RUSSIA RANKS STALIN TOPS IN HISTORY

NEW YORK—(AP)—Generalissimo Joseph Stalin is a highly respected, almost hallowed, figure in Russia today and regarded by its 193,000,000 people as probably the greatest Russian of all time—Greater than Peter the Great, Ivan the Terrible and perhaps even Lenin.

At 66, Stalin is still a vigorous man and still in charge of this nation that occupies one-sixth of the earth's surface.

Elected in February this year to four more years as Russia's leader, Stalin seems likely to fill out his term and if his health is as good as it is today be elected again.

They give him full marks for Russia's ability to withstand the war-mach, for the elimination of anti-Soviet elements from the war which resulted in the U. S. S. R. having no fifth column, and for wise planning and thinking for them and their future all the time.

The Russians have great faith in Stalin's five-year plans and are quite certain that by putting the effort and sacrifice into the work that he says is necessary they are going to emerge as the greatest industrial country in the world the country with the most secure political and economical system and eventually the country with the most spiritual as well as material surpluses.

Any beliefs, fears or hopes here or elsewhere that there is opposition to Stalin in Russia is nonsense. There is no political group striving to grab the power, for the communists have the power and they are Russia's only party and will continue so.

There is no such thing as a general's group or clique. There are generals and marshals by the dozens, yes, but they are nothing as a group more than fighting men and would be the most embarrassed men in the Soviet Union to hear themselves referred to as a bloc seeking power.

Who are the men under Stalin and what importance should one attach to them as possible successors to Generalissimo Stalin? Well, of course, must step down or die, as bad as this would be for the U. S. S. R., and, as a lot of foreign diplomats think, bad for the United States, too?

Chairman of the council of ministers, which means he's prime minister. Head of all armed forces. Secretary general of the central committee of the communist party. Head of powerful politburo. Chairman of the organizational committee of the communist party. Deputy to the supreme Soviet. Vyacheslav Molotov, the foreign minister, appears to rank next to Stalin for he holds, in addition to what here would be the secretary of state's job, the post of first assistant chairman of the council of ministers. This makes him vice premier.

Molotov is also a high ranking member of the politburo and a deputy to the supreme Soviet, a party man of great drive, ability and devotion to its country and its causes. Although a member of the vital central committee of the party, Molotov is not one of its secretaries, nor is he on the organizational committee of the party. This fact may or may not figure in his future.

There are three relatively young men who have risen rapidly with the end of the war: Marshal L. P. Beria. General A. A. Zhdanov. See STALIN, Page 2

Proposal for Single Chief Of Staff Dies

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The proposal for a single chief of staff over the armed forces was reported the first casualty today, as President Truman personally undertook to reconcile army-navy merger differences.

The single chief of staff proposal was strongly plugged by the army but congressional circles heard reports the President had decided against it.

TRUMAN TAKES OVER
The fact that Mr. Truman is taking over the job of resolving army-navy merger disagreement was disclosed after a 90 minute conference yesterday between the President, Secretary of Navy Forrestal and Secretary of War Patterson.

White House Press Secretary Charles G. Ross reported Mr. Truman termed it a "very constructive session."

FORRESTAL SUPPORT
Nevertheless, Forrestal was reported sticking by the navy's contention that two departments, with separate cabinet members, should be maintained instead of the single department of common defense suggested in a bill sponsored by Chairman Albert D. Thomas (D-Utah) of the senate military committee.

While there was some indication that those who favor what has come to be known as the army plan for all-out unification might be willing to compromise on the proposal to retain two cabinet members, few senators thought any basic changes in the military lineup will get serious consideration in congress.

Newsing yesterday's White House conference, Ross informed members that all points of army-navy disagreement were "thoroughly discussed by all sides" before Mr. Truman took them under advisement.

"He will decide what form of unification will be the policy," he added.

Ross was unable to indicate when Mr. Truman's decision would be coming, or what form it might take.

He said, however, "all of this is moving toward unification."

Naval stations were reporting to headquarters on the number of men on hand with cargo-vessel experience.

There was no secret among officials that if the joint strike of CIO seamen and dock workers takes place, the government will have a problem finding qualified men to operate the ships.

Plans will probably be announced the latter part of this week for a far-reaching health program in the city. It was announced today by City Manager Garland Franks.

New Compromise Proposal Offered Maritime Workers

WASHINGTON—(AP)—West coast ship operators today offered a new compromise proposal to the Marine Firemen's union in a fresh attempt to head off the threatened mid-June maritime strike on all coasts.

As this move brightened the prospects of settlement, Conciliation Director Edgar L. Warren said he believed it "too early" for the government to step in with its own settlement proposal.

"But maybe we will later," Warren told reporters during a break in the day-long negotiations between the country's shiplines and the seven-union, CIO-dominated committee for maritime unity.

Terms of the offer were not disclosed. President John B. Bryan of the Pacific American Shippers association said it "dealt with everything" in other words, the entire four-point demand levied on employed by the Independent Firemen's union.

The union itself was to have made an offer today, but it apparently was side-tracked by the employment situation.

The firemen have demanded wage increases ranging from 22 to 33 cents hourly; a 40-hour week; subsequently raised to 42; higher overtime pay; and retroactivity of the new wage scale to last Oct. 1.

The coast guard as well as the navy counted its manpower today as the big question—will there be a maritime strike June 15—loomed over Washington.

The coast guard sent out stop orders on discharges which it later explained applied only to regular personnel in over-manned ratings who had been allowed to apply for discharge before their enlistment terms were up.

This affects approximately 2,000 out of a total coast guard strength of 24,000, in ratings above the authorized peacetime levels. The coast guard reservists are continuing to be discharged as before.

Naval stations were reporting to headquarters on the number of men on hand with cargo-vessel experience.

57 Killed, 200 Injured In Chicago Hotel Fire

CHICAGO—(AP)—At least 57 persons were killed—many suffocated in their beds without being awakened today in an early morning fire that swept through the 22-story La Salle hotel in the heart of Chicago's loop district.

Fire department sources estimated about 200 persons were injured. 1106 GUESTS IN HOTEL
The first alarm was turned in at 12:35 a. m. when most of the 1100 guests had retired for the night. Within 20 minutes the first three floors were engulfed in flames and both of the main stair exits from the 37-year-old hostelry were impassable.

Five extra alarms were sounded and more than 200 firemen battled the blaze bringing it under control about 3:30 a. m.

SMOKE CLAIMS VICTIMS
About 200 persons who were burned had been housed on the third, fourth, fifth and sixth floors. About the sixth floor smoke and flame claimed their victims. At least 10 persons were taken to hospital from their rooms and fell to the street or in a courtyard.

It is here that the seeds of a new world war are being sown, he added. "Behind this curtain efforts are being made to Sovietize all the Soviet-occupied zone of Germany."

"We have to face the fact that two Germanies are coming into being."

Former Prime Minister Churchill declared in common today that the British labor government had "made an important contribution to world peace" by a resolute denunciation of communism.

He said, however, that Prime Minister Attlee's government "has followed the Russian principle in foreign affairs of one party government" by not consulting opposition leaders.

Churchill, now leader of the conservative opposition, said "I am not complaining," however.

Churchill, opening the second day of a foreign affairs debate, praised Laborite Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin, who he said "has stood forth as representative of much that is wise and courageous in the British character."

"It would be wrong to cast blame on him," Churchill said for what he called "virtual breakdown of statecraft in the context and collaboration of the three great powers as well as a painful decline in British influence and prestige" since the end of fighting against Germany.

Churchill applauded Britain's hands-off policy in Spain, declaring the government has shown "wise restraint in not interfering in the internal affairs of that country."

"We none of us like the Franco regime," Churchill said, and drew laughter with his political ally that "personally I like it as little as I like the present British administration."

Churchill said that the Franco regime "is a threat to international peace" and that the British government should not discuss details of this action. The next meeting of the assembly will be here in September.

The general assembly meets once each year. Therefore, if such a resolution presented by Poland calling for an immediate break with Spain, said the evidence put before the council showed that Generalissimo Franco is a threat to international peace.

On the second point, it was pointed out that putting the matter up to the general assembly postpones the threat to peace.

Drafting of Teen Agers Is Approved

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senators weary by hours of wrangling appeared set today to reject a proposal for a "draftless draft"—a maneuver designed to block inductions of teen agers.

The senate yesterday voted to resume the drafting of 18- and 19-year-olds and senators who want to keep the selective service law intact were confident of defeating any draft "holiday."

VOTE OF 53 TO 26
The teen age draft cleared the chamber by a vote of 53 to 26. The leadership then put on steam in an effort to get the draft extension bill back to the house.

It rained through, 67 to 4, a graduated peacetime draft for enlisted men and non-commissioned officers that would give privates and apprentice seamen, the lowest ranks, a 50 per cent hike to $75 a month.

But then the bill ran into trouble. Three republican senators, Revercomb (W. Va.), Wilson (Iowa) and Wherry (Nebr.) put forth their substitute bill. It would continue draft registrations and job benefit sections of the present selective service act but suspend all inductions.

STOP-GAP EXTENSION
The draft act currently is operating under a "stop-gap" law. See DRAFT LAW, Page 2

Bread Lines Are Forming in Most Nation's Stores

CHICAGO—(AP)—Bread lines were forming in most of the nation's stores as a wheat crop, running 25 percent below expectations, coming in in Texas and Oklahoma, and a plan by the department of agriculture to divert some foreign relief wheat stocks to the most acute domestic bread shortage areas.

Steen predicted the shortage would be considerably relieved by mid-to-late July as more of the new winter crop reaches the mills. He said the government is "red-tape" shipping the grain from elevators to mills, getting the right "blend" for bread flour, and delivering the flour to bakers, all would require a time lag of two or more weeks.

However, two factors pointed to an upturn. They were the new winter wheat crop, running 25 percent above expectations, coming in in Texas and Oklahoma, and a plan by the department of agriculture to divert some foreign relief wheat stocks to the most acute domestic bread shortage areas.

Jury Dismissed In Newton Trial

PLAINVIEW—(AP)—District Judge C. D. Russell dismissed the jury today in the trial of Dr. W. R. Newton of Cameron, charged with assault with intent to murder in connection with the shooting of Dr. Roy Hunt of Littlefield.

The jury reported at 9:33 a. m., a little more than 36 hours after retiring for its deliberation, that it was deadlocked 11-1.

The trial began May 28. The jury received the case at 9 o'clock Monday night.

Dr. Hunt was shot on a highway near Littlefield May 10, 1942, after a woman had telephoned him to come to the spot.

Newton was given a seven-year sentence at Plainview in a trial held in August, 1943. The sentence was appealed and on June 16, 1944, the court of criminal appeals reversed and remanded it.

On Oct. 26, 1943, Dr. and Mrs. Hunt were slain in the bedroom of their home at Littlefield. Jim Thomas, a parole convict, was arrested the next day at Galveston and after days of questioning was charged with murder in the slayings. Tried at Plainview, Thomas was convicted and on Aug. 31, 1944 was sentenced to death.

He was granted a new trial by Judge Russell after it had been established that the 64th district court jury had discussed his previous criminal record.

LEADS VICTORS—Foreign minister Georges Bidault, head of victors Popular Republican Party, today became new president of France at head of coalition government.

Russia Reported Opposing Results Of Franco Probe

NEW YORK—(AP)—An authorized Soviet spokesman declared today that Russia was strongly opposed to the conclusions reached by the United Nations security council sub-committee investigating Franco Spain.

The spokesman, who would not permit identification, declined to comment on reports that Russia might invoke the veto against the sub-committee recommendations in their present form.

The sub-committee in its conclusions announced last Saturday, said Franco Spain does not at present constitute an "existing threat to the peace" and "that the security council therefore has no jurisdiction to authorize enforcement measures."

The spokesman said the Russian delegate, Andrei A. Gromyko, was not enthusiastic about the sub-committee's conclusions.

It was said that the Russian delegation disagreed with these two points:

1. That Spain is not an existing threat to peace.

2. That the general assembly should call for severance of relations.

On the first point Gromyko, debating in the council on a resolution presented by Poland calling for an immediate break with Spain, said the evidence put before the council showed that Generalissimo Franco is a threat to international peace.

Rodeo Directors' Meeting Is Set

The board of directors for the Top of Texas Rodeo and Horse Show association will meet Saturday at 2 p. m. to discuss details of this year's show, set for August 16, 17 and 18, it was announced today.

Wade Thomasson, chairman of the board, stressed the importance of the meeting and urged all members to be present. Final arrangements for holding the rodeo and horse show will be made, he said.

Thomasson serves as president of the rodeo association, with the following officers: Crawford A. Kinison, vice president; Fred L. Imel, treasurer, and E. O. Wedgeworth, secretary.

The directors are John Simms, Irvin Cole, John Haynes, Arlie Carpenter, Pat Murrell, Orville Christopher, Ralph M. Johnson, Roy Sewell, Rex Barrett, Homer Taylor, F. B. Wright, Paul Carmichael and Slier Hopkins.

A number of specialty acts such as singers, tap dancers and acrobatic players are needed for the show. Anyone interested in taking part should contact Mrs. Cochran at the Adams hotel and she will arrange for a special tryout.

Seeds of Another World War Being Sown—Churchill

LONDON—(AP)—Wartime Prime Minister Winston Churchill told the commons today that "he seeds of a new world war are being sown in the Soviet-influenced areas of Eastern Europe."

"Not only has a curtain descended from the Baltic to the Adriatic but behind it is a broad band of territory containing nearly one-third of the population of Europe, apart from Russia," Churchill said in a foreign affairs debate.

It is here that the seeds of a new world war are being sown, he added. "Behind this curtain efforts are being made to Sovietize all the Soviet-occupied zone of Germany."

Lefors Plans for Clean-Up Week

LEFORS—(Special)—Beginning Monday, June 10, the Lefors Lions club is sponsoring a city-wide clean-up week, as a part of the state-wide campaign.

Mayor Hank Breining is asking that all persons cooperate with the city and the Lions in cleaning all trash, rubbish, and junk from alleys, yards and streets. Due to the closing of the old dump grounds, recently there is an unusual accumulation of trash, which must be hauled off during this clean-up week.

Trucks will be furnished by private owners, who are asked to inform the Lions or Mayor Breining if they can help in the campaign. As in similar campaigns, all trash should be piled in a convenient place in alleys, in order that the trucks won't have too much trouble picking it up. Truck drivers, or loaders, are asked to park the rubbish on the trucks in such a manner that none of it will fall upon the streets and highways.

The new dump ground is located north of town, on the old Pampa highway. It consists of a deep canyon, which should hold all the trash Lefors will have for the next fifty years.

Cooperate to the fullest extent with the Lions and the city in this campaign, and help make Lefors a safe, healthy, and clean place in which to live.

Burning Trash Major Cause of Fires Here

Burning trash was again the major cause of fires during the last month, according to a report made today by Fire Chief Ben White.

The department received calls on 10 fires, five of which were caused by careless burning of trash.

In the report, White stated that another fire was caused by cleaning clothes with gasoline.

Nuptial vows were exchanged by Dorothy Simpson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Simpson of Canadian, and Lt. Robert N. May, son of Mrs. R. C. May of Amarillo, on Sunday morning, June 2, at 9 a. m.

Rev. N. S. Daniel, pastor of the Lefors Methodist church, read the double-ring service in the First Methodist church, Canadian. Baskets of white lilies and coral gladioli, flanked by lighted tapers in candelabra, decorated the altar.

Proceeding the ceremony Miss Zona May, pianist of Lubbock, played "Moonlight Sonata" by Beethoven, "Viennese Refrain" by Saar, "Song of Love" by Romberg, and "Serenade" by Schubert. Mrs. H. R. Fielder introduced the ceremony with the nuptial solos "I Love You Truly" by Bond and "O Promise Me" by Scott-DeKoven, accompanied by Miss May, who played "Liebestraum" by Liszt as the musical accompaniment for the exchange of vows and the traditional wedding marches for the professional and recessional.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was attired in a street-length dress of dusty rose crepe, complemented by a white halo hat, elbow-length gloves and a corsage of gardenias and Johanna-Hill roses.

Miss Caroline Payne of Amarillo, maid-of-honor, wore an aqua crepe dress with black accessories and a gardenia corsage.

George Simpson, brother of the bride, acted as best man and R. G. Gibson, Pampa, as usher.

Mrs. Simpson, mother of the bride, wore a sheer pink dress with a corsage of cape pamine, and Mrs. May, mother of the groom, wore an ash-blouse dress with a corsage of cape pamine.

Following the ceremony, the bridal party and guests were honored at a breakfast at Fort's Cafe. A tiered bridal cake with an arrangement of sweet peas and cape pamine formed the centerpiece for the table. Following the breakfast, Miss Geraldine Pratt of Clarendon assisted the bride in serving the cake.

Mrs. May graduated from Canadian high school and received her B. S. degree from West Texas State college where she was a member of Kappa Tau Phi, social sorority. She also attended the University of Colorado at Boulder and Colorado State College at Greeley. For the past four years Mrs. May has been a teacher in the Lefors public school.

Lt. May was graduated from Canadian high school and attended CTCOS at Yale university, New Haven, Connecticut.

Lt. and Mrs. May will be at home in Denver, Colo., where Lt. May is stationed at Lowry field.

Guests attending the wedding and breakfast were Mr. and Mrs. George Hill and Joyce, Leta and Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Shockey; Mrs. Roy F. Calvert, of Hereford; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Reid and Linda, Carolyn and Kenneth of Boyer and Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Gibson of Pampa.

Tips for Teens

BY ELINOR WILLIAMS

Mother is usually right. She's been through the 'teens, has gone to high school and knows what's likely to add up to the happy ending we all want in school, college or career.

If Mom has good reason for disapproving of your date, it's wise to listen now to avoid heartache later. If she doesn't really know him (or her), give her a chance to get acquainted, then she can judge more justly.

But when Mom tries to steer 'teen romances, there's often unhappiness ahead. When parents try to choose the date that they like best for Jane or Jack, human nature grows contrary and Jane or Jack immediately favors somebody else—with or without good cause. Like this—

"I've been dating a boy who is very well to do," writes a high school girl. "He spent money foolishly just to show how much he had. He took me everywhere... carriages even for movie dates, etc. But he has no personality, is rude and too outspoken when he's with me. My parents think he's perfect because he's prosperous and acts like a gentleman with them. With me, he acts quite different.

"I have told my folks so, but they don't believe me. If I even look at another boy, my parents think I'm not being fair to him, and they keep talking about him. Now I've met a really nice boy with a wonderful personality. He's a good dancer and likes a nice, decent good time at a movie or dance. He has to work for his money, but I'd rather be with somebody I can trust, instead of a boy with two characters and money. Am I wrong?"

No, you're right if the two-faced boy is really objectionable when you date him. Tell your parents exactly what he does and says when he's with you. When they know what he's actually like, they won't insist on your dating him. If they don't believe you, invite him to your house regularly for a while. Then they'll soon have a chance to see his real character for themselves.

Where Will It End? Demands for health and welfare funds will appear more and more in union controversies with management. Even if the principle of the private tax now involved in the coal strike is outlawed, the problem will remain. Social security, which is supposed to be at least a partial answer to such contingencies, is seldom mentioned because inflation is tending to dwarf the value of the present social security program. Inevitably, sentiment will arise for increased social security benefits. This will mean in all likelihood more public debt and still more inflation. And so the crazy circle goes, with the living standards of the great mass of American citizens falling steadily lower.

Where will it end? We should begin asking ourselves this question. England, whose people are burdened with a near bankrupt government, is in the process of conversion to state money that will be a part of the scheme in the early years is estimated at more than $600,000,000.

It begins to look as if the proposed obligations of our federal government will require near confiscatory taxation on the earnings of everyone. Confiscatory taxation means the end of liberty—a high price to pay for even the most desirable reforms.

A Funny Kind of Liberalism Economy-minded congressmen have moved to trim appropriations for expansion of federal electric power projects. A balanced federal budget has become far more essential than more tax-exempt power dams.

When an attempt is made to bring government spending under control, the localities affected think a terrible wrong has been done to them. Each locality believes it should be the exception—economy is strictly for the other fellow.

Many people think it would be a tragedy if the government stopped spending hundreds upon hundreds of millions of dollars building tax-exempt electric systems to the destruction of highly taxed private industry. They are shocked when anyone mentions trimming the sails of these bureaucratic specimens of European socialism.

If "liberalism" means advocating duplication or destruction of privately-owned tax-paying industry in order that tax-exempt government plants can be built at a cost of billions of dollars, while schools and other essential public services face curtailment for lack of tax revenue, then the less liberalism we have, the better.

Common Ground By R. C. HOILES Strikes Since the Wagner Law It will be remembered that when the Wagner Labor Act was passed in 1935 it was claimed that this law would reduce strikes. Its proponents claimed that "refusal by employers to accept the procedure of collective bargaining" was one of the primary causes of strikes and other industrial strife.

The preamble to the act went on to say that "experience has proved that protection by law of the right of employees to organize and bargain collectively safeguards commerce from injury, impairment or interruption."

It seems one can write almost anything in a preamble to a bill that attempts to make its sponsors popular and get votes for them. If there ever was a false statement, that statement was false that safeguarding collective bargaining would reduce strikes and interruptions in production.

Here are the results since this law has been passed: The average annual number of strikes in the years preceding the enactment of the law was 1,000. In the eleven subsequent years the average number of strikes has been 3,398. And there were no nation-wide strikes like the coal strike prior to the Wagner Act.

The Wagner Act has greatly reduced production. It has done great harm to the honest worker. It makes it very difficult for the employer to protect the interests of the consumer. It takes the management of business out of the hands of the real managers—the consumers. The consumers should be the boss as to what they want produced and the price they are willing to pay for it.

One of the ways the Wagner employer makes it difficult for him to keep down the cost to his customers is by the definition that the interpreters of the Wagner Law have put on the word "employee." Before the Wagner Law was in existence, when a man quit a job because he wanted to strike, he was no longer an employee.

Now the interpretation of the Wagner Law is that the employer who conspires together to injure the employer by striking, are still employees; that if the employer hires other men he runs the risk of having the government compel him to discharge the new employees if it is necessary to do so in order to rehire the strikers. Not only is he compelled to rehire the strikers but he is required to pay them for the time they were on strike.

Then we wonder why we have so many strikes. Then we wonder why, with the Railway Labor Act, that guarantees seniority and the Wagner Law, we have such costly interruptions in production. The American people ought to insist on Congress repealing the Wagner Law. They also should insist on repealing Railway Labor Act, the Norris-LaGuardia Law and the Clayton Amendment that allows labor unions to conspire to set prices and punish any man who works for less without violating the Sherman Anti-Trust Law. If we want to increase production these laws should be repealed.

In addition we should repeal the law that taxes one man at one rate and another at another rate and thus greatly reduces the capital that can be used to furnish better tools.

But if we want our country to go the way of Italy, France and Russia, all we need do is to keep the Wagner Law and the other discriminatory laws on the statute books. With these discriminatory laws on our statute books we will get as poor as Italy, France and Russia.

Everybody is individualistic, different from everybody else, and yet modern education is trying to teach everybody alike. We've finally got everybody down to a level of mediocrity—Dr. Willis A. Sutton, former president National Education association.

General Duty Nurse By LUCY AGNES HANCOCK

CHAPTER I "Apple polisher!"

The jeering voice reached the girl in the hall of the Nurses' Annex and she paused abruptly. Who was Holden panning this time? She had not long to wait for another voice indignantly refuted the accusation, in no uncertain terms.

"She's not! Sally Maynard is the sweetest, most accommodating girl in Linton and you should know it. She certainly has done you plenty of favors."

That was Margaret Adams speaking and the girl outside felt an uprush of affection for her advocate. But just what did Norma Holden have against her? She turned away but before she could pass out of earshot she heard Norma say, angrily:

"She's too smooth—too eager to please for my money. Adams, and just because a certain few of you fall for that sweetness and light method she has of getting what she wants is no reason why I should. She doesn't pull the wool over my eyes. I can see through her. 'Oh yes, Doctor!' Certainly, 'Miss Sunderlin!' 'I'm only too happy to help where I can.' 'La-de-da—blah-blah-blah. Phooey!'"

So that's what some of her colleagues thought of her—an "apple polisher"—a term of derision no girl with self-respect could take lying down. But what could she do? As far as Sally knew she had done nothing to earn that contempt—that bitter scorn. Something must have happened. But what? She had intended asking Norma Holden and the other girls who were off duty and still in the house to come to her room for ginger ale and some of the fruit cookies Aunt Clem had brought her that afternoon when she went to bed Cross. She couldn't do it now. Instead she found the book she had started on Sunday and sat down to read. But her mind kept searching the past for an explanation—a reason for Norma's epithet, and she put the book down.

It hadn't been easy for Sally to adjust herself to the rigid discipline required by the faculty of Linton Memorial Hospital. But she had done so and now, a year after graduation, she had no regrets. Aunt Clem had opposed her becoming a nurse and Sally had spent months convincing her that nursing was what she wanted and what she intended following as a career. In the end the good lady capitulated, though not at all gracefully. She had entertained other plans for her lovely young grandniece and even yet had not leader as "bumbling Barkley". But even his detractors now concede that the bulky, good-natured senator from Kentucky has shown himself to be a fairly effective legislative boss.

Few administration spokesmen in recent years have faced so many difficulties as "Dear Alben". A coalition of conservative southern democrats and republicans has blocked enactment of numerous presidential demands. The length of the session, as well as the postwar lethargy, has made the members irritable. Not in years have there been so many bitter exchanges and so many unparliamentary remarks.

SUPPORTERS — The tactics of certain democrats, especially Senators Claude Pepper of Florida and "Joe" Guffey of Pennsylvania, have not eased his legislation bath. Even when they espouse the most worthy causes, many members vote in opposition because of their personal dislike of those two advocates.

Nevertheless, Mr. Barkley is slowly putting through many major items on the President's program—the British loan, a stopgap selective service act—and enactment of some form of an OPA extension, the administration's labor bill and similar measures seems certain.

Incidentally, it took courage for Mr. Barkley to sponsor the President's draft — and — prosecute — the strikers proposal. The Kentuckian's strongest supporters since he entered politics many years ago have always been the Railroad Brotherhood ple in the course of their working day and are cheery, cheerful folk. Like the postman, they "get around".

PRESTIGE—John L. Lewis's soft and hard coal miners can dominate the elections in Pennsylvania and West Virginia if they vote as a unit. But they also have from 30,000 to 50,000 members in about eight other states where even that small number of voters can decide the outcome.

His 500,000 followers have frequently repudiated their leader in the polls, as they did when he threatened to—and did—resign as head of the C. I. O. because of F. D. R.'s re-election in 1940. But his demand for establishment of a health and welfare fund is reported to have gained him more prestige with the miners than he ever had in the past.

He will have two years in which to organize an anti-Truman campaign and he has a tremendous bank roll. Never before has he had such an opportunity—and so appealing an issue—to revenge himself on his political enemies.

EFFECTIVE — Cynical members of the congressional press gallery and some of his own colleagues frequently refer to the senate majority

COURAGEOUS—The President's political aides, however, maintain that his show of strength in the hour of crisis will win him votes among groups which had been alienated by his apparent unwillingness to grapple with the labor problem during the last year. They will henceforth revise their publicity program so as to depict him as strong and courageous.

White House partisans drew comfort from the immediate and favorable response on the house side of Capitol Hill, for the members of that body in closer contact with public sentiment than do the senators, who run only every six years. When the Case bill came up for a vote in February, there were 155 members who dared not support it for fear of retaliation at the polls next November. Only thirteen opposed the Truman program, although it is far more drastic than the South Dakotan's solution of labor unrest.

STRONG—The two labor groups which forced President Truman to resort to such drastic methods have always been recognized by the ballot-box strategists of both major parties as the most politically powerful unions in the country. If they regard the administration's action as a direct challenge and seek reprisal at the polls, they can swing the election in several key states.

The railroaders are especially strong in commonwealths like New York, Pennsylvania, Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky and Missouri, and in several western states where their influence is great because of the small number eligible to vote.

The treatment are solid and respected men in their communities, and their opinions carry considerable weight. They meet many peo-

Peter Edson's Column: PRESIDENT RIGHT ABOUT PRICES GOING UP

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—President Truman's letter to Sen. Bob Wagner of New York called inflation "the most important issue now before the congress."

That statement, though since decried by the rail strike, takes in a lot of territory, including atom legislation and other explosives, like the British loan.

In spite of this high priority given price control, and in spite of the fact that congress has been dallying with this extension for four months, it will be another week before Senator Wagner's banking and currency committee will complete its deliberations. Then a few weeks more for senate floor debate. And a couple of weeks more for senate and house conferees to agree on how much they'll knife OPA in the back. If the act is completed by June 30, when the present OPA law expires, it will be sheer luck.

If it's a bad bill, President Truman has indicated he will no sign it, on the theory that unannounced price control is worse than no price control at all. That may suggest an interesting line of sabotage to congressmen who would like to see the whole OPA works thrown out the window, but don't dare be quite that far about it.

PRO-OPA PRESSURE ON CONGRESS HAS SUBSIDED The heat turned on congress by consumers after the house passed its horribly-amended price control renewal bill has now subsided. This apparent cooling-off of public OPA enthusiasm may have emboldened the anti-OPA senators to start talking in terms of still more amendments. If more consumers' pressure is put on these senators, it will have to be done in another drive by housewives' lobbies and another letter-writing campaign—timed to hit fast.

The eight republican senators on the banking and currency committee seem to be voting the party anti-OPA line. They are: Taft of Ohio, Butler of Nebraska, Capper of Kansas, Buck of Delaware, Milligan of Colorado, Hickenlooper of Iowa, and Capehart of Indiana. Tobey and Milliken are the only two inclined to give OPA a break.

With three southern democrats—Bankhead of Alabama, McFarland of Arizona, and Fulbright of Arkansas—the anti-OPA forces have a majority of the committee. Three democrats are on the fence—Radcliffe of Maryland, Murchok of Utah, and Carville of Nevada.

That leaves only six strong supporters for OPA—Chairman Wagner, who probably also holds a proxy for Carter Glass of Virginia, Barkley of Kentucky, Downey of California, Taylor of Idaho, and Mitchell of Washington. All are democrats. OPA HAS BEEN LIFTING PRICE CONTROLS RAPIDLY

The main point about which the anti-OPA congressmen seem concerned is the lack of faster decontrol. But a check of the record shows that ever since V-J, OPA has been lifting controls and raising price ceilings so fast it's a wonder there's any price control left at all.

OPA Administrator Paul Porter says that 40 per cent of all applications for price increases have been granted in full, and 20 per cent in part. In other words, OPA ceilings are already a sieve.

The rate at which price-increases have been approved has been going up month by month. Last October, 1153 increases were granted. In March, the number was 2069—nearly double. The trend is still upwards. April and May totals will be far above that for March, because the effects of the new wage-price policy announced in February are just now beginning to be felt. The floods and the coal miners. Luckily for him, he was re-elected in 1944, and he may have time to meet any broken fences on the labor political patch.

Gracie Reports

By GRACIE ALLEN My goodness, did you see where some eminent Chicago psychiatrists say that people who argue over the back fence with their neighbors are slightly insane?

I asked George whether he thought it was true, and he said no, that people who argue with their neighbors aren't slightly insane—they're completely nuts. But that may be because our neighbor is six-feet-three and weighs 250 pounds, and George is afraid that if he argues over our back fence with him he might pull it up and hit George over the head with it.

Still, arguments do crop up occasionally on important topics. The lady next door and I see eye to eye on capital and labor, but we split violently on Franco-American relations. She thinks Van Johnson is more attractive than Charles Boyer—can you imagine anything sillier?

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG news behind the news WASHINGTON BY RAY TUCKER CLASH—President Truman's apparent break with influential factions of the labor movement in the United States, especially the railroad republicans, has made the president a mere worth-while prize than it has been since 1928, in the opinion of politicians at Washington. Franklin D. Roosevelt frequently has his private quarrels with prominent leaders of the workingmen's organizations, notably John L. Lewis, but he never permitted them to affect his relations with the mass of workers. They voted for him to support—and they were right because he defeated Thomas E. Dewey in 1944 by the comparatively narrow margin of three million plus. Mr. Truman's difficulties have forced him into a direct clash with the men themselves. Politics thought it significant that the protesters against his proposal for drafting the prosecuting strikers came from the heads of many local unions throughout the country. Despite his pro-labor record in the senate and in the White House, these indignant howls seemingly reflect the sentiment of the men in overalls rather than merely the bitterness of their professional leaders. # Range Hits Grand Slam Homer As Oilers Blast Borger 17 to 3

Ft. Worth Whips Tribe for Firmer Grip on 1st Place

(By The Associated Press) Top teams in the Texas league stepped out last night to strengthen their positions in the standings. Fort Worth shutout Oklahoma City 7-0 to win the deciding game in a three-game series. Dallas Rebels took a 2-1 win off the Tulsa Oilers to give them breathing space in the second-place position. Shreveport blanked Houston 9-0. San Antonio took Beaumont 7-1. John Van Cuyk pitched his fifth victory and second shutout for the Fort Worth Cats last night. Three of the Cats runs in the first five innings were unearned. The Cats bounded Leonard Gilmore of the Indians for six runs then followed through with 11 hits off two relief pitchers. Clint Conaster's two-run homer in the sixth inning ruined Tulsa's one-run lead. Dallas outbit Tulsa 9 to 5. Doyle Lade of Shreveport came through with a six-hit shutout of the Houston Oilers. The Sports capitalized on the quickness of three Buff pitchers to run across two runs in both the first and second, and five in the third.

The San Antonio Missions came from behind to overcome Beaumont's one-run lead in the second. They made two in the fifth and one in the sixth for the victory margin.

Democracies cannot force their ideology on other nations, for this is precisely what democracy does not believe in. They have to commend their ideology by letting other nations see that it works better than anything else, and by service to them in their hour of need.—Rev. Samuel M. Shoemaker of New York.

Feller Brings Whiff Total to 118 in Victory

By JACK HAND (Special Sports Writer)
Bobby Feller's amazing record of 118 strikeouts in 107 innings so far outdistances the field that his sole competition appears to be the dusty record books in the hall of fame.

With Hal Newhouser, the 1944-45 king, running a distant second with 75 victims and no national league hurler up to the 50 mark, Rapid Robert has only Rube Waddell's modern big league record of 943 at which to aim.

Feller might make it, too, for he's pitched but 12 games for the Cleveland Indians—approximately 36 percent of his normal schedule of 40 starts. If he can maintain his early pace he will wind up with plenty to spare.

The tribe has won but 19 games and the Van Meter, Iowa, speed-no-hair captured eight, working 11 complete contests. The only time he failed to go the route, he was lifted for a pinch hitter at Boston. Three times he has been hit hard but in every other start he has looked like just about the best pitcher in baseball.

Washington is a particularly fine advantage point to sign any feller testimonials for the Senators have been the chief contributors to his soaring strikeout total. When he faced them for the first time this season, May 17 he whiffed 14 and last night he repeated the trick with 14 additional third strike victims in coasting to a 10-2 decision. Boston and New York maintained the status quo in the pennant "race" as the Red Sox trimmed the St. Louis Browns, 9-4, and the Yankees edged out Chicago, 2-1, leaving Joe Cronin's gang seven full games ahead.

Detroit presented a patched-up lineup that was good enough to hand the Philadelphia Athletics another trimming, 3-0, on Dizzy Trout's seven-hit chugging.

St. Louis clipped a half game off Brooklyn's national league lead but still trailed by 3 1/2 lengths after trimming Boston, 5-1, in a night game.

Brooklyn rallied to score three runs in the ninth inning of the second tilt at Pittsburgh and pulled out with a 7-6 "ever" in the 11th. Fritz Ostermuller Southpawed the Pirates to a 4-3 victory in the opened when Hugh Casey threw a bunted ball wildly in the ninth inning.

Ewell Blackwell, Cincinnati's rookie mound ace, turned in a gaudy three-hit job on the Phillies, 5-0, facing only 27 men, for his third straight triumph.

The New York Giants touched Hank Wess and Russ Meyer for 15 hits but lost to Chicago, 3-2. Peanuts Lowrey romped home with the tie-breaking tally in the eighth when he doubled, moved to third on a wild pitch by Junior Thompson and scored on Marv Ricketts' fly.

Baseball Union To 'Prove Its Claims' At Pittsburgh Today

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—Robert Murphy, a dark haired, determined man from Boston, opens his battle today to unionize baseball in the city which has been a keystone of the labor movement.

Murphy meets with Pittsburgh Pirate officials to make good his claims that "90 percent" of the Pirate players are enrolled in the Guild and to ask that the Guild be recognized as their bargaining agent.

"If the Pittsburgh club refuses to recognize the Guild," Murphy declared, "we will refer the case to the national labor board, requesting a hearing and an election to prove we have a majority."

Action about other ball clubs will not be taken until this case has been settled, Murphy added.

If successful, the union movement will give baseball its most complete change since Abner Doubleday invented it 107 years ago.

We have an opportunity of showing to the world how it is possible for great nations to relax their hold on their possessions and at the same time maintain the associations established.—British Minister of Health Aneurin Bevin.

Liberal Retirement Provisions Proposed
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Green (D-RI) said today the civil service commission is proposing to congress more liberal retirement provisions for government employees having 25 years or more of service who may be discharged before reaching legal retirement age.

New Prescription Lab To Open Here

Tomorrow will be a red-letter day for Pampa when P. B. Wright and Grady Rogers open their new Prescription Laboratory located at 119 West Kingsmill. These two men are by no means, new-comers to the Pampa business world, as Wright was formerly associated with the Courthouse Cafe, and Rogers worked with Cretney's in Amarillo and Pampa.

Being a registered pharmacist, Rogers will handle all prescriptions. Besides prescriptions, they will have a good line of hospital and nurses supplies, first aid needs, and an exclusive line of Franklin Serums. These serums are old stand-bys of farmers and ranchers everywhere, and will meet the demands of Pan-handle cattle owners.

Although it is a prescription laboratory, other articles will be sold, some of them scarce items—kodak films, kleenex, shaving creams and soaps, tooth paste, hair dressing, hand lotions, and many other items which are part of the everyday needs of Pampa residents. Wright will be in charge of this department.

Do not be misled by the "Doctor Roberts" sign out front. Dr. Roberts has moved to the Rose building, and because of a slight delay, the Prescription Laboratory neon sign has not been delivered.
At the opening tomorrow, all men will be presented a cigar, and the women will receive a carnation with the compliments of the proprietors.
Unless the peoples of the world are given a far greater measure of information regarding the objectives sought by their representatives—the possibility of a real people's peace will be very remote indeed.
—Sumner Welles, former Under-secretary of State.

Bartlett Announces For Constable Post

Luther E. Bartlett, a resident of Pampa, for the past 13 years, has announced his candidacy for the office of Constable, Precinct 2, Gray County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

Bartlett, 26, entered the U. S. Army at El Paso on Dec. 11, 1941. He served as Sgt. Major with the 129th Ry Shop Battalion in the European Theater. Discharged at Ft. Sam Houston on Dec. 13, 1945, Bartlett has three battle stars to his credit in addition to other decorations. He is married and the father of two children.

He said: "I elected to the office of Constable, I will administer my duties with fairness to all and special favor to none.
"I believe in a clean form of law enforcement policies, with efficient service to all the citizens and I feel qualified to fill that position because of my present experience as a peace officer."
