

U.N. Renews Intensity Of Air And Ground Fighting

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — The U. S. Fifth Air Force said United Nations pilots shot down three Communist jets and damaged two over North Korea today as clearing weather brought renewed intensity to the war.

The U. S. Eighth Army said bayonet-wielding allied infantrymen recaptured the crest of Old Baldy hill in a bloody eight-hour fight on the Western Front.

The Russian-made MIG-15 jets were shot down in the first all-jet battle since July 23. Planes from a flight of 32 U.S. Sabre jets battled elements of more than 80 MIG's for more than 10 minutes near the Korea-Manchuria border. Allied losses, if any, were not reported.

In Tokyo, Gen. G. P. Weyland, commanding general of the U.S. Far East Air Forces, announced the addition of about 75 sleek F84 Thunderjet fighters to U.N. air strength for action over Korea.

A monthly Air Force summary reported that the Communists lost 32 planes in July, the United Nations, 19.

Supported by fighter bombers and artillery fire, Allied doughboys stormed Old Baldy from two sides Thursday night. By dawn Friday they had forced an estimated 200 Chinese Reds down its muddy-sloped and immediately began digging in.

Recapture of the strategic outpost west of Chorwon marked the first intense ground fighting since last Saturday, the first of six days of heavy rain.

The surprise Allied pincer movement on Old Baldy came just 10 days after a Chinese battalion seized the barren crest. It followed the Thursday visit to the sector by Gen. James Van Fleet, U. S. Eighth Army commander.

Eighth Army headquarters said the crest was secured at 9 a. m. but Communist big guns sprayed U.N. positions for hours afterward and the Reds were reported bringing up reinforcements in the afternoon.

Associated Press Correspondent Mito Farneti reported from the front that Allied fighter bombers swooped in on Chinese positions all morning. A frontline officer said Chinese sniper and mortar fire hampered evacuation of Allied dead and wounded.

U. N. soldiers took advantage of the light from a half-moon to break the Reds' hold on the hill when they were the object of bitter fighting for a month.

To preserve the element of surprise, Allied big guns held their fire until the foot soldiers were clawing their way up the slippery slopes from two directions and striking.

One unit waded through waist-deep water in a swollen stream on its advance.

The two advancing parties were within 100 yard of joining when two Communist machine guns temporarily jammed. The Reds 12 jets shot down, one of them a gun and a recoilless rifle the other.

U. S. Fifth Air Force and day toll of the jet war.

Of the 19 Allied planes lost, the Air Force said two F86 Sabre fighters and 10 of other types were shot down, while one F86 and seven others failed to return from missions for unexplained reasons.

Gen. Weyland said the 474th Fighter-Bomber Wing — about 75 planes — has been shifted to Korea from Japan. It was relieved on Honshu by the 31st Fighter Escort Wing — the outfit which dramatically flew the Pacific from the U.S. last month.

Many of the 474 Wing's pilots had received Korean combat experience on temporary duty with other units.

OUTDOOR HOUSEKEEPING — Residents of ear quake-shaken Arvin, Calif., favor outdoor living until assured their homes are safe. Showers make up their beds on the front lawn of their homes as they move their living quarters to the outside. Mrs. Reed said, "I'm staying outside 'till the big one hits." Another after-shock of the big tremor which rocked the area 11 days ago awakened jittery Southern Californians again July 31.

Quiet Session . . . No Local Hike In County Tax

One of the quietest county boards of equalization in history wound up its work today without a single property valuation protest, county officials reported.

Although the county's total valuation may rise to a maximum of $40,000,000, local property owners face no valuation increase.

Tax officials reported the increase of the county's total valuation will come mostly from properties going on the tax rolls for the first time — many of them new additions and some never picked up before.

The oil roll may pick up around a million over last year, but that will be the result of equalizing plants that in the past were too low; others lowered because of declining production, old equipment etc, tax officials explained.

Totals on the county's overall valuation were not completed today but the tax department estimated the result would run from about $39,000,000 to $40,000,000 at the outside.

Meanwhile the county commissioners court — which also sits as the county board of equalization — swung into its regular first-of-the-month chores of approving bills, salaries and other routine business.

No Protests

County Judge Bruce Parker, wearing a big smile, said: "We haven't had one protest; it was the quietest board of equalization session in history. There raises and none are anticipated."

County Commissioner-elect Paul Bowers of Precinct 3, accompanied by Commissioner Fred Vanderburg, was getting his first eye view late this morning of what will be expected of him next year on monthly routine affairs of approving bills, payrolls and other operating functions. Earlier this week all of the potential future commissioners sat in as observers on the board of equalization.

Youth Is Freed On $1,000 Bond In Theft Of Auto

A 17-year-old youth is free on $1,000 bond today, having been arrested on a charge of automobile theft.

Two others, 15 and 17, have been released after questioning in connection with the theft.

Larry Beck, Scott St. was picked up at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday by Deputy Sheriff Buck Haggard on Hwy. 182, about 4 1/2 miles west of town. The other two boys were riding in the car with Beck.

One wheel of the vehicle, owned by Jimmy Honaker, Skellytown, had broken off, causing the car to spin around on the road and enabling Haggard to catch it. It was later established, according to the sheriff's office, that the trio had found a partly full bottle of liquor but that only Beck had driven off in the car. Beck had given the others a lift on the way back into town.

Acheson Takes Off For Honolulu Meet

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of State Dean Acheson took off today for Honolulu and a meeting with the foreign ministers of Australia and New Zealand to set up an organization for Pacific defense.

Acheson and a party of advisers and aides left aboard a Constellation aircraft chartered from the Military Air Transport Service.

Acheson said the main task of the three ministers will be "to work out the machinery of the treaty" which the three countries signed for their common security at San Francisco last fall. The meeting opens Monday.

The secretary described the treaty as "one more step in our continuing efforts to strengthen the peace in the Pacific and in the world."

He said the conversations of the foreign ministers would embrace "a thorough review of Pacific questions and other questions they wish to bring up" but that the principal intent will be "to lay a firm foundation for future work together on a cooperative basis."

The group includes Ambassador Arthur W. Radford, Pacific Fleet commander, and the assistant secretary of state for European and Far Eastern affairs, George W. Perkins and John M. Allison.

Final Preparations Underway For Rodeo Beginning Tuesday

Advance ticket sales, new entries in the cutting horse contest, the parade and cowgirl sponsor contest and the announcement of rules and regulations are all a part of final preparations for the Top o' Texas Rodeo to be in Pampa next week Tuesday through Saturday.

Newest entry in the parade is the Graham Possum Kingdom Roundup Riding Club featuring 28 members mounted on all-white horses. The club wears identical red-white and blue uniforms and sit in identical saddles. They carry the six flags of Texas and their organization's banners. A winner in many parades throughout Texas, this group promises to be a colorful addition to the Top o' Texas parade, according to George Dillman, parade marshal.

Parade Starts At 4 p.m.

The grand parade forms at 3:15 p.m. at West Foster and Hobart streets and moves out into Pampa streets at 4 p.m. Prizes will be given to winners in the ranch, civic club, band, commercial, riding club, comic, cowboy-cowgirl, and bicycle divisions.

No official entry is necessary for the parade; participants are asked just to be on hand.

Advance ticket sales are being made under the direction of Mrs. Frank Fata in rodeo headquarters. Mrs. Fata says the tickets are going fast, but plenty are still available.

Six contestants have registered. (See RODEO, Page 3)

Childress Rail Shops Expanded

CHILDRESS (AP) — The Fort Worth and Denver Railway's main shops here will be expanded at a cost of $350,000 to equip them for servicing diesel-electric locomotives.

The announcement was made today by George S. Robertson, superintendent of motive power for Burlington Lines in Texas, of which FW&D is a subsidiary.

Woman Says Mutilated Girl Her Daughter

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP) — An Oklahoma City woman today identified the "young girl" whose headless body was found near Yukon Wednesday as her 20-year-old daughter.

But police were openly skeptical.

Still, Mrs. Mabel Pennington, 52, insisted the victim of what officers termed an apparent revenge slaying was her daughter, Tillie Mae Pennington, who disappeared from her home Monday.

Found Near Creek

The dismembered body, with the head and hands cut off and the letters "R.A.T." carved on the stomach, was found in a creek bed near Yukon, 11 miles west of here.

The mother said leg scars made the identification positive.

Crime Bureau Chief O. K. Bivins was almost as certain she was wrong, pointing out a physician said the girl definitely was 13 or 14 years old.

"The description of Mrs. Pennington's daughter does not tally with that of the body," he said. "However, we will know more about it after a pathologist completes an examination today."

Had Young Son

The examination will determine whether the victim ever bore a child. Mrs. Pennington said her daughter has a 2-year-old son.

Mrs. Pennington admitted there were some marks on the body she did not recognize, but (See WOMAN, Page 3)

Solons Plan Airbase Tour

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Long (D-La.) and Sen. Morse (R-Ore.) plan to leave next Tuesday on a 25,000-mile tour of U.S. overseas airbases. Their goal is to find ways of saving the taxpayers millions of dollars on costs of foreign bases.

"I'm convinced from testimony taken by congressional committees that we are spending too much on some of these bases," Long told a reporter yesterday.

Long and Morse are members of a Senate preparedness subcommittee which criticized waste and extravagance in the construction of multi-million dollar air bases in North Africa and Greenland during the recent session of Congress. Long was chairman of a Senate subcommittee which handled the defense construction bill and got the Senate to cut nearly 700 million dollars from a three-billion dollar defense projects appropriation.

The two senators, with a small staff of experts, planned to be gone a month to six weeks with stops at Greenland, North Africa, Iceland, European bases and other locations still listed as top secret. Long said most of the trip would be made in military airplanes.

Kid Cowboys To Practice

Practice for the Kid Pony show which begins the annual Top o' Texas Rodeo in Pampa next Tuesday at 8 p.m. has been scheduled for 7:30 p.m. at the rodeo arena next Monday.

This is the only practice scheduled for participants in the show and all entries are urged to be present. Events to be practiced are the grand entry and riding in the arena to accustom horses to lights. Entries may practice individually in riding the barrels after the scheduled practice.

Deadline for entries in the Kid Pony Show is 2 p.m. Tuesday. All cowboys and cowgirls between the ages of 5 through 16 are eligible for entry. Registrations are made at rodeo headquarters in the city hall.

Group To Set Date For Chest X-Rays

Dates for a chest X-ray service in Pampa will be set at a meeting of the Gray County TB Association Friday, August 8, in the county court room.

The service, to be brought to Pampa through the county medical society, is to be discussed by a state official at the meeting. Representatives from all civic clubs, all association board members, and any interested person have been invited to attend the meeting.

Soviets Claim Wall Street Is Buying Votes

WASHINGTON (AP) — The word from Moscow is that Wall Street has taken over the "Tennessee political machine" and is putting up the money to buy governors, mayors and congressmen.

A Soviet version of Tennessee politics given in a Moscow radio broadcast recorded by United States official monitors said that Memphis Boss Ed Crump runs the whole show for the Mellons and Rockefeller.

Demagogic Lie

The description came from Vladimir Morev, a one-time Soviet news correspondent in the United States, who recently has been giving Russian's his version of conditions in various American cities and states.

Dismissing the idea of democracy in American politics as a "demagogic lie," the Russian writer gave this account of how the "machine" buys votes and then sees that they stay bought: "Money flows in a wide stream into the machine's coffers and into the pockets of its bosses from the funds of Rockefeller and Mellon monopolies, railway companies, and individual industrial magnates. With this money, votes are purchased which elect men needed by these monopolies such as governors, mayors, and congressmen."

Vote Right Or Else

"On election day in the town of . . . for instance, the local sheriff sits in the school in the room facing the polling booth. Before him is a pile of filled-out voting forms and another of dollar bills.

"The elector receives one of the former and several dollars and then goes across to the official polling booth where he is handed another, clean voting paper."

Demos Split On Ike, Stevenson . . . Byrd Still Rides Political Fence As Campaigns Gain

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. Harry F. Byrd of Virginia sat on the fence today as two of his southern colleagues pledged support to the Democratic party ticket of Gov. Adlai Stevenson and Sen. John J. Sparkman.

Sen. Russell B. Long of Louisiana told a reporter in Washington: "I like that ticket and I'm going to be for it."

But he said Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican candidate for president, stands a very good chance in several Southern states. He did not name the states.

Sen. A. Willis Robertson of Virginia came out with a statement that he will "vote the straight Democratic ticket next November."

But Byrd, the leader of the dominant Virginia Democratic organization, said crisply: "I will not at this time make a statement with respect to either presidential candidate. In the weeks ahead we may expect clarification of the views of both candidates on the many governmental issues which neither has yet discussed."

Gets Press Support

The touchy situation in the South was pointed up by the result of an Associated Press survey of nearly 100 newspapers in 11 Southern states. The survey showed that Eisenhower will have editorial support of more papers than ever before backed a Republican presidential candidate in Dixie.

At this early date in the campaign, 41 of the papers polled have endorsed the general or will do so. Twenty-two have come out for Stevenson. Others are undecided. In 1948, Truman had the support of 55 of the group polled. (See POLITICAL, Page 3)

Contract For Power Plant Is Awarded

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States, reporting ed submarines and aircraft, progress on atomic power-today launched a new project: development of giant atomic-powered warships.

The Atomic Energy Commission announced it had asked the Westinghouse Electric Company to develop an atomic engine capable of propelling "large vessels such as aircraft carriers."

This immediately revived speculation that atom-powered battle-wagons and giant commercial liners like the Queen Mary and the USS United States could easily make 100,000-mile cruises at top speed—and without refueling.

One Sub Assured

Such estimates are based on the fact that a pound of fissionable uranium or its titanic twin, plutonium, could generate as much power as 1,500 tons of coal or 200,000 gallons of fuel oil.

The fact that AEC awarded the contract for the large vesel atomic engine project to Westinghouse indicates it believes that at least one submarine engine project is definitely assured of success.

This appears likely because Westinghouse is building an atomic submarine engine at the AEC's land-locked site in Arco, Idaho, which is scheduled to be installed in the Navy's projected atomic submarine, the USS Nautilus.

Evidently the Navy, too, has no doubts that the engine will work, because the service has already laid the keel of the Nautilus.

Meanwhile, another projected atomic submarine engine is being built by General Electric at an AEC-owned site in West Milton, N.Y.

Sights Are Set

Presumably, the AEC and the Navy have their sights set on atomic-powered surface craft with speeds far above those of present craft.

Atomic-powered ships could not (See ATOMIC, Page 3)

Gunman' Parted From Shootin' Iron

A 15-year-old McLean youngster had a whole of a time the past few months — shooting his BB gun at assorted fruit jars and automobile tires.

But now the county juvenile officer has taken him to task.

The boy's parents thought they had solved the situation when they had hidden his shooting iron.

But they reckoned without the wily talent of youth — he found it.

H. A. Doggett ambled over to McLean Thursday to have a little chat with the juvenile. Tom Mix. And the report is that law and order have come finally to McLean.

Rodeo Dance Band To Perform Today

Pre-game ceremonies by the Kiwanis - sponsored baseball game at Oiler Park tonight will feature the official Top o' Texas Rodeo dance band.

Mounted rodeo directors members of the Pampa Rodeo Club will escort the band, Tom Allen and the Sunse' members. Recognition to all boys and girls participating in the Annual Kiwanis - sponsored Church Softball League will be given and trophies awarded during the ceremony.

Trophies are to be given to the best all-round participant in the program and to the first and second place winners in each division. Plaques are to be presented to the team in each class with the highest percentage in Sunday School classes this summer and gold miniature softballs will be given to the team with the highest number of sportsmanship points.

Friday's game is to be "Oiler Appreciation Night" and is to be played between the Pampa Oilers and the Lamar Oilers. Tickets are on sale now with members of the Kiwanis club.

Proceeds will go toward financing the annual softball program and other Kiwanis activities.

Feel Like You're In A Rut? Even Small Change Will Help

By HAL BOYLE
 NEW YORK (AP) — Are you one of the millions of Americans who feel themselves in a rut? Has life given you everything you yearned for: A wife, children, a job, a home in the suburbs, even a place to park your motor car—and still you feel dissatisfied? Then you are suffering from civilization's most widespread disease—to get what you want. There is only one cure, and that is to want something you don't have, and go after it.

Change Habits
 You have made a habit of following a routine. What you need now is to make change a habit, and turn your dull life topsy-turvy in a satisfying way.

To do this you don't have to run off with your stenographer, disinherit your children, halt your boss, set fire to your car or become a cup fighter. You can break the pattern of sameness in your life in small ways as well as big ways.

Here are a few suggestions on how to find fresh windows to adventure:

1. If you invariably start the day with a glass of orange juice, have a piece of watermelon for a change.
2. Comb your hair differently if you have any. Everyone will remark, "What's happened to you—you look young."
3. If you have been giving your wife a goodbye peck on the cheek each morning, kiss her full on the mouth. If she doesn't die of surprise, there will be a new sparkle in her eyes when you come home.

Give Wife A Break
 4. Tell your boy, "gee, son, kids have it a lot tougher today than they did when I was your age." This will give him a new respect for your judgment. He may even go out and cut the lawn.

5. If you have been riding on the left side of the bus every day, switch over to the right side. That will give you some fresh bus cards to read and ponder over.

6. Lunch at a new restaurant each noon. A man's stomach gets as weary of a rut as a man's mind. And you will get to admire more pretty waitresses.

7. Whenever you feel overborne at your melancholy lot, go visit the nearest church, cemetery, or slum section. Each will give a reason to quit your inner whining.

Something New
 8. At least once a week do something completely new. Walk a different way, swim in a different pool, read a different kind of book, or visit a different department store.

9. Take up a hobby you positively cannot afford. Many men simply can't afford not to be interested in trying to get something they cannot possibly ever buy. For them it is better to save up for a yacht than to buy a row-

Pick Right Defense If You Want To Win

By OSWALD JACOBY
 Written for NEA Service

What sort of defense should you adopt when you have four trumps against declarer? If you asked the hundreds of experts now gathered in Cincinnati to take part in the annual national championships, practically all of them would reply that your best bet is to lead a long suit in order to make declarer ruff in today's hand, played in last year's championship. West was misguided enough to pick the wrong defense. What's more, he also made the mistake of doubling an unbeatable contract. The combination of the two mistakes gave declarer a top score.

If West had opened the king of hearts, he could have held declarer to four spades. This would have been no great bargain for East and West, inasmuch as West had doubled the game contract.

Nevertheless, this was the best defense, and would at least have prevented declarer from making the overtrick.

When the hand was actually played West opened his singleton diamond, a poor choice. South won in his own hand with the ace of diamonds and led a low trump towards dummy. West ducked, hoping his partner had a high trump, but dummy won with the jack.

Declarer now took two more rounds of trumps with the ace of hearts and the king of clubs. Nothing destroys most people like achievement.

10. Find the person who dislikes you most, and no matter how ignorant and worthless he is, force him against his will to get to like you. This can be more fun than anything, and, of course, after he does get to like you, then you can tell him to go to Hades if you want to. But you probably won't.

If a man does these things he may not necessarily escape his rut, but he'll be enjoying himself so much he will no longer remember he is even in it.

Chemical To Fight Bind Weed Arrives In Local Office

Arrival of 40,000 pounds of sodium chlorate for the control of bind weed in the area was announced today by County Agent Foster Whaley.

Russ Lash Envoy For Criticizing Posters

MOSCOW (AP) — Pravda bitterly attacked U. S. Ambassador George Kennan — without mentioning his name — for protesting against a Soviet poster picturing Russian planes chasing American aircraft.

In a lengthy editorial by its leading political writer, Y. Viktorov, the Communist party newspaper also accused a long list of American political leaders and U. S. magazines and newspapers of "war mongering."

The poster, displayed in Moscow in connection with Soviet Aviation Day last Sunday, referred to clashes between U. S. and Soviet planes in April, 1950, in the Baltic area, in November, 1951, in the Balkans, and the same month in the Far East.

The Air Force statistics appeared to explode the theory that the recent flurry of saucers was caused by the heat. The peak of sightings over the years seemed to hit at no particular season or month.

At least the figures showed the saucer business is booming in 1952.

The largest number of sightings of any month since the saucers were first reported in 1947 came in July of this year—a total of 114, just three above June.

Meanwhile, the Coast Guard said it planned to make public today what it described as a photograph supposedly showing five mystery objects—round and white with fuzzy edges in flight over Salem, Mass. Air Force information said the photo was taken the last week by a Coast Guardsman.

Black Plants Shut Down Today

One Pampa channel-black plant and part of another in the area shut down operations today, according to the Cabot Companies.

Plants affected are the Bowers plant, owned by Texas Elf Carbon Co., and one-half of the Mills plant, owned by Cabot Carbon Co. Approximately 50 workers, 44 at Bowers and six at Kingsmill, have been transferred to other positions in the Cabot company.

The Bowers plant is eight miles south of Pampa. The Mills plant lies four miles west of town. Both plants have been in operation since 1928.

Reason for the shut-down, according to Hugh Burdette, Cabot general manager, is the reduced demand in the industry for this type of carbon black.

said these could have been placed there by the slayer.

She said her daughter had left home before, but always returned in a few days. She could offer no reason why anyone would want to harm her.

Meanwhile, state, city and county officers continued to check missing persons files and examine meager evidence found near the body.

Comparative Quiet Expected To Reign At Conventions

Comparative quiet is expected to reign tomorrow morning as both Democrats and Republicans meet in county conventions in the Courthouse at the same time.

The open warfare in both parties, that raged during the presidential conventions, may still smolder in the minds of some precinct delegates, but both the defeated Taft forces and the half-winning, but minor liberal Democratic group, will be next to powerless.

The conventions tomorrow will deal chiefly with party organizations for the next two years and party policies on the state level.

Several resolutions, one of them dealing with presidential preference primaries, is to be introduced by at least one precinct mandate, at the Democratic convention in the district court room.

Rapstine Rites Slated Saturday In White Deer

Last rites for Emil E. Rapstine, 58, a prominent Carson County farmer, will be read in the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in White Deer Saturday at 9 a.m. Father Frederick Hyland, pastor, will officiate.

Mr. Rapstine died Thursday after a 13-day illness with heart trouble. He had been a resident of Carson County for 25 years and he and his family were making their home south of White Deer since their home was destroyed in the White Deer tornado a year ago.

He is survived by his wife, Eunice; two sons, Herbert of Abernathy, and Wilfred, White Deer; two daughters, Mrs. Emilene Smith, Laramie, Wyo., and Christine, White Deer; his mother, Mrs. Mary Rapstine, White Deer; and his brothers, Henry of Pampa, and John and Ben, White Deer.

Five sisters, Mrs. Regina Saunders, and Mrs. Theresa Click, both of Pampa, Mrs. Jewell Rouse, White Deer, Mrs. Mary Anderwald, Tulsa, and Mrs. Lillie Hughes, Amarillo, and Mrs. Lillie Duenkel-Carmichael, Pampa, will be present.

The body was to arrive at the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral home at 3 p.m. today to lie in state until 8 a.m. Saturday when it will be taken to the White Deer church before the funeral service.

Pallbearers are to be Leo Bischoff, F. L. Heiduk, Tommy Anderson, Dallas Wyatt, Sam Kotara and J. P. Brown.

Interment will be in the Sacred Heart Cemetery in White Deer. A second rosary service will be recited in the family home today at 8 p.m.

Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Pampa Youngsters Give Lions Program

Members of the Pampa Lions Club are still talking today about the piano artistry of two young Pampans who played for them.

Guests at Thursday's meeting were Gale Howard, 11, daughter of Mrs. Frank G. Howard, 1527 Coffee, and Mary Lynn Miller, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Ray Miller, 1100 Charles.

Each girl played a classical duet number with her teacher, Bill Haley. One number in particular, "A Shestakovitch piece" — aroused mixed reaction because of its dissonant sounds. Haley also played several selections on his accordion.

Boss Lion Joe Donaldson repeated last week's attempt to get lumber and sheet metal were needed for construction of a cotton candy concession stand to be run by Boy Scouts at the Top of Texas Rodeo.

A letter was read from a recent Pampa draftee, thanking the Lions Club for the cartons of cigars that had been given to them when they were inducted into the Army.

Rosie Ann Hulsey Rites Saturday

Funeral services for Mrs. Rosie Ann Hulsey, 76, are scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday in the Central Baptist Church with Rev. M. O. Hill and Rev. O. C. Curtis officiating.

Mrs. Hulsey died Thursday in Highland General Hospital where she had been a patient for two weeks. She was born December 11, 1875, in Bokosh, Okla., and moved to Pampa from Holdenville, Okla., 23 years ago.

She lived at 1313 E. Frederic at the time of her death.

Survivors include eight daughters, Mrs. Lillie Wright, Fort Smith, Ark., Mrs. Ida Young, Amarillo, Mrs. Abbie Cain, Holdenville, Mrs. Grace Reynolds, Konowa, Okla., Mrs. Ruby Epperley, Borger, Mrs. Edith Tackett, Shawnee, and Mrs. Clemie Tackett and Mrs. Lucille Attaway, both of Pampa.

Three sons, Jesse and Charles Hulsey, both of Pampa, and Bill, Hereford; one brother Ben Parker, Oilton, Okla.; 30 grandchildren and 25 great-grandchildren.

Burial will be in Fairview Cemetery by the side of her husband, J. W. Hulsey who died January 6, 1947. Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

OLDEST TOWN CLERK

MARATHON, N. Y. (AP) — Charles A. Brooks, clerk of this upstate New York town for 38 years, celebrates his 96th birthday today. He may be the oldest town clerk in the United States.

Republican Thomas E. Dewey 24 and the State Rights candidate Strom Thurmond 22.

Another development in Virginia saw Effrell Clarke, a lifelong Democrat, resign as chairman of the Halifax County Democratic Committee and endorse Eisenhower. He said Stevenson has "embraced Trumanism to the extent that I can't support him."

Nixon Attacks Demos

Sen. Richard M. Nixon the GOP vice presidential candidate, hit the same chord in a speech at the Ohio Republican Convention in Columbus, O., last night.

He said Stevenson and Sparkman would continue President Truman's policies if elected. He attacked Stevenson as the "captive candidate" of Truman, Jacob Kroll (CIO Political Action Committee head), Jacob Arvey (Illinois Democratic national committeeman) and big city bosses.

Nixon pictured Eisenhower as a "down-to-earth, honest-to-goodness American" who will clean up corruption, clean out Communists and lead America to a prosperity built on peace rather than war.

Nixon left Ohio immediately after his speech to attend a series of high-level strategy conferences beginning today at the Eisenhower headquarters in Denver.

Hoffman Aids Ike

Paul G. Hoffman, one of the Eisenhower leaders, told a news conference in Denver that the general must and can get strong support from independent voters and disgruntled Democrats to win in November. He said Eisenhower's hopes of cutting federal spending by 40 billion dollars a year can be achieved when peace is restored.

City Court Fines Two

Four persons went before Corporation Judge Cliff Braly today. Two paid fines, two were dismissed and one posted bond.

Ruddy E. Nivore, Pampa, paid $2 for running a stop sign. Edward T. Adkins, 416 Elm, paid $7 for having no operator's license and running a stop sign.

Dismissed from court were Tom C. O'Bryan, Canadian, and W.E. Wilson, Virginia Hotel.

Five new entries have been announced in the Cowgirl Sponsor Contest. They are Mary Lou Carver, Crosbyton, Shirley Jones,

Youths Must Pay Now To See The Picture

Two youngsters, about 19, will have to pay from now on to see the show at the Pampa Drive In Theater. And they'll be pretty careful about knocking over any more fire hydrants.

According to the county juvenile officer, Billy Brown, E. Francis, and C. J. Olson, Albert, have made it a practice recently to climb over the fence, grab a speaker and see the show. But about a week ago they knocked over a hydrant, damaging it $50.00 worth.

They have been caught and have agreed to pay $30 of the damages to the co-managers of the theater, Ollie Wilhelm and Paul West.

No further action is contemplated.

Two Auto Victims Said Satisfactory

Two Pampa youngsters injured here recently in automobile accidents are well on the road to recovery.

Sara Nan White, 18 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. White, 337 Canadian, is "doing better," according to hospital authorities, after suffering a crushed chest and shock in an accident Wednesday night at Canadian and Beryl.

Garold Allen Bromlow, 6, son of Jack Bromlow, 532 N. Wynne, has been dismissed from the hospital after suffering bruises and head lacerations in an accident Wednesday near the N. Duncan bridge.

Clovis-Dominated North All-Stars Made Heavy Favorites To Win WT-NM Classic Tomorrow

CLOVIS (AP) — The North, heavily dominated by eight members of the runaway Clovis Pioneers, probably will be installed as solid favorite to interrupt the reign of the South in the annual West Texas — and New Mexico League All-Star classic here Saturday night.

The southern Rebels have a stranglehold on the series thus far in the postwar era with five triumphs in six starts, but that monopoly is expected to be snapped Saturday night when the Yankees bring their big stage guns into action at Pioneers' Bell Park.

The lone North triumph came in 1949 at Albuquerque when the Yanks bombarded the Rebs, 15-2, in the most lopsided outcome of the colorful series. Last year the Rebels routed the North, 16-1, in a wild and woolly fracas at Berger.

The South also was victorious in 1946, 5-4; at Lubbock, in 1947, 10-8; at Amarillo, in 1948, 3-6; at Abilene, in 1950, 6-0, at Pampa.

The all-star festival comes to Clovis for the first time in the city's history and a 3,000-plus audience is expected — weather permitting.

The North team, guided by Grover Seitz of Clovis, will be at full strength, with one exception. Third baseman Johnny Bruza of Amarillo will be absent because of an emergency summons from his home in New York. His mother is seriously ill and Bruza has left the Amarillo team.

Line Changes

Winston Havenstrite of Clovis has been named to replace Bruza at third.

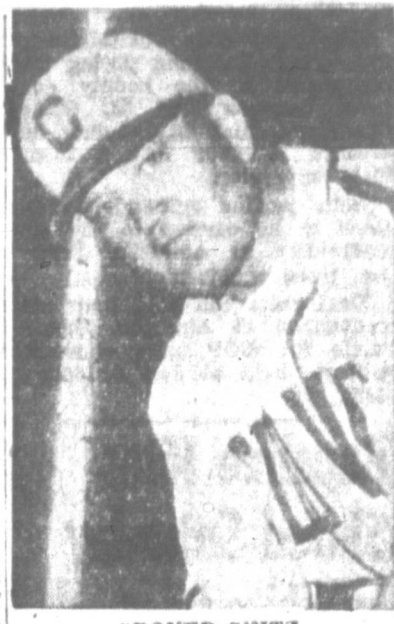

The South also has one last-minute substitution. Bill Metzger of Lubbock replaces Jackie Sullivan of Lamesa at second base because the latter suffered an injury this week which prevents him from participating.

Both Havenstrite and Metzger were picked by President Ray Winkler because they were acid in total votes at their respective positions.

Starting hurlers have not been officially announced but it is expected that Jesse Priest of Albuquerque will open for the North and Otto Nicholas of Abilene for the South.

All eight umpires will be employed in the contest, President Winkler reports.

Game time will be 8 p.m. (MST). Pre-game ceremonies will begin at 7:45. Winkler said. All-star rings will be presented to each player and the managers during the ceremonies at home plate.

Oiler Rally In Ninth Falls Short; Dukes Sweep Series

The Oilers snapped out of their batting slump a bit too late last night to do any good. They rallied for three runs in the last out of the ninth against the Albuquerque Dukes, but it wasn't enough to overcome the deficit and the Dukes took a 5-4 victory, and a sweep of the series.

Tonight the Oilers will open a three-game stand with the Lamesa Lobos at 8:15. It is Oiler Appreciation Night, sponsored by the Kiwanis club, and a full program of extra activity is scheduled. Mel Nee, newcomer righthander who lost a 1-0 decision to the Lobos last Monday, is slated for duty against Del Smith for the Lobos.

The three Oiler pitchers only allowed two earned runs among them, but their teammates couldn't produce the hits at the necessary time early enough in the game, leaving 12 runners stranded. That was equal to the number of men who went down on strikes as De Carolis had the boys waving and guessing.

The Dukes scored first with the pair of unearned runs in the third. De Carolis and Santiazo walked to open the inning but De Carolis was picked off second. Moore to Brown for the first out. Simpson rolled to Sudol for the second out and then Sudol threw into leftfield trying to nail Santiago at second, the speedy Puerto Rican moving to third. Marilyn Burries sent a hot smash at Hal Hayes near second, but Hayes let it through his legs, Santiago scoring through the box scoring Phillips. But Norm Auerbach skied to Santiago in right centerfield to end the game.

The futility of the Oiler attack was evidenced in the seventh inning when Votaw walked to open the inning, went to third on Hayes' double, and both runners stayed there while Woldt, Lewis and Phillips were easy outs. De Carolis notched one strikeout in every inning except the third and the last, striking through the box scoring Phillips. But Norm Auerbach skied to Santiago in right centerfield to end the game.

The slim righthander sailed along until the seventh when two hits, a leadoff single by Santiago and a double by Burleson sandwiched around an error on Simpson's roller by Hayes, and followed by a long fly by Abbott led to two more runs. The final Duke tally came in the eighth when Folkman stole home while Votaw was winding up. He had singled and moved to third on a single by De Carolis. Pampa's only action until the ninth was in the third when a walk, a fielder's choice, a single by Lewis and a long fly by Phil-

Olympic Stage Is Quiet As Windup Slated Saturday

HELSINKI (AP) — A trio of curvaceous California girls and an 18-year-old Hawaiian miss played the leading roles in the Olympic games today.

Six Mittmen Left On American Squad

HELSINKI (AP) — The jaw of Russia's fabulous heavyweight was made of china instead of pig iron, so America's big Ed Sanders meets an angular South African carpenter tonight in the feature semi-final bout of the Olympic boxing tournament.

Sanders, 220-pound Negro giant from Los Angeles, led a contingent of five Americans into the next-to-last round last night by chilling Giacomo Disenigni of Italy in the third round.

Feverish Olympic ring fans had expected the sleep-dealing American next to catch the pride of the Soviet, Aljgiras Schockias.

But Schockias, a 25-year-old southpaw with a sporty punch, was knocked out by South Africa's Alfred Nieman, in the major shocker of the tournament.

A lean lefthander with the kick of a mule, Nieman levelled the mighty, 29-pound Russian with a left to the chin in the opening round. Some 7,000 fans in the Mezzuhalle went wild.

America's other survivors were light heavyweight Norvel Lee, 25, of Washington, D. C.; middleweight Floyd Patterson of Brooklyn, N. Y.; light welterweight Charles Adkins, 20, of Gary, Ind.; and flyweight Nate Brooks, 18, of Cleveland.

Patterson and Lee also scored knockouts.

In the semi-finals Brooks meets Willie Towel of South Africa, brother of world bantamweight champion Vic Towel; Adkins takes on Italy's Bruno Vintin; Patterson faces Sweden's Stig Sjolin, and Lee opposes Finland's Harry Siljander.

Mrs. Patricia McCormick of Long Beach, Calif., winner of the springboard diving title two days ago; Paula Jean Myers, a 17-year-old from Covina, Calif., and Mrs. Juno Stover Irwin of Los Angeles, played 1-2-3 after four qualifying dives in the women's platform diving competition.

Evelyn Kawamoto of Honolulu won her semi-final heat in the women's 400-meter freestyle swim to lead two of the three Americans into the finals.

Quiet Day

Except for these two women's events, things were rather quiet as Olympic stage was set for tomorrow's big windup program. And, for once, there weren't any broken records.

Miss Kawamoto, who broke the Olympic women's 400-meter swim record in her trial heat yesterday, took the semi-final in the ordinary time of 5:21.2, besting Hungary's Eva Novak. Valeria Gyenge of Hungary took the other semi-final in 5:19.3.

Carolyn Green of Fort Lauderdale, Florida, placed second behind Miss Gyenge in 5:18.5 to qualify for the final. The eight fastest times qualified. Deliana Meulenkamp of Mill Valley, Calif., who was made a U.S. citizen by a special act of Congress just in time to compete in the Olympics, was left on the starting block when the gun went off and came in sixth.

In the platform diving competition, Mrs. McCormick scored 42.25 points for the four dives, putting her far ahead of Miss Myers, with 44.22 and Mrs. Irwin with 43.60. Two Russian girls were among the first eight.

Point Lead

The early douing had no effect on the unofficial but torrid duel between Russia and the United States for the top place in overall point scoring — a matter not recognized by Olympic officials.

It was Russia by 52 1/2 to 46 1/2 this morning with no events that count for medals — and points — scheduled until after noon.

Russia's water polo team beat Spain, 4-3, in a lopsided half final game. The U.S. has qualified for the four-man final bracket.

Two Pampa Golfers Left In Colorado Meet; Abbott Wins

Pioneers, Hubs, Lobos In Wins

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Clovis Pioneers paid no attention to a 7-run jag by the Abilene Blue Sox last night and went on to win a West Texas-New Mexico League game 13-8, from Pampa 5-4 in a three-game series sweep, Lubbock edged Amarillo 4-3, and Lamesa beat Berger 12-7.

To top off their victory, Clovis, the league leaders, brought in six runs of their own in the ninth after reducing Abilene's lead to one runner. Clovis banged Ed Otho Nicholas, Abilene pitcher-manager, for 15 hits, including two homers by Cliff Pemberton and Jim Matthews.

Pampa staged a rally in the ninth, but it stopped too soon, and Albuquerque claimed the victory. Frank De Carolis got in trouble in the final frame, and Jesse Priest had to relieve him to save the winners. Priest snuffed the Pampa rally with solid defensive help from fielder Pedro Santiago.

Lubbock waited until the ninth to edge Amarillo. Ed Kenna's double with two out sent Choo Choo Rejon in from second for the tie-breaker. Amarillo collected all its counters in the third when it led 3-1. After the third, Lubbock settled down to pitch his ninth victory.

It wasn't until the fourth frame that Lamesa got started. But then it scored seven counters and went on to beat Berger. The victors were paced by Joe Fortin whose booming bat accounted for four hits in six attempts. In the 12th, fourth Lamesa scored its seven runs on four hits, two bases on balls and five Berger errors.

Recreation Kids Play In Amarillo

In the biggest effort of the summer recreational program, four boys softball teams will go to Amarillo tonight to play teams from the Maverick Club.

The Midgets, PeeWees, Juniors and Intermediates in the program are the four teams going. They are coached by Otto Mangold, Penal Scoggins, Wayne Tripp and Weldon Trice. They will play at 6 p.m.

On Aug. 15 they are going to host to four teams from the Amarillo Kids, Inc., organization. The games will be played at Kiwanis Park at 6:30.

Twenty Years Ago—Eddie Tolan set a new Olympic record for the 100 meters and tied the world's record with 10.3 seconds.

Partnership Meet On In Amarillo

AMARILLO (AP) — Some of the hottest amateur golfers in Texas teed off today in the first annual Amarillo Invitational Partnership Tournament.

Approximately 75 two-man teams were competing.

It's expected a team score of 144—even par—or better will be needed to make the 16-team championship flight.

Most of the tournament's big names arrived yesterday in time for a practice round.

Tommy Hale, Border Conference champion from Hardin-Simmons University fired a four-under-par 68 over the Ross Rogers layout. His tournament partner, John Farquhar, an Amarillo High School student, teared the course with a par 72 to give their team an impressive 140 score.

Other leading contenders including Bobby Maxwell, the young brother of U. S. Amateur King Billy Maxwell, Bobby's a regular parbuster himself.

Bobby's partner was Bobby

OUR TOWN

by Wanda Campbell

Three Pampa girls are among the graduates of the University of Oklahoma School of Nursing who will be honored at special exercises Sunday in Oklahoma City. Monday they will be at Owen Stadium in Norman for commencement. The girls, Jo Dee Harden Burger, Betty McCracken, and June Marrow, were graduated from Pampa High school together. Jo Dee was a member of the band, and was active in other musical groups, including the Rhythm Queens Trio. She has been busy during her senior year. She has served as senior class president and also secured a homemaker's responsibilities when she became Mrs. Dave Burger. Her husband is stationed in Oklahoma City and she and the other girls will take their state boards in October, and until then, Joe Dee plans to work in the Newborn Nursery in the University Hospital. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W.R. Harden. June Marrow is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Marrow, plans to come back to Pampa where she will work until time for the state examination. Betty, who was secretary of the Oklahoma school's senior class, plans to work in the department of surgery in the University Hospital. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.M. McCracken. In view of the great demand for nurses, Pampa is proud to boast three graduate nurses from one high school class. And we're glad to have one "back home."

RUTH MILLETT

If you want your husband to be proud to introduce you as his wife don't make any of these mistakes:

Cutting into your own clothes budget, so that you can spend more on the children's clothes or more on the house. That kind of self-sacrifice too often results in a woman's staying at home because she hasn't the right clothes to go out. It doesn't make either her children or her husband feel prouder of her.

Being slipshod about your grooming. The week you decide not to bother with a shampoo will likely turn out to be one of those weeks when you wish for one reason or another, that you had been looking your best.

Giving the people your husband introduces to you a kind of calculating once-over. The woman who does that stirs up antagonism and never fits in easily with her acquaintances.

Acting bossy. Even if you know you are going to be late to an appointment don't try to drag your husband away when he struggles to introduce you to his friends, and starts a conversation you know he hasn't time for. No man is proud of a bossy wife.

Being a wet blanket. Be positive, not negative in your attitude when you are talking with newly-made acquaintances.

Kidding yourself that you haven't time to read the newspapers and keep up with what is going on in the world and your own community. No man wants his wife to appear to be a dumb bunny when he introduces her to people who want to talk about

MATURE PARENT

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
A reader tells me I have failed to show proper respect for the Victorian idea that children should be "seen and not heard." She writes: "In those days, children were better behaved, more polite and much happier than boys and girls today."

Better behaved, more polite maybe. But much happier? How do we know? I certainly don't. However, I do know that I have just finished reading a biography of one Victorian child who, though well behaved and polite, seemed to be about as miserable as anyone can get.

If anyone was kind to her, she developed such an intense "crush" on him that she fell sick with excitement. During adolescence, she spent much time in sessions with a secret diary, scribbling down all her terrified, furiously resentful feelings about her family.

As she grew into womanhood, she felt a power for greatness in herself, but since any exploration of it produced fainting fits in her mother and sister, she allowed herself to be seen and never heard by anyone who could possibly object to what she heard.

"Fear of insanity developed. She fell into 'trances,' had hallucinations. In her diary, she wrote, 'I see nothing desirable but death.'"

She was Florence Nightingale, that star in the Victorian firmament, England's heroine of the Crimean War. She didn't do nearly so well for herself as we have supposed. She rallied enough confidence in herself to come through in her country's emergency and visit Queen Victoria—but when the capains and the kings went home, she lapsed into a chronic, quill-ridden invalidism.

An awful lot of Victorian ladies spent their lives in negligence, it seems to me.

Let's not make a habit of romanticizing the past, the "good old days" when we didn't have to find answers for Johnny—because he didn't dare ask any. It's probably reaction to our own recent experience with "never stop them" school of disciplining.

We're quite right to have lost patience with scolds who told us to give Johnny freedom before he'd earned it. But just because we were thrown off balance by one foolish idea, we don't want to go swinging off on the pendulum of another one.

Total control is as dangerous as none at all, and parents who dominate or are dominated by children create equal havoc. The job is to teach Johnny the responsible use of freedom—and we just can't afford to be distracted from it again by promoters of anyman or bim or for us.

Cecilia Woodham-Smith's biography of Florence Nightingale makes for pretty interesting thought. It scores one up for us who want children's anger out in the open, not hidden away, distilling poison drop by drop in lonely monologues with hidden ill-will.

When I finished reading it, I felt pretty proud of the moral courage of this generation, which seeks to know when, why and how anger is aroused in a child so that we can obey the ancient counsel, "Fathers, provoke not your children to wrath."

The suggestion that we are entitled to children's honor without earning it accounts for more family conflict and sorrow than any we suffer from.

We have set our hearts, we modern parents, to the job of deserving the honor of our children. It is the grandest job any generation of mothers and fathers ever undertook.

something besides children and household matters.

Low-rating your husband. If you want your husband to take pride in saying "This is my wife," treat him in such a way that it is quite evident you take pride in being his wife.

Grace Friend:

Dear Mrs. Friend:
I am an old woman in my late seventies. I have a large family of children and grandchildren as well as a few great grandchildren but I do not have to make my home with any of them.

I have a small income which is ample for my needs and I live alone in a small town.

Now this is perhaps a silly thing to write about but I do feel I ought to discuss it with someone and I hate to mention it to my friends.

As I told you I have enough money for my needs but from time to time my two daughters give me checks for extras which I find most welcome.

Calvary Baptist Class Has Business Meeting

The Calvary Baptist Church Ladies Matrons Sunday School Class met in the home of Mrs. J. P. McClure this week for its monthly social and business meeting.

Mrs. R. F. Marlar opened the meeting with prayer, and Mrs. C. E. Humphries gave the devotional.

After a short business meeting, gifts were exchanged. Mrs. A. C. Brown closed the meeting with prayer.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. J. C. Largent, Brown, Robert, McGahen, Humphries, Marlar, W. A. Baten, McGahen, and Andrew Fisher.

GLASS OF SHERRY

Recently one of my girls came by the house just before dinner and she found me having a glass of sherry before my dinner. You would have thought she had caught me dead drunk she became so enraged. She told me that I was disgracing the family and that I should be ashamed to drink the wine.

I told her that I had never drunk while raising my family but now that my duty to it was finished, I did enjoy a glass of wine before my dinner and that I intended to continue. I pointed out that she has cocktails and she said that that was different because she is of a different generation.

She said that she certainly wasn't going to give me any more checks if I spent them on wine. I said all right to forget them if she wanted to.

DAUGHTERS SHOCKED

She told my other daughter who seems upset too as if I had been discovered in some horrible sin. Fortunately my son feels that I can do as I please.

I hate to have my family upset over me and I have been wondering if it is so wrong for me to have a little sherry before my dinner.

Will you tell me if I am behaving badly?

Grandma Smith

Dear Grandma Smith

Probably you have always set such high standards for your children that it is a little hard for them to realize that you are human after all. I expect that they have had you on a pedestal and have felt that you are above ordinary human frailties.

I am sure that the shock of finding that you are enjoying a glass of sherry before dinner will soon wear off and they will be able to accept the fact with better grace.

HELPFUL STIMULANT

Many physicians feel that a glass of sherry before dinner is a helpful stimulant for elderly people. I can't see what harm he can do you if you limit the amount you drink.

It seems that it should be something you should decide for yourself without your children's advice. The thing I can't understand is why they never knew before that you took sherry before dinner. I hope that you weren't hiding the fact from them because you feared their criticism. As an adult you should have the privilege of deciding for yourself what you eat and drink and having made what you consider the right choice, you shouldn't hide your decision from your family.

Wood Furniture Deserves Good Care

Wood furniture deserves the best of care, for with proper attention the finish will grow even more beautiful with age as it develops a mellow richness with depth of color.

Vermishe's or lacquered furniture should be dusted frequently with a soft lint free dust cloth. It is essential that the dust cloth be soft since all dust contains a certain amount of abrasive grit which will scratch the finish.

In addition to dusting the finish, it is necessary periodically to use a furniture polish in order to retain the proper luster and to remove greasy deposits. The greasy deposits consist of finger prints, coal dust, and where the heating medium is oil, a very appreciable oily deposit.

Valley Rounds Up 5,000 Mexican Aliens

McALLEN (AP) — More than 5,000 Mexican aliens were rounded up in this vicinity during the last two days.

Most of the aliens were illegal entrants into the U. S. About 2,500 were taken into custody yesterday and about 2,962 were rounded up Wednesday.

All the wetbacks, illegal aliens, were to be returned to Mexico.

"Summer Is Sandwich Time"

offers an excellent excuse for an easy party. Make some new fillings and have variety of breads on hand. Then let guests make their own sandwiches.

For salad filling a delicious old standby is egg salad. Another bowl can contain chicken Waldorf — a wonderful combination of chicken, apples and nuts. The third bowl is filled with "pretty as a picture" shredded cheese with pimiento pieces.

As a base for these spreads you might choose white bread, whole wheat bread and rye bread. Enriched white bread is a nutritious sandwich container. It has three essential B-vitamins, food iron and protein. When combined with these salads, it takes on main dish proportions, nutritionally. Whole wheat bread contains about the same nutrients. Just be sure the label reads "100 per cent" whole wheat.

CHEESE PIMIENTO

- 1 cup shredded nippy cheese
- 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento
- 2 tablespoons salad dressing

CHICKEN WALDORF

- 1 cup diced chicken
- 1-2 cup chopped celery
- 1-2 cup chopped apple
- 1-4 cup chopped nuts

EGG SALAD

- 2 teaspoons prepared mustard
- Dash paprika
- 2 tablespoons mayonnaise
- 4 hard cooked eggs, diced
- 2 tablespoons chopped celery
- 1 tablespoon chopped sweet pickle

Proper Planning Insures Good Rest

By ALICE HART
NEA Beauty Editor

So you hate to get up in the morning—especially after a hot sleepless night. Well, since you have little choice in the matter, here are a few bedtime pointers which may make the prospect of arising a little pleasanter.

First, be sure you have a good, comfortable bed. A mattress that is full of lumps and bumps can get anywhere from a bad night's rest to a bad headache. Your mattress and springs should be level and resilient so that you can completely relax in any position.

Summer temperatures being what they are, it is a good idea to keep your bed linen as fresh white as possible. When you make your bed each morning, pull the linen taut so that not a wrinkle is visible.

Just before you are ready to get into bed, sprinkle the sheets with a fragrant cooling dusting powder. If you can stand a pillow, touch a few drops of cologne to the case.

It is wise, too, to place a bowl of ice cubes on a table next to the bed. Pour some witch hazel over the cubes and keep a large white handkerchief in the bowl. Then, until you fall asleep, apply the handkerchief to your forehead, and see how refreshed it makes you feel. Should you wake up in the middle of the night, the cubes of course will have melted, but the remaining liquid is bound to be cooling.

And as further encouragement to get you up and out of bed when the alarm rings, think of that delicious shower just waiting for you. Can you possibly resist such temptation?

School Heads Favor Surplus Food Program

AUSTIN (AP) — Texas school superintendents and their boards have voted overwhelming approval — 788 to 39 — of the use of federal surplus foods in their lunch programs.

With this approval from a questionnaire still coming in, that was the vote registered by State Education Commissioner J. J. Edgar.

He polled 284 county and 986 independent school district superintendents to get their reaction on whether Texas should try to bring on its share of government surplus commodities.

Ike's Big Asset

The first thing General Eisenhower did after witnessing his victory on TV was to call on Senator Taft. The significance of this goes beyond the gracious gesture factor. For, if there is to be a Republican victory next November, it is clear that there must be far more unity within the party than exists now.

Senator Taft made the generous response that was expected of him, by saying he would do everything in his power to help the GOP candidate win, and to help him afterwards as President. No one doubts that Taft will do exactly this, to the limit of his very great capabilities.

His anger, it is true, is not directed so much at Eisenhower as it is at those who managed his campaign and fought to a victorious conclusion without giving or asking quarter — notably, Governor Dewey. Many think Eisenhower could not have beaten Taft without the enormously skillful work of Dewey and the Dewey lieutenants from New York.

Now what are some of the inequities that are being visited on the children of the third and fourth generations due to the inequity or wrong done to the parents? Believing in and practicing that the state or its agents has a right to attempt to relieve parents from their moral obligation of educating and training their children.

It may be that one of the major Republican assets is, in a sense, a negative one. In informed party circles, there is none of the blind confidence that characterized the 1948 campaign and led to the debacle. And there is every reason, despite the great personal appeal of Eisenhower, why this should be the case.

Eisenhower's success at Chicago was, in a large measure, based on the thought that he alone of the possible candidates could lift, inspire, and gain the confidence and support of the masses of voters. The reason for this was well expressed in a Wall Street Journal editorial: "Many Americans have thought of Mr. Eisenhower as their President because he seems to express and embody that for which their hearts hunger."

That, very likely, is Candidate Eisenhower's greatest single asset.

Prelude To Socialism

Since there is always the danger that we may wake up some fine morning to find the Bureau of Reclamation setting up shop in Gray County and taking control of our economy, it is well that we keep aware of what this colossus is doing elsewhere.

An editorial in Fortune magazine describes how Federal bureaus and officials are trying to force socialism down the throats of people who don't want it — and do want to develop local resources through local enterprise. Fortune says:

"The governor of Idaho, all four of its congressmen, the state chamber of commerce, and well over a hundred other organizations in Idaho have now gone on record against the proposed dam at Hell's Canyon. Since the dam's construction would throw over $350 million of Federal funds into the state, it seems reasonable to inquire what has brought about this recalcitrance. Considering the past relationship between the Mountain States and the Bureau of Reclamation we have here what looks like, if not treason, at least mutiny."

The recalcitrance looks a lot less unnatural when you get a good whiff of what Oscar Chapman's bureau is up to. No one questions the desirability of raising the region's power potential. But Idahoans apparently feel no objection to allowing the privately operated Idaho Power Co. to do the job. As a matter of fact, Idaho Power wants to. It has more than tripled its generating capacity since 1945, is now up to 375,000 kilowatts and has not been caught short yet. Until the Bureau of Reclamation came along, the company had planned to build five low-head dams on the Snake River, which, it says, would develop just about as much power as the big Hell's Canyon project, and which, moreover, would pay taxes. (Federal dams, of course, do not.) Idaho Power could finish its five-dam project in less than three years; the Federal government plans to take about ten years to get its one mammoth completed. The Federal power would mostly be exported to the West Coast, which Idahoans naturally find rather galling. But what really has them enraged is the fact that, if it gets its way, Interior will not only build at a site that would squeeze out Idaho Power from its planned expansion but ultimately force the state to lean much more heavily on public power."

In other words, the Hell's Canyon scheme is part of the drive to create a political electric-power monopoly in this country, regardless of the cost to the groaning taxpayers — and regardless of the fact that it would a prelude to national socialism on the bankrupt British model.

The Iniquity of the Fathers Visited on the Third and Fourth Generations

Evidently most people do not believe this commandment of bowing down or serving false gods and that doing so will result in the wrong doing or iniquity or sins of the fathers being visited on the children of the third and fourth generations. It is because we have been doing it for so many years that we are reaping the iniquities and trouble that we are having.

Of course there are many forms of false gods or iniquities. In modern times it is not the worshiping of physical idols; it is invariably worshipping and being loyal to one's own will rather than God's will. Certainly one of the ways of paying homage to false gods is putting the desire for personal or collective power above the desire to obey the Commandments and the Golden Rule. Probably coveting is the iniquity that gets us into the most trouble as far as our collective action is concerned. Any act that violates the Golden Rule is a form of paying homage to or worshiping false gods.

I can think of no greater iniquity for any individual than to teach his children to worship man rather than God. To teach children that men in groups have a moral right to use — compulsion to make the parents of children permit the group to train the children in a manner different from what the parents desire their children to be taught is a most serious iniquity.

When European currency was devalued, Samuel F. Pratt Associates was virtually wiped out. It was then that the prolific mind of Sam Pratt went to work with renewed ingenuity.

The belief in collective bargaining or totalitarian bargaining, as practiced by labor unions and recommended by both the Republican and Democratic parties and the National Council of Churches of Christ in America and the Catholic church, is another iniquity.

War is the result of the iniquity of believing in teaching that might makes right and that the end justifies the means and that there are no eternal principles that govern human relations.

Immigration laws are another example of the iniquity that comes from worshipping the false god that might makes right and that the end justifies the means.

We have just suffered probably a half billion dollars' worth of loss because of believing in the iniquity or sin of the closed shop or the union shop.

Zoning laws are a result of the iniquity of believing that the individual has no moral right and the majority has a right to take away from an individual his right to use his best judgment in developing his property so long as he does not directly injure another.

Another form of iniquity resulting from worshipping the state is the belief that the state can issue money that has no real value in itself. The result is the iniquity of ever increasing prices for money and the robbery of good people who sacrificed in order that their loved ones might be taken care of and that they themselves would not be charged on society when they became unproductive.

Using words that fool the public is a form of iniquity resulting from worshipping false gods. As an example of this both Republicans like the Earl of Warren and the Democrats are contending that initiating force to take from one to give to another is not a form of socialism, but is social progress. It makes no difference what we call an iniquitous act.

Success Secrets

"Where do you come from?" That's the searching question Sam Pratt, head of a once thriving export business in New Rochelle, New York, asked himself.

He remembered from his earlier life in England incidents which then had seemed comparatively unimportant. He recalled seeing his children play with an unusual kind of toy, a set of miniature rubber building blocks... each unit of which was equipped with individual locking devices to make structures the youngsters might build hold together. Better yet, he remembered the whole family's delight to find the blocks were noiseless, did not mar the furniture and could be washed and sterilized easily.

So bothered were the back-room strategists in "appeasing" Dixie that they had to team Governor Stevenson of Illinois with a man from that section — Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama.

Neither member of this Illinois-Alabama axis combination has any special knowledge or experience in handling such Western life-and-death problems as water power, irrigation, reclamation and conservation generally.

On the other hand, the GOP named Senator Richard M. Nixon, a native Californian, for second place. Many Democratic leaders urged the selection of Oscar Chapman, Secretary of Interior, or Sen. Warren G. Magnuson of Washington, to offset the GOP's bid for Western support.

National Whirligig. Democrats Forced To Neglect Far West To 'Appease' South

By RAY TUCKER

WASHINGTON — Although Southern Democrats scored no decisive or permanent victory at Chicago, save for eventual elimination of Harry S. Truman from the national stage, their fighting and filibustering tactics forced the selection of a presidential slate which may not appeal to the electorally important states of the Far West. It causes White House concern.

So bothered were the back-room strategists in "appeasing" Dixie that they had to team Governor Stevenson of Illinois with a man from that section — Sen. John J. Sparkman of Alabama.

PRICE — The Southern threat also forced the Democrats to frame a public power development plank that surpasses any of the federally controlled projects of the Roosevelt - Norris era. It envisages sweeping bureaucratic domination of all the nation's water resources — a development which has proved increasingly unpopular in Congress, in the courts and with the local communities brought under remote Washington management. It can alienate votes. But this neglect of the West was the price the Democrats felt they had to pay to repel an Eisenhower invasion of the unhappy and disgruntled South. If the GOP takes advantage of this opening in what has been Roosevelt - Truman territory in the last five elections, it may turn out to be excessive price on November 4.

SPARKMAN — Although Senator Sparkman is an able and delightful gentleman, as well as a rattling campaigner, post-convention autopsies raise the question of whether he was the strongest Southerner that could have been chosen. He was favored by Stevenson in order to spike Kefauver's "equivocation" on the subject.

Both hope to win back these blocs by firm endorsement of the platform, which proposes federal action if states do not solve the problem within a "reasonable" period. Sparkman also supported many measures opposed by labor.

OPPORTUNIST — Women delegates pulled out tiny handkerchiefs to dry their tears when Estes Kefauver was trampled in the convention pushing and hauling, and the Tennessee is still a relatively young man. But he heighs, as did at Chicago, when he led on two ballots. His manners are too unorthodox. In television and press interviews, he charged again and again that a few "backroom bosses" were denying the people's will and choice. Himself. He included the nominee, Stevenson, in this barrage. He indicted Sam Rayburn for "steam-rolling" in favor of Stevenson. Yet he refused to join with the Harriman - Moody - Roosevelt conspirators to block Stevenson.

Then, at the last moment, he tried to interrupt the roll call to throw his delegates to Stevenson, hoping to win second place thereby. Every time he opened his mouth or turned around, he revealed himself as an utter opportunist.

GAIN — Southern conservatives and party moderates from all sections may have achieved a major gain at Chicago — indeed, their most far-reaching triumph of all — but it will not pay off unless Stevenson is elected in November.

The selfish, senseless, party-wrecking tactics of the Roosevelt-Harriman-Kefauver - Moody clique about weaken, if not destroy, their influence with a "Stevenson Administration." Not alone because they fought him

Fair Enough. Constitution Doesn't Provide For Direct Primary Elections

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1952, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

CHICAGO — I am in debt to Thomas James Norton, a constitutional lawyer and an expert on the true meaning and the distortions of our Constitution, for a vigorous reminder of the original and only authentic method of electing President.

Mr. Norton is the author of three noted works on the Constitution. The first, "The Constitution of the United States," written in 1922, has had a circulation of 500,000 copies.

His second, "Losing Liberty Judicially," an examination of "prohibitory and kindred laws," came out in 1928.

Americans, our Constitution does not provide for direct election or nomination of presidents. On the contrary, the men who designed the Constitution realized that the people could not be trusted to resist appeals to their anger, their selfishness and other passions and did all they could to keep the people's hands off the system of electing presidents. So they provided that the states, acting as states, rather than the people of the states, voting as individuals, should select the persons, to be elected by electors, who would then elect the presidents.

The disgusting carnivals in Chicago, manipulated by scheming, unscrupulous men, have no true constitutional basis and certainly the eventual result of this process, next November, cannot be construed as a constitutional election of a president.

GOD'S FIRST TEMPLES

Truly Could be the Trees.
"I think that I shall never see, A poem lovely as a Tree." Surely the inspired poet said it all. Though it be whispered through the stately pine, or murmured by the dwarfed oak of the windy plains... God eternally speaks to us. Beneath their reclining boughs or among their rugged trunks, God directs the affairs of His world through the ministry of His servants. Attend His Temples of Worship.

Russians Depend On Livestock

MOSCOW (AP)—Most Russian families own livestock of their own.

While the growth of urban population in the USSR in the last three decades has been tremendous, the majority of Soviet families still live in rural or suburban surroundings where they have a plot of land for vegetable gardens and orchards—and for livestock. This is true not only of the collective farmers, but also of the majority of other families both in rural areas and in semi-urbanized territory.

In such circumstances almost all families keep their own chickens. Fed with scraps from the kitchen, and allowed to fend for themselves about the yard during the day to feed on what they find, they are an economical way of furnishing eggs and poultry meat for the family.

Most families in addition keep at least one milk goat, easy to care for. During the summer it can be pastured in the yard or on vacant small plots of grass land. During the winter it can be supported on relatively small amounts of hay and other fodder. One goat will keep a family supplied with milk. In addition it bears a new kid a year which usually fattens during the summer and in the autumn is slaughtered to replenish the family meat supply.

Most families also keep a pig. In the spring a piglet is purchased. It fattens during the summer and fall and is slaughtered when the weather is cold enough to assure preservation of the meat.

As a disadvantage in the business of livestock ownership are the apartment dwellers in cities and towns. However, the government has devised a means by which they also can share in the benefits of small-scale livestock clubs. These provide collective ownership livestock, the members furnish a share of the capital, take on themselves a share of the work involved and share in the results when slaughtering is carried out, or in the constant production of milk and eggs.

He's Gonna Dodge Her!
Woman Reader Jumps Hank
And Gives Him A Goal In Life

By HENRY McEMORE
MEXICO CITY

Until today, when some mail from my office caught up with me, I didn't really have a definite goal in life.

But I have one now, brothers. My goal is to stay as far away as I can from a lady named Isabelle Clark Swozy. I don't know Miss Swozy but I hope that if I ever run across her she'll be wearing a red taffeta sandwich board with her name on it, a hat decorated with three bald eagles, and be carrying a purple parasol.

This will enable me to recognize her and get the you-know-what out of her way.

Her letter to me was a duplicate of ones she had sent to the advertising manager and city editor of the San Francisco Examiner, putting an atom bomb blast on me and a column I wrote months ago, and in which I treated graphology with a little less respect than is usually accorded biology, geology or botany.

If I had words to spare I would give everything that is on her letterhead, but I'll have to skip such things as Vocational Guidance, Child Guidance, Marital and Congeniality Reports, and Individual Reports, and simply tell you that Sis Swozy is a member of the American Graphological Society, a Psychological Handwriting Analyst, and Advanced Graphologist, and a Certified Grapho-Analyst.

I can't help wondering whether or not Sis Swozy likes Grapho Marx.

To reinforce her argument that any man, woman, or child who does not embrace graphology as a shipwrecked sailor would a chunk of driftwood has several buttons missing from his mental overcoat, Sis Swozy lists a roughest gallery of believers.

A Ph. D. attacked graphology and went to San Quentin for bnding and gagging hotel clerks. A University dean and a psychologist got the handcuffs put on them for evil offenses. A high school principal who did not regularly attend graphology services went to the hoose-gow for embezzlement, and another Ph. D. turned out to be a second-story worker.

"I do not know that Mr. McEmore belongs to any of these types, but he has laid himself open to suspicion of it," Sis Swozy writes, "because it does not seem possible anyone with intelligence enough to write even a miserable column could be so ignorant."

Let me put dear Miss Swozy's mind at rest.

I am all of the types mentioned above.

I have been in San Quentin so often that the management has been kind enough to reserve an outside suite for me during those days when I am out on parole in order to tend to my embezzling business. I have credit cards at Sing Sing, Leavenworth, and Alcatraz.

The head waiter at Alcatraz always gives me a choice seat in the dining room, and the band strikes up "Here Comes That Ol' Second Story Man" when I enter the night club at Danzmorea.

Miss Swozy's letter was typewritten, but she added a postscript in her own hand. I studied it and have made the following analysis:

She likes onions but they don't like her. She is always losing earrings and would like to have her ears pierced but is afraid to. She used stuffed alligators with bulbs in their mouths for lamps, is a whiz at making calf's-foot jelly, likes Beethoven and Johnny Ray, can't samba worth a darn, dotes on double features, and plays basketball wearing blue serge bloomers.

Of course, I could be wrong.

Bagworm Controls Sought

Calls on the control of bag worms on shade trees and shrubs in the area have swamped the office of County Agent Foster Whaley during the past three or four weeks and Whaley has offered information on the appearance and control of the worms.

Worms may be recognized from the bag they spin around themselves after hatching late in spring. Bits of foliage are added to the bag and carried by the worm for protection against birds.

In early fall the male worm changes to a black-winged moth and flies and the female deposits her eggs in the bag and crawls out to die.

Suggestions for the control of these worms include a thorough clean-up of the bags during the winter by hand picking and burning. This method is one of the best to use when infestations are first starting, Whaley said.

However, after general infestation has spread throughout a neighborhood, the most effective control is spraying.

At this season of the year, Whaley recommends eight table-spoons of lead arsenate to one gallon of water or eight pounds of arsenate to 100 gallons of water for effective control.

HORIZONTAL ORBITS
If we stood at either of the earth's poles, we would see no rising or setting of the stars; they would travel around the sky in horizontal circles.

Three-Power Representatives Hope To Put Muscle In Pact

HONOLULU (AP)—Putting military muscle into the Australia-New Zealand-United States Defense Pact is the big aim of the Anzus conference opening here Monday.

A permanent Anzus Defense Council is expected to be organized. Its job would be to weigh available forces against potential emergencies.

There is evidence also the United States delegation, headed by Secretary of State Dean Acheson, may lay some ground work for an eventual single Pacific organization to include Japan, the Philippines and other Pacific countries.

The United States has separate pacts also with the Philippines and Japan.

DUE SATURDAY
Acheson, Richard G. Casey, Australia's minister for external affairs, and T. Clifton Webb, New Zealand's foreign minister, are due here Saturday.

Australia's delegation includes Sir Frederick Shedden, defense minister; Col. R. G. Pollard and K. W. Major of the defense department.

Air Vice Marshal F. R. W. Scherger, Australia's joint service staff representative in Washington, also will attend with Sir Percy Spender, Australian ambassador to the United States.

W. T. Gentry of the New Zealand army will attend with Foreign Minister Webb.

The State Department has not announced the American military representatives. Adm. Arthur W. Radford, Pacific Fleet Commander, is the conference host.

The United States' separate defense agreements with Japan, the Philippines, Australia and New Zealand link awkwardly with the United States as the common partner.

A senate foreign relations committee said "The implication is that the treaty with Australia and New Zealand and the other security treaties are but the first step in the creation of a more effective security system for the Pacific."

It appears the United States is sending Acheson, its top ranking diplomat, to impress on Australia and New Zealand American concern for Pacific security.

It seems logical Acheson will be working on a long-range goal.
