Women's Chamber Division Initiated

From a visible and vocal interest, it is easy to conclude the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture will soon have a Women's Division.

Twenty two Muleshoe women met with John Gulley, manager of the Chamber and Lemoyne Grissom, retired manager of the Littlefield Chamber of Commerce to organize what could be an active and valuable organization in our community.

Gulley explained to those present at the luncheon that the idea of the division was initiated when Nelda Merriott, District Clerk, joined the Chamber in February of this year. "Nelda is the sparkplug of getting the lady's chapter started," said Gulley.

The winners, carefully selected from hundreds of applicants, are the best in the state from the standpoints of academics and leadership. The only requirements made of the students are that they major in some form of agriculture at a college or university within the confines of the state.

The monies used to fund the scholarship program are derived directly from proceeds generated by spectators at the Houston

High Plains G.P.I. Plans Campaign

Area Rains Boost Crop Potential

Progressing steadily in moisture accumulation, Bailey County farmers now have a fairly good outlook on crop conditions for this year.

County Agent Spencer Tanksley said, "Our underground moisture this year is much more favorable than last year's; as well as the advantage of having good top soil moisture now with the recent rains."

"Although the threats of high winds, hail and sandstorms are still a possibility," the Agent said, "most farmers in the area are hard at work in counteracting these weather conditions as much as possible."

June 1, 1980 proved to be a disaster for cotton in Bailey County, with sandstorms wiping out 70 to 80 percent of our dryland cotton. Temperatures in mid-

Chamber Plans Drawing To Pay For Fireworks

The Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture will once again be soliciting donations for the Fourth of July Fireworks Display this year. However, there will be a difference in the way the fundraising campaign is handled.

The video disc player is the latest advance in video technology. The player will play a disc, very similar to a phonograph record in appearance; but the result will be a very sharp tele-

Police Report

A criminal mischief was reported June 5. A rock was thrown through a window.

Two charges, disorderly

A puzzling event in the recent legislative session has many supporters of gasohol a little deflated but not defeated.

This event occurred in the last day of the session when a nine week successful lobby came to a sudden halt with a filibuster.

The filibuster, threatened by Houston Sen. Jack Ogg came as a surprise to supporters of House Bill 24. The filibuster killed the measure on the final day of the session Monday.

Hereford Senator Bill Sarpalius succeeded in bringing the gasohol measure to the floor but Ogg's threat of a filibuster persuaded senators to postpone consideration of the bill to an unspecified time.

Sponsored by Sarpalius and Rep. Dan Kubiak, the bill would exempt alcohol fuels from the 5 cent per gallon gasoline tax until 1987. After that time, the tax would be reimposed at the rate of 1 cent per year until fully restored in 1991.

The bill had received continuous positive support during the legislative session. The bill had passed the House with a vote of 134-5 and the Senate had tentatively approved the bill on Sunday.

The arguments entered for the bill passage were that passage of this bill would create a new industry in Texas which would bring more money into the state to replace the taxes that would be lost. The estimated loss in state revenue resulting from the bill would have been $16 million for the 1982-83 biennium.

"We had it won....they just beat us on a technicality," said Guy Austin, president of the Board of Directors of the High Plains GPI Coop. Austin and others have worked hard for the passage of this bill and are currently soliciting support to get Governor Clements to put this bill in his special session.

The High Plains GPI Coop is currently trying to secure financing to build a 35 million gallon yearly capacity alcohol plant in this area. The alcohol would be 200 proof.

"We will have to start all over again," said Austin, "but he (Clements) is for it and we hope to get it in. If we don't get it passed this time we may never get it passed," he added.

Austin is not sure what kind of effect this bill's failure to pass will have on the planned gasohol plant but he does know it will not be beneficial.

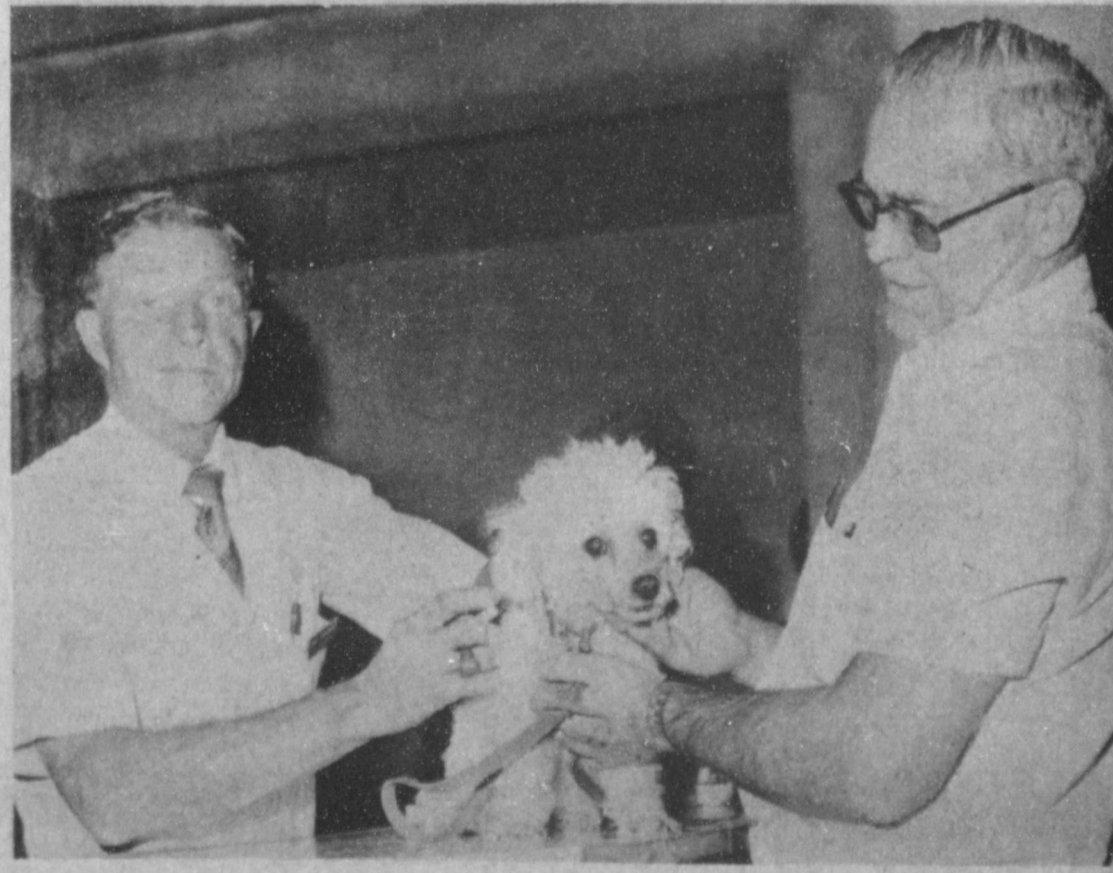

Austin is seeking help from groups or individuals who will express their support through letters to the Governor's office. The letters should be sent to Jim Kaster, c/o Governor's Office, State Capital, Austin, Tx. 78711. Austin is sending a letter in behalf of the Coop stating: "We feel that HB 24 should be read in the Governor's special legislative session. HB 24 passed the House and it had the votes to pass the Senate. The efforts of two Senators who took the opportunity to filibuster, stopped the passage of HB 24. We feel that this was unreasonable as the bill had the votes to pass."

Other items on the agenda include Chief Appraiser, 11 a.m.; office alterations to accommodate the new district court and payment of routine bills.

Commissioners To Discuss Coliseum Use

Use of the Bailey County Coliseum for the County Fair and other functions is one of the topics on the agenda for the Commissioners' Court Monday.

Set to begin at 10 a.m. in the Courthouse, the commissioners will meet until 5 p.m. with the public invited.

NOW THIS WON'T HURT A BIT.....Mayor Charles Bratcher grinds his teeth and tells his

Mrs. Cox, Degge United In Marriage

MRS. KYLE VANCE DEGGE (nee Mollie Beth Cox)

Miss Mollie Beth Cox became the bride of Kyle Vance Degge at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 6, in the Sunset Church of Christ in Lubbock. Vows were read by Art Lynch, student at Sunset School of Missions, of Lubbock; assisted by Richard Rogers, Sunset School of Preaching and Jerry L. Klein, minister of the Main Street Church of Christ at Lockney.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. C.L. Cox of Newnan, Georgia and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Degge of Lockney.

A background of candelabras and greenery decorated the church.

Music was provided by a chorus composed of members and ex-members of Lubbock Christian College Minister Singers and Acapella Chorus.

Given in marriage by her father, C.L. Cox, the bride wore an Alfred Angelo formal gown of white imported alencon net and lace, highlighted with seed pearls and iridescents. It featured a sweetheart neckline, bordered with lace and pearls. The long net sleeves were overlaid with lace. The long chapel train which fell from the waistline, was bordered with wide lace.

Seed pearls and iridescents sparkled the headpiece from which fell a waltz length illusion veil completely edged with alencon lace. She carried a bouquet of white silk roses and stephanotis.

Marian Cox of Newnan, Georgia, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Marci Davis of Lubbock; Polly Mullins of Seattle, Washington; Nita Allen of Memphis, Tennessee; Rachel Simpson of Searcy, Arkansas; Beth Cox, sister in law of the bride of Searcy, Arkansas; and Robin Cox, sister in law of the bride of Corpus Christi. Suzi Hodges of Muleshoe was flower girl.

The maid of honor and bridesmaids wore identical white slips of quiana with white net overlays, accented with white embroidery dots. They carried a hand bouquet of spring flowers featuring colors of yellows, blue, pink, and apricot.

Kent Rhodes of Lubbock was the best man. Groomsmen were Olin Degge, brother of the groom of Dallas; David Snyder, brother in law of the groom of Dallas; John Jones of Selmer, Tennessee; Byron Rogers of Lubbock; Larry Broyles of Muleshoe; and Mark Mimms of Lazbuddie.

Ushers were Kevin Rhodes and Brant Rhodes, both of Lubbock, Mickey Cox of Corpus Christi, Monte Cos of Searcy and Craig Howard of Canyon.

A reception was held immediately after the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with a white cutwork linen cloth over blue. The bride's bouquet was used for the centerpiece. Spring flowers topped the three tiered wedding cake. Crystal and silver appointments set the table.

Serving at the bride's table were Kelley McDaniel, Libby Cochran, Jamie Nesbit, Jo Dee Parker and Cheryl Bean.

Mary Leslie Wilhoit, Sara Lesa Snyder, sisters of the groom and Anita Degge, sister in law of the groom served at the groom's table.

Sara Jo Bryant attended the bride's book.

After a wedding trip to Santa Fe, the couple will make their home in Muleshoe after June 23.

The bride is a graduate of Newnan High School, a graduate of Harding University at Searcy and the University of Tennessee. At Harding she was a member of Zeta Rho; Alpha Psi Drama Fraternity, and Campus Players. She is a teacher in the Amherst Junior and Senior High Schools.

Miss Cindy Ballinger, Hobbs Exchange Wedding Vows

MR. AND MRS. JAMES HOBBS [nee Cindy Ballinger]

Cindy Ballinger and James Hobbs were united in marriage Saturday, April 11 at 2 p.m. in the Mill Springs Baptist Church in Jefferson City, Tennessee.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ballinger of Jefferson City. Hobbs is the son of Mrs. Beulah K. Hobbs of Farwell and the late James R. Hobbs.

Cleston Pritchett of Ruidoso performed the double ring ceremony.

The wedding scene featured an arch and spiral candelabra holding jade greenery and tall white lighted tapers. The bridal aisles were marked with pink bows. Baskets of pink gladioli, roses, snapdragons, yellow tulips, daisies, baby's breath, and miniature carnations completed the setting.

The bride wore a gown of white quiana, the bodice featuring a Queen Anne collar and rounded neckline with Venice lace and seed pearls, which added finishing touches to the long fitted sleeves. The skirt fell to a chapel length train and was accented in front with accordion pleats. Her fingertip veil of illusion was trimmed with matching Venice lace and was held in place by a Juliet cap.

She wore a pearl and diamond pendant belonging to her mother and carried a formal cascade bouquet of red roses with white carnations, variegated English ivy, and baby's breath.

Lori Kincaid of Louisville, Tennessee (the bride's roommate at the University of Tennessee), was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Amanda Gunter of Knoxville, Tennessee, Donna Hicks of Kingsport, Tennessee and Gloria Johnson of Estes Park, Colorado. Pam Ballinger, niece of the bride, was a junior bridesmaid.

The bridal attendants wore dresses of mauve rose trimmed in white satin. They carried cascade bouquets of red and pink roses, pink miniature carnations, pale yellow daisies and baby's breath.

Walter Moeller of Laguna Miguel, California served as his brother's best man. Groomsmen were Greg Carey, brother in law of the groom; Roger Coble, a former roommate at LCC of Hobbs; and Rick Osborne of Ruidoso; junior groomsmen were Dwight Ballinger, nephew of the bride from Jefferson City.

The groom wore a white tuxedo, white shirt and ascot tie. His boutonniere was a red rose with stephanotis and baby's breath. His attendants and ushers all wore silver gray tuxedos and boutonnieres identical to that of the groom.

Terri McAboy registered the guests in the bride's book at a table covered with a sheer white flounced cloth.

A group of singers from the University of Tennessee sang "What A Difference You Made In My Life," "Longer," "Love Me Tender," and "For Baby." As the bride was escorted down the aisle by her father, she paused to sing "You Needed Me." After the wedding vows were pledged and the couple had lighted the unity candle, the groom faced the bride and sang "My Sweet Lady."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ballinger chose an aqua blue floor length dress of quiana. Mrs. Hobbs wore a floor length dress of mint green polyester knit. Both mothers wore royal orchid bouquet corsages.

Mrs. Dora Ballinger, the bride's paternal grandmother, was presented a white orchid corsage. Her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Jessie Slover, was unable to attend due to illness.

A reception was held in the home of the bride's parents, Agnes Jones, Libby Neely, Sherry Moeller, Camille Carey and Tenna Young served at the bride's table. A long time friend of the family, Bonnie Collins, made the cakes.

Background music was furnished by family and friends.

After a honeymoon trip to New Orleans, the couple are at home in Ruidoso, where they operate Ruidoso Music.

The groom is the grandson of the late, Bill and Lulie Kistler, pioneers of Muleshoe.

She attended Furman College and the University of Tennessee. The couple are both business graduates of Lubbock Christian College and attended Texas Tech.

While the main thrust on the fund raising drive is getting enough money to pay for the fireworks, the free drawing is the Chamber's way of saying "thanks" to those who contribute to the fireworks fund. Donations are being accepted, beginning Monday, June 8, in the Chamber office in City Hall at 215 South First, or may be given to any director of the Chamber.

Directors include Tommy Gunstream, Dave Cavitt, Curtis Smith, Hal Anderson, Wayne Crittenden, Carson Clayton, Sandy Turner, Mike Perez, Robert Hooten, Robert Montgomery, Kerry Moore, Herman Morrison, and Bruce Woods. "The Show's concern for youth and its commitment to agriculture is exemplified by the awarding of these scholarships today. We are assured that these outstanding youngsters are given the opportunity to obtain a college degree and to contribute directly to the field of agriculture by their future work," he emphasized.

 one Farwell area farmer said.

Lamb County Agent, John Farris, reported that the "overall outlook is good. We have received some hail damage north of Earth towards the Sunnyside area which will affect 5 to 10 thousand acres of irrigated crops. Some of these farmers will go back in and replant and some may be able to salvage some of their crop," Farris said.

Expressing the concern for corn crop in this area, Farris stated, "Some of the corn has been set back a week to 10 days and approximately 15 to 20 percent will be replanted. Wheat in the hail area will suffer a 20 to 30 percent reduction in yield."

Parts of the Lamb County area received as much as 3 inches of rain with some wind and sand damage towards the western parts of the county.

In assessing the outlook for Lamb County, Farris said, "Compared to this time last year we have better crops on the ground and growing, as well as better sub-soil moisture. There are some spotted areas in the dryland parts of the county that still need rain badly, but overall, the conditions are definitely more favorable this year."

Miss Dunbar Earns Prestigious Honor

Sandy Dunbar, a sophomore fashion marketing major, earned the prestigious honor of best new initiate for the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority, Gamma Phi Chapter at North Texas State University.

The award was presented to Miss Dunbar at the Chapter's annual Crest and Crown spring formal held at Dallas Hilton on May 1.

Traditionally, two awards are given at this spring formal, one to honor the best senior and one to honor the best new initiate. Being among a 36 member pledge class, she was chosen in the fall to become a member of the Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority, which was founded in 1898.

Qualifications for the best new initiate award are service, dedication, enthusiasm, participation and at least a 2.5 grade point average during the fall semester.

Miss Dunbar served as social chairman of her pledge class, a duty which included planning mixers with fraternities, pledge parties and charity projects for the retarded children at Denton State School.

She also kept the Zeta Tau pledge class scrapbook. After her initiation into the Chapter in February, Zeta members voted her to a Junior executive office, that of internurals chairman.

She represented her sorority in the all state internurals basketball tournament.

Phyllis George Brown, first lady of Kentucky, is a Zeta Alumni of the Chapter of North Texas State University. Eighty girls are now active members of this chapter.

By Bill Wooley

Remember thinking that nothing good could possibly come from the heatwave of '80? Something has. Drought conditions, like those of last summer are, if nothing else, ideal for research directed toward finding stress tolerant plants. Corn hybrids, with improved drought tolerance are available this year as a direct benefit of the 1980 blister. On the market this year are seeds with improved root systems and sturdy brace roots to aid in upright growth. New corn hybrids will also have minimal leaf scorch characteristics, as well as larger ear size and, possibly, double ears which will boost yields even if weather stresses call for reduced planting populations. Hybrids with superior germination ability have also been developed, as well as plants with severe cold stress adaptability. Just another example of American producer's determination when there is a need, they will find a way.

The Sandhills Philosopher

Editor's note: The Sandhills Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm on Sandy Creek solves the re-districting problem, perhaps.

Dear editor: Even if a problem has an easy solution, politicians will roll up their sleeves and make it a hard one. I think it's one way they have fun.

Take re-districting. Because people won't stay in one place, are always moving to some place else where they're no better off either, voting districts get out of balance and have to be reshaped. You can't have one Congressman representing a million people and another a few thousand, although with Senators it's excusable.

So when new census figures come out politicians begin scrambling to re-draw district lines, trying to snake them around in odd shapes to include voters they think are on their side. They stay up all night trying to figure it out.

There's a simpler method. Say you want 500,000 people per district. Divide that into the total population of some 220,000,000 or so people in the country and you get the number of Congressmen needed, around 400, give or take a few, which in some cases wouldn't be noticed anyway.

Now figure up the number of square acres in the United States, divide that by 400 or so Congressmen, and the result is the number of acres per Congressional district. Every Congressman then has the same number of acres.

But, you'll say, the number of people per square acre in some places like metropolitan areas far exceeds the number per acre in the arid West.

True. But you then assign 500,000 people by computer to a given district makes no difference where they live, until everybody has been allotted a district.

Crim Enlists In Air Force

Rodney Scott Crim, son of J.W. and Alma Crim of Rt. 3 Muleshoe, Texas recently enlisted in the Air Force in Amarillo, Texas. He departed Muleshoe enroute to Lackland AFB, San Antonio, Texas, where he will attend a six week Basic Military Training Course. After successful completion of basic Airman Crim will automatically be enrolled in the Community College of the Air Force, in which he will receive transferrable college credit.

Airman Crim, a 1980 graduate of Muleshoe High School, selected the mechanical area for job training according to Sergeant Bill Phillips, the Air Force Recruiter in Clovis, N.M.

You have to vote in that district, even if you live half way across the country. What difference would it make? Very few people ever get to shake hands with their Congressman, even if he lives in their own city. Some don't even want to.

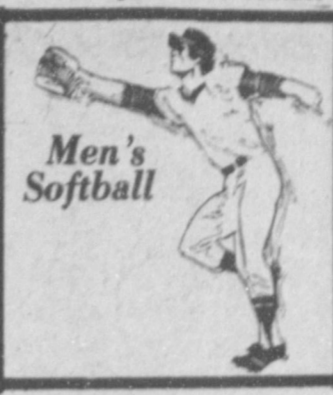

Now there may be some, possibly a Federal judge here and there, who would recommend busing citizens to their proper voting district at election time, but there's a simpler way. Everybody votes by mail.

That way all the polls close at the same time, say at 3 o'clock in the morning five days after mail balloting began. The TV networks would go crazy trying to announce who won before the voting is over.

Yours faithfully,
J.A.

"Those we assist have been very cooperative," said Street, adding, "the program has been very successful with only a small percentage of probationers have been revoked."

Street explains that his job has a dual responsibility to the probationer and the community. "We have the responsibility to aid the probationer and help make him a responsible citizen of the community. But there is a responsibility to the community to rehabilitate the offender and to promptly remove the offender who cannot follow the rules of probation."

ATTEND THE CHURCH OF YOUR CHOICE

COMMUNICATION

Telephone lines spread across our nation, giving us immediate contact with loved ones. Vital business is rapidly contracted through this medium.

Our linkage to God is prayer. Through prayer we can express our love, our thanks, and seek God's help.

"Hearken unto the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray."

Attend church, join others in fellowship and prayer to God.

EVERYONE IN THE CHURCH THE CHURCH IN EVERYONE

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
