

LITTLE HOPE FOR 122 MINERS

Tax-Cutting Bill Would Face Vote

Trial Based On Take-It Or Leave-It

WASHINGTON — AP — The Republican-backed $3,840,000,000 tax-cutting bill won its first test today when the House voted to consider this measure on a take-it-or-leave-it basis.

A voice vote clamped on the no amendment rule. This action came shortly after President Truman in effect voiced opposition to the measure by citing to newsmen his message to Congress in January.

At a treasury news conference, Secretary Snyder also was asked whether he would advise Mr. Truman to veto the bill. Snyder replied: "I am very positively opposed in these prosperous times to having the government do deficit financing."

Snyder added that "deficit financing is always inflationary" and that if government spending exceeds its income it will have the effect of further lifting prices. He said prices are already out of line.

Adopted at his news conference for comment on the Republican drive to reduce taxes, Mr. Truman said his position was stated in his January message.

He then said "I cannot recommend tax reduction" and added the opinion that at present "high taxes contribute to the welfare and security of the country."

The President turned aside a more specific question about the Knutson tax measure being considered by the House.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn.) opened house debate on the $3,840,000,000 tax-cutting bill today with declarations that it would (a) ease the burden of little taxpayers, (b) encourage new risk ventures in business.

Work of Jaycees World Over Is Topic of Speech

Basic principles and the scope of the Junior Chamber of Commerce work the world over were pointed out yesterday in an address before Pampa Jaycees by John Mangrum, Dallas, president of the Texas Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Mangrum's address, which was broadcast over Radio Station KPDD, brought out that the Junior Chamber is now active in over 30 different nations and greater expansion in the future is planned.

Committee Places Speaker in Line For Presidency

WASHINGTON—AP—The Senate Rules Committee today approved legislation placing House Speaker Joseph Martin, Massachusetts Republican, first in line for succession to the presidency.

The vote was 6 to 5, with the committee dividing along party lines. Republicans supported the proposal. Democrats voted no.

President Truman recommended more than a year ago that the speaker of the house be next in line after the vice president.

Chairman Brooks (R-Ill.) of the Rules Committee today reported the committee approved a bill by Senator Wherry (R-Nebr.) which would set up this new succession sequence:

1. Vice President.
2. Speaker of the House.
3. Presiding Officer of the Senate.
4. Secretary of State and on down through the cabinet.

Because the office of vice president is vacant, Martin would be first in line under President Truman. Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich.) of the Senate's presiding officer, would be second and Marshall third.

Brooks said the Wherry bill sets up "almost the identical" succession urged by President Truman, except it does not provide for a special election.

A somewhat similar bill already has passed the House.

Truman Hopes for Aid Plan Approval

WASHINGTON—AP—President Truman expressed hope today that Congress will approve his $400,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program before March 31—the deadline for British withdrawal of aid to Greece.

He made that comment when asked if he favored a stop-gap loan to Greece.

There has been talk in Congress of making an immediate $100,000,000 loan to Greece since administration officials say that country's situation is serious.

The President also told his weekly news conference that Warren Austin, American representative to the United Nations, will cover the speech Friday to the U. N. Council.

A reporter asked whether Austin will present the views of the President.

Mr. Truman replied he didn't like to anticipate the speech but that it would cover the whole situation.

Gas Tax Bill Step Nearer To Enactment

AUSTIN—(AP)—A natural gas tax bill to help pay for higher teachers' salaries and more rural roads was one step nearer enactment today.

The House yesterday passed the measure by Rep. C. S. McLellan of Eagle Lake on second reading after beating down amendments to modify the rate.

McLellan then attempted to set aside the rule requiring that a bill be read on three separate dates in effort to finally dispose of the measure and send it to the Senate.

Suspension of the rule would have required 100 votes. The measure, the session's first tax bill, stands at the top of the House bill calendar for final action.

The bill would levy a tax of one and eight-fifths hundredths cents per 1,000 cubic feet of natural gas gathered, with some exceptions.

5,000 Gallons of Milk Seized off Train by Strikers

NEW ORLEANS—(AP)—The milk supply for New Orleans was lessened today as sympathizers with the dairy farmers strike at Amite stopped a second Illinois Central passenger train and seized nearly 5,000 gallons of milk.

Already an estimated 60,000 or more gallons of milk has been seized by armed men at Amite and surrounding areas, in the attempt of the AFL union farmers to have the New Orleans distributors restore a 75 cents per hundredweight cut in price paid the farmers.

Both motor tank cars and trains have been stopped along the route to New Orleans and milk sloshed into the ditches during the past two days of the strike.

In the stopping of the first train last night at Amite four shots were reported fired into a tank car before the car was sidetracked and its milk cargo emptied. No one was hurt.

The second train was stopped today at Amite by two score men who did not exhibit firearms. They conferred congenially with trainmen while removing 4,800 gallons of milk.

Some was poured at the spot while many 100-gallon cans of milk were taken away.

Only Nine of Men Brought Out Alive

CENTRALIA, Ill.—AP—Amid rapidly dwindling hopes of relatives and official belief that 122 men had perished, rescue crews struggled against lethal fumes today for possible survivors of a mine explosion in the heart of the Southern Illinois coal fields.

Eighteen hours after the blast trapped virtually a complete shift at 3:30 p.m. (CST) yesterday as it was about to leave work, rescuers, wearing gas masks, were held back by poisonous fumes halfway along the three and one-half mile passageway.

Soldiers from Scott Field, Ill., joined state police in controlling the throngs if relatives and sightseers gathered at the tippie as the squads of workmen toiled to seal off entries and improve ventilation.

Of a total of 131 miners trapped by the blast, nine were brought out alive, one was brought out dead, and 14 were counted dead by that official at the bottom of the 540-foot shaft.

That left 107 unaccounted for, and the man who did the checking, Chief Electrician Fred Hellmeyer, said he had no hope of finding them alive.

But not all hope had been abandoned and rescue teams on the job through a freezing night, still were trying to get through poisonous gas and fallen timbers to save any who might have survived the fumes.

Other experienced mine men at the scene shared Hellmeyer's pessimistic view of the situation.

Walter J. Johnson, general superintendent of the Centralia Coal Company, operator of the mine, said that at 7 a.m. about 40 rescue workers were in the mine sealing off all side entries to improve ventilation as soon as possible.

He said the farthest advanced rescue crews were working a mile and a half from the shaft but that progress was slow because it was necessary to check all side entries for possible survivors or bodies before sealing them.

Trapped miners, Johnson said, were working in groups of about 20 in side entries as far back in the mine as three and a half miles.

Discoiled Scanlan, state mine inspector, said no attempt would be made to remove bodies until complete ventilation had been restored.

If none of the missing men is found alive, this will go into the records as the nation's worst coal mine disasters in nearly 19 years—since 195 were killed at Mather, Pa., May 19, 1928. It would be the worst in Illinois since the Cherry mine (See MINERS, Page 8)

Russia Ignores U.N. Trusteeship Council Meeting

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(AP)—Soviet Russia ignored the opening session today of the United Nations Trusteeship Council, whose designated mission is to look after the interests of the world's non-self-governing peoples.

The absence of a Soviet delegate did not prevent the meeting from proceeding with immediate business.

It caused concern, however, among U.N. officials already worried by what appeared to be a growing trend to bypass the organization on important problems.

There was no explanation from the Soviet U.N. delegation headed by Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko. He refused to make any statement on Russian plans.

Some delegates expressed the belief that the naming of a Soviet delegate had merely been delayed and might come through later.

During the General Assembly debate on trusteeship last fall, Russia refused to approve any of the eight draft trusteeship agreements covering former league of nations mandate territories now placed under the trusteeship system.

Secretary-General Trygve Lie opened the trusteeship session with an appeal to members of the U.N. to resort to the world peace organization on all international problems "even when the most vital national interests are at stake."

This was Lie's first public address since President Truman declared the U.N. was unable to deal with totalitarian threats to Greece and Turkey and asked Congress for $400,000,000 aid to those countries.

Without referring directly to the Greek-Turkish situation, Lie asserted (See RUSSIA, Page 8)

Holy Cross Wins NCAA Cage Title

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
NEW YORK—For the first time since the East-West playoffs were inaugurated in 1939, an Eastern team held the basketball championship of the National Collegiate Athletic Association today.

Holy Cross wrapped up the title last night with its 23rd straight victory, a well deserved 58-47 decision over Oklahoma in the East-West finals at Madison Square Garden.

The Crusaders, a slick bunch of ball handlers who are completely at home on a basketball court, mounted the throne occupied the two previous years by Oklahoma A and M.

Before that, it had been the property of Utah, Wyoming, Stanford, Wisconsin, Indiana and Oregon—all victorious over the Eastern representatives in the annual inter-sectional playoffs.

A move to bring Holy Cross and Utah, winners of the National Invitation tournament the previous night, together in a special game here tomorrow had collapsed hours before the NCAA finals when the Utah team took its trophy and departed for home.

Oklahoma's Big Six conference champions battled doggedly in a vain attempt to take the NCAA title back to the Sooner State for the third straight year but inability to make good on their shots from the field in the second half cost them any chance of success.

Big Gerald Tucker dunked 15 points through the hoop, in the first half, but Holy Cross bounced back in the final period, when Oklahoma hit only three of its 24 shots from the floor, to win going away.

Texas' fast-breaking Longhorns, eliminated last Saturday from the finals by a 35-54 defeat from Oklahoma in the final seconds of play in the Western regional championship tilt, captured third place honors by defeating the University of California of New York, 54-50 in a curtain-raiser to the Sooner-Crusader game.

Sports Round-Up

NEW YORK—The Paterson (N. J.) Evening News is starting a campaign to have Commissioner Happy Chandler appoint Babe Ruth as "American Baseball's Ambassador of Good Will." Bill Daley, just signed by the Chicago Rockers City College of New York, has received a $4,000 bonus and $8,500 salary from Brooklyn last season.

BEDTIME STORY
Wally Butts, Georgia's celebrated "cry" coach, and Notre Dame's Frank Leahy, who doesn't do so badly in that department, were having a tearful get-together at Wally's house recently. "We haven't a thing, Frank," Butts moaned. "To take the place of Trippi we have a couple of spindly-legged freshmen. To take the place of Bulldog Williams we have a 170-pound tackle. I've never seen such sorry material." At this point Wally's nine-year-old daughter, Nancy, broke in apologetically. "Don't pay any attention to Daddy. He was saying the same thing at this time last year and his team didn't lose a single game." Nancy was promptly packed off to bed.

Shamrock's Annual Boxing Tourney Opens Thursday Night at 8 o'Clock

SHAMROCK — Over 60 fighters from seven Pamplona cities and towns will have their tomorrow night for the opening of the annual City-School Invitational Boxing Tournament at the High School Gymnasium.

The high school division, primarily for fighters in the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades, will include 10 weight divisions, the same number as in grade schools. Boys in this classification will go through two-minute rounds.

Prizes in the grade school division will include trophies for winners for winners and medals for runners-up. The club will co-sponsor, with the Junior Chamber of Commerce, an all-city tournament here April 17, 18 and 19. The Jaycee's share of the proceeds will go to the Junior Chamber Community Center Fund.

If there are two or three people who can take three or four boys each to Shamrock (to arrive there before 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon) we would appreciate them calling this writer.

Tournament officials will pay mileage expenses and whoever takes a car down is sure to see some good fights.

Patt Powell of the Amarillo Globe plays up the fact that this writer commented that it doesn't make much difference to who coaches the Harvesters this fall because we won't be here anyway.

Perhaps our statement was a little misleading. We only meant that as far as actual sports writing goes it wouldn't mean much to us. Personally, however, we intend to continue to follow the Harvesters in football, basketball and track and will be boosting them every inch of the way, even against Lohrbeck, where our loyalty—technically—should belong.

Put, like yours truly, is a great admirer of the abilities of Ods Coffey and Robert Smith, both of whom are fairly fair in his judgment of them, even though ANY coach hates to lose to ANY team and quite naturally feels very bad about it.

Put is a great admirer of Ods Coffey's coaching career in Pampa (besides when his 1943 Harvesters beat Amarillo, 7-0) was last fall, when the Harvesters defeated Amarillo game to him. That they lost it was not as important as the fact that they tried their best against a really great team.

Cy Young to Be Honored On Saturday

By FRITZ HOWELL
NEWBERRYSTOWN, O.—(AP)—Fifty-seven years ago a raw-boned, husky farm lad with an arm like a whiplash trudged out of these Tuscarawas county hills and on to baseball immortality.

He was Denton True (Cy) Young, who will be 80 years old Saturday, and who that day will be the guest of honor at the most unusual banquet-celebration ever offered for a Buckeye sports celebrity.

They have his name wrong on the Hall of Fame scroll, where he is listed as Denton True Young, and then added three more no-biters in his 22-year Major League career.

The records show that old Cy won 511 games and lost 215 in 11 years in the American League and 11 in the National—and that he never received more than $2500 for a year's work. He won more than 30 victories five different seasons, and struck out 2,832 batters, records which have never been approached.

He pitched in the first world series, winning two and losing one, and the night of 45 perfect games, and then added three more no-biters in his 22-year Major League career.

American Horse Enters National
ANTREE, England—(AP)—Frank (Dooley) Adams, 18-year-old American jockey who will pilot the U. S. challenger Refugio in the Grand National Saturday, is "full of confidence" in his jumper to become the second American bred, owned and ridden horse to win the century old steeple chase.

But, he hastens to add, that's not a tip.

"We don't know how fit he is," Adams explained today. He needed at least three more races but the weather fouled our plans. He's never gone that distance.

"Still I have confidence 'willy' (the Adams family name for Refugio) will make all the jumps if he isn't knocked down."

For the National, run over 4 miles, 856 yards and 30 fount jumps, soaring ability is as important as speed. Take 1928, for example. Tipperary Tim, 100-1 longshot, came from way back to win when the other 41 starters fell. It was the only steeplechase Tim ever won.

Billy Barton, American entry that year, was remounted and trailed in to claim second money.

WE, THE WOMEN

War Years Taught Us Gratefulness

By RUTH MILLETT
SEA Staff Writer

She hadn't had a maid since before the war, and her good luck in finding one recently left her feeling a little embarrassed.

"I'm almost ashamed to admit, even to my best friends, that I really have a maid," she said with a giggle.

"We've all been tied down for so long, I feel almost guilty at having some free time again."

Ruth Millett

"That is the way we have come to feel about a lot of things.

The man with a new car isn't bragging about it. He's playing it down. After all, for every man with a new car there are hundreds who are still trying desperately to get one and some less fortunate are bound to be envious of his good fortune.

The woman who at last has that wonderful, shiny new household appliance she went through the war without bragging either. She is making sure her friends know just how long her name was on a waiting list—and just how long she went without.

If we have a decent place to live we know we are lucky, and we frequently say so.

All of which indicates that we learned something from our long doing-without period. We learned not to take the things that make living pleasant as a matter of course and as our right.

NO BOASTING TODAY

And we also learned how it feels to be the fellow who has to do without. That's why when we do get something now, we feel almost embarrassed by our sudden good fortune.

We can put ourselves in the other fellow's place enough to remember that he may be still doing without, and that we shouldn't rub our good fortune in.

That isn't a bad lesson to have learned—not bad at all. To be grateful for what we have. To be aware that everyone else hasn't as much.

Mrs. Bourland Reviews 'Out on a Limb' for Club

Mrs. Roy Bourland, program chairman, reviewed the book, "Out on a Limb" by Louise Baker, for members of the Twentieth Century Forum Club when they held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. George Friess as hostess.

Slip Covers

By MRS. ANNE CABOT
This is a good month in which to settle down and re-cover the old chair or davenport which so badly needs a new dress! And you'll find a much better selection of materials in the shops right now—materials are really beginning to trickle into the shops. Buy five yards of 33 or 36-inch materials to re-do a chair—fifteen yards to cover a davenport or Chesterfield. Measuring, fitting, sewing and finishing tricks for various sorts of chairs and sofas are given in the instruction sheet.

To obtain complete instructions on "How to Make Slipcovers" (Pattern No. 5727) send 15 cents in COIN plus cent postage, YOUR NAME, ADDRESS and the PATTERN NUMBER to Anne Cabot (Pampa News) 1150 Ave. Americas, New York 18, N. Y.

BOYLIN MAD KOSTER
"They were cute kid stuff," he said, "and I didn't have the censor in my hair."

Now he has censor in his hair, and he's boiling mad. He's working with Myles Connolly on the film version of William Saroyan's Pulitzer prize-winning play, "The Time of Your Life."

"Forever Amber," started last October, is finally in the cutting rooms at the cost of five million dollars.

The censor's willing, it will be released next October. Bing Crosby wants to do "Harvey." Paramount may buy it or him.

Warner Brothers passed up the film rights because there were too many strings attached on release conditions.

"I brought home some cold cuts and things because I thought you'd be tired," he said, "and all you've been doing is hanging around the house!"

Sherry sprang to Sandro's defense. She said, "Oh, Tony! Sandro's worked like a dog till this very minute! Can't you see how clean and polished everything is? He's even washed and ironed and he is tired."

Tony put down his packages and kissed her. Sandro said, "Sherry has not coughed all day," very proudly, as though he had something to do with it.

Tony's eyes widened. He said, "Really? Why that's—that's wonderful!" and kissed her again.

KRIS came in and said, "Believe it or not, I made $15!" He kissed Sherry. "I can get the check Friday."

They were all pleased. Sherry said, "I'm glad you're early, darling, you must be tired."

Kris said, "Not very, but my gosh it's been hot!" The telephone rang and Sandro answered it. Then he called Tony.

He said, "I'm glad you're early, darling, you must be tired." Sherry told him she had felt well all day, and Tony came back from the telephone.

Kris said, "Grand!" and then he kissed her again. "How do you feel?" he wanted to know. "I mean inside."

Sherry told him she had felt well all day, and Tony came back from the telephone. He said, "Peter's going to drop by for a few minutes tonight."

Sherry said, "Don't you think it's funny that Dr. Drexel hasn't sent a bill yet?" Tony and Kris exchanged a quick look.

Kris said, "We were just talking about that the other night. I guess he's going to wait till you're all well."

Sherry thought it more likely that Peter Barton was paying him and she knew the boys thought so, too. She hated that so she said, "I guess so," and Kris and Tony looked relieved.

WALL STREET STOCKS
NEW YORK, March 25—(AP)—Stocks generally continued to bog down in today's market although pressure, on the whole, remained relatively light. The ticker tape frequently halted after late opening but recoveries were few. There was a moderate flurry of offerings in the final half hour and many leaders closed at their bottom with declines of fractions to around 2 points predominant. Turnover for the full proceedings approximated 700,000 shares, another one of the small aggregates for the past year.

Wemple Reports On Road Program

FORT WORTH—(AP)—At the completion of the present three-year building program, Texas will have 35,000 miles of paved roads linked together, State Highway Commissioner Fred Wemple, Jr., Midland, and State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer, Austin, said yesterday.

Wemple said that 26 years ago the state had only 6,000 miles of paved highways, compared with the present total of 24,000 miles. He added that 10,000 miles of highways were paved in the last decade.

The highway commissioner said that 2,000 miles of surfacing in the projected program of 6,500 miles of farm-to-market program had been completed.

Greer asserted that the primary federal arterial system was allotted

Pampa News, Wednesday, March 26, 1947

43 percent of the total expenditure, with the farm-to-market program allotted 40 percent. The remainder goes to ironing out traffic problems in metropolitan areas.

EYES OF THE LAW

NEWCASTLE, Del.—(AP)—Patrolman Francis J. Hewlett, Newcastle's one-man night police force, can lay claim to having "the eyes of the law."

Seated at his desk, he telephoned Delaware State Police Headquarters five miles away.

"Listen," he said, "two guys just broke into a grocery store right across the street. They can see me, so if I move a move they'll scream." For 75 minutes Hewlett, "eyes of the law," then two state troopers rushed into the grocery. The burglars ran out the back way—right into the arms of two policemen covering that end of the building.

"UNBLOCK" your DIGESTIVE TRACT
And Stop Doing Your Stomach With Soda and Alkalizers

Don't expect to get real relief from headache, sour stomach, gas and bad breath by taking soda and other alkalizers if the true cause of your trouble is constipation.

In this case, your real trouble is not in the stomach at all. But in the intestinal tract where 80% of your food is digested. And when the lower part gets blocked food may fail to digest properly.

What you want for real relief is something to "unblock" your lower intestinal tract. Something to clean it out effectively—help Nature get back on her feet.

Get Carter's Pills right now. Take as directed. They gently and effectively "unblock" your digestive tract. This permits all 8 of Nature's own digestive juices to mix better with your food. You get genuine relief from indigestion as you can feel really good again. Buy Carter's Pills today. "Unblock" your intestinal tract for real relief from indigestion.

EDITOR'S "INSTRUCTIONS"

Youths, who along with some of their elders in this age, find speed a novelty, made "thrill hill," a section of North Frost St., for about all it was worth a couple of nights ago. And, as is always the case when the laws of physics have been violated, they came off at the least with minor scratches, damaged car, and injured juvenile pride. To use better and plainer language, one of the cars turned over.

We carried a story, but, in conformance with our practice which may sooner or later have to be broken, we withheld the names of the minors. But—

Police and others had no more than found out that no one was seriously hurt when a mother called the editor's home to leave instructions that her son's name was not to be in the paper the next day. She did a bit of choice haranguing with the editor's wife in his absence. The wife begged off, because she knew nothing about the "office."

And so it goes from time to time. Some parents seek to justify the acts of their children—not that that makes the children any better.

The News, as it has stated in this column before, does not print and withhold names at option. We follow a rule, and what is fair for one person is fair for another, regardless of who it is that the complainant knows or has influence with.

But the rule might be changed one of these days if persons get the idea they can "instruct" the newspaper editor to withhold names.

We don't kowtow easily, and when the reader is entitled to the news by our standards, he will get it if we can get the facts.

MACKENZIE'S Column. By DE WITT MACKENZIE AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

When President Truman made his historic appeal to the country to provide Greece and Turkey with aid to resist Communist aggression he explained that "the United Nations and its related organizations are not in a position to extend help of the kind that is required."

The Chief Executive didn't state specifically why the U. N. couldn't function, and small wonder that he didn't, for the answer is an embarrassing paradox. Our new Peace League can't act because the world is so terribly divided against itself ideologically that there is no peace.

The U. N. Security Council is charged with the responsibility of preserving peace and security in such cases as those of Greece and Turkey. Of the eleven members of the Council, six are elected by the short term but the Big Five—America, Britain, Russia, France and China—are permanent, and each of them possesses a veto power which can nullify any action by the majority.

What earthly chance would there be of agreement over such a controversial issue as the Greco-Turkish affair, with Russia on one side and the rest of the Big Five on the other? We've already had the answer demonstrated innumerable times, for the Soviet delegation has been playing hand-bell with the veto. This powerful weapon has been used so persistently by the Russians that much of the effort of the Council has been nullified, as witness yesterday's white-wash of Albania after the Council had held its indefinitely responsible for blowing up two British warships with sea-mines in the Corfu Channel.

Does all this mean that the magnificent new home which is to be built for the U. N. in New York will become—as did the marble palace of the League of Nations—a mausoleum of dead hopes? Time alone will answer that.

The old League failed in large degree because of power politics—a maneuvering of great nations for strategic positions. Today we find even a greater alignment going on. However, while this is discouraging to peace, yet we mustn't overlook the fact that the new world organization is being built on a more solid basis than the old League. Today we find even a greater alignment going on. However, while this is discouraging to peace, yet we mustn't overlook

What Liberty Must Be Given In Society

One of the statements heard frequently is that complete liberty is impossible when there are two or more people living together. That liberty is all right for a lone inhabitant on an island, but when there is more than one person, complete liberty is not possible.

In the first place, no man could live alone. He would perish. The point, however, is that there is just as much real liberty, natural rights, in a complex society under natural law as there would be on an island with one person. The fact of the matter is that there is infinitely more need of freedom the more complicated society becomes.

The error is that people are confusing liberty with license. But liberty is not vice. Freedom is the right to be left alone or to control oneself and no one else. It does not mean the man has a right to steal or lie or to kill or to defraud. Of course liberty does not mean that a person can violate a natural law. Two bodies cannot occupy the same space on an island with one man at the top of a tree, he could not violate the law of gravity, he could not even persecute an animal without hurting himself. Of course on an island he could not steal because there would be no one to steal from.

But in a society, a man is not giving up his liberty, his freedom when someone restricts his efforts to steal or lie or to kill. If a man steals an automobile and the police take it from him, he has not been harmed, he has not lost any of his inalienable rights—his liberty.

I cannot think of any real liberty that a man loses in a society where all men are equal before the law as they are before God. Liberty or freedom does not violate the eternal law or principle or Commandment or rule that no man made and no man can unmake.

Man did not give another man liberty or freedom. It came with him when he was born or created. It is definite, it is mathematical, it is positive, it is not a bungling compromise granted by government or other men.

There are few things that cause more confusion and more trouble than the belief that as the number of people grow and as we live under a government in a society, we have to give up some of our inalienable rights, some of our liberties, some of our freedoms. Let someone who claims we do name it and we will analyze it and see if it is really liberty or license and vice that is being given up.

Middle East). How are you going to 'protect' it? By sending a few diplomats over there and slapping somebody's wrist?"

"Of course not, but I think our State Department should exhaust its efforts before anything else is done."

DEFENSE—Senator Brewster: "We all agree with that, but we must be very realistic. I mean we know that, while the State Department is our first line of defense, it cannot be our sole defense. We have got a little more realistic internationality, and if we are going to send diplomats into the Middle East to protect our national interests, we have to be prepared to back that up, have we not?"

General Peckham: "I agree... If we should not use our oil reserves in the Middle East, presumably they would then belong to somebody else. If we had to depend on synthetics in this country while our enemies had access to the vast volume of oil that obviously are available in the Middle East, it would be to our great disadvantage."

BUM DEAL—ALBANY, N. Y. — (AP) — Even tramps are costing the state more money these days. Governor Dewey today approved a bill increasing the state's allowance for maintenance of tramps in jails from 90 cents to $1 a day.

Sterilization of Insane Is Sought

AUSTIN—(AP)—Rep. Phillip L. Willis of Kaufman, plans to introduce in the House a bill which would provide for the "sterilization of the feeble minded, extremely insane, idiots and imbeciles."

"I definitely have the support of the State Department of Public Health and of several medical societies. I have contacted," Willis said yesterday.

Willis declared that the State institutions are now crowded with thousands of people and in many instances, three to five children from the same family. He claimed that most of the cases were a result of heredity.

Rep. Willis said that if the people could see the deformed bodies with no trace of a mind waiting to die, he believed that there could be no reason for opposition to the bill.

He said he would work with the Attorney General and the Department of Public Health for the final preparation of the bill.

Gas Tax

Opponents of the bill argued that it was unconstitutional and discriminatory, and that it would place an undue burden on the gas industry or consumers to whom it might be passed.

Proponents contended the one and eighty-five one-hundredths cents rate had been decided upon in committee as the figure which would be the fairest and still produce enough revenue to accomplish its purpose.

Three of the attempted amendments would have reduced the amount of the levy.

Rep. Harley Sadler of Sweetwater, who fought the bill throughout the afternoon-long debate, said representatives of the gas industry told him they were not going to fight the tax measure because "it would be easier to kill it in the courts."

Rep. Claude Gilmer of Rocksprings said that it is confiscatory. He added that the bill was discriminatory because it exempts gas used in manufacture of carbon black.

Aid Plan

"For years we Republicans have been warning that the short-haired women and long-haired men of alien minds in the administrative branch of the government were trying to wreck the American way of life and install a hybrid oligarchy in Washington through confiscatory taxation," Knutson said.

"This bill is fair, but it is only a start in the right direction. As we clear away the dead wood in the executive branch and restore efficiency in government there will be further tax relief."

"It is a fair bill because it puts the axe to punitive taxes designed by alien minds and whizzed through subservient congresses—a tax program that fitted nearly into the New Dealers' master plan to put ceilings over all Americans and make of this a nation of automatons."

The House showdown vote on the tax bill is set for tomorrow.

But even before the House voted, Senator Taft (R-Ohio) indicated the measure will be revised when it reaches the Senate.

One change there might make the effective date July 1, rather than last January 1 as provided in the House bill. This would reduce the tax cut this calendar year to approximately $150,000,000.

Taft told reporters the House bill, in its present form, would cost the treasury $5,700,000,000 in the fiscal year beginning July 1 because $1,900,000,000 in overpayments for the January-to-July period would have to be added to the $3,840,000,000 full-year reduction.

The Ohio Senator noted this would virtually wipe out the $6,000,000,000 saving the House has pledged in President Truman's budget, and would exceed the $4,500,000,000 cut voted by the Senate. Efforts to compromise those two figures have been unsuccessful thus far.

Republicans claimed that business prosperity demands lower income taxes, while Democrats countered with cries against a "windfall to wealthy taxpayers."

Outnumbering the Democrats by 245 to 188, Republicans confidentially predicted House passage by a rightfall tomorrow.

The bill then will go to the Senate.

In its present form it would slash by 30 percent the taxes of 20,000,000 persons in the smallest income bracket and give a 20 percent cut to most of the others among the 46,000,000 individual taxpayers.

The measure was presented to the House under a rule requiring that body to vote for the full $3,840,000,000 cut or no cut at all.

Democratic Leader Rayburn, of Texas, announced that Rep. Doughton (D-N.C.) will offer a motion to set the bill aside until Congress has a better idea of what Federal expenses and revenues will be, especially in view of new world developments.

Cases Continued in Corporation Court

Judge Clifford Braly this morning in Corporation Court continued the cases of two men charged with intoxication and continued the case of a high school boy on three traffic violations consisting of driving without a light, driving without a license tag and driving without an operator's license. He was ordered to reappear with his father on Saturday morning. One girl charged with running a stop sign was dismissed.

Tax Cutting

While the statement made no reference to Greece or Turkey, it was plain that Mr. Truman was lashing back at those critics who contend that his aid proposal is under-cutting the peace keeping organization.

Despite widespread bipartisan support in Congress for the aid program, there was a growing insistence among Democrats as well as Republicans for a clearer understanding that (1) no combat troops are to be sent to the Mediterranean trouble centers and (2) that military assistance be confined to an advisory role alone.

"This opening meeting of the Trusteeship Council," he said "should be a useful object lesson to those who would underestimate the potentiality of the United Nations, or the ability of its members to reach agreement on difficult issues."

At another point he declared: "A really successful trusteeship system will demonstrate to the world at large that the United Nations is capable of discharging an intricate and difficult responsibility. It will provide further proof of the fact that this organization is ready to reach agreement on difficult objectives in positive action."

Miners

The explosion occurred with a rumbling "whoosh" at about 3:30 p.m. (CST)—just before the day shift of 131 was about to give way for a night crew. The night men were standing around waiting for their time, and for that reason there was no shortage of rescue workers.

Clouds of thick, milky gray smoke curled out of the shaft, and before it faded in the cold wind ambulances, inhalators, doctors and nurses were on the way from a radius of 50 miles and more.

Anxious, grieving families, still holding to a thread of hope as the chill night hours passed with only nine of their men brought out alive, pressed against ropes at the pit head and watched the mercy crews come and go.

The mine is the Central Coal Company's No. 5, an old one, which has been producing 2,100 tons a day. Unlike many others in this area, it is not isolated; it is in the thick of the populous city of Wamac, a southern suburb of Centralia, railroad side Illinois Central Railroad Yards and Car Shop.

Women, crying softly, huddled in blankets and sagged into chairs and appeared to be numbed by the shock. Several collapsed. Relatives stood about them and protected them from the pushing crowd.

Catholic Sisters moved among the assembly, giving comfort wherever they could. Salvation Army and Red Cross workers were there, too, with coffee, doughnuts and sandwiches.

Milk Strike

New Orleans distributors said the blockade had cut off about half the normal milk supply of the South's largest city. The Florida Parishes—the section of Louisiana which lies East of the Mississippi river—have been producing about 58 percent of the state's milk supply. Baton Rouge and other cities also were being affected.

The strike began Monday night after distributors served notice that they planned to cut the price paid for milk with four percent butterfat from $5.75 per hundredweight to $5.

Lee Carter of Shreveport, representative for the Teamsters International Union (AFL) said the strike was costing farmers $20,000 a day, but that the cost to distributors was "at least $5,000 to $10,000 a day more than that."

Members of the Teamsters organization joined the dairy farmers union in the strike.

Texas Aggies

(Continued From Page 1) dent, said that its purpose is to present to veteran students "accumulated truths relating to administrative and educational policies of Texas A. and M. College."

He said "hazing and other exclusive Cadet Corps problems are not to be discussed at the meeting."

In another article yesterday The Battalion said that the college administration has sent letters to parents of some students pointing out the possible consequences of further "disturbances in the Corps."
