

LaGuardia Will Seek Food for World Relief Wherever He Can Find It

Former Mayor Of New York Is Director

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 29.—(AP)—Fiorello LaGuardia, new director general of UNRRA, told delegates from 48 nations today that he would seek food for world relief wherever he could find it—including the Argentine.

"Ticker tape ain't spaghetti," cried out the squat, fast-talking former mayor of New York in his inauguration address after bluntly declaring that the people of the world "want bread, not advice."

TOUCH OF SCORN
With almost a touch of scorn, he waved a batch of resolutions which have been passed during the two week council meeting here, and asserted belligerently:

"I want ploughs, not typewriters. x x x I want fast moving ships—not slow reading resolutions."

NO DIPLOMAT
At the outset of his extemporaneous speech in the formal, flag-decked setting of the council, LaGuardia confessed amid chuckles that he was "no diplomat."

"When I have something to say," he said, "I'll say it. From this point on, the protocol is off."

"What," he cried, "has no political complexion, and I'll buy wheat wherever I can find it."

GREETING TO PERON
Then he said that he would start right away now by extending his greetings to Colonel Peron, president of Argentina.

"Here is an opportunity," he said, "for Argentina to show its desire to cooperate with the rest of the world."

Solon Suggests Cancellation Of Atom Tests

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(AP)—Senator Huffman (D-Ohio) today offered a resolution calling for outright cancellation of the proposed atom bomb tests at Bikini A. 0. 1 this summer.

'MARTIAL GESTURES'
"This is no time for martial gestures," Huffman told the chamber. "The reasons for the cancellation are fundamental and of such common sense as to be obvious."

UNO IN INFANCY
"The United Nations organization is in its infancy. It is incongruous to its very purpose and aim for this nation or any nation to exhibit large-scale preparation for future wars, and it is unthinkable that the United States should even remotely indicate that she is preparing for an atomic war."

TESTS POSTPONED
When President Truman last week postponed the tests from May to early July, Huffman said at once that the postponement should be made permanent.

The Huffman resolution asked that the senate request the President "to cancel the two atomic bomb tests scheduled to be held at Bikini in the Pacific ocean commencing in July, 1946."

Spring—Time for House Cleaning
Its spring, and regardless of high winds bringing dust into Pampa homes, housewives are in the midst of spring house-cleaning.

As Miss Millicent Schaub, county home demonstration agent, says, regardless of weather conditions, when spring you just couldn't keep women from cleaning their homes if you did try.

More renovating of homes is being done this year than during the past few years, it is estimated. More furniture is being purchased also regardless of high prices.

Everywhere you walk on Pampa streets you see signs of spring house-cleaning and remodeling. We've even noticed some men helping with the house-cleaning early in the morning.

Among home demonstration club women who are remodeling or renovating their homes are Mrs. W. A. Melton of the Hopkins club, south of town. She is completely renovating her home.

Mrs. H. B. Taylor, Jr., north of Pampa, is remodeling their living room. The Senior Taylors recently had their home insulated in preparation for warm weather.

Mrs. W. A. Green, route 1, north of town, is having their home done over. The Greens have also had electricity installed in their home.

Mrs. R. W. Orr of the Hopkins home demonstration club is remodeling their kitchen and living room, while in the midst of being president of the Hopkins PTA which is giving a show, "The Ghost Walks," tonight.

Mrs. I. B. Langston of the Merten club is also completely remodeling her home.

All Poison Sold—More Ordered
The Pied Piper of Pampa, a federal public health agent, is evidently having good results in ridding the county not only of rats and mice, but of prairie dogs. His health program is to prevent the spread of probable typhus germs.

Since Tuesday when it was announced that poisoned maize for poisoning of the dogs was available at the county agent's office, and that the price per pound was to increase April 1 from 10 to 12 cents, all the available maize has been sold.

More has been ordered. The poisoned grain is supplied through the A. & M. college extension division with which regional county agents are connected.

Most Cuts of Pork Covered By Increases

WASHINGTON, March 29.—(AP)—As the OPA announced ceiling price increases for most pork and about a third of all beef cuts today, the American Meat institute declared that a survey indicated that a housewife had less than one chance in five of buying meat at OPA legal prices.

The office of price administration said the pork and beef increases would be effective next Monday and resulted from recently authorized higher prices for the packing industry to offset a wage increase of 16 cents an hour.

1802 STORES CHECKED
Price hikes will be announced later for veal, lamb and mutton.

R. J. Eggert, associate director of the meat institute's marketing department testified to the house agriculture committee that of 1802 stores checked by "impartial housewife shoppers" in 11 cities, 83 per cent exceeded ceiling prices in their sales.

He added that the illegal prices on See MEAT INCREASES, Page 6

Terminal Leave Pay Sought for All Servicemen
WASHINGTON, March 29.—(AP)—Backers of the idea of letting GI's as well as officers collect terminal leave pay put spurs to their drive today in the face of a budget bureau rebuff.

The latter came in a report complaining of the multi-billion-dollar cost and huge bookkeeping obstacles.

Supporters of the legislation to give enlisted personnel the same furlough pay consideration now accorded to officers said they were convinced the bureau's report means the house military committee will not approve the proposal.

ALLIED CONTROL COUNCIL: GERMAN WAR POTENTIAL WILL BE ELIMINATED UNDER NEW PROGRAM

BERLIN, March 29.—(AP)—A plan to eliminate Germany's industrial war potential while retaining enough of the beaten nation's economy to make it reasonably self-sustaining by 1949 has been adopted by the Allied control council.

The program outlined in detail by the council last night, slashes German economy in half and places future emphasis in production on agriculture and on coal and materials for the rebuilding of war-torn cities.

Every industry which could possibly be diverted to the manufacture of war materials is to be eliminated and other industries considered on the fringe of the war potential are to be cut back. Only enough export trade is provided for to pay for the food Germany must import to maintain their reduced living level.

University of Texas Back in Good Standing

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 29.—(AP)—The University of Texas was back in good standing today with the Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools after being on probation nine months.

The university was taken off probation yesterday because of "important changes" in the board of regents' attitude and procedures.

TAKEN OFF PROBATION
The association placed the university on probation last July 22 after Homer P. Rainey was discharged from his post as president. A special investigating committee charged the regents had interfered in the school's administrative affairs.

The board's action, the committee said, resulted in the dismissal of Rainey. The ouster followed a controversy kindled when the regents instituted a review of the tenure rule.

RECOMMENDATION MADE
The association's commission on institutions of higher learning recommended that the ban be lifted and declared:

"The council reaffirms its conviction that administrative conditions at the university of Texas, prior to the action of the association placing the institution on probation, were highly objectionable and in flagrant contravention of commonly accepted academic principles and practices."

M. S. Huntley of Birmingham, Ala., executive secretary of the commission on institutions of higher learning, said he visited the university Feb. 15 and spent five days in an investigation of conditions.

He asserted he interviewed all officers of the administration, members of the board of trustees and a representative group of the faculty.

He said he found "notable improvements in the relationship between the board and administrative officers of the university."

He added that these improvements, listed in the official report, included "explicit recognition, in principle and practice, of the limited

Accident Victim Is 'Resting Well'

Leon Gay, Negro worker on the construction of the sewer line, was "resting well" today, it was reported by company officials this morning.

Gay, who was employed by the Allied-Enix construction company, contractors on the sewer line, suffered a broken back, a fractured shoulder and severe lacerations when he was struck by a joint pipe that fell into the 22-foot deep ditch in which he was working.

Officials have been unable to determine what caused the pipe to roll into the ditch.

Yesterday's accident is the first to be reported on the current construction job.

Local Area Job Picture Improves During Past Week

The employment picture of Pampa and four-county area of the local United States Employment Service office has improved during the past two weeks, stated L. P. Fort, local manager, yesterday.

Area of the local office included Gray, Wheeler, Hemphill and Roberts counties.

Fewer job-seekers contacted the office during March than in any month since last November. Fewer persons filed claims for unemployment compensation.

Simultaneously fewer placements were made. The percentage of veterans placed reached a new high in February with 57 percent of 346 persons obtaining jobs being ex-service-men. The March percentage is not yet available.

"Transients are still with us," said Fort. The number has continually area workers during December and January.

Number of persons filing unemployment claims last week dropped from 49 to 36. The year about 39 percent of the pre-war output, and machine tools, with only 14 percent of pre-war production allowed.

Industries producing peace-time goods which may go ahead full blast, for instance, is to be limited to the utmost.

Industries which have levels fixed for 1949 only, without providing for reparations should those levels be exceeded.

A statement issued by the council said the heavily-industrialized Ruhr would remain as part of Germany, at least temporarily. The French had demanded that it be internationalized or separated from Germany in some way.

Russia Discussed By Local Veteran
Harry Kelly, recently returned serviceman who did duty for several months in Iran where he came in contact with Russian soldiers, discussed the Russo-Iranian-U. S. situation at yesterday's luncheon meeting of the Lions club at the First Methodist church basement.

Kelly, prefacing his remarks by saying that what he said was his personal opinion and had no official significance, declared:

"Russia is a country of confusion, with many religions, political faiths and traditions. It is almost impossible, he said, to get any real information on what is going on in that country and other countries where Russia predominates.

Ninety-five per cent of the people planned. Travel by camel back plained. Travel by camel back plained. Travel by camel back plained.

Those people are mostly nomadic, look to the United States for world leadership. "They think America is the greatest country in the world," he said.

American soldiers, while stationed next to the Russians in Iran, "learned over backwards" to get along with them.

He spoke briefly in support of the United Nations organization. "It is a great organization; it will need 100 per cent support of everyone of us."

His talk was preceded by an arrangement of Stephen Foster's music, given by a brass section of the Pampa school bands—under the direction of Band Director Ray Robbins.

International Situation Is Eyed by UAW

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., March 29.—(AP)—The U. S. Auto Workers union, having settled its own elections battles, turned today to consideration of the international situation.

As the boisterous convention neared its end, the delegates were confronted with the task of choosing between two resolutions on foreign policy.

BIG THREE CONDEMNED
One would condemn the United States, British, and Russia governments for "deliberately circumventing" the United Nations machinery and engaging in "war-provoking activities."

The other would hit "the enemies of labor and progress" in the U. S. and Britain for "openly joining hands with Tory Winston Churchill" in favor of what it said was his call for a military alliance against the USSR. The convention ends tomorrow.

Early this morning the official tally finally was completed in the vice-presidential fight between Richard Leonard of Detroit and Jack Livingston of Kansas City.

The final count: Leonard 4,309,074; Livingston 4,267,248. Delegates have anywhere from one to eight votes each.

For the next 18 months until the next convention in September 1947, the four major officers of the big union will be:

President—Reuther
Secretary-treasurer—George F. Addes
Vice-presidents—R. J. Thomas and Leonard

Raid in Germany Followed by Riot
STUTTGART, Germany, March 29.—(AP)—One displaced Jew was killed, five were wounded, and an American soldier and several German policemen were injured today in violent rioting which followed a market raid on a displaced persons camp in Stuttgart's outskirts.

Two hours of rioting erupted when German police, accompanied by a "token force" of U. S. military police, moved into the camp to search for counterfeit ration stamps. First reports indicated the fighting was complicated when nearby American soldiers, who did not know the raid had official sanction, rushed to the aid of the displaced persons.

The riot ended only when American armored cars rolled into the camp.

About 135 German police, accompanied by U. S. military police and 85 German investigators, moved into the camp at about 6:30 a. m.

Col. William W. Dawson of Cleveland, Ohio, military government officer in charge of the area, ordered an immediate investigation of the fighting.

The camp houses 1,800 Jews, mostly of Polish origin.

Dawson said German police requested and were granted permission to make the raid by the First Armored division, which controls the area. He said the riot was not put down until the original U. S. "token" force was substantially reinforced.

Council Holds Another Public Meeting Today

NEW YORK, March 29.—(AP)—A majority of the United Nations Security Council, with considerable leadership from Secretary of State Byrnes, moved today over her refusal to take part in discussion of the Iranian case.

As the council scheduled (2 p. m., CST) another public meeting on the case, having decided to go ahead without Russia, there were authoritative predictions that it would adopt a plan calling for submission to both Moscow and Tehran of three specific questions bearing on current negotiations between them and on the withdrawal of Russian troops from Iran.

Replies would be requested by early next week after which the council might proceed with or without the answers. The question procedure was informal majority support at a closed session of the council late yesterday, according to persons familiar with the discussions.

Among top delegates there was some hope the Soviet government would find this as a graceful way out of the situation created by Ambassador

Revival Message To Be Heard on Sunday At Central Baptist
Rudolph Q. Harvey, pastor of the Central Baptist church, will bring a special revival message Sunday morning at the 11 o'clock hour, when he discusses the topic, "Naaman and the Little Maid." Preceding the message, W. L. Ayers, music director, will present a special vocal number which he has prepared.

Sunday evening, the pastor will preach on "Preparation to Meet God." Special music will also be a part of this service.

Lloyd Satterwhite, Sunday school superintendent, has announced that enrollment in that department has increased from 497, April 15, 1945, to 766 at the present time. Last Sunday showed a record breaking attendance of 466. The enrollment in Training Union has increased from 188 to 333, in the same length of time. There were 227 present Sunday which is an all time high in the history of the church.

En A. Stephenson is Training Union director, and three new departments are being added to take care of the increase in attendance.

The new temporary education building is almost complete, it is stated, and three new departments are being organized.

Wednesday night crowds are growing, and much interest has been shown in the series of messages which Rev. Harvey is preaching on the theme, "How to successfully Live a Christian Life."

The public is invited to hear these sermons.

E. C. McMinn, church clerk, has reported 218 additions to the church membership since Oct. 1, 1945, which according to Dr. Hopkins, Sunday school missionary, is one of the best increases in the state.

Rev. Dallas Lee, in whose services Rev. Harvey surrendered to preach, has received 100 new members. Thirty-four of those have been taken in since January 1, with 25 of them taking the vows of the church. The average attendance in church services has increased from 79 to 124 since February of last year.

Sunday school attendance has topped a great deal. When Rev. Dallas Lee came to Lefors four years ago, the average Sunday school attendance was from 30 to 45. Now, however, it runs from 125 to 145.

Rev. Daniel attributes this rise in attendance to the war and the fact that he is a native Texan who spent his life in Plainview. If he is a Texan, he is bound to be good, and he is, it was stated.

Beginning Sunday, April 14, and ending Easter Sunday, there will be a revival meeting with District Superintendent E. D. Landreth presiding. Rev. Daniel hopes to have a successful revival during that week.

Once a month, a fellowship dinner is given at the church for the men, and so far they have had a good attendance—usually about fifty men.

Right now, the main object of the membership is to erect a new church building, so they can accommodate more members. They are in the process of raising money for this purpose, and expect to build when labor materials are available.

There has been great improvement made during this time for the Pampa congregation. A church has been erected which will seat 250 persons, and a first-room parsonage, which is modern in every respect, stands at the corner of North West and Buckler streets.

The church which has less than 100 members, has received $9,000 in donations each year during the four years. The pastor stated, "All this could not have been accomplished, had it not been for our loyal congregation and our many friends in Pampa."

The public is invited to worship with this congregation next Sunday at all services.

Rev. Joseph speaks daily over radio station KPN, from 7 until 7:30 a. m. He also conducts an open Bible class in the Court House each Thursday evening at 7:30.

Religion in the News

Evangelism

EVANGELISM is the primary task of the church and the individual Christian. God has spoken his decisive word; He has wrought out salvation for men and nations through Christ. Men must repent and believe the gospel if they are to have new life from God. They must be born again if they are to enter the kingdom of God and have eternal life.

ALL CHRISTIAN endeavor issues from the power of His Holy Spirit working effectively in the lives of those who put their trust in God through Jesus Christ. Unless the hearts and minds and wills of men are converted to Christ their labors for a better world of human relations will be in vain. This world cannot be made Christian except by those who are Christians.

WE ARE GRATEFUL for the religious freedom we enjoy in our nation. However, we cannot be complacent in the face of a growing secularism, a gradual decline in moral standards and widespread indifference to organized Christianity. Youth is drifting in an abnormal world. Home life and childhood has suffered unspcakably during the war years. The writer firmly believes that aggressive evangelism is the only power that will save us from moral disaster.

THE PICTURE of five thousand silent church bells, appeared recently in one of our church papers. These bells were stacked on the dock in Hamburg, Germany. They once summoned the people of Germany and the occupied countries to worship. Now they are destined for scrap.

IN THIS COUNTRY, too, thousands of church bells are silent. They are bells that hang in churches closed because of indifference. They are bells that will never be rung because no one cares enough to start a little church in the community.

SILENT CHURCH bells are a symbol of moral decay. As the prophet warned, "Where there is no vision the people perish." Who is to blame for our silent bells?

National Week Is Planned by Council Religious Education
CHICAGO—War's chief casualty is the home, it was declared today in a personal statement released by Dr. T. T. Swearingen, director of adult work and family life of the International Council of Religious Education, and secretary of an interfaith committee planning the observance of National Family Week, May 5-12, throughout the United States and Canada.

Stating that "while approximately 9 percent of the armed forces were killed or wounded, the percentage of marriages wrecked in this period rises to several times 9 percent," Dr. Swearingen warned that the destruction is still going on.

Pointing out men, women and children need the strength and emotional support which comes from good homes, Dr. Swearingen maintained that "in family life which draws upon the values of true religion is to be found the only enduring basis for a better world."

"The home is the primary unit of life," he stated. "It becomes the primary unit in a constructive society only as religious values become the heart of family relations and the basis of individual attitudes and conduct. Churches are built on sound family life, and the family is never truly sound without the spiritual resources of the religion which the churches teach."

In National Family Week the three major faiths seek to strengthen the spiritual foundations of the home, Dr. Swearingen asserted. Churches and synagogues will feature the significance of religion in the family through sermons, worship, classes and special programs.

Miss Helen Kim, world-famed Korean patriot and president of Ewha college, Christian school for girls in Seoul, Korea, is on a visit to the United States. She will be speaking at numerous assemblies of church women during the coming month. Miss Kim is Korea's foremost woman educator, trained at Ohio Wesleyan, Columbia and Boston universities. Since American occupation of Seoul, Ewha college has reopened and now has 900 women students. Despite difficulties the college was able to keep small sessions with courses of a wartime nature—principally public health and nursing—during Japanese occupancy.

Housewives Are Asked To Make Food Pledge

By MARY FOWLER

Housewives are asked by the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America to cooperate in "voluntary rationing" of foods that are vitally needed in war-devastated lands of Europe and Asia. The following is the pledge that they are asked to make: "In response to the President's request to help prevent starvation overseas, I voluntarily pledge to conserve food and to buy less, bake less, waste less bread, cake, wheat products. I will conscientiously attempt to conserve during the next six months, or while the emergency exists, about a quarter of the wheat products our household is accustomed to use." The use of less of the following is urged: all flour products, dried vegetables, canned foods (meats, poultry, fish, milk), fats and oils.

To focus attention of church and community upon the centrality of the home in the building of a better nation or world, Protestants, Jews and Catholics are uniting in the observance of "National Family Week" from May 5 to 12. According to Dr. T. T. Swearingen, of the International Council of Religious Education, Chicago, the chief casualty of the war is the home. "The percentage of marriages wrecked is several times the 9 percent of the armed forces killed and wounded," he says; and he adds that "the destruction is still going on." It is pointed out that the religious leaders that "religion has left the hearth," as has the birth of the child, his education, and his recreation. Pampa, Wichita Falls Track Teams Meet Tomorrow Afternoon at Harvester Park

In one of the most attractive dual meets ever held here, the Pampa Harvester will meet the Wichita Falls Coyotes in a dual track and field meet here tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 at Harvester park.

All 14 track and field events will be run off and school officials have promised plenty of spectator space. A place for cars to park has been provided at the finish line. All track events will finish at the point.

Elmer Brown, coach of the Wichita Falls team, is one of the Southwest's most famous distance runners and broad jumpers.

He, his twin brother and the famous Rideout twins of North Texas state made up a team that set the world's medley relay record, a record that still stands.

Brown also holds the broad jump record in the college division at the Southwestern track and field meet at Fort Worth.

Coach Otis Coffey of the Harvester said today that Leon Gooch, who has been a point-getter in both track and field events, will not be able to participate in tomorrow's meet due to a bad injury.

Other than Gooch, the entire Pampa squad is in fine shape and will be ready to go Coffey said.

The order of the events follows: 3:30—High hurdles, pole vault, shot put and broad jump.

3:40—100-yard dash, 3:50—440-yard dash, 4:00—Low hurdles, high jump and discus.

4:20—880-yard run, 4:30—220-yard dash, 4:40—1-mile run, 4:50—1-mile relay.

A boy may enter a track event and also a field event that start at the same time by running the track event first and then reporting to the person in charge of the field event.

Officials of the meet as announced today are:

Announcer—Winston Savage; scorer—Scott Rafferty; clerk of the course—Frank Stallings; starter—Jack Hanna; head finish judge—B. G. Gordon; timer—D. V. Biggers; pole vault and high jump judge—Claude Whittington; broad jump—J. H. Plathers; shot put—M. O. Morgan; discus—Hack Polsum.

A public address system has been set up at the field to announce winners and call entries to their respective events.

KELTNER BACK
CLEARWATER, Okla., March 29.—(AP)—With Ken Keltner back, Manager Lou Boudreau of the Cleveland Indians has switched Bob Lemon, 25-year-old rookie, from third base to centerfield.

PITCHERS NAMED
ORLANDO, Fla., March 29.—(AP)—The Washington Senators have decided on ten of the twelve pitchers they will carry this season—Roger Wolff, Dutch Leonard, Sid Hudson, Mickey Haefner, Walter Masterson, Marino Pieretti, Ray Scarborough, Maxie Wilson, John Niggeling and Vernon Curtis.

DOTS ALL BROTHERS
Although the National Baseball Congress registration is for any boy over 14 years old, Ray Dumont's records show that 80 percent of those registering last year were in the 16-18 group—Jumbo Jim Elliott, Yalnova track coach who had quite a reputation as a second-place finisher in his competitive days, claims he broke one record while overseas—for the fastest jeep ride—the jeep was in a plane flying from America to France and the only place Jim could find to sit was in the driver's seat.

CARDS PLAY SOX
SARASOTA, Fla., March 29.—(AP)—Red Barret and Max Lanier have been named to pitch for the St. Louis Cardinals today against the Boston Red Sox here.

BUM TWIRLS EIGHT
DAYTONA BEACH, Fla., March 29.—(AP)—Vic Lombardi became the first Brooklyn pitcher to go more than five innings this spring when he twirled eight innings yesterday against the New York Yankee "B" squad.

SUNDRA AILING
ANAHEIM, Calif., March 29.—(AP)—Pitcher Steve Sundra was the only ailing member of St. Louis Browns today as the club broke camp. He twisted his knee in a pepper game.

VARI-COLORED ROADS
Although white is very visible, it is too dazzling in sunshine. For that reason, authorities in the south of France are considering having all the main roads colored red, with secondary roads green or yellow.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK, March 29.—(AP)—Greg Rice has authored a pamphlet on distance running for the New York A. C. youth athletic council—Bill Wight, the rookie southpaw who has been drawing rave notices in the Yankee training camp, won only 15 games and lost 22 in two seasons at Idaho Falls and Norfolk before going into service—Boston college, where the enrollment dropped under 300 during the war, had an initial turnout of 71 for spring football practice the other day—Best story of the recent Madison Square Garden basketball tournaments concerns the visiting athletic director who bought a lot of tickets for alumni and friends. The eager old grads ascended him in a hotel lobby to get their share and the athletic director was promptly picked up for "scalping."

PIRATE VOLLEYBALL
LEFORS, March 29.—The Lefors high school volleyball team, coached by Mrs. John Hosea, will enter the district meet next Friday and Saturday at White Deer.

The team lost two or three games to White Deer in a march last week and is anxious to avenge the loss.

Wednesday, the varsity team, composed of Mary Joyce McDaniel, captain; Jackie Patterson, co-captain; Nina Maple, co-captain; Deanna Herring, Juanita Upham and Jean Rath lost its game to White Deer.

The Lefors second team, however, won its game and a playoff was arranged. The White Deer team won the third game and took the series 2-1-1.

GI Airmail To Get Top Priority
Lieutenant Colonel Robert L. Hardy, commanding officer of West Texas U. S. army recruiting district, has just informed the Secretary of War Robert F. Patterson, in an effort to improve and speed up mail deliveries to soldiers in the Pacific, announced that all air mail to and from troops in Japan, the Philippines, Okinawa, and other Pacific areas has been given a No. 1 priority and is being transmitted daily by air. This means mail will have priority over both personnel and cargo.

Because of rapid demobilization during recent months plane service to the Pacific has been curtailed. This is particularly to the loss of maintenance personnel. As a consequence of the curtailed service it has been necessary to send a large volume of personnel air mail letters, to and from military personnel, by surface during February and over 3,000,000 of such letters are now en route by surface vessels.

With the establishment of the new priority for mail all air mail letters for troops in the Pacific, except such letters as are already en route by ship, are being flown to their destination without delay.

SMITH HURT
BISBEE, Ariz., March 29.—(AP)—Pitcher Eddie Smith got credit for Chicago White Sox victory over Pittsburgh yesterday but he suffered a sprained shoulder during the game and had to retire.

Free Film Showing To Be Here Tonight
The Rod and Gun club is showing a technical picture at the district court room tonight, beginning at 8, and the public is invited, a member of the club announced. There will be no charge for seeing the picture, which features hunting and fishing in Alaska. One man said that he had already seen the picture twice, and that he was going to see it again tonight. It has been shown here in Pampa the past few days.

Bill Keller, employe of Cabot's, will use the company's projector in showing the film.

CIO Battles Will Make Trouble for PAC
NEW YORK, March 29.—Battles even more bitter than that between R. J. Thomas and Walter Reuther are brewing in CIO, Business Week reports. "The communist element expects efforts will be made to purge it," the article says.

"Watch these fights—not so much because they will weaken unions with which management must deal, but because of national politics. They weaken the political action committee's ability to get out its vote."

The Higher the Speed The Higher the Cost
WASHINGTON, March 29.—The cost of speed climbs to almost prohibitive proportions in the supersonic ranges. Aviation News reports, predicting that those speeds will be practically only in military craft where economy is of secondary importance.

"Drawing the example of a coast-to-coast flight made at 30,000 feet at cruising speed, H. C. Bailey of the flight research division, National advisory committee for aeronautics, points out that about 10 standard drums of gasoline would be burned if the flight were made at 385 mph. Made at a speed of 675 mph, the flight would require twice this quantity of fuel, although the speed would be less than two and one-half times as fast."

The Amazon river drains an area one million square miles larger than Europe.

Hank Greenberg Stretches Ageing Limbs for Tigers

LAKELAND, Fla., March 29.—(AP)—Hank Greenberg, the Berlin beauty of 1945 whose big bat put the Detroit Tigers into the world series doesn't look at all like his old self this spring but the least worried person involved probably is soft-spoken Manager Steve O'Neill.

Back in first base a position he vacated to shift to the outfield in 1940, Greenberg is leaving sharp impressions with observers of Detroit's exhibition games, all right, but they're all bad.

In fact, many who have seen the slow-footed 35-year-old Greenberg stretch ageing legs and arms around first base this spring are convinced that Hank's position will be the weakest in the Tiger lineup when Detroit opens defense of its American league flag April 16. All this despite the fact that the big fellow is working for an estimated $60,000 pay check.

Such judgment, based not alone on Hank's sub-par fielding and running, would seem justified by Greenberg's batting average of .184 in his first 15 exhibition game appearances.

For Hank's sharp eyes had conceded that his limited coverage in the field would be more than offset by his power hitting.

So far, in 49 times at bat this spring, Greenberg has contributed only nine hits—seven of them singles—to the Detroit offense and the two extra-base knocks were both unimportant doubles.

O'Neill, who insists that "Hank will do all right out there; don't worry about that guy," gave Greenberg three days off at his own request last week in the hope of lightening out his hitting eye and liming.

Pennant-Hungry Yanks Look Like 'Team to Beat'

By GAYLE TALBOT

TAMPA, Fla., March 29.—(AP)—If ever a ball club looked ready to run away with a pennant race it is the New York Yankees as they break camp at St. Petersburg today and strike out on the exhibition tour that will take them through seven states including Texas, on their way north.

Once again Joe McCarthy, perhaps the most skilled of all managers, has a great club at his command, strong from stem to stern; and once again the American league is due to find the combination unbeatable. This observer's best guess is that the Boston Red Sox will finish second, the Detroit Tigers third and Washington fourth, ahead of Cleveland.

It would be impossible not to pick the Yankees. No insight into the complexities of baseball is required to predict that a club with such hitters as Joe Dimaggio, Charley Keller, Tommy Hearich, Nick Atten, George Starnweiss and Joe Gordon in its line-up will be hard to head off.

In pitching the club does not appear to stack up with several opposing teams, including Boston, Detroit, Washington and Cleveland; but with the kind of batting it is certain to get, its hurling should prove adequate. Yankee pitchers will not have to produce shutouts to win. McCarthy, who should know, says his pitching will be "all right."

Joe Cronin's Boston club is a similarly natural choice to chase the Yankees to the wire again, just as it did in '42 and '43 before both teams lost their stars to the services. Conceivably the Sox might even finish in front if everything went exactly right, for they are a powerful team. But the record simply is against them.

MACK NAMES STARTERS

WEST PALM BEACH, March 29.—(AP)—This is how the Philadelphia Athletics expect to line up on opening day, with the exception of the pitcher: Ford Garrison, Vern Benson and Sam Chapman in the outfield; George McQuinn 1b; Irv Hall 2b; George Kell 3b; Jack Wallaesa and Buddy Rosar c.

Graziano Is Favored Over Champ Servo in Garden Bout Tonight

NEW YORK, March 29.—(AP)—Rocky Graziano, the ring's newest "killer" who just loves to knockout welterweight champions, gets his chance at Marty Servo, the new 147-pound boss in a 10-round non-title affair at Madison Square Garden tonight.

A sellout crowd of close to 19,000 persons who already have paid around $170,000 at $20 tops will sit in on this expected-to-be torrid affair.

The gross is a record for other than heavyweight scraps at the Garden and boosts promoter Mike Jacobs' take for 13 shows this year to over $1,000,000.

Rocky, a middleweight who jumped into the fistic limelight last year with sensational stretchings of Billy Arnold, Harold Green, Bummy Davis and the then welterweight champion Freddie "Red" Cochrane, is a 5 to 6 choice to add Servo to his string.

Galveston Will Be Host To Swimmers In 'Five-Mile' Meet

GALVESTON, March 29.—(AP)—Distance swimming returns to Galveston this year and a five-mile event scheduled for May 12 is expected to attract several nationally-known stars.

Sam Maceo, chairman of events of the Greater Galveston Beach association, said top swimmers from over the country were expected to be attracted because it will be an open affair with $1,000 in cash prizes, $500 for first place.

The event will be along a five-mile course marked off between 39th street and Stewart beach and in that way spectators all along the boulevard may watch the progress of the race.

Entry blanks will be sent out in few days and Maceo said he expected around 75 to compete. Among entries already filed are J. W. Rouse of Houston and Paul Boesch, professional wrestler who formerly was a life guard at Long Island, N. Y.

Important Topics To Be Discussed In Future Meeting

AUSTIN, March 29.—The impact of war on education will be one of the principal topics discussed when the Texas society of college teachers in education meets at the University of Texas April 12-13.

Men and women prominent in Texas colleges will take part in the two-day program, which also will cover methods of guidance and research in teacher education. Dr. C. T. Gray, president, and university professor of educational psychology, announced today.

The impact of war on methods of teaching in college will be interpreted by a university teacher recently discharged from the navy as lieutenant commander—Dr. A. L. Chapman, director of research in education by radio—and by Capt. A. A. Grusendorf, now on leave from Southwest Texas State Teachers college.

Harvey Williams, principal of the Austin high school, and Dean B. F. Pittenger, of the university's college of education, also will take part in the discussion of this topic. "Guidance" will be discussed by J. H. Craig, director of the department of child adjustment in the Austin public schools; C. C. Mason, director of vocational education, North Texas agricultural college and T. F. Richardson, director of student personnel, Texas Christian university.

Research in teacher education will be presented by W. O. Ford, professor of education, University of Houston; Margaret Rouse, assistant professor of education, Mary Hardin-Baylor college; D. F. Votaw, professor of education, Southwest Texas State Teachers college; R. E. Mendelhall, dean of men and head of the department of education, Southwestern university, and Vernon L. Mangun, dean of Mary Hardin-Baylor college.

Four hundred college teachers are affiliated with the Texas society, Dr. B. F. Holland, secretary said.

After being preserved for 20 years, snake venom was found to be as poisonous as ever.

The report added: "It is clear that some disaffection will continue but the council is convinced of the intent and purpose of the board and of the acting president to conform to sound and accepted educational principles and practices."

The Southern Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools elected the following members from Texas to the commission on institutions of higher learning: President Umphrey Lee, Southern Methodist university, and President Sam R. UNRRA Head

(A dispatch from Buenos Aires today said Argentina had declined an invitation to membership in UNRRA on the ground that she already is committed to send all her exportable food surplus to various countries by sale or donation.)

"Our job is to take food where we can find it, and to take it to people who need it wherever they are," he said.

Successor to Herbert Lehman as director general of UNRRA, the former mayor of New York was confronted with an assignment complicated by the fact that the relief work is dependent upon voluntary procurement of supplies rather than mandatory rationing.

Despite Lehman's request, the UNRRA council refused to go all out for war time controls over food. UNRRA's position was taken in concurrence with the contention by President Truman, Herbert Hoover and Agriculture Secretary Clinton Anderson that rationing now was unnecessary.

Passenger Trains Reduce Schedules

CHICAGO, Ill., March 29.—Schedules of Santa Fe transcontinental passenger trains will be substantially reduced effective June 2, it was announced today by Fred G. Gurley, the road's president. He also said that effective with the change in schedule, the chief will be regularly powered with Diesel locomotive. It will be the only daily transcontinental passenger train between Chicago and Los Angeles pulled with Diesel power.

Running time of the Santa Fe Super Chief and El Capitan will be reduced two hours, to thirty-nine hours and forty-five minutes. Schedule of the west bound chief will be reduced one hour and forty-five minutes and east bound twenty-four minutes, with an overall time west bound of forty-eight hours and east bound forty-seven hours. Time of the Grand Canyon Limited, Chicago to Los Angeles will be reduced five hours and fifteen minutes, providing materially improved service along its route. East bound the reduction will be nine hours and thirty-five minutes. The Chicago to Los Angeles California Limited will be cut three hours and forty-five minutes, and east bound thirty minutes. The road's economy train, the Scout, will make the coast run from Chicago in fifty-nine hours and fifteen minutes west bound, a reduction of three hours and fifteen minutes. East bound the running time will be reduced by an hour and forty-five minutes.

Gurley also announced that the road has on order 164 modern light weight passenger cars, delivery of which is expected during the summer and fall months.

Meat Increases

some cuts were double and even triple the ceiling, although the average was around 20 per cent.

INDUSTRY PROBLEMS
Egbert supported the industry's demand for removal of meat price ceilings. The committee is investigating problems of the industry.

Retail pork prices generally will be upped an average of three-quarters of a cent a pound, OPA said, while beef price increases will average a third of a cent a pound.

INCREASES ON PORK
Increases for individual pork and beef cuts range from one to four cents a pound. The price boost for most popular cuts—such as sirloin and porterhouse steaks, bacon and pork chops and loins—will be only one cent a pound.

In some areas, ceilings for these cuts will not be increased. For example, there will be no price change for porterhouse steak in Los Angeles and Dallas, according to OPA, but it will cost a penny more a pound in Chicago, and Nashville.

On the other hand, there will be an increase of a cent a pound for flank steak in Dallas, but not in the other cities mentioned.

The reason for these discrepancies, an OPA official explained, is that meat prices are figured under a formula based on costs which vary from area to area. Retail prices are rounded off to the nearest cent.

About three-fourths of all pork cuts are being raised in price, but only a third of beef cuts.

Beef liver and cooked corned beef briskets are increased by two cents a pound, but other beef variety meats remain at the same ceiling. The only items increased by four cents a pound are bulk dried beef and packaged Canadian bacon, OPA said.

UNO Council

sador Andrei Gromyko's absence from two council sessions.

TODAY'S SESSION
Whether Gromyko would attend today's session was still a matter of doubt. When the Russian delegate left his hotel this morning he said he was undecided whether he would be present when the council convened.

When a newsmen asked him, "would you say you are not going?" He replied: "I don't know."

GROMYKO UNDECIDED
Asked why he stayed away from yesterday's executive session after previously announcing he would attend, Gromyko said:

"I don't know."

Some privately expressed hope that Gromyko might receive new instructions from the Kremlin weighed world reaction to his dramatic gesture in walking out of Wednesday's security council meeting.

Secretary Byrnes was represented by persons familiar with his statements at yesterday's secret council session as extremely desirous of finding a "constructive solution" to the problems both of the Iranian case and restoration of harmony within the council.

Gromyko, after many false alarms, and after one excursion around town in his official limousine, failed to show up for yesterday's session.

Shortly after the scheduled hour, Gromyko's car, containing him and an adviser, Dr. Boris Stein, was seen to pass where other council members were gathering in a United Nations conference room. About 4:30 Gromyko returned to the consulate. Five minutes later the other 10 council members buckled down to work without him.

Available evidence seemed to indicate that the Soviet diplomat had decided at the last minute that since the Iranian question was to come up he would not join the meeting.

In Washington, meanwhile, President Truman told reporters at a press conference he had talked with Secretary Byrnes about 30 minutes earlier. He said he fully supported Byrnes in the policies the secretary of state was pursuing here.

These policies, with the reporter backing of a majority of the council, were moving swiftly today into a new phase, the key to which is the council's informal decision at its closed meeting yesterday that Russia's absence should not be allowed to halt its work on the Iranian case.

Kellerville Reelects Principal of School

KELLERVILLE, March 29 (Special)—Wallace Riffe was reelected principal of the local school at a recent meeting of the board. His salary was set at $2,400. Riffe served three years in the Marine corps in the Pacific area and was discharged last June.

Riffe said, "The school operates with six teachers beside the principal on a budget of approximately $18,000. The high school students attend school at McLean. The school operates two buses, has a modern cafeteria and a splendid band."

REGULAR ARMY
PRATT, Kans., March 29.—(AP)—Military personnel is decreasing steadily at the Pratt army air field, now being inactivated, and post authorities have a problem in the field's dog population, estimated at four times the number of men.

The dogs range in age from puppies to "Old Shep," a dog with more than three years here and seven months overseas.

Since the field is the only home of the dogs have ever known, they don't seem to have the usual army hankering for discharge, and what's more, signs the army—the canine population is growing.

STILL HOMELESS
CHICAGO, March 29.—(AP)—C. M. Olsen, recently discharged former army lieutenant, is not so fortunate as he is at first thought.

Olsen, seeking housing for his wife and 10 months old son, Terry, now in Fresno, Calif., decided to tell the world of his plight. Pinning a sign, "Homeless," on his hat, he stood at the busy corner of State and Madison streets Saturday.

He thought his troubles were over when he got three offers of accommodations from sympathetic passers-by.

But he later discovered they offered places to share, not entire apartments.

All Olsen has been able to get is one room.

HOPKINS P-TA PRESENTS PLAY 'THE GHOST WALKS'

Everything seems to be going back to the chickens—leading best-sellers, veterans, and now the Hopkins Parents and Teachers Assn. To night the PTA at the Phillips camp south of town will present a three-act comedy, "The Ghost Walks." Scenes are set at a poultry farm. The curtain rises at 7:30 sharp in the community hall.

Tickets may be secured at the door. Admission is 50 cents for adults, 25 for children.

The part of the leading lady of the play, Helen Adams, is taken by the director, Mrs. Marvin Stone. Helen, an actress, surrounded by numerous ex-stage and ham friends, inherits a poultry farm. Old Ezra Parker, executor of the estate, endeavors to change the habits of Helen and her friends in order that the farm may be operated as a going concern.

Bob Orr is "Mistah Ezra," as he is known to Betsy, the superstitious Negro maid of Helen's.

Then there's Vivian, a stage struck local girl, played by Mrs. Clyde Mason; Jane McEnroe, actress friend of Helen, Mrs. Johnnie Morrison; Joe, Jane's husband, Marvin Stone; Paul Jackson, ardent fan of William Shakespeare, A. W. Wakefield; Donald Clark, a fellow who builds flying machines and lives next door to the poultry farm, Johnnie Morrison; Miss Jean Cramer, Donald's aunt, Mrs. T. A. Mastin, and Dorothy Masters, who hopes to marry Donald, Mrs. J. A. Thurmond.

Proceeds from the play are to be applied to the general PTA fund.

Latest project of the Hopkins PTA is to start a library at the community hall. Fifty books are already on hand. The library is to be open from 2-4 o'clock Wednesdays, with members of the PTA taking turns as librarians.

Anyone who wishes to loan or give a book to the library is urged to contact Mrs. R. W. Orr, president.

CHICAGO, March 29.—(AP)—Bushman, six foot, two inch gorilla at Lincoln Park zoo, lay on the floor of his cage in obvious pain.

Attendants believed he was suffering from a toothache but none would attempt dental work on the 555-pound animal.

Their worries, however, soon were over, as they saw Bushman pull the troublesome object from his mouth and stop growling.

It was a peanut shell.

"WAC Corporal" Latest Invention

WASHINGTON, March 29.—A "WAC Corporal" weighing about 1,000 lbs., with a length of 16 ft. from her needle-pointed supersonic nose to trifinned tail, and 12 in. in diameter, has reached altitudes of more than 43.5 miles in army rocket tests, Aviation News, reveals.

"The slender one-half ton rockets, designated 'WAC Corporal' under the security code, are probably the most efficient projectiles of their type ever built, and may be expected to give the United States a dominant position in upper atmosphere research," the publication asserts.

"All flights have been vertical from tower launching track. A liquid propellant, hydrocarbon and oxidizer, is used.

"The 'WAC Corporal' will have inestimable value as a future carrier of high altitude instruments now being developed by the Signal Corps. It offers for the first time a means for obtaining scientific data on the composition of the upper atmosphere, temperatures, pressure, density, cosmic ray measurements, and even photographs unimpeded by lower atmosphere optical distortion.

"The rockets were designed for army ordnance by Dr. Frank J. Malina, acting director of the jet propulsion laboratory of California institute of technology."

Ex-Governor Protests Against Oil Ceiling

AUSTIN, March 29.—(AP)—Contending that there is no further need for oil price ceilings, now that supplies exceed the demand, former Gov. James V. Allred in a radio speech broadcast Monday night over Station KTBC, Austin, said that Texas independent producers and royalty owners are suffering from the present low price.

Major companies, Allred declared, have made tremendous profits during the war years through their refining, pipeline, and marketing operations, while the independents and royalty owners had no relief except for a recent 10-cent increase granted by the OPA.

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Notebook

(Editor's Note: Boyle's Column today is in the form of a letter to his wife, Frances, in the United States.)

By HAL BOYLE

ATHENS, March 29.—(AP)—Dear Frances: Greece has about the same population as New York City and everybody seems to be running for political office.

Next Sunday is national election day and everybody is steamed up over issues and nobody can concentrate on his work. The Greeks have a low boiling point politically and every sidewalk cafe is overflowing with Mark Hanna's.

There are no "Post No Signs" here. Every public and private business building is plastered with portraits of candidates, their records and promises and political slogans.

My hotel is on the main business street and each morning from my window I can see the white columns of the Parthenon on the Acropolis. It is much more damaged than I had thought from seeing schoolbook pictures.

Athens is quite modern. Its central section shows no signs of damage from the German occupation but in some residential areas apartment buildings still bear bullet and shell marks. Housing is short here, too, and rents fabulous.

I like the Greeks very much. They probably had it tougher than any people in occupied Europe but they don't sit around and complain about the past now. They are very friendly to Americans and many speak English well. They are tough and sturdy and more patriotic than Texans.

They are still mad at the Bulgarians for jumping on them when Germany had them down and many paraders were yelling "On to Sofia." These Greeks are proud of the way they batted the Italians around and a lot of old soldiers would like to do the same thing to the Bulgarians.

Clothing and food prices are high and you need an adding machine for every transaction because one American dollar equals 5,000 Greek drachmas. I haven't seen anything like it since China.

You would like the pastry shops here. There are more confectionery stores than saloons back home, all full of rich sugary concoctions stuffed with yellow goo and sprinkled with chopped almonds and walnuts. The restaurants are just like Greek restaurants in America. But they didn't have "stromberry" pie.

DOESN'T KEEP GAINING

A falling body does not continue to gain speed. In experiments, a dummy figure reached its maximum speed after falling 1,600 feet. It never fell faster than 200 miles an hour.

Radar Not Ready For Airline Uses

WASHINGTON, March 29.—War tests of radar have led to a public misconception of its immediate adaptability for commercial airline use, and another two or three years will elapse before it can be installed universally for airline traffic control and safety application, according to Aviation News.

"Plane radar, which really detects a shoreline or other major features of the terrain, has not reached the point where it can pick one mountain peak out of a range," the article points out, declaring that air transport association operations officials feel that it has not been developed to the extent that general installation as a safety device would be practical.

"Such a step would be viewed with more favor if it were not for the fact that accidents to aircraft in flights are usually a combination of many factors, any of which radar might not preclude.

"In airport traffic control, the consensus is that ground radar to monitor plane movements will be the eventual solution, but not until a method is devised to obtain a positive energy return from aircraft whereby they can be identified. No present-day radar scope gives the three essentials of altitude, range and bearing, or azimuth."

AT A COMPLETE COST NOT TO EXCEED $550,000.00!

The maximum cost of the building, equipment and the site cannot exceed $550,000.00, to be covered by bonds not to exceed 20 years at not over 2 1/2%. The County Commissioners have authority to sell these bonds at the best possible market.

On November 15, 1945, members of the Gray-Wheeler County Medical Society passed the following motion: "After an informal discussion a motion was made and seconded to notify the County Judge and City Officials that the Gray-Wheeler County Medical Society is vitally interested in voting a bond issue for a county-city hospital. Carried unanimously."

Any person having property rendered on the County tax rolls and who has a poll tax receipt or exemption certificate, or who is over 21 years of age and has a discharge from the armed services within the last 18 months is a qualified voter in this election.

It is planned to take advantage of the County's priority to buy Army or Navy equipment. The best of new equipment can be purchased at this time at a great saving to the taxpayer.

By law the present maximum tax increase cannot exceed 18c per hundred dollars as rendered on the county tax rolls.

The County Commissioners have authority to decide on who shall operate the hospital. Present plans call for a board of management who will be appointed by the Commissioners.

Since private capital is not interested in hospitals as a business, and Gray County is almost free of debt, County Bonds will be a more even distribution of the expense of building a modern up-to-date hospital to serve all of the county.

The site for the hospital has not been decided upon. The Board of Management or the County Commissioners shall select the site after the bonds are voted.

WALTER REUTHER, THE SHOWMAN

Walter P. Reuther, 39-year-old vice president of the United Automobile Workers of the CIO, and director of the longest and most costly strike ever waged by a labor union in this country (that against General Motors) has come up another rung in his ambitious rise toward the presidency of the whole union.

He has defeated relatively mild-mannered R. J. Thomas for the presidency of the UAW—and to the accompaniment of fist-fighting and raucous name-calling at Atlantic City.

We would do well to know Reuther. Labor's ranks in general would do well to know him. It was Reuther who, as engineer of the strike against GM, would see the books, determine the wages of the workers by GM's ability to pay. Perhaps he picked that up in Russia; he studied there.

It is now becoming an open secret that Reuther, impetuous, hot-tempered, facile in use of invective against "capitalism," aspires to overthrow Scotch-Irishman Murray as president of the Congress of Industrial Organization. By making rash demands against GM, he has won the indubitable place of leadership with the mass of the workers in the automotive industry. His following is large, and he will lead them with an implacable hand.

It remains to be seen whether labor will gain or lose by placing in such important position a man with extremely radical propensities. For example, without consulting the older leaders in the union, he called the strike against General Motors last November when the company refused his demand for a 30 percent increase.

He is a showman who makes no bones of his like for the way labor is run in Russia. No farther back than last fall he strongly advocated permitting press and radio to sit in on wage negotiations in Detroit. At the same time, he wanted a look at the industry's books. He had planned a big show—for Reuther.

If Reuther's election shows nothing else, it reflects the trend of thinking among the masses of labor—more showmanship, more swashbuckling demands of industry, more power in the hands of leaders who are trained in the art of creating trouble where things seem to be going all right. His election, in time, will be felt in Texas and Pampa, possibly for better, but conceivably for worse.

LOOKING AHEAD
By GEORGE S. BENSON
President—Harding College
Stacy, Arkansas

TIME FLIES

Busy in the United States today are two ways of thinking—the high-brows call them "opposing concepts." Orators in both camps sound a lot alike until they get right down to brass tacks, completely away from abstract generalities. Both schools, if you listen with only half an ear to their vocal ones, seem to favor advancement of the race and better living conditions.

Most of the people in America are not on either side; not yet. They haven't given the issues enough thought. That's the way with the American people, they keep out of all the arguments they can. They are busy with their own affairs and, if you interrupt them, you must state your business in a few words. Unfortunately it is not possible to state these two creeds briefly and clearly.

SERIOUS PROBLEM

It would not be necessary for a person of average ability to go to college and study a year in order to learn the difference. The problem is not that complicated. On the other hand, I can't cover the case in one newspaper column or in a letter to the editor or in a page. It's not that simple. Everybody owes it a little serious thought, however, before it is too late.

Nothing was ever more serious to the people of the continent, their children and their grandchildren, than this dispute between "individualism" and "Collectivism." Those are the names that best describe them. The former may call themselves Democrats or Republicans or Conservatives. The latter may be Nazis, Communists, Fascist or Central Planners. Here, they are revolutionists.

VITAL DECISIONS

Although I know somebody going to call me an alarmist, I'm duty bound as a loyal citizen to say: The American people will know all about this sooner or later. If they give the matter some thought and act quickly, they still may take their choice. Otherwise they will get Collectivism like it came to the unhappy peoples of other lands who are now starving by the hundreds every day.

Here is a fair question: How can anybody identify destructive, alien, revolutionary movements at sight? They wear respectable names, shout for praiseworthy aims and have patriotic slogans. How can we pick them out? The best answer I have ever heard came from J. P. Seiberling in an address he delivered in Dallas, Texas, a few months ago. He says, observe how they appeal to you!

CATERING TO WHAT?

When a philosophy appeals to human weakness it is plainly earmarked as destructive. Central Planning, for example, charms nobody, but people who believe in socialism and recognize themselves as weaklings. The offer of freedom from fear is a vulgar appeal to cowardice. Freedom from want (as it is) was never more than a bait to catch lazy people. Collectivism offers these, which mean mediocrity for everybody.

Individualism offers opportunity, a challenge, no set stiff like slavery. Its rewards are for the energetic, not the lazy. Individualism offers personal liberty and individual freedom from slavery in expression, freedom in business and freedom in worship. These appeal to man's noble traits.

PRINCIPLES REMAIN UNCHANGED
(The Daily Oklahoman)

After 34 years of outstanding service in congress Hutton Sumners of Dallas announces his intention to retire. No other man in the house of representatives is any able. Fewer than a half-dozen are considered as able as he. Hence his retirement will be a greater loss to the country than would be occasioned by the retirement of almost any one of his colleagues.

In announcing his purpose to retire, the Dallas congressman takes sharp issue with the way the national government is now being conducted and views with some foreboding the manifest trend of the times. He declares disquietingly that the government is now "an instrument of favoritism, tyranny, oppression, and corruption." Those are indeed serious words. But they are the words of one of the brainiest men who have served in congress in our generation. They may be accepted or discounted or rejected in toto, but they should be considered.

Some parts of the congressman's expressed discouragement is due to conditions which unquestionably exist. But a part of it is due to the fact that he adhered unalterably to change a principle while his party and the country also were acquiring other principles entirely new and strange. He refused to abandon the long principles his party professed at the time of his first election, but his party did abandon them with a real complacency. Hence when he fights for what his party once fought for passionately he finds himself fighting alone. And he hears himself denounced daily simply because he refused to "sell the truth to serve the hour."

It has happened to many another American statesman in the long story of national government. It always will happen to the man who enters official life with a definite code of principles and remains true to those principles regardless of what may come. Hutton Sumners is merely one of those who are destined to settle their official life as martyrs to a moral conviction of official obligation.

"AND TREMBLED WITH FEAR AT YOUR FROWN"

(New York Sun)

The National Labor Relations Board's majority ruling on foremen is remarkable not merely because it represents the board's third different conclusion on this subject in four years but also because it records the progress of intimidation. Three years ago the board held that foremen were ineligible to become members of unions because they were part of management. Last year the board held that foremen and other supervisory employees could join a union, but only an independent one not associated with the national group. Now the board holds, by a two-to-one vote, that foremen can elect to join any kind of union. This ruling is obviously of interest to John L. Lewis, whose negotiations with the operators are expected to include this particular point.

As a purely incidental reason for its ruling the board argues that if it did not so rule somebody somewhere might strike. Therefore, it is better to submit the choice to vote of the foremen. This argument is pretty thin. To the innocent bystander it seems to betray the roles that the NLRB and Lewis are respectively playing.—Sweet Alice and Ben Bolt.

For One Who Grabs Honey—

NATIONAL WHIRLIGIG

news behind the news

By RAY TUCKER
VOTES—The lopsided nature and the restricted distribution of the recent wage raises granted under the administration's new big steel formula—an average of eighteen and a half cents an hour and proportionate upping in the cost of products to consumers—has begun to worry members of congress because of complaints from millions who have not received any or lesser pay boosts.

Related recognition that only a comparatively small percentage of the nation's working population has benefited from the Truman-Murray-Hillman postwar schedules lies behind Democratic National Chairman Robert E. Hannegan's forthcoming buffet-supper drive for enactment of the proposed minimum wage scale, which increases the present level from forty to sixty-five and seventy-five cents an hour.

Unless this bill becomes law before congress adjourns in June or July, the series of grants to the C. I. O.'s mass unions—steel, automobile, meat, textile, etc.—may lose more votes than they will hold.

The unorganized employes may not be able to exert pressure on the White House or congress, but they can swamp the ballot boxes.

FIGURES—Even Representative Adolph J. Sabath of Chicago, a 107-administration man and chairman of the house rules committee, reportedly grave concern over these discrepancies. Adolph is no great shakes as a statesman, but he knows his bread-and-butter politics, or he would not be the senior member of the lower chamber.

Mr. Sabath warned his colleagues that white-collar, municipal, farm and service workers as well as people living on fixed incomes drawn from thrift investments made years ago, are bound to suffer from higher or living costs based on the new wage scales.

He estimated that only twenty million of a working population of seventy to eighty million will profit from the recent increases. More reliable economists believe that the Kelly machine's spokesmen are a little off in his statistics. They think that the direct beneficiaries will not total more than ten million.

If these figures are even approximately correct—and they are grounded on careful studies—sixty or seventy million workers (government, clerical, teachers, firemen, policemen, other white-collar and farm help) will certainly pay tribute to a comparative few who are riding the postwar gravy train—the C. I. O.'s dues-paying and politically organized members.

VICTIMS—Official labor and treasury department statistics underwrite the congressional conclusion that only the politico-economic under crust of workers will benefit from the administration's new wage-fixing policy as it has operated to this moment.

HENRY WALLACE BACKFIRES AGAIN

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON. (NEA)—What makes Henry Wallace say the things he does will always be one of the greatest mysteries of Washington. The man is unquestionably one of the ablest political philosophers of modern times. But his sense of timing or something is off so frequently that his snarks of wisdom backfire. They make nice explosions, but they get Henry into no end of trouble.

Given any bad political situation, Wallace can be counted on to see that it is bad and to focus national attention on it by saying exactly the wrong thing at precisely the correct moment.

That's the way it is with Wallace's latest wisecrack about wanting to expel from the party any congressman who does not follow the party line on a fundamental issue.

What Wallace was shooting at are some of the worst abuses in American government. The absolute meaninglessness of both democratic and republican party platforms. The utter irresponsibility of both party machines. And more specifically, the apparent inability of democratic members of congress to get going on President Truman's postwar program.

In three months of wrangling, congress has completed action on only one major issue—the full employment bill. Hearings, debate, and bickering still go on over extension of stabilization controls, social security reform, labor legislation, unification of the armed services,

DEWITT MACKENZIE

GANDER, Newfoundland, March 29.—Well, here we are grounded again in the battle over the war wings since last Monday night to reach New York by air from Paris.

Gremlin—some folk claim it is—are interfering with radio communication about among those with whom we are trying to play our pranks which are far from humorous.

Anyway we are stuck here in the far north at one of the world's great airbases, which was largely a development of the world war and remains as an aid to commercial traffic between the world and the old.

There are, of course, the inevitable bridge and gin rummy games going forward and the two Englishmen don't move from their interminable game of chess. But for the most part the assemblage is broken up into small groups and if you move about among those with whom you have a speaking acquaintance you'll find that they are conversing about international problems.

One party drew me into a discussion of the hot clash in the United Nations security council over the Russian-Franco-imbroglio and we arrived at the conclusion that this was a most hopeful development.

This showdown means that the council is getting down to real business. It means that the UNO is tending to do what its predecessor, the league of nations, failed to do. That is, to nip in the bud the threats to peace.

You have a good illustration of what I mean in the way the old league temporized with Japan's invasion of Manchuria—the act of aggression which encouraged Mussolini and Hitler to embark on conquests by arms.

The league temporized and let the thing go by default. From that stemmed Mussolini's attack on Ethiopia and finally Hitler's attempt to conquer the world.

Either the United Nations deals with the musical therapy for extreme mental disturbances cases, as they have done in some army hospitals, why can't they use music for relaxing normal people when they are upset? I think if we could all set aside certain periods of the day for listening to music that is relaxing and soothing, we would be better adjusted to the fast-moving pace of the world.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD.—Garson's back, and Johnson's got her!

It is Doctor of Humanities Garson now, if you please. The honorary degree was bestowed upon the red-haired actress after a trip to Rollins college, at Winter Park, Fla. . . . She was more of an adventure, she practically admitted, than her picture of the same title with C. Gable.

Greer stood up, in her robe and mortarboard, and made a nice little speech of acceptance. But she got up in her best looks, she said, just as libbing around the campus.

After two days of being shown Florida oranges, Florida scenery, Florida flowers, and Florida homes—each of which Greer kept insisting California's counterpart far outshone—she went to a campus play with the college president.

During the performance, a mouse ran across the stage. A couple of bobby soxers screamed. Greer remained calm.

The college president leaned over and whispered: "I hope that mouse didn't frighten you." Greer smiled smugly and whispered back: "Oh, no! We have much bigger ones in California!"

CHICO IS OFF AGAIN
The gypsy of the Marx Brothers, Chico, has hit the road again, following completion of "A Night in Casablanca." He took a sudden trip for Miami Beach to fill a night club date, and after that he heads for either South America or England. . . . Remember Charlie "Snowball" Whittier, the little Negro boy who achieved fame at 14 as Ted Lewis's shadow? He's just out of the merchant marine and has organized a band of his own in Hollywood.

Alan Jones hates to remember an army camp appearance at Fort Gragg. He was asked to sing "The Star-Spangled Banner." He stood up before 3000 men and sang the first three lines, and then it happened—one of those quirks of the mind. His memory went blank. He couldn't remember another word.

After double-talking his way through the rest of the song, Jones was drawn aside by an officer, who said, "Jones, we like your voice, but you really should learn the National Anthem."

Tips for Teens

If you want to lose friends and alienate people, this: Go to a party and give all your attention to one girl or one boy. Don't dance with the others; mope in a corner when you can't be with her or him.

Tell everybody that you got an A in that tough English test or gloat over your success when you make the varsity team.

Talk about yourself all the time—your troubles, your clothes, your plans. Don't be interested in others; don't give them a chance to talk about their hobbies, favorite sport, movie or star.

Be a borrower and never return what you borrow. Instead of providing your own pencils, eraser, lipstick, powder and comb, ask to borrow your friend's or neighbor's. If you are asked to return it afterward (you've forgotten it for days) be surprised and resentful.

Laugh at people. Make fun of their clothes, friends, pet ideas.

Force yourself on people. Break into the crowd or into the conversation whenever you feel like it, whether you've been asked or not.

Pull up a chair and join a group at the lunch table without an invitation. Invite yourself over to your friend's house for the evening when you know she's planning a special shindig. Linger at dinner-time.

Accept all invitations that come your way, but never, never entertain in return.

Combat Chaplain Gets Appointment

The appointment of Lt. Col. Robert G. Hedrick as full-time chaplain at the Veterans administration center in Muskogee, was announced today by P. T. Lunquist, manager.

Hedrick, formerly pastor of the First Methodist church at Comanche, Okla., had served as chaplain for the 120th medical regiment, 45th division then a part of the Oklahoma national guard, for three years. He entered the army as a chaplain with the rank of captain, on Sept. 16, 1940, serving as chaplain at William Beaumont general hospital, El Paso. Later he was with the 237th anti-aircraft artillery command in the Pacific.

Colonel Hedrick served in World War I as an enlisted man with the 135th infantry, 34th division. During the first World War he served with combat troops in France, and was later with the army of occupation on the Rhine.

He was born in Texas, but has made his home in Oklahoma since 1904.

"I have been in Oklahoma so long that I consider it practically as my native state," Hedrick said.

"The post of chaplain at such a hospital as this offers a particular satisfaction to me. During my war service, relationships and recollections were built up which will stay with me always," Colonel Hedrick said.

"The opportunity to render service as a chaplain to former members of the military and naval service, to administer to their spiritual needs and otherwise to be in a position to advise and comfort them, now that they have been released to civilian life, has challenging prospects. I am delighted with the opportunity," Hedrick said.

Conservation Handbook Will Go to Farmers

On Monday the county Agricultural Conservation Agency office will mail to 550 persons farming land the handbook of conservation practices, for Texas.

As Gray county farmers will not be paid for all practices as listed in the handbook, those which do not pertain to Gray county are marked "Not applicable."

Farmers are to apply to the county committee before the practices are started to obtain the amount of assistance needed for carrying out the practice.

All are to be carried out in accordance with the specifications outlined in the pamphlet.

Market Briefs

WALL STREET
NEW YORK, March 28.—(AP)—Stocks rallied selectively but unenthusiastically today and many market leaders continued to seek lower ground.

Prices stiffened here and there after a fairly active opening. Dealings then reverted to sluggishness. Most stocks, commodities and aircraft failed to revive. Assorted utilities, amusements and oil edged forward. The transfers ran to around 300,000 shares.

Better performers included Willys-Overland, Distillers Corp., Paramount Pictures, Loew's R-K-O, Electric Boat, Barber Asphalt, Standard Oil (Ind.), Texas Co., Kennecott, Sears Roebuck, Consolidated Edison, Electric Power & Light, Southern Railway and Philip Morris.

Down most of the day were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, American Telephone, Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Pennsylvania, Schenley, American Smelting, American Airlines, Curtiss-Wright, A. Du Pont and General Electric.

Bonds and commodities were relatively steady.

Questions About UNO Answered

Do you have any questions on the United Nations Charter? To help the people of this country better understand the charter and their responsibilities to world organization, the American Association for the United Nations is answering the questions received reflecting the tremendous interest to day and always for lasting peace.

QUESTION: Who is on the United Nations Energy commission?
ANSWER: The United States, Great Britain, Soviet Union, China, France, Egypt, Mexico, Netherlands, Australia, Brazil, Poland (the eleven members of the Security Council) and Canada are on this commission. Bernard Baruch is our representative.

QUESTION: Has any nation entered into an agreement with the security council on the military forces and assistance it will place at the disposal of the security council?
ANSWER: No, not yet. The United Nations military staff committee had its first meeting on February 4 and is in session now. This question of organizing the police force of the United Nations will undoubtedly be one of the first questions on its agenda.

QUESTION: What has the United Nations economic and social council accomplished to date?
ANSWER: It is planning for a world health conference and a conference on trade and employment to be held this summer. It has set up a number of working committees, including ones on human rights, employment, control of narotic drugs, refugees, and displaced persons. These committees and commissions will meet during April and May to prepare reports for submission to the Economic and Social Council when it reconvenes in New York on May 25.

QUESTION: What is Senator Vandenberg's amendment on atomic energy?
ANSWER: Senator Arthur Vandenberg introduced an amendment to the McMahon bill which provides for civilian control of atomic energy, a principle supported by the scientists who developed the bomb.

No State Engineers; No School Buildings

AUSTIN, March 29.—(AP)—Formerly, engineers of the school plants division of the department of education approved plans for new school buildings.

The 49th legislature abolished the school plants division and set up a state board for school safety. The attorney general declared the school safety board unconstitutional. The law says new school buildings must have approval of engineers.

But what engineers? That's what State School Supt. L. A. Woods wants to know.
