Segregation Confronting Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — Confronted by legal controversies of far-reaching importance, the Supreme Court reassembles today to start another historic term.

The eight-month session is expected to produce a ruling on the old and burning issue of segregation in public schools. Negro parents in two appeals have asked the tribunal to strike down segregation as an unconstitutional "badge of inferiority."

A decision also is sought for in one major phase of the hot issue of public vs. private bus development. The court has agreed to rule whether private industry on the federal government should build a big hydroelectric plant at Iroquois Rapids, N. C.

In appeals filed during the summer recess, the court has been asked to grant hearings on these issues:

Conviction of Julius Rosenberg and his wife on charges of being atom spies. It denied a hearing, only President Truman can save them from execution in New York's Sing Sing prison.

The right of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad and other Southern lines to require segregation of Negro and white passengers in coaches.

Constitutionality of the new federal law requiring gamblers to buy a $50 tax stamp.

Validity of the new Federal Lobbying Act, which was intended to regulate persons and organizations seeking to influence congressional legislation.

The right of Dr. Edward A. Rumely to deny to Congress the names of purchasers of books put out by his Committee for Constitutional Government.

Indications point to busy months ahead for the nine justices. Already approximately 600 cases have been docketed and more are arriving daily. The total represents about a 30 per cent increase over the same time last year.

By long tradition, Monday opening sessions are mere formalities. The court will admit attorneys to practice, hear a few routine motions, and then adjourn for a week.

During the week the justices will hold closed-door conferences to discuss the appeals filed during their vacation time. Their decisions on which cases will be reviewed will be announced the following Monday.

IT'S A "NAPKIN" — Trudy Shuman demonstrates how useful table napkins can be between meals as she displays her novel sun suit at a Las Vegas, Nev., resort. Her "napkin," unlike the Bikini, is great as long as she stays out of the water.

Cool Weather Blankets Area, But No Rain

Texas' first real cool spell of the fall blew into the Gulf of Mexico today, the weather bureau reports, after kicking up dust in the Plains and tossing off a few disappointing rain drops.

But Pampans early today would take issue with that it was still cold.

Last week the mercury here had meandered between a high of 90 (Wednesday) to a low of 50 (Thursday). In Pampa Sunday, however, the temperature reached a high on only 61 degrees. Early this morning it had dropped to an even 40.

The week end's northern failed to make its mark as a genuine cold snap. The Associated Press said, the forecast had called for the first freezing weather of the season early today, but the lowest reading available was 36 degrees in Dalhart high in the Panhandle.

Northerly winds of 20 to 30 miles an hour had puffed dust into the air, reducing visibility at Big Spring and Childress to four miles. But the few rain clouds that were kicked up were not in these parts. No rain here for the past two weeks.

Bitter Tirade At U.S. Opens Russ Congress

Ward System Bitterness Simmers Down

Pre-election bitterness over the proposal to abolish the ward system of electing city commissioners vanished today as quickly as it sprang up with both sides urging dropping of animosities and working "for a better Pampa."

The city charter amendment election held Saturday to abolish electing city commissioners by wards and place them on an at-large basis was defeated 1,200-1,000.

Frank Carter, one of the leading opponents to the change said:

"I am well pleased with the result. I only hope we can forget any animosities brought about by the campaign and all work together for a better town."

City Commissioner Crawford Atkinson who publicly stated he believed in the at-large system told a reporter, "the voters have made their decision, and we will all have to work together to make the ward system work."

Mayor C. A. Huff, who also came out for the at-large system said he still believes the at-large system is better and added the majority had voiced its opinion of the change.

However, the mayor showed disappointment in the total number of votes cast — less than 60 percent of the eligible voters turning out to the polls.

Mitchell Hill, one of the amendment's opponents said:

"I think we should all drop it and pull together for a better Pampa. It can be done with all sides pulling together and work just like the Marines — fight for a better Pampa on land, sea and air."

REST BEFORE BATTLE — Somewhere in Korea, exhausted infantrymen of the Puerto Rican 65th Infantry Regiment snatch a brief rest before they resume the bitter fighting in an effort to retake Kelly Hill from the Communists. Too tired to seek comfort, the soldiers dropped in the most convenient place.

Premier Stalin Remaining In Background

MOSCOW (AP) — Georgi M. Malenkov opened the 19th All-Soviet Party Congress last night with an hours-long denunciation of the United States and its "bosses," who he said were bent on world domination and war with the Soviet Union.

Keynoting the first such party congress in 15 years, the leading member of the Soviet Union's ruling Politburo charged the United States is driving the capitalist world toward economic breakdown and war, while the Soviet Union seeks only peace and is growing ever stronger and more prosperous.

Joseph Stalin and an audience of 2,000 delegates in the Kremlin's great hall heard Malenkov as he charged the "bosses" of the United States had decided to "wreck the peace and prepare a new war" against the Soviet Union, the "chief opponent of a new war and the chief pillar of peace."

The Soviet Union, Malenkov continued, is "unwaveringly carrying out a policy of peace cooperation with all countries," but he warned that because of "threats of new aggression from the side of the Western warmongers, it is strengthening and will strengthen its defense capabilities."

Malenkov's long speech was made public first on a broadcast early today by Tass, the Soviet news agency. Non-Communist reporters are not attending the Congress sessions.

The keynote address, delivered in the past by Stalin himself, presumably laid the basis for policies to be approved by the Congress.

Malenkov is generally regarded as Stalin's most likely successor. Also on the agenda of the Congress sessions, expected to last a week, are approval of the new five-year plan launched 15 months ago for vast increases in industrial and agricultural production, and major changes in the party's organization, including replacement of the Politburo and Organization Bureau (Orgburo) by a Presidium.

Malenkov's bitter charges against the United States were preceded by similar accusations from another Politburo member, former Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, who denounced U. S. "tailing circles" for creating "aggression" (See BITTER, Page 8)

Marines Fight Futile Battle For Hilltop

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — U. S. Marines fought through six bloody hours of Chinese Communist artillery and machine-gun fire today in a futile effort to recapture an important hill position on Korea's Western Front.

Leathernecks of the 7th Marine Regiment slugged their way close to the crest of the low outpost hill, but the Reds held fast. Chinese troops captured the hill Friday.

Most of the action along the 155-mile battlefield last night and today centered on the sensitive Western Front. Patrol clashes were reported from the eastern end of the line.

Carrier-based Navy warplanes teamed up with U. S. Fifth Air Force fighter-bombers yesterday and unloaded tons of bombs, rockets and napalm on a sprawling Red supply dump at Hoeyang, south of Wonsan on North Korea's East Coast.

Pampa-Amarillo Tickets On Sale

Reserved seat tickets for the Pampa-Amarillo game at Amarillo Stadium Friday night are on sale at the School Business Office.

Roy McMillen, school business manager, said that Pampa has been allotted 1,400 adult reserved seats and about 2,000 kids tickets. All adult tickets are between the 40-yard lines.

Tickets sell for $1.50 each for the adult and 30 cents for kids. The business office, located in the City Hall, is open from 8:30 a.m. until 5 p.m. each day.

Truman-Eisenhower Feuding Promises To Take Spotlight

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

President Truman asserted today that the Republican Party appears unable to "see or understand what it takes to meet the menace of Communist aggression and subversion."

This came during the President's whistle stop tour eastward through Utah. The President hit anew at the GOP and its presidential candidate, Dwight D. Eisenhower, while Gov. Adlai Stevenson prepared to shift his emphasis and theme and all signs indicated a rip-roaring Truman-Eisenhower feud developing.

The Democrats, Truman said at a Provo, Utah, can take credit for the United Nations, the Marshall Plan, the North Atlantic Treaty, the Japanese Peace Treaty and the Point Four program of assistance to retarded areas.

"We had a lot of Republican help on these programs for a while," Truman said. "But we also had a lot of Republican opposition."

"If the Republican opposition had prevailed, I have no doubt that France and Italy and almost all of Western Europe would be under Communist yoke today."

Stevenson's week-end stumbling in Ohio, Iowa and Minnesota was geared in the meantime to the premise that a Democratic victory would mean continued prosperity. Today the Democratic presidential nominee turned to drafting a major address on the menace of communism.

From using deft jabs to poke verbally at Republicans and GOP presidential nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower, Stevenson apparently has switched to power punches.

At St. Paul Saturday he named names and even called a few.

Eisenhower, completing his first cross-country drive, opened his bid for Washington's nine electoral votes with a speech scheduled for Spokane, the general has scrapped his "no personalities" tactics and aides look for him to rip into President Truman from now on as he did Saturday in Fargo, N. D.

At Fargo, Eisenhower said Truman, in his whistle-stop speech there earlier, had fired "salvo after salvo of hot air at me." The general said they were "noisy but harmless blanks" he didn't mind because he had been shot at by "real artillery."

It appeared Eisenhower may aim his heaviest fire at Truman rather than at Stevenson, thus focusing campaign attention on the President.

Six Attack Mt. Everest

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Six Swiss mountain climbers toiled up the bleak slopes of unconquered Mt. Everest today for the final struggle toward the snow-covered summit, 5 1/2 miles high.

No man has ever climbed this world's tallest peak and returned to tell about it.

It was the second attempt this year for the Swiss party. One of the team, Raymond Lambert, climbed to within 900 feet of the summit May 28 before fierce storms drove him back.

The six men left their base camp, 12,200 feet up in the high Himalayas, yesterday. Two men will be chosen at the last advance camp to make the final effort to reach the top.

Their success or failure likely will remain unknown to the world for at least three weeks after their final climb toward the peak. Their only means of communication is by special runners from the base camp to Katmandu, Nepal's capital, 170 miles away.

Nine previous unsuccessful assaults have been made on the peak.

Ike Backers Plan Parleys

A series of regular Saturday meetings of the "Citizens For Eisenhower" organization was scheduled at 10 a.m. Saturday in the organization's headquarters, 304 W. Foster.

The first meeting was held mostly by members of the advisory committee who listened to reports from Mrs. Raymond Harrah and Mrs. Louise Clark and the "Political Workshop for Women" meeting held in Fort Worth last week.

L. P. Forte, chairman of the advisory committee, said preparations are being made for full organization meetings every Saturday at 10 a.m. from now until election. He said plans are being made to distribute sample ballots as soon as they can be copied from the official ballots. That should be immediately after Oct. 13 when the official ballots are received by the county clerk.

After Oct. 13 sound trucks and speeches will be made by local Eisenhower backers during the last two weeks of the presidential campaign.

Cabot Officials From Over Nation Gather For Meet Here

How to increase the sale of Cabot Black products is the subject of a three-day conference of salesmen and officials of the Cabot Companies in the local Cabot office building today through Wednesday.

Officials here from the home office in Boston include Owen J. Brown Jr., vice-president and general sales manager; Ralph Bradley, vice-president and treasurer; and Russ Allen, vice-president.

Approximately 25 company salesmen and technical men from Canada, Mexico and all parts of the United States are also present to discuss selling problems.

Activities got underway at a breakfast in the Schneider Hotel this morning and continued with an opening meeting in the auditorium of the Cabot office building.

After lunch at the Schneider, a visit to local plants was scheduled beginning at the company garage and proceeding to the General Atlas plant, the new laboratory, Schaefer Plant and Cabot oil wells.

A buffet supper in the company penthouse is slated for tonight. Another conference Tuesday morning and a trip to Cabot Shops and Gun Tube Plant that afternoon will be followed by a banquet at the local country club at 7 p.m.

Officials leave by chartered plane for Big Spring the final day of the meeting and will fly over the company's plants in Kermit and Wickett. Visits to the Big Spring plant and those in the Louisiana area are scheduled before the return trip to Boston and salesmen's areas.

Deadline Set For Entries In Parade

Deadline for all entries in the parade scheduled during Gray County's 50th Birthday Celebration in Pampa next week has been set for noon Thursday.

Any firm or organization planning to enter a float is to contact W. B. Weathered, parade chairman, at phone 432 by that time. This information is necessary, Weathered said, to arrange entries for the parade. The parade is set for 2:30 p.m. next Monday.

Prison Rodeo Opens

HUNTSVILLE (AP) — A record-breaking crowd of 21,000 saw the opening Sunday of the Texas Prison Rodeo. Gov. Allan Shivers addressed the spectators with an opening speech. Special guests included a group of disabled veterans from a Houston hospital.

New Details Bared In Officer's Death

ACCUSED IN HUSBAND'S DEATH — Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters in Tokyo said Mrs. Dorothy Smith (above) allegedly inflicted the knife wound from which her husband, Col. Aubrey D. Smith, died. Mrs. Smith is identified by "Who's Who in America" as the daughter of Gen. Walter Krueger, retired, famous World War II commander of the U. S. Sixth Army. (AP Wirephoto)

TOKYO (AP) — The Army has disclosed that Col. Aubrey D. Smith tried vainly to staunch the flow of blood from his mortal stab wound while his dazed wife, clutching a knife, sat on the bed opposite his.

The wife, Dorothy, daughter of famed U. S. Gen. Walter Krueger, is accused in an official announcement by Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters of "allegedly" slaying her husband. It did not say what prompted the slaying, or whether charges would be filed.

Smith died at dawn Saturday, six hours after a knife was plunged into his right side while he was lying in his bed at his Tokyo home.

The 45-year-old officer from San Antonio, Tex., was chief of the entire Plans and Operations Division of the Logistics Section of the U. S. Far East Command.

His attractive wife is undergoing psychiatric examination at an Army hospital here. There are two children, Aubrey Jr., 16, and Sharon, 14.

The Army said it confiscated a hunting knife from the house. The Army said a Japanese maid testified she entered the Smiths' bedroom and found the colonel lying across his bed holding his bloody right side. She said Mrs. Smith was sitting on her own bed holding a knife.

The Army quoted the maid as saying she took the knife from Mrs. Smith and hid it in the downstairs living room before summoning help. The knife found in the living room was a hunting knife.

Prominent Banker, Woman Companion Die In Hotel Fire

NEW YORK (AP) — A socially prominent San Francisco banker and his woman companion died yesterday in a fire in the fashionable Hotel Warwick.

The two were identified as Lloyd Wiseman, 46, of Berkeley, Calif., a vice president of the Crocker First National Bank of San Francisco, and Mrs. Driscoll, 46, of West Newton, Mass.

Police said Wiseman checked into the hotel alone last Wednesday and registered for Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wiseman.

Miss Driscoll arrived in New York Friday after telling her mother in Massachusetts she planned to meet some girl friends and look for a job here.

Wiseman, a grandfather, gave the fire alarm himself in a telephone call to the night clerk. Hotel employees then chipped through the door of their 24th-story room.

They found Wiseman and his companion nude and unconscious — the banker on the floor, she stretched across a window sill — police said. Their clothes may have been burned off.

Wiseman was dead when a doctor arrived. Miss Driscoll died 14 hours later.

Newsmen were barred from the room. A hotel employee said it was gutted and that several empty and one partly drained whisky bottles were in the room. The fire apparently started near the bed, possibly from a cigaret. It was confined to Wiseman's room.

Wiseman had come to New York after attending a banker's convention in Atlantic City, N. J.

Self-Wounding Rare In Korea

WASHINGTON (AP) — In the Korean War, as in all others, there are some soldiers who deliberately wound themselves to get out of battle or out of the Army.

But the Army believes, although it can't prove it one way or the other, that the number in this war is comparatively small.

In response to questions, the provost marshal general's office today made a spot check of records of the Far East Command from the period July 1, 1951, to June 30, 1952. The office said that about only seven cases which were established definitely as self-inflicted wounding.

However, other Army officers with long experience in such matters point out that it is difficult to detect and prove an actual case of self-inflicted wound. Almost the whole burden of evidence rests on the surgeons in the field who treat wounded men and on checks made at the scene by investigators.

And they must rely primarily on the type of the wound including whether suspicious powder burns from close firing of a weapon and the location of the wound and on testimony of the man and his comrades to show conclusively the act was intentional.

But if a case can be proved, the going is rough for the soldier who tries it.

He is guilty of violating Article 115 of the Universal Code of Military Justice, dealing with malingering and the avoidance of duty. There is a maximum sentence of seven years hard labor and dishonorable discharge possible and in time of war the maximum provision may be suspended and even heavier sentences imposed.

If investigations show the man was of sound mind at the time he deliberately wounded himself, he receives no disability payments upon discharge.

Self-wounding is an act of utmost desperation usually arising out of fear of battle which the soldier hasn't yet experienced.

MATURE PARENT

By MURIEL LAWRENCE
AP Women's Editor

The first sniff of Autumn always brings an old, old winter custom to mind—candy making. We remember how Grandma used to work some cans with her hands until it was creamy and smooth. . . how Mother had a special green towel she kept for wrapping her date loaf. . . and how we started meeting at each other's houses for taffy-pulls before we were out of grammar school.

Candy-making is still fun—and not only during holiday seasons. It's fun because the whole family joins in. . . Pop can take turns beating while the youngsters smear the biggest platter with butter, and pick out the pecans. Along at the last, the kiddos start singing, "Dibs on lickin' the pan," while Mom turns the candy into the platter. Maybe she has to set it in an open window so the chill October breeze can help cool the candy.

Then everyone goes back to the first Pop turn at leg-and-picks up the newspaper. Mom flashes for her darling needle, and the youngsters open school books. But really, deep down, everyone is wondering just when the fudge is gonna get hard enough to eat, and every little while, they fingers and take a poke at the candy drooping over the edges of the platter.

At last the candy is eaten—sometimes with spoons—but always eaten. And the only treat comparable to eating the candy is making it. It's one of the very few pastimes that has lasted generation after generation.

Maybe you have Aunt Matilda's favorite fudge recipe, but if you're the watchful cook, always searching for the latest and best, you'll want to try this new "foolproof" fudge that is light and fluffy and a "never-miss."

FOOLPROOF FUDGE
32 marshmallows
1-4 cup water
2-1/2 cups granulated sugar
one six-ounce can evaporated milk
1-4 pound butter (or margarine)
1-4 teaspoon salt
1-2 six-ounce packages semi-sweet chocolate chips

In top of double boiler, combine marshmallows and water; place over boiling water and cook until marshmallows are completely dissolved, stirring occasionally. In a large heavy saucepan, combine sugar, butter or margarine, milk and salt; mix thoroughly. Bring to a rolling boil over medium heat. Continue boiling for eight minutes, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and stir in melted marshmallow mixture and chocolate bits. Mix until thoroughly blended. Pour into greased 8x12 inch pan. Cool thoroughly and cut into squares. If desired add one cup chopped nut meats, coconut or glace fruit to fudge before pouring into pan to cool.

TODAY'S WOMAN

By DOROTHY ROE
AP Women's Editor

You can be wide from side to side but flat from stem to stern. That's the blueprint for this fall's fashion silhouette, as underscored by New York's custom designers, now unveiling their closely guarded creations, which ring the cash register for $500 up.

Mainbocher, the gray-haired, Chicago-born couturier who looks more like a stock broker than a fashion designer, shows his usual discreetly elegant collection, following his conviction that the truly elegant woman prefers understatement to display.

This point is illustrated by one of his most important fall creations, modeled at his recent opening. The model first appeared in a simple little gray wool peacoat and slim skirt. When she opened the jacket, an ermine lining was revealed. Under it was what appeared to be a discreetly more like a stock broker than a fashion designer, shows his usual discreetly elegant collection, following his conviction that the truly elegant woman prefers understatement to display.

Dams A Flop

"In the closing hours of the 82nd Congress, the Army Corps of Engineers received an appropriation of $255,742,800 for general flood control work; the Department of Agriculture earlier had received a meager $7,750,000 for its own flood control work in the watersheds," reports Wildlife Management Institute.

"One of the principal criticisms leveled at present flood control programs by conservationists, and by many prominent engineers, is the lack of balance between engineering structures and watershed management. This lack of any sense of proportion is clearly evident in the preceding figures. . . . The failure of the leaders of the Corps to see flood control in terms other than big dams and levees is partly to blame for the lack of balance between watershed treatment and engineering features; most of the blame lies at the doorsteps of Congressmen who have made a habit of using the Corps as a convenient pork barrel. . . .

"With its meager appropriations for this work, the Department of Agriculture has already proved conclusively that watershed management alone, without help from costly stream structures, can stop all flood damage on many watersheds. On those where it cannot, it can reduce materially the size and cost of engineering structures needed to catch surplus runoff. In spite of this proof that intensified reforestation, range management, contour farming, and low dams on tributaries can check flood damage, Congress stubbornly refuses to provide adequate funds for the fundamental work that will keep flood waters out of cellars, living rooms and streets. The horse is still pushing a very heavy wagon."

Some highly qualified experts have said that in many critical flood areas — including the Missouri Valley — all the big dams ever proposed would not have controlled the floods or reduced the damage. One basic reason for this is that most big dams are multi-purpose projects — and one of the most important of those purposes is the production of socialized, tax-subsidized, tax-free electric power. A power dam must carry a heavy head of water to turn the generators; a flood control dam must be empty or largely so to contain the water. So, save for a few areas where soil and river conditions are exceptions, the two cannot be mixed and still do the job.

The big dam craze has cost the taxpayers untold billions, threatens to cost untold billions more — and has proven an almost total flop in controlling floods.

Rule By Crisis

The doctors, God bless 'em, can do the daffiest things when they get away from the sickroom and the surgery.

Now they have abandoned their fight against national compulsory health insurance on the ground that the battle has been "eminently successful."

At least that's what the doctors' union, the American Medical Association, said when it closed down the anti-socialized medicine campaign and the leaders of the moment resigned to form a committee in support of Eisenhower for president.

Dr. Louis H. Bauer, AMA president, is quoted as saying that the group working on the campaign had served its purpose, and it was explained that a plan for compulsory national health insurance was advanced by President Truman's administration, but never was able to make any headway in Congress.

That, so far as it goes, is the truth. But anyone who thinks for a moment that New Fair Dealers' drive for socialized medicine and other socialistic projects is over, must be deaf and blind.

Only the other day, Horrible Harry again expressed his determination to fasten the health insurance program on the people of this nation.

Instead of being over, the fight actually has just begun. There is no positive evidence that Oscar Ewing ever will be out as boss of the Federal Security Agency. If the Republicans do win, they may find he is under Civil Service and can't be fired.

Of course there may be other reasons for the AMA abandoning the fight. For one thing, the campaign they have put on was not one that could accomplish much.

The medical profession itself is responsible for the conditions which have been exploited by politicians who have carried their promises and proposals to extremes. It is a situation that cannot be cured by counter-propaganda, which, unfortunately, appeared to be the AMA group's only weapon.

The sad and terrible thing about all this is that one more battler against leaping socialism has abandoned the battle. That is almost as bad as deserting to the enemy.

Doctors Quit

Our foreign policy in the Far East — tragic as it has been — is the result of bungling action by the Truman administration, probably influenced by Russophile advisors to our State department.

Now Adlai Stevenson, a Democrat who would succeed a Democrat in the White House, declared — with a straight face, mind you — that we must not underestimate the Communist threat in Asia.

What Mr. Truman's administration has sown, Mr. Stevenson wants to reap — and call it a good harvest.

It seems a strange form of campaigning to point without shame to an evil created by one phase of the Democratic party rule and infer another Democratic administration is needed to cure the malady.

By this process we could perpetuate political cousins in power forever. Cousin No. 1 would create the crisis, Cousin No. 2 would correct the crisis and cause another crisis, his own, etc. etc.

Better Jobs

By R. C. MOILES

I just read a bulletin issued by the International Typographical Union advocating an assessment on union printers of 2 1/2 per cent of their wages for the coming year. The purpose of this assessment is to furnish $10,000,000 so that the printers can subsidize opposition newspapers in cities where a newspaper publisher stands for American principles. And American principles are those set down in the Declaration of Independence that all men are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights — and not just those that the union permits to have the pursuit of happiness.

Any publisher who opposes the printer's union practices strongly enough that he will not enslave American citizens is regarded as an enemy by the printer's union. It is no wonder that printers who read this kind of literature and who have never studied economic law are confused and content to pay tribute to their labor bosses. They usually just get one side of the collectivistic, socialist, dictatorial side and seldom the free economy of the American way of life side.

I had one party tell me that when he first read my ideas on free enterprise and unionism it made him so mad that he would throw the paper on the floor and jump on it. Now he is commencing to understand that unionism leads to dictatorship and reduces production and thus keeps wage levels down.

The printer's union is one of the worst unions in the country in keeping production down. Even in the propaganda pamphlet paid for involuntarily by all union printers it uses the argument that they want the money to fight employers who want to use modern machinery that saves labor. They object to eliminating jobs of members by substituting machines. They do not want to permit employers who use a modern machine that makes it possible to reproduce thousands of lines of type with one operation that would take thousands of operations to do the old way.

They regard us as an enemy — an employer who wants to keep the costs down and do away with featherbedding in order to give the best possible newspaper for the money. They of course also object to inexperienced people competing with them. They limit apprentices after they have limited apprentices; they will not let them learn to operate a typesetting machine until they have worked for five years by hand even if they expect to specialize on the type-setting machine and never expect to do work by setting type by hand.

They complain that some publishers attack them at the worst point, but they never think about eliminating the weak points — the un-American activities of the printer's union — so the employer has no weak points to attack. The efficient printer never increased their real wages by the printer's union — it is only the inefficient printer who temporarily may get a wage more than he could get on a competitive basis.

The facts of the matter are that all working men would get higher real wages if there were no unions because production would be a great deal greater without unions than with them and since whatever is produced must be distributed in order to benefit its owners there would be more to distribute. If it goes to the employer as profit he must distribute it either in building new equipment or for his own personal use or to give away.

The whole brochure seems to be just propaganda. Either they do not understand why causes wages to increase or the leaders are desirous of more and more unearned power. They will not discuss things where they would be able to answer questions as they would before a court because they would have to admit that the printer's union is not a labor union, but based on any moral principles; but only acts on the practice that might makes right and that the end justifies the means.

The printer's union has been one of the strongest unions in opposing the Taft-Hartley law. They repeatedly call it a labor union busting law and one of the primary reasons they want it repealed is that it prohibits striking workers from voting on contract measures if these striking workers have been replaced in their jobs. Those opposing the Taft-Hartley law want men to have quit their jobs simultaneously and still have a right to determine a right to enter into a conspiracy to the terms on which jobs will be filled even if their positions have been replaced by other workers.

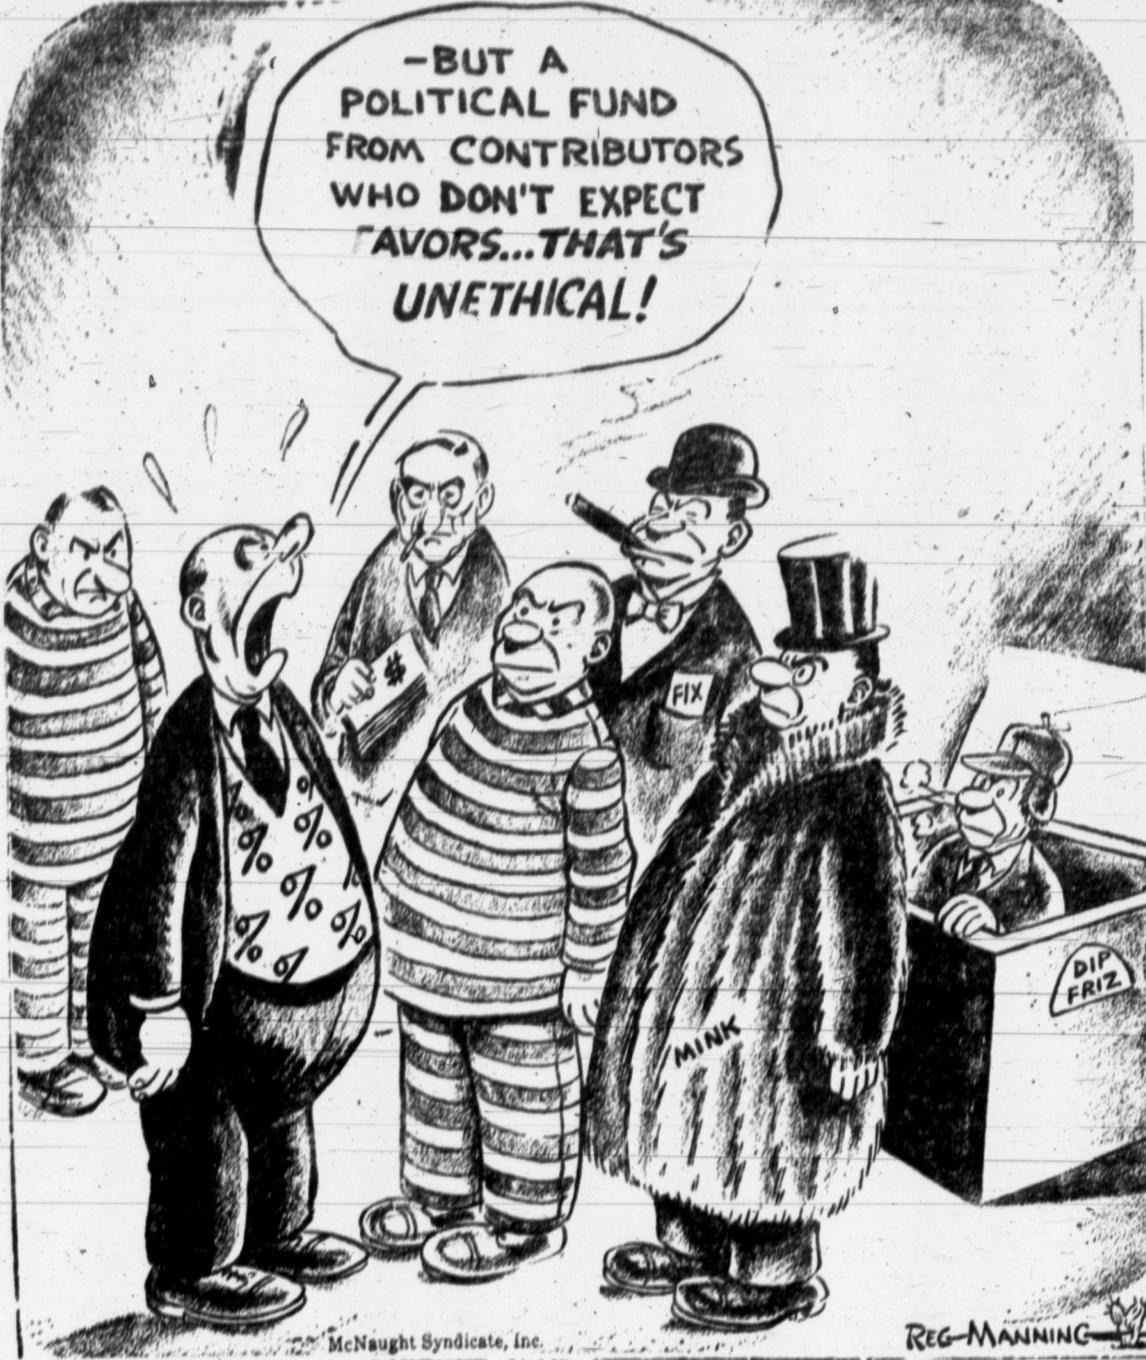

It is hard to conceive how any man who believes in the American way of life and Christian and Jewish ethics can believe that any group of men should be given the right to determine the terms or working conditions that workers should receive when they are not even employees.

The printer's union has $10,000,000 to subsidize un-American newspapers in about 15 cities in the United States against American newspapers that believe in the competitive system and the true American way of life.

THAT'S TWICE WHAT YOU CHARGED ME LAST WEEK FOR SPEEDING. YOU'RE ENCOURAGING INFLATION.

Now Adlai Stevenson, a Democrat who would succeed a Democrat in the White House, declared — with a straight face, mind you — that we must not underestimate the Communist threat in Asia. What Mr. Truman's administration has sown, Mr. Stevenson wants to reap — and call it a good harvest. Fair Enough.... Pegler Says Reader's Digest Has Deserted Objective Policy

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1952, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

For reasons which I will not try to divine, the Reader's Digest has abandoned its objective, impartial character and is now a propaganda publication without fair warning to its readers. As I noted recently in the September issue of the Digest contained an article consisting of fantastic and erroneous praise of one Irving Brown, a veteran advocate of violent revolutionary Marxism. The article was by no means a fair and balanced appraisal of Brown's activities in Europe for David Dubinsky, the perpetual president of the Garment Workers' Union.

This article was done by one Donald Robinson, an obscure magazine journalist who was a propagandist in Europe for the Communist Party. He was a paid political instructor on the staff of Dubinsky's union, had frustrated Stalin's efforts to move the Iron Curtain westward in Europe. When I took the Digest to task for this misrepresentation, the Digest sent out to a number of subscribers reproductions of a letter from Francis A. Henson, "director of educational and political action" of the United Auto Workers' staff. This is a rambling union of nominal membership which was beaten almost to death in bloody street fights in Michigan in a showdown with Walter Reuther's CIO union in the same field.

Henson and Brown both were members of the national executive committee of the revolutionary

National Whirligig... Snyder Says He Doubts That Public Debt Can Ever Be Paid

By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — "Are you better off now than you were in 1932?" and "Don't let them take it away from you" have become Democratic slogans in the current campaign. The outcome of the election may hinge on how the voters respond to those slogans.

President Truman and Governor Stevenson maintain that 20 years of Democratic rule have produced a "prosperity" which, like Hoover in 1928, they proclaim to be permanent. They argue that Democratic politics and good times are "kissing cousins."

General Eisenhower promises a "prosperity not based on war." He implies that present conditions are based on the tremendous military, lend-lease and foreign aid expenditures that he inherited in 1952 with Hitler's invasion of Poland. He also holds out hope for a shakedown in expenditures, including budgets and taxes, that will rest our economy on a more enduring base.

PROSPERITY — Although the candidates may distort the picture for partisan purposes, official statistics suggest that the debate is a standoff, and that the issue is entirely irrelevant. They show clearly that no party can produce prosperity like a rabbit out of a top hat because economic changes derive from circumstances which politicians cannot foresee or control.

These same figures also indicate that present war and postwar expenditures, including those by our allies, private industry and Uncle Sam, contributed most heavily to our present "abundant life" and high living standards.

Recent discussions by our most expert economists, bankers and industrialists reflect concern as to the permanency of our present state. Many do not agree with the Truman-Stevenson contention that prosperity will last forever, if only the Democratic nominee is elected.

They wonder what will happen to the present level of wages, unemployment, prices and general business activity when, if elected, the annual cost of $60 billion in military and foreign aid can be reduced to half that amount.

"DISPOSABLE INCOME" — In this connection, the official figures on the American people's average annual disposable income for the past twenty years, 1932-1952, as well as other measures of our economic status, are enlightening.

"Disposable income" consists of an individual's spending and saving total after federal, state and local taxes. It does not include such heavy taxes as real estate, sales or special assessments. The figures given below have been adjusted so that they represent depreciated 1951 dollars, which have fallen a bit further in value during the last twelve months.

FIGURES — Here are the per capita disposable income figures for the years pertinent to the Stevenson-Eisenhower debate: 1932... $764; 1939... $1,035; 1946... $1,417; 1951... $1,458.

These figures show that despite "prosperity" and subsidy payments from 1933 to 1939 the per capita income for that period was only $271. The largest boost, $382, occurred during the war years, when government and industry poured out more than $500 billion.

During the postwar period, and despite billions expended by Washington for defense, foreign aid and domestic subsidies, the per capita income was only $41.

SAVINGS — Official statistics on long term savings during this era present an equally murky canvas. These include investments in insurance savings deposits and government savings bonds. They do not include currency on hand, checking accounts, private securities or home equities. Here are the key figures:

The increase during the war period of course, if accounted for by the fact that people could not spend their income because of rationing and the scarcity of consumer goods. The $120 decline from 1946 to 1951 reflects the unusually large amount of money to satisfy wants unfilled during the war.

TOMORROW MORTGAGED — Meanwhile, heavy debts — individual, corporate, state and municipal, Federal — have been incurred. Tomorrow's heavily mortgaged for the present and future generations. Secretary Snyder recently said that he doubts if the public debt can ever be paid off.

And no wonder! It has jumped from $20.8 billion in 1932 to $260 billion at the present time, with an annual interest charge for paying the bondholders that is greater than the entire 1932 budget.

Instalment debt has reached new heights. The blur introducing Brown said he was an instructor in "Workers' education classes of the ILCWU," the Dubinsky union.

"This past summer," the Revolutionary Socialist Review said, "Henson had extensive contacts with Socialist movement in Europe."

The Reader's Digest has given no intimation of the true political purpose of the Dubinsky machine in many foreign lands where it operates with the active complicity of the Truman State Department.

Get in London always seen quickly having her name spelled properly. Her name was Kate Tryszocki and so she changed it when she married A. Tryszocki.

Pampa Country Club Golfers Cop Second Panhandle Title

The Pampa Country Club's golfers captured the Panhandle Men's Golf Association championship for the second straight year yesterday on the Huber course in Borger.

The Pampa team picked up 85 1/2 points yesterday to make its season total 774, compared to 680 for runner-up Phillips Country Club. Phillips scored 48 points yesterday while host Huber picked up 96. Ross Rogers of Amarillo failed to appear for the tournament but still finished third over the season with 313 points, while Huber trailed with 480.

Dr. J. F. Elder was the low gross shooter for Pampa yesterday with a 72. C. F. McGinnis and Max Hickey tied for second with 74 1/2. John Cooper and Cecil Robinson shared low net honors with 67 1/2.

The victory gave the Pampa CC possession of the permanent trophy. But three weeks from now, Oct. 26, the four clubs will play again at Huber for the huge floating trophy. Each time will be represented that day by 15-20 of its top golfers.

Wrestling Program Has Double Event

This week's pro wrestling card was completed over the weekend with the addition of a one-hour, best two out of three fall battle between strongman Tommy Martindale of Amarillo and rugged Jack O'Reilly of Sidney, Australia. The two will be the first event on the double main event card cooked up by promoter Howard Vineyard.

In the windup event will be Ivan Kalmikoff and Art Nelson, pairing together in an effort to whip the slant-eyed and crafty Japanese duo of Sesue Oyama and Kinju Shibuya.

Tickets for the big night's wrestling will be on sale all day Wednesday at the Sportman's Store or reservations may be made now by telephoning 2035.

Baylor Bears Save Face For SWC Elevens Over Week End

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

The shock of a near shut-out in inter-sectional football lingers with Southwest Conference teams today as they recoup battered forces for another try.

Prospects aren't very bright that they can do any better this week than last when only Baylor, which wasn't supposed to beat anybody, came through. It left Golden Bears the only undefeated team in the league.

Dropping four games out of five against foes from other areas, the conference saw its inter-sectional record for the season fall behind. Teams of this circuit have won six and lost seven.

Aggies Try Michigan
Texas A&M, set down, 10-7, by Kentucky for its first loss of the campaign, tries Michigan, State, the nation's No. 1 team, at Lansing, Mich., Saturday. Rice, which was whipped, 27-7, by Louisiana State, goes to Los Angeles to play a UCLA outfit that slashed Texas Christian two weeks ago.

Texas, which succumbed to Notre Dame, 14-3, engages an Oklahoma team that has just finished clouting Pittsburg 49-20. Southern Methodist, which felt the lash of Georgia Tech, 20-7, goes to Columbia, Mo., to play tough Missouri.

Baylor doesn't have to worry about its inter-sectional record this week but it has worries just the same. The Bears, who slugged Washington State, 21-7, last week, engages the Arkansas Razorbacks at Little Rock Saturday night in a conference game.

TCU PLAYS TRINITY
Texas Christian, winner of the only conference game played thus far—a 13-7 decision over Arkansas—gets down-trodden Trinity University at San Antonio Saturday night. Trinity hasn't been able to beat anybody yet a 0 they haven't played a team as strong as Texas Christian.

The Texas-Oklahoma game will be the high-point of the schedule. Regardless of how these two teams fared in a season, their struggle at the State Fair in Dallas each year always packs the Cotton Bowl.

Post-mortems over the Notre Dame-Texas game led to the one main conclusion that Notre Dame won it through the old blocking and tackling routine. Texas, as just didn't play the fundamentals like the Fighting Irish.

Kentucky Came Back
Georgia Tech showed a fine football team indeed, Kentucky had the comeback stuff to score all its points in the third period, then stave off a frenzied Aggie rally as time ran out. There was just no way of explaining the decisive victory of LSU over Rice.

The Tigers hadn't won a game until they met the Owls. Rice had been rated quite a football outfit in its first game—a 24-7 trimming of Texas Tech.

Baylor turned its sophomores—L. G. Dupre and Allen Jones—loose on Washington State. Those fellows plus a very hot Texas sun wore out the boys from the Pacific Northwest.

Quarterbacks To See Two Films

Members of the Pampa Quarterback Club are scheduled to see a pair of films tonight at

They start playing for keeps this week in the top division of Texas schoolboy football which has a perfect record in Class A.

Two other districts have conference games but the major interest rests on district 1 where Pampa goes to Amarillo, Midland to San Angelo and Borger to Abilene as sideshows to the Lubbock-Odessa clash.

Just eight undefeated, untied teams remain in Class AAA and none of them meet each other this week. That doesn't mean, perfect records won't fall, however, that the teams with were kicked out last week with Ray of Corpus Christi downing Port Arthur, 19-6, in the feature battle of the unbeaten.

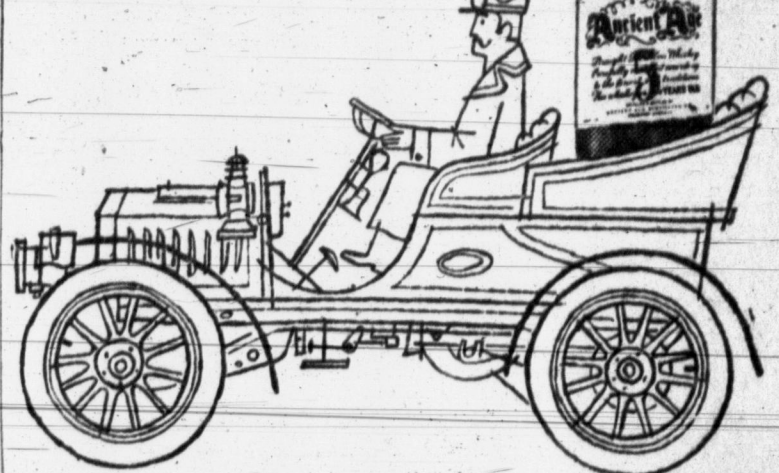

Class AAA's undefeated, untied string fell to nine as five teams took the plunge but Temple, the top favorite in this class, had no trouble at all trouncing San Jacinto of Houston, 41-7.

Left on the undefeated, untied list in Class AAA are Lubbock, Midland, Pampa, Amom Carter-Riverside (Fort Worth), North Dallas, Wichita Falls, Ray (Corpus Christi) and Baytown. Beaumont is undefeated but has been Chitt and Baytown. Beaumont is undefeated but has been Chitt and Baytown.

Class AA has 32 undefeated, untied teams: Dumas, Phillips, Floydada, Burkburnett, Quanah, Anson, Stamford, Littlefield, Somerope, Pecos, Comanche, Arlington, Diamond Hill (Fort Worth), Jacksboro, Nocona, Mesquite, Terrell, Mt. Pleasant, Paul Hewitt, Center, Cleveland, Mexia, Humble, Ellean, Huntsville, Gonzales, Belville, Caldwell, Alvin, Uvalde Refugio and Donna. Uvalde hasn't been scored on.

This week finds Dumas play-West, Benavides, and Fremont, Littlefield and Mexia clash. Undefeated but tied at Amherst, Cedar Bayou, Dayton, Burnet, Hull-Daisette, Liano, Northwest, Floydada plays Lockney, which has a perfect record in Class A. This week Dublin plays Wylie Class AAA numbers Brownwood, Grand Prairie, Paris, Lufkin, and Farmersville in scraps between teams Floreaville, Hebronville, George with perfect records in class A.

Wonder of the Age

Where ever you sit it's nice to have the best at hand. In 1904 the driver's seat of this car was a place of prestige. Today, any seat that puts you within reach of Ancient Age is an enviable place to be. In taste and aroma, Ancient Age reflects the ancient skill with which it is distilled . . . the patient care with which it matured for long, restful years. Try Ancient Age tonight . . . and discover the wonder of the age for yourself.

NOSE, THROAT,

and Accessory Organs not Adversely Affected by Smoking Chesterfields

FIRST SUCH REPORT EVER PUBLISHED ABOUT ANY CIGARETTE

A responsible consulting organization has reported the results of a continuing study by a competent medical specialist and his staff on the effects of smoking Chesterfield cigarettes.

A group of people from various walks of life was organized to smoke only Chesterfields. For six months this group of men and women smoked their normal amount of Chesterfields—10 to 40 a day. 45% of the group have smoked Chesterfields continually from one to thirty years for an average of 10 years each.

At the beginning and at the end of the six-months period each smoker was given a thorough examination, including X-ray pictures, by the medical specialist and his assistants. The examination covered the sinuses as well as the nose, ears and throat.

The medical specialist, after a thorough examination of every member of the group, stated: "It is my opinion that the ears, nose, throat and accessory organs of all participating subjects examined by me were not adversely affected in the six-months period by smoking the cigarettes provided."

Texans May Get Chance Soon To Vote Statewide Prohibition

By The Associated Press
An official of the United Texas Drys says statewide prohibition may be voted on soon in Texas. Following elections Saturday which saw two more areas in the state voting out the sale of beer, the Rev. Albert Tucker, Dallas, executive secretary of the Drys, said: "We have already seen the trend toward prohibition. I predict that the question will be settled in the near future — one way or another — so that those who believe in statewide prohibition for Texas will be given the democratic privilege of voting to a referendum."

Tucker said the Drys were "naturally very happy about the outcome of elections in Grand Prairie and Limestone County."

After a brisk election campaign Grand Prairie residents Saturday voted dry by a 478-vote majority with 3,124 votes cast in the town's four boxes. Limestone County dry with a 240-vote margin out of 6,000 votes cast in the East Central Texas region.

Tucker said there has been a movement for several years for a statewide prohibition election and that several drives were underway elsewhere in the state to bring prohibition to wet or "damp" counties.

The Dry leader said 142 of Texas' 254 counties are now totally dry. In another 82 counties, he said, some precincts are wet. Some others permit only the sale of beer and not hard liquor.

Only 30 counties now permit the sale of beer, wine and hard liquor.

Partolmen File Ten Cases In JP Court

Highway Patrolmen filed ten cases in justice of the peace court over the week end, five of them for driving without a proper license.

Five persons have paid their fines—all $14 each.

Cited for driving without a Texas license were Harold T. Hopkins, 33, Pampa Courts; Raymond M. Thompson, 40, 830 Brown; Wanda Billingsley, 25, 621 S. Russell; Henry McPeak, 52, Skellytown; and Raymond J. Edwards, 41, 802 E. Kingmill.

Edward McPeak and Miss Billingsley have paid their fines.

Herbert F. Trimble, 22, S. Ballard, and Franklin D. Brown, 19, 921 E. Fisher, were given tickets for driving on the left side of the road.

Doyle J. Lee, Pampa, was fined for defective brakes; and Vernon G. Fletcher, 37, Houston, was assessed for driving a trailer without a tail light.

Marion G. Miller, 33, 705 E. Jordan, was cited for running a stop sign.

Shield Expert Here

M. M. SHEVYAN, widely known expert of Chicago, will personally be at the Herring Hotel, Amarillo, Friday and Saturday only, Oct. 10 and 11, from 9 A.M. to 4 P.M.

Mr. Shevyan says: The Zoetic Shield is a tremendous improvement over all former methods, effecting immediate results. It will not only hold the rupture perfectly in place, but the size of the location but it will increase the circulation, strengthen the weakened parts, and thereby close the opening in ten days on the average case, regardless of heavy lifting or strenuous any position the body may assume. A nationally known scientific method, no under strap or cumbersome arrangements and absolutely no medicines or medical treatments.

Mr. Shevyan will be glad to demonstrate without charge. 455 N. Arden in Chicago. 45 Large incisional hernia or rupture following surgical operation especially solicited.

gressive war alliances like the North Atlantic bloc directed against peace-loving states of the Soviet Union, the Chinese Peoples Republic and countries of the peoples democracies.

"The bosses of the United States," said Molotov, "know from the experience of the Hitlerites, that it was impossible even to dream about world domination without the use of force."

Malenkov charged the United States with creating bases throughout the world and "reinvigorating West Germany and Japan" for "criminal purposes." These were some of his other charges against the United States.

The United States "refusing to ban atom and germ weapons and reduce conventional armaments," The Soviet Union wants to do so. The United States "refuses to conclude a peace pact." Russia wants one.

The United States "knocks together aggressive blocs against peace-loving peoples, while the treaties concluded by the Soviet Union with foreign states are aimed exclusively at the struggle against the revival of Japanese or German aggression."

The U. S. "attacked Korea and endeavors to enslave her, while the Soviet Union has nowhere conducted any military operations from the very moment of the end of the second world war."

they have noticed the majority of cases are among men who have not yet seen much action. The soldier who goes through his first engagement and finds that he and most of the men in his outfit are alive and unhurt, has passed his most desperate anxiety and fear.

There is one feature of the Korean War which may help to explain the apparent low incidence of self-inflicted wound cases.

In World War II there was no rotation system. The rotation system in Korea, under which the average man can figure he will start home after anywhere from 11 to about 14 months, makes a

A stolen automobile has been recovered on U. S. 80, three miles west of Pampa.

A '49 Chevrolet was stolen Saturday night in Amarillo, highway patrolmen reported, and it was found about 3 p.m. Sunday night in the Pampa area.

No damage to the vehicle was evident—just an empty gas tank. Officers have not yet established the identity of the owner.

Korean Veteran Can't Stay Away

WITH U.S. SECOND DIVISION, Korea. (AP)—A man who saw his outfit overrun by Chinese in December, 1950, asked for reassignment in Korea after nine months at Fort Hood, Texas.

He was back in Korea Sunday with his same old artillery battery.

His is Sgt. Orin Brooks of Coleman, Texas, who first landed in Korea, July 31, 1950, with Battery A of the 15th Field Artillery.

He returned to the U.S. in August 1951, but got tired of Stateside duty.
