Contested races now slated in county

As of 6:00 p.m. February 1, the deadline for filing for local offices contested races are scheduled for three county races as newcomers announced their political intentions this past week.

Attracting the largest crowd is the race for County Judge to replace Judge Jim Burkett, who has announced his desire not to seek re-election this term. Jessie Johnson and Mrs. Pat Porter has joined Van L. York as candidates on the Democratic ticket.

The race for County Treasurer became contested this week with an announcement by Melissa "Lisa" Ludecke that she will challenge incumbent Don Cox for the post in the Democratic primary.

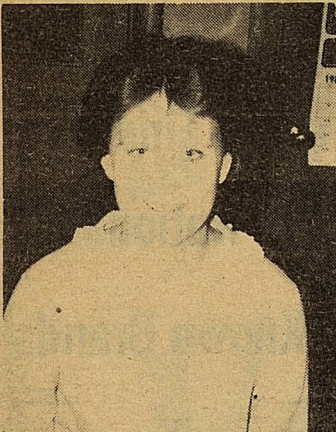

Also contested is the Precinct Four commissioners position where Ricky Evans and Vernon Miller are running against incumbent Ed Rinehart on the Democratic ticket.

Other local incumbents who have announced they will seek re-election in the Democratic primary are: Dorothy Browne, County and District Clerk; Carolyn Stone, Justice of the Peace; and Larry Smith, Commissioner Precinct Two. These three incumbents will run unopposed in the Democratic primary May 1.

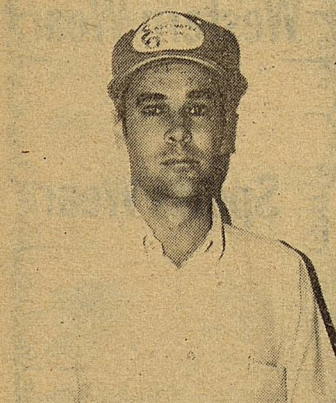

Melissa "Lisa" Ludecke, life-time resident of Borden County made the following statements concerning her candidacy: "In announcing my candidacy for County Treasurer of Borden County, I would like to say that, if elected, I intend to fulfill this position with your interests in mind. I feel capable of holding this office and would appreciate your vote, support, and confidence in the upcoming election on May 1, 1982."

Ricky Evans issued the following statement to The Borden Star. I would like to announce that I am a

FOR HISTORY'S SAKE-Ben Miller of Gail sets up his trade goods at the Justiceburg mountain man rendezvous. In addition to the "Parson Wold" bronze, he created the beadwork and fur bag as part of his handmade plunder for trading.

Western heritage preserved in Miller's bronze sculpture

Working with the real thing had its advantages when Frederic Remington and Charles Russell chronicled the Old West for posterity.

But they had only a centry on Ben Miller.

He has seen a lot of the same Indians, bears, cattle, cowboys, mountain men and mountain lions, mustangs, buffalo, etc. at first hand and is turning his memories into bronze artworks.

Much of the western heritage he has known thanks to three previous generations of Millers bent toward preservation still is only memory.

The few scenes put into bronze during lulls between ranching, trapping, hunting and entertaining with song and guitar, hold stories of Miller life.

JUNIOR COYOTES BEAT WELLMAN

The Borden County Junior Coyotes finished their season Monday night with a 35-30 win over the Wellman Wildcats. The Coyotes never trailed as they led 18-14 at half and 26-16 after three quarters. Chris Cooley, Mickey Burkett and Michael Murphy all hit clutch free throws in the final minutes of play to help insure the win.

Bric Turner paced the Coyote scoring with 16 and Chris Cooley added 13. Mickey Burkett contributed 5 and Michael Murphy 1. Others that played, but did not score were Jerry Green, Matthew Massingill, Brice

Key, John Stephens, Gerry Smith, Montie Floyd, Wayne Daugherty, and David Holmes.

The Coyotes finished the season at 5-7 and district with a 3-4 record. Congratulations to all the players and thanks to all the fans for a good season.

Parents Club Meeting

The Borden County Parents Club will hold their February meeting in the b.H.S. Conference room, Thursday, February 4, 1982 at 2:30.

Start the new year off right by becoming an active member and attending Thursday afternoon.

BOYS LOSE TWO

The Borden Coyote boys closed out the first half of district play last Tuesday night losing to the Klondike Cougars 45-32. The Coyotes led 20-19 at half time, but couldn't score the necessary points the second half. The defense was again very good, but the offensive output just wasn't enough.

Jym Rinehart paced the Coyotes with 14 points. Kevin Telchik added 5, Doug Love 4, Scott Jones 3, Charles LaRue and Keith Martin 2 each and Sam Williams and Keith Williams 1 each.

On Friday, the Coyotes opened the second half of district with a close 52-45 loss to the Sands Mustangs. In this game, the Coyotes fell behind 30-23 at half and got within 2 in the last quarter, but couldn't catch the Mustangs. Again the Coyotes played a good defensive game.

Doug Love led Borden with 14 points, followed by Kevin Telchik and Keith Williams with 8 each, Scott Jones and Jeff Martin 3 each, Sam Williams and Keith Martin 2 each. The Coyotes season record is now 6-14 and 3-5 in district.

PLAYING LAST GAME FOR Borden Junior High last Monday were Chris Cooley, Jerry Green and Bric Turner. All three students are basketball stand-outs.

Playing the last basketball for Borden Junior High last Monday night were Cindy Balaque, Cathy York, Teri Billington. Front-Delane Eppers, Dana Gray and Mary Washington. The girls are all outstanding basketball players. Not pictures-Shannon Biggs.

LADY COYOTES CONQUER SANDS

Kelly Williams didn't make a point in the last game against Sands but this time she exploded for 21 points and led Borden County to a 47-43 win over Sands here Friday night. Borden defeated Sands actually at the free throw line as they connected 13 of 21 for 62 percent compared to 7 of 22 for 32 percent for the Mustangs. Teresa Wimberly had 11 points in the win followed by Roxie Wolf with 9, and Lisa Smith, Stephanie Herring, and Shana Bradshaw with 2 points each. District record for the second half is 1-1 and season record is 15-8 with five games remaining. Not pictures

MISSY COYOTES DISTRICT CO-CHAMPIONS

The Borden Junior High Girls traveled to Wellman for their final game Monday and came away with a 23-14 win over the host Wildcats. All fifteen players got to see action in their last game but it was Teri Billington and Kelli Williams who combined for 21 of Borden's 23 points. Teri was the game's leading scorer with 11 and Kelli had 10. Cindy Balaque added the final 2 points. Graduating 8th graders off this year's team include Cathy York, Mary Washington, Teri Billington, Cindy Balaque, Dana Gray, Delane Eppers, and Shannon Biggs.

Non-District record for the Coyotes was 5-0, district record 6-1, for a season record of 11-1. They were champions for the second year in the Grady Tournament. In district play, the Missy Coyotes finished in a tie with Grady with identical 6-1 records. There is no play-off in Junior High District, therefore Borden County and Grady finish as Co-Champions of the District. Congratulations to the Borden County Jr. High girls for another successful season and many thanks to the fans who supported us this year.

OUTSTANDING TEENS PREFER TRADITIONAL LIVING

NORTHBROOK, ILL.— More of America's teen leaders are drinking today than in past years, but when it comes to drugs and sex, a good majority still practice abstinence.

This is revealed in the 12th Annual Survey of High Achievers, just released by "Who's Who Among American High School Students." Nearly 22,000 outstanding teens answered survey questions.

The current poll recorded a significant leap in the number of high achievers who drink. Some 53% say they occasionally take a drink, compared to 40% two years ago and 31% in 1975. However, drugs are still taboo with this group. Nine out of ten have never used drugs and the same number report they wouldn't use marijuana, even if it were legalized.

The top teens want to be educated about sex, but a majority would rather save the experience for marriage. Three-quarters think sex education should be taught in the schools. But 73% have never had sexual intercourse and a plurality (44%) believe premarital sex is not acceptable under any circumstances.

Abortion is out of the question for these teens, too. If they did engage in sex and became pregnant, almost two-thirds of the young women said they would not consider abortion. More than half of all those polled do not favor abortion in any case.

Traditional marriage is in the cards for the high achievers. Some 90% will opt for the official blessing and certificate. A third think living together outside of matrimony is morally wrong and 44% say it's okay for others, but not for themselves. Half the teens plan to have two children and almost 25% want three.

Although a good majority of the teens are career-oriented, two-thirds feel that working in the home and raising children can be totally fulfilling for a woman.

Who says the family unit is dead?

LAST QUARTER SINKS LADY COYOTES

The Borden County Lady Coyotes led the whole game and seemed to be on their first win in the second half of district play, but a disastrous 4th quarter spelled doom for the Coyotes as they were outscored 14-0 and dropped a 34-29 decision to Klondike.

In the last quarter, Klondike seemed to get all the breaks as they committed one foul to Borden's ten and the Cougars attempted twelve free throws to Borden's two. Leading scorer for Borden was Kelly Williams with 13 followed by Teresa Wimberly with 6. Roxie Woll scored 4 points, all the first quarter, as she sat out part of the 2nd and 3rd quarter and nearly all the 4th in foul trouble. Gena McLeroy, who also fouled out, had 4 points and Shawna Vaughn added 2.

President Reagan suggested in his State of the Union message that January 30th be observed as a day of solidarity for Poland. Now that is very appropriate and I'm all for it for many reasons.

The entire nation, hyped by the media, went berserk over January 30th this year.

It was the 100th anniversary of the birth of Franklin Delano Roosevelt. Even if you are too young to have been around during Roosevelt's time, you know of him. No one has been allowed to forget that he fathered the social welfare reforms for US. Some deify him for that, the rest of us curse him. Anyway January 30th was Roosevelt's birthday. And January 30th was recognized as a day of Solidarity for Poland. What's the connection you ask? Well, I think there is a significant one.

Franklin Roosevelt was one of the actors at the Yalta Conference in 1945. In fact, the Conference was held only shortly before his death. Other than Roosevelt at Yalta were Churchill representing Great Britain and Stalin of the Soviet Union. Each of these leaders of the great powers of the world pledged in writing the holding of free and unfettered election in Poland on the basis of universal suffrage and secret ballot. Yes, Stalin signed that document too. Yes, the Soviet Union is on record as having guaranteed the Polish people the right of free elections. Now that was 37 years ago and the pledge has never been honored but that is no reason why it should never be.

The United States has begun to take a tougher stance towards Russia on the Polish situation, thank goodness. (We could be tougher-reinstitute the grain embargo for starters.) But we should really go on the offensive. We should loudly proclaim to all that Russia is not honoring the pledge signed at Yalta. It's doubtful that many know or remember that one provision of the Yalta Conference. It is plausible that the Poles are not aware that they were at one time protected and looked after at an international conference. It is time the United States reinforced her intent. After all, that pledge to Poland was about the only good to have come out of Yalta and we must make an effort to enforce it.

1305 SCURRY ST.
BIG SPRING, TEX.

What better time to honor both Roosevelt and Solidarity for Poland than January 30th. We should remember Roosevelt's birthday by demanding that the pledge he, Stalin and Churchill made to Poland be kept. We can show Poland we are solidly behind them by demanding that Russia allow free elections in Poland. January 30th is indeed a day to remember both the Poles and the man who could have changed the destiny of them.

New Look For Valentine Cards

Romance has taken a turn to the unconventional in this year's Valentine cards, according to a designer of such greetings for 1982.

Valentine's Day was once a very traditional holiday, and despite different fads that came and went, the sentimental American usually stuck to hearts and flowers, alces and bows, and colors of mostly reds and pinks," says Hallmark designer Miriam Cuddy. This time around, she reports, the lid is off.

Valentine motifs and colors have gone wild; about the only rule today's greetings must follow is the trend toward cleaner and more graphic styles. More mauves, lavenders and various shades of blue will make their appearance on many cards.

One reason for the swerve from sticky sentiment, says Ms Cuddy, is that card buyers for Valentine's Day have the youngest median age of any holiday's purchasers (upper 20s, low 30s) and these card customers are demanding smarter, more sophisticated, and even more daring, desinging.

The influx of women into the work force also has had a continuing effect on card tastes, resulting in more tailored and less frilly valentines. Its getting more and more awkward for a husband to bring home a super fancy valentine to a wife who provides half the bacon," explains Ms Cuddy.

However, there are still plenty of old fashioned, romantic cards available," she adds.

Ride'em, Daddy" puts Miller into the picture as a young boy on a corral fence cheering his father, Riely, on as he breaks a testy bronc.

Nostalgia produced Parson Wolf."

There was a record his grandmother used to play about a cowboy's prayer "My parson is a wolf on his pulpit of bone."

At first, Miller only produced bronzes in editions of three to allow his art in family homes. Now, editions of 15 disappear so fast he can't keep up and still have all the time for taking part in the western heritage activities that inspire the artworks.

If he gets around to sculpting a pioneer, it will be his grandfather, Clyde, who helped tame the West, then looked enough to the future to preserve the buffalo and try a buffalo-cattle cross.

If he ever sculpts a mountain man and it's a part of the future it will be his father, who built up Clyde Miller's buffalo herd, raises Texas Longhorns and Appaloosa horses, pulls off western heritage shows and considers himself a mountain man born 100 years too late.

From these two forebearers came Miller's contact with Indians of South Dakota, bears of Colorado, mountain lions of New Mexico and other almost lost bits of the Old West that is his world for art.

Unpaid Taxes Will Draw Penalties As Of Feb. 1

An important deadline occurred this month for property owners in Texas.

Kenneth Graeber, executive director of the State Property Tax Board, today reminded Texans that local property taxes assessed for 1981 by cities, counties, school districts and special districts must be paid by the end of January.

Taxes not paid before February 1 are delinquent and penalty and interest began to accrue," Graeber said.

The state tax administrator notes that delinquent 1981 taxes will incur a 6 percent penalty and 1 percent interest charge on February 1.

Combined penalty and interest charges will total 9 percent in March, 11 percent in April, 13 percent in May, and 15 percent in June.

Total penalty and interest on delinquent taxes reaches 18 percent in July, 19 percent in August, 20 percent in September, 21 percent in October, 22 percent in November, and 23 percent in December.

If not paid until January 1983, delinquent 1981 property taxes would be subject to a combined 24 percent penalty and interest charge. And, Graeber noted, the interest would continue to increase by 1 percent per month.

In addition, if a taxing jurisdiction or appraisal district has contracted with a delinquent tax attorney, its governing body may add an additional penalty to any tax delinquent on July 1.

The additional penalty may not exceed 15 percent of the taxes, penalty and interest due.

Graeber pointed out that some home rule cities may have different delinquency dates for 1981 taxes. "The Property Tax Code does not affect a city's delinquency date for its 1981 taxes if the city charter or ordinance provides an earlier delinquency date," he said.

He also noted that if a taxing jurisdiction mailed its 1981 tax bills after January 10, the delinquency date is postponed to the first day of the next month that will provide a period of at least 21 days after the date of mailing for payment of taxes before delinquent.

Taxpayers with questions are encouraged to contact local government tax offices.

The microwave oven is an amazing kitchen appliance. Knowing more about its fine points will bring you greater successes.

Take for instance many recipes call for different coverings. Knowing what they are supposed to do might help in selecting the most suitable one.

Plastic wrap holds the greatest amount of moisture. A glass casserole holds in moisture, creating a steamed effect. Wax paper retains some moisture while preventing some food from becoming soggy. Paper towel absorbs moisture and disperses heat more evenly through food. Remember to remove plastic wrap and casserole lids away from you to prevent painful steam burns.

Another helpful hint for better results in the microwave is that salting food on the surface is not recommended. Salt has a tendency to dehydrate food and can cause a tough product. Salt also has a tendency to distort the pattern of the microwave. If salt is mixed or dissolved in the cooling liquid, it can be added during preparation. Sprinkle it on the surface of food near the end of cooking or after cooking is completed.

Keep your oven clean!!! Wipe with a damp, soapy cloth after each use. Food is not cooked on and is very easy to remove. If spattering should be difficult to remove, heat 1 cup of water until it steams. This will soften food. Use a nylon net or a nylon scrubber, if necessary. Never use abrasives. Keeping you oven clean will eliminate a major reason for service calls! If cooking odors collect in your oven, place a small dish of baking soda in the cooking cavity and leave the oven door ajar. Removing food after cooking helps to eliminate this problem.

OATS, ACREAGE REPORTS NEEDED BY FEB. 5

"Farmers who have not submitted acreage reports for oats need to do so as soon as possible."

In addition to wheat and other feed grains, the recently enacted Agriculture and Food Act of 1981 requires farmers to file acreage reports for oats to participate in 1982 programs.

Farm owners and operators are required to report their oats and rice acreage by Feb. 5 so that yield and base acreage work can be completed on time.

The oats report should include the planted acreage and crop use such as hay, grain, grazing, etc., for 1980 and 1981 crop years.

1982 FARM PROGRAM

Signed into law December 22, 1981, the Agriculture and Food Act of 1981 (P.L. 97-98) authorizes commodity and other agricultural programs for the 1982 through 1985 crop years. Below are highlights of the new law as it pertains to ASCS.

MINIMUM TARGET PRICES

The 1981 Act sets minimum target prices for each of the 1982-85 crop years and requires target price protection for oats and grain sorghum as well as for wheat, corn, cotton and rice. Barley, oats and sorghum target prices will continue to be pegged to corn.

Wheat (bus.) 1982 $4.05;
Corn (bu.) 1982 $2.70.

MINIMUM LOAN RATES

The Act sets minimum loan rates for the four year period. Loan rates for feed grains will continue to be pegged to corn.

Minimum rate, 1982-85 crops; Wheat (bu.) $3.55; Corn (bu.) $2.55; Upland cotton (lb.) $.55 (continues to be based on market price formula).

WOOL AND MOHAIR

The 1981 Act extends the existing wool and mohair support program for four years, and sets the wool support level at 77.5 percent of the rate determined by statutory formula in the National Wool Act of 1954.

FARM STORAGE FACILITY LOANS

DISCRETIONARY

Loans to build on farm storage and drying facilities will be discretionary; however, the law still mandates facility loans in areas where the Secretary determines there is a shortage of farm storage.

EMERGENCY FEED PROGRAM DISCRETIONARY

The law continues the emergency feed program, but makes it discretionary rather than mandatory, and extends program eligibility to poultry as well as livestock producers.
