A Thousand Look After Incidentals While Big-11 Debate World's Future

Behind the men at the council table . . . a thousand others.

By S. BURTON HEATH
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK—(AP)—There are only 11 delegates on the half-million-acre of the United Nations security council; big table. They sit there a few hours each day, trying to eliminate the causes of war. But behind them are more than a thousand men and women, without whom the council could not function—and eventually that figure may be nearly tripled. The payroll of Secretary-General Trygve Lie's working staff in New York alone numbers 450, not counting 36 experts and specialists who are on loan from various member governments. These range from a hundred laborers, janitors, chauffeurs and the like to economists, statisticians, department heads. Along the way there are clerks, stenographers, and public relations personnel allocated to press and radio; still photographers and newsreels; there are highly skilled men and women selected for their ability to record verbatim, without error, anything that may be said on the floor in any language. INTERPRETERS There are stenographers and typists who must be capable of intelligent work at least in two languages and there are interpreters who can listen to a long, involved, highly technical speech, make longhand notes during its course, and at its end rattle off an accurate translation from Russian or Chinese or Spanish into French and English. The pressure under which these interpreters work has been emphasized on occasion when they were translating Ambassador Andrei Gromyko's talks. The Russian speaker only has native language in court sessions; it must then be interpreted into both French and English. Once or twice the diplomat, apparently listening only casually to the interpretation, has caught errors that might have implicated him more deeply than he intended. On such occasions he has appreciated the exact phrasing of the interpretation and has interrupted with corrections, using English, much superior to that of some delegates who upon their language on the floor. During the first debate on Iran he corrected the interpreters' agreements to understandings. But even these more than 500 who work under the general direction of the secretarial-general constitute only part of the staff that surrounds the Big Eleven who make the headlines. Each delegate has his own personal staff. American Delegate Edward Stettinius numbers 40, plus Secretary of State James F. Byrnes' personal British Delegate Alexander Leitch, 16, and 16 Greek, 12 French, Ambassador Henry Bonnet, 10, Chinese Delegate Guo Jingshi, 100. Most of the rest are about 10 members each of Polish Delegate Grot-Ludke, who has only four. In a midtown Manhattan hotel, the military section meets in deep secrecy to decide on the form and use of the proposed UN war treaty. In the United States and Great Britain, say, about 35 officials and workers each most of the time. France 11, Russia 11, China 10. OTHERS IN LONDON Back in London the economic and social council is still waiting to be moved across the Atlantic in time for its scheduled May meeting in New York. The trusteeship program has not

Three Nations Disagree on Food Situation

WASHINGTON—(AP)—A British-Canadian-American deadlock today over ways to ease the world food crisis delayed an order which would put this nation on a diet of less bread flour. Representatives of the three countries met yesterday at another of a long series of meetings of the combined food board. But they failed again to agree on what each should do in the way of contributing wheat and flour to famine-stricken areas. Secretary of Agriculture Anderson has ready an order to cut American supplies of flour 25 per cent, but he is withholding his signature pending further efforts of the three countries to agree on joint relief efforts. The American government is taking the position that the major burden is falling upon this country and that Canada and Great Britain could contribute more than they have offered. It is the official view here that both Britain and Canada could cut deeper into their reserves and reduce their own consumption further. Meanwhile, as the White House announced that President Truman will discuss the food crisis in a radio address at 7:15 p. m. (EST) tomorrow night, the chief executive's famine emergency committee called upon the government to adopt still more rigid food conservation measures. It urged the government to hike ceiling prices on corn and by-product protein feeds—an action which, the committee said, would curtail livestock feeding and thereby make more grain available for food for

Parking Meters Not in Operation

H. C. Coffey of the Texas Railroad commission has found a new use for parking meters that brings out shades of the Old West. Coffey parked his car near the City hall today at a spot where the posts for the meters are in but the "heads" are not yet installed. Scratching his head, the Texan finally obtained a length of rope from his car and tied the machine to it—so it couldn't get away while he was gone. In a more serious vein, City Manager Garland Franks again reminded motorists today that the meters are not yet in operation and it is not necessary to deposit any money as yet. The "heads" have been placed on most of the posts on Cuyler street but they will not go into operation until the installation has been completed. An ordinance providing for the meters was passed by the city commission yesterday but it too will not go into effect until all meters are installed and parking lanes are painted.

Christian Worshippers Recreate Crucifixion

JERUSALEM—(AP)—Through streets lined with barbed wire barricades and teaming with armed troops, thousands streamed into this ancient city today to see Christian worshippers recreate with symbolic ceremonies the last hours before Christ was crucified. An undercurrent of tension prevailed throughout the holy city as Palestine's three-cornered Arab-Jewish-British political controversy was complicated by a country-wide strike of 50,000 civil servants, who are demanding increased pay and better working conditions. A three-hour walkout in sympathy with the strikers, was set for today by several thousand persons employed in special wartime departments of the Palestine government. Easter observance of the Western and Eastern Christian faiths coincide this year, making the holy sequestration and other sacred plays more crowded with worshippers than usual. The ancient rites of Maunoy Thursday began at daybreak of the events of the day on which Christ led disciples into the "upper room" for the last supper. There were virtually no American uniforms to be seen and only occasionally one of the other Allies, who formerly had made Jerusalem a popular furlough spot. Elaborate rites of commemoration were planned by the Eastern sects of Christianity today, featuring much colorful pagentry and ancient symbolism, but the chapels in which the ceremonies were to be held were small and only a fraction of the throngs visiting the holy city could witness them.

Government Takes Concern in Coal Strike to People

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The government carried its concern over the 18-day coal strike directly to the people today. Civilian Production Chief John D. Small declared sternly that every citizen in the nation "has a definite stake" in the bituminous shutdown because eventually the output of autos, houses, refrigerators and other scarce goods will be hit. Simultaneously, Secretary of the Interior J. A. Krug, in his capacity as solid fuels administrator, reported that 28,000,000 tons of soft coal have been lost since John L. Lewis called his 400,000 bituminous miners out of the pits April 1. These assertions from two key agency heads were described by one official who asked not to be named as an effort to overcome the "apathy" with which he said the country has accepted the complete shutdown of its soft coal mines. Meanwhile, Secretary of Labor Schweitzer and his aides were being put to a severe test of diplomacy and persistence in trying to get negotiations going again between Lewis and the soft coal operators. Neither side has budged from its position of a week ago when Lewis stormed out of the contract negotiations. He said it was "futile" to continue talking as long as the operators refused to commit themselves on his proposals for improved mine

CAA Proposes 2 New Airlines To Serve Pampa

Hopes that Pampa would be on a complete feeder airline service went up today with the announcement that Examiner Thomas Wrenn of the Civil Aeronautics board had recommended that two more companies be authorized to operate through here. According to the Associated Press, Wrenn recommended that Central Airlines be allowed to operate between Oklahoma City and Amarillo via El Reno, Clinton and Elk City, Okla., and Pampa and Borger, Texas. He also recommended that Texas-New Mexico airlines be authorized to operate between Garden City, Kan., and Amarillo via Liberal, Kan., Guymon, Okla., and Perryton, Canadian, Pampa and Panhandle, Texas. Roy Webb, manager of the Pampa municipal airport, said today that he could make no comment on the authorization until official notification of the operations came through. Pampa has already been granted an airline which is to begin operation April 23 between Dallas and Amarillo via Pampa. It is the West-Tex airline which will serve Dallas, Fort Worth, Childress, Pampa and Amarillo. Other Panhandle towns that would receive air service under the CAA plan are Dalhart, Dumas, Canyon, Tulia, Plainview, Lubbock, Lamesa and Midland.

Oil Nominations For May Increase

AUSTIN—(AP)—Purchasers of Texas crude oil have made advance nominations for 2,352,417 barrels of crude daily during May, increase of 24,793 barrels above April nominations, the Railroad commission has reported. The nominations are 297,817 barrels daily above actual production on April 13, Commissioner Thompson said. Thompson said it has been the experience of the commission during the past 10 years that nominations ordinarily run about 200,000 barrels more than real demand because of some unavoidable duplication and because of over enthusiasm of purchasers. The advance nominations and evidence to be taken at a statewide hearing here Friday will be considered by the commission in issuing its May permissive production order. Widespread Meat Scarcity Is Discussed

By JAMES MARLOW
WASHINGTON—(AP)—Why the widespread meat scarcity? Government officials—and they have figures to back them up—say there's no actual shortage of meat in this country. More meat—An estimated 1,000,000,000 pounds more—will be placed on the civilian market in 1946 than in 1945. But there is a wide scarcity of meat, in some places and for some people. And these are the officials' reasons for that: 1. People have plenty of money. With rationing gone, they're buying lots of meat. 2. Black markets are draining off huge chunks of meat to sell to people who don't mind paying black market prices. 3. Because of the big demand and the black markets, the meat is not being distributed equally. 4. Because of this unequal distribution, many people and places are unable to get meat. What the government people don't say, although it seems undeniable, is that meat rationing, which ended last November, ended too soon. Rationing would have been a big help in distributing the meat more equally. But there is worse news: Between now and next fall meat will be scarcer because this is the season it happens every year—when comparatively few cattle are killed. In the midst of the uproar over the scarcity, meat industry people complained to congress that OPA price ceilings were causing the scarcity. The house, debating a bill to keep OPA alive after June 30, first voted yesterday to tear off all OPA price controls over meat but a few hours later reversed this decision. Abolishing price ceilings would make any drive against black marketers impossible. With price controls gone, anyone could charge any price he could get. The FBI now, because there still are price controls, is investigating complaints that some slaughterers are collecting government subsidies by pretending to sell at ceiling prices. See MEAT SHORTAGE, Page 6

Terminal Leave Pay Seems Sure

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Hopes of terminal leave pay soared today for millions of GI's as a majority of house members signed on the dotted line in their behalf. Unless the representatives change their minds, the house on May 13 will vote to give all enlisted personnel, including those already discharged, the same accrued leave pay consideration now given to officers. On that day the legislation will come before the house automatically under so-called discharge procedure. The 218th signature to a petition taking the legislation out of the hands of the military committee and putting it on the house business calendar was affixed yesterday. The earliest the bill can be called up for a vote will be May 13. Although a military subcommittee had approved the legislation, the full committee shelved it after the budget bureau reported it would conflict with the budget, which made no provision for such an expenditure by the bureau at "several billions."

Warning Issued On Sewer Ditch

A warning was issued to residents on the southeast side of the city to keep children away from the sewer ditch now being dug. The ditch is 27 feet deep and a fall would probably cause death to anyone who fell in, city officials said. Seat covers and floor mats for all makes of cars. Lloyd's Magnolia Station. (Adv.)

Reds Reported To Have Lost Rugged Battle

NEW YORK—(AP)—Soviet Russia was reported today to have lost a strenuous battle behind closed doors to have the United Nations security council's procedure kept open against further consideration of the Iranian case. As the council prepared to meet at 2 p. m. central standard time, the committee of experts on rules and procedure was said by informed quarters to be split eight to three, with the majority holding that the case could legally be kept on the agenda. The council was expected to resume its debate on the controversial Spanish question at the opening of the session, while the experts completed drafting majority and minority reports, expressing the committee's split opinion on the Iranian question. The lineup in the committee of experts was the same as that during the council debate earlier this week—Russia, Poland and France insisting that the question should be dropped. The other eight members, led by U. S. delegate Edward R. Stettinius Jr., have argued that the case should be kept on the agenda until May 6. Meanwhile, Sir Alexander Cadogan, British delegate, was scheduled to lead off in the Spanish debate with an assault on some of the arguments advanced yesterday by Polish delegate Oscar Lange in his plea that members of the United Nations break diplomatic relations with Franco Spain. The British position was represented as being similar to that voiced

Forrestal Agrees Some Program of Merger Desirable

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Secretary of the Navy Forrestal's agreement to the Navy's merger of the two departments of the sea service and the White House into smoother waters today. Forrestal carried the peace gesture further with firm advice to navy officers to pipe down on anti-merger "speeches or other propaganda" and stick to congressional committee testimony. Forrestal indicated, however, that no action is contemplated against Rear Adm. A. S. Merrill whose comments to newsmen last week were said by the White House to have prompted President Truman's original criticism of what he termed navy lobbying. Forrestal gave reporters his ideas upon emerging from a 90-minute meeting with Mr. Truman. Also present were Assistant Secretary John L. Sullivan and Adm. Chester W. Nimitz, chief of naval operations.

Roll-Call Vote of 355 to 42 Recorded

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The house voted overwhelmingly today to continue OPA for nine months, but in a form OPA Administrator Paul Porter said would wreck price control. It was one of President Truman's worst legislative defeats since he entered the White House a year ago. The roll-call vote on passage was 355 to 42. The house, meeting at 10 a. m., two hours earlier than usual, tossed the amendment-ridden bill over to the senate, where the White House said today that President Truman hopes for "much better results." Asked at a news conference if the Chief Executive had any comment on the house amendments, Press Secretary Charles S. Ross told reporters: "Not for print." Asked if the President was going to "do anything about it?" Ross replied: "He hopes for much better results in the senate." He did not elaborate. A bloc of democrats, chiefly from the South, combined with republicans yesterday to so amend the bill with amendments that Chester Bowles, economic stabilizer, said the house had started "a joy ride toward economic disaster."

Shamrock Lawyer Announces for District Judge

Lewis M. Goodrich, Shamrock lawyer and a resident of the Panhandle for the past 40 years, announced formally today he is seeking the office of district judge. There had been only one other candidate for that office, the incumbent district attorney, Walter Rogers, Pampa. Goodrich, who served as 31st district attorney from 1933 to 1938, said that he served for 39 1/2 months in the Pacific as an enlisted man. He said, "This is my 19th year as a practicing attorney. I am 48 years old. XXX I feel that my experience, legal practices and qualifications justify my seeking this honorable office." There had been rumors for some time that Goodrich would seek the office, but this was the first definite word from him that he was in the race. Political activity in the county and district has been sluggish for several weeks. Few names have been added to the roster of aspirants. In addition to the judge race which was thrown wide open with the announcement by Judge W. R. Evans that he would not seek re-election after 20 years in the office, there will be a great deal of interest in the race for sheriff and for at least two commissioner posts in the county court. Four names have been submitted to the sheriff roster that of incumbent G. H. Kyle, R. H. "Rube" Jordan, James Barrett, and Jess Hatcher. For commissioner, Precinct 2, Wade Thomason, incumbent, and Bertie Vaught and Frank Silcott have entered the race. In Precinct 3 James Hopkins, Ray G. Burger and Earl Johnson. Two names are up for the commissioner post in Precinct 1—Joe Clarke, C. H. "Doc" Bigham. Buy poultry and lawn supplies while stocks are complete. Lewis Hardware Co. (Adv.)

Four-Day Vacations In Store for Students

Easter vacations from Thursday night to Tuesday morning are in store for students of Pampa, Hopkins, Farrington and Letors schools, according to Hueylyn Laycock, county superintendent of schools. "The McLean and Back schools are not having a vacation. Other schools in the common districts have not reported whether they are having vacations or not.

Nylons, Sheets, Shirts—Bring Hundreds of People to Town

It's hard to believe—after reading the ad which appeared in the Pampa News—but buying and selling nylon, sheets and shirts in neat, orderly and extensive. Women and men, with dazed looks on their faces walk out the back door with their arms full of sheets, pillow cases, towels, wash cloths, mer's shirts, and even the ever-scarce nylons. Of course, some of these, such as nylons, are limited to one of each, but that doesn't dampen these stocking and sheet-hungry patrons. By 10 a. m., from 200 to 500 persons had already passed through the store. Mr. Boles thinks at least 500 to 1,000 more persons will come into the store throughout the day. Many of the first started arriving out front about 5:30 this morning. A still larger number arrived in the first hour of the opening, and the crowd is steadily growing, as customers from outside towns begin to arrive. There are about 22 salespeople employed to take care of the trade and to speed them through as quickly as possible in order to give

Iran's Resort To Censorship Alarms U. S.

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Iran's sudden resort to drastic news censorship sent the state department on an urgent two-way quest today to determine: 1. Whether the action was Russian inspired, and 2. What the United States might be able to do to get the iron lid lifted. The possibility of a formal protest is being fully explored. Indications are that an explanation is being asked from the Iranian government of Premier Ahmed Qavam. This is expected to show whether there is any connection between yesterday's dramatic imposition of "blind censorship" and the increasing Soviet pressure on Qavam's government because of the still pending row over Iran in the United Nations security council. The form which Iran chose for control over out-going news is one that was used in Russia from about March 1939 or earlier until March 29. It is known locally among newspapermen and within the state department as "blind censorship" because it denies correspondents the opportunity to learn what changes have been made in their censored dispatches. This may be used by

Retail Stores Are Asked to Close for First Ball Game

Yesterday afternoon, when that all Pampa retail stores close their doors at 5:30 p. m. Thursday, May 2, members of the chamber of commerce and trade committee endorsed the policy of "take me out to the ball game" the opening home game of the Pampa Oilers. Places of business where it is unnecessary to reopen for the day were recommended to keep closed for the rest of the day. The ball game starts at 4 p. m. Members of the committee also heartily expressed their strong cooperation with all Gray county recreational and entertainment events, believing them to get back on a pre-war scale this summer. The hospitality of Pampa should be more extensive, said the committee after discussing war-time standards of merchandise and service of customers by inadequate help. Business people want to forget the war-time basis of operating and want to build their business on terms of friendship, committee members said. Labor for retail stores has improved, said L. N. Atchison, chairman of the committee, who stated Pampa stores were ready for the anticipated recreation program six months ago but that merchandise demands are still difficult to obtain. Cooperation of the retail trade

LLIVIA, Franco-Spanish Border. —(P)—Llivia is in a dilemma. This tiny enclave of Spanish territory completely surrounded by France has become the forbidden village of the French border country since the closing of the frontier with Spain. The three main groups of Burgheers are disturbed. Shopkeepers are deprived of a lucrative black market trade with France which has made Llivia Spain's most expensive non-resort village. Border smugglers no longer can bring in and take out goods. Both are pinching more than ever the farm hands, now unable to work on nearby French farms. Only the peasants don't care.

The one place on the main French-Spanish border that cannot be closed is the point where the international road from Llivia to Puigcerda crosses it. Neither side can close it by the terms of a treaty dating from 1600.

The treaty allotted 33 villages of the Cerizane valley to France. Llivia, capital of Cerizane, being classified as a town, was allotted to Spain provided that "in no case may the King of Spain fortify Llivia or any other place in said Bailiwick."

"The King's highways and passages needed for faring from Llivia to Puigcerda and, contrarily, or to fare from one village to another of those remaining in France, shall be free to the subject of one or the other realm without their being molested," said the treaty, with many elaborate provisions.

Two French roads cut across the small international thoroughfare. At the crossings French customs officials now are reinforced by Gendarmes. Spanish Customs posts at both ends of the road are reinforced by officers. Normally the road carries good stocks of provisions for the people of Llivia from Puigcerda, but these have dwindled to a trickle with such strict control over crossings and goods that even Falangists have a hard time getting permits.

sion to go from Spain.

French border inhabitants or peasants with fields in the enclave may go right through the town provided they stick to the road. They are watched carefully to see that they do not enter the houses, or the village's two cafes.

But they often stop and chat with the few French merchants long-settled here for nothing forbids doozstep conversations with inhabitants.

AAF Will Accept Applications Now

Applications are being accepted by army air forces headquarters for regular army officers and enlisted men who desire assignments as instructors in the air national guard.

The AAF announcement received through headquarters, West Texas U. S. army recruiting district, Lubbock, Texas, said personnel assigned as instructors could expect a three-year minimum tour of duty.

Officers must be regular army first lieutenants or higher, with 18 months' overseas service since December 7, 1941, acceptable to the state concerned, and one of the following: active pilot, radar officer, communications officer, fighter interceptor controller, or aircraft warning officer.

Enlisted applicants must be sergeants serving three-year enlistments and one of the following: airplane maintenance technician, administrative specialist, communication chief, camera technician, radar and repairman, radar operator, intercepter technician, or information center technician operator.

Officers who wish to apply may submit applications through channels to the AAF commanding general, Washington 25, D. C. Enlisted applicants may apply through channels to their commanding general.

Pinkham's Compound is one of the best known medicines for this purpose. Also a grand stomachic tonic!

Make This Home Recipe To Take Off Ugly Fat

It's simple. It's amazing, how quickly one may lose pounds of bulky, unsightly fat right in your own home. Make this recipe yourself. It's easy—no trouble at all and costs little. It contains nothing harmful. Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcoltrate (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill the bottle. Then take two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show the simple, easy way to lose

Mrs. A. W. Frazier Honored With Shower

Mrs. A. W. Frazier was complimented recently with a pink and blue shower in the home of Mrs. A. W. Griggs with Mrs. N. E. Dulaney and Mrs. Lloyd Batson assisting.

A corsage of sweet peas was presented to the honoree by the hostesses.

Amateur Rodeo Events Scheduled Sunday Afternoon

On Sunday afternoons amateur cowboys and cowgirls will have an opportunity to increase their calf-roping and riding skills in the special rodeo events to be sponsored by the Special Events committee connected with the Top of Texas Rodeo Assn.

Events are expected to get underway about May 19, according to plans made yesterday by members of the committee and announced by Crawford Atkinson, chairman.

Twenty-five Brahma calves have been ordered and are expected to arrive about the first of May. Cost to participants in the calf-roping events will be 25 cents a calf. A small admission will be charged for spectators to defray costs. Events will be held at Recreation park.

Plans for the rodeo contests are especially designed for the amateur rodeo enthusiasts. Everyone who likes to rope and ride is welcome to participate in the cowboy contests, said Atchison.

The events are to continue from the middle of May up to the time of the Top of Texas Rodeo to be held August 16-18.

Barrel contests are being planned for cowgirls. Arrangements are being made for events for children.

Complete details of the rules and regulations are to be announced within a few days.

Committees appointed by Chairman Atkinson to handle details are: Arena committee—Homer Taylor, Guy Andis, B. Barrett and J. R. Shelton.

Entertainment — P. B. Wright, Wade Thomason, J. C. McWilliams, Frank Lard, William T. Fraser, Ray Burns and E. O. Wedgeworth.

Tickets and Finances — John Plant, Ernest Crane and Paul Carmichael. Regulations and Book-keeping—Irvin Cole and Frank Lard. Advertising and Publicity—O. W. Hampton, Atkinson and C. P. "Doc" Pursley.

Thousand Others City Declares War on Rats

yet been developed, and the atomic energy commission, is still to be activated. The educational, scientific and cultural organization is still in the preparatory stage.

Add the "permanent" staff under Lie, whose members still are on a basis of temporary employment; the borrowed experts; the delegates' personal staffs; the military staff personnel; the Hunter college maintenance staff; the cafeteria workers; the U. S. marines and the New York City policemen, and you will find that even now, in New York alone, the spotlighted delegates are outnumbered about 100 to 1 by the un-sung workers upon whom they depend.

Nor does this take account of some 800 newspaper reporters and photographers, radio and television and newsreel staffs, assigned to give that publicity which is the only weapon possessed by the United Nations to hold any of the Big Five in line. And it ignores perhaps a hundred telephone, telegraph, cable and wireless employees required to handle that publicity plus the United Nations' own huge message file.

Eventually, when all the organization's bureaus get to functioning fully, a spokesman for the executive office estimates that there will be some 2500 persons on the U. N.'s own payroll, in New York or wherever it may be functioning by that time.

City Declares War on Rats

From now on, it's total war—a war against rats in Pampa and the city has passed an ordinance to that effect.

In cooperation with the United States public health service, the city has set up a revolving fund to be used in a program of rat-proofing here.

According to a recent public health service survey, Pampa was found to be one of the critical areas in Texas where a rat proofing program was needed and it was requested that the city make the recommendation into a statute.

The program, part of which is already underway, will provide for the rat-proofing of all business houses.

It will not, however, be a temporary plan. The city and county have each provided one man to learn the program and it will be set up on a permanent basis.

The program will be financed by fees from business establishments for the rat-proofing service, in addition to the amount already set aside.

Also passed in commission meeting yesterday was an ordinance providing for city inspection of all commercially slaughtered meat here.

The animals will be inspected by the health department before and after they are killed.

Young Pampan Is Big Business Man

Several mornings a week, Donald Stafford of Pampa goes into a certain local cafe and usually orders a "short stack"—two hot cakes.

Stafford never drinks coffee—only milk for him. He carefully cuts his food up with his knife and fork, eats about half of it—and hurriedly leaves.

There's nothing odd about eating only half a short stack, drinking milk or suddenly having to hurry to work or something, but:

Donald is only five, but for a five-year old, patrons of the cafe think he manages very well.

Donald's parents, in case the reader is worrying about a five-year-old running around loose, own a service station across the street from the cafe.

OPA Bill

As to whether there was any discussion of a veto with the President he told reporters he couldn't say.

The bill's major clauses now call for prices guaranteeing "reasonable profit" to all manufacturers and distributors; scrapping government food subsidies; repeal of the low-cost clothing production program, and an end to the "cost absorption" controls limiting prices on autos, radios and the like.

Economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles deplored the house measure as the beginning of "a joyride toward economic disaster." OPA Chief Paul Porter said if the house action is sustained in the senate it "amounts to repeal of price control."

But the house, having missed out on a final vote late last night after a stormy marathon session, expected to toss the bill as is over to the senate in short order. Whether it will fare better in that body was problematical.

Indeed, so great was President Truman's congressional set-back on economic policy that rumors swept the capitol that both Bowles and Porter would resign. However, Bowles went on a radio network and declared he expected to "see this thing through to the finish."

Nevertheless, close friends of the two men predicted privately later that they would resign "without question" should the house bill become law.

FOR MISERY DUE TO NASAL CONGESTION

Supply Rushed Here—Sufferers Rejoice

Relief at last from the torture of sinus trouble, catarrh, and hay fever due to nasal congestion is seen today in reports of success with a formula which has the power to reduce nasal congestion. Men and women who suffered with agonizing sinus headaches, clogged nostrils, ringing ears, sneezing and sneezing misery now tell of blessed relief after using it. KLORONOL costs $2.00, but considering results experienced by users, this is not expensive and superior to only a few pennies per dose. KLORONOL, freedom, use only as directed. KLORONOL is sold with strictest instructions by Berry's Pharmacy — Mail Orders Filled

Mrs. Florence Herr Dies in Wellington

Mrs. Florence Herr, 66, who formerly resided at 420 N. Crest street in Pampa, died at 11:30 Wednesday in a Wellington hospital, following an extended illness.

Mrs. Herr was born May 4, 1880, in Fairfield, and was married to Edwin C. Herr of Corsicana. They lived in Lawton, Oklahoma until 1942 when they moved to Pampa.

Survivors are her husband, Edwin C. Herr, Nashville, Arkansas; six children: Lester of 549 Fifth street, Pampa; Glen, Los Angeles; Frank and Earl of Laramie, Wyoming; Mrs. All Weick of Laramie; and Mrs. Cecil Thompson of Shamrock.

The body will be taken overland to Corsicana by the Womack funeral home of Shamrock. Funeral services and interment will be in Corsicana.

District Court Has New Reporter

Dee T. Dotson of Quitaque, has accepted a position as district court reporter following the resignation of Mrs. Grace McNair who has held that position since last October.

Dotson, discharged from the army two months ago, was court reporter with Judge C. R. Russell of the 64th judicial district at Plainview for two years before entering the service. He was with the Allied control commission at Budapest, Hungary, during his two years in the army. His wife and three children will move to Pampa when possible.

Mrs. McNair has resigned as court reporter awaiting her passport to Manila where she has received a position as reporter with the civil service.

There was no immediate indication whether any action will be taken on the corn price recommendation. This step has been suggested from time to time in recent weeks, but it has been resisted by government stabilization officials on the ground that it would constitute a break in the hold-the-line price policy.

Urging immediate adoption of the proposed flour restriction order, the famine committee declared that the government's voluntary program under which consumers are asked to cut 40 per cent less wheat products will not save as much as had been expected.

Other steps the committee urged include requirements for closer trimming of meat to save fat, a ban on the use of edible tallow and oleo oils in soap making and a priority system for makers of farm machinery and parts.

ed yesterday by Stettinius: (1) that Britain wanted to see the Spanish people themselves throw the Franco regime and (2) that it wanted this to be done without starting another civil war.

The Polish position was set forth by Lange in an hour-long speech in which he charged that the Franco government originally was a creature of Nazi Germany and fascist Italy, that it served in wartime as an active Axis partner and that it now has "caused a state of international friction by compelling the French republic to close her borders with Spain by massing troops on the borders of France."

Censorship

an unscrupulous censor to distort the meaning of stories.

The new censorship policy as disclosed to correspondents by the Iranian ministry of posts and telegraphs was reported to Washington by the American embassy at Tehran.

The start of the censorship was to sight, the embassy told the state department, that reporters were not even allowed to inform their home offices.

Iran has been a free-news country and, in the opinion of American diplomatic authorities, the steady flow of information out of that country during its continuing dispute with Russia has served Iran's interests well on the whole.

It was this fact which led to strong suspicions among these authorities that censorship may have been imposed at Russia's insistence. They fear this may have been the same kind of pressure which Russian Ambassador Ivan Sadchikov is reported to have employed in the last few days to force Iran to agree to withdrawal of her case from the security council.

safety and a union-administered health and welfare fund.

The operators, declining to agree to those principles in advance, insisted that Lewis talk about wages and hours for a new contract, to replace the one he terminated April 1.

There was a strong feeling among government labor officials that the public is not aware of what the strike might mean in lost production.

Hence Small and Krug were asked by Schwellenbach to assemble data on the exact effect the strike was having on industry.

Here are some of Small's findings: Some railroads may be forced to curtail service in the next two weeks; steel production is dropping steadily; about 15 small brick plants essential to the housing program have been closed.

committee and the retail merchants association will be convened, stated committee members and Mrs. Della Ellis, association secretary, who was present at the meeting.

Letters received by Senator W. Lee O'Daniel and Representative Gene Worley, in answer to telegrams sent by the committee setting forth their opposition to the amendment to the 1933 fair wages and standards act were read. O'Daniel wrote that he could not commit himself one way or another as the bill may be changed by the time it reaches the senate floor. Worley said he would keep the views of the Pampa merchants in mind.

The bill in question re-defines interstate commerce, thereby reclassifying many more businesses under interstate commerce and entailing a consequent increase in minimum wages to those effected.

Members of the committee meeting yesterday were: Aitchison, Pampa Office Supply; R. M. Samples, J. C. Penny Co.; Mrs. Myrtle Simmons, Simmons' Children's Wear; Malcolm Denson, Piggly Wiggly; Frank Foster, Pampa Furniture Co.; Jack Lazar, Levine's; Bryant Caraway, Murphy's; A. B. Meat Shortage ces while actually black marketing. OPA is investigating something else, and it's very important.

When meat is slaughtered and sent across state lines, it has to be federally inspected. Meat slaughtered and sold within a state doesn't have to bear this inspection.

In normal times, the amount of meat sold within a state where it's killed and the amount shipped out to centers depending on these shipments hit a balance.

But there are not normal times. Government officials say the amount of federally inspected meat shipped across state lines has dropped sharply and they say this means:

Slaughterers, with the demand for meat so great, are saving themselves trouble by selling meat close to home, within their own state, even though out-of-state centers have to do without.

OPA is going to try to cut down on this practice so more meat will be distributed around the country.

FALSE TEETH

That Loosen Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH, the alkaline, non-acidic powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour, checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Get FASTEETH at any drug store.

Seniors Honored With Banquet

MIAMI—The 1946 Senior class of the Miami High school was honored with a 1 o'clock banquet Sunday, April 14, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theo Jenkins by the Youth Fellowship group of the Methodist church.

Small tables were arranged for forty-four in attendance and the master of ceremonies was Mr. R. W. Stewart, principal of the high school. Rev. C. A. Holcomb, Jr., gave the invocation. Iris and bridal wreath flowers were featured in the decoration. Place cards were miniature nut cups in the shape of graduate caps.

A welcome was given by Carol Jenkins and Cecil Smyth, president of the Senior class, responded. A musical duet was played by Carol Jenkins and Murla Holcomb, also each played a separate number. A song dedicated to the seniors was sung by Harry Earl Hardin.

After the dinner group singing was entered into. The menu consisted of baked ham, potato salad, combination salad, green peas, hot rolls, iced tea, ice cream and cookies.

Lefors Sailor Is Home on Leave

LEFORS (Special)—AOM Kenneth Tubbs has arrived home for a leave ending April 30. He was formerly stationed in Jacksonville, Fla., but is reporting back to the San Diego naval base at the termination of his leave. Kenneth expects to receive his discharge from the navy in about three months.

200-Pound Mountain Lion Finally Shot

EDINBURG—(AP)—Mountain lions still grow big along the Texas border and one that was bold as well as shot while crossing a highway six miles from Edinburg.

The 200-pound Puma was felled by Pedro Cruz, who saw the animal near his home five miles west and a mile north of Edinburg. A shot from a 30-30 rifle felled it. After skinning the big cat, Cruz measured the pelt at six feet, plus a four-foot tail.

Calves and poultry which residents of the area had missed in recent weeks were believed to have been victims of the lion.

German pet-plant at Kahla had a capacity of 1100 to 1200 jet-propelled craft a month when V-E day came.

Government Calls On Tech Bureau

LUBBOCK—The Texas Tech teacher placement bureau has been asked to assist the government in securing teachers for the newly formed education program for military personnel overseas with the armies of occupation.

Under the program men overseas will be provided with educational opportunities comparable to those offered in larger communities of the United States, with instruction from the fifth grade courses to junior college levels. Men only will be sent overseas to teach for the present.

The government asks that teachers be supplied in accounting, agriculture, art, business administration, commercial subjects, English and journalism, literacy, mathematics, mechanics, mechanical drawing, music, physical sciences, psychology and social science.

Legion Convention Held in Childress

SHAMROCK, (Special)—The DeShazo-George Post will be represented by at least four members at the spring convention of the 18th District of the American Legion to be held in Childress on Friday and Saturday of this week.

Attending from Shamrock will be Bob Roach, Jack Montgomery, Lewis Goodrich and Flake George. George is chairman of the credentials committee.

Childress has arranged through Post Commander Leonard King, an outstanding series of entertainment events. Two American Legion dances have been scheduled for Saturday evening. The 40 and 8 will also have a dinner Saturday evening. Joint sessions of the Legion and Auxiliary will be held in the Childress high school auditorium starting at 9 a. m. Sunday morning. A feature of this meeting will be a mass initiation of new Legionnaires to be conducted by the Degree Team of Voiture No. 609, Amarillo, of the 40 and 8. Sid A. Lowery, Austin, department service officer, will also conduct a school during the morning for county service officers in commander field's district.

Department Commander Herman G. Nami of San Antonio and the department Auxiliary president, Mrs. Koly Farrar of Breckenridge, are expected to attend the convention and speak Sunday morning. In the afternoon there will be separate meetings of the Legion and of the Auxiliary.

Denton Graduate Will Go To Europe

DENTON—Miss Virginia Paty, North Texas State college graduate, and a member of the staff of the Baltimore Sun, will leave this month for Europe where she will represent the Sun as a news correspondent.

Miss Paty, former director of publicity at the college, was awarded one of three $1,500 Pulitzer traveling scholarships at the Columbia Graduate School of Journalism last June, which enables her to spend a year abroad to study the social, political and moral conditions of the people and the character and principles of the foreign press. After receiving her masters degree at the university, Miss Paty joined the staff of the Sun until her assignment for Europe was listed.

Daughter of Mrs. W. B. Paty of Paris, the young correspondent will sail on, or around, April 20, and dock at Bremen. From there she will stop in Germany, Austria, Paris, and finally London, where she will serve as correspondent for the London bureau of the Baltimore Sun.

Miss Paty graduated from Paris Junior college and came to North Texas State as a junior student and graduated here in 1941. She served as director of publicity from 1942 until Sept. 1944 when she went to Columbia to work on her masters degree.

During the Boer war, bullets used in the defense of Kimberley were stamped with the words: "With J. C. Rhodes' compliments."

Thursday's Program To Be Last of Series

SHAMROCK, (Special)—The last of the series of Amateur Programs being sponsored by the Shamrock chamber of commerce will be held at Kellerville on Thursday night, April 18. The public is invited to attend.

On Friday night, April 26, the first and second place winners picked from each of the individual shows will appear in a program at Clark Auditorium at which time the three winners of the entire area will be selected. The three winners will be awarded cash prizes totaling $30, and will later appear on a radio program over station KGNC, Amarillo.

Germans in China To Be Repatriated

SHANGHAI—(AP)—All Germans in China known to have been connected with the wartime German government will be repatriated on American ships, probably in June, it was announced.

Col. Richard C. Wittmann, Lincoln, Nebr., in charge of the repatriation, said the first ship would return about 1,500 Germans, including wives and children.

After their return to Germany, Wittmann said, the repatriates probably will be tried for war crimes. Negotiations are being conducted with commanders of Soviet, British, French and American zones to return the Germans to their original sections.

Tournalayer Manufacturer To Speak At Chamber of Commerce Convention

LONGVIEW—R. G. LeTourneau of Longview, the man who makes the Tournalayer, the machine that "lays" a concrete house, will be one of the principal speakers at the 26th annual "Victory" convention of the East Texas chamber of commerce in Shreveport, April 21-23.

Mr. LeTourneau, nationally-known industrialist and lay leader, is building a $5,000,000 plant in Longview to manufacture the Tournalayer and other heavy machinery. He also is president of LeTourneau Technical Institute of Texas, which is located 600 yards from his Longview plant. He operates earth-moving machinery manufacturing firms in Illinois, Georgia, Mississippi and California, and is building similar plants in Australia and England.

Former problems of agriculture and industry of East Texas and legislative and tax programs will be discussed in Shreveport, April 21-23 when the East Texas chamber of commerce holds its convention.

"We are mapping a serious business conference for the Shreveport meeting," Hubert M. Harrison, vice president and general manager, announced today. "This is our first convention in five years, and we have before us the heaviest work program in our twenty years of service to the East Texas area."

Other speakers on the convention program are Dr. George S. Benson, president of Harding College, Searcy, Ark.; Col. Robert G. Storey, Dallas, chief prosecutor of Nazi war criminals; and Col. William M. McGraw, Dallas, former attorney general of Texas who has just returned from military duty. Bronson Morgan, Jasper, president of the East Texas chamber of commerce, will direct the sessions. Visitors will be welcomed to Shreveport by Gov. Jimmie Davis of Louisiana and E. Bernard Weiss, president of the Shreveport chamber of commerce, convention host.

"We are planning an outstanding program of entertainment for the convention," Harold Bryant, manager of the Shreveport chamber of commerce, announced. "Among the entertainment features are a parade, a barbecue on the campus of Cen-terary college Monday afternoon and the president's ball Monday night."

Group conferences will be held on agricultural, industrial and governmental problems Monday afternoon. New officers will be elected Monday morning and convention resolutions will be adopted Tuesday morning.

Traveler, 10, On Way Home

FORT WORTH—(AP)—Ten-year-old Leroy Martin of Houston, who got tired of playing in a Dallas park Tuesday and decided to take a trip, was homeward bound from Fort Worth yesterday with his $2 in a brand new wallet and two detectives to keep him company.

Leroy, who has a shock of bright red hair and a crop of freckles, explained to police that he had gone to Dallas with his stepfather, E. V. Sutton, Houston, and was in the park while Sutton attended to a business matter. "He bought a railroad ticket to Ft. Worth—enroute, he said, to Denver—and appeared at a small Fort Worth hotel Tuesday night and engaged a room. He had started out with a $5 bill his stepfather had given him.

The hotel manager later notified police and Leroy was transferred from his hotel room to police headquarters. He spent the remainder of the night there on a bed he described as "hard, but all right" and yesterday was turned over to two Houston detectives who happened to be in Fort Worth.

Detective Inspector Ed Chapple, taken with the youngster, bought him a new wallet before they parted.

ruins Tee Off on Reds Again

Pampa News SPORTS

By JOE REICHLER
AP Sports Editor

The Chicago Cubs, who last year equalled a major league standard by trimming the Cincinnati Reds 21 times in 22 meetings, are off to a good start today in an attempt to duplicate the performance this year.

Yesterday's 11-7 triumph coming on the wings of Phil Cavarretta's home run which highlighted a five-run spurge in the ninth inning, was Chicago's second straight win over the Rhinelanders.

Beating the Reds in the final frame is no new experience for the Cubs. Last year the Bruins trailed on six different occasions when they came up for their last ticks at the plate, but each time they rallied to down their frenzied fall-guys.

The largest turnout of the day, 14,330, watched the home-town Detroit Tigers go down to defeat, also in the ninth inning, when the St. Louis Browns counted twice on a pair of hits, two walks and Vern Stephens' fly to defeat the Bengals 7-6.

The Giants kept pace with the Cubs by defeating Philadelphia 5-2 for their second straight over the Phillies. The 31-year-old Bob Joyce gained his first national league victory in limiting the Phis to seven blows.

Cleveland and Boston's Red Sox were the only other teams to keep their 1944 slates clean. The Indians continued to get fine pitching as Alie Reynolds hurled a five hitter against the Chicago White Sox to help Cleveland win 7-1.

The Red Sox staged an old fashioned slugger bee against five Washington throwers which netted them 15 hits and a 14-6 decision over the Senators. Ted Williams and Dom Dimaggio led the Sox at bat.

Philadelphia's Athletics evened their series with the New York Yankees when they hopped on rookie Randy Gumpert, a former Hackman, for five runs in the seventh inning to beat the Bronx Bombers 7-1.

Southpaw Max Lanier celebrated his return to the big leagues by blanking Pittsburgh with seven scattered singles as the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Pirates 6-0.

Rookie Hank Behrman, a 24-year-old righthander who was purchased from Montreal only last Monday, turned back the Boston Braves with nine scattered hits as Brooklyn evened the opening series with a 4-2 victory.

Oilers Defeat Amarillo, 10-2.

ELK CITY, Okla. (Special)—With the aid of home runs by First Baseman Virgil Richardson and Outfielder Emmett Fulerweiler, and five enemy errors, the Pampa Oilers defeated the Amarillo Gold Sox here last night 10-2, for their third straight victory.

The Oilers, Pampa entry in the West Texas-New Mexico league, made their fifth exhibition start good as they got revenge for a 29-13 rout at the hands of the Gold Sox last week.

They will play host to the Enid Enhidars, powerful semi-pro nine, here Sunday afternoon.

LUBBOCK—Miss Vivian Johnson, head of the department of home economics education at Texas Technological college, was recently elected state chairman for the American Vocational Association Home Economics Research Project.

Cardinals defeated the Pirates 6-0. Rookie Hank Behrman, a 24-year-old righthander who was purchased from Montreal only last Monday, turned back the Boston Braves with nine scattered hits as Brooklyn evened the opening series with a 4-2 victory.

Noland likes to tell a story about a PAL official who was driving through a Brooklyn park when a couple of kids tossed some rocks at his shiny new car.—The official managed to catch the boys and demanded an explanation.—"This is the last time, we're giving it up Tuesday!"—the kids told him—"Why Tuesday?"—"Well, that's the day we're joining the Police Athletic League."

Sports Round-Up

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
NEW YORK—(AP)—The Police Athletic League of New York is planning to extend its inter-city competition into the baseball and track season and to realize what that means you'll have to see some of the figures.—But first deputy Commissioner James B. Nolan, who heads the outfit, wants you to understand it isn't just an organization of bad boys although its big job is keeping kids out of trouble—the PAL had 320 basketball teams last winter and wound up in an inter-city series involving New York, Newark, Philadelphia, Washington, Baltimore, Union City, N. J., Yorkers and Nassau county, N. Y.—This spring Nolan hopes to have 1,000 baseball teams in action and 20,000 kids participating in track.—The figures are almost too big to believe, but the commissioner's big point is that 71 police departments in big cities carry on the same sort of work and if they're doing for the kids, they'd take it up, too.

Demand for Holsteins Caused by Shortages

LUBBOCK—Shortages in dairy products have caused an increase in the demand for Holstein-Friesian heifers, according to W. L. Stangel, dean of Agriculture at Texas Technological college.

At present the demand far exceeds the available supply of animals for sale. Most dairymen are trying to stock their herds with Holstein-Friesians since they can keep up cream content in their milk supply with a ration of 10 Holstein-Friesian heifers to one Jersey.

Test Pilot Tennis Star Pulls Major Upset at River Oaks

HOUSTON—(AP)—With a steady, alert brand of play, Eddie Holden, 29-year-old test pilot, pulled the first major upset yesterday in the 1946 River Oaks tennis tournament, wallowing eighth seeded Tom Molloy of New Orleans, 6-2, 6-1.

The Houston netman baffled his 18-year-old opponent who is ranked sixth nationally among juniors. Holden displayed a consistently good over hand game and used it to keep Molloy back on the base line.

Molloy was the only favorite to fall as the third round closed. The field now has been reduced to 16 players.

Kracher opened the 10th for Shreveport by moving to first, when he was hit by Pitcher Al Emmertson of Beaumont. He went to second on a passed ball, reached third on a single and scored on a long fly to centerfield. The Sports' win evened the series. Beaumont winning the opener, 6-5, in another tennis tussle.

The Fort Worth-Dallas game in "Cowtown" provided a lopsided tilt, with the Fort Worth Cats thrashing the Rebels, 13-4, to square the series. Both teams hit frequently, with Bob Costello, Cat hurler, giving up 10 safeties.

Today's schedule: (All night games)
Fort Worth at Dallas.
Houston at San Antonio.
Oklahoma City at Tulsa.
Beaumont at Shreveport.

Tulsa, Santone Perched on Top Of Texas League
By The Associated Press
Two teams—Tulsa and San Antonio—remained in the spotless record today after the second round of play in the Texas league.

The San Antonio Missions clipped the Houston Buffs 3 to 0 by staking a ninth inning rally, while the Tulsa Oilers put on a fourth inning uprising to clinch their tilt, 7-3, with Oklahoma City.

At Beaumont, the Shreveport Sports eked out a hard-fighting Beaumont nine, 1-0, in a ten-inning battle. Both teams played air-tight ball during the regular nine stanzas.
