Human Polio Virus Has Been Isolated

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 11—UP—The human polio virus has been isolated and identified directly for the first time, a University of Michigan scientist disclosed Wednesday.

The achievement climaxes 15 years of effort to make a definite identification of the agent that causes the crippling disease.

The story of that work was told Wednesday by Dr. Wendell Stanley, director of the virus laboratory on the Berkeley, Calif., campus of the university. He reported the research to the National Academy of Sciences.

The work itself was carried out by two of his colleagues, Dr. Howard L. Bachrach, assistant research biochemist, and Dr. Carleton E. Schwerdt, associate research biochemist.

They obtained the first photographs definitely identifying the human polio virus, Stanley said, and for the first time know its size and shape with certainty.

Stanley said the virus is a spherical particle about 28 millimicrons or one millionth of an inch in diameter.

Two Type-2 strains of polio, the Lansing and MEP-1 strains, have been purified and identified, he said.

The research was supported by March of Dimes funds.

Stanley said the new knowledge is expected to speed the fight against polio, primarily by providing more definite facts about the virus. The researchers must now analyze the chemical make-up of the virus and determine its properties.

Mitchell Describes White Spy Case As Political 'Circus'

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11—UP—Democratic National Chairman Stephen A. Mitchell, launching a fence-mending tour of Louisiana Wednesday, called the Harry Dexter White spy case a Republican "political circus."

Mitchell, who joins a "friendly get-together" of Louisiana party leaders at Baton Rouge later Wednesday, was yet to comment on the apparent Republican victory in the California congressional election.

Mitchell retired Tuesday night before election results were clear. He was the guest of Louisiana's national Democratic committee man, Frank B. Ellis, during his stopover here.

There were indications that the Armistice Day meeting of the state Democratic central committee may end with a few broken fences. The committee was split into bitter factions during the last presidential election. The wounds have been slow to heal.

Invited to Meeting

Mitchell was invited by Ellis to address the meeting which was called to organize a Democratic party fund solicitation by congressional districts. Assigned a $20,000 goal, Louisiana had raised $2,500 so far. Mitchell termed the meeting "just a friendly get-together."

The powerful central committee refused to endorse Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson in the 1952 presidential race or to approve the party's platform.

Although the meeting was "unofficial," and open to the public, political fireworks were expected beforehand. A group of Democrats, led by Robert F. Kennon were staunch supporters of President Eisenhower. Others remained neutral, with the majority standing loyal to the party.

ELECTION RESULTS — Sixteen-year-old Jacinto Morales is carried from his home in Cavite Province after he was critically wounded by automatic weapons fire which riddled house during political riot in Philippine's second national election Tuesday. It is believed political enemies were after his father who is a member of Nationalist Party. Youngster died few hours later.

Attitude May Put Off Plan To Quiz HST

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11—UP—President Eisenhower said Wednesday he believes former President Truman and Associate Justice Tom C. Clark should not have been subpoenaed by the House Un-American Activities committee.

The chief executive, in answer to news conference questions, also said he did not believe Mr. Truman had knowingly appointed man identified as a Communist spy to public office.

Mr. Eisenhower said he found such a conclusion inconceivable and did not believe a man in the presidency would knowingly injure the United States.

Possibility of Cancellation

Mr. Eisenhower's attitude raised the possibility that the congressional quizzing of Mr. Truman in the Harry Dexter White case might be called off. But that apparently is in the hands of Rep. Harold H. Velde (R-Ill.), chairman of the House committee, who is on his way here from Illinois.

There was no certainty yet whether Mr. Truman and Gov. James F. Byrnes of South Carolina, Mr. Truman's former secretary of state, planned to appear—even though they accepted service of subpoenas. Supreme Court Justice Clark was expected to ignore a subpoena issued for him. But Mr. Byrnes, who is in the White House, Mr. Truman's former military aide, and one-time Assistant Attorney General T. Lamar Caudle were set to testify Thursday. Byrnes was subpoenaed to testify Thursday; Mr. Truman and Clark Friday.

The House committee moved in with the subpoena after Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr., blew the lid off the White case last Friday in a Chicago speech accusing Mr. Truman of promoting White in 1946 despite two FBI reports calling White a spy for Russia. Mr. Truman denies having seen such reports, but Byrnes contradicted him.

Lawyer Hurt By Brothers

AUSTIN, Nov. 11—UP—District Attorney Bob Long was recovering from a broken nose and the two men he said beat him in his office were charged with aggravated assault.

Long said his nose was beaten so badly it was "S-shaped" and "lying over in front of my right eye."

He said he swung first when one of the men "called me a liar."

The two men, free in $750 bond each, were C. E. Flink and J. B. Flink, brothers, both of Austin.

Long was involved in a fist fight with a court house janitor last year.

Farm Equipment Case

Long said the Flinks owned some farm equipment which was stolen. The grand jury passed the case on condition the 18-year-old youth who stole it would pay $300, the estimated value of the equipment.

He said the money was paid to him in $10 monthly installments to hold for the Flinks, and he had received $50 so far. The Flink brothers came to his office about noon Tuesday.

"I didn't know who Mr. Flink was any more than the man in the moon," Long said. "I went out to shake hands, but the big one wouldn't turn loose of my hand."

Long said he got his hand loose and told the Flink brothers his office ordinarily kept such money until the entire amount was paid. The two men grabbed him by the arm.

Republicans Hail Election Victory

LOS ANGELES, Calif., Nov. 11—UP—The Republican party Wednesday hailed a special congressional election victory as a "good omen" for 1954.

State Rep. Glenard Lipscomb's convincing victory in the 24th District—despite a split GOP ticket and a heavy Democratic registration—also salvaged Republican wounds suffered in recent Wisconsin, New Jersey and New York elections.

With all precincts reporting, semi-official count of Tuesday's balloting gave Lipscomb 42,880 votes to 34,545 for Democrat George L. Arnold. Republican State Rep. John Collier, who stubbornly refused to withdraw in favor of Lipscomb, polled only 3,616, and Democrat Irving Markheim 1,158.

Difficult Assess White Impact

The Republican victory, regarded as an upset by both parties, came on the heels of the sensational disclosures concerning the late Harry Dexter White, but it was

Professor Sued In Two-Bit Case

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 11—UP—University of Southern California law school student brought suit against one of his law professors in small claims court.

Student, Barry Hirsch, 26, said Professor Richard Wicks took 25 cents from him in a class demonstration and refused to return it. Wicks demanded proof of ownership.

Wicks admitted he owed the two bits but said the suit would be dismissed because of his inexperience in "procedure."

Magsaysay Sweeps Filipino Election

MANILA, Nov. 11—UP—Husky Ramon Magsaysay, 46, popular former defense minister, held a three to one margin over President Elpidio Quirino Wednesday and appeared certain to become the third president of the Philippine republic.

Counting of ballots from Tuesday's voting proceeded in calm order despite official fears of new violence after nine persons were killed in election day terrorism.

An unofficial tabulation made by a Manila radio station at 3 p.m. (11 a.m. est) gave Magsaysay, the Nacionalista Party candidate, 1,010,310 votes to 310,248 for the 62-year-old Quirino, standard bearer for the liberal party. Complete returns were not expected until Friday.

In the vice presidential race, the latest unofficial returns gave Magsaysay's running mate, Carlos P. Garcia 725,382 votes to 221,158 for the Liberal party's Joe Yulo.

Magsaysay and his running mate amassed a big lead in Manila. With the votes from all but 140 of the 1,045 precincts in the city counted the official tabulation was: Magsaysay 161,842; Quirino 39,592; Garcia 145,552 and Yulo 51,854.

President Quirino's campaign manager, House Speaker Eugenio Perez said Magsaysay would win if the present trend continued, but refused to concede the election until returns from the Liberal party strongholds in the north were tabulated.

The Philippines News Service reported that Liberal party headquarters in Cotabato province on Mindanao had conceded victory to Magsaysay.

Tax Hikes Explained

W. F. (Bill) Francisco, representing Thos. Y. Pickett, Dallas, the firm that figures the evaluation of Gray County's oil and gas properties, explained to the county commissioners' court late this morning why some royalty owners were complaining about the hike in their taxes.

County Judge J. B. Maguire Jr. explained to commissioners that some royalty owners were claiming that the amount of money they have been making has not been in proportion to the amount that taxes have increased.

Said Francisco: "We have nothing to do with the disbursement of the product." All that the Pickett firm can go on, he continued, "is what is reported as sales, that's all."

Pickett can only use for the basis of its evaluation, Francisco went on the sworn Texas Railroad Commission reports filed by the operators. "Otherwise, we have no control."

Late this morning, Francisco was taking several cases in point to explain to the commissioners why royalty owners might be confused in the matter.

Maguire said he didn't figure the commissioners' meeting would run into the afternoon.

Marsh May Have Died In Mishap

CLINTON, Ky., Nov. 11—UP—The sheriff's office here said Wednesday a hitchhiker killed in an auto accident last Saturday was believed to have been Thomas John Marsh, the former convict once implicated in the Bobby Greenlease kidnap case.

Deputy Sheriff William Humphreys said the description of the man "fitted almost perfectly" that of the tattooed Marsh who was once named as the killer of Bobby Greenlease by Carl Austin Hall but cleared by Hall's later confession.

The FBI in St. Louis had "no comment" on the report.

Humphreys said the man was killed in a two-car collision on U.S. Highway 51 near Clinton Saturday. He was riding with an Ike Evans of Clinton.

Evans was critically hurt in the accident, and officers have been unable to question him.

Humphreys said county officials had intended to bury the body of the hitchhiker Tuesday but that Kentucky state police and the FBI had halted the burial until they could check the identification.

Humphreys said no money was found on the man's body but that papers on him said he was from Mexico, Mo.

The heavily tattooed Marsh was considered by his hometowners in the vicinity of Springfield in southwest Missouri as being "too dumb to go anywhere but home" if he strayed very far out of the Ozarks.

Marsh's role in the tragic kidnap-slaying was by implication. Hall said Marsh was the trigger man.

Hughes Gets TV Permit In Amarillo

Dick Hughes, president of the Hughes Development Company here and owner of Radio Station KLPN in Amarillo, said today that he and his associates have been given a permit for operation of a television station in Amarillo.

Here for a short business visit, Hughes said that plans will be drawn up immediately for the construction of a new building for the station, which will be known as KLYN-TV.

He said that he did not know just what type of building would be built, nor did he know how much it would cost.

He did say that the station would offer the finest of programs and would operate on channel 7. Asked about national affiliation, he said he could make no statement at this time, but he indicated that the station would be affiliated with one of the national chains.

Hughes has operated the KLYN radio station in Amarillo for the past three and one-half years.

Ike Visits Tomb On Armistice Day

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11—UP—President Eisenhower set aside the cares of the cold war briefly Wednesday to lead the nation in an observance of the armistice that ended World War I exactly 35 years ago.

Mr. Eisenhower planned to lay a wreath on the tomb of the Unknown Soldier in Arlington National cemetery.

Henri Bonnet, the French ambassador to the United States, preceded him to the plain white marble monument to lay a wreath in commemoration of the blood Americans and French shed together in France.

Veterans Parade

Across the nation, veterans of U.S. wars marched in parades. Relatives laid flowers on the weathered graves. National, state and civic leaders made speeches.

Maj. Gen. William F. Dean, a hero of the Korean war, spent the day in his old home town of Carlyle, Ill., where a suspension bridge was being dedicated in his name.

One of the speakers in the ceremonies at the tomb of the Unknown Soldier was Army Secretary Robert T. Stevens. Another was Arthur J. Connell, national commander of the American Legion.

In his prepared address, Connell said the nation must preserve its strength for experience has shown that "great sacrifices in time of war" are "averted by small sacrifices in time of peace."

Failure to Provide Defenses

"We have been drawn into one conflict after another not by fate but by our failure to maintain strong spiritual and military defenses," he said.

"A majority of Americans have traditionally turned their backs on these realities since the bullets have ceased to fly. With the increase in the cost and destructive power of weapons, this course has become ever more attractive and ever more dangerous.

"Pray God we shall not travel again," he said. "We will not if we keep our heads and mobilize our resources before the bullets fly."

Fund Drive Is Shaping Up Well

As the general United Fund Drive swung into its second day, there were few indications of how it was going, according to Floyd Watson, one of the drive chairmen. "A few reports have come in, but not many," he stated.

The total for the advance drive late this morning was $18,800, but not all the reports were in yet. However, Watson was "pretty confident" that the advance drive goal of $25,000 would be reached.

"All in all, we're pretty pleased with the way things have been going," he declared.

If it comes from a hardware store we have it, Lewis Hardware.

Gray County Demos To Pick Chairman

Eighteen county Democratic precinct chairmen will meet Saturday to choose a successor to Aaron Sturgeon, county Democratic chairman, who resigned 12 days ago.

Get-together has been scheduled for 10 a.m. Saturday in the district courtroom in the Court House, according to Bob Baker, county Democratic secretary.

Baker announced the meeting this morning.

Sturgeon, a long-time conservative Democrat, resigned unexpectedly Oct. 30 in a letter to Baker explaining that there was "absolutely" no political significance to his action.

At the time, and since, the party official made no recommendation as to his successor.

The 18 precinct chairmen plus Baker plus the county chairman from the 20-member county Democratic executive committee.

Sturgeon was a law partner of Sherman White, former Gray County judge and attorney, who died unexpectedly the week before the resignation.

Farmer Killed In $2 Robbery

DEWEY, Okla., Nov. 11—UP—A man wearing a Halloween mask shot and killed a prominent Washington county farmer in his bed Tuesday night in a $2 robbery.

The victim, Emery Unruh, about 50, had just been awakened by a knock at his front door a few minutes before midnight. He was shot in the chest as he tried to sit up in his bed.

Unruh was president of the Dewey School Board and well known in this area. Recently oil was discovered on his farm, and officers believed the robber might have thought he had money in the house.

Survey Reveals Pampans Favor Canadian River Dam Proposal

A random check by The Pampa Daily News of six Pampans indicates that they are in favor of the proposed Canadian River Municipal Water Authority—but for a variety of reasons.

Residents of 12 Panhandle-Palms communities will go to the polls Nov. 24 to decide whether they wish their localities to remain in the authority. A second vote, probably late in 1954, will be held to determine whether each community wishes to spend money on the project.

Miss G. E. Lewis, 406 Hughes, oil-field driller, emphasized that the confirmation election in Pampa definitely should go through.

"For one thing, it should create quite a bit of work" in the area, she explained. And then there's the matter of irrigation, for which "a lot of people would use it." As a final thought, she added, "good fishing, too."

Mrs. Paixy Geeters, 512 N. Starkweather, so'd a fountain manager, said she thought it would be beneficial to the Panhandle over the long run—natural.

Mrs. Geeters' Labelling it a "wonderful" idea, she was sure "it would help build Pampa up."

Besides, "if Pampa ever needed such a project, it needs it now."

E. L. Hargus, 1310 E. Kingsmill, barber, made the point that "it would make for a whole lot more recreation" in the area, including boating, fishing and duck-hunting.

Hargus' Maintaining that "it seems to me like a pretty good idea," he said, "if any place needs such a dam, it's here in the Panhandle."

Miss Paddy Neely, 618 N. Frost, secretary, was adamant that the proposed dam and reservoir is "a very worth while project, it's very good."

Interested in the money angle of it (which will not be an issue in this election), she insisted that "even if it will mean spending some money, it'll still be a good idea."

W. E. Hinton, 1201 S. Hobart, clerk, said right off the bat: "I'm for it."

"I believe it's a generally good plan," he continued, pointing out that it would be "for my main hobby fishing."

"For the future of this country, we should get it before the water supply is exhausted."

Mrs. GILES, everything'll be at a standstill.

"I'd rather see the city built up," she insisted, adding that "this would help" in the long run. "Anything for the best," she commented.

MRS. GILES, 308 E. Kingsmill, bookkeeper, felt that the project "has more good points than bad," and that, in general, "it's a good idea."

"Otherwise, everything'll be at a standstill."

"I'd rather see the city built up," she insisted, adding that "this would help" in the long run. "Anything for the best," she commented.

"Enough for 100 Korean families," they said today, well-pleased. All of it is being stored in the First Christian Church in which Pampa women Tuesday sat down and made 24 quilts as their part in the clothing drive. ### ELECTION porters, saying this was a southern term for "a man born out of wedlock."

Mr. Eisenhower Wednesday expressed full confidence in Brownell for having brought the White case to new public attention.
He said that when Brownell told him of the matter and his feeling of duty to make it public, the President told him that was a matter for his (Brownell's) conscience.

Rejects Traitor Idea
The President repeatedly rejected any idea that Brownell, either directly or through his disclosure, had pictured Mr. Truman as harboring a known traitor.
(Brownell in his Chicago speech last Friday said he was revealing publicly for the first time that "White's spying activities for the Soviet government were reported in detail by the FBI to the White House by means of a report delivered to President Truman through his military aide, Brig. Gen. Harry Vaughan, in December of 1945.")

Mr. Eisenhower also did not think complete FBI reports in the White controversy should be made public. But he assumed that Brownell, in his own time, would produce satisfactory evidence to back up his statements.

Rejects Loyalty Suggestions
The President, in rejecting several suggestions by reporters that Brownell had impugned Mr. Truman's loyalty, made a specific point of the fact that Brownell never told him that Mr. Truman had seen the FBI reports on White.

When Mr. Eisenhower was first asked for his opinion on the subpoenaing of Truman by the House Un-American Activities committee, the President said he really couldn't say a great deal on the question.

First, however, he added, he wanted to report that some days ago Brownell reported to him certain facts that had come to light in his department, facts which the attorney general felt should be made public.

He said Brownell mentioned White's name but the President added that he knew nothing about White.

Purely Factual Basis
Mr. Eisenhower said he then instructed Brownell to make his public report on a purely factual basis.
Then the President repeated one of his favorite themes—that he was not going to be in the position of criticizing Congress for carrying out what Congress conceives to be its duty.

He said Congress has a perfect right to conduct investigations. But as a purely personal opinion, Mr. Eisenhower said that if the choice was his, he would not issue such a subpoena.

When he was asked whether a Supreme Court justice should be subpoenaed, the President pointed out that he is not a constitutional expert or a practicing attorney. But again as a purely personal opinion, he probably would not do it.

The President at several points in his jammed news conference warned against veering toward extremes in combatting communism.

Never Ending Battle
He said it is a simple fact that there must be a never-ending battle between the American concept of freedom and the ideology of regimentation and slavery.

He said communism is attacking the American concept in many ways—by force, by boring within. He said there had been spying of all kinds going on in this country, stealing of secrets.

But, he added, the people of America must be careful how they apply their own power. Americans must be vigilant against communism without destroying the very things they are attempting to defend.

Reporters raised the point that a federal grand jury had examined some evidence on White in 1947 and declined to indict him.

"If a grand jury decides there is insufficient evidence to convict," Mr. Eisenhower was asked, "is it proper for the attorney general to label this man as a spy and in effect accuse the former President of harboring that man?"

Colors Visibly
Mr. Eisenhower colored visibly. He said he is not a judge or an attorney. Then in a careful voice he said the attorney general is here (in Washington) and let him answer that himself.

Several reporters leaped to their feet to cry out that Brownell won't see newsmen. One reporter asked the President to use his influence with Brownell to come forward and submit to news questions.

Injunction Suit Filed On Sanders

P. O. Sanders, long-time dealer in Pampa legal affairs, today had just 13 days before he was scheduled to go before Bob Baker, Gray County court reporter, and give oral sworn testimony on a suit brought against him by the State Bar of Texas.

A suit for injunction — Grievance Committee of the State Bar of Texas vs. P. O. Sanders — was filed Tuesday afternoon in the district clerk's office.
The suit petitioned the court "on a final hearing for injunction, restraining him" from the further practice of law.

Charging Sanders with not being a member of the bar, the suit maintains "all persons not members of the State Bar of Texas are prohibited from practicing law in this state."
Sanders will make his deposition sometime Nov. 24, Baker reported today.

TRUMAN

difficult to assess the impact of the White case on the election.
The news White's disloyalty allegedly was ignored by the Truman administration came too late to be included in campaign speeches, and Lipscomb would not say whether he thought it helped his cause.

The 24th district sent a Republican to Washington five times in the last six elections, but Collier's failure to withdraw had caused consternation among Republicans since Arnold's chances were not seriously threatened by his fellow Democrat Markhelm.

Republican National Committee Chairman Leonard W. Hall hailed the vote victory as "an endorsement of the Eisenhower administration—a good omen for 1954."
Vote of Confidence Important
The 28-year-old Lipscomb declared "even more important than the winning was the vote of confidence given to President Eisenhower and the 83rd Congress.

"This proves that the people are desirous of continuing the administration's accomplishments of the last 10 months," said Lipscomb, who takes over the seat late vacated by Norris Poulson when Poulson resigned to defeat incumbent Fletcher Bowron for mayor of Los Angeles.

Arnold, the son of former Democratic trust-buster Thurman Arnold and the son-in-law of columnist Drew Pearson, said:
"I have no way of knowing that the attack on Mr. Truman through the White charges had anything to do with the election. I hope not." He angrily charged Tuesday during the balloting that Attorney General Herbert Brownell's report linking Mr. Truman to the White case "was brought up to interfere with the election...breaking it just before the election was obviously done for political purposes."

Tradition Of Elegant Attire Upheld At N. Y. Horse Show

When New York's formal season opened officially this week with the National Horse Show at Madison Square Garden, the tradition of elegance was largely upheld by the beautiful jewels which flashed across the arena. Society's leaders showed an obvious preference for short evening dresses, the briefest of fur wraps and black ties, rather than the white tie and tails and the long evening gowns of other years.

The drop earring was the choice of most women in the audience. Mrs. Reed Albee, of the Albee Theatre family, for example, wore a simple sleek dress which lent special emphasis to her important diamond necklace, bracelets and long diamond earrings. Their exhibition of precision drill work won the hearts of the entire audience.

Accessories such as jewels, white fox mitts and unusual shoes made much of the fashion news of the evening because the short evening dresses that were so predominant naturally call for important accessories to lend them elegance.

In the ring, the Northwest Mounties, in their hunting pink jackets, were the fashion leaders. Their exhibition of precision drill work won the hearts of the entire audience.

Mrs. Tignor Hostess For Entre Nous Club

The Entre Nous Club met recently at the home of Mrs. Guy Farrington, 1230 Christine, with Mrs. C. A. Tignor and her daughter, Mrs. Ray Robbins of Phillips, acting as hostesses.

The program "The Louisiana Purchase Sesquicentennial," was given by Mrs. Holly Gray and Mrs. C. A. Tignor. The Sesquicentennial, Oct. 17, celebrated the 150th anniversary of the signing of the Louisiana Purchase. The speakers told of President Eisenhower's reenactment with Henri Bonnet, French Ambassador, of epic singing of the purchase. Proudly, the governors of the 14 states have indicated that today's leaders have not lost the idealism of early America.

Two Gray County men, M. K. Brown and Mr. C. A. Tignor, attended the Louisiana Purchase exposition in 1904 at St. Louis, Mo. M. K. Brown had recently come to America from England at the time.

New officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. J. R. Spearman, president; Mrs. Holly Gray, vice president; Mrs. C. A. Tignor, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Norman Walberg, reporter; Mrs. C. W. Bowers, parliamentary. Members attending the meeting were Mmes. Guy Farrington, C. W. Bowers, J. R. Spearman, Joe Lewis, Boyd Brown, Norman Walberg, Holly Gray, W. D. Benton, Maye Skaggs, the hostesses and one guest, Mrs. Ray Robbins.

Ditmore gave the treasurer's report, including that for fun night. The room count was 1,355 with Mrs. Odessa Stedum's Fifth Grade winning first place and Miss Frances McCue's also Fifth, getting second. The City PTA Council report was given by Mrs. W. W. Burton. It was announced that Mrs. Perry G. Franklin will be publicity chairman for this year, succeeding Mrs. John Zuerker who has resigned.

Eisenhower Forget Calories For Their Thanksgiving Feast

WASHINGTON — UP — The traditional Thanksgiving dinner of President and Mrs. Eisenhower includes a big dish of turnips and potatoes mashed together.

And wherever that dinner is served they like to wind it up with big helpings of two kinds of pie — mince and pumpkin chiffon.

Calories Uncounted That Day — Thanksgiving is one of the few days of the year when the President and First Lady forget about calories. Along with most other Americans, they delight in a full holiday menu planned around a whopping big turkey.

Mrs. Eisenhower disclosed that she and the Chief Executive are not fond of fancy or unusual stuffing for the holiday bird. They prefer a simple dressing, made from crumbled stale bread from which the crusts have been cut. Chopped onions, sauteed with chopped celery, and then mixed with the bread, chopped parsley, salt, pepper, poultry seasoning, and beaten eggs give the dressing the flavor they like.

No Thanksgiving dinner is complete either without giblet gravy and lots of cranberry sauce. They usually start with fruit cup and have dishes of candied sweet potatoes, cut green beans, rutabagas, and the turnip-potato combination along with the main course.

Be's Favorite Pie — Here is the recipe for the Eisenhowers, favorite pumpkin chiffon pie:

3 beaten egg yolks; ¼ cup brown sugar; 1½ cups cooked pumpkin; ½ cup milk; ¼ tsp salt; 1 tsp cinnamon; ½ tsp ginger; ½ tsp nutmeg; 1 envelope unsweetened gelatin; ¼ cup cold water; 3 stiffly beaten egg whites; and ¼ cup granulated sugar.

Combine egg yolks, brown sugar, pumpkin, milk, salt and spice, cook in double boiler until thick, stirring constantly. Soak gelatin in cold water, stir into hot mixture. Chill until partly set. Beat egg whites, add granulated sugar, and beat stiff. Fold into gelatin mixture. Pour into pie shell and chill until set. Garnish with whipped cream.

Yield: one large pie or eight individual pies.

Varietas Hears Talk On Canada

Mrs. H. T. Hampton was hostess to the Varietas Study Club Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. J. G. Cargile, club president, presided. Mrs. J. C. Vollmert presented a report from the Council of Cities, giving attention to a discussion of Girls' Town. Mrs. Cargile reported that Varietas Club made a cash donation toward the restoration of Independence Hall in Philadelphia, which is a present project of the National Federation of Women's Clubs. She also reported that eleven members of Varietas Club are working in the United Fund Drive.

The afternoon's program was in the form of a travelogue, in three parts. Mrs. C. L. McKinney, who spent her summer vacation this year in Canada, spoke on "A Diary of My Trip to Canada," giving special emphasis on the industrial development of the country. She stressed that Canada is one of the wealthiest countries of the world. Her raw materials, contains the largest uranium mine in the world, and is rapidly becoming a controlling factor in world industry.

Mrs. Lee Harrah closed the travelogue with "The St. Lawrence Waterway," in which she discussed this important river. She spoke of the high value of the St. Lawrence, commercially, since it is the shortest route to Europe from America.

Following the program, Mrs. Hampton served refreshments to the following members: Mmes. H. H. Butler, J. G. Cargile, J. G. Doggett, H. Price Dosier, S. C. Evans, Lee Harrah, J. A. Hopkins, Dow King, J. E. Kirchner, R. W. Lane, C. L. McKinney, Otis Nace, Luther Peterson, J. R. Spearman, Ralph Thomas, J. C. Vollmert, W. A. Wagoner, and Sherman White.

ORPHANS RECEIVE BLANKETS — Mrs. Roy Kretzmeier, president of the Canton Auxiliary of the Rebekah Lodge, presented wool blankets to the Odd Fellows Orphan's Homes at Ennis and Corsicana, Texas.

Local Rebekahs Present Blankets To Texas Odd Fellows Orphan's Homes

Mrs. Roy Kretzmeier, northwest of city, returned recently from a trip to the Ennis and Corsicana Odd Fellow Orphan's Homes, to which she presented 43 wool blankets. Donation of the blankets was a project of the Canton Auxiliaries throughout the state. Mrs. Kretzmeier is the president of the Canton Auxiliary here in Pampa. She also presented the international president, Mrs. Clarence Tricker of Sterling, Kans., with a check for $290.91 for the Cancer Fund. This money will be sent back to Texas to be used to combat cancer.

Mrs. Kretzmeier has just returned from San Antonio where she presided over a statewide meeting of the Ladies Auxiliaries, Patriarchs Militant, which is a branch of Odd Fellow and Rebekah Lodges. Mrs. Elfrida Schriefer of Galveston will serve as president for the coming year.

Mrs. Kretzmeier has traveled 17,326 miles this year promoting Odd Fellowship. There are 28 auxiliaries in Texas. She represented Texas at a worldwide meeting held in Atlanta, Ga., in September. A member and former past noble grand of the local Rebekah lodge, she works with the youth of Rebekah and Oddfellows, Theta Rho and Junior Oddfellows.

Wax Fireplace — A brick fireplace is easier to keep clean if the front is coated with liquid wax.

Saving Space — Meat sauces, catsup, mustard and unopened jars or cans of pickles, peanut butter and coconut do not need refrigeration. Utilize the space for additional fresh fruits and vegetables.

Lemon Pie Tip — When flavoring a fruit pie with lemon juice, mix the juice with melted margarine to reach all parts of the filling.

RUTH MILLET Women Voters Present UN Talk

Judging from the way many of the "experts" sound off on marriage you get the idea that for two people to have a happy marriage is one of the world's most difficult jobs.

Maybe one reason why we have so many marriage failures today is that they've succeeded in selling that idea to Mr. and Mrs. America. Let's unself ourselves. Granting that a man and woman are in love when they marry, why should creating a happy marriage be such a difficult and never-ending job?

If they're in love and have the good fortune to be able to marry each other, why shouldn't they be happy?

They will be if they want to be. If they want a happy marriage enough to try to make each other happy.

That's all there is to a happy marriage — just a man and woman who have chosen each other for life and taken on the responsibility for making the other's happiness a guiding principle of their lives.

The "experts" so often talk about a "happy marriage" as though it were an impersonal thing. It isn't. It's just two people who are concerned enough for each other's welfare to be understanding, unselfish, loving, honest and helpful.

Is that too difficult for adults who have fallen in love and agreed to take each other for better or worse, for richer or poorer, in sickness and in health?

It shouldn't be. There shouldn't be anything frightening or discouraging about such a prospect.

The "experts" keep throwing statistics at us which only discourage us, they keep harping on marriage "problems" until we get to thinking more in terms of problems than in terms of living each day as it comes.

Let's unself ourselves on those discouraging concepts and remember that a happy marriage is nothing more than two married people who love each other and want each other to be happy.

Harvester Fans Asked To Join In Move Of Putting 'Hex' On Odessa Bronchos

DO YOU GOOD HARVESTER fans want to put a "hex" on the Odessa Bronchos?

Well, if you're interested, here is the way you can do it.

A move has been started by our food friend Warren Hasse to have all you PHS fans to place a candle in the windows of your home each night this week prior to the Odessa-Pampa game Saturday.

It is suggested to have either a green or gold candle or both, signifying, of course, the Harvester school colors.

This bit of extra-curricular activity has worked for the Texas Longhorns three times and we believe it will work for the Harvesters.

It all started back in 1940. Texas was playing a heavily-favored Texas A&M team at Austin and a Longhorn student went to a fortune teller in an effort to find out what to expect in the game with the Aggies.

He was told by the fortune teller that if all Texas students and fans would place an orange candle (Texas school colors) in their windows each night before the game that the Longhorns would win.

The unbelievable happened. Texas defeated the Rose Bowl bound Aggies, 7-0. It was the only defeat of the Aggies in the state since that time.

It was told by the fortune teller that if all Texas students and fans would place an orange candle (Texas school colors) in their windows each night before the game that the Longhorns would win.

Texas has employed this procedure on two other occasions since that time and has won both games. The third time it was used was last week when the Longhorns knocked Baylor from the undefeated ranks, 21-20.

Let's get behind this move and have all homes in Pampa lighted up with green or gold candles this week.

Who knows, it might work for the Harvesters as it has done for the Longhorns.

Also, fans are asked to wear something green and gold at the game Saturday.

LEFORS FOOTBALL FANS no doubt are mighty proud of a performance turned in by a member of the 1952 Lefors team, Jimmy Doolan, now a member of the Hardin-Simmons University squad.

Doolan, one of the finest football players to come out of Lefors in recent years, kicked two extra points after touchdowns to give H-SU a 14-13 win over Texas Western at Abilene Saturday.

As a freshman, Doolan hasn't seen too much service this season for the Cowboys but his name will go down in the record books for the '53 season with those two precious boots that were the difference between a win and a loss.

SAN ANGELO FOOTBALL FANS have simply gone "mad" in the sudden reversal of form of their beloved Bobcats. Bobcat coach Bob Harrell was presented with a brand new Pontiac one day last week by the San Angelo fans.

Harrell was presented with the key to the car. Harrell quipped: "Great guns, win two ball games and get a new car." As the San Angelo Standard-Times put it, Harrell apparently was considering only the big upsets over Pampa and Lubbock because the Bobcats have won three ball games, the other being a 27-26 win over Big Spring.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11 — UP — Otto Graham of the Cleveland Browns and Joe Perry of the San Francisco Forty-Niners continued as leaders in passing and rushing in the National Football League Wednesday, but outstanding individual feats during the past weekend caused a shuffling of standings in other departments.

Eddie Nickel, Pittsburgh Steelers' veteran end and Pete Pihos, enjoying one of his finest seasons with the Philadelphia Eagles, took over the No. 1 and 2 spots respectively in pass receptions.

Charley (Choo Choo) Justice turned a 120 yard performance for the Washington Redskins to move into second place in rushing and Jack Christiansen of the Detroit Lions, unlisted one week ago, hauled in three opposing passes to go into first place in pass interceptions with a season total of seven.

In other departments, Al Chalmers of Green Bay took over first place in punt returns with a 13.5 yard average in 11 carries, and Joe Arenas of San Francisco became the kickoff return leader with a 42.5 yard average for eight returns.

Graham remained the gladiator of the air lanes with a 64 per cent completion average, and for the second week running, Bob Taylor of the Philadelphia Eagles was in second place.

Graham completed 96 of 150 passes for gains of 1,603 yards and six touchdowns. He hiked his average gain for each pass attempted to 10.69 yards last week.

Perry continued his blasting to lead the rushers with 599 yards in 115 carries for a 5.2 average. Justice, in second place, averaged six yards in a carry with 459 yards in 76 rushes, for second place.

Lou Groza of Cleveland, with 21 conversions and 12 field goals in 14 attempts, is the top scorer with 57 points while Fred Coen of Green Bay is second with 56. Pat Brady, Steelers' southpaw kicker, leads the punters with a booming 48.9 yard average.

Other stand-out games find Sunday at Stanton in 4-A, Junction at Menard in 6-A, Talco at Jefferson in 14-A, Canton at Brownboro in 15-A, Trinity at Grapeland in 19-A, Groesbeck at Mart in 21-A, Burnet at Llano in 23-A and Karnes City at George West in 30-A.

New Deal lost its first game last week 25 to 0 to Hale Center, leaving nine unbeaten, untied teams. They are Springlake, Crowell, Clifton, Gaston, Egin, Luling, A&M Consolidated, Deer Park and Lyford. Unbeaten but tied are McCamey, Richardson, Trinity, Cedar Bayou and Hebronville.

Once-tied Cooper of 13-A also took its first loss last week, 19 to 7 to Whitewright.

Wink's district showdown comes next week when the 1952 state champions meet McCamey for the 5-A championship. Wink hosts Fabens Friday night and McCamey plays at Iraan.

Odessa Team Will Fly To Pampa Saturday Morning

By SPEC GAMMON
Odessa American Sports Editor

ODESSA, Nov. 11 — The Odessa coaching staff today was hoping to get by this afternoon's last hard workout without further injuries in preparing the Bronchos for their Saturday invasion of Pampa.

Offensive guard Ronnie Etheridge, 190-pound junior, came up with an injured knee and definitely will not see action against the Harvesters. Melvin McLendon, Bill Childers and Jimmy Bell are battling for the open position now.

The rest of the squad came through Tuesday's workout in fine shape and has only one more really hard drill left. The present plans are for the Bronchos to fly directly to Pampa Saturday morning.

Should bad weather crop up before Saturday, necessary travel changes will be made.

Odessa fans quickly gobbled up the 1,000 tickets sent here and there'll be a steady stream of automobiles headed toward the Panhandle city, starting as early as noon Friday.

Odessa followers are hopeful for a warm, still afternoon in Pampa Saturday but hardly expect such nice weather. Schlemeyer's bullet won't be easy to complete in cold, windy weather.

Tuesday workout found the Bronchos working diligently on pass defense themselves as they have a healthy regard for Pampa's J. N. Wright and his fine passing.

Etheridge's injury eliminates the only junior in the offensive lineup. His replacement will be a senior, thus Odessa will be playing an all-senior gang on offense against the Harvesters.

HERE'S THAT MAN — Shown above is the lad who has been the talk of the state in the schoolboy grid ranks this season, Carl Schlemeyer of the Odessa Bronchos. Sliding Carl will guide the Odessans in Saturday's game here against the Fighting Harvesters. Schlemeyer is re-writing the record books with his passing feats this season. He has completed 65 of 115 throws for 1,007 yards this season. Only four of Schlemeyer's passes have been intercepted. Seven of Schlemeyer's passes have counted for touchdowns. MARS MAN — Maj.-Gen. James McCormack, Jr., of Baltimore, Md., vice commander of the Air Research and Development Command, will look like an average human after he gets out of this pressure suit. But first he'll go for an altitude test, after S/Sgt. Vernon Teems, of Cartersville, Ga., laces the suit. The chamber, which is being tested at Carswell Air Force Base, Tex., simulates conditions at an altitude of 40,000 feet.

JACOBY ON BRIDGE
Avoid Foes' Errors; Win Bridge Games

By OSWALD JACOBY
Written for NEA Service
When the National Championships begin in Dallas 18 days from now, the "Authors' Team" will try to repeat its victory in Men's Team event. The members of this team, all authors of well-known bridge books, were Charles Solomon, Charles Goren, and Sidney Sliodror of Philadelphia, Samuel Stayman of New York, and the writer of this column. We always had four men playing and one man writing up their boners.

Today's hand, taken from last year's Men's Team event, probably proves that you don't win a team championship. Your opponents lose. We didn't do anything brilliant in this hand; we just avoided the mistake made by our opponents. At my table Sam Stayman and I inched our way into six spades. West liked this contract so much that he couldn't resist a penalty double. Stayman correctly decided that something was souped with the spade suit, and he scrambled out to six no-trump. West couldn't beat six no-trump. Stayman won the opening lead with the king of diamonds, overtook the ten of hearts with the jack, cashed the ace of hearts, and led the queen of hearts to force out West's king. He was then sure to make a total of five heart tricks, one spade, two diamonds, and four clubs. In spite of the fact that six spades was a poor contract while six no-trump was ice cold, our North-South opponents at the other table likewise bid themselves up to six spades. At this table our teammate, Sidney Sliodror, held the West cards, and he liked the contract of six spades. But his fondness for the contract didn't lead him into any excessive display. He just passed quietly and let our partner groan when he discovered the bad trump break. There are several morals to this little tale. One is that even experts can get themselves into the wrong contract. Another is that an expert will scramble to safety if warned of his danger. But the most important moral is that it's very foolish to warn an opponent that he's in the wrong contract when you can just sit back quietly and collect a sure profit.

WHY STARVE TO TAKE OFF UGLY FAT?

A strenuous reducing diet can do a great deal of harm; in some cases possibly more than the excess weight. A strenuous reducing diet should not be undertaken, except upon the advice and under the supervision of a physician. Here is a sensible way to take off unightly fat without diet or calorie counting. Just ask your druggist for four ounces of liquid Barcostrate—now just $1.99. Mix with grapefruit juice as directed on label and take according to directions. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the sensible way to reduce, return the empty bottle for your money back. Mrs. Ruth Malin, 8321 Manchester Boulevard, Houston, Texas, wrote us as follows: "I am very glad to be one of your Barcostrate users. When I started taking Barcostrate, my weight was 159. I now weigh 145, a loss of 14 pounds, and I mean for real. It's a new person."

British Believe U. S. Will Recognize Reds In China

By PHIL NEWSOM
United Press Foreign Analyst
Since Jan. 6, 1950, when the British Labor government recognized Red China, it has had nothing but grief in the Far East.
Not that it wouldn't have had trouble anyway, but the recognition not only failed to improve relations with the Reds but it also set up a source of irritation which constantly has threatened good relations between the United States and Britain.
Therefore, the British have been more than a little interested in Secretary of State John Foster Dulles' cryptic statement the Eisenhower administration never has said it would be forever opposed to recognition of a Communist government in China.
On Big Three Agenda?
It is being interpreted in Britain as a sign the United States public is being educated, and eventually the United States will in fact recognize the Red regime.
It may be expected to be a subject for discussion when President Eisenhower, Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill and French Premier Joseph Laniel meet next month in Bermuda.
The net result was that recognition enabled the British neither to protect their investments nor their citizens in Red China. Nor did it assist in making anything like a world citizen out of Red China.
Now, as Britain speculates over the United States' intentions, there is rising resentment among the British people against the Reds. But despite its trials and tribulations, the British government view remains Red China exists and, like it or not, must be recognized.

Burma Calls Halt On Evacuations

By S. CHAVALA
BANGKOK, Thailand, Nov. 10—UP—Burma has abruptly halted the evacuation of refugee Chinese Nationalist troops from Burmese border areas, it was reported here Tuesday.
Press dispatches from the border said Burmese officials halted 38 departing soldiers Monday, charging that they were not Chinese but "Shan (Burmese) rebels."
Fifty other Nationalists were allowed to cross the border into Thailand to board planes bound for the Chinese fortress island of Formosa, but two groups, which had been scheduled to pass the checkpoint after the alleged rebels, melted back into the jungle.
That officials would not say how soon the evacuation would be resumed.
Some high Thai army officers, however, expressed fears that the Burmese might ask Communists in China for help in dealing with the Nationalists—a step which they said could touch off World War III.
So far, 206 of an estimated 2,000 Nationalists who had been hiding in the Burmese jungle have been flown to Formosa. A group of 52 arrived in Taipei late Tuesday.

National Grange Launches Meeting

BURLINGTON, Vt., Nov. 10—UP—The vanguard of the nation's oldest farm group, the National Grange, began flowing into this Green Mountain city Tuesday for a 10-day discussion of one of the Eisenhower administration's critical problems—what should the farmer get for feeding America.
The 15,000 delegates at the 87th annual convention were expected to urge an easing of price supports in favor of a "two-price system" and the elimination of barriers to world trade.
On its final day, the Grange will welcome the harassed secretary of Agriculture, Ezra Taft Benson, into an atmosphere of friendliness. Then, also, the Grange will become the first farm organization to make a report on a survey of its members concerning agricultural policies. The American Farm Bureau holds its annual convention at Chicago next month, the National Farmers Union next March.
Unlike the National Farmers Union, whose cattlemen members held a showdown meeting with Benson in Washington, the National Grange has been generally favorable toward the administration's efforts to solve the parity problem.

Wilwyn Draws Favor

LAUREL, Md., Nov. 10—UP—Wilwyn, an English horse who appears just as much at home in Maryland as at Epsom Downs, was attracting added support Tuesday as the time drew near for the second running of the Washington, D.C., International race at Laurel.

Rich Girl On The Way Up From Bottom

By RON BURTON
HOLLYWOOD — UP—A soft-spoken beauty from a rich Deep South family hopes to make the grade in Hollywood by starting at the bottom—if love doesn't get in the way.
Anne Reed, the blonde, brown-eyed daughter of a wealthy Mississippi cotton planter, is beginning by going to classes at the Pasadena Playhouse.
"My studies range from the history of the theater to actual rehearsals," she said in the $110-a-month, one-bedroom apartment she shares with a friend.
"That lasts for a year, and then there are two more years, but you go back by invitation. And then—well, I've wanted to be an actress since I was five years old," she said, her words tinged with a southern accent.
Started at Tulane
The 21-year-old hopeful arrived here Sept. 17 after a year at Sophie Newcomb College, women's division of Tulane University. She previously had gone to the fashionable Finch Junior College in New York.
"I'll never forget my drama instructor there—William Post. He taught me more than anyone else about acting," she recalled. She said her father approved her acting plans only after years of discussion.
"I told daddy that was what I wanted to do and he tried to talk me out of it. Then he finally said that if I wanted it badly enough and never tried it I wouldn't be happy," she explained.
"Daddy" is Albert H. Reed. The deb does her own laundry and cleaning. She and Pat Ethridge her roommate, plan to do their own cooking "but we've gone out on dinner dates every night but one since we got here."
Cotton Executive in Picture
Her current heart interest here is a young cotton executive whom she was told to look up by her family.
"It's funny," she mused. "We talk about cotton, and I keep telling him how much better Mississippi cotton is than California cotton. I'm going to give daddy a full report."
So far Miss Reed's impressions of Los Angeles come from eye-smarting smog, "unusual" driving and minor brushes with "wolves."
"They sure look at you when you are out in a car," she said.
The peaches-and-cream blonde, whose 34-24-35 measurements are well spaced over 120 pounds and five feet six inches, admits one thing might interfere with her career—love. She said she has tried to fortify herself against that happening.
"But, you know, that cotton guy is mighty cute."
