18-Year Age Rule To Eliminate Williams, Troop from Big Event

Six members of the Harvester track team will be eligible to enter the Texas Interscholastic League Track and Field meet at Austin May 2 and 3 as the result of the Region One track and field meet at Lubbock yesterday.

Lubbock's Westerners, with one of the strongest track teams in the region's history, won their third straight regional meet, amassing 45 1/2 points. Amarillo was second with 36 1/2 and Pampa third with 17.

The 18-year age-limit hit the Harvesters twice but those qualifying to enter the state meet from Pampa were Randall Clay, Leon Gooch, Hill Speer, Carl Mayes, Lonnie Williams and Bob Troop.

Williams and Troop, however, have already reached their eighteenth birthday and thus cannot compete in the state meet under a rule that is being changed but will not go into effect until next year.

Williams and Troop will make the trip to Austin, however. Coach Otis Coffey said today. "Both boys have worked hard and they fully deserve the trip."

In place of Williams and Troop, Coffey will probably substitute from a choice of three boys—Jack Olliphant, Laddie Mayes and Lawrence Baines.

Randall Clay, defending state discus champion, set a new regional record and surpassed his state mark last year as he heaved the plate 152 feet 8 1/2 inches. Clay also placed second in the broad jump, a few inches behind Bill Goss of Canadian.

Carl Mayes, star dash man, was the only Harvester to place in the individual track events—getting a fourth in the 220-yard dash. Although fourth place in regional does not qualify a man for the state meet, Mayes ran a lap on the third place 440-yard relay team for Pampa and will be eligible.

Both Clay and Bill Speer will be eligible to enter the discus throw event at the state meet and both will probably enter one or two events. Speer placed second in the discus throw and Clay ran a lap on the third-place relay team.

Summaries:
100-yard dash — Fitz, Lubbock; McIntyre, Amarillo; Davis, Hereford; Mullins, Flower Grove. Time 16 5/8 seconds.

Southpaws Shine in Young League Season

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Writer
With the major league baseball campaign only three days old today, it looked like the Southpaw pitching brigade was set for its most productive season in 15 years.

Not since the early '30's have so many good lefthanders blossomed out in one season.

With the return of such princely portersiders as Howie Pollet, Max Lanier, Johnny Vander Meer, Ken Fritzelman, Mickey Harris, Marlin Russo and Clyde Shoun from the waifs to join forces with holdovers Hal Newhouser, Thornton Lee, Mickey Haefner, Stubby Overmire and Harry Brecheen, it might well turn out that this first post-war year will be the greatest in baseball history for the lefthander legion.

Three of the Southpaw set, Pollet, Harris and Vi Lombardi, were responsible for half of the six finely pitched games in the majors yesterday, to give the lefthanders a record of eight victories against four defeats in three days.

Pollet, back with the St. Louis Cardinals after three years in the air corps, spun a neat five-hitter to beat the Pittsburgh Pirates 6-2.

Harris, making his post war debut with Boston's Red Sox held Washington to six scattered hits as the Sox defeated the Senators, 3-1.

Brooklyn's Dodgers make an auspicious home debut before 29,825 fans by taming the vaunted New York Giants.

The Chicago Cubs maintained their holdover-season jinx over the Reds by handing the Rhinelanders their third straight setback, 4-2 for their 24th victory over Cincinnati in their last 25 meetings.

Bib Al Benton fashioned a five-hitter to give the Tigers a 6-1 triumph over the Browns.

The Yankees whopped Philadelphia's Athletics, 8-1.

Cleveland and Chicago in the American league and Boston and Philadelphia in the National league were not scheduled.

I am not what you call an extreme internationalist or an extreme isolationist.—Rep. B. Carroll Roose of Tennessee, Republican National Chairman.

Oh's Homers at Team's Home Are Really Pop Flies

By WHITNEY MARTIN
NEW YORK (AP)—Admission prices are up at some major league parks this year, but home runs still are pretty cheap here and there.

Particularly at the Polo Grounds here, where it's bargain day every day of the season, and we saw one of these $2.98 hits opening day which just emphasized the fact that slugging records never will be an accurate measure for comparing the relative merits of hitters on various clubs until the parks are standardized.

Which probably will be never, as the fields, even if originally constructed with plenty of room for expansion, have been hemmed in growing communities until, like a potted palm, opportunities for growth are limited.

Mel Ott's 511th home run was the blow that called attention to the cheapness of some hits good for four bases. It wasn't much more than a pop fly that, if unhampered, by a barrier, a fielder could catch in his hip pocket.

As it was, it floated in a high, lazy loop to drop into the right field stands about 257 feet from the plate while the Phillies right fielder stood there in helpless and somewhat righteous indignation.

Naturally the Phillies had the same opportunity to cash in on one of these elegant bunts, and one of them, Ron Northey, took advantage of it, but when it is figured the Giants play 77 games at the Polo Grounds during a season their advantage is obvious.

It is not improbable that Hank Greenberg and Jimmy Fox might have bettered Babe Ruth's season home run mark of 60 had they been playing under as favorable circumstances. Ruth, at the Yankee Stadium half of each season, was shooting at a 296-foot right field barrier.

Fox, a right-handed hitter, had a left field wall 224 feet away when he hit 58 circuit drives at Shibe Park in 1932, and Greenberg, also a right hander, was aiming to clear a fence 340 feet away when he also hit 58, in Briggs Stadium in 1938.

Just what would be a fair distance for a standard home run is open to question, but we'd set 325 feet as a minimum, and also make the right and left field walls equal distance from the plate so that right handed and left handed batters would have an equal opportunity.

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK (AP)—The Boston organizer of the baseball players "guilt"—to give it the Jacobs' beach pronunciation—proposes "to right the injustices of professional baseball." . . . The injustices, as we see them, consist in paying guys with strong muscles and good co-ordination anywhere from two to ten times what they could earn in any other trade. . . . And how about collective bargaining on base hits and a minimum standard for batting averages?

Nothing new Nearly two years ago a top-rank minor league official told this corner: "For my part I cannot conceive of baseball players joining a union, but I had a letter from a prominent baseball man warning me he knew definitely that there was a move on foot to organize professional baseball players, and he went so far as to say to me that he was as sure of that taking place as he was of the game continuing x x x But for the life of me I cannot see where the player would gain anything by such action." . . . This was written, incidentally, by a man who admits that baseball rules and contracts aren't always fair to the players. . . . Efforts to organize ball players in opposition to organized baseball go back to the "Baseball Brotherhood" which formed the

Bobby Soxers Puzzle Tony Now

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD—What's a bobby soxer? Tony Martin wants to know. When Tony left for the service more than four years ago, bobby sox were just another item of a girl's wardrobe. Now they are an institution of particular importance to Tony's profession.
Tony is finding out what bobby soxers are and he hopes to win them over to his side. With or without them he is doing right well since his discharge from the army. The other day he made $25,000 just for his signature—that's 12,500 per name, son.

The deal was for Tony's services on Mercury records for one year and the 25 goes in advance payment on royalties. In addition, he is starting his own radio program this Saturday. And MGM is planning big things for him.

When I saw Tony, he was suffering from a sore throat. "It's a funny thing," he said, "through 50 months in the service and the worst conditions of dust, heat and native refreshments in India, I never had a sore throat." But now that he's working for himself.

Dam Area May Be Transferred Soon

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senator Elmer Thomas (D-Okl.) said yesterday that most of the government-owned property in the Denison dam area may be transferred to the national park service.

The Oklahoma senator's statement came coincident with the disclosure by Lieut. General R. A. Wheeler, chief of the army engineers, that the war department contemplates retaining the dam and reservoir and a small amount of adjacent land. Already two tracts have been given the wildlife service, the Fish-omingo, Okla., and Hagerman, Texas, wildlife refuges, and two small areas near Madill and Durant, Okla., are to be ranger headquarters for Oklahoma and the Texas game and fish commissions.

The war department and national park service now are negotiating an agreement relative to the area's supervision.

VARI-NAMED FISH
The sheepshead fish of the Great Lakes is called a crocus in Indiana, a gaspergou in Louisiana, and some people call it a drum, or a thunder-pumper.

Land Election To Be Held Nov. 7
AUSTIN—(AP)—The secretary of state will proceed with advertising the election on the soldier land constitutional amendment following Wednesday's refusal of the supreme court to accept a suit seeking to change the date.
The election will be held the second Thursday in November, said Secretary of State Claude Ibbell. That will be two days after the general election, Nov. 5.

Establishment of a land board to issue $25,000,000 in bonds to finance on easy terms purchase of public lands by war veterans is the purpose of the amendment to be submitted.
The resolution calling for its submission set the election date as the second Thursday in November, Rep.

W. R. Cousins of Beaumont, seeking in the supreme court to have the date changed, said the legislature intended that it should be the second Tuesday to coincide with the general election.
The supreme court refused to act, noting that the established rule was it could not go back of the legislative journal, which shows the enacted measure set the date as of the second Thursday.
Ibbell said he would proceed with the election machinery and that there was sufficient money on hand to pay for the advertising. The cost of the election itself, which is borne by the counties, has been estimated at approximately $250,000.

17-Year-Old Girl Adopted by Family
SAN ANTONIO—(AP)—A 17-year-old New York girl who leaped in desperation from the second floor of the county court house after learning she was to return to a detention home, has been adopted by a family in a small town near here. County Judge Charles W. Anderson said that the family requested that neither their name nor that of the town be disclosed.

REDHEADS BURNED
In the time of the Ptolemies, Egyptians were so violently opposed to red hair that they burned a red-haired maiden once a year.

RELIGION IN THE NEWS

A Good Friday Reminder
By Dr. Douglas E. Nelson
QUITE RECENTLY H. G. Wells stated his opinion that the "human race has less than a 50-50 chance for surviving the 'Atomic Age.'" In view of his many fanciful ventures in prognostication, we would be inclined to discount this, were it not that many leading thinkers agree with him.

THIS MUCH seems trenchantly clear: Man must retrieve his fast-vanishing sense of individual responsibility or Man will perish. Heedlessly and irresponsibly we have unleashed certain forces, have created certain monsters which now threaten to crush us. No system of world government can save us.
It is for us as individuals to cast off our moral helplessness.
We have almost forgotten that the obscene weapons and crude philosophies we create have always been effective only when spiritual might has been lacking.

FOR CENTURIES the Christian Church has pled, with men to remember this. On this Good Friday millions of people are recalling the deathless words of a dying man, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." The blackest reality of Calvary was not the Cross but the fact that men would use it. The grimmest fact of our day is not the tank, the gun, nor the Atomic Nightmare, but the fact that men are willing to use them.

TODAY IT IS for us to remember that hatred, treachery, blind cruelty, and ruthless egoism HAVE BEEN BEATEN and can again be beaten. Today, as then, the destiny of mankind is linked with the same unchanging purpose. The same unbeatable power is alive among us. Today let us remember and take heart.

LESSON
Scripture: John 1:42; Mark 8:27-31; Luke 22:54-57, 61-62; John 21:15-17; Acts 5:29.

By WILLIAM E. GIBROY, D. D.
There are some men who are so settled and uniform in their ways and habits, so fixed in character and psychological reactions, that their attitudes could be predicted with almost scientific accuracy.

They were very necessary in society, which has a vast use for commonplace people, but they are apt to be dull and uninteresting, and none too efficient.

There are other men whose characters and actions are as unpredictable as New England weather.
Pent up within them are great forces and possibilities for good or for evil. They may become great builders and benefactors; or they may become ruthless destroyers and aggressors. Great achievement, or colossal failure, is almost sure to be their lot—not anything in between.

It is interesting to consider how many men and women of great fame
and achievement came near to failure, or even failed for a time.
Peter was of this unpredictable sort, strongly impulsive and intense, ready to risk everything on a great adventure; easily discouraged when his hopes were disappointed, or when his plans seemingly failed.

His name was Simon, but Jesus called him Peter, that is, "a rock," perhaps in playful allusion to his unrocklike character, perhaps to give Simon a name to live up to,
and in prophecy of what Simon,

called Peter, really became.
"Simon, Simon," said Jesus.
"Satan hath desired to have you that he may sift thee as wheat;
but I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren." (Luke 22:31-32.) That is the key to the life history of Peter. Jesus was his friend. Jesus understood him better than he understood himself. And Jesus prayed for him.

Peter didn't realize how weak he was, but Jesus saw beneath his impulsiveness and boasting, and his passion to be first.

So Jesus prayed for him, and that was Peter's salvation and source of power. Jesus was his friend, and he became the friend of Jesus.

The braggart, boasting that though all men might deny Jesus, yet would not he, and then thrice denying that he knew Him, became the penitent Peter, weeping bitterly, and the humble Peter, confident but no longer boastful, assuring his Master, "Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest
that I love thee."

This was the Peter who had found the faith that could not fail.
The Peter of the answer to his Master's prayer. Courage and strength were in him. He stood up on the Day of Pentecost and preached the bold and courageous sermon under which three thousand were saved, and he could defy his enemies with the plain words,
"We ought to obey God rather than men."

And the Christ who prayed for Peter prays for us all. What men we might be, if we could let God work out in us the answer to that prayer!

'Crucified, Yet Not Discouraged' Will Be Sermon Subject

Rev. E. Douglas Carver will occupy the pulpit Sunday at the First Baptist church for the morning

ied, Yet Not Discouraged."

Me," by Wessel Don Egerton, will be the soloist. R. Virgil Mott, director of the choir will sing "Why Hast Thou Forsaken Me," from the Seven Last Words of Christ, by Dubois. The entire hour may be heard over KPDD.

The Training union begins at 7 o'clock. The goal is 800. The evening service will be given over to the choir and the story in song of the trial, crucifixion and triumph of Jesus will be offered at 8 p.m. The title of the number is "Calvary,"
by Henry Wessell.

The following soloists will appear: Myron Spencer, Don Egerton, Mrs. Edgar Payne, Miss Inez
French, Mrs. N. B. Ellis and Mrs.
Lee R. Newsome. The choir will be and Miss Eloise Lane. The public is

Special Services To Close Sunday Night

Rudolph Q. Harvey, pastor of Central Baptist church, states the services of special services will close Sunday night April 21. Rev. Dallas P.
Lee, visiting preacher, will preach
Sunday morning on "Sure Salvation" at the 11:00 hour and Sunday night on "No God—No Hope." Olen Miles, visiting singer has arranged special music for both services.

Lloyd Satterwhite, Sunday school superintendent states that a goal of 650 has been set for Sunday school and invites all that are not in Sunday school to be present at 9:45.
Ben A. Stephenson, training union director, states a goal of 310 has been set and urges all who do not attend training union to meet him
at 7:00 p. m.

There has been good crowds, a great spirit, and a total of 40 additions thus far in the meeting. Last Sunday there were 617 in Sunday school and 285 in training union with 16 additions for the day, which celebrated the pastors first anniversary.

sic industries for some time to come, but we want it so limited

tonstall (R) of Massachusetts.

EASTER CHURCH

For Many This Easter Is A Fulfillment Of Months Of Waiting And Hoping

Those who kept faith during the separations and hardships of war: those who have been spared the loss of loved ones: those who at last are again able to be with their families—derive a very special meaning from this Easter season. Perhaps they, more than any other among us can fully interpret the words spoken in His name during Easter services, and can best gather the significance of Christ risen. Everything has been done by your Church to make Easter observance intensely interesting, enjoyable and inspiring to those of all ages, and from all walks of life.

Attend the Church of Your Choice Easter Sunday and Every Sunday

BRING YOUR FAMILY AND FRIENDS TO CHURCH THROUGHOUT THE EASTER PERIOD, AND REGULARLY EVER AFTER . . . AND YOU WILL LIVE WITH THE SPIRIT OF EASTER.
