, and using all of our tremendous productive capacity.

It looks forward to great regional developments in which industry and government will cooperate to increase our national assets and standards of living, offering small local industries a chance to grow and develop free of monopolistic strangulation.

should know what Danny Kaye has to go through for his new movie "The Wonder Man." In addition to playing two characters of exactly opposite temperaments, Danny has to (1) make speeches in Latin, Greek, and Chinese; (2) sing in Italian and French; (3) dance Balinese two ways, straight and jive; (4) dance ballet, complete to polka, tango, jazz, and jive; (5) do imitations of a dog, cat, parrot, duck, pig, cow, mule and goldfish; and (6) write with two pencils.

simultaneously, one in each hand. "Strike me up." "Alla, give me courage." "Strike three and out!" The first American walked up to the plate swinging three bats. He threw away two, turned eastward and said solemnly, "You know me, AL."

For the first time we've completely destroyed a target. After today Formosa should no longer be a target for the 20th—Major Gen. Curtis LeMay, 20th Air Force commander.

The emissary vainly waited for some encouragement; he received none. While he sat around here, his colleagues in a neutral country in Europe became impatient. They made the same proposal to Great Britain.

The British told them the game wouldn't work. The Americans and the English compared notes. The trial balloons collapsed.

THE militaries played another tune, a medley of several well-worn motifs—the strength of the German army. To the Russians it was described as the "bulwark against aggression from the capitalist countries, which hate the home of Communism." The inference is that the German army loves Russia. It has chosen a rather unpleasant way of showing it.

England, the United States, and China were urged to remember that unless the German army remained intact, how could they hope to destroy Communism, or restore order in Europe and Asia?

Would Russia perhaps exploit her great victories to establish soviet in Central Europe? Would this development then lead to the formation of that Russo-German colossus which the western powers have feared ever since Russia began making her weight felt in Europe?

Undoubtedly, much of the stronger underground movement in Germany is Communist. It is equally true that the kinship between the Nazi and the Communist systems is very close. But even should Russian and German leaders consider it expedient during the transition period after the war to renew their collaboration, the populations of both countries would still have to be won to the idea.

In the end, the extent to which the Soviet government will seek to strengthen its hold on Central Europe will depend on the ability of Britain and the United States to strike the right note both with the Russians and with the Germans. A desire for hegemony in any of the United Nations camps would be disastrous to future peace. (To Be Continued)

Fourth Term Theorists Will Muff Reconversion Program, GOP Charges

By THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE. THE ADMINISTRATION viewpoint on reconversion was voiced by President Roosevelt when he said, "We must anticipate that there may be unemployment during the period of reconversion."

As usual a great many reports have been compiled, and suggestions tabulated, and proposals filed. Definite, practical recommendations were contained in the Baruch-Hancock survey for the termination of contracts and the disposal of surplus government property.

Very large sums of public moneys are involved; the total amounting to over one hundred billions of dollars. Six and eight million acres of land must be disposed of, and factories worth sixteen billion dollars.

Properly administered, all this can, and should be, translated into jobs and farms for returning veterans and for those displaced from war work.

There is as yet no indication, however, that the administration has anything more substantial to offer in meeting this situation than the creation of some special agencies and committees to consider it.

Apparently, it is not considered as very pressing since President Roosevelt in August of this year directed that a census be made of war industries and employment. This will require a year, during which the supply of jobs, and what both of them will want, the completed census virtually worthless, except for historical purposes.

NEITHER VETERANS nor workers are likely to be much interested in history, however. The veterans have been making it, the workers have been supplying it, and what both of them will want are jobs, homes, and a reasonable amount of peaceful fun.

This fact seems to be ignored by the present administration in its familiar zeal for creating crises instead of jobs. But it is the most important factor. Failure to recognize it is one of the basic faults of the administration.

Contrary to President Roosevelt's statement that "reconversion is a huge and intricate task requiring careful preparation," reconversion can be brought down to size and vastly simplified if it is regarded as basically a matter of providing individuals with the facilities, or on farms, that produce goods, or harvests, for individual purchase by individual buyers.

That conception is too simple for those who like to talk of "huge and intricate tasks"; but it is what most Americans are interested in. Of course, such individualization would not be practical under continued centralization of Washington. So long as business centers there it will continue to loom as a huge and intricate—and permanently unsolved—problem.

RECONVERSION, under a Roosevelt Fourth Term as expected to follow the same pattern as the depression which lasted through Terms One and Two, from 1933 to 1939, over twice as long as any other depression in a 100 years.

A total of 19,208,000 persons were on relief or Federal Works Projects when war orders from abroad interrupted our depression in 1939. That was just 489,000 less persons than were on relief or Federal Works in 1932. It cost U. S. taxpayers $400,000,000 to get those 489,000 persons jobs under "huge and intricate plans" carefully prepared by the New Deal. That's $83.91 apiece.

There is no sound reason to believe that Fourth Term theories on reconversion would be any better.

GERMANY WILL TRY IT AGAIN

CANADA LOOKS TO POSTWAR WORLD

Country Drafts Planners To Facilitate Reconversion

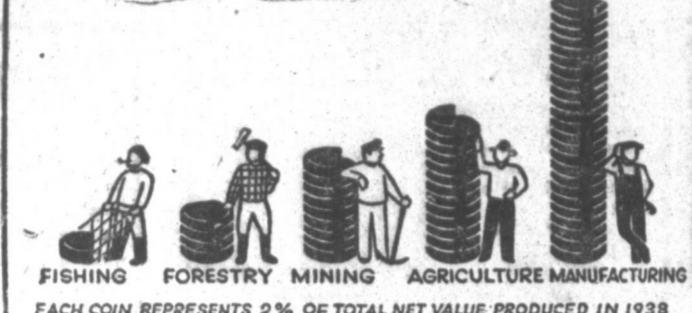

Canada, entering the war earlier than the United States had a head start in planning both her war production and reconversion to peace-time industry. Here, in some respects, is a guide to our own demobilization.

By S. BURTON HEATH
NEA Staff Correspondent

OTTAWA, Oct. 26—(AP)—Before the first Canadian soldiers began moving overseas to help defeat the Nazis, the Dominion's government had a civilian committee under a noted educator studying reconversion and postwar economic problems.

Dr. F. Cyril James, principal of McGill university, was made chairman of an advisory committee on reconstruction formed in September, 1941. That committee which drafted the services of top-notch technicians, was directed to study reconstruction problems and to report to a special cabinet committee on demobilization and re-establishment. of the U. S. war production board, but with broader interests and authority is planning how to turn war plants back most quickly, efficiently and smoothly to civilian production, as rapidly as they can be spared.

(2) The War Assets corporation will receive all government-owned plants and try to channel each to civilian output, or dispose of it, with a minimum of disruption and delay. The corporation also will try to dispose of all surplus commodities so as neither to compete unfairly with new production nor to hold these surpluses back until they have lost all value.

(3) An export credits guaranty act has been adopted under which Canadian exporters will be protected against losses and through which other governments can be aided financially to buy Canadian-made goods.

(4) An industrial development bank has been provided, which superficially resembles the American RFC in its functioning, except that the RFC was created to salvage depression-torn businesses, while the IDB is designed to facilitate the formation of new industries and the expansion of old ones.

U.S. HAS REPLACED UNITED KINGDOM AS CANADA'S CHIEF SUPPLY SOURCE

(5) The structure of business taxes is modified to provide that, during the first pre-war year, business taxpayers can charge half of their repair expenditures against the last pre-war year. This is to encourage industry to catch up, at once, on deferred maintenance and repair, in order to provide immediate employment and also to get ready to use more workers in the future.

PRODUCTION STIMULANT
Also, to prevent the 100 per cent excess profits tax from depressing industrial revival before it can be removed after the war, it has been provided that, after a date to be proclaimed by the government, all new investment in depreciable production assets can be written off, for income tax purposes, at twice the normal depreciation rate. This is expected to stimulate immediate private investment in new production facilities.

(6) The housing act has been revised so as to ease the financial requirements upon builders and to promote both public and private construction. For the first time life insurance companies will be permitted to build low cost housing. One major U. S. company is said to be ready to take advantage of this as soon as the war permits.

(7) Savings, unemployment insurance and benefits benefits are counted upon to help tide over the reconstruction period unemployment. The James committee thought that perhaps $1,000,000,000 of public works will be necessary. It is the idea of many that the pool of public works interrupted by the war will be ample to meet this emergency. The sub-committee expressed the idea, however, that the dominion may have to finance such works in excess of perhaps $200,000,000—that is, of $1,000,000,000 is spent, the dominion may have to provide as much as $800,000,000 of it.

PARIS WHITE HOUSE READY FOR TENANTS

PARIS—(AP)—France's "White House" on a back street in Paris, intact after four years of war and battling against its very walls, now stands ready for a new occupant.

Its last occupant was Albert Lebrun, now in retirement in southern France, and the high-walled stone mansion on Faubourg St. Honore awaits the new occupant chosen by the election of De Gaulle has promised when war prisoners and deportees return.

Unoccupied throughout the occupation of the rest of France, the mansion, called Elysee, has been cared for by two old army pensioners and their families, who tenderly wrapped up furniture, pictures and drapes, and kept the gardens blooming with France's red, white and blue tricolors.

Adams pointed out that Braniff planes are now flying more than 10,000 miles daily. With its 3,142 miles of routes, Braniff has now the fifth longest route mileage of the domestic air carriers.

General Returns To Front After His Son Is Buried in France

A U. S. SEVENTH ARMY COMMAND POST, France, Oct. 26—(AP)—Capt. Alexander M. Patch, Jr., only son of the lieutenant general commanding the Seventh army, was buried Monday in a little American cemetery a short distance behind the southern sector of the western front where his father's forces are fighting.
The 34-year-old company commander was killed Sunday by a direct hit from a German 75-mm. anti-tank gun while leading an attack in the Vosges hills.
Brief services were held in a little Protestant church, with burial in the U. S. army cemetery a short distance away. Immediately afterward, the captain's tall, Racinum father returned to his duty, which consisted of a frontline tour.

Kilgore Says Solons Could Change Policy

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26—(AP)—Senator Kilgore (D-W.Va.) said yesterday that, in telegrams pledging their support to foreign policy views of Thomas E. Dewey, four or five republican senators "promised to let their ideas undergo a great change in the event of Governor Dewey's election."
Wherry of Nebraska was the exception, Kilgore said, adding that Wherry had not been in the senate long enough to vote on any clear-cut foreign policy issues except creation of UNRRA. Wherry, he said, voted against that.
"The other four republicans who told Dewey they were behind him were Vandenberg of Michigan, Austin of Vermont, Taft of Ohio and White of Maine. Dewey released the telegrams in Minneapolis.
Kilgore called a press conference to say:
"Either these four senators show themselves willing to work for the best interest of the country or we have a republican congress, or suddenly in the last 24 hours they have become enlightened on both foreign and domestic issues."
Kilgore said the telegrams sent Dewey should be interpreted in the light of the records of the signers. He said Vandenberg, for instance, supplied a "solid stream of votes against preparedness" and his record was the same on foreign policy and on important domestic issues. This, Kilgore contended, also applied to Taft.
Austin, he said, had gone further than any of the other republican leaders on preparedness, but not on foreign policy.

Campaign To Raise Truett Fund Planned

DALLAS, Oct. 26—(AP)—Baptist laymen of North, Central and East Texas will launch a $2,400,000 campaign fund Sunday which church leaders have designated Truett memorial day in honor of the late Dr. George W. Truett, international religious leader.
The fund is being raised to erect a $1,600,000 Truett memorial building at Baylor university hospital in Dallas and to provide a new home for the Baylor college of dentistry and an education building for the university school of nursing.
Baptists of the Greater Dallas area have been asked to raise one-half of the fund.

Germany Will Again Become Center of International Cartels, as Before the War, if an Agreement is Not Achieved among the Allies to Liquidate German Monopolies.

Germany will again become the center of international cartels, as before the war, if an agreement is not achieved among the allies to liquidate German monopolies.—Red Star, Russian newspaper.
Our objectives must be known to our people and approved by them so that they will be willing to support them and to sacrifice for them in all the years to come.—Thomas E. Dewey.
