MilkDrive will perform at the Woody Guthrie Folk Music Center, said he has seen them on a radio.

"I bought one of their albums," he said. "They are pretty hot right now and are all virtuosos at their instruments."

He said their music appeals to a wider group than just those who like jazz and/or bluegrass.

They also have a service that are for residents to go round trip to Amarillo. You see their little white buses with the big "PCS" logo driving all over town.

Panhandle Community Services is here in the 26 counties in the Texas Panhandle to help people within the federal government's poverty level along with those who are above the bracket but still need assistance. Based out of Amarillo, Panhandle Community Services is a nonprofit that provides assistance to families and individuals through a wide variety of

"If they are over our income guidelines then we start making calls and checking our resources to help them out," administrative assistant for Panhandle Community Services, Lisa Poland-Martinez, said. "It (the income guideline) varies on how many are in the household and the government guidelines.'

One of the many services PCS offers clients is transportation around their local towns. It costs $20 a month, and the service runs between 7 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., with exceptions for Medicaid dialysis patients who may need transportation after 4:30 p.m. Although unavailable right now until further notice, PCS offers a housing voucher program. Essentially clients find a home which passes inspection, and there is a formula based on income that allows for payments to be made at a set amount. It is not known at this time when the service will be available again, especially with the ongoing partial shutdown of the federal government. Another unique service PCS offers is their family development service, which includes a college help

"Basically it is a way to evaluate individuals and assess them on what they need to accomplish to move out of poverty and in to the middle class,' said Lori Covil, social worker and family development specialist.

While many of PCS' services are to help families get out of a bind, Covil said the college guidance is more of a "long-term goal" and it is a way to empower people and help them with some of the issues that go along with going to college, such as computer proficiency and licensing fees.

"We are here to serve as a life coach and a cheerleader," Covil said. "This program is for those who are motivated, ready and stable to be prepared to enter the work force. This is to get them to through college one barrier at a time."

Covil said a perk of the program is that Pampa residents in the three-to-five year program are sent to Clarendon College to get career counseling, and then PCS helps them with financial aid information.

Covil said PCS' family development program looks at everything from missed life opportunities, language barriers, generational poverty, addictive and violencerelated poverty among the many other causes of poverty.

They set up action plans for short- and long-term goals to help the residents who fall in this category. Unfortunately you're not going to 'fix' a family in three-to-six months," Covil said. "This is for the families who don't want to have to seek help anymore."

Congress: It's time to Stop this Chicanery

For most Americans, our elected members of Congress are just a name on who take the time to vote (typically, a paltry 10% of the voting population in Texas – for all elections, local, state and national) know very little about the name they check off in the voting ballot. But that does not mean we can't hold them ac-

Even those countable for their idiocy. Congress has forced a partial shutdown of the federal government and the initial blame lies squarely on the shoulders of people who work for you.

When given the proposed budget for the 2014 fiscal year that began on Oct. 1, Republican leaders in the House made the deliberate decision to attach measures tying government funding to an attempt to delay Obama's landmark healthcare law.

The Democraticcontrolled Senate then moved quickly to quash the amended House budget

And here we are now, with a partial government shutdown and no end in sight since neither side is willing to find common ground.

The question in my mind is: How fast can we fire all these punks?

In a way, there's nothing new with the ongoing ideological stalemate between Congressional Republicans and Democrats surrounding the new fiscal budget. Every year, since 1994, Congress has failed to approve the budget before the start of the new fiscal year.

There is also nothing new about a partial government shutdown (one that initially affects only "non-essential services like payments of government contracts or access to national parks). We've had 10 partial government shutdowns since 1981.

What is different this time around is the deliberate disregard of our elected members of Congress for providing a safety net for the sake of the common American people.

In the past, ALL failed budgets were sent back for further deliberations with resolutions to continue to fund basic operations until a budget agreement was passed. Not this time.

In terms of the previous government shutdowns, all lasted only over a weekend (except for one, in 1996 when it went on for 26 days), and took place when the majority of federal offices were due to be closed regardless of the shutdown.

U.S. Sen. John McCain (R-Ariz.) voiced concern and disgust over this situ-

"It's very important that we understand that Americans don't like government. But they don't want it shut down," he told Piers Morgan on Tuesday. "When we shut down the government last time," he continued, "we had already passed a number of appropriations bills. So the impact of a shutdown of a government, since we haven't passed a single appropriations bill, will be more immediate and will be more impactful."

If this situation continues into late October, we will face appalling consequences. In the domestic arena, a long shutdown will cause delays on benefits for the elderly and for war veterans. In the global arena the United States is facing the calamitous possibility of being unable to make payments on our loans the first time in our long history that this would happen. The irony of it all is that, regardless of how adamant House Republicans are to defund and delay the Affordable Care Act, that battle has come and gone. It was signed into law back in 2010 and, something that most Americans don't know is that its operating funds for Obamacare do not depend on the 2014 fiscal budget that Congress currently is debating.

this Congressional fight takes or even how it ends, Obamacare will go on. In fact, people began to sign up for it yesterday.

This fight in Congress is preposterous, ill-guided, political chicanery.

Obamacare is NOT popular. According to a CNN poll from this past Monday, 57 percent said they oppose the healthcare law, but 60 percent said "it is more important for Congress to avoid a shutdown than to make major changes to the new health care law." Just one-third said it was more important for Congress to block the healthcare law by cutting its funding, the survey showed.

Last week I castigated President Obama for the hubris he displayed in formulating his foreign policy. Today I am doing the same with Congress. I have no problem with making an ideological stand for their constituency, particularly in the House of Representatives where, regardless of party affiliation, they have only 2 years per election cycle.

But this current stand-off instigated by House Republicans is a poor political choice and manipulation of political realities in Congress.

The initial bill placed on the floor was purely a fiscal budget. The decision to add amendments to the bill to delay Obamacare made it into more than it needs to be.

Moreover, as I mentioned before, the disputed health care act already went into effect and will be funded regardless of the government shutdown. During his 21-hour long oratory, one of the (many) things that Ted Cruz said during his time on the floor of Congress was, "I would not, could not with a goat," which landed him in late night comedy shows all across America.

It's one thing for Cruz to end up as the punch line of a joke. It's another thing altogether for my government to do so.

It's time for all of us to get to know our elected members of Congress a little bit better. For us, here in Pampa, they are:

Senators: John Cornyn, 806-472-7533 and Ted Cruz, 214-599-8749. District 13 U.S. Representative: Mac Thornberry, 806-371-8844. Give them a call and tell them to get back to work and stop the shutdown. There are better ways to fight Obamacare than this.

Bruno Baltodano, a resident of Pampa, is a faculty adjunct at Lewis-Clark State College in Lewiston, Idaho and at Clarendon College in Pampa. He teaches college courses on Global Politics, Government

Gray County Genealogical Society holds August meeting

SUBMITTED

The Gray County Genealogical Society held its monthly meeting Aug. 26 at the Lovett Memorial Library.

President Dalton Lewis called the meeting to order. Secretary Omajean Lewis

read the minutes from the August meeting and they were approved. Treasurer Lucille Roden read the treasurer's report. Carl Williamson was introduced by President Dalton Lewis as the speaker for the evening. He spoke on the history of the Panhandle of Texas. The story revolved around the life of William (Billy) Dixon and how his life contributed to placing the Panhandle of Texsas on the map.

Dixon was born in Ohio County, West Virginia on Sept. 25, 1850. He came from European and Native American parents. He was orphaned when he was 12 vears old.

He lived with an uncle in Missouri until he was 13, at which point he decided to set out on his own. He was a skilled marksman and scouted for the railroads. He was an oxen driver, mule skinner and a buffalo hunter.

The buffalo hunters moved into the Texas Panhandle in 1874 and they hunted along the Canadian River.

Billy Dixon was the hero of "The Battle of Adobe Walls." He made "The Shot of the Century." Three months later, he won the Medal of Honor (for Gallantry in Battle) for his heroics during the Buffalo Wallow Fight, but the government took away this medal because he was not a soldier. They asked him to return the medal and he refused. The government reinstated the medal to Mr. Dixon and it is now on display at the Panhandle Plains Historical Museum in Canyon.

The Gray County Genealogical Society meets every fourth Monday of each month. Please join us at the Lovett Memorial Library.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY for Friday, Oct.

4. 2013: This year you open up to a new opporwas possible. You will not question the validity of the option; you simply will jump on it. Others find you to be unusually magnetic and creative. You will have your share of admirers. If you are single, enjoy dating, but do not make a commitment until you are absolutely sure that this person is right for you. If you are attached, you will attract a lot of attention this year. Be sure to dote on your sweetie as much as possible. He or she will need it, considering you are likely to be on center stage all year long. Another LIBRA adds to your creativity #### and ideas. ARIES (March 21-April 19)

bridges lately? You will have an opportunity to mend damaged relationships. Think "long term," and you might be more willing to let go of a grievance. When you make the call, expect a shocked response. Tonight: Have a discussion over dinner.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20)

your limits. You might be prone to being distracted, especially as a sudden insight opens a new door. How you let someone else know that enough is enough could determine the strength of this bond for a while. Tonight: Do something just for grin. Whether you are in touch with your feelings is another issue altogether. Spending time with a loved one allows more spontaneity and freedom. You will be like two kids playing together in the sandbox. Tonight: Let the good times rock and roll.

CANCER (June 21-July 22)

★★★ Your sense of humor emerges, even if you're just dealing with the family cat. Lighten up the mood, and understand that everyone needs some time off from stress and obligations. In fact, the best solutions often emerge when people are distracted. Tonight: Ever playful. LEO (July 23-Aug. 22)

★★★★ Communication could surprise you. You might understand much spending and obligations. A partner more than others do. Move forward might want to approach finances in a with an eye to change. You'll want to follow up on an important personal matter. Check out a potential purchase with care. Tonight: Hang out with friends at a favorite haunt.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22)

★★★★ Remain realistic about the cost of a new purchase. You might be tunity that you might not had dreamed surprised at the expense, but you still might want to buy the item regardless. Be honest with yourself as you make a decision. You won't want to have any regrets. Tonight: Let someone else treat for a change.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 22)

★★★★★ You'll smile when faced with an exciting proposition. The issue is not whether you want to make this move, but rather how you will make it. Understanding could evolve to a new level after a serious discussion. Remain confident. Tonight: Others respond to your requests.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23-Nov. 21)

★★ You might want to make a *** Have you burned some change in your day-to-day life. Just understand that the energy needed to make this happen will have to come from within you. Recognize the importance of this decision and the implications involved. Tonight: Head home before it is too late!

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21)

★★★★ Zero in on what you want. *** Pace yourself and recognize As a sign that is impulsive, you often do just that; however, the effort is not always sustained. If you stay focused, you could make a major change that you have been longing for. A loved one could surprise you. Tonight: In the fun of the moment.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19)

★★★★ You might be wondering *** Others see your mischievous what path would be most effective to take. Let go of your concerns, and simply do what seems natural. You are likely to make the right move as a result. Others will follow you, as they trust your judgment. Tonight: A force to be dealt with.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18)

★★★★★ You might want to reach out to someone at a distance. You could be feeling rather crazy for choosing to respond to a friend or loved one who appears to be a bit off the wall. Recognize what is happening with this person. Tonight: Try a new music spot or a new restaurant. PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20)

★★★★ Pressure builds around different manner. You know what works for you. Consider having more independence from each other. Tonight: Be a duo. Know that you don't need to share

Notice of Draft Federal Operating Permit

Draft Permit No.: O1666

Application and Draft Permit. Cabot Corporation, PO Box 5001, Pampa, TX 79066-5001, has applied to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ) for a renewal ing Permit (herein referred to as Permit) No. O1666, Application No. 19030, to authorize operation of the Cabot Corporation Development and Manufacturing Center, a Carbon Black facility. The area addressed by the application is located at 8430 County Road 3, in Gray County, Texas This link to an electronic map of the site or facility's general location is provided as a public courtesy and not part of the application or notice For exact location, refer to application. http://www.tcea. texas.gov/assets/ public/hb610/index. html?lat=35.503055 &lng=-101.041666 &zoom=13&type=r.

This application

The purpose of a

was received by the TCEQ on January

of Federal Operat-

listing all applicable requirements, as defined in Title 30 Texas Administrative Code § 122.10 (30 TAC § 122.10). The draft permit, if approved, will codify the conditions under which the area must operate. The permit will not authorize new construction. The executive director has completed the technical review of the application and has made a preliminary decision to prepare a draft permit for public comment and review. The executive director recommends issuance of this draft permit. The permit application, statement of basis, and draft permit will be available for viewing and copying at the TCEQ Central Office, 12100 Park 35 Circle, Building E, First Floor, Austin, Texas; the TCEQ Amarillo Regional Office, 3918 Canyon Drive, Amarillo, Texas 79109-4933; and the Lovett Memorial Library, 111 North Houston Street, Pampa. Texas, beginning the first day of publication of this notice. At the TCFO central and regional offices, relevant supporting materials for the draft permit, as well as the New Source Review permits which have been incorporated by reference, may be reviewed and copied. Any person with difficulties obtaining these materials due to travel constraints may contact the 239-1540. Public Comment/ Notice and Comment Hearing. Any person may submit written comments on the draft permit. Comments relating to the accuracy, completeness, and appropriateness of the permit conditions may result in changes to the draft permit.

A person who may be affected by the emission of air pollutants from the permitted area may request a notice and comment hearing. The purpose of the notice and comment hearing is to provide an additional opportunity to submit comments on the draft permit. The permit may be changed based on comments pertaining to whether the permit provides for compliance with 30 TAC Chapter 122 (examples may include that the permit does not contain all applicable requirements or the public notice procedures were not satisfied). The TCEQ may grant a notice and comment hearing on the application if a written hearing request is received within 30 days after publication of the newspaper notice.

The hearing request must include the basis for the request, in cluding a description of how the person may be affected by the emission of air pollutants from the application area. The request should also specify the conditions of the draft permit that are inappropriate or specify how the preliminary decision to issue or deny the permit is inappropriate. All reasonably ascertainable issues must be raised and all reasonably available arguments must be submitted by the end of the public comment period. If a notice and comment hearing is granted, all individuals that submitted written comments or a hearing request will receive written notice of the hearing. This notice will identify the date, time, and location for the hearing. Written public comments and/or requests for a notice and comment hearing should be submitted to the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, Office of the Chief Clerk, MC-105, P.O. Box 13087, Austin, Texas 78711-3087, or electronically at www.tceg.texas. gov/about/comments.html and be received within 30 days after the date of newspaper publication of this notice. If you communicate with the TCEQ electronically, please be aware that your email address, like your physical mailing address, will become part of the agency's public record. A notice of proposed final action that includes a response to comments and identification of any changes to the draft permit will be mailed to everyone who submitted public comments, a hearing request, or requested to be on the mailing list for this application. This mailing will also provide instructions for public petitions to the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to request that the EPA object to the issuance of the proposed permit. After receiving a petition, the EPA may only object to the issuance of a permit which is not in compliance with the applicable requirements or the requirements of 30 TAC Chapter 122.

Mailing List. In addition to submitting public comments, a person may ask to be placed on a mailing list for this application by sending a request to the Office of the Chief Clerk at the ad dress above. Those on the mailing list will receive copies of future public notices (if any) mailed by the Chief Clerk for this application.

Information. For additional information about this permit application or the permitting process, please contact the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality, Public Education Program, MC-108, P.O. Box 13087 Austin, Texas 78711 3087 or toll free at 1-800-687-4040. Si desea información en Español, puede llamar al 1-800-687-

Further information may also be obtained for Cabot Corporation by calling Ms. Jennifer Flores-Brown at (806) 661-3130.
