WEAR MASKS IN DUST BOWL, DOCTORS SAY

CHICAGO, Nov. 21 (AP)—Warning signals against disease were run up in the wake of the week's surprise recurrence of dust storms in the southwest.

Illness and death due to infection of the throat and lungs show a sharp increase when the dust clouds are aloft, the Journal of the American Medical Association admonished.

Should the dust clouds that swirl over western Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas Monday repeat this autumn and winter, the Journal had one bit of advice for residents of the "dust bowl": "Dust proofing of houses and the wearing of masks."

CLASS BANQUET IS AMONG THANKSGIVING PARTIES OF WEEK

GUESTS TOTAL 100 AT DORGAS CLASS DINNER

AFTERNOON PROGRAM GIVEN BY REAPERS GROUP

Thanksgiving parties have been popular entertainments with Sunday school classes this week. Among the outstanding events of the series was a banquet given by First Baptist Dorgas class at the church dining room Tuesday evening.

Husbands of members and associate members were guests. Members in service and in the home department were included, to bring the total number of diners to 130.

Ship models of the Mayflower type centered the tables, and candy corn was held in tiny ship models. Yellow candles lighted the tables.

Mrs. J. F. Wehring, toastmaster, welcomed guests and led an amusing introduction of husbands. After the Thanksgiving dinner, a program included a history of Thanksgiving in music, song, and dialogue, with Mrs. H. M. Cone in charge; a skit, "Gospel," by Mrs. Floyd Hoffman and Mrs. Frank McAfee; and a group of song parodies by Mrs. C. O. Huber, assisted by Mrs. Cone.

Preparation for the banquet was in charge of Mrs. L. D. Blasingame, class social chairman. Mrs. Wehring was responsible for the program. Mrs. B. Barrett for decorations, Mrs. J. A. Meek for dinner preparation.

Mrs. Dee Campbell directed daughters of class members in serving. The dining room committee included Mmes. R. J. Smith, S. O. Garner, H. T. Robinson, and Bonnie Rose.

Mrs. Meek, teacher of the class, and the group captains, Mmes. E. A. Davis, L. P. Word, B. E. Bard, B. W. Taylor, E. E. Wofford, H. L. Dickinson, assisted with the plans.

A number of out-of-town relatives and friends of members were among the guests.

SEASONAL GIFTS PLANNED BY WOMEN

Reapers class of First Baptist church entertained with its Thanksgiving program yesterday afternoon at the church. The room was decorated in autumn colors and the class colors, purple and gold.

An interesting hour of games and songs closed with the serving of delicious refreshments with Thanksgiving favors on the plates.

John Beacom was director of entertainment.

Two baskets will be prepared with Thanksgiving dinners for needy families, it was planned in the business session, and a gift of money will be made to the Buckner orphanage.

Present were Mmes. H. F. McPherson, A. L. Prigmore, James A. Reeves, James Williams, W. E. Dolson, H. M. Cone, A. E. Vogale, J. E. River, Steve Donald, J. O. Myers, J. T. Morrow, C. L. Stephens, R. G. Stone, Banks, and Beacom.

Scout House to Get Furnishings From Troop Five

Furnishings for the Girl Scout house on East Kingsmill are being added rapidly through efforts of girls in troop five. At a troop meeting yesterday it was reported that five dollars made by a candy sale Saturday is to be spent for needed articles.

A gift of $25 from H. B. Lovett to the troop will purchase tables and chairs. A kitchen shower will be given for the house Saturday when the troop meets there for a party.

Two new members, Helen Arndt and Jacquelyn Hurst were present for the meeting yesterday, when the girls worked on tests.

Others attending were Sara Frances Bourland, Mattie Brown, Meribelle Hazard, Heidi Schneider, Betty Lou Batten, Veda Mae Pringle, Mary Lynn Schofield, Carolyn Surratt, Mary Kate Bourland, Norma Jean McKinney, Ann Buckley, Billie Kay Coombs, Alice Marie McConnell, Peggy Stephens, Martha Price, Margery McCain, Elizabeth Mullins.

Mrs. Cockerill's Party Has Only Club as Guests

Only members of Hi-Lo club were present for an attractive Thanksgiving party given by Mrs. C. C. Cockerill at her home yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. G. R. Elsom made high score in bridge, and Mrs. Bill Dull was consoling for low. Refreshments repeated the Thanksgiving suggestions of table appointments.

Players were Mmes. E. P. Hollingshead, Tom Morris, Roy Dycen, R. A. Meyers, Doug Wilson, H. L. Wallace, Stocum, Dull, George Alden, J. G. Teeters, W. M. McWright, and Cockerill.

TEAMS ENTERTAINED WHEELER

Nov. 21—After the LeFors-Wheeler football game at LeFors Friday evening, the host team entertained the Mustangs and also the Wheeler Cowgirls squad with a party at the LeFors school gymnasium. The game ended in a 7 to 7 tie.

CLUB DISPLAYS RESULTS OF A YEAR'S STUDY

Hopkins Women And Visitors View Exhibit

Each member of Hopkins Home Demonstration club realized how much this year's work has meant when she saw the display on achievement day at the home of Mrs. S. J. Fleming Tuesday afternoon.

The club agreed heartily with Miss Ruby Adams, county agent, when she said, "Anything that is worth knowing is worth doing." Each member had made some improvement in her bedroom during the year and had articles on display.

There were approximately 20 quilts, a crocheted bedspread, a candlewick spread, a heavy cotton spread, eight pairs of pillow cases, some plain and others with simple decoration of Bermuda fagoting, hemstitching, Italian hemstitching, also some scarfs and guest towels with simple decorations.

There were a number of off-white vases and bowls for winter flowers, some with plants already growing, and there were black utility boxes for the dresser, once neglected, were found to be pleasing advantage.

Several members reported changing furniture and pictures in their bedrooms to make them more attractive, and some reported remodeling closets and storage places.

Seven cakes were brought, of which five were scored as standard products.

Club members present were Mmes. E. R. Manley, E. F. Vandenburg, Mary Mackie, J. O. Campbell, G. Pinnell, W. B. Franklin, R. E. Davis, Robert Brown, Fleming, and Miss Adams.

Visitors were Mmes. F. C. Knight, D. B. Davis, J. H. Clark, E. E. Clark, and Paul Davis, all of Bluebonnet club; Miss Lela Vaughn of College Station, and Mrs. Ella Terry of Fairview, Okla.

Central WMU to Give Baskets to Needy Families

Each circle of Central Baptist Missionary union will prepare a Thanksgiving basket for some needy family of the city, it was decided at meetings yesterday afternoon.

Lou Wilkins circle met at the home of Mrs. O. H. Gilstrap, who conducted the opening devotional and prayer. Mrs. D. M. Scafe led the Bible study from Timothy.

Others present were Mmes. L. S. Hall, Ben Seibold, W. L. Lane, E. D. Williams, Dave Godwin, Guy Dunwoodie, P. R. Nicholson, Earl Griffin.

Mrs. J. B. Davis was hostess to Lily Hundley circle. Mrs. J. B. Davis presented the devotional talk, and Mrs. John O. Scott a lesson from the book, The Conquering Christ.

Others attending were Mmes. Paul Johnson, Frank Silcott, E. M. Dunswoth, G. S. Stark, Miller, and McBride.

The south circle had its meeting with Mrs. Casey in North Phillips camp.

Sunday Wedding Announced Here

Mrs. F. S. Hudson announces the marriage of her daughter, Miss Mary Jo Jacks, and Arthur Casada, which was solemnized Sunday in Sayre, Okla. The Rev. Mr. Alder, Baptist minister, officiated.

Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Alberson attended the couple. Miss Jacks wore a frock of brown taffeta, with matching accessories.

Mrs. Casada, son of Mr. and Mrs. El Casada, is employed as a rig builder here. The couple is at home now at 434 N. Carr.

Knit and Crochet Patterns Combined In Interesting Rug

A combination of knitting and crocheting makes a cotton rag rug made by Mrs. Willard Franklin of Hopkins Home Demonstration club more beautiful and interesting.

The rug had a center diamond of approximately 15 by 6 inches that was knitted. Mrs. Franklin finished with this knitted diamond by crocheting in hit-or-miss pattern. The finished rug is 40 by 30 inches in size, and harmonizes with Mrs. Franklin's bedroom furniture and accessories. The only cost was 10 cents for dye.

Delicacy Is Made At Small Cost by H. D. Club Woman

"Forty pounds of fruit cake cost us only $3.95," said Mrs. R. E. Davis at Hopkins Home Demonstration club achievement day program Tuesday, Mrs. Davis and her daughters, Mrs. Willard Franklin and Miss Faye Davis, crystallized peaches, citron, pineapple, and cherries at home for the cakes, thus bringing expenses to a minimum.

The cakes were carried in numbers by two Mrs. Now the families can enjoy them for a longer period than the usual fruit cake season.

MARRIAGE OF MISS SHIRKEY AND MR. WILLSON IS READ IN RECTORY YESTERDAY MORNING

COUPLE LEAVE AFTER SERVICE FOR HOME IN TERRELL

Miss Idella Shirkey and Walter Willson Jr. were married in a simple ceremony at the rectory of Holy Souls church yesterday morning at 9:30, with a few relatives as the only witnesses. The Rev. Joseph Wierlely read the service.

The bride wore a blue dress with gray accessories, and carried a bouquet of gardenias and orange blossoms that were sent by a friend from California. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Robert A. Knox, matron of honor. The best man was Mr. Willson's brother, Jack Willson.

Breakfast was served at the Schneider hotel after the ceremony to about 30 friends. White candles lighted the table, and the centerpiece was of white chrysanthemums and baby breath. The bride cut the three-tiered wedding cake.

Her dress as the couple left for Dallas was of wine color, with matching accessories. After a short trip Mr. and Mrs. Willson will be at home in Terrell, where he is with the state highway department.

Miss Shirkey has made her home in Pampa the past six years. She has been employed recently in the offices of the Gray County Creamery.

Since her engagement was announced, the bride-elect has been complimented with a number of parties and showers by friends here.

Special Program At Sam Houston Heard by Guests

Assembly was an important event at Sam Houston school yesterday morning, when 62 visitors were present to enjoy a varied program presented by the first grade. Motion pictures taken by Sgt. R. B. Fisher on his European trip were shown to climax the hour.

The program opened with the school song and a flag salute. Mrs. Bradley read the hundredth Psalm as a devotion. The clarinet section of the junior band played a number with A. C. Cox conducting.

Readings were given by Barbara Denson, Colleen and Mary Jo Cockrell, and Joan Appleby, and Don Lane entertained with a whistling solo.

The Texas Bluebonnets, girls from Mrs. Bradley's first grade room, all wearing white dresses and blue bonnets played a rhythm band number. Margie Fay Taylor gave a reading, "The Movies," and Billie Don Crowson told the story of the first Thanksgiving. A duet, "Mr. Duck and Mr. Turkey," was given by Martha Kelley and Zita Kennedy.

The Texas Cowboys, including all boys in Mrs. Bradley's room, appeared in cowboy suits to give sayings of Will Rogers about Texas. Charles Duenkel Jr. sang "Home on the Range," and Bobbie Oden sang "Old Faithful."

A language unit on book week was presented by Martha Lou McCullough, Jerlene Hancock, and Carol Toy Curry, accompanied by the entire group. A language unit on telephones was also given.

Mr. Fisher explained scenes on his trip as the pictures which he had taken were shown on the screen. The movie proved very interesting to both students and visitors.

First Birthday Party Is Given

His first birthday was the occasion for a party for Marshall Lee Oden yesterday, when a group of tiny children was entertained at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Oden.

Guests were James Lusby, Marilyn Fitzgerald, Reid Roberts, and Don Crockett.

They presented gifts to Marshall Lee, and received as favors toys which they enjoyed for an hour. A birthday cake with one candle was the center of interest when refreshments were served.

Three Hostesses Give Shower for Mrs. Harry Dean

Mrs. W. H. Peters, Mrs. Josie Young, and Mrs. F. C. Rhoads were hostesses at a shower for Mrs. Harry Dean Tuesday evening at Mrs. Peters' home.

After several amusing games, the honoree was presented with the many dainty gifts. Pie and coffee were served to Mmes. Charles Guinn, L. W. Simpson, Lou Conklin, E. L. Webb, M. E. Pickel, A. F. Moore, J. C. Roundtree, W. L. Cunningham, O. W. Hawkins, E. M. Montgomery, W. G. Kinzer, Dean; Misses Madeline Gantz and Grace Hazelwood.

Gifts were sent by Mmes. R. F. Pauley, C. M. Dwight, Tom McDonald, J. T. Ashley, Cecil Houck, John McKinley, Martelle Peters, J. V. Lindsey, Jack Sutherland, H. M. Farmer, H. L. Hindman, and Miss Louella Conklin.

ALTAR SOCIETY FINISHES PLAN FOR A BENEFIT

Tourney Tomorrow Is Open to All Players

Final plans for the benefit bridge tournament they will sponsor tomorrow evening at Schneider hotel were made by members of Holy Souls Altar society yesterday afternoon in a meeting with Mrs. J. W. Garman and Mrs. Frank Gill as hostesses in the former's home.

Everyone is invited to play in the tournament, either auction or contract bridge. Players may arrange their own parties of one or more tables, and be eligible for the high score prizes, or they may progress with the general group with the same chance for the awards.

Three turkeys have been given by friends of the society for donation to the person making high score in contract, high in auction, and the main door prize. Twelve other articles given by merchants will be divided among players in the two games and at the door.

Games will start at 8:30, and tickets may be obtained at the door.

CHARITY WORK OF COUNCIL IS REPORTED HERE

New Group Is Being Organized for Society

Winter clothing for the child they have "adopted" in Juliette Fowler orphanage at Fort Worth has been provided by group three of First Christian Women's council, meeting here reported at the council meeting yesterday, and group four announced that it is sending a wardrobe to another child.

Reports were made in a business meeting of the start of an afternoon session. In the morning, the sewing, personal work, and dramatics units of the council had their meetings. Group two acted as hostess for a covered dish lunch at noon.

A shower for the Jarvis Christian Institute for colored people was another project reported. All groups took part.

Organization of a fifth group in the council, including women in Pampa and nearby communities, is in progress, it was announced.

Pampa council will be represented by a large group of members at a one-day district convention in Amarillo Monday. It was indicated as many women present said they would be present for the program beginning at 10 o'clock.

About 50 women attended the all-day meeting, which ended with a program presented by group four.

Students Make Quilt to Sell

A quilt made by sixth grade students at B. M. Baker school, to be sold at the carnival there tomorrow evening, was quilted yesterday at the home of Mrs. Roy Meek, when several members of Baker Parent-Teacher association and their friends worked.

Red and white, in wagon-wheel pattern, the finished quilt is on display at the Pampa-Drug store.

Women who worked at the quilting were Mmes. G. R. Fallowell, E. H. Johnson, Homer Simmons, J. A. Meek, L. L. Allam, W. M. Miller, Harry Loveless, Claude Lard, Ralph Ruttman, Gene Hogue, J. B. Shoemaker, Willie Smith, Bell, Proper, Fred Paronto, Douglas, Letha Fortner, and two visitors from Amarillo, Mmes. Scott Miller and Lee Wilson.

A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed at noon, with Principal J. A. Meek and O. P. Shewmaker as guests.

CARNIVAL WILL OPEN AT BAKER AT 7 FRIDAY

AMUSEMENT FOR BOTH OLD AND YOUNG PLANNED

Visitors to the annual carnival at B. M. Baker school tomorrow evening will be welcomed by members of the Parent-Teacher association, sponsors, when the doors open at 7 o'clock. Numerous attractions will be ready, and the cafeteria will have lunches prepared.

Election of school favorites to act as carnival queen and king is underway this week. Nominees in the rooms are to be chosen this afternoon for the run-off tomorrow.

All helpers for the carnival are asked to be at the school by 6:30. Mrs. M. D. Dwight, hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Cox will be in the hall to welcome visitors. Mrs. J. A. Meek and Mrs. C. E. Simmons will be in charge of tickets at the door, assisted by Walter Hurst and Mr. Meek.

Mrs. Cecil Lunford will act as

PUPILS HONOR ROGERS

Pupils of B. M. Baker school honored the memory of Will Rogers yesterday. Pictures of Rogers were displayed; stories of his life were written in many classes; pennies for the nation-wide memorial fund were dropped into jars by the pupils. Observation of the day was in charge of Mrs. A. J. Johnson.

In addition to municipal and other public marriage agencies, there are 13 private agencies operating in Tokyo.

FAT GIRLS GET THE GO-BY-SLIM GIRLS WIN MEN

Lean Fit The Easy Way—Without Starvation Diets, No Bunch-Breaking, Bowing and Rolling Kneecaps.

There's a reason why so many people find dieting slow and often times futile in reducing. The reason, doctors say, is often because a little gland is not working right.

All the blood in your body goes through this gland sixteen times every day. If it doesn't flow into the blood stream about one and one-half drops of vital fluid every 24 hours, many people take an awful fat. This fluid helps Nature to "burn up" excess food and fatty tissue in such a simple way as a goodly supply of fat.

Now, physicians combat this condition by feeding this gland the substance it lacks—millions of pounds of excess fat has been wiped out this way.

Marmola Prescription Tablets are based on the same scientific method used by doctors. Do they not lose fat the easy way—without starvation diets or back-breaking bending and rolling exercises? Start the Marmola treatment today that millions have used successfully to get rid of excess fat. The formula is in every box so you know just what you are taking. Don't wait—get Marmola today from druggists.

ing center. Growers, dissatisfied with prices, which opened at 16 cents and advanced to 18, refused to sell at less than 18.

As a result the market was flooded during the last two days of the Thanksgiving market. Packing plants were unable to handle the rush and the birds remained on the farms.

Thad Lane, one of the county's leading growers, said that many growers are holding 60 to 600 hens to be used as laying stock for 1936 instead of 12 to 25 as heretofore.

Growers are in better financial condition than in many years and are not being forced to sell, but unless prices hold up during the next few weeks one of the largest breeding flocks in the history of the county probably will remain when Christmas markets close.

JUNIOR HIGH AND PEWEEES TO PLAY MAGIC CITY AND LEFORS TOMORROW

YOUNGER BOYS TO FIGURE IN GRID BATTLES

GAMES TO BE PLAYED AT HARVESTER PARK

There will be football at home tomorrow afternoon when two games will be played at Harvester field, beginning at 5 o'clock, with admission for the two contests only 10 cents.

The games will be played with the Pampa Junior High Pewees meeting the LeFors Junior high team at 5 o'clock. After the two games have played a half, the Pampa Junior high team will meet the Magic City Class C team. Then the Pewees will complete their game, after which the Junior high and Magic City eleven will meet for the second half.

Fans who have never seen the younger boys in action have missed a treat. The Junior teams have put up some great battles this season and another is in prospect tomorrow afternoon.

Certain local football fans who have watched the two Junior high teams practice are convinced that they represent the "fightingest" teams Pampa has had in a long time. A large crowd is expected at Harvester park. Many of the boys on the Junior high team will be on the Harvester squad next year when the 18-year old rule goes into effect. Admirers of the two Junior high teams claim that the blocking, tackling, charging and running of interference places the boys in a class by themselves.

The Pewees team will average about 107 pounds per player. Both teams have been practicing faithfully all season but have not played many games. The LeFors eleven held the Junior high team to a 20 to 0 score earlier in the season. One of the most bruising, crushing scrimmages seen in Pampa this season took place yesterday afternoon at the Sam Houston playground where the Pewees and Junior high teams practice. Coach Hill of the Pewees kept his boys tending at each other until sunset. The boys are putting up a vicious contest for positions on the starting lineup. Coach Hill is likely to give a number of boys regarded as reserves a chance to play before the game is over.

These backfield men are fighting for positions: Harold Lewis, Grover Lee Helskel, Doyle Aulds, Douglas Keyser, Francis Schwind, and all of these boys are candidates for the line berths: Green, Jones, McCowan, Maynard, Hesse, Palmiller, Coffee, Smith, Andrews, Eichey, Crout, Priest, Pirtle, Jack and Jim Brown, Bancum.

The LeFors team will have the advantage in that they are well-

Two Class B Champs To Be Crowned In Battle Friday

BUD PARMALEE BELIEVED TO BE TRADED OFF TO CARDINALS

BY FRITZ HOWELL, Associated Press Sports Writer.
DAYTON, O., Nov. 21 (AP)—Baseball's hot stove league was not so hot today. Deals were being made at the minor league meeting here, there was evidence of that in the meetings of club managers in huddles, but the information was kept under cover.

New York and St. Louis National League clubs completed a deal Wednesday. Bill Terry, Giant skipper, announced that, but he declined to say just what the trade consisted of. Branch Rickey, vice president of the Cardinals, said he believed Terry "spoke out of turn" in even admitting that a deal had been completed.

Rickey, however, did not deny the deal. Everyone else at the day's meetings, nevertheless, was willing to wager that Burgess Whitehead, second sacker for the Cards, had been traded to the Giants for pitcher Bud Parmelee.

Judge Kenesaw Mountain Landis, baseball's high commissioner, celebrated his sixty-ninth birthday last night. He came out of hiding for a few minutes and then retired early. One rumor said that the Louisville club of the American association was on the auction block. Bill Knebelkamp, president, and William (Cap) Neal, vice president of the Colonels, were reported looking for buyers for their stock.

Milwaukee scout catcher Paul Florence of Galveston of the Texas league, and outfielder Earl Webb to Knoxville of the Southern association.

Joplin of the Western association surrendered its franchise to the league, but the club will remain in the Missouri town. A group headed by W. Perry Sharpe, Jess Thompson, and A. B. Reed will take over the reins formerly held by C. (Rut) Marr.

The Southern association and Texas leagues were ready to ask today to be placed in a class by themselves. They want to be known as A-1 leagues, just between the AA and class A loops. They were to ask the National association to take the necessary action, principally so they could pay their players a little more, and to boost the player limits.

Philosophy of the Western association surrendered its franchise to the league, but the club will remain in the Missouri town. A group headed by W. Perry Sharpe, Jess Thompson, and A. B. Reed will take over the reins formerly held by C. (Rut) Marr.

First Game Will Be At Panhandle in Afternoon

Class B football, which has turned out to be the best in the Panhandle this season, will come into its own Friday when no other games will interfere. Two district champions will be crowned during the day and two other teams will meet in battle, just for the sake of playing.

The first class of the day will be played in Panhandle at 3:30 o'clock when the Panhandle Panthers and the Canadian Wildcats meet to decide the title in District 2B. At 7:30 p. m. at McLean, the District 3B champion will be declared when McLean's Tigers meet the Shamrock Irishmen.

Other games in this section Friday will see Dimmitt playing an inter-district game with Claude in the afternoon and Clarendon meeting Wheeler in a night game at Wheeler.

Both Panhandle, winner of section 1 and Canadian, winner of section 2 in District 3B, went into the conference schedule undefeated. Each team lost two games during the season, Panhandle the first two played and Canadian the last two.

Canadian will enter the game with a weight advantage, but not the line pounds according to comparative weight released by the two schools. Both teams boast a pair of great ball toters with Lopez and Owens carrying the mail for Canadian and Davidson and Sparks in charge of that division for the Panthers.

The major weight difference will be in the line where Canadian will present Laundry, 212-pound tackle; Tandy, 180-pound guard, and Thomas, 175-pound tackle. Panhandle has scrappers in McCoak, Howe, and Anderson.

Shamrock and McLean will meet with unblemished records for the entire season. The two eleven stress offense and one of the best games of the season is predicted. Both teams will be at almost top strength. McCarty, McLean's ace center, was slightly injured in the game with LeFors but he is expected to be ready to go. Brawley will replace the injured Johnson at end and Laswell will be back at right half in place of Graham.

Clay Rook, one of Shamrock's big backs, has been in bed with tonsillitis but is out for practice although weak from his stay indoors. Davis, one of the hardest hitting backs in the district, still limps slightly from an old ankle injury. He will be in the starting lineup, however.

Both teams have been working behind locked gates all week. McLean's chief worry has been a decline to stop the versatile Shamrock attack. The Irish have a triple-threat backfield in Davis, McIntyre, Wells, and Rook who do about everything demanded of a backfield player.

Stratton's educated toe is expected to give the Irishmen more of their worry, along with his terrific plunging and running. Cunningham and Laswell are also dangerous on the ground.

Babe Herman, the original man on the flying trapeze, hit the first homer ever made in the major leagues at night in Minnesota. He looked like the same old juggernaut in rolling over Michigan. North Carolina fans swear Wallace Ward took out the Duke Blue Devils and put in the Duke power house.

Football fortunes were not always low at Albany college, holder of the country's longest losing streak. Back in 1902 Albany twice tied Oregon 0-0 and the next year beat Oregon State, 6-0. Albany won the state championship both years.

Dr. Charles E. Beury, president of Temple, often makes football trips with the Owls. Don McAllister, head coach at South Carolina, rivals Slip Madigan as a promoter and showman. He invited the state fire Furman student body to see the S. C. game. Furman took him up, closed up shop for the day and made the 150-mile trip to Columbia.

Cincinnati's youthful Reds stole more bases last year than the Giants and Pirates combined. Twenty-one of Marquette's 22 touchdowns have been made by men standing up and without a hand being laid on them.

Do pro footballers keep that old college spirit? Joe Linzenich says they do. He played with the Chicago Bears during the days of Red Grange, Bronko Nagurski and Link Lyman. . . and swears he saw the burly Lyman cry like a weeped-up sophomore at such an old time performance as a coach's exhortation at half time. . . Joe says the pros would rather win than collect any time.

COACH APPOINTED
AUSTIN, Nov. 21 (AP)—The University of Texas Athletic council today announced appointment of Jack Gray of Wills Point as freshman basketball coach. Gray was the Southwest conference's outstanding forward for the last three years. Gray also is freshman football coach.

LITTLE TEAMS HAVE NOTABLE GRID RECORDS

WESTERN RESERVE HAS GREAT TEAM IN MIDDLE WEST

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—While the arguments rage over the comparative strength of the major football teams, take a glance at the little fellows who never are considered for "bowl" invitations.

Besides a group of undefeated and untitled small college teams, such as Alma, Arkansas Tech, Middle Tennessee Teachers, Spearfish (S. D.), Normal, and the somewhat stronger Ohio University, the season's record is shown for teams whose states probably would be clean if they had remained in their own class.

A few notable examples are Williams, Clarkson and Franklin and Marshall in the east, Furman and Louisiana Tech in the south, West Virginia Reserve and De Paul in the midwest, and Idaho, southern branch in the Rocky mountain region. None can boast a perfect record, but all are still at the top or very near it in their own class.

The Little Three champions had a whole of a season against small eastern colleges although beaten by Princeton's great team early in the year. The Massachusetts team proved its class however, by holding the Tigers 14-7.

There might be a good argument between Western Reserve, one of the nation's high-scoring teams, and De Paul as to which is the biggest little team in the midwest. Reserve victory over several strong teams. Its setback in a tie with Ohio Wesleyan.

De Paul lost to Northwestern after a stiff battle and played a scoreless tie with Texas Tech.

Furman was beaten only by the Powerful Georgia team, and Idaho was tied by Montana State, which usually ranks a half dozen notches higher.

Among the teams which deserve honorable mention are Randolph Macon, tied but undefeated, and Louisiana Tech, a one-point loser to Millsaps, which generally is rated as a class or so above.

Tigers Prefer Field at Home

McLEAN, Nov. 21—Supt. C. A. Civer, Coach Bill Allen of the Tigers, and school officials are expressing appreciation to the Pampa Harvester and school chapter of the Harvesters for the offer to use Harvester field for the McLean-Shamrock football game Friday of this week.

Harvester field was offered for the big game which would probably overflow Tiger field was expected to see the game. School officials learned that boys and fans would rather have the game played at home, they believing, like "everybody else," that "there is no place like home."

BRITAIN

China situation has developed into an explosive issue within the Tokyo government. Dispatches from China showed the cabinet members were temporarily restraining the action of the Japanese militarists in China, a strong element of the army was insisting that the North China autonomy plan be carried through.

According to the political experts the issue will be debated in a meeting of the cabinet tomorrow.

It is expected Koki Hirota, the foreign minister will be pitted against Gen. Yoshida, Kawashima, minister of war, in the debate. Experts said that the life of the cabinet might possibly depend upon the outcome.

Hirota is expected to support the compromise suggested by Ambassador Akira Ariyoshi following his interview yesterday with Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek, by which Nanking would be permitted to retain a considerable degree of sovereignty in North China.

The newspaper Asahi asserted that Ambassador Ariyoshi, whom the militarists long have accused of softness in dealing with the Chinese, submitted his compromise proposal to Tokyo with the comment, "This is likely to be my last service to the emperor," indicating he would resign if the army leaders prevailed.

All-America Battle To Be Fought In Rice-TCU Game

Crowd of 25,000 Is Expected to See Classic

By BILL PARKER, Associated Press Sports Writer.
Saturday's Rice Institute and Texas Christian's highly charged football combat at Fort Worth will feature a collection of all-Southwest conference's greatest backs.

The touchdown twins of Rice, all-America Bill Wallace and O' John McCauley, are ready. Wallace has scored four touchdowns for 24 points and McCauley is tied for the conference scoring lead with nine touchdowns for 54 points.

They will flash Rice's most dangerous scoring threat, but Coach Jimmy Kitten's pride of the backfield is giant Harry Witt, a man who seldom loses the leather but is an artist at blocking and running interference.

Ray Smith with 18 points, Buck Friedman with 12 points, and Jess Atkins with 14 points are other Rice backs ready to participate in the game Saturday when Rice battles the Mustangs from TCU.

There's Sammy Baugh
Texas Christian has the finest assortment of back in the country. The No. 1 man is slinging Sammy Baugh, superior pass tosser, speedy ball carrier, excellent punter and a splendid defensive player. Baugh in the all-America race with Wallace and McCauley. He has scored four touchdowns and booted four placement kicks for 22 points.

Jimmy Lawrence probably deserves No. 2 ranking in the Christian's backfield. Lawrence is a human tank when carrying the leather. Sold as a brick wall and with tremendous leg power, he has plowed to four touchdowns for 34 points. When questioned about his best backs, Coach Leo "Dutch" Meyer smiles and claims all are superb. Besides Baugh and Lawrence, there are four more great players in George Kline, Rex Clark, Talton Hamilton and Scott McCall, who have combined for 71 of the Christian's 211 points this season.

Beyond doubt an anticipated crowd of 25,000 persons will have an opportunity to see in action at the same time a collection of letter perfect backs who are versatile and boast enough power to wreck a dozen forward walls.

Both teams have great lines. Texas Christian's front wall will include three seniors and four sophomores, while Rice's will have five seniors and two sophomores giving the Owls an advantage in experience.

Headed by Coach Fred Thomsen the University of Arkansas Razorbacks invade Austin for tomorrow's conference battle. It will be the Razorback's final conference game.

Arkansas will be minus the services of Allen Keen, 165-pound halfback who scored five touchdowns for 30 points this season. Keen is nursing a badly injured shoulder. James Benton, 182-pound wing, will also be out of the Arkansas lineup due to the death of his sister.

In discussing the game, Thomsen said he had prepared his team for an afternoon of aerial heaves. Coach Jack Chevigny stressed blocking in yesterday's practice as he drilled the Longhorns for their fifth conference battle. Texas also is out of the titular running with one win and three defeats.

The united and undefeated Southern Methodist Mustangs started hitting on all three in yesterday's practice when Bob Turner, Shelley Burt and Bob Finley, who are being groomed to fill the shoes of injured Harry Shuford, are and fullback, showed great improvement.

Proper daily attention to mouth hygiene is the one great bulwark against pyorrhea. It is a curable disease if it is not too far advanced when recognized. Treatment is not by the use of drugs but in educating the patient in the proper use and care of the teeth and the removal of the remnants of dead membrane adhering to the root surfaces, as well as any existing tartar.

Reports from Waco claim the Baylor Bears had their spirit revived by last Saturday's 20 to 0 victory over Centenary. They are working like Trojans for the Mustang battle. Records of the past five years show that the Bears have proved a greater obstacle in the Mustangs' path than any other conference opponent. The game is expected to develop into a battle of halfbacks—Robert Wilson for the Mustangs and Lloyd Russell for the Bears. Wilson has scored nine touchdowns for 54 points this season. Russell has scored five touchdowns for 30 points.

The Texas Aegles, the other conference team, will be idle this week-end.

Channing Girls Report Cage Win

CHANNING, Nov. 21—Coach William Graves, who had one of the strongest girls' basketball teams in the Panhandle last year, appears headed for a similar success this year.

Channing ladies opened the 1935 season Friday night by taking a 61 to 19 game from the Hartley sextet.

It was the first real test of the season and the Channing girls handed their rivals a lesson. They gave a fast, accurate passing demonstration that had the Hartley team completely subdued.

The Channing Eagles of Coach Wooden broke a seven-year jinx by defeating the Hartley Tigers, 13 to 8. The victory came after a brilliant second half when the home team pulled from behind while holding Hartley to two points.

Captain Le Bris, a French scholar, carried out the first significant shot.

MEXICAN PEONS ARE NOT READY FOR COMMUNISM

Returned Red Given Cold Shoulder At Meeting

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 21. (AP)—Mexican workers apparently are not ready to accept communism. This has been the reaction of organized labor to the return to Mexico of Vicente Lombardo Toledano, one of the country's most influential labor leaders, from a visit to Russia recently, a one-hundred percent communist.

Lombardo's statements depicting the U. S. S. R. as a workers' paradise and communism as the perfect economic system not only failed to win the sympathy of his own organizations but have precipitated a "red scare" which resulted in labor unions declaring plainly that they did not believe communism suitable for Mexico.

In Moscow Lombardo met Hernan Laborde, who ran for president of Mexico in 1933 on the communist ticket, and other prominent Mexican radical leaders who were there for the international convention.

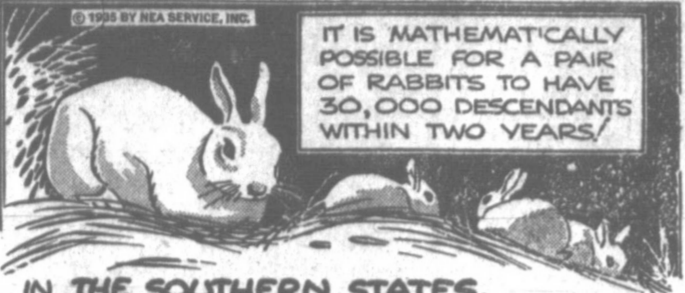

Lombardo expounded his views of the soviet system at a meeting here to celebrate the 18th anniversary of the founding of the U. S. S. R. He concluded a fervent eulogy of communism with the statement that "Mexican workers should exalt the name of Lenin—they should pronounce it reverently three times a day, at breakfast, lunch and dinner."

The meeting, attended by 8,000 persons adopted resolutions in favor of renewal of relations with Russia and urging President Lazaro Cardenas to terminate the "reactionary-clerical campaign being carried on in the United States against Mexico and its government."

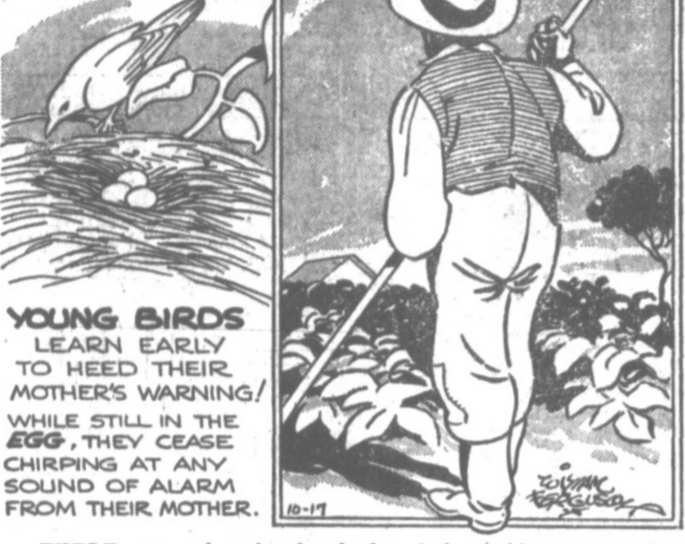

The regional confederation of workers and peasants, in which Lombardo has for many years had an important role, met subsequently and voted a series of resolutions condemning the communistic propaganda being carried on in Mexico.

The workers voted to demand an explanation from Lombardo of his activities and to issue a manifesto to the country for the purpose of "destroying the atmosphere created by the propaganda which has been disseminated."

Chapter XII Jean Dunn looked up from her typewriter with a start to see Sandy Harkins standing beside her desk, grinning at her.

"Why—where'd you come from?" she asked. He jerked his thumb at her employer's private office.

"In there," he said. "Why not? Him and I had some business. I got things all framed up—for you and me to go horseback riding."

"Sandy, what are you talking about?" "Well, if you don't believe it, ask him. Here he comes." The door opened, and Mr. Montague came over to them.

They cantered across a field and came out in a leafy country road, where they reined their horses in to a walk. Jean threw her head back, looked up at the blue summer sky, and luxuriated in the feel of the wind on her bare throat.

"You know, I've got it pretty soft," she said. "Here I get almost a whole day off, and last week one day Mr. Montague let me go home in the middle of the afternoon."

"I'm the lucky one," said Sandy. "I got a date out of it, each time." "Well, it's pretty soft," said Jean contentedly. "It's funny about Mr. Montague. I haven't hardly been earning my salary lately."

"Friday," said Sandy promptly. "I remember because that was Eve Lewis's birthday. She bawled me out for not remembering to be home for her dinner party."

"Why Sandy—did you break an engagement to go canoeing with me?" asked Jean. "Say, I'm glad I did—for more

FEDERAL POLICY IS WRONG

The News is of the opinion that President Roosevelt and Secretary Ickes are definitely wrong in their program of replacing privately owned power plants with municipally owned plants. It is true that in some instances the municipal plants are making big money and reflect a great credit upon the towns owning them. But on the other hand, there are as many examples of losses to the communities owning the plants as there are successes. It is true that many power plants have skinned the public in a big way—but there are likewise many more who have played fair with the public, and are doing their part as good citizens. Most of the power plants are owned by large numbers of people, stockholders who have invested their savings for old age. In order to punish the few sinning companies, it seems like the administration has decided to punish the entire power organization. Maybe the power business should be owned by the public; if so, there is a legal way of acquiring all of it at one time rather than by bankrupting existing companies, the fair ones as well as the corrupt ones. Most Americans are definitely of the opinion that so far as possible business should be owned and controlled by private enterprise rather than by the government. Every attack made upon corporations discourages the investment of capital in industries, and retards recovery. By all means control all kinds of public corporation; make them be good; but give them an opportunity to pay a just dividend to those who have invested their savings in these companies.—Canyon News.

Vice-President Sails for Home

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 21. (AP)—America's congressional delegation to the recent inauguration of the Philippine commonwealth sailed for home here to the accompaniment of a 19-gun farewell salute to Vice President John Nance Garner.

A few of the party of approximately 50—the largest official group ever to make the 20,000-mile round trip—remained here including Senator Burton K. Wheeler of Montana. His wife was confined to Stenberg military hospital with a digestive disorder.

Speaker Joseph Byrns of the United States house advised the 5-day-old government to live within its means "in order to establish its credit like a new business."

After Garner declined to be interviewed, Emil Hurja of the democratic committee handed out a statement over Garner's type-written signature saying:

"The business house of the islands is in good order with its budget balanced and its finances in good shape. Expenses have been pared down almost entirely because of the business like administration of Frank Murphy as governor general."

The party aboard the President Jefferson, is due in Seattle December 15.

Mayor Complains Of Wage Scale

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21. (AP)—Mayor Ross D. Rogers of Amarillo, Texas, said today he planned to ask the Works Progress Administration to raise the $21 a month minimum wage scale in his city.

"We hope to get the same basis as region 2 just to the south of us—$32," Rogers said. "I don't know why we are so much lower than that."

Complaining that many Panhandle WPA projects apparently had been delayed unduly, the mayor said he also would seek to expedite them, particularly a $65,000 street repair program at Amarillo. "The street project, he said, would give 200 men work for nine months. He remarked the city "still has a lot of unemployed."

Rogers came here for the annual conference of mayors.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—The worst thing that can happen to you in Washington is to be appointed a co-ordinator. The fellow who once had to empty a well with a sieve had a soft snap compared with the job of trying to co-ordinate parts of the New Deal.

The latest victim is Peter Grimm, a New York real estate man and protege of Secretary Morgenthau, who is supposed to co-ordinate the various New Deal housing activities.

A recent confidential survey found that 37 government agencies had "definite responsibilities in housing." The most important ones are FHA, PWA, RA, FERA, RFC, HOLC, FCA, and WPA.

In as many of those agencies as could be covered in a day, one found a grim undercurrent of opposition to Mr. Grimm. It reminds you of the way people got to feeling about that co-ordinator of co-ordinators, Donald Richberg.

Whether or not an abhorrence of being co-ordinator has anything to do with it, the people who struggle with housing here almost unanimously cry out a belief that Grimm, who has handled the Astor and Morgenthau properties in New York, seeks to maintain high mortgage rates and discredit low-cost housing efforts, in the interests of big banks, mortgage agencies, real estate companies, builders and insurance companies.

Grimm's troubles began when Roosevelt appointed Fred Delano, the president's uncle, as chairman of a housing co-ordination committee, with Grimm as Delano's assistant. Delano's dislike for Grimm dated back before that and was intensified when Grimm called a meeting of the committee without his consent.

A strong impression grew up that Grimm was especially anxious to "co-ordinate" Chairman John H. Fahey and the Home Loan system and Fahey won that reported battle to the extent that Grimm suddenly found himself but one among several other assistants to the committee, appointed by Delano.

Something had to be done or Mr. Grimm might as well go back to New York. The "something" was his appointment to the National Emergency Council as an official co-ordinator of housing activities.

Delano is reported threatening to resign if Grimm gets real power or authority. Grimm is sending long questionnaires to all agencies, which arouse sour reactions.

Home Loan thinks he's trying to absorb it into FHA and convert its bonds into insured mortgages.

PWA Housing thinks Grimm would like to sabotage its low-cost projects. And so on. In other words, Mr. Grimm faces odds.

Roosevelt, slick as ever with the press, was asked to comment on a crack from General Johnson by a correspondent who mumbled so that other newspapermen yelled "Louder!"

"He wanted to know about some kind of a statement from General Johnson," spoke up the president, grinning.

"Haw-haw-haw!" bellowed the correspondents, taking the cue. But one man insisted on asking the president's answer.

"You fellows gave the answer," Roosevelt replied.

"Hee-hee-hee!" giggled the correspondents.

GOOD-NATURED OLD FELLOW WELCOMES PARTY, WHICH IS TO SEE FACTORY TOMORROW

BY CAPT. F. W. KLEINSCHMIDT Special Correspondent to THE NEWS and Head of Expedition to Home of Santa Claus

(By Wireless) AT THE TOP OF THE WORLD—SANTA'S CASTLE, Nov. 21.—"Have found the home of Santa Claus, and have just been received in his castle. Sending this message from Santa's big wireless station. Details following later."

"F. E. Kleinschmidt," the Pampa Junior chamber of commerce eager to make little boys and girls happy, sent Captain Kleinschmidt on an expedition to go to the Far North to find the home of Santa Claus and invite him to Pampa Santa day, December 6.

The captain was outfitted with two airplanes and at the farthest North Eskimo village he secured reindeer for his final dash to the Pole. He was accompanied by his wife, a mechanic, wireless operator, cameraman, "Red" Borland and several Eskimos. They faced many hardships and dangers. The party fights off a wolf attack and battles with "Layluk" the north wind, and now we are happy to announce in this chapter that the Pampa Junior chamber's expedition has been a success and the brave Captain and his party are safe at Santa's castle. We know nothing about Santa Claus except that he comes south at Christmas time, slides down the chimney and leaves presents.

We expect to hear wonderful tales of the good old Saint, what he does in his home and how he spends the balance of the year. Children do not miss the following wireless messages as they will appear in THE NEWS.

Further details have just been received from Captain Kleinschmidt. He says: "In yesterday's message I told you how Jimmie Aide, the dwarf, had returned and brought us the message from Santa Claus that he would receive the Pampa expedition, and I had to break off sending as our teams were all hitched up and everybody eager to go."

Mrs. Kleinschmidt invited Jimmie Aide to sit on the sleigh beside her, but with a hop and a skip he was up on the back of Trouncer, our leader. The reindeer gave a snort, shook his antler, humped up his back and then started to bolt for a distant peak. However, he soon calmed Trouncer and the teams settled down to a steady gallop.

but every now and then Jimmy Aide, perched on the deer's back, would point out the direction and show us the nearest route to our goal without losing any time. The deer seemed to know they were nearing the end of their journey and began to lengthen their stride, just as boys do when they know dinner is ready and steaming hot mince pie is waiting for them at home.

Guided by Jimmy the dwarf, we came to a small hill or slight rise in the vast plain. Suddenly, just at the crest of the hill he pulled hard on the reins and called "whoa" to the reindeer.

For the first time in the history of man, human beings were gazing upon the kingdom of Santa Claus. There before us on the rise in the snowy plain bathed in moonlight stood a glittering castle. It's hundreds of towers as high as the mountains to the right and left and as the Northern Lights shone upon the millions of windows, miriads of beautiful colors were reflected like sparkling gems. It was an overpowering sight. Never before in all my travels over the world have I witnessed such a sight.

Birds snow white soared overhead and as far as the eye could see were millions of dots—reindeer that were grazing in herds. A curving road led to the drawbridge and the big front doors.

Not only ourselves but even the stolid Eskimos were overcome with wonder and awe, to be shown before Christmas. Wonderful! Marvelous! Imagine us standing here at the outer edge of the greatest gift giving territory in all the world. God surely has been good to Santa Claus." Pa-tu-nukand Kiteenn, our Eskimo friends were equally as enthusiastic, but as is known the little brown men are not disposed to shout and make merry in happy moments as we white people do.

While we were all standing marveling at the sights before us, Jimmie Aide shouted, "Let's be off!" and he picked up the reins and called to Trouncer. The reindeer started with a bolt and soon our party was within hailing distance of Santa's castle. Trouncer and the other reindeer streaked toward the palace. Little

McCraw to Speak To Legionnaires At Borger Meet

BORGER, Nov. 21.—Ten days to go and the 18th district convention of the American Legion will have convened in what will be the biggest and best convention ever held in this district. Hutchinson county post's plans are practically complete, assuring the buddies of a glorious and profitable time.

The committee of speakers has turned in its final report furnishing us with our attorney general, William McCraw, as the principal speaker, and when one considers such names as Major Harry Gilstrap, Manager of the Oklahoma City office veterans administration one can easily see that this committee has done a good job and the convention will not suffer from the lack of well informed and entertaining speakers.

The high-light for Sunday, December 1, will be the noon luncheon.

Ellsworth Fails In Antarctic Hop

NEW YORK, Nov. 21 (AP)—The New York Times and North American Newspaper Alliance reported Lincoln Ellsworth was back at his base ship, the Wyatt Exp., today, after an unsuccessful attempt to fly across the Antarctic continent.

The Ellsworth plane was forced to turn back because of a broken fuel gauge. With Herbert Hollock-Kenyon as pilot, Ellsworth had attempted to fly 2,140 miles from the Weddell sea to the Ross sea.

The men had taken off at 1:50 a. m. (CST) yesterday. The plane was equipped with an aerial camera with which the explorer hoped to map the region he describes as "The Great Unknown."

He had headed toward Admiral Byrd's former base at "Little America," intending to stay in the air about 14 hours. He was aloft, however, a little more than three hours.

UNICAMERAL LEGISLATIVE PLAN ADVOCATED BY YOUNGER SOLONS

AUSTIN, Nov. 21 (AP)—Substitution of one house for the present dual system, revision of rules, reduction of membership and annual salaries for legislators have been suggested as means of expediting the legislature's work and reducing the number of called sessions.

Restive at the growing number of special sessions and snarls in law-making, a group of young members has given the unicameral legislative plan fervent support.

A resolution by Senator G. H. Nelson of Toluca, urging a constitutional election on the question, received scant attention in the senate.

He proposed a single house composed of two members from each of the 21 congressional districts, elected for four-year terms at salaries of $5,000 a year. They would give all their time to the office and be subject to recall.

The legislature would stay in session until its work was completed, could recess without affecting the status of pending legislation and could meet without the call of the governor should more than 50 per cent of the members desire.

He estimated that $5,000 annual salaries paid the 42 members of a unicameral legislature would save the state more than $800,000 every two years on legislative expense.

Rep. A. M. Aikin, Jr. of Paris, also favoring the one-house system said he was sick and tired of this long-rolling and filibustering and wanted a system whereby responsibility will be definitely fixed.

Influential members, however, opposed a unicameral body, stressing the importance of two houses in preventing hasty legislation.

"The check of two houses is needed," said Rep. Homer Leonard of McAllen, chairman of the house appropriations committee. "There are mistakes enough and there would be more if there was only one house."

Senator T. J. Holbrook of Galveston opposed the one-chamber plan for similar reasons, but thought the ratio of house membership to the senate should be reduced from the present five to one to about three to one. He said fewer members in the lower house would expedite work and give adequate representation.

"The trouble is that enough work isn't done when a session is under way," said Rep. Walter E. Jones of Jourdanton, chairman of the
