The program is administered by Child Care Management Services of Austin and the credential is recognized by the Texas Department of Human Services.

Recent rains followed by hot, dry weather have generated rapid growth in the crops in this area. "The rains were very beneficial to the crops, what we received was just what we needed, the crops are growing real good, although they are ready for another inch of rain," Spencer Tanksley said.

Most of the land where cotton was lost in a recent hail storm has been replanted and the wheat has either been harvested or is being harvested at the present time.

"The range land is in good condition" Tanksley continued. This hot dry weather has given the farmers a chance to control weeds and shape their fields the way they would like them to be.

"At the present time the overall crop outlook is good in this area," he added.

Capt. L.A. Reinhardt, District Supervisor of the Lubbock Patrol District comprising of 21 counties said, "For the month of April, troopers investigated three fatal accidents, 52 personal injury

Cari Ann Kidd; A Joy And An Inspiration

(Editor's note: If you ever need or could use a little extra inspiration, just follow in the tracks of Cari Ann Kidd for a little while. This young woman proves to be a 'boost' and an 'inspiration' to everyone who knows her.)

For many parents, it is totally devastating to be told their newborn, boy or girl, is different, or has problems. Problems that will mean lifetime special attention and care.

Then, there are parents like Hubert and Nancy Kidd, who learned within a few days after Cari Ann was born at Tucumcari, N.M. on July 19, 1962, that she was very different.

At the time Cari Ann was born, the Kidds lived at Clarendon, but Nancy Kidd was in Tucumcari for Cari Ann's birth at Trigg Memorial Hospital.

"We knew at birth, or just a few days later, there was a problem," Nancy recalled.

"To accept the fact that your child is handicapped, you have to realize that you can't help if you don't face the problem.

"If a normal child has a problem, you face it and take care of it, and it's exactly the same with a handicapped child."

Cari Ann's mother said her biggest beef is with parents who won't accept things as they are.

The Kidds had been informed that Cari Ann had Down's

Water District Suggests Tailwater Pit Construction

Area producers who allow tailwater to run off their fields are literally throwing their money into the barrow ditches because of the high cost of pumping wasted irrigation water.

Fuel costs for pumping an acre-foot of irrigation water range from $33 for natural gas pumps to $37 for electric pumps. For example, if a farm had a 40 acre-foot tailwater loss, the irrigator would pay $1320 for natural gas and $1480 for electricity to pump the wasted water.

Tailwater runoff is usually caused by long furrow runs requiring high flow rates to push the water to the end of the field or by irrigating too long in one place which allows water to run off the back of the field, says Ken Carver, High Plains Under-ground Water Conservation District No. 1 Assistant Manager.

If a producer irrigates from an eight-inch well producing 800 gallons per minute, a six-inch application of water can be applied over 160 acres in 542 hours. Tailwater losses have been calculated to be 100 gallons per minute or 6,000 gallons per hour. On the example farm, the tailwater waste during each irrigation would be approximately 3,252,000 gallons of water.

Producers normally irrigate four times during an average growing season. Total tailwater losses would amount 10 13,008,000 gallons in our example, or 40 acre-feet of water. This is the equivalent of a six-inch water application over 80 acres.

Both Water District rules and state law prohibit the waste of ground water. Tailwater waste is

Three Way Students Awarded National Honors

Eight students from the Three Way High School have been selected as members of the Society of Distinguished American High School Students for 1988.

Membership in the 20 year old Society is designed to be a national honor and incentive for top performance among high school students. To be accepted, candidates must excel in academics, extracurricular or civic activities.

Students from Three Way High School being selected are as follows; Seniors; John J. Duarte, Bryan Kindel, and Kelly Tucker; Juniors; Jarrod Sowder; Sophomores; Sheila Tucker and Melinda Turney; and Freshmen, Carrie Kindel and Norma Kuhl-cava.

As members, these students will have the opportunity to compete for college scholarships through the Society's National Awards Program. This year 140 colleges have earmarked more than $700,000 in scholarship funds for Society members.

Additionally, the Society sponsors members-only cash awards of up to $2,000 per recipient for higher education purposes, and its college referral programs recommended members for admission and grants-in-aid up to 350 major colleges and universities.

To preserve the honor for students, members' names and their high school accomplishments will be listed in the Society's 1988 Membership Registry, which is published and distributed nationally.

Make your plans now to be in Muleshoe for the July Fourth weekend. Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture has a big celebration planned for all ages from the young--to the young at heart.

Getting off to an early start on Saturday, July 2, local businesses will be holding sidewalk sales. The MAC Buck drawing as well as a miniature golf tournament is scheduled for Saturday.

Beginning bright and early on the morning of July 4th is the registration for the 10K and two mile runs. Registration will be held in the KMUL Radio Station parking lot at 7 a.m. beginning at 8 a.m.

According to Toni Eagle, registration for the World Championship Mule Shoe Pitching contest will be held at 8:30 a.m. between Ben Franklin's and the Mule Putt course. The contest will begin promptly at 9 a.m.

Also starting at 8:30 a.m. will be the Kids Activities at the Bailey County Civic Center. These events will be hosted by Alpha Zeta Pi Sorority.

"Line up for the Freedom Parade will be at 10 a.m. at the Boy Scout grounds" said Ms. Eagle. "This year the parade route will be different. The parade will proceed down the parade route at 11 a.m. Upon leaving the Boy Scout grounds the parade will go down Ave. I to First Street, turning on Ave. D, the parade will proceed to West 19th Street and end at the Civic Center."

At 6:30 p.m. the activities move to the New City Park where there will be picnics and booths. Entertainment will begin at 7 p.m. The Jennislippers and the Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture have joined together to bring a special attraction to the July 4th entertainment at the park. The Ozark Country Express will perform at 8 p.m. "This very talented musical group promises to be a highlight of the celebration. Fireworks galore will be set off at 10 p.m. and upon the conclusion of the fireworks display, there will be more music.

"The Jennislippers have completely funded the fireworks display this year. Their fund raisers were such a success that they took it upon themselves to purchase all of the entertainment" concluded Ms. Eagle.

Also there will be an old settler's reunion and various class reunions.

If you or your group are interested in performing in the Civic Center during the daytime activities, you are asked to contact the Chamber of Commerce office at 272-4248.

Booths will be set up at 8 a.m.

Module Builder Use Growing In Mid South-Southeast

Modules may look like nothing but big, white bread loaves, but to many growers they are beginning to look like a sizable savings and convenience to their cotton operation.

The module builder is currently the primary method of assembly in Arizona, California and Texas. And use of this type of storage is growing throughout the Mid-South and Southeast.

"Most cotton growers are familiar with the modular system of storing and handling seed cotton," says Dr. William Lalor, senior director of agricultural research at Cotton Incorporated. "However, not everyone is aware of all its potential advantages. And some growers think that modules are just for larger growers, which is not necessarily true." According to Lalor, growers of approximately 700 bales and up can afford to own a module builder of their own, while smaller growers should investigate ways of sharing the use of module builders.

"The module builder gives growers the opportunity to harvest when the crop is ready, thereby avoiding having to harvest the crop in a rush when the gin is ready to take it," says Lalor. "This is real insurance against bad weather."

Modules also offer growers real transportation savings because approximately 12-14 bales can be hauled in one trip with a module. The same amount of cotton might require four trips with a trailer.

However, Lalor cautions that if module storage systems are used, they must be used properly and the cotton must be harvested dry and kept dry.

He adds that it behooves every grower that uses the modular system of storage to have a way of measuring seed cotton moisture content.

"We advise every grower using this system to get a good moisture meter and learn to use it properly," says Lalor. "The temperature of the module must also be monitored. The minimum requirement is for the temperature at several places in the module to be measured daily until the grower is certain that the module has gotten over its initial heating period and is beginning to cool down."

Lalor warns growers to never allow more than a 20 degree temperature rise during the heating period and to gin hot modules immediately.

According to Lalor, it's one thing to harvest cotton dry and put it into the module dry, but it's another to keep it dry.

Keeping the cotton dry means covering the module with a water-proof tarp, locating the module in a place where it won't be in standing water after a rain and checking the tarp after a rain to be sure there are no pools of water on the top of the tarp.

Because of concerns ever possible mis-management of module builders, Cotton Incorporated, in conjunction with the extension service, has put together a detailed pamphlet that explains how growers can use the seed cotton module system successfully in the rainbelt states.

If there must be trouble let it be in my day that my child may have peace.

Local Women Employed By Green Thumb

Muleshoe has two Green Thumb Enrollees, Lena Ruthardt, Library Aid at the Muleshoe Public Library, and Adele Tompkins, Office Clerk at the Muleshoe Department of Health.

Ms. Ruthardt assist with showing of the film at the Muleshoe Nursing Home, checking books, keeping books put up-back on shelves, while Ms. Tompkins answers the phone, makes appointments, files, makes copies, types and helps in general in the office.

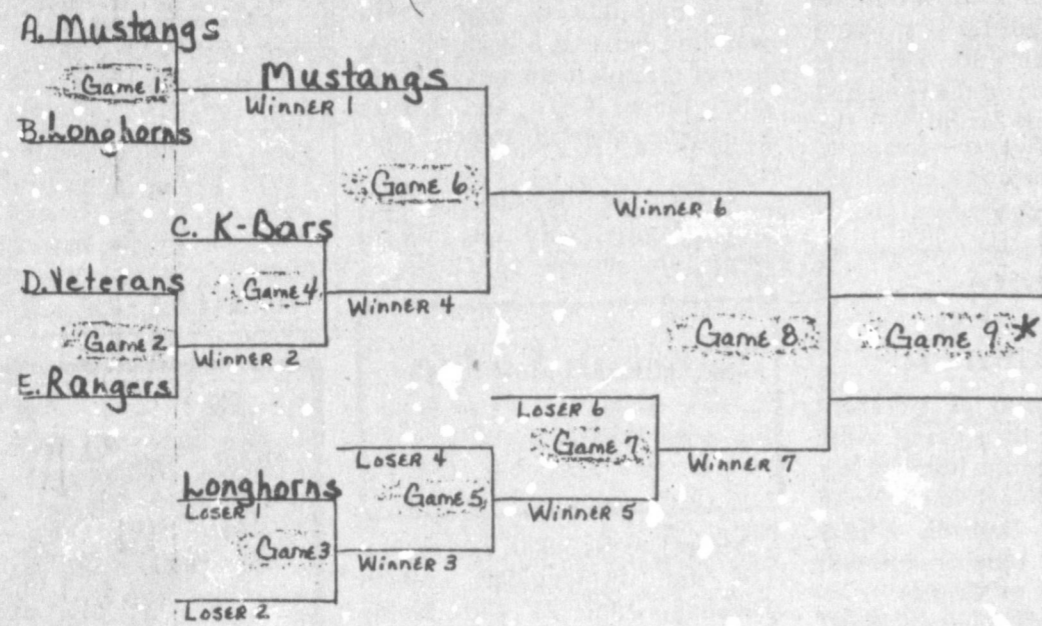

Green Thumb is a program which provides training and placement opportunities to persons age 55 years or older who meet Department of Labor low income guidelines and are physically fit to work. It is funded by the Department of Labor and sponsored by National Farmers Union.

While under the program the enrollee is placed with a 501 C 3 non profit organization or local government agencies such as county, city schools, etc.

Green Thumb enrollees perform a vast variety of jobs. Assignments are developed which permit the most effective use of each enrollee's work skills, work history, preference of occupation and aptitudes.

Enrollees are assisted and encouraged to find unsubsidized employment off the program and this enables others to be enrolled. Jobs found off the program are usually better paid and offer more hours per week than what can be offered on the program.

Candlelight Ceremony Unites Miss Mills, Low

Ray Stevens To Headline Amarillo Fair

The 1988 Amarillo Tri State Fair, scheduled for September 19-24, will again offer quality musical entertainment each night during the event. Fair officials are happy to announce the appearance of Ray Stevens on Tuesday, September 20th at 8:00 p.m.

Who is Ray Stevens? Is he a comedian or is he a singer/songwriter to be taken seriously? He is both. His thought-provoking "Mr. Businessman" which reflects his sincere concern about the world and his Grammy Award-winning "Everything Is Beautiful" portray Ray's feelings honestly. On the comedy side, his tremendous wit, musical ability and lyrical diversity has exposed the world to such highly successful recordings as "Ahab The Arab", and "Haarry The Hairy Ape". Those songs in the early sixties fixed Ray's image in people's minds as that of the class clown. Then he wrote and recorded "Unwind" and "Mr. Businessman" and people asked "Is this the same guy?" it was indeed the same Ray Stevens because in the late sixties, he suffered a relapse with the classic "Gitarzan" followed by "Along Came Jones." Then the pendulum to the other extreme and Ray's "Everything Is Beautiful" became a modern day classic and a standard in every sense of the word.

read the double ring vows.

Parents of the couple are Marlin and Barbara Mills of Muleshoe and Jimmy and Lynda Low of Earth.

Musical selections included "Surely The Presence Of The Lord Is In This Place", "Flesh Of My Flesh", and "There Is Love".

Wedding vows were exchanged before two tree candelabras with dusty rose bows. A green fern centerpiece was placed between the candelabras. Dusty rose bows were placed at the end of each row of pews. Hearts and a bow marked the mothers' seats.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride chose a Jean Phoenix dress of crystal organza and satin white, featuring a sweetheart bodice, heavy trimmed with pearls and sequins, three layer ruffled sleeves, full skirt with long cathedral train and three layers of ruffles at the hem line, with ruffles coming up to a "V" up the train, silk floss lace applications on the front and dangling pearl trim at the neckline.

Going-Away Party Honors Thelma Damron

Thelma Damron of Hereford was honored with a going away party Saturday in the home of her sister-in-law, Pearl and John Davieau. Mrs. Damron is the widow of Claud Damron and will be moving soon to Kansas.

Others attending were Floyd and Mary Damron of Bovina, Ruby Garner, and Alvin and Opal Talley of Muleshoe; Clarence and Elsie Damron of Needmore; Donna and Larry Durham, Layla, Michael and Randy, Keith Hill, and Sandra Johnson and Tyler, all of Lubbock.

Also A.J. and Betty Givins and Like of Plainview. Attending from Sudan were Mabel Reed, Edith Reed, Jerry and Peggy Ray, Connie and Wanda Hill, Lorine Gilreath, Henry and Pauine Williams, Phyllis Lynn, Jennifer, Candace and Stephany and Jimmy Williams.

The bride carried a cascade of white gardenias enhanced in pink sweetheart roses and white stephanotis accented with lacy Boston fern flowing English ivy and pink Vanessa ribbon.

Mrs. Billy Pyle of Muleshoe served as matron of honor. She wore a long pink sweater style dress with a sailor collar and white ruffles at the hemline. She carried an arm bouquet of white Calla lilies accented with nephthytis leaves wrapped in pink Vanessa ribbon.

Jerry Low of Ft. Worth served as best man. Candlelighters were Mike Mills of Lubbock and Bobby Grumbles, Jr. of Muleshoe. Ushers were Mike Mills of Lubbock and Bobby Grumbles, Jr. of Muleshoe.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall. Marla Mills registered the guests.

The three layered wedding cake was decorated with pink and dusty rose flowers, topped with wedding bells. A silk dusty rose flower arrangement served as the centerpiece. Cake and frosted pineapple shurbet punch were served.

Servers at the bride's table were Emily Cannon, Becky Mohr, and Beverly Mitchell.

Rebekah Lodge News

Muleshoe Rebekah Lodge No. 114 met in regular session Tuesday, June 21 with Noble Grand, Novella Price in charge of the meeting.

The flag was presented by Terie Snell and Ruby Green gave the opening prayer.

It was reported that eight members went to Lubbock on Saturday, June 18 to attend a meeting with the Lubbock Lodge. They had as their guest the president of the Rebekah Assembly of Texas, Sue Monk of Dallas. "A very interesting and informative meeting was enjoyed by all," said Fern Davis.

Pat Langfitt, Sardi Robinson and June Green gave a demonstration on Lodge procedure.

Acquaint Elders With New Environment Before Moving

Families can reduce the stress of relocation by acquainting elders with their new environment before they move into a nursing home or retirement center.

According to Dr. Judith Warren, a gerontology specialist with the Texas A&M University Agricultural Extension Service, various types of orientation will enhance the elder's sense of familiarity and control over the move.

"Visiting the facility and meeting the staff are the best means of orientation, but are often impractical for the frail elderly," she said.

"Some facilities have slide presentations or even scale models that families can take home to show to the elder. Or you may want to take your own slides or snapshots of different rooms to help the elder visually walk-through the new environment," said Warren.

"The facility may also have orientation or promotional materials that contain simplified line drawing of the building and photos of the key rooms, such as the dining area, main office or crafts room," she said.

"Certainly, the willingness of center staff to provide a tour for new residents and the quality of their orientation materials are points to consider is selecting a facility," said the gerontologist.

Warren said a feeling of being more in control of the move will occur if the older person can select his or her own room from those available and help choose what date and time the move will take place.

"Elders also need input into how the move will occur, including what furniture and decorations they will bring, how the room will be arranged and who will help with the move," she said.

"Enhancing familiarity and control won't eliminate all relocation stress," said the gerontologist. "But orienting elders to their new home increases their confidence in their ability to find their way in unfamiliar surroundings."

CELEBRATING FIFTY YEARS--Rev. and Mrs. Harvey Hudnall of Farwell will be honored with a 50th wedding anniversary reception on Sunday, July 3 in their home, 910 Third Street in Farwell, hosted by their children. The couple will receive their family and friends from 2-4 p.m. (CDT). Rev. Hudnall and the former Lois Faye Heath were married Sunday morning, July 3, 1938, in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Heath of the Lazbuddie Community. (Guest Photo)

The grooms table was adorned with a fresh cut pink carnation centerpiece in a SPS hard hat, serving as a vase. Chocolate cake with cherries on the top in cherry sauce was served by Karen Allen and Sabrina Kitchell.

Following a wedding trip to Hawaii, the couple will make their home at Earth.

The bride is a graduate of Muleshoe High School and attended Wayland Baptist University at Plainview and is a member of Omega Phi Alpha National Service Sorority.

Low is a graduate of Plainview High School, Wayland Baptist University and Texas Tech. He is a member of Lau Alpha Phi National Honor Society.

The groom's parents hosted a rehearsal dinner on Friday, May 13 at 6 p.m.

Miss Lane, Standard United In Marriage

Miss Holly Michelle Lane and Cecil Jade Standard were united in marriage Saturday, June 18 at 6 p.m. in the Three Way Baptist Church. The double ring ceremony was read by the Rev. Jerry Haley of Lubbock.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lane of Stegall and Marsha Standard of Hope, N.M.

Shanna Blackstone, soloist, and Kristi Rowland, pianist, both of Morton provided the special music, "Flesh of My Flesh", and "To Me".

The sanctuary was decorated with English ivy entwined on the choir rail with peach bows. This was flanked on each side with rails of English ivy, peach bows, two large pots of greenery and large white wicker baskets of peach fuchsia on brass stands. Pew markers were peach bows entwined with sprays of greenery.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose a tea length dress of laundered cotton. The shirt-waist bodice featured a button front overlaid by spanish embroidery, tucks and pleated ruffles. The long tapered dolman sleeves were pleated at the shoulders and pleats adorned the back yoke. The skirt was an easy fitted smocked hip yoke over a fully pleated skirt. She wore a leaves, accented with pearl bead loops in her hair. The bride carried a bouquet of peach silk flowers, tiny white flowers and pearl beads, accented with peach and grey streamers.

For the traditional something old and borrowed, the bride wore a gold necklace and diamond earrings belonging to her mother. Something new was her wedding dress. She wore a blue garter and in her shoes she wore pennies minted in the years of the bride and groom's births.

Mrs. Roger Hatcher, sister of the bride, of Clovis, N.M. served as matron of honor. She wore a mid-calf length dress of peach polyester cotton with a V-neckline framed with a square collar. The button front featured a draped basque waist cinched in back with a tiny buttoned belt and three quarter length sleeves. She wore a spray of silk peach flowers with pearl trim in her hair. She carried a small bouquet similar to that of the bride.

Clifford Standard, brother of the groom, of Paso Robles, Calif. served as best man.

The bride's sister, Janna Bennett, of Muleshoe registered the guests.

Ushers were the bride's brother-in-law, Roger Hatcher of Clovis, N.M. and nephew, Jonathan Bennett of Stegall.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the fellowship room of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white nylon floor length cloth. A floor length skirt of white Chantilly lace, sprays of greenery, peach roses with peach and grey streamers highlighted the ends and front of the cloth. Centered on the table was an arrangement of peach roses and greenery adorned with a love bird, engagement ring and wedding band. The three tiered white wedding cake was bordered by white icing and peach flowers, topped with the bride's parents' bride and groom nestled in white toil and white silk roses with seeded pearls. The peach jello punch, mints and nuts were served from silver and crystal appointments.

The groom's table was covered with a floor length grey cloth, accented at front with a spray of greenery, apricot blossoms, tiny peach and grey bows inside of large sugar bells with peach and grey streamers. A chocolate cake, topped with sugar bells and bordered with tiny peach flowers accented the table. Coffee was served from an antique silver coffee server.

Serving at the bride's table were Charlotte Holt and Sheila Black. Kelle Vanlandingham and Marla Smith, sisters of the groom, served at the groom's table.

Members of the house party included: Mrs. Conrad Williams, Mrs. Charles Latimer, Mrs. Cecil Holt, Mrs. Kim Black, Mrs. Harvey Blackstone, Mrs. Bud Huff, Mrs. Reuel Kirby and Mrs. H.A. Douglas.

Wedding guests were registered from New Mexico, California, Lubbock, Littlefield, Sudan, Muleshoe, and Morton.

TOPS CLUB

Muleshoe TOPS Club chapter No. 34 met at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the Heritage Thrift Shop. Laverne James, leader, called the meeting to order with the TOPS pledge and fellowship song and a prayer.

Orvdie Burris called the roll with 11 members answering with the amount they had lost or gained.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Thresia Davis, and they were approved as read.

Laverne James and Aurora Mata tied for best loser for the week and runners-up were Wendy Sain, first; and Thresia Davis and Jewell Peeler, tying for second.

The meeting was closed with the goodnight song.

NOTES ... COMMENTS

Bragging is often synonymous with lying.

Some people stay angry over small things.

Big words do not always mean big thoughts.

Praise gets cooperation quicker than fault finding.

It's still strange how serious public speakers are.

Following a wedding trip to Cloudcroft and other points in New Mexico, the couple will make their home in Muleshoe.

The bride is a graduate of Three Way High School and South Plains College. She is employed at Chubby's Beauty Shop. Standard is a graduate of Artesia High School and is employed at Lamb Star Inc.

A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's mother and the bride's parents at 7:30 p.m. June 17 in the fellowship hall of the Three Way Baptist Church.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY RESIDENTS--Thursday afternoon residents of the Muleshoe Nursing Home who celebrated birthdays during the month of June were honored with a birthday party hosted by the Needmore Community Club. Decorators Floral provided the flowers and the community club and Mr. and Mrs. J.C. Shanks provided the music. (From Left) Ona Coffey, born June 3, 1908; and Marlene Harper, born June 19, 1932. Cont. From Page 1

A devout fisherman, Cari Ann is also known by her grandfather, as 'Catfish' Cari. She does a lot of fishing at Ute Lake and Conchas Lake in New Mexico.

One of her favorite things is eating at what she terms 'fancy' restaurants.

Cari Ann 'at home' is just as busy as Cari Ann at work, or at school.

She can cook on a regular stove, and does an excellent job cleaning the kitchen.

Among her 'At home' duties include, making the tea, cleaning her room and bath, and changing the sheets on her water bed.

She runs the vacuum, and folds clothes.

But -- she is very adamant about one thing, "I don't pull weeds," she said, preferring the routine house cleaning to working in the yard outside, and being given the option, happily dusts, sweeps, runs the vacuum, and other indoor chores.

She enjoys shopping, and being very color conscious, chooses her own clothes.

Cari Ann plays the piano and organ, and says she enjoys reading, mostly the Bible. For relaxation, she does latch hook work. Making rugs, wall hangings and pillows for 'favorite' people in her life.

Other activities she enjoys are bowling, skating and gymnastic ballet. She considered Brownie Scouts "a good experience" and enjoys church camp.

She attended camps while residing in New Mexico and has slept in a sleeping bag in shelters. A big "turn-off" at camp are snakes and cold showers.

In fact, during the past week, Cari Ann and her mother have been to church camp at Mountaintain, N.M.

One very special love of Cari Ann's life is her participation in Special Olympics each year. She has won numerous medals for her participation, and since graduating from high school, she still participates in the 'open' class, and also helps the other participants, letting them draw on her experiences.

It may have taken 20 years for Cari Ann Kidd to graduate from school, but don't ever kid yourself, what she has learned, she has learned well, and permanently. Learning some things may have been a struggle, but you hear no complaints from Cari Ann Kidd, nor her parents.

Cari Ann Kidd may best be summed up as follows, in a poem written by John Foster of Clarendon, for his sister, Angela Marie Foster:

HEAVEN'S VERY SPECIAL CHILD

A meeting was held quite far from earth

"It's time again for another birth"

Said the Angels to the Lord above "This child is special and will need much love" her progress may seem very slow accomplishments she may never show and she'll require extra care from the folks she meets down there.

She may not run or laugh or play her thoughts may seem quite far away in many ways she won't accept and she'll be known as handicapped.

So let's be careful where she's sent.

We want her life to be content Please, Lord, find the parents who will do this special job for you.

They will not realize right away

Sgt. Charlie Simmons of Plainview stated that in Bailey County, troopers investigated no fatal accidents, one personal injury accident and two property damage accident during the month of April.

Sgt. Simmons also stated that the troopers investigated no fatal accidents in May in Bailey County, one personal injury accident and four property damage accidents.

defined as "Wilfully or negligently causing, suffering, or permitting underground water produced for irrigation agricultural purposes to escape into any river, creek, or other natural watercourse, depression, or lake, reservoir, drain, or into any sewer, street, highway, road, road ditch, or upon the land of any person other than the owner of such well, or upon public land."

Since 1951, the High Plains Water District has worked with area producers to halt irrigation tailwater waste through improved farm water management techniques.

"For a number of years, the District has recommended construction of tailwater pits to contain the overflow. These pits contain the runoff water for re-use, and the cost of pumping water from tailwater pits is less than pumping ground water," Carver said.

Other management tools available to farmers are the installation and use of center pivot sprinkler systems and surge irrigation systems. Carver notes that these systems apply water more efficiently and help reduce the amount of water needed for irrigation.

Injunctions from the District Courts are sought if an irrigator refuses to eliminate the tailwater losses.

Sowder, have each been awarded the national I Dare You Leadership Award in recognition of personal integrity, balanced living, and motivation for leadership.

The I Dare You Leadership Award is made available each year by the American Youth Foundation in cooperation with high schools across the country. The award was first offered in 1941, by William H. Danforth, founder of the Ralston Purina Company in St. Louis, who dared young people to achieve their highest potential and to influence others through lives of service. The award takes its name from the book, I Dare You, written by Danforth, in which he commends the balanced life of mental, physical, social and spiritual development as the backbone of leadership.

Both of the young men were recognized for their leadership, academic ability, and athletic accomplishments.

We wish Max and Marilyn the best in Waco and we will sure miss them.

Bill Coleman from Littlefield gave the program. Bill is the Senior Probational Officer for Lamb County and is also a song writer and vocalist along with his wife. Bill is also the song leader with the Baptist Church at Littlefield. Bill sang quite a few songs he has written and brought a very good program. Everybody enjoyed it.

Summer Fun Depends Upon Keeping Safe

Vacation time means fun time. With the warm weather and the green foliage in abundance, the citizens of the State of Texas will be enjoying their vacations at the many different areas that this great state has to offer. With the additional people on our streets and highways, there are additional precautions that need to be taken also.

Before leaving on long trips, we need to take a little time to check over our vehicles. Vacations are no time for a breakdown. So, checking simple items such as tires, cooling system, battery, belts, and hoses can prevent unwanted and unnecessary breakdowns. But, nothing can spoil a vacation anymore than having an accident. Major Vernon Cawthon, Regional Commander of the Texas Department of Public Safety stated, "The number of vehicles on Texas highways is increasing each year and unfortunately, traffic accidents are increasing also."

The best defense against accidents is to always be a defensive driver, obey the speed limits, and wear your safety belts. Major Cawthon stated, "We, as members of the Texas Department of Public Safety want each and everyone of you to enjoy your vacations. Therefore, we urge you to always stay alert, always being mindful of the other driver, take frequent rest stops on long trips, and obey all traffic rules and regulations."

The Troopers of the Texas Department of Public Safety want the summer of '88 to be the safest yet for the Texas motorist. Please drive friendly and have a good vacation!!

Have a nice day

Girlstown Plans Open House, Alumnae Reunion

Girlstown, U.S.A., an affiliate of Cal Farley's Boys Ranch will host an Alumnae Reunion and open house on Saturday, July 16 at the Whiteface Campus. Alumnae registration will begin at 10 a.m. in the Visitors Center.

Open house will begin at 1:30 p.m. at the Carver Center and the public is invited to attend. The girls will conduct campus tours throughout the afternoon.

Girlstown became affiliated with Boys Ranch in April 1987, and since that time four of the five girls' homes have been remodeled. Work has also been done on the dining hall and in landscaping.

The Whiteface Campus houses more than 50 girls, ages 5-18, with a licensed capacity of 75 girls. King, Edelman and Beta Sigma Phi cottages were remodeled during the first year of Boys Ranch affiliation. Harrington will be completed in July and remodeling will begin on the one remaining cottage in late summer, according to Turner.

"The alumnae and the many friends of who have not visited the campus recently, will be pleasantly surprised with the fresh appearance and the work of the girls and staff," said Roy Turner, president of the Board of Directors.

Women who have lived at Girlstown since its founding in 1949, are planning to form the Girlstown Alumnae Association for their continued fellowship and to work for the benefit of the girls who are now living at Girlstown. Alumnae from as far away as New Jersey and California are expected to attend.

"These women provide positive examples for our girls and we want to share our plans and future goals, not only with the alumnae, but with all of our supporters," Turner added.

Reverend Wendell Horn and Mrs. Horn attended the Northwest Texas Conference of the United Methodist Church held in Abilene during the week of June 6. Rev. Horn was again assigned to the local church for another year. Richard Black welcomed him and the family back for continued service.

Following the Sunday evening service a time of fellowship was held honoring Rev. and Mrs. Horn and their children. Mr. Black again welcomed them and presented them with a money tree. Refreshments of cake and homemade ice cream were served. The local church activities committee was in charge of arrangements.

On Wednesday, a total of 124 persons were enrolled in the Vacation Bible School held at the First Baptist Church this week. Dana Martin is the director. She stated that the theme for the week was "Living For Jesus". Many of the enrollees ride the church to and from the school and "like the cookies the best."

On Sunday, June 26, The Singing Farmers from Hart, Texas will be in charge of the 11:00 a.m. services in the absence of the interim pastor. Everyone is invited to hear this group who are farmers by occupation.

Girls are admitted on the basis of need and without charge. Residency is based on a long-term goal of graduation from high school. Most girls attend Whiteface public schools, with three girls graduating this year and two of them plan to attend college assisted by the Ranch's Scholarship and Loan Fund.

"Further programs are planned as staff and facilities allow," Turner continued. "A 4-H chapter is now available. The girls share activities at the Ranch where pleasant reunions are enjoyed by seven sets of brothers and sisters. Summer activities at the Ranch have included a Track Meet and Swim Meet, and the girls are looking forward to participating in the Boys Ranch Rodeo."

For additional information concerning the Reunion and Open House, you are asked to call the Amarillo office at (806) 372-2341 or contact the Whiteface office at 229-4361.

So Proudly We Hail!

There was a time in this country when the things we made, we made by hand. Skilled craftsmen who cared about the work they did took the time to do the job right. And every object they made was stamped with pride.

That spirit of endeavor is not lost today. You'll find it in Americans from coast to coast — men and women who still care enough to do their best. From artist to accountant, farmer to factory worker, Americans can be proud of the work they're doing. Just as they can be proud of the country that work has built.

We're proud of America — proud of the old-fashioned values this country stands for — and still has.

America, you're the greatest!

FISHERMAN'S DREAMS

An enthusiastic fisherman, like this young fellow, has to be an optimist. His love of the sport is not so much in the size of the fish caught as "in the ketchin'." He loves the thrill of watching the bobble of the cork; the excitement of the sudden tug on his line. Often it isn't even necessary to have a fish. His dreams are sufficient to keep him standing at this old tub for hours.

How many of us are like this fisherman...willing to go through life living on dreams, subsisting on wishes, hoping against hope that in the end everything will turn out alright. There is no middle ground with God. Fisherman's dreams are useless in man's longing for Eternal Life. The church offers such a way to us all. Go to church; take your family or a friend.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

DPS Predicts Holiday Death Toll: High

The Texas Department of Public Safety has estimated that 36 persons will die as the result of traffic mishaps in the state during the 78-hour Fourth of July weekend.

"There is a greater potential for accidents during the summer months because of the increases in the number of vehicles and miles driven on Texas roadways," DPS Director Leo Gossett said. "We appreciate the recognition of this potential by the careful Texas drivers who observe the laws. Our troopers and local officers hopefully will be getting the attention of careless motorists through enforcement of these statutes."

The DPS counting program for traffic fatalities begins at 6 p.m. on Friday, July 1 and ends at midnight on Monday, July 4th.

During the 1987 July 4th period, also 78 hours in length, 37 traffic deaths occurred. Three additional fatalities were reported later from critical injuries suffered during the holiday program. A total of 58 percent of the fatalities occurred in accidents where speed or driving while intoxicated was listed as a contributing factor.

"Our agency is cooperating with the Texas Coalition for Safety Belts program, supporting the goal of a 'deathless day' during the 101 Driving Days of Summer," Colonel Gossett pointed out. "The last deathless day on Texas roadways occurred on January 5, 1977."

Along with the usual duties, the DPS will be working in Operation CARE (Combined Accident Reduction Effort) with the Louisiana State Police, Arkansas State Police, Oklahoma Highway Patrol and the New Mexico State Police to reduce drunk driving and speeding along interstate highways during the July 4th period.

"Available troopers in Texas and these four states will be increasing their cooperation to reduce fatal accidents as part of the Operation CARE program," according to DPS Lt. Charles Dorbandt of DPS Austin Headquarters, who also serves as the CARE regional president with Texas and the four neighboring states.

"The CARE program is designed to increase the smoothness and safety of the traffic flows on the interstate highways in the U. S.," Lt. Dorbandt said.

"We'll be working with the state troopers in the four contiguous states to minimize dangerous driving practices on these roadways through enforcement. However, we will also provide assistance to the motoring public."
