Yank PWs Seize Indian Officers

PANMUNJOM, Nov. 6—UP—American prisoners held 22 Indian officers as hostages Friday in protest against what they called threats and coercion contained in letters from home.

The seizure of the Indian officers in the compound housing the 22 Americans was announced shortly after the neutral nations repatriation commission made a surprise visit to their camp.

The prisoner interview program was called off for three days Friday and Indian Commission Chairman Lt. Gen. K. S. Thimayya personally intervened with the anti-Red prisoners in an attempt to save the threatened plan to try to win unrepatriated prisoners back to their homelands.

May Throw Up Hands Thimayya said that if the explanations to the anti-Communist prisoners do not run smoothly Monday, "I'm afraid I will have to throw up my hands."

Few details of the seizure and holding of the officers were made public immediately. The prisoners held the officers captive until they were granted permission to air their complaints to the neutral commission.

The American prisoners charged the United Nations was attempting to "coerce, slander and bribe" them into returning home.

The 22 Americans, one Briton and 332 South Korean prisoners resisting repatriation compiled a five page typewritten petition to the commission.

Signed by American The petition was said to be signed by American Sgt. Richard G. Corden and the Briton, Andrew M. Condren.

SHE WANTED TO HELP Mother Named In Letters' Protest

WEAVERVILLE, N. C., Nov. 6—UP—A mother of a returned soldier from Korea denied tearfully Friday that American prisoners who refused repatriation could find any reason to protest against her friendly letters urging them to come home.

"I just wrote a one page letter to each one of the boys and asked them if they would please come home," Mrs. Ernest Reagan, 66, said. She said she was only trying to help "lonely boys" in Korea.

Mrs. Reagan said when she learned of being named by the prisoners as the writer of some of the letters they object to as containing threats and coercion to come home.

"My son was over there one year and I wrote every day and the other boys envied him," she said. She said she felt the prisoners who refused repatriation were "bewildered and afraid to come home" and wrote them letters "just as I would have wanted people to write my son."

She said she thought that "if I wrote as an American mother who had had a son in Korea it would mean so much to them."

Machineguns Bring Temporary Order

TRIESTE, Nov. 6—UP—U. S. and British troops mounted machineguns Friday in the blood-stained streets of Trieste under orders to use bullets and bayonets to quell savage street fighting in which at least 10 persons have been killed and scores have been injured.

At least a temporary calm was restored. The rioting in this disputed city set off fighting in Rome, where 20,000 students demonstrated in support of the 50,000 Trieste rioters.

The appearance of the American and British troops and machineguns brought at least temporary order to Trieste. Allied occupation forces moved into central Trieste Friday for the second time in eight years of occupation after local, Allied-trained police reported the situation was out of control in spite of gunfire and tear gas used in futile efforts to restore order.

Move into Trieste Allied occupation forces moved into central Trieste Friday for the second time in eight years of occupation after local, Allied-trained police reported the situation was out of control in spite of gunfire and tear gas used in futile efforts to restore order.

In Rome frenzied students smashed British installations, beat British nationals and attempted to storm the American embassy. They battled Rome police, who reported 200 of the hot-headed demonstrators were arrested.

By 2 p. m. (7 a. m. est) in Trieste most of the 50,000 angry Italians who had fought police through the streets earlier in the day had dispersed.

"Viva American" Shouts There were some shouts of "Viva American" (long live the Americans) when the U. S. troops unlimbered their machineguns in the city's principal squares. Local police promptly ceased firing into the crowds from windows in buildings menaced by the mobs.

GIs of the 351st battalion of the famed 8th Blue Devil Division's "Spearhead Regiment" manned machineguns on strategic corners amid 50,000 enraged Italian demonstrators.

Ike's New Order Relaxes Secrecy

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6—UP—President Eisenhower Friday ordered federal agencies to stop keeping unnecessary secrets so the American citizens may know more of what their government is doing.

The White House, after months of conferences with press and broadcasting representatives and officials of the government, issued a lengthy set of new rules to govern "classification" of federal information. Classification means putting secrecy labels on documents, messages, plans, weapon designs and such.

Effective Dec. 15 The President's new order, effective Dec. 15, had three primary provisions: 1. He stripped 28 federal agencies of the power to classify information.

2. He designated 17 agencies and departments, including five of Cabinet status in which authority to put a "secret" label on information would rest only in the hands of the department chief. 3. He abolished the bottom information classification of "restricted."

Attorney General Herbert Brownell, who pulled the information program together, said he was convinced the President's new plan was the best method of "attaining proper balance" between the need for safeguarding the government's defense and diplomatic secrets and the need for keeping the citizens of a republic as fully informed as possible.

Freer Flow of Information He said the Eisenhower administration wants to promote a freer flow of information to the people. He expressed concern that the new order will have that result. Some reporters expressed to Brownell the fear that instead of releasing information, certain government agencies would now up-date "restrictive" documents to fit the "confidential" classification. Brownell pointed out that the

Total 484 Bad Risks Dismissed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6—UP—The State Department has fired 484 American employees and 178 foreign employees as security risks since the Republicans came to power.

The security checks are over and above economy layoffs. The State Department has been engaged in a major reduction in force during the past several months.

The White House announced Oct. 23 that 1,456 government employees had been cut off the federal payroll since May 27 under Mr. Eisenhower's new executive order covering security among government employees.

The department explained Thursday it had been operating "within the spirit" of Mr. Eisenhower's new security program since Jan. 20 although the program actually went into effect last May 27.

The Eisenhower program calls for the dismissal of any employee who might "act contrary to the best interests of national security."

Pampans To Give To Christmas Fund

Letters to all professional and business people of Pampa will be mailed this weekend by the Merchants Activities committee of the Chamber of Commerce, asking for contributions to the Christmas activities fund, it was announced today by members of the committee.

The fund will finance downtown street decorations, the nativity scenes in Central Park and the annual Santa Day parade. A total of $2,000 is needed to finance the program, they said.

More than 450 yards of bright aluminum foil overhead decorations have been ordered, along with additional amounts of new wire and other items for replacements.

As in the past, the Junior Chamber of Commerce members will put up the decorations, which are scheduled to be up by Dec. 4 which has been designated as Pampa's annual Santa Day, the official opening day of the Christmas shopping season here.

Motorists Warned Of Muddy Streets With prospects of more rainfall being very good and with some paved streets being cluttered with mud deposited on them by cars coming off unopened streets, Police Chief Jim Conner today warned all motorists to use extreme caution in driving over these muddy spots.

City Leaders Due To Attend Gas Hearing

City commissioners will take off this weekend for Austin and the gas appeal hearing before the Texas Railroad Commission without having been able to get together with County Commissioners on the matter of the proposed county barn in Recreation Park.

Mayor Tom Rose late this morning said he had talked with County Judge J. B. Maguire Jr. and Maguire had told him he'd been unable to get his commissioners together before the weekend.

That will, no doubt, make the joint city-county meeting Wednesday at the earliest; for the appeal hearing is expected to take up at least two days.

City Manager B. H. Cruce, City Attorney Bob Gordon, Rose, all the city commissioners and others are expected to be on hand at 9:30 a. m. Monday in Austin before S. C. Mcintosh, T.R.R.C. gas division director, for a preliminary discussion of the appeal brought by Empire Southern Gas Company.

Empire now gets a $1.50 minimum monthly, has asked for a $2 minimum, was awarded $1.82-$1.64.

Erwin Thompson, local Empire manager, contacted late this morning, said he was the only one from the Pampa office expected to be present for the hearing. Other company officials on hand will be James A. Davis, Fort Worth, company president, who was in Pampa for the commission hearings.

Temperature Skids In Panhandle Area

By UNITED PRESS The temperature skidded to a near-freezing 35 degrees in the Panhandle Friday as rain, hail and snow lashed sections of the Midwest not far from Texas.

Dalhart reported the overnight low, just three degrees above freezing. Forecasters predicted, meantime, that a new wave of shower activity would hit Texas late Friday or Saturday.

The latest rain forecasts came even as farmers despaired of getting their crops from the fields and complained that they had had enough wet weather to last for awhile.

The near-freezing temperature at Dalhart was caused, forecasters said, by a "spill off" of cold air from Kansas, which received some snow Thursday night. Goodland, Kan., reported three inches of snow on the ground.

At Brownsville, Tex., responded to the influx of warm air off the Gulf and reported the overnight high minimum for Texas of 61 degrees.

Texas City Leaders To Probe Death Of Woman In Jail Cell

TEXAS CITY, Nov. 6—UP—Mayor Lee A. Robinson said Friday the city commission planned to make an investigation into the death of a 32-year-old woman in a jail cell here and angrily charged a hospital with "trying to whitewash its staff."

The woman, Mrs. Georgia Boudreaux, died last Friday less than four hours after she had been treated for two minor cuts and bruises from an automobile accident and released to police for jailing.

An autopsy showed she died of a punctured heart, punctured liver, fractured skull and broken ribs. But Dr. A. C. Andronis, resident physician at Galveston County Memorial hospital, said she had suffered none of those injuries when he examined her after the wreck.

A subsequent investigation by the hospital board resulted in a statement that the fatal injuries "were not evident at the time of the examination by trained personnel at Galveston County Memorial hospital."

C-C Panels Announced

President Clinton Evans and members of the executive committee of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce and Board of City Development today announced the names of committee chairmen for the new year.

The chairmen are: Agriculture and Livestock activities, Quentin Williams; Aviation, Frank Culbertson; Fire Prevention, Joe Cree; Goodwill and Reception, Jeff Beard; Highways and Transportation, Fred Thompson; Highway Signs and Tourist Promotion, W. S. Fanning; Legislative and National Affairs, Bill Waters; Industrial Activities, Gordon Lyons; Merchants Activities, W. J. McNeill.

New Business Greeters, George Newberry; Oil and Gas Activities, George Cree, Jr.; Public Improvements, Lynn Boyd; Publicity and General Information, Paul West; Sports and Recreation, Ralph McKinney; and Trade Development, Paul Crouch.

The complete list of committee members will be announced when the various chairmen meet with the executive board.

Italy Protests Trieste Mishap

ROME, Nov. 6—UP—Premier Giuseppe Peila Friday protested formally to the United States and Britain against the shooting of Italian students in Trieste.

Peila also called home the Italian ambassador to London for urgent consultations.

Draft Call Set At 23,000 In January

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6—UP—The Defense Department has decided on a draft call for 23,000 men in January, thereby postponing action on an Army proposal to "level off" draft calls at a higher level, it was learned Friday.

The January draftees, all for the Army, will raise to 1,607,430 the number of men inducted since the Korean war started.

The January draft call for 23,000 men is the same level that has been maintained monthly since last July.

Two Convicted For War Murder

NOVARA, Italy, Nov. 6—UP—Two Americans tried in their absence for the wartime murder of Maj. William Holohan, their leader in a cloak-and-dagger mission behind the German lines, were found guilty Friday and sentenced to long prison terms.

Former Lt. Aldo Icardi, of Pittsburgh, Pa., was sentenced to life imprisonment and former Sgt. Carlo Odocone, of Rochester, N. Y., was given 17 years.

Eight Miners Die

BONANZA, Utah, Nov. 6—UP—Eight miners, including a bridegroom and a father of nine children, were given up for dead Friday in the fiery and fume-filled shaft of the Bonanza No. 1 Gilsonite mine.

Mexican Says Good Education Will Help End Discrimination

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 6—UP—A Mexican-born member of the Texas Good Neighbor Commission forecast an end to discrimination against Americans of Latin-American origin in the Southwest "the day they have a good education."

There has been considerable progress toward ending discrimination, reported Andrews Rivera Jr., a San Antonio, Tex., banker and newest member of the commission. "But there is still much to be done," he told Mexico City newsmen Thursday.

Diane Wells Mum On Affair With Negro

SEATTLE, Nov. 6—UP—Blonde Diane Wells, free on $5,000 bond, Friday kept mum on reports she "made advances" and later had "intimate relations" with a Negro jazz drummer accused with her in the slaying of her millionaire husband in Fairbanks, Alaska.

Deeply Rooted Prejudices
The problem of discrimination is a problem of education, Rivera said. "Prejudices on both sides are so deeply rooted that it is not a question of one or two years."

Wells was found dead in bed Oct. 17 in his apartment, shot in the head with a .380 caliber pistol.

Minority Problems
Any discrimination existing in Texas, Rivera said, was the result of a minority problem.

Warren was quoted by police as saying the blonde "made advances" in his direction while dancing with her husband.

Police there revealed Warren, who met Mrs. Wells at a Fairbanks club last Labor Day, admitted in a sworn statement he had been her illicit lover.

Says Modern Comedian Too High Class

By ROBERT MUSEL
LONDON, Nov. 6—UP—Not ever the sight of beautiful women could cheer up Lou Walters Friday at the end of a vain search through the United States and Europe for the vanishing breed—the baggy-pants, red-nose comedian.

Lou has been looking for such a long time he is now convinced that eye young comedian coming into show business the world over sees himself as Bob Hope or Jack Benny—immaculately clad, crushing the audience by sheer weight of personality.

"Everything is too high class," Lou complained. "It would be nice to see a few rowdy, custard-pie throwers on a stage again or comedians who worked in any kind of costume at all. I'm tired of hearing jokes from fellows so well dressed I am made to feel like a social inferior."

Lou runs the Latin Quarter in New York and the Latin Quarter on Palm Island, off Miami Beach, and is one of the leading importers of continental beauty and talent.

He spoke Friday in a valley formed by giant British show girls. A few years ago Lou was so critical of British beauty, show girls threatened to picket his hotel. But now he said:

"Look at these smashers. Why these girls would be an asset to any chorus anywhere. I'm going to bring some of them over next year."

Lou said there was a fortune awaiting young comedians who could break away from the dress-suit routine.

"Take Al Jolson," he said. "He worked in blackface. So did Eddie Cantor. Harry Lauder worked in kilts with a twisted cane. George Robey, Clark and McCullough and Willie Howard—the character makeup was as important as the jokes. They were all great grotesques."

Video Stars Not To Wear Out Welcome

NEW YORK, Nov. 6—UP—Les Paul and Mary Ford think they may have the answer to how to stay in television without wearing out their welcome. They just spread themselves thin on the airwaves.

The recording stars had ample time to see how TV burns up talent in short order before they recently succumbed to an offer to do a TV show for the American Broadcasting Co.

No half-hour show for them not even a 15-minute one. They chose to appear for five minutes only each night.

"We figure that nobody can get tired of anybody in that length of time," Paul said. "Just a couple of little numbers, a commercial message and we're through."

The TV programs are filmed because the couple's fame in the recording field has been based on the "new sound" technique, both vocal and instrumental, which they have popularized. This can be achieved only in a specially equipped studio with use of fancy electronic equipment, and the pains necessary to get the right results wouldn't be possible on a "live" telecast.

Fred Allen doesn't have a script for his "Judge for Yourself" TV show on NBC Tuesday nights, but he doesn't face his guest panelists cold.

An hour before air time, Fred sits down with a member of the production staff, who pretends to be a guest, and works up his wit. The studio has come to regard the warm-up sessions as prime entertainment and all who can do so drop their work and stand by to listen.

But the people working around the studio have come to regard the warm-up sessions as prime entertainment and all who can do so drop their work and stand by to listen.

Eisenhower Museum Scene

ABILENE, Kan., Nov. 6—AP—Nearing completion in Abilene, Kansas, President Eisenhower's home town, is the museum that will house the Chief Executive's war trophies and mementoes, valued at a million dollars. The structure is being built by the Eisenhower Foundation, which expects to open it to the public in 1954. On June 4, 1952, the President laid the cornerstone for the museum and later in the day opened his campaign for Republican presidential nomination.

Crash Hurts Air Crewmen

COLORADO SPRINGS, Nov. 6—UP—Four crewmen of a C-47 were hospitalized at Camp Carson Friday with injuries suffered in the crash-landing of their plane 25 miles northwest of here.

T Sgt. T. R. Campbell of San Antonio, the only crewman seriously hurt in the crash, suffered a fractured vertebra but was reported in "good condition."

The plane was based at Fairchild Air Force Base, Spokane, Wash.

The twin-engine transport, en route from Tinker Air Force Base, Oklahoma City, to Lowry Air Force Base, Denver, on a training flight crash-landed near Calhan, Colo., Thursday after an engine went dead and the wings started icing up in the near-zero flying weather.

Another C-47 transport belly-landed in the same area Oct. 23, seriously injuring an Air Force colonel, but six other crew members escaped injury.

Unable to land at Peterson Field because of snow and a low overcast, Lt. Col. D. A. Ryden of Spokane, the pilot, attempted to reach Lowry Field at Denver, but the loss of one engine and heavy icing forced the plane down.

Arson Suspected In Boston Blaze

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—UP—Arson squad experts Friday searched the ruins of an ancient tenement house where a flash fire killed five persons and injured eight. Fire Chief John V. Stapleton ordered the investigation Thursday night after learning the $25,000 blaze started in some unexplained manner in the basement and mushroomed swiftly to the top floor where it trapped four of the victims. The fifth, a two-week-old baby girl, died at a hospital of burns. The infant's 15-year-old mother was hospitalized. The three-story brick structure nearly turned into a flaming death trap for all nine Negro families who lived there. Many of their children were carried to safety over fire ladders and one was dropped unharmed from a second floor window. Oscar Shepard, who rushed home from his theater porter's job at the height of the blaze, had to be forcibly restrained from attempting to reach the top floor where three members of his family were beyond hope of rescue. The fire occurred while most of the youngsters in the building were asleep and most were clad in night clothing as their parents and firemen carried them into the cold night air.

Mrs. Hattie Stamper, 40, dropped her 19-month-old daughter Linda from a window of their second floor apartment into the arms of an unidentified passerby. Her four-year-old son David was carried to safety by a fireman.

Seventy-Year-Old Bride Is Dead At White Deer

LUBBOCK, Tex., Nov. 6.—UP—Mrs. Arba Taylor Hassell, 70-year-old bride who collapsed at the altar and died less than 24 hours after her marriage, will be buried Saturday. Mrs. Hassell was married Wednesday night. As she turned to walk back down the aisle of the Lubbock Methodist Church with her husband, Alton Hassell, 65, she clutched her chest and fell. She died Thursday. Doctors said she suffered a stroke. The couple had planned to honeymoon in Mexico. They never got around to cutting the wedding cake. The Rev. W. V. O'Kelly, who read the marriage vows, will conduct the funeral services. The body will be buried in the same blue dress and matching blue hat that Mrs. Hassell wore at the wedding.

Burial will be in the Hillcrest Cemetery, McLean, under the direction of the Chaborn Funeral Home. Pallbearers include Paul Smith of Pampa, George Riley of Stinnett, Rev. Kar Ernst of Dumas, and Cecil Black, James Massey, Bob Sherrod, all of McLean. Mr. Cubine died at 1:10 p. m. Wednesday following a long illness.

Autos Damaged In Collision

A Pampa motorist has been cited by police for failure to grant the right of way, following a two-car collision, police reported today. The accident occurred Thursday about 4:45 p. m. at the intersection of W. Foster and Russell and involved automobiles driven by Mrs. Joan Stovall Shelton, 22, 320 N. Banks, and Mrs. Reba Viola Gibson, 49, 520 N. Christy. The citation was given to Mrs. Shelton. The police report stated that Mrs. Gibson's car, going north on Russell, had stopped at a stop sign and then had moved on through the intersection, when Mrs. Shelton's automobile, being driven west on Foster, hit the rear tender of the Gibson vehicle. Damage to the Shelton automobile was estimated at $15, while that to the Gibson car was set at $100. No one was injured.

Thomas Honored At Texas A&M

Pampa's Ralph R. Thomas, county agent, was among 15 Texas Agricultural Extension Service workers honored Wednesday during a meeting of the Omega Psi Phi honorary Extension fraternity, at Texas A & M College, College Station. Certificates were presented to those who had devoted more than twenty years to the Extension work and who, according to G. G. Gibson, director, "rendered a service that has brought a more abundant living to Texas rural families, a more satisfying community life, and increased happiness to others."

Church To Sponsor Musical Program

Pampa's Church of the Brethren, 600 N. Frost, will sponsor a program of sacred music, presented by the McPherson College Male Quartet, at 7:30 p. m. Sunday. Rev. Robert Mays of the college public relations office will accompany the group and will deliver the main address during the evening service. Rev. Lyle Albright, pastor, announced that the public is invited to attend the program.

Air Force Academy May Be Requested

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—UP—The Defense Department is getting set to make a strong new plea to Congress for an Air Force academy similar to the military and naval academies at West Point and Annapolis.

Lt. Gen. Hubert R. Harman of the Air Force was recalled to active duty Thursday to serve as a special assistant to Air Secretary Harold G. Talbot for liaison with Congress on air academy legislation. Harman had retired last February.

A bill to set up an air academy was first introduced in 1951, but it was sidetracked because of the Korean war.

The proposed academy would cost an estimated $148 million. As far as is known, the Air Force has not decided on a site.

The Air Force has long been demanding its own academy, giving its officers the technical training it considers necessary. At present it takes about 25 per cent of the Annapolis and West Point graduates.

Pampa Receives Light Drizzle

A fine drizzle was falling in Pampa about noon today, but the weather forecast gave no promise of much moisture in this area. The forecast called for mostly cloudy and windy weather today, with warmer weather promised for Saturday.

For the second consecutive day the mercury dropped to the season's low temperature of 38 Thursday night from the Thursday high of 60. While the temperature at 11 a. m. today had risen to 41 degrees, a high south wind caused many Pampans to bring out their overcoats for the first time this season this morning.

Since 6:30 p. m. Thursday only a trace of rain was reported by the weather station at Radio Station KPND. Up to that time Thursday's rainfall had amounted to .11 inch, bringing the official rainfall in Pampa for the season to 1.82 inches. However, the rainfall has been much heavier in other parts of the county, both during the present storm and in previous storms this season.

It was reported here today that as much as an inch of moisture fell in various parts of Gray County Thursday, with good rains between Pampa and White Deer.

Scout Leaders Will Hold Training Camp

A leadership training camp for all Scoutmasters, assistant and junior Scoutmasters, Senior Patrol Leaders and committeemen of the Santa Fe Boy Scout district, will be held Saturday and Sunday at Recreation Park, it was announced today by Phil Pegues, district Scout executive. Courses to be taught at the camp, which will open at 2 p. m. Saturday and will continue until the same hour Sunday, will be camping, cooking and hiking. The camp will be set up inside a building in case of bad weather, he said. Those attending should bring food, cooking equipment, bedrolls, gasoline stoves, compasses and other articles that might be needed.

TEMPORARY

One policeman also was killed by one of three bombs thrown by rioters. Many policemen said they did not want to fight against fellow citizens. A reporter who spoke to some of them said they also were afraid of the rioters enraged over the police shooting of six persons Friday and three Thursday. Lt. Col. Peter Huthwaite, commanding officer of the British Loyall Battalion, said: "The troops have orders to open fire and use their bayonets if necessary." A dozen newspapermen were caught inside the headquarters and were not permitted to leave. Situation Out of Control
"The situation is out of control," Capt. Charles Thurston in the press office said. "Reporters for their own safety are not allowed to circulate."

Red Cross Expects Nursing Official

Pampa's Red Cross chapter will be host Monday to Mrs. Hazel A. Heywood of St. Louis, Midwest area nursing service representative, who will review the chapter's home nursing program. A special meeting of the chapter's nursing committee and all home nursing instructors will be held at 7:30 p. m. announced Mrs. F. W. Showell, chapter secretary. Most of the meeting will be devoted to a discussion of a course of "The Mother and Baby Care," which the chapter hopes to inaugurate in the near future. The course must be taught by a registered nurse, and plans will be made Monday for a class to train instructors, Mrs. Showell advised.

UF Response 'Pretty Good'

Today is the fourth day of the United Fund advance drive and some 20 per cent of the cards had been turned in by late this morning.

Paul Brown, overall chairman for the Pampa community's first such drive, labeled the response "pretty good."

Floyd Watson, advance drive chairman, this morning said he would begin contacting the 70-75 volunteer workers today in an attempt to get them to turn in what they have, regardless of whether they've contacted all the persons on their lists.

One trouble, Watson said, is that many of the operators of the large concerns have had to contact their bosses at headquarters before they could make a definite commitment. But for the drive, as a whole, he said, "I'm well pleased."

A carbon copy of last Tuesday's kick-off breakfast is scheduled for this Tuesday, Brown said, pointing out that only things different will be the Boy Scout and Girl Scout leading the pledge to the flag and the pastor leading the invocation. Scheduled for 7:30 a. m. Tuesday, this breakfast will be for the general drive, to include industrial firms and rural areas.

Attention, Local Duck Hunters

Two nearby lakes, McClellan Lake, 20 miles south of Pampa, and Lake Marvin near Canadian, have set duck and geese hunting days at their respective lakes. McClellan will allow hunting on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays of each week during the season; on all holidays and on the first and last day of the season. At Lake Marvin, hunting will be allowed on Wednesdays and Sundays and on all holidays. Duck and geese hunting began at noon today.

Mission Due To Receive Charge

Dr. E. Douglas Carver, pastor of the First Baptist Church, will give the charge of independence to the Hobart Street Mission in services slated to begin at 3 p. m. Sunday. The First Baptist Church has been sponsoring the Mission till it became large enough to carry on alone and officially become a church, according to John Wilde, Mission music director. Formal charge ceremonies will follow a basket dinner, slated to get underway after morning preaching service and a special program scheduled for 2 p. m., Wilde said today.

"We're going on our own as a church," Wilde continued, adding that Rev. W. F. Vanderburg, Mission pastor, would be included in the organizational services.

James F. Reed Rites Saturday

Funeral services will be held at 3 p. m. Saturday in the First Baptist Church, Canadian, for James F. Reed, 86, Canadian farmer. Mr. Reed died in his home about 5 a. m. Thursday following a stroke. Rev. Taft Holloway will officiate at the funeral and burial will be in the Canadian Cemetery under the direction of the Duenkel-Carmichael Funeral Home.

Mr. Reed was born in Knoxville, Ia., and moved to Hemphill County from Kingfisher, Okla., in 1910. He has lived in Canadian since 1933. His wife, Nancy Jane Reed, died Nov. 8, 1951.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. C. E. Buckner of Waynoka, Okla.; two sons, Ben G. Reed of Canadian and Ed Reed of Iowa Park.

Why Confirmation?
The rite of confirmation in the Episcopal Church is sometimes confusing to our non-Episcopal friends. "Why is it necessary?" they ask.
It is necessary, we believe, because this Sacrament came to us from Christ's Apostles. In the early Church the Apostles administered Confirmation and transmitted this authority and practice to their accredited successors, the Bishops of the Church. "Confirmation" comes from the word confirm, which means "to strengthen."
Known generally as "the laying on of hands," Confirmation is today the ceremony in which the person confirmed, after instruction in the faith and practice of the church, reaffirms and takes upon himself the obligations of Christian fellowship.
We believe firmly in the effectiveness of the laying on of the hands of the Bishop, who as an ordained and consecrated Apostolic successor, prays that the strengthening help of God's Holy Spirit will descend upon the confirmed. You'll find Scriptural authority for the rite in verses 12 to 18, Chapter 8, Acts of the Apostles.
Perhaps you'll find in the Episcopal Church the answer to your spiritual needs. We invite you to worship with us.

Ill-Making Popular Hobby Of American Military Personnel Dependents In Japan

A special Correspondent
 LIZABETH K. O'KEEFE
 (NEA) — Newest and favored hobby among American living in Japan is doll-making.

The beautiful Sakura dolls have been admired by Americans in Japan for some time. One of the American wives here decided to try her hand at copying a Sakura doll she'd seen in the home of a Japanese friend.

The idea caught on and before long, the doll-making class was under the sponsorship of the Camp Sendai Sergeants' Wives Auxiliary. Class instructor is Mrs. Yoshi Kameyama, who's been teaching the art of doll-making for over 14 years.

This is Mrs. Felicia Littlejohn. She and her husband, Horace—who works for an electronics firm—have one child, six-month-old Susan.

How Mrs. Littlejohn's telephone helps her through busy days

Did you ever keep a record of all the telephone calls you made and received for a week? Mrs. Littlejohn is one of a group of telephone customers we asked to keep a diary of all calls made and received for one week. She was genuinely surprised at how much she depended on her telephone service.

9:00 Called my next-door neighbor to see if she would watch Susan for a few minutes while I went to the store for milk.

12:00 My husband's daily call which I always look forward to. I told him all was well at home. 12 miles.

1:00 Made dental appointment for Horace. He's too busy to call—and I'm more apt to remember date and time. 2 miles.

1:30 Called cleaner to see if our clothes were ready. I save trips this way—and to me that's important. 2 miles.

3:30 Dottie, a friend, called to thank me for the housewarming I gave for her Sunday. It turned out so well. 10 miles.

7:30 Horace's Dad cut himself trimming the hedge. Called to tell us he's back from the doctor's and O. K. 6 miles.

Overlooked Fact Is: Only Congress Writes Farm Laws

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — In all the hullabaloo over farm prices, one fact now overlooked is that Congress and no one else is going to write whatever new farm program is adopted. Congress being out of town now, all the heat is being put on President Eisenhower and Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson.

These two officials seem to be counting heavily on their still semi-secret Agricultural Advisory Commission to produce a magic farm formula to solve everything. This group, under Dean W. I. Myers of Cornell, has been conducting a strictly star-chamber operation. It has held no public hearings.

Whatever farm program this group of 16 — soon to be 18 — prominent and prosperous farmers, farm-product processors and educators comes up with will be the own new-approach idea. Not even the farm organizations are officially represented on the commission. It is doubtful if any government planning body in recent years has tried to develop a program with such remote public contacts.

By contrast, the House Agricultural Committee under Chairman Clifford R. Hope of Kansas will soon be on the last lap of a congressional-recess investigation taking it to every section of the country. Here is the real, political grass-roots approach.

Whatever these congressmen decide the farm program should or should not be more than likely what will be adopted, even if it reverses some of the best ideas of Secretary Benson and the AAC.

Need Not Write New Program

One other important point not clearly understood is that Congress doesn't have to write any new farm program if it doesn't want to, or if it gets involved in a farm-politics fight and does nothing. The only farm legislation that expires at the end of 1954 is the mandatory requirement that prices on the six basic crops must be supported at 90 per cent of parity. These crops are wheat, corn, cotton, rice, peanuts and tobacco.

When this provision dies, the original 1939 farm program will again come automatically into effect. It provides for a sliding scale that permits the Secretary of Agriculture to set support prices between 75 and 90 per cent of parity, at whatever level he thinks best to promote or discourage production.

Vulnerability Is Key To Bidding

By OSWALD JACOBY

Written for NEA Service

Vulnerability has an important effect on your willingness to bid at the sacrifice level. In today's hand, for example, West must decide whether or not to bid five diamonds when South stabs at four hearts, and West is influenced by the vulnerability.

West can't tell what will happen to five diamonds. (It can be made by careful play, as the cards lie, but from West's point of view five diamonds might easily be a very unsound contract.)

He has a defensive trick or two against four hearts, and his partner may turn up with enough to beat that contract. If it is all very borderline, and with equal vulnerability (or, certainly, if West were non-vulnerable against vulnerable opponents) West would bid five diamonds. With unfavorable vulnerability, West passes.

Four hearts should be made by South if he merely plays the hand like a bridge player. West wins the first trick with the king of diamonds and shifts to a trump. This gives South his chance to show whether or not he is a bridge player.

The correct play is to win the first trump in the South hand even though dummy's eight is good enough to hold the trick. And then South must lead his singleton club towards dummy's king.

If West happens to have the ace of clubs, he can take it and lead a second trump, but dummy's king of clubs will be established to make up for the loss of the ruffing trick.

If East happens to have the ace of clubs, he will be able to win the club trick but will be unable to return a trump; and South will be able to ruff out both of his remaining diamonds. Even if East takes the club trick and leads a spade, the defenders will have to get up both of dummy's high spades in the effort to reduce dummy's ruffing power.

South wouldn't have as good a chance for his contract if he won the first trump trick in dummy. He would then have to find a way to get out of dummy in order to ruff the losing diamonds, and South has no way of knowing which suit will be — West out of lead. The club lead towards dummy's king solves the problem.

the fact that the organized-labor groups represent 16 million members while the farm organizations can speak for only six million families, because that's all the farms there are.

It takes political guts of a high order to stand up against this farm lobby and say no, you can't have everything guaranteed. The President and Secretary Benson have shown this courage and refused to be stampeded. In this process they have probably discovered that solving the farm problem isn't as easy as it looked when they were making political promises in the election campaign that ended just about a year ago.

Professor Criticizes Schools On Geography Abandonment

By HARMAN W. NICHOLS
WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 —UP—The reason our kids don't know Peculiar Mo. from What Cheer, Ia., is that their teachers don't know, either.

This sad commentary comes from Prof. Harland Westermann who heads up the geography department at George Washington University. His observations largely are echoed by the U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

The government people say the trouble generally is that public schools have thrown geography in to a general heap of subjects known as "social sciences" when it ought to continue separately.

No Maps in High School

One high-up government official, who asked me not to use his name, said he is unhappy to report the study of the maps is chopped off before students reach high school.

Prof. Westermann saw the straw in the educational wind when he asked his college freshmen to name the states in the Union.

"Only five per cent could do it," he told me, "and only a couple of these could name three-fourths of the state capitals."

Mix Up Great Lakes

The professor said he was ashamed to admit some of his kids put down such places as Denver, Sacramento, and New Orleans as states.

"Almost as bad," he added, "they get the Great Lakes all mixed up, and one of them even made a river out of Lake Huron. Very few of them could locate our great mountains, like Mt. Shasta (Sacramento), Pikes' Peak (Denver), and Mt. Ranier (Olympia). It's not a very pleasant thought."

The way Westermann looks at it, if we could find teachers who know a little about the map, maybe we could teach the young a thing or two.

Urges Stamp Collecting

"But how can you find such teachers, when the future teachers don't learn geography when they are young?" he asked.

The professor thinks it is a good idea to buy the youngsters stamp albums and encourage them to collect stamps from around the world and postmarks from their own country.

"When they get a stamp or postmark," he told me, "make them look it up in their atlas."

That way, he said, there would be less likelihood of "putting Rome next door to Australia, like I found on one recent test paper."

Meat Packers May Operate At Loss

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 —UP—The American Meat Institute said Thursday that retailers are getting dressed beef for a lower price than packers pay for the live animal.

An AMI spokesman declined to comment when asked if this meant packers were operating at a loss.

The AMI statement said the average price of choice grade steers at Chicago as of mid-October was 25.8 cents a pound, of $28 for a 1,000 pound steer.

The 500 pounds of dressed beef such a steer yielded was sold to retailers at an average price of 41 cents a pound, the statement said.

The meat packer thus realized $241.90—or $16.10—less on the sale than he paid for the live animal, the AMI said.

American Awarded Divorce From Model

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6.—UP—Investment broker William B. Jevne, 58, Friday held a divorce on testimony his Parisian model wife told him she married him for his money and asked, "why did you think I would marry an old fool?"

Jevne told Superior Judge A. A. Scott Thursday he married Mrs. Jacqueline Paullette Jevne, 28, in France in July, 1950, but later found she loved the bartender who had introduced them at Paris' Continental Hotel. He testified his bride went swimming with the bartender, Maurice Amalag, on their wedding day and then danced with him until midnight that night.

Jevne said his wife told him, "you don't like it, drop dead." Mrs. Jevne brought the original complaint, asking $3000 a month separate maintenance and charging her husband abandoned her Paris a month after their marriage.

News in Balance

By PHIL NEWSBOM
United Press Foreign Analyst

The week's balance sheet between the good and bad news in the hot and cold wars:

THE GOOD
1. So far, Communist "explainers" have been able to talk only about two out of every 100 anti-Communist war prisoners held by the United Nations in Korea into returning to the Red fold. It has been a stinging propaganda setback for the Reds who also have had to listen to an unending stream of abuse from the prisoners who, having once experienced life under communism, want no more of it.
2. The opposing parties of Liberal candidate Elydio Quirino and Nacionalista candidate Ramon Magsaysay asked Philippines voters to leave knives and bolos at home in the presidential elections, Nov. 10. Catholic priests will help escort voters to the polls in an attempt to avert violence and local police also have been alerted.
3. The Hamburg state elections gave West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer control of both houses of parliament. Adenauer immediately hailed the victory as a new endorsement of his plans to put

Movie Studio Now Drilling An Oil Well

By ALNE MOSBY
HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 6.—UP—Twentieth Century - Fox Studio, which temporarily stopped making movies, today took up a more profitable business—drilling the world's prettiest oil well.

Recently the studio closed its doors while it uses up its backlog of Cinemascope movies. So instead of pictures, the studio is producing petroleum.
On the exact spot of the back lot where Ava Gardner was planned under a truck for a movie scene has been built a real, live oil well.

This oil well, in true Hollywood fashion, is the most elegant in history. It is draped with sound proof material painted a delicate blue. The disguise matches the sky and keeps all pump noises from offending the neighbors in nearby mansions.

An oil expert explained the oil field has been around for 300 million years. The studio finally overcame objections of surrounding home owners and drilled for the liquid gold.
The venture may bring Fox more money than it makes from Marilyn Monroe, said C. G. Williams, of the Universal Consolidated Oil Co.
"It cost about $350,000 just to drill the well," said Williams, a sedate man in vest and hat—foreign garb to filmsters. "So I assure you, we aren't going after just a couple of million dollars."

I had difficulty inspecting this new Fox "production." Oil drillers, Williams explained, think its bad luck for a female to hang around on the first day. I finally sneaked in under the disguise of a driller's tin hat.

"The Snows of Killmanjaro," starring Miss Gardner, was filmed on the spot where the derrick was built. Tanks of mud for the drill stand where Claudette Colbert starred in prison camp for "Three Came Home." And the hill where Christ travelled on a donkey for "the robe" was levelled for the drillers.
Other oil well owners drove out to stare at the 136-foot steel derrick that, disguised, looks like a windmill without propeller.
"It's so elegant," drawled one Texan. "It must be the Marilyn Monroe influence."

UP President Praises Press In America

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—UP—Americans may well be proud of the tremendous accomplishment of their press representatives in covering the coronation of Queen Elizabeth, the inauguration of President Eisenhower, and other great events of the last few years, according to Hugh Baillie, president of the United Press.

In an address to the Saint Andrew's Society Thursday night, Baillie said Americans have the most complete coverage of news developments anywhere and everywhere in the world, of any people in any country.
"The newspapers, radio, television and news reels all combine to put the American, even though he is sitting comfortably at home, right in the midst of all the great public events as they occur," Baillie said.
In the case of the atom bomb, for instance, he pointed out there are very few Americans who have not read complete, thorough and detailed descriptions of atomic explosions and their effect, and millions of them have actually seen news pictures in the papers and others have heard and seen atomic bomb explosions "live" on their television screens.

The battle for freedom of access to the news at the source goes on, Baillie said, and in many countries it is a losing struggle because the people are condemned to ignorance which goes along with a blacked-out press. They become subservient to dictators, "and the last thing a dictator wants is a free press."
"But in the United States there has been little restriction of freedom of the right to gather news," Baillie said. "In fact, it is at a peak. And if there is the slightest inclination on the part of government officials to dry up news at the source, this is attacked vigorously by the newspaper people, as it has recently been done in Washington where a number of government departments were authorized to hold back certain news items on the ground of security. These rules and regulations are being greatly relaxed except insofar as genuine security is concerned on matters of national defense."

A Bit Suspicious

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—UP—Furrier David Veltman told a felony court judge he became a little suspicious when he saw a woman walking toward the exit of his store with a fur tail between her legs.
Veltman grabbed the tail and discovered it was a $4,000 mink wrap. The woman, Dorothy Myers, was released on $5,000 bond.

Motorcycle Chase

CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—UP—Daredevil motorcyclist James W. Champion received a 10-day sentence for reckless driving after losing an 85-mile-per-hour race to a motorcycle policeman.
The two men raced through alleys, across lawns, in and out of apartment rearways and across a school playground before the policeman caught Champion.

"As the woman bowler who has made the most progress, please accept this pin that you knocked down tonight!"

Expert Blasts Fat-Free Diet

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—UP—Fat-free diets were attacked on the grounds, while they were reducing cholesterol in the blood stream, they might also be damaging the liver.
The antibiotics attack was directed at their "excessive use" and the scientific attacker warned there was increasing possibility that "excessive use" would cause death.
Dr. Harry J. Duell, dean of the Graduate School of the University of Southern California, reported experimental rats doubled the cholesterol in their liver while fat-free diets were causing their blood cholesterol to drop.
"Usually rats mirror what happens in humans," he said. "Our research at least questions the advisability of low-fat or fat-free diets in combating hardening of the arteries in man."
Dr. A. L. Tatum, University of Wisconsin professor who attacked excessive use of antibiotics in both a physician and a doctor in chemistry. He said more and more persons are becoming sensitized allergically to antibiotics and this probably will step up the number of "fatal consequences."
He urged physicians to consider antibiotics as "emergency therapeutic crutches" and use them only when the illness was serious and antibiotics were the indicated treatment. Drugs, he said, have Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde personalities.
Penicillin and other antibiotics have worked wonders, he granted, but "marvel" is not that penicillin and other drugs can lead to tragedies, but rather that up to now such tragedies are relatively few.
He cited studies which have shown micro organisms which cause disease are becoming choler and more resistant to antibiotics. Therefore, when the illness is serious and antibiotics are used they

Everyday Actions Cause Accidents

BOSTON, Nov. 6.—UP—More than 85 per cent of all injuries stem from 10 everyday actions, the Institute for Safer Living reported Friday after a survey of nationwide insurance statistics.
Here, according to accident records, are, in order, the 10 daily actions most likely to get you into trouble:
1. Driving or riding in an automobile.
2. Crossing the street.
3. Use of stairways (you're comparatively safe walking up but watch your step coming down).
4. Walking or standing on slippery or uneven surfaces.
5. Climbing or standing on objects above floor or ground level. (Ladders are the worst offenders).
6. Smoking and use of matches.
7. Handling hot liquids.
8. Use of heating and cooking equipment.
9. Use of electrical appliances and equipment.
10. Handling cutting tools with sharp and pointed edges.

Dudley Regains State Punt Lead

FORT WORTH, Nov. 4.—Fullback Larry George of Dallas Crozier Tech bumped Curtis Reeves of Wichita Falls out of the 4A ball carrying leadership for the first time this season. George picked up 176 yards last week to give him 594 for the season and a 7.8 average. Reeves was held to 54 by Waco and now has 918 and a 5.8 mark.

Reeves wasn't the only leader to be unseated. In fact, there's a new leader in every department this week.

Odesa's Carl Schlemeyer finally overhauled Billy Dube of San Antonio Jeff, who was idle last week. Schlemeyer has hit on 65 of 114 passes for 994 yards. Dube has 923 yards from 75 completions on 142 attempts.

Another 4A-1 representative, Ed Dudley of Pampa, kicked just one time last week, but that was enough to swing past Morris Rose of Dallas South Oak Cliff. Dudley has a 41.1 average, Rose 40.7. Bobby Jack Oliver of Abilene, who didn't get a chance to punt last week, remained in third place with 39.8 average.

Two Fort Worth representatives, Fred Maples of North Side and Jack Newsome of Arlington Heights are pass receiving and total offense leaders, respectively. Maples vaulted from third place past Odesa's Sonny McLaughlin and Poly's Robert Groom with two catches for 127 yards last week and 431 yards on 15 receptions for the year. McLaughlin has 368 yards on 37 catches.

Newsome, Arlington Heights' 152-pound tailback, has scampared for 717 yards and passed for 701 to give him 1,418 yards in the total offense department. Houston Lamar's Walt Fonden is second with 1,190 yards while Schlemeyer is third with 1,093 yards (994 on passing) and Dube fourth with 1,069 (923 on aerials).

Corpus Christi Ray picked up 556 yards on total offense against Little Northeast of Oklahoma City last week to replace Houston Lamar as the No. 1 offensive team. Ray has an average of 403.7 while Lamar has 384.0. Woodrow Wilson is third with a 362.2 mark while Pampa is fourth with 339.4 and Odesa fifth with 322.0.

Defensively Waco look over first place from Baytown by holding Wichita Falls to a net of 68 yards. Waco has yielded 140.9 per game. Corpus Miller is second with a 148.8 reading while Baytown is third with a 151.1 mark.

With Second Quarter Spree Reapers Slip By Poodles, 19-13

The Pampa Junior High Reapers poured three touchdowns across in the second quarter and then held on for a 19-13 win over the Borger Poodles in a Panhandle Junior High Conference game yesterday at Harvester Stadium.

The game, played in chilly weather, saw the visitors from Borger take a 6-0 lead in the first quarter but the Reapers caught fire in the second period.

The passing of Gary Dearen got the Reapers rolling after a listless first quarter. Dearen, pint-sized quarterback, tossed two touchdown aerials in the second with Dickie Mauldin on the receiving end on both occasions.

The first TD pass covered 41 yards and the second covered 25 yards. They were the only two pass completions of the day for the Reapers.

Mauldin also scored the third Reaper touchdown. Mauldin, with some timely downfield blocking, broke loose on a 40-yard touchdown scamper late in the second quarter to score what proved to be the winning touchdown.

Jerry Hopkins converted after the third Reaper TD to complete the scoring for the winners.

Reaper fumbles set up both Borger touchdowns. The Reapers fumbled on the first play after receiving the kickoff and the Poodles recovered on the Reaper 35. The

Panhandle Golf Tourney Here Sunday

If weather permits, the Panhandle Men's Golf Association will make another attempt to stage their annual tournament at the Pampa Country Club Sunday.

Bad weather has already caused one postponement and the present weather outlook doesn't leave much hope of getting the tourney run off this time either.

But the tourney is still scheduled for Sunday and will be unreeled unless the weather clears up.

The tourney was originally scheduled for Oct. 25, but rain and cold postponed the affair. It had to be postponed for two weeks since the Pampa Civic Tournament was already scheduled for last Sunday.

If the tourney is postponed, then it will be held a week from Sunday or the first Sunday thereafter that good weather prevails.

Members of the PMGA are Huber at Borger, Ross Rogers at Amarillo, Phillips and Pampa.

Pro Johnny Austin of Pampa urges all Pampa golfers who plan to play in the tournament to get their names in to him before Sunday noon.

The top 20 players of each club will be chosen to play in the tournament. There will also be a special event for all golfers who will not be playing on a team Sunday.

Sunday's play will begin at 1 p.m.

Baylor, SMU, Rice Favored In SWC Grid Battles Tomorrow

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer

Front running Baylor, along with Southern Methodist and Rice — both of whom have yet to meet the nation's third-ranking Bears — are favored to remain in the Southwest Conference title fight this week, but Baylor possibly could clinch a tie for a championship.

The odds-makers have established Baylor, SMU and Rice as one-touchdown choices over Texas, Texas A&M and Arkansas, respectively, in this Saturday's crucial games, while off-beaten Texas Christian has been established a similar favorite over Washington State.

A combination of circumstances could shove Baylor into at least a share of the championship they haven't tasted in 25 years, however.

Bears Need Upsets
This could come about only if Baylor beats Texas as expected at Austin, while the Texas Aggies upset SMU at College Station and Lamar McHan and his Arkansas mates turn the tables on Rice at Houston in a night game.

Such a chain of events would leave Coach George Sauer's Waco team a 4-0 conference record with all other rivals having dropped at least two games. Texas, SMU and Rice all have dropped one to date.

Arkansas already has fallen twice and TCU three times, so they virtually are out of contention.

Might Be Bears and Longhorns
On the other hand, a Texas upset of the powerful Bears would throw the race wide open unless Rice and SMU both lost — in which case it would narrow down to a two-team affair between Baylor and Texas.

Both still would have two games to go in loop action — Baylor against SMU at Waco Nov. 21 and Rice at Houston Nov. 28, while Texas would have TCU at Austin Nov. 14 and Texas A&M at College Station Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 26.

Baylor also has a Nov. 14 date with Houston at Waco.

Until last Saturday, Baylor probably would have been a heavier choice than the six-point odds in vogue now, but against SMU, the young Texas team appears to find itself for the first time and emerge as a formidable opponent. Texas has had Baylor's Number 1 Baylor has beaten Texas but once in the past 14 years and has won only nine times in the 42 years since the team's rebirth.

Only last year, Baylor apparently had the game in the bag, but a final minutes drive pulled the game out for Texas 35 to 33. Saturday's contest was expected to be played in a similar vein.

SMU and the Aggies both will be on the rebound — SMU from a 16 to 7 upset at the hands of Texas and the Aggies from a humiliating 41 to 14 debacle against Arkansas.

Rice — TCU on Rebound
These defeats were rude jolts to what had promised to be excellent seasons for both teams and each will be out to pick up the victory thread again.

Rice, too, will be on the rebound — but from a non-conference upset at the hands of Kentucky instead of a loop foe. The Owls, presar 1 title choices, lost to SMU and beat Texas with the outcome of both games being decided in the final minutes.

TCU, loser of its last five games since a season-opening victory over Kansas, will be out to salvage some prestige for itself and the conference against a Washington State team that has dropped three games. The game will be played at Spokane.

Cold Weather Fails To Slow Down Pampa Schoolboy Gridders; Pick Bears Over UT

DESPITE THE COLD WEATHER yesterday, there was plenty of football going on out at Harvester Stadium.

While the Reapers were playing Borger in a Panhandle Junior High Conference game on the main field, the Harvesters and Guerrillas were going through their regular workout paces on the practice field behind the East stands.

And over on the old practice field, the Junior High Pee Wees were being sent through their daily workouts.

While the Harvesters will be taking the week of this week, they were just as hard at work yesterday as if an important game was coming up this weekend.

The Green and Golders have been working in earnest this week in preparing for the next week's crucial battle with the high riding Odesa Broncos.

The Harvesters took a little breather during the drill yesterday to watch their little brothers, the Reapers, battle Borger.

The Reapers have been coming along pretty good in recent games. They have now won their last two games. As Coach Marvin Bowman put it "the kids are finally finding themselves."

Gary Dearen's passing yesterday caused a little eyebrow raising. Dearen connected for two touchdown passes despite the cold and wet atmosphere.

Another player causing a little notice yesterday for the Reapers was Dickie Mauldin. Mauldin scored all three Reaper touchdowns and made two or three good runs during the afternoon.

WELL, IT'S THAT TIME AGAIN.
We're speaking, of course, of our weekly prediction of football games throughout the country. Our average didn't climb or fall last week so we're just where we started before last week's games were even played.

Time is running out so here quickly are PBV's forecasts of this week's games:

- Phillips 27, Shamrock 7.
- White Deer 13, Lefors 7.
- McLean 34, Clarendon 6.
- Canadian 19, Panhandle 7.
- Baylor 14, Texas 13.
- SMU 20, Texas A&M 13.
- Rice 34, Arkansas 20.
- TCU 14, Washington State 7.
- Oklahoma 20, Missouri 7.
- Houston 14, Tulsa 7.
- ACC 34, Austin College 14.
- McMurry 20, Lamar Tech 14.
- Hardin-Simmons 27, Texas Western 20.
- Texas Tech 28, Arizona 13.
- Oklahoma A&M 14, Wyoming 13.
- Michigan State 27, Ohio State 14.
- Midwestern 19, West Texas 14.
- Florida 20, Georgia 7.
- Kentucky 14, Vanderbilt 19.
- Southern Cal 26, Stanford 19.

Remember Purdue, Bud Tells OU Fans

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 5 —UP— Requests for Orange Bowl tickets rolled into Oklahoma University Thursday, but Coach Bud Wilkinson, fearful of a let-down before the Sooners' game with Missouri Saturday, had a two-word warning: "Remember Purdue."

The two words told quite a story. Briefly, it was this:

Texas is the team that beat Purdue, and Purdue is the team that later snapped Michigan State's long winning streak.

Oklahoma must defeat Missouri to preserve its dreams of a New Year's Day trip to Miami. The Big Seven and Atlantic Coast Conferences have a two-year pact to send their champions to the Orange Bowl.

"There is no telling what spirit and desire can accomplish in football these days," Wilkinson said.

He said the same thing a week ago and his king-sized bruisers promptly mauled Kansas State into 34 to 0 submission.

The odds are that Oklahoma, Missouri is the nation's number one team to do it again Saturday at Columbia and thus keep intact Wilkinson's record of never having been beat by a conference foe since he took over the coaching job in 1947. The string now shows 35 conference wins in a row, the most in the history of the conference.

Annually produces strong teams is represented in the Oklahoma trophy room by five championships and two co-championships.

A sophomore team that began by facing three tough rivals in a row, Oklahoma has lost only No. 1 ranked Notre Dame this year. It was tied by Pittsburgh in the second game 7 to 7, but since has won four in a row.

These victories were achieved the hard way, on bruising split-T ground power, with backs crashing through enemy openings made possible by sheer Oklahoma line power.

Elsewhere in the Midlands this week, Kansas State tackles Kansas; Nebraska meets Iowa State and Utah is guest of Colorado. In the Missouri Valley Conference, the schedule shows Detroit against Marquette; Houston at Tulsa; Denver at Wichita and Wyoming against Oklahoma A&M.

West Virginia Team Awaits Word From SC On Bowl Ruling

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 6 —UP— Sugar Bowl officials, dangling a possible invitation to the New Year's Day grid classic before West Virginia, sat back and waited Friday for the Southern Conference to reverse its stand on post-season games.

And if the conference follows the advice of its special committee on the thorny question, it will do just that.

Officials of the mid-winter sports association have flatly stated they are high on the colorful Southern Conference Mountaineers as raw material for the annual grid fest.

"But they've got one more hurdle to jump before we act," said Irving Poche, president of the group that sponsors the Sugar Bowl.

"The situation is still status quo. And we're not going to tell the Southern Conference what to do."

But earlier Poche said if the bowl conference lifts itself before the Mountaineers eligible for a bid, then "West Virginia would receive very serious consideration by the Sugar Bowl."

That gentle hint is considered partially responsible for the action of a special committee set up to study post-season events.

The group huddled in Roanoke, Va., and late Thursday recommended the loop approve participation in NCAA-recognized bowl games. And then a hurry-up call was sent out for a full-dress meeting of the 10-member conference to take up the question.

The Southern Conference banned post-season bowl games some 22 months ago. The move caused a breakdown of seven members, including Maryland, to form the new Atlantic Coast Conference.

Maryland defied the ban to play in the Sugar Bowl in 1952.

Idaho Team Leads Nation In Offense

NEW YORK, Nov. 6 —UP— "Ted Martin by land and Boyd Crawford by air" is the motto of the unbeaten College of Idaho Coyotes who sport the best offense in the country according to the NCAA Service Bureau's small college statistics.

With Martin handling most of the running and Crawford doing most of the passing, the Coyotes have gained 3,220 yards in 46 plays — an average of 46.0 per game. McPherson shows the next best total offense record with 3,071 yards in 509 plays for a 433.7 average per game.

Thanks to its two-brilliant backs, Idaho also ranks second in passing offense, eighth in rushing and has averaged 42 points a game.

Martin, a 165-pound halfback, leads the individual rushers with a total of 1,177 yards in 138 plays for a brilliant average of 8.47 yards per carry.

Crawford, meanwhile, leads the passers in yards gained (1,184), has the best percentage of completions (.594) and has thrown 15 touchdown passes to lead in that department by eight. With 63 completions, he trails only Pence Dacus of Southwest Texas State and Ralph Captani of Iowa Teachers, who have 77 and 69 respectively.

Southern University boasted the best defense among the small colleges, having yielded only 500 yards in six games for an average of only 83.3 a game.

Mathews Gets Four RB's
OKINAWA, Nov. 6 —UP— Milwaukee Braves homerun king Ed Mathews belted in four runs with a homer and a double Thursday to spark Ed Lopat's major league's sixth ranking team in the nation to a 14 to 1 victory over the Okinawa Service all-stars.

Bowl Choices May Hinge On Saturday Tills

By JOHN GRIFFIN
NEW YORK, Nov. 6 —UP—A clearer picture of the lineup for the four major bowl games—Rose, Sugar, Cotton, and Orange — will emerge Saturday from key gridiron battles in six conferences.

With the 1953 pigskin season rushing into its final weeks, Illinois, unbeaten leader of the Big Ten, can put itself in a commanding position in the chase for that league's Rose Bowl berth by beating Michigan, especially since one of its closest rivals will be joined in the Ohio State-Michigan State fray.

Stanford, topping the Pacific Coast Conference with a 5-0 record, will really move out strong for the other Rose Bowl spot if it whips third-place Southern California. The odds-makers, however, are predicting otherwise—making Southern Cal a six-point choice.

Baylor Can Sew It Up
Baylor, anxious for the Cotton Bowl berth reserved for the Southwest Conference king, will really take charge of that race if it makes it as a six-point pick over second-place Texas. On the other hand, a Texas win would throw the race into a deadlock.

Oklahoma, leader of the Big Seven race which leads to a berth in the Orange Bowl at Miami has a chance to go far ahead in that race if it beats Missouri as predicted. That's because second-place Kansas State is an underdog in its game against Kansas. In the Atlantic Coast Conference, whose champion fills the other Orange Bowl spot, Maryland, the nation's second-ranking team, will keep its lead secure as it plays an outside game against George Washington.

West Virginia Hopeful
There's an excellent chance members of the Southern Conference will be allowed to play in bowl games. That was recommended by the league's special committee Thursday but must yet be approved by two-thirds of the league.

That means unbeaten West Virginia, hiding the nation's top winning streak of 12 games, will have added incentive to avoid a letdown when it opposes VPI in a conference game. VPI has won three of four conference games but is expected to provide only token opposition for the Mountaineers.

Outside the conference races, the major interest centers around Notre Dame's visit to Philadelphia where the nation's first-ranked team faces a battle-tested but weary Pennsylvania team. The Irish were bolstered by the return to active duty of Coach Frank Leahy, who communicated with the team from a sickbed during last Saturday's 7-0 rout of Navy.

Edison Nears Playoff With 34-7 Win Over Harlandale

By UNITED PRESS
San Antonio Edison was within one game of the State Class AAA playoffs Friday after chalking up its eighth straight victory Thursday night in a crucial district battle against Harlandale.

The Bears, 1952 District 7-AA champions, crushed Harlandale 34 to 7 for their sixth district victory and now need only a triumph over Alamo Heights next week to march back into the playoffs. It was the first loop defeat for Harlandale, which hadn't been scored on this season except in a 19 to 0 defeat by Class AAAA Brackenridge.

The game was the standout in a meager Thursday night schedule that saw Houston San Jacinto upset Houston Reagan 13 to 12 in the only other eyebrow-lifter.

Yaleta Stops Cathedral
Elsewhere, Yaleta stopped El Paso Cathedral 14 to 13 in a non-district game. Fort Worth Arlington Heights rolled over Fort Worth Riverside 33 to 13 and North Dallas stomped South Oak Cliff 46 to 7 in the Class AAAA ranks.

In Class AA, Beaumont French whipped Port Acres 27 to 0 and in Class A Los Fresno was beaten 18 to 0 by McAllen B.

Friday night's schedule finds five standout games in the two upper brackets with the best ones sending Fort Worth Paschal against Fort Worth Poly, Corpus Christi Ray against San Antonio Jefferson and Baytown against Beaumont in

UCLA Football Crowds Bigger
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 6 —UP—UCLA has reported a 34 per cent increase in football attendance for the first five games of 1953 over the corresponding period of last year. Athletic Director Wilbur Johns said attendance has averaged 49,776 persons a game for a total attendance of 248,880, compared with last year's total of 183,633 persons.

Duck Season Opens At Noon Today

AUSTIN, Nov. 6 —UP—The annual waterfowl season opened at noon Friday and it appeared sportsmen in most portions of Texas could expect their share of targets.

Howard D. Hodgen, executive secretary of Texas Game and Fish Commission, said recent general rains should give "a fairly good distribution of duck and goose flights over Texas."

Two changes in this year's regulations include an extension of the daily shooting period until sunset and the prohibiting of baiting. Shooting is permitted one-half hour before sunup until sunset through Jan. 4.

The bag limit on geese is five per day or five in possession. On ducks, it is five per day or 10 in possession. Rifles are prohibited. The resident Texas hunting license is $2.15, and a federal duck stamp, costing $2.00, also is required.

Dodgen pointed out at least seven Texans have been killed thus far in hunting accidents, and urged sportsmen to use increased caution.

Reese Won't Take Dodger Pilot Job

By FRED DOWN
NEW YORK, Nov. 6 —UP—Pee Wee Reese politely but firmly removed himself from Brooklyn's managerial sweepstakes Friday, making Fresno Thompson, one of the club's two vice presidents, the No. 1 candidate to manage the Dodgers next season.

Thompson never has managed in the major leagues but it was learned Club President Walter O'Malley was seriously considering the silver-haired veteran's special qualifications for the job left vacant by Chuck Dressen's refusal to accept a one-year contract and Reese's reluctance to take on the dual burden of playing and managing.

Special Qualifications
Those special qualifications were as follows:
1. A willingness to accept an interim job. Thompson, an organization man, would willingly return to his job as director of the farm system when and if Reese is ready to accept the managerial post in one of two years.

2. He is a veteran—the type the club feels it must have to manage a team of established stars.
3. As a result of his present post, he has a thorough knowledge of the team and the organization and has earned the respect of the players.
4. Gifted with a sharp and witty tongue, he would be a "fighter on the field" of the type the club feels Brooklyn fans want.

After Thompson, the outstanding candidate appeared to be Bucky Harris of the Washington Senators, although even Brooklyn officials doubted whether the popular Bucky would be willing to settle for a one-year pact.

The actual naming of the new Dodger pilot, meanwhile, seemed to be in the distant future—perhaps not before the new year. O'Malley and Vice President Buzzy Bavasi were sure Reese would accept the job and were shocked when the little captain and shortstop indicated his reluctance.

Reese, who revealed he had discussed the situation with Bavasi recently, said he based his decision on the problems of playing and managing at the same time.

"I've always said I want to play for a couple of years more at least and I don't think I can successfully play and manage at the same time," Reese said at his Louisville home. "Bavasi and I talked in general terms. There was no definite offer made at that time; but I can say that I was being considered and I am very appreciative of that."

As a result of Reese's decision, a $40,000-a-year job managing one of baseball's strongest teams has now been turned down twice. Proving, once again, anything can happen in Brooklyn.

PEE WEE REESE ... doesn't want Dodger job

A's Fain Willing To Play Anywhere

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 6 —UP—Ferris Fain, the baseball player's baseball player, said Friday he would be willing to be a left-handed second baseman for the Chicago White Sox—just so they would let him play.

The statement was made after Manager Paul Richards announced in Chicago he was "considering" moving Fain into left field in a reshuffling of the line-up for the 1954 campaign.

"I've played in the outfield before," said Fain. "I don't care where I play—just so I play. Under those lineups suggested by Richards, though, it looks like I'm an outfielder."

"The burhead," as he is known to ball players, said he had put in 14 games in the outfield for the Philadelphia Athletics in 1951.

"It's a lazy man's job," he said. "You can take it easy out there. Some people think that you should be able to improve your hitting playing in the outfield. I can't see that. I think too much when I'm out there doing nothing."

Games Scores KO
FALL RIVER, Mass., Nov. 6 —UP—Harold Gomes, 122, of Providence, R. I., stopped Bobby Chabot, 127, of Fall River in the fifth round of a scheduled 10-round feature bout Thursday night.

Cold Weather In Store For Area Footballers Tonight

Cold weather will greet football players throughout the Panhandle area tonight when the schoolboys continue their warfare in conference games.

While the three major teams of the Panhandle, Pampa, Amarillo and Borger, are enjoying an open date, the smaller schools will all be seen in action.

In District 1-A, three conference tussles are on tap. One of the games, Canadian at Panhandle, will be the most important game of the year to the two clubs. Clarendon's Broncs will be the underdogs when they meet McLean at Tiger Stadium in McLean. The Tigers have lost only one game in seven starts and they are still clinging to a chance of taking the conference crown.

Sul Ross Lad Takes Lead In Rushing

By UNITED PRESS
The Lone Star Conference has a new look in the rushing department this week as Ray McCreagor of Sul Ross State recaptured the lead from Lamar Tech's Sammy Carpenter.

McCreagor ran his rushing total to 533 yards in Sul Ross' 21 to 14 victory over S. F. Austin last week. He has a 6.2-yard average in 81 carries while Carpenter dropped to second with 449 yards in 87 attempts.

Fence Dacus, Southwest Texas' passing star, maintained his top billing in total offense and passing despite a poor night against Lamar Tech in the rain. Dacus got only 80 yards passing and 30 rushing to run his total to 1,275.

He has thrown 136 passes, completed 77 for 1,199 yards, and nine touchdowns. He has gained 109 rushing yards over the season.

Sul Ross took over team pass defense honors from Sam Houston, whose team and individual statistics for last week were unreported. The Lobos have allowed eight foes an average 70 yards in the air.

Myatt Presides At Lions Meeting

Ed Myatt got up at the weekly meeting of the Pampa Lions Club, announced that there was no really formal program and proceeded to lead the members in one of the merriest times of the year.

First vice president of the club, Myatt presided in the absence of Boss Lion Ralph Thomas, who is down in College Station for a week full of meetings, to be topped by the Texas A&M-SMU football game.

The Pampa Harvesters — 41 strong — were on hand Thursday noon for their annual visit with the Lions and were accompanied by Coach Tom Tipps and Line Coach Duaine Lyon. And there were 12 more guests introduced by Lion-Tamer Dick Crews, among them Miss Sue Williams who is the Lions Club Sweetheart for November. She places Miss Su Stone and was introduced by Miss Jackie Robertson, club pianist. All were either properly welcomed or properly bid adieu.

Past President Joe Donaldson brought ten Lions up to the stage and the others that they were the ones who had failed to show up for last weekend's civic club tournament. Lions were fourth in a field of four.

Tipps produced all the Harvesters whilled up most of three tables for a ceiling festooned with sun-colored paper leaves. Jack Su and Sue went through a musical routine for the Harvesters. It was called "Tom Tipps Love You."

"Of course, if you insist on this, you'll have to take the clerk with."
