Most of Nation's Top Golfers Are In Masters; Nelson, Hogan Favored

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 2.—(AP)—Eight of the nation's top golfers were added to the entry list today of the $10,000 tenth annual Masters' golf tournament, which opens here Thursday, raising the number invited to a record high of 95.

Cliff Roberts, tournament chairman, listed the additions as Island Gibson of Kansas City, George Schreiner of Salt Lake City, Clayton Heafner of Charlotte, Rod Mumby of Los Angeles, Al Zimmerman of Portland, Ore., Buck White of Chicago, Tommy Faler of New York City, and Al Watrous of Detroit.

The majority of the players expected to tee-off in the 72-hole event already are on hand perfecting their shots over the carefully groomed 6,800 yard course designed by the famous Bobby Jones.

Byron Nelson of Toledo and Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., who finished in a 280 tie in the 1912 event, last field because of the war, are generally recognized as the top contenders, but half a dozen other entrants are considered excellent chances of winning.

Nelson, who first won in 1927, beat Hogan in the 1932 playoff, to become the event's second double winner, matching Horton Smith who won in 1934 and 1935.

Here are the previous winners and runners-up of the tournament with their scores:

—1934—Horton Smith, 284. Craig Wood 285.

—1935—Gene Sarazen 282. Craig Wood 282 (Sarazen won playoff).

—1936—Horton Smith 275. Harry Cooper 286.

—1937—Byron Nelson, 283. Ralph Guldahl 285.

—1938—Henry Neard 285. Cooper and Guldahl 287.

Harvesters Have Edge Over Amarillo, Borger, Childress

Pampa Harvesters and the Amarillo Sandies are expected to battle for top honors in the district track and field meet, to be held in Amarillo Saturday, April 6.

Coaches here have announced that 20 Pampa athletes will enter the meet, with two or more entering in all of the 14 events.

Schools in the meet will be Pampa, Amarillo, Borger and Childress. Districts in the state are re-arranged for the track meets.

Pampa is the best by comparison, having outpointed the other three teams in the Lubbock invitation but reports have it that all teams have shown considerable improvement.

The Harvesters have won most of the points on field events in previous meets this year. The locals stand a good chance placing first, second and third in the discus, with State Champion Randall Clay at the helm.

Clay set a new unofficial discus mark last Saturday against Wichita Falls as he hurled the platter 159 feet 1 1/2 inches, to pass the state record of 154 feet 11 inches.

Lennie Williams and Bill Speer both can do well over 125 feet in this event, giving them a good chance of placing.

Clay and Carl Mayes in the broad jump may also give Pampa some points. The two are only two inches apart on the best distances.

In the field events, the Harvesters appear to be fairly strong in the hurdles and dashes, but very shaky in the mile run.

Carv Mayes is the top man in both the 100 and 220 dashes but will be up against some of the Panhandle's best runners.

Pampa entries by events:

200-yard high hurdles—Lennie Williams, Bernie Brown and Russell Neef.

100-yard dash—Carl Mayes, Bob Troop and Randall Clay.

400-yard dash—Leon Gooch, Jack Olinhart and Mike Alloway.

200-yard low hurdles—Lennie Williams, Bernie Brown and Russell Neef.

400-yard relay—Randall Clay, Leon Gooch, Carl Mayes, and Bob Troop.

800-yard run—Jack Williams, Bernie Brown and Kelly Anderson.

200-yard dash—Carl Mayes and Bob Troop.

1-mile run—Malcolm Fagan, Jim Wilson and Billy Davis.

1-mile relay—Ronald Bump, Jack Olinhart, Leon Gooch and Mike Alloway.

Pole vault—Kelly Anderson, Charley Lockhart, and Hansel Kennedy.

High jump—Randall Clay, Kelly Anderson and Bill Speer.

Shot put—Lennie Williams, Zeke Griffin and Bob Boyles.

Broad jump—Carl Mayes, Randall Clay and Jack Olinhart.

Discus throw—Randall Clay, Bill Speer and Lennie Williams.

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor
DALLAS, April 2.—(AP)—Paul Tyson, confidant of Rockne, Warner and other great coaches of the nation's football, is coming to Dallas to cast his talents with little Jesuit high school.

That announcement will cause only passing comment from most gridiron fans, who never heard of Jesuit except in the morning list of high school scores during a busy campaign—and that only in the past few years.

It's a far cry from the twenties when Tyson's Tigers of Waco were the biggest names of Texas football. The tall, spare mentor who introduced the spin play to this section, who exchanged plays with Rockne and Warner, and who produced four state champions in a six-year span at Waco, has largely dropped from the public eye in the last decade.

In 1941 he was not rehired at Waco after 28 years of directing Tiger teams and he was out of coaching ranks in 1942. He turned over the next year at South Park (Eaumont). In three seasons there he has given the school some city championships but that was of local note only because South Park hasn't done very well in district play.

Now he's coming to Dallas to coach Jesuit, a Catholic school with just 195 enrollment, and with an anticipated 250 next fall and with a possibility of only about 300 if all the eligible children in the city should attend.

Jesuit has some ambitious plans. Last fall it was fourth season in football. It had a 50-50 record and played only one Class AA team. But an athletic building program has been under way at the little school out in northwest Dallas.

Next fall there will be 50 to 55 boys out for football and among them will be virtually all of the regulars of last season. They think enough of their chances at Jesuit to schedule four or five Class AA teams for 1946.

Tyson, at 53 as enthusiastic and as capable as ever, has the opportunity here to build himself an athletic empire. They are a live-wire group at Jesuit and they want to put the school into the sports headlines.

Tyson, who can outrun any boy on the squad today and who can strike 'em all out in a baseball game, takes over this week and will enter his work with gusto. A colorful fellow and a great story-teller, Tyson will be doing the things that will get Jesuit into the sports headlines. A close friend of Knute Rockne (he visited the Notre Dame wizard the day before his death), Tyson should be right down the alley for the boys at Jesuit, all of whom have ambitions to play football at Notre Dame.

And for fear someone may think it's not a good job for Tyson at the little Catholic school, we might say the salary is over $4,000 a year. That's a nice figure for a high school coach.

HOUSTON, Texas, April 2.—(AP)—Having outpointed their Beaumont, Texas, 3 to 0 last night, the New York Yankees hope to flash some of the same hitting power against the Houston Buffs, another Texas league squad, today. Keller poked two homers and drove in seven runs while Dimaggio connected for a homer and four singles in five trips to the plate.

Signing of Owen Brings Total Major League 'Outlaws' To 17

MEXICO CITY, April 2.—(AP)—Mexico league President Jorge Pasquel believes he has another little bombshell in the making for the major leagues.

Quite pleased over his acquisition of Mickey Owen, Vern Stephens and three New York Giants' players in the past few days, the dapper baseball magnate declared yesterday that "two or three other" big leaguers soon will be playing in his circuit.

He declined to name them but said they should be here next week. With his eight clubs already stocked with 17 former major leaguers, Pasquel indicated that he soon will bring an end to his raiding for the current season.

Pasquel, who with his four brothers, dominates the loop which has no ties with organized baseball, said however that he already is angling for the 1947 season.

Pasquel didn't disclose the salaries he was going to pay Owen or the Giants' trio—first Baseman Roy Zimmerman, Second Baseman George Houshmann and Pitcher Sal Maglie—but the ball players have revealed some of the terms.

Branch Rickey, president of the Brooklyn Dodgers, said at Daytona Beach, Fla., that Owen worth him he was going to get a cash bonus of $12,500 for signing his five-year contract.

The former Giants said they are to get $5,000 bonuses plus $13,000 a year.

Correct Glasses Will Iron Out Wrinkles Caused by Eye Strain

By ALICIA HART

The bad habits of frowning, squinting, close-peering, straining the muscles around the eyes or scowling as a woman reads, talks, or sews indicate the need for glasses. If these habits are responsible for horrid little lines which cold cream fails to iron out, see an oculist soon, for goodness sake. You can only iron out the lines by correcting the trouble. Face creams are helpless in remedying the damage, if you continue in your habits. Wrinkle-taxes will also accrue—which will have to be faced one fine day—by the women who indulge in facial posturing. We're calling a few of those boldly by name, so that you can be on your guard and battle them down.
Wrinkling the nose is one. As cute as the habit is, stop it. You won't like to see the crinkles etched in. Keep your brow serene, unless you like furrows in it. Drawing down the corners of the mouth, when talking, has two strikes against it. The habit is unattractive. It will speed down the sagging movements of the face.

The owner of a Dallas golf driving range said his business is all bailed up.

Paul Smyers said a man broke a front window and stole 61 almost irreplaceable golf balls.

Travis Miles Cos. 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Cos of Corsicana, went fishing with his folks. His parents despaired of landing any fish, but Travis kept right on.

Suddenly, as he described it, "a streak of lightning" hit his line. He abandoned his rod and reel, and pulled in a fighting six and a half pound bass with his bare hands.

"I pulled and he pulled," he explained simply.

A young Harlingen mother is getting pretty fed up with hot cereal. She said she is strictly a bacon-and-eggs girl, but 16-month-old Bobby won't eat his cereal unless she does. So, for six months she has eaten cereals for breakfast.

And that's not all. She hasn't taken a solo bath for a similar period. Bobby always hears the water running and wants to come and play in it.

At Teague a waitress said she is going to run for constable. Callie Roberson, 32, says she can handle a gun as she handles cups and saucers in a main street cafe.

Staff Sgt. James Garrison of Hillsboro came home lugging an old model 2 rim fire .32 revolver he had taken from a Jap. Curious, deputy sheriff Charlie Garrison, the ser-

NEW OPERATORS OF HILLSON COFFEE SHOP

months in the service, and Mrs. Vera Cox, wife of Lewis Cox of Pampa. Mrs. Cox has lived here a number of years. Mr. Urquhart, prior to army service, operated a

Your Car Is Insured During Time It's Being Repaired at Five-On

The Five-One Garage, owned and operated by Lord Hawthorne at 630 S. Cuyler street, is one of the few of that type of concern in this city that carries insurance on the patrons' cars while they are in the shop.

Mr. Hawthorne, who says he is planning to expand his business just as rapidly as he can get materials and other necessary items, said: "All patrons have insurance on their cars while they are in our place of business."

He has for sale re-built motors and transmissions. In addition to general over-haul work, he offers as service the repairs of brakes.

The Five-One Garage, was established here in 1942. The name comes from the fact that one calls telephone 51 when there is something wrong with the auto.

As Mr. Hawthorne says: "If you have any troubles which you can't find out about, just see us and we will tell you what's wrong, and that will be free."

ILO Conference Opens In Mexico City Today

Average automobile on the road in the United States today has traveled 56,000 miles.

Osborn's Receives New Shipment of Combine Repairs

Just received — large shipment of combine repairs.

With factory production of new farm implements still slow and far below the demand, the best thing farmers and ranchers of the Panhandle can do is get the best in repairs and service for their old machines.

The place to get it—Osborn Machinery company, 810 W. Foster.

Z. R. Osborn, owner and operator of the Osborn Machinery Co., has been serving farmers of the Panhandle since June, 1939. The building housing the business was remodeled in 1945 and is modern in every way.

As soon as they can be had, Allis Chalmers tractors, all crop harvesters, Demster drills, Avery plows, Wetmore feed grinders and other machinery will be available at Osborn Machinery Co.

But for the present, keep that old machinery operating like a new one with repairs and service at Osborn's.

Death Toll

There was hope also that the waves might recur today, as feared for a time last night. The commander of the Alaska sea frontier, at Seattle, emphatically denied as "grossly exaggerated" reports that a 100-foot tidal wave was rushing along the Aleutian island chain toward Kodiak.

Labor Picture

John Walsh of Cleveland was named federal mediator to assist in negotiations as workers in the city of 300,000 continued to share rides and hitch hike to their jobs.

Death Toll

There was hope also that the waves might recur today, as feared for a time last night. The commander of the Alaska sea frontier, at Seattle, emphatically denied as "grossly exaggerated" reports that a 100-foot tidal wave was rushing along the Aleutian island chain toward Kodiak.

Hawaiians "dared not estimate the damage, except in the millions of dollars," Herbert C. Shipman, Hilo sugar planter, said $700,000 worth of raw sugar was swept into the ocean with destruction of territorial wharfs.

It was estimated that Hilo had only four days of food available. To conserve the supply, residents were limited to the purchase of $2 worth of food at one time.

At East island, on French frigate shoal, 450 miles northwest of Honolulu, the giant seas swept clear over the island, the coast guard said. There was no word of the island's little naval garrison.

sion, presumably confirmed by Byrnes' talk with Mr. Truman yesterday, is reliably reported to be this: If both Russia and Iran say that Soviet troops are being withdrawn from Iran and are not being used to influence the Iranian government in considering Russian demands for concessions and the like, the court should accept the answers as satisfactory and should the case temporarily, Moscow and Tehran would then continue with direct negotiations, being asked only to report to the security council at some future stage.

If the Russian answer is equivocal, however, or if the Iranian government does not give the situation a clean bill of health, Byrnes and Sir Alexander Cadogan of Britain plan to seek continued active consideration of the case by the security council.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

ATHENS, April 2—(AP)—Members of AMFOGE—the Allied mission for observing the Greek elections—wear a blue and white OWLN on their Greek arm bands. They themselves call it "The Big Eyed Cricken," but leftwing Greeks who boycotted the elections have a less complimentary interpretation of the significance of this old emblem.

"It stands," they say, "for the foreign visitors who sleep all day and stay up all night."

This view of the AMFOGE personnel isn't widely held, however. Most Greeks have made them feel welcome and say they feel that the presence of AMFOGE observers was a moderating influence in the elections.

Junior American officers assigned to AMFOGE, many of them combat veterans, complain about the financial disparity between themselves and civilians attached to the mission. They say the soldier personnel get only $7 per day expense allowance while state department employees are getting $15.

Many of these troops tell amusing stories of the Italian campaign. One concerns two inebriated American soldiers who approached an Italian boy bootblack late at night. Accustomed to the native propensity for black market operations, one soldier jokingly pointed at his wobbling buddy, who was out on his feet, and asked: How much you

Murray again said "no."

"I insist on my rights," said Taft, "or I'll take the whole matter up on the (senate) floor."

"You can take it up anywhere you want," replied Murray, "you can't bluff me."

give me for my friend here?"

"Ten dollars" the boy answered unexpectedly. He peeled off the money and the first drunk nocketed it and staggered off into the darkness.

Col. Norman E. Fiske, Portland, Ore. here on a brief military visit, was made military governor of Rome when the Allies took that capital. Before that he served five years as American military attaché in Rome. His favorite story concerns two recruits who were told by a weary sergeant shortly after they reached the battlefield to go up and get a German machinegun that was slowing up the advance.

They disappeared slowly in painful belly crawls but quickly returned. Before they could say a word the German machinegun was heard stuttering again.

"I thought I told you to get that machine gun," the sergeant snorted angrily.

The two recruits looked at each other unhappily.

"Gergenn," we couldn't get that gun for you," one ventured finally. "It was being used."
