Quick-Thinking Pilots Save Lives of 85 in Mid-Air Crash

ABERDEEN, Md.—(P)—Split-second reactions by two pilots were credited today with saving the lives of 85 passengers and crew members of two Miami-bound airliners which collided 2,000 feet in the air near here in an accident unprecedented in American commercial air travel.

None of the passengers suffered so much as a scratch, although both planes were damaged in the collision, which occurred in clear weather shortly after dark last night.

Commercial Use of Atomic Energy Being Predicted

BOSTON—(P)—Commercial use of atomic energy within five years was predicted today by a group of New England experts providing the government with the "green light" to industry.

These views were expressed in a report by a New England Council Committee which includes Karl T. Compton, president of Massachusetts Institute of Technology and one of the developers of the atom bomb, and Bradley Dewey, president of the American Chemical Society.

Although no atom power plants have been built, they said, "there now seems to be no question, from the purely technical standpoint, about the possibility of generating large amounts of power from the heat liberated during the operation of atomic piles."

Many factors, they added, would affect the speed with which the atom is put to commercial use—among them government financial support for research and development, full release of technical information commensurate with security and "provided that industry be given the green light to proceed with its own development."

The committee said that it was difficult to predict what the first commercial uses of atomic power would be but that "it seems likely that it will be for purposes needing heavy and continuous loads of power."

The report said that electric power could be produced from atomic piles "at a cost comparable with that from the most modern high-pressure tide-water steam central stations" and predicted that eventually the cost "may go well below present production costs."

Judge Hands Out Toys And Divorce Grants

CHICAGO—(P)—Superior Judge Edwin A. Robson, a black robe replacing the customary red suit worn by Santa Claus, handed out toys to several children yesterday while their parents waited in his courtroom for hearings in divorce cases.

The playroom in which the gifts were given was established at Judge Robson's suggestion for the benefit of children of divorce litigants. Yesterday, with a Christmas tree in the room, Judge Robson started his annual Christmas cheer-up campaign and from now until Christmas there'll be presents for all youngsters whose parents are in court on divorce matters.

Strike Control Bill To Ban Closed Shop

WASHINGTON—(P)—Rep. Howard W. Smith (D-Va.), co-author of the War Labor Disputes Act today outlined a peace-time strike control program that would ban closed shops and provide indirectly for compulsory arbitration.

Smith sketched out details of his proposed measure during a conference with President Truman yesterday but declined to say what, if any, reaction it met at the White House.

The Virginian told reporters he plans to introduce his bill when the new Congress meets two weeks from today.

Supreme Court Refuses Stay Of Execution

WASHINGTON—(P)—The Supreme Court refused for the second time today to stay execution of the death sentence on Joseph D. Medley.

Medley was due to die before 1 p. m. (CST), and the court action apparently exhausted his last legal recourse.

A new appeal to save the life of Medley, 45, convicted killer of a Washington divorcee, was carried to the Supreme Court as the time set for his execution began running out.

James J. Laughlin, Medley's attorney, sent a last minute petition to the Supreme Court, where it was rushed to the chambers of Chief Justice Vinson.

Jail superintendent Curtis Reid proceeded with the electrocution of two Negroes who were to die with Medley, but stayed the latter's sentence at least until Laughlin's latest appeal was acted upon.

The district law requires that executions be carried out between 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. (CST) on the appointed day.

Jail superintendent Curtis Reid ordered the electrocution of Medley delayed at least until later in the pending action by the Court of Appeals on a petition for a lunacy hearing.

The court denied a similar appeal last night.

It was Medley's fatal affinity for rethinks that headed him toward the electric chair.

William Copeland, 38, convicted of the fatal shooting of his sister-in-law, and Julius Fisher, 32, the so-called Washington Cathedral murderer, died in the District of Columbia electric chair at 9:39 a. m. and 9:46 a. m. (CST) respectively.

Medley was sentenced to death for the fatal shooting of Mrs. Nancy Boyer, 50-year-old divorcee, in 1937.

Hospital Site May Be Selected

A decision on a site for the Gray County General Hospital may be reached at a conference of city and county officials this afternoon, County Judge Sherman White said today.

Judge White said he could make no statement as to a possible decision until he had conferred with city officials and members of the county commissioners' court.

Several definite requests are expected to be made to the city during the meeting. Judge White indicated that the overall picture had improved considerably since the discussions started several months ago.

The trend of previous commission meetings has indicated strongly that the hospital will be erected at a site at the north end of Frost Street, north of Central Park.

Should the hospital be erected at that site, several blocks of paving would have to be laid, mainly on Frost and short connecting streets.

The city commission discussed the site at its Tuesday meeting but did not come to any definite conclusion as to the city's part in the erection of the hospital.

Bonds totaling $550,000 were issued here last spring to pay for the structure. The bond issue received overwhelming support of the voters in the north part of the county but residents of the southern communities were strongly against it.

About $40 in Change Taken From Schools

Approximately $40 in change was stolen in two more school break-ins here last night when the Sam Houston and Horace Mann schools were burglarized, city police reported this morning.

Police reported that a knife or other small instrument was used in breaking the large glass plate on the rear door of the Sam Houston schools cafeteria. Inside the cafeteria a cigar box containing about $15 in change was looted.

The theft was reported by Aaron Meek, principal of the school, about 7:30 a. m. A few hours later Miss Josephine Thomas, principal of the Horace Mann School, told city police the school's cafeteria cash box had been looted of approximately $25 in cash.

School officials or police were unable to find any signs where the entry was made. There were no broken windows, screens or other markings.

Police said they believed the latter was committed by someone who either had a key or a skeleton key to each entrance.

Police Chief Louie Allen added this morning that the jobs might be the work of "kids" since some nearby school money in the Sam Houston robbery was overlooked.

This marked the third school robbery here within two months and the fifth break-in within the same period of time. Police now have five unsolved break-ins, the first being the First Baptist Church where thieves were unable to find any money, the next the high school burglary where the door of the school's vault was riddled and only last week when Valentine's White-way Drive Inn was robbed of over $2500 in cash and war bonds.

U.S. Accepts Proposal Made By Canadians

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(P)—The United States today accepted a Canadian compromise proposal providing that the United Nations Atomic Energy Commission approve the principles of the American atomic control plan without deciding on the final wording.

The Canadian compromise was offered after Soviet Delegate Andrei A. Gromyko demanded another postponement of a final showdown on the American proposals which call for veto-free punishment for violators of atomic energy controls.

S. Representative Bernard M. Baruch, who had indicated earlier that he would press for an immediate vote on his plan, said he was gratified at the Canadian proposal and that he would accept it.

Britain's Delegate, Sir Alexander Cadogan and Australian Delegate Paul Hafueck also supported the Canadian plan.

Gromyko had asked that a vote be delayed for "six or seven days." Gromyko said he had not had time to study the U. S. resolution in relation to the measure adopted by the general assembly last week laying down the basic principles for a general arms reduction.

Gen. Andrew G. L. McNaughton of Canada took the floor immediately and supported Gromyko's demand for a delay. He said he supported the U. S. resolution, but felt it should be sent to a committee to be studied again with the assembly's arms limitation resolution and a special report on safeguards.

He proposed that the commission approve the principles of the American proposal, but leave the final wording to the committee, which would integrate the resolution with other committee reports.

Good Times Ahead! Two-Pants Suits Back

WASHINGTON—(P)—Hey men! Two pants suits are legal again. So are vests under double-breasted suits.

The four year old wartime ban on the manufacture of those wardrobe items was lifted today by the Office of Temporary Controls.

Reason: so many men's and boys' suits are being turned out now, OTC said, the fabric-saving measure no longer is needed.

Testimony in Narcotics Case Enlivens Probe

WASHINGTON — (P) —Clashing testimony about payment of $1,500 in a narcotics case held the Bilbo investigation wide open today as the stormy public hearings recessed for the Christmas holidays.

"I have nothing to hide," Senator Theodore S. Bilbo (D-Miss) told the Senate War Investigating Committee yesterday as he denied repeatedly any knowledge of payments reported to have been made to him by a doctor for helping get a narcotics permit for a Natchez, Miss., man.

Chairman Mead (D-N.Y.) announced after Bilbo's testimony that the hearings were recessed subject to call of the chair. But Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.), told a reporter later that additional testimony definitely will be necessary.

"It looks like the first Monday after Christmas (Dec. 30)," Ferguson said, adding that the final decision is up to Mead.

Bilbo, after nearly a full day of testimony spiced with bitter denunciations of denials and countercharges, finally acknowledged to the senators investigating his financial dealings with Mississippi war contractors, that he had received some money from Dr. A. J. Podesta, Vicksburg, Miss., who had requested the narcotics permit.

He vehemently denied, however, that it had any connection with the permit.

Instead, Bilbo said, any money he received—he could not remember whether it was $1,500, $1,000 or less—had been given to the Juniper Grove Baptist church parsonage fund. Neither Bilbo nor Ferguson could find any record in the special parsonage bank account to correspond with this donation.

The narcotics issue was thrust into the hearings—where Bilbo's opponents hold will lead to the unseating of the 69-year-old Mississippi—by Edward P. Terry, the Mississippi's nervous and ailing former secretary.

Terry, denounced by Bilbo yesterday as a "Judas Iscariot," was summarily dismissed as a witness Wednesday for refusal to answer questions regarding Podesta, a Vicksburg hospital superintendent.

'47 Top o' Texas Show Dates Set

Extending the length of the show and reaching a decade of more evening performances, officers and directors of the Top o' Texas Rodeo and Horse Show Association made preliminary plans for the annual rodeo at a meeting here yesterday.

The 1947 show will be held at Recreation Park Aug. 13 through 16 and will include all night performances, instead of three day and one night show.

Goat Mayo, Petrolia, Texas, stockman, will again provide the stock for the show, as he has for the past two years. Mayo was here last week to confer with rodeo officials. Mayo told the officials that he would provide them with "some of the finest rodeo stock in the Southwest." He will also be arena and chute director.

In their meetings yesterday, the officials did not delve into the various phases of the show but voted to again hold the quarter horse and "Alomino shows in connection with the rodeo.

The directors also announced the appointment of Homer Taylor as grounds supervisor in Taylor will supervise the erection of various installations at Recreation Park, part of which the association leased two years ago.

Homer Pool, Dumas Principal, Is Dead

DUMAS—(P)—Homer A. Pool, 44, principal of the Dumas High School, died of a heart attack this morning. Schools were dismissed.

Pool was former football coach at Idalou, Anton, Turkey, Patton and Silvertown, Texas, and former recreational director at Borger. He was football coach and high school principal at Stanton, Texas, and high school principal two years at Floydada before coming here.

SCHOOL VOCALISTS Present Concert

With special lighting effects adding a note of color to the scene, four Pampa High School music groups were presented in a special Christmas concert last night.

The Senior High auditorium was almost completely filled for the concert which was conducted by Miss LaNelle Schlangen.

TERRY TESTIFIES—Senate hearings on dealings between Senator Theodore Bilbo and war contractors headed for a climax as Edward P. Terry, above, former secretary to the Mississippi senator, took the witness stand to testify after his arrival in Washington from Mississippi.

'Tis the Season of Year, Judge Softens Sentence

Gilbert Amos, 30, yesterday narrowly missed being sentenced to life imprisonment after he pled guilty to charges of auto theft before Judge Ewing in the county jail.

Amos was sentenced to two years in the state penitentiary.

This was Judge Ewing's latest sentence before his retirement from the bench on January 1.

Amos, charged with the theft of a pickup truck here November 1, has served time on two previous occasions and was not eligible for a suspended sentence.

After pronouncing sentence Judge Ewing informed Amos that he could have been sentenced to life imprisonment on the grounds of being an habitual criminal, but he declined that offer.

Coal Operators Split Over Plan For Negotiations

WASHINGTON—(P)—A sharp split among soft coal operators over whether to negotiate new for a new contract with John L. Lewis dashed hopes today for a quick nationwide peace between the industry and its miners.

Producers whose pits yield 60 percent of the country's coal held themselves ready to deal with the United Mine Workers chief "at any convenient date" without waiting for a Supreme Court decision on his legal troubles arising from the November walkout.

But the powerful Southern Coal Producers Association, whose mines produce a third of the 600,000,000-ton annual supply, broke away from the majority with a decision to hold aloof until the courts have had their say.

Far Western mine owners indicated they would go along with the Southerners.

The high court will hear on Jan. 14 Lewis' appeal from $3,510,000 in fines against himself and the United Mine Workers, imposed after the UMW chief ignored a district court order to head off the recent 17-day strike.

Long-smouldering differences between the Southern Association, biggest single producing unit in the national negotiating committee, and the remainder of the industry broke into the open at a nine-hour meeting yesterday.

Some operators suggested the UMW might be willing to reach a separate contract with the majority on the theory that it would serve as a pattern for dealing with the rest of the industry.

Gather Ye Rosebuds
By JEANNETTE COVERT NOLAN

THE STORY: As Rose waits for the others to get ready for a daughters of the Old Dominion meeting, she is busy with a sheet of paper. "Bessie, you Miss Rose Cameron," he had said on their second accidental meeting in Lab's department store. Afterward they wandered down Main street together and Bessie had bought Rose an ice-cream soda. And they had made plans to meet again at Lab's the next day. . . . Sidney and Mamma are ready at last and Basil Earle calls to take them to his mother's house for the meeting. Basil has something to discuss.

RIDING beside Basil, listening to him, Miss Amy thought of manifold beautiful miracles and wondered if there isn't such a thing as pushing your luck too far.

Basil had begun by asking whether this meeting of the Daughters of the Old Dominion wasn't chiefly for the purpose of electing Blakesville's delegate to the annual national convention to be held next month in Washington. A rhetorical query; Miss Amy felt safe enough in saying yes. Wasn't it the custom, Basil then asked, that in the choosing of delegates, the Daughters everywhere tried to put their best foot forward, to make a favorable impression on the national body? Miss Amy murmured yes. And to that end, wasn't it traditional for a younger daughter to be elected? "Oh, yes," Miss Amy said. And didn't all the other chapters in the United States send off from their midst some exceptionally charming young member? "They seem to," said Miss Amy bravely. "I've seen the newspaper photographs. Yes."

"Then why," Basil demanded, "is Blakesville's delegate always Bessie Pomeroy, who's 30 if she's a day, ugly as a mud fence, with buck teeth and the underslung figure of a Bartlett pear?" "Miss Amy didn't know; she really didn't," she gave the then the chairman of the nominating committee had risen to report. One name only, Bessie Pomeroy's; and a definite tension in the room, the president lifting her gavel. If there were no further nominations—

"Madam President!" The chair recognized Mrs. Ruth-erford Earle. "I move the nomination of Miss Rose Cameron as our delegate to the national convocation in May."

"Well . . . Gasp, a sort of lull, and two quick seconds, almost simultaneous, so that the president had to choose between them. Miss Rose Cameron's nomination had been moved and seconded.

"Are we ready for the vote?" Slips of paper and pencils were circulated, the tension heightened, heads bent. "I shall vote for Bessie," Rose murmured.

"Oh, my dear!" Miss Amy whispered, through stiff lips. "Oh, no!" Sidney glowered at Rose. "Don't be a sap," she croaked. The pencils scratched, the slips were collected, the clerks retired to tabulate the votes. Anxiety congealed Miss Amy's blood; she would surely have perished, had she not caught Mrs. Earle's eye across the room. Mrs. Earle was smiling, mouthing something. Miss Amy thought she was saying in pantomime: "It's all over but the shouting!"

"All over? Yes, the clerks had finished their tabulating. "Miss Rose Cameron has been elected."

Miss Amy heard that, but her eyes were so blurred with tears, she could see nothing at all. The meeting adjourned to the dining room for refreshments of salad and sandwiches, sherbet and sponge cake and coffee.

"Mamma!" "All over? Yes, the clerks had finished their tabulating. "Miss Rose Cameron has been elected."

Texas Blasts DePaul for Seventh Straight Victory

Baltimore Seen As New Home of Miami Grid Team

(By The Associated Press) The University of Texas Longhorns with little Roy Cox giving them a lead that was never threatened, handed the DePaul Blue Demons a 61-43 defeat last night in Chicago's coliseum to extend their undefeated record to seven-straight victories.

The Steers must have taken things seriously when they read that their game with DePaul would mean much in registering their power as compared with that of the Rice Owls who, several weeks ago, were given the nod for the number one spot in pre-season Southwest Conference basketball ratings.

That same DePaul team only last Saturday had tripped an invading Rice five, 48-44.

Cox, a five foot eight inch guard, sank 16 points in the first half to give the Texans a 34-22 lead at the half. The Demons held him to three points in the second half but the Texans had sufficient power to more than maintain their commanding lead.

Yoth Cox leading with 19 points, Gene Stump, DePaul forward, was runner-up for scoring honors with 13.

The game concluded the Longhorns' pre-Christmas schedule and they do not have to protect their perfect record until Dec. 26 when they enter the annual college tournament at Oklahoma City.

Rice, Texas A. and M., and Baylor return to action tonight, the Owls and Aggies in the all-college tournament at Houston and the Bears meeting Eastern Kentucky State Teachers at Louisville.

Robinson, Bell Meet at Garden For Welter Title

(By JACK HAND) NEW YORK—(AP)—Sugar Ray Robinson, the "uncrowned champion," gets his delayed chance to make it official tonight when he takes on Tommy Bell of Youngstown, Ohio, with the welterweight title in the balance.

After five weary years of waiting for a shot at the 147-pound crown, the Harlem sugar man is a prohibitive 1 to 3 favorite to whip Bell and earn recognition by both the New York Commission and the National Boxing Association after their 15-round Madison Square Garden bout.

Partly because they figure Robinson deserves a title chance and partly because they know Bell as a capable workman who never has been knocked out, the fans are expected to turn out 15,000 strong for a $90,000 gate.

Beaten only once in his career of 75 fights, and then by middle-weight Jake Lamotta, Robinson had been knocked out by Marty Seely in a championship scramble before the Schenectady welter abdicated his throne because of a sore nose. Bell finally was selected as a logical foe and all agreed to recognize the winner as the new king.

The two welters met before, in January of 1945, with Robinson earning a decision on his boxing fitness and class. In his last outing, Sugar Ray got off the floor to stop Artie Levine in Cleveland. Bell lost two of six 1946 fights, both to middleweights, Cecil Hudson and Lamotta. The 23-year-old Negro boy has been beaten 10 times in his career.

Servo capped the crown by knocking out Freddie (Red) Cochrane in four rounds last February. He retired without defending.

Harvesters Meet Kress Five Tonite

Warmed up by a tough scrimmage session with the Miami Warriors yesterday afternoon, the Pampa Harvesters take the court against Kress High School's cagers at the Junior High Gym tonight in their fourth start of the season.

The Pampa reserves will inaugurate tonight's game activity with a game with Mobeette High at 7:30. The Harvesters-Kress battle will follow.

Tomorrow night, the Harvesters will entertain the Ada, Okla., Cougars in a single game starting at eight o'clock. Ada lost to Amarillo last night, 39-25, and will play the defending District A basketball team there again tonight.

Amarillo, favored to take its third straight district title, has three regulars back from last year's team. W. Campbell, first-year Harvesters forward, stood out in practice yesterday, dumping in five shots from his favorite position, to the left of the free throw circle near the sidelines. Campbell, Harvesters' leading scorer with 27 points in three games, has made most of his shots from that point.

Defensively, J. A. Miller, another first-year man, was outstanding. Working on a man-to-man defense against the Warriors, Miller was adept at getting the ball away from his opponent and showed all-around ability in every department.

Working on screen plays, Guard Charley Lafont dumped in seven of eight shots under the basket going through and around the Miami players.

Coach Otis Coffey said several of his taller boys needed more work on defense, but he seemed generally pleased with defensive tactics of the squad as a whole.

Tonight's game and that with Ada tomorrow night will decide the question on which nine of the 16 players will make the trip to Dallas for the invitation tournament, which opens there Dec. 26.

An injured center, Center Zeke Griffin of last year's unbeaten "B" team, is expected to return to action Wednesday but is due to see very little action until after the first of the year. Griffin suffered a bone separation in his foot in the second day of practice in a few minutes.

In their three games to date, the Harvesters have won over Morse, 40-25, and Childers, 33-27, and lost to Hollis, Okla., 36-17.

Pampa, LeJors Split Twin Bill

Two Pampa cage teams gained an even split in games with LeJors here yesterday, the Junior High Reapers routing the LeJors reserves, 36-17, and the LeJors Pirates blasting the Pampa Gorillas, 37-13.

Eugene Cooper, led to a single point in the first half, looped in 12 points in the last half to lead the Pirates in their victory over the Gorillas. Malcolm Douglas led Pampa with six points.

In the Reapers-LeJors "B" contest Pampa's John Friauf topped the scores with 10 points.

It was the Reapers' third victory of the season against one loss.

Lanes Edge Miami In 31-30 Thriller

Coming from behind in the last six minutes of play, Lane Sales Co. of Pampa edged the Miami Independents there last night, 31-30.

Gene Robbins and Dick Maury, former Harvesters cage stars, led the scoring. Robbins dumped in 13 points while Maury scored 10.

Another Pampa team, the strong Boosters, play the LeJors five at LeJors' High School Gym at 7:30.

Rain Threatens Schoolboy Teams

HOUSTON—(AP)—There was a threat of rain today as Thomas Jefferson of San Antonio and Lufkin prepared to battle it out in the Texas schoolboy football semi-finals.

High-powered offenses featuring the forward pass will be thrown at each other, and mud would slow them down.

But it promises to be a close, hard-fought game, what may be with Jefferson putting an unbeaten record on the line and Lufkin a paper edge favorite on the basis of its startling upsurge over the past two months after dropping a couple of games by one-point margins.

The passing and running of Kyle Rote of Jefferson, rated the top back in Texas, will be pitted against the flinging and sprinting of Jim Mott as these boys stage an individual duel having a strong bearing on the all-state.

Victor in today's game will meet the winner of tomorrow's Highland Park (Dallas)-Odessa contest at Odessa for the twenty-seventh annual championship of the Texas Interscholastic League. Odessa is a strong favorite to beat Highland Park.

A crowd of between 14,000 and 15,000 is expected here today.

Good Weather Seen at Odessa

ODESSA—(AP)—Sub-freezing temperatures of the past 48 hours were rising here today as weather observers predicted clear, cool weather for tomorrow's semi-final schoolboy football game between the undefeated Odessa Broncos and the defending state co-champions, the Highland Park Scotties of Dallas.

Another Odessa first string backfield player, Harvey (Pug) Gabriel, was out of uniform yesterday as the Broncos tapered off for the important tilt. Gabriel entered a hospital Wednesday night but doctors reported his temperature to be normal yesterday at noon.

Coach Joe Coleman expressed hope that the backfield star would be ready tomorrow.

Byron Townsend, fullback, and Bobby Moorman, end, suited out for limbering up exercises. Townsend has been nursing a knee injury since the Wichita Falls game last Saturday. Moorman is recovering from a slight case of pneumonia.

Meanwhile, the Highland Park eleven was to move into Midland today after spending last night at Abilene and working out there yesterday afternoon.

Rusty Russell, halfback who presents the greatest injury worry to Coach Herman Morgan, took part in the light session. Morgan said the 140-pound back probably will not start the game but should see action.

Paris Will Stand Trial in Gotham

NEW YORK—(AP)—Assistant District Attorney George P. Monaghan, in a surprise maneuver, moved to bring Alvin J. Paris, indicted on charges of attempting to bribe two members of the New York football Giants, to trial today in general sessions court.

Monaghan placed Paris' name yesterday on today's calendar. He indicated to comment on his reason for having the case tried four days after the indictment was handed up by the New York County Grand Jury.

Defense counsel were expected, however, to request an adjournment.

Paris, 28-year old novelty concern officer, was indicted on the specific charges of attempting to bribe Frank Flieck and Merle Hapes, backfield players of the Giants, in an alleged attempt to "fix" last Saturday's Giants-Chicago Bears championship football game.

He has pleaded innocent.

St. Patti Day Event Postponed for Year

SHAMROCK (Special)—A St. Patrick's Day celebration will not be held in Shamrock this year. The Shamrock Boosters Club, originator and sponsor of the annual event in pre-war years, voted at its regular luncheon meeting last week to postpone the celebration for another year.

Shortage of materials and labor was the deciding factor in the Boosters' decision to postpone the annual event again.

Two members of the club, who have always had floats in the street parade, stated that they would not enter a float this year. Others expressed the opinion that the entertainment would not live up to the standard set in previous celebrations and for that reason were in favor of a postponement.

The club had been considering the promotion for several weeks, and members expressing their opinions in a round-table discussion said that it was with regret and reluctance that the fête could not be held.

In pre-war years thousands of persons from many miles around Shamrock joined in the annual festivities.

Two New Pilots Receive Licenses

SHAMROCK (Special)—Added to the growing list of Shamrock pilots at the Shamrock Airport this week were: Ed Beasley and Martin Ekum.

Ekum has apparently set a record at the local field. He made his first flight after only four and one-half hours of instruction, which puts him at the top of the list.

One of the best boosts to aviation in Shamrock was the arrival of a new Cessna, which is on display in the window of the Montgomery Chevrolet Garage.

Plain Crash

same field, on a scheduled non-stop run to Miami.

Occupants of both planes, mostly vacationists and business men, reported little if any confusion at the time of their narrow escape, and most said they had been unaware of the extent of their danger. All, however, had lavish praises for crew members.

One grateful survivor of the Eastern plane, Ben J. Slutsky, of Elmhurst, N. Y., announced he was presenting $500 to the crew and invited other passengers to a "survivors' party" at a Miami night club.

Miss Joan Cotton, 24-year-old East Orange, N. J., stewardess on the Universal plane, acclaimed by the passengers as a heroine for averting panic, said she was distributing Christmas cookies when the crash occurred.

"It nearly tossed me through the roof," she recalled. "One passenger, a woman, started to scream and then stifled it, but that was as close as we came to panic."

"Most of the passengers were alternately praying and asking questions. I fastened their safety belts and kept saying, 'everything is all right. I tried to think of something else to say, but that was all that came out."

"When we finally landed, and the passengers saw the big hole in the front section, some of them started praying all over again—and this time they were prayers of thanks."

Officials of the Civil Aeronautics Board, who questioned the EAL crew in Washington for hours after they landed, said it was the first time in American commercial air history such an accident had occurred between two planes headed in the same direction.

Federal safety regulations require planes flying in opposite directions to maintain different altitude, but planes on the same heading, although separated by time intervals, fly on the same levels.

British Hypnotized In Television Test

LONDON—(AP)—The British Broadcasting Corporation announced today that it had successfully experimented with hypnosis by television that the feat would not be tried on a general broadcast.

The experiment was carried out on a closed circuit—not publicly televised—this week by Peter Casson. In the first test a dozen volunteers from the BBC staff subjected themselves to the hypnotist and five of them went into a hypnotic sleep. BBC said. In a second test, Casson made a direct attempt to hypnotize six persons watching the screen in a darkened room. Four went to sleep and of these, two had to be awakened.

Coal Operators

Va., speaking for the Southern group, told reporters that if the other operators made a contract, he supposed "we would have to seek an agreement also."

Warden explained that his group was not opposed to meeting Lewis, but differed with the majority over "the timing." Lewis, he said, told the miners when he called off the strike that their interests would be protected in any negotiations "within the limitations of the findings of the Supreme Court of the United States." This some Southerners took to mean contract conferences would have to wait until the court acted.

PANHANDLE (Special)—Funeral services for Charles Otis Caldwell, of Panhandle, 79, were held at the Assembly of God Church in Panhandle Thursday afternoon with the Rev. C. R. Reswick, pastor, officiating. Burial was in Panhandle cemetery.

Charles Otis Caldwell was born Oct. 25, 1867, in White County, Ill., and moved to Kingman, Kan., in 1883, to Woodward, Okla., in 1890 and to Panhandle in 1919.

Surviving are the widow, two sons, Clarence of Panhandle, and Otis of Pecos, Texas; three brothers, Sam, Yakima, Wash.; Ralph, Buffalo, Okla., and Lloyd, Parma, Idaho; five grandchildren, and one great-grandchild.

ence or intimidation in labor dispute; mass picketing in such form as to threaten violence or intimidation; secondary boycotts and sympathy strikes.

5. Require labor unions to register and file annual financial statements.

6. Make provisions of the Lea-Petrillo Act—restricting activities of union musicians in the radio industry—applicable to all business instead of to the broadcasting industry. A Chicago federal court held the act unconstitutional because it singled out radio workers.

7. Prohibit discrimination against workers because of membership or non-membership in a union.

8. Create the post of administrator of the National Relations Act, with the duty of investigating and prosecuting violations of the proposed law, with the National Labor Relations Board itself to serve as the trial body.

In addition, Smith said, the legislation "restores to employers the right of freedom of speech which the (National Labor Relations) board over the years as a fixed policy has sought to deny."

While it proposes no criminal penalties on employers or employees, the legislation would deny to violators the protection afforded by the Wagner Act, the Norris-LaGuardia anti-injunction law and the Clayton anti-trust act.

Bilbo Probe

had paid Bilbo $1,500 last year to obtain a narcotics permit for Harry Carr, a 66-year-old Natchez, Miss., resident.

While Bilbo was replying to other phases of Terry's testimony, he was interrupted by the senators who called Dr. H. J. Anslinger, commissioner of narcotics, to the stand.

Harry Holt, a treasury special agent, said he had interviewed both Dr. Podesta and a man he identified as John Carr. Dr. Podesta told him, Holt said, that he had sent the request for a narcotics permit to Bilbo and that later Carr told him he wanted to "do something" for Bilbo.

Turning to his conversation with Carr, Holt said the patient told him that in December, 1945, he had paid Dr. Podesta either $1,500 or $1,000 on the doctor's assertion that he had to make the payment.

W. H. Lane, an investigator for the Senate Committee, testified that last Oct. 18, Dr. Podesta told him of giving Bilbo "ten one-hundred dollar bills" for Carr.

When Bilbo resumed his testimony, he was asked "do you know anything about the payment?"

WHO'LL MILK THE POLAR BEAR?
 BY HAL BOYLE
 CINCINNATI, Ohio, (AP)—For three generations the Stephan family has been trying to hand-raise a captive-born polar bear cub—something never yet accomplished.

Their latest effort failed this week when "Bozo", one-pound offspring of the Cincinnati zoo's polar bear lady, "North Star," died of malnutrition three days after birth.

Sol Stephan, third in line in a famed midwest veterinarian family, kept a day and night vigil over "Bozo." Gladly he has decided there is only one way to solve the problem of bottle-feeding infant polar bears: "We're just going to have to milk an adult female polar bear under ideal conditions. Then we can break down and analyze the milk and duplicate it."

Milking a full-grown lady polar bear, however, is to men what milking a cat is to mice. It's a good idea, but who wants to step forward to get the first pail? Polar bears—without regard to sex—are mean-tempered, vicious and can hit with either paw.

He believes polar bear milk is rich in fish proteins, but little "Bozo" couldn't make the grade on a substitute diet of homogenized cow's milk, cod liver oil and sugar.

"I thought Bozo would make it."
