Adm. Leahy Says Petain for France 'EVIL GENIUS'

Elliott States Late President Did Not Help Him

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Brig. Gen. Elliott Roosevelt says anyone who claims the late President Roosevelt "promoted or assisted" his son's business affairs is lying.

And, young Roosevelt said in a sharply worded statement last night, he is leaving the air force simply because he does not wish to be an arm-chair general.

He made the decision a month before published reports about his business transactions which led to a congressional investigation, Roosevelt said, adding of the reports: "I conducted my own business affairs. The responsibility was and still is mine and mine alone."

Asserting he had nothing to conceal, the general said he was co-operating with treasury investigators of his affairs and had asked the department to "make public all of the facts, without reservation, at the earliest possible moment."

"I am entitled to a full public statement of those facts for the sake of my family," Roosevelt said. His statement was made public by his attorney, Randolph Paul, former general counsel of the treasury.

The treasury began its investigation on orders of the house ways and means and senate finance committees.

General Roosevelt, who reverts to inactive status August 15, said he filed his retirement request May 11, three days after V-E day.

As for reports of his business dealings, Roosevelt said he felt that until the army acted on his inactive status request it was "inappropriate for me to make any statement with respect to the perjured charges and lies which have been published concerning me by a small segment of the press."

Husband and Wife Rule on Employment Defined

AUSTIN, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The attorney general's department has notified comptroller George Sheppard of several exceptions to the rule that state departments and state institutions of higher learning may not employ both a husband and a wife.

If both were employed during the month of January, 1941, the employment of both may continue. This provision is in both the departmental and educational appropriation bills, the attorney general said.

If a husband or a wife is employed by a state department, the other spouse may also be employed by an educational institution, the ruling requested by Sheppard said.

If a husband or a wife is employed by an educational institution, the other spouse may also be employed by an educational institution.

Army Plans Seven Million Man Army For Pacific War

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The army moved in two directions today to avert a transportation crisis but came under renewed fire for its plans to keep 7,000,000 men in uniform for the Pacific war.

To ease the pressure on railroads resulting from troop movements, the war department said:

1. It is turning over to commercial air lines enough army planes and pilots to move 25,000 troops a month across the country by air.

2. It is speeding up the discharge of high-point soldiers with railroad experience "to the maximum extent consistent with military needs and the orderly process of redeployment."

Meanwhile, Senator Johnson (D-Colo.) contended that the army is keeping too many soldiers in uniform above its real needs. He prepared to tell his colleagues that unless the army speeds demobilization the nation may see a postwar "dumping" manpower that will mean serious unemployment.

Johnson, a member of the Senate military committee, voiced his contention while a top administration official was telling another reporter that 7,000,000 men seem to him "a helluva big army for the one-front war."

This official who expressed his views on the understanding he would not be quoted by name, added that "I think there will be increasing pressure on the army to release more men."

Johnson, declaring that "I think they are keeping a lot of men they don't need for the Pacific war," said he wants an answer, too, to a recent statement by Maj. Gen. Lewis Hershey that selective service will continue drafting men for several months after the war ends.

Abilene Municipal Port Released by the Army

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The war department has decided to return the municipal airport at Abilene, Texas, to the city.

It notified sides of Rep. Russell (D-Texas) today of his decision, explaining it has no further use for the airport.

The department signed a contract with the city in June, 1941, for use of the field as an auxiliary to the army air base at Abilene.

Big Three Meet Ends, Truman To Visit King George

By DANIEL DE LUCE
POTSDAM, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The Big Three came to the end early tonight of their historic sessions upon which the future peace of the world may possibly hinge.

President Truman will fly to England from Potsdam and meet with King George VI tomorrow aboard the 32,000-ton British battle cruiser Renown somewhere off Plymouth.

The historic meeting will mark the second visit of a President of the United States to England. President Wilson came here after the first world war.

President Truman, an official announcement said, will have lunch with the king about noon aboard the Renown. Afterward Truman will return to the U. S. cruiser Augusta which is lying in Plymouth Sound with another U. S. cruiser, the Philadelphia.

These vessels, accompanied by a British naval escort, then will leave.

'ERA OF COMMON MAN' BRITISH LABOR'S LASKI FORESEES SOCIAL CHANGE

LONDON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Prof. Harold J. Laski, chairman of the labor party's national executive committee, proclaimed today "the era of the common man" in Britain.

He said in an interview that labor's sweeping victory in the general election held as much economic and social significance as the emergence of the middle class in England in the 1830's.

"This is the arrival of the people in power," Laski stated. "We are now prepared to give the little man—within the framework of the British constitution—all the progressive change that he requires."

Laski spoke with authority, for

Free Enterprise Is Charged With Abating by CIO

AUSTIN, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The attorney general's department had before it for study today a petition filed by the Congress of Industrial Organizations, charging that Fight for Free Enterprise was organized for the "sole purpose" of destroying the C. I. O.

The charge, along with nine other strongly worded allegations, was contained in a counter-petition and answer to a petition filed in mid-July with the attorney general by Fight for Free Enterprise. The latter organization, with headquarters at San Antonio, describes itself as a non-profit corporation to bolster the principles of democratic government.

In its petition, Fight for Free Enterprise alleged among other things that the CIO has organized the Texas Fruit and Vegetable Workers union in the Lower Rio Grande Valley to achieve "a virtual dictatorship over the business and political life of this area."

The CIO's counter petition, filed yesterday by O. A. Knight, president of the Oil Workers International Union, said:

On view at Love Field in Dallas was Lockheed's Fleet P-80 jet fighter, the Shooting Star. Consolidated's new B-36 Dominator and the field's crew training program were displayed.

Seventeen types of battle planes and training craft were exhibited at Randolph Field in San Antonio. Combat aerobatics and precision flying highlighted Brooks Field's air show.

The army air forces training command at Fort Worth said its installations would join those of other AAF commands in opening fields to public inspection and that special demonstrations of the AAF training program and special displays of equipment were arranged for exhibition.

Early Visitor Mark Exceeds 2,000 at PAAF

By 1 o'clock this afternoon, several thousand residents of Pampa and adjacent communities had passed through the gates at Pampa army air field by private automobile and bus to attend an open-house celebration marking the 38th anniversary of the formal organization of the army air force.

Based on the number of early arrivals, the public relations office estimated that the total number of visitors during the afternoon would approach 10,000.

At press time, a formation of P-38 Lightnings screamed over PAAF in demonstration of precision flying. Simultaneously, the troops were massed on the ramp in preparation for a parade and review. This event was scheduled to open the afternoon's program.

Some 30 Pampa representatives were on the reviewing stand with Col. James A. De Marco, commanding, and staff. Lubbock army air field band was to play for the ceremony.

The celebration actually had been started at 8 a.m. by military personnel with memorial services in the chapel. Capt. Leonard Pascher, Catholic chaplain.

Visitors to the air base found the following places open for inspection: production line maintenance, cadet detachment, ground school.

Successful Air Force Day Is Held Through Nation

(By The Associated Press)
Texas' vast network of army air installations, potent new winged weapons of war and old familiar craft came under the scrutiny of civilians today as flight establishments opened their doors in observance of Air Force Day.

Many civic observances, banquets and programs, keyed to the AAF's 38th anniversary, proclaimed last week as Air Force Day by President Truman and General H. H. Arnold, AAF commander.

On view at Love Field in Dallas was Lockheed's Fleet P-80 jet fighter, the Shooting Star. Consolidated's new B-36 Dominator and the field's crew training program were displayed.

Seventeen types of battle planes and training craft were exhibited at Randolph Field in San Antonio. Combat aerobatics and precision flying highlighted Brooks Field's air show.

July Was Fruitful

By LEONARD MALLIMAN
Associated Press War Editor

Unprecedented American sea and air power knocked out 1,546 Japanese vessels and more than 1,330 planes in the Mikados' front yard during July and promised to reach new heights this month with flights of 1,200 Superforts packing 8,000 ton bomb loads.

Even the enemy's imperial headquarters admitted "Damages to cities, factories and shipping were considerable." A Tokyo communique countered with a claim that 1,321 Allied planes and 25 ships were destroyed or damaged during July giving some encouragement to Premier Kantaro Suzuki as he reported today to Emperor Hirohito on "Affairs of State."

The imperial communique promised that preparations were being made to meet more ships being sent to sea in the Pacific. But there was so little sign of fight that Associated Press War Correspondent Richard K. O'Malley, riding with the Allied fleet that has been cruising Japanese waters for more than three weeks, commented:

"Japan seems almost to be waging a sideway war."

Carrier planes from Admiral Halsey's fleet, apparently still in Japanese waters ready to strike again, contributed most of July's astounding total of enemy ship and plane destruction.

The air fleet arm knocked out 1,055 vessels and 1,276 planes since July 10.

Land based planes operating under Admiral Nimitz added 261 ships and surface craft and 53 planes.

The Far Eastern air forces contributed 240 more ships since they moved up to Okinawa.

The totals included well over 100 warships, ranging from battleships and carriers down to midget submarines and PT boats. They also include many tiny craft such as mines and coastal vessels. Large numbers of both ships and planes were only damaged and will have to be hit again.

However, the figures do not include tolls taken off the China coast in the southwest Pacific in southeast Asia or China. For example, General MacArthur today listed 11 craft sunk off the Malay coast and Borneo which were not included in the 250 total of the Far East air force command. Latest total reported for his forces operating in Japanese waters was 24, including:

Contempt Case Is Delayed In Corpus Trial

CORPUS CHRISTI, Tex., Aug. 1.—(AP)—Conway Craig, publisher of the Corpus Christi Caller-Times, and Bob McCracken, managing editor, were the first two witnesses today in a case in which County Judge Joe D. Browning cited three newspapermen as guilty of contempt of court.

Craig, McCracken, and Reporter Tom Mulvaney appeared to answer the citation by the judge holding them in contempt and sentencing them to three days in jail.

The publisher and McCracken were placed on the stand by the prosecution after they had waived their constitutional immunity as defendants to testify.

Craig testified that he had read the newspaper reports referred to in the citation; that as publisher he is in supervision of the editorial department of the newspaper, and that he had not exerted any influence in preparation of the stories referred to.

McCracken gave testimony relating to the position the stories received in the newspapers. He pointed out details in the stories which in his opinion had to do with the position given them in the newspaper.

The managing editor was on the stand when the court recessed at noon, and was to resume his testimony at 2 p.m.

CORPUS CHRISTI, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Agreement by attorneys of both sides of a number of stipulations of fact cleared the way for three Corpus Christi newsmen to answer today a citation holding them in contempt of the court of county Judge Joe D. Browning.

The motion for a recess permitting attorneys to agree on as many stipulations of fact as possible was granted.

squadron day rooms and barracks, supply warehouses, war information center and hall of fame, nursery playground, hospital and WAC detachment.

A B-25 was parked in front of the post theater, with a substantial ramp built to enable visitors to inspect the cockpit and bombardier's compartment. Other types of airplanes exhibited included the B-25, B-24, B-17, and A-26.

Relatives of air force men had an opportunity to join the National Association of Air Force Women. A booth stood near the post theater and adjacent to the B-25 display, where applications for membership were available.

Two features ran all afternoon. A continuous orientation program was given in the new war information center, which is housed in the same building with the hall of fame. In the post recreation hall, a dance band will play.

Featured on the afternoon's program was an aerial review at 2:30 p.m. of B-25 Mitchell medium bombers. One of the most interesting events scheduled was the ground-to-plane communication scheduled to be heard by visitors through a loudspeaker system connected with the radio tower. The radio talk between the tower and the pilots was to be supplemented by a commentary by Capt. George Evers, master of ceremonies. A description of part of the flying activities was to be broadcast over KPDM.

Also on the program were a track and field meet for enlisted men and a baseball game between the post team and Pampa Oilers.

made yesterday by defense attorney Marcellus Eckhardt, after Judge Browning had denied two defense exceptions.

Eckhardt leveled the exceptions at informations filed by the judge in citing publisher Conway Craig of the Courier-Times, managing editor Bob McCracken, and reporter Tom Mulvany, as guilty of contempt and sentencing them to three days in jail.

The judge granted the effect of the exceptions would have been to quash the case or have it amended.

The judge's allegations of contempt were based on published reports of a trial before him on May 25, 26, and 27 of a suit of forcible entry and detainer, styled Bush H. Jackson, et al. vs. Joe L. Mayes, et al.

In one exception the defendants asserted that the judge's decree nisi ordering them into contempt was "void upon its face" and added: "The information, or affidavit, upon which the decree is based stated no grounds upon which to found a valid order of judgment of contempt against respondents."

"Any judgment of contempt so based would deprive respondents of their liberty and freedom of speech and of the press without due process of law XXX."

In other exception the defendants said that "all portions of the information and decree charging that the publication or portions of the same were intended and calculated to scandalize and reflect upon the integrity of the court and bring it into disrepute and prejudice, state no valid ground for judgment of contempt, and should therefore be stricken."

The citations against the newspapermen asserted the publications complained of occurred while the case was still pending, and among other things, alleged that the articles "committed much material evidence that would have enabled the public generally to form a fair estimate of the real nature of the controversy XXX."

"That the articles needlessly repeated, reiterated and overemphasized the court's insistence that the verdict be returned in accordance with its instructions XXX."

Average Loan Rate For Cotton Issued

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The average loan rate for 7/8ths inch middling cotton from the 1945 crop will be 19.84 cents a pound compared with 20.03 cents last year, the commodity credit corporation announced today.

This year's loan rate is 92.5 percent of the parity price of cotton, which is 21.45 cents a pound.

The average loan rate for 15/16ths inch middling cotton will be 125 points (1.25 cents a pound) above the average rate for 7/8ths inch middling cotton, or 21.09 cents a pound, gross weight.

The loan rates will vary according to location. The rate for 15/16ths inch middling cotton will vary from a high of 21.63 cents a pound in the concentrated mill area of the Carolinas to 20.42 cents a pound in Arizona and California.

Location differentials for each warehouse point will be based on the freight rate to the mill area of the Carolinas, except in eastern Tennessee, Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Florida and Alabama where a zone system will be in effect.

Loans will be made on cotton represented by warehouse receipts issued by warehouses approved by the CCC and on farm-stored cotton secured by chattel mortgages. Cotton to be eligible for the loan must be closed by a board of cotton examiners of the agriculture department.

Cotton producers' notes will bear interest at three percent and mature July 31, 1946, but will be callable on demand. Loans will be available until May 1, 1946.

Loans will be made direct by the CCC or through lending agencies—principally banks—approved by the CCC.

ing two destroyers and two 6,000 ton freighter transports.

The toll credited to Admiral Halsey's forces was raised with a recaptulation of Monday's heavy air strike at the Matsuura naval base, across Honshu island from Tokyo. Carrier pilots accounted for 68 ships and surface craft and 227 planes there.

Tokyo reported that the blazing guns of a single American submarine wound up July with a 30 minute bombardment last night of Tomakomai on the northern refuge island of Hokkaido.

Twenty Mustang fighters from Iwo Jima Okinawa were credited by Tokyo radio with making the first attack in August. They raked airfields and transportation facilities in the heavily hammered Osaka area for 50 minutes today.

Japan is taking such a beating that Tokyo broadcast moaned "we are enduring the impossible" with grinding teeth and clenched fists.

"They know it's going to get worse. Nineteen cities have been forewarned they would be fire-bombed by Superforts. Six of them have seen the promise carried out. Attacks by 1,200 B-29s were promised soon by Lt. Gen. Barney M. Giles, deputy commander of the strategic air forces. That is twice the present record formation.

In the back yards of the war, two jungle camps moved closer to Japan. The tenth air force which supported successful Chinese and British campaigns in Burma joined the 14th in China. The 13th, veterans of the South Pacific air war, moved to the northern Philippines where Maj. Gen. Paul W. F. Smith told his men "we are now in on the kill." And Col. James O. Guthrie, acting leader of the 13th fighter command, added that "our pilots now look forward to the day when they will be based at Tokyo."

Absenteeism of Japanese air operations was blamed by Read Adm. William Blandy, new commander of Pacific fleet cruisers and destroyers, at least partially on lack of aviation gasoline. Tokyo acknowledged it. The Suzuki government took over all fuel production to put the nation's air power in the air. Most planes wrecked in Japan have been caught on the ground.

Nearly 3,000 Japanese civilians were reported to have joined 20,000 Imperial troops fighting Chinese in east China's Kiangsi province to the south. Japanese appeared to have slowed their withdrawal northward from Kweilin, eighth former U. S. air base city to be recaptured. Tokyo claimed Chinese operating on the Indo-China border were held to localized operations.

The U. S. Sixth and 32nd divisions joined in northern Luzon island of the Philippines for the final drive on supposed headquarters of the once arrogant Nipponese commander — Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita. The 38th division mopping up the Sierra Madres claimed a record kill. The division has killed 25,000 Japanese since it entered the Luzon campaign.

General MacArthur said Japanese made an ineffective air raid on Borneo. The Tokyo version said "several B-29's" were hit on Brunei military installations and Miri harbor facilities.

made yesterday by defense attorney Marcellus Eckhardt, after Judge Browning had denied two defense exceptions.

Eckhardt leveled the exceptions at informations filed by the judge in citing publisher Conway Craig of the Courier-Times, managing editor Bob McCracken, and reporter Tom Mulvany, as guilty of contempt and sentencing them to three days in jail.

The judge granted the effect of the exceptions would have been to quash the case or have it amended.

The judge's allegations of contempt were based on published reports of a trial before him on May 25, 26, and 27 of a suit of forcible entry and detainer, styled Bush H. Jackson, et al. vs. Joe L. Mayes, et al.

In one exception the defendants asserted that the judge's decree nisi ordering them into contempt was "void upon its face" and added: "The information, or affidavit, upon which the decree is based stated no grounds upon which to found a valid order of judgment of contempt against respondents."

"Any judgment of contempt so based would deprive respondents of their liberty and freedom of speech and of the press without due process of law XXX."

In other exception the defendants said that "all portions of the information and decree charging that the publication or portions of the same were intended and calculated to scandalize and reflect upon the integrity of the court and bring it into disrepute and prejudice, state no valid ground for judgment of contempt, and should therefore be stricken."

The citations against the newspapermen asserted the publications complained of occurred while the case was still pending, and among other things, alleged that the articles "committed much material evidence that would have enabled the public generally to form a fair estimate of the real nature of the controversy XXX."

"That the articles needlessly repeated, reiterated and overemphasized the court's insistence that the verdict be returned in accordance with its instructions XXX."

McAllen Nimrod Gets the Bird

McALLEN, Texas, August 1.—(AP)—Fifteen year old Charles Slink was making his start as a fly rod fisherman.

The past carried close to a thick growth of cattails.

"Boy, I sure got myself a big bass," Charles said as the fly popped under.

He reeled in.

On his hook was a large black water bird known locally as a black turkey.

At Fort Worth, Maj. Gen. Walter F. Kraus, chief of staff of the AAF training command, addressed members of the Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Drop-testing parachutes from 800 feet above the runway strip of the Waco army air field was part of an exhibition for spectators at WAAF's celebration. Ceremonies were to be opened at 10:30 a. m. when a flight of B-25 Mitchell bombers, escorted by P-40's, swept over the city. Other aerial maneuvers for benefit of civilian guests were planned at the field.

Chaplains from AAF installations will join in special services at civilian church in observance of "Air Force Sunday," which coincides with the 170th anniversary of the founding of the army chaplain corps.

The toll credited to Admiral Halsey's forces was raised with a recaptulation of Monday's heavy air strike at the Matsuura naval base, across Honshu island from Tokyo. Carrier pilots accounted for 68 ships and surface craft and 227 planes there.

Tokyo reported that the blazing guns of a single American submarine wound up July with a 30 minute bombardment last night of Tomakomai on the northern refuge island of Hokkaido.

Twenty Mustang fighters from Iwo Jima Okinawa were credited by Tokyo radio with making the first attack in August. They raked airfields and transportation facilities in the heavily hammered Osaka area for 50 minutes today.

Japan is taking such a beating that Tokyo broadcast moaned "we are enduring the impossible" with grinding teeth and clenched fists.

"They know it's going to get worse. Nineteen cities have been forewarned they would be fire-bombed by Superforts. Six of them have seen the promise carried out. Attacks by 1,200 B-29s were promised soon by Lt. Gen. Barney M. Giles, deputy commander of the strategic air forces. That is twice the present record formation.

In the back yards of the war, two jungle camps moved closer to Japan. The tenth air force which supported successful Chinese and British campaigns in Burma joined the 14th in China. The 13th, veterans of the South Pacific air war, moved to the northern Philippines where Maj. Gen. Paul W. F. Smith told his men "we are now in on the kill." And Col. James O. Guthrie, acting leader of the 13th fighter command, added that "our pilots now look forward to the day when they will be based at Tokyo."

Absenteeism of Japanese air operations was blamed by Read Adm. William Blandy, new commander of Pacific fleet cruisers and destroyers, at least partially on lack of aviation gasoline. Tokyo acknowledged it. The Suzuki government took over all fuel production to put the nation's air power in the air. Most planes wrecked in Japan have been caught on the ground.

Nearly 3,000 Japanese civilians were reported to have joined 20,000 Imperial troops fighting Chinese in east China's Kiangsi province to the south. Japanese appeared to have slowed their withdrawal northward from Kweilin, eighth former U. S. air base city to be recaptured. Tokyo claimed Chinese operating on the Indo-China border were held to localized operations.

The U. S. Sixth and 32nd divisions joined in northern Luzon island of the Philippines for the final drive on supposed headquarters of the once arrogant Nipponese commander — Gen. Tomoyuki Yamashita. The 38th division mopping up the Sierra Madres claimed a record kill. The division has killed 25,000 Japanese since it entered the Luzon campaign.

General MacArthur said Japanese made an ineffective air raid on Borneo. The Tokyo version said "several B-29's" were hit on Brunei military installations and Miri harbor facilities.

R-2 Tire Certificate Void After August 15

Motorists who hold certificates to purchase tires should be careful to check them to see if they are the "R-2" type, since all outstanding R-2 tire certificates become invalid for consumer use after August 15, the district OPA rationing division has announced.

For dealers, the invalidation date is August 31. Dealers may also during the month of September exchange R-2 certificates on hand September 1 at OPA district office in Lubbock. However, consumers may not exchange their R-2 certificates if they have not been used before August 16—they will become invalid and useless, officials pointed out.

Purpose of the invalidation is to get out of circulation the easily counterfeited old R-2 certificates. R-2A and R-2B certificates are not affected, since they are printed on government safety paper which cannot be easily counterfeited.

GUNS RELEASED

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—All small arms, except 12-gauge shotguns and revolvers using 38-caliber special cartridges, will be released for sale to civilians immediately.

More than 1,700 Dutch seamen have been lost on Dutch ships sunk by the Axis since 1942.

Hollywood Accents Natural Look In Film Stars' Hair and Make-Up

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Lauren Bacall brushes her hair for a solid hour after it's set to take out all of the curls. One minute is all the steaming Joan Leslie's permanent gets, which means only the whisper of a curl in her hair.

These two beauty tactics are aimed at one objective—naturalness. They're part of the new Hollywood campaign by such beauty experts as Perc Westmore to bring out good looks from behind the cloak of artifices which young stars—just like other thoughtless girls—sometimes affect.

And here's a flock more of the make-up experts' secrets I've rounded up which are sure to prove helpful in making the most of your looks:

Hair strikes the keynote of naturalness, so these film beauties wear theirs simply styled. But lack of detail puts it severely on its own. That's why Lauren, for instance, ducks hers into a basin every three days to preserve bouancy freshness, and dries it in the sun to enhance clean ash-blond color.

JOAN LESLIE: Casual

When the need arises, the most childish-looking bob on the movie lot can be converted into a fluff of curls that go into a casual pile to the top of a young lady's head.

Make-up must match skin-tone. Lipstick must follow the natural line of the mouth, and cheek rouge, if it's used at all, suggests the merest blush. Every stitch of old-make-up must be peeled off before you apply new.

Go easy on the eye make-up. A pencil lightly applied to your brows—and a little mascara bleached to the tips of lashes, if color there has done a fade-away, are all the younger stars are allowed.

Nor are they allowed to tamper with the shape of their eyebrows, because, says Westmore, nothing proves more fatal to the natural look. It is legitimate, however, to weed out wild hairs that stray from the line.

Girl Scout Activities End July 28; Credits Go Toward Merit Badges

The summer activities for Pampa Girl Scouts were brought to a close July 28.

For the past three weeks three interested groups of girls under the able leadership of volunteer workers have earned credits toward badges in the various program fields. Mrs. Noel Dalton directed the nature lore, Mrs. L. C. McCurtury folk dancing and sketching, Mrs. R. C. Lackey.

Edwina Emerson and Judith Smith of Intermediate Troop 3 and Eleanor McNameara of the Wing scouts attended the first session of camp Mary White at Cloudercroft, New Mexico. Edwina and Judith returned to Pampa this week and report a fine time and that they were entertained at the close of the session with a barn dance given by Mr. and Mrs. White for whose daughter the camp is named, followed by a barbecue and a video put on by the girls without outside help.

The girls brought back their share of honor for their work, besides having plenty of fun. Edwina and Judith made the archery team, and Eleanor Ann took several honors at the rodeo, besides being chosen as junior camp counselor because of her good work during the first session. She will remain at camp and have charge of the Medina unit during the third and fourth sessions. This is a distinct honor for Eleanor Ann.

Owing to vacations for members of the staff, leaders, and others of the Girl Scout organization, the Girl Scout office will be closed during the month of August, opening on September 1st.

Any leaders wishing to use Camp Sullivan or the Little Scout house during August should contact Mrs. Charles Hughes, 124 S. Nelson St. telephone 1007-J, for permission and information.

WE CAN ALL BE PROUD OF THE AIR CORPS

Ranking high among the many great American achievements of this war are those of the U. S. Army air corps. America, emerging from the anaemic stage of air power after the attack on Pearl Harbor, became the mighty Hercules which eventually broke the back of the European monster. That is the epic story, told briefly, but understandably.

And, so we can look back to 1907, when the greatest air force in the world was born. The corps started with one captain and two enlisted men; today there are more than 2,300,000 officers and enlisted men in this gigantic force—striking the last of the vaunted Axis, Japan, from one end of her stricken empire to the other.

To properly assess the value of the air forces of America in relation to the other branches of armed services is not only an impossibility—it is not important. It is not important for it is the finished work of all members of a team that counts, rather than the work of any one branch. It is a monument to the air force that it has worked as a team within itself, and with other branches, first fighting a one-sided war of defense, later fighting a war of attrition, and finally pursuing the remaining remnants of the enemy's forces.

Into this gigantic effort, which is helping to spell victory, has gone the labors of the men of the Pampa Army air field. They have handled the job commendably, we think, and are to be given due credit. Their relations with the citizenry of Pampa have always been of the highest caliber.

Thus, today we Pampans can rightly be proud to take a part in the field's observance of the 38th anniversary of the air corps. It is with one voice we say "Keep 'em Flying" to the day, to which we look forward, when we will all say "This is Victory day."

The Flies In the Bretton Woods Ointment

Even if our representatives have obligated the American people to almost unbelievable obligations by way of the Bretton Woods plan to foreign nations, it might be well for the citizens to know what these obligations are. Then after reading this, they should be able to make a decision as to whether or not they wish to have in the dollar and credits. They, thus, will be in a better position to manage their own affairs. The things our Congress has done is almost unbelievable.

Here are some quotations from a pamphlet under the heading of "You Better Know About Bretton Woods", published by the National Economic Council and written by John F. Flynn, author of "The Country Squire in the White House", "As We Go Marching", and "Meet Your Congressmen". "The Fund is to be $8,800,000,000. The United States will pay in $2,750,000,000 or 31 per cent of the total. This immense contribution is justified upon the theory that it is the richest and has a great stake in stimulating foreign trade. But this requires a still closer look. A nation must pay part of its quota in gold or United States dollars which are considered the same as gold. The rest it may pay in its own currency. The dollars of this is that we must give our entire quota in gold or dollars—which are our currency. Other nations will pay a part in gold and the rest in their own currencies. Such currencies will have very little value in this fund. When members borrow the dollars, they must give gold or dollars. Hence gold and dollars are the only real lendable assets of the Fund."

In Reality, at Least 77 Per Cent
"The result of this is that while we will pay in our quota 31 per cent of the total fund, we will actually pay in 77 per cent of the lendable assets (gold and dollars). That is the 1944 estimate of one technical advisor who favors Bretton Woods. By the time the Fund can be established, our share will be even greater because others have been using up their gold at a fast rate. Now when we note that it is the other nations which will do all the borrowing we see that this is a Fund in which we provide most of the Fund and the other nations most of the borrowing."

Could Contribute 100 Per Cent
"However, the plan provides that 50 per cent of the Fund, which will be located in the United States, shall be in custody of the Fund itself, but at least 40 per cent of it shall be in the depositories designated by the remaining four largest contributors. This means that the other nations would actually remain in custody of their gold contributions. Thus the gold actually in possession of the Fund would be the gold or dollars contributed by the United States. This means we could in fact contribute 100 per cent of the lendable assets of the Fund."

Only One-Fourth Control
"The Fund will be governed by a Board of Governors and an Executive Directorate. The United States, which supplies practically all the lendable assets, would have one member out of 44 on the Board of Governors and one out of 12 on the Executive Directorate. The borrowing nations would have a three-fourths control. By joining the Fund we would hand over to the borrowers control of our first and all future contributions."

Creditors Control Loans
"It is a little difficult to believe that statesmen in possession of their senses would hand over these vast sums without some safeguard of our interests. Yet that is what they have done. A member nation may borrow not over 25 per cent of its quota in any twelve months nor more than twice its quota over a period. This looks like a safe guard. But—the Fund at its discretion may waive this limitation. Any group of members with 51 per cent of the vote could remove it. If Russia, the British Empire and the United States should get a blocking power in the Fund, the Fund's dollars would be exhausted in the 13th month.

"Indeed this may actually happen in less than 13 months. For instance, England now owes abroad $2 billion. Now when their Fund is blocked in England, that is, the nations to which it is due cannot get it, although they need it badly. To enable them to get these sums due them the Fund could vote to advance them dollars in exchange for their claims against England. Thus the Fund's dollars would be greatly reduced. The dollars would become scarce."

Control Foreign Sales
"At this point an amazing development would occur. When the currency of any country becomes scarce in the United States, the United States could ration that currency. That is, it could decide what country would get it. If dollars in the Fund become scarce, the Fund could decide how countries would get dollars. See how this would affect us. The Fund would be able to ration all the lendable assets of the Fund. We would be able to sell only to those countries which could get dollars in order to buy from us. And as the Fund would decide this point, it would decide who our customers would be in America, putting all the lendable assets of the Fund to be utterly at the mercy of her creditors who would tell her whether she could sell cotton to Britain or France or Russia and where she could spend her own money. Incredible as this may seem it is not accidental. The European proponents of this scheme knew precisely what they were doing. One of them, Ragnar Nurkse, said recently:

"If the dollar should become a scarce currency under the Fund arrangement, the rationing of dollars which would then come into operation would discriminate against the exports of the United States. Such rationing would, for example, divert Britain's demand for cotton from the United States to, say, Brazil, even if Brazil is not a member of the United States and it would similarly divert Brazil's demand for automobiles from the United States to England. . . . In sum it would divert the effective demand of the outside world from the United States products."

"From this difficulty there would be but one escape. We would have to end the scarcity of dollars. We would have to pour more dollars into the Fund. Lord Keynes, chief author of this stratagem says of it:

"If by no other means, than by lending the creditor country will always have to find a way to square the account on imperative grounds of its own self-interest. For it will no longer be entitled to square the account by squeezing gold out of us."

"That is to say, the 'creditor country', which is the United States, will be driven into such a corner that to escape it must 'lend' more dollars to the Fund. They were added, with almost Gilbertian subtlety: 'Here we have a voluntary undertaking genuinely offered in the spirit of the good neighbor. Offered by whom? Keynes makes it clear. By the Americans. The most likely to be affected by this, have of their own free will and honest purpose, offered us a far-reaching formula.'"

I will quote further from this pamphlet in the next issue.

WASHINGTON

By RAY TUCKER

GERMANY—American members of the Allied Control Commission in Germany have already discovered that keeping the vanquished nation in a state of permanent economic subjection presents a more difficult problem than they had anticipated. The British and Russian sections have had a similar experience, according to confidential reports.

The bread-and-butter needs of the occupying forces and the local populace have necessitated the rebuilding and reopening of numerous units of the Reich industry, which was such an integral part of Hitler's war machine that their representatives in foreign countries served as Foreign Office spies.

As a result of the drain which the Japanese conflict still imposes on the shipping and industrial resources of the British and the United States, the Control Commission considered it advisable to manufacture immediately essential articles on the spot.

Krupp, for instance, is making structural steel for the U. S. Army so that the railroads, bridges and communication lines can be put in operation. We need these supplies and communication lines to handle our part of the policing assignment.

The Ford plant in Cologne is turning out five hundred trucks. The International Harvester company's factory will soon resume production of agricultural implements required on the farms. The Zeiss optical works is again doing business.

WATCH—German coal mines will be running full blast as soon as they can be conditioned to provide fuel for the Reich and other nations in Central Europe, especially France. Economic experts tentatively prefer that solution to the seemingly impractical Ickes proposal that the United States ship six million tons abroad.

Although the Russians have permitted outsiders to inspect the areas under their supervision, Soviet officials have deliberately embarked on a program for revival of industry. They need the output of heavy and consumption goods to restore their own domestic system and to provide their people with necessities. They will collect their share of reparations in the form of so-called "slave labor."

The British carried out their bombing missions on an extremely selective basis in the target area assigned to them by SHAEF. Whenever possible, they spared factories whose production would be useful in the postwar period. A strategy which brought charges that they were going easy on industries in

Peter Edson's Column: FBI STICKS TO 'MATNAP' CASE

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—One of the most intensive man-hunts in U. S. criminal history has been the 94-year search for the kidnaper and murderer of 10-year-old Charles Fletcher Mattson of Tacoma, Wash. In FBI records and in local police headquarters all over the country since the kidnapping has become known as the "Matnap" case, FBI hasn't given up trying to solve it, and won't give up.

There are three slender clues to go on. When the kidnaper broke into Dr. Mattson's home on Dec. 28, 1936, and abducted his oldest boy, a note demanding $50,000 ransom was left on the chair. That provides a handwriting specimen. The kidnaper left fragmentary fingerprints on the glass of French doors through which he entered the house, and again at a phone booth from which he called to make a second ransom demand. The kidnaper was seen by the other Mattson children who were in the room listening to the radio with their brother at the time he was kidnapped. A sketch was made from composite descriptions by the Mattson children and that has been used as a guide in examining suspects.

In all the years since Charles Mattson's body was found murdered in the snow near Everett, Wash., two weeks after the kidnapping, 25,403 suspects have been reported. Of these 23,833 have been eliminated as having no connection with the crime. But the remaining 1569 suspects are still pending in an open file. A steady flow of handwriting

UPTON CROUSE: Britain Still Is in Great Need of Coalition Regime

If I were one of the socialist leaders of Britain, I would be scared to death there is no future for Britain in being a satellite of Russia, any more than there is any future for her in being in clash with now or in the future. The last socialist of Britain have promised the common people of Britain a better life than they have ever had under their aristocracy—better in three ways: less war, bleeding and destruction; more of the material things of life; and a feeling of social equity.

People of Britain deserve these things, indeed, but the Lastites cannot deliver them, and must be intelligent enough to know it. Material things of life in Britain are precluded upon holding and exploiting empire. Holding empire requires war and blood. Financial supremacy and exploitation require rivalries.

Britain is now a supplicant on the world's sympathies, including Russia's. There never was a time, however, when a powerful great and exploiting empire could rely upon world-wide sympathies to care for it through a well-provided old age, and the actions of this mid-twentieth century, in spite of talk and pretense are just heartless about such things as they have always been.

There is going to be a tremendous propaganda effort made by our liberals and fellow-travelers in the OWI and other government propaganda spending agencies to keep the idea of cooperating with socialist Britain, but this will be a short-lived phase. The communist party line is changing again to one of outright hostility to so-called "liberal democracy" along with that will go the fixed Marxist strategy of using socialist movements as stepping stones to communist seizure of all power. The socialists in Britain will have to become accomplices in such a development, or they will have to be conscientious opponents of this strategy. Either way, the Lastites cannot last long.

Either way, the political development in Britain is going to tend to estrange Britain from America. The United States after we have passed through a post-war unemployment crisis, but until that time there is going to be a conservative trend in this country. In Canada, already a conservative trend has been going on for some time. Canada and the United States are going to find themselves drawing together. Even Australia, with its traditional socialist government, is experiencing a conservative trend. The United Kingdom is going to find itself alone in the socialist world.

The strangest thing in the world will be a socialist British imperial government, giving up India as it has pledged to do and has gone to the aid of the oil of Persia and Arabia and for political and trade preeminence in Western Europe, and for financial preeminence in Argentina.

There has been in Britain in this election the most intolerant talk on both sides. Churchill has said that he would not cooperate with socialist leaders or concepts. The socialists, on their part, have accused him of deep-dyed political dishonesty.

Yet, in spite of all this acerbity, the best thing for Britain is a coalition government again. In fact, it would appear to be the only thing. Never in Britain's history of crises did it need to do so.

For in spite of wild talk, the British people are not yet ready for communism, and between coalition and communism there is no firm ground right now. Last socialistism is a quagmire. It needed to show itself up as a political crisis.

While watching the British crisis with the deepest sympathy, Americans can well remind themselves that this same callow, unfounded talk of coalition and communism, gall to come to make an advent on this side of the Atlantic in the guise of self-appointed savior to our basically healthy economy, and that, but for the termination of one hun-

In Hollywood

Hollywood notables have volunteered to serve as "guest columnists" while Erskine Johnson is on vacation. The column below was written by singer-star Bing Crosby.

HOLLYWOOD—So Robert Hope has packed his putter, his toothbrush, his teeth and the assorted works of Joseph Miller into his portmanteau, and is bound overseas again.

He's flying, of course. When the Army briefed him (but not enough), they told him to follow his nose. By the time Bobbie, sometimes known as Rhode Island Red or the hen's associate producer, desists from whipping up omelets in our European bivouacs, we'll have the world's first army of preoccupation.

This time Gross Break won't have to tote his own eggs. He could conveniently pocket the poultry products left lying after GIs lobbed them at an obscure groaner who formerly flatted notes all over France.

Junior's latest departure from bed and board stimulated the usual celebration in Hope's liberated home community, Tulsa, Okla. City fathers are now issuing desperate denials of the assertion in the title of Hope's tome, "I Never Left Home" (Simon and Schuster, $2.00, special reduction if you accept the author's autograph).

ONE HOPE-LESS MOVIE
I have now hit the road with Hope of Zanzibar, Morocco, Utopia and the Lakeside Country Club. We have bartered bon motleys in many a wireless-oh. I have purveyed many a home together. (It was an idea to sell them. Everybody else is buying them.) Since I have long indulged the whims of short-sighted producers who insist on playing Hope among my supporting players, it was only reasonable that Paramount would help get his act in the country long enough for me to run up at least one Hope-less celluloid endeavor.

That would be "Blue Skies," which will have the singular advantages of Technicolor, Irving Berlin's music, and Draper's dancing. Joan Crawford's beauty and Bob Hope's absence.

Of Hope's so-called career in radio I can say little, which is more than you could expect from Hope. His weekly 30-minute dose tableau, which originally brought about the radio term "other for broadcast," actually is the collective effort of some 50 or 60 functionaries who spend all day Tuesday writing gags and devote the remainder of the week trying to talk Hope out of their pay-checks.

LONDON-CLEVELAND ROUTE
Cleveland seems necessary or advisable to probe Hope's history. He early exhibited his talents as a shrewd trader by swapping beaks with the stork en route to London, England. Fifty or 60 years ago, young Hope was brought to America and landed in Cleveland, and soon afterward that enlightened Ohio community became the first of a long line of entrepreneurs to let Hope's option drop.

Seriously, I am now forced to admit, and the lad with the Skyborne Snout will tell you he's forced to agree, that he is indeed the top man life, it would well have taken possession. For it had already entrenched itself in the White House, where the same, daffish, dark Lenox is now in secure cloak-of-the-walk in Britain, was philosopher, guide, personal visitor and unseen nominator of officials in the local administration. And Henry Wallace was to have been his incarnation here.

World Today

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AF Foreign Affairs Analyst
And why did Winston Churchill beg His Majesty King George to excuse him from accepting England's most honored knighthood—the Order of the Garter?

Well, of course that may be a somewhat delicate question which Mr. Churchill himself would have to answer, but I'll bet a shily new experience that the real reason is one he wouldn't be likely to give. This is that the unadorned name of Winston Churchill already is so famous that no title could add to its lustre. A knighthood would be gilding the lily.

Statesman, author, orator, war-leader—plain Winston Churchill ranks among the great of British history. That in itself is enough to make "Sir Winston" seem strangely out of place as designation for a man whose name is a household word throughout the civilized world. But there's another reason why a knighthood would be no promotion for him. He is the grandson of the Duke of Marlborough, and that's mighty blue blood—none more so.

One suspects too that Churchill wouldn't feel like accepting anything less than a dukedom—the highest rank in the peerage. And the chances are that he wouldn't want it at this juncture because, coming on top of the defeat of his conservative party by the laborites in the election, it might appear to be in the nature of a consolation prize. Furthermore, while Churchill hasn't made an official announcement, he reportedly intends to remain in the fore of the political battle as leader of "his majesty's loyal opposition" in the house of commons, and he couldn't have a seat in commons and at the same time hold a peerage, for that would make him a member of the house of lords.

If, as the London Daily Mail says, Churchill is "determined to continue his fight against socialism," we shall be treated to some good boy in his craft. This despite all clowning.

INT. CORLISS' BEDROOM NIGHT
CORLISS SHOT
It is several hours later. Darkness has fallen outside and the bed lamp is lit. Corliiss, wearing an attractive, childish bathrobe or dressing gown, lies on the bed, thoughtfully trying to figure her way out of this jam. After a moment she swings her legs over the edge of the bed and goes to her bedroom window. She leans out as far as possible.

We are shooting over Corliiss' shoulder across the driveway which separates the two houses. Only a part of the room can be seen from this angle, but the windows are partly open and an occasional word or phrase can be heard. Dexter is standing backed up against the wall, pale and stubbornly silent. Mr. Franklin, in waving a large, threatening fist, is pacing up and down in front of Dexter bawling the bejesus out of him, while Mrs. Franklin can be seen slumped in a chair, a tearful spectator.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN
Consolidated News Features
Well, George Bernard Shaw, the famous old playwright, who always seemed to be losing his temper, just celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday. My butcher told me about it.

My butcher said Shaw is a vegetarian. And that if you want to be 89 years old and smart, the way to do it is to live on carrots and rutabagas, and not come around pestering butchers for steaks and pot roasts.

Personally, I don't think much of Mr. Shaw's vegetarian theory. I always wanted George to be literary, so I once put him on a vegetable diet for three months and at the end of it he still couldn't write a line.

In fact, he's been kind of delicate ever since. I pointed out to George that Mr. Shaw spent his eighty-ninth birthday working. George said he didn't mind waiting until his eighty-ninth birthday to go to work.

The WRA (War Relocation Authority) officials have so often acted arbitrarily and without regard for local public opinion in their management of alien Japanese that their rulings are now generally under suspicion.—Ontario, Calif., Daily Report.

DEXTER: You? He was sore at me. He said he wanted to kill me.
CORLISS: I know.
DEXTER: Holy cow—I didn't do anything so terrible.
CORLISS looks at Dexter thoughtfully, wondering how to break to him the facts of the case.
CORLISS: (tentatively) Oh, kid, you know I'm not a cop, but Dexter, but—but—well, he seems to think you did.
DEXTER: Gee whiz, what'd you tell him?
CORLISS grabs Dexter by the arm and lowers her tone impressively.
CORLISS: Dexter, you've got to take an oath in blood not to breathe a word if I tell you the truth.
Promptly and solemnly Dexter raises his right hand.
DEXTER: I swear in blood, (running his hand over his chin) Look—there's blood on my chin—I just shaved.
CORLISS: (impressively) Well—Mildred is married.
DEXTER: (a deep of amazement) What? Married?
CORLISS: (peremptorily) Shhhhh!
She drags him just inside the garage where there is less chance of being overheard.
DEXTER: (subdued awe) Holy cow!

U. S. Government Must Now Define Delegate Powers

(Editor's note: The following questions and answer series on the United Nations is furnished by the American Association for the United Nations, and is published for the benefit of the reader. Questions will be received by American Association of the United Nations, Inc., at 45 East 55th Street, New York 21, N. Y.)

Q. What are the next steps, now that the Senate has ratified the Charter?

A. The United States must define the authority of our delegates on the Security Council, and also must negotiate an agreement with the United Nations stating what armed forces, assistance, and facilities we are going to place at the call of the Security Council to stop or prevent war.

Q. Does the Charter take away the right of Congress to declare war?

A. No. No international agreement could take away from Congress its constitutional right to declare war. It will be up to the American people to decide whether our delegate, on the Security Council is to have the power to vote the use of American armed forces in collective action with the consent of the Congress. But we must remember that this action under international law is police action, not war.

Q. What will the Economic and Social Council do?

A. Its job will be to promote better economic and social conditions.

LLOYD'S SIGN SHOP

It will deal with questions of standards of living, education, promotion of human rights—in fact with all kinds of problems in the social, economic and humanitarian fields. It cannot pass laws, but may draw up suggested legislation for the nations to act upon.

Q. How will the Economic and Social Council be set up?

A. Eighteen members, selected by the General Assembly, will serve on this council. It will make decisions by a majority vote. It will set up whatever commissions of experts it needs to carry out its work, such as a commission on human rights, one on health, etc. Also, it will work closely with the specialized United Nations agencies such as the Bank and Fund, set up at Bretton Woods, the Aviation Organization, UNRRA, etc.

Too Many Questions Waco Juror Decides

A juror in a Waco court trial "bored that impulsive" and startled lawyers so badly they skipped a couple of objections.

The trial was an eviction suit in a justice of the peace court. The plaintiff's lawyer, a juror decided, was doing more testifying than the witness.

There were continual objections, questions and answers from all directions.

Finally the juror, J. T. Kelly, spoke up.

"If you want me to try this case," he snapped, "ask the questions and let the witness answer."

The lawyer wanted the judge to declare a mistrial because of the remark, but the judge ruled that in justice court the jurors are judges of both the law and the evidence and therefore "entitled to demand a trial in an orderly manner and not be here all night."

"Things quieted down considerably after that."

Texas Senators Homeward Bound

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Senators Tom Connally and W. Lee O'Daniel are heading for Texas to make some speeches.

Both were packed today and plan to motor home soon after the Senate at winds up its affairs tomorrow and recesses until October. They will not travel together and their paths may not cross all summer.

Connally will address a delayed Jackson Day dinner at Austin, the date of which hasn't been set.

O'Daniel plans to go "to the big cities and out to the cross roads and tell the people all about this skull-duggery going on around here." He added that "things have improved a lot, thanks to a kind providence, but there is a lot of room for improvement."

"The house cleaning ought to extend into the legislative branch of the government."

O'Daniel said he would also discuss his suggestion that senators and representatives be limited to one six-year term and comment on his Bretton Woods agreement vote.

He and Sen. Burton Wheeler of Montana were the only two Democrats to vote against the agreement.

"I think Bretton Woods turns the American government over to the international money changers," O'Daniel said.

The senators still disagree on a successor to Clyde Eastus as federal attorney for the northern district of Texas.

Connally said, "I've recommended Ira Butler, a Fort Worth lawyer for the job, but Senator O'Daniel objects."

O'Daniel termed Butler "part of that same new deal crowd," adding he was opposed "to all of them."

Meanwhile, Rep. Luther A. Johnson prepared to leave Sunday by air for Europe to head the House foreign affairs subcommittee which will sit in on the United Nations rehabilitation and relief conference at London and then tour the continent.

Reps. Ewing Thompson of El Paso, Lyndon Johnson of Austin and Wright Patman of Texarkana expect to go home in a few days.

Small Industries Aid Council Is Formed

DALLAS, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Designed to aid industries seeking to locate in this area, the Dallas industrial research council was organized here yesterday at a gathering sponsored by the industrial department of the East Texas chamber of commerce.

Hubert M. Harrison, manager of the ETCC, said the rapid industrialization of East Texas called for a research group to serve as a clearing house for proposed projects.

Many eastern corporations have asked for detailed information regarding the extent of Texas forest resources, cattle, wool and mohair which might provide raw materials for Texas industries, Victor Schöffelmayr, agriculture-science editor of the Dallas News, said.

Railroad Commission Says Carbon Black Output Good

AUSTIN, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The Carbon Black production situation is greatly improved and completion of authorized plants will result in all output necessary for military and civilian purposes, chairman Olin Culberson of the railroad commission was notified Tuesday.

In response to an inquiry from the assistant director, bureau of the war production board said increasing production was due in large part to state commission making available more Panhandle gas for processing into carbon black.

The bureau through W. T. Twombly, its assistant director, sought to obtain more Panhandle sweet gas for carbon black production but the state commission refused on grounds state law prohibits the use of sweet gas for this purpose. The commission made more sour gas available for processing.

Twombly declared in a letter to Culberson:

"I realize that in my anxiety to get production started, I requested action that was impossible for you to take because of the laws under which you operate. I am grateful to you for the interest and support the commission has given in this program; one of the most important programs to the welfare of the nation."

Twombly said, additionally that channel black production in June, 1944, was at the rate of 383,000 pounds and that when all presently approved facilities are in operation the rate will be 676,204,000 pounds. Furnace black production in June, 1944, was at the annual rate of 330,948,000 and will increase to 778,250,000 pounds with completion of all authorized facilities. This makes a grand total carbon black production of 1,443,534,000 pounds annually.

He said that plants authorized last year are now practically completed and in operation and the supply of carbon black has greatly improved because of this situation and because of the end of the war in Europe.

Commenting on Twombly's letter, Culberson declared:

"It is a source of much gratification to the commission that its action in making available additional production of gas in the Panhandle has contributed largely to the easing of the shortage of carbon black for the war effort."

"It is to be hoped that the situation will continue to improve to the extent that this extraneous demand for gas and for carbon black shall

By DOUGLAS LARSEN

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—Changes in discharge appeals from a court martial are the subjects of the following questions:

Q. Early in the war my buddy was given a yellow discharge, which is dishonorable. I was never satisfied with the facts of the case as presented to the commanding officer at the time. He died last year and since then I think I have uncovered some evidence which would change his discharge to honorable. What should I do?

A. Present your evidence to the dead man's closest relative and suggest that that person ask the army for a review of the case on the basis of it. If the discharge was not a general court martial and if the United States government discharge was incorrectly given, his record will be cleared.

Q. The son of a neighbor of mine was sent to a federal prison recently for something he did while in the army. I know he is a good boy, really, and think something should be done to make the sentence less severe. What recourse does the family have?

A. A clemency board with the specific job of reviewing such cases as you mention has been set up. Under army regulations clemency action reducing the sentence must be approved by the under secretary of war. The board will recommend to the under secretary policies on the exercise of clemency during and after the war and will also examine individual cases.

Q. As a result of an accident when he was a baby my son has temporary spells of amnesia. He told the army this before he was inducted. But when he used to disappear from camp for a couple of days at a time he eventually got a dishonorable discharge. He can't go to college at government expense because of this. He is appealing his discharge and if it is changed can he come under the GI Bill of Rights?

A. Yes. If the discharge is changed to other than dishonorable.

Forging MKT Pay Vouchers Charged

DALLAS, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Charges of forging and distributing thousands of dollars worth of pay vouchers on the Missouri-Kansas-Texas Railroad Co. were filed yesterday by police against Earl J. Johnson.

Detective Will Fritz said Johnson was under arrest at New Orleans and had waived extradition. The vouchers were distributed in Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri and Florida, he added.

In Dallas alone 15 vouchers for a total of $2,846 were cashed, Fritz said.

BRITISH STRIKE

LONDON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The threat of a possible nationwide rail strike hung over Britain today after a weekend in which thousands of holiday travelers were stranded by a one-day walkout of more than 20,000 rail workers.

J. E. Binks, president of the National Union of Railwaymen, appealed to the workers to stay on the job during negotiations with the companies for minimum wages and hours.

Biggest User of Lend-Lease Is British Empire

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Official British sources here estimate the cost of carrying American troops back and forth across the Atlantic in British ships at $100 each.

It is reliably understood that this government estimates the cost of carrying British troops in American ships on the Atlantic at $75 each, or $25 less than the British estimate.

This American estimate is not official because the foreign economic administration (FEA) refuses to give an estimate which can be called official.

The number of British troops carried by us—is only a trickle when compared with the vast movement of American troops in Britain's big liners like the Queen Mary.

The official British sources here emphasize that their $100 figure is only a "memorandum entry in the records in London and has been kept merely as a record because the United States government asked that it be kept."

Lend-lease aid to our Allies in this war has taken many forms from services, like repairing damaged Allied ships, to goods like razor blades, pins, food, machine tools, ships, munitions.

Lend-lease aid has cost this country about 40 billion dollars, total, for goods and services. Britain has received the largest individual share.

Reverse lend-lease given by our Allies has taken many forms: fuel and repairs for our ships, buildings, airfields.

Reverse lend-lease given us totals about five billion dollars. By far the largest share came from Britain.

No one here will say what final settlements will be made on lend-lease aid given by us or reverse lend-lease received by us. It's not likely that any settlement will be in cash.

The estimated value we place on our lend-lease goods or services and the estimated value placed by our Allies on reverse lend-lease in goods and services may vary.

The higher the value we place on lend-lease, the wider the gap will appear in the history books between what we gave and what we received.

The higher the value placed by our Allies on reverse lend-lease, the narrower the gap in the history books between what we gave and what we received.

State Police Official Resigns at Fort Worth

FORT WORTH, Aug. 1.—(AP)—Capt. Lloyd E. Wyatt in charge of the Fort Worth division office of the Texas state police since March, 1943, announced today that he has resigned from the patrol, effective Aug. 1.

At the same time Col. Homer Garrison, director of the Texas department of public safety, told the Star-Telegram from Austin by telephone that Wyatt will be succeeded here by E. K. Browning of Hillsboro. Browning, former sergeant in the San Angelo office, has been promoted to captain and given the Fort Worth assignment.

Wyatt, a native of Stephenville, had been with the state police for 14 years. He gave "other employment" as his reason for resigning.

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Aug. 1.—(AP)—A squirrel had a gay time in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Groholl while they were at work. He pulled down curtains, knocked lamps over, marked the newly-cleaned walls and woodwork with dirty paws—and then took his beauty rest in the clean bed linen.

"At least," the Groholls commented ruefully, "he could have washed before he went to bed."

Yankees Beat Dave Ferriss Again As Stainback Stars

Cleveland Indians Move Into Fifth As Center Hurls Relief

By JACK HAND
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
Nobody can convince Dave Ferriss that the New York Yankees are just a shadow of the old murder's row and the rookie of the year has evidence to back up his case.

The spectacular Boston Red Sox freshman has lost only four games while winning 17 but three of his setbacks were at the hands of the New Yorkers.

When the discharged air force veteran broke into the league with eight straight triumphs, including a 5-0 shutout of the Yanks, the writers went scurrying for the record books to excavate matching deeds. But Joe McCarthy's clan put an end to the search by knocking him off the pedestal, 3-2, on a rainy Sunday afternoon in June.

Ferriss at the time shrugged off the loss as "one of those things," recalling he had lost games in the Piedmont league and he'd lose plenty more up in the big tent.

Next time the husky right-hander came up against the Yanks he was slugged off the hill, the only time he has been kayoed in 20 starts, and soundly thrashed, 14-4, by Walter Dubiel.

The prize rookie had lost only once since and Dubiel hadn't beaten a soul since that June 21 day until yesterday when they again clashed at Fenway park. Ferriss wasn't knocked out or even close but the New York team bombed him for 10 hits, four by Tucker Stainback, and edged him out in 10 innings, 4-2.

Hal Newhouser pulled up even with Ferriss at the 17-win pole by turning back the champion St. Louis Browns in 12 heats, 5-4. Jimmy Outlaw's single with the bases loaded scored the left-hander who had led off the third overtime inning with a single. The Bengals came from behind twice to trim Sig Jakucki.

Cleveland moved into fifth place by notching its seventh triumph in the last eight starts, noosing out Chicago, 6-5, in a night game. Superb relief chucking by Pete Center who picked up his fourth successive decision without defeat, lifted the Indians up past the White Sox in the league standings and within a game and a half of the first division.

Washington and Philadelphia were washed out of a two-night doubleheader after a Buddy Lewis celebration had been climaxed by presentation of a $500 war bond to the senators' star, back from four years of service in the air corps. They will play two tonight.

Boston's new manager, Del Bissonette, got his first taste of the troubles that caused Bob Coleman to resign as the Boston Braves sank to their 10th straight defeat by bowing to the New York Giants, 4-3, in the first game of a doubleheader. Relief pitcher Mort Cooper walked three men in a row to force in the tying run before Phil Weintraub broke it up. The nightcap threatened to be a similar story when the Giants rallied to tie in the ninth but the Braves snapped out of it with five in the 13th to grab a 9-4 even break.

St. Louis missed a chance to regain second place by losing to Cincinnati's Bucky Walters 2-0 in the second game after grabbing the opener, 4-3 as Al Jurisich pitched his first complete game and initial victory of the campaign. The nightcap was a repetition of the 1944 story when Walters beat the Cards six times, four by shutouts. He lost his two previous starts to the champs this year.

Brooklyn and the Phillies were scheduled to play a doubleheader and Pittsburgh and Chicago were not scheduled.

Foreign Affairs Group To Go Through Europe

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1.—(AP)—A house foreign affairs committee is scheduled to leave August 5 on a six-week tour of Europe.

Committee aides said today the group will go to London first to attend a conference on activities of United Nations relief and rehabilitation administration.

From there the subcommittee will visit France, Belgium, Holland, Germany, Italy and Greece. The members will study conditions in war-devastated areas to determine what is needed to help them rebuild.

The group was authorized by the house to make the tour.

Association Ruling Against Texas League May Be Reversed--Gardner

DALLAS, Aug. 1.—(AP)—One month from today Texas league club owners are due to meet in Dallas to plan reactivation after being out of baseball for three seasons. And at the same time, chances are considered fair that a recent ruling from the National Association of Baseball leagues barring the buying of players until the season opens will be reversed.

Six clubs are on the line as favoring resumption of operations in 1946 and the other two have not said either way.

President J. Alvin Gardner announced he had sent out a tentative call for a meeting in Dallas Sept. 1 and that if more than one day is required the session will be carried over into Sept. 2.

Clubs favoring resumption are Fort Worth, Dallas, Tulsa, Oklahoma City, Shreveport and Beaumont. Unheard from are Houston, owned by the St. Louis Cardinals, and San Antonio, operated by the St. Louis Browns.

Gardner said there already was a majority but that the two clubs that had not replied had offered no discouragement to a meeting. They simply have not expressed themselves and Gardner dismissed their negligence in replying to his correspondence as being due to immediately worry concerning big league clubs, which have not been faring as well as expected.

While no immediate action is expected, there still is a chance that the executive committee of the minor leagues will reconsider its ruling that presently suspended leagues will not be permitted to buy or sell players until they have actually resumed operations.

Gardner said Dr. E. M. Wilder, a member of the committee who is president of the class B South Atlantic league, which also is inoperative, had written him a letter in which he volunteered that after further study he is convinced that the decision was wrong and that the leagues which were forced to close up in the emergency should be given all possible assistance in returning to the active status.

He urged Gardner to continue his fight by taking the Texas league case to Commissioner A. B. Chandler.

Texas league clubs had protested the ruling on the ground that if they had to wait until the season opened to buy and sell players they would be unable to get men benefiting the league's classification of A-1.

Junior Gage Hurls His Second No-Hitter Of Season As Knights Beat Squadron B

Whiffing 11 batters, Junior Gage hurled his second no-hit game of the season last night as the Knights of Pythias romped over Squadron B 8-1 in the first game of a softball twin bill at Roadrunner park last night.

In the second contest, the Pampa Merchants won their fifth victory of the season when they knocked the Odd Fellows out of the undefeated ranks 6-3.

Gage was in control all the way but it was not until the sixth inning that his mates gave him much support. Bill Ridgeway stepped to the plate and hit one of Mathis' offerings for a home run with two men on, and Kenneth Grantham proceeded to do exactly the same thing. In all the K. P.'s scored seven runs in the sixth inning.

The lone Squadron B run came on an error and an overthrow.

With both teams playing erratic ball, the Merchants collected six runs off of four hits while their hurler was holding the Odd Fellows to three runs on three hits. Ell Parker of the Merchants and Leon Crain of the Odd Fellows had homers.

Tonight, three games are on the schedule, two of them at Roadrunner park and the other at the Magnolia diamond, all starting at 7 o'clock.

In the Roadrunner double bill, the PAAF Medics meet Skellytown in the first game and the Kimboys meet Phillips in the second contest.

The Pampa Merchants will tangle with the Junior Oilers in the single game at the Magnolia diamond. Ripley and Hill, the two Merchant hurlers, have both been transferred so Parker will move in from the outfield to pitch.

Today's Guest Star Bill Dooly, Philadelphia record—Larry McPhail was right when he said Clark Griffith wouldn't spend $100,000 for a ball player with the Queen Mary thrown in. However, to give the peso-pinching papa his dues, I think he would if they also threw in Standard Oil.

Cleaning The Cuff Phil Weintraub, Giant's first basemen, changed jeers to cheers in less than five minutes yesterday—his error in the top of the ninth in the first game let the Boston Braves take a 3 to 2 lead—his single with the bases full in the last of the ninth won the game—Wallace "Wah-Wah" Jones, who scored 2,398 points during his five years of high school basketball at Harlan, Ky., has decided to enter the University of Kentucky this fall—the new coach of the AAF training command football team, Major Doug Fessenden, ex-Montana, lives in Room 4-F in a Fort Worth hotel.

Sports Round-Up

By TED MEIER
Flash Hitting for Hugh Fullerton, Jr., NEW YORK, Aug. 1.—(AP)—The advice of baseball's new commissioner "Happy" Chandler—for players to stay away from all forms of gambling seems to have fallen on deaf ears—many big leaguers still enjoy an 8 day by going to a race track and betting a few bucks on some nag.

Close To The Rail Speaking of racing, reports from Garden State say radio broadcaster Ted Husing is making a cleanup on tips from jockeys—he had a $49,000 winner the other day as well as a $300 daily double.

Homer Durden Transferred!

PAMPA ARMY AIR FIELD, (Special)—Chances for the Pampa Army Air Field Flyers in the forthcoming Houston Post baseball tournament suffered a severe setback today with the announcement from PAAF headquarters that Homer Durden, spectacular Flyer third baseman and former Ellington field luminary, had been transferred to another station.

Despite a mere .247 batting average, the Flyer hot-corner guard-dian has driven out five home runs, six triples and a double to account for exactly half of his 24 hits. He provided most of the club's hitting power, and was considered a great "team" player.

Fielding, however, was Durden's stock in trade. His brilliant plays on foul flies and slow-rolling ground balls have caused considerable comment wherever the team has played.

Elmer, "Pap" Berry, who has been catching for the Flyers all season, will probably move out to third base as a result of Durden's transfer. Berry played third base in the Class D Evangeline League before entering the armed forces, and should provide a capable replacement.

Forty-four hours a week will be devoted to training, allowing one-half day off during the week.

• V-E Day started a lot of "new car" talk—but it will be many months, perhaps a year or more, before new cars will be obtainable by the general public. It will take a lot of time for factories to get into production, and the early cars will probably be rationed to essential users.

Akins, Negro Slayer, Sentenced to Chair
DALLAS, Aug. 1—(AP)—L. C. Akins, 30-year-old negro slayer of a Dallas policeman who gambled his life on an appeal to the supreme court, was formally sentenced today by Judge Winter King to die in the electric chair Sept. 7.

Akins told the court he believed "the Lord will hold you responsible for taking my life."

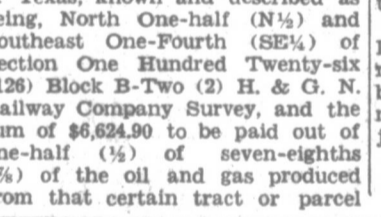

The negro previously had said he did not feel the evidence presented at his trial was sufficient to warrant the death penalty.

The negro was tried twice. His first trial resulted in a life prison term but an appeal finally went to the U. S. supreme court on the issue that there was no negro on the grand jury which indicted him and therefore there had been racial discrimination. The supreme court held with Akins and ordered his life term set aside.

As a result each grand jury in Dallas county since has had one negro member. Akins was reintituted by a grand jury having one negro member and at his second trial a jury assessed the death penalty.
