WALKOUT — Loyal Democrats balked the county convention this morning after the convention voted down a motion that delegates sign a loyalty pledge to the Democratic Party. Staging the walk-out were delegates from Precincts 12 and 14 and unseated delegates from Precincts 1 and 13. The group is shown right during the rump session at which C. R. Williams was elected permanent chairman and Fern Berry permanent secretary. The two also will represent the Loyalists in the state convention. (News Photo)

County Demos Split; 14 Delegates Named

Labor Union Head Leads Walk - Out

In the face of a walk-out by Loyalist forces, Gray county Democrats will send an uninstructed 14-vote delegation operating under the unit rule to the May 27 state Democratic convention.

The orderly Democratic county convention, held this morning in the court house, also named County Democratic Chairman Aaron Sturgeon to serve as chairman of the delegation.

The walk-out, staged by C. R. Williams, local labor union chieftain, and head of the Precinct 14 delegation, came a few minutes before 11 a. m. over a protest that delegates to the state convention are not to take the party pledge.

The rump convention held by the two delegations and the unseated delegates from Precincts 1 and 13 completed business in the district attorney's office and grand jury room in less than 15 minutes.

They elected Williams and Fern Berry as delegates to the state convention and instructed them to take the Democratic pledge and operate under the unit rule.

In the regularly called convention Sturgeon relinquished the chair to William J. Smith, who was elected by acclamation as permanent convention chairman.

Gray county Republicans were scheduled to meet this afternoon in the county court room to hold their county convention to select five delegates to the state convention on May 27 in Mineral Wells.

The convention will choose one of two sets of delegates from two precincts which bolted Saturday's precinct conventions to hold rump sessions.

Mrs. Finis Jordan was named permanent convention secretary. Smith announced that alternate delegates will be allowed seats on the convention floor and permitted to participate to a "certain degree" in the state convention, according to information received from the state Democratic executive committee. All delegates were instructed to contact Sturgeon if they are unable to attend so proper arrangements with alternates can be made.

The convention adjourned about 11:15 a. m.

Precinct 12, which actually held a convention but never turned in a report until late yesterday and early this morning, joined the Loyalists of Precinct 14 and held a rump convention in the afternoon.

The walk-out was expected to come after the committee on delegates refused to seat delegates elected by Loyalist groups in Lefors and Phillips Camp. However, Williams and his group held throughout the convention until the pledge of loyalty was turned down when a motion by C. R. Williams was passed.

By vote vote the convention elected the following delegates to the state convention:

Clifford Brady, D. L. Groome, E. J. Dunning, Arthur Todd, Curtis Daughess, Aaron Sturgeon, K. I. Dyer, Mrs. L. C. McMartry. (See DELEGATES Page 2)

Wilson went on to say he felt the battle to hold the stabilization line had been successful until March. The WSB made its recommendations in the steel case on March 20.

Kept Pace
He said wages had kept pace with the cost of living and that consumer retail prices were only 2 percent higher, while wholesale prices were in some respects lower.

He said the board's recommendations put steelworkers "out in front" on the wage catch-up formula established in 1951.

He told the FFA members and fathers that the farm product is no better than the land from which it was grown.

Guests in addition to the fathers, included members of the McLean School Board, Spurgeon, Edmond, Logan, Chambers, Paul and Paul Kennedy and Guy Beasley.

Members, during the program, presented the chapter sweetheart, Sue Glass, who is also Top o' Texas area sweetheart.

Expect Record Vote In Ohio Primary Today

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — Ohio's record vote in today's primary election, skies were sunny and the weather was perfect.

The secretary of state stuck to his original estimate of total vote of 1,500,000. The would be a new high for primary. The previous high was 1,200,721 cast in 1950.

The state's 1952 polling place reported voting early ballots in Columbus, the report, a "heavy" vote.

In Cincinnati, early voting was light, but was expected to hit record pace later in the day.

Throughout the state, the air of voters moved slowly. The bit was long and complicated. Some places, voters had to make long lines to take full advantage of their franchise.

In addition to contested state presidential delegates for both parties, the voters must pick no more than 12 state senators, gubernatorial candidates, 25 district judges, the legislative committee officers, a host of local bond issues and school levies.

With several hours of ballot remaining, backers of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio put on a "game drive" in an effort to get a huge total for his 56 Republican presidential nominee delegate candidates. Ten state-wide races, 46 in districts.

About Arts And Letters
The stage drama award has gone to Joseph Kramm for his play, "The Shrine," a story of an estranged husband and wife set in the psychiatric ward of a city hospital.

In the newspaper field, the St. Louis Post-Dispatch's exposure of corruption in the Internal Revenue Department has won that daily its fifth Pulitzer Prize.

The San Francisco Chronicle's George de Carvalho was cited for local reporting for his stories of a "Ransom Racket" extorting money from Chinese in America who had relations in Communist China.

The Chronicle credited the Associated Press with an assist for De Carvalho's prize. "The Pulitzer-winning story had its origin in an item carried by the Associated Press out of San Jose (Calif.) reporting a ransom payment by a Chinese in that city."

The awards in various fields of creative endeavor were established by trustees of Columbia University.

Pulitzer founded the Post-Dispatch in 1892. The five prize for national reporting. Anthony Leviero, of the New York Times, was awarded the Pulitzer for national reporting.

The Pulitzer Prize for history was won by Arthur at Wake Island during the 1950 conference. It was published April 21, 1951, after Truman ousted the general as Far Eastern Commander.

Cited for the editorial writing award was Louis H. Cox, of St. Louis Globe-Democrat, on basis of his editorial, "The Low State of Public Morals." (See MUTINY Page 5)

Late Filings Indicate Tough Demo Race

Some stiff battles were promised today in a fattened Democratic primary ticket which only a week ago seemed destined to slinness.

Late filings before last midnight's deadline brought a prominent Wichita Falls attorney into the race for U. S. Senate against Atty. Gen. Price Daniel and Rep. Lindley Beckworth.

A San Antonio woman said her filing fee for place in the governor's race was in the mail. Mail filings must be postmarked before midnight and Mrs. Allene Traylor said her's was mailed in time.

The last minute filings left three persons each in the race for U. S. Senate and governor. But John Ben Sheppard, a Democrat, was the only candidate for attorney general.

State Senator George O. Nokes, Jr. of Corsicana, mentioned as a possible opponent of Sheppard, told the Associated Press last night he had decided not to run for office this year.

In an interview with Dave Cheavens, said he had been thinking about running for the office for some time. "I was waiting to see if someone would come out with a program like my ideas and they did not," Naper said. "So I decided to drive down here and apply for a place on the ballot."

Naper, reputed to have a lucrative law practice in Wichita Falls, told Cheavens he would put on a vigorous campaign for the seat and intended to make a "village-to-village" tour of the state in his quest for office.

In a formal statement, he contended: "I am a loyal Democrat and a liberal. I have gone along with the New Deal and the Fair Deal in domestic policies but have bitterly disapproved the foreign policies. I detest extravagance and corruption in government, term and labor war."

Explaining his use of the term "village Democrat," Naper said: "I am a loyal Democrat and I believe in the loyalty pledge and believe it should be kept. He disclaimed any affiliation with the Loyal Democrats who are opposing the policies of Governor Allan Shivers.

Another late filer was for place 1, state Supreme Court. He is Associated with Frank P. Culbert. (See DEMO RACE Page 2)

Temperatures in Texas rose as high as 102 degrees Monday with Precincts in the Big Bend country reported 78 degrees shortly before maximum was a warm 84 at Palacios on the Gulf. El Paso reported 78 degrees shortly before noon today with Dallas recording 70, and Marfa and Amarillo registering 59 degrees.

Pampa's low reading last night was 58 degrees.

Wilson Assails WSB Plan To Hike Steel Pay
WASHINGTON (AP) — Former Mobilization Chief Charles E. Wilson today assailed a Wage Stabilization Board recommendation in the steel case as going "well beyond the limits of proper wage and price stabilization policy."

Wilson said too that it was "not realistic" to request the steel industry to absorb the wage increase without raising costs.

The WSB recommended a package increase of 26 cents an hour for steel workers who now average a little under $2 an hour. The package included direct increases and additional benefits in the way of vacation, holiday and other allowances.

Wilson, who quit as Mobilization Chief in protest against administration handling of the steel case, was the first witness of a broad investigation by the House Labor Committee of operations of the Wage Stabilization Board.

Wilson told the legislators "the precedent set by the steel recommendations" was most important because it could lead to other wage increases.

And to increase costs by a general policy of wage increases at this time, Wilson said, would tend only to "produce either further inflation or a drop in employment."

Wilson went on to say he felt the battle to hold the stabilization line had been successful until March. The WSB made its recommendations in the steel case on March 20.

He said wages had kept pace with the cost of living and that consumer retail prices were only 2 percent higher, while wholesale prices were in some respects lower.

He said the board's recommendations put steelworkers "out in front" on the wage catch-up formula established in 1951.

JOHN H. HARNLY ... seeks judgeship

John H. Harnly, Candidate In Race For County Judge

Getting in under the wire by less than a half-day yesterday, John H. Harnly, 44-year-old Gray county farmer, filed as a candidate for county judge with the Democratic executive committee.

This makes the county bench race a three-way battle among County Judge Bruce Parker, Atty. J. B. Maguire, Jr., and Harnly.

Harnly was born in McPherson, Kans., Dec. 20, 1907, where he was graduated from high school and won his AB and BS degrees at McPherson College.

He has been a farmer in Gray county since 1930, and also taught in the Pampa junior and senior high schools. He is currently serving as president of the Gray County Wheat Growers Assn. and has headed the rural Taxpayers League of Gray and Roberts counties during the last two years.

He has also served as president of the board and as a board member of the Miami Cooperative Assn. and the national research committee of the Wheat Growers Assn. In announcing his candidacy, Harnly said: "Last summer the county commissioners, presided over by the present county judge, attempted to increase real property valuations of the county 25 percent."

I actively led the fight against this increase, and with the support of farmers, ranchers, and Pampa businessmen, succeeded in holding the increase to a flat 10 percent. This fight on valuations and tax increases is county since 1930, and also taught far from won and it is for this reason that I have finally consented to run for the office of county judge."

In the meantime, another precinct candidate managed to slide in under the Monday midnight filing deadline. He was C. G. Nickolson, McLean, who will be running against Constable Luke Henley for constable of Precinct 13.

Canadian Seniors Honored At Church Kiddies' Party

CANADIAN — (Special) — Canadian seniors shed dignity and became "little kids" last Tuesday night when they were guests of the First Christian Church at a kiddies' party.

The affair was held in Fellowship Hall of the local church. Guests were dressed as kiddies complete with short dresses and trousers, hair ribbons, dolls, lollipops and bubble gum. Table centerpieces were miniature school houses with six-year old boys and girls entering. Leaving the schools were graduates in caps and gowns. Nutcrups were miniature lunch pails. The blue programs were rolled and tied with gold diplomas, with place cards attached.

A welcome was extended by Rev. Thomas Gray, followed by a response by Buddy Gross, class president. Mr. Gray gave the invocation.

Mrs. Maudaline Hutton, class sponsor, gave a history of the class. She read an item from the Canadian Record which listed the names of the students who were enrolled as first graders in 1940. Several amusing incidents of the past twelve years were recalled and enjoyed by the class members.

Mr. and Mrs. Gray entertained with songs, accompanying themselves on ukulele and guitar. Mr.

Gray then led the group in several songs. The menu consisted of molded salad, fried chicken, mashed potatoes, gravy, green beans, hot rolls, relishes, iced tea and coffee and ice cream cones with blue and white ice cream.

After the program the group played kid games on the church lawn. Present were the members of the graduating class, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Hutton, class parents Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Job, Mrs. G. B. Mathers, Supt. and Mrs. A. H. Breazeale, Principal and Mrs. H. W. Truitt, and Mr. and Mrs. Gray.

Foot-&-Mouth Disease Poses Possible U. S. Meat Shortage

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Farm officials said today the nation's meat supply is in greater danger now than at any time in more than 20 years. Reason: Spreading of the dread foot-and-mouth disease southward toward the U. S. - Canadian border.

An outbreak of the disease in this country, Agriculture Department officials said, might well greatly reduce the movement of cattle and hogs to market and cause a quick and critical shortage of meat in many areas.

Officials say they are greatly concerned over the dangers. The disease, first discovered in Canada in early March, has moved to within 50 miles of the U.S. border. This is the closest threat to U.S. livestock since 1929, when there was an outbreak in California.

Should it again appear in this country, officials said states adjoining the infected area could be expected to throw up quarantines barring the movement of livestock products across their borders.

An outbreak in Indiana or Ohio for instance, might seriously disrupt the movement of livestock and meats from the great midwestern livestock area to the eastern seaboard, because supply lines traverse these states. The East depends upon the Midwest for a large part of its meat supply. In a matter of a week, butcher shops in the East could be on short rations if the disease should hit a central area.

In a move to prevent importation of infected or exposed animals and other carriers of the disease, the Agriculture Department has thrown up a border guard. But such a guard, no matter how watchful, offers no air-tight protection.

The disease has a mysterious way of spreading. As yet the Canadian outbreak has not been traced to its source. The Department is getting ready to act if necessary. In this country, the disease has been controlled in the past by the "Stamping-out" or slaughter method. This consists of outright slaughter and destruction of diseased and exposed animals, rigid quarantine of affected farms and adjacent areas, disinfection of exposed premises and repeated inspections and vaccinations of animals in diseased areas.

In the past, the government has paid farmers close to market values for animals destroyed. Such a course would be followed again. There have been nine known outbreaks of the disease in this country.

Foot-and-mouth disease is transmissible to man, as has been shown by several accidental laboratory infections and several other well-substantiated cases. Investigators believe, however, that humans are not readily susceptible, and consequently the disease is not considered to be a public health problem.

While it does not cause an unusually high death rate among animals, it does greatly reduce milk output and keeps beef cattle from putting on weight. One thing that makes it serious is the fact that it spreads so rapidly.

Oilers Lose Road Opener, 12-9; Payte Goes Tonight

BEST AVAILABLE COPY

LUBBOCK — (AP) — George McDuff came in on relief to pitch a smooth seven-inning career and hurl the Lubbock Oilers to a 12-9 victory over the hapless Pampa Oilers here last night.

McDuff gave up only three hits and one run for six innings being touched for a three-run homer by Manager Jake Phillips in the ninth. Otherwise he was untouchable and his mates backed him up with a solid 15-hit attack.

Juan Montero, who relieved Clyde Baldwin in the fourth, was the loser.

Lubbock had to come from behind to win, spotting the Oilers leads of 3-1 and 5-2 before expiring for four runs and a 6-4 tie. From that point on, McDuff hurled beautiful ball in relief and the Oilers belted Montero for their winning runs.

Buzz Homers
Home runs by Eddie Bucz, his third of the year, and by McDuff, each with a man on base, aided the Lubbock cause yesterday.

Three runs crossed for Pampa in the second on an error that gave Phillips life, a single by Dan Moore, a double by Frank Calo and walks to Phil Rizzo and Baldwin, plus a felder's choice.

Doubles by Manny Temes and Ed Sudol, sandwiched around a walk to Phillips, accounted for two more runs in the third before McDuff came in to retire the side in order.

Norm Auerbach was safe on a fluke single, the ball taking a bad hop over Mike Pontarelli's head, and stole second. He scored on Deck Woldt's double. After that Pampa was scoreless until the ninth, when Auerbach singled. Temes walked and Phillips homered.

Two errors by Auerbach set up Lubbock's first run, which came across on Ed Ashley's single. Manager I. B. Palmer walked to open the third, went to second on Bucz's single and scored on a one-base blow by Bill Metzger.

Lubbock tied the score with four runs in the fourth. Singles by Jess Jacinto and Bob Leonard, followed by Palmer's two-run double drove Baldwin to cover. Bucz skied out, but Metzger walked and Ed Kenna poked

Bobby Brown Is Optioned To Pampa

The Pampa Oilers yesterday afternoon, announced that they had received young Bobby Brown, ex-Lubbock High school star athlete, on option from the Oklahoma City Indians. Brown, a rookie, plays the infield and is expected to be starting at shortstop tonight for the Pampans.

Brown played brilliantly in football and baseball for the Westeners in 1949 and has groomed himself for a professional career with two years of fast semi-pro ball. A speed demon, Brown found the Texas League pitching a bit too tough for a rookie. But he is expected to handle the Class C hurling capably. He is supposed to be a good glove man.

Brown has seen frequent service in the lineup for the Indians. Here he will join another team-mate from the Oklahoma City team, Morris Shipman, who is also on option to the Oilers from the Texas League entry.

Brown made all-star in both football and baseball his senior year at Lubbock high school and almost single-handedly beat the Harvesters in a game at Lubbock in 1949. His brilliant break away running and his passing ability helped spark what many called the greatest high school team of all time, despite the fact they did not get by bi-district, being upset by an El Paso team. In 1948 he was all-state as a half-back and in addition was named a state American Legion shortstop.

Maul Optioned Out
DALLAS — (AP) — First Base-man Allen Maul was optioned by Dallas of the Texas League to Longview of the Big State League yesterday.

Maul went to Longview on a 24-hour recall basis after hitting .194 in 15 games with the Eagles.

A walk to Palmer and Bucz's homer made it 8-6 in the sixth and Leonard followed a single by McDuff and error by Montero on Jacinto's attempted sacrifice with a two-run single.

McDuff's homer in the eighth with Kenna, who had singled, scoring ahead of him ended Lubbock's tallying.

The two teams conclude the series here tonight with George Payte the probable Oiler hurler against Ray Machado.

Sgt. Ernest Lewis of Reese Air Force Base here umpired behind the plate last night. He replaced Ed Eisner, who was called to his Hollywood, Fla., home Saturday when his mother had a heart attack. Lewis drew the wrath of both clubs with his inconsistent calls, but there were no objections.

Pres. Ray Winkler, who witnessed the game, said that he had called Charley Crain, veteran league umpire, and that he would be here in time for tonight's contest.

Futures Hold Night Session

The Pampa Harvester Futures held their first night workout of the spring training season last night in preparation for the Saturday night encounter with the Exes—the powerful 1951 varsity which will be anchored by nine members of the first string of offensive team and ten more from the 1951 defensive team.

The affair, which will be played under regular game conditions, will be for the public to observe. Tickets for the game, which will be sold at the gate only, sell for $1 for adults and thirty cents for students. They will go on sale at 7 p.m. Saturday night. Kickoff time will be 8 o'clock. The game will conclude the 1952 spring football practice season and when the gridders next don the moleskins it will be for blood during the 1952 campaign.

The Exes-Futures game has been the main topic of conversation around the school-dressing rooms and hallways. The Exes have one of the most potent teams to ever come out of Pampa high school. But whether or not they were in good condition to cope with the Futures, who have been working out for three weeks, remains to be seen. Challenges have been flung back and forth, and the contest promises to be a real slam-bang affair.

Last night's workout was a lengthy one, in the cool of the evening. The night practice was called for two purposes, to escape the heat of the day and to reacquaint the fellows with the lights.

Several of the Exes, Billy Davis, Sid Mills, Jimmy Cook and Charley Broyles, were on hand to work out against the Futures. Only three lettermen are back to anchor the team of 1952. They are Tackle Buddy Cockrell, Center Tommy Sells and Ed Dudley, shifted permanently to a halfback spot.

Sugar Ray Signs For Maxim Scrap
NEW YORK — (AP) — Does Sugar Ray Robinson rate with super champs like Bob Fitzsimmons and Henry Armstrong? Boxing fans will get the answer June 23, at Yankee Stadium when Robinson, former welterweight champ and current middleweight king, gets a crack at Joey Maxim's light heavyweight crown in a 15-round bout.

If Robinson succeeds, he will become the third man in history to hold three division championships. Fitz won the middle, heavy and light heavy in that order. Hammering Henry held the feather-, light and welter titles simultaneously.

Sugar Ray had to give up his welter crown the night he knocked out Jake La Motta to win the 160-pound title. He probably will have to vacate the middle championship for a crack at Maxim. But, if he wins the light heavy, he might give it up and return to his own middleweight division after he gives Maxim the required return bout within 90 days.

Black Oilers Play Tomorrow
The Pampa Black Oilers will open their home season tomorrow night against the Briscoe entry in the Red River Valley League. The game will be played at Oiler Park, starting at 8:15.

On May 18, the Black Oilers will face the Wellington squad, also a Red River Valley League entrant.

Midwestern Seeks Spot In Border; Matesic Study Due

TUCSON, Ariz. — (AP) — Request of Midwestern College of Wichita Falls, Tex., for membership in the Border Conference will be considered at the annual spring meeting of the conference, at Arizona State College at Tempe this weekend.

Texas Tech, currently a member of the Border Conference, has applied for membership in the Southwest Conference.

If Tech leaves, the Border group would be left with seven members: Arizona, Arizona State College at Tempe and Flagstaff, Texas Western, New Mexico A&M, Hardin-Simmons and West Texas State.

C. Z. Leshar, conference secretary, said the application of Midwestern College will be one of the things considered at the Tempe meeting.

GOOD GOLF'S EASY... NO. 2
Many Players Hit Ball Well But Don't Score Same Way
(Second of a series as told to Harry Grayson, NEA Sports Editor)

By JACKIE BURKE
Golf's Newest Star
Golf is basically a simple game. The trick is following instructions.

Few do this because at the outset they are a bit hard to carry out.

The trouble in most cases is that the beginner usually feels that the game is vastly more complicated than it actually is because he is doing the easy things wrong.

This only makes things more confusing for the player, the professional and everybody concerned. The mechanics of every shot are the same.

The biggest difference in good golfers is in their thinking. They all have the mechanics down pat.

Some have a little more power than others, though size means very little. Ben Hogan hardly is a giant, yet never has felt that he was shortchanged physically.

Some have a greater power of concentration than others, which gives them a terrific bulge. The margin between a champion and just another contestant is that the titleholder makes up for what he is a bad round with a good one, a score low enough to keep him in the competition.

Walter Hagen, they tell me, took a bad shot as a matter of course. Before starting a round, the flag figured he would make so many poor shots, and when this great player slipped his philosophy was such that he had just one less error to make.

One of Hogan's secrets is that he never wastes a stroke, regardless of the circumstances. The average player, on the other hand, is so upset by straying out-of-bounds or dubbing a shot that he sloughs off several more strokes.

Ordinarily the winner of the tournament will have three good rounds and what is for him a tangle in a two-out-of-three main event.

Tickets will go on sale tomorrow night at the Southern Club at 5 p. m., with the matches starting at 8:15.

Kentucky Due NCAA Probe

LOS ANGELES — (AP) — The inquiring eye of the National Collegiate Athletic Association was cast today toward the University of Kentucky, whose athletic program has been described by a New York judge as a commercial enterprise.

NCAA President Hugh Willett said machinery has been set in motion to determine whether Kentucky was in violation of the constitution and by-laws of the association.

The school itself asked for a full investigation.

Judge Street said, "the university and the basketball coach (Adolph Rupp) must share the responsibility with the fixers for corrupting and demoralizing these defendants."

He charged football and basketball at the school have been "commercial enterprises" and that

Dukes Turn In Win Over Clovis

CLOVIS — (AP) — Tight pitching by Lefty Joe Hinchman and reliever Jesse Priest plus the slugging of Catcher Art Cuitti lifted the Albuquerque Dukes to a 10-7 victory over the league-leading Clovis Pioneers here last night.

Hinchman and Priest collaborated to stifle the Pioneer bats on eight scattered saeties while Cuitti fired two homers and a single, which combined with a walk, drove in four runs. Virgil Richardson slashed a mammoth homer in the ninth for the Pioneers' only salty blow of the scrap.

The bases were unoccupied at the time.

Veteran Bill Hair, first of four Clovis pitchers, sustained his first defeat. The triumph ended a three game Duke losing streak.

There had been "cribbing at examinations" and "illegal recruiting."

President H. L. Donovan of the university said the school hoped to reply late today to the judge's charges. He also sent telegrams to the NCAA, the Southeastern Conference and the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools asking a full investigation.

Meet Your Oilers

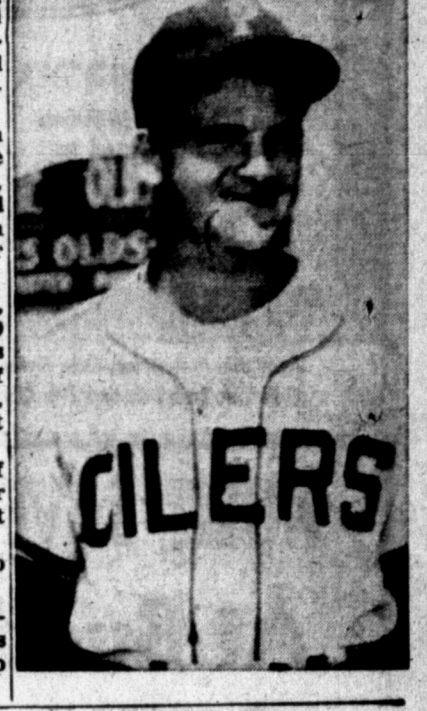

One of the brightest young pitchers on the Oilers mound staff is rookie Ed January, a 21-year old youngster who has looked very impressive in his two appearances thus far.

Ed'sol January was born in Waco on December 31, 1931. He attended high school in Waco, playing football and baseball and then went on to attend John Tarleton, now Tarleton State, for two years of junior college.

Ed is single. He stands 5 feet, 11 inches tall and weighs 180 pounds and bats and throws right-handed. He is a member of the Pampa National Guard unit, holding a rating of private first class.

This is Ed's first season of professional baseball. Last year he played semi-pro ball at Stephenville and Waco.

For hobbies he likes to go hunting during the off season. Ed is primarily a low-ball pitcher with a good curve and looks like he should be a big help to the Oilers this season.

IT'S YOUR DEAL
Don't Make Samba So Hard

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

"Please straighten me out about red threes in Samba," writes a Florida correspondent. "I drew three red threes one after the other at my first turn in a Samba game recently. Everybody was confused as to how many cards I should draw to replace them. Can you clear this up?"

This is easy if you remember that you are entitled to two usable cards when it is your turn to draw in Samba. A red three is not a usable card, so when you draw one of them you must draw again. You must keep going until you have obtained two usable cards. In this case you would draw a total of five cards: the three red threes and two normal cards.

"I drew one card, a king," writes another fan, "and then picked up a red three as my second card in a Samba draw. I replaced the red three at once, getting a queen. Do I get another draw to make two cards drawn from the stock pile?"

No. You have already received two normal cards—the king and the queen. That is all you are entitled to.

"Our opponents in a game of Samba had two red threes but only one canasta," writes a St. Louis correspondent. "They said they got full credit of 300 points for the canasta, but no points at all for the red threes. We said they got 300 points for the Canasta, and minus 200 for the red threes, giving them a bonus score of only 100 points altogether. Who is right?"

My correspondent is correct. The opponents get 300 for the canasta and lose 200 for the red threes, giving them a net score of only 100 points. When you have two canastas, your red threes are assets, but until that time they are liabilities. Red threes are never just neutral; they always count either for you or against you.

"When are you allowed to discard a red three in Canasta or Samba?" asks a Pittsburgh fan. Never—but never. There are no exceptions to this rule, and there never have been. A red three can get into the discard pile if the dealer turns one up at the very beginning of a hand—but that's the only way a red three can land in that pile.

Stroke Victims Given Help By Anesthetics

DALLAS — (AP) — Local anesthetics hold new hope for many people paralyzed by stroke, a Victoria physician says.

Dr. Andrew S. Tomb, here for a convention of the Texas Medical Association, said injection of local anesthetics has enabled some completely bedridden patients to get out of bed and even feed themselves.

Strokes cause an inadequate blood supply — and a shortage of oxygen — to parts of the brain, the physician explained. This damage to brain centers paralyzes arms, legs, and other parts of the body.

Local anesthetic treatment consists of injections into a group of nerves in the neck, Dr. Tomb said. Blocking the nerves opens up blood vessels and permits a greater flow of oxygen-carrying blood into the brain.

Dr. Tomb and Dr. Hampton C. Robinson presented a paper on the subject Tuesday at the convention.

As the four-day meet opened Sunday the house of delegates chose a spry, 75-year-old East Texas physician, Dr. John Maston Travis of Jacksonville, as Texas family doctor of the year.

Travis is well known throughout East Texas where he started out as a country doctor in 1907.

Dr. Tomb said needle therapy — treatment of ailments by shots of local anesthetics — is on the increase.

He said simplification has taken needle therapy out of the specialty class and made it a valuable tool for all general practitioners.

"Many people come to a doctor for relief of pain," he said. "The injection of a local anesthetic into the painful area not only relieves pain temporarily but speeds heal-

This Odd Bid Really Happened

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service

Ever hear of an opening bid of less than one club? Such a bid was actually made at the recent Eastern States Tournament.

East dropped a few cards on the floor, and North said "Oops!" East thought he had heard a pass, so he bid one club. But North was the dealer and he insisted he hadn't passed, so they called Alvin Landy, the tournament director, for a ruling.

Landy knows the rules backwards and forwards, but he also knows how to stretch them so as to see that justice is done and that East should not be punished. It was clear that North's "Oops" had started the trouble and that East should not be penalized for an out-of-turn bid.

And as long as North insisted

WHAT'S COOKIN' IN GRAY COUNTY HD CLUB WORK

By HELEN DUNLAP
Gray County HD Agent

National Home Demonstration Week was observed last Wednesday with a tea by the club women of Gray County in the City Club Room. The room was decorated with home-grown tulips furnished by the members of the clubs. One large vase of red ones and a mixed colored one decorated the front part of the room, while a bronze colored arrangement of tulips decorated one side of the room.

The program was highlighted by Mrs. F. E. Leech reviewing "The Gabriel Horn" by Felix Holt. Mrs. Charles Warminski made the welcome address and then introduced Mrs. Ernest McKnight, chairman of the library committee who with her committee and Mrs. Walter Noel's committee, were hostesses at the program.

Miss Helen Dunlap, county home demonstration agent, recognized 33 demonstrators for 1951 and 1952. Mrs. A. M. Nash presented each one with a package of flower seed.

The highest scoring women were also given honorable mention. This was a result of the clubs scoring their members on their club activities for 1951. Although the list is not complete, the following women were named with the number of points they scored: Mrs. O. A. Wagner, Worthwhile, scored 3,530 points; Mrs. Emmitt Osborne, Bell, 3,495; Mrs. V. Smith, Merten, 2,815; and Mrs. J. S. Fuqua, Wayside, 2,575.

Those who attended the tea and book review were Meses O. W. Alliston Roy Tinsley, Mattie Kees, R. E. Engle, O. G. Smith, P. G. Turner and O. A. Wagner of Worthwhile; Meses J. C. Stenard, W. E. Anti-Semitism Rampant In Communist-Held Countries

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Foreign News Analyst

The constitutions of the captive Communist countries, like that of the Soviet Union, contain "lofty-sounding" clauses forbidding racial or religious discrimination. The observance of these clauses is something else again.

Anti-Semitism is rampant in many of these areas — particularly in Czechoslovakia. The Communists can hardly deny this. Their own words convict them. Premier Antonin Zapotocky of Czechoslovakia has coined a new term to cover a new Communist sin. The term: "Judeo-Trotskyism." This is a deviation from the Communist doctrine of which only Jews are accused.

Zapotocky has laid this "crime" to Rudolf Slansky, the disgraced former party secretary who is still awaiting trial. Slansky is Jewish. At other times Zapotocky has used the term "Trotsky-Zionist" to describe the "Slansky Clique." This sets the group of Slansky sinners apart from those represented by Vladimir Clementis, the former foreign minister who also is awaiting trial for deviation. His crime is called "Bourgeois Nationalism."

Here is a quotation from the Communist newspaper Rude Pravo in Prague, which gives an idea how the Jews stand under the Czechoslovak Communists:

"We (The Party) do not tolerate any foreign intervention, no matter whence it comes — not from London or Jerusalem. We remember the days before February, 1948. (The time of the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia) when they (Certain Jewish leaders) were trying to give back the factories to the Jews and the other capitalists.

Zionism, of course, has long been classified by the Communists as "Cosmopolitanism." The Communists assailed it because it indicated allegiance to an idea which was not Stalinist. At present, Zionism is more than just Cosmopolitanism. It becomes counter-revolutionary.

The attack has shifted, however, from mere Zionism to one on Jewry as a race and religion. And Czechoslovakia is not alone in this, although its contentment of the campaign is more notorious because of the sensational series of arrests there.

It is common knowledge in Europe that the Jews have been disposed in Poland, despite the fact that Jacob Berman, himself a Jew and brother of a prominent Zionist, has remained a power in the Communist party. Jews were the first to feel the blow in the deportation and resettlement program in Poland.

Official Attitude
The official Romanian Communist attitude toward Jewry is becoming clearer, too. Israel has accused Romania of carrying out mass arrests in Jewish circles and of placing obstacles in the way of Jewish emigration to Israel.

There have been similar evidences in the other captive countries, but, most significant of all, there has been evidence of a quietly fanned Anti-Semitism among the Communists of the Soviet Union, particularly in Great Russia.

Article 69 of the new Polish Constitution, virtually a copy of the Stalin Constitution of the USSR, has this to say:

"Citizens of the Polish People's Republic, irrespective of nationality, race or religion, enjoy equal rights in all fields of public, political, economic, social and cultural life. Infringement of this principle by any direct or indirect granting of privileges or restrictions of rights on account of nationality, race or religion, is

Hollywood Columnist Not Enthused With Spring News

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD — (AP) — Pardon the yawn. It's that darned Spring Fever.

I guess that's what it is. At any rate, I was unable to generate any enthusiasm about the week's events in Hollywood.

I suppose I should have been thrilled down to the sox about Shelly Winters' marriage to the handsome Italian, Vittorio Gassman. Somehow it failed to send me. I guess I got a little bored with the circus she made of her "romance" with Farley Granger. It reached a peak when she sported his ring to publicize a picture in which they were co-starring.

subject to punishment." Like the rest of the Constitution and the Constitutions of all Communist governments, the words have a way of becoming meaningless.

Ho hum. I find it hard to shed any tears over the final (I guess) breakup of Zsa Garbor and George Sanders. Judging from their past actions and remarks, both have a continental attitude toward marriage. The news that they finally called it quits must come under the So What Dept.

Spring seems to bring other things besides a w-n-provoking news events. The season brings out a variety of subjects to plague the interviewer. Or so it seems. Among the hazards:

1. The cautious Englishman. This fellow is charming enough, but he's careful to avoid anything controversial. He doesn't want to offend anyone, you know. When you leave him, you might ask the time of day.

"Four-thirty," he'll reply. "But that's off the record."
2. The tired juvenile. He is so tired of the clamor of the fans and the dull routine of making movies. He hates routine, and he even has to struggle to pick up his $1000 check every week. After all, he has dated Marilyn Monroe. What else is there left in life for him?

3. The precocious child star. This kid sits right down and tells you all about politics, the movie business and art in general. When her mother tries to say something, the girl snaps, "Please be quiet, mother. Can't you see I'm talking?"

4. The glum comic. You'd never guess that this fellow earns his living by making people laugh. Offstage, he is about as humorous as a mortician. You ask him for one of his latest gags and he tells you all about his sinus.

5. The giddy starlet. She is absolutely unaware of what is going on outside the 30-mile radius of Hollywood. Ask her if she likes Ike and she'll reply, "I might. What studio does he work for?"
