Debate Hot In Dam Hearing

Board Seeks More Time On Decision

AUSTIN, Jan. 13 — UP — The State Board of Water Engineers Tuesday studied a proposed $85 million dam on the Canadian River, which would serve a dozen cities in the Panhandle and West Texas.

The dam project was assailed at a five-hour hearing before the board Monday as leading to federal encroachment on state and local governments. Others at the hearing urged the board to approve the project.

A spokesman for the board said additional time was needed before the board would act.

The dam would serve Borger, Amarillo, Pampa, Plainview, Lamesa, Slaton, Tahoka, O'Donnell, Littlefield, Lubbock and Lovelland, all in Texas.

Under the proposal, a Canadian River Water Control and Improvement District would be set up. The district would contract for building the Stanford dam. The district might borrow money from the federal government to pay for dam construction.

Approval Urged
Representatives of Panhandle and High Plains cities urged the board to approve creation of the water district.

The proposal was attacked by Curtis Douglas, Pampa attorney, and J. Everts Haley, Lubbock.

Haley and A. B. Huguem, Dallas attorney representing the dam supporters, argued at length. Haley said the area in which the dam would impound water contained a large amount of gypsum, his industry's business.

Huguem replied that Haley "painted a very dark picture." Haley declared he took his industry to court.

Baptist Meeting Scheduled Today

A Palo Duro Association Baptist Workers Conference is scheduled to convene at 5:30 p.m. today in the Central Baptist church.

The Palo Duro Association is the largest association in the district, according to Rev. O. C. Curtis, Central Baptist church pastor, and includes Pampa, Borger, Amarillo and all surrounding Panhandle towns.

The conference is to begin with a special song and praise service at 5:30 p.m., led by Robert Stroble, First Baptist Church educational director.

At 5:45 p.m. there is to be special music by the Central Baptist Youth Choir. The choir music is to be followed by a talk, "Salvation by Grace," by Rev. E. Bolling, pastor of the Avondale Baptist Church, Amarillo.

Dinner, prepared and served by the host church, is scheduled at 6:30 p.m. lasting until 7:15.

Executive board, WMU and youth meetings are to take place at 7:15. Mrs. Chester Obrien, Central Baptist Church secretary, is to talk at the youth meeting on "Modern Day Problems Facing Youth."

Rev. Gus Bogan, pastor of Fairview Baptist Church, Amarillo, is to present "Sanctification" at 8 p.m. followed by "Security of Believers" by Rev. W. S. Thorn, Panhandle.

The First Baptist Church quartet is to sing following Thorn's talk.

Closing the conference is to be an inspirational message by Rev. A. J. Quinn, district missionary.

Bills Okayed In Short City Meet

A short city commission meeting this morning approved $22,928.84 in monthly bills for December, and $291.62 in library bills for the same period.

It was the only official business transacted by the commission this morning due to the absence of the mayor, city manager, city attorney and director of public works, all who are in Austin at the hearing of the proposed water district for this area.

SAVED AND SAVIOR—Lonnie Kotara (left), 31, a Pampa well-digging contractor, can thank Alvin Lewis (right), 31, of White Deer, for 20 minutes of artificial respiration which was instrumental in saving his life Monday afternoon. Having conducted an electrical potential of 15,000 volts on the Clyde Bobbitt farm, southeast of White Deer, Kotara was pulled away from a high line by Bobbitt and received Red Cross aid from Lewis who had studied first aid "about a year ago." Kotara is reported "doing very well" today in Worley Hospital. (News Photos)

Clubmen Jump To Challenge

Answers to a Pampa Elks lodge challenge to civic clubs were not long in coming. "Towering" Joe Tooley, center for the lodge, said this morning.

Late yesterday afternoon County Drive Chairman Warren Hase—who has a great basketball future, behind him—accepted in behalf of Kiwanis. Hase said he would be on the team for Kiwanis.

Earlier, Dr. Joe Donaldson professed the basketballers of the Lions and strongly hinted ace roundballer Fred Greig would serve as jump center while he (Donaldson) would play in his red flannels.

Both Hase and Donaldson playing the hush-hush game in giving their lineup at this early stage.

Then a dark horse team asked Tooley if they could get in the tournament, but would reveal themselves to the Elks' center, Tooley said, I guess they'll get in the tournament, maybe masked.

Still to be heard from were the athletes of Rotary and the Jaycees.

Kiwanis has a few possible basketballers, one Lion pointed out as he fingered the club's roster—there were several lawyers (they might argue with the referee, but that's all right); a couple of doctors, and several insurance agents, not to mention lightfooted T. Marshall Brooks who might scamper around the new field house for Kiwanis and the March of Dimes.

School authorities agreed to give the use of the field house for the (See CLUBMEN, Page 2)

Pampa Mercury Hits 81 Degrees

Old Man Winter has been driven from the Panhandle by a blazing sun which pushed the mercury up to a high of 81 degrees Monday and the temperature had climbed to 82 by 11:30 today.

The early morning low of 41 soon vanished under brilliant skies as the mercury started its trek upward.

And according to U.S. Weather Bureau predictions, Texas is good for at least a couple of more days of summer.

Skies were generally clear over the state, except for some early morning cloudiness through South Texas.

Weathermen said there were no major cold fronts headed for the state but the Panhandle was due to cool off slightly Wednesday, but the end of the current balmy mercury readings as a whole is not in sight.

Allied Planes Launch Year's Heaviest Raid

SEOUL, Korea, Jan. 13—UP—United Nations fighter bombers made two 200-plane attacks on the main Manchuria-Korea supply route Tuesday in the biggest air raid of the new year, while protecting Sabrejets destroyed or damaged four Communist MIG-15's.

It was the biggest mass air raid since last Aug. 29.

An early morning attack by 220 planes on five bridges north of Sinanju was followed up by an equally large Allied strike this afternoon.

Two Russian-built jets were shot down by F-86 Sabrejets as they swooped down between Sinanju and the Yalu River to intercept the slower fighter-bombers. Another Red jet was probably destroyed, and a fourth was damaged.

It was the fifth straight day that Allied warplanes hit the bridge complex north of Sinanju.

Quick Action Pays Off ... Pampan Victim Of Near-Electrocution

A Pampa well-digging contractor who came in contact with 13,000 volts of electricity is reported "doing very well" today — thanks, largely, to quick and heroic work by two persons nearby.

Lonnie Kotara, 31, suffered second- and third-degree burns on his legs and injuries to his face and hands when a gin pole on his truck tangled with a Southwestern Public Service Company high line.

The accident occurred at 2:30 p.m. Monday on the Clyde Bobbitt farm, about five miles southeast of White Deer.

In a matter of seconds Bobbitt had pulled Kotara away from the line and Alvin Lewis, 31, of White Deer, was giving him artificial respiration. Lewis told The Pampa Daily News today.

"Kotara looked just as dead as anybody I ever saw when I reached him," Lewis, a former Red Cross trainee, said.

Twenty minutes passed before Lewis was able to bring Kotara back to consciousness.

An employee of the Northern Natural Gas Corporation, Lewis was working at the Bobbitt Gathering Station, several hundred (See PAMPAN, Page 2)

One Killed In Argument On Merits Of Texas, New York

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 13 — UP—An airman stationed at Warren Air Force Base in Cheyenne was killed Monday night during an argument over the comparative merits of New York and Texas, and authorities were holding another airman Tuesday in connection with his death.

Suddenly, he said, the argument became heated and they started fighting. He said he did not know which of them struck the first blow to start the fight. After they had exchanged a few (See ONE KILLED, Page 2)

Soviets Round Up Physicians On Charge Of Killing Leaders

MOSCOW, Jan. 13—UP—The Soviet government announced Tuesday the arrest of nine physicians—most of them Jews—on the charge that as agents of the American and British spy services they killed two top-level Russian leaders and plotted to murder five others.

The accused men have confessed, it was stated.

(It was indicated that this might forebode a public purge trial.)

Wrong Diagnosis
Announcements published in the Moscow press and broadcast by radio said the nine defendants contributed, by false diagnosis and wrong treatment, to the death of Politburo members Andrei A. Zhdanov and Alexander S. Scherbakov.

(Zhdanov, once mentioned as a possible successor to Premier Joseph Stalin, died in 1948. Scherbakov died in 1945.)

The defendants also, it was asserted, plotted to kill Marshal Alexander M. Vassiliev, a governor, chief of the army general staff; Marshal Ivan S. Konev, commander-in-chief of ground forces; Gen. S.M. Shmetenko, chief of staff of ground forces, and Adm. G. I. Levchenko, deputy navy minister, Blame Security Officials

In first-page editorials, the leading Moscow newspapers said Soviet security organizations failed to discover the conspiracy in time. (This might forebode a sweeping disciplinary measures in the Russian security system.)

Nippon Has Backing Of U. S. Air Force

TOKYO, Jan. 13 — UP— Japan bluntly warned Russia Tuesday that if any more Soviet warplanes fly over Japan they may be shot down by the U. S. Air Force. American leaders here said the United States would co-operate.

Japan issued the warning in a public statement referring only to "the foreign power concerned," but the reference to Russia was obvious.

In recent months many foreign planes, believed to be Russian, have flown over Hokkaido, Japan's northernmost island.

A spokesman for the Far East command said Gen. Mark W. Clark has issued instructions to "appropriate commanders to take all measures to prevent further violations."

Full Concurrence
The spokesman said the "statement issued today by the Japanese government has the full concurrence of U.S. Ambassador Murphy and General Clark."

"Violations of our territorial air space have of late become increasingly frequent" and that Japan will put an end to them "with the cooperation of the United States security forces stationed in Japan."

Mitsuo Tanaka, foreign office spokesman, said in a press conference that "we cannot tell what complete measures will be taken. Sometimes we try to force the invading airplanes out of our domain. Sometimes, if necessary, we will order them to land."

Will Use Force
But "sometimes," he said, "when they don't follow orders we will use force. We will shoot them down."

Tanaka said the violations, by a country he refused to identify as Russia, have occurred with increasing frequency since Japan regained her sovereignty last summer.

Lately, he said, the intruding planes have been flying deeper in to Japan, and the government has no recourse but to consider the flights intentional.

Tanaka did say the planes had been "coming from the direction of Soviet-controlled territory" and had flown over Japan "20 to 30 times."

Legislature Convenes, Short On Money, Long On Demand

AUSTIN, Jan. 13—UP—Texas 53rd Legislature convened Tuesday, short on money and long on demands.

At high noon, Secretary of State Jack Ross called the 150 members of the House to order. A prayer was said, and then in routine action 35-year-old Reuben Senterfitt, San Saba, was to be re-elected speaker in his unopposed bid for return to office.

Across the Capitol grounds, 31 Senate members were to be gavelled down to business by Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey, returning for his second show as president of the upper chamber. Another prayer was to follow.

As hundreds of spectators—many of them wives and family friends of the lawmakers—watch from the galleries, both houses were set to elect their officers—sergeant-at-arms, clerks and doorkeepers.

Committee Parade
After that, a committee of representatives was to parade from House to the Senate to advise the upper chamber they are ready to do business. A Senate committee was to return the courtesy with a call on the House.

Separate committees from both houses then were to advise the governor legislative desks were cleared for action. The 53rd session would be underway.

Ahead of the lawmakers will be the problem of answering an estimated $338 million in budget requests out of an anticipated income of $176 billion. On one side will be the demand for more money. On the other, the unpleasant threat of new taxes.

On Wednesday the governor, armed with the authority of his office and the political power of his position, will address a joint session, calling for rigorous economy and a slashing of all requests to the necessity level.

Gasoline Tax Seen
The governor, predicting that with sufficient belt-tightening lawmakers can probably avoid the necessity of a general tax increase, may spark an early fight with demands for an increased tax on gasoline.

Requests from the highway department for an additional $100 million a year for the next five years have been slapped down by the governor. However, he is on record admitting needs are great. (See LEGISLATIVE, Page 2)

Hospitals Strained Under Flu Burden

The possibility of Pampa schools, churches and theaters being closed to fight further spread of the flu epidemic loomed today as both hospitals reported they were "loaded."

Physicians at Worley Hospital said every room was filled and beds were placed for new patients out in the halls and wherever there was room for them. Two to three patients are on the waiting list for admittance, 80 per cent of them flu cases.

Highland General Hospital reported 15 flu cases and approximately 15 per cent of that number are being admitted every day for flu.

One prominent Pampa doctor warned people this morning to stay away from public gatherings "drink a lot, and still more water," get all the rest possible and guard against unnecessary exposure.

Local doctors, it was learned, want to have schools, churches and theaters closed for several days to halt spreading of the epidemic.

At first the epidemic was hitting mostly adults, but now is striking school-age children and younger, one doctor said.

Superintendent of Schools Knox Kinard said absenteeism over the system is averaging about 10 per cent. Yesterday Pampa Junior High School reported about the 100 students absent out of the 1,100 pupils there.

While schools at Elgin were reported, other schools at Lockhart, San Marcos, Gonzales, Lamesa and Alice were shut down because of the flu epidemic. Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, reported to United Press.

Cox said he knew of at least 25,000 cases over the state, but added that report was as of 10 days ago and that new cases are constantly coming up.

Local physicians said there are no signs of the epidemic tapering off yet. It is increasing, according to their observations and lists of new cases.

Boy Scout Finance Drive Chairmen To Meet Wednesday

A meeting of the community finance chairmen for the Boy Scouts annual fund drive has been scheduled for 7 p.m. Wednesday in the Hotel Schneider.

The drive is slated to get underway Feb. 16.

On the docket for discussion are the setting of dates for the drive in each of the Santa Fe District's 10 communities, a talk on how to form prospect lists and the use of materials and advanced gift techniques, according to Phil Pegues, district Scout executive.

Already named as community chairmen are Harry Jamison, Higgins; W. E. Lallier, Canadian; J. W. Meacham, McLean; and G. W. Hase, Lufkin.

Other towns included in the district are Pampa, Miami, Alandier, Groom, Panhandle and White Deer.

Presiding at the meeting will be Huielyn Laycock, White Deer, district finance chairman.

Scout Jamboree Planning Meet Slated Thursday

Any Boy Scout — and his parents — who might be interested in attending this year's National Jamboree has been invited to a meeting, scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Thursday in the Palm Room of city hall.

The giant get-together is slated to be held July 17-23 on the Irvine Ranch, near Santa Ana, Calif.

A film of the 1950 Jamboree will be shown, according to Phil Pegues, district Scout executive. Presiding at the meeting will be Elmer Kilpatrick, Adobe Walls Council camping and activities committee chairman.

A quota of 99 Scouts and nine leaders from this council has been set. An estimated 80,000 Scouts and leaders are expected to attend the affair.

McLean Jaycees Make Challenge

In a surprise move late this morning, the McLean Jaycees announced they would challenge the winner to the inter-club basketball tournament for the March of Dimes.

Larry Fuller, McLean drive chairman, said the Jaycees announced they would flip for the sake of the game and at stake would be the county civic club and club championship as well as the gate take. Winner would take the money staying in county but would add either to Pampa's or McLean contribution.

'Routine Patrol' Turns Into Nightmare For American GIs

EASTERN FRONT, Korea, Jan. 13 — UP—The "routine patrol" turned into a nightmare of frozen runs and exploding Communist grenades.

It was a shooting gallery for the Reds and four Americans were the targets.

Three of them told Tuesday how they and their unidentified wounded companion, trapped "like drowning rats" under a rock ledge, took turns dashing for freedom through a rain of grenades and bullets.

The men are 2nd Lt. Emmet E. Mallard, 24, Shellman, Ga.; Cpl. Arnold B. Thompson, 23, Athens, Ala.; and Cpl. Shack Cole, 34, Union, W. Va.

Enemy Approaches
Chinese were crawling along two snow-covered fingers which reached out like lobster claws on either side of the ledge.

"Once they reached the end of the fingers," Thompson said, "they looked like a bullet-proof haven to the men when they were cut off by a Chinese ambush.

But minutes after taking refuge in it, while grenades burst outside and bullets splattered off the rocks, they realized it was a trap.

"I knew we'd be dead if we didn't get out of there quick," said Thompson. "We were caught like drowning rats."

"It was all their show," said Mallard. "Our only chance was to run like hell and pray we didn't get hit."

New Officers, Enlistees in Pampa's National Guard Unit

Four new enlistments have been accepted in the Pampa National Guard Headquarters and Headquarters Battery, 374th Field Artillery at 8th Observation Battalion.

The new members were entered at the weekly meeting of the Guard in the Armory at 7:30 p.m. Monday.

The four include two Army veterans, Sgt. Donald L. Tillman, five-year veteran mustered in November, and William R. Ward, Korean veteran. Also John R. Wills, Pampa High School student council president and Floyd M. Strickland.

Two local officers, Maj. A. Steward, and Maj. William J. Ragdale had changed executive positions. Maj. Steward is taking over as executive officer and Maj. Ragdale is to be 33 officer in charge of operations.

A new officer, recently arrived in Pampa from a reserve unit, is Lt. William M. Preston, communications officer.

Other activity in the battalion includes a new procedure of obtaining supplies. Formerly supplies were shipped, according to Capt. Charles L. Robison, but will hereafter be gone after by the Guard.

Sgt. Wesley L. Langham and Sgt. Wilbur L. Howell are to leave Jan. 29 to pick up supplies in Camp Mabry and Austin. They are scheduled to return Jan. 22. Supplies are to be conveyed in the Guard.

Priority Tags have been hung by the governor on three projects: New construction at the School for the Deaf in Austin, recently termed a fire-trap; pay raises for state employees and teachers; and additional money for the M. D. Anderson Cancer Research Hospital at Houston.

Teachers have asked for raises totaling $34 million a year. State employees haven't hung their request on any peg. The governor said in his opinion both groups are entitled to a "cost of living" raise.

In addition to spending and tax-employees' pay and highway improvements, the Legislature faced a host of other problems including water conservation, traffic safety and proposed repeal of the controversial automobile inspection law.

Rufus W. Jackson, 24 of Pampa, has been fined $125 and costs in county court on a charge of driving an automobile while intoxicated.

Picked up by city police about 10 a. m. Saturday near Somerville and West Francis, he posted bond over the week end and was tried Monday afternoon.

Justice Department Proceeds In Prosecuting Oil Companies

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13--UP--The Justice Department went ahead with plans for criminal prosecution of the nation's major oil companies Tuesday after being re-buffed in efforts to substitute a civil anti-trust suit.

Attorney General James P. McGranery officially was waiting for the oil companies to answer his offer to drop the criminal proceedings if they will voluntarily produce documents on which the government can base a civil suit against the alleged cartel.

But government attorneys said the compromise effort already had been stymied, at least for the time being, by the Jersey Standard Oil Company's blunt rejection of McGranery's terms. Since McGranery had stipulated that all companies must accept the offer, Standard alone was in a position to block the deal.

Will Go Ahead Some officials were still hopeful Standard might reconsider. But they said they would have no choice in the meantime but to go ahead with a grand jury inquiry.

Commissioner Stephen J. Spingarn of the Federal Trade Commission, whose report on an alleged world-wide oil cartel led to the grand jury investigation, meanwhile demanded a congressional inquiry into the whole matter.

He said Congress should investigate not only the accuracy of the report but the "world-wide propaganda campaign" of the oil companies against the Justice Department and the FTC. He said this campaign was "vicious and unprovoked."

McGranery Ordered Action The controversy began last summer when McGranery ordered a grand jury anti-trust investigation into FTC charges that major U. S. oil companies had entered into a giant cartel agreement to divide up world markets.

The five principal companies involved were Standard of New Jersey, Standard of California, the Texas Company and the Socony-Vacuum Oil Co., and the Gulf Oil Co.

The grand jury soon bogged down when four of the companies, Gulf excepted, refused to produce subpoenaed documents on grounds it would be against the national security to make them public.

Acting on the recommendations of his National Security Council, President Truman Monday ordered McGranery to drop the criminal case if the companies were willing to turn over the subpoenaed documents for a civil suit.

Acting as unofficial spokesman for the oil lawyers, Arthur H. Dean, counsel for Jersey Standard, denounced the government's offer as "outrageous and unfair." He said the offer amounted to "blackmail."

Other oil industry attorneys chimed in with equal denunciations.

Carson Plans Poultry Meel WHITE DEER (Special)--County Agent H. M. Nichols announced a poultry meeting to be held at the court house in Pampa Jan. 15 at 1:30 p. m.

Poultry specialist James Grubbs will be in charge of the meeting. For poultry raisers who have a few problems, and desire an interview with Nichols and Grubbs, the morning of January 15 has been set aside for farm visitation by the two.

Other information can be had concerning either the meeting or the visitations by contacting Nichols at his Panhandle office.

White Deer School Has Visitation Plan WHITE DEER (Special)--White Deer schools have adapted a new visitation system for its faculty members. Each member has been given one day during the school term by the White Deer Independent School Board to go to another school for observation.

Purpose for the observation day is for inspiration and information. Schools visited thus far have been Pampa Junior High School's Visual Aid Department, and the First and Second Grades of Amarillo's Avondale School.

DEBATE

The proposal calls for the water districts being permitted to enter into a contract with the federal government for dam building.

Huguenin, under questioning by James Guleke, a member of the board, said the dam sponsors had made no commitments to the federal government.

"It has been our hope," said Amarillo Mayor E. H. Klein, "to supply water in a business-like manner, with no commitments to anyone, past, present or future."

"If we could build (the dam) for any amount less than what the Bureau of Reclamation says it will cost, I would advocate it," he said.

Huguenin indicated the dam supporters would accept private financing, if it were available.

"They intend to explore every possibility of financing that is open," he said.

S. W. Frazier, Fort Worth consulting engineer, said a survey by his firm showed the project was feasible and would serve the cities concerned "at reasonable cost."

Frazier said the cost of water would be about 14 cents for each 1,000 gallons. The cost of the dam offered better drainage facilities than others he added.

Safeguard Rights Douglass said he did not want to appear "obstructive," but added, "I can't do too much to safeguard the right of the people of Texas against federal encroachment."

Haley said the board should either deny the application on legal grounds or defer a decision. He asked that the opposition be given time "to marshal our forces."

Huguenin said an opportunity to express themselves. He said that could be done only by creation of the water district.

Huguenin demanded of Haley, "You believe in democratic government, don't you?"

Haley replied, "I believe in the Constitution and Bill of Rights."

He said the meaning of "democratic" appeared hazy.

Contractors Name Officers For 1953

E. W. Southard, Electric Supply Company, has been chosen a director in the Panhandle Chapter National Electrical Contractors Association.

Appointment was made at the chapter meeting of the association Thursday when officer elections for the new year were conducted.

L. V. Lively, Borger, was chosen to succeed himself as president and Elmo Duke, Amarillo, was chosen vice president.

Other officers selected include Robert S. Anderson, treasurer; George E. Broom, re-elected for fifth year as member of board of governors; and Lorenzo Wirt, Canyon, director.

Duke, Lively and Broom are also to serve on the Labor-Relations Committee.

The Panhandle Chapter is in its fifth year of operation in the Panhandle area and has members in Pampa, Amarillo, Borger, Canyon, Clarendon, Tulsa, Hereford, and Portales, N. M.

John H. Hurt, is the secretary-manager with offices in the Blackburn Building, Amarillo.

Ground Party Moves Toward Wreckage Of Crashed Plane LOGAN, Utah, Jan. 13--UP--A ground party walked through bipped snow Tuesday toward bodies of 39 men and a woman who were killed Wednesday when their C-47 transport crashed into a Wasatch mountain cliff along the Utah-Idaho border.

The dead included 37 GIa from states along the southeast Atlantic seaboard who had survived tours of duty in Korea and were flying home for discharge. With them was a crew of three, including a stewardess. The army had chartered the plane from Associate Air Transport Co., San Antonio.

The Civil Air Patrol major who first spotted the wreckage described it as a "heap of garbage."

Deaths Appear Instantaneous A pair of Air Force paramedics who dropped near the wreckage of the twin-engine-Curtis Commando reported by radio that death apparently was instant for those aboard in the crash and fire that left only a tail section jutting out from a cliff as a recognizable aircraft part.

He said he hoped there would be a fuller report at the end of Tuesday's session than the sketchy reports made after Monday's afternoon meeting.

Eisenhower had arrived for a pre-meeting planning session at 8:15 a. m., earlier than his usual arrival-hour, and remained working by himself until joining the cabinet at 9:34 a. m.

The meeting lasted two minutes later around a U-shaped table with various covering in the private conference room.

ALLIED (Continued from page one) anti-aircraft guns. The Reds, realizing the importance of the supply route at the bridge complex, have made it one of the most heavily defended areas in North Korea.

"They were shooting at us point blank with heavies," said Capt. Carl J. Copman of Pontiac, Mich. "I could even see the muzzle blasts."

In both morning and afternoon attacks the first waves of UN jet bombers concentrated on the anti-aircraft positions. Pilots estimated they destroyed or damaged 15 Red guns.

Auto Wreck Victim 'About Same' Today The 12-year-old Pampa girl critically injured in an automobile accident, which killed a teen-aged youth, is reported "about the same" today in Highland General Hospital.

Anna Sirmans, daughter of Mrs. Gladys Sirmans, 416 Roberts, was "a little better" Monday morning following the car wreck early Sunday morning at "Five Points."

Funeral services for Donald Ray Upton, 16, Pampa High School senior who died of injuries received in the mishap, were scheduled to be held at 2 p. m. today in Calvary Baptist Church.

Two other passengers in the death car were temporarily hospitalized for their injuries but were later dismissed.

Sentence Changed From Jail To Fine

A change of sentence from 30 days in jail to $125 and costs has been granted Burius W. Wood, 25, of Pampa, who was convicted in county court of illegally possessing and carrying a handgun.

City police picked up Wood Thursday morning near Foster and Hobart and discovered the handgun when he attempted to flip it into the back of his car.

A search for Wood had been undertaken upon notification that he had been involved in a fight earlier at the Belvedere Club. W. Alcock, and had beaten up B. W. Rhoten, Pampa.

Wood pleaded guilty late Friday in county court.

Carson Officials Sworn Into Office WHITE DEER (Special)--Frank P. Dove, Groom, was sworn into Carson County's elective staff recently when he succeeded H. H. Smith, Panhandle, as county attorney.

James Britten, Groom, was a sworn in as Justice of Peace, Precinct 5, replacing Dove. Other officers sworn in at Panhandle were Clarence Williams, Sheriff, tax collector and assessor; Mrs. Fannie Williams, county and district clerk; and Mgs. Oneta Hanson, county treasurer.

"They must have thrown 100 grenades at us," said Mallard, "everything 200. We lost track of everything. Back at the company they told us we were under the ledge about six minutes. It was more like eternity."

"We didn't think of anything except getting out of there. I've heard of men who have mental flashes about home when they're pinned down, but all I thought about were those Chinks shooting at us."

"I told the first man to run like hell."

One Man Hit Slumbling over ice-cooled rocks, the first man ran for a grenade burst near his head and cut one ear.

"He kept going under his own steam," Mallard said.

Thompson was next. "I made a break for it," he said, "and ran 40 yards through Chink fire. Then I spun around to fire up the finger where they were. But my carbine was dead, frozen up. I pulled out my .45 pistol but it was frozen too."

Thompson grabbed a rifle from the wounded man and fired until it was empty.

Keyboard Comic On K-F Program Today

The Knife and Fork Club, scheduled to meet at 7:30 today in the Senior High School, is to present Henry L. Scott, musical burlesque, according to Club President Clinton Evans.

Well-known in concert halls and musical centers, Scott will appear at 8:30 in the auditorium following dinner which is to be served in the school cafeteria.

There'll Even Be Two Inaugural Balls — And Two Elephants ... 'Simple' Inaugural Simply Colossal

PRESIDENTIAL REVIEWING STAND for inaugural parade will look like this on Jan. 20. Erected on Pennsylvania Avenue in front of the White House, it will be 80 feet long, 35 feet high.

By DOUGLAS LARSEN
NEA Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (NEA) — President-elect Dwight D. Eisenhower is going to get the "simple and dignified" inaugural which he ordered.

It's going to be so simple that it will be merely stupendous and super-colossal. And for the first time in U.S. history it will be dignified by two official inaugural balls and two elephants in the inaugural parade.

Four years ago President Truman asked for, and got, almost the same thing. If the trend toward dignity and simplicity continues, future inaugurations will have to be held at the atomic proving grounds in Nevada.

There's already a reasonable doubt as to whether Washington is going to be big or sturdy enough for this one.

In any inaugural category you can name, this one is going to be bigger, more costly and precedent-shattering.

An estimated 600,000 visitors are expected during the three days of official celebrating, the largest influx of people ever to hit the nation's Capital.

Hotels in cities within more than a 100-mile radius will catch some of the overflow crowd. Close to 10,000 persons are expected to be quartered in a special "Pullman city" composed of sleeping cars and diners on tracks and sidings around Washington.

Arrangements have been made to put untold thousands of visitors in private homes in the District of Columbia and vicinity.

First, Ike's inaugural has the biggest budget ever: $800,000. Loans from District businessmen financed the inaugural committee. The money will be paid back from the sale of ball tickets, parade seats, concession licenses, official programs, medals and tickets to other events.

Four years ago the Democrats cleared $100,000 on their $700,000 inaugural. Being more the party of businessmen, the GOP hopes to do better.

There will be approximately 60,000 seats in 39 stands built along the parade route. They sell for from $3 to $15. Ball tickets are $12 per person with boxes costing $300. The official program will go for a buck and the bronze medal with the likeness of Ike on it goes for $3.

Probably the only free major inaugural event will be the actual swearing-in ceremony on the Capitol Plaza. Seats are obtained only through congressmen and Republican party officials. The official inaugural committee has very little to do with this event.

Another "most" for the inaugural is the number of members serving on and working for the various committees and sub-committees. Approximately 10,000 persons have some kind of an official hand in the planning of the event, it is estimated. For instance, the General Services Sub-committee of the main committee has 14 sub-sub-committees, each of which has an average of nine members.

A few weeks before the actual event, there were two persons working full-time at headquarters just trying to compile lists of the committees, sub-committees and sub-sub-committees. They expect to finish some time after the inauguration. As one of the committee officials explains:

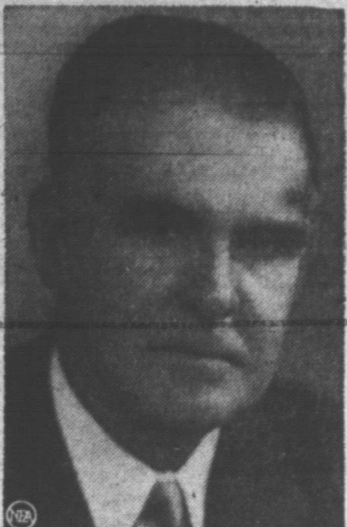

"Remember, it has been 20 years since the Republicans have had an inaugural and there was a big backlog of persons wanting to help on one."

Included in committee membership are persons in each state and territory, distributing inaugural tickets and arranging for floats and representation in the big parade.

Chairman of this vast but simple, dignified effort is Joseph C. McGarraghy, a friend of Ike's and an old-time Republican D.C. lawyer. He decided that it should be a three-day affair, beginning with city-wide religious services on Sunday, Jan. 17, and ending with the two official balls on the night of the 20th.

A big governors' reception at the Statler Hotel, followed by a concert in Constitution Hall in the evening, will round out Sunday's events.

Monday will feature sightseeing tours of Washington and slip quietly out of town.

Another "biggest" is the television coverage of the event. Millions of Americans will be cut-in on most of the events through this medium. TV coverage of the parade will be sponsored by several automobile firms. The parade will be limited to less than three hours with an estimated 20,000 persons marching.

In Chairman McGarraghy's own words, "we want no carnival of circus atmosphere about this thing."

vicinity with a gala festival that night which will include appearances of movie, stage, TV and radio stars.

Tuesday is the big day. Ike is supposed to arrive in town on a train from New York late in the morning, pause at the Statler to wash up, and around noon head for the White House.

There he will pick up President Truman and together they will ride to the swearing-in ceremony.

Then a lunch at the Capitol, a ride back to the White House, the dances that night, with the routine of being President of the United States beginning for Ike the next morning. Meantime, on Tuesday, the Truman family will

He Takes On The Champ! Maybe It's Better Not To Sell Hank Short In Girls' Contests

By HENRY McLEMORE
PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. — It's all right never to underestimate the power of a woman, but every once in a while it is wise not to underestimate the power of a man.

Two minutes after Jackie Pung, holder of the United States Women's Amateur Golf Championship, turned professional, I challenged her to a match.

She asked me a very natural question.

"Who are you?" she asked.

"A man who believes in the superiority of man over woman," I answered, "and also the man who taught Hagen how to drive, Sarazen how to get out of a sand trap, Hogan how to concentrate, Demaret how to dress, Nelson how to hit irons, and Snead how to play thebasist."

Mrs. Pung, with a bravery that matches that of a kitten attacking an avalanche, accepted.

"How many holes?" she said, and her voice had the ring of confidence so familiar to husbands the world over.

"Thirty-six," I said. "That is the least number of holes which would give a true line on our respective talents."

"I have only fifteen minutes before I must leave for the airport to get a plane for Tampa, Florida, where I am making my professional debut. So would you be satisfied with a putting contest?"

children are happy, so why start eating lettuce when a banana split tastes so good.

She is such a nice woman that I am almost sorry I beat her, even though we battled it out in a fair and square match.

But someday I'll give her a return match. On my terms, of course. I being, in a fashion, the present U.S. Women's Champion.

Brush Color Into Hair With Help Of Plastic Bottle

By ALICIA HART, NEA Beauty Editor.

If your hair lacks glistening highlights and a silken sheen, you can give it both with a temporary color tint preparation. This tint, which comes in capsule form, will last through about three shampoos, and it allows you to brighten and accent your own hair color or go dramatic and "try on" contrasting shades until you find one that does the most for you.

Because there is no permanent color change, you needn't be concerned with noticeable roots growing out, expensive upkeep for retouching and the long-lasting effects of a hair dye.

You can also use the preparation to cover tell-tale gray and blend in dyed or bleached hair to a rich, even shade.

Application is wonderfully easy because of a new plastic squeeze-bottle brush applicator. Merely fill the bottle with warm water, dissolve one capsule in it, and brush the solution onto your hair with the top of the applicator. The flow is controlled by squeezing the sides of the bottle. This new method of applying color to your hair avoids mess and dripping, applies the solution exactly where you want it, and assures even coverage. The overall effect will be one of beauty.

TAMALE PIE
 1 1/2 cups water
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 3 cups evaporated milk
 1 tablespoon butter or other fat
 1 pound hamburger or ground beef
 1 cup chopped onion
 1 No. 2 can tomatoes (2 1/2 cups)
 1/2 ounce can tomato paste
 1 teaspoon salt
 1/2 teaspoon chili powder
 1-8 teaspoon oregano, crumbled, fine
 1-8 teaspoon garlic salt, if desired
 2 tablespoons grated Parmesan

Measure corn meal into heavy saucepan. Add water and the first measure of salt. Cook until mixture begins to thicken. Stir in milk and continue cooking, stirring constantly, until mixture is very thick, about 10 minutes. Grease a 9 by 9 by 2 inch baking dish and line it with about two-thirds of the mush. Set remainder aside for topping. Melt butter or shortening in fry pan. Add meat and cook over low heat until the red color disappears. Add onion and continue cooking gently about 5 minutes. Stir in tomatoes, then tomato paste and blend well. Add the second measure of salt and seasonings, and cook for two or three minutes longer, stirring occasionally.

Turn meat mixture into the baking dish lined with mush. Spread remaining mush, a little at a time, in a rather thin layer

Tips For Task

When the cookie batter sticks to the spoon, try dropping the batter with a spoon that has been dipped in warm water. This keeps the batter smooth and saves the trouble of scraping the spoon after dropping each cookie on the baking sheet.

Along the side of the saucepan. Lift up with knife or spatula and place gently on top of meat mixture. Sprinkle shredded cheese, then Parmesan cheese on top. Bake in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) until mixture is bubbly and cheese is browned, about 45 minutes. Makes four to six servings.

European Tour Discussed At Pampa League Of Women Voters Luncheon

Mrs. J. W. Garman, secretary of the State Board of the League of Women Voters of Texas, was principal speaker when the Pampa league met Monday for a luncheon in the Palm Room. Mrs. Garman discussed highlights of a four-month European tour she made last summer with her husband and son.

The local family traveled by automobile through France, Germany, Spain, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Holland, Belgium, Luxembourg, and Denmark. They visited in London before beginning the motor trip.

The Monday program included presentation of the prize-winning essay, "I Speak for Democracy," by John Teed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Teed. Rev. T. M. Johnson gave the invocation.

Mrs. Frank Culbertson presided during the business meeting.

Attending were Mrs. Mmes. Thomas L. Wade, H. H. Hahn, G. C. Waldstad, M. E. Murphee, A. D. Hills, F. W. Shotwell, G. F. Friess, F. S. Dixon, Clyde M. Van Cole, Roy Cullison, Bud Hogan, Harry Hoyer, Lee-Marler, Glen Maxey, W. R. Patish, Jones Seitz, James Washington Jr., Joe Wheeler, and Frank Yates.

Baptist Women Have Luncheon Meeting

WHITE DEER (Special) — The Kessie Mae Circle and the Lottie Moon Circle of the Baptist Women's Missionary Society, White Deer, met for lunch, a business meeting and Royal Service program recently in the church basement.

The meeting opened with the singing of "Send the Light" and "Christ, the Whole Wide World." The devotional was led by Mrs. Eugene Richardson, who chose an inspirational reading from John 4:1-8. Mrs. Charles Milligan led the prayer which was followed by the "Doxology."

Lottie Moon members participating on the program were: Mmes. Neal Edwards, M. J. Osborne, W. Baten, Milligan, and Mrs. Clifton C. Kelly from Kessie Mae.

During the business meeting, a decision was made to use a yearbook for following years.

Mrs. Neal Edwards will give a book review to the group on January 28.

Present were: Mmes. Edwards, Baten, Milligan, Osborne, Leon Osborne, Kelly, E. L. Colgrove, J. D. Edgar, Brian Evans, Bob McBrayer, Glendon Young, Eugene Richardson, W. B. Carey, Jessie M. Pearson and one guest, Mrs. Richardson, mother of Mrs. Carey.

Tin Wanted At Schwartz Iron & Supply Co. Now

The Schwartz Iron & Supply Co., located at West and Thut Streets, needs a lot of tin. Not only do they need tin, but also scrap iron and metals such as copper, aluminum and brass. They need all types that can be found lying around, not in use, such as old radiators, car parts, car bodies etc. You can pick up a little spare cash and also be helping your country by furnishing this scrap metal.

Their scales are inspected and you will be offered the top prices on any old metal you load up and bring into the Schwartz Iron and Supply Co. Get the old junk lying around cluttering up useful space, be of service to you and your country. Steel and iron is vitally needed now in defense work and you can get top prices to add to your family budget.

The Schwartz Iron & Supply is located at West & Thut Streets, or if you need more information call 1950. They will inform you on prices for various types of metals. Load up your old scrap metal and bring it in to Schwartz. You'll be helping yourself and your country. Scrap metal is vitally needed, and that point can't be stressed too much. Our steel supply is limited and with the help of scrap metal now going to waste, our defense effort can be helped to no end.

Remember, any old radiators, batteries, car bodies, pipe, sheet tin, tin implements, wire and countless other articles are needed. Different types of metals are priced differently, but you can be sure that Schwartz will pay you top prices on any and all types of metals that you bring in. Just drive up on the scales and let them weigh your truck or trailer and receive your money. Every little bit helps nowadays including metals and money.

Material won't fringe or ravel when you're cutting it if you pin the pattern firmly to the fabric and trace around the edges with soap.

Your Laundry And Dry Cleaners Has Been Located In Pampa Since 1928

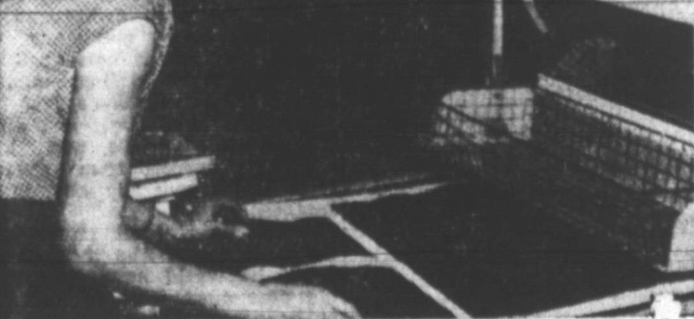

Cleanliness is next to Godliness is an old proverbial saying that is true in every respect. You are judged by your friends and business associates by your grooming and personal cleanliness. And, as everyone knows, good grooming begins with clean clothing. When you step out for an evening of relaxation or a morning ready for work, you want to look your very best and a lot depends on your personal grooming.

To keep your clothes and accessories clean for immaculate grooming, let Your Laundry and Dry Cleaners do the job for you. They give your clothes that extra attention that so many firms do not give. They have only the very best in equipment and highly trained personnel that know the fabrics and care to give your clothes. They give you the very best service possible for the least in cost. Not only do they specialize in this field, but they add to the life of each individual garment they renovate.

Your Laundry and Dry Cleaners has been located in Pampa since 1928. That's a long time to be in the business, and it gives them a certain amount of experience that can only be gained by time and practice. You don't want to trust your favorite dress or new coat to an inexperienced cleaner. The best thing to do in that case is to call 675 and let Your Laundry and Dry Cleaners take care of those favorite clothes.

Your Laundry and Dry Cleaners also features a special family service. In that particular service, you may get your weekly washing either washed and ironed, or washed without ironing, or any way you wish. You can also get it back in record time. Save worry with the weekly wash, or if you happen to have let it stack-up on you, get rid of it by letting Your Laundry and Dry Cleaners wash it for you.

As for the cleaning plant operated by Your Laundry and Dry Cleaners, they have the very best in clothes presses and steam ironers. They clean all types of fabrics from woolsens to pure silks. Even your loveliest evening frocks will have the very best in renovating care. Your lovely woolen blankets will look lovelier, and the colors will stay longer if you have them dry cleaned at Your Laundry and Dry Cleaners.

B. & E. PHOTO SHOP FEATURES FINE GRAIN DEVELOPING — The B. & E. Photo Shop features fine grain developing so that your favorite portraits will be given the best workmanship possible when you bring them in to be enlarged. Let the B. & E. Photo give you quality service in photostat copies and developing processes for very little in cost.

Have Your Photostatic Copy Made At B. & E. Photo Shop

The B. & E. Photo Shop, located at 216 1/2 N. Russell, assures you of perfection when it comes to making photostatic copies of your original discharge or legal documents. The government recently issued a statement that when you are discharged from the service, your discharge that you receive is the only original that you may obtain. So take care that your discharge is not lost or destroyed, by having a photostat made, and then filing your original at the court house. Discharge papers are not the only vital documents that need to be made into photostatic copies. Birth certificates, titles, deeds and many other types of documents can be made into photostatic copies to insure safety. As for cost, there is very little when you consider the value of the documents you are insuring by having photostatic copies made. Drop in and let the B. & E. Photo Shop make your photostatic copies today.

up your laundry and dry cleaning if you will only call 675. Remember Your Laundry and Dry Cleaners if you want deluxe service with minimum amount of expense. You will find courteous, personable personnel to help you with your laundry and cleaning worries. Don't let cleaning and laundry be a worry to you, call 675 and let them do the worrying for you.

Stone & Thomasson Offers Top Realty

A capable real estate man must know his work thoroughly to be able to meet and fill the needs of the different types of people. He must know to look for the right priced land to fit their budget. He must know the value of land and the buildings. There are so many things a really capable real estate man must know to sell really adequately.

One of the most efficient men in the real estate business is Wade Thomasson of Stone & Thomasson Realty, located in Hughes Building. Wade has been in the real estate business for a good many years and has many contacts that will help you to find the farm, ranch or home that you are looking for. Wade is a rancher himself and knows what it takes in the way of land to produce a living. And if he knows what you individually want in a home or country place, he will try to find it for you.

If you have a home or farm to sell, list it with Wade Thomasson and he will in turn contact someone who is interested in just that type of home. With Wade Thomasson you get the best in Real Estate Service. And for office personnel you can't beat the courteous friendly way they greet you when you step into Wade's office. Contact them today if you have anything to buy, sell or trade in the way of land.

If you wish to call Wade, his office telephone is 5585. In case you drop by the office, you will be greeted pleasantly by the office secretary. You are invited to stop by any time and talk it over with Wade, because if anyone can help you find a home to please all the family, he can. Real estate, especially farms and ranches, is getting hard to find and Wade has some listings that can't be matched as to locality and price. He has places in the country, if you are tired of living in the "big city."

ALABAMA is...
MIAMI, Okla. — UP—Mrs. Louise had a $700 lesson on how to drive an automobile. She drove out on the street, tried to turn a corner, lost control of the car and plowed into a garage, partially feeling for the brake pedal she continued straight ahead to a late model car, shoving it to the corner of a nearby house.

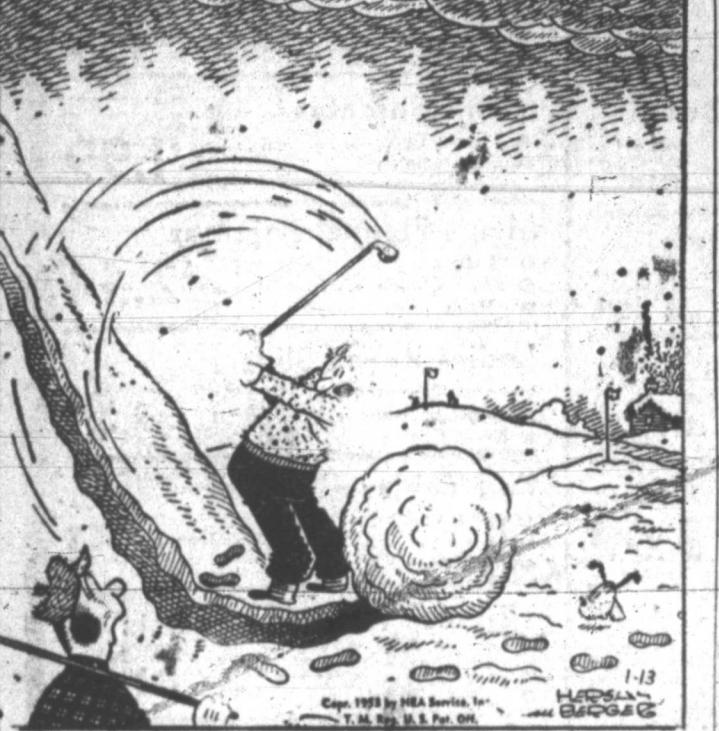

Teacher's Will To Write Helping Her Lick Arthritis

CASH FOR CHECK
MEMPHIS, Tenn. — UP—Gene Holder got a $5 reward for returning a $2,200 check he found in the airport here.

den invalid. Three years later she was taken to the hospital.

Rheumatoid arthritis attacks the connective tissue of the joints. As the process, the muscles waste and the cartilage is slowly destroyed. The bones of the joints often fuse. There are 8,000,000 victims in the U.S. alone, three-fourths of them women.

At the hospital, in a bed provided by the Arthritis and Rheumatism Foundation, Mrs. Karsten began the tedious process of rehabilitation. She underwent scores of heating and diathermy treatments. As the pain and muscle spasms relaxed, she started physical therapy exercises.

Through it all, her driving motive to get well was the desire to finish her book. "There is a great need for such material," she said, "and if I can, I'd like to help fill it."

Her condition gradually improved. This year she was at last able to write with a pencil again. There was never any problem with the words she had put them together in her mind during long months of helplessness.

Her interest in choral speaking dates back to the early '30s when she studied speech in London. By that time, she had reared a daughter, studied law, and spent 20 years helping her husband in a statistical business.

Choral speaking—group speaking to musical accompaniment—was first developed in England. Mrs. Karsten was among the first to introduce it in America. She feels that it helps overcome inhibitions by giving young children too shy to sing or recite alone a chance to express themselves in groups.

The will to write about it has also helped Mrs. Karsten lick arthritis.

"I'm so glad Terry has found a sociable boy his own age to pal around with!"

"As gift counselor, Miss Bloom, your job is to see that each customer gets the right gift! This week it's those horrible luncheon sets we're stuck with!"

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The will to write is strong. Take the case of Mrs. Elinor C. Karsten, six years ago her plans to write a book were crumpled by an attack of rheumatoid arthritis. But today, even though just holding a pencil is painful she is happily back at work again.

In her bed at George Washington Hospital, the middle-aged former schoolteacher is putting the finishing touches on an anthology of verse and poetry. The book is one of the first of its kind—ever written, to be used by school choral speaking groups. She hopes it will soon be published.

Mrs. Karsten's story is cited by arthritis specialists as an example of how a definite goal, added to medical techniques, can help rehabilitate a patient.

She first noticed symptoms of the disease in 1942. By 1946 she had been forced to give up her teaching job and was a bed-

Every Dollar Of Deductions Can Save 22 Cents ... Income Tax Primer: No. 11

By RICHARD A. MULLENS
NEA Income Tax Expert

Every dollar of deductions you can claim will save you at least 22 cents and even more if your income is over $4000. Don't overlook any.

That's why you should read through this and the previous articles carefully. They will remind you of deductions that you might otherwise overlook. And when you finish this article, you will know whether your deductions exceed 10 per cent of your income and should be itemized on page 3 of Form 1040.

Property losses caused either by a casualty or theft can be shown on page 3 even though the property is for your own personal use. Casualty losses include damage from fire, storm, flood, lightning, hurricane and other sudden, unexpected or unusual causes. Thus damages from a bursting boiler or frozen pipes would be a casualty loss.

You can deduct damages to your car caused by a collision unless the collision was due to your willful negligence. Faulty driving is not classed as willful negligence.

The amount of the loss or damage to be deducted should be computed in accordance with the Bureau instructions on page 11. If you have difficulty determining the fair market value of the property both before and just after the loss, as required by the Bureau, remember that a title things a repair bills, insurance adjuster's estimates, and police or fire department records are good evidence of the amount of your loss.

A loss from a casualty or from theft should be deducted in the year the loss occurred. If you are covered by insurance, the loss must be reduced by any recovery.

If your casualty loss in 1952 exceeds your 1952 income, you can deduct the excess from your 1951 income and get a refund. Do this by filing a claim on a form you can get from your Director of Internal Revenue.

Medical and dental deductions are figured exactly the same as last year. That means if either husband or wife had the 65th birthday on or before Jan. 1, 1953, then they can deduct all expenses for their own medical care provided they choose to itemize deductions on page 3 of Form 1040.

If either husband or wife spends money on medical care of a dependent as defined below, only that part of the expense that exceeds five per cent of their adjusted gross income can be deducted.

Medical and dental expenses include any such amount you paid in 1952 for yourself, your wife, all dependents claimed on your return, and also your child to whose support you contributed more than half but who was not a legal dependent because he earned more than $600.

Payments that can be considered deductible medical or dental expenses are listed on page 11 of the official instructions. Note that costs of travel necessary to get medical care are deductible while costs of travel ordered or suggested for a rest or change are not. If your minor child is ill and it is necessary to travel to get medical care, you can deduct the expense of transportation, meals and lodging for your child and yourself, if you go along.

There is a maximum limitation on the medical deduction which varies according to the number of dependents and type of return you file. The limitations are explained on page 11 of the instructions.

The last deduction schedule on page 3 is a catch-all for deductions not taken elsewhere. Typical examples of items that can be deducted in the "Miscellaneous" schedule are:

1. Expenses of earning your salary or wage. Any ordinary and necessary expenses in your line of work are deductible. This includes dues, initiation fees, and assessments to labor unions and professional societies; entertainment of customers to promote specific deals and not just for general good will; uniforms, work clothes, and costumes required in your work and that do not replace your own ordinary clothing; safety equipment, tools and supplies necessary and customary in your work.

It also includes expenses of travel for your employer when you did not stay away overnight. Do not deduct on page 3 any overnight travel expenses or any expenses for which you were reimbursed by your employer.

These should be deducted in item 2, page 1 of the return as explained in the 5th article.

2. Alimony paid regularly, but not necessarily at fixed intervals under court order. You cannot deduct any sums specifically designated for the support of your minor children.

3. Costs of management, maintenance and conservation of property held for investment. This includes cost of a safety deposit box for your securities.

4. Fees or expenses incurred in preparing your income tax return.

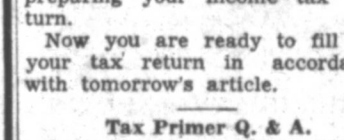

Now you are ready to fill out your tax return in accordance with tomorrow's article.

Tax Primer Q. & A.
Q. I gave three pints of blood worth around $30 to $40 to the Red Cross in 1952. Can I deduct the value of the donated blood?
A. The Bureau has ruled that such donations are not deductible.

Q. Under a divorce decree, I have been ordered to pay my ex-wife $100 a month, $75 of which is for the support of our child living with her. How much can I deduct as alimony?
A. Assuming you pay the $100 per month, you can only deduct $25 of it since the remainder is specifically designated for the support of your child.

Q. While swimming I lost my diamond ring worth $400. Can I deduct this as a casualty loss?
A. No. Losses due to mislaying or losing an article are not deductible.

SORRY TO DO THIS, BUT YOU CAN DEDUCT THE LOSS!

HOME GAME
WEST CHESTER, Pa. — UP—Henry L. Walsh didn't see a deer during a week of hunting in northwestern Pennsylvania. He was about a mile from home on the long return trip to this highly urbanized area near Philadelphia when he spotted a 160-pound, three-point buck. He bagged it.
