Residents voice parking concerns at public hearing

ARNIE AURELLANO
editor@thepampanews.com

Several area residents came out to address the Pampa City Commission Tuesday afternoon during its public hearing on the proposed new ordinance that would restrict front yard parking within the city limits.

Director of Public Works Donny Hooper addressed the Commission and distributed a Frequently Asked Questions sheet outlining the basics of the proposed ordinance. In a nutshell, the new regulation would require vehicles (cars, trucks, boats, trailers, etc.) to be parked on an "improved parking surface," which is being interpreted by Pampa Building Official Danny Winborne as a surface at least as large as the vehicle parked upon it. The surface must be constructed of concrete, asphalt, paving stones or another hard material.

The ordinance will apply to all residential single family, duplex or townhouse lots in Pampa. A violation of the ordinance would be classified as a Class C misdemeanor, carrying a maximum fine of $500.

Some Pampa citizens voiced their concerns over the repercussions of the proposed new ordinance.

Tommy Parks had some apprehensions on whether enforcing the ordinance would take the local police away from more important law enforcement issues.

"We want (the police) to keep us safe, and now we're going to make them keep the city clean," he said.

Linda Miller added that requiring a paved parking area represents an added financial burden for Pampa residents.

"(Adding an improved surface) costs money, and people on fixed incomes would do good to save money," Miller said. "It's difficult for some people to have an improved surface."

Miller also commented over a potential safety hazard that the new law would create.

"If all those vehicles are parked

Many items on Pampa ISD Board agenda

DAVID BOWSER

The Pampa Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a Family Bike Ride next month.

Joe Weaver, Executive Director of the Pampa Chamber of Commerce, said the chamber will sponsor a bicycle tour of Pampa beginning at 10 a.m., Saturday, May 22.

The tour will highlight the outdoor art and architecture in town, he said.

According to Weaver, the cyclists will gather at 10 a.m. in the parking lot behind the Pampa Chamber of Commerce building, 200 North Ballard.

From there, they'll proceed to Lovett Memorial Library, past the U.S. Post Office, the White Deer Land Museum and down Million Dollar Row in downtown Pampa. Then, the cyclists will pedal up Cuyler across Red Deer Creek and into the Mary Ellen residential area, past homes that were built in the 1920s and 1930s.

Pampa High School, Fairview Cemetery, Central Park and Clarendon College-Pampa Center are also on the tour, he said.

"Where can you find cowboys and Indians, bee hives, a musical score and a big lizard?" Weaver said of the bicycle tour of Pampa.

Most of the tour, he added, is composed of areas of easy riding, although there will be some uphill pedaling at times.

Weaver said they'll take a leisurely pace along the 10-milesround trip tour with plenty of stops.

He expects the tour to last about two hours.

Weaver said the Tourism Committee of the chamber is talking about publishing the tour in brochure form so cyclists can take the tour on their own in the future.

Those on the tour should bring water and snacks, Weaver said. Helmets will be required of all cyclists.

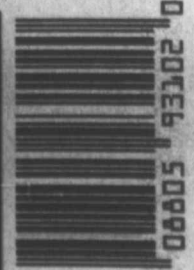

Dolly's Restaurant will offer free drinks and bread pudding with the purchase of a meal to all riders, Weaver said.

Ordinance

How the proposed ordinance would affect you

Normal Lot
Shaded areas (grass front yard areas) would require improved surface if vehicles were to park there.

Corner Lot With Fence
Both the front yard and the side yard adjacent to the adjoining streets (shown in the shaded areas) would require improved surfaces for parking.

Corner Lot, No Fence
The front yard, side yard adjacent to the adjoining street and the rear yard all would require improved surfaces for parking. The rear yard is included because vehicles parked there are visible from a public right-of-way.

and listen to what the citizens have to say," said Hooper. "We're still going to work on it until it either goes or it doesn't. We're in the middle of the process." Many of the comments made by the public during the hearing, Hooper said, were issues that the city has already taken into account and will be further investigating in the coming weeks. He added that the city has conducted extensive research on similar ordinances enacted by nearby communities in order to draft the best possible ordinance for Pampa. "We're trying to look at every town around that's done something similar to what we're doing," Hooper said. "Canyon had some issues when they did it. Perryton's went real smooth when they did it, so we based a lot of our information on what Perryton has done, because it seems to me they did it right."

Hooper said that it is important to remember that the proposed ordinance was spurred from the voice of the public. "The thing to emphasize is that this came from the public. The public requested it and this is government working the way it's supposed to. We went to work we're presenting it back to the people, and now the public has a chance to comment." "This is something we're going to proceed on very carefully and very slowly," added Mayor Lonny Robbins. "Obviously, there's a lot of passion on both sides. I've gotten many requests about putting something like this into effect and today, we heard a lot of concern about it. The thing for people to know is that we're going to continue to communicate and keep an open dialogue with our citizens."

Walmart redesigning store based on customer feedback

SPECIAL TO THE PAMPA NEWS.

A extensive remodeling of the The Pampa Walmart store that began on April 18 is expected to be completed sometime in July.

"We listened to our customers and are redesigning the store to make shopping at Walmart even easier," said Store Manager Josh Hess.

The new design is based on feedback from customers and will feature a clean, open and bright new look in the store with wider aisles, low-profile shelving, bright interior paint scheme and lighting and easy-to-read signage to help customers find the products they need.

The store, located off Highway 70/Perryton Parkway, will receive a full remodel from the inside out and will represent the latest in Walmart's store design and customer experience.

Every department of the store will be updated, including all new shelving, signing, flooring and product assortment.

The store will also feature a new layout designed to make shopping for everyday items easier and faster by aligning the products customers purchase the most.

The store will remain open during the renovations, including all departments and services. Maps of the store layout will be available at the entrance and directional signage will be located throughout the store. The majority of construction and moving will be completed during the overnight hours to make shopping easier for customers. The Pampa Walmart has hired approximately 75 additional associates to help with the remodel.

Today is Wednesday, April 28, the 118th day of 2010. There are 247 days left in the year.

Today's Highlight in History:
On April 28, 1758, the fifth president of the United States, James Monroe, was born in Westmoreland County, Va.

On this date:
In 1788, Maryland became the seventh state to ratify the U.S. Constitution.

In 1789, the mutiny on HMS Bounty took place as the crew of the British ship set Capt. William Bligh and 18 sailors adrift in a launch in the South Pacific. (Bligh and most of the men with him managed to reach Timor in 47 days.)

In 1918, Gavrilo Princip, the assassin of Archduke Franz Ferdinand of Austria and the archduke's wife, Sophie, died in prison of tuberculosis.

In 1945, Italian dictator Benito Mussolini and his mistress, Clara Petacci, were executed by Italian partisans as they attempted to flee the country.

In 1958, the United States conducted the first of 35 nuclear test explosions in the Pacific Proving Ground as part of Operation Hardtack I. Vice President Richard Nixon and his wife, Pat, began a goodwill tour of Latin America that was marred by hostile mobs in Lima, Peru, and Caracas, Venezuela.

In 1967, heavyweight boxing champion Muhammad Ali refused to be inducted into the Army, the same day General William C. Westmoreland told Congress the U.S. "would prevail in Vietnam."

In 1988, a flight attendant was killed and more than 60 persons injured when part of the roof of an Aloha Airlines Boeing 737 tore off during a flight from Hilo (HEE'-loh) to Honolulu.

Ten years ago: Five people, targeted for being minorities, were killed in a shooting rampage in suburban Pittsburgh; a suspect, Richard Baumhammers, was arrested. (He was later convicted and sentenced to death.)

Five years ago: More than 100 volunteers joined police in Duluth, Ga. in searching for Jennifer Wilbanks, a bride-to-be who had vanished two days earlier. (Wilbanks turned up in Albuquerque, N.M., having run away on her own.)

One year ago: Kansas Gov. Kathleen Sebelius won Senate confirmation, 65-31, as health and human services secretary, thrusting her into the middle of the nation's swine flu scare. Sen. Arlen Specter of Pennsylvania defected from the Republican Party, joining the Democrats.

Red Cross volunteers make local impact

What do you call people who spend their free time taking classes with names like "Mass Care," who consider themselves on-call at virtually all times, who will leave their families in the middle of the night to help another family find a place to sleep—and who don't get paid a dime for the trouble?

JANA GREGORY

What do you call people who take time every few months to give away one of the world's most precious gifts: blood?

What do you call people who show up on a regular schedule to drive others to medical appointments, teach strangers how to save a life, assist military families desperate to get word of an emergency to a loved one far away and much, much more—with no monetary compensation?

You call them American Red Cross volunteers. Without them, this community would be deprived of a host of lifesaving services. For example, volunteers right here in Pampa, like the chapter's disaster team (pictured) provided disaster relief services to more than 288 individuals last year. Also, your local Eastern Texas Panhandle Chapter of the American Red Cross trained over 20 people a month in lifesaving skills such as first aid, CPR and life guarding last year.

National Volunteer Week, and we want to thank the many local residents who chose to serve our community this year through volunteer service with the American Red Cross. This year's National Volunteer Week theme, "Celebrating People in Action," was particularly appropriate for the Red Cross. Local volunteers, not just in Gray County but all over the country, taught an average of 20 community members a month to "Be Red Cross Ready," all prepared and to respond to emergencies and provide life saving skills.

You don't have to go out on disasters to be a Red Cross volunteer. We need people of all ages and skills. If you're interested in becoming a Red Cross Volunteer, you can contact me at 806-669-7121. Together, we can save a life.

Jana Gregory is the CEO of the Eastern Texas Panhandle Chapter of the American Red Cross. Her columns appear every month in The Pampa News.

"It was a special place," Martinez said. "It was unique."

In 2001, he was appointed to finish the term of former Gray County Justice of the Peace Bob Muns. Since then, he's stood for election twice and won.

This year, Gray County voters will return him to office for the third time. He's running unopposed.

Best Lawn Care Service: A&T Lawn Care

"We are reliable," says Pedro Arreolla, the owner and prime mover behind A&T Yard Services, Inc. "We say we are going to do it and we go out there and prove to people that we are reliable."

That attitude has made the company successful since 1992 and now it boasts customers in Pampa, Canadian, Borger, Perryton, Clarendon, Panhandle and Amarillo.

"We just go all over the place," Arreolla says.

"A lot of our customers tell us that (our success) is the way we treat people, the way we treat lawns and the details we do," says Rita Kramer, the company's greenhouse manager.

The company's primary business is, of course, lawn care, but in recent years it has also branched out into the construction of fences, sidewalks, patios and koi ponds.

"We are real busy right now," Arreolla says. "The way the economy is, you can't waste a whole lot of time."

"We are going okay."

Best Place for Antiques:

Trash and Treasure Shop

It's a wonderland of treasures with knickknacks in every nook and cranny. On this shelf is that game you used to play as a kid, on that shelf are some "soap box" dishes your granny used to have. Want a hand-crank sausage grinder? What size? There are several.

Wanda Scully is the proprietor; the White Queen who has benignly presided over this land of enchantment for the past decade.

She rents some 35 spaces to antique dealers in "Trash and Treasure Shop," located at 1431 North Hobart Street.

"We have a variety of stuff," she says, "and not all of them are antiques. We rent out spaces so different people have things here."

She also sells her own merchandise and sells some things on consignment, all of which adds to the eclectic feel of the shop. Or as Wanda puts it: "People come in looking for everything, or nothing in particular."

Dear Abby...

By Pauline & Jeanne Phillips

DEAR ABBY: Would you please print the signs of a mental abuser? My husband is like night and day. There's no in-between. He curses at me, calls me names, tells me I'm stupid and, when he raises his hand palm outward, it's my sign to shut up.

I have to leave notes about where I am, what time I'll be home, and if I'm a minute late, I'm in for it big time. When I try to stand up for myself he tells me I'm a b---- or "too sensitive." He also tells me what to wear.

Why on earth would I still love this guy? Please print the signs because I know a lot of other women in this situation. — BEATEN DOWN IN FLORIDA

DEAR BEATEN DOWN: By printing your letter I HAVE printed the signs of a mental/emotional abuser. Your husband's behavior is classic, and I don't know why you would still love him. Women stay with men like your husband because they don't think they deserve better, or because they are financially dependent. "Love" has nothing to do with it.

Because verbal and emotional abuse can escalate into physical abuse, I'm printing the toll-free number of the National Domestic Violence Hotline. It's (800) 799-7233.

DEAR ABBY: How do you deal with a thief in your midst? I have a 21-year-old relative who steals. He has stolen from me, and I suspect from other members of the family as well. Please don't suggest therapy — he's had years of therapy. Recently, he was caught stealing from a purse belonging to his mother's best friend.

The problem is family gatherings. I'm not comfortable telling my guests that they must watch their valuables, but I cannot deal with the possibility of having a guest's possessions or money stolen. Also, I don't particularly relish the idea of having him loose in my house.

He hasn't shown any particular interest in attending these functions and often hasn't attended when invited, but it's hard to know whether excluding him might make him feel left out. My inclination is to tell him the reason I don't want to invite him. Should I? — HIS RELATIVE

DEAR RELATIVE: If he asks why he wasn't invited, by all means tell him. If years of counseling haven't curbed his compulsion to steal, it's possible that one day he will learn in a jail cell what he didn't learn on the couch.

Meanwhile, I see no compelling reason to continue inviting him to family gatherings. Not only will you be doing your guests a favor, you'll be exposing your relative to less temptation.

DEAR ABBY: My boyfriend has two children from a previous relationship. I love them very much and treat them like my own. We often go out with the children to playgrounds, shopping, etc.

Abby, people often refer to me as the children's mother. They'll say, "Ask your mom ..." things like that. What's the proper response to this? I find it embarrassing because I'm not their mother. But I don't want to make anyone uncomfortable by saying I'm not. What would be the most polite response to someone in that situation? — NOT MOMMY IN MAINE

DEAR NOT MOMMY: The most polite response would be to ignore their mistake.

1 Public Notice

NOTICE OF RECEIPT OF APPLICATION AND INTENT TO OBTAIN WATER QUALITY PERMIT AMENDMENT PERMIT NO. WQ0004226000

APPLICATION. Cabot Corporation, P.O. Box 5001, Pampa, Texas 79066-5001, which operates a carbon black manufacturing facility, has applied to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) to amend wastewater disposal Permit No. WQ0004226000 to authorize the addition of a surface irrigation system on 4.62 acres of land located within the facility property. It is anticipated that irrigation could be used only during times of substantial precipitation. The facility and disposal sites are located on the north side of the panhandle Santa Fe Railroad and U.S. Highway 60, approximately five miles west of the City of Pampa, Gray County, Texas 79066. TCEQ received this application on April 2, 2010. The permit application is available for viewing and copying at Lovett Memorial Library, 111 North Houston Street, Pampa, Texas.

ADDITIONAL NOTICE. TCEQ's Executive Director has determined the application is administratively complete and will conduct a technical review of the application. After technical review of the application is complete, the Executive Director may prepare a draft permit and will issue a preliminary decision on the application. Notice of the Application and preliminary Decision will be published and mailed to those who are on the county-wide mailing list and to those who are on the mailing list for this application. That notice will contain the deadline for submitting public comments.

PUBLIC COMMENT / PUBLIC MEETING. You may submit public comments or request a public meeting on this application. The purpose of a public meeting is to provide the opportunity to submit comments or to ask questions about the application. TCEQ will hold a public meeting if the Executive Director determines that there is a significant degree of public interest in the application or if requested by a local legislator. A public meeting is not a contested case hearing.

OPPORTUNITY FOR A CONTESTED CASE HEARING. After the deadline for submitting public comments, the Executive Director will consider all timely comments and prepare a response to all relevant and material, or significant public comments. Unless the application is directly referred for a contested case hearing, the response to comments, and the Executive Director's decision on the application, will be mailed to everyone who submitted public comments and to those who are on the mailing list for this application. If comments are received, the mailing will also provide instructions for requesting reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision and for requesting a contested case hearing. A contested case hearing is a legal proceeding similar to a civil trial in state district court.

TO REQUEST A CONTESTED CASE HEARING, YOU MUST INCLUDE THE FOLLOWING ITEMS IN YOUR REQUEST: your name, address, phone number; applicant's name and proposed permit number; the location and distance of your property / activities relative to the proposed facility; a specific description of how you would be adversely affected by the facility in a way not common to the general public; and, the statement "[I/we] request a contested case hearing." If the request for contested case hearing is filed on behalf of a group or association, the request must designate the group's representative for receiving future correspondence; identify an individual member of the group who would be adversely affected by the proposed facility or activity; provide the information discussed above regarding the affected member's location and distance from the facility or activity; explain how and why the member would be affected; and explain how the interests the group seeks to protect are relevant to the group's purpose.

Following the close of all applicable comment and request periods, the Executive Director will forward the application and any requests for reconsideration or for a contested case hearing to the TCEQ Commissioners for their consideration at a scheduled Commission meeting. The Commission will only grant a contested case hearing on issues that were raised in timely filed comments that were not subsequently withdrawn.

MAILING LIST. If you submit public comments, a request for a contested case hearing or a reconsideration of the Executive Director's decision, you will be added to the mailing list for this specific application to receive future public notices mailed by the Office of Chief Clerk. In addition, you may request to be placed on: (1) the permanent mailing list for a specific applicant name and permit number; and / or (2) the mailing list for a specific county. If you wish to be placed on the permanent and / or the county mailing list, clearly specify which list(s) and send your request to TCEQ Office of the Chief Clerk at the address below.

AGENCY CONTACTS AND INFORMATION. All written public comments and requests must be submitted to the Office of the Chief Clerk, MC 105, TCEQ, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, TX 78711-3087 or electronically at www.tceq.state.tx.us/about/comments.html.
