

First Performance of Rodeo Begins 7 P.M.

Crowds of rodeo-wild visitors and homefolks jammed Pampa's gaily-bedecked downtown streets today, waiting for the mammoth two-mile parade which will set off the second day of the Top o' Texas rodeo and quarter horse show.

The parade, in which floats, motorists, bands, U. S. army units, cowboys, cowgirls and cyclists will participate, was to form at 3 p. m. at the west end of Foster, move east to Russell, north to Francis, west to Frost, north to Browning, east to Cuyler, south to Brown and east to Frederick.

Twenty-one units, with representations from Amarillo, Shamrock, Borger and Perryton swelling local entries, were to march in the parade.

At 7 p. m. tonight the first of four rodeo performances will be held in the main arena of Recreation Park. Amateur cowboys from all parts of Texas and Oklahoma and New Mexico will vie for $4,000 prize money in events that range from bronc-busting to cowgirl riding.

A similar contest will be held Saturday. A cowgirl contest is on tap, too, and special attractions include Bud Thies and his educated stallion, Dandy Fly-Way, and Louis Blair and his clown mule, "Gunpowder."

Subsequent rodeo performances are set for 2 p. m. and 7 p. m. Saturday and 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

At 10 p. m. tonight oldtimers will jig to the music of Rip Ramsey and His Texas Wanderers at a dance in the Junior high school gymnasium.

On the Athletic field of the Junior high school, a giant display of the latest equipment, some of it until recently classified "top secret" by the Army air and service forces is on display. The show is free to everyone.

The Pampa Oilers meet Clovis tonight and tomorrow night at Oiler Park. Game time each night has been shaved back to 9 p. m. so that rodeo visitors can attend.

In this morning's quarter horse show, organized and directed by Quentin Williams, there were 150 entries from five states.

Chief Submits Monthly Report On Occupation

BEELIN—(AP)—Gen. Joseph T. McNarney, commander of U. S. occupation forces in Germany, said in his monthly report today that the ultimate objective of the German communist party is to destroy the capitalist system and establish a socialist state with a classless society.

McNarney attributed the same objective to the Russian-sponsored socialist unity party, which was formed in the Soviet occupation zone by a merger of the communists and social democrats. He added that the communist program "contains a threat to resort to revolutionary means if the capitalist class forsakes the ground of democracy."

The official American assessment of what the communists "actually want" was made in a report which stated that because of the long-standing four-power stalemate over splitting out zonal boundaries and treating Germany as an economic whole, the Americans and British had agreed to an economic merger of their zones in the west.

The American commander's estimate of the communists was included in the "political activity" section of his report, which also surveyed the programs of the three other principal parties in Germany.

McNarney said that the social democrats outside Soviet-occupied territory stood for "parliamentary republican democracy of the western type" and opposed combination of close cooperation with their communist or socialist unit parties.

He said that the Christian democrats "sharply reject Marxian socialism." He added that the liberal democrats "stress the sanctity of private property and private enterprise."

This was delineated the cleavage between western and eastern political philosophies in Germany.

Of the communists and their blueprint for post-war Germany, McNarney's report said:

"The program of the communist party of Germany (socialist unit party in the Soviet zone) consists of two sections:

"The first, the so-called minimum program of immediate objectives and the second, the maximum program of ultimate objectives. Broadly speaking, the minimum program is as follows:

Household Items Up 3-12 Percent

WASHINGTON—(AP)—OPA hung a price-hike tag of "well over $150,000,000 a year" on radios, stoves, washers and many another household item today—and ground out still more bad news for consumers.

On top of price boosts ranging from 3 to 12 percent on 20 groups of mainly home essentials, the agency announced:

1. An immediate increase of one to two cents for draught beer and bottled beer served in bars, restaurants and hotels.
2. New price ceilings for used automobiles made this year or in 1945.
3. White sidewall tire ceiling 12.5 percent higher than maximum prices on other tires.
4. Higher prices for stationery and book paper.

Complaints of Price-Fixing Being Studied

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The justice department disclosed today that it is studying complaints of price-fixing and artificial shortages in meat.

An official fully acquainted with the study that since OPA price controls on meat passed July 1 the department has received numerous reports of various illegal trade tactics from many sections of the country.

In addition to reports or artificial price-fixing and price-fixing agreements, the official said other complaints being reviewed include:

1. Attempts to coerce retail meat dealers into making "tie-in purchases." Some dealers have said they are being forced to buy unwanted products in order to get fresh meat.
2. The assertedly large scale entry of some meat wholesalers and packers into the retail business. The antitrust division is studying to what extent this threatens the survival of independent meat retailers.
3. Withholding of hides from the market in an attempt to get higher prices. A civilian production administration drive also is underway in this field in an effort to avert a threatened shutdown of shoe production.

In addition to the meat and hides inquires, the justice department official said the agency is receiving "a very large number" of complaints of private price-fixing agreements involving other industries producing commodities no longer controlled by price ceilings.

He declined to name these industries.

Meat and livestock products were among several items which congress, in reviving OPA last month, decreed should be left free of price control until at least August 20.

Final say on restoring ceilings was left up to the federal judge who concluded four days of public hearing on the subject yesterday.

New Zealand Lashes Out At Russian Delegation

PARIS—(AP)—The Russian delegation tossed the makings of a new fight between western and eastern blocs into the pot of controversy today and the New Zealand delegate, W. J. Jordan, in an outburst of temper, denounced the Russians for "this blasted old rot."

"Let's do something," Jordan shouted in exasperation at long speeches and delays after listening to an argument by Soviet delegate Andrei Vishinsky. "Here we sit listening to quick, quick, quick, hour after hour. We are sick of it."

Vishinsky insisted in an organizational meeting of the political and territorial commission on Romania that only nations actually at war should have a vote in the commission drafting recommendations for the five peace treaties. The vote of France thus would be eliminated from the commission.

In a meeting of the commission on Finland, Soviet delegate N. V. Novikov raised the same point, would eliminate the votes of the United States and France.

Presumably the Russians planned to raise the same questions in the commissions for Italy, Bulgaria and Hungary.

Despite Jordan's hot retort, Vishinsky insisted upon his point and the matter was left for future action. In the commission on Finland, Novikov drew a quick reply from the United States delegate, Mr. McNeill of Britain that "my government could not accept the Soviet view on this matter." In the Finnish commission, too, the Soviet declaration was noted in the minutes without further action.

Vishinsky said he would ignore "direct action" plans, Nehru said.

The casualties in Calcutta resulted despite efforts of leaders of the congress party, the Moslem league and the communist party to maintain order.

The Manikotla district, a center of previous Calcutta riots, witnessed a pitched clash between league sympathizers and opposers of two shops were reported looted there.

Industrial and commercial activities were paralyzed in Calcutta.

15 Are Killed and 250 Injured in Calcutta Riots

CALCUTTA—(AP)—Fifteen persons were killed and 250 injured today in riots between Moslems and Hindus during a Moslem league "direct action day" protest to the British plan for Indian independence.

The Moslem league, second largest political party in India, called a nationwide strike for today to start its "direct action" program.

Shops and markets closed.

The casualties resulted from clashes in various parts of Calcutta. Of the injured, 100 were taken to hospitals by noon. Pedestrians were reported assaulted and some stores were looted.

The Moslem league, which claims to speak for India's 90,000,000 Moslems, recently rejected the British independence plan after first indicating acceptance of the Moslem league's insistence on Pakistan, or partition of India's predominantly Moslem areas from the rest of the sub-continent.

Jawaharlal Nehru, president of the predominantly Hindu congress party, largest in India, met last night in Bombay with Mahomed Ali Jinnah, president of the Moslem league, but made no progress toward agreement.

Nehru said the congress party would go ahead with formation of an interim Indian government, with or without the Moslem league, "direct action" plans, Nehru said.

Texas Veteran Is Germany Bound

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Roy C. Carlton, Kilgore, Texas, veteran and his attorney, Fred Erisman, Longview, Texas, left by plane today for Frankfurt, Germany, where Carlton will testify in the Hesse-Cronin jewel case.

Carlton and Erisman, acting under war department instructions, declined to disclose what testimony Carlton will give.

The war department said June 13 that Carlton had submitted voluntarily to questioning and had been cleared of complicity in the removal to this country of $1,500,000 worth of Hesse-Cronin jewels taken from Kronberg castle.

WAC Captain Kathleen Nash Duran, formerly of Chicago, her husband, Col. Jack Duran, and Maj. David F. Watson of Burlington, are being held. Carlton will testify at the trials of one or more of them.

Fiscal Year for City Is Changed

Starting this year, the fiscal year of the City of Pampa will start on Oct. 1, instead of April 1, City Manager Garland Franks has announced.

Franks said the intervening time this year between the two dates will be shown as an interim period on the records.

He said the change was made to standardize the local fiscal year with that of most of the cities of Texas and also with that of the state tax year, which starts on Oct. 1.

The city commission has approved the publication of the city's financial statement for the fiscal year ending May 31. Another will be published following the close of the interim period.

Connally Assists Secretary Byrnes

NEW YORK—(AP)—Declaring that Russia has "maintained an unreasonable position" at the Paris peace conference, Sen. Tom Connally (D-Texas), chairman of the senate foreign relations committee, boarded the liner Queen Mary today to sail for France to assist Secretary of State James F. Byrnes at the conference.

The senator talked to reporters aboard the liner and ended his conference by saying: "We cannot settle international difficulties like a bunch of fussy schoolboys."

Senator Connally gave the statement to reporters in his cabin:

"We are more or less disappointed that the conference has not made more headway on the treaties themselves. XXXX We have simply got to make peace. We cannot leave the international situation in mid-air."

Non-Cooperation Strike Set

U. S. Stands Firm Against Soviet Hand in Military

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Truman announced today he is considering asking congress for special legislation to permit entry of European refugees, including Jews, into the United States.

A White House statement said that the United States government "has not presented any plan of its own for the solution of the problem of Palestine," although the President has been exchanging views with Prime Minister Attlee of Britain on the question.

The statement said it was clear no settlement of the Palestine problem could be worked out that would be "fully satisfactory" to all parties concerned.

It added that a spirit of conciliation must be used if the problem is to be solved "in a manner which will bring peace and prosperity to Palestine."

JERUSALEM—(AP)—Eighteen defiant and singing young Jews were sentenced to death today for bombing the Haifa railroad shops in a night attack. Four Jewish women were given life terms.

The sentences were passed soon after the outlawed Irgun Zvai Leumi had exhorted the Jews to a general revolt and the Vaad Leumi, the national council for Palestine Jews, asked the Jews in this strife-ridden land to begin a non-cooperation strike Sunday.

The country still was tense over the issue of British deportation of illegal Jewish immigrants to Cyprus. Two small ships were reported to have brought 200 to 300 illegal immigrants to the coast before being spotted.

The 22 Jews were tried in absentia after they were ousted from the courtroom for singing and causing other disturbances during proceedings.

The trial lasted four days. At the start, the Jews demanded treatment as "prisoners of war" and challenged the right of the military court to try them.

All 22 were captured at a road block which troops established a few minutes after the raid at Haifa several weeks ago. The defendants were accused of belonging to the outlawed Stern gang, violent Jewish underground group.

The workshops were bombed during a week of terror in which eight bridges were blasted, a train was wrecked and five British officers were kidnapped in Tel Aviv.

The British army, meanwhile, stood by in full alert to meet the possibility of a general revolt of Jews as urged by Irgun Zvai Leumi, Jewish underground organization, and military informants described the situation throughout Palestine as in a state of "dreadful hush."

There was much disappointment in Jewish quarters as reports circulated that President Truman had declined to approve U. S. participation in a plan to divide Palestine into federal zones.

One qualified Jewish leader said the American President's position, if correctly stated, was a "shameful breach of faith and failure to discharge a moral obligation."

An Arab spokesman, on the other hand, said the U. S. position was "entirely correct."

State Political Picture Is Hot

Beauford H. Jester and Homer P. Rainey were answering each other's charges last night.

Jester, continuing his Central Texas tour, charged that Rainey made "false statements" regarding the railroad commissioner's stand on the age pensions.

Rainey, completing his two-day swing through Northeast Texas, attacked Jester's assertion that Rainey's oil and gas tax plan is unconstitutional.

"My stand on lifting the ceiling on old age pensions," Jester told a Taylor audience last night, "has been repeatedly published and broadcast."

"From the beginning of my campaign, I have advocated lifting the $35,000 ceiling, and I expect to be able to raise payments to the aged to $45 monthly under the terms of the new federal social security act."

Puppet Emperor Of Manchuria Is Heard at Trials

TOKYO—(AP)—Henry Pu-Yi, a nervous little man in a blue serge suit, testified today at the trial of Japan's war leaders—some of whom gave him orders when he was puppet emperor of Manchuria.

There was no sign of royal background as Pu-Yi, one-time boy emperor of China, slipped into the witness box.

Two American military police stood beside the witness box as Pu-Yi testified. The courtroom was jammed.

Pu-Yi kept glancing down at notes. This brought an admonition from Sir William Webb, president of the international tribunal.

Former Premier Hideki Tojo and the 26 other defendants showed interest in Pu-Yi's testimony. Tojo took notes, and Naoki Hoshino, one of the key civilian Manchuria plotters, gazed intently at the witness.

The former puppet avoided the eyes of the defendants. Twisting nervously, he related that he was born in 1906 and was enthroned at the age of three upon the death of his father, the last emperor dowager of China.

The corruption of Chinese officials was the reason for his overthrow by revolution three years later, Pu-Yi said. But he added that Su Yat-Sen, leader of the revolution, was "a greasy man."

The witness told of living in Tientsin between the ages of 20 and 27. Then he was taken to Manchuria to become regent and then puppet emperor of that Japanese-dominated area.

Woman Confesses She Shot Veteran

CHICAGO—(AP)—Charles Lucas, 28-year-old war veteran, whose marriage to a Texas girl was planned for tomorrow, lay critically wounded today and police held without charge Lucas' former wife, Lillian, 26, who Detective John Clemes said confessed shooting him.

Clemes said Miss Lucas told him she shot Lucas because she learned he intended to place two of their four children for adoption. The detective quoted Mrs. Lucas as saying she agreed to give her former husband custody of their four children when they were divorced last month on his promise never to part with them.

Lucas' fiancée, Miss Dorothy McDonald, 24, of Wichita Falls, Texas, was in the Lucas home during the shooting but did not witness it.

Chances of Suffering Polio Attack Discussed

Deprived of impulses from these nerves, the muscles are limp and useless. The damage XXX may range from temporary suspension of function to complete destruction.

Earlier times, doctors kept affected limbs encased in splints. The Australian nurse, Sister Kenny, was largely responsible for the wide use of treatment that accents gentle motion of affected parts.

Roland Berg of the National foundation for infantile paralysis in a new book, "The Challenge of Polio," says:

"Even those medical men who are bitterly opposed to Miss Kenny readily admit that her treatment is better and should be used. The main point of disagreement between Miss Kenny and these doctors is that her treatment methods have been developed by her to treat a disease which XXX Miss Kenny insists XXX is a disease primarily of the muscles and skin XXX. "The medical men XXX know that the disease is primarily one of the nervous system and that the muscles are only indirectly and symptomatically involved."

Court Refuses To Block Agreement

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The U. S. court of appeals for the District of Columbia today refused to take an action that would have set aside the agreement between the government and John L. Lewis covering unionized supervisory workers at four mines.

Loser in the court's stand was the Jones and Laughlin Steel corporation. The court refused the corporation's request for a preliminary injunction against the agreement.

The court said the company had failed to show it would suffer "irreparable injury" as a result of the agreement, signed July 17th between Admiral Be. Morel, coal mines administrator, and Lewis' supervisory workers union.

Immediately involved were 136 supervisory workers at four steel company mines in Western Pennsylvania.

The corporation had petitioned both the federal district court here and the court of appeals to block any agreement between the government and John L. Lewis covering unionized supervisory workers at four mines.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE SACREDNESS OF HUMAN LIFE

Scripture: Exodus 20:13; Matthew 5: 21-24; 10:29-31; 18:10-14

By WILLIAM E. GILROY, D.D.

To speak of the sacredness of human life seems almost a mockery in an age of the mass slaughter of war, the prewar murder of millions, and the postwar aftermath of strife, violence, and starvation. But human life is sacred, and the real mockery is man's mockery of God's laws and of God's ways.

God's laws and ways are manifest in Jesus, who, in contrast to the powers of sin and destruction, said that He had come that men might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. That declaration marks the completeness of the contrast between the Kingdom of Christ and the kingdoms of the world.

The kingdoms of the world, in civilized states, have, it is true, professed to be on the side of life. But the annals of the world are full of crimes on the part of those whose professed business was to make and enforce laws as rulers.

Murder so directly contravenes the spirit and teaching of Christ that it is amazing that a professedly Christian world has made so little progress in combatting war and in promoting peace among men. Defensive war—resistance to terror and aggression—is a different matter; but no nation, not even our own, has an entirely clean record in this respect. Every country too often has viewed killing as justifiable when the state orders it.

Against this, the profound need is to establish the truth that all killing is wrong, a sin against humanity and against God, except in cases where it is necessary to the protection and preservation of life itself.

Insistence on the sacredness of human life did not begin with Jesus. It was a part of that noble teaching and tradition of Israel that He said He had come, not to destroy, but to fulfill.

The early chapters of Genesis are remarkable for the clarity of their teaching concerning human life. It is brought out strongly in the dramatic story of Cain's murder of Abel, the provision of the cities of refuge, which might provide sanctuary even for the man who had possibly unintentionally killed another, was a striking instance of the intensity of the conviction concerning the sacredness of human life. And the whole story of Abraham—his plea for the inhabitants of a wicked city, his willingness to forego his own advantage for the sake of preventing strife—emphasizes the moral foundations of humanity and of human relations, and the sacredness of life itself.

The noblest teachings of the Prophets make life and healing and salvation the ideal goals of faith and conduct, with sacrifice for others, as in Isaiah 53, a mark of supreme goodness.

To all this Jesus gave the full witness. There is hope of world peace only as the world learns to follow His life-loving and life-giving way.

Five hundred cubic feet of inspired air enters the nose every 24 hours.

Hill-Van Fleet Vows Are Spoken

SHAMROCK, (Special) — In a double ring service Miss Rachel Frances Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Hill of this city, became the bride of Cpl. Alvin E. Van Fleet, son of W. A. Van Fleet of Jackson, Mich., Saturday at 7 p. m. in Amarillo.

Chaplain Clarence L. Oelke, of the Amarillo army air field, read the ceremony in the parlor of the Polk Street Methodist church.

Introducing the ceremony, Billie Creamer of Amarillo, played "I Love Thee," while Mrs. Jack Anderson, sister of the bride, lighted the candles. She was attired in a two-piece linen suit with brown accessories.

During the ceremony soft music was played and the traditional wedding marches were used.

Nuptial vows were exchanged before an improvised altar of white gladioli woodwardia fern and palms, flanked by candelabra.

Mrs. H. B. Hill, Jr., of Amarillo, served as matron of honor. She wore a cream tulle dressmaker suit with navy blue accessories. The members of the wedding party wore shoulder corsages of white split carnations.

T. B. Hill, Jr., of Amarillo, brother of the bride, served as best man.

Church Will Dedicate Choir Loft at Services

Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the Church of the Brethren will dedicate a new choir loft in connection with the hour worship.

The choir will sing a group of old selections, and the pastor, Rev. Russell G. West, will preach on the subject, "Song of the Upward Way."

On Sunday evening at eight o'clock, the pastor will preach on "Sins That Would Fence You In." The church extends an invitation to our friends of the community and out-of-town visitors.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, chose a silk shantung suit in a melon shade, complimented with brown accessories. Her corsage was of gardenias.

For something old, she wore a lavender crystal heirloom cake stand which held the wedding cake, topped with wedding bells. Tall cathedral tapers provided illumination.

The cake was cut by the couple and served by Mrs. Jack Anderson of Shamrock, with Mrs. Matthew J. Taylor of Canyon, presiding at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Van Fleet is a graduate of the Shamrock high school and later taught in the local school system after receiving her degree from West Texas State college. Last year she taught at Jacksonville Beach, Fla., and at the time of her marriage held a position in the Amarillo schools for the ensuing year.

Cpl. Van Fleet has been stationed at the Amarillo army air field for the past five months.

Only relatives and close friends of the family attended the wedding. For traveling the bride wore a moss green suit of light weight wool accented with brown accessories.

After a short honeymoon trip the couple will make their home at 2005 Field, Ill.

Lesson-Sermon on 'Soul' Is Planned

"Soul" is the subject of the lesson-sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday.

The golden text is: "My soul doth magnify the Lord, and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour" (Luke 1:46-47).

Among the citations which comprise the lesson-sermon is the following from the Bible: "The Lord redeemeth the soul of his servants; and none of them that trust in him shall be desolate" (Psalms 34:22).

The lesson-sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian science textbook, "Science and health with key to the scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: "When understanding changes the standpoints of life and intelligence from a material to a spiritual basis, we shall gain the reality of life, the control of soul over sense, and we shall perceive Christianity, or truth, in its divine principle" (page 322).

When the patent system was established in the United States in 1790, the fee was $4.

Oilers Win Over Pioneers 8-4, Move Into Second Place

Series Sweep Would Virtually Clinch Pennant for Boston Sox

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The pennant bound Boston Red Sox—and even the most conservative Red Sox rooters now feel certain their team will win this year—can all but set up the American league flag if they are able to sweep the four-game series that opens today with the New York Yankees.

The race has reached a point where a mild winning streak by the pace-setters, especially against their closest competitors, will make the Yankees and Detroit Tigers start thinking about next year.

If the Red Sox, now enjoying a 12-game lead, beat the Yankees in all four games and go on to play 500 ball in their remaining 37 contests, the Yankees will be faced with the difficult task of winning 37 of their remaining 39 games in order to steal the pennant.

The Yankees prepared for their hub invasion yesterday by sweeping a doubleheader from the Washington Senators at the Yankee stadium 6-1 and 7-2.

Outfielder Sam Chapman ran riot in Philadelphia, hitting three home runs, to lead the Athletics to a 5-3 victory over the Red Sox.

Hal Newhouser came through with a splendid 3-0 shutout victory over the Chicago White Sox in Detroit.

In the torrid National league race, the first place Brooklyn Dodgers increased their margin to two games over the runner-up St. Louis Cardinals by trouncing the New York Giants 7-1.

The Cincinnati Reds snapped a nine-game losing streak when they defeated the Cubs in Chicago 9-3 in the first game of a doubleheader but reverted to their losing ways when the Cubs beat them 3-2 in the nightcap.

The Boston Braves and Philadelphia Phils divided in twin bill at Boston, the Phils outlasting the Tribesmen 15-11 in a free-hitting first game and the Braves winning the second 3-1.

Aided by Manager Lou Boudreau's two-run triple, the Cleveland Indians pushed over three runs in the fourth inning of their home night game with the St. Louis Browns to win 3-2.

The scheduled night contest between the St. Louis Cardinals and Pittsburgh Pirates was postponed by rain.

Phillips Plays One Game, But Wins Two

The on-rushing Phillips softball team, probably the most improved team in the industrial softball league, played only one game but took two wins last night to crowd Wards for second place in the league.

Phillips beat Schafer 16-8 in a make-up contest and won by forfeit over its regularly scheduled opponent, the withdrawn Kingsmill team.

Heiskell moved into the first division, winning an 8-4 contest from McWilliams, taking Schafer's place in the top four.

Wards battles Schafer tonight at Schafer in one of the feature games of the week. A loss by Wards would throw them into a tie with Phillips for second.

Alpaco, the cellar-dwelling team, will pull into a tie for seventh with Baash-Ross, as Alpaco is scheduled to play the disbanded All-Stars.

Presbyterian Suffers Loss

The Presbyterian Senior boys team of the Kiwanis softball league tumbled from the ranks of the unbeaten last night, going down before First Methodist, 16-14.

The final decision was highly disputed by the Presbyterians, who had a chance to tie the score, their side was retired when the umpire ruled a player trying to score failed to touch home.

Central Baptist Senior boys also got another victory as they trampled First Baptist 24-5.

In the girls division First Methodist had to hustle to defeat Central Baptist as the score was tied twice, but the Methodists came out on top 20-18. First Baptist chalked up a 28-5 victory over Presbyterian.

First Baptist Junior boys also had a rough time of it as they eked out a 20-16 win over First Methodist. The other Junior boys game found First Christian defeating Harrah Methodist 18-7.

Fifth Victory Racked up by Jim Carithers

Scoring six runs in the first inning and driving off a desperate eighth inning rally, the Pampa Oilers edged the battling Clovis Pioneers here last night 8-4 and vaulted back into second place in the West Texas-New Mexico league.

Amarillo's Gold Sox absorbed a 5-3 defeat at the hands of first-place Ablene to aid the Oilers' upward drive.

Organized ball in 1935, marked up his fifth triumph without a loss last night as he set the Pioneers down with eight hits, striking out 10 and walking only three.

In 31 innings pitched for the Oilers (he has one victory for Borger) Carithers has struck out 30 and walked only 11 and has given 122 batters who faced him only 27 hits.

After giving the Pioneers two hits accounting for one run in the first inning, Carithers pitched hitless ball until the seventh, when Clovists took the lead on a sacrifice fly. The Oilers were in the eighth and one in the ninth.

Despite their seventh-place standing, the Pioneers seemed to show more fight than most teams that have played here, despite the Oilers' early five-run lead.

Manager Joe Dotlich used 13 of his players in an effort to tighten up the infield and outfield but Bill Hewitt, Clovis right-hander, received poor fielding support.

The big blow of the game was Richardson's three-run homer over the right centerfield fence in the eighth inning. The round-tripper was Richardson's 17th of the year and brings his run-batted-in total to 101, only 10 behind the team's leader, Joe Fortin. Richardson is three runs and leads in doubles with 30 and runs scored with 122.

Clovis scored its first run when Bean singled and took second on Riley's error. Collins grounded out, Bauer filed out and Bean scored on Woldt's single.

Otey singled to lead off for Pampa. Harriman singled and Otey scored on Bauer's error. Range walked, and Harriman came in when Bean singled. Riley's grounder, Richardson then cleared the bases with his homer making the score 5-1. Fortin and Seitz singled, Zigelman filed out and Carithers was safe on a choice with Fortin coming in with the sixth run.

Neither team scored until Clovis pushed across three in the eighth when Collins and Runcie singled. Woldt reached first on Fortin's error and all three scored on a double by Dotlich.

A double by Seitz and singles by Zigelman and Carithers brought Seitz in in the eighth. After Otey forced Zigelman at third, Harriman filed out and Carithers scored when Dobbis, Clovis shortstop, muffed Range's ground ball and then threw it away for two errors.

Hewitt and Dobbis struck out in the ninth, Collins singled but Runcie went down on a called third strike to end the game.

Carithers seemed to be pitching a "nothing ball" all through the game. He was not particularly fast, worked slow and deliberately and fooled runners to their bases by frequent pegs.

Carithers used a side-arm pitch to left-handed batters that broke wide at the plate, completely baffling Clovis batters.

Tonight, the same two teams will meet in the second game of the series, with game time having been set as 9 o'clock instead of the customary 8:30.

The time was changed so that fans who wish to do so may attend the Top of Texas Rodeo, which starts at Recreation park at 7 o'clock.

Tomorrow night's game will also start at nine to give fans time to see the night rodeo performance. Either Bill Garland (15-7) or Joe Isaacs (1-1) will start for the Oilers tonight.

Fort Worth Scores Four Runs in Seventh to Edge Exporters, 4-3

(By The Associated Press)

Fort Worth took advantage of the lucky seventh inning last night to push across four runs and come from behind to defeat the Beaumont Exporters, 4-3.

The second place Dallas Rebels received only six hits in two games with Shreveport but managed to break even, taking the nightcap, 3-2, after the Sports had won the seven-inning opener, 5-0.

The Houston Buffs spotted Tulsa Oilers a four-run-lead in the first inning but settled down and handed the fourth place Oklahomaans a 9-5 defeat.

Lanky Ralph McCabe blanked San Antonio, 2-0, on six hits in the nightcap as the Oklahoma City Indians shared a twin bill with the Padres, who won the first game, 5-3.

Trailing by three runs and helpless at the hands of lefty Bill Houtz, the Fort Worth club started rolling when the Exporter Southpaw walked the first two men in the seventh. Singles by Romanus Basgall and George Pfister and a double by Marney White sent four runs across the plate.

Earl Doulager was credited with a three-hit shut out as Shreveport took the first game with Dallas. The Sports jumped on Tom Pullig in the first inning for three runs and then added a pair of Hank Oana, who took over for Dallas in the second.

In the second game, the Rebels' lead-off man, Gene Markland reached third as Fred Daniels, third baseman, juggled a grounder and then threw over the first baseman's head. Markland scored on an out-field fly. The Sports went ahead with two runs in the last half of the first, but Nick Gregory's fourth inning homer gave Dallas the winning runs.

Houston recovered from the four-run Tulsa lead by staging a six-run uprising in the third, including a three-run homer by Jim Basso. The homer came off Felix Penso who had replaced Ed Hanyzewski after three runs had counted and two were still on base.

Ned Garver allowed Oklahoma City only six scattered hits as San Antonio took the opener in the twin bill," he asserted.

Reaney said that at first Jester would not tell why he was opposed to the former university president's proposal for an increase of two cents a barrel on oil and two cents additional on natural gas.

"Now he says that Homer Rainey's tax plan is unconstitutional," Reaney said. "That's the same argument made by attorneys for Standard Oil corporation against a tax of 11 cents a barrel on Louisiana oil. But the supreme court of the United States held that the tax on Louisiana oil was constitutional."

"We now have a tax of 4 1/2 cents a barrel on oil," Reaney continued. "Since when did it get to be unconstitutional to raise the tax two pennies where it will be what it averages in Louisiana?"

Today, Rainey was to fly to Lubbock for a night rally. He will have radio support today, with a broadcast scheduled at noon over the Texas State network by Mrs. I. D. Fairchild of Lubbock, former member of the University of Texas board of regents.

Jester made a last minute change for today's schedule. He has cancelled a morning appearance at San Marcos and will attend an oil hearing of the railroad commission in Austin. He is scheduled to be in Seguin this afternoon and in San Antonio tonight. He will make a radio address from San Antonio.

is the winning of political power in post-war Germany by the working classes (represented by the communist and socialist unity parties), while the maximum program will be enacted subsequent to the attainment of political power by this party.

"The minimum program calls for the establishment of an anti-fascist parliamentary democracy or republic. Under such a republic, war criminals and nazis would be punished, and there would be a total elimination from public life, from all offices and industrial management of fascists and reactionaries.

"A further demand is for 'democratic land reform in keeping with the Marxist point of view.' These goals mean a virtual social and economic revolution aimed at destroying the economic basis of the capitalist system of freedom of enterprise and of private ownership of the means of production. In Marxist ideology, a capitalist or big land owner is, ipso facto, a fascist or reactionary."

SHANGHAI—(AP)—Confused and expensive Shanghai, once the queen city of the Orient is not what it used to be, and many an old China hand sheds a quiet tear as he predicts that it never will be again.

"The tolerant minority say the Chinese inherited many new and different problems when they took back a city which had been occupied by the Japanese for eight years and which before that was famed for its smoothly-run international settlement and French concession.

The band, famous waterfront street along the Whangpoo, is no longer a clean, orderly thoroughfare. Peddlers spread their wares in the street, Touts impounding passers-by, offer all sorts of merchandise and services.

In the central district, business heart of this metropolis of 4,000,000, portable restaurants line some of the finest streets.

Open-air stalls make traffic impossible in others, notably blood alley, which derived its name from the number of fights spanned in its dancehall and bars.

Blood alley's stalls overflowing the sidewalks, now have spilled out into the street. The proprietors offer a wide variety of goods: cosmetics, chocolate bars, cigarettes and mosquito nets. They do a thriving business.

An importer who had brought in some winter raincoats to retail at $80 U. S. found that before he could get his cargo cleared through customs, some of his coats were on sale in these stalls at half the price. They came, as did much other merchandise, from Shanghai's busy thieves.

Stealing of ships' cargoes is one of many Shanghai rackets, but strictly in the big-league class. Importers estimate their losses from theft run into hundreds of millions of Chinese dollars monthly.

Shanghai is expensive. A taxi ride which used to cost the equivalent of 33 cents, U. S. now cost $3 U. S. luncheon and a couple of beers at a Jordan was so perturbed that his voice broke as he cried the words "this blasted old rot," following a speech by Soviet delegate A. Y. Vishinsky arguing that only those countries which actually were at war with Romania should have a vote on the commission.

He said the commission had met at 10 a. m. (4 a. m. EST) "and here it is 11 o'clock and we've gotten nowhere. We haven't even got a chairman."

He begged the temporary chairman to take matters into his hands and force the organization of the committee to proceed.

Another Arab leader declared: "America's meddling in Palestine affairs was bound to end sooner or later, either happily or in disgraceful bickering. If this report is true, it means that American statesmen are finally agreed that the British alone must bear responsibility for the political holocaust caused in this beleaguered country."

Dr. Hussein F. Khalidi, secretary of the Arab executive, said a scheduled meeting of that body today probably would be postponed because two delegates from Egypt—Jamal Bey Hussein, deputy chairman and Emil Khouri—had not yet arrived.

Stanwyck Double Is Being Sought

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD—(AP)—Girls, if you think you could fit into the "molded sex" of Barbara Stanwyck's garments, there may be a chance for you in pictures.

Whence comes this "molded sex"? Let Edith Head, the brilliant bright fashion designer, explain it:

"Molded sex is what I call the postwar clothes I designed for Barbara's next picture, 'The Other Love.' We have been going through a strong period of undressing our women, cutting away on materials. It's time we realized the value of subtlety in dressing.

"For molded sex we follow the Greek method of fitting clothes to the body beautiful. There's a great deal more charm and sex in what you can't see than in what you are forced to see.

Now the gimmick is that Barbara would have to model 39 gowns. She wants a vacation, so Enterprise Productions is seeking an exact double who also will get a part in the picture.

The Stanwyck measurements (and interesting ones they are, too): Head 33; neck 13; bust 35; waist 25 1/2; hips 33 1/2; lower part of hips 36 1/2; shoulder to floor 60; waist to knee 22; shoe 5-C, glove 6 1/2.

If you come close, send your photograph and measurements to Billy Selwyn, Enterprise studio, Hollywood 4. For heavens sake, don't send them to me.

EVERYONE HAS INFLUENCE

Why do you vote the way you do? Whence came your opinions on political issues, strikes, Russia, OPA, how to raise potatoes, and the best way to cure athlete's foot?

It's difficult, if not impossible, to trace many opinions to their origin but some interesting research has been attempted in this field. Commenting on the results in the August American Mercury, Granville Hicks says something which should give every citizen cause for second thought whenever he is tempted to "low-rate" the personal influence he exercises.

"Some of the public opinion experts," Hicks says, "have concluded that even in this day of universal literacy and twenty-four-hour radio service opinions are still transmitted chiefly by direct word of mouth. One study has indicated that in almost every neighborhood, every factory, every group of any kind, there is likely to be an individual whose word carries particular weight. Often this individual has not political position, and his social status may be low, but somehow authority attaches itself to his words, and this personal authority is more persuasive than the prestige of any radio commentator or newspaper columnist."

Hicks might well have carried his statement a bit further and instead of saying merely that such influence is exercised by some individual in every group, indicated that every individual exercises some influence on other persons. Rare, if non-existent, is the man or woman whose opinion doesn't have special weight with some other person. And the thing also works in reverse, of course; that is, adverse reaction to an individual's character or personality may cause negative reaction to his views.

The important point, however, is that most of us have more influence on those about us than we realize. In some degree our opinions help shape the convictions of others—and so does our example in performance of the duties of citizenship.

Let no man say he has no influence. He has. It may be for good or bad, but it is definitely influence. This is a fact which every person should think about when he excuses lack of initiative or cooperation in civic matters by saying that what one person thinks or does won't make any difference.

The news from China leaves little doubt that that tragic country is on the verge of total civil war. The American peace makers, General George C. Marshall and Ambassador J. Leighton Stuart, have proclaimed their despair over the chances of success of their efforts.

Chiang Kai-shek celebrated V-J Day by proclaiming his readiness to end his one-party government without delay and open the national assembly November 12. He promised other concessions and reforms but none gained a favorable response from the Communists.

The fighting which still is not called civil war because peace negotiations continue fitfully and a truce is supposed to be in effect, has spread over most of the country north of the Yangtze river. The Communists hold nearly all Manchuria, nullifying the nationalists' hopes that when Japan was evicted that would become the industrial backbone of the nation and its main hope for economic progress. The battles extend over nearly all the northern provinces.

Nothing in Europe's sufferings is on such a vast scale as China's plight and of the few reasons Europe can hope for better times almost none are present in China.

The orders to American troops and sailors in China to remain indoors during the night indicate that the threat of open hostilities is spreading even to the few islands of comparative peace and prosperity that remain.

The situation also shows that the failure of one of America's most ambitious post-war undertakings, and one that in the beginning held the greatest promise for alleviation for human suffering is close at hand. Our entire withdrawal is not an impossibility.

That would mean the collapse of all the hopes held by the Chinese and their friends during the war as they endured for fourteen years—beginning with Japan's invasion of Manchuria in 1931—that end would see China restored to a place of equality among the great powers, all restrictions on her sovereignty ended and her territorial integrity unimpaired.

Total civil war would make China a political, economic, ideological vacuum. Into such a vacuum forces contending for world leadership or domination would be certain to rush, some of them doubtless against their own desires.

In Hollywood

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Making western pictures is right down Joel McCrea's alley. "It's so simple for me," he told me. "I live on a ranch. I wear boots and blue jeans all the time. So when I make a western I just put on the same boots and blue jeans, then drive to the studio instead of riding out to the back 40 acres."

In fact, those society dramas and white-tie-and-tail roles give Joel a great big pain. "Nobody believes that stuff. I saw a big musical the other night, and the extras were wearing better dress-suits than I own. You can believe a western picture."

We reminded him that Hollywood's idea of a western picture is a guy with a guitar and a trick shirt. "That's the trouble," he said. "If most of the big stars made western pictures, their careers would last a lot longer. Look at me. I've been in pictures longer than I'm willing to admit. I quit once because they tried to give me those white-tie-and-tail roles."

"VIRGINIAN" IS GREAT "The Virginian," with Joel, is cleaning up at the box-office right now. We reminded him that Hollywood's idea of a western picture is a guy with a guitar and a trick shirt. "That's the trouble," he said. "If most of the big stars made western pictures, their careers would last a lot longer. Look at me. I've been in pictures longer than I'm willing to admit. I quit once because they tried to give me those white-tie-and-tail roles."

"You're darn right it is. That's a real western story. This is the fourth time it has been made, and it's making more money now than it ever did before."

"Everybody likes 'em. Western pictures have saved every studio in the business."

"Clark Gable says he wants a good story. M-G-M owns 'em. They ought to remake it with Gable as Yancy Cravat. He'd be great."

Joel's current western is "Ramrod" and he stars made western pictures, their careers would last a lot longer. Look at me. I've been in pictures longer than I'm willing to admit. I quit once because they tried to give me those white-tie-and-tail roles."

every corner of the globe. As a first step, a practical expert on these questions will be assigned to each United States embassy and legation. Already these new food will ambassadors are aiding foreign governments, especially in South America, to establish labor departments patterned after our own agency.

RECOGNITION—Inauguration of this system constitutes official recognition that labor groups have come of age and are now a dominant force in world politics as well as in the United States.

The political and economic power which they have achieved in Britain, France, the Scandinavian countries and in Latin America, as well as their strivings in former Axis nations, requires closer governmental tie-ups with them.

In the past the bespattered men of the diplomatic service have wholly neglected this extremely important segment of international life. We have assigned military and naval attaches, commercial representatives, agricultural experts, and even FBI detectives to our foreign embassies and legations.

They spoke for and symbolized the United States, although few of them had ever seen the inside of a factory. Wealthy ambassadors have usually represented management rather than labor. They have devoted themselves to winning markets for manufactured articles, farm products and made-in-America munitions.

ENVY—Such one-sided and limited salesmen have extolled our manufacturing methods and products so grandiosely that foreigners envy us as a land of selfish and smug millionaires.

But they have never explained that 37,000,000 well-paid, well-educated and well-fed American workingmen are really responsible for our industrial wealth and power (which many peoples abroad saw and felt during the war).

Nor have they suggested that foreign laborers, too, might enjoy a similar state by embracing our methods and philosophy instead of Hitler's.

EXCHANGE—Eventually, this innovation may lead to a new kind of exchange of good-will missions between the United States and countries within and outside the Russian orbit.

Instead of swapping groups of students, professors, politicians and military experts in an attempt to promote international fellowship and understanding, Washington may ship hundreds of American workers as visual proof of the kind of prosperity and well-being which the man in overalls may achieve over here. They would be an approximation of F. D. R.'s mail order catalogue. By the same token, foreign workmen would be brought to this side of the water to see for themselves the living and working conditions which prevail under the western capitalist democracy that is so frequently vilified in the pages of Ivestis and Pravda.

VULNERABLE—Stalin's spokesmen here and abroad admit that communism today is vulnerable against this kind of attack. When talking frankly with American diplomats and newspaper correspondents in postwar exchanges, they agree that the "iron curtain" is designed to prevent his people from looking out rather than to bar outsiders from looking in.

The director in the Kremlin repainted and redesigned American weapons, vehicles and other wartime contributions to conceal the fact that they were made-in-U. S. A. products. His UNRRA representatives in the Balkans and Central Europe have orders to inform recipients that the food, clothing and medical supplies came from Russia, not America or Britain.

"Uncle Joe" suffers from a fear and inferiority complex, which helps to explain his behavior and Molotov's attitude at the current Far East peace conference. So, the labor arm of our new diplomatic offensive is aimed to hit him where he is softest.

Can The Poor Afford Government Gratuities—Tax-Supported Schools?

Practically every law passed in the last fifty years, and especially the last two decades, has been passed to benefit the poor and improvident. It is difficult to think of any law passed that was not intended to make it easier for those people with not very much vision.

There is no end to laws that could be passed with the idea of improving the lot of the poor, and no doubt the material lot of the poor can be temporarily improved by government gratuities such as tax-supported education.

But the great harm that is done by these laws that are intended to help the poor is that they cause the poor to lose their self-respect and self-reliance. They break down their morals and make them think they have rights without having to earn them.

It is hard to comprehend how much harm these laws have done from a moral standpoint. All these laws that are intended to help the poor by taking away the laws that make it easier to give to the needy are harmful to the needy themselves. These laws are harmful because they take wealth that would have been used to furnish better tools instead of only temporarily benefiting the needy. Or they take wealth that would have been used to buy new education for the producer to improve his product. Look at automobiles; had there been no rich we would never have had cheap autos.

Thus the poor who work from day to day and have nothing in reserve are obliged to use poorer tools than they would have had to use had the government not passed the laws to make it easier for them temporarily. Thus the workers would not have been able to buy automobiles and refrigerators had "humanitarian" laws prevented the rich from having the money to buy them when they were novel and expensive.

The men with foresight, the thrifty, can better stand the waste of moral miseducation or double education than can the poor. And if we are to have any moral education, there must be a double system of education for the poor. We have public schools, which cannot teach morals.

The thrifty and the men with foresight can stand bad government, but the men without foresight, but all must suffer nevertheless.

But the man who is harmed most by such laws as those authorizing tax-supported schools, tariffs, government credit, pensions, etc., is not the man from whom the government takes to give to the needy; it is the needy themselves. There is much less produced when we have these laws, and thus there is much less to divide. So the socialistic laws the needy naturally get less in the long run.

Emerson expressed this in his essay, "Uses of Great Men," by saying that the law is under the law of the universe. Or as he expressed it in his essay, "Compensation," "The thief steals from himself."

The columns, of course, are open to anyone who will answer questions without contradicting himself to refute the above, that the needy cannot make any great extravagance of tax-supported schools and other government attempts to take from one to give to another.
