

RUSSIA REJECTS U. S. VETO PROPOSAL

Republicans Will Decide Assignments Today

GETS HIS TWO SCENTS WORTH—Fox terrier pup pictured above gets double value for every cent he picks up. When brought to Chicago animal shelter run by Viola Larsen, who holds him, the dog was found to have two noses.

Search Under Way for Kidnapers of British

JERUSALEM—The British military announced today that all Jewish communities along the Palestine coast had been placed out of bounds to the 30,000 British troops on duty in the area, as authorities pressed a search for the kidnapers who abducted a British major and three sergeants last night and gave each 18 lashes in what was described as a retaliatory move.

Manufacturers Say Increase in Wages Ups Prices

WASHINGTON—The National Association of Manufacturers today described CIO arguments for a new round of wage increases as "pure guesswork" and "statistical nonsense," and reiterated that higher wages will force up prices again.

Tuberculosis Fund Grows to Over $3,000

Total returns for the local tuberculosis fund Christmas Seal Sale was slightly over $3,000, Hueelyn Laycock, president of the Gray County Tuberculosis Association, announced this morning.

Hospital Workers Needed in Area

Persons in Pampa and vicinity who are interested and qualified to do various types of hospital work are invited to make application at the local employment office tomorrow, L. P. Port, office manager, announced this morning.

None Injured As 4 Rail Cars Derailed

HOUSTON—Two coaches, a railway mail car and a sleeper of the Missouri Pacific lines' Southerner passenger train were derailed five miles north of Hearne at 2:45 a. m. today.

Panthers Win Private Car Following Hard Fought Campaign for Freedom

EL PASO—A railway express car containing three panthers was not until Los Angeles today after the animals' campaign for freedom had delayed the trip more than 48 hours.

Tobey Raises Objection to Advance Work

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Senate Republicans went ahead with plans for election of officers today despite a challenge from Senator Tobey (R-NH) of their authority to act until Congress actually meets.

Knuson Holds to 20 Percent Cut in Income Taxes

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Despite protests from both Democrats and fellow Republicans, Rep. Knuson (Minn.) declared today he has re-elected one item in his drive to cut individual income taxes by 20 percent "across the board."

Prospects for City Ownership of PAAE Bright

Prospects for the city procuring the Pampa Army Air Field appeared brighter today although it may take six months to one year for complete ownership to be granted by the federal government.

Three TU Regents Renamed to Posts

AUSTIN—(AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson today reappointed Orville Walter of Wichita Falls, W. Scott Schreiner of Kerrville and Dr. W. H. Scherer of Houston as members of the board of regents of the University of Texas.

South Carolina Man Named to Treasury

WASHINGTON—President Truman has chosen A. L. M. Wiggins, Hartsville, S. C., banker, to be undersecretary of the Treasury.

Collision Results From Icy Pavement

Additional information concerning the head-on collision early Saturday night on the Pampa-Borger highway was given today by state highway patrolmen here.

Chamber Election Ballots Called In

The deadline for the return of Chamber of Commerce election ballots has been set for Jan. 6, E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, announced this morning.

Vol. 45, No. 226 (6 Pages) PAMPA, TEXAS, MONDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1946 Price 5 Cents AP Leased Wire

New Economic Law Set for Germany

BERLIN—(AP)—The Allied Control Council today published a sweeping new law for Germany prohibiting the manufacture, import and possession of all war materials—from atom bombs to daggers and knives.

Knuson Holds to 20 Percent Cut in Income Taxes

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Despite protests from both Democrats and fellow Republicans, Rep. Knuson (Minn.) declared today he has re-elected one item in his drive to cut individual income taxes by 20 percent "across the board."

Texas Deaths in Holidays Total 82

By The Associated Press Eighty-two persons have lost their lives in Texas in accidents during the holiday season which began Dec. 26.

Three TU Regents Renamed to Posts

AUSTIN—(AP)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson today reappointed Orville Walter of Wichita Falls, W. Scott Schreiner of Kerrville and Dr. W. H. Scherer of Houston as members of the board of regents of the University of Texas.

South Carolina Man Named to Treasury

WASHINGTON—President Truman has chosen A. L. M. Wiggins, Hartsville, S. C., banker, to be undersecretary of the Treasury.

Collision Results From Icy Pavement

Additional information concerning the head-on collision early Saturday night on the Pampa-Borger highway was given today by state highway patrolmen here.

Chamber Election Ballots Called In

The deadline for the return of Chamber of Commerce election ballots has been set for Jan. 6, E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, announced this morning.

First Baby of '47 Contest Announced

The annual "First Baby of the year" contest will be sponsored again this year, according to an announcement made by the Daily News advertising department.

Pampa Takes Top Honors in State For Low Mercury

No shirt sleeves were in evidence this morning, but it was a warm day for Pampa, where a statewide low of five degrees was reported yesterday morning.

French Boy, 15, Hunts GI Friends

GALVESTON—(AP)—Fifteen-year-old Michel Heibolt, a blonde haired French orphan, today is in Galveston anxiously awaiting word from some of his former GI friends.

Boy Scouts Want Christmas Trees

Residents of Pampa are urged to place their Christmas trees in the alley behind their homes and they will be collected by members of the local Boy Scout troop, it was announced today.

Blast Wrecks Part Of 20-inch Gas Line

CORSIKANA—(AP)—An explosion heard seven miles away today wrecked 30 feet of 20-inch Lone Star Gas company pipeline a mile and a half northwest of Trinidad.

Chamber Election Ballots Called In

The deadline for the return of Chamber of Commerce election ballots has been set for Jan. 6, E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, announced this morning.

COURT BY TELEPHONE

YONKERS, N. Y.—Justice was tampered by the elements here yesterday when County Judge Charles W. Boote, on a day of rain and sleet, conducted the Sunday court session by telephone.

Baruch Moves That Report Carry His Plan

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(AP)—Soviet Russia charged bluntly today that atomic energy is still being used exclusively for production of aggressive arms and called for urgent action to outlaw atomic weapons.

House Issues Criticism of Red Policies

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Charges of economic enslavement, political terrorism, religious repression, broken promises and ambitions for military power were leveled against Russia today by the special House committee on postwar economic policy.

French Boy, 15, Hunts GI Friends

GALVESTON—(AP)—Fifteen-year-old Michel Heibolt, a blonde haired French orphan, today is in Galveston anxiously awaiting word from some of his former GI friends.

Boy Scouts Want Christmas Trees

Residents of Pampa are urged to place their Christmas trees in the alley behind their homes and they will be collected by members of the local Boy Scout troop, it was announced today.

Blast Wrecks Part Of 20-inch Gas Line

CORSIKANA—(AP)—An explosion heard seven miles away today wrecked 30 feet of 20-inch Lone Star Gas company pipeline a mile and a half northwest of Trinidad.

Chamber Election Ballots Called In

The deadline for the return of Chamber of Commerce election ballots has been set for Jan. 6, E. O. Wedgeworth, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, announced this morning.

COURT BY TELEPHONE

YONKERS, N. Y.—Justice was tampered by the elements here yesterday when County Judge Charles W. Boote, on a day of rain and sleet, conducted the Sunday court session by telephone.

Mainly About Pampa and Her Neighbor Towns

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haner are the parents of a son born December 23. The baby, which has been named Gary Nelson, weighed 7 pounds and 12 1/2 ounces. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. D. Bowsher and Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Haner of Denver City, formerly of Pampa.

In Pampa it's the Southern Club for your pleasure. Dance every Saturday night. Big New Year's Eve dance Dec. 31. Admission by table reservation only. Phone 9545.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Huddell, Max and Peggy, have returned after spending the Christmas holidays with friends and relatives in San Antonio, Corpus Christi, Rio Grande Valley and Mexico.

For Sale—Hobner 120-bass accordion and case. Price $375. Ph 1934.

Jerry Moore is a fifth 140 home for the holidays from Norman, Okla., where he is a student in the school of flying at Oklahoma University. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon E. Moore.

Pampa Business college has moved to 408 E. Kingsmill. 1947 enrollments now being received.

Delbert Hughes, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Lyles, returned home Saturday from the Pampa Hospital where he underwent an appendectomy. He is a student at Baylor University.

Clegg's instant ambulance, P. 2454. The Pampa community singers will meet tomorrow night at eight o'clock at the Church of God, corner of Reid and Campbell, for a "sing-song" to continue past midnight. The public is invited.

We have just received another shipment of 9x12 inelastic rugs. Dick Gibson's Service Station.

Miss Eva Mae Turner, employe of the local AAA office, returned this morning from a Christmas holiday visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Turner of Wellington.

Two pant suits are back. Men's and ladies' suits made to order, custom made, semi-finish try on, or hand-made. Paul Hawthorne Tailoring, Phone 920.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Waters, who have been spending the holidays here, will leave tomorrow for Austin where they are attending the University of Texas. Mrs. Waters is the former Elaine Carlson. They have been visiting in the homes of E. E. Carlson and H. W. Waters.

For the Cab, call 24.

John Lindsey, students at North Texas Agricultural College, is visiting friends here. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Lindsey, former Pampa residents, are now living in Texline.

Visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Nichols, 732 South Barnes, are Wilda Nichols, student at Wayland College, Plainview, and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Nichols. Glenn Nichols is a student of Oklahoma U. Mrs. Nichols is the daughter of Nan Fender, Pampa.

Duane Hogsett, college student son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hogsett, has been visiting his parents here. Duane Cassini, of Lafayette, Ind., also visited here. Duane is a student at Purdue. They returned to Lafayette yesterday.

Oma Kees, 401 Crest St., is to receive a $5 honorable mention award in a Light Crust symphony contest. Dallas, according to information received today.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McBea, who have been visiting in the home of Mr. McBea's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace McBea, will leave today for Austin, where he is a student in the University of Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Mundy returned Sunday evening from a vacation in San Diego, Calif., where they visited their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Cooper. Upon returning home, they received word that Mr. Mundy's brother in law, Mr. Mundy, had died. Mr. and Mrs. Mundy and son, E. D. Mundy of Borger, left for the funeral which is to be held Tuesday afternoon. They plan to return home sometime this week.

Mrs. Dee Day has returned from a Christmas vacation spent with relatives in Oklahoma and Kansas.

Word has been received by Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Reynolds that their son, Pvt. Robert Reynolds, shipped today from San Francisco, Calif., to Korea. Reynolds enlisted in the Army on October 5 and received his basic training at Ft. Jackson, S. C.

Mrs. Tommie Stone and son, Robert, spent the holidays with Mrs. Stone's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Singleton, at Bridgeport.

Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Clendening are visiting with relatives in Forney and Dallas.

Republicans

(Continued from Page 1)

Mr. Milgrim is making recommendations to the full group of 51 Republican senators and senators-elect. Today called this committee a "rump" group, out declared:

"Any child of adolescence who doesn't know that these recommendations will gather the forces of a snowball is just kidding himself."

Toby's attitude and a bid by Senator Reed of Kansas for the committee chairmanship tentatively assigned by the leader to Senator White of Maine raised the prospect of a sharp row in the GOP meeting.

Toby declared that under existing rules the committee of committees could not be appointed until after the next session of Congress actually convenes on Friday.

"We have been fighting for some time to take centralization of power," he said. "Thirteen million men went to fight in a war against that principle."

Toby declined to commit himself on his own committee preferences. The present committee on committees headed by Senator White has put him down as chairman of the Banking and Currency committee.

There were reports that Senator Vandenberg and Taft planned personal appeals in an effort to put down the insurrection against the committee of committees.

The Michigan and Ohio senators each slated for dual roles in the new Senate leadership, indicated they would fight to the last ditch a move headed by Senator Reed of Kansas to name Senator White of Maine from becoming both floor leader and chairman of the new Commerce committee.

Senator Butler (R-Neb) predicted a reporter that a firm stand by either of both of the leaders would "crumble" any effort to upset the working assignments laid out in advance by White's committee on committees.

House Republicans will meet Thursday to decide a four-way battle for an orderly floor leadership under the general direction of Rep. Martin of Massachusetts, who is expected to be chosen speaker without party opposition.

Wrapped up in the leadership battle are only the ambitious potential GOP presidential candidates in 1948.

Rep. Hilleck of Indiana, who has the public backing of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, apparently holds an edge over Rep. Clarence Brown of Ohio, generally regarded as backed by the Taft forces, and Reps. Jenkins of Ohio and Dirksen of Illinois.

Southern Democrats, meanwhile, threatened to kick over the traces against the election of Rep. McCormack of Massachusetts, who holds a seemingly long lead in the contest for minority floor leader.

Senate Democrats, also meeting Thursday, appear most concerned over whether the new Policy committee approved by the last Congress should be given any real power or whether direction of party activities should be left entirely in the hands of Senator Barkley of Kentucky as the new minority leader.

Italian remier

HORIZONTAL

1 Pictured 4 Frenzied
2 Italian statesman, Alcide 6 Conspire
3 8 Ament 7 Ireland
8 9 Insulate 10 Crooked
11 Musical group 12 Operatic solo
13 Scint 14 Weapons
15 Tardy 16 Seized
17 Work units 17 Glimpse
18 Hawk-like bird 24 Fortune
19 Love god 25 Pronoun
20 Nothing 26 Knock
21 Swab 27 Fish
22 Oriental weights 30 Asterisk
23 Dangerous
26 Exclamation
29 Paid notice
30 Malice
31 Card game
32 Twitching
33 Staff
39 Drug plant
41 Sumatra island
45 Part
46 Tear
47 Shield
48 Is indebted
49 Wrong
52 Stingy

VERTICAL

1 Hang
2 Finishes
3 Depart

Gather 'Ye Rosebuds

THE STORY: Mr. Milgrim explains that it will be necessary for the newly-formed Shenandoah Investment Company, to go out and scratch up some business. The Major is given 100 stock certificates to sell at $20 each among his Spunky Male customers.

THERE were times when Mr. Milgrim's manner was rather too jocular, but of one thing the Major felt sure—Hubert Milgrim was a gentleman. His long horse face indicated intelligence, his dark eyes were thoughtful and kind. His attitude was never short of immaculate, and in the best of taste. His language, except for punctilious lapses into slang, was inoffensive. And the Major could not hold these lapses against him, for Hubert Milgrim's life, by his own statement, had not been a bed of roses. He had pulled himself up by his own bootstraps.

"That," Mr. Milgrim often said, "toughens even the most sensitive man."

But as to whether Mr. Richard Breen was as much a gentleman, the Major was not so sure. He might be, as Mr. Milgrim said, he did seem to understand the oil business and was an asset with the paper work. But Mr. Breen was disposed to address the president of the company as "Cameron" or at times—"Old boy." The Major did not exactly like this.

Mr. Milgrim, still sufficiently sensitive to perceive the effect of Mr. Breen upon the Shenandoah's president, sought to excuse him. "Rick," he said, was young, handsome, spirited, but, underneath, sound as a dollar, the salt of the earth.

"Ah?" said the Major.

"You know how a young chap, sir, always off courting some pretty lady. Why, we hadn't been in Blakesville a week before Rick struck up a flirtation. But he's fickle as a sailor and it's wearing off now—I see him looking around—looking around at every girl he passes. Never tells me who they are, and I never ask. Yes, Rick, what you might call susceptible to feminine wiles—but a fine, wholesome lad, Yeh?"

The Major said, "Umhm."

Miss Amy and the other members of the Major's household knew nothing of the Shenandoah Investment Company; it was a secret he kept because, constitutionally, he enjoyed keeping secrets.

HE was planning to confound Miss Amy, when profits began rolling in ("by the wheelbarrow," as Mr. Milgrim put it) by remarking in an off-hand way that now he every wish could be granted. "Let's take a trip around the world. We'll take the girls, find husbands for them. Take the boys, too." Often, either by day or night, he floated into reveries of himself as the granter of wishes. And often, strangely, the woman in his reverie, was not Miss Amy at all. Someone else. Sophie Kittredges. Beautiful Sophie, of Kingdon Manor in Culpepper County, Virginia. Lovely Sophie, slender as a birch wand, bright as the sun, illusory as the shimmer of moonlight on rippling water; the woman every man dreams about, in his dreams, possessions—and, waking, remembers always.

William Cameron had remembered. He had been seventeen when first he met her, and Sophie sixteen, just returned from convent school in France, skipping down the streets of Lyons, firing audaciously with every male creature in sight, flirting with William Cameron, smiling at him, enslaving him. That was the summer of 1860, and all the Kittredges were at home, in Kingdon Manor, the great gates flung wide to prodigal hospitality and parties galore—

a fabulous mansion of sprawling as it should be, the smoking smoking by under skies eye, cloudless. "Do you love me, Sophie?" How many times he had asked the question. William Cameron, the youngest but surely not the least of her adores. "Do you love me?" It was the reprise of all a woman's dance music, the serenades under the stars. She must love him, she must!

SOPHIE hadn't said yes; but laughing, tapping her fan, coqueting, she hadn't said no, either. When in the autumn she went back to Paris, the question was still unanswered.

There would be another summer. . . .

But there wasn't. That was the astonishing thing. Never another summer, only the raging inferno which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a beautiful legend sponged from a slate. Sophie in Paris was then the cause you fought for, you had to believe that you would see her again. . . .

You didn't. It passed, the terrible war, and the even more terrible period which they called "reconstruction." But can a dream world be reconstructed? The phoenix does not rise from such ashes! Gone, gone, everything gone. And Sophie, too. . . .

They told you she had married in Paris, married a Frenchman. And then they told you she had died there. Sophie dead? Oh, no! You thrust that from you—but finally you knew it must be true.

And what remained afterward, which wiped out Kingdon Manor, its ordered security and all its memory, like a

Linda Isaacs Is Honored at Party

SHAMROCK (Special)—Linda Isaacs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Isaacs, was honored by her family at a party recently on her sixth birthday at the kindergarten room in the North Ward school.

Gifts for the honoree were placed on the Christmas tree, which was decorated by the children.

At refreshment time, the decorated birthday cake, topped with six lighted tapers, was served with ice cream. Christmas bells filled with candy were favors.

The youngsters were entertained with out-door games. Pictures were made of the group.

Those attending were Louise Wells, Don Mark Isaacs, Donna Karen Beaty, Jerry Settle, Judy Ann Perrin, Gayle Purnell, Jimmy Holmes, Jeanette Perrin, Kenneth O'Hanrahan, Mary Letitia Currier, Mickey O'Gorman, Phyllis Barnstead, John Gilliam, Jr., Norman Don Barnstead, Karen Jo Veazey, Ronny Smith, Dickey DeMoss, Jan Pickett, Sharon Sue DeMoss, Gary Veazey and Maxine Joyce Isaacs.

Mothers assisting Mrs. Isaacs with the entertainment were: Mrs. Everett Smith, Mrs. Carl Isaacs, Mrs. Jack Veazey, and Mrs. Everett Johnson, kindergarten teacher.

Church School Groups Hold Christmas Party

MOBERTIE—(Special)—The Trinity Episcopal and Young Peoples' Classes of the First Baptist Church held their Christmas party last night.

Refreshments were served, and presents were distributed.

Those attending were Helen Newman, Edith and Louise St. John, Edwin Brown, Madge Patterson, Beverly Crigwell, Gloria Dell Upchurch, Robert Leonard, Evelyn Shuckler, Ovids Burke, Billy Godwin, New Godwin, LeRoy Hathaway, C. H. Bonds, Billy Leonard, Joe Post Leonard, Wick Hathaway, and the speakers, E. T. Brown, and Mr. and Mrs. Jiggs Leonard.

Mrs. Lee Roy Meaker Entertained at Party

PANHANDLE—(Special)—Honoring Mrs. Lee Roy Meaker on her birthday, Mrs. Vincent Meaker and Mrs. O. R. Meaker entertained with a surprise party recently.

The evening was spent in playing pitch, at the close of which a refreshment plate of sandwiches, cake, nuts and coffee was served to Meaker and Mesdames Pete Yardley, M. L. Bender, Frank Johnson, Al Bethcoe, O. R. Meaker, V. C. Meaker, Lee Roy Meaker, Mrs. Alameda Barnes and Fred Crist.

Many presents were received by the honoree.

PANHANDLE BUSINESS COLLEGE

We have moved to 408 E. Kingsmill, where we have a lease for three years. We have nearly 10,000 sq. ft. of space. We are located on a five minute walk from Center St. We have ample parking space. You may enroll any day now. Start the New Year right; enroll in either day or night school. Don't delay—enroll today.

PANHANDLE BUSINESS COLLEGE

408 E. Kingsmill

This Home-Mixed Cough Relief Is Hard To Beat

Very Easy to Make. No Cooking. Saves Big Money. No matter what you've been using for coughs due to colds, you'll be the first to admit that this surprising relief, mixed in your own kitchen, is hard to beat for real results.

Mix a syrup by stirring 2 cups of white honey, instead of sugar syrup, for a few moments, until dissolved. Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, at most reliable coughing agent for throat and bronchial irritations. Just try it, and if not satisfied, your money will be refunded.

This gives you a full pint of splendid relief—about four times as much for your money. Tastes fine—children love it—and it never spoils. You can feel this home mixture taking right hold of a cough. It loosens the phlegm, soothes the irritated membranes, and helps clear the air passages. Eases soreness and difficult breathing, and lets you sleep. Once tried, you'll swear by it. Pinex is a special compound of proven ingredients, in concentrated form, at most reliable coughing agent for throat and bronchial irritations. Just try it, and if not satisfied, your money will be refunded.

Abraham Lincoln was 54 years old when he delivered his Gettysburg address.

New Record on Telephone Service

We've broken a lot of records this year in spite of shortages. For instance, telephones in Texas we've already put in more than 229,000. That's about twice as many as during any full previous year, but the record rush of new applicants keeps the waiting list long.

Add local calls: In Texas—a million a day more than a year ago. And 600,000 more long distance calls a month.

There are some delays, but we're trying to make them fewer and fewer. Service will be better than ever as soon as new equipment can be made and installed.

SOUTHWESTERN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

SOCIETY

Monday, Dec. 30, 1946 PAMPA NEWS PAGE 3

Miscellaneous Shower Compliments Bride

SHAMROCK (Special)—Mrs. Boyd Neal Austin, who was Miss Eula Mae Jackson, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Carmen of Kelton, before her recent marriage, was complimented with a miscellaneous shower recently.

The affair was given in the home of Mrs. Lawrence Davis of Kelton, with Mrs. J. A. Tucker, Mrs. Fred Rathjen and Mrs. Leonard Rathjen as co-hostesses.

A Christmas tree was carried out in a decorative motif, with an artistically decorated Christmas tree holding the gifts for the honoree.

In the dining room the table was laid with a lace cloth with a central arrangement of yellow mums. Mrs. L. T. Davis, Jr., presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Davis entertained with a luncheon reading.

About 40 guests called during the receiving hours.

Marriage Announced

PANHANDLE—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker of Martha, Okla., are announcing the recent marriage of their daughter Edith to Edmond Branson, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Branson of Guydon, Okla.

Rev. J. D. Horton read the service in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wharton, uncle and aunt of the groom, of Amarillo.

Mrs. J. D. Branson attended the bride as matron-of-honor and J. D. Branson was his brother's best man.

The couple is at home in Guydon where Mr. Branson is employed by Wells & Early Construction Co.

Mr. Branson is a former Panhandle resident and a graduate of Panhandle High School.

Announcement

The annual New Year's Eve dinner of the Civic Culture Club will be held in the City Club room Tuesday at 7 p. m.

Panhandle News

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goodner and family of Amarillo visited Mrs. Goodner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Miller, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. Smith and family and Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Smith and daughter of Perryton spent the holidays in Panhandle.

Mr. and Mrs. Silby York, Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Glyn D. Farrell and daughter, Groom, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald York and children, Phillips, and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Hood spent Christmas with Dr. and Mrs. O. York, Winfred and Weldon.

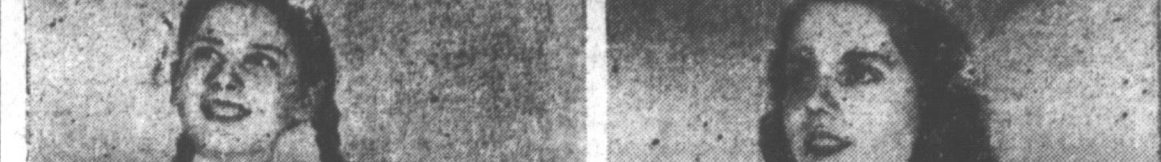

E. P. Cannedy, Eunice, N. M., spent Christmas with his sister, Mrs. Fred Reiner and Mr. Reiner and his brothers, James and Omar Cannedy.

O. F. Cannedy returned to his home in Florence, Ariz., Thursday night after visiting relatives for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Atkins had as their guests on Christmas their daughter, Mrs. Harold Knapp and family, and their son, Jack and family.

Read Pampa News Classified Ads

BLOUSES BLOOM IN SCANDINAVIAN STYLES

Starchy white blouses for little girls draw their ruffled silhouettes and embroidered accents from Scandinavian peasant styles. Ruffles around the high collars and full sleeves of blouses, left, are banded in bright whipcord. The young girl, right, wears a blouse which boasts a standing collar and push-up sleeves and embroidered inserts on sleeves and yoke.

By EPISE KINARD
NEA Staff Writer

NEW YORK—(NEA)—The Scandinavian legend that any little girl can claim an audience with the queen if her blouse is clean and starched is the inspiration for a collection of washable, picture-book fashions for American small-boys.

Young blouse fanciers, sized 3 to 15, can thank Scandinavian folklore for a raft of fresh style ideas which designer Sally Mason adapts to their needs with charm and skill. She drops the shoulder line of blouses, ruffles collars, designs yokes or sheer cotton lace, and with more "thank you's" to peasant styles of Norway, Sweden and Denmark makes lavish use of their multi-colored embroidery.

Full, ruffle-puffed sleeves and a neckband collar, flounced choir-boy fashion with a prim rufflet, offer new style excitement to young blouse-wearers, whom designer Mason recruits from toddlers to teen-agers. She makes the transformation from hoyden to cherub easy for the mother by giving children saucy spring fashions that take to suds like ducks to water.

As washable as a three-year-old's face are fine combed cotton, balloon cloth, tub-worthy rayons and the livid though laudable trimmings used.

Typical use of the multi-colored embroidery which sets off white or pastel cotton blouses is the peasant-styled banding featured on a blouse which Miss Mason calls "pure Scandinavian." This blouse owes that look to a tiny upstanding collar, to sleeves as big as lanterns which push up to elbows, and to criss-cross bandings of multi-hued embroidery.

These People Rate A Happy New Year

BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Happy New Year to all—but especially to these:

The waitress who treats a customer like a guest instead of like a pest—who has a pleasant smile, refills a coffee cup without being asked, etc.

The cab driver with enough old-world gallantry to hop out of the cab and open the door for a package-laden passenger.

The clerk who doesn't grow disgruntled if a customer says: "That is more than I wanted to pay."

The ticket agent who realizes your trip is important to you.

The merchant who doesn't act insulted when a customer makes a single purchase of a scarce article.

The repairman who comes when he promises to and doesn't hand out that "I couldn't possibly say" line when you want to get an advance estimate on what a job will cost.

The car dealer who doesn't tell you he has more prospective customers than he wants.

The salesman who never uses the "You're lucky to get it at any price" line.

The person who would rather tell you a funny story than moan over what a sad state the world is in.

The baby-sitter who has the kids engrossed in a game or story and well under control before you ever leave the house.

JOY TO THE CONSIDERATE
The bus driver who gives old folks plenty of time to get on and off the bus.

The motorist who lets a stranded pedestrian get across the street, even though it slows him down a few seconds.

The landlord who is human enough to rent to couples with children.

The doctor who still makes house calls.

McLEAN NEWS

McLEAN—(Special)—Mr. and Mrs. Billie Bert Sanders and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henry of Perryton, and Mrs. Helen Lee Cox and children of Shamrock were Christmas Day dinner guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Sanders.

Mr. and Mrs. Lufe Smallwood visited Mr. and Mrs. Luther Pittman at Brice Wednesday and Thursday.

Rev. and Mrs. Herman L. Petty, Mrs. Nora Loviand, and Mrs. Zora Kennedy and son, Vernon, all of Abilene; Francis Petty of Denver; Mrs. W. E. James, Sr., and daughter, Vera, and Kenneth Tubbs of Lefors; and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. James, Jr., and daughter, Sherry, of Memphis, Tenn., were guests Christmas Day in the Luther Petty home.

Mrs. J. A. Fowler was brought home Tuesday from the Wellington Hospital where she has been confined for seven weeks with a broken hip. She is better.

Roy Laswell and Richard Simmons of Albuquerque, were Christmas guests of the former's grandmother, Mrs. L. E. Cunningham.

Dean Grigsby, New York, and Richard Grigsby, New Orleans, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Mildred Grigsby.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Campbell visited during last week with his mother, Mrs. Laura Campbell at Turkey, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Thompson at Memphis.

T. A. Langham has returned from an extended stay at Tipton and Stockton, Calif.

J. L. Marcum, Sr., of Esteline, Mrs. Myrtle Marchbanks, and son and daughter, Mrs. Argo Valentine of Shamrock were visitors in the home of the former's son, J. L. Marcum, Jr., Christmas Day.

These People Rate A Happy New Year

BY RUTH MILLETT
NEA Staff Writer

Happy New Year to all—but especially to these:

The waitress who treats a customer like a guest instead of like a pest—who has a pleasant smile, refills a coffee cup without being asked, etc.

The cab driver with enough old-world gallantry to hop out of the cab and open the door for a package-laden passenger.

The clerk who doesn't grow disgruntled if a customer says: "That is more than I wanted to pay."

The ticket agent who realizes your trip is important to you.

The merchant who doesn't act insulted when a customer makes a single purchase of a scarce article.

The repairman who comes when he promises to and doesn't hand out that "I couldn't possibly say" line when you want to get an advance estimate on what a job will cost.

The car dealer who doesn't tell you he has more prospective customers than he wants.

The salesman who never uses the "You're lucky to get it at any price" line.

The person who would rather tell you a funny story than moan over what a sad state the world is in.

The baby-sitter who has the kids engrossed in a game or story and well under control before you ever leave the house.

JOY TO THE CONSIDERATE
The bus driver who gives old folks plenty of time to get on and off the bus.

The motorist who lets a stranded pedestrian get across the street, even though it slows him down a few seconds.

The landlord who is human enough to rent to couples with children.

The doctor who still makes house calls.

Gum Services Are In Miami Tomorrow

Services will be conducted tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 from the First Methodist church in Miami for W. J. Gum, 30, who died Saturday at Laredo.

A former resident of Miami, Gum had lived in Laredo for the past six years.

Survivors include four daughters, Mrs. W. D. Allen, Miami; Mrs. Zenith Rasmussen, San Francisco; Mrs. Lillie McCarthy, Hayward, Calif.; and Mrs. J. M. Daugherty, Hoover; one son, John, Amarillo, and one sister, Mrs. Myrtle Rhigener, Oakland, Calif.

The body will arrive here tonight for funeral services and will be taken to Kansas for burial Wednesday. Dueneck-Carmichael Funeral Home of Pampa is in charge.

Watchnight Services Are Planned by Church

Special Watchnight service will be held by the Church of the Nazarene Tuesday evening at 10 o'clock. Elbert Labenato, pastor, will have charge of the service.

The meeting will consist of songs, testimonies, communion and prayer around the altar at the beginning of the New Year.

The public is invited to attend this service.

Unemployment Office Schedules New Hours

The local Texas Employment Commission office, beginning closing for the noon hour, from 12 to 1, on Jan. 2, L. P. Fort, manager, announced this morning.

"It is believed that better service can be rendered by not staggering the lunch periods as has been done in the past," Fort said. "Henceforth, the lunch period has been extended for a period of three hours during the middle of the day, so as to allow employees to observe their lunch hour and at the same time keep the office opened and partially staffed. This system proved unsatisfactory due to the fact that it left the office understaffed for a lengthened period of time."

All those having business with the local office are advised that the new hours are from 8 to 12 and from 1 to 5 each weekday except Saturday, on which day the office is closed all afternoon.

How To Relieve Bronchitis

Cremulson relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. Tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Cremulson with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Cremulson for Coughs, Chest Colds, Bronchitis

PACKARD AMBULANCE SERVICE

Phone 2454

CLEGG FUNERAL HOME

Coyler at Browning Pampa, Texas

Pampan Charged in Christmas Accident

F. S. Wright, local druggist, has been charged with driving while intoxicated and aggravated assault with a motor vehicle by Wampler County Attorney Homer Moss, according to statements made by Moss this morning.

The charges were the outcome of the automobile accident on Christmas Eve, near Mobeetie, in which Mrs. Wright received minor injuries and the automobiles belonging to both Wright and Harley Rackley, 921 North East 8th Street, Oklahoma City, were heavily damaged.

If found guilty, the total minimum fine on both counts has been set at $75, with a six months driver's license suspension, according to Moss.

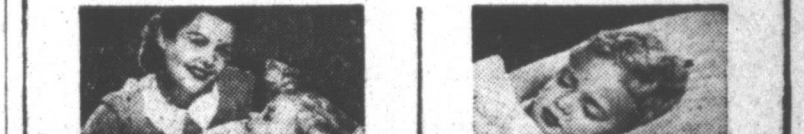

On The Radio

NEW YORK—(AP)—Pre-New Year's bowl football broadcasts tonight: 7:30-8:15 from San Francisco, East-West; 8:15-9:00 from New York, East-West; 9:00-9:30 from Kentucky, ABC; 9:30-10:00 from Kentucky, ABC; 10:00-10:30 from Kentucky, ABC; 10:30-11:00 from Kentucky, ABC; 11:00-11:30 from Kentucky, ABC; 11:30-12:00 from Kentucky, ABC.

TONIGHT ON NETWORKS
NBC—7 Calvalade Drama "Hain Fakers" with Burgess Meredith; 7:30 Barlow Concert; 8 Yearless Concert; 8:30 Lily Pons; 9 Contented Concert; 9:30 The Gipsy King; 10:00 Bob Hawk Quizzing; 7 In-

Young Mother... Do This Tonight If Your Child Has A Cold

Relieve Distress While He Sleeps

AT BEDTIME rub throat, chest and back with soothing Vicks VapoRub. Its relieving action starts instantly... invites restful, comforting sleep. Then it...

Best-known home remedy you can use to relieve miseries of colds is warming VICKS VAPORUB

PLAN NOW TO SEE THE NEW YEAR IN AT OUR

NEW YEAR'S EVE PREVUE

BIGGEST PARTY IN GRAY COUNTY

LANORA

Tue. Dec. 31, 11:15 p. m.

THEY'RE GLAMOROUS... AND OH, SO AMOROUS!

Three Little Girls in Blue

ALL SEATS 44¢ INCL. TAX

TICKETS NOW ON-SALE AT LA NORA

SALES LIMITED TO CAPACITY

Get 'em now and be sure of a seat!

PLUS CARTOON

"Unusual Occupations" NEWS

OPEN 145 PM. 25¢ CROWN

LAST DAY (Mon.)

Features at 1:15 2:51 4:34 6:18 8:01 9:46

Brenda JOYCE Johnny WEISSMULLER in "Tarzan and the Leopard Woman"

PLUS Comedy Cartoon

Free Xmas Presents!

Each day during Dec. one name will appear in our ad... if that person will call at the LANORA THEATRE NOT LATER THAN JAN. 10, 1947, HE OR SHE WILL RECEIVE 1 MONTHS FREE PASS TO THE

LANORA, REX and CROWN

TODAY'S Xmas Present

E. N. KRUEGER

Pampa News

Published daily except Saturday by The Pampa News, 223 W. Foster Ave., Pampa, Texas. Phone 966-41. MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS (Full Leased Wire). The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for publication of all news dispatches credited to it or otherwise credited to this paper and also the regular news published here-in. Entered as second class matter at the post office at Pampa, Texas, under the act of March 3rd, 1879.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
BY CARRIER in Pampa 25c per week. Paid in advance (at office) $2.00 per month. $8.00 per six months. $12.00 per year. Price per single copy 5 cents. No mail orders accepted in localities served by carrier delivery.

EDITORIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Henry Wallace, new editor of the New Republic, is no stranger to an editor's chair. He occupied one for 23 years, first as associate and then as chief editor of Wallace's Farmer. Yet it seems that agricultural journalism failed to give him a complete picture of the generally accepted duties of an editor.

When Bernard Baruch branded as false a New Republic story from Washington which identified him as one of the government string-pullers in the recent coal strike, Mr. Wallace replied: "He (Mr. Baruch) must know that I naturally had nothing to do with this story from Washington."

We don't see why Mr. Wallace assumes that Mr. Baruch or anyone else knows that. An editor naturally has something to do with every story in his magazine or newspaper, inasmuch as he traditionally accepts responsibility for what appears in his publication.

Editor Wallace is not Orator Wallace, responsible only for his personally spoken or written word. If he persists in the opposite belief, he may be in for some painfully embarrassing enlightenment in the future.

THE RACE IS ON

On the day that Harold Stassen announced his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination in 1948, there came a report that President Truman might propose some changes in the Wagner Act to the new Congress. This coincidence might serve as a definite reminder that Harry Truman seems to be a candidate for President, too.

Several of Mr. Truman's recent actions indicate that he has taken stock of the November vote and its implications, and that he will strive to take the initiative away from the Republican Congress in giving the people what they obviously want.

As a result, Mr. Truman is being spoken of in decidedly less hopeless or pitying tones than he was a month ago. At the moment his stock seems to have bounced back. Of course November, 1948, is a long way ahead. But right now, with the defeated Democrats apparently drawing together and the victorious Republicans beginning to wrangle over power and privilege, the 1948 race shapes up as the hottest and closest in decades, with each side strong enough to worry the daylight out of the other.

In Hollywood

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON
NEA Staff Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD—(NEA)—Glamor in glamor-town is a handicap, says Franchoe Tone's sultry blonde wife, Jean Wallace.

Ever since her appearance as a show girl at a Hollywood night club, Jean has been synonymous with the general opinion of what a glamor girl should look like. Yet she told us:

"All it does is keep you from getting jobs. When you get your name in the papers and your photo in the magazines as a glamor girl, the producers automatically say, 'No one who looks that good could possibly be an actress.'"

It seems ridiculous, but, according to a Variety dispatch, pressure of powerful German influence has allegedly led the Army and State Department permanently to shelve Nazi atrocity films.

According to the story, the films have been impounded as "historic" rather than "public" documents. Are we supposed to forget Nazi atrocities already?

TALE OF A TEAR
The 10th wedding anniversary of the Duke of Windsor and Wally Simpson reminds us of that old painting of Merle Oberon—with a tear in her right eye—hanging in her living room.

It was painted 10 years ago in England. The artist, Gerald Brockhurst, was touching up Merle's eyes on the canvas when Edward VIII came on the radio and announced he was giving up the throne "for the woman I love."

After the broadcast, Merle looked at the painting. Brockhurst had painted a tear in her eye. She asked him why.

"Because," said the artist, "I painted what I saw."

Shirley Temple's brother, George, who turned professional wrestler a year ago, is back from a nationwide tour—and back in the good graces of the family. Mama objected to his wrestling

LOBBYING

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Republican Presidential Candidate Harold E. Stassen's frank statement that he will open a Washington office and seek to influence legislation before the next Congress raises the nice question of whether he will have to register as a "lobbyist."

The question is raised here now not in any effort to put Stassen on the spot. But it points up the fact that the lobbying regulation law in the congressional reorganization act passed by the last Congress may require a little fixing.

To date fewer than 200 persons and organizations have registered as lobbyists with the clerk of the House and the secretary of the Senate. It is common knowledge that the lobbyists in Washington are at least 10 times that number.

Thus far the lobbying act has apparently had the effect of making many pressure groups tell their Washington "legislative representatives" to "stay away from Congress."

That is not intended, however, to curtail the right of free speech nor to prohibit lobbying by making it a crime. All that the act requires is that there be a record of what is done.

Stassen's backing as a presidential candidate comes from the Minnesota Republican Campaign Committee. A drive to raise $50,000 to support the Stassen candidacy has been started by State Chairman Bernhard W. Levander of St. Paul. Senator-elect Edward J. Thye and Governor-elect Luther W. Youngdahl are honorary co-chairmen. All contributions will be gratefully received.

Stassen can operate as a Washington representative and front for the Minnesota Republican Campaign Central committee, he might not have to register as a lobbyist.

NATIONAL MIRROR

Common Ground

By R. O. HOLLES

"The Law of Labor"
(Continued)

In a series of articles I have been quoting from "The Law of Labor," a pamphlet issued by the National Industrial Conference Board. In the last issue I recited certain Supreme Court decisions under the Norris-LaGuardia Act in regard to injunctions. I continue to quote from the pamphlet:

"Finally, the (Norris-LaGuardia) Act comes to the essence of the revolution, namely, whether industrial conflict is a matter between an employer and his employees or a matter of class warfare.

"The Act declares that a case shall be held to involve a labor dispute when the issue involves persons engaged in the same industry, trade, craft or occupation or who have direct or indirect interests therein or who are members of the same or an affiliated association of employers and employees' and also when the case involves 'any conflict or competing interests in a labor dispute.'"

"A person or association shall be held to be 'participating or interested' in a dispute if he or it is engaged in the same industry, trade, craft, or occupation in which the dispute occurs or has a direct or indirect interest therein; and a labor dispute is held to include 'any controversy concerning terms or conditions of employment, or concerning the association or representation of persons negotiating, fixing, maintaining, changing or seeking to arrange terms or conditions of employment, regardless of whether or not the disputants stand in the proximate relation of employer and employee.'"

It is little wonder that we can have picket lines any place or call anything a labor dispute whether or not any of the workers in the picketed firm are on strike.

"It is apparent that while the statute declares its recognition of the right of the individual worker to remain unorganized or to organize for the selection of representative of his own choosing, the Act pays no attention to this right as a practical matter. The wage earner is abandoned to the power of the trade organization which dominates his opportunity for employment.

Fate of the Individual
"The constitutionality of this kind of legislation first reached the Supreme Court in a case arising under a so-called order of similar import. It forcefully illustrates the fate of the individual. The gist of the matter lies in the definition of an industrial dispute and those who are to be regarded as participants therein, and gives special favor to class warfare.

"A man named Senn was a tile setter, working as an independent contractor. He worked on his own jobs and sometimes employed one or two journeymen tile setters and one or two helpers, who were non-union men. He was ineligible for union membership under its rule because he had not served an apprenticeship. The union demanded that he employ only union men, which he was willing to do; but they also demanded that he refrain from working on his own jobs, which he refused to do. Thereupon his office, which was his house, was picketed. His car was followed by his jobs and every effort, without fraud or violence, was made by the union to destroy his business.

"Upon his application for an injunction it was held that the demand that he abandon the practice of his craft and his refusal to do so constituted a labor dispute and no injunction would issue to restrain peaceful picketing. Senn maintained that the statute was in violation of the clause of the 14th Amendment, providing that 'no State shall ... deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.' A majority of the Court upheld the statute. The majority discussed upon the legitimate interests of organized workers in protecting the standards of their employment and then observed: 'If the end sought by the means is not forbidden by the Federal

TRIO—Attorney General Tom Clark has ordered a comprehensive survey of the accomplishments to date of the sensational anti-trust campaign launched by the Thurman Arnold-Wendell Berge-John Rogge legalites before the war, and it is probable that he will abandon wholesale prosecution. He has already found that they did not get results on any division.

The D. of J. has intimated that it may drop the anti-monopoly actions against twenty-two oil firms, but it has not publicized the aftermath of its conviction of the "Big Three" makers of popular brands of cigarettes. It had been charged that they used their concerted power to force down payments to the growers and to maintain high costs for the consumers by price-fixing methods.

The D. of J. prosecutors sat around for several months, waiting for the results of their own triumph. When nothing happened, the prosecutors called the culprits to Washington, and asked what the government could do now to make effective their victory in the courts.

In view of the fact that there had been no drop in the level all along the line, Attorney General had won only a paper triumph, and he admitted it.

So, in a few weeks the offenders will write a highly technical but polite memorandum to Mr. Clark, explaining how the decision against them has profited the growers and smokers. There has been and there will be, of course, no real change in the industry's practices.

WEAPONS—The fact is that the experiences of World War II have forced a change of heart at Washington on the whole question of monopolies. Some men around the White House, the D. of J. and Capitol Hill say that the wiser policy would be great corporations in regulation rather than destruction.

When the United States was dragged into the conflict, the government had a score of indictments against numerous key industries—automobiles, radios, electrical appliances, cement, etc. They were suspended because of the emergency, and for fear that legal harassment would prevent these firms from swinging into maximum production. And it was because of their close cooperation in peacetime that these companies were able to deliver the weapons that won the war.

Constitution of the State may authorize working men to seek to attain it by combining as pickets.... But the Court failed to discuss whether the State, which cannot itself forbid a man to work at a lawful calling, may nevertheless grant a privilege to a group of citizens to exercise this power at their arbitrary pleasure.

"In his dissenting opinion, Mr. Justice Brandeis quoted but a few of the decisions of the Supreme Court upholding as a constitutional right the right to work without arbitrary interference, including: 'For the very idea that one man may be compelled to hold his job, or to leave it, or to be unemployed, is to deny him the enjoyment of life at the mere will of another seems to be intolerable in any country where freedom prevails, as being the essence of slavery itself.'"

Wagner Services In Higgins Today
Funeral services were to be conducted in Higgins today for Jack D. Wagner, 70, who died there Friday afternoon after an illness of six weeks.

Burial will be at the Higgins cemetery under the direction of Duergel-Carmichael Funeral Home of Pampa.

Evolution liberty throughout all the land unto all the inhabitants thereof.—Leviticus 25:10, used as inscription on the life-size Bell.

So They Say

You can't expect the German mind to change in a short time. The military occupation of a country never leads to a less nationalistic spirit.

I wish you a New Happy Year. Pavlov, translating Molotov's words on embarking for Russia.

The ideal of national sovereignty often has been prostituted to mean that a particular group is a law wholly unto itself.

The union leader should promote the welfare of the business as well as that of the employees and be prepared to encourage employer and employ practices which will increase productivity and improve the competitive position of the company.

I would set up wholly different tax schedules which recognize the source of income—whether derived from professional services, thus contributing to the general welfare, or from the earnings of capital.

John W. Hanes, former Treasury Under Secretary.

MACKENZIE'S Column

By SAM DAWSON
(Dawson, AP staff writer who substitutes today for DeWitt Mackenzie, covered the December 11 Venezuela and made a study of political and economic conditions in the South American republic.)

NEW YORK—(AP)—Venezuela's 14-month-old experiment in democracy has survived the tests of bullets, but it still has two big obstacles to overcome.

The great mass of the population needs education in democracy. Many of the people seem to have little conception of what democracy means and how it operates.

Also, the "outs" have powerful friends at home and abroad, especially in the army, where many officers giving lip service to democracy still appear to believe in the right of the military to rule.

Leaders of the Dec. 11 rebellion were army officers who aided the Oct. 18, 1945, revolution which ousted Gen. Isatis Medina Angarita and put the present liberal Junta into power.

They fought for democracy in that uprising, but when President Romulo Betancourt's Junta showed that it intended to educate Venezuelans in self government looking toward civilian control, as in the United States, these same men plotted the overthrow of the Junta and the return of army rule.

They failed through bad planning and indecisive execution. How many of their same belief still hold high rank in the army and in the government probably is giving Betancourt some anxious moments.

In 14 months, however, the Junta has made progress in its closely associated tasks of improving economic conditions and of educating a people accustomed for centuries to rule by dictators, to the ways of democracy.

Betancourt's Junta at the outset upped the annual budget from $175,000,000 to $300,000,000 putting emphasis on schools, sanitation, roads and housing.

This was no PWA project to make work for the idle. The idea was to lay the groundwork for transforming an oil-rich but otherwise undeveloped Venezuela into a modern democracy.

Venezuelans tell you that the projects have been run with a minimum of graft—as far as is known—although they add that the habits of centuries are hard to break.

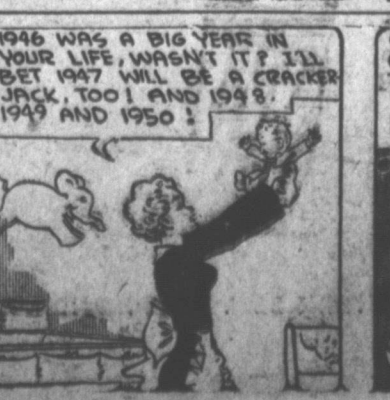

The cabinet is "a young man's government"—on cabinet member is still in his twenties, others are in their thirties and forties. This had the advantage of bringing young blood and energy into the task of welding a democracy. It also brought inexperience. Many of the Junta's mistakes are traced to that.

Because of their inexperience, they kept on many of their predecessors in subordinate posts in the ministries. These men are charged with giving loyal aid to the Junta during working hours, and then are allowed—after hours to be with workers in the Copel, the conservative party of opposition.

The Junta has loudly proclaimed its stand for freedom of thought

V
I
C
E
F
L
I
N
T
W
A
S
H
I
N
G
T
U
B
B
S
R
E
D
I
D
E
R
L
I
L
A
B
N
E
R
A
L
L
E
Y
O
O
P
B
R
E
N
E
Y
F
R
E
C
K
L
E
S
O
T
O
T
A
L

Vertical text on the right edge of the page, including page numbers and other markings.

Classified ads accepted until 8:30 a.m. for week day publication on same day. Mainly about people and things in town. Deadline for Sunday paper—classified ads, noon Saturday; Mainly About People, 4 p.m. Saturday.

NO CREDIT WILL BE GIVEN ON ERRORS AFTER FIRST PUBLICATION. CALL IN AT ONCE IF YOUR AD IS INCORRECT.

1—Card of Thanks
IN MEMORY OF MRS. ROBERT CAMPBELL
Who passed away in Pampa, N. Mexico, Dec. 24.

WOODIE'S GARAGE, dependable repair service on all cars and trucks. Phone 1138 or 339-W.

McCormick & Weibel
Bonded and insured house movers. No job too large. Call us collect. Ph. 1138 or 339-W.

Walter Nelson Service Station
125 W. Francis Phone 1126

LEWIS & HAWKINS REPAIR SHOP, 411 S. Barnes—at 5 points. Complete overhaul, brakes service and tune-up.

Edson's Service Station and Tune-Up Shop
Complete Sinclair Service. Motor tune-up, 700 S. Cuyler, Ph. 2207.

Calvin Follis, 1412 W. Wilks
Auto Paint and Body Works. Many years experience. We do all types of body shop work.

Jack Vaughn "66" Service
Phillips 66 Prod. 501 S. Cuyler, Ph. 9649.

McWilliams Motor Co.
Pampa Safety Lane—Ph. 101
Complete members for all cars. General repair work. Efficient service.

Joe's Car Laundry & Garage
1600 Alcock Phone 830
Smart and McWright
700 W. Foster Phone 484

Lawrence Gulf Service Station
920 Alcock Phone 9531
Complete service, wash and lubrication

Clay Bullock Body Shop
526 W. Foster Phone 149
Complete body work, fender and hood, all make of cars.

Skinner's Garage
703 W. Foster Ph. 337
New and rebuilt Ford V-8 and Model A motors.

Corner Service Station
Complete automotive service. Tires, batteries and accessories. Skelly products. Borgor Highway, Ph. 1119.

ROY REBE, general hauling and moving. Local. Careful handling. 822 S. Murphy, Phone 1809-W.

Panhandle Transfer-Storage
916 W. Brown St. Ph. 1025
Moving anywhere, anytime. United Van Line Service. Call for quote.

CURLEY BOYD, the transfer man, with two Evans Buick Garages. Call 122 or 124 for hauling, moving.

EVERETTE SHERIFF, livestock transportation. Insured and bonded. Easy on light. Phone 88.

R. P. HARRISON, 914 E. Fredrick. House moving and wind trucks for service. Ph. 2162.

OUR BOARDING HOUSE... with... MAJOR HOOPLE
WELL, I SUPPOSE YOU'RE GOING TO TELL US YOU RAFFLED OFF THE BEST AT THE NEAREST POOL ROOM!

JUST A NATURAL BORN RIBBER, EH? YOU SOLD CITIZENS PASSED UP A BARGAIN—I SOLD IT AT THE RADIO STATION FOR TEN SMACKEROOS! AND I GOT A NEW GAG—SEE HOW YOU GOT HOOKED!

AND I SAY NO, IT WAS TOO NICE A DAY—KYUK-KYUK!

60—Transportation (Cont.)

BRUCE & SON, Transfer, Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico as well as local storage. 626 S. Cuyler, Ph. 924.

11—Auto Help
WANTED—First class Chrysler mechanics. Must have own hand tools. Collins Motor Co., 113 N. Front.

Male Help Wanted
Large nationally known tire and automotive supply retail store is desirous of contacting salesmen between ages of 25 to 35 for retail sales.

12—Female Help
AIRLINE TRAINING
Airline training for hostess, reservation, telephone and radio-phones.

17—Situation Wanted
UNENCUMBERED lady wants home or care of children. Call 578.

25—General Service
THE FIX-IT MAN, Odd Jobs. J. W. Lee, Phone 1408-J, 304 N. Sumner

26—Financial Money To Loan
Pampa Pawn Shop

27—Beauty Shops
MRS. YATES has reduced all prices on Lady Auto permanents.

29—Paper Hanging
FOR SATISFACTION in painting and paperhanging, call the "Normans."

30—Floor Sanding
MORRIS' Floor Sanding, Ph. 65
Portable floor sanding machine. 144 S. do your home wherever it is.

31—Plumbing and Heating
CHROME sink faucets and all size sinks at Smith Plumbing Co., 564 W. Foster, Phone 336.

32—Upholstering and Furniture Repair
BLAND UPHOLSTERY SHOP, 408 S. Cuyler, Ph. 1833. Repair of Stephenson-McLaughlin's, remount, refinish and antique furniture.

33—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

34—Building Materials
SHELBERT and clear oak flooring. Limited amounts. C. W. Lindsey, 100 S. Marshall, Phone 1151.

35—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

36—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

37—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

38—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

39—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

40—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

41—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

42—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

43—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

44—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

45—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

46—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

47—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

48—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

49—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

50—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

60—Farm Equipment

INTERNATIONAL
NEW MACHINERY
Deliver Now
7-ft. Horse Drawn Mower

One-Row Binder
750 lb. Per Hour Cream Separator

Double Unit Milkier
12-Foot Rod Weeder

2-Row Farmall Cultivators
2-Row Farmall Planters

9-ft. 26" Disk One-Way
10-C Hammer Mill

2 1/2 H.P. Engines
5 H.P. Engines

22 H.P. Engines
Truck Motors

Pump Jacks
15-ft. Wide-Type Disk Harrow

Used Machinery
Ks-6 2-Ton Truck H.D. Motor and Transmission—Trailer

Brakes, Safety Tanks. Good Rubber.
8-ft. Moline One-Way

16x8 John Deere Drill With Press Wheels
20x8 McCormick-Deering

Grain Drill with Press Wheels
15-ft Krause Plow

On Rubber
Horse Trailer on 650x16
Tires, Spare Tire and Wheel

4-Bottom 14" Moldboard Plow
Reliance Wood-Wheel Farm Wagon

2-Wheel Bantam Trailer With Steel Box
Quonset Steel Buildings

40-ft Width—Any Length
20-ft. Width—Any Length

24-ft. Width—Any Length
BORG-WORNER Kitchen-Bathroom Units

Complete, With Heating Systems—All Fittings
Steel Industrial Windows

Krause Plows
Bean, Cattle and Weed Sprayers

Tulsa Winches
Lub-Refiner Filters

Portable Farm and Industrial Bench Vise and Drill Press
Hobbs Trailers

Bendix Hydro-Vac
Brake Boosters

Tractor-Truck Power Unit Shop and Field Service
Qualified Mechanics

Guaranteed Workmanship
TULL-WEISS EQUIPMENT CO.

Sales—International—Service

GOING—GOING—GOING

Here's a nice 7-room home that must be sold in the next 3 days. It's a 7-room home with 2 1/2 baths, hardwood floors, floor furnace, etc.

J. WADE DUNCAN
Real Estate and Cattle
Duncan Bldg.—Phone 312
40 Years in the Panhandle

STONE-THOMASSON
END OF YEAR SPECIALS
7-room home with basement, 3 lots, adjoining school, pavement on 2 sides, several nice out buildings.

INVEST IN HOMES, INCOME PROPERTY
Lovely 5-room home, corner lot, on pavement, one block of Woodrow Wilson School.

M. P. DOWNS—REAL ESTATE, INSURANCE
Phones 1264 and 336
GET READY FOR THAT SPRING FISHING TRIP

THOMPSON HARDWARE
EVERYTHING FOR YOUR TABLE AT A SAVING
Order your groceries for New Year's dinner. We have a choice selection of fine meats, and fresh vegetables.

NEEL'S GROCERY & MARKET
32—Upholstering (Cont.)
Pampa Craft Shop
"Decorative Service"
Refinishing—Repairing—Upholstering

32-Avenion Blinds
CUSTOM MADE Flexible steel Venetian blinds. Repair work on old blinds.

33—Rug Cleaning
Trituit Rug Cleaning Service
Rugs detered chemically clean. Free pick-up and delivery.

34—Tailoring
Burns Tailoring Co.
Made to measure suits and shirts.

35—Laundry
WILEY "Helpy-Selfy" Laundry. Wet and dry cleaning. Free pick-up and delivery.

36—Dressmaking
PRETT'S SEW SHOP, 311 S. Cuyler, Phone 2091. Dressmaking, alterations, hosiery.

37—Hosiery
AYER & SON MATRESS CO., 132 W. Foster, Phone 433. For interesting mattresses of quality.

38—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

39—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

40—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

41—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

42—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

43—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

44—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

45—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

46—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

47—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

48—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

49—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

50—Photography
48-HOUR kodak finishing service at Harvey's Photo Studio, 207 S. Sumner.

61—Horses & Cattle (Cont.)

Only 10 Milk Cows Left
5 fresh, 5 heavy animals. These are fine stock and worth the money.

VANDOVER'S FEED MILL
Phone 792 541 S. Cuyler
We have blackstrap molasses for cattle by the barrel or carload.

FOR SALE—One male Cocker Spaniel, one old Registered, 608 E. Craven.

Gray County Feed & Hatchery
P.G.C. and Chic-o-line Feeds
End of W. Foster, Phone 1161

90—Wanted To Rent
WANTED—4- or 5-room unfurnished house, conveniently located, near school.

92—Room and Board
ROOM and Board in private home. Men or couples preferred. 723 N. Banks, Phone 2487-M.

95—Sleeping Rooms
FOR RENT—To gentleman, nice bedroom, adjoining bath, 22 N. Somerville.

96—Apartments
NICE clean apartments, walking distance, convenient, also comfortable sleeping rooms. American Hotel

101—Business Property
FOR SALE—Neighborhood grocery, well stocked, doing excellent business.

110—City Property
FOR SALE—4-room modern house, 3250 S. Cuyler, Phone 1063-J, 733 E. Alford.

111—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

112—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

113—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

114—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

115—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

116—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

117—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

118—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

119—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

120—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

121—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

122—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

123—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

124—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

125—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

126—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

127—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

128—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

129—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

130—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

61—Horses & Cattle (Cont.)

Only 10 Milk Cows Left
5 fresh, 5 heavy animals. These are fine stock and worth the money.

VANDOVER'S FEED MILL
Phone 792 541 S. Cuyler
We have blackstrap molasses for cattle by the barrel or carload.

FOR SALE—One male Cocker Spaniel, one old Registered, 608 E. Craven.

Gray County Feed & Hatchery
P.G.C. and Chic-o-line Feeds
End of W. Foster, Phone 1161

90—Wanted To Rent
WANTED—4- or 5-room unfurnished house, conveniently located, near school.

92—Room and Board
ROOM and Board in private home. Men or couples preferred. 723 N. Banks, Phone 2487-M.

95—Sleeping Rooms
FOR RENT—To gentleman, nice bedroom, adjoining bath, 22 N. Somerville.

96—Apartments
NICE clean apartments, walking distance, convenient, also comfortable sleeping rooms. American Hotel

101—Business Property
FOR SALE—Neighborhood grocery, well stocked, doing excellent business.

110—City Property
FOR SALE—4-room modern house, 3250 S. Cuyler, Phone 1063-J, 733 E. Alford.

111—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

112—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

113—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

114—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

115—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

116—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

117—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

118—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

119—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

120—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

121—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

122—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

123—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

124—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

125—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

126—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

127—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

128—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

129—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

130—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

61—Horses & Cattle (Cont.)

Only 10 Milk Cows Left
5 fresh, 5 heavy animals. These are fine stock and worth the money.

VANDOVER'S FEED MILL
Phone 792 541 S. Cuyler
We have blackstrap molasses for cattle by the barrel or carload.

FOR SALE—One male Cocker Spaniel, one old Registered, 608 E. Craven.

Gray County Feed & Hatchery
P.G.C. and Chic-o-line Feeds
End of W. Foster, Phone 1161

90—Wanted To Rent
WANTED—4- or 5-room unfurnished house, conveniently located, near school.

92—Room and Board
ROOM and Board in private home. Men or couples preferred. 723 N. Banks, Phone 2487-M.

95—Sleeping Rooms
FOR RENT—To gentleman, nice bedroom, adjoining bath, 22 N. Somerville.

96—Apartments
NICE clean apartments, walking distance, convenient, also comfortable sleeping rooms. American Hotel

101—Business Property
FOR SALE—Neighborhood grocery, well stocked, doing excellent business.

110—City Property
FOR SALE—4-room modern house, 3250 S. Cuyler, Phone 1063-J, 733 E. Alford.

111—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

112—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

113—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

114—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

115—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

116—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

117—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

118—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

119—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

120—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

121—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

122—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

123—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

124—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

125—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

126—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

127—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

128—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

129—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

130—City Property
FOR SALE—2-room modern home, built 1945, shrubs, Venetian blinds.

Steers Continue To Set Basketball Pace

Arkansas Grid Coach Is LSU's Best Supporter

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF

DALLAS (AP)—Louisiana State's football squad moved into Dallas today and couldn't raise an argument with anyone over who's going to win the Cotton Bowl game come Wednesday.

One of the Tigers' staunchest backers appeared to be Coach John Barnhill of Arkansas, the team that will furnish L. S. U. opposition in the New Year's Day classic.

"Louisiana State has a better club," said Barnhill sorrowfully from his headquarters at Waco where the Razorbacks have been working since last Thursday in order to get accustomed to the warm weather in Texas. At least that's what the man said. Significantly Barnhill had to cut short practice yesterday because it was so cold the quarterbacks couldn't call signals for chattering.

Louisiana State, 49 players strong, dribbled into Dallas yesterday afternoon and last night, traveling by air in four parties. Head Coach Bernie Moore came by automobile and will be heard from today on the door forecasts from Barnhill, who doesn't worry Arkansas backers too much with his comments. He hasn't predicted Arkansas wouldn't beat anybody all year but in some way the Porkers stumbled in with six wins and a tie in ten games. No co-operation from the opposition, that's what it was.

L. S. U. will work out at the Dallas High school stadium this afternoon while Arkansas winds up training at Waco. Tomorrow, the Porkers—47 of them—will board a bus for Dallas, arriving here at 11 a. m. prepared to do justice to the annual Cotton Bowl luncheon. After the meal the Razorbacks will work out in the Cotton Bowl along with the Tigers.

"We're as near ready as we'll ever be," said Barnhill. "We'll give L. S. U. a good scrap but we can't beat them. They're just too good. We won't have anything new to use against them but we're going to try to score some points. We have been, and that'll really have to be early or we'll find ourselves three touchdowns behind before getting warmed up."

Barnhill was a little more cheerful than he was Saturday after his starting fullback, Leon Campbell, went out with an ankle injury. The ankle under a heat lamp since the ankle under a heat lamp since then and the Razorbacks, he said, it was responding well to treatment, practically all the swelling was gone and that, while Campbell couldn't work out today or tomorrow, he should be able to start the game. "But he won't be up to par," Barnhill moaned.

The Cotton Bowl game, set to start at 1:15 p. m. (Central Standard time) Wednesday, will draw a capacity crowd of 45,507 despite the fact that Barnhill already has conceded victory to L. S. U.

Grand Jury Called For Court Service

PANHANDLE (Special)—Grand jury panel for the 84th district court term, which will open at 10 a. m. Monday, Jan. 6, is being announced today by Mrs. Fannie Williams, county and district clerk. Sixteen men on the panel, from which the grand jury of 12 will be selected followed by 45,507.

M. F. Fields and Rudolph Tucker, Groom; A. W. Keller, Skellytown; C. A. Edmonds, Gulf Camp; Ray Sterling, Conway; J. C. Freeman and W. J. Stubbins, White Deer; R. L. Curtis, Lee Kirk; D. M. Smith, Walter Lill, H. R. Pugh, Ruel Robinson, Jim Measkey, Edw. Preusser and J. B. Howe.

The January term is scheduled to continue four weeks with Judge Jack Allen and District Attorney W. L. McConnell, both of Perryton, in charge.

DANCE

NEW YEAR'S EVE
PINKY POWELL'S Orchestra
at Southern Club
Tables? Yes! Phone 9542

MAGNETO REPAIRING

All Work Guaranteed
RADCLIFF BROS.
ELECTRICAL CO.

Wm. T. Fraser & Co.

The INSURANCE Men
Automobile, Compensation, Fire
and Liability Insurance
112 W. Kingmill Phone 1044

14-Karat Gold $55

Two Diamonds Engagement Set
No Diamond $45
In Wedding Band
Convenient terms if desired.
Illustration enlarged to show detail.

BROKEN? BRING IT TO US!

One Week Service
McCARLEY'S

SPORTS

The Sun Shines in Brooklyn

IT IS WINTER—SNOW AND COLD CLOAK THE NATION!
—BUT THE SUN SHINES IN BROOKLYN!
PETE REISER'S SHOULDER OPERATION IS A SUCCESS!

SCOTT'S SCRAPBOOK

By SCOTT RAFFERTY
After no small amount of discussion and consideration, we have come to the conclusion that Otis Coffey should be re-engaged for AT LEAST one more year as athletic director and head coach at Pampa High School and we will be prepared to submit that decision to the Board of Education when they meet to renew contracts for the 1947-48 school year.

It is nothing new to you readers or to this writer that there has been a sizeable amount of criticism of Coffey during the past several months but we do not feel the criticism is enough to justify any action that might be taken to terminate Coffey's services.

Each day, some fan lets us know that he thinks we should demand Coffey's ouster but, to any and all of these fans, we'll say that we have no intention of doing any such thing in the light of facts that we now have.

In the past, we have not agreed with Coffey on all his policies in the three major sports which he coaches, but we say that coaches with the wealth of knowledge which Coffey has don't just happen. They are men who have spent a lifetime in learning their profession from beginning to end and they deserve much more support and consideration from the players and fans than Otis Coffey has received.

No coach wants to be hard on members of his teams. We have heard fans say that "Coffey isn't hard enough on his boys."

Does a coach have to be a slave-driver to produce a winning ball club? Does he have to storm and rave at them to get them to do things right?

If they are that kind of boys, they shouldn't even be playing football. Nobody told them they had to, did they? If they are not willing to work with or without direct supervision, we say they should head for the showers.

No, my friends, a coach shouldn't have to be hard on his players. If boys 15 to 18 years of age won't work like they signed up to do in the first place, then those boys shouldn't be allowed to play.

What if the average store owner had to force his clerks to wrap a package the correct way? Would that employer put up with a worker who not only would not do things the right way but who would flatter lay down on the job the minute the employer's back was turned.

That question needs no answer. We have been in football and basketball practice sessions when boys were told to practice on a certain play while the coach was busy elsewhere. Too frequently, the players without supervision had them a merry old time while the coach's back was turned.

No coach wants to kick a player off the squad. But we have seen too many who should be kicked off. Too many who were only willing to "work" when the coach was looking.

There are too few athletes who will volunteer to go out and take several "laps" around the field without being told; or get together and work on blocking without being supervised; or work on free shots or defensive plays in basketball just so they'll be warmed up and ready to go when practice really starts.

When players on a team get the initiative to do a "little extra" for themselves and their teammates, then a justly proud coach can feel that he has done a good job.

The preceding paragraphs are something we wish that every player and fan would read and think over a little.

We do not profess to be an expert in the business. We only hope to see that Coffey, or any other coach, gets a "square deal" from his employers, his players and the public.

A little effort in practice on the part of the players can spell a world of difference on the field, when a coach is powerless to do anything but hope that his boys "do it right."

We are not blaming the lack of success of last season's team on the players. The blame cannot, in justice, be placed on any one person or group.

Battle Between Trippi, Justice in Sugar Bowl Should Highlight Games

BY JACK HAND
NEW YORK (AP)—A couple of guys named Charlie Trippi and Justice should furnish most of the individual fireworks in the major New Year's Day bowl games off the season-long statistics from the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Trippi, the All-American from Georgia, gained 1386 yards running and passing for the unbeaten Bulldogs who bump up against North Carolina in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans. He had the best total offense record of any major bowl participant and also intercepted six passes for 107 yards.

Herman Wedemeyer of St. Mary's, who faces Georgia Tech in the Oil Bowl at Houston, wasn't too far behind Trippi in the individual yard-gaining chores with Justice taking third place. Justice led in kickoff returns among the bowlers and Wedemeyer had the best record on punt returns, 307 yards in 10 punts.

Justice depended on rushing for most of his gains, picking up 943 of his 1213 yards by churning through the line an average of 7.20 yards per rush. Trippi divided his work more evenly, picking up 744 yards along the ground and 622 through the air.

Oddly enough, the bowl games that usually are loaded with the best forward passers in the nation, will show only two of the top 20 in season rankings. John Rauch of Georgia had the best mark with 48 completions and Y. A. Title of the Louisiana State team that faces Arkansas in the Dallas Cotton Bowl was next, making connections with 45 tosses.

Although he wasn't in the top 20, Ernie Case of UCLA, Illinois' Joe in the Pasadena Rose Bowl, hit his receivers with 42 passes good for a total of 863 yards. Case has the fifth best offensive record among the top bowl stars, gaining 907 yards in all.

Legal Records

Realty Transfers
Robert R. Watson to John C. Oswald; All of Lot number 15 situated in Block 12 of the Cook-Adams addition of the city of Pampa.

T. R. Tipps and wife, Ethel, to C. M. Carlock; All of the Northernly one half of Lot number 4 situated in Block 8 of the South Side addition of the city of Pampa.

Divorce Suits Filed
Two suits in divorce were filed this week in the offices of District Clerk Dee Patterson as:

T. C. Shultz versus Geneva Dale Shultz, suit filed on December 28.

Nolan L. Cummings versus Mary M. Cummings, suit filed on December 26.

Monday Matinee
Eddie Walker has taken over the management of Danny Rosati, A good Newark, N.J., middleweight.

Among the numerous offers that are taking Charley Trippi's mind off books these days is one to become an assistant football coach at Georgia.

Reports keep drifting in that Bill Jones is slated to become Big Six Conference commissioner, but Bill's term as West Point athletic director runs until June 1, 1948.

Bill Jeffrey, Penn State soccer coach, has had at least one all America booter in each of his 21 years of coaching.

The Duke of Windsor abdicated the throne of England at the age of 42.

Big Cities Take Three of Major Athletic Crowns

AUSTIN (AP)—The sports year for Texas high schools was at an end today with three of the four major championships in the hand of the big cities.

Odesa beat Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio 21-14 here Saturday to salvage one title for the smaller schools.

Crozier Tech of Dallas won the basketball championship, Austin of Houston swept up the track and field laurels and Adamson of Dallas was baseball champion.

The year closed out in a blaze of glory when Odesa and Jefferson put on one of the best-played and most-thrilling football finals in the 27-year history of the interscholastic league. The game drew 33,000 and will pay each school around $25,000.

And as the football campaign comes to a close, a check-up indicates Thomas Jefferson will be nowhere near as strong next fall, having lost all except three members of its starting team, including Kyle Rote, considered one of the greatest all-around backs in Texas school history.

Back next year will be Fullback Pat Knight, Center Wally Tasson and Guard Charley Sowell. Odesa, on the other hand, while getting only two of its regulars back, is due to again be a powerhouse because only 12 of the first string squad of 34 members will be lost.

Nine starters depart with two first line reserves but Byron Townsend, the great fullback who was key man in Odesa's victory over Jefferson, and Gordon Headlee, brilliant guard, had an imposing squad that will take the field next fall.

Houston Bowler in Lead at Tournament

DALLAS (AP)—Lowell Jackson of Houston turned in a 1710 eight-game score here last night to take the lead in the $5,000 Cotton Bowl singles bowling meet.

Jackson's score forced Daves Comins of Kansas City, who had held the lead since Saturday, into second place. Comins had a 1631 total.

Other leaders included Dr. R. Reinanz of Houston, 1578; J. G. Stevens of Tyler, Texas, 1551; Don McClure, Dallas, 1548; George Grubb of Oklahoma City and Harry Giffe of Liberal, Kans., 1545; Malcolm Garrett, El Reno, Okla., 1539, and T. O. Watkins of Houston and C. C. Simpson of Tulsa, 1531.

The meet which has attracted more than 200 bowlers from the South and Midwest is to end tonight.

'Blue Norther' Greets Houston Oil Bowl Teams

HOUSTON (AP)—Georgia Tech and St. Mary's of California, two veteran bowl teams, today faced Texas blue norther as they began final preparations for their New Year's Day Oil Bowl tilt.

The cold wave, accompanied by a 38-mile-an-hour wind, blew into Houston only a few hours before the arrival of the California team yesterday morning.

Temperatures early today dropped below the freezing mark and Coaches Jim Phelan of St. Mary's and Bobby Dodd of the Yellowjackets announced that only work on signals would be on schedule this afternoon.

Unless last minutes changes are made, this will mean that the Galloping Gaels, rated underdogs by at least two touchdowns, will not have contact work at the scene of the tilt.

Although Tech is a strong favorite, observers are practically unanimous in predicting a free scoring tilt, with the Gaels' great Herman Wedemeyer matched against the versatile Georgia backs.

Only minor bruises mar the physical condition of the two teams.

The Houston game will make the sixth New Year's Day tilt for Georgia Tech. The Ramblin Wrecks defeated California, 9-7, in the 1929 Rose Bowl, won over Missouri, 27-13, in the Orange Bowl in 1940, bowed to Texas, 14-7, in the 1945 Cotton Bowl, tripped Tulsa, 20-18, in the 1944 Miami classic, and lost to Tulsa there in 1945, 26-12.

It will be the third bowl game for St. Mary's, with the second in Texas.

In 1939 the Gaels defeated Texas Tech in the Dallas Cotton Bowl, 20-13. Last year, they bowed to Oklahoma A. and M. in the Sugar Bowl, 33-13.

Last night, both teams were out of Oil Bowl officials at a party which each player was presented with a wrist watch and gabardine jacket coat.

Read Pampa News Want Ads

DR. L. J. ZACHRY
OPTOMETRIST
First National Bank Bldg.
For Appointment Phone 189

JEFF D. BEARDEN
Representing
THE FRANKLIN LIFE
INSURANCE CO.
Phone 47 Pampa, Texas

INVENTORY SALE!

RHYMES OF REASON Words and Music
by ELMER

IT'S YOUR REPRESENT THE PRESS
I LIKE YOUR, YOU MUST CONFESS
IT'S TAUGHT ME HOW TO BUY FOR
It Pays To Buy Clover Liqueur

Across From Six's Pig Stand
Clover Package Store
817 S. CUYLER PAMPA, TEXAS PHONE 1870

SHOP AND SAVE AT THE CLOVER

JUST ACROSS STREET FROM SIX'S PIG STAND
WISHING YOU A HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR

LIMITED AMOUNT SHOP EARLY
For Your New Year's Needs

RESERVE CALVERT 65 grain neutral spirits, 86.8 pr. 5th 4 10
LORD CALVERT 65 grain neutral spirits, 86.8 pr. 5th 4 50
HUNTERS 60 grain neutral spirits, 5th 4 45
PAUL JONES 72½ grain neutral spirits, 86 pr. 5th 4 25
KINGS 65 grain neutral spirits, 86 proof, Pint 2.55, 9th 4 19

Gordon's Dry Gin 94.1 Proof 5th $3.35
Pint $2.10

WINES
20% California Port, 5th 59c
13% Mello-Red or White, 5th 25c
White Rock, 12 oz. bottle 10c
Sparkling Mix, 24 oz. bottle 15c

Special Price on Case Lots
Three Feathers 70 neutral spirits, 86 proof, 5th 3 75
PM 71 neutral grain spirits, 86.8 proof, 5th 3 35

Walker's Imperial 70 Grain Neutral Spirits, 86 Proof, 5th $3.35
Kinsey 65 Grain Neutral Spirits, 5th $4.00
PM 71 Grain Neutral Spirits, 86.8 Proof, Pt. $2.50

PHILADELPHIA 65 grain neutral spirits, 86.8 pr. 5th 4 00
PHILADELPHIA 65 grain neutral spirits, 86.8 pr. pt. 2 50
IMPERIAL Walker's, 70 neutral grain spirits, 86 pr. pint 2 10

100 Proof, 5-yr. Old Kentucky Bourbon BONDED 5th $6.50

NOW IN STOCK
Ron Merito White Label 5th $2.15
RUM 86 Proof, 4-5 $1.25

CLOVER PACKAGE STORE
817 S. Cuyler Across Street From Six's Pig Stand, T. Elmer Francis Phone 1870

LOANS $3 to $50
FLAINS FINANCE CO.
Room 5, Duncan Bldg. Ph. 188