Postal Rates Will Increase March 26 On Many Classes

Local Route, Air Mail, Parcel Post, Included In Hiked Items

An increase in postal rates affecting local route mail, air mail, money orders, registered mail, parcel post and other classes, becomes effective March 26, because of the recent act of Congress, according to Postmaster Jim Vallance.

First class postage for letters mailed for local delivery (that is, local rural routes) will go up from two cents to three cents. Air mail postage will increase from six cents to eight cents per ounce in the continental United States. Air mail addressed to or mailed from men in the armed services will remain at six cents.

First class postage on out-of-city mail remains three cents, and on post cards one cent.

Survivors are: Son, Homer White, Memphis; daughter, Mrs. M. L. Bonniset, Memphis.

Mrs. Ford was born May 19, 1867. Funeral services for Mrs. Ford are to be held at the First Baptist church of Memphis this Thursday afternoon at 4:30, conducted by Rev. F. M. Griffin. Burial will be in charge of Womack Funeral Home.

LION OFFICIALS VISIT MEMPHIS

Two Lion officials paid the local Lions club an official visit Wednesday night. The State Secretary of Lions, Roy Keeton of Austin, and the Lions District Governor, Jack Griffin of Panhandle, were the officials. Some sixty Lions from over the district including Childress, Clarendon, Hedley and Memphis were present at the evening luncheon in the basement of the Methodist church.

Secretary Keeton was the main speaker, and his subject was "Lionism." Those who heard him declare him to be one of the best after-dinner speakers they have heard in a long time. President Herbert Estes is well pleased with the whole affair, he stated this morning.

JAP BLANKET AND CANTEEN ON DISPLAY AT DEMOCRAT

A Jap wool blanket and a Jap canteen are on display this week at the Democrat office. They were sent to Mrs. W. J. Franks by her grandson, Sgt. W. J. Roberts, son of Mrs. Myrtle Mayes, from the Pacific theatre of war.

Sgt. Roberts, a Memphis lad, has been in Hawaii for the past two years, and is in the medical infantry. Last November, he was with the task force that raided Makin Island, and this is where he secured the canteen. He sent a picture showing some dead Japs and stated that the canteen was taken from one of those shown in the picture.

The public is invited to view the blanket and canteen this week-end.

It takes but a wink of the eye to get a man into a lifetime of trouble.

Dedication of Baptist Church Property To Be March 19

Everything is in readiness for the dedication program at the First Baptist Church of Memphis Sunday, March 19, it has been announced.

Church property valued at $90,000 has been cleared of debt, and burning of the note will climax the affair in getting ready for the dedication.

Three services will be held during the day, and the entire community is invited to attend and help to make it a glad time.

As announced last week, Rev. E. T. Miller, former pastor of the church, now pastor of a Wichita Falls church, will preach at both the morning and evening hour. Rev. Bradley Allison of Childress will preach at 2:30 on the subject, "The Challenge of the Past."

Several former pastors and members who are now living at other places are expected to attend.

Outline of program: The goal for the Sunday School at 9:45 is 500.

Fathers Honored At Legion Meeting

Reports from fathers of some of Hall County's heroes serving in combat zones, a short address by Rev. Jeff Moore, and an interesting talk by Junior Engineer Shearer of the Merchant Marine, highlighted a meeting at the American Legion hall Thursday night. The meeting was given in honor of the fathers of servicemen.

Coy Don Taylor and Louise Gardner, high school students gave a short questions and answers skit on the Constitution. Servicemen from all parts of the States and practically all combat zones of land and sea were reported on by their dads.

Merchant Marine Shearer, only serviceman present, who in over four years service has touched most Atlantic ports in the combat zones, gave an interesting account of what the merchant marine has gone through during this conflict. One experience he told of was an air raid he experienced in London last January, and the "clouds of airplanes" he saw leave England to bomb Germany.

The meeting proved so interesting to Legionnaires and visitors, that another such affair is being planned for the near future, according to W. C. Davis, post commander.

GOODPASTURE SPEAKS AT ROTARY LUNCHEON TUES.

Judge M. O. Goodpasture was guest speaker at Rotary luncheon Tuesday. His subject was "Sixty." He says a person who is sixty is not old, if he hasn't quit using his mind and body in some worthwhile effort.

"A person at sixteen, who quits using his brain, and just sits down to a do-nothing attitude is much older than one at eighty who is still active in mind and body," the speaker said.

CORRECTION—In the writer's last week of Frank Ballard's survivors, the name of one brother was omitted. This brother is Horace Ballard of River side, Calif.

Gas Coupons to Be Worth Two Gallons Instead of Three

A-Card Holders to Start Walking More Beginning March 22

"A" gasoline ration coupons will be worth one-third less effective March 22, due to an order by Chester Bowles, Price Administrator, made Tuesday of this week. This order affects all states west of the Allegheny mountains, cutting the value of A coupons from three to two gallons.

No changes were made in any gasoline rations in the seventeen east coast states, nor were "C" rations affected anywhere.

Bowles said, "The reduction of gasoline consumption by motorists is necessary because the amount allotted by the petroleum administration for civil use in April, May and June is expected to be nine per cent less than in the current quarter. At the same time, farm needs for gasoline will be increasing."

RAIN AND HAIL ADD MOISTURE

Moisture to the amount of one inch fell here Tuesday evening. Part of the moisture was in the form of hail, which fell almost continuously for some thirty minutes.

At times only hail would be falling, and at others rain and hail would both be coming down at the same time. The ground was almost white with hail when the clouds drifted away.

The coldest weather in the past two weeks was Wednesday and Thursday mornings of last week, when the mercury was 28 degrees. This week the freezing mark was not reached.

TRAINING FILMS TO BE SHOWN

Training films will be shown in Memphis Tuesday evening March 21, at 8:15 by a detail from the Childress Army Bombardier school for the benefit of the Memphis State Guard unit.

Guard members urge that all men and boys attend and assist the unit in its effort to keep the organization in good shape.

The pictures will be shown at the high school auditorium. Those who have seen the previous pictures shown by the Childress detail pronounce them well worth going to see.

Seed Loans Being Made to Farmers

Loans to farmers to finance production of 1944 crops are now being made by the Emergency Crop Loan Division of the Farm Credit Administration, according to Clyde E. Milam, field supervisor for the county. Applications are being received at Memphis by Mrs. Sid Baker.

These loans, usually known as "the seed loans," have been made in this county by the government for many years and have proven of great benefit to farmers of limited collateral whose cash requirements are small.

As in the past, borrowers will be required to plant a large garden for home use and a balanced crop program will be encouraged.

Hall County Honor Roll Fund Grows

Donations continue to come in for the honor roll of service men and women. Different places are receiving the donations, and in turn hand them to some of the leaders, who then register the names and amounts, and then turn them to The Democrat for publication.

Due to being short handed at the Democrat office, it has been impossible to publish the lists as fast as they are donated, and then, too, they have not been published in sequence. This is the reason that some of the names are not published the week the donations are made, but sometimes it is two or three, perhaps four weeks, before some of the names are published.

NOW SERVING UNDER THE STARS AND STRIPES FOR THE AMERICAN'S CREED

I believe in the United States of America as a government of the people, by the people, for the people; whose just powers are derived from the consent of the governed; a democracy in a republic; a sovereign nation of many sovereign states; a perfect union, one and inseparable; established upon those principles of freedom, equality, justice and humanity for which American patriots sacrificed their lives and fortunes.

I therefore believe it is my duty to my country to love it; to support its constitution; to obey its laws; to respect its flag, and to defend it against all enemies.

NEWS about boys in the Service

Jo Kathryn Murdock has the following interesting letter from her cousin, Master Wil W. Galloway, February 13, 1944.

I don't know what to say about answering your letter, same about a week ago. I have been sidetracked before it finally got for it was written on the 15th, but the time doesn't for I'm glad to get your time, regardless of how long it may be.

sonal grudge against me. They landed quite some distance away, but still not far enough to suit me. When the Americans first came overseas, they called the Germans "Jerry's"; but finally it was decided the name sounded too good and was too refined, so it was promptly changed to just "Krauts". Thought for a while of writing Aunt Jerry and tell her to have her name changed, but it's all right now.

Heard some good music today. One of the Division bands was out to play for us, and it was really nice. Some of the newer pieces I had never heard. Say, who cooked up the song back there called "Pistol Packing Mama"? Darndest thing ever to be played, and I thought it was downright silly. If all the girls in the States start carrying pistols, then they can just leave me here in Europe with the rats.

There's another gripe I have to make: Seems as though a fellow by the name of Sinatra is trying to chase Bing Crosby from the airways. I heard Sinatra sing the other night—that is partly, the noise of the audience drowned out most of it and I'll still place my good ear to Bing's singing, even though the horses are all plucked.

Tell Uncle Ed, he should have some of this Italian rain on that dry piece of ground, for it's the wettest water I have ever encountered, and can get the ground muddier two to one than the rain you have back there.

Well, Jo, I'll have to close for lack of further information to impart. I wish you all the best if health and good luck.

Love from your cousin, CECIL.

Floyd "Bigun" Melton of San Diego wrote the following letter to J. C. Wells.

Sunday, March 5 Dear Mr. Wells: Thought I would drop a line to let you know how we Hall County boys are making out.

Today Bobby Jack McMurry and I decided to see just how many of the fellows from home and around there, we could see. We went to the Destroyer base to see Wiley Crump, but couldn't find him, guess he had liberty. Next we saw Lt. and Mrs. J. O. Fitzjarrald. He is at the Destroyer base. Had a long talk with them and were invited out some night for supper. This afternoon we went out to the Naval Training station and first saw Dan Clinton, next Jerry Doss, Gene Robertson, George Sargent, Billy Hood, W. B. McQueen, Bill Davis, Oris McAbee, and a number of Hall County boys. In all there were about 15 of us there at the training station. Sure seemed like old times. We are planning to get together another time before we are separated.

Tuesday evening I saw Jack Patrick at the Base where I'm stationed. The next day he was transferred to Oceanside, Calif. All in all, we had a good time. I've been sent to an amphibious training command landing school. Don't know where I'll go from here but can nearly guess where. I'm supposed to be here for six weeks and then advanced training for landing craft.

Guess I've told you about all I know for now. Will close, so will say so long for now. A Memphian, Floyd "Big-un" Melton.

Jerry Doss arrived last week at University of Kansas, Lawrence, Kan., to attend an electrical school. He is in the U. S. Navy and has recently completed his boot training at San Diego, Calif. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Doss.

Pvt. Eldo Bragg came last week for a visit at Estelline with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Bragg. He recently returned from the Aleutian Islands where he spent eight months and is now stationed at Camp Carson, Colo.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Martin received the following letter from their son, Pvt. Jack L. Martin, who is somewhere in Africa.

Somewhere in North Africa Feb. 8, 1944

Dear Folks: Here I am answering your letter which was written January 25, and glad to know that all were well and hope you stay well.

I am alright, feeling good, and now weigh 148 pounds, which isn't bad. The country over here agrees with my health but I sure don't like this place. It isn't so bad, but I just don't like it because it isn't part of the good old U. S. A.

The country here is somewhat like Arizona or Mexico. They grow oranges, lemons, grapes, tomatoes and a few other things I can't name at the moment. If American people were on the farms here raising the wheat and feed, this would be a swell place.

It isn't far from here to the Great Desert, and there are a lot of mountains around here. It snowed here just about a week before we moved to this spot, but it was melted by the time we got here. It has been pretty cold, but is getting warmer every day now.

I visited an old Roman city here a few months back, not far from Setif North Africa. It sure was a good sight to see. It was built of rock, most of it had fallen, but you could see what it had been.

Something more about this country: They are about 100 years behind us. They still believe in hanging and putting the condemned man before a firing squad like they used to do in the United States years ago.

There is a funny belief among the Arabic tribes—some of them are so religious they won't take a drink of water until after they pull off their shoes and kiss the ground, and pray to their Mohammed, which is their name for Christ. They believe that Christ will be born again, but this time he will be born a man. Therefore they wear pants with the seat so big one could put a wash tub in the seat of the trousers.

Another thing about the Arabic people: They believe it is an honor to steal off the American soldiers, and believe me, they steal plenty. Some of them have plenty of money and some are very poor, but there is no kind of clothes for them to buy over here. The Germans took their goods, and their factory machinery when they knew the Americans were going to invade the place. They also treated the women and young girls awful.

When one sees what the Germans did, no matter to what tribe of people or how dirty they are, your blood boils. They also did the Russian women and girls the same way, and hung the men to telegraph poles and shot them. Sometimes I wish I were in a combat unit where I could help the boys pay them back for their misdeeds and the shame they have brought on the people. They have no place on this earth, but should be in Hell where the fire and torture could remind them of their misdeeds on earth. May God bring comfort to the people everywhere the rats and yellow dogs we are fighting have made them suffer.

Most of the villages here are torn up and blown to bits. I wish I had the power and the strength to wipe the Japs and Germans from the face of the earth. I would do it at the bat of an eye.

I get mad as the devil thinking about them.

Tell Mother Scott hello. I wish I were there to aggravate her. Tell all the others hello for me, and maybe before many more months we can have an old-time reunion, and all the boys can be there.

Your loving son, JACK.

COURTESY, like many other things, often becomes needlessly a victim of war. There is no excuse for a lack of courtesy! The raw materials are simple and plentiful... the manpower required is negligible... courtesy is just a by-product of service

Yes, we know that "there's a war going on"... we know what it is to be short handed... we miss the 224 experienced employees who are now in the armed services; but it's a tradition with the employees of your electric service company to give friendly, courteous service.

Lack of material often forces the use of substitutes. Frequently it is necessary to rework old material and supplies. Sometimes, due to shortages or government regulations, service must be delayed. But the employee team, backed by a business policy that encourages individual thinking and recognizes individual effort, is proud of the fact that courtesy, like electricity, is not rationed.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harwell have had two letters from their son, Lt. Sidney Harwell, who has been in Africa, Italy and now is in England:

Letter No. 2

February 21, 1944.

I suppose you have been wondering why you haven't heard from me. But, as you know, no news is good news. Arrived here in England a few days ago—and is it cold? Had a wonderful trip coming over, saw quite a lot of beautiful country, and had some novel and interesting experiences.

We are living in Nissen-type huts. They are fairly warm, although we had to swipe a large stove to make it that way. Have none of the modern conveniences that we had in the States. Coal is hard to get; we get rationed coke which won't burn, by the way. The shower bath is about a mile from here, and we never have hot water. All in all, the sanitation level is far below what we have in the States, but I suppose I shouldn't be griping—it could be a lot worse; at least I am not in the mud of Italy. Now don't get me wrong; we have rain here too, in fact, I haven't seen the sun in three days, and the ceiling is always close to the ground.

Speaking of Italy, I saw quite a few "Eytie" prisoners in Africa. The French kept their prisoners behind barbed wire all the time with guards. The American prisoners ran around the base at will. They were working in the kitchens, garages, etc. In fact, they could go to town, and none of them ever escape.

The countryside over here is very beautiful. None of the plots of land are large, and all of them have a hedge or rock fence around the border. Of course, I haven't been into town yet, but I saw it from the air coming in. But, I'll take the good old USA any time. I'm not ready to come back yet—the thoughts of some of the entanglements I had with feather merchants still irk me. I get fairly good food here—notice, I said "fairly", by that I mean, it keeps one alive. I'd give ten dollars right now for a large hamburger and a thick chocolate milk shake. What am I saying anyway? I've gained 8 pounds since I left the States.

This money system still has me going. I don't think I'll ever learn to distinguish the difference between one pence, three pence, six pence, schilling, half crown, crown, and pound with that of pennies, nickels, dimes, etc. I suppose that is the reason they restrict us to the post a few days after our arrival. I think these English try to short-change quite a bit. And so they charge outrageous prices for articles, because the American soldier has quite a bit of money.

Love,
SIDNEY.

Aviation Cadet Evan Roberts arrived Thursday of last week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Roberts. He is studying meteorology at Cal. He is in the Army Air Force.

Simultaneously, Lt. Hightower received commission as first lieutenant under Army specialized training and will go immediately into service. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Hightower of Memphis.

Steady, Men!

The Merchant Tailors and Designers Association of America poses these post-war problems, termed the first radical departures in men's styles in a century. At top, association vice president Ralph Carver of Los Angeles models an "action-back" coat featuring a panel to give free arm movement, while Al Tholanger of Chicago shows how it works. Below is, you might say, the "two-way stretch" vest, a zipper at the seam obviates the old buttoning operation, and another zipper allows three inches of adjustment on each side of the hand—for expansion, say.

PEOPLE ARE WAKING UP TO THE REAL SERIOUSNESS AND TRAGEDY OF WAR

For a long time it looked like the people of Hall County would never wake up to their duties and responsibilities in carrying on World War II.

When called upon to do any kind of war work, such as War Fund drives, Red Cross, War Relief, Salvage or any such work so necessary to prosecuting a global war, some would put in hard work, time and energy, while many would do their tasks in a half-hearted way, and many would refuse to work at all. Most all would dig up money if no extra effort was required.

As the war brings tragedy closer home, the people are waking up and are willing to do anything they can to help get it over with as quickly as possible.

At first, when the young single fellows marched off to training camps, people looked on with curiosity. Later, when the fathers began to go to training camps, people looked on with tears, especially when little children would hold out their chubby little hands and say, "Daddy, come back."

The war has or will come home to all of us. From now on we will all give more than lip service to our Nation, to our boys, accepting responsibilities, jobs that will leave us footsore and weary at the close of the day, jobs that our country asks us to do.

And our best is too little when compared to what the boys on the front line are doing. Read the letters from the boys over there that are being published each week. This week, one boy says he would "give $10.00 for a big hamburger and chocolate milk shake." Another wishes he had it in his power to "wipe the Japs and Germans from the face of the earth." All of them had rather live in the good old United States than any place they have seen over there.

The boys at the front are not saying much, but reading between the lines of their letters, we can all visualize that they are experiencing the real thing, not because they want to, but because it is their patriotic duty in order that those at home may be safe and secure.

Let's all resolve to do our best today, and every day for God and Country.

... no cause ever suffers that has inherent qualities to inspire people.

"Such a cause is the Red Cross. Millions are devoted to it passionately, while the rank and file of Americans accept it and support it because it is the symbol of the merciful things in war and peace. . . . The overall record of the American Red Cross is unquestionably magnificent."—Editorial in Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan.

Mill Iron Ranch Buys Prize Bulls At National Show

Still building on his great herd of registered Hereford cattle, Lafayette M. Hughes recently paid $32,500 for reserve grand champions and the first prize junior bulls shown at the famous National Western Stock show in Denver. These bulls will be delivered to the Mill Iron Ranch early in April.

This consistent type-breeding program has already brought credit to Mill Iron. Following the trail set by Colorado Domino 697, whose offsprings have already brought fame to Mill Iron breeding, there have gone hundreds of daughters of "Colorado Type" bloodlines established by Dominator, Dandy Domino 2 Mischeif Mixer 28, and developed by their great descendants. On the Cottonwood, and other units of the Mill Iron located in Collingsworth, Hall and Cottle Counties, they have acclimated themselves, carried their blocky usable cattlemen's type of cattle into their adopted country.

Twelve out of the 15 Reserve Grand Champions and first prize junior bulls at the 1944 Denver show were sired by Colorado Domino E 10, but the significant fact that cattlemen are noting is that several of the herd bulls now in service on the Mill Iron were sired by this same outstanding bull.

Many cattlemen believe that Mr. Hughes' decision to sell these quality bulls at prices that would appeal to commercial cattlemen is one that will eventually make the southeastern section of the Panhandle one that is known for its superior beef cattle and one that will have a constant market from mid-western feeders.

When Your Back Hurts -

And Your Strength and Energy Is Below Par

It may be caused by disorder of kidney function that permits poisonous waste to accumulate. For truly many people feel tired, weak and miserable when the kidneys fail to remove excess acids and other waste matter from the blood.

You may suffer nagging backache, rheumatic pains, headaches, dizziness, getting up nights, leg pains, swelling. Sometimes frequent and scanty urination with smarting and burning is another sign that something is wrong with the kidneys or bladder.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. It is better to rely on a medicine that has won countrywide approval than on something less favorably known. Doan's have been tried and tested many years. Are at all drug stores. Get Doan's today.

Listen GULF SOUTH!

First, let me introduce myself. I am "Miss American Red Cross." I am speaking to you frankly, sincerely, as a representative of every Red Cross worker at home and throughout the combat zones.

Red Cross has a big job, a tremendous job. And it needs your help. Red Cross' job is to help fight this war by making easier the hardships of the millions who have taken up arms to defend our freedom.

What does Red Cross do?

It helps save lives. By providing blood plasma and serum albumin. By making bandages and surgical dressings. By delivery of food, clothing, medical supplies to prisoners of war.

It helps maintain and build morale. By advice and assistance to disabled servicemen. By providing recreation facilities and comforts. By financial assistance to men in uniform and their families.

It helps with health, education and safety programs. By recruiting nurses, by training in first aid and accident prevention, home nursing and nutrition. By Volunteer Special Services such as nurse's aides, canteen corps and motor corps.

Yes, Red Cross does these things and many more. Our big job is growing even bigger. Until Victory is won demands for Red Cross aid will be unlimited. Your generous contribution will help us do the job that must be done.

Thousands of Red Cross workers are giving unselfishly of their time, money and energies. They are doing a big job, and they need our help. Let's all give generously to the Red Cross War Fund.

No true American objects to paying increased taxes to help our country win the war. Ten per cent—20 per cent—whatever it takes, we are glad to do our part.

United Gas Service affords an interesting comparison with your taxes. While the income tax rate has increased from four per cent for the average man to today's high level, natural gas comes to you at lower cost than before the war, and at the same high standard of quality. It helps you to hold down your cost of living.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics in Washington reports that living costs as of November 15, 1943, are up more than 24 per cent as compared with the average of the period 1935-39. The cost of United Gas Service over the same period has been substantially reduced.

are supposed to get eighty more girls soon. Maybe I can be home Easter. Your baby girl may not have any more stripes when she comes home but will have two medals. Got one yesterday, a good conduct medal. At least some here think I'm good."

Virginia is homesick. What girl wouldn't be? But she's staying on the job. Although she could have had an honorable discharge when the WAAC was made a part of the regular army and became the WAC, she chose to stay in and help her brothers who are on the firing line win the war. And Virginia is appreciated too.

From the Wingspread, official publication of Peterson Field, we quote: Nominated as "Heroine of the Week," is affable, capable "Ginnie" Lemmons, Mess Sergeant of the WAC unit (373d A. B. Sq) To the sympathetic ears of Sgt. Lemmons, who hails from friendly Texas, came word that Peterson Field skiers at Glen Cove were underfed, undernourished. "People have more fun than anybody," Sgt. Lemmons insisted, "particularly if they come from Peterson Field." Quickly she organized a rescue party.

To the crew she cried, "Girls of the Women's Army Corps, the time has come! We gotta produce." To the Peterson Field Ski club she roared, "Give us the trucks and we will deliver the goods." Sgt. Lemmons gets just so much food for so many girls and there is no way of knowing just what she will serve to the WAC next Sunday and the menu is being kept secret. But come, meal, come now, here's to Lemmons, the sweetest Mess Sergeant of them all.

To Mrs. B. Webster came recently a letter from Miss Marie V. Del Commune, administrative assistant, chapter service, which reads in part: Although it may seem a little late I want to congratulate you and your volunteers on the excellent group of articles which you made for your hospital program. I do hope that you are continuing your fine work with hospital production program as all the items on the list are needed and the demand for them increases daily.

YOU BETCHA—I'M FEEDIN' THE MERIT WAY!

Follow these Simple Rules

- 1 Start with good chicks
- 2 Give them good care
- 3 Feed them CARO-FLO

Give them good care. Even the best of chicks need good care. Have everything ready before your chicks arrive. Do not overcrowd. Keep their quarters sanitary. Watch the temperature. Look out for drafts. Use good litter. Have a dependable brooder stove.

Feed them CARO-FLO. This is the best of all chick feeds. It contains all the vitamins, minerals, and proteins necessary for life and growth. It's the CARO-FLO.

Mrs. Ella Warford of Forest Hill, La., recently received a letter from an Australian woman regarding Mrs. Warford's son, Doyle Curtis. The letter was sent here to Mrs. Parks Mitcham who asks that it be published in order that home people may be informed as to the treatment the American boy receives in foreign countries:

Australia, Dec. 12, 1943.
Dear Mrs. Warford:
Doyle Curtis gave me your letter, and I was so happy to hear from you. I am enclosing a photo of Doyle for you. Hope you like it, although it isn't a clear photo, but I have taken several others, and when I have them printed I will send them to you. Doyle was over last week-end, and I have posted a letter to him inviting him over for the next week-end, it being Christmas and I feel sure you would like for him to spend Christmas Day with us here. It will no doubt be a very quiet time for us, but whatever we have, we wish your boy to share it with us. We are very fond of Doyle. He is a very good boy, and we consider him one of the family. We are having our Summer now, and it is very hot. It does seem strange for you to be having your Winter and us our Summer, doesn't it?

I am so very sorry I could not take Doyle's photo standing near the conganvilla flowers. The trees are not in bloom now, but I will take some photos of it soon as it is in bloom again.
We have just returned from the beach where we spent twelve days. It was very nice, only the mosquitoes were very bad. We went fishing quite a lot; had fish every day we were there, also lots of crabs. The sunshine is really very beautiful here. I feel sure you would love it, and if ever it is possible for you to come over here for a trip I would love to have you as my guests. I am sure Doyle will tell you how welcome you would be.

John, my son, has his Christmas vacation of seven weeks, and how he does keep me going. As fast as he is out of one scrap, he is into another. But he really is a dear lovable boy, and he loves Doyle too. I have him very busy packing parcels for my soldier boys. I have such a lot, I send them parcels and papers all the time. The poor dears, they need every little comfort one can give them. There is nobody more deserving than they.

My cousin is home on leave from the Army. It has been two and a half years since we saw him, and he has become firm friends with Doyle. They have gone out together quite a lot. In fact you will probably see a photo of them together. I thought you would like me. The Aussies and the Yank do make a fine team.

I will write you again very soon dear Mrs. Warford. Mother and the family send their love, and fond love from,
IVY SMITHERS.

Dear Mr. Wells:
I am enclosing list of fellows who will enter the San Diego Naval boot camp. Out of 30 who left in our group, seven were taken into the Marines, five were sent to the Naval station in Idaho, and the 18 in my group to San Diego.

I had a list of one group and the idea came to me that you would like to use the information, since the pub: is interested in these fellows. They have all been gentlemen in every respect since leaving Memphis. I have been in charge, and I assure you all the boys act and feel differently than they did when going to Lubbock the first time for their physical exams.

Here are the names:
NAVY at San Diego—Louis Frank Curry, Raymond Cecil Graham, Robert Curtis Land, Dewey Wyatt Hawkins, Willard Wilson Henson, Clarence Roger Burks, William Tollie Henry, Woodrow Lee Cheves, Toy Henry Sams, Charles Edward Pullen, Cecil Autry Shazmon, Irvan Morris Caldwell, Homer Wylie Tucker, Harvay Harland Wines, Ray

The following letter is from Staff Sgt. Garland Coldiron to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. U. W. Coldiron. Staff Sgt. Coldiron is stationed at Kodiak, Alaska.

Kodiak, Alaska
February 20, 1944

Dear mother and father:
Well, here come my few words to let you know that I am well and getting along fine. Hope both of you are well. I haven't received a letter from you in about ten days. I know that you are writing, but I guess the mail was slowed up some place.

I am sending you three snapshots that we took a few days ago. They are just as we were when we decided to take them. Once in a while we just walk out and start taking pictures. The guy that is with me is our first sergeant. A big, rough, soldier, but one of the best guys I ever met. He was a cattle buyer in New York before he came into the Army. He calls me the cowboy from Texas.

We went for a nice long ride today. You see, we just wanted to see what we could find and were we surprised, for we found a ranch that has cows, "White Face" on it, chickens, and horses. So all at once he stopped the truck and said, "O. K., cowboy, get out and run them a while. I know that is what you want to do."

But I didn't run them. I said that would run the fat off of them. So he decided I might make a good cattle buyer too. No fooling, we sure had a good time. But when it was all over, I was sure homesick. Everything looked so natural. They had feed racks just like the ones around home.

How does the news sound at home? We hear a lot of news here and there is lots of hard fighting going on, according to it. Have you heard much about the rotating law? It has begun to look like that maybe we might get out of here someday, if they do rotate the troops. I hope,
With love,
GARLAND.

A short V-mail letter from Sgt. Tom Wood:
Just a note to let you know I'm well and doing OK. Have been getting The Democrat regularly and really enjoy it. From accounts in The Democrat, the draft seems to be getting most of the able-bodied men in Hall County. I have an idea there must be a serious shortage of manpower there. I can't say that I like England even yet, but it seems a little better than at first. I don't think I could stay here long enough to like it better than the United States. Regards
TOM.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harwell have had two letters from their son, Lt. Sidney Harwell, who has been in Africa, Italy and now is in England:

Letter No. 1
February 4, 1944.

Dearest Hometoiks:
Thought I would write you a hit, although I haven't much news, and too, I'm getting ac- lazy from this hot weather that I can hardly get around.

Have been seeing quite a bit of new country and people. The people down here speak mostly Portuguese, so you can imagine how hard it is for me to make them understand anything.

Since arriving here I have been over some of the worst jungle I ever saw, and one sees these grass huts and natives just like you imagine it would be.

After I left the States, I opened the secret orders one hour out and found out where we were going. It shouldn't take us so many more days to get there now.

I really can't think of much news, and will write you when I arrive at my destination.
Love,
SIDNEY.

The following V-Mail letter is from Cpl. Leonard McMurry to his father, R. B. McMurry. Leonard is stationed in England.

Dear Folks:
Was very glad to get your letter. I'm sorry I haven't answered sooner, but there's nothing very exciting to write about except an air raid now and then. Have just returned from a five-day furlough which I spent in London where I experienced two raids. It's certainly thrilling but one doesn't feel too secure.

I visited many wonderful places there: St. Paul's Cathedral, Westminster and Parliament, Hampton Court Palace, Buckingham Palace, Old Roman Wall, built during the time of Caesar. Also saw the King and Queen.

I have no fear of getting lost anywhere now after being in London in a blackout. I am very busy doing X-ray work. Wish I were there, but have a feeling that it will be some time yet.
Love,
LEONARD.

BUT... OIL-PLATING YOUR ENGINE is like outdoing the future—today

What wouldn't America give to see an Auto Show again?...With startling innovations?...With irresistible gadgets?... Surely with "cut-away" engines—innards exposed—mechanism moving, hushed and hypnotic, while you crowd around to see.

You just ought to see your own engine's innards, though...now! Every explosion in there, as in anyone's engine, must produce acids. They're corrosive; hungry for metals. But advanced research has created the corrosion fighter known as OIL-PLATING. And all the corrosion-resistance of an OIL-PLATED engine is yours as you change to Conoco Nth motor oil for Spring.

The action of the special synthetic in popular-priced Conoco Nth oil rivals "magnetism"...fastens OIL-PLATING to metal as if to stay...doesn't let all the OIL-PLATING promptly drain down to the crankcase...keeps up interference to acid. Even without long steady runs that would help a bit to heat acid away, you needn't worry. Even with restricted overcool operation that tends to make acid a "double trouble," you needn't worry. You'll have all the safety of protective OIL-PLATING all the while you use Conoco Nth. Change today for Spring, at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Continental Oil Company
