Take It Easy

Unless the forthcoming Fourth of July holiday is different from all that have preceded it during the motor age, thousands of Americans will become dependents on Independence Day.

They will be the maimed, the widowed, the orphaned. For the rest of their lives some of the maimed will have to depend on others for their physical care and comfort. The widowed and orphaned will also, in most cases, be a burden on others.

The dependency of these Americans will be the result of Independence Day accidents.

In addition, several hundred persons will pay for their celebration with their lives.

All this because of accidents that need not happen! Holidays have become horror days in the United States. In recent years many holidays have brought such a high accident toll that they assume the proportions of a national catastrophe. And this carnage need not occur. Accidents are not acts of God. They are acts of humans who foolishly bet their lives for dubious rewards.

The driver who speeds to get to his destination -what difference does it make whether he arrives 10 or 20 minutes later?

The youth who attempts to swim across the lake what is gained by trying to show off in front of a crowd? The father who cannot deny his children the "pleasure" of fireworks - what pleasure will the child cerive from sightless eyes? Motor vehicle accidents lead the list of Fourth of July hazards. According to the National Safety Council, one out of two persons living in this country has been or will be in a motor vehicle accident before he dies unless our present accident rate is greatly reduced. And many of these mishaps occur on holidays when traffic is especial-

Second high on the Fourth of July accident list is drowning. Falls, fireworks and firearms, sunstroke and heat exhaustion, food poisoning and miscellaneous accidents also exact their toll Independence Day accidents are not inevitable. They can be prevented. The Pampa Police Department, the Texas Highway Patrol, and other traffic officers across the nation will be alert to prevent as many mishaps as possible. But always the size of the toll will depend on the good sense of the driver.

Take it easy on the Fourth. Don't let Independence

A Russian writer named Orestov, describing in "Pravda" his visit to Thailand, led off with, "The first thing we saw on landing at the airport of Thailand's capital was a huge poster:

"Welome to Bangkok! Drink Coca-Cola!"

Orestov welcomed this sign as an old friend, he reported, because it symbolized the dependence of many countries on America. Coca-Cola had accompanied the Marshall Plan to Europe and the Truman Paint Four program to colonial and underdeveloped countries, he wrote.

Later that evening Orestov met in a group of journalists an American who interpreted the Coca-Cola sign at the airport as a personal insult. He shouted: "This is poison. Don't drink this filth."

"I was rather surprised by these anti-American statements coming from a solid businessman," wrote Orestov. "I asked what could replace Coca-Cola on hot summer days He changed to a continental tone and said: 'Drink Pepsi-Cola.' He was an agent for the equally tasteless drink which competes with Coca-Cola.

The writer then interpreted this highly significant international diplomatic news with this editorial comment: "American firms selling refreshing drinks have ample opportunity to influence the state affairs of many countries. This influence begins and ends in parliament and governmental circles.

"That is probably the reason why the Coca-Cola company entrusted the sale of their drink to a relative of a highly placed person, a member of the group at present in power in Thailand. Pepsi-Cola placed the fate of its liquid in the hands of a representative of a rival party.

Liberalism

Liberalism is one of the greatest and most honorable of words. But few words have been so misused and abused.

In the light of that, this excerpt from a recent speech of Herbert Hoover's is well worth remembering: "It is a false liberalism that expresses itself by federal operation of business in competition with the citizen. It is the road not to more liberty but to less liberty. True liberalism is found not in striving to spread bureaucracy, but in striving to set bounds to it. True liberalism seeks all legitimate freedom, in the confident belief that without freedom, all other blessings are in vain. Liberalism is a force truly of the spirit coming from a realization that economic freedom cannot be sacrificed if political freedom is to be preserved."

Questions Underground "Educators" Do Not Want To Answer

Readers of this column know that for sometime I have been offering any superintendent of schools schools $500 if he would answer questions as he would before a court to determine whether or not tax supported schools are in agreement with the Golden Rule,

I have been making this offer longer to the superintendents than to the other groups. And since I have not been able to find a siggle superintendent of schools who would attempt to throw light on this question, I am obliged to rethem as going underground in their "education," just as the feliow travelers go underground in order to unsell our people the American way of life and try to sell them some form of collecti-

It is, of course, hard to conceive how any man who is open and above board and who is really seeking after understanding would not for $500, for an hour's time, answer a few questions about what he is doing.

Now, I want to list the questions that undoubtedly cause these underground "educators" to refuse the discussion. Here are the questions I would ask them: Would it be a violation of the Golden Rule for you as an individual to initiate force to make another man help pay for an education that he did not want to use and which he believed would be harmful to the American people? Any man, of course, who believes in the Golden Rule would have to contend that for an individual to do this would be a violation of the Golden Rule. Then the next question would be, just how many people would have to join together to perform an act that was a violation of the Golden Rule for you as an individual to initiate force to make with the Golden Rule?

Every individual who is at all rational would have to say that it would make no difference how of the Goldnen Rule when done by an individual, it would not make it in agreement with the Golden Rule. Answering the questions above would make the "educators" take the position that if enough people do an act that violates the Golden Rule if done by an individual, they are exempt from being guided by the Golden Rule, In other words, they are taking the position that the Golden Rule does not apply to an individual when he is an agent for a given percentage or enough

And those people who believe that tax supported schools are a violaincreasing government that is taking away more and more of our less value and causing long periods of unemployment and one war after another, is largely a result of an educational system that violates the Golden Rule.

Mr. Buckle

"The great enemy of knowledge is not error, but inertness (passive, lazy, supine, slothful, stupid, leare sure to do well, no matter what our blunders may be. But our "educators" are so arrogant, so self - centered, so well satisfied, that they prefer to act like underground men rather than publicly discuss whether or not tax supported schools are in harmony with the Golden Rule and thus able to do what they claim they are Always pick your camp site in a breezy open spot — such a camp site is also a great preventive against this pest, since mosquitoes love dense woods and close dark places. Certainly a more appropriate frame would be one carved from Mothers' hearts who have gone to the brink of death to give us new lives to defend the doctorings of this masterpiece. "We hold these truths to be self-evident that all men are created equal." May we ever be mindful of just what July 4th means.
