Farmers Urged to Store Sorghums

Pointing out that most commercial grain storage space is already filled to capacity and unable to fully accommodate this year's estimated bumper crop of grain sorghums, J. A. Eddleman, chairman of the Hall County Agricultural Conservation committee, today urged farmers to store their threshed sorghums on their own farms and take advantage of the government loans.

Wooden bins are now available to farmers at prices not exceeding $185 for a 1,600 bushel capacity and $285 for a 3,000 capacity. Money saved by storing grain sorghums on the farm at the loan rate would help pay for the bins, Eddleman explained.

The loan rate (farm storage basis) is 95 cents per bushel for No. 2 or better which amounts to about $1.70 per cwt. If local market prices are below the loan, producers can well afford to get a loan on their eligible grain sorghums. Applications for loans may be made at the office of the county agricultural conservation association between now and February 28, 1945.

Hog Ceiling Prices Remain Unchanged

The Office of Price Administration and the War Food Administration with the approval of the director of Economic Stabilization announced that the ceiling prices on live hogs will not be reduced from present levels prior to June 30, 1945.

Ceiling prices are $14.75 per hundredweight, Chicago basis, for hogs weighing 240 pounds or less and $14.00 per hundredweight, Chicago basis, for hogs weighing more than 240 pounds.

The WFA also stated that the support price of $12.50 per cwt., Chicago basis, for good to choice butcher hogs weighing 200 to 240 pounds, which becomes effective on Oct. 1, 1944, as heretofore announced for the period ending March 31, 1945, will be continued until June 30, 1945.

Mrs. Jack Aldrich has returned to her home in Los Angeles after visiting her sister, Mrs. R. S. Bradley and family.

One result of Phillips laboratory and pilot-plant research is this section of a Phillips Refinery, now devoted to war production.

MOLECULES TAKE THE HURDLES ON PHILLIPS NEW "PROVING GROUNDS"

Most buried in a recent Phillips Petroleum Company report was this simple statement: "The Company has completed additional research laboratory which is one of the largest in the industry."

Every patriotic citizen interested in our products, and particularly excited by the thought of our nation's finest product—complete and final victory over the Axis—deserves to be understood and spotlighted.

The new research laboratory at Phillips, more than doubles Phillips existing research facilities. Judging from the previous long list of achievements of the research and technical staff, it is obvious that this enlargement will mean new weapons for the war effort, significant improvement in old ones, and vastly better post-war lubricants for car owners.

The laboratory originally meant "the work of a chemist." But the new Phillips laboratory is much more than that. It is a series of experimental, pilot (small-scale) plants; processes, and full-scale manufacturing plants.

And these are the workroom, not of a chemist, but of literally hundreds of technically trained enthusiasts, whose ranks represent graduate degrees from 142 universities.

Devoted to science, both pure and applied, these experts are engaged in the never-ending study, test, and analysis, which has made Phillips a leader in extending the frontiers of knowledge concerning hydrocarbon chemistry. Always they are seeking new and better ways to make new and better things from petroleum gases as well as from petroleum: 100-plus octane aviation gasoline; synthetic rubber; explosives; plastics; and an almost limitless list of other synthetic chemicals.

No wonder the Phillips 66 Shield reminds so many people that Phillips refineries, in addition to producing gasolines, lubricants, and fuel oils, are also gigantic chemical plants, pouring out weapons for victory.

NEWS

From County Men in the Armed Forces

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carter received the following letter from their son Pfc. James C. Carter who is stationed somewhere in New Guinea.

Belgium
September 12

Dear Mr. Wells:

Dearest Father:

How are things in good old Memphis by this time? Fine, I'm hoping. As for myself, I'm OK. As you know, I'm over here in New Guinea at the present time. It gets so hot here that one can light his cigarettes, or even cigars, with a glass and the sun rays, that is, if the glass doesn't melt. As for the chow, we have plenty of it. As for the wine, women and song, we have plenty of songs, but the wine and women are as scarce as hen's teeth. There are a few W A Cs in the vicinity of a hundred miles. Some place! Anyway, I'm no woman's man, but the one that's all the world and half of heaven to me, my darling wife.

Oh yes, I'm trying to collect a few keep sakes for my old age and believe me it won't be far distant. Anyone gets gray hair, plenty fast, overseas. Of course there is not very much to get gray about, or is there?

Well, the reptiles aren't so bad as one good thing. Not one snake have I seen overseas. What a pity. But get a whiff of this: the ants hold prayer meeting or B Y P U every night on my bunk and are to the best of my knowledge, very well pleased with the congregation for they always come back for more and praise the Lord it's not sugar this time either.

Oh yes, do this for me: This song we Texans all love, "Beautiful Texas," please for my sake, father, put it in a gold frame, where it belongs, and when you look at those stars in the window, just say this, "Wall Pfc. James E. (Gold Brick) Carter, my lad and Set, Charlie Carter, me lad myself and your mother said there would be day's like this but for the love of Mike, not so damn many in a row."

Well, father, how is the election coming this year? Who do you think will win the world series? Who do you think will win the war? You said it, the Yank's will.

Father are you tired of this nonsense I'm writing? If so, I'll call a taxi and go to the show, if we had a show.

Father, one more thing. You fine American people at home, make the good's and keep on buying more War Bonds and your sons of freedom will deliver the goods.

JAMES E. CARTER.

How are you and all the people of Hall County? I am just fine, have been receiving The Democrat regularly and I certainly do enjoy it.

Mr. Wells, we have a paper known as the Stars and Stripes that we get very often. In it I read that General Hershey plans to keep the G I in the army until jobs can be found for us. Now I know that the most of the home folks don't like his idea and I certainly don't. I have seen the people of France and Belgium and they are plenty happy that we liberated them. It looks like we will need some one to liberate us from the statement General Hershey made. If there is anything you can do to help us, please do so.

As soon as this war is over with Germany, I want to come home. So if the home folks will put the pressure in the right spot I am sure it will help.

Suppose the farmers are picking cotton now. This part of Belgium raises wheat and sugar beets. A lot of coal and iron. I like Belgium much better than England or France. The people of Belgium are much nicer to us and seem to appreciate what we have done for them much more than France did.

Well, I will close. Hope this finds you and all the folks well and happy. Very truly yours,

Pvt. O. B. (Taters) THOMAS
P. S.—I think the war will be over with Germany by October 8.

They certainly are taking a beating now.

MOOS OF THE MOMENT

BY UNCLE BOB

of the Kraft Dairy Farm Service

How much milk a cow will produce during a year depends greatly on the condition of the cow at freshening time, the extension services say. Cows which have been built up in weight during their dry period and which are properly cared for in the first few weeks after calving will be in better condition to deliver maximum milk during the rest of the year.

There are certain standard recommendations as to handling fresh cows, which are generally agreed upon by dairy specialists of the extension services. The need for building up the weight of the cow 150 to 200 pounds during her dry time has been discussed in this column.

A few days before calving, the cow should be separated from the rest of the herd and placed in clean, comfortable surroundings. In winter, the cow should be sheltered from cold drafts and should have lukewarm water for drinking.

Feeding should be light in the few days before calving, with bran mash, a limited amount of silage and good legume hay suggested. A mixture of three parts ground oats, two parts wheat bran and one part linseed meal is recommended after two or three days, to take the place of the bran mash.

Too rapid increase in feeding after calving may cause indigestion or bloat. In four or five days, if the cow is doing well, up to five pounds of grain may be fed daily, this quantity increased one pound each two or three days thereafter until maximum milk production is reached.

The extension services also say not to milk the cow thoroughly, but to draw only a small quantity of milk from each quarter during the first three days after calving. This will help prevent milk fever.

For detailed suggestions on handling the freshening cow, I suggest you write the USDA at Washington, D. C., and ask for Farmers' Bulletin No. 1470, which is free, and also the Extension Service at the University of Minnesota, St. Paul, Minnesota, for Bulletin 218.

Maybe the reason we have so many more crossing accidents now than in the horse-and-buggy days is because in those days the driver did not have to depend so much on his own intelligence.

You know Mark Twain's remark that "everyone talks about the weather, but nobody does anything about it." Seems to me I'm getting so I talk just as much about pastures, but the difference is that a good pasture is an item you can do something about.

In many places, they call a good pasture a "mortgage lifter." It is one of the most important parts of a sound dairy program.

It may not be too late yet to get lime, superphosphate and other fertilizers on your pasture, for that needed fall application. Scattering of barnyard manure with a chain harrow is a good suggestion from the extension services for this time of year also.

One of the important things to guard against right now is pasturing too late in the fall. You can do a lot of damage to pastures by keeping your herd on the grass in late fall. It should be permitted to recover from summer and early fall grazing, so as to withstand cold weather.

Farmers' Bulletin 1942, by the USDA, Washington, D. C., recommends removing the herd from a pasture while the grass still has at least three inches of top growth. This allows the grass to store up root reserves, and will give you better grass, both tops and root, next spring. This bulletin is entirely on "good pastures" and is worth writing for.

One of those skeptical Scotsmen was riding with a friend on a train. They passed a field of sheep and the friend remarked, "All those sheep have just been sheared." "On this side anyway," said the Scot.

Frozen milk may be all right when it comes in the form of ice cream, but it is a dead loss in most other cases. It is still important in winter time to cool milk down to about 50 degrees after milking, but care must be taken to prevent much lower temperatures.

While waiting for the pick-up truck, cans should not be left out of doors unprotected when there is danger of a sharp freeze. Loss from freezing is a dollar waster which can be avoided with but little trouble.

The best thing to do is keep the cans under cover, in the milk house, in a shed or some other protected place until pick-up time. This is something which will begin to be a problem in a short time now so it might be a good idea to check up and see whether you have a proper place to handle the cans.

NOTE: There usually is a 5c charge for pamphlets mailed to non-residents of a state, but possibly your own state has a free pamphlet on the same subject. Ask your county agent.

WALTER WHITE, Mgr.

It's no cinch, cinch, cinch to make a pinch, pinch, pinch

The "heavy foot" has been replaced by great headwork in Wartime driving. And that's a great hint for the future.

"Scorchers" are rare. The cops have to look thrice—and even then what they mostly see is skilled, ticket-proof driving that earns their respect. For as experts they know that's really how to get there, without taking it out on your car. You too, knew it all the time, but war "alerted" you to it—and you're staying alert. Now be still more alert to the perils of engine acids. Those can be curbed by one brainy move...by having your engine OIL-PLATED.

Changing to Conoco Nth motor oil—at popular price—is all it takes to own an OIL-PLATED engine. One special characteristic of OIL-PLATING is the acid-resistance that costly pioneer research developed. This acid-fighter—OIL-PLATING—becomes surfaced to your engine's fine inner finish as closely as chromium plating could be. That's made possible by Conoco Nth oil's special ingredient whose magnet-like nature holds OIL-PLATING direct to metals—square in the path of the acids always created by every engine explosion. Contact between acids and metals is checked. Then so is corrosion.

And now here looms the season of low engine temperatures—unable to clear out acids sufficiently. So now they could do their worst—but not with your engine OIL-PLATED by patented Conoco Nth motor oil. Change at Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station. Today. Continental Oil Company

A Coupons Now Worth 4 Gallons

In the old "A" books eight coupons, each worth three gallons, were validated each three months. In the new books six coupons each worth four gallons, will be validated each three months. But the amount of gasoline allowed is still the same.

We have the tires proven by 3 BILLION MILES B. F. Goodrich all-synthetic Silvertowns

IF ANYONE still has doubts about tires built with man-made rubber, here's clear-cut performance proof: by the most conservative estimate, essential drivers have already rolled over 3 billion miles on B. F. Goodrich all-synthetic Silvertowns.

Letters have come in from drivers all over the country reporting complete satisfaction. Most of them have expressed confidence that all-synthetic Silvertowns will give at least as much mileage as pre-war tires.

The 80,000,000-mile road test was the first proof that B. F. Goodrich could build high-performance tires with synthetic rubber. The test started almost two years before Pearl Harbor when B. F. Goodrich sold tires in which more than half the rubber was synthetic. They were the first

McElreath reeled off a couple of sensational runs. Smith, Hanvey and Sanderson showed up to their usual back-field form, Hanvey's blocking being excellent.
As in past games, the Cyclone line was holding like a stone wall.
Ballew, Montingo, Blum, McMil-turned in jam-up performances.

The broken field running by Smith, Sanderson and McElreath, outstanding as it has been this season, as on all good ball teams is dependent on the play of the line—and Memphis this week is depending a lot on the Cyclone line to corral the Irishmen.

Lack of Official Help and Red Tape Block Bus Route

Preliminary plans for a proposed bus line from Hollis thru Memphis to Clovis have been halted for the time being and the outlook for the service to be established any time soon is not encouraging, according to information which has been received by Hollis Boren, who was named chairman of a group which met in Silverton about a month ago and started work on the project.

Lack of co-operative attitude on the part of the Texas Railroad Commission and the governmental red tape involved because the route would touch the states of New Mexico and Oklahoma have thrown "cold water" on the deal, it was declared.

Austin attorneys have advised Mr. Boren and associates that several hearings before the Railroad commission, the Office of Defense Transportation and the Interstate Commerce Commission might be necessary before a permit would be granted, and that the Santa Fe railroad in all probability would oppose the new route.

They said the people of the towns along the proposed route might show adequate need for the service, but that the ODT would be slow in granting authority for equipment and gasoline despite such a need.

Mr. Boren will advise the committees of the other towns and it is possible that another meeting will be held in the near future to decide on what is to be done.

In just 10 minutes they'll need your help

Back home, the headlines read—60 U. S. Planes Lost.

The full news account may mention that 600 airmen were shot down with them. But nowhere will you find mention about how many of those men landed alive and are now in enemy prison camps. There is no way of knowing.

Actually, about 60 per cent of all American airmen shot down over enemy territory survive—as prisoners of war.

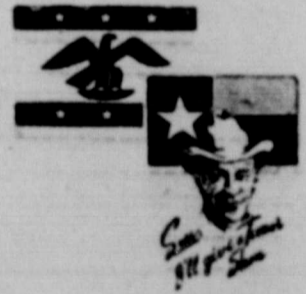

Some prison camps are devoted exclusively to airmen. But these camps are little different from the others. In all, the men behind the barbed wire live the same empty life. There is nothing to do but wait—wait—and try to hold on to your sanity while you wait.

That's why War Prisoners' Aid was formed. It provides the wherewithal to buy for prisoners of war the things that will help them hold on to their sanity during those empty days of waiting. Books, Games, Athletic equipment. Make-up kits for amateur theatricals. Musical instruments.

It takes money to buy these things. More and more money as more and more of our men wind up in prison camps. The only way War Prisoners' Aid can get that money is through your contribution to your local community drive. Your gift is also shared by war refugees, the U.S.O., Merchant Seamen, and war sufferers all over the world. Give once for all of these.

Kidneys Must Work Well-

For You To Feel Well
24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.

If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.

Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at night, swelling.

Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulates the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

Betty Crocker

SNOWFLAKE CAKE
by the new Betty Crocker method

Make sure all ingredients are at room temperature. Shortening should be soft, not melted. Pre-heat oven to 350°. (Correct temperature is important in all cake baking!) Grease and flour two 8" round layer pans. Sift GOLD MEDAL FLOUR before measuring. Measure ingredients before starting to mix.

Sift together into bowl: 2 1/2 cups sifted GOLD MEDAL "Kitchen-tested" Enriched Flour (2 cups plus 2 tbsp.); 4 or 4 1/4 or 5 tsp. baking powder; 1 tsp. salt; 1 1/2 cups sugar.

Add: 1/2 cup high grade vegetable shortening; 1 cup skimmed milk; 1 tsp. flavoring.

Beat vigorously with spoon (up and over motion) or mix with electric mixer on slow to medium speed for exactly two minutes by the clock. Scrape bowl frequently. You can rest a moment when beating by hand. Just count actual beating time.

Add: 1/2 to 3/4 cup egg whites (4 large), unbeaten.

Continue beating 2 more minutes (scraping bowl frequently). Pour into prepared pans. Bake 30 to 35 minutes in moderate oven (350°). Cool layers. Ice with favorite icing.

Use 4 tsp. double-action type (Clabber Girl, Calumet, Davis, KC, etc.); 4 1/2 tsp. phosphate type (Rumford, Dr. Price's, etc.); 5 tsp. tartaric type.

See ensuing folders in Gold Medal sacks for other new-method recipes.

WARNING! Flours vary. Use this recipe only with Gold Medal "Kitchen-tested" Flour. Gold Medal is unchanged. It acts as it always did with your other recipes. But don't try to adapt this new method to an old-method recipe.

TWO SETS OF DEMOCRATIC ELECTORS ON BALLOT—A CLEAR-CUT ISSUE FACES PEOPLE OF TEXAS

The presidential election in Texas is confusing to some voters. There are two sets of democratic electors on the general election ballot—but the major issue between them is clear cut. One group, pledged to a fourth term for President Roosevelt, approves the party's Chicago platform, with its racial equality plank; and has accepted the shifting of the party control from the true Democrats of the nation to the CIO political action committee, the Communist leader Earl Browder, the negro groups and the graft-ridden machines of Chicago, Jersey City and the Bronx. The names of this group of electors appear on the ballot as "Democrats."

The other group are Democrats, too, but their names will appear on the ballot as "Texas Regulars." They are the democrats of Texas who would not agree to the anti-Southern, pro-negro, and CIO dominated platform adopted at Chicago; they demanded at Chicago that the democratic party adhere to its long-established principles; that the negro question be left to the states, that the democratic party in Southern states be permitted to conduct its own free and white primaries, that our constitutional form of government be saved from subversive forces within the party, and who refused to sit idly by and see foreign born Sidney Hillman of the CIO and Communist Earl Browder take over the party and become the ring-masters of the administration.

And, so the issue between the two sets of electors is clear cut. The people of Texas now have the opportunity to make their choice. And, in so doing they will not have to desert the party. The question as to what kind of democracy and what kind of a democratic party the people of Texas want can be answered in an open and above-board manner on November 7. The war does not enter into the question; it is an issue of freedom versus brass collar control in the party, an issue that will affect our individual and collective welfare for generations to come.

THE WAR ISN'T OVER—THE UNITED WAR CHEST DESERVES YOUR LIBERAL SUPPORT NOW

The campaign in behalf of the United War Chest will open on a nation-wide scale on October 10. It is the medium through which the home front gives aid and comfort to the men in the training camps and on the front lines, through which help is extended to the families of men in service and which affords relief to the peoples of our valiant allied countries.

FOLKS in Uniform

"Do you suppose that American Indian division is using a secret weapon?"

In many respects the needs for supporting the United War Chest is greater than in previous years. The end of the war in Europe may be in sight but that does not mean that our men in the enemy prison camps will be free at an early date; nor does it mean that there will be any demobilization on a wholesale basis. There are more men in enemy prison camps every day—and they'll probably be there for months and months. The exchange of prisoners is a slow cumbersome affair. Much of our army will remain overseas among the forces of occupation. To all of these the United War Chest is the avenue which supplies articles of aid and recreation to prisoners, recreation and a touch of home, such as the USO, to our men in uniform the world over. The Polish, Greek and other relief agencies also receive their share; the home-front agencies which deal with welfare and social problems of our youth, are participants in the United War Chest.

Hall County's quota is $5,374. Committees named by Chairman Carl Harrison are made up of busy men and women. It should not be necessary to stage a prolonged, drawn out campaign. You'll help, won't you?

Press Paragraphs

SELECTED FROM THE DEMOCRAT'S EXCHANGE

James A. Ferguson

For thirty years Texas has been known as the state that did the unexpected things in a political way. Election of James E. Ferguson as governor in 1914 was the beginning of three decades of unpredictable political events in Texas.

Ferguson, who was elected governor of Texas twice, died September 21 in Austin following a stroke of several months ago. His impeachment in 1917 brought about the growth of "Fergusonism," which was an important factor in Texas for 20 years thereafter.

Barred from running for governor himself, his wife, Mrs. Miriam A. (Ma) Ferguson, ran five times and was elected in 1924 and in 1932. She was elected in 1924 on the anti-Klan issue and defeated by Ross Sterling in 1932. Sterling's defeat was largely a protest against hard times.

Although Ferguson was an intelligent and shrewd man, his tendency to bring about bloc voting through the nucleus of votes centered around himself, was not wholesome for Texas. Texas would have been far better off without the Ferguson era of 25 years.

The Herald editor happened to be in Dallas in 1940 when Mrs. Ferguson opened her final race for governor. Farmer Jim was just a shell of the platform power, which caused partisans in other days to interrupt his speeches with "Pour it on 'em Jim."

Much of the success of Mrs. Ferguson's first administration may be attributed to the excellent leadership of a former Panhandle editor, Lee Satterwhie, who was speaker of the house for the legislature in 1925. — Panhandle Herald.

as a Democrat, but votes with the Republicans on national affairs. He hates Roosevelt and his economic planning. In 1940, McDonald bolted the ticket and supported Willkie. Now he is for Dewey, and is working openly for Dewey. He makes no bones of his political stand, and defies the Democrats of Texas to do their worst. The fact that he always wins renomination without the necessity of a run-off indicates that either the Democrats of Texas like his administration, or are not displeased with his independence of political thought in regard to national affairs. Maybe Texas would be better off if there were more independent thinkers in the state. Our Governor defied the national administration on its bureaucratic set-up in Texas. As a result he was invited to Washington to talk things over with the President. — Canyon News.

Cpl. Weddel Died From Shell Fired By Own Forces

Details concerning the death of Cpl. Orvil R. Weddel, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Weddel of the Deep Lake community, have been received in a letter from his commanding officer, Capt. J. J. Howell of the 112th Cavalry.

Cpl. Weddel lost his life in the New Guinea campaign on July 16.

The letter from Capt. Howell was as follows:

My Dear Mr. and Mrs. Weddel: Your sorrow in the loss of your son Cpl. Orvil R. Weddel, Troop G, 112th Cavalry is shared by the officers and men of Troop G.

Your son was an excellent soldier and fulfilled all duties assigned him in a military manner. It is soldiers of this type that makes the powerful war machine developed by the United States.

On the morning of July 16, 1944 we were in a defensive position with orders to hold at all cost. A short round of 105MM artillery landed within 30 yards of Cpl. Weddel killing him instantly.

Cpl. Weddel's body was lain to rest in a United States Armed Forces Cemetery. Due to the tactical situation it was impossible for him to be buried with the proper military honors.

Cpl. Weddel was very close to me because of mutual civilian friends and acquaintances. We came into the army at the same time. He was one of my squad leaders when I first came to the regiment as an officer.
