City commission awards vehicle bid to Houston area dealership

BY DAVID BOWSER

dbowser@thepampanews.com

A Houston-area Ford dealership will provide the City of Pampa with three new police vehicles.

The Pampa City Commission selected the bid of Randall Reed's Planet Ford of the Houston area to provide three new vehicles for the Pampa Police Department.

The total bid was for $75,621.

The only other bidder was Culberson-Stowers of Pampa. Their bid was $100,966.54 for three vehi-

Pampa Police Chief Kelly Rushing told the commissioner's at the special meeting at noon Friday that he had solicited bids from local dealerships, but Culberson-Stowers was the only other dealership that responded.

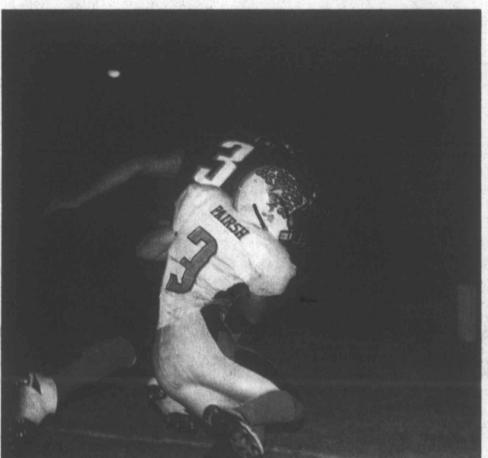

"Unfortunately," Rushing said, "it was quite a bit higher."

Randall Reed's Planet Ford will provide a 2010 Ford F-150 Super Crew XLT 4x4 for $30,684, a 2010 Ford Explorer Special Service XLT 4x4 for $26,913 and a 2010 Ford Crown Victoria Police Interceptor for $27,527. The dealership will allow $9,500 for trade-ins.

Culberson-Stowers $36,119.48 for a 2010 Chevrolet

Wildlife Director begins job Monday

AUSTIN, Texas -After a nationwide search, Clayton Wolf has been selected to lead the Wildlife Division at Texas Parks and Wildlife Department. brings 20 years experience as a wildlife biologist in Texas, the last six as the agency's big game program director. Headquartered in Austin, he begins his job Monday,

Nov. 16. "Clayton has demonstrated strong leadership skills and an inherent ability to develop consensus among diverse groups for the greater good of Texas wildlife," said TPWD Executive Director Carter Smith. "He is a consummate conservation professional."

As TPWD's Big Game Program Director since 2003, Wolf has overseen management of Texas' internationally-acclaimed white-tailed deer herd.

"Clayton's record of accomplishment in the big game program, coupled with his 'can-do' attitude and the trust and respect he has earned from private landowners, various constituent groups, and his professional colleagues, has well-equipped him to serve as Wildlife Division Director," said Ross Melinchuk, TPWD Deputy Executive Director for Natural Resources.

During his tenure, Wolf guided expansion of buck antler restrictions designed to improve deer age class structure across more than 100 counties. He also coordinated with stakeholders and advisory

"We found water. And we didn't find just a little bit. We found a significant amount," Anthony Colaprete, lead scientist for the mission, told reportcrs as he held up a white water bucket for emphasis.

He said the 25 gallons of water the lunar crash kicked up was only what scientists could see from the plumes of the impact.

Some space policy experts say that makes the moon attractive for exploration again. Having an abundance of water would step forward in making the moon an interesting place to go," said George Washington University space policy scholar John Logsdon.

The October mission involved two strikes into a permanently shadowed crater near the south pole. First, an empty rocket hull slammed into the Cabeus crater. Then, a trailing spacecraft recorded the drama live before it also crashed into the same spot four minutes later.

Though scientists were overjoyed with the plethora of data beamed back to Earth, the mission was a public relations dud. Space enthusiasts who stayed up all night to watch the spectacle did not see the promised giant plume of debris.

NASA scientists had predicted the twin impacts would spew six miles of dust into the sunlight. Instead, images revealed only a mile-high plume, and it was not visible to many amateur astronomers peering through telescopes.

Members of the blueribbon panel reviewing NASA's future plans said the discovery doesn't change their conclusion that the program needs more money to get beyond near-Earth orbit. The panel wants NASA to look at other potential destinations like asteroids and Mars.

"This new and terrific result reassures us about lunar resources, but ... the challenges currently facing the human spaceflight program remain," Chris Chyba, a Princeton astrophysicist who is on the panel, said in an e-mail.

"Rather than a dead and unchanging world, it could in fact be a very dynamic and interesting one," said Greg Delory of the University of California, Berkeley, who was not involved in the mission, led by NASA's Ames Research Center in Mountain View,

increase in the state's human population and urban sprawl, we have quite a challenge ahead of us," Wolf said. "It is my goal as wildlife division director to help ensure our resources are focused on the things we do best working with private landowners and land managers to help them manage and conserve wildlife habitat. If we can do this successfully, and I know we can, we will be able to ensure that Texans continue to have places where they can enjoy Texas wildlife, cont. from page 1 he Pampa High School Choir Department will present the unforgettable tap-dancing extravaganza, "42nd Street" at M.K. Brown Auditorium. Show times will be 8 p.m. November 19th and 21 and 2:30 p.m. November 22.

COME AND MEET THOSE DANCING FEET!

Tickets will be $7 for adults and $5 for students.

42nd Street is the classic story of the young dancer, Peggy Sawyer (Gabrielle Powell), who arrives in New York to audition for a Broadway show with 40 cents in her pocket and a big dream.

Unfortunately, due to her nervousness, Peggy arrives to the audition late and misses her chance to join the chorus. Peggy soon catches the eye of the famous director, Julian Marsh (Rylan Clark), and he gives Peggy her big break.

However, the show's aging leading lady, Dorothy Brock (Mary McKay), quickly grows to dislike Peggy.

On opening night, Ms. Brock has an accident and cannot perform her leading role. Panic spreads through the company, as the show is doomed for closure, until it is suggested that Peggy take the roll.

In only thirty-six hours, Peggy learns twenty-five pages of dialog, six songs and ten dance numbers and becomes a star.

The amazing score includes "You're Getting to Be a Habit with Me," "Shuffle Off to Buffalo," "We're in the Money," "Lullaby of Broadway," and, of course, the show-stopping "42nd Street."

The cast also includes: Jonathan Polasek (Billy Lawlor), Samantha Turley (Maggie Jones), Myles Foreman (Bert Barry), Erin Buck (Annie Reilly), Kaitlin Winegeart (Phyllis Dale), Rachel Heuston (Lorraine Flemming), Landon Long (Pat Denning), Tanner Davis (Abner Dillion), Evan McElwain (Andy Lee), Travis Taylor (Mac), Zac Hernandez (Oscar), Robin Fernuik (Ethel), Kayla Ware (Diane Lorimer), and Matricia Davis

(Gladys).
Chorus and Dancers include: Hilary Acker, Matthew Albracht, Stephanie Allen, Payton Alvey, Ellen Cambern, Milo Carlson, Heather Coffee, Jessica Covil, Kattie Davis, Samantha Finney, Cali Gibson, Allie Hendrick, Andi Hutto, Ramie Hutto, Janie Jackson, Kassandra Jackson, Jackie Karson, Taylor Kennedy, Kirsten Kuhn, Collin McClendon, Jordan Mayhew, Brienne Moyer, Jenna Munsell, Miranda Patterson, Angela Rendon, Braden Russell, Caitlin Sieck, Hallie Sieck, Caylee Steward, Ashley Stucker, Elizabeth Terry, Emily Troxell, Kailyn Troxell, Chelsee Whinery, Ashley Williamsv Garrett Ericson and Jonathan Murray and Danielle Zuniga.

The production is directed by Fred Mays and Brianna Bailey.

Operation Christmas Child begins this week

PAMPA— Christmas is arriving early all over Pampa, as Calvary Baptist Church prepares to serve as a collection point for Operation Christmas Child. Soon, with the help of Pampa volunteers, the site will be brimming with festively wrapped shoe boxes full of gifts.

Through Operation Christmas Child, the world's largest Christmas project, Pampa residents are packing shoe box gifts for children in more than 100 countries suffering from natural disaster, war, terrorism, disease, famine and poverty. From Pampa, the shoe box gifts will be sorted and sent using whatever means necessary—sea containers, trucks, trains, airplanes, boats, camels, even dog sleds—to reach suffering children around the world.

"Operation Christmas Child is a unique opportunity to do something as simple as packing a shoe box that will have a lasting impact on a child a world away," said Peggy Bennett, Operation Christmas Child drop-off site coordinator. "We are excited about the 2009 collection season as community members have already begun packing shoe box gifts."

Operation Christmas Child uses tracking technology that allows donors to "follow your box" to the destination country where it will be hand-delivered to a child in need. To register shoe box gifts and find out what country they are delivered to, use the EZ Give donation form found at www.samaritanspurse.org.

LOCAL COLLECTION SITE: Calvary Baptist Church 900 East 23rd Street Pampa, TX 79065 (806) 665-0842

COLLECTION TIMES:

Nov. 16-19 8 a.m. – 5 p.m.
Nov. 20 8 a.m. – Noon
Nov. 21 10 a.m. – 1 p.m.
Nov. 22 1 p.m. – 4 p.m.
Nov. 23 8 a.m. – 9 a.m.

This is the fifth year that Pampa has contributed an official drop-off point to the Operation Christmas Child effort. Organizers hope to collect 1,400 gift-filled shoe boxes from families, kids, churches, schools and civic organizations in the area in 2009.

Since 1993, Operation Christmas Child, a project of international Christian relief and evangelism organization Samaritan's Purse, headed by Franklin Graham, has delivered more than 69 million gift-filled shoe boxes to needy children in some 130 countries.

For more information on how to participate in Operation Christmas Child, call (817) 595-2230 or visit www. samaritanspurse.org.

The Twentieth Century Cotillion Study Club

Celebrating 56 years: 1953 -2009

he Twentieth Century Cotillion Study Club was organized the summer of 1953 and became the fifth Twentieth Century Club in Pampa. There were 12 charter members: Mrs. Mary Cameron, Mrs. Wanda Campbell, Mrs. Louise Chittendon, Mrs. Mamie Maguire, Mrs. Sara Meadors, Mrs. Pat Moore, Jr., Mrs. Theresa McKinney, Mrs. Peggy McNeely, Mrs. Judy Russell, Mrs. Elice Sailor, Jr., Mrs. Permelia Stubbe, and Mrs. Johnnie Thompson.

While the Club has had many projects, these new members were constantly searching for that one project they could support on an annual basis. In 1961 Ida Ruth Price attended a Federation of Clubs meeting in Perryton and heard Mr. Buff Morris talk about the Opportunity Plan Inc., a loan plan for students needing financial help for more education and/or training. Ida Ruth reported to the club the need and opportunity this plan had for students in the area.

The Club voted in 1962 to make this their project, and began a search for a way to raise money. A group of members attended the Federation of Clubs Antique show in Amarillo, and it was decided to try an antique show as the fundraiser. Fran Morrison was appointed the first chairman and Ida Ruth served as co-chairman. With the help of every member, husbands, an antique dealer from Sweetwater, Texas, and Bob Izzard of KGNC-TV, Antique Show #1 became a reality.

The first show was held in the National Guard Armory, and continued each year in the Heritage Room of the M.K. Brown Auditorium until 1991.

In 1996 the Club voted to sponsor a Tour of Homes as the new annual fundraiser for the organization, and this year as we celebrate the 56th Anniversary of the Twentieth Century Cotillion Study Club, we are proud to sponsor our 14th annual Christmas Home Tour.

The current members of the Club are: Shannon Buck, Lilith Brainard, Donna Burger, Anne Campbell, Martha Campbell, Deborah Davis, Natalie Davis, Kathryn Green, Helen Hall, Shirley Jensen, Koell McKay, Jona Smith, Fran Morrison, Berdena Neef, Sandy Osborne Joyzelle Potts, Marty Price, Robin Simon, Kathy Topper, Betty White, Janie VanZandt and Susan Tripplehorn.

The 14th Annual Twentieth Century Cotillion Study Club Christmas Home Tour Sunday, December 6, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Proceeds to Benefit The Opportunity Plan, Inc.

Dear Abby...

By Pauline & Jeanne Phillips

DEAR ABBY: I'm a 14-year-old boy. I went to a party last weekend and some people pressured me to do some uncomfortable stuff. Can you advise me -- and other teens -- how to handle peer pressure? -- ASHAMED IN ILLINOIS

DEAR ASHAMED: I'll try. Please remember that it takes a strong and confident person not to follow the crowd and stick to your own convictions -especially when you want to fit in. But it is those who value their self-respect more than "mob" respect, who care about their reputations (and their records) who summon up the courage to say, "Thanks, but I'll pass," when enticed into doing things that are senseless, dangerous, illegal or immoral. It takes character to go it alone rather than follow the crowd, to listen to your conscience and act in your own best interests -- but it pays off big time, especially when you see the price others pay for going astray.

DEAR ABBY: I'm 31 and live in the Midwest. I have had the same friends since college and feel myself drifting farther and farther away from them. I feel guilty saying this, but all they want to talk about is their children. I have a wonderful 3-year-old daughter and another child on the way, but I have my own personality, too, apart from being a mother.

When I talk to these friends I'm pretty sure they don't listen or want to respond to me unless I'm talking about "kid stuff." Hanging out with them has become duller than watching paint dry. Am I the strange one because I don't want to talk about my little ones all the time?

— FEELS LIKE A FREAK

IN IOWA DEAR FEELS LIKE A FREAK: Right now, vour friends are preoccupied with raising their children, with all of the milestones and cute things they do that go along with it. Eventually, they'll pull out of it. Please don't label them or yourself. What you need to do is recognize that it's time to widen your circle to include more people who share your varied interests.

DEAR ABBY: I am getting ready to meet my gentleman's ex-wife. They were married for 17 years. His adult children all know and like me.

Any suggestions on breaking the ice and points of conversation with this woman? -- LOIS IN LOUISIANA

DEAR LOIS: Only this: Keep your sense of humor when you discuss what you have in common.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have been married three years. We married later in life. I was divorced, and she had been a widow for eight years.

The problem we're having is she continues to want to spend the holidays with her deceased husband's family. They are nice people, but I feel uncomfortable with it. We have talked about starting our own traditions, but she insists that she doesn't want to cut those ties. I feel like I am living with a ghost sometimes.

I have spoken to other members of her family. They have agreed that she needs to cut those ties, but my wife is being stubborn about changing her holiday routine. Your thoughts on this, please? -- LIVING WITH A GHOST IN KANSAS

DEAR LIVING WITH A GHOST: I don't know how long your wife was married before she was widowed, but it is possible that it was so long that she became a part of her in-laws' family, and you should not take that away from her. The solution to your problem lies in compromise. Not every holiday should be spent with them -- but that doesn't mean the two of you couldn't alternate. And that's what I recommend you do until you establish different traditions.

Parker thought his team competed well and had some chances to get up on Hereford in the first half.

"I'm very proud of the way we came out and started the game," Parker said. "I know it was going to be difficult for us to control the line of scrimmage because they have dominated the line of scrimmage against everyone they've played all year long. If a couple of things would have gone different here and there we could have been in that game a lot longer.'

Hereford's Head Coach Don DeLozier said he was proud of his players for the way they played.

"We're excited to get a win," DeLozier said after he was given the traditional ice bath by his players. "Coach Parker and his staff does a great job. They're really good friends of mine and I appreciate and respect them.

Pampa got the ball first in the game and scored points on their first possession. The Harvesters drove within the Whitefaces 10, but Pampa couldn't score the touchdown. Colten Adams made a 20-yard field goal which gave the Harvesters their only lead of the night at 3-0 with 9:05 left in the first.

The Harvesters defense kept Hereford off the scoreboard on their first few possessions. However, the offense couldn't add to Pampa's lead. The Whitefaces scored their first points with 3:19 left in the first. Daymien Garcia ran for a seven-yard touchdown, the extra point was missed but Hereford took a 6-3 lead which they never gave up.

Jose Uvalle added to the Whitefaces lead, scoring on a three-yard run. After the extra point Hereford led 13-3, which would be the score at the end of the first quarter.

In the second quarter the Harvesters moved the ball inside the Whitefaces 20 yard line. The drive didn't result in points as Alex Clendening was intercepted by Ryan Martinez and Martinez moved the ball deep into Pampa's territory. Parker Bridwell finished the drive with a 12-yard touchdown pass to Jonathan Davis. The Whitefaces led 20-3 at halftime. Parker said that was the turning point in the

"They're bringing lots of pressure against us and knew they were in that formation," Parker said. "Felt like we might win man to man coverage and possibly hit them for a strike with a touchdown. It didn't quite happen that way. Their guy made a great play and intercepted the ball. Probably swung the Garcia scored his second touchdown of the game on a one-yard run. The extra point expanded Hereford's lead to 27-3. Less than four minutes expired when the Whitefaces expanded their lead to 34-3. Joe Morrison scored on a one-yard touchdown.

At the beginning of the fourth quarter Pampa got their only touchdown of the game when Clendening threw a 48-yard touchdown pass to Braden Hunt. Adams missed the extra point bringing the Harvesters to their final point total.

The nine points Pampa scored was their second fewest this season. Dumas held Pampa to seven on October 23. The 32-point margin of defeat was the largest of the season for the Harvesters beating their 27-point loss to Lubbock Estacado (41-14) September 4.

Parker said this game kind of defined how the season went this year.

"It was a season of almosts," Parker said. "We looked so good at times just inconsistency and things not going our way kept us from having the season we wanted to have. A lot like tonight's game."

Matadors outduel Pirates

BY ANDREW GLOVER aglover@thepampanews.com

Head Coach Joey Czubinski aka "Coach Ski" said earlier in the week that the game was going to come down to who could make the key defensive stop. Coach was right but unfortunately it wasn't his team that made the stop, as the Lefors Pirates (9-2) lost 96-87 to the Motley County Matadors (8-3) (Friday in Matador, Texas.

Coach Ski said it was a tough way for his team to go out after a great season.

"I feel bad for the seniors," Coach Ski said. "Crazy things happened. It was up and down the field (scoring) and they got a couple of stops."

Lefors head coach said they were up by nine or ten the whole game. Coach Ski said Motley County was able to get stops at the right time.

"We had dropped balls on one possession," Coach Ski said. "On another possession they stopped us on fourth down. You look at the scoreboard they (Motley County) just made a couple more stops than us. My kids fought hard and left it all on the field."

Coach Ski said Motley

County's coach Mike Bigham told him that the Matadors were playing above their heads.

"Coach Peet and I laughed that's what we got all year," Coach Ski said. "Everyone seemed to play their best game against Lefors head coach said the loss was very emotional for his seniors but appreciated the fans and parents support.

"The fans backed us up," Coach Ski said. "The parents were really supportive. The season was by no means a failure that was a district champion we played tonight. We tried to get the kids to focus on what we accomplished this season. We defended our district title and made it to the playoffs. I know about 38 teams in six-man division two that would have wanted to be here."

Lefors head coach is not claiming that their loss was due to playing on Friday the 13th.

"If we would have gotten one big stop in the fourth, they would be on the other sideline asking is this a Friday the 13th thing."

Daily Horoscope

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Sunday, Nov.

This year, you often wonder "why?" You have the power to change your life's direction if you so choose. Understand that you are responsible for your life no one else is. Your caring comes through when dealing with people. If you are single, there is no reason to maintain that status. You could decide to hook up with someone special if you so choose. If you are attached, your sweetie becomes more and more attractive. Enjoy. Seize the moment. Another SCORPIO adores your energy!

The Stars Show the Kind of Day You'll 4-Positive; 5-Dynamic; 3-Average; 2-So-so; 1-Difficult

ARIES (March 21-April 19)

 Accept a logjam for exactly what it is. Trying to trigger this stalemate could cause a problem. Simply accept what is. Avoid a power play or struggle with a roommate or family member. Tonight: Make it simple.

This Week: Turn a new page, a less dominant one, when working with others. TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

★★★★ You might hit a roadblock, and your normal course of action simply won't work. You try to go around it, and that might work. Many people today have a short fuse. Could this group include you? Try to defuse negativity early on. Tonight: Talking up a storm. This Week: Others run the show. Hopefully you can have a mini vacation.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) ★★★★ Clearly you have a preference for routine. What seems tried-and-true could be tested. If you run into one of life's roadblocks, try a totally different approach, or let it sit for a while. Movement will occur when the time is right. Tonight: Easy works.

This Week: Work hard, as you anticipate interference Tuesday on.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)

★★★ Let your imagination lead. As a result, you'll see an entry or breakthrough when no one else does. Convincing someone else that you know the way to go could be virtually futile. Don't let anger build. Let others know when you have had enough, and before you are in a rage. Tonight: Fun and games, but no risking!

This Week: Your imagination surges, drawing others. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

★★★ The smart action is nonaction. Don't be the lead player in a scenario. If you become annoyed, you are very likely to let someone know it. Understand rather than act. Tonight: Home.

This Week: Get down to basics first, then

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) * Reach out for someone at a distance. You could care more than you realize. If there were a coldness or a negativity, you would be sad. Return calls, ioin friends and just enjoy the people around you. Tonight: Hanging out. This Week: Visit more often with coworkers and others who make a difference in your life. LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

 You could be forced to stop because of what is happening. The reason actually might be what isn't happening. Curb a tendency to be possessive and want more than you can give. A male or assertive friend wants your attention. Tonight: Your treat.

This Week: Your possessive side comes out Monday. You could be undoing something you said or did for the remainder of the week. SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

★★★★★ If you aren't getting any calls, know that probably no one is. Stay centered and make plans that suit you. Also reach out for the person whose company you would like most. Yes, you can make this day close to perfect. Tonight: As you

This Week: No one can outshine you (except maybe another Scorp). Honor your priorities. SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

 You might want to rethink a situation more carefully. You are best off not sharing all your thoughts. Keep a secret just that. Observe and gain more understanding than in the past. Be careful with someone vou meet today. Tonight:

Continue the vanishing act. This Week: You are slow to start but first at the finish line. Trust in your abilities. CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

* Zero in on what you want. Many people want to include you in their plans. Again, you call the shots. Decide who, what and where. If you aren't sure about what to do, go to a movie or a ballgame - somewhere you can be with people. Tonight: Only where the action

This Week: Monday and Thursday witness you hitting a home run

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) ★★★ Take a stand if need be. However, if someone says he or she isn't budging, this person probably is speaking the truth. A situation could be at a stalemate. Sometimes it is better to leave such situations alone. Tonight: Get a head start on

United Way needs your help to reach its goal

BY KATRINA BIGHAM

Please, help us reach our goal for United Way this year. Our 19 Agencies are counting on these funds to make it through 2010.

Many thousands of people are helped daily through these agencies. Without your help, some of these people could fall through the cracks.

• Major Firms still has 13 accounts that have not turned in their packets. Compared to last year's pledges, we are $89,147.36 short in this division.

$89,147.36 short in this division.
Commercial Division has 29 accounts that have not turned in packets. We are $2,120.00 short from last year's totals.

• Professional Division has 15 accounts still out. We are short by $6,500 from last year's totals.

• Special Gifts Division has five accounts still out. We are $10,325.00 short from last year's totals.

• Individual Division has 34 accounts still out. We are $4,227.05 short from last ear's totals.

 Agencies Division has five accounts still out. We are short $1,391.67 from last year's totals.

Total pledges received is at 60.1 percent. Adding the balance received of 189,351.59, to the amount still outstanding is; $113,771.08 that would give the campaign $303,122.67 which is 96% of the goal.

We still need $11,877.33 in addition to the funds that are still out.

Do your best today, send your pledges to Pampa United Way, P.O. Box 2076, Pampa, TX 79066-2076 or bring it by the United Way Office at 200 N. Ballard, Suite 105.

If you need someone to pick up your pledge, call the office at 669-1001.

Thank you Pampa, for making this community a better place to live, work and play. We appreciate your contributions to the United Way!
