

MARSHALL DRAFTING REPORTS ON MOSCOW

Congress and Nation Wait For Speeches

WASHINGTON—AP—Secretary of State Marshall flew home from Moscow Saturday and took off almost immediately for a quiet Carolina resort to draft important reports to Congress and the nation on the Foreign Ministers' conference. These reports are expected to bear heavily on relations with Russia, and with the attitudes made clear at the Moscow meeting, which ended largely in disagreement.

President Truman interrupted a river cruise to meet Marshall. "I am most happy to receive you back home with us," Mr. Truman told his top cabinet officer at the airport. "I am very well pleased with what you have been doing. I know when you make the report to the country, the people will also be pleased."

That report will be broadcast from 7:30 to 8 (CST) Monday night, 24 hours after a private report to the President and Congressmen at the White House Sunday night.

After a round of handshaking with Marshall and members of the delegation who returned with him, Mr. Truman resumed a Potomac River cruise aboard his yacht, The Williamsburg.

Marshall conferred at the State Department for 30 minutes with Undersecretary Dean Acheson and then flew to Pinehurst, N. C., for a reunion with Mrs. Marshall.

Thus Marshall's account of his interview with Premier Stalin and his estimate of the results of the seven-week conference of Foreign Ministers will be given to Congressmen at the same time the President himself hears it.

By this unusual procedure Mr. Truman apparently seeks to bolster the bipartisan foreign policy. He has called in Republicans with Democrats to discuss the results, but not before going over the

GOP Leaders Plan More Union Curbs

WASHINGTON—AP—Senate Republican leaders laid plans yesterday to put more union curbs into the labor bill and hammer it through to Senate passage during this week.

But they faced trouble in both objectives:

Pampa People Raising Funds to Rebuild Churches

Churches of all denominations are entering into a state-wide campaign to raise funds to rebuild the churches and parsonages destroyed in the Panhandle tornado and the Texas City black bomb contributions now exceed $214,964.

Local contributions are now over $12,253 with more to be raised in offerings today. Money is pouring in and a more accurate account will be had by the end of the week.

Not all the money is restricted to churches and parsonages, however, and some is being distributed to the needy in these areas.

Largest known state-wide contribution of last week came from the Presbyterian Churches and totaled $249,991. Of this, more than $2,200 was raised through the local church, Dr. Douglas Nelson reported.

Rev. J. P. Crenshaw, pastor of the Francis Avenue Church of Christ, reported that mail contributions in the latter days of last week averaged over $2,000 daily. More contributions are expected this week to swell the already known fund of over $17,000 from churches of that denomination throughout the state.

The First Methodist Church mailed a check for $1,014 last week to Rev. J. B. McReynolds, superintendent of the Perryton Disaster, and more has been received.

Rev. E. Douglas Garner, First Baptist Church, reported $7,000 has been donated by eleven churches in this district, which includes 80 churches, for the proposed rebuilding of the Higgins church and parsonage alone. The remainder of the churches are expected to quadruple this amount, he believed.

Not all churches could be contacted Saturday. More detailed reports will be carried as the contributions come in.

Petit Jurors Called For County Court

Petit Jurors, summoned to appear in County Court on April 29, have been notified not to appear on that date, but to report on May 13, Judge Sherman White said Saturday morning.

The postponement of County Court, both civil and criminal, came after Judge White was notified to appear in Austin to testify in behalf of Gray County land owners in connection with a bill passed by the state regarding the sale of sweet gas to the carbon black industries.

The judge expects to leave for Austin on Monday.

Buckskin Mare Must Pay Own Way

A buck-skin mare, about six or seven years old, which was left unclaimed at the fair grounds 30 to 25 days ago, will be sold for its feed bill, announced Wade Thomason, president of the Top of Texas Rodeo Association.

The mare has been grazing at public expense at the fair grounds.

Officers Seeking 'Buzzards' in Disaster Area

'Investigators' Offering to Locate Bodies

TEXAS CITY—AP—Angry Highway Patrolmen yesterday sought persons they described as "buzzards" who have been stealing money and jewelry from property envelopes of persons killed in the April 16 disaster here.

State Highway Patrolman Foster Nelson also said that "so-called private investigators" are offering to locate missing bodies for relatives for $200 each.

"It's a vicious racket," Nelson said. "And we're trying to stop it."

Nelson and Patrolman O. C. Wheeler have been placed in charge of a property room at Camp Wallace, where all articles and cash taken from dead bodies have been placed in envelopes for safekeeping.

The contents of the envelopes are listed on the cover, and the envelopes are placed on tables.

Nelson said yesterday the Highway Patrol has been in charge of the room only for the past two days, and that prior to that time, someone had gone through the envelopes and taken money and jewelry.

"The envelopes no longer contain what they are supposed to," Nelson said. "The contents do not tally with the list on the cover."

He mentioned specifically the loss of one diamond engagement ring from one envelope, and ten $10 bills from another.

He said an investigation is underway. Referring to private investigators, he said they have offered to locate missing bodies for $200. Some he said were legitimate investigators, retained by relatives. Others, he said, were just "racketeers."

He said the Highway Patrol was investigating and would try to stop the practice.

Rescue workers continued to dig harborfront slips and the bay. Nine more bodies were found Friday, and six Saturday.

Mayor T. C. Trahan told the Coast Guard Investigation Board at Galveston Friday that 433 people had been killed, and 128 were still listed as missing.

He said the Red Cross said their list of verified dead totaled 431, with 337 identified and 94 unidentified. The state Department of Public Safety said the final death toll would be 475 persons.

Classes will be resumed in some schools Monday, officials said.

Road blocks continue to keep the general public away from the bay.

Mayor Trahan announced he was

Plans for Expending Funds Are Outlined

Clean-Up Day Mon., Tuesday at Glazier

H. S. Wilbur, president of the Canadian National Bank and chairman of the Hemphill-Lipscomb Disaster Relief Committee, accepted the check in behalf of the committee and the people of the area.

The check was the result of a concerted effort on the part of various groups and institutions here and of surrounding communities to aid the people of the storm area.

Members of the committee are H. S. Wilbur, chairman; H. M. Woods, Judge Hemphill County; Adolph Bussant, Judge Lipscomb County; E. J. Tarbox, sheriff of Lipscomb County; C. H. Hude, president of the First National Bank of Higgins; Tom Sausner, attorney of Higgins; and Warren Jenkins, mayor of Higgins.

The committee stated that money turned over to them from the various relief funds will be used to replace public utilities and buildings, and to help individuals, beyond the scope of the Red Cross.

The government has loaned to the people of Higgins, 127,200.30 feet of lumber to be used as temporary homes in Higgins and for workers, who are helping in the re-building of the town. Buildings are on their way from the CCC Camp at Dumas.

A building to be used as a school and community center for Glazier has been purchased from the town of Dalhart. This building was bought on a cost basis less 95 percent.

The War Assets Administration has authorized the committee to purchase any surplus supplies available in its area. Through this means, six buildings have been purchased, two of which are to be used as a hospital. The two buildings the hospital and nurses quarters, were purchased from the Pampa Army Air Field. The buildings are equipped with units for steam heating and air conditioning; they are insulated and have asbestos shingles. These six buildings, however, also bought at cost, less 95 percent.

Also, through the WAA arrangements have been made to purchase a steel tower for the new Higgins water system.

Government property loaned to the committee include ambulances, a fire truck, cranes, winch trucks, and school buses.

The U. N. announced no action could be taken on the application for Hungary's membership until ratified by the signatory governments. At that time the request will go to the Security Council for vote and thence to the assembly for a final ballot.

Infantile Paralysis Fatal to Local Girl

Dolphin Jean McCallern, eight years old, died this morning in the New County General Hospital, Los Angeles, as a result of infantile paralysis. The child was stricken by the disease four years ago, and was in Los Angeles for treatment.

She is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. McCallern, of 601 East Browning, Pampa, and two sisters, Laferri and Belva June. The body is being shipped here from Los Angeles.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

Scouts to Attend '47 Jamboree of Peace in France

Union Expresses Hope for Decision In Phone Strike

Plans are being made for three Scouts of the Adobe Walls Area Council to attend the 1947 Jamboree of Peace to be held at Moisson, France, August 9-22. Fifty thousand Scouts will attend the Jamboree representing some forty countries. Scouts planning to make the trip from this council are Carlton Sawyer and Boardman Barry, of Troop 47, Beaver, Okla., and Stanley Jones, Jr., of Troop 71, Canadian.

A release from W. Arthur McKinney, chairman of the U. S. delegation to the Jamboree, states that Congress has given approval to the use of an Army Transport to carry boys to France, out as yet full details of the cost have not been released by the War Department.

However, the cost will be reduced to approximately $600, from the original price of $1,000.

The Red Cross said they will be leaving France for the return voyage on August 22.

The boat will dock in England, at Antwerp, and at LeHarve, allowing at least 10 full days of trips to England, the Low Countries, and France. The boys will stay aboard the boat at night and carry lunches with them on these trips.

The four-year trip will be spent in Paris after the Jamboree.

Hugo Olsen, Adobe Walls Council Scout executive, has received word from the committee in charge of the U. S. delegation, that there is room for another 100 boys to make the trip, and he wishes that any Boy Scout desiring to attend the Jamboree in Moisson contact him without delay.

The sixth World Jamboree will be the only opportunity for today's Scouts to attend the hand of fellowship personally to Scouts of nearly fifty nations. The boy who is eligible for the Sixth World Jamboree will never have the opportunity to attend another Jamboree as a Scout. Jamborees are scheduled at four-year intervals; any Scout who qualifies for one will be too old for the next.

Phone Lineman Killed Instantly

PERRYTON, (Special)—Ray L. Easter, 33, lineman for the local telephone company, was killed yesterday afternoon, when he accidentally came in contact with a 33,000 volt high tension line, as he was making repairs on a telephone line.

Easter was standing on the cross arm of the telephone line, when his head came in contact with the high tension line, which was immediately above him. He fell to the ground, landing in a filled drainage ditch.

Neighbors Jack Holden and Roy Bohu, nearby garage mechanics, pulled him out.

The accident was witnessed by Virgil Hummer, age 15, who was standing across the street from the place where Easter was working.

Death was instantaneous, according to statements of the examining physician.

Easter is survived by his widow, Hez, and two children, Camhmetta and Ben.

Funeral arrangements are pending.

One-Fifth of NAM Members Cutting Prices

Trouble Shooter—A trouble shooter repairs a Los Angeles cable, one of seven incidents of sabotage to southern California communications. The violence was the first in the area throughout the telephone strike.

NEW YORK—AP—The National Association of Manufacturers said Saturday one out of every five members replying to a questionnaire reported price cuts had been made since the first of the year on at least one product while the remaining four answering had made none.

The NAM said the questionnaire was sent on April 10 to its 16,693 members, and that the survey is based on replies from the first 5,742.

It showed: 1,194 members reporting price cuts, or 20.3 percent of those replying.

4,450 reporting no price cuts, or 77.2 percent of those replying.

98 or 2 percent of those replying, left that part of the questionnaire blank. The members were not queried on whether they had made any price increases.

Manufacturers said the main reasons they could not make price cuts now were: First, the uncertainty of costs and supply of materials; second, uncertainty as to future wage scales; and third, low labor efficiency.

Carl Bunting, NAM president, said the survey was being because the public was being thrown off by the track too much by rumors and was indulging in a "little postwar hysteria over the high cost of living."

"Manufacturers are being held up as the guilty culprits in high prices," Bunting said, "but there are factors involved they can't control."

He said it was wrong to compare present prices in a free market with "theoretical prices in a government controlled period, when ceilings were placed on something that as often as not was not even available."

Replying to the questionnaire, a large number of manufacturers contended they had "vigorously resisted unwarranted price increases," a fact which they believe should rank along with price reductions in the credit column.

The NAM published the first results of its questionnaire at the close of a week of wide public discussion of prices, highlighted by inauguration Tuesday at Newburyport, Mass., of a community plan for a 10 percent across-the-board price reduction.

Local Girl Named to State FHA Office

Miss Nanette Campbell, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Campbell, 1550 Christine, was elected yesterday as one of three reporters of the Texas Association of Future Homemakers of America at their State Executive meeting in Austin.

This is the first time that Pampa High School has placed a student in an official state-wide capacity.

Miss Campbell was chosen Favorite Girl of the Sophomore class at Pampa High recently. Last summer she attended the FHA summer camp at Arrowhead with Mrs. Leslie H. Hart, home economics teacher at the High School. Miss Campbell is also active on the school paper, The Little Harvester.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart accompanied Miss Campbell to the council meeting at Austin.

Ernest G. Gordon, 73, Dies at Home Here

Ernest G. Gordon, 73, died suddenly yesterday morning at his residence, 320 N. Ballard St., as result of a heart attack.

He was a resident of Miami from 1900 until January, 1946, at which time Gordon moved to Pampa. He is a retired farmer and rancher.

Gordon is survived by his wife, Della Gordon; a daughter, Mrs. A. C. Wilkinson, of Pampa; two grand children, Ernest and Donna Sue Wilkins, and one sister, Mrs. F. P. Heare, of Mobeetie.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon at the First Methodist Church, with the Reverend E. B. Bowen, former pastor of the church, and Clyde Smith, present pastor of the church, officiating.

Active pallbearers are Walter Eckman, Miles O'Laughlin, Charlie Russell, George Wells, W. D. Allen, and Spurge Moore.

Honorary pallbearers will be W. R. Campbell, Horace McBeck, Joe Tolbert, W. I. Wilks, Sam Thomas, George Inman, J. M. Tate, Ward P. Wilkinson, Albert H. Cook and C. V. Wilkinson.

Big Four Have Yet to Solve The Riddle of the Sphinx

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

That was a grand banquet which Prime Minister Stalin gave in the Kremlin to mark the conclusion of the deadlocked four-power conference, and his toast to the health of President Truman was an impressive gesture.

One would like to be able to add that this marked the wind-up of the doubts and suspicions and other differences which have been mar-banquet. But something was lacking. Not only was there the absence of hope which should mark a conference of the Big Four, but so far as one can judge from this distance there was no sign which could be taken for guidance in the future. The banqueters shook hands—and went their ways without knowing whether the world is heading into another whirlwind or whether we can have peace.

And that, my friends, is exactly the riddle we have to solve. The next conference has been fixed for November in London, although the Big Four foreign ministers may get together briefly in September if all of them are in New York for the meeting of the United Nations Assembly. Between now and then, this greatest riddle of our time must be figured out if the all-important German and Austrian treaties are to be written.

From the standpoint of the Western Allies, of course, the riddle resolves itself into the question of whether Russia really wants peace or whether she is bent on encircling the globe with communism and making Moscow the capital of the world.

Russia's answer to this is that the Western Democracies, and especially the United States, are trying to encircle the Soviet Union and render it impotent.

If the suspicion of either camp are true, then another world upheaval is likely in due course—not now, but maybe ten or fifteen years hence, when the powers have recovered from the strain of the last conflict. If the suspicions are unfounded, then we can have peace. It will be a matter of dispelling the suspicion.

Barbecue Planned For Visiting Bands

McLEAN—Plans for the May Day Music Festival, to be held here May 1, have been completed, Logan Cummings, superintendent of the McLean Public Schools, has announced.

Bands from Shamrock, Wellington, Kellerville, and Memphis will attend the festival.

Festivities will start with a parade at 2 o'clock; which will be followed immediately by a free movie for the visiting bandsmen. A barbecue supper will be served to the out-of-town guests and at 8 o'clock a massed concert will be held at the football stadium, to be followed by a dance at the American Legion Hall. The dance will be sponsored by the Legion.

ROTARY—Ray Evans was announced as the new president of the club, as a result of the election a week ago. Evans and the officers and directors will take office July 1. . . . Dr. R. M. Bellamy, member of the club, gave an interesting talk on the history of antisepsis and surgery. During the course of his talk, he observed that performance of the practice of socialized medicine in Germany a study revealed that the infant and adult mortality rate was higher there than it was in the United States. . . . Evans, DeLen Vickers and Grover Heard were named delegates to the San Francisco convention in June.

LIONS—The club celebrated its 20th birthday this past week, and members turned out in colors to observe the occasion. They had on hand a former Pampan, the Rev. Bob Boshon, now minister of the Hemphill St. Presbyterian Church, Fort Worth. Boshon, popular during his residence here, delivered an address on the subject, "What Makes a City Great." All past presidents of the club were given special recognition.

KIWANIS—Members of the club who took part in arranging and conducting the benefit performance at the LaNora Theatre last week for the tornado victims were commended by the membership for the success of the effort. The club sponsored the community performance, and the film shown was donated by the theatre and producers. Wayne Wallace, who helped Ed Wetts with the arrangements, was complimented for the preliminary work he did. He is manager of the local theatres. L. N. Atchison and Jack Nimmo also worked in preparing the show and helped conceive it. A number of other members contributed their aid. About $1,200 was raised to add to the Good Neighbor fund—which amounted to over $1,000.

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK—(AP)—The scene is a small Belgian hotel bar on an October night in 1944 just two months and five days before the opening of the "Battle of the Bulge."

The central figure is "Junior," the all-American hero in uniform. "Junior" was one of the "bolo boys" you find in any army—the guys who think everyone around them is a sucker for believing in what he is fighting for.

"Who wants to be a hero?" he said. "You won't catch me having paws and medals after the war to buy a hamburger. They can keep all their pretty little ribbons, too. All I want to do is get my foot on that gangplank going home."

"I'll make a million dollars in the first three months. Most of these clucks will be on the cuff for years when they get back. Not me! I got my line all figured out. But I ain't saying now what it is."
"Junior" was tall, blond and wore a neater uniform than the combat men in the room. His face had a pretty boy look like a movie gunman and there wasn't any crust under his fingernails. There never would be.

He was full of two things—himself, and hot raw cognac at forty-four Belgian francs a slug.
"You gotta have an angle," he said. "Look at these jerks"—nodding at some privates singing over their beer—"They're always one jump behind. In twenty years they'll all be in the poorhouse if the Legion doesn't cop them off a pension. But not Junior."

He said he always had an angle himself. He said he only had made two mistakes in his life. The first was to bet on a horse that wasn't named Whirlaway.

"But I slipped up once," he admitted. "Got careless. I sent around a set to the widow of a guy who had died of paralysis. She knew the old geezer hadn't been able to move his hands for two years and hadn't any use for a fountain pen. That was the second big mistake I made—not checking the cause of death better. They put me in stripes that time—worse than this uniform."

BABE RUTH DAY
NEW YORK—(AP)—Babe Ruth Day will be celebrated today across the land in a long overdue tribute to the spindly-legged Bambino who made the home run a national institution.
A stricken version of his old robust self after 82 days in a hospital bed and a painfully slow recovery from a serious neck operation, Ruth will be in Yankee Stadium to appear in brief pre-game ceremonies that will be piped into every ball park and most of the homes of America.

even—and I spent three months on the rockpile.
"But I was doing all right again when they tapped me for this business. I wangled two six-month deferments before they put the blocks to me."
Most of the ex-soldiers I knew overseas managed to fit back pretty well in civilian life. I've often wondered what happened to "Junior."

I don't think he got his $1,000,000 or I'd have heard of it. He may have gone under during the "Battle of the Bulge," but "Junior" wasn't that kind of a boy. Give you odds his mail is still being censored and he's back in his old uniform again—stripes.

SANITATION VS LAW
SPRINGFIELD, Ill.—(AP)—The dignity of the law is being middle. About 20 of Springfield's garbage trucks can't pass state safety tests for 1947 license plates until some defective vital parts are replaced. The parts are unobtainable. Investigators have stopped some of the trucks but no one has stopped the flow of garbage to cans.
"It's embarrassing," says Frank Lock, street commissioner. "It's the law," says the Secretary of State's office. The trucks still chug along.

2-Year Sentence Handed Down by District Court

A 2-year sentence in the State Penitentiary at Huntsville was imposed Friday on Elmo Prentice, charged with forgery, in 31st District Court by Judge Lewis M. Goodrich.

Prentice had three counts of forgery and three counts of passing forged instruments against him. Two counts of forgery and the three for passing charges were held pending decision of District Attorney Tom Braly to dismiss them. Prentice was sentenced on a check for $20 he forged on a "C. S. Smith," Jan. 5. The check was on the Citizens Bank and Trust Company and was cashed at a local drug store.

Lucius Jenkins charged with stealing a $70 portable radio from the Paul Crossman Store several weeks ago, was given a 5-year suspended sentence by the Court.

Judge Goodrich imposed a 3-year suspended sentence on Hugh L. Rowe, Alabama, and now AWOL from the U. S. Army, on charges of auto theft. The 19-year-old youth told the Court he had been drinking when he took the 1941 Chevrolet coupe and headed for Oklahoma City. Rowe will be returned to the Army where he will face a court martial for being away without leave.

Borger Toastmasters To Be Guests Here

Toastmasters of the Borger Club will be present for the program at the regular meeting of the Pampa Toastmasters Club Monday night, it was announced yesterday.

The time of the program will be at 8 at the regular meeting place, the City Commission Room. There will be no meal in connection with it. A spokesman of the local club said that guests would be welcome.

There are a total of 25 Springfields in the United States.

Reduction of Fine Refused by Judge

A fine of $150 and costs plus suspension of driver's license for six months were imposed yesterday morning by Judge Sherman White on L. B. "Red" Silvers, Lefors, for driving while intoxicated. Silvers pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined in the judge's chambers.

Sitting behind his desk, Judge White told Silvers: "Silvers, I don't want to see you in this Court any more. I want this to be the last time."

Silvers promptly replied: "Judge, if you'll make that fine $50 I won't ever be in your court again."

"No, I am not going to do that," answered the Judge. "I'll assess your fine at $150 and costs."

Shortly before, Judge White fined another Lefors man, Bill Herring, $50 and costs on a similar offense. Herring also lost his operator's privileges for six months.

Perryton Ranger Gridders Getting Rugged Spring Training Workouts

PERRYTON—(Special)—After running thirty-eight charges through stiff workouts for the past two weeks, Coach Floyd Murry of the Perryton Rangers is feeling good about the prospect of giving Phillips a real battle for District 1-A football honors this fall.

Only one thing worries Murry, and that is whether or not his squad will remain scholastically eligible. At present, there are about a dozen members of the squad, including first stringers, who are failing one or more subjects, and whether or not these boys pass their school work and remain eligible will determine the strength of the club that takes the field next fall.

Other than this, things look good for the Rangers. Sixteen lettermen return, including eight regulars from the good 1946 team. Six returning regulars were chosen on the all-district team last year.

All-district men returning for another year of play are Keith Flowers, back; Vernon Flowers, back; Don Stephenson, tackle; Gene Simpson, guard; David Hummer, end; and Raymond Powell, back. The Flowers cousins were first all-district team choices, while the other four made the second district team.

Other lettermen reporting for spring training are Wilbert Seidig, center; J. B. Seago, end; Edward Merydith, back; Dean Slaughter, back; Larry Staughter, center; Glen Johnson, guard; Bill Stephenson, tackle; Jerry Key, back; Morrison Osborne, tackle; Jack and Laverne Hoy, end.

Early indications show that the Ranger team of this year will resemble the 1946 team in style of play. Operating from a single wing, with occasional switches to the T, the club depends upon power, having strong running backs, and sharp line blocking.

Each of the three returning backfield men are proficient at passing, and the southpaw pitching of V. Flowers adds deceptiveness to the aerial game. Powell K. Flowers and V. Flowers are punters, while V. Flowers was one of the best in the district last year, averaging over 40 yards during the season.

Murry has three lettermen and five boys up from the B and freshman teams to fill the vacant backfield spot and for reserves.

The line is stacked two-deep in every position, with the exception of right tackle, where four candidates are battling for starting honors. At present, Carl Cummings, 180-lb. transfer from Phillips, has the inside track, but is being contested closely by Morrison Osborne, 176 lbs., and Bill Stephenson, who weighs 170.

If the present squad returns next fall, Murry could field a team averaging 170 lbs., with plenty of experience scattered throughout two teams.

The tentative starting line-up for spring drills is Hummer, 140, LE; Stephenson, 178, LT; Stinson, 170, LG; Seidig, 174, C; Johnson, 170, EG; Cummings, 180, RT; Seago, 164, RE; K. Flowers, 170, B; V. Flowers, 174, B; Powell, 177, B; and Slaughter, 162, B.

In commenting on the Rangers' chances next fall, Murry stated, "It's just like a wheat crop—you don't know what you'll have until harvest is over. And we won't know what we'll have until the season begins. If all of our boys return, we'll put up a real battle for district honors."

Rollins said that the wind velocity varied from 94 miles per hour to 452 miles per hour through an area 1 1/2 miles wide.

Judson Skaggs was in charge of the program.

Bob Lindsey, Borger Rotarian told the local club some of his observations on the tornado, when he met with them this week.

The club had no formal program as the speaker schedule failed to approach season.

Six firms will sponsor teams and players that will represent each were determined by placing the names of all players in a box and allowing the sponsors to draw.

The sponsoring firms are: Bersten Drug, last year's champion; Montgomery Chevrolet, Adams Hardware, Benson Hardware and Furniture, White House Lumber Company and Union Bus Station.

Play will get under way some time after May 18, R. H. Dennis, head of the managing committee, said. The schedule of play will be set up at a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce office next Monday night.

More teams will be allowed to enter the league between now and that time. Players who failed to get their names in the original pool may also enter by turning in their names at the Chamber of Commerce office. Up until play starts, such names will be drawn in a similar manner to the original pool drawing. After play gets under way, players wishing to join the league will be placed on the team that has the lowest standing.

Names of players on each team follows:

Bersten Drug—Wayne Fox, manager; Harris Ziegler, Ted Sonnenburg, Jack Sims, Don Rives, Charley Glynn, Bob Caperton, Donald Briggs, Glenn Reeves, Dale Wells, John Rushing, Calvin Montgomery, and Jimmy Tallant.

Oilers Reported Ready for Power Laden Gold Sox

The Pampa Oilers, defending champions of the West Texas-New Mexico Baseball League, will play their third game of the season this afternoon at 2:30, when they meet their traditional rivals, the Amarillo Gold Sox, here in Oiler Park.

An outstanding crowd is expected.

Featuring a host of power hitters, the Gold Sox will be slated to give the Oilers a rugged workout, but Oiler Manager Grover Seitz says his boys are ready to take the Amarillo opener.

Seitz announced that Al Johnston, a southpaw hurler, who won several games for the Oilers last season, when he was the club's utility man, would do the mound-work this afternoon.

Other members of the outfield will remain the same as in previous games with the exception of Carroll Barryman, center fielder, who played some ball with the Oilers last year. He will fall into the regular outfield slot that was worked by Johnston the first couple of games, while Johnston does the moundwork.

Indians Take Tigers; Newhouser Off Form

CLEVELAND—(AP)—Bob Feller, Cleveland Indian's fireball artist, hung up his second straight shutout victory yesterday, a three-hit 6 to 0 victory over the Detroit Tigers and beat his arch pitching rival, Hal Newhouser, in the process.

The St. Paul Pioneer-Press meeting of the season drew a crowd of 41,925, including some 25,000 women and children who were admitted free.

Feller, not quite as effective and slightly more liberal with hits than he was in his one-hit masterpiece against the St. Louis Browns last Tuesday, still was in complete charge. He fanned seven and walked six.

Newhouser was definitely off form and finally gave way to a pitcher in the eighth after giving up three runs and eight hits. The Indians scored their final three markers off relief pitchers Rufus Gentry and Johnny Gorsica in the eighth.

Pat Seery put the Tribe one run in front with his third home run of the season in the second inning. The tribe came back with another run in the fourth on Seery's walk, a wild pitch and a single by Ken Keltner, then added a third run in the sixth.

NEW YORK—(AP)—Charlie Keller drove in two runs with a double and home run to lead the New York Yankees to a 3-1 victory yesterday before 20,017 fans. Young Ann McManamy, lady Duff, Betty Blalock and Mary Jo White.

BOSTON—(AP)—Rallying in the ninth inning for the second day in a row the Philadelphia Athletics yesterday defeated the Boston Red Sox 5-2. The A's came up with four runs in the last frame off starter Tommy Fine and reliever Johnny Murphy. Yesterday they rallied for five runs in the ninth to beat the Sox 11-7.

ST. LOUIS—(AP)—Thornton Lee, veteran White Sox southpaw, set the Browns down with two hits to lead the Sox to the opener of a three-game series yesterday, 2 to 0. Don Kolloway's home run produced the first Sox run in the seventh and was singled across the second in the ninth.

CINCINNATI—(AP)—The Cincinnati Reds rallied for two runs in the eighth inning yesterday on Augie Galan's single after two had walked and an outfield fly to defeat the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-2 before an estimated 15,000 fans. The Pirates turned in a triple play in the second inning, the first of the Major League season.

BROOKLYN—(AP)—Led by Dixie Walker, who had a perfect four for four, scored three runs and batted in two others, the Brooklyn Dodgers gained their first decision over the New York Giants yesterday before 35,985 fans at Ebbets Field.

CHICAGO—(AP)—Bob Chipman outpitched Harry "The Cat" Brecheen to give the Chicago Cubs a 4-1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals before a crowd of 34,922 yesterday. Chipman allowed only six hits with the Jone run off him a homer by Del Rice. Andy Pafko homered for the Cubs.

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—The Boston Braves rapped rookie hurler Dick Koehler for seven hits and five runs in the first five innings to score a 7-1 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies yesterday before 8,000 Shibe Park fans. Mort Cooper, making his second start of the season, held the Blue Jays to four scattered hits.

Oilers Battle Clovis in 2nd League Contest

The Pampa Oilers reaped their second victory in as many starts here last night when they made good on nine hits, to defeat the Clovis Pioneers, 7 to 1.

Scoring had been slow until the fourth inning when the Oilers scored five runs. Tony Range, third sacker, started the spree with a double, Barryman followed with another double to score Range. Al Johnson, versatile center fielder, singled and they were scored by a double by Jack Elliott.

Pampa Oilers scored nine hits off two Pioneer pitchers, while the visiting team gathered four safe blows off Hewitt and White.

Manager Grover Seitz indicated late yesterday afternoon that he had not definitely decided who he would send to the mound against the Pioneers. He said that either Foster White or Bill Hewitt would open the game. Both are veteran pitchers of this league.

Manager Joe Dotlich, of the Pioneers, said that he would assign Pete Smar, a righthanded rookie, to do the Pioneers' moundwork.

The Oiler lineup was to remain the same with the exception of Carroll Barryman, centerfielder, who was to take over the center slot as Al Johnston moves to left field and to relieve Seitz who decided to sit the game out. Joe Foran, rightfielder, would round out the outer garden.

The Pioneers were to take the field with five boys back from last year. They were Darwin Dobbs, shortstop; Manager Joe Dotlich, first base; Don Moore, catcher; Ray Bauer, right fielder; and Chuck Noytner, center fielder.

Three new men were to complete the Pioneers' lineup. They were Mac Guillen, second sacker; Mike Boromich, left fielder and Len Santi, third base.

Petroleum Coke, New Resource, Is Shipped to France

ELECTRA—(P)—A newly developed resource for oil producing communities of the Southwest and a new product for export to foreign countries was heralded in the shipment of large quantities of petroleum coke from Electra to France. A total of 75 carloads have been shipped and an estimated 6,000 tons of the product was said to be available.

Petroleum coke, a black, sticky semi-hardened material bought by the Great Lakes Carbon Company of Chicago for the Waggoner Refinery is being surface-mined and sacked for shipment on gondolas to Port Arthur. It is a by-product of crude oil from which the volatile elements have been removed.

The huge accumulation of refinery waste was started some years ago under pressure of two reasons—first as a safety measure to prevent fires or damage to fields, pastures and streams by the usual methods of disposal at that time, and second in the hope that some way could be found to utilize the material at a profit.

It was carried by pipeline to large eastern tanks some distance from the refinery and cracking plant. Nature through sun and wind and the addition of sandstoms completed the processing of the new product—called petroleum coke.

O. Walkup, superintendent of the Waggoner Refinery says he is not sure what the exported material will be used for, but reports were that it will be utilized in making road-surfacing products as well as for fuel.

Panhandle People Donate $4,000

PANHANDLE. (Special)—Panhandle has raised nearly $4,000 in money besides a large donation of emergency supplies sent to victims of the tornado at Higgins and Clazier, an average of between 3 and 4 dollars per person. With the donations that were sent direct to the News-Globe office in Amarillo, the figure is expected to run much higher.

News of Interest To Oil Men

Pampa News, Sunday, April 27, 1947. PAGE 7

Well Starts Total 11; Completions 4, Throughout This Area Last Week

Wildcat Near Twitty Creating Interest

SHAMROCK. (Special)—A wildcat well north of Red River, in which "a good showing of oil" is reported, is creating much interest in the Shamrock oil field. The well, O'Gorman D. No. 1, Teel, two miles southeast of Twitty, was drilled in on Wednesday of last week, and unofficial reports stated that more than 1,000 feet of fluid filled the hole. Tubing has been run and the well will be put on an official test Friday.

Official location of the well is northeast of southeast of the north-east quarter of section 98, block 16, H&CN survey. The development of a producer at this location would extend the east Shamrock field two and one-half miles to the north-west. The only production north of the location is the Pendleton-Vaughan No. 1 Krey, a small well two and one-half miles northwest.

The well was bottomed at 2,139 feet and the production is from a granite wash.

The wildcat is on the Roger O'Gorman land and was drilled by the Teel Production Company, which has a number of producers in the east Shamrock field.

Ed Fitch of Pampa is the contractor.

INVENTED BAG
A Massachusetts lady invented the square-bottomed paper bags used for carrying groceries, and also invented a machine for folding the bags.

Eleven new wells were commenced in this area during the past week. Most new starts were located in Texas County, Oklahoma, and were being drilled by the Phillips Petroleum Company.

Three completions were announced and one well was abandoned.

William J. Murray, Jr., member of the State Railroad Commission, has been named principal speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Panhandle Chapter of the American Petroleum Institute, to be held in the City Hall Palm Room, beginning at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday.

Murray's topic will be the broad subject of "Gas Conservation." All members of the API is urged to attend and the general public is cordially invited to be present. Tuesday night's session will be the final meeting of the API in the spring season before they recess for the summer.

Texas Company Official Denies Charges of Fraud

NEW YORK—Charges made by James A. Moffett, that Arabian American Oil Company and California-Texas Oil Company, LTD, defrauded the United States navy in the sale of fuel oil and other products were branded "absolutely false" recently by W. S. S. Rodgers, chairman of the board of the Texas Company, 50-percent owner of the Arabian and California-Texas companies, at Texaco's annual stockholders meeting. Rodgers disclosed that the Arabian American Oil Company and Cal-Tex have retained Charles Evans Hughes Jr. to assist in presenting "the full facts," in the case before the Senate War Investigating Committee.

The committee will give Arabian American and Cal-Tex an opportunity to present these facts.

"The navy never has been over-charged by either of these companies," Rodgers declared. To support this statement, he quoted from a recent public statement made by the navy as follows:

"The navy's arrangement with Perlan Gulf refineries has been in force for over three years. This source is convenient to the operating areas in which it will be used. American sources of supply need not be tapped or otherwise depleted to serve the needs of the fleet. The savings to the government through purchases of this oil are of considerable magnitude. Were oil procured for use of naval forces west of Pearl Harbor purchases at the nearest and lowest priced American source, the cost at that source would be 42-percent greater than the price paid the Arabian American Oil Company. In addition, the cost of transportation from the United States source to naval forces in the Far Pacific would be considerably greater than the cost of transportation from the Arabian American Oil Company shipping points."

Discussing Moffett's "real motives" in making these false charges, Rodgers said he felt the stockholders should know that in 1946, Moffett proposed to the government of Saudi Arabia that King Ibn Saud appropriate the Arabian American company's concession and properties and turn over a controlling interest in them to Mr. Moffett and his associates. He also suggested that the King convey to the Sheik of Bahrain, Moffett's desire to make a like proposition in respect to Bahrain's oil concessions and properties. Rodgers said that the Saudi Arabian minister in Washington had rejected these proposals.

Texaco's chairman disclosed further details of the negotiations between Arabian American Oil Company and Standard Oil Company

(New Jersey) and Socony Vacuum Oil Company. Arabian American recently negotiated a 10-year bank loan of $102,000,000, repayment of the loan being guaranteed 75-percent by Jersey and 25-percent by Socony. If, within four years, Jersey and Socony receive an unfavorable decision in the pending lawsuit instituted by Compagnie Francaise Des Petroles relating to the so-called red line agreement, Arabian American will repay the loan out of its own funds; if they settle or win the suit, they will purchase 20-percent and 15-percent respectively of Arabian American stock and pay Aramco $102,000,000, which will be used to retire the loan.

The $102,000,000 borrowed by Aramco was used to reimburse Texaco and Standard Oil Company of California, also a 50-percent owner of Aramco, for about $80,000,000 in loans and advances they had made to Arabian American. The balance of $22,000,000 was paid to the parent companies as a dividend.

When and if Jersey and Socony become stockholders in Arabian American, their stock in this company will not participate in dividends in 1947, 1948, and 1949, until certain fixed cumulative dividends have been paid each year on the stock of Texas and California.

Neither will be stock of Jersey and Socony participate in dividends in any year beginning with 1950 until certain cumulative dividends, based on oil produced from the concession, have been paid on the stock of Texas and California.
"We believe," said Rodgers, "that the 30-percent interest which Texas would still retain under the four-stockholder setup will be worth as much or more than a 50-percent interest with only the two present stockholders because of the increased resources and markets which would be made available to Arabian American by the entrance of Jersey and Socony as stockholders." He said that arrangements are being worked out whereby Jersey and Socony will acquire a 30-percent and 10-percent interest respectively in the Trans-Arabian Pipe Line.

Rodgers announced that net earnings of The Texas Company and subsidiaries for the first quarter of 1947, are estimated at $18,582,445, or $1.65 a share after a 50-percent interest, depreciation, amortization, depletion and taxes, including provision for Federal income taxes. This compares with $11,214,961, or $1.00 per share, for the first quarter of 1946. The first quarter earnings for 1947 do not include a dividend of $11,000,000 received from a non-subsidiary company operating in a foreign country.

The chairman pointed out that there exists today a world shortage of crude oil, part of which is attributable to a lack of transportation. He emphasizes that even with the increases that have occurred during 1946, and the first quarter of 1947, petroleum prices are estimated to be only 85.8 percent of 1926 levels, according to the U. S. Department of labor commodity wholesale price index. Petroleum, he said, is still one of the very few commodities in general use which is priced lower than 1926 levels.

Society Initiates Ten New Members

CANADIAN, (Special)—Ten new members were initiated into the National Junior Honor Society here this past week, with ceremonies conducted by the president, Ann Molloy. The entire student body witnessed the event.

Installed were Norma Bernson, Dorothy Bernson, L. H. Webb, Buddy Gross, Shirley Jones, Ima Jean Woodson, Betty Joyce Hoover, June Fort, Tonja Ingwersen, and Louise Zytach.

Five cardinal principles of the society were explained—Peggy Ramp, scholarship; Ruth Milom, service; Worene Truchelrod, leadership; Martha Jo Jarrell, character; and Wencra Gross, citizenship.

Students to qualify must excel in those attributes, and retain an average of 90 percent in grades.

Canadian School Band Reorganized

CANADIAN, (Special)—The Canadian public schools student body and a number of parents saw the school band in its initial appearance at assembly this past week.

A new cyrcune, The Pioneers, by Maj. Ed Chonette of Shamrock, was featured.
Some of the band members took part in the contests at Pampa Friday.

Due to wartime conditions, the school has not had a band for five years, and much interest is being reported shown in the revival of the groups—in the second semester. The group is directed by James Gain.

The Senior band is composed of 40 members, and there are 25 in the Junior aggregation.

Primary crops of Arkansas are cotton, wheat, corn, and white and sweet potatoes, hay and fruit.

Sitting on a bed in their room at the Pampa Hospital are Arthur Maggard and three of his four surviving children. Reading from left to right they are: Lila Mae, 7; Dorothy Jean, 4; and 3-year-old Donald Lee on the lap of his daddy.

'We Were Watching Mamma Cook Supper . . . Now Higgins Family Has Buried Its Dead, Will Seek to Make a New Start

By HENRY S. GORDON
News Staff

It was early in the evening of April 9 when Mrs. Arthur Maggard was preparing supper for her husband and five children in a little four-room house, just off the main street of Higgins.

Not one of the family guessed, at the time, this would be their last evening all together—or that they would be separated in just a few hours.

And then it struck, that life-taking tornado. It blew out the house lights. Little Lila Mae Maggard, 7, grabbed her infant sister, Vernia Louise, only 4 months old, and ran into the bedroom where she sat in a chair, holding the baby close to her in futile protection. The windows blew out. A sixth sense directed Arthur Maggard to grab quilts and throw over the children to protect them from falling timbers. This too was in vain as the east side of the house suddenly disappeared, carrying with it Mrs. Maggard and four of the children—clear across the road.

Lila Mae recounted: "We were watching Mamma cook supper when the wind started, and I grabbed the baby and went into the bedroom and sat in a chair holding her. We blew out through a bunch of trees and wires."

All this time Mr. Maggard was frantically pushing against an invisible wall of wind to reach his family. As he looked around, the refrigerator was picked up by the gusts and started bouncing after him. A piece of board flew through the air, hitting him in the back. Sub-consciously, he grabbed it, and held it over the left side of his head. Something hit it, splintering the board—but his life was spared.

That was all he remembered. When the tornado moved on to Shattuck and Woodward and searchers went out to bring in the dead or injured, the children, with their dying mother, were found in Hospital in the same ambulance that carried their dead mother.

The kiddies were brave through it all. They attended their mother's funeral where one of them was heard to say:

"Sister is going to be a little angel and Mamma is going to be a big angel."

Then they were taken back to Pampa Hospital where they all stayed together in one room and Daddy was permitted to spend the nights with them. Dorothy Jean, more bashful than afraid, with her head in a big white bandage covering a fractured skull, and Donald Lee, wearing a large patch over a deep gash on his head, stood by Lila Mae as visitor after visitor came in to see them.

Mr. Maggard plans to move back to Higgins with what remains of his family and make their new home with his parents, alongside the house now occupied by his sister, so all four children will have a woman to look over them as they grow and the dread memory of that murderous storm slowly fades over the years—if, they can ever forget it.

These people received a bit of special attention this past week. Mrs. Ed Bateman, wife of the publisher of the National Quarter Horse Association magazine at Knox City, Texas, sent a $120 check to H. C. Coffee, of Pampa, with the request that he find someone who needed it even more than the average. This family was selected, and Mr. Coffee and Bob Lockhart of Higgins, delivered the check to the grandmother of the donor. The grandmother has been helping to take care of the children.

(A check for $100 was donated to the "Good Neighbor" fund by Mr. Bateman.)
All three children were released from the Pampa Hospital several days ago and were taken to Canyon to visit relatives before going back to Higgins—to start life all over un-working on a zoning plan to create a safety area between the industrial and residential areas of Texas City, scene of the nation's greatest post-war disaster last week.

"We may have to move some of the industrial area," the mayor said, referring to a 24-block section that was hardest hit. Eighty-two percent of the buildings in the area have been condemned as unsafe by a rehabilitation committee.

Trahan said he plans to carry the zoning plan to Washington Monday for presentation when he testifies before the House Appropriations Committee on $15,000,000 rehabilitation fund bill for Texas City.

Texas City and Houston engineers are preparing damage estimates, he said. He estimated that explosions and fires caused a minimum damage of $35,000,000, exclusive of damage to docks and the ship channel facilities.

D. B. Sherwood, general adjuster for the National Board of Fire Underwriters, said Saturday an estimated 20 insurance companies with exposure damage claims in the business and residential areas of Texas City are expected to begin paying approximately $5,000,000 on claims on Monday.

Sherwood said that of the $5,000,000 damages, about $500,000 represents almost completely different surroundings.

resented losses on automobiles.

An estimated 2500 houses were damaged, he said, some claims being as low as $10.50, with others ranging up to $5,000.

"One insurance man said a client reported his home undamaged in that his wife was airing the house at the time of the blast and had all the windows open."

Of the 200 mercantile exposure claims in the city, damage has been estimated at an average of $2,000 per unit or a total of $400,000.

The American Red Cross is expanding an estimated $6,000 a day in its activities to care for emergency needs in the area. Maurice Reddy of Washington, assistant administrator for disaster relief, said Reddy said 1200 blast refugees are still billeted at Camp Wallace.

WINNERS ALL, the kiddies line up for the cameraman after the recent kite-flying contest at the Sam Houston School. This contest is an annual affair, inspired by Sam Houston's popular principal, Aaron Meek. The school made state news wires one year when it had to be reported (from the Panhandle) that there was not enough wind for the contest.

Announce Marriage Of Two Daughters

McLEAN. (Special) — Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Batten announce the marriage of their daughter, Norma, to William D. Westphal, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Westphal, Kingsley, Kans., at Raton, N. M.

They also announce the recent marriage of another daughter, Joy, at Raton, N. M. to O. I. Shelton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Shelton, Maxwell, N. M.

The Battens were former residents of McLennan where the children attended school. They moved to Raton, N. M., and a recent message conveys the news that they had gone to Courtland, Calif. to reside. Their son, Andrew Doyle, has received his discharge from the Army Air Corp and is at Courtland.

Take Off Ugly Fat With This Home Recipe

Here is an inexpensive home recipe for taking off unightly weight and helping bring back slurring curves and graceful slenderness. Just get from your drugist, four ounces of Harvester's (formerly called Harvester Concentrate). Add enough grapefruit juice to make a pint. Then just drink two tablespoonsful twice a day. Wonderful results may be obtained quickly. Now you may slim down your figure and lose pounds of ugly fat without back breaking exercise or starvation diet. It's easy to make and easy to take. Contains nothing harmful. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to lose bulky weight and help remain slender, more graceful curves, return the empty bottle and get your money back.

A Weak, Run-Down Feeling Is Often A Warning

That The Red-Blood Is Getting Low

If you do not feel like your real self, do not have the urge to be up and doing, why not check-up on your blood strength? Look at the palms of your hands, your fingernails, your lips, the color of your ears—are they pale and off color?

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juice when it is non-organically too little or rancid—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with gas, bloating and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red-blood. Start on SSS Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a less by color show in your skin—firm flesh fill out hollow places. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. SSS Tonic helps build sturdy health.

Christian Executive Board and General Council in Session

The executive board of the First Christian Church met at 1:30 Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. C. T. Hightower presiding.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Tom Eckerd. It was announced that Group 4 will have charge of the program for May, cookies for the Fowler Children's Home in Dallas, and also the Laymen's League dinner; and group meetings in May will be held at 2:30 on the second Wednesday, May 14, with the General Council meeting at 4:30 the same day.

The meeting of the General Council at 2:30 was opened by Mrs. C. T. Hightower, president, with Group 3 in charge, Mrs. Eckerd leader.

A song by the group was followed with prayer by Mrs. Fred Swenay and devotional was given by Mrs. DeLea Vicars on "Lamp-lighters." Mrs. B. A. Norris presented a solo which was followed with prayer by Rev. B. A. Norris.

It was announced that on Friday, May 2, the Christian Church will be host to the Federated Council of Church Women at a covered-dish luncheon at one o'clock.

The lesson on "India" was given in five parts.

Refreshments of tea and cookies were served by Mrs. Vicars to the 26 members and one visitor, Rev. Norris.

All Babies Declared Winners of Contest

The baby beauty contest held at the First Baptist Church Monday afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock, all 27 babies entered in the contest were declared winners and were presented with a blue ribbon inscribed with the wording "Baby Beauty Contest—First Place." Attached to the ribbon was a blue baby shoe with an individual jingle about each baby.

Mrs. Tom Rose, Jr., was mistress of ceremonies and in the receiving line were the teachers and presidents of the three sponsoring classes, Eunelian, Winsome and Ruth. They included Mesdames J. A. Meek, William E. Ballard, W. H. Sherer, R. G. Kirbie, S. W. Bearden and Paul Barrett.

On display during the afternoon was an attractive scrapbook holding all the baby pictures entered in the contest. It was presented to the Cradle Roll Department after the contest.

Mrs. Lee Newsome, accompanied by Mrs. Roy Lewis, sang "Mighty Lak a Rose" and "That Little Boy of Mine." Mrs. Tom Davall gave a group of readings about babies.

On the refreshment committee were Mesdames Orville Thornburg, Mage Keyser, and Herman Dees; and judges were Mesdames Douglas Carver, Tom Davall, W. H. Scherer, H. B. Howse and J. A. Meek.

Church of Christ Makes Contribution

On a tour of the tornado-stricken area of Glazier and Higgins, over $900 was distributed to those in need by Lester Hathaway and John E. Freeman, of the Church of Christ, of Lubbock.

Money was made available through donations made in the Churches of Christ of the Plains area. People of the stricken area who are in need of assistance are asked to contact Lester Hathaway, in Mobeetie, or Floyd McLaughlin in Laketon, so that further aid may be given.

Texas Today

By JACK RUTLEDGE
Associated Press Staff
Shop talk at 30 (for newspapers only):

David Barnhill of Uvalde is 85 years old but he still writes a column for the Uvalde News. He's probably the state's oldest columnist.

Ostensibly he retired several years ago, but it didn't stick. He doesn't know the meaning of the word fatigue, he says, and enjoys working. He spends his mornings in his drug store, his afternoons writing his column.

Although Uvalde is Democratic—the home of Nance Garner—he is a Republican. A friend once said he was a freak—"A Republican, a Methodist, a prohibitionist—and Irish to boot."

Recently he visited a son in Paris, Tex. Col. Lester Barnhill, and went on a tour of the Red River Arsenal at Texarkana. He wrote and mailed his column home to Uvalde while visiting.

A recent note to editors on the AP wire read: "All points: APC any real good snow pictures." Doc Osborn and Bill Bailey of the Brownsville Herald wrote back: "We regret inability to obtain snow pictures."

Well, they probably wouldn't know what snow looks like if it did happen to fall down there in the semi tropics, and the Chamber of Commerce wouldn't let them take picture of it.

From the Sealy News' Frydek Correspondent (and printed are written):

"Will be big rodeo and barbecue in Ellis City. It be given by my brother, so will be there. It be plenty beef and sausage bar-b-q. Plenty beer in stand. At nite a big dance. Oh boy. So don't nobody get sick on that day. Well so long until next week of course if I don't get bellach or die. I hope not."

Down in Amarillo, Jimmy Dowling, 12, and Mary Elizabeth Rietman, 11, are publishing an independent weekly paper called "Scop." Jimmy is publisher and managing editor, Mary Elizabeth the ace reporter and society editor. The paper has a circulation of 100.

Up the scale a bit, eleven students from Texas Christian University School of Journalism recently put out the Hillsboro Mirror. Ralph McCamy, a senior, was editor for the day.

Kavanaugh Elected To Aggie Faculty

SHAMROCK (Special)—M. S. Kavanaugh, former principal of Shamrock High School, has been elected a member of the faculty of Texas A & M College.

Mr. Kavanaugh, brother of Allen Kavanaugh, Wheeler County Superintendent of Public Instruction, assumed his duties as professor of psychology in the prominent military college the latter part of March.

The former Shamrock school man was doing graduate work on his Doctor's Degree at the University of Texas at the time of his appointment. He holds a Master's Degree from the University of Texas.

Brewster County, with and area of 6,208 square miles, or six times the area of Rhode Island, is the largest county in Texas.

California Police Request Disposition Of Case Tried Here

County officials yesterday morning were somewhat in a flurry over a telegram from Oakland, Calif., Police Department, requesting disposition of a local man tried here in 1938.

It all happened when Chief Deputy Sheriff Jeff Guthrie received a wire from Chief of Police Robert P. Tracey asking for the disposition of Leroy F. Ragan tried here in October, 1938, for the burglary of C. A. Cryer's home at Mc-

Lean. Some county officers said they believed the case had been dismissed, but Guthrie wasn't sure and checked back over the musty records of almost a decade ago to find Ragan, and two other men had pleaded guilty and were sentenced by Judge W. R. Ewing. Ragan and Harold Nicholson were each given five year suspended sentences.

The third man, Jule Price, was also named in the District's Clerk's files, but no disposition of his case could be found.

Chief Tracy gave no reason for his request on Ragan in his wire here, or why the man was apparently picked up by the Oakland police.

The disposition was wired back to Oakland yesterday.

CALL ME "INDIVIDUALIST," AND I'LL JOIN UP!

The CIO organizing committee headquarters at Atlanta, Ga., this week sent out a news release to the nation's newspapers. It was datelined from Laurel, Miss. The "story's" lead read like this: "I knew that when the industrial workers of Laurel decided they wanted CIO unions they would have them. This is 'old country' around here and the people are individualists."

"The workers would not let an employer tell them what to do if they did not want to do it and it wasn't right."

The item then went ahead to say: "Those were the words of a Laurel citizen who holds a high position in the public life of the city, but wouldn't be quoted."

Now if the Pampa Daily News should be interested in leading people into some specious economic practice, we would deliberately usurp the name of some quality or condition which the people of America have been known to stand for and fight for.

We would select good, high-sounding, virtuous names like "individualists," as the CIO publicity-writer did in this case, or we would select the name "democracy" as the Stalinists have to influence the world.

The old theory is that if you will repeat something often enough, the odds are bound to be in your favor, and you will finally have the people convinced that you are right. If there is any way that a true individualist will join an economic and social bloc to gain his ends, we would like to have it proven to us. If anybody can convince us that the Laurel people who joined the union are individualists, then we have been wrong about the meaning of what we thought was one of the most significant words in the English language as applied to the American frontiersman.

We had come to believe—but not by virtue of a union publicity release—that an individualist is a person who has enough confidence in his own ability and integrity to enable him to stand alone—to get his own job if he is willing to work for the wages he is offered, and if there is a place for him in the business, and if he is able to do the work.

But it is beginning to seem in this modern, industrialized America—a land where more and more people are looking for guaranteed "security"—that even the incapable, inefficient man is assured a job in a closed shop if he will agree to pay allegiance to an inanimate something called the union.

In return, the union organizers promise that they will call him "individualist" to make him feel good.

In Hollywood

(Johnson on KFDN Monday thru Friday, 3 P. M.)

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON

NEA Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD—People laughed when comedian Ken Murray sat down and outlined a feature length motion picture starring 20 birds, a crow and a couple of guinea pigs.

"It's sensational," he said. "Boy bird meets girl bird. Boy bird loses girl bird. Boy bird gets girl bird. It's a great story. I've got birds that can stand on their heads, walk tight ropes, do somersaults, and shift gears on motorcycles."

Ken Murray had an idea, and he stuck to it.

Now, out at Republic Studios, they're shooting a movie titled, "Bill and Coo." The stars of the color picture are 14 real birds, guinea pigs and love birds, a crow, and a couple of guinea pigs. A parakeet named Buddy plays Bill, the hero. A love bird named Dolores plays Coo, the heroine. The crow is the villain.

Ken himself put up the money, $150,000, and that's not birdseed. Herbert Yates, president of Republic, was the only studio executive in Hollywood who didn't laugh when Ken outlined his idea for a movie starring only birds.

Yates said, "It's terrific. Ken, we'll let you have the stages and release the picture."

ALMOST HUMAN

The trained birds are from "Burton's Birds," a vaudeville act now playing in Murray's long time Hollywood store, the "Blowouts." That's where he got the idea for the picture.

Burton's Birds are almost human. They stand on their heads, do somersaults, ride tiny motorcycles and shift the gears, swing from rings and parallel bars. One even walks a tight rope carrying two flaming matches in its beak.

The usual job of writing a story starring the birds went to Dean Riesner, son of veteran director Chuck Riesner, and Royal Foster, who writes Edgar Berger's radio show. Ken is doing the narration, Dean is directing.

"It's 'Our Town'—only with birds," explained Ken. The town is Chicago, the picture is a picture of a couple of penguins in the town square sets the mood for the picture. The description on the picture reads:

The Wrong Brothers

Wilbur and Orville

A LIVE ANIMAL DISNEY

The birds in "Bill and Coo" never fly. They walk. That's why Murray is so excited about the project.

"It's just like a Walt Disney live bird," he said, "only with five birds."

The hero walks into a clothing store beneath a sign reading, "Boys Who Are Molling—We Want Them." He comes out with a new suit. The heroine walks down a ladder after the nasty crowd sets fire to her hotel.

The story, in fact, sounds like something written for TV Power and Lana Turner. Bill is a poor boy whose mother takes in washing. Coo is the daughter of a wealthy family. They fall in love. The jealous crowd tries to separate them, but love triumphs after 60 minutes of exciting celluloid.

The immediate educational problem facing the country is the dilapidation of teaching standards.

COMMUNISTS

The Institute of Pacific Relations

For several years America was so preoccupied with false information about the true communist nature of Red China that only in recent months has the public begun to see the truth.

Some of us who had occasion to observe certain groups and publications spreading this misinformation about the Far East could see long ago that the Institute of Pacific Relations, a highly influential body, was deeply involved. But only this week has the curtain been snatched aside showing the extent of infiltration of communist ideology into the IPR.

While an investigation by the House Committee on Un-American Activities is pending, Alfred Kohlberg of New York City has made public some startling facts.

"I had been a member of the IPR since 1933," he said, "but like most business men and (as I later learned) like most of them (the IPR's) board of trustees, I seldom read the literature they sent me, and like most people knew nothing about communism."

But in 1944 Kohlberg woke up to the fact that something was Red in the IPR—a dangerous place for numerous books and pamphlets in public schools (including the pro-Communist "Book of the Soviet") recently thrown out of schools in California by committees of official United States policy toward Far Eastern Nations.

To check up on IPR, Kohlberg had all its political articles from 1933 to 1944, then compared them with articles on similar subjects in "The Communist" and the staffing of the State Department, Army and Navy Intelligence and Far Eastern divisions of UNRRA, or the Communist Party.

By April, 1945, the staff had prepared a 32-page answer, of which I only learned in 1946 and of which even the chairman of the trustees couldn't get a copy to give me. I finally obtained a copy by court order in October, 1946.

Since 1944, however, the persistent Kohlberg, who does not like Reds, has dug up more damaging evidence. Here are a few of his findings:

The staff of paid writers for IPR was, and still is, "apparently completely" Communist or "pro-Communist"; that all articles on Far Eastern politics are written by Communists or pro-Communists; and that it has ties through interlocking directorates or staffs with various Communist or pro-Communist organizations.

Education and Religion

Most every defender of public education will admit that there is something wrong with compulsory education. They seem to think that all that is needed is to change it, to correct it. They never explain, however, how you can correct an act that is out of harmony with God's or man's laws. There is no way of changing force into love and voluntary agreements. Force is force. There is no compromise. Force and love do not mix. Neither does state education and religion and an education without religion is a mockery and a delusion.

A day or so after Henry Ford's death, David J. Wilkie of the Associated Press quoted Henry Ford on the subject of education and religion as follows: "Education and religion should go hand in hand. Without education religion cannot be fully understood, experienced, nor practiced; without religion education cannot be directed into those channels where it will do the most good."

That is in effect what this column has been saying in season and out of season. It would seem that it would be just as practical to give a trained man the information as to how to build and transport a bomb as it is to train a man to read and write and fall to educate him as to the human relations that are in harmony with the teachings of Jesus.

The state, of course, cannot teach religion because the only thing the state is qualified to do is to be a policeman to stop and restrict someone who is violating God's laws. When the state attempts to do religious education, it violates the religion of Jesus Christ; it adopts using force to make people do good and be charitable which is the very antithesis of true religion.

Inflation Inevitable Result of Progressive Taxation

There is a cause for everything. Things follow their natural sequence. Inflation is sure to follow the public belief in progressive or graduated income tax.

It believes that the rich should pay a higher percentage of their income than the poor, will demand the growth of government. When the public gets this idea, the government can never for any length of time collect enough tax to pay the bills. The result is fiat, credit, or money of one kind or another and fiat, credit or money means higher prices.

Of course labor unions that throw wages out of balance are another factor that bound to cause inflation. When labor unions get wages so high that those that are obliged to buy the product can't buy it, then there is a surplus, unemployment, and the government starts to take care of those unemployed and eventually prints money to do it. It prints money because it cannot tax enough to pay these unemployment doles.

If we were on a sound tax basis where everybody paid in proportion instead of progressively or by graduation, then the masses would sell those out of employment to reduce their wages and get a job and get off of the backs of those that still have jobs. But when you have progressive taxation, the masses actually believe that someone else is going to carry the tax load. The result is more credit, more bonds in the hands of the bank which is nothing but interest-bearing currency.

Yes, inflation is the inevitable result of progressive taxation and labor unions.

Elevators Needed Cry Band Students

"Why don't they have elevators in this place" was the cry of many of the out-of-town guests, Friday, when they were exploring the building awaiting their time to play. Twenty-five bands participated in the Intercollegiate League Instrumental Music Contest, which was held in the Pampa High School gym April 25, 1947. The bands came from all over Texas to compete.

After the NBS initiation Wednesday Margie Lawrence was heard to mention that she should come to school dressed up every day. For the few girls that have become well acquainted with high heels it is alright, but what are we poor unfortunate girls going to do that can't quite take "heels" a whole day?

At the Hi-Y formal Monday night a few of the members for pledges as they are referred to didn't know that pledging was over. James Gallemore ran his legs off carrying water to the members before he found out the truth. Other pledges had the same experience.

After the Borger A Cappella Choir left for Mary Jean and Lela McClellan it was rumored that one Borger had been left. We don't know if the party in question was a male or a female, but any one finding a Borger should be in the office. Do not try to keep him (or her) as the Borger High School might like to have him (or her) back as much as we would like to have them. Of course that was only a rumor. Heck!!!

HOME-GROWN CIRCUS IS READY FOR 18TH SEASON

By JACK RUTLEDGE
GAINESVILLE—The biggest show of its kind on earth is ready for its eighteenth season.
 Gainesville's happy hobby, its community circus, opens this week bigger and better than ever with 138 "home-grown" performers and thousands of dollars worth of new equipment.
 The circus has ten engagements in two states this year. It could have more, but the performers, many of whom make their vacations coincide with the circus season, just can't get away from their jobs.
 The performers are bankers, truck drivers, lawyers, housewives, merchants, clerks, service station employees—men, women and children from every walk of life.
 The only thing that counts is talent. One of the stars is a delivery boy. The ticket taker is a leading undertaker.
 None receives pay. Most of them provide their own costumes, instruments, and animals. Profits are plowed back into equipment.
 A. Morton Smith, editor of the Gainesville Register and father of the circus, estimates that the Gainesville Community Circus has brought home $150,000 during its career. Last year's show made $25,000.
 Other advantages to the community include the international publicity, a decline in juvenile delinquency, an enterprise that has united the town of 12,000 to an unusual degree, an opportunity to travel about the southwest free, and an almost year-round method of exercise.
 Everyone—even those who do not take an active part—is proud that the home town circus has the third largest number of performers in the United States. Only Ringling Bros. and Cole Bros. boast more.
 The circus started by accident in 1930 with props costing about $30. Expenses that year were less than $500. Today, the equipment is worth well over $35,000, weighs 75,000 pounds, and includes eight tents, three rings calliope, tableau wagons (made in Gainesville), elaborate costumes, and all the hodge-podge of things that go with a circus.
 To provide the proper music, the town voted a tax to finance a high school and junior college band.
 The circus origin can be credited to the depression. The Gainesville Little Theater was in financial straits. It needed about $300 to survive the season.
 Smith recalled a successful burlesque circus he had seen and suggested a mock circus to raise the needed funds. Dubiously, the idea was accepted.
 Smith ran an article in his paper asking for performers. The response was surprising. The high school offered girls for classical performances. A high school coach provided a group of tumblers from his physical education class, 40 percent wanted to be clowns. Virgil Keel, a professional horse trainer, came forward with high jumpers and boys to ride them. A railroad switchman named Bill Wingert had amused himself for years on a backyard trolley. A school teacher had experience as a aerialist.
 Before the opening date, so many actual performers were available that the burlesque was abandoned. They had enough real performers to put on an honest-to-goodness circus.
 The directorate held its breath that first day, May 1, 1930, for it had spent $300, almost the sum of the Little Theater debt. The show was such a success it had to give three performances and made $420.
 A week later a request for performance was requested by a legion convention. Then Denton, guaranteed $100 and expenses per performance to put on the show there.
 From then on the Texas topsy grew fast. The following year it gave five performances. There were seven the following year, ten in 1934. They performed before 11,000 spectators in College Station, 7,500 in Austin, 32,000 in Fort Worth and 30,000 in Houston.
 They turned down many professional offers for tours.
 The circus has consistently stuck to its policy of performing for flat, guaranteed sums, and for civic groups sponsoring benefits.
 A moving picture is to be made, based on the history of the circus. Gainesville's profit will be a new $15,000 flame proof tent.
 There is, of course, a turnover in performers. Child stars grow up, residents move away, the girls become mothers. Five persons of the original circus are still active. They are Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Murrell, J. B. Saylor, and Dr. S. M. Yarbrough. Alex Murrell makes most of the circus wagons and equipment.

 The 1947 itinerary includes the opening show at Gainesville for a three-day stand, then road trips to Greenville, Denison, Phillips, Ardmore, Okla., Olney, Fort Worth, Ranger, another Oklahoma showing, date unset, and back in Gainesville for the Cooke County fair.
 Fear has been injured in the circus, and none seriously. The circus, of course, pays all expenses in such events. Every single person ever injured has returned for more. Smith said.
 The weather has been a problem, but only once did it cancel a performance. That was when a cloud-burst flooded the tent with several feet of water and closed highways.
 There are always thrills in circus life. Gainesville finds. You never know what's going to happen next.
