WORDS O.E.H. Words are things BYRON

Twinkles How the mighty do fall! Nothing is intact in district 1, but the Thanksgiving game may revive that old three-way tie.

It is quite evident that we've got to be fighting mad about something when the Harvesters get to Plainview Friday. Has anybody got anything "on" Plainview?

Amarillo is smart as usual—taking her "licking" before opening her conference schedule.

Speaking of traditions: Lubbock has one of topping an unattended Pampa eleven. That one we've got to give more thought to; in fact, thinking is a lot more important in football than you may have imagined.

Hugh Johnson, the truculent ex-NRA chief, will speak before the homecoming football game in Canyon this week. After his talk, everybody ought to be mad enough to enjoy a great game.

Musing of the moment: Ability and training are not everything in sports. The will to win, which can be coaxed into a driving, raving frenzy, is often the margin of victory. . . The Harvesters, victims of such a determination Saturday, ought to know something of the danger. They have illustrated it often enough against Amarillo!

Brevitorials

TURNING THROUGH the week-end mail:

Half the mail we get is from government agencies and bureaus. The government is now either the greatest educational agency of the kind in the world or it is the world's No. 1 propaganda bureau. The coming political campaign will put much stress upon the AAA. The farm vote is desired by both parties. The GOP is in the dilemma of trying to oppose the present administration yet appeal to farmers who were well represented in the intricacies of AAA.

Chester A. Davis, AAA administrator is anticipating many of the arguments with well-reasoned analyses of the government program, although he naturally is defending his department with pardonable devotion is an A-1 propagandist for Mr. Roosevelt.

SAID MR. DAVIS last week during a broadcast, a copy of which was sent to us: "The government industries, under our economic system, have universally practiced restriction of output in order to maintain price. Corporate industries would no more think of running their plants at full capacity year in and year out than they would on the market regardless of price, and regardless of unsold stocks piled up, than they would think of burning the factory building down once a year to celebrate the Fourth of July. The farmers will want to know why they should be the only ones to hang themselves in this manner. Now THAT is an issue that will persist in challenging anyone who undertakes to drive it away.

From Governor Allred comes more details of his declaration of Will Rogers day as Monday, November 4. The governor stressed that Will Rogers needs no monument. This seems to be a national opinion. Nothing of stone or metal will express the greatness of his personality, the sharpness of his intellect.

DR. JOHN W. BROWN, state health officer, writes that he is urging all parents of children from 6 months to 10 years of age to have the tots immunized against diphtheria. Last month, 265 cases of diphtheria were reported to the state Department of Health. It was not so long ago that parents dreaded diphtheria because of the inability to prevent or cure this scourge. Now that we not only know the cause but also the remedy there is no reason why this disease cannot be completely eliminated. As diphtheria is most dangerous to the very young children, it is of the highest importance that immunization be given early. What is more, in young children there is practically no reaction to the injection. Immunization has been proven to give absolute protection. It is in the power of the parents of this State, cooperating with their physicians and the health department, to eliminate the disease. Most children can be protected against diphtheria by a single treatment—with what is known as TOXOID. However, in about six months the child should be given a Schick test to determine if a second treatment is necessary. Early immunization is a routine procedure adopted by modern and up-to-date physicians. Cooperate with your family physician and your community and make early immunization a regular practice in this State.

District One Grid Playoff Impossible

LATEST RULE IS EXPLAINED BY HENDERSON

DISTRICT COMMITTEE, NOT TEAMS, WOULD FIGHT IT OUT

A telegram from Roy B. Henderson of the Texas Interscholastic League, received last night by Supt. R. B. Fisher, exploded any and all theories that in case of a three-way tie in District 1, the tie could be played off by two teams meeting in a half game and the winner meeting the third team in the last half.

The rule was made by the District 1 committee three years ago, but Henderson's telegram stated that rule 6B supercedes all district rules and 6B reads: "The district executive committee must certify an eligible district champion not later than the Saturday after Thanksgiving. In case of dispute, certification to the state office shall be in form of written notice naming the eligible school and must be signed by majority members of the district executive committee."

Therefore, in case of a three-way tie in the district, the district committee would have to meet and in some manner certify a district champion. How, no one knows, since there is no state ruling on the subject.

The Interscholastic League is a part of the extension department of the Texas university and is known as the University Interscholastic League. Its officers are Thos. A. Shelly, chairman, Roy Bedichek, Roy B. Henderson, R. A. Cox, B. C. Tharp, W. P. Webb, J. O. Marberry, and T. A. Roussil, all members of the Texas university faculty.

Those men have the power of dictators. Just as it is impossible to sue the United States government without the government's consent.

15-CENT TAX ON OIL ASKED BY ATTORNEY

Fischer Urges Levy to Pay Penalties; Says Tax Now Not Large Enough.

KILGORE, Oct. 29. (AP)—F. W. Fischer, prominent Tyler attorney and oil producer, said today he and his associates will urge the Texas legislature to pass a gross production tax of 15 cents per barrel on oil to pay old age pensions.

Fischer said he also advocated the decrease of the state gasoline tax from four to two cents per gallon. "We are simply asked that the state tax us," said Fischer. "Unless some groups come forward, the old people of the state are going hungry and the dictation of the vast majority of the voters will be ignored."

He asserted the oil industry in Texas "is inadequately taxed as it stands today." "Eighty five per cent of the oil produced in Texas and products refined from it, are shipped to eastern states and other points where its proceeds are used to build four lane concrete highways and pay enormous dividends for large oil company stockholders."

"Oil leaving Texas in either crude state or refined is practically tax free as there is no state tax on gasoline or other refined products manufactured here and shipped out of the state."

$48,000 CHECK IS WRITTEN FOR COUNTY'S JOBS

Gray WPA Projects May Begin Here This Week

Launching of the first WPA project in Gray county is expected to take place this week if details can be perfected in time. From Congressman Marvin Jones today came the information to The NEWS that $48,000 for Gray county had been provided in the form of a treasury warrant. This is believed to be the Alanreed-LeFors road and the short McLean-Hedley strip.

Commissioner M. M. Newman of precinct 4 planned to consult district WPA officials relative to an immediate work order. The Alanreed-LeFors project is most favored at this time, inasmuch as gathering of crops is providing temporary work in the McLean community.

The entire Panhandle is being given scattered projects. A few projects have been under way for several days. Among these were the Potter county sewer room project, a street improvement project in Wellington, a bridge construction job at Antelope creek in Hutchinson county. The sewer room project was laid out to employ 300 women. Thirty-four men were employed on the Wellington job and 15 on the Antelope creek bridge.

Repair work on Higgins school was begun Saturday morning with 12 men. One hundred and eight men were put to work on the flood control project near Clarendon yesterday. Projects that were due to start this morning and the number of men that were to report for work are: Skellytown school repairs, 41 men; general improvement work on lateral roads in precinct 4, Hansel.

JAP'S ISLAND REPORT STIRS GENEVA BODY

GERMAN ISLANDS HAVE STRATEGIC VALUE, HE CONCEDES

GENEVA, Oct. 29. (AP)—A reported statement by a Japanese officer that the former German islands in the Pacific ocean, now mandated to Japan, have strategic value, created a stir today at a meeting of the League of Nations mandate commission.

Pierre Orts, Belgian member of the commission, read a report from an unnamed Japanese officer denying charges that Japan had fortified the islands but conceding that they possess strategic importance.

Nobumi Ito, Japanese representative, said he would refer this question to Tokyo as he was unable to reply immediately.

Professor William Rappard, Swiss member of the commission, asserted a German who toured the Pacific islands told friends he was followed and observed from the moment he arrived until he departed. "It is replied that the German in question had mistaken Japanese hospitality for surveillance, and that anyone was quite free to visit the islands."

The mandate commission virtually has decided not to make a decision on the matter of whether Japan has the right to equal opportunity for commerce in all world regions under mandate now that she has left the league.

State Livestock Station Is Urged For High Plains

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—The Texas planning board today petitioned the resettlement administration to establish a livestock grazing experiment station in the Panhandle.

The board considered prospects favorable. Problems for the stations would be determination of types of livestock best suited to available vegetation and methods of improving grasses along with soil and water conservation.

The board adopted a resolution praising John A. Norris, chairman of the board of water engineers for his work in securing approval of the Brazos river project, and thanking Senator Morris Sheppard, Harry Hopkins, works progress administrator, and H. P. Drought, state WPA administrator.

It takes hours and hours of practice on every feat. Many boys, no matter how hard they try, cannot become tumblers.

House Passes Act Increasing Levy On Horse Races

Duvall Says Statute Would Ruin Big Race Plants

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—The senate today passed and sent to the house a bill to provide salaries for county and district officers while the house passed a bill increasing taxes on horse race wagers.

The house sidetracked the omnibus tax bill to consider the racing tax. An amendment was defeated to increase the tax to 3 cents on each dollar regardless of total wagers, and permit the tracks to retain the breaks.

Rep. J. C. Duvall of Fort Worth asserted the tax would ruin the larger tracks and said it would strike especially at Arlington Downs, the state's most extensive racing establishment.

The house renewed debate on the omnibus tax bill and the senate continued discussion of a bill to place district and county officers on a salary basis.

It is likely that the drive will be started November 12 at a breakfast.

ITALIAN ARMY IS 25 MILES NEARER GOAL

CREDIT DENIED ITALY; NEW DECISIONS LIKELY

BY G. H. ANDERSON, Associated Press Foreign Staff. LONDON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Official sources today reported a breakdown in efforts by British and French diplomats to reach a basis of agreement for a possible settlement of the Italo-Ethiopian conflict. Maurice Peterson, head of the Ethiopian department of the British foreign office, went to Paris recently to talk to French experts in an effort to reach a technical agreement as to how peace could be restored.

LONDON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Great Britain imposed its second sanction against Italy today with enforcement of an embargo on credit to the warring fascist nation.

A surprise announcement that Foreign Secretary Sir Samuel Hoare, as well as Anthony Eden, would go to Geneva late this week to represent Britain in view of forthcoming "important decisions," led to a belief in some quarters that even further punitive measures soon would be undertaken.

British sources expressed hope that the foreign secretary's presence at the League of Nations would lead to more definite Italo-Ethiopian "peace talks" than have been held.

Sir Samuel was expected to confine himself to committee work, with possible private meetings with Premier Pierre Laval, central figure in the European negotiations, and other leading statesmen.

Effective today, the British money market was forbidden to make loans to Italian banks in London. Acceptance or endorsement of bills of exchange for the benefit of Italians was banned, and issuance of subscription for shares in Italian corporations was forbidden.

Having pushed 25 miles deeper into Ethiopia, Mussolini's forces were half way today on the march from Adigrat to Makale, mountain pass gateway to the interior.

A communique issued in Rome said: "On the Somaliland front, patrols of Dubats (native Somaliland soldiers) put to flight groups of armed Ethiopians between Scillave and Gorrahe. There have been 732 rifles captured."

Gorrahe is the immediate objective in the southern sector before the Italians consolidate their forces for the drive north to Harar, the metropolis of eastern Ethiopia.

Airplanes soared over both the northern and southern fronts, seeking the locations of Ethiopian troops.

An Exchange Telegraph (British) dispatch from the Somaliland front said Italian planes had flown over Makale, half way to Addis Ababa.

As it Duce's empire building armaments continued their offensive, the League of Nations, pessimistic over the chances for an early peace, planned its campaign of sanctions against Italy.

24 Nations Signed Up. An official communique in Geneva showed 24 nations had notified the league they would participate in the "buy nothing from Italy" boycott.

Officials of the league said the See BOYCOTT, Page 8.

THE WAR AT A GLANCE

By The Associated Press. Italian troops advanced deeper into Ethiopian interior. On the northern front, advance columns penetrated to half way between Adigrat and Makale. New strength was given to the League of Nations sanctions campaign against Italy. Twenty-four nations were pledged to abide by the "buy nothing from Italy" boycott.

A pessimistic attitude prevailed in Geneva over the prospects for an Italo-Ethiopian peace parley.

Garner Leaves Shoes On As He Talks With Jap Emperor

TOKYO, Oct. 29. (AP)—Vice President John Nance Garner of the United States appeared in audience before Emperor Hirohito of Japan today with his shoes on.

That constituted an answer to recent speculation in America over whether he would have to pay his respects to the sovereign in stocking feet.

"For two generations no foreign visitor has been asked to remove his shoes when he is ushered across the highly polished wood floors of the palace into the presence of the emperor. The vice president was clad formally in a cutaway with striped trousers and high laced black shoes which apparently had not been shined recently. Accompanying him to the palace was Speaker Joseph W. Byrns of the American house of representatives, and Edwin L. Neville, chargé d'affaires of the American embassy.

The trio remained for 10 minutes talking with the sovereign through a foreign office interpreter in the famous Phoenix hall, audience chamber of the palace. The subject of their conversation was not disclosed.

Asked about his audience, Garner replied: "I cannot talk about that. It was a private audience, and it would be highly improper to comment on what his majesty said."

"His majesty is most gracious," Byrns commented. A few hours later, a strenuous round of official and unofficial formalities over, the Garner party set sail on the liner President Grant for Kobe, en route to Manila for inauguration of the Philippine commonwealth. The vice president first was a

Blaze Fatal to Two; Five Others Are in Hospital

BALLINGER, Oct. 29. (AP)—Two are dead here, father and babe, and five others in a hospital with burns, result of an early morning fire destroying the home of R. A. Duckworth. The dead are Duckworth, oil mill employe, and his infant, one week old. In the hospital are Mrs. Duckworth; her sisters, Mrs. A. J. Stiles of Ballinger and Miss Clara Tyler, 17, of Bridgeport; Mr. Stiles and the 16-months old Stiles baby, John Franklin Stiles. Doctors said Stiles was probably fatally burned, the others not dangerously.

The explosion followed, igniting Duckworth's clothing. Mrs. Duckworth, weakened by the birth of the child last week, tottered out of bed with the infant. Duckworth snatched the child from her, cradling it against his burning body, and he died instantly. Other members of the household were burned as they attempted to succor Duckworth. Duckworth died at 6:30 this morning.

BUDGETS CLASH WITH AMENDMENTS

The cost of wars, present, past, and future, and the cost of being ready for war are one of the major causes of high taxes.

At a time when business men in this country are crying for a balanced federal budget, European countries are going ahead with huge preparedness budgets. Thus, in this "enlightened" age, humans burden themselves because of their fear of each other.

The British are already groaning under an income tax rate of $1.25 on each $5 income, yet their defense budget is a billion dollars this year. The billion will be needed to bring the army, navy, and air forces up to the standard of rival nations. Whether to increase taxes now or to borrow from the people is being bitterly debated. If all notions started issuing bonds for armaments, the anticipation of war would be as expensive, almost as the real thing.

Italy is going ahead with a reckless spending program in which the government, even before the Ethiopian expedition began, was spending more than it was receiving. Trade has been unfavorable for several years. Italy's debts are desperately high and her gold stores are rapidly declining. For Il Duce, the expensive overseas war without victory would be chaos.

The nations which borrowed money from American citizens have failed to repay it, but they are spending billions for defense. Germany, which has huge unpaid debts, is re-arming at a terrific pace.

These facts make America's spending for relief a rather tame extravagance, after all, if it is an extravagance in the manner of spending.

THE NEW DEAL IN WASHINGTON

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—The old question whether it's a good idea to dump, destroy, or suppress "surpluses" of food while millions of people are on the edge of starvation is again an issue in New Deal councils.

There has been some compromise in Roosevelt's previous firm determination to abolish the Federal Surplus Relief Corporation, which has bought tens of thousands of tons of foodstuffs in the last two years for distribution to families on relief.

The FSRC will be transferred from Harry Hopkins' soon-to-vanish FERA to the AAA and federal purchases for the needy won't be abandoned—at least not entirely.

The president, however, still has the theory that wages of the work-relief program and the turning of direct relief back to the states virtually end the necessity or desirability of free food for the unemployed. And that is violently disputed within both the agricultural and relief organizations.

It is contended that WPA wages usually won't provide adequate diets for families, especially in face of rising prices, that the program of ending direct federal relief is only crawling, and that there will still be plenty of surpluses which should be bought from farmers to maintain prices.

The issue comes to a head through an amendment in which Congress recently appropriated 30 per cent of customs revenues to aid in effectuating the AAA program.

More than half that amount seems destined for paying the subsidy guarantee to cotton growers.

That would leave perhaps $45,000,000 to be spent for disposition of surpluses—through export or diversion to relief channels. The big argument now is as to whether most or all of that sum will be spent to finance dumping foodstuffs abroad or whether most or all will be used for relief purchases.

Present tendency in AAA is to feed the surplus food to Americans rather than foreigners, but many congressmen and some farm groups would prefer to see it dumped.

Privately, officials admit that the amount of surplus foodstuffs to be distributed for relief this winter will depend on the extent to which the unemployed shout for it and the pressure which farm groups exert for purchases, once a no-dumping policy is announced.

Tons of potatoes presumably will be bought by FSRC. (Its most recent acquisitions are five million pounds of butter and ten million pounds of dried skim milk.)

Believe it or not, the forthcoming "reduction" program for apuds is likely to result in lower prices for potatoes than would the absence of any program at all. AAA economists have advised confidentially that the effort to penalize overproduction probably will result in more production than they anticipated.

The reason: For a long time potato production has been running in two-year cycles. After two years of big production and low prices—such as the last two years—potato growers ordinarily cut acreage drastically, whereupon potatoes become fewer and higher in price for a couple of years, whereupon potato growers start planting big crops again and so on.

According to an English lecturer, Americans do not know how to enjoy leisure. For instance they go to hear English lecturers.

CAPITOL CHATTER

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS

AUSTIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—Organization of the oil state compact committee to inquire into phases of the oil industry is regarded as another thrust in the offensive to blanket the threat of federal control of the oil industry.

Texas drew the chairmanship of one committee and membership on two others. The committees will consider plans for coordinated action of oil producing states, study production and consumption and inquire into the method used by the United States Bureau of Mines in determining production quotas.

Col. Ernest O. Thompson, railroad commission chairman, was named to head the committee on co-ordination. He also will serve on the committee on consumption and imports and exports.

Committee reports will be made at a meeting in Oklahoma City early in December.

The chief duty of the co-ordinating committee will be to determine the aggregate potential of states, the production and proved reserves and to work out a plan to determine accurate potentials and eliminate incorrect estimates.

Thus far little concern has been expressed over the development of the Rodessa field that shows promise of becoming a three-state problem. The main development has been in Louisiana with quickening of activity in Arkansas and Texas.

Of the three only Texas is a compact member.

Threatened interstate complications incident to the Rodessa field have not materialized to the extent expected, partly due to the physical conditions and partly to the apparent likelihood of complete cooperation between interested states should the field cross state lines," the commission stated.

The legislature, it appears, is determined to get down to business on legislation to regulate oil production and enforce proration. Even members of the house opposed to investigating committees "on general principles" joined in giving a special committee $10,000 to continue an inquiry into the oil industry.

One opponent of investigations wanted to give the committee $25,000.

"I want to be sure we get a thorough investigation this time," he said. "I am tired of having these committees go out and come back with the job only half finished."

PLAINVIEW BACK IN FAVORED SPOT AFTER CLOSE BATTLE AT BIG SPRING

CHANGES MADE IN LINEUP OF PAMPA TEAM

NEW FORMATION WILL ALLOW DECEPTIVE PLAYS

The sun had disappeared and brief twilight period was just ending when the Pampa Harvesters left the field yesterday after the longest practice session of the 1935 season. For more than three hours, the Harvesters worked on their formations and it will be a different looking team that takes the field against Plainview Friday night in the Bulldog lab.

Little change will be made in the defense. The offense, however, will be almost unrecognizable. Continuing the unbalanced line, coaches have switched Stokes Green over to the tackle position filled by Moose Hartman, who will take Philip Nolan's position on the other side of the line. Nolan will play his old position again. The change will allow Hartman to take care of the opposing end by himself or to break out and run interference.

The backfield will have a more varied attack and easier interference assignments from the new formation, a type of box, still differing from the double wingback. Several types of play can be used by switching the players. It will leave the way open for two spinner plays, criss-cross, drives, and end runs. Stewart, who has been punting better recently, will be used on straight drives from a punt formation.

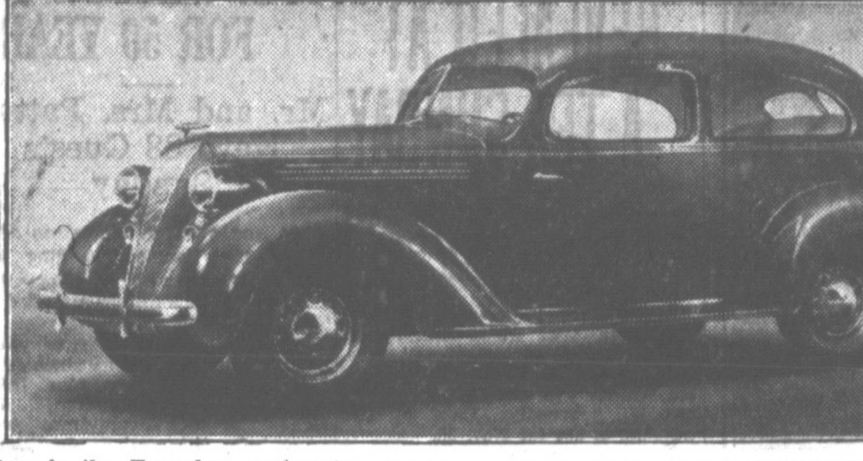

A scrimmage against the Gorillas netted the Harvesters many touchdowns after they had practiced the new formations briefly. Work was to continue this afternoon and every afternoon until the team leaves for Plainview. All practices will be behind closed gates.

The boys showed a new determination during yesterday's long practice. There was no mention of the Lubbock loss, but only talk of hurrying Plainview and Berger to get to the Amarillo Sandies here on Thanksgiving day, defeat them, and throw the district into a three-way tie.

Plainview, considered the dark horse of the district early in the season, fell before Berger to open the upsets in the district. Then their stock rose again in losing to Big Spring by only six points. Pampa was dropped from the pinnacle in a loss to Lubbock and it is expected to be another inspired team that faces the Harvesters in Plainview.

The Bulldogs have a big line that needs only experience. The backfield is fast but light. Every member of the team played football last year. Everyone feels that the Bulldogs are better than they have appeared to date and that the Harvesters may have a stiff battle.

DETROIT CLUB IN 'RED' AFTER WORLD SERIES

DID NOT BREAK EVEN WHAT WITH ALL EXPENSES

By EARL J. HILLIGAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

DETROIT, Oct. 29. (AP)—Those poor 'ole Detroit Tigers threw $500,000 today at the wolf that started hanging around during the world series.

Mr. Wolf didn't have a chance to prowl around the Tiger den during the regular season. Attendance which surged past the million mark made the turnstiles click so fast and the money bags jingle so merrily that the noise kept him away. But then came that world series, and the wolf, sniffing the thousands of dollars in expenses of which only the boss Tigers knew, came padding around the bengal ball park.

But when he poked his nose inside the door at Navin field today he took it on the lam, routed by a crash of concrete as workmen began wrecking operations which started expenditure by the Detroit club of a cool half million dollars to pep up business hereabouts next year.

Charles J. Navin, club secretary, said today that the Detroit club didn't even break even on the 1935 fall class. The club is digesting the receipt and expenditure records out of the vault. Navin further said that even had the Chicago-Tiger battle gone a seventh, the Detroit club would not have climbed out of "the red" on the series paper.

"The expenses in getting ready for a world series are terrific, considering the fact the players take the big share of the first four games," Navin pointed out. "It cost the Detroit baseball company more than $55,000 just to get the park ready by improving the field, moving the scoreboard and building the temporary bleachers to seat about 20,000."

Navin said the past season was one of the best the Detroit club ever has enjoyed and the enlargement of the park is an effort to accommodate the fans who loyally have supported the club. While plans still are tentative, he said the general idea is that the pavilions in right and left field will become part of the two-deck permanent grandstand and that the centerfield bleachers will be connected with the right field grandstand and also be made into two decks.

UNDEFEATED, UNTIED ELEVENS WILL CLASH AGAIN SATURDAY

FIRST DOWN - AND THEN SOME

BY HARRY GRAYSON

Bob Zupke said that he went to Columbus to see Ohio State play the Baylors and he was, and was overwhelmed. Zup asserts that he never saw a bunch of backs who could handle the ball as well as Jumping Joe Williams & company.

"Inasmuch as the Illinois men constructed the defense that brought about Ohio State's early and only defeat of 1934, he realizes that the Scarlet and Gray will be even higher than usual when it tackles the Illinois at Columbus on November 16. However, the little Dutchman is consoled somewhat by the return of Les Lindberg, who should help no little in solving the more important problems ahead.

Lindberg, a triple threat, has been out with a broken bone in his foot since the Urbana bow-bow to Ohio University in its curtain raiser.

Sam Breton announces that Pepper Martin will continue his activities with the St. Louis Cardinals to center field in 1936.

Brady, the theatrical magnate who managed James J. Corbett and James J. Jeffries, is among the mighty few who profess to believe that James J. Braddock will surprise Joe Louis. Eight National Hockey league teams have upwards of 75 players who were amateurs last season.

The International, Canadian-American, Western Canada, and American leagues will have many more than that number.

The ending of the Canadian amateur rule that now permits simon-pures to practice with professionals and return to the lily white ranks if they lack sufficient ability accounts for the unprecedented influx of badly needed talent.

Junior High to Play Wheeler's Second String

Coach Tom Herod will take his Junior high team to Wheeler Friday afternoon for a game with the Wheeler Ponies. The Wheeler B team is said to be a snappy little eleven that has been playing winning ball all season.

The Pampa eleven, with a tie against the Gorillas under their belts, have been digging into practice the past two weeks and showing marked improvement. The offense, which had been ragged, picked up speed and precision. The defense also showed tightening.

The coach will take his entire squad to Wheeler for the game. So hard are his prospects battling for position that he has not definitely named a starting eleven. Practices are held every afternoon on the Sam Houston playground.

RICE STUDENTS CELEBRATE

HOUSTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Classroom were deserted at Rice Institute Monday while 1,300 students celebrated the Owls' first Southwest conference victory of the year over the University of Texas Saturday.

Freshman dormitory students were routed from their beds at 5 a. m. by upper classmen who made the frosh lock and bar the gates and keep out all professors and many students who felt the urge to study. After being forbidden entrance to the gates, Harry B. Welter declared a holiday.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE TO FEATURE NUMEROUS HEADLINE GRID GAMES THIS WEEK-END

PAMPA AT PLAINVIEW HOLDS INTEREST IN PANHANDLE

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

Many of the pace-setters in the Texas class A districts of the Interscholastic league football marathon face stern tests this week-end.

Pampa and Plainview tangle Friday in the only district one game, which means the pace setting Amarillo Sandies and Lubbock Westerners will not be molested.

The district two race offers a pair of Friday games when Eastland battles Cisco and Brownwood takes on Abilene.

The district three race does not start until Nov. 3.

Sherman and Gainesville, co-leaders in district six, may topple from lofty perches Friday when Sherman invades McKinney and Gainesville meets Denton. Both should develop into A-1 interscholastic battles due to the strong rivalry in this district.

One district race was settled last week when Greenville smothered Paris to win the district nine championship—they being the only two teams in this district.

The strong district twelve leaders Temple and Corsicana, face Jeff Davis meets Sam Houston, and San Jacinto takes on John Reagan. These four teams are tied for first place with undefeated records which means two of them must suffer elimination Friday and Saturday.

The district standing and games this week follow:

percent the appointment but participates at all games in which three district majors perform.

Pampa athletes have come to the front at Texas Tech at Lubbock, it was learned Saturday by fans who attended the Pampa-Lubbock football game.

Roy Webb and Dick Sullins are both out for football and are playing regularly with the freshman team. Webb is calling signals and Sullins is playing a halfback position.

Webb and Wilton Frier are playing tennis and are doped to come through.

Two Pampa boys are now in the football realm at Canyon. Henry Ayers, a great end for Pampa, is playing first string for the freshmen. Herbert Horton, brother of Tank Horton, Red Runner catcher, although never having played football here, is a regular guard for the Calves.

At Altus, Okla., Pampa has four football stars in Carl Smith, All State guard last year, Bill Haner, Miles Marbaugh, and Buck Mundy. All four are members of the starting team.

"Little Joe" Kahl, a star of former years, is the big noise of the Tulsa university Golden Hurricane this year. Kahl punts, passes, and carries the ball and also takes his turn on the receiving end of passes from the giant Tack Dennis. Troy Stalls is another former Harvesters with the Hurricane.

Red Post, a Harvesters star of several years ago, is playing regularly at Hardin-Simmons.

CITY LEADS STATE IN NUMBER OF STUDENTS AT UNIVERSITY

Pampa has more students in Texas university than any other city of its size in the state, statistics show. Although Pampa is known as a football city, not one of the athletes attending the school is out for football.

Harold Gregory has already brought Pampa to the front in the tennis world. He made the freshman tennis team in a tournament just ended, having defeated the winner of the event last year, who returned as a freshman. Gregory plans to go out for baseball next spring and is also being urged to try out for the football team.

Jack Bailey, one of the stars on the Pampa-Busby Indian baseball team last season, is working out at the university team under the veteran Billy Ditch and is looking good.

Elmer Irving has already started basketball practice and is going stronger than at any time during his high school playing.

Buster Hays is now at the university and is being hailed as a real find by the track and field coach. Hays is working on the dashes and broad jump.

Paul Schneider is one of the three drum majors of the university band. In a contest, he was selected the leading candidate but because his classes interfered with practice, he was unable to accept the appointment.

Wheeler Primed To Meet McLean On Friday Night

LeFors and Mobettie To Be Principals In Battle

The Class B football race in this section will swing deeper into the conference race when five teams play important games on Friday.

In District 3, the McLean Tigers will meet the Wheeler Mustangs under the lights at Tiger field. McLean needs a win to keep her clear and stay in the lead with the Shamrock Irishmen, who have no game scheduled thus far.

McLean won a brilliant 33 to 7 victory from the Wellington Skyrockets Friday night at McLean. Wheeler swamped Texas 40 to 6 in a non-conference game.

The Tigers ran up 29 points in the first quarter and then the second string went into action. Wellington scored on passes in the third quarter but McLean came back in the final stanza with Stratton intercepting a pass and running 60 yards for a counter. Johnson, one of the Tigers' first string ends, broke a bone in his foot in the first quarter and will be lost for the rest of the season.

LeFors will be the scene of a game between the Mobettie Hornets and the Pirates of Coach Bill Bronson. The Hornets will try to break into the win column against the favored Pirates.

Wellington will be at Memphis for another conference game. The Owls will be fighting to stay in the conference running and are doped to win over Wellington. Memphis lost a tough 14 to 6 game to the Shamrock Irishmen on Friday night.

Clarendon has yet to schedule a game for this week.

In District 2, section 1, two conference games will be played. Claude's Mustangs, showing a surprising improvement in losing to Groom, 6 to 0, Friday, will go to Panhandle to meet the undefeated Panthers of Coach Pat Gerald.

In the other conference tussle, Miami will meet the newly organized Whittsburg team at Alamo field in Borger. Miami lost a 25 to 7 game to White Deer last week, while Whittsburg fell before Panhandle, 19 to 0.

Groom will go out of the district for a game in Happy. White Deer will play Canadian, in the other bracket of the district which Canadian has already won by defeating the powerful Spearman Lynx, 13 to 7. Saturday of last week, location of the game has yet to be decided.

Wheeler Ready To Meet TCU On Saturday

The study of opponents' plays was in order today as six Southwest football teams prepared for three conference games.

Rice Institute, drilling to meet George Washington in Washington, D. C., is the only team in the loop not facing conference competition this week.

The Baylor Bears and the Texas Christian Horned Frogs, both undefeated, turned eyes on the Bruins' homecoming game at Waco. The Bears were reported in good shape and ready to throw their full strength into their third conference game, but injuries threatened to weaken the Frogs. Coach Dutch Meyer said that Darrell Lester, all-American center, suffered two broken ribs in the Centenary game last week and might not be able to play.

Aware that more of the touchdowns made against them this year were through the air, the Texas Aggies stressed a pass defense. At the same time, the Arkansas Razorbacks, the Aggies' opponents Saturday at Little Rock, started practicing a pass offense.

The Texas Longhorns and Southern Methodist Mustangs were reported without serious injuries as the two teams prepared for their battle at Dallas. The Ponies worked on new plays. The Longhorns rested yesterday, but serious practice was on their program today.

Indications were that Ralph "Primo" Miller, all-conference tackle last year, would be the only Rice regular unable to play against Washington as the Owls worked hard for their first invasion of the east. Miller suffered a sprained ankle in the contest with Texas last week.

Saturday of last week, location of the game has yet to be decided.

Sports Roundup

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—Scoop: Temple probably will not resume athletic relations with West Virginia. Temple won't confirm this, but Pop Warner is burned up because the West Virginia stands cheered when the injured Dave Elicker was carried off the field last Saturday. Smart football men say that while Larry Kelley is the most spectacular, Yale's real end candidate for all-America honors is "Ohio Coach" Train. Fritz Crisler thinks all the "howl whistles" has done for football is to increase the fumbles.

Mr. Edward J. Neil, your favorite fight correspondent, sails tonight to become a war correspondent at Cairo. The Boston Braves will be rebuilt with Wally Berger as the spearhead. Only three or four of the present roster are certain to be retained. The ancient Rabbit Maranville is due for the gate unless he wants to stay on as coach.

Look for some wild and woolly baseball trading during the off-season.

Bill Terry has rented a yacht to entertain the correspondents while the Giants train at Pensacola next spring. Alabama Pitts collected $1,500 for 27 minutes of play with the Philadelphia pro Eagles this year. Why did the Detroit Lions let Father Lumpkin go? Was it because Coach Patsy Clark has a prejudice against wrestlers?

Bill Keefe reports that Biff Jones is so popular in the Southwest that Arkansas fans divide their time between rooting for their own Razorbacks and Biff's Oklahoma team.

For the first time in years the Cincinnati club wrote off the season in black. Was night baseball responsible?

New Cabinet In Spain Ordered

MADRID, Oct. 29. (AP)—Premier Joaquin Chaparista today was requested by President Niceto Alcalá Zamora to form a new cabinet immediately upon resignation of the month-old government also headed by Chaparista.

The resignation of the cabinet, formed Sept. 25, was an outgrowth of a gambling scandal allegedly involving eight prominent radicals, officials and former officials of the government.

Instead of holding the usual political consultations the president decided to keep the crisis as short as possible by asking Chaparista to carry on.

Foreign Minister Alejandro Lerroux and Minister of Education Juan Jose Rocha will not be included in the new cabinet, it was said. No substitutes for them were announced.

REVIVAL WILL START FRIDAY IN SKELLYTOWN

H. D. Tucker Will Be Speaker in Ten-Day Meeting

SKELLYTOWN, Oct. 29.—The first service of a revival in the Community church here will be conducted Friday evening. Meetings will continue through Nov. 10, including junior and intermediate services, special music, and daily features in addition to preaching each evening.

The Rev. H. D. Tucker, who has served as educational director of First Methodist church in Pampa the past year and who has spoken at the church here several times, will be the revival speaker. He will spend all his time during these 10 days at work in the community.

All Skellytown residents are invited to hear Mr. Tucker, who is one of the most popular preachers to have been heard in the church here. The opening service will begin at 7 o'clock, and dismiss in time for school entertainment scheduled for that evening.

The revival will climax a year of unusual work in the Skellytown area, in which members of seven denominations have cooperated. Members of Christian, Baptist, Methodist, Church of Christ, Lutheran, Presbyterian, and United Brethren churches are represented in the membership.

This group, formed more than a year ago under leadership of the Rev. Hubert Bratcher, pastor, announced its aims: To serve the spiritual need of the community, develop a spirit of fellowship, and create a wholesome atmosphere for youth.

Growth has been steady, and the organization has constantly gained strength.

In connection with the revival, next Sunday has been designated as rally day in the Sunday school. Every class is making plans for the largest attendance of the year.

A motion picture, Jesus of Nazareth, was presented at the church Sunday evening when more than 200 persons filled the auditorium and many were turned away. The film showed the story of Jesus' life, with accompanying Bible quotations.

DANCE HONORS TWO POPULAR COUPLES HERE

MR. AND MRS. BROWN ENTERTAIN AT HOTEL

Miss Margaret Buckler and Russell G. Allen, who are to be married tomorrow afternoon, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Green Jr. of Houston, who were married here Oct. 27, were honored when Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Brown entertained last evening with a dance at the Schneider hotel ballroom.

One end of the room was banked with fern, forming a background for two branched candelabra holding yellow tapers. Center posts were entwined with greenery, caught with small bouquets of varicolored chrysanthemums. White and silver wedding bells hung from the chandeliers and ceiling fixtures, all draped with fern and flowers.

Tables were arranged around the slides of the room, where guests were seated between dances to the music of a girls' orchestra. The long table where the honorees and their families sat was decorated in white, with white chrysanthemums as a centerpiece and white candles. Other tables were centered with small colored mums around cream candles.

At midnight a delicious buffet supper was served at a table decorated with flowers, to the large number of guests gathered to honor the two popular young couples whose wedding was a major social event of the fall. Several of the 40 couples present were from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Green are here for the Allen-Buckler wedding, following their honeymoon trip. Mrs. Green is the former Miss Virginia Faulkner.

FINAL REPORTS OF YEAR MADE FOR THE WMS

METHODIST CIRCLES HEAR TALK BY MRS. THUT

Annual reports from circles of the Methodist Missionary society were heard yesterday, at the last general business meeting of this church year. Circle four ranked first in its financial report.

Mrs. Charles Thut, who visited in Old Mexico last summer, gave an interesting talk on conditions in that country. Her talk, the only program number, followed a devotional lesson by Mrs. John Hossey, who also presided for the business.

Plans were made for observing a week of prayer, and for a dinner that will be served to the entire church membership tomorrow night, marking the end of the church year.

Forty-five members of the society were present for the meeting.

MAKING UP a shopping list

The hall needs a new rug. More towels are needed for the bathroom, and the kitchen floor could certainly stand a coat of paint. The children need shoes. The car will soon need tires. Well, we buy a hundred things every year.

Scattered throughout the United States are manufacturers who make the very things we need. Their products are on sale in certain stores within easy reach. Certain of these products, and certain of these stores, are especially fitted to take care of our special need. But which products and which stores? Which can we afford, and which do we think is best? We must look to advertising for advice.

Advertising is the straight line between supply and demand. It saves time spent in haphazard shopping. It leads you directly to your goal. By reading the advertisements, we can determine in advance where the best values are to be found. With the aid of advertising, shopping becomes a simple and pleasant business, and budget figures bring more smiles than frowns.

From the pages of this paper you can make up a shopping list that will save you money.

PENSION ISSUE DUE TO DEFEAT STATE SOLONS

Legislators Believe They're Between Cross-Fires

BY CHARLES E. SIMONS.
AUSTIN, Oct. 29 (AP)—It is feared that the old age pension, regardless of how a legislator votes on it, may defeat a majority of the members at the next primary election.

That prediction was freely made as the Texas legislature started into a special session at which old age pensions and taxation will be certain they will be trapped in a cross-fire, recognizing that while the legislature is in session, legislators are almost certain to be unpopular with the voters.

"If we don't vote for a liberal pension system under which nearly all over 65 can qualify we draw the fire of the pension supporters," one member asserted. "If we do vote for a liberal pension that would cost millions annually, we will be criticized and attacked by business interests who are contending present governmental costs are too high and that business and industry should not be handicapped by their recovery efforts by increased taxes."

Many unusually well informed believe the legislative turnover at the next election will be greater than in recent years. It is probable that at least one-fourth of the house membership will not seek re-election, and a majority of those who will run again are reportedly apprehensive over the outcome.

All 150 house seats are open at each biennial election while 17 senators will be subject to replacement in next summer's elections.

Rep. Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill believes so strongly that a preponderant majority of the present members will be defeated, unless there is a decided change in the course of events, that he would have this legislature make an appropriation to pay expenses of old members to sit in the first few days of the next regular session to "sort of get the youngsters started off."

"If things continue as they are it looks like there won't be enough old members return to form a corporate guard," he commented.

Among those who will not return are Reps. W. E. Clayton of El Paso, George Butler of Bryan, and Bob Calvert of Hillsboro.

Calvert, at 30 has served two terms in the house, losing at the start of the 44th legislature a close fight for the speakership.

Geese Rise off Brink of Falls Just in Time

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 29 (AP)—There will be no wild goose dinners on either side of the Niagara gorge after all.

Apparently satisfied with their sojourn on the upper Niagara river, the last squad of the thousands of geese which settled down for a rest perilously near the brink of the Horseshoe Falls took to the air this morning.

For two days the birds had coasted on the swift current almost to the torrent's edge but each time flapped away to safety just when it appeared many of them were doomed to be swept over the falls.

Their antics aroused conservationists and also brought many persons to the lower river bank seeking to salvage the makings of a goose feast. However, only about 200 were estimated to be destroyed and few of these were recovered.

Most of the birds were frightened away before dark yesterday by game wardens who fired shotguns near their roosting ledge after rocks, winking searchlights, and even rockets had failed to stir them.

Pennsylvanian Gives a Collection To Canyon Museum

CANYON, Oct. 29.—Miss Susan J. Allen of Havertown, Pa., has made another gift to the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum. This time it is a collection of pamphlets, books, magazines, and papers which will furnish research material for students and others interested in history.

The collection includes Indian newspapers and magazines, documents and bulletins relating to legislative proceedings dealing with Mexican and Indian affairs.

Last year the museum secured from Miss Allen one of the best collections of Indian baskets, garments, and weapons and other artifacts to be found anywhere in the southwest.

Her interest in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society museum was the result of a correspondence which she had carried on with Floyd V. Studer, its curator of archaeology.

Miss Allen states that it is her wish that the collections which she and her parents have made shall be returned to the region to which they are native.

MUSICIAN DIES
DENISON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Funeral services were held Monday for James F. Hanks, blind musician who earned his livelihood by teaching music and tuning pianos. Hanks had resided here 40 years and was well known in North Texas and Oklahoma. He lost his eyesight at three.

Schultz' Escape from Justice

Arthur Fliegenheimer, who as Dutch Schultz became the New York underworld overlord, won't have to stand trial on twice evaded charge of federal income tax evasion. Death helped him beat that "rap," and here you see him at the end of his long struggle with the law, stretched out on a slab in the morgue of the Newark, N. J., hospital, where he died a victim of gangland assassins.

MORNING STAR BY MARIAN SIMS

Chapter 36
HOME TOWN TALK
Even Elston, after twenty-five years, had its capacity for surprises. Dorothy Shane relayed the verdict, the inevitable twinkle lurking in her black eyes.

"Believe it or not, you've become a heroine over night, packing for the visit to Judith, shook her head soberly. "Heaven forbid."

"But you have," Dorothy insisted. "Now that it has happened I can come clean and tell you that everybody in town wondered how you stood it as long as you did."

She faced Dorothy almost defiantly. "I can't bear for people to feel that way about him! He's been decent about it all than anybody on earth could have been. And he's got ten times as many good traits as I'll ever have. If that's the way they're going to feel I'll never get over it. I'd much rather they'd put the blame where it belongs—on me!"

Dorothy sobbed quickly. "I think they probably understand that; everybody knows that Edwin's character is above reproach. But they know, too, that he needs a nice little doormat like Lucy Barnes for his wife."

"That's perfectly true," Emily confessed. "If it weren't, and I didn't know that I'd actually be hurting him, I'd be tempted to go back to him."

Dorothy almost snorted. "Rot! If you dissolve into sentimentality when you've gotten this far I'll never come near you again! Edwin is much surer of coming out unscathed than you; nobody can pierce that armor of complacency for long."

That was true. Perhaps he had already regretted his generosity of the past week; had already clothed himself in the mantle of martyrdom. She snapped the lock on her trunk and turned her attention to a dressing case.

"Anyhow, I hope you'll let it be known that I don't appreciate being a heroine. My head is covered with ashes and I don't care who knows it."

Dorothy looked keenly at her. "Are you regretting this thing?"

She shook her head decidedly. "Heavens, no! I feel as if I'd just finished a sentence in jail. But I hate buying freedom at such a price."

Dorothy lit a cigaret. "You have to pay a high price for anything you want very badly. Now that you've paid it, for God's sake remember Lot's wife and quit looking back. What's the little poem: 'Look up, and not down; look forward, and not back.'" She grinned impishly. "Emily threw a cushion at her, which went wild and knocked off a lampshade.

"Darn you!" She held up an evening dress of ice-green taffeta. "I wasn't taking this, but—I don't know. What do you think?"

The grin persisted. "Of course I'd take it. You may not need it, but it's well to be prepared for any eventuality. Look forward and not—"

Emily laughed helplessly and reached for another pillow. Dorothy flung up a shielding arm.

"I think I'd better go home."

"Please don't," she begged. "With all your faults, I love you."

The train connection to Birmingham was very poor, Jeffrey pointed out, and he had planned a business trip there in the immediate future; there was no reason why he could not go Wednesday as well as any other day, and William could drive them both down.

Frances looked both resigned and skeptical, and Emily beamed upon him.

"I'd love it—for your company more than for the convenience." She turned quickly to Frances. "Ist Frances feel slighted. 'Isn't there some shopping you ought to do. Mother?'"

Frances shook her head. The drive, she felt, was a little too reminiscent of a funeral procession; she preferred not to witness the symbolic breaking with everything she had always held sacred and irrevocable.

"I think not, my dear. I have a Board meeting Wednesday and I'll have to be here for that."

And so Emily and Jeffrey went alone, and during the drive tried

"Not always; thank heaven!" Judith laughed and led the way into the house.

Morton Hall, Emily realized, was as fine a house of its type as Carrollton. A wide stairway, with all the sweep and grace of a perfect sentence; richly carved mantels; a dining-room appropriately paneled in hunting scenes; that much she saw in a glance.

Then her eye fell upon Davey, grinning amiably at her from a coop on the living-room floor.

She went straight to him, laughing as she went. Davey had evidently just dined, because his face was almost entirely covered with a lurid coating of jam. In one hand he held a toy dog, and in the other an as yet unopened package of cigars.

"Don't get near him," Judith advised. "until he's been fumigated. Of course it's my cue to run and wipe his nose (why do mothers always wipe their children's noses when anybody notices them?) and say: 'I hate for you to see him looking like this! Only I can't say it, because he always looks like this—the time you got him dressed.'"

Davey smiled broadly and bit off a corner of the cigaret package. Emily saw with a tightening of her throat that he had the implish, vivid blue eyes of the other David.

She picked him up eagerly and thrilled to the feeling of his heavy, vibrant little body.

"I don't care what he looks like, he's a lamb. Won't this cigaret paper disagree with him?"

"Heavens, no; he's omnivorous. He's in that charming contraption He's in that charming contraption eating all the cheese off the rat-traps and I didn't dare leave him on the loose again. When things get dull or his dinner's late he picks out pieces of his rubber pants and eats 'em."

Davey eyed Emily critically and then offered her the package of cigars. She took it gratefully.

"Thank you."

Quintuplets Eat First Meat Today

CALLANDER, Oct. 29. (AP)—The Dionne quintuplets, 17 months old Monday, added meat to their diet for the first time.

It's only a small quantity of carefully selected and prepared veal liver served once a week but it marked the youngsters' first move toward a grown-up diet.

The liver and Marie's development were highlights of the famous babies' 17th month. Marie has progressed remarkably mentally and physically in the past few weeks. Dr. Allen Roy Datoe, their physician said.

Within a few months Marie, who was the smallest of the five when they were born May 28, 1934, and has lagged since, will equal her sisters in every way, the physician believes.

FOX HUNT STARTS

HEARNE, Oct. 29. (AP)—Hundreds of tents were pitched today at Camp Ed Wick near Hearne to accommodate the more than 3,000 sportsmen gathered for the annual Fox and Wolf Hunters' association competition. Three hundred dogs are registered already and more entries were being made. Hunters were enthused over showers yesterday, which ensured good trailing conditions.

CARDUI Eased Pain

Cardui is a medicine for such conditions as described below by a lady who used to take it:

"I took Cardui for pain and cramping, also for run-down condition, and I found it eased the pain and built up my nervous system and helped the weakness," writes Mrs. E. D. Garrel, of Hillsboro, Texas. "I would have nervous spells that would unfit me for my work. I took Cardui and I would get all right. I was never without it when needed."

Functional pains and nervousness at monthly periods often go away when better nourishment has been provided. Cardui relieves certain pains, increases the appetite and improves digestion. If it does not benefit YOU, consult a physician. (Adv.)

LAND SALES PROBED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—The District of Columbia grand jury began an investigation today of oil stock sales involving land in Bee county, Texas, and Pottawatomie county, Okla. A score of witnesses prepared to testify and attorneys estimated the presentation of the case might require three or four days. The witnesses came from Texas, Oklahoma, Philadelphia, New York City, and New Hampshire as well as the District of Columbia.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 29. (AP)—Death has ended the career of Federal Judge William I. Grubb, who presided over the northern Alabama United States district court for more than a quarter of a century, and in the past year ruled adversely on two "new deal" acts.

CORN LOAN IN 1935 WILL BE 45¢ A BUSHEL

FIGURE IS 10 CENTS LESS THAN IN 1934. BY JERRY GREENE. Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—Authoritative sources said today the AAA had reached a tentative decision on the amount of the 1935 corn loan. Indications were that it would be 45 cents a bushel.

The decision was made, it was reliably reported, after conference returns from Saturday's national corn-hog referendum showed a vote of 6-to-1 in favor of a new production control program next year. Formal announcement of the corn loan was expected within 48 hours. Extreme caution is being taken to prevent leaks in progress because, some sources said, there was a possibility that unexpected developments might result in fixing a 40-cent loan. The loan was 55 cents a bushel. The Commodity Credit corporation will grant the loans to farmers who signed the 1935 corn-hog adjustment contracts. Corn harvested this year will be placed under bond as security for the advances and cannot be sold until the loans have been repaid. A purpose of the loans is to give producers working capital to tide them over until such a time as they can estimate the amount of corn they will need to feed their hogs. Returns from the corn-hog referendum continue to pour in today. Unofficial tallies gave: For a new program: 674,711. For the old program: 106,271. Official returns are to be tabulated by the AAA tonight or tomorrow.

Cashier Is Held In Fund Shortage

PORT WORTH, Oct. 29. (AP)—Otis D. Babcock, district attorney of Sacramento, Calif., arrived here by plane early today to take into custody William B. Shearer, 74, a cashier of the California state treasury department who was sought in connection with a $24,000 shortage of funds. Shearer's arrest yesterday by Port Worth detectives ended a five-week search that extended throughout the United States to Australia, Honolulu, Canada, and Mexico. The cashier absolved State Treasurer Johnson of all blame and said he would assume complete responsibility for the shortage although he indicated that he did not take the money. He said he knew of the shortage for several months before he left his office on September 18, presumably to take a vacation. Shearer came to Port Worth a week ago, he said, to look after some oil investments. Babcock left his home in Sacramento immediately after he learned that Shearer had been arrested. His chief deputy, J. Francis O'Shea, left by train with extradition papers signed by Governor Merriam. He will come here by way of Austin in order to have the papers signed by Governor James V. Alfred.

CATHOLICS AND NAZIS QUARREL OVER EMBLEMS

Issue Is What Flag Shall Fly Over Churches

BERLIN, Oct. 29. (AP)—A conflict arose today over whether Nazi or Papal flags should be displayed on Catholic churches in the third Reich.

Three new decrees provided for flying of the blood-red Nazi banner bearing the swastika, warned against any infringements of this rule, and declared failure to submit would mean arrests and fines for church officials.

Clergymen, however, insisted that only the yellow and white emblem of the Vatican should be flown.

The Nazi flag was displayed over the Saint Hedwig Catholic cathedral in Berlin recently, but almost at half-staff and only on the left pole of a trio, the other two staffs being bare. Saint Mathias church showed no flag.

Despite the conciliatory efforts of Hans Kerrl, minister for church affairs, and Hitler's reported assurance that the German faith movement was dying, other elements of friction between church and state became apparent.

Reliable Protestant confessional synod sources said Kerrl had reached an impasse in his attempts to bring peace, and that complete indifference was shown to his efforts in the provinces.

Opposition spokesmen predicted that Kerrl soon would resort to force to back up his action. Secret police entered confessional church offices recently and seized some printed matter. Max Amann, president of the Reich press chamber, ordered that leaflets and other circulars issued by churches should be subjected to censorship.

Thomas Stands Pat on Naming Of Mrs. Driscoll

DALLAS, Oct. 29. (AP)—Cullen F. Thomas, United States Centennial commissioner general, said here today he would not remove Mrs. Clara Driscoll Sevier of Corpus Christi, from the San Antonio local federal Centennial committee.

"I will consider the merits of any protests of my actions," said Thomas, "but cannot say what my decision would be. It is certain that I will not rescind my appointment of Mrs. Sevier."

"Mrs. Sevier has done more than any Texas man or woman, dead or alive, to preserve the Alamo; she is a distinguished Texas; she is president of the Daughters of the Republic of Texas; she served for several years on the Texas Centennial commission."

San Antonians had protested the appointment of Mrs. Sevier, both to Thomas and the Federal Centennial commission at Washington, claiming a San Antonio woman should have been named.

He added the extra one after working on the outline. MATHEMATICS PUTS PROBLEM FOR PWA MEN

WILL REALLY POORER PEOPLE GET NEW ROOF?

BY NATHAN ROBERTSON. Associated Press Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—The inexorable laws of mathematics have raised an important question which the government must answer in its role of builder of homes for the poor.

The problem is this: Will the slum-clearance, low-cost housing program of the Public Works administration provide homes mainly for the "upper crust" of the slum population, or will it also put a new roof over the heads of people in the "lower depths"?

Officials said today, in response to questions, that if the poorest of the poor in the blighted tenement districts are to get new homes under the program, then the new housing program will not pay for itself. Government subsidies will be necessary.

They expressed hope, however, that higher income families from the slum districts could pay rentals that would liquidate the government's investment.

About 25,000 family units will be provided in 47 low-cost housing projects under the program. Housing officials have estimated, on the basis of their experience so far, that the cost will average $3,700 a family unit.

British Wardogs Bristle in Egypt

ALEXANDRIA, Egypt, Oct. 29. (AP)—The easing of tension between Great Britain and Italy has not caused the British land and sea forces to relax their vigilance in Egypt.

Alexandria's harbor bristles today with British fighting craft and hospital ships. Ashore there is unceasing military activity.

Within the last few days, British forces have closed the Mersa Matruh airport, 80 miles up the coast toward Libya, to civilian planes. This previously was one of the Royal Dutch airline's stops on the route between Athens and Africa.

Here in Alexandria, the military has taken over the Casino Stefano, the big resort hotel a few miles up the shore from the heart of the city. Officially, the hotel will be occupied by the headquarters staff, but an unofficial source stated that the hotel was, in reality, being equipped with hospital facilities.

From dusk until dawn, 10 powerful searchlights from the shore and ships throw their beams restlessly through the sky. The flying boat in which this correspondent approached Alexandria from Athens was picked up by a beam at least five miles out and was steadily in that beam until it was close enough to be identified.

ADMITS ASSAULT

AUBURN, Me., Oct. 29. (AP)—Guy Cressley, 26-year-old wanderer, confessed today, Sheriff Ralph Riley said, to killing and criminally assaulting 12-year-old Annie K. Knights, a Fairfield, Oct. 7. Riley said Cressley told him he "choked her with a rope, tied her body to a stump and criminally assaulted her." Cressley was arrested last night on a charge of criminally assaulting a 14-year-old Livermore schoolgirl.

OIL NEWS AND NOTES

LOSES SUIT

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—The Shamrock Oil company of Wichita Falls, Texas, today lost in the supreme court its battle against paying slightly more than $100,000 taxes for 1919-20 which it claimed were owed by a previous company of the same name. The court refused to review the ruling May 14, 1935, by the fifth federal circuit court of appeals which upheld the United States board of tax appeals decision that the companies were one taxpayer.

ARDMORE, Okla., Oct. 29. (AP)—All efforts to tame the gushing Ruth Williams Wildcat, southern Oklahoma's first deep pay producer, have failed, and today crews were standing by waiting for the well to bridge itself.

The well, which came in last Thursday for an estimated 10,000 barrels per day, continued to flow oil into the pits and tanks through the cellar. The wildcat is owned by Carter Oil Co.

Physicians Plan Mass Attack on 3 Death Sources

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 28. (AP)—A mass attack on disease and death on three principal fronts—automobile accidents, industrial casualties and cancer—was planned here today by 2,000 fellows of the American college of surgeons.

Although the organization's 25th clinical congress is to cover almost all the year's scientific advances in the profession, these three have been singled out for special attention.

By consolidating the field forces of surgery against the costly toll from this "fateful trinity" physicians hope to attain an impetus in health campaigns was said today by Dr. C. Jeff Miller, professor of gynecology at Tulane University School of Medicine, to have attributed much to the suffering and premature death which is widespread in the United States.

He declared medical science has proved its value by more than trebling the life span of the average citizen in the last four centuries and has added six years to that span in the last two decades. "Yet people still object to being vaccinated against small pox and typhoid." They will not, he said, take advantage of diphtheria and scarlet fever tests or methods of protecting against them.

5 REBELS KILLED

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 29. (AP)—Crushing of one rebel gang and a battle with another, both in the state of Jalisco, were reported in military dispatches received here from the commandants of federal troops. Five rebels were killed. General Guerrero, military chief in Jalisco, telegraphed his troops killed three rebels of a group which disbanded themselves in Caja de Las Cucharas. Two rebels were killed by a column in command of Col. Jose Marquez in Barranca de Carrizales.

OIL SWINDLE PROBED

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29. (AP)—New testimony about an alleged $500,000 oil royalty swindle involving "black gold" lands in Oklahoma and Texas was presented today to the District of Columbia grand jury. Government attorneys sought indictments against a dozen operators in New York City, Washington, and Oklahoma City, alleged to have fleeced more than a score of "purchasers" of bogus oil properties.

The government charges that the promoters, using oil leases in Pottawatomie county, Okla., and Bee county, Tex., sold fake land deeds and deprived their "customers" of full royalty payments.

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 29. (AP)—Daily average crude oil production in the United States last week was 2,325,293 barrels, virtually the same for the previous week, the Oil and Gas Journal reports. The increase was estimated to be 246 barrels daily. California was the only state to show an appreciable increase, production advancing to 659,000 barrels from 647,500.

Texas was off 9,772 barrels to 1,055,176, due to a decline of 12,762 barrels in East Texas. Production in Oklahoma was down 5,375 barrels to 499,575. Eastern states, including Michigan, changed little, dropping 18 barrels to 159,262. The Rocky Mountain area was up 1,898 barrels to 114,968 barrels and Kansas advanced to 150,950, a gain of 1,750 barrels. Road Runner Gas, a home product.

JAPAN AGAIN SHAKES SABER AT CHINA FOE

WARNS ANTI-JAPANESE ORGANS BE SUP-PRESSED

(Copyright, 1935, by The Associated Press)

TIENSIN, China, Oct. 29.—Japanese military and diplomatic authorities imposed a strong hand over North China today with a formal demand on Chinese officials for immediate liquidation of anti-Japanese and anti-Manchoukuan elements.

Major General Haruo Tada, commander of the Japanese garrison in Tiensin, followed up the ultimatum with a statement that Japan "fears for the welfare of China's 400,000,000 people as well as peace in the Orient."

Carrying out decisions reached at recent conferences of Japanese military and diplomatic officials in both China and Japan, Consul General S. Kawagoe submitted the formal note to Chinese officials of North China today, demanding "prompt and decisive measures to eradicate the various anti-Japanese and anti-Manchoukuan organs existing in North China."

The communication charged the Chinese with failure to carry out fully the terms of a settlement concluded by Lieut. Gen. Yoshijiro Umetzu, former commander of the Japanese garrison in North China, and Chinese War Minister Ho Ying-Shin after a series of Sino-Japanese incidents last June.

This apparently referred to Chinese compliance to Japanese demands when the North China administration was reshuffled last June, troops objectionable to Japan transferred and anti-Japanese organizations abolished.

The Japanese note, addressed to Governor Shang Chen, general Sung Chieh-Yuan and the mayors of Tiensin and Peiping, charged that Kuomintang (Chinese nationalist party) bluishirts were still active in North China.

"Your control of these movements is lukewarm and apt to provoke our suspicion, not only as to sincerity but also as to whether or not you are secretly supporting them," said the communication.

After the note was delivered, Major General Tada sent military emissaries to the four authorities to whom the note was addressed, to explain the Japanese army's view.

The Gray county grand jury has returned four more indictments, on which returns have not yet been made. The jury was in session today.

Improvements At Grid Field Are Indefinite

Improvements at Harvester park will likely depend upon advance sale of tickets for the Pampa-Amarillo game of Thanksgiving.

It is likely that, as a result of a Board of Education meeting last night, at which most of the members of the athletic association were present, that the tickets will be put on sale soon to see how great is the demand.

Whether the district is to be thrown into a tie will be shown as the possibility November 11, when Lubbock journeys to Amarillo. Should Lubbock win, enlargement of the local stadium would be unlikely, excepting for the temporary bleachers which can be borrowed.

Chinese Defiant.

NANKING, China, Oct. 29. (AP)—Chinese nationalist government officials, backed by increased military activity in the Nanking area, took a more defiant attitude today toward new Japanese pressure on North China.

An official spokesman and responsible men in all branches of the government voiced a belief that the limits had been reached to China's ability and willingness to yield further to Japanese demands.

Pessimism over the political future of North China—attached to the nationalist capital even now by what some consider the most slender threads—deepened after Japan demanded further elimination of anti-Japanese and anti-Manchoukuan elements in the north.

Chinese officials were dismayed by this most recent application of Japanese pressure.

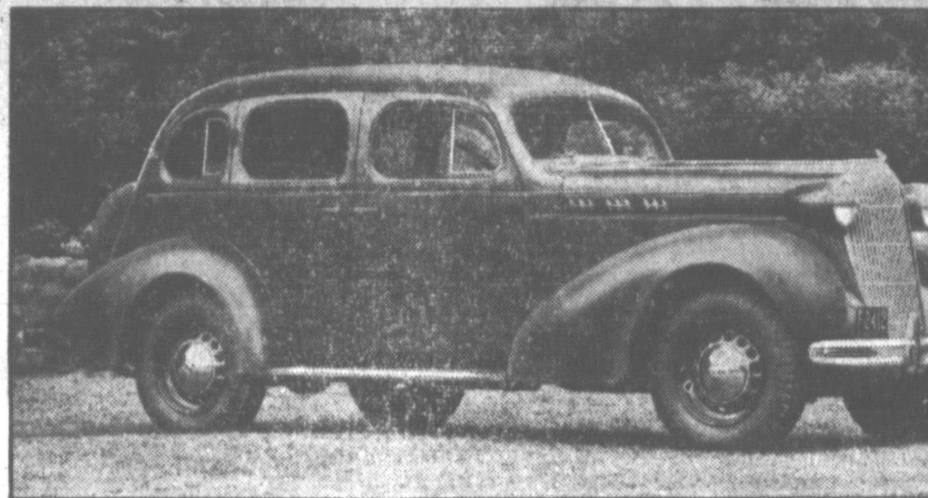

PITY THE POLICEMAN

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 29. (AP)—Ralph N. Croner, a sailor, asked police to look for a man known to him only as "Jimmy" driving an automobile with Croner's suit case, leave of absence papers, and uniform in it. Searching a parked car, the police found the belongings. But then they couldn't find the sailor.

ford county, 29 men; improvement lateral roads precinct 1, Hemphill county, 34 men; Canadian school repairs, 97 men; Borger school repairs, 30 men; Potter county school painting, 11 men.

Projects that are scheduled to begin Wednesday are: Road improvement in precinct 1, Roberts county, 41 men; Stratford school repairs, 10 men; improvement lateral roads, precinct 3, Potter county, 126 men; and improvement lateral roads in precinct 4, Potter county, 106 men.

Two jobs are due to start Thursday. These are a road project in Sherman county, where 19 will be put to work, and a lateral road project in precinct 3, Armstrong county, where 26 will be employed.

It is not yet certain for what project the Gray county $48,000 allocation is made. No application equalled exactly that amount. It may be a combination of road projects, or projects which have been scaled down.

Approval has been made, it is understood, of the Gray county sewing room project, which will give employment to about twelve women. The sewing room will be in the space formerly occupied by the county agent in the courthouse.

Hope for approval soon of the City of Pampa projects was aroused by the news that the applications are back in San Antonio, the state office, after having apparently been approved in Washington. The state staff asked for more information relative to ways of cutting the applications into several separate projects.

S. H. Halle, district relief administrator, said today that he was ready to furnish labor for WPA projects in all the counties of this district. The workers are eager to get started and men are, like sponsors of the projects, becoming somewhat impatient.

permission, so it is impossible for member schools to ask for a vote on some matter or to call for a vote on any amendment to the constitution and rules of the league, unless the committee approves.

That is the reason for the 18-year-old rule. The rule was made and passed by the committee. The committee refuses to allow it to be put into effect until the vote of the 5,000 member schools. Article 15 of the rules and regulations reads: "All amendments to the constitution and rules of the league shall be made by the State Executive committee, provided that all amendments and changes in the eligibility and other rules which involve a question of University policy shall first be submitted to the members of the league at the annual meeting for an advisory vote; or in a case considered an emergency, the state executive committee may submit a proposed change for referendum vote to the member schools."

Thus, it can be plainly seen that member schools have nothing to say in the operation of the League and they are powerless to submit amendments or changes that the executive committee does not wish passed.

tured from that barrel of oil." Fischer said he and his associates will launch the drive to interest members of both houses to back his plan and appeal to the motoring public and those interested in the payment of old-age pensions to cooperate in pushing the tax legislation.

Fischer noted oil attorney, defended the famous Panama company case, carrying it to the United States supreme court with the resulting decision which invalidated section 9-C of the national industrial recovery act, the petroleum code.

His quiet, homely argument before the nine justices of the supreme court attracted attention when the jurists occasionally broke into laughter.

He has served independent companies in numerous suits against the state, the Texas railroad commission and the government. He recently launched an attack on the new Connally oil act.

Oil men have recognized him as one of the leading authorities on oil matters.

MARKET BRIEFS

NEW YORK, Oct. 29. (AP)—A late rally in U. S. Steel common today brought support to a stock market that had exhibited highly irregular tendencies throughout the greater part of the session.

While there were still a few soft spots in evidence, the general upturn in the final hour gave the list a steady to firm closing tone. Transfers approximated 1,750,000 shares.

BOYCOTT

task of putting into effect the penalties against Duces of the government would be given to various committees of the league who would be held responsible.

The general sanctions staff of 24 nations will definitely lay down the machinery to watch the application and progress of the penalties.

The diplomats in Geneva were skeptical over the chances of an Italo-Ethiopian peace conference at the forthcoming sessions of the league, which open Thursday.

Premier Pierre Laval—who placed France definitely alongside Britain and Russia in pledging full aid to sanctions, but who still seeks settlement of the East African conflict—will go to Geneva Thursday.

There, too, will be Sir Samuel Hoare, Britain's foreign secretary, and Captain Anthony Eden, the minister for League of Nation's affairs.

Laval and his foreign office aides studied closely the possibilities for renewing at Geneva the searching for a formula of settlement; but elsewhere, there appeared little hopes.

In London there was the belief the diplomats Thursday might discuss further punitive measures against Duces.

Of primary importance, the general sanctions staff will lay down the deadline for putting into effect the two-way economic isolation of Italy—with its prohibition on exporting key products and its "buy nothing from Italy" boycott.

Both France and England imposed today the financial sanction against the fascist aggressor.

So far, 29 league members have put the financial sanction—cutting off Italy from credits and loans advanced into effect.

Italy was preparing to meet the sanctions campaign with rigid economic domestic control; but so far, there was no outward concern.

As fascism opened its fourteenth year of rule in Italy, there was confidence the armies of It Duce would build a new empire in East Africa.

Officials found encouragement in the words of Cardinal Schuster, of Milan, who said the fascist legions "are opening the doors of Ethiopia to the Catholic faith and Roman civilization."

Pope Pius, apparently, was irked at the action of Mussolini and the fascist in failing to observe the Sabbath last Sunday.

In order to have a commercial holiday Monday—the thirteenth anniversary of the "march on Rome"—It Duce had left commercial institutions open Sunday.

Without mentioning the fascist celebration specifically, Pope Pius said "the king of centuries, for days of all time, wishes at least a little part of this day (Sunday) consecrated to him."

WITNESSES IN VERBAL CLASH WITH SENATOR

COTTON CO-OP INQUIRY GETS UNDER WAY AT MEMPHIS

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Oct. 29. (AP)—Senator McKellar (Dem., Tenn.) resumed his inquiry into the operations of the American Cotton Co-Operative association today after frequent verbal clashes with witnesses yesterday.

Once, L. N. Atherford, Batesville, Ark., farmer and co-op member, interrupted the hearing to protest what he described as the senator's hostility toward the association.

"You're taking so much interest in this hearing," he shouted, "how much stock have you got in the Memphis firms?"

"Sit down," Senator McKellar said sternly. "I can't allow any man to make a reflection on this committee."

McKellar declared that he didn't see how any private cotton shipper could survive in the face of "unfair competition" of the co-operatives with the government loaning money to them to operate at low interest and then subordinating its loans to those of private capital.

"Did you ever hear in all the history of time—and I know something about history—of such generosity as the government has visited upon this agency?" he asked E. F. Creekmore, New Orleans, general manager of the A. C. C. A.

Creekmore said "we have put in several millions of our own earnings," and suggested to the senator that he "look into the operations of the RFC if you have never heard of such munificence."

Senator McKellar said the RFC was a money-making corporation, and Mr. Creekmore came back with the statement the government would lose nothing on the co-ops as they would pay back in five years their $5,000,000 capital the government advanced.

Senator Bankhead (Dem., Ala.) another member of the subcommittee, joined Senator McKellar today. The third member, Senator Townsend (R., Del.) will arrive in the week.
