MacArthur's Plans For End To War Cloaked In Secrecy

Dream Becomes Reality . . . State Okays Road Funds

A bridge across the Canadian River, once a dream, will become a reality in 1953, as well as completion of State Highway 70 between Pampa and Perryton and Clarendon and Turkey.

The authorization for sufficient funds for construction of the bridge and the remainder of the highway was given late this morning in Austin by the State Highway Commission.

E. O. (Red) Wedgeworth, manager of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, who is in Austin today, told the Pampa Daily News that the commission said "sufficient funds will be appropriated for the road and bridge just as soon as plans for it are completed." A contract for construction of the Turkey job will be let just as soon as the plans are completed.

Million Dollar Job
The commission indicated the contract will be in excess of $1,000,000 but said it was impossible for them to state an exact figure until engineers' estimates of the cost — following completion of the plans — can be determined.

Work is expected to get underway sometime in 1953. This means that besides the bridge, the remaining 10 miles on the south side of the river will (See STATE, Page 2)

Guill Denies Consideration For Postal Job

Bob Guill, former congressman from Pampa, denied this morning that he was being considered for the post of assistant postmaster general in the Eisenhower cabinet.

Guill, back from New York where he conferred with Republican officials, said he did not see Arthur Summerfield while there as reported by the Houston Post.

"I have been offered nothing, been appointed to nothing, been tendered nothing, either tentatively or permanently," Guill said this morning.

He said the whole thing was news to him.

Just Speculation
He attributed the story of his appointment to speculation on the part of Washington reporters, especially those serving as correspondents for Texas news papers.

"That's all any of them are doing now, just speculating," Guill said.

Asked if he would accept such an appointment, Guill said: "I have been offered nothing, been appointed to nothing, been tendered nothing, either tentatively or permanently," Guill said this morning.

Sawyer Takes Vigorous Job At U.S. Waste In West Europe

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Commerce Sawyer says the United States has "too many people and too many agencies . . . doing too many things" in Western Europe, at the cost of waste and confusion.

This was the meat of a hard-swinging attack on U. S. aid administration in Europe which Sawyer, just back from a 10-country study in Europe, inserted in a report last night to President Truman.

Sawyer said personnel abroad can be cut sharply, and some agencies abolished.

He said he found Europe in better economic shape than he expected, and that "tremendous recovery" has taken place in countries receiving U. S. aid.

Europe can march on to prosperity, he said, if it does not lose faith in itself.

Sawyer undertook the study, ended early this month, at Truman's request.

Sawyer did not disagree with the idea of extending the roughly $5 billion dollars in aid Western Europe has received since the war.

He said it was "indispensable" to rebuilding of war-damaged economies and to stopping the spread of communism.

But he took vigorous exception to the administrative structure built up to hand out money goods and advice. Furthermore, he said, the time has come for the U. S. to halt direct aid—with some exceptions, such as military aid and reduced economic help to Italy and Greece—in favor of long-term help in the form of private investment and increased trade.

Most Europeans he talked to Sawyer indicated, agreed that the U. S. should just play money.

Eisenhower Mum On Talks With General

NEW YORK (AP) — President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower cloaked in deep secrecy today the Korean War and world peace views outlined to him by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

Aides said Eisenhower was studying ideas MacArthur set forth at their history-making conference yesterday, but they added that no detailed public account of what was discussed can be expected.

Eisenhower made ready, meanwhile, for a meeting today with a group of Republican leaders in the House of Representatives.

The President-elect said the session is one of a series he will hold with the GOP high command in Congress to chart a legislative program to deal with inflation and other domestic and foreign problems.

A meeting with Senate Republican leaders probably will be held during the week between Christmas and New Year's Day.

After yesterday's Eisenhower-MacArthur conference at the Manhattan home of John Foster Dulles, secretary of state-designate, the two five-star generals told newsmen they had discussed the problem of winning peace in Korea and the rest of the world.

The luncheon get-together at Dulles' four-story town house resulted from a MacArthur speech "a clear and definite solution to Dec. 5. He said then there is the Korean conflict."

Eisenhower, who had just completed a three-day inspection of the war zone in Korea, in search of a formula, messaged MacArthur from aboard a cruiser in the Pacific that he would like to confer with him, MacArthur promptly accepted.

The meeting yesterday was arranged by Dulles, who also set it.

When it was over, neither Eisenhower nor MacArthur said in their brief statements whether they were in agreement on a course to follow in Korea.

An Eisenhower aide said privately there was no doubt that MacArthur had set forth a plan.

"After all, said the aide, 'that was the whole purpose of the meeting.'"

The conference started a few minutes after 1 p. m., and Eisenhower and MacArthur left Dulles' (See IKE, Page 2)

HST Says Air Arm Should Be Pushed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Truman says American military airpower has made "startling technical advances" and should be pushed even more to keep Communists from "plunging the world into war."

The President said that only by such development "can we build up the power which is necessary to keep aggression and conquest" in check.

Truman's comments were made in an address last night at the Wright Memorial Dinner of the Aero Club of Washington honoring Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle for his services to aviation. It was attended by 1,400.

Navy Studies Test On Jet Seaplane

SAN DIEGO (AP) — The Navy today was studying initial test results of the first delta-wing seaplane, the XF2Y Sea Dart.

The high-speed, fighter-type jet was designed to expand the air defense perimeter of fleets at sea and installations ashore. It was built by Consolidated Vultee for the Navy. Performance details are secret.

The Sea Dart has no horizontal tail but has a triangular vertical fin and rudder.

Aims Outlined . . . WTCC Names District Head

Art Jordan of Amarillo remains as District 3 vice-president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce following a meeting of the WTCC in the Schneider Hotel dining room last night.

Jordan was selected by the nominating committee and elected unanimously on the floor.

During the meeting S. B. Whitlurg, publisher of the Amarillo Globe-Times, was presented a plaque representing first place in WTCC's campaign for fundamental citizenship.

Five Projects
Fred Husbands, WTCC manager, outlined objectives of five major projects of the WTCC for the next 12 months — agriculture and soil conservation, improving community clinics, exploit West Texas' tourist attractions with emphasis on Palo Duro Canyon, work for reorganization of the State Board of Water Engineers, and press for legislation giving them more power to administer the state's water laws, and increase efforts to further industrialize West Texas by locating industries here which are most suitable to the area's natural resources.

The meeting was presided over by Wright Armstrong, president of WTCC who also spoke on the history of West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

On industrialization, however, Armstrong told the almost 100 men from 14 of the 16 member cities that only in a few cases did a chamber of commerce have any major hand in bringing a new industry into a town.

JCs Install Officers In Dinner Meet

A new slate of officers and directors has been installed by the Pampa Junior Chamber of Commerce for 1953.

And an estimated 100 Jaycees, their guests and visitors are chuckling today over the ramblings of Frank Streetman, mayor of Sasakwa, Okla.

Occasion was the 21st annual installation banquet, held Wednesday night amid Christmas decorations in the Palm Room of city hall.

President for the coming year is Dick Stowers. Other officers are Bob Quick, first vice president; Horro, Russell, second vice president; Bob Carmichael, secretary; Gene Scott, treasurer; and James Evans, outgoing president and now state director.

Five New Directors
The five new members of the 11-man board of directors are Scott, Russell, J. C. Hopkins, Travis Lavelly Jr. and Fred Meyers.

Walter Shaller, Jaycee regional vice president, installed both officers and directors.

With a chain of humorous chatter, Streetman talked — time and again — on "deals" and "setups," frequently bringing in the names of Jaycees and visitors who were present.

"They Got Me Dead To Rights . . ." Mayor Admits Involvement In New York Waterfront Scandal

NEW YORK (AP) — An ex-chauffeur for Jersey City Mayor John F. Kenny says the mayor moaned that "they got me dead to rights" after a grand jury here quizzed him on his secret meeting with a waterfront underworld leader.

Kenny's former police department driver, Albert D. Jordan, testified yesterday before the New York State Crime Commission probing crime and corruption of New York-New Jersey docks.

Jordan said he drove Kenny to the grand jury hearing at which Kenny admitted he had met Anthony (Tony Bender) Strollo at the Manhattan hotel suite of singer Phil Regan. Six days earlier, Kenny had told the panel he didn't know Strollo.

What did he (Kenny) say when he came out of the jury session? Jordan was asked.

Jordan replied: "He told me he cried on my shoulder and tried to explain. I told him, 'What did you have to go to New York for?' He said, 'They got me dead to rights. They must have a bug (microphone) in the room.'"

Kenny who thus far has ignored a standing invitation from the commission to testify before it, lashed out yesterday in a string of probe witnesses linking him with shady waterfront characters. Kenny attacked their testimony as biased and untrustworthy.

Supervisors Keep Tiny Railroad Going

LONE STAR (AP) — The tiny but vital Texas & Northern Railroad's freight trains, with supervisory personnel at the throttles, kept at work today despite a strike.

But an injunction hearing tomorrow at Daingerfield, Morris County seat, could result in a complete shut-down of the Lone Star Steel plant here. The steel firm owns the T&N Railroad.

Work at the big East Texas plant continued normal yesterday and today after striking engineers and firemen of the T&N obeyed an anti-picketing injunction order in time for the 11 p. m. shift to go to work.

Canny Canine Scatters Rugs

TACOMA, Wash. (AP) — Mr. and Mrs. George Lagerquist had eight scatter rugs lying on the line in their backyard. When they went out to gather them in, they were gone.

"A little detective work is in order," Lagerquist decided and put out another rug to see what would happen.

A big black cocker spaniel wandered into the yard, grabbed the rug and tore down the street. Lagerquist galloped off in pursuit, but lost the culprit.

Then he tried it again, and the same thing happened.

Lagerquist quit. He had run out of rugs.

Lawmen Would Double Tenure Of County Officials, Set Up Narcotic Bureau

A seven-point legislative program, including a constitutional amendment to lengthen county and precinct terms of office from two to four years was accepted unanimously by peace officers meeting here in 31st District Court Room.

The unorganized group consisting of sheriffs, constables, city and state policemen, railroad special agents and FBI special agents, was entertained by the Gray County Sheriff's Department at a day-long discussion of law enforcement and a dinner held in the American Legion Hall yesterday.

The legislative discussion was led by Sheriff Hugh Anderson of Borger, who spoke briefly on each one of the six new laws and the constitutional amendment.

The group agreed that legislation providing for "hold points" for lunacy cases was the most important.

The law would, if passed, remove lunacy cases from the county jails and place them in temporary custody in a special building centrally located.

Generous Little Girl Has Good Intentions

PITTSFIELD, Mass. (AP) — A blonde girl of 7 walked up to a Salvation Army kettie on a street corner yesterday and dropped into it what appeared to be a $1,000 bill.

She did the same thing a block away with what looked like a $500 bill.

The little girl's intentions were probably charitable—but the bills were just play money.

Wet Freeze Is Scheduled To Hit City

A freezing, wet norther was reported headed for the Panhandle today, following a 25-degree drop in Pampa temperatures over a 12-hour period.

The water-laden cold front was expected to spread eastward from the Panhandle to night, according to the Associated Press. Rain over the entire state is predicted for Friday.

Pampa's mercury skidded from a high Wednesday afternoon of 47 degrees to a low early this morning of 22. At 11:15 a. m. the thermometer still registered only 30 degrees.

Officers of the lodge which now has a membership of 148 are Dalton Ford, master; L. E. Curtis, senior warden; J. L. Burba, junior warden; J. C. Freeman, treasurer; C. C. Kelly secretary, and 21 living past masters.

Master Masons of neighboring lodges have been invited. Masters degrees are to be conferred by past masters. Refreshments are to be served.

THIS WAS MEANT FOR SHOOTING? — NATO commander Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway and Mrs. Ridgway gaze with amazement at an ancient, ornate cannon at the Palazzo Ducale in Venice, Italy. The cannon, a Middle Ages ancestor of today's sleek, deadly engines of war is on display in the castle's museum. General Ridgway visited the palace during a troop-inspection tour of Northern Italy.

a hypothetical case pertaining to this district.

"A man suddenly becomes mentally unbalanced. He is taken to this hold point where he can be given treatment until lunacy trial comes up in county court. That man is no criminal, he doesn't belong in jail; it's hospitalization he needs," Anderson said.

"After he is tried, and found insane, then he is moved to the state hospital. At present there is no place to put a lunacy case except the county jails," the Borg sheriff said.

Other pieces of legislation being pushed by the Texas Sheriff's Association and the Association of County and Precinct Employees are:

Establishment of a state narcotics bureau with trained personnel to battle the narcotics traffic and dope smuggling across the Mexican border and state borders.

Establishment of a state hospital for criminally insane. Here, persons who are violently insane and criminally inclined would be kept.

Establishment of a state hospital for detention of sexual perverts. At present time there are insufficient facilities available to separate the type of case from normal prisoners.

Legislation making it a felony for a known criminal, ex-convict or one convicted of burglary to be found in possession of burglary tools. "Such tools may be found on any respectable man but the chances out of 10 he won't have a set of drift pins (punches) with him," Sheriff R. H. Johnson said. The law, he explained, would affect only those convicted of a felony, especially burglary.

Another law would provide funds for a workable adult probation system which is intended to take the place of the present suspended sentence report to a duly authorized agent, judge, district attorney, chief of police, special probation officer or other — at regular intervals.

The proposed amendment would let the people of Texas vote on whether they wanted to increase county and precinct elective offices from two to four year terms as in the case in a majority of other states.

The argument for the change is that it takes virtually a year or more for a new sheriff, county clerk, county judge, or other, to get his "feet on the ground" and his service to the county. Then, his second year he spends about half his time running for reelection.

"Chief of Police Sid Harper of Amarillo said, 'the longer a sheriff stays in office the better the county is served. Personally, I would like to see Paul Gaither stay in office till he dies.'"

"During the afternoon session the officers exchanged recent burglary and hijacking information with each other, including clues found at the scene so that other sheriffs might be able to locate the fugitives, or give them a hint on their own problems."

Texas Ranger Frank Probst showed colored films of burglary jobs over the Panhandle and the Youth Fined $500 For Bootlegging

Holbert Helmstetter, 19, of Childers has been fined $500 and costs in county court on a charge of bootlegging — transporting 4 per cent alcohol in excess of 4 per cent alcohol in a dry area.

Picked up Tuesday night in the McLean area by Deputy Sheriff Jimmy Shelton and Constable Luke Henley, Helmstetter was carrying 12 cases of liquor in his car. Value of the liquor was $700.

Arrest was made after a 20-mile chase at a clip of 110 miles-an-hour, Shelton told county officials.

Total fine came to $534.55.

Various techniques used to open safes, bank vaults and doors by shot thugs. A series of "mug" shots of convicts, wanted men — all in full color — were shown by Probst.

PORKER "MODEL II" TAKES THE PRIZE—The Poland China pig, above, was selected as Grand Champion Barrow of the 1952 International Livestock Exposition, at Chicago. "Purdue Model II," owned by Purdue University, is exhibited by veteran herdsman Charles Brandt, who seems very proud of the award. "Model II" seems to be the second time that a Purdue porker has "brought home the bacon" for the university.

Tito's Break With The Pope Arouses Fresh Worry In U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Marshal Tito's break with the Vatican aroused fresh worry here today over the weakest link in the chain of anti-Soviet nations in Europe — relations between Communist Yugoslavia and Catholic Italy.

The American government's concern with the situation arises from its desire, as a matter of major policy, to establish the closest political and military cooperation among all the European countries, in and out of the North Atlantic Alliance, in the interest of checking Soviet power.

Tito's diplomatic break with the Vatican yesterday probably will make it more difficult to achieve this aim in two regards: (1) Yugoslavia closer to the Western European nations, and (2) trying to solve the Italian-Yugoslav dispute over Trieste.

Furthermore, some officials think there may be difficulties with Congress, where the anti-Soviet Communist government of Yugoslavia has always been regarded with skepticism by many members.

Tito broke with Russia in mid-1945. Since that time the U. S.

included Panhandle temperatures of 22-32 degrees.

The cold front, which Thursday morning extended on a line from Paris to Waco to Marfa, was expected to move slowly to the southeast before becoming stationary. Temperatures are expected to be south of the front, but temperatures are to continue, the Weather Bureau reported.

The low pressure area moving in from the west is expected to bring snow to New Mexico and freezing drizzles to the Panhandle and West Texas.

Late Thursday morning, light rains were noted at Pecos, El Paso, Houston, Corpus Christi, Brownsville and Victoria. The heaviest precipitation was at Victoria where .03 of an inch was recorded.

Early morning readings included a 24 at Dalhart, 25 at Amarillo and 30 at Lubbock. Wichita Falls had 32, Fort Worth 43, Dallas 47, Texasiana 50, Laredo 59, Waco 59, Houston 57, Beaumont 41, Galveston 60, Austin 63, Brownsville 63, San Antonio 65, and Corpus Christi 62.

was paved as well as the 10 miles north of the river that remain to be excavated, graded and paved.

At the same time, the commission authorized a bank figure for completion of hard surfacing for State Highway 70 between Clarendon and Turkey, a distance of about 20 miles. This project will start at the Prairie Dog Fork of Red River and run south to Turkey. Completion of that stretch will make the highway a completely paved road from the Oklahoma border to Del Rio, to the Mexican border.

Police Investigate Utility Break-In

Police today were investigating the break-in of Utility Oil and Supply Co., 501 W. Brown, from which an estimated $150 in cash was taken.

Reported early Wednesday morning the burglary is thought to have been pulled sometime the night before, according to Police Chief Jim Conner.

All the money was taken from the cash register, Conner said although there was evidence of tampering with the safe—its knob had been knocked off.

Entrance was made through a back window, Conner continued which had been pried open. The burglars may have left the store through one of the back doors, he said, for all of them were found open.

No prints were found, the chief went on. The safe, cash register and window-sill were wiped clean.

Carols Featured In Yule Program

A program of Christmas carols, films, and refreshments has been planned for the C. I. O. Local 235 annual Christmas party scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Local Hall.

Ned Pryor is to play the piano while the group gathers, then carols are to be led by Nadine Slater and Odell Cooper. Madeline Blake Larimore, pianist, will provide accompaniment.

Santa Claus will greet children and give them fruit and candy packages.

Enrollment Friday In Library Story Hour

Mothers wishing to enroll children to attend the pre-school age story-hour held weekly in the Pampa Library may do so at 9:30 a.m. Friday, according to Mrs. Lillian Snow, librarian.

The sessions are scheduled every Friday at that time with Mrs. Fred Nadherny telling children's tales. Age limit is 4-12 to 6.

Babies Suffocated

ODESSA (AP) — A justice of the peace said the two-month-old twins of Mrs. Claude Martin Jr. suffocated yesterday after a kitchen stove had been left burning during the night.

Mrs. Martin found the babies dead in their crib.

GI Insurance To Pay Off Again In '53

WASHINGTON (AP) — Another dividend will be paid next year to 5 million veterans holding National Service Life Insurance policies, the Veterans Administration says.

The first payments will be made in February. The size of the individual dividends for most policyholders will be the same as this year's dividend, with the majority of men getting a flat $60.

The dividend is the second regular one on NSLI policies — the first was paid this year — and will total 180 million dollars. Two special dividends also have been paid. The four total nearly four billion dollars.

Two-Century-Old Cannon Is Found

HONG KONG (AP) — Two century old cannon, which guarded the British Crown colony in the days of Queen Victoria, have been found in a tangle of jungle on hills overlooking this city.

An artillery officer said the guns, weighing a ton apiece, must have been from some British man-of-war and no doubt were the pride of early Hong Kong defenders. The dates stamped on the cannon showed they were made in 1835.

for each $1,000 of insurance for each month it was in force between the 1952 and 1953 anniversary date. Most term policies are for $10,000.

There are nearly 3,000 rates for dividend payments for permanent plan policies, the V. A. said, and it's impossible to give a simple formula on them.

Boyle's Column . . . Making Chinese Reds Want Peace Is Key To Korean War

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK (AP) — How can the Chinese Reds be made to want peace?
The answer holds the key to what will happen in the Korean War.
President-elect Eisenhower stated the problem clearly in an off-the-cuff summary of his trip to the embattled peninsula: "...just because one side wants peace doesn't make peace. We must go ahead and do things that induce the others to want peace also."
What form will that action take? naturally Eisenhower must remain silent on this point at this time. But there are two ways to get a donkey to move forward: (A) hold some hay out in front of him, or (B) kick and beat him until he decides it is wiser to obey your will.

Two Actions Seen
And there would seem to be only two general methods of action to make the Chinese Reds want peace:
1. — Through diplomatic channels offer some kind of reward that would make them wish to reach a cease-fire in Korea and move out of the orbit of Red Russia toward the orbit of the Western powers. Assuming this could be done, such a program would possibly entail the jettisoning of Chiang Kai-shek, who is powerfully supported in the American Congress.
2. — Increase military pressure on Red China to such an extent that crippling losses would lead her to sue for a real peace even against the wishes of Red Russia, who now supplies her with most of her heavy armaments.

The danger here, of course is that such a program would fan the long-smoldering misery of Korea into a flaming third World War.
Opinion Divided
American professional military opinion is sharply divided on this question. Some soldiers say we cannot risk taking steps that might extend the conflict and commit us to full-scale warfare in the Far East. Others say we cannot afford not to take those steps.
A general officer who holds this view recently expressed it to me as follows:
"Time is fighting on the other side, not on ours. The other fellow is building up faster than we are. We have to stop this business in Korea now."
Impatience Grows
"We are fighting the war the way the Chinese want it—on a fixed line. We don't have the manpower to win that way. Our cardinal principle in warfare is mobility, and we have to get back to the 'four P's' of the American Army—find 'em, fix 'em, fight 'em and finish 'em."

Mrs. Hobby Listed With Best Dressed
NEW YORK (AP) — Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, publisher of the Houston Post and recently named Federal Security Administrator for the Eisenhower administration, is one of the world's best-dressed women.
The New York Dress Institute's list of best dressed has been announced with Mrs. Hobby and First Lady-to-be Mamie Eisenhower added to the usual 10 top feminine dressers.
The institute said Mrs. Eisenhower and Mrs. Hobby were "late starters" but came up so strongly in the voting that they tied for 11th place.
With the Duchess of Windsor leading for the tenth time since 1942, the official "ten best dressed women" include:
The Duchess of Windsor; Mrs. William Paley of New York; The Duchess of Kent; Mrs. Byron Foy of New York; Mme. Louis Arpels of Paris and New York; Marlene Dietrich; Mrs. William Randolph Hearst Jr.; Mrs. Winston Guest, the former Lucy D. Cochran of Boston; Countess Rodolfo Grepri of Rome, the former Consuelo O'Connor; and Mme. Henri Bonnet, wife of the French ambassador.

"That's a nice one, Lucile! How much is it a pound?"

Solons Will Get Smoother Rides To Their Work Now

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senators are going to be riding to and from their work more smoothly next year but that isn't guaranteed to smooth the business of lawmaking.
The easier riding will be on newly laid tracks for the senators' 700-foot monorail subway line which connects their office building with the Senate wing of the Capitol.
Cost $7,500
The new rails have just been installed at a cost of $7,500. They are the first complete track replacement since the monorail system was installed 40 years ago. Time had thinned the rails and rotted the ties.
The two 18-year passenger cars are going to remain, although they are being overhauled and repainted.

These cars make an average of 225 trips a day and are one of the big tourist attractions of the capital, especially with youngsters. Rides are free to all who can grow on.
The new tracks are part of the Capitol's biggest general cleanup and rehabilitation in 14 years. David Lynn, architect of the Capitol, says his maintenance force has been able to accomplish more this year than in any year since before World War II. The reason: Congress was out of session for six months in 1952—longest recess since 1938.
All told, $695,000 was voted for Capitol maintenance in the fiscal year which began last July 1 and most of it is being spent in the current six-month period. Here are some of the other jobs:
Paint Dome, Offices
Repainting of the dome and all of the central portion of the building.
Painting of 77 offices and stairways and corridors.
A complete soap-and-water scrubbing for every statue—there are dozens of them.

Benson May Pick Aides This Week

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ezra Taft Benson, designated as President-elect Eisenhower's secretary of agriculture, says he may name some top aides before the week is out.
Benson conferred yesterday with Secretary Brannan and told reporters afterward he was "just getting acquainted with my new duties." He declined to discuss policy matters.

Design For New Zoo . . . Elevator Operators In Mexico Direct Customers To Stairway

By HENRY McLEMORE
ZACATECAS, Mexico — Loving Mexico as I do, I hope sometime to be able to build the country a great zoo, with tigers, elephants, lions, zebras, camels, and all the other things that are part of a zoo.
The zoo I hope to build for Mexico would be a bit different though. The lions and the elephants usually hold the places of honor in the zoo, but the king of beasts and his heavier friends will have to take second place in my Mexican zoo.
As one enters the zoo I plan to build for Mexico, on the right will be a cage of elevators that work — elevators which actually go up and down and wear no signs around their necks saying that they are out of order and will the customers please use the stairs.
There are a few working elevators in Mexico, but you can count them on the fingers of Venus de Milo. An elevator operator is a young man who directs customers to the stairs.
The initial cost of the elevators will be pretty high, but their upkeep won't be much. They eat very little, to begin with. You give the average elevator two or three bananas, a drugstore tuna-fish sandwich and it's happy for a full twenty-four hours. Oh, yes, a highball of axle grease every once in a while will keep it in good spirits.
Few Mexicans have seen elevators that work or don't work. Once you leave the big cities, and there aren't many, the chances are that the Mexicans have seen the sun rise in the west more often than they have seen an elevator. So, that's my first purchase for the Mexican zoo.
I have given much thought to what I will buy for the zoo after I install the elevators, and I have decided on a radiator. Just a plain old radiator that gives off heat.
All the time I've been in Mexico I have seen no more than six and they were as unimportant as some generals' aides. Important looking, yes, but even worse than a general's aide, they didn't give off any hot air. Completely ornamental. Just as much so as a rubber plant in a hotel lobby.

Probably the quickest way to freeze to death in Mexico, and it gets cold at night during this part of the year, is to smuggle up to a radiator — if you can find such a thing.
I asked the manager of a hotel in Mexico City why he had radiators in the rooms, and he gave me the same answer that a manager of a hotel in Lima, Peru, did.
"Americans like them. They are accustomed to them. As soon as they see a radiator they feel warmer."
"Do they give off any heat at all?" I asked.
"How could they?" he said. "They're not connected with anything in the world, they're just sitting there on the floor."
So my second exhibit in the Mexican zoo will be a working radiator that throws off heat. Tomorrow I'll probably send out an expedition headed by Lowe I

"What's nobler than getting married and raising a nice family? That weird chemistry test today made up my mind!"

Thomas, Jr., to capture two or three of them. I have heard that a radiator will fight back pretty viciously when cornered in an office building it doesn't want to leave.
But I want to do this for Mexico no matter what the trouble and cost.

'Santa' Seeks Local Resident

Santa Claus is a detective this season. He is hunting a former resident of your area for the purpose of giving this person an unexpected Christmas present.
 This individual is among the 25,000 missing stockholders sought throughout the nation for large corporations, in order that they may receive accumulated dividend checks, cash surrender values or other interests due them. This huge task has been assigned to Tracers Company of America, New York City.
 The missing stockholder being sought in your area is: Robert R. Osborne who, some fifteen to twenty years ago, received his mail at Box 1206, Pampa.
 Mail to these 25,000 missing stockholders has not been delivered because their current addresses are unknown. In the event any missing stockholder is deceased, the funds will be paid to the legal heir.
 As Santa's special helper, Tracers Company, specialists in finding the missing for more than 28 years, are trying to complete the job by December 25. Experience has shown that a majority of missing stockholders are widows, orphans and others in very modest circumstances.

According to Mr. George A. Parker, general manager of the Tracers Company, there are over a million missing stockholders in America today who do not know that they have more than $5,000,000 coming to them. Many forgot about their holdings during the lean years when no dividends were paid. Others are unaware they inherited them. Still others threw them in attic trunks and cellar chests considering them worthless.
 The value of all securities back to 1860 can be checked, Parker points out, and many of them are worth money even if the issuing company has been liquidated or has changed its name.
 Three thousand persons in the past two years have received sums ranging from $25 to $400 by asking Tracers to research securities they considered valueless. Another 75,000 lost stockholders were found on assignment for corporations, receiving an accrued total of more than $12,000,000.
 All information pertaining to this stockholder should be sent to Tracers Company of America, Division A, 515 Madison Avenue, New York 22, New York.

IT'S YOUR DEAL Meld Fast If Foe Gets Pile

By OSWALD JACOBY
 Written for NEA Service
 "What is the best thing to do when the opponents win the first large discard pile?" asks a Long Beach correspondent. "Do we make our initial meld at once, or do we bide our time? And if you recommend biding, how long do we bide?"
 In general, don't hide. Make your initial meld as soon as convenient—and maybe a little sooner. But keep the main goal in mind: you are planning to meld out as quickly as possible.
 Let's examine the logic of this statement. When an opponent picks up a large discard pile, he will usually keep enough cards in his hand to assure control of the discard pile from then on. If you can't win the pile away from the enemy you'll take a beating unless you can meld out quickly. The longer the hand lasts, the worse beating you'll take.
 What can you do to meld out quickly? One of you must make an initial meld in a hurry. Then at least one member of the partnership must get into melding-out position with all possible speed.
 In an emergency situation of this kind it's always a sound idea to make the initial meld when you can do so with all natural cards. Even if you have to use one or two wild cards, it still doesn't hurt.
 If you have to use several wild cards, however, let one turn or so go by; maybe your partner can make a more convenient initial meld if you give him the chance to do so.
 You can't afford to wait very long. Your partner may misguess

Czechs Admit Rebellions
 VIENNA (AP) — Czechoslovakia's Communist premier has admitted there are "discontent and rebellion" in the nation, and indicated the Red regime has not been able to bring popular defiance under control.
 This startling admission was published in Rude Pravo, official Czechoslovak Communist newspaper. Premier Antonin Zapotocky was quoted as blaming the rebellion on shortages of food and coal.
 The Communist president, Klement Gottwald, previously admitted that the production of milk, eggs and farm goods in Czechoslovakia has fallen lower than it was in 1947, before the Communists seized power.
 The admissions lent weight to western reports that the Soviet Union's industrial demands on Czechoslovakia have been severely milking the nation and producing chaotic conditions.
 The production of heavy industrial goods for Russia has cost the satellite country terrifically, pushing down its former high standard of living. There have been reports of open "hunger demonstrations" in defiance of Communist police.

Six Children Die In Burning House
 NORTH LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — Six children burned to death and their parents and sister were severely burned after an explosion and fire destroyed their three-room house about two miles from here early today.
 The dead, all children of Mr. and Mrs. Hilton Bryant, are Ruth Ann, 9; Patsy, 8; Billie, 6; Ronnie, 4; Jean, 2 and Johnny, 9 months.
 The father and mother and an older sister Shirley, 12, are at Arkansas Baptist Hospital in Little Rock. Hospital attendants said the parents are in critical condition and Shirley serious.

Town Living Christmas
 CHRISTMAS, Fla. (AP) — The 200 or so persons in this little community are out to make every day Christmas Day.
 As a step in this direction they planted a permanent Christmas tree recently.
 Weatherproof ornaments were substituted for the usual fragile tinse. Any day you drive through Christmas you'll see a full-blown Christmas tree.
 In addition to planting and decorating the new tree, the residents have been busy with the usual flood of Christmas mail.
 Mrs. Juanita Tucker, the postmaster who inherited the job from her mother-in-law in 1932, handled about 300,000 pieces of mail last Christmas — with the help of 12 other women.
 Mrs. Tucker says she expects even more mail this year. Central Florida residents and lots of tourists as well drive to the town so that their cards and presents will have the added touch of a "Christmas" postmark.

Harvesters Clip Phillips For 5th In Row, 67-49

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

PHILLIPS — The Pampa Harvesters, paced by Jimmy Bond and Fred Woods, registered their fifth straight victory against no losses here Wednesday night by crushing the Phillips Blackhawks, 67-49.

Bond, the Harvesters' top point maker for the season, dunked in 25 points against the Blackhawks, running his season total to 120 points in five games.

Close behind Bond in the scoring department against the Blackhawks was Fred Woods who tossed in 21 points. Fifteen of Woods' points came in the third quarter when the Harvesters stretched their margin to 25 points, their biggest lead of the night, leading 61-36 at the third period's end.

Coach Clifton McNeely then began clearing the Harvesters bench as the fourth quarter got underway and the subs weren't able to do much with the Hawks. The Green and Gold got only six points in the final quarter to Phillips' 12.

The Blackhawks put up a game fight through the first period but the Harvesters jumped out 16-0 at this point, 20-18, Phillips made a free toss to reduce the margin to 20-17 in the early seconds of the second quarter but that is as close as the locals ever came to overtaking the Green and Gold file.

The Harvesters ran the count to 37-26 at halftime. Bond did most of his scoring in the first half, getting 17 tallies.

Phillips led on two occasions in the first minute of play, 2-1 and 4-3 but a free toss by Bond that tied the score and a field bucket by Buddy Cockrell put the Harvesters ahead to stay. At one time in the first quarter the Harvesters led 16-9 but the Blackhawks rallied to reduce the margin to four points by the end of the quarter. The Harvesters pulled away to a 31-17 lead in the second quarter, scoring 11 points while holding Phillips scoreless following a gratis toss by Reddick that had pulled the Blackhawks to 17-20.

The visiting Pampans played their best ball of the night in the third quarter when they piled up 24 points to take a commanding lead.

The Harvesters, however, had their worst night of the season through the percentage standpoint, in free throw attempts. The Harvesters made 14 out of 58 tries for throw tries, an average of 42.6, far below their pace going into the game.

The Pampa B team Guerrillas continued their winning ways in a preliminary tilt, defeating the Phillips B team, 64-48.

E. Jay McIlvain led the Guerrillas with 18 points, getting four field goals and 10 free tosses, Gary Griffin, who suffered a broken nose in Tuesday's workout, got into the game for the Guerrillas and scored nine pins. He wore a special face mask to protect his injured nose.

Harold Lewis followed McIlvain in the scoring column with 14 points for the Guerrillas.

The Harvesters will take on the Snyder Tigers in a two-game series Friday and Saturday nights at the Harvesters Gym.

The Guerrillas will enter the McLean tournament and will see their first action tonight at 7:30 against White Deer.

Pattison Puts Westerners Back On Schoolboy Grid Map

LUBBOCK (AP) — Just six years ago Wichita Falls high school had a very successful football coaching staff headed by C. R. (Pat) Pattison and a line mentor named Job Golding.

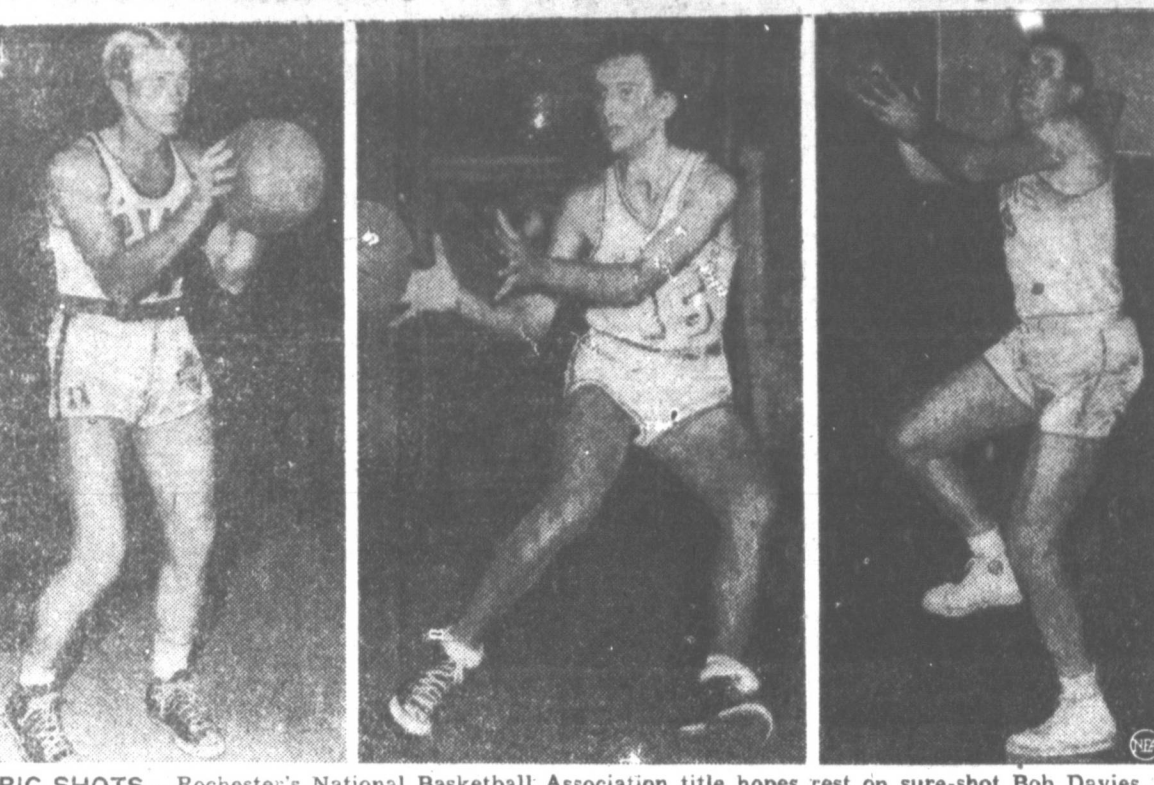

That Pattison-Golding combination carried the Coyotes to a district crown and all the way to the quarterfinals of the state playoff before losing to championship-bound Odessa, despite the fact that both of the coaches were just out of the armed forces and were working at Wichita Falls for the first time.

But, as successful as that coaching team was at Wichita Falls in 1946, and at Denison from 1940-42, other Texas schoolboy mentors probably wish Pattison and Golding had remained together instead of splitting up in 1947 when Pattison resigned to enter private business. For, separately, they've been double-tough for their opponents.

Golding in his first year as head coach at Wichita Falls in 1947, fielded a team that was unbeaten until the quarter-finals. Then in 1949 he led the Coyotes to the state championship and repeated in 1950.

Meanwhile, Pattison tired of a tame business venture after just one year, and accepted the post as head coach at Lubbock High School in 1948.

Pattison's first season was just average as he rebuilt the Western Athletic organization, but in 1949 he led the Lubbock grid-dens to their first district championship in a decade and their first undefeated regular season. Then in 1950, his Westerners advanced to the quarter-finals be-

Gulf Coast Loop Seeking To Expand

DENTON (AP) — The Gulf Coast Conference, which has only three members, will hold its winter meeting here in January and seek about expanding.

North Texas State, Midwestern and Trinity are members of this conference. Midwestern had been expected to apply for membership in the Border Conference last week at El Paso but the matter wasn't brought up.

Ablene Christian College has notified the Texas Conference that it will seek membership in another conference and indications are that it will enter the Gulf Coast.

The meeting of the conference won't be held until after the NCAA convention in Washington the first week in January. T. L. Fouts, athletic director of North Texas State, said,

Kalmikoff Takes Wild Decision Over Cummings In Mat Match

Ivan "The Mad" Russian Kalmikoff won the main event at the wrestling show at the Southern Club Sports arena last night when his opponent, George Cummings, was disqualified in the third and deciding fall.

Cummings went berserk in the third fall and began choking Kalmikoff. When Referee Gust Johnson tried to break the hold, Cummings threw Johnson over the ropes and was thus disqualified. Johnson was slightly injured when tossed from ring and had to be carried to the dressing room.

Before the disqualification of Cummings, the two had split even in their first two falls. The fight was wild and wooly

Moore Takes Title From Joey Maxim

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Able Archie Moore wearing his new light heavyweight crown at a jaunty tilt, now huris a promise that carries a challenge to other hopefuls in his 175-pound class. "I'm going to put some life into the division. Any contender who deserves a chance will get it from me."

That was one of the first statements made by the 36-year-old St. Louis Negro last night as the new world lighthouse king. Only minutes before he had won a unanimous decision over Joey Maxim — a thoroughly beaten but antoudngly game ex-champion.

There wasn't much doubt about who would be wearing the crown at fight's end by the time the battering fists of Moore had mauled Joey for seven rounds. Before the bout, Moore — who weighed 172 1/2 — to Maxim's 174 1/2 — was an 8-5 favorite with the odds shifting to 12-5 at fight time.

Judge Fred Connell gave it to Moore, 87-83, and Judge Howard Hess saw it 82-88. Referee Henry Kessler alone had it surprisingly close. Repeatedly warning Moore to keep his punches up, but penalizing him only once, Kessler scored the fight 76-74.

The Associated Press card had it 87-83 for Moore.

Crowd Approved Decision

The crowd of 12,610 fans that flocked to the arena — and paid a gross gate of $89,87 for a new St. Louis record — also shouted approval of the decision. After the seventh Moore just went through the formality of fighting the prescribed 15 rounds. Particularly in the 10th did Moore assert his punching superiority. He leaped out of a crouch and landed a smashing right that sent the 30-year-old Maxim reeling into the ropes. Only Joey's ability to tie up his opponent kept him from suffering the second knockout of his 12-year career.

That was the big question throughout the fight. How much can Maxim take?

He can take an amazing amount of punishment. He was hurt in every round after the seventh.

And even in the first he was staggered by a right and had to clinch to clear his head. In the eighth Moore opened a cut under Maxim's left eye. In the ninth blood spilled from a deep gash on Maxim's left cheek. He finished the 10th with a matching cut on the right cheek.

Maxim Hangs On

Time and again Moore unleashed the full fury of almost a decade of frustration as the "uncrowned champion," only to find Maxim still on his feet. Maxim shuffled into clinches, took left jabs and tried unsuccessfully, to avoid Moore's jarring, sneaky right hand.

It was only the third title defense for Maxim since the Cleveland Italian won the crown from Freddie Mills in 1950. Moore a contender for 10 years and No 1 challenger for almost five, had been ignored until now as a poor drawing card.

Maxim got $100,000 for the fight under a contract guarantee. Receipts from a nationwide telecast were not disclosed, but little more than the title was left for Moore. For Archie, that was enough.

Barnhill's Job At Arkansas Is Safe For Time Being

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP) — John Barnhill's position as athletic director at the University of Arkansas apparently is safe, at least temporarily, from action by the Arkansas legislative council.

Rep. Paul Van Dalsem of Perry County, who proposed abolishment of the position last Monday, yesterday moved that the motion be rescinded and the council promptly approved.

The original recommendation would have gone to the 1953 legislature, in the form of a rider on University's proposed biennial appropriation bill.

Van Dalsem said he had heard that the university faculty committee on athletics Tuesday had "refused" to hire Paul (Bear) Bry-

Four Games On Tonight's SWC Card

By CLAYTON HICKERSON
Associated Press Staff

Four Southwest Conference basketball quints take to the mat Thursday night in an effort to better the loop's non-conference, pre-season record of 13 wins and 6 defeats.

Southern Methodist, winning its first start of the pre-season grind Wednesday night, put the conference, over the 2-to-1 margin it has been enjoying against outside competition.

Southern Methodist, beaten in their first two games, defeated the touring Colorado A&M Rams, 63-62, when Bob Clayton sank two free throws in the last eleven seconds.

Seconds before Charles Gale of the Rams missed one of two free throws to leave the Coloradans leading, 62-61.

Dennis Stuehm, giant Ram junior, paced the losers with 21 points racked up with eight field goals and five cherites. Sopl Art Barnes led the Ponies with 16 points.

The Rams play Baylor University at Waco Thursday night to continue their Texas tour. Other games pit Rice against Tulane at Houston Texas vs. Tennessee at Knoxville, and Texas Christian against-Missouri at Columbia.

SMU's game with Kansas at Lawrence Friday night is the only one involving a Southwest Conference five. But Saturday night's program sees six of the seven Southwest Conference quints in action, everybody but Texas A&M.

Arkansas plays Mississippi at Little Rock, Baylor meets Tulane at New Orleans, Rice takes on Colorado A&M at Houston, SMU plays a second game with Kansas at Lawrence, TCU meets St. Louis at St. Louis, and Texas plays Vanderbilt at Nashville.

The Texas Aggies are back in action Monday night, playing the Colorado A&M Rams at College Station.

Burke won the coveted Vardon award with a 70.54 stroke average for 78 rounds. He also was third in money winning with $21,003.

Red Rail Mileage Lags
HONG KONG (AP) — The Chinese Communist railway Ministry says 49 miles of new railroads will be built in China in 1953, a low figure considering China's vast size and limited railway lines. It was considered likely that the low target was set because new construction outlined for this year still is far from complete.

RUTH MILLETT

A young wife wants the "magic formula" for easy, relaxed entertaining. She envies the hostesses who seem to entertain without apparent effort and says that she gets into such a lather, getting ready for even a few dinner guests that she dreads entertaining. To make matters worse, her husband always wants to have friends to meals, being one of those men who is a happier host than guest. So far as I know there is no "magic formula." What this wife needs to develop is know-how and self-confidence. The know-how has to come first and the self-confidence will follow naturally.

So developing know-how is her real problem. Here are some ways she can go about it.

She should keep her parties small and simple at first. But even so, they should be well-planned, so that everything possible can be done a day or two before the party.

It is last-minute rush that throws the most harassed hostesses into a dither.

Also, since she knows hostesses who seem to have a "magic formula" she should pay careful attention to how they manage. Whenever she comes home from one of those seemingly "effortless" affairs, she should write down what was served, how it was served, etc.

That way she can pick up a lot of helpful hints on how apparently "effortless" hosting is achieved.

Women aren't naturally poised hostesses. It isn't a talent they're born with. It's a result of thought, planning, and experience.

Instead of envying the seeming ease with which some women entertain, she should study the technique and borrow what she wants of it.

There's no magic formula, just careful planning and the know-how that comes with experience.

Happy holidays are here again and thoughts turn to food with a Christmas spirit. Crisp, pretty decorated cookies and picture-book cakes do much to add to the festivities of the holiday season.

Cranberry Molasses Cake topped with a wreath of green angelica and chopped red cranberries will be a sparkling dessert for any Yuletide meal. It also may be enjoyed throughout the Christmas season. The Connecticut Spice Cake is a delicious, economical fruit cake that retains its moisture for a long time. Bake two before the Christmas rush and keep one for the New Year's celebration.

The Santa Claus Cookies, the Yule Logs, and the Coconut Christmas Cookies are suggestions for the cookie jar. Keep them on hand for the holiday parties and to serve when friends call.

MOLASSES CRANBERRY CAKE
2 cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
2/3 cup butter or margarine
3/4 cup sugar
1-2 cup unsulphured molasses
2 whole eggs plus 1 egg yolk
1-2 teaspoon lemon extract
2/3 cup milk

Heat oven to 375 degrees F. (moderate). Sift together first 3 ingredients. Cream together butter or margarine and sugar. Blend in molasses. Stir in 1/2 cup flour mixture. Beat in eggs and lemon extract. Stir in remaining flour mixture alternately with milk. Beat batter 1-2 minutes. Bake 25 minutes in two well-greased, lightly floured, round, 8 inch layer cake pans. Turn out on wire rack to cool.

Frost with Cranberry Frosting. Cream 1/3 cup butter or margarine with 1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar until fluffy. Beat in 1 unbeaten egg white. Stir in 2 more cups sifted confectioners' sugar alternately with 2 tablespoons milk. Place a layer of cake on plate; spread with frosting. Put 1 cup raw cranberries through food chopper, using coarse blade; sprinkle on half over the frosted cake layer. Spread a thin layer of frosting on the bottom side of the other layer; place over frosted layer with frosted side down. Cover top and sides of cake with remaining frosting. Sprinkle remaining ground cranberries around edge of cake to form a wreath; garnish with angelica or citron cut in small pieces.

YIELD: 12 servings.

MATURE PARENT

BY MURIEL LAWRENCE

He will be seven years old next month. He is in the second grade — and a sad disappointment to his teacher. She says that he won't concentrate on his school lessons.

He is the teacher complains to his mother, "immature."

This fashionable new attack word has scared his mother into writing me.

She should lose no sleep over it. What has been expressed is a human opinion. A pretty pompous one. Little boys of six years are quite properly immature. If they were mature teachers would be out of jobs. To use this word without qualification in such a reference is glib, unhelpful and evasive.

The only criticism that concerns us is the specific one that a little boy doesn't like to concentrate on lessons.

Writes his anxious mother, "We press for promotion this year."

I should hope not. It is quite possible that this parent should not merely refrain from pressing for promotion to the third grade next June, but press right now for demotion to the first one.

The ability to concentrate is the ability to trust what we're doing. It is an important ability and is developed in homes not in schools. We help in its development by giving children as many decisions to make on their own affairs as we can.

It is not at all improbable that this small boy's true education will not be advanced by forcing him to come up with the answers to second grade arithmetic questions at this point.

Far more likely, his true education will be advanced by a steady effort to encourage him to come up with ready and confident answers to questions like these:

Are you going to buy daddy his Christmas present — or make him the calendar you were talking about? Shall I cook you carrots — or broccoli for lunch? Do you want the clerk to show you red sweaters — or gray ones? Are you just going to fuss at Sister for taking your pencil — or say "Give me back my pencil, please?" Do you want to take your bath now — or after supper?

We can't expect a little boy to learn to trust what he's doing if he's never given a chance to decide himself what he wants to do. If we, or his other brothers and sisters always decide it for him, we can't wonder that he develops distrust of what he

Pioneer Movie Maker Sets An Example For Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Film producers who are working themselves into an early grave should heed the example of Albert E. Smith. He retired from movie making 27 years ago and has been having a wonderful time ever since.

Smith is one of the most remarkable personalities in Hollywood. He has written his story in "Two Reels and a Crank," an autobiography which has just been published.

When I heard about the book, I decided to hunt up the pioneer film maker. I found him at his large, comfortable home just off Hollywood Boulevard. White-haired and peppery at 77, Smith is one of the remaining members of that fabulous breed of immigrant boys who struck it rich in the United States.

Started The Industry
It's a good idea not to ask him when I started making movies," business because he'll reply: "There wasn't any movie business I stated making movies."

That was in 1896, Smith had come to this country from his native England at the age of 13, in 1888. He became interested in show business and hooked up with J. Stuart Blackton in a Lyceum circuit that sent out lecturers and entertainers.

The pair was attracted by Thomas Edison's new motion picture gadget. With Blackton as the artist and Smith as the mechanical mind, they formed the Vitagraph Company. It became and remained one of the biggest names in the movie business.

In 1926, Smith sold Vitagraph to Warner Brothers and retired at the age of 30. Why did he sell out?

Worldwide Enterprise
"The company was not doing well," he replied. "It was an enterprise with 80 offices in this country, 20 in England and others all over the world. All the burden was on my shoulders."

"Also I had consultation with several doctors, including one I had grown up with. He said if I quit work I might live as long as my father, who died at 98. But if I didn't, he said he wouldn't be responsible. I had been working since I was 11, so I decided to stop and enjoy life."

Unlike many men who have led strenuous lives, Smith had no trouble adjusting to retirement. The sale left him well-fixed. I asked how much he received, he answered: "That's my business."

For a few years he operated a cattle ranch in San Diego County, riding horseback 25 miles a day. In recent years, he has lived in Hollywood.

"I've never been bored," he commented. "I've got so many hobbies that I don't have the time for all of them. My favorites are collecting watches and old books."

He remained out of the limelight until 1948, when the Motion Picture Academy honored him for his pioneer work in the industry. Howard Cady, West Coast editor for Doubleday and now with Little, Brown, urged him to write his memoirs. Smith consented, collaborating with Phil Koury, Cecil B. DeMille's press agent and now a Kansas City lawyer.

Smith still sees movies and thinks Hollywood is doing all right. He recently saw a Cinerama in New York and was impressed with its possibilities. He said that such new developments will keep the film industry alive.

"There is room for movies and for television," he observed. "The film business has always been getting in and out of slumps. I can remember in 1898 when the public was no longer intrigued with the novelty of the movies. Vaudeville houses were dropping the use of films and fillers. Then we went to Cuba to film the Spanish-American War, and people started flocking to the movies again."

Yule Music For Rotary

Solo parts from Handel's "Messiah" were repeated Wednesday for Pampa Rotary by seven soloists of the group who presented the oratorio Sunday in the Junior High School auditorium.

On the program were Mrs. Mack Hiatt, soprano, singing four recitations surrounding the birth of Christ. Mrs. Lonnie Richardson, soprano, sang "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth." "Rejoice Greatly," was presented by another soprano, Mrs. Lloyd Wilson. Alto solos were sung by Mrs. Don Bissell singing "O Thou That Givest Good Tidings to Zion," and Miss Evelyn Clayton singing, "He Shall Feed His Flock."

Kenneth Baumgardner, tenor, sang four of the tenor solos, "Comfort Ye My People," "Every Valley," "Thy Rebuke Hath Broken His Heart," "Behold and See." Roy Johnson, director of the "Messiah," sang "Behold I Tell You A Mystery," and "The Trumpet Shall Sound."

The soloists were accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Mary Foreman Carr and Mrs. Sue Johnson.

Mother Is Indicted For Poisoning Infant

COLORADO CITY (AP)—A grand jury indicted Mrs. Olevia Gunn, 24, for murder yesterday on a charge of killing her infant son with poison.

The indictment accused her of feeding arsenic to 11-month-old Thomas Marion Gunn, on Oct. 26th, 27th and 28th. The baby died Oct. 28. An autopsy revealed arsenic in the boy's body.

Mrs. Gunn also was indicted for feeding arsenic to her husband, Earl, 24, and their other child, Earline, 5. Both were hospitalized for food poisoning and survived.

How Government Keeps On Growing

The power of government usually grows in this manner: A specific situation attracts the sympathy or disapproval of one or more sincere citizens. They, in turn, call this situation to the attention of one or more sincere legislators. The situation so impresses the well-intentioned citizens and legislators that they jump to the conclusion: "There ought to be a law."

Seldom does the particular problem or situation apply to each of the 156 million American citizens. But the law that deals with the problem does apply equally to all. The results which flow from this fact are not always what the authors and proponents of the particular law had in mind.

In the hands of its interpreters and administrators, a new law — a grant of power to government — becomes an invitation to expand. As soon as the law is passed, the question arises as to whether or not it applies in this or that particular situation. Some of these may be like the original case, and others may not. But the decisions must be made. The executive — or more likely, an administrative clerk or junior counsel — generally decides that it does apply. This is understandable; not only is he a "hard-working and patriotic public servant upholding law and order," but also the scope of his bureau, branch, or department of government is thereby increased. It is the accepted political way "to get ahead." Liberal interpretations of new grants of power mean more work and more jobs for more administrators — at the expense of the freedom and the income of the forgotten taxpayers.

If the law happens to be one under which certain citizens can qualify for some "benefit," these citizens are all too willing to help the administrator expand his job and power. And the minds and imaginations of many hundreds of thousands of other citizens are stimulated to invent ways and means of also "qualifying for the benefits" — and then increasing them. Thus the force arising from the creative imaginations of millions of citizens is added to the force that is created by the natural desire of government administrators to increase their power. All join in seeking to enlarge the scope of the law because each sees a way of gaining from it. This hope of gain is the most powerful expansive force on earth. It is this force that can conquer a wilderness and create the greatest industrial society ever known. But if this natural hope of gain is turned by law in another direction, it can — and will — create the largest and most powerful concentrated government ever devised by man. In fact, it has — in our own country as well as abroad.

The maximum flow of creative human energy and the utmost in voluntary cooperation among individual free men are called forth only when government is limited to the equal protection of the inherent rights of free and responsible human beings. To the extent that this basic principle of a free society is implemented and safeguarded within a nation, the people of that nation will achieve balanced development and growth. Most of our reform laws violate this basic principle in that they penalize the producer and reward the "free rider" who consumes more than he produces. Thus the flow of creative human energy is increasingly inhibited as "liberal" laws authorize more and more un-earned withdrawals from the stream of goods and services provided by the producers.

The citizens of America are now entrapped in a vicious circle. The administrators must necessarily have more and more tax money if they are to enlarge the scope of their activities under new laws to "help the people." The increase of taxes causes the citizens to try even harder to qualify for the benefits, in order to regain some of the money that was taken from them to finance previous laws.

Hence it is that additional problems initiated and intensified by each new law almost always exceed the problem which the law was designed to alleviate in the first place. This could continue until the tax-payer is extinguished and the government is in complete control. It has happened several times before in history.

The only way to avoid this end result is to avoid passing the law that starts it on its way or — if it is already in existence — to get rid of it. We must remember that the principal instrument of government officials are no more moral, omnipotent, or omniscient than are any of the rest of us. Once we understand the basic principles which must be observed if freedom is to be safeguarded against government, we may become more hesitant in turning our personal problems and responsibilities over to that agency of coercion, with its insatiable appetite for power. The hour is late, and we have much to learn.

From then on, his interests expanded rapidly. Now at 35, Rollins heads a 12-man organization which grosses $15 million a year. A far cry from the Georgia farm which produced $20 the year he left.

Rollins' holdings include an electronics manufacturing company, four automobile agencies, three radio stations, with two more in the offing, one company selling automobile fleets to large firms, another that leases cars and trucks, and the managing firm John W. Rollins & Associates which oversees the entire enterprise.

School Teacher Sees How Public Schools Lead To State Ownership

I have an interesting letter from a substitute school teacher from San Francisco. In order not to embarrass the teacher, I am not using her name. I want to pass on the close reasoning this teacher uses. I quote from her letter:

"I was very interested in the article in the 'Save Our Schools' in the Sept. issue. I was educated in the public schools (were you?) and before Franklin D. Roosevelt and the Communists got me interested in Economics and Sociology I took the public schools and the U.S. post office for granted. The more I investigated public versus private ownership, the more I began to see that the post office and the public schools were just an opening wedge to public everything, even public ownership of land which the Henry George School of Social Science is teaching (in our public libraries and public school buildings). The thing that shocked me most was the inevitable step from public education to compulsory education.

"I am doing substitute teaching in the public schools and I have had a hunch for some time that there will be radical changes in the public schools in the near future because it's true 'the teachers are afraid of the principal, the principal is afraid of the superintendent, the superintendent is afraid of the school board, the school board is afraid of the parents, the parents are afraid of the children, the children are afraid of no one."

"We have an advertisement in all our buses and street cars. It reads: 'Better Schools 2 W. 45th St., New York 19, N. Y.' Do you know what this 'Better Schools' is, its purpose, who is financing it, etc.? It must take a lot of money to do that kind of advertising, and no one spends that kind of money without a good reason—that reason I would like to know because as long as our schools are public they are everybody's business. 'If you don't mind my saying so, I believe that (right as you are in being against public education—or public everything including education) the idea is such a shock to the average citizen that he has not been studying social science or given existing conditions a thought that it would only confuse and antagonize him. Perhaps there is a better way, that of beginning with some little improvement in the present setup, that anyone would favor and working gradually, step by step, to the final step of abolishing both the public and compulsory aspect of education.

"Demonstration speaks louder than words. A private school which could take twenty-five average children and teach them to read and write, add and subtract in two years would demonstrate to the world at large what could be done. Didn't the public schools begin by imitating private schools, giving all the privileges of the few? (A public school education was very excellent in the beginning). When the masses couldn't 'take' the rich curriculum of the few, education began to fit the school to the average child by taking everything out of the textbooks except what a moron could master and by cramming the curriculum with crafts and vocational subjects, eliminating Latin and Greek, etc.

"According to the McCall's article you own newspapers and are in a position to give publicity to things you deem worthy of it. I think it would be great benefit to the cause of individual initiative, free enterprise, etc. to let people know about the new text in economics, 'Understanding Our Free Economy' by Fairchild and Shelly, published by D. Van Nostrand.

"No doubt you know about the Foundation for Economic Education, Irvington-on-Hudson, and its splendid literature."

Readers of this column know that we have recommended 'Understanding Our Free Economy' by Fairchild and Shelly. They also know that we have repeatedly quoted from material furnished by the Foundation for Economic Education.

It is indeed interesting to know that even teachers are beginning to realize how public schools lead to state ownership of everything—and if it is practical for the state to educate children, then most certainly it is practical for the state to do everything else, as educating undoubtedly is more difficult than dealing with material things.

In spite of the hard work, Rollins managed to finish high school. After the farm produced a $20 yield in 1935, he left farming for a series of tough jobs... construction worker, boilermaker, dairy worker. During all this time he was keeping up his education in night school or through correspondence courses.

In 1945, with $1,000 and a borrowed $10,000, Rollins and a partner opened a Ford agency in Lewis, Del. Being in business for himself was hard for some time in those days of few cars to sell. But Rollins was able to buy out his partner four years later.

Fair Enough'.... Doctor Cites Gross Abuse By Veterans Of VA Hospital Plan

By WESTBROOK PEGLER (Copyright, 1952, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

A doctor in the Veterans Administration writes as follows: "We are beset by leeches and other parasites who sap our very life blood. In my work we find them by the thousand."

"A few months ago I interviewed a patient. He had been in the Army in 1918. He had pellagra. He was hospitalized, treated and, a few months later, discharged.

Since then, he has not worked a lick. He has spent most of the 35 years in various VA centers, barracks and hospitals. When I saw him he appeared as a husky, obese, mentally dull man of about 56 who, obviously had not missed a free meal in years. He gets board, bed, laundry, hospitalization, complete medical, surgical and dental care, false teeth, eyeglasses, hearing aids, movies, anything he needs or wants. If he cares to buy some extras such as more cigarettes, with his pension, it is tax-free.

"Many of these blood-suckers have cost the taxpayers around $200,000 each, with more to come."

This would seem to include a proportionate share of the overall cost of buildings, hospital equipment and other indirect costs per patient.

"There are thousands of such professional leeches, migrating from VA centers to barracks to hospitals, all over the country. Their diagnoses sometimes consist of phrases such as 'malnutrition,' and 'inadequate personality,' and other claptrap, which form the basis for their pensions. Many of these parasites 'served' 30 to 90 days and never were close to combat. Many never left their home states. Since then they have been masquerading as disabled veterans.

"One of their favorite diversions here is to visit the local dives and houses of prostitution until their monthly pay checks are spent. Stuporous on bootleg whiskey, beer and fuzzy pills some get hurt. One is conked with a beer bottle. Another gets cut up in a brawl a third staggers in front of an automobile. In any event an ambulance hurries to the scene and rushes him to the hospital where a doctor gives first aid as emergency calls go out for technicians, surgeons, anesthetists and operating room personnel. Countless clinical and laboratory tests such as blood typing and X-rays are hurriedly done and he is sped to the operating room where two surgeons, an anesthetist, two nurses and two attendants work on him. Later, blood transfusions, intravenous medication, oxygen antibiotics and numerous medications are given. Follows a complete history, physical, and additional clinical work-up.

"Under excellent nursing care and with many attendants to look after his every need he makes a leisurely recovery and is sent back to the barracks where he soon repeats the whole routine. Pages and pages of notes of doctors, consultants and nurses are written. Some of these bums have two volumes of records, each 4 or 5 inches thick. This does not include their records at numerous other VA hospitals and 'facilities' from Coast to Coast.

"Well, enough of that. Yes 'Let's talk sense about expense.'"

This doctor's exuberance may have led him into a few trivial inaccuracies. But his basic case is familiar to all who have a right to an opinion on this matter. Here is ruthless waste of hard-earned taxes wrung from the productive workers of the country. This money is taken from those who produce goods and wealth. The most valuable citizens pay the taxes to maintain institutions which pamper bums for life, hospitals which also provide free treatment for prosperous moochers with no excuse for sponging on their fellow citizens. Veterans' hospitals all maintain de luxe suites for Very Important Politicians. Harold Ickes was a rich grafter without a trace of a service record who freely called himself a miser. Cordell Hull, who never produced a dollar, was the father of the Income Tax Amendment which, in his old age, provides him with unearned ease in same Bethesda Naval Hospital where Ickes gold-bricked more than himself. Both became de luxe charity cases while actual combat patients occupied beds in the ward with no privacy of special attention. The hospital in this case is not a veterans' institution, although, of course, the money comes from the same source.

I have not yet touched the subject of the grafters who have been drawing hundreds of million in pensions for phony disabilities while they have also been drawing full pay as able-bodied men in good health from Civil Service aided American Veterans who have wholeheartedly supported the Disabled American Veterans has wholly discredited the worthy phony of its reason for being by the cynical greed of its other activities.

The doctor whom I have been quoting adds the following suggestions:

1. — Any individual or family receiving aid or charity from society should be required to permit designated members of society to intercede and show the individual or family how to manage intelligently. This would include birth control. During the period the "client" forfeits his right as an adviser of society. He can not vote since it is evident that he cannot manage his personal affairs. On repayment of a "loan" he regains his original rights.

2. — All government expenditures should be accounted for in detail. Any taxpayer should have a ready access to these records.

3. — Individuals convicted of dishonesty in the handling of public funds should forfeit all their money and all their possessions of value. History reveals that this provision would practically eliminate this offense.

BID FOR A SMILE

A rather loud-mouthed employee in a large mid-western office was given to boasting that he always had the last word in his household. One of his associates who chanced to call at the home was impressed by evidence to the contrary.

"Well," said the somewhat chastened husband, "I still have the last word. Don't you always hear me say, 'All right?'"

National Whirligig... HST Placing Piffails in Path Of Eisenhower Administration

By RAY TUCKER WASHINGTON — President Truman's wispish political nature has now conquered the generous, post-election mood in which he offered complete cooperation with President-elect Eisenhower during the interregnum period, between November 4 and January 20 inauguration. Grimly and determinedly, the outboard Democrats are building hurdles in the path of the incoming administration.

The first evidence of Truman's glumness over the election results was reflected in his peevish, and grudging offer of his presidential plane to fly Eisenhower to Korea.

More flagrant proof of his sourness and pettiness came in his tart comment on the Eisenhower-MacArthur endeavors for peace or victory in Korea. Veteran White House attaches and newspaper reporters were shocked at the Missouriian's behavior.

BACK-ROOM TACTICS — Truman's personal conduct, however, would be only an item for psychiatric study, if it were not that it is matched by administration activities which appear to be designed to embarrass his successor. In both domestic and international fields, it seems that he is trying to build pitfalls for the Republicans as they assume responsibility for the first time in a generation.

Indeed, it is understood that Truman and Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, the unsuccessful 1952 nominee, did not part on entirely friendly terms because of the President's outline of this sort of political strategy and plans for a Democratic comeback in 1956.

As a selfish statesmanlike and generous individual, Stevenson sincerely favors a maximum of cooperation with Eisenhower. He made that plain in the statement he issued after his recent conference with Truman. He himself had planned a trip to Korea, if he were elected. He has no use for Truman's back-room tactics of hamstringing a future President of the United States.

IRANIAN OIL CONTROVERSY — Despite numerous unsettled and dangerous controversies with England, our only major ally in the cold war, Truman has worsened relations with that country by his handling of the Iranian oil controversy and his prosecution of British and American firms involved in that Middle East dispute.

Reluctantly, and only because of persistence by the defendants' lawyers in open courtroom, Atty. Gen. McGranery now admits that it was Truman himself who personally demanded an investigation, and possible conviction of the Anglo-American firms.

In disregard of State's advice, Truman insisted on this anti-trust action last June for political purposes, hoping to make a play to small business and independent interests in this field. Sen. Sparkman, the vice-presidential nominee, headed that committee, and helped to force action against the oil firms.

Then, while condemning the practices of these companies in vitriolic language that Mossadegh and Stalin re-echoed in propaganda pamphlets, Truman permitted Secretary Acheson to offer a $100,000,000 bribe to Iran, if it would come to terms with these same firms. That was the amount of the subsidy which the Mossadegh, if he would do business with the British government.

PROGRAM BACKFIRE — Meanwhile, Acheson had ordered American oil firms not to try to buy or market Iranian oil, and thereby get Mossadegh a painful, economic hook. We were then supporting 10 Downing Street on this issue.

on his doorstep at a time when he will still be only a presidential apprentice. They will provide a Pandora-Truman box of troubles for the new and inexperienced attorney general, Herbert Brownell. They will put like on like the spot.

The Nation's Press

HOW MANY AND WHO (The Wall Street Journal)

Recently both Senator Connally, at present chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, and Senator Wiley, who is slated to be its chairman in the next Congress, spoke their minds about swollen American bureaucracy in Europe. The senators issued their statements coincidentally although each acted independently of the other.

The size of the staffs of the various American agencies in Europe has long puzzled the Europeans as themselves. The Europeans had heard much of American efficiency. Yet before their eyes was the spectacle of an ever growing influx of Americans, agencies always expanding and demanding more space. Furthermore they soon learned that the advice they got from one set of American officials might be quite the opposite of the advice they got from another set.

But the size of American staffs, their lack of coordination and their rivalries have not been the principal injury to American prestige in Europe. The greater and more serious injury is the people sent to Europe as representatives of the American Government has done much more harm.

Right after the war there were a great many Americans in Europe, and many of them were the evils of fascism. Unfortunately they were not as sensitive to the evils of Communism; in many cases they were, of course, actively sympathetic to the United States.

The influence of these people who were either blind to the evils of Communism or allied with it—very probably has waned; it would be entirely too optimistic to believe that their influence has completely disappeared. Nevertheless many of those who do remain and who are under no suspicion of Communist collaboration still fall short of being good representatives of the United States.

This is a country which believes in free enterprise. It believes in the concept of the dignity of the individual. It was those concepts which drew from Europe millions of Americans to this country. They came to a country where they would be out of the shadow of omnipresent government and where they would have the opportunity to acquire property and where their right to what they acquired would be respected.

But there appeared in Europe a host of Americans who rejected those concepts, who were the spiritual kin of those elements in Europe which differed from Communist teachings only in degree. The result was that America did not recognize its real allies in Europe. Instead it encouraged and advanced people who proclaimed an out of fashion the cultural, economic and legal concepts on which this country rests.

THOU SHALT NOT COVER (Christian Economics)

Any popular government having the power to grant monetary or other valuable favors to its citizens, will be besieged to do so in increasing measure until it finally bankrupts them to carry the burden they have laid upon themselves.

The government has no means of obtaining the money to meet these obligations except by taxation, increasing debt or inflation, the administrative process which the philosophy of security in socialization — that is, depending partly upon the efforts of others to meet their needs? It is said they do this because the state has the power to force others to provide for them if they are ill, unemployed, unfortunate, or old. But knowing that the state will do this, it is easy to lose self-reliance and slip into dependence — in other words, to develop the qualifications necessary to obtain public assistance.
