Lewis Gets Fine Refund; Contributes to Striking Telephone Workers

Union Is Warned Injunction Stands

WASHINGTON—P—John L. Lewis today got back $2,800,000 of a $3,500,000 contempt fine imposed against his United Mine Workers and promptly contributed $100,000 to striking telephone workers.

Less than an hour after Federal District Judge T. Alan Goldsborough refunded the $2,800,000 UMW officials arrived at telephone strike headquarters with a check for the $100,000 to help support the 18-day-old cross-country tieup.

"We are authorized by the president (Lewis) of UMW to deliver to the officers of the Telephone Workers, upon unanimous authorization of the International Executive Board, this check..." John T. Jones, a UMW board member, told C. W. Werka, strike director for the National Federation of Telephone Workers.

Werka thanked him and told him: "With your help I know we will be able to carry the fight through to a successful conclusion."

Werka said the money will be used to prosecute the strike and to pay for fuel, food, rent, and doctor bills for needy strikers.

It was learned that the UMW check was written out at 9 a. m. (CST), the hour at which Goldsborough convened court.

In refunding the $2,800,000 to the UMW, Goldsborough issued a warning that a preliminary injunction prohibiting the miners from striking against the government "is still in force and can be invoked at any time."

Goldsborough fined the union last December because it ignored his order to call off a contract termination notice Lewis had served on the government.

The Supreme Court, on March 6, reduced the fine to $700,000 provided the union showed that it had fully complied with Goldsborough's orders.

Sonnett said today the government is satisfied that the union complied with the mandate by withdrawing the contract cancellation notice and by distributing the word of the withdrawal to its members.

He told the court that coal production has been "about normal" since April 14, Lewis called off the safety stoppage at that time. It was ordered originally on April 1, as a memorial to 111 miners killed in an explosion March 29 at Centralia, Ill.

A $20,000 fine which Goldsborough imposed last December on Lewis individually already has been paid and the union promptly offered a certified check today for its $700,000. It also submitted another check for $25,000 representing a one percent poundage charge on the $250,000 in bonds which the union posted as security for the fine. The poundage charge—four keeping the bonds—is required under District of Columbia law.

On the surface at least, the proceeding appeared to wind up the legal sparring in connection with the government's possession of the coal mines.

GOPsters Try To Uphold Move

WASHINGTON—(P)—Facing a threatened uprising in their own ranks, House Republican leaders dug in today to uphold an Appropriation Committee recommendation for a 47 percent cut in interior department funds.

But upwards of a score of Western Republicans are dissatisfied with the proposed $83,234,600 slash in reclamation bureau funds. Some are talking about joining with the Democrats in a drive to restore part of the money.

Some Democrats, too, want more than the $1,371,990 recommended by the committee for the Southwestern Power Administration. They may line up with Western GOP members in a fight to restore part of the $2,554,000 lopped off by the committee.

Chairman Taber (R-N.Y.) of the appropriations group indicated he would oppose any and all amendments. He was joined in that stand by Rep. Robert F. Jones (R-Ohio), chairman of the subcommittee which wrote the bill.

CONSPIRACY TRIAL OPENS—Shown arriving at Federal Court in Washington, D. C., to face charges of conspiracy to defraud the government are, left to right: former Congressman Andrew J. May; Dr. Henry Garson; Charles Mayhew; head defense counsel, Murray Garson; May and the Garson brothers were indicted by a Federal Grand Jury after an investigation into the Garson mentions conspiracy.

Command Performance Swells Local 'Good Neighbor Fund' by $1,200

The "Good Neighbor Fund" was bolstered last night by approximately $1,200. This is the proceeds from the Command Performance and moving picture held last night at the LaNora Theater for the benefit of the tornado-stricken people of Higgins and Glazier.

A near capacity crowd watched the four and a half hour show, which included a two and a half hour command performance. Through the efforts of 115 performers, $600 of the $1,200 was raised by encores.

To command an act, anyone in the theater or radio audience who desired an act to re-appear, could do so by donating to the "Good Neighbor Fund." Immediately after the stage show the film, "The Farmer's Daughter," was shown.

Tomorrow morning W. B. Weathered, chairman of the "Good Neighbor Fund," B. D. Robinson, treasurer of the fund, Wayne Wallace, manager of the local theaters and representatives of the local banks, Radio Station KPDM, and the Pampa News, will journey to Higgins to present to the people of the area, a check for the full amount of the "Good Neighbor Fund." This money is to be put to immediate use in the re-building of the towns.

Following is a list of donations to the fund from noon yesterday meet through noon today:

Davis Hotel Guests $14.00
Flora Enright 5.00
Frank Bailey 2.50
R. J. Gething 5.00
Mrs. M. L. Lewis 5.00
Mrs. Hattie Crutchfield 25.00
Mrs. L. Henderson 5.00

Simultaneously the Phillips officials of the Western Division of the Production Department at Midland announced that they have entered into a new wage agreement for the period May 1, 1947, to May 1, 1948. The agreement provides for a basic wage increase of five cents per hour and the continuance of $20 per month supplementary payments.

The expiring wage agreement, which was drawn up last December with provisions retroactive to Nov. 1, 1946, granted a five cent increase plus a $20 per month cost of living supplementary payment. The new wage agreement signed yesterday becomes effective May 1, 1947, and provides that the above terms of the expiring agreement shall continue in the new contract.

It was agreed that if the consumers price index of the Bureau of Labor Statistics is less than 145 points on Dec. 15, 1947, the company may open further wage negotiations, with this exception, The new wage agreement runs to June 1, 1948, or for an actual period of thirteen months.

Two Federal Bodies Investigate Disaster

TEXAS CITY—(P)—Two Federal government bodies inquired today into the cause of last week's exploded-fire disaster while the work of rehabilitation and relief forged ahead.

Expert of the joint Army-Navy Explosives Safety Board, charged with formulating programs for the handling and storage of explosives for the armed forces, are the latest group to study the chain of blasts and fires which killed 500 or more persons and leveled the waterfront of this Gulf port.

A Coast Guard Board of four members has been investigating the disaster since soon after it occurred. In Washington, it was explained that the Army-Navy Board is interested in the cause and nature of any large explosion, whether it occurs in civilian or military areas.

Angelo J. Amato, 31, mate on the tug, the Albatross, which attempted to tow the freighter High Flyer away from its dock before it exploded last Thursday morning, said the ship "looked like a volcano" shortly before it blew up.

"Balls of fire were shooting out of the ship," he told the Coast Guard Board late yesterday, "and smoke and flames were roaring thousands of feet into the air from the ship and other fires around there. It was terrible."

Amato said the Albatross and three other tugs were unable to free the burning High Flyer from its dock because it was wedged against the SS Wilson B. Keene, which had been damaged by the explosion of the French freighter Grandcamp, the first blast of the series.

Capt. E. M. Goodwin, port captain here, the G. and H. Towing Company, owner of the Albatross, had testified earlier that the four tugs kept up attempts to pull the High Flyer away from the burning dock-side until 10 minutes before it exploded.

Relief efforts for victims of the disaster kept up an unslackening pace. A shipment of 2,010 pounds of penicillin to treat the injuries of survivors was received from Kansas City. In New Orleans, Mayor DeLesseps Morrison said $50,000 was the goal for a $100-a-plate dinner proceeds of which would be donated to the stricken here.

Seymour Weiss, manager of the Roosevelt Hotel, contributed its facilities for the affair and General Jonathan Wainwright, commander of the Fourth Army, offered an army plane to fly the stricken here.

A cargo of 6,000 pounds of clothing, collected by the Volunteers of America in 13 Western states, was flown to Houston from Los Angeles yesterday for distribution among persons made destitute by the disaster.

New Patrolman Is Named to Force

Robert Crouch, 30, of 401 E. Foster St., was named early this week to the City Police Department to replace Patrolman Dewey Martin who resigned due to illness.

Crouch reported for duty yesterday as a mobile patrolman and was assigned to street duty.

Martin, former meter patrolman, resigned from the force last week. Crouch is a veteran of World War II and a native of Pampa.

Marshall Expected To Air His Report

MOSCOW—P—The Four-Power Conference of Foreign Ministers in session since March 10, ended today in disagreement on all major German and Austrian issues.

U. S. Secretary of State Marshall expressed disappointment that the Council had failed to reach agreement on the Austrian treaty and the American-proposed Four-Power pact keep Germany disarmed.

The next meeting was set for London in November, but there was a possibility that the Foreign Ministers might meet earlier in New York, during a session of the United Nations General Assembly.

Leaving the conference, Marshall told reporters: "After all we have had a very natural disappointment that we did not have agreement on the Four-Power pact and the Austrian treaty."

"The results of this conference will not be apparent for a month or two, until everyone has had a chance to evaluate the discussions here," Marshall added.

"I think we must regard this Council's meeting as the first round and realize that the matters discussed here are of big concern and of worldwide interest."

Marshall said that perhaps the Americans expected more progress than they had the right to expect. His speech, informants said, probably would review his policies here, assess the failures and the few accomplishments listed and outline the course for the future, particularly as it concerns U. S.-Soviet relations.

Marshall was reported to be planning a formal radio report to the American people concerning the meeting as soon as he returns home. His speech, informants said, probably would review his policies here, assess the failures and the few accomplishments listed and outline the course for the future, particularly as it concerns U. S.-Soviet relations.

Washington—(P)—Secretary of State Marshall is expected to leave Moscow Friday morning by air and reach Washington late Saturday, the State Department said today.

A Moscow broadcast, recorded by the Soviet Monitor in London, said the meeting of the Big Four Foreign Ministers had adjourned with the next conference to be held in London in November.

Lincoln, White, press officer for the State Department, told reporters that Marshall will fly home by way of Paris.

White said the Department has no specific information as to when Marshall is returning with the Secretary. He said it is assumed Marshall will return in the same special C-54 transport plane in which he and a group of advisers went to Moscow in early March.

Ray Evans New Head of Rotary

Modern advancements in antiseptics and surgery yesterday were outlined by Dr. R. M. Bellamy to members of the Rotary Club shortly after it was announced that Ray Evans had been elected president of the club.

At the same time, Ray Evans, DeLes Vivars and Grover Heard were named delegates to the San Francisco convention.

Dr. Bellamy traced the discovery of modern germicides from mercury chrome on through the varied sulphur drugs up to the present day use of penicillin. He brought out that curare, once a paralyzing poison has recently been refined and found to be a very effective anesthetic.

He told the Club a study made in Germany during the time that country had socialized medicine, the infant and adult mortality rates were far higher than in the United States where the pain is not in effect.

The doctor also reminded the club the American Medical Association this year is celebrating the 100th year of its founding.

The new officers and directors, elected last week, will take office on July 1. Virgil Mott led the club singing and Irving Cole presided at the meeting.

POPULAR COURSE CHICAGO—(P)—Ten parochial high schools in Chicago are going to relieve part of the job of teaching junior to drive the car.

Charles M. Hayes, president of the Chicago motor club, said that when the fall term starts several automobile dealers will supply practice cars, one equipped with dual controls, one control to be used, if necessary, by the skilled co-driver.

White House Has a New Problem: How Can President 'Unveto' Bill?

WASHINGTON—(P)—White House advisers cast about today, seemingly in vain, for some way in which President Truman might "un-veto" a bill giving Burton K. Wheeler, one of his best friends, a job.

On Capitol Hill the parliamentarians said it couldn't be done. They declared you can no more recall a Presidential veto than an unkind word.

Senator Hatch (D-N.M.), spent hours trying to unsmirch the situation last night.

He finally told newsmen the parliamentarians are right. He said there seems to be only two ways to get around Mr. Truman's "mistake" veto yesterday of legislation which would permit Wheeler, the President's old Senate enemy, to act as special counsel for the Senate War Investigating Committee:

1. Have Congress override the veto.
2. Ask the lawmakers to pass a new measure covering the same ground.

Chairman Brewster (R-Me.) of the War Investigating Committee, who appointed Wheeler to the counsel job, said the more embarrassing override is preferred "by several of my comrades who are satistically inclined." It takes a two-thirds vote of Congress to override.

U. N. Session On Palestine Opens Monday

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(P)—Top experts on Palestine problems conferred upon United Nations headquarters today as the fast-working secretariat completed plans for opening the first U. N. special session on Palestine next Monday.

Secretary-General Trygve Lie fixed 10 a. m. C. S. T. today as the deadline for the nations to turn in proposals to be heard by the assembly.

Two major questions have been put on the provisional agenda upon which the assembly must decide by a two-thirds vote.

They are: 1.—A British request for appointment of a special committee to prepare for consideration on the Palestine question at the regular session in September.

2.—Identical requests by the five members of the Arab League who expected the arrival today of two U. N. states for the special session to consider termination of the British mandate over Palestine and the declaration of Palestine's independence.

The United States, Britain and several other delegations have indicated opposition to the second item. They insist that the special session must not go into the question of self beyond appointing the investigating committee.

The United Kingdom delegation expected the arrival today of two key men in its Palestine considerations—John Martin, assistant undersecretary of state in the Colonial Office, and Harold Beley, Chief Foreign Office spokesman.

Beley was adviser to the British section of the Anglo-American Palestine Commission which carried out exhaustive hearings last year. Martin was private secretary to Winston Churchill when he was Prime Minister.

Other delegations were shaping up. The names of all 48 delegations except those of White Russia, the Ukraine, El Salvador, Liberia, and Nicaragua have been announced.

April Showers Hit Panhandle Area

Leaven skies dumped an April hail shower over the city this morning as the mercury dipped to a low of 36 for the day.

Heavy showers last night and today were accompanied by high winds and hail stones measuring approximately 3/8 of an inch in diameter, said S. Weather Bureau here reported.

A total precipitation of .58 inches was measured by the bureau by mid morning.

Yesterday's high settled at 68 and then nose dived to the low mark of 46.

The weatherman predicted additional occasional showers this afternoon, tonight and tomorrow with very little change in temperatures.

Grand Jury Returns Nine Indictments

Returning nine indictments, six of them on one man, the Grand Jury yesterday adjourned until further call, according to District Attorney Tom Braly.

Elmo Prentice of The Flats, was indicted on three counts of forgery and three of passing forged instruments. He is now being held in the Gray County Jail.

Hugh L. Rowe, of Alabama and also AWOL from the United States Army, was indicted for car theft. He is also being held in County Jail.

Lucius Lenkins, charged by police with taking a radio from the Paul Crossman store several weeks ago, was also indicted for theft over $50. He is free on bond at the present time.

One other man, now at large, was also indicted by the Grand Jury. Other matters were discussed, but no action was taken.

PEDESTRIAN-MINDED ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.—(P)—L. C. Hair paid a $1 fine for overtime parking with this explanation: "It been without car for so long that I forgot I bought a new car and went home on the bus."

THE WEATHER U. S. WEATHER BUREAU WEST TEXAS—Considerable cloudiness, except fair in El Paso area, showers in Panhandle and South Plains this afternoon, tonight and Friday, not much change in temperature.

EAST TEXAS—Mostly cloudy, showers in north portion, strong southeast to south winds on coast. OKLAHOMA—Showers and thunderstorms with moderate to heavy rain tonight and Friday. Cooler today. Little change in temperature tonight. High temperatures mid the north, 59 tonight. Continued cool Friday, strong northerly winds today. Seat covers to fit any car. Lloyd's Magnolia Service Station. Wallace Advocates Huge Aid Program For Soviet Russia

By DEWITT MACKENZIE (AP Foreign Affairs Analyst)
Former Vice President Wallace has produced a heavy crop of question marks and exclamation points by his declaration in Paris that Soviet Russia should get ten to seventeen million dollars worth of goods and services under a fifty billion dollar world construction program which should be financed mainly by the United States through the United Nations.

Any such program would be the height of incongruity to those who agree with the Washington administration's policy of aiding weak nations to stand off Communist aggression. If both plans were in operation simultaneously we should have the spectacle of America sinking billions to restore Russia's war potential and at the same time expending other vast sums to combat a Communist offensive on the grounds that it might lead to another world war.

Of course, Wallace's proposal doesn't present any incongruity from his standpoint, because he is campaigning against President Truman's plan for aiding Greece and Turkey to withstand the Red avalanche. The former vice president would give aid to Russia, and to other war stricken countries, including Greece.

As a matter of fact there wouldn't be any incongruity in thus assisting Russia if she gave a satisfactory quid pro quo. The quid pro quo obviously would have to be that Moscow would halt such world-wide activities as have given rise to the Greco-Turkish situation. It has been the Western world's dislike of and fear of Communism which has so often dampened international relations since the Soviet government was established. It wasn't until 1933 that Washington recognized the Soviet Union, and then a promise was exacted from Moscow that it shouldn't inspire any further Communist activities in America. But things have changed mightily since then. As matters now stand, U. S. Assistant Secretary of State William Benton yesterday declared that Russia spends more for propaganda than the other big powers combined.

NOT EGGS-ACTLY

Just after the tornado which ruined half of Green Forest, Ariz., we gave a lift to an old fellow along the road. "Were you in the tornado?" we asked.

"Well, it all depends on how you look at it," he answered. "When the roof fell in, she fell just right. And when the walls caved in they only nudged me. The hot stove got pushed across the room, stopped before it hit me; and while it set the house on fire, I got out in time." He studied this situation. "No'm," he decided. "I guess you couldn't rightly say I was in that tornado . . . but I was getting gosh-awful close to it." —Reader's Digest.

FALSE TEETH
That Loosen
Need Not Embarrass

Many wearers of false teeth have suffered real embarrassment because their plate dropped, slipped or wobbled at just the wrong time. Do not live in fear of this happening to you. Just sprinkle a little PASTEETH, the alkaline (non-acid) powder, on your plates. Holds false teeth more firmly, so they feel more comfortable. Does not sour. Checks "plate odor" (denture breath). Beta Delta Chapter Members Plan to Attend State Convention in Amarillo

Members of Beta Delta Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary organization for women teachers, will attend the state convention of the Society to be held in Amarillo next Friday and Saturday. Mrs. L. K. Stout, Pampa, is president of the local chapter.

Registration will begin at 10 o'clock Friday morning in Room 202 of the Herring Hotel, convention headquarters. At 12 o'clock Friday, the Pi Chapter of Amarillo will give a luncheon at Old Tascosa, honoring the state past presidents, state officers, national chairmen and past presidents of Pi Chapter. Miss Elizabeth Nixon, Amarillo, will preside.

At 2 o'clock Friday afternoon an executive board meeting will be held in the Crystal Ballroom of the Herring Hotel, with the state president, Miss Mitta Hill, Alpine, presiding. The first session of the convention as a whole will be an open meeting Friday evening at 7:30 in the Municipal Auditorium to which the public is invited. Dr. Dixie Young, Delta Kappa Gamma regional director in the Southwest, will speak on "One World, Biologically Speaking."
 At 9:45 Friday night a reception will be held in the Federated Club Rooms of the Municipal Auditorium for all Delta Kappa Gamma members. The hostesses will be Mrs. J. C. Cargile, Pampa; Gamma Theta, Borger; Gamma Kappa, Wellington; and Gamma Xi, Dumas.

Registration will be resumed at 8 Saturday morning at the Herring Hotel, and at 9 the first business session will be held at the Municipal Auditorium.

A John Snyder barbecue will be served in the Municipal Auditorium at noon Saturday, followed by square dancing and old-time music, and at 1:45 another open session will be held.

Climaxing the convention will be the Presidents and Founders Dinner at 7 o'clock Saturday evening in the Crystal Ballroom of the Herring Hotel. Mrs. Julius W. Walker, Plainview, a past state president of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and an honorary member of the Delta Kappa Gamma, will bring an address on "Building Unity Through Understanding."

Mrs. Stout will head the delegation from Pampa. She will attend a meeting of the executive board.

First Baptist Circle One Plans Luncheon Next Wednesday

Circle One of the First Baptist Women's Missionary Union met yesterday with Mrs. C. R. Spence for mission study. Mrs. A. French opened the meeting with prayer.

Mrs. T. V. Lane was in charge of the program on "The Field at Our Door," assisted by Mesdames C. E. Willingham, Stanley Brandt, Roy Holt, O. A. Davis, Spence, and French.

During the business session plans were made for a covered dish luncheon, and to reveal secret pals, at the meeting next Wednesday at 12:30 with Mrs. Roy Holt, 533 S. Russell.

The meeting was closed with prayer by Mrs. Davis.

Others present included Mesdames Harold Thornhill, Allen Vandover, and W. H. Lewis.

Varietas Study Club Plans Luncheon to Close the Club Year

Miss Ursula Little, Girl Scout Advisor, Honored at Breakfast

The Brownie and Girl Scout leaders of Pampa honored Miss Ursula Little, community advisor of Region Nine at a breakfast held in the dining room of the Terrace Grill Wednesday morning.

Miss Little made a very impressive talk concerning Scouting in Pampa. "People are unaware," she said, "of the work being done by the leaders in attaining the progress made by the girls in Scouting. Volunteer help," the speaker continued, "is needed to promote any worthwhile project." Miss Little urged that those having a little, or a lot, of time, talent, or desire to help or train the youth of the community, contact the local Scout Office.

The breakfast table was arranged in a "U" and was decorated in Scout colors of green and gold. Miniature Maypole centered the table, with Scout figures holding the Maypole ribbons. Place cards were the various Scout emblems mounted on trefles and favors were lilac and plum blossoms. Mrs. Noel Dalton was in charge of decorations.

Plans were discussed for the Brownie Day Camp and Tenderfoot Scout Camp to be held next month, also a covered-dish supper to be held May 2.

Attending the breakfast were Misses Little and Marie Steje, local Girl Scout executive; and Mesdames Harry Caylor, W. E. Moore, J. A. Grundy, W. A. Claunch, Haskel Folsom, W. L. Kretzmeier, Carl Stone, Quentin Williams, Roy Hall, D. E. Jameson, Roy Underwood, Earl Murphy, Leo Cook, I. T. Goodnight, Mesdames Watson Welch, M. D. Dwight, Harold Osborne, Emmett Osborne, R. F. Swing, Carlton Nance, John Crenell, W. O. Pruitt, Alvin Allston, Ervin Pursley, D. C. Culwell, Roland Dauer, Lynn Boyd, R. H. Nensiel, and E. N. Davis.

Mrs. Greene Hostess To Wayside H D Club

Meeting at 10:30 last Friday morning in the home of Mrs. W. A. Greene, member of the Wayside Home Demonstration Club spent the day with her. Miss Ann Hastings, Gray County home demonstration agent, met with the club and gave a demonstration on making shoe hassocks.

Most of the day was spent working on the hassocks, with one being completed.

A covered-dish luncheon was served at noon, with one guest present, Mrs. Leo Burton.

Others attending in addition to Miss Hastings were Mesdames Gus Greene, Homer Taylor, H. B. Taylor, Jr., Harold Osborne, Skeet Roberts, W. F. Taylor, Lowell Osborne, Doyle Osborne, and A. B. Carruth, and five children.

Committees appointed by the president were: Good Neighbor, Maxine Armstrong, Joyce Simpson and Billie Louise Harbison; finance, Juanita Armstrong, Nita Lou Walker and Donna Walker; recreation, Jewell Walker, Louise Armstrong and Helen Armstrong.

Take Off Ugly Fat With This Home Recipe

Here is an inexpensive home recipe for taking off unsightly weight and help bring back alertness and graceful slenderness. Just get from your druggist, four ounces of liquid vaseline (formerly called Barcol Concentrate). Add enough grapefruit juice to make a pint. Then just take two tablespoonsful twice a day. Wonderful results may be obtained quickly. Now you may slim down your future and lose pounds of ugly fat without back breaking exercise or starvation diets. It's easy to make and easy to take. Contains nothing harmful. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the slims, easy way to lose bulky weight and help regain slender, more graceful curves, return the empty bottle and get your money back.

AT YOUR FAVORITE GROCER'S

Harvest Day Meeting of Clarendon District, WSCS, Set for Wellington

At the semi-annual meeting here yesterday the Clarendon District, Women's Societies for Christian Service, held at the First Methodist Church, it was announced that the Harvest Day meeting of the district would be held in Wellington in November, the dates to be decided upon later.

Mrs. Sam Gholson, Wellington, was appointed to fill the vacancy as vice president, and Mrs. T. D. Weatherly, Memphis, was named district secretary on Status of Women. It was decided to send Mrs. Gholson to the Mount Sequoia Training School to be held at Fayetteville, Ark., June 30 through July 10.

A talk by Mrs. N. S. Daniel, LeFlore, district promotional secretary, was the highlight of the morning session. She urged at least one special honorary membership in each society, and also the organization of two new societies in the district. The devotionals were given by Mrs. O. R. Major, Groom, on "What of Thy Stewardship?" Roll call was answered by each society reporting on its most interesting activity.

In a report on the recent conference held at Big Spring, Mrs. Sam B. Cook gave a character sketch of Miss Dorothy Weber, associate secretary of Christian Social Relations of the National Board in New York City; and also of Dr. Prem Nath Dass, retired president of the Lucknow College. They were both speakers at the conference.

At the afternoon session special music was furnished by the Miami society including a duet by Mesdames W. C. Scott and W. E. Foglesong.

Rev. H. Clyde Smith, pastor of the Pampa First Methodist Church, was speaker for the afternoon. He told of four ways in which women

Committees Named by Women's Golf Assn. At Meet Wednesday

At the special meeting of the Pampa Women's Golf Association held yesterday morning at the Country Club, presided over by Mrs. Carl Leuders, president, committees for the coming golf season were appointed.

The committees include: Mrs. Mark A. Heath, tournament chairman; Mrs. W. F. Fades, prize committee chairman, assisted by Mrs. Keyes; Mrs. William T. Frasier, transportation chairman, assisted by Mrs. D. E. Cook; and Mrs. B. T. Adkins was appointed to assist on the publicity committee.

It was decided to hold a business meeting the first Wednesday in each month at 10 a. m., and plans were made to play each Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock for the next month. Refreshments will be served by Mrs. Mick Prigmore and Mrs. Charles H. Ashby, followed by play with prizes to be awarded.

Refreshments of coffee and doughnuts were served following the business meeting yesterday, after which a putting contest was held with Mrs. R. M. Bellamy and Mrs. Fraser winning the prizes.

Attending were Mesdames Leuders, Adkins, Frasier, Fades, Heath, Bellamy, Ashby, Cook, Primrose, Keyes, J. J. Hutchens, Frank Baker, Charles Duenkel, A. J. Beagle, George Cash, Earle Scheig, John Hinds and Ralph Julliard.

The Panhandle Women's Golf Association will meet at the Amarillo Country Club on Tuesday, May 27. Luncheon will be served. Mrs. William T. Frasier can be contacted for transportation.

The Panhandle Association is composed of two clubs in Amarillo, two in Borger and the local group.

Mrs. Waters Is Civic Culture Club Delegate To State Convention

Mrs. H. W. Waters, president-elect, was appointed delegate to the state Federation convention in Houston next month, with Mrs. Irvin Cole as alternate, at the meeting of the Civic Culture Club Tuesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Waters, 629 N. Frost.

Mrs. F. M. Sweeney, president, presided over the business session and roll call was answered with current events on India. Mrs. Cole was elected club reporter for the new club year beginning in September.

In her talk on India Mrs. Brandon said that the country is a very interesting one, especially now that history is being written there. It is restless at present, she said, as the people are very anxious to have their independence. England has promised independence by June 1, 1948, after almost 20 years of rule, if India is able to show herself able to unite in self-government, the speaker concluded.

The hostess served delicious refreshments to the following members: Mesdames Cole, L. J. McCarty, E. A. Shackelford, Sweeney, J. B. Townsend, Kalle Vincent, Brandon, Lloyd Finhart, Emmett Osborne, Kenneth Meyers, D. W. Coffman, and R. E. Dauer.

Baker P-TA Will Honor Mothers of Pre-School Children

Members of the B. M. Baker School P-TA Executive Board, in special session Tuesday afternoon, decided to have a tea during the social hour following the regular meeting in May, in honor of mothers of pre-school children.

All mothers who have children entering school this Fall are urged to attend.

Several standing committee chairmen were appointed for the coming year during the meeting.

Mrs. Rupert Orr Is Circle 6 Hostess

Mrs. Rupert Orr was hostess yesterday afternoon to Circle 6 of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. T. H. Baker opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. L. A. Baxter presided over the business meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Cecil Cullum. Mrs. J. A. Meek taught the Bible lesson, and

WE, THE WOMEN

A Butcher's Humiliation Holds No Joy

By RUTH MILLETT NEA Staff Writer

Remember that beautiful day-dream with which we used to console ourselves during the meat shortage — when the butcher was king and we used to feel like beggars when we asked humbly for a pound of hamburger or a package of wrapped-up meat we could not examine until we got home?

The dream was of the day when the butcher shops would be full of meat and the customers could pick and choose and make such remarks as, "That piece has too much fat," or, "That steak you sold me yesterday was as tough as shoe-leather."

Well, the dream came true for me the other day. Waiting my turn in a butcher shop, I watched a woman who would have tried the patience of Job.

This woman examined piece after piece of meat, and then made unflattering remarks about the meat or about the price. She even had the butcher cut one large roast in two just to see if it had as much fat to the pound as she suspected. And when she found it did have, she turned down both pieces.

Through it all, the butcher miraculously kept his patience and his temper. He didn't say, as the butchers were saying during the shortage, "Do you want it or don't you?" He didn't turn his back on her in "take-or-leave-it" defiance.

He just went right on dragging out meat for the choosy woman's inspection.

Nothing but sympathy. We used to think we'd feel a triumphant satisfaction when the

THE STORY: After a lifetime of dazing the world, the great actress Sophie van Eyck comes home to the little Pampa town where she was born...

Colonial—you know, spinning wheels and hooked rugs. She'd turn over in her grave if she could see it now. That is, she added in an afterthought, "she would if she were dead."

"Maybe she is dead and doesn't know it," Victoria said. "Oh, no, she couldn't be," he answered solemnly. "I'd have heard if she were."

WELL, thought Vicky, anyone who makes such a feeble attempt at humor deserves to be taken seriously.

"And my great-uncle Adam saw her at a symphony concert only a couple of months ago," he went on. "That's when she told him Madame van Eyck had bought her house."

"Yes," said Vicky proudly. "That's my grandmother."

"Who painted it?" he asked, regarding it critically with his head on one side.

"I hope the artist named Marcel Perrault."

"Never heard of him. What else has he done?"

"Only 45 other portraits, all of Grandmother."

"I hope the others are better than this," said Vicky. "Sort of what you'd call Cubism, isn't it?"

"Well," she said in admiration, "I see you're an officer. I trust you are also a gentleman."

"Can't you tell?" he asked anxiously.

"Oh—it's so hard to tell when you have a uniform on, isn't it? You look alike. Come in while I get my coat."

Salty followed her into the drawing room, looking around. "This room doesn't look a bit as it did when the Peabodys lived here," he said, his tone implying the change was all for the worse.

"She went in for New England."

Texas Today

By JACK RUTLEDGE

So you're absent minded? Don't worry. You have company. Take the Harlingen man who asked a friend to drive him to church.

"Sure," said the friend, "but where's your car?"

"I drove it to Matamoros last night," was the answer. "When the party broke up I forgot all about it and rode home with another guy."

Then there's Matt Jones of Gatesville. Friends recently received Christmas cards from him.

They are, Jones said, the world's only post-Christmas cards. At the bottom he explained that he didn't have time Christmas to mail others.

The post-Christmas cards are from "Texas" only semi-weekly tabloid, the Correll County News, from Matt, Matt, Jr., Joe, Johnny, Jan and Sally Maude.

As an afterthought, apparently (or maybe he meant business) Jones added at the bottom of his card: "Office supplies."

In Corpus Christi, a man has applied 27 years late for letters of administration for the estate of his great-grandmother who died in 1906. He's busy trying to convince the Nueces County Probate Court that it's better late than never.

He is Burney Parker, Jr., an employee of the First State Bank of Bishop, Tex., and the Court action, he says, is necessary in order to divide $6,300 awarded the estate of Mrs. Rachel T. Parker.

But worst of all is John Van Cronkhite of Harlingen, who sold a man a radio and then forgot the buyer's name. It was supposed to be paid for by installments, and Van Cronkhite had about decided to wipe the thing off the books as a bad debt when the man came to his office and gave him a check for a monthly payment.

It goes on from there. Van Cronkhite put the check in a shirt pocket and forgot the whole thing again.

He sent the shirt to the laundry. It did such a good wash job that the check, as well as the shirt, was washed completely clean.

Van Cronkhite is still wondering who he sold the radio to.

ARRIVING AT JUSTICE

In parts of Tennessee the elder men consider whittling a fine art, indispensable to profound thinking.

I saw this exemplified at a murder trial. While witness after witness gave evidence, the jury sat whittling, methodically, eyes averted from the witness stand, concentrating intently. In the midst of an important bit of testimony, one of the jurymen sat under to the judge and whispered in his ear. The judge picked up his gavel and turned to the court.

"Ladies and gentlemen," he said, "it is most important that this jury have access to everything that will aid them in arriving at a just verdict. Mr. Sheriff, in order that nothing may impair their deliberations, you will go down to Lash Ray's wood mill and procure three whittling sticks to replenish the exhausted stock of three jurymen. Two pine and one cedar have been specified. This court will recess for thirty minutes."

CLOSE CALL

DENVER—(UP)—Patrolmen Ira Marlette and G. Martin Johnson attended the policeman's ball as scheduled last night—but a skunk almost kept them away.

Cruising in suburban Denver, they came upon the skunk. Denver policemen can't shoot skunks—they have orders to bring them to the city zoo alive.

They trailed the skunk for three blocks, and breathed a sigh of relief as he ambled into adjoining Arapahoe County. They then turned back to the ball.

Migratory birds native to the United States are more than welcome to come in on their own power, but it's against the law for you to bring one across the border as a pet.

WEEK-END SPECIALS

A good tourist court in Trinidad, Colo., taking in 1000 per mo. Take $20.00.

I have a good brick building 18x80 foot, with living quarters in the back that must be sold at once. The living quarters alone would rent for a month. This would make someone a dandy combination. It's located at White Deer.

Want to buy a duplex worth the money. I've got another old boy in a cramp, and I mean he is needing some money. Anytime I get anybody in a cramp, something's got to sell. Anyway, it is bringing in considerable rent, and is worth the money at what I'm asking it at.

I have a good 320-acre farm just across the line in Wheeler County. This farm is well improved. It has a good farm house, good barns, chicken houses, well with overhead storage, plenty grainaries, well fenced and cross fenced. The soil is not sandy, but of a sandy loam nature. It will grow anything. I would like to get around with an acre for this, but would try and trade with you. I reserve 1/2 the mineral.

I can sell you a grand 600-acre ranch just south of here. Not too far, for around 1.50 an acre, and it is supposed to be one of the best ranches in that county.

150-acre farm. About 60 acres broke out, balance in grass for 30.00 an acre.

220-acre farm. East of Pampa in Gray County. 180 acres in good wheat, 50 acres good short grass, old 3-room house, but has a new windmill. Will keep 1/2 the mineral, and take $7.50 an acre.

Have around 400 acres of land, right close in. Lays on the pavement, and there are some royalty payments. The buyer would get. In fact the payments would pay all the upkeep and taxes. If you want this house and will take it right now, it will take you for it. It's all modern, well built, new decorated. All you would have to do is move it, and then move it. It's one of the best built houses in the area.

I have a house on Christine St. I want to sell. If you would be interested in a house in this location would be glad to show it. It might sell for a bargain.

I can sell a good business lot out on Duncan St., and can guarantee the best of good buys in houses, or money making business opportunities. We have a large number of ranches, also several good tourist courts, located on 65 Highway and in Colorado.

We appreciate your business.

Oilers Take League Opener From Berger's Gassers

Amarillo, Lubbock, Pampa, Lamesa Win

(By The Associated Press) Amarillo, Lubbock, Pampa and Lamesa won opening games of the West Texas-New Mexico League last night.

Spuders Still Hold Undefeated Record In Big State League

(By The Associated Press) The Wichita Falls Spuders continued unbeaten today in the Big State League, cashing in with two unearned runs last night to clip Waco 2-0 and shove the Dons toward the cellar.

Texarkana walloped Greenville 13-6 to remain close on the heels of the flying Spuders. Sherman beat Paris 9-1 to go into third place and Gainsville came out of the cellar region by downing Austin 11-5. Paris thus definitely took over last place.

Tommy Finger gave Waco three hits. Charley Weisler was almost as good, allowing Wichita Falls just four safeties.

Sherman jumped on the Paris pitchers for five tallies in the sixth to break up what had been a good game until that point.

The Gainesville Owls won their first game at home, coming from behind to roll up six tallies in the sixth inning. They sent three Austin hurlers to the showers.

Tyler and Lufkin Remain Unbeaten

(By The Associated Press) Tyler's Trojans and Lufkin's Foresters remained unbeaten today as the Lone Star League moved to its third games.

The Trojans earned Jacksonville 13-1 last night with ten-run splurge in the eighth while Lufkin again beat Bryan—this time 12-6 by pounding the ball for 16 hits.

In other games Longview defeated Marshall 12-4 and Henderson downed Kilgore 6-2.

TCU Golfers Win

(By The Associated Press) Texas Christian University golfers defeated Texas Tech 4-2 in a team match over the Colonial Contry Club course yesterday.

Payte's Superb Pitching and Oilers' Many Hits Win, 9-1

George Payte, rookie righthanded hurler from Boswell, Okla., led Pampa's West Texas-New Mexico League champion Oilers to an easy 9-1 win over the Berger Gassers, in the league season opener in Oiler Park yesterday afternoon.

Payte was three strikes from pitcher's paradise, a no hit ball game, in the ninth inning and had two men away, when Leon Cato, Gasser centerfielder, stepped up and drove the first delivery straight back through the pitcher's box for a clean single.

During the whole show the Oilers got 13 hits, walked six times and took advantage of four errors to score their 9 runs. The Gassers got three hits, all in the last third of the ninth, to score one lone tally.

Bill Hair, veteran Gasser hurler, hardly got on the mound before the Oiler battery had him in trouble. Second sacker R. C. Oley, hit the opening pitch of the game for a clean single into left field. The fans had hardly stopped cheering before Tom O'Connell, new Oiler shortstop, caught the second pitch of the game for another single.

Bob Bailey, first sacker, popped out, Hair gave Tony Range, third sacker, a walk, filling the bases. Joe Fortin, dependable rightfielder, hit a long single to center field that drove Oley and O'Connell home for the first runs of the season.

Al Johnston, centerfielder, got a walk. Manager Grover Seitz got on first and Range and Fortin got home on an error by T. J. Johnston, Gasser left fielder. Al Johnston and Seitz came home on catcher Whitzy Warren's single "o'right field. Southpaw Clayton Pries took over for Hair and Payte went down swinging for the second out, and Oley's piny infield grounder was an out.

In the second Payte struck out the first two batters and grabbed an easy grounder to toss Ethel Cox out for the third. At the bottom half of the inning Pries took charge and set down O'Connell, Bailey and Range to retire the side.

Payte, in the third, shut out T. Johnston, Bob Kramolich and Pries. Fortin was thrown out. Vernon Gilchrist to Manager Gordon Nell and Johnston hit a single to left, but was later caught off first, by Pries. Fortin threw to first and put out by Nell's toss to Dub Glover. Seitz was walked. Warren got a right field single and Payte singled the same way.

Oley and O'Connell both single and Seitz and Warren came home, but Payte caught at home for the third out.

Plans Started For Organizing Softball League

Initial plans for the formation of an Industrial Softball League were made Tuesday night at a meeting of representatives from eight local firms who are placing teams in the league.

Plans for the league were not completed due to the fact that those present felt that there are several other business firms that might want to enter teams.

It is known that games can be played at the Skelly Oil Company Field at Skellytown and at Phillips Petroleum Field near Lefors. It is believed that another field will be available here soon. The Phillips Field is now being repaired and additional bleachers will be built.

Representatives of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Lewis Hardware, Humble Oil Company, Cabot Carbon Company, Furr Food Stores, Phillips Petroleum Company, Skelly Oil Company and Texas Carbon Company were present at the meeting and entered their teams in the league.

Any team from Pampa, Lefors, Sherman, or any nearby community is invited to participate. Anyone interested in entering a team is asked to see Bob Bray at the NEWS.

Another meeting concerning the league's formation will be held in the City Courtroom next Tuesday night, starting at 7:30.

Room 213 Takes Eighth Graders' Softball Banner

The softball team from Room 213 won the 8th Grade Championship yesterday, when they defeated Room 114, 6 to 5, in the final game of the Pampa Junior 8th Grade Intramural Softball Tournament.

The game had been postponed several times because of bad weather. Play was also started in the 7th Grade division and Room 218 beat Room 213 by a score of 7 to 5, in the opening game.

Refugio Hernandez, Room 213 short stop who was the most valuable hitter in the championship game, batted in three runs. Dunbar Richardson, Room 218 first baseman, was the heaviest hitter in the 7th Grade game, when he knocked a homer that drove in three runs.

Play was also started in the 7th Grade division and Room 218 beat Room 213 by a score of 7 to 5, in the opening game. Refugio Hernandez, Room 213 short stop who was the most valuable hitter in the championship game, batted in three runs.

The victory raised Tulsa from eighth to fifth place. Dallas dropped to the cellar.

Quentin Altizer, Dallas' starting pitcher, left the game after being hit on his pitching arm by a line drive in the third inning.

Russell Burns' third home run of the season with two on gave Beaumont a 5-3 victory over Shreveport. The defeat dropped Shreveport back a notch to sixth place.

The same team's play today. A new chemical prevents the sprouting of potatoes in storage.

Local Golfers Qualify For Medal Tournament

Fifty-one local golfers have qualified for the Pampa Country Club Medal Play Tournament to be held on the Country Club Course next Saturday and Sunday.

The tournament will consist of 27 holes. The score made on the qualifying 9 holes will be added to the final 18-hole score.

Baker reminded local golfers that qualifying play for the City Tournament will begin next Sunday. A Dutch luncheon will be held May 3, and final play starts May 4.

Veteran Campaigner and Youth Share Texas Pitching Honors

(By MARSHALL COMERER) DALLAS.—A veteran campaigner and an 18-year-old youth shared pitching laurels in the Texas League last night.

Veteran Ed "King" Cole put the San Antonio Missions back in the league lead with a 2-1 victory over the Houston Buffs. Bob Rose, 18-year-old left-hander, pitched the Fort Worth Cats to a 7-4 win over the Oklahoma City Indians that dropped the Indians from first to second place.

In other games Tulsa beat Dallas, 5-4, and Beaumont defeated Shreveport, 5-3.

Cole gave up six hits in gaining his third victory against one loss. His teammates solved Al Pappal's knuckleball for seven hits, four of them in the third inning when the Missions scored their two runs. It was the first defeat for Pappal, who has won two games.

Fort Worth got Young Ross off to a good start with six runs in the first inning and added another in the seventh. Ross held the Indians to five hits and an unearned run until the ninth when the Indians put on a three-run rally. In 9 1/3 innings Ross gave up four runs and six hits and struck out seven.

The Dallas-Tulsa game was a wild melee. Dallas used 19 players, including six pitchers. Tulsa used three hurlers. Arguments were frequent. Manager Al Vincent, third baseman Red Davis and pinch-hitter Al Carr were chased from the game.

The victory raised Tulsa from eighth to fifth place. Dallas dropped to the cellar. Quentin Altizer, Dallas' starting pitcher, left the game after being hit on his pitching arm by a line drive in the third inning.

Russell Burns' third home run of the season with two on gave Beaumont a 5-3 victory over Shreveport. The defeat dropped Shreveport back a notch to sixth place. The same team's play today. A new chemical prevents the sprouting of potatoes in storage.

Plans Started For Organizing Softball League

Initial plans for the formation of an Industrial Softball League were made Tuesday night at a meeting of representatives from eight local firms who are placing teams in the league.

Plans for the league were not completed due to the fact that those present felt that there are several other business firms that might want to enter teams.

It is known that games can be played at the Skelly Oil Company Field at Skellytown and at Phillips Petroleum Field near Lefors. It is believed that another field will be available here soon. The Phillips Field is now being repaired and additional bleachers will be built.

Representatives of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Lewis Hardware, Humble Oil Company, Cabot Carbon Company, Furr Food Stores, Phillips Petroleum Company, Skelly Oil Company and Texas Carbon Company were present at the meeting and entered their teams in the league.

Any team from Pampa, Lefors, Sherman, or any nearby community is invited to participate. Anyone interested in entering a team is asked to see Bob Bray at the NEWS.

Another meeting concerning the league's formation will be held in the City Courtroom next Tuesday night, starting at 7:30.

Fort Worth got Young Ross off to a good start with six runs in the first inning and added another in the seventh. Ross held the Indians to five hits and an unearned run until the ninth when the Indians put on a three-run rally. In 9 1/3 innings Ross gave up four runs and six hits and struck out seven.

The Dallas-Tulsa game was a wild melee. Dallas used 19 players, including six pitchers. Tulsa used three hurlers. Arguments were frequent. Manager Al Vincent, third baseman Red Davis and pinch-hitter Al Carr were chased from the game.

The victory raised Tulsa from eighth to fifth place. Dallas dropped to the cellar. Quentin Altizer, Dallas' starting pitcher, left the game after being hit on his pitching arm by a line drive in the third inning.

NEW HOME OR HUSKY CREWS

SEATTLE.—(NEA)—Washington's famous crews will get their long-awaited new home, the board of regents having approved a $350,000 appropriation. Contracts will be let as quickly as possible.

The new crew house will be located north of the present canoe house and east of the baseball field. It will have 500 lockers, room for 24 shells, a work shop for famous shell-building George Pocock and a crew dining room.

The Husky crew house for many years has been an old Naval hangar left from World War I.

Heaviest Early Season Batting In Years Booming in Majors

Major league fans are witnessing one of the greatest early season displays of home run hitting in years and the bigger bats are booming in the National League which is famed more for its finesse than its power.

Rival Baseball Coaches Whisper 'Layne Complex'

AUSTIN — (P) — Rival baseball coaches in the Southwest Conference speak in whispers about that "Layne Complex" when they go up against the University of Texas.

But complex or what, Blond, Bobby Layne, the greatest passer Texas ever had in football, is moving them down on the diamond, compelling the outstanding record any pitcher ever made in the circuit.

Former Champions in Women's Golf Tourney

CORPUS CHRISTI — (P) — The defending champion and former champions are featured today in one of the quarterfinal matches of the 26th annual Texas Women's Golf Association tournament.

Defending champion Kay Pearson of Houston meets Mrs. Harold Wellbacher of San Antonio, and Mrs. Frank Goldthwaite of Fort Worth, former Texas women's Open champion, plays Mrs. W. B. Abbey of San Antonio.

Sports Get Trophy

DALLAS — (P) — For the second straight year Shreveport is winner of the Texas League opening day attendance trophy.

House Committee Approves Walker 'Fish-Game' Bill

AUSTIN — (P) — Establishment of public hunting and fishing preserves regionally over the state was a step nearer realization today.

The House Committee on Game and Fisheries last night approved a bill by Rep. Miller Walker of Beaumont, heartily recommending its passage and voicing the intention of pressing for immediate passage of the measure to set up such hunting grounds.

The Walker bill gives the Game Commission power to acquire public or private lands for such preserves, and power to regulate hunting and fishing on them. It has had no such power under existing statutes.

Keeneland Race Called 'Benefit'

LEXINGTON, Ky. — (P) — They are running what amounts to a benefit at Keeneland today in the Blue Grass stakes for Furlless and Warren, Wright and plain Ben Jones, although at last reports the horse and the owner and the trainer were doing very well indeed.

Of course Furlless is going to have to show up and run around the race track for a mile and an eighth. But only three others—All Kentucky Derby candidates—were brave enough to enter against him.

The tall galloper is the 3-1 Kentucky Derby winter book second choice, and the "Benefit" will amount to a $12,000 pay-check to the winner in this 23rd running of the Hardboots' top D rby prep—a prep that has produced two winners (Shut Out, 1942, and Bubbling Over, 1929) who went on to take the necklaces of roses at Churchill Downs.

HELM FOUNDATION LOS ANGELES, (NEA) — Gerald Tucker of Oklahoma, John Harris of Texas, George Kastof of Holy Cross, Ralph Hamilton of Indiana, Don Braskdale of UCLA, Ed Kofenberger of Duke, Sid Tannenbaum of New York University, Arnold Ferrin of Utah, Ralph Beard of Kentucky and Lehard Byrd of West Virginia comprise the Helm Athletic America college basketball team of 1947.

I have read your advertisement regarding the current telephone strike with a great deal of interest. Do you really believe that a telephone operator can live on $27.00 at current prices? Why don't you prepare a budget and run with your advertisements showing how one of your operators can live on your starting wages? You might also prepare a supplementary budget showing how she can live in the event she has dependents.

Pampans Giving To China Relief

The local campaign to raise Pampa's quota for United Service to China Fund is meeting with willing response, according to the Rev. B. A. Norris, chairman of the drive.

"The work done by American agencies in China," Rev. Norris said, "is so well known and so deserving that United Service to China, as the coordinating agency in their drive for funds, meets a ready support."

"United Service to China," he explained, "supports in whole or in part The American Bureau for Medical Aid to China, supplying medical teachers, surgical equipment, drugs, supplies and the like; the Associated Boards for Christian Colleges in China, whose primary purpose is to give young Chinese a college education based on Western civilization and Western democracy; the American Friends Service Committee, which transports medical supplies, patients and personnel; the China Aid

Committee, which ministers to children; the Church World Service, well known for its disaster relief work; the American-Chinese Committee of the Mass Education Movement, which is making a beginning in the eradication of China's widespread illiteracy; and numerous other welfare agencies.

"A very small percentage of the money raised is used for overhead expenses," he continued; "the Chinese will get the benefit of practically all of the $8,000,000 now being raised throughout the United States."

Canada had 3,215 residents when her first census was taken in 1666.

"As Homelike As a Barn"

Cy Hartman finally got his new barn painted, but plenty of folks had a hand in it. Whenever someone got a free day, or a little extra time, they'd come over and help out with paint and brush.

hanging from the rafters; makeshift tables spread heavy with food; and Ed Carey's fiddle playing while the folks enjoyed their beer—Cy's barn was sure a mighty hospitable-looking place!

And Cy, to show his appreciation, held a big "barn warming" Saturday—for all the folks who'd helped him (but not barring those who couldn't). Ma Hartman supplied sandwiches, and Cy rolled out a mellow keg of beer.

From where I sit, it's just about as appropriate to have a barn warming as a housewarming... if only because it's another chance to get neighbors together in a spirit of good fellowship.

You'd never think of a barn as "homelike." But with those lanterns

Leaves From a Correspondent's Life Note Book

By HAL BOYLE
GALVESTON—(P)—Sam Maceo is an ex-barber with a frank and winning way—so winning that he now operates the plushiest gambling parlor in the kingdom of Texas. Maceo, one of the best known night club entrepreneurs in America, is recognized also by the local population as a behind-the-scenes ruler of this resort city, where gambling is almost as wide open "in the season" as in Miami. Although the sources of his influence are cloaked behind a velvet curtain of polished gentility, Maceo loves the spotlight as much as any of the high-priced handleaders and entertainers he imports from Manhattan. Few celebrities pass through this island city without receiving an invitation from the night club maestro's press agent to be a dinner guest at his glittering "Balinese Room," a chromium saloon equal in elegance to the best along famous 52nd Street in New York. There Maceo holds evening court with the regal gentility of an Oxford-educated Indian prince, surrounded by Sicilian relatives and well-mannered retainers so smoothly poured into their tailored buckskins that their muscles hardly show. Celebrities who wish after dinner to retire to a small adjoining room and try their luck at roulette or dice are free to do so. Less noted figures go through a careful screening process before being allowed into this inner sanctum of chance. Maceo, a short, tanned, middle-aged man with curly hair, contributes freely to civic improvement projects and charities. He is currently helping sponsor a major entertainment for the relief of the Texas City disaster victims. "He would be hurt to be regarded as an ordinary gambler," said an acquaintance. He regards himself more as a business man interested in boosting Galveston. This self-appraisal is shared by a number of leading citizens. More than a dozen, including some ministers, once journeyed to Austin to plead with the State Department of Public Safety to leave Maceo alone. The department's famed Texas Rangers had been seizing and furniture in one of Maceo's establishments.

Sam was accused by the U. S. government in 1937 of acting as the brains of a $5,000,000 to $25,000,000 nationwide conspiracy to violate the Federal Narcotic Laws. A Federal Court jury acquitted him in 1942.

Maceo currently operates several nightclub-gambling houses. "A joint to fit every pocketbook," as one patron said. The "Balinese Room" annex is for spenders in the tired oil millionaire class.

It is constructed in a manner strategically pleasing to Maceo but annoying to his old tormentors, the Texas Rangers. It is situated on a pier running several hundred feet out into the bay.

The nightclub and gambling room are enclosed in a windowless air-conditioned structure with no exits and one entrance—at the head of the pier. There is a checking point here which enables guards to spot and identify potential raiders or highjackers.

To get from this first point of scrutiny to the nightclub door the Rangers must sprint 165 steps down the pier corridor. By then the management is ready.

"Welcome," a spokesman says. Then he turns to the night club crowd and announces: "Ladies and gentlemen, we give you—the Texas Rangers."

The bandleader strikes up "The Eyes of Texas are Upon You." The crowd stands up and the red-faced Rangers file angrily on through into the gambling room. The chips, dice and roulette wheel have been whisked to a secret hideaway, and flustered patrons are clumsily pretending to play pool on the green-felt covered gaming tables.

"I ever walked in there and saw a guy who really knew which one was the cue ball I think I'd faint," drawled one exasperated Ranger.

But on one occasion the Rangers reversed the picture when one of their men in evening clothes got past the unsuspecting guards. Walking up to a chip table he tossed on it the emblem of his authority and said quietly: "Shoot the badge."

It is estimated that there are more than two trillion tons of accessible coal left in the principal fields of the United States.

AN EYE TO THE FUTURE

The death of Albert Combs of Pampa, the man who came as a boy of 10 to Texas to make a fortune in cattle and oil, marks the passing of one of this area's real pioneers.

Like other of his contemporaries, he faced the hardships of a new land, but he had an intrinsic faith in the future, ever envisioning with unvarnished eye this land one day fully populated and serving a great purpose in our country.

He was right in his faith, for those things have come to pass. The great Panhandle Plains country has much to offer yet, and there will come a time when pioneers of this present day can look back with satisfaction upon their achievement, as Mr. Combs must have.

REPEAT PERFORMANCE ABROAD

Henry A. Wallace, now visiting England, was asked his tangible remedy for present world ills. "We must make it clear," he answered, "that American power will be used to encourage productivity for the benefit of the common man, rather than to divide the world in two."

That seems to us neither very tangible nor very specific. It will please those who find unending delight in Mr. Wallace's repetitive theme song about Mr. Wallace's common man. But how should we make this clear? Mr. Wallace doesn't say.

Because Mr. Wallace is vague doesn't mean, however, that he is simply an ungracious guest, like England's Prof. Harold Laski in America. Mr. Wallace is a popular figure with many supporters in the Labor Party. He accuses Mr. Truman and Mr. Evin of war mongering, as he does Mr. Truman and Mr. Marshall at home. And in doing so he echoes the criticism of many Laborites against their government's policy toward Russia.

It seems a pity that Mr. Wallace has never sat at a conference table with Mr. Stalin or Mr. Molotov and been subjected to the pressure of their bludgeoning diplomacy. He might then find, as other American negotiators obviously have discovered, that a firm stand against present Russian tactics is the only alternative to a complete capitulation to Russia's insistent demands.

In Hollywood

BY ERSKINE JOHNSON

(Johnson on KPDM Monday thru Friday, 3 p. m.)
HOLLYWOOD—Hollywood's two-timers are getting a break. I mean the ones who launched their film careers inauspiciously, failed to get anywhere in particular, and then came back for the second time in starring roles.

The list includes Bill Lundigan, Howard De Silva, Michael North, and Paule Croset.

Da Silva gets star billing in "Blaze of Noon." He first came to Hollywood in 1938 for "Abe Lincoln in Illinois," played in 30 films while under contract to Warner Brothers for a year. But he took the role of Bud on Broadway in "Oklahoma" and Paramount contract to make him a star.

Ted North played bits in B pictures for three years at 20th Century-Fox before going into the Navy. He checked out of the Navy into a contract at RKO. It lasted only six months. He was down to $3.85 when Mike Curtis gave him a lift. He changed his name to Michael North and gave him a starring role in "The Unsuspected."

Bill Lundigan wasn't getting anywhere with a studio contract. He decided to free-lance after 10 years of "learning the business." Along came the war and he served with the marines on Okinawa. CHANGES HER NAME

For three years Rita Corday struggle with unimportant roles in B pictures at RKO. Finally she was fired. She went to Broadway looking for a role in a play. She didn't get one. She returned to Hollywood and took dramatic lessons. She changed the color of her hair from brown to blonde. She changed her name to Paule Croset. Result: The feminine lead opposite Doug Fairbanks, Jr. in "The Exile."

"If your first you don't succeed, try, try again" may be trite. But sometimes it works in Hollywood.

Hollywood Re-examination: Although Barbara Stanwyck has been in Hollywood for more than a decade and has starred in 52 films, she wears a bathing suit in the first time in "The Other Love." Nice, too.

Deanna Durbin will do a Betty Hutton for one song in her next flicker. "Something to Watch." The song "You Wanna Keep Your Baby Looking Good."

Joe E. Lewis, who is equally famous for his comedy and the money he loses at race tracks, tells me that several years ago at Hialeah he went broke at the end of the fifth race and was bemoaning his financial status to a bookie friend.

"Both of us in the sixth is the best bet of the day," moaned Joe. "But I haven't got any money."

"The nag hasn't a chance," replied the bookie, "and I'd bet $100 on a pin that he can't win." Joe turned down the lapel of his coat, plucked a pin he was keeping there and said, "Here you have a bet."

Both born won the race, and Joe went to his friend to collect.

The bookie counted out $100. Joe reached for it, but the bookie slapped his hand.

"I just wanted you to look at it," he said. "I bet you $100 to a pin—and you gave me a needle."

COAL AND GAS BILL ... By Peter Edson
WASHINGTON (NEA)—This great capital is a town where nothing is ever simple or that it appears to be. When a gas gets up and makes a speech about the need for conserving the light of the moon and extols the beauties of starlight, look out. He probably has a vested interest in the power company that furnishes juice for the street lighting system, and he wants to cut down on the competition which the moon gives the stars. The safe rule in any new situation here is always to look under the bed, behind the door, around the corner, and in the closet, for the real explanation of who is who is shooting at whom.

All this is more or less appropriate to the sudden concern which the Washington coal lobby has taken in this country's supply of natural gas. To hear spokesmen for the coal industry talk, the way U. S. natural gas resources are being wasted away is nothing short of a national scandal. They're probably right, but that isn't the whole story.

Background of this situation is that the natural gas boys have a bill before Congress to get themselves out from under regulation by the Federal Power Commission. This is known as the Risley bill. To hear Congressman (R-Okla.) Risley talk about it, he is a bill to save the free enterprise system and put an end to wicked, interfering government regulation.

Congressman Risley doesn't say it in so many words, but by inference it is apparent that what he is really interested in is the right of his constituents in the great Huoston natural gas field to sell their gas to anyone who will buy for as much money as they can get. That's only human and natural, and there's nothing wrong with it.

COAL LOBBY ON THE OTHER SIDE
But now get the other side of the story. No sooner had Congressman Risley dropped his bill into the hopper than the coal men got busy. They cooked up a bill. It's known as the Dolliver bill, after Republican Congressman James I. Dolliver of Iowa, who was prevailed upon to introduce it.

What the Dolliver bill would do is regulate the natural gas industry more closely, so as to save this precious fuel for the noble purposes of national defense in time of need and for uses "giving the highest social benefits." In everyday language that means home cooking and heating the bath and dishwasher.

In only one place do the coal and Dolliver bill, by the way, is an alliance that includes not only the hard and soft coal mine operators, but also the coal labor unions, the coal-carrying railroads, and the railroad labor brotherhoods.

The way their collective hearts bleed over how this country's natural gas resources are being wasted away is really pitiful to behold. Although Congressman Risley says there will be no shortage of natural gas in the foreseeable future, Tom J. McGrath, lawyer for the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad who appeared as spokesman for the coal lobby, says there is only a 30 year supply of gas.

In only one place do the coal and gas lobbies—the Risley and Dolliver bills—agree. They both think the news behind the news

WASHINGTON
By RAY TUCKER

COMPLAINTS—The thirty-six American newspapermen covering the Moscow conference of Foreign Ministers have forwarded confidential complaints to their home offices about Secretary George W. Marshall's austere attitude toward this country's press representation. Although admitting his ability, they question the wisdom of his aloofness at such a critical moment.

Unlike Bevin, Molotov and Bidart, according to these reportorial memos, Secretary Marshall has not kept the American viewpoint to the fore through briefing of this nation's newspaper representatives. He saw them only twice during the month-long meeting, and on both occasions they had no change to talk to him intimately or confidentially.

In the past it has been the custom for the head of the American delegation to keep American reporters informed on all matters affecting this nation's welfare.

REGRET—Secretary Marshall, according to these criticisms, acts as if he were still chief of staff. During the war, security considerations naturally prevented him from outlining his plans. Nor will he permit his publicity men, including the extremely able Michael McDermott, to give an off-the-record "fill-in" to the American correspondents.

It was with extreme regret that the writers made this criticism of the American Secretary of State, for they have been impressed by his great ability, integrity and his courageous opposition to Russian demands. But they do make the point that the nation's interests would have been served better if he had maintained closer ties with the American press at Moscow.

VETO—President Truman's political advisers have been warning him for several weeks that he can't afford to veto any Republican tax reduction measure if he hopes to be elected in 1948. His surprise announcement of a $1,250,000,000 surplus for the end of the current fiscal year gives them hope that he may take advice on this question.

As the ballot-box strategists see the 1948 picture, Mr. Truman must get the mass vote which Franklin D. Roosevelt attracted to his standard in four Presidential contests, especially the labor and metropolitan area groups. He will make an appeal to the workmaning man by disapproving any anti-labor bill such as the House has passed by an overwhelming majority.

Even if the Senate softens the Hartley measure, it is expected that the President will veto it with the suggestion that a few amendments be made and separate bills be passed. In taking this attitude toward any Republican anti-labor program, Mr. Truman will be making an outright play for the support of millions of working men and women.

TAXES—But the millions who might back him because of his liberal labor stand are the same people who are insistent that they be relieved of part of the burden of extremely heavy wartime taxation. For him to oppose any G. O. P. program of tax reduction would be to split the mass vote which he aims to corral by championing the workmaning man's cause.

As he demonstrated when he rejected last November's Republican victory by scrapping almost every vestige of New Dealism, President Truman is an extremely responsive and agile individual. Unlike F. D. E., he regards himself as the representative symbol of the masses, and he thinks that he looks upon the Presidential office as a trusteeship, not as a dictatorship.

In view of that attitude, and especially in view of the demonstration that the great majority of Americans want some sort of pocketbook relief, Democratic politicians begin to believe that Mr. Truman will accept their advice on the question of cutting taxes.

BREAK—Incidentally, Britain's plan to balance the 1948 budget, to remove 750,000 from the tax rolls and to show up with $992,000,000 surplus next year has had serious repercussions at Washington. Many members of Congress originally opposed to tax reduction at this time now believe that the American people, especially in view of the financial aid which this country has given to England since the end of the war.

According to some of his Congressional couriers, President Truman may find it possible to okay any tax cut if the Republicans will accept the Taft rather than the Knutson price of natural gas should be higher. This is a beautiful manifestation of how competition in a free economy tends to force down prices for the benefit of consumers.

ALL THERE EXCEPT CONSUMER
But here again, get what the coal industry really means when it says the producer and distributor of natural gas should get more money. It isn't because the coal operator feels sorry for the owner of a natural gas well. The price of coal is now so high that natural gas undersells it. Coal can't compete where natural gas is available. Coal wants this competitive factor removed—not by lowering the price of coal—but by raising the price of natural gas.

When the House Interstate Commerce Committee opened hearings on the Risley and Dolliver bills, the room was packed with representatives of the coal pipeline, natural gas, and oil interests. The last two are of course closely related and pals. Also present were investment bankers who specialize in financing gas utilities.

The room craved with high-powered public relations consultants. For several weeks they have been around Washington, building up interest in their respective pet bills, holding press conferences, luncheons.

Everybody was ably represented except the ultimate consumer who cooks with gas and heats with coal and pays the bills for all this money business in the long run. No matter how it comes out, they're probably due for the usual good rooking.

Good Cattle Buyer Can Tell Size, Flavor of Steaks by Look at Steer
By WILLIAM FERRIS
CHICAGO.—If you want to know about cattle and beef, see Jim Boyle.

Boyle sits at the apex of the nation's largest cattle buying and beef producing unit—his head of the beef, lamb and veal department at Swift and Company.

In any week of the year, Boyle will supervise the buying of between 50,000 and 75,000 head of cattle—all types of cattle, from prime steers to canner and cutter cows—in livestock markets throughout the country.

Then he'll direct the moving of a good part of the beef from these cattle into the channels through-out the country.

It's Boyle's job to see that the cattle are bought and the meat sold at prices to produce a profit. Last year that profit averaged about 1 1/4 cent a pound for all the products sold by the company.

From his office at Swift's plant here Boyle directs operations involving upwards of a million dollars each day. Telephones and telegrams keep him in touch with the nation's markets.

Boyle is concerned in particular with buying cattle at markets where the daily supply is in excess of local consumption of meats.

"When our buyers go into the market," he explains, "I tell them what I think these cattle are worth in the national market, in relation to what we can get for the meat and by-products. I tell the buyers what I think they should pay. They have their instructions at the opening. I don't want them phoning me every 30 minutes to see what to do."

Cattle are consigned by farmers and ranchers to commission men, who sell them in the stockyards to packers, speculators, feeders or anyone else who wants to buy.

"A cattle buyer not only has to know cattle, but he's got to know psychology too," Boyle says. "He has to know the personalities of the men with whom he's dealing."

Boyle says three things a cattle buyer looks for are: Has the animal a good fat covering? Does its conformation indicate it has meat in the right places, such as over the loin and ribs? How full is the animal with feed and water?

"A good cattle buyer can tell the amount and quality of meat in a steer simply by looking at it. But most buyers will rub their hands across the animal's ribs, just to make sure."

Meat from prime cattle is firm, evenly marbled (intertined with fat), with a color ranging from bright red to deep blood red. Its bone is soft and red. From medium grade cattle, the meat is deep or dark red, moderately soft and with little or no marbling. The bone usually is hard and white.

An important part of the price packers pay for cattle, in addition to the value of the meat, is the value of inedible and edible by-products. This is called "the drop" because it consists of everything which drops off the beef carcass when it is hung on the dressing room rail, including such items as hide, hooves and viscera.

Each morning Boyle sends wires to his cattle buyers which read, for example: "Buy ten 13 grade beef to cost dressed for Chicago 55 cents a pound."

Here's how this worked out in the market place.

The buyer sees cattle conforming to grade 13. He figures these cattle, when dressed, will yield 60 percent edible meat. The value of "the drop," calculated for him by his local office, is 2 cents a pound.

The buyer's instructions are to buy the cattle at a price equivalent to 55 cents a pound wholesale for dressed beef.

He multiplies the 35 cent figure by his calculation of the edible meat yield—60 percent. This gives him 21 cents. To that he adds the drop—2 cents. This means his price for those cattle is 23 cents a pound.

Farm Loan Speaker Sees Little Prospect for Lower Prices in '47

Jay Taylor, Amarillo businessman who has had considerable dealings in livestock and oil, told members of the Pampa National Farm Loan Association at a banquet in the City Hall Saturday noon that there is no good prospect, in his opinion, of lower prices of farm products this year.

The farmer, he said, has but the prospect of going "ahead and produce, watch his inventories, and avoid expansion on borrowed capital."

"We have," he said, "come out of the war with expanded cattle industry." He cited figures to show that pork and other types of meat supplies are down, but that "beef production is apparently up nearly 40 percent above the immediate postwar level."

J. B. Talley and O. G. Forgy were re-elected to the Board of Directors. Other officers and directors are G. G. Frasher, vice president; A. V. (Gus) Greene and Foreman Stubbs, directors; E. L. (Smiley) Henderson, secretary-treasurer; and Doris T. Lively, assistant secretary-treasurer.

Henderson was master of ceremonies. The Rev. Bennett and his wife, Hugo Olsen, Boy Scout executive, Harvey Waters introduced guests, and Clyde Carruth presided over the election of officers. Quentin Williams introduced the guest speaker.

Special entertainment was furnished by the Bennett family, the Cowboys, and a barber shop quartet, Melody Menders, sang some selections.

Secretary Henderson's report, it was stated that since the last meeting the board had approved and endorsed 26 new loans for a total of $135,000. An additional $24,000, he said, had been invested in government series G bonds, which make a total of $69,700 now invested in that type security.

During the past year, he stated, the stockholders had received in dividends $8,272.50, thus effecting net cost of $17,000 to the members of the association for the year of 3.38 percent. He noted that as being the lowest in the 30-year history of the association.

Effect of Grain Purchase by U. S. Is Pointed Out

CHICAGO, Ill.—Walter C. Berger, president of the American Feed Manufacturers Association, Chicago, drew a national audience in the daily newspapers the other day with an interview predicting a severe shortage of chickens, turkeys and pork next fall and winter.

Chickens and turkeys are apt to be scarce as next Thanksgiving and Christmas that the average farmer may be able to afford them, Berger said.

In this connection he spent part of last week in Washington, where he talked over the USDA and in Congress with the purpose of impressing them with the important effects of government grain buying and selling.

"Present conditions indicate a definite shortage of poultry meat and pork for the time being," Berger said, explaining that as a result of high feeding costs the replacement of poultry and hogs goes on very slowly.

He declared that these high feed costs were not due to a shortage of grain, but to the government's allocation and procurement programs. Explaining his forecast of a poultry and pork shortage in the fall, Berger pointed to the following trends:

1. There has been a drastic cut-back in the sale of poultry.

2. A large percentage of male chicks are being destroyed as soon as hatched.

3. Packers report dangerously high percentages of piggy sons coming to market. Each of these bred sows sold now means another litter of pigs that will not produce meat for the table next fall and winter.

"We cannot blame the farmer for this condition," Berger said. "The price of corn is so high that the farmer with corn in hand is tempted to sell it now rather than risk a latter market by feeding to hogs. The farmer with hogs, who must buy his corn, has the same temptation to take advantage of the present market by selling his hogs now."

Farm Labor Program Extension Approved

WASHINGTON.—A bill extending the federal farm labor program to the end of this year was approved by Congress and sent to the White House yesterday.

Under the program the government pays transportation, housing and medical costs for farm laborers, including foreign workers brought in from Mexico and other places.

The Agriculture Department estimated costs for the six months extension and liquidation after that at not more than $10,000,000.

VERNON.—A number of new features are being added to the schedule of events for the annual Santa Rosa Roundup, to be presented in Vernon May 6-11, it is announced.

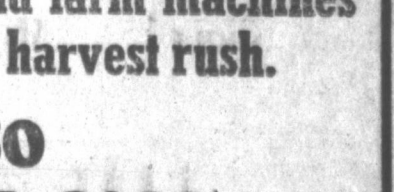

Among these are a "calf scramble" which will see 4-H Club boys competing to halter wild calves and lead them across the finish line, a group of negroes in a scramble to retrieve dollar bills from the horns of wild steers, a "wild mare" race by cowboys, with the mares furnished by the Three D Ranch, with the riders competing in roping wild range mares, saddling them and riding them at the length of the arena and back, and a special sheep dog act in which a trained sheep dog gives an impressive demonstration of shepherding. These added to the Hollywood Beauty Revue and a complete schedule of the usual rodeo events, trick artists and clowns, give Santa Rosa what is described as one of the most attractive programs possible.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

When disorder of kidney function permits poisons to remain in your blood, it causes aching backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes show there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 50 years. Doan's give kidney tubes flush; out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.
